A Reception, or Clothing.

THE Lady who is to take the religious habit, having made the usual preparation, will communicate, on the morning fixed for her Reception, immediately after the Superioress. The holy Communion, on her account, will, on that day, be generally received.

On the eve, or morning of the Reception day, the Sacristan will prepare the Linen, and inside dress of the Postulant, that they may be blessed at a convenient hour.

In the Choir, close to the grate, will be spread a grey serge Carpet, sufficiently long and wide for three or four persons to prostrate thereon, with their arms extended in the form of a Cross. The Postulant's robe, belt, mantle, veil, and domino, will be placed on a small bench on a level with the grate, and one of the Altar Candlesticks will be left there for her Candle.

The Sacristan will also take care to provide in the front Choir, Candles for the Community, and the Cross for the Procession.

The Postulant's guimpe, handean, &c. &c. will be left in the Chapter, that there may be no delay when she leaves the Choir, to change her dress. A veil will be negligently thrown on her head when she returns to the Choir.

Marie

CEREMONY OF RECEPTION, OR CLOTHING.

ALL the Nuns being assembled in the front Choir, clad in their Choir mantles, each bearing in her hand a lighted taper, the Lady who is to take the habit places herself between the Superiorress and her assistant, and kneels to ask the blessing of the Superiorress, and the religious name which she intends to bear henceforth. Meanwhile the Sacristan opens the Choir grate, and returns to the Choir. The Superiorress then gives the signal and immediately the Chauntress commences the Hymn O Gloriosa Virginum, which all continue. At the same time the Cross-bearer and the Versiculars enter the Choir, after them the Novices, and professed Nuns in rank, two and two, making a genuflection in the middle of the Choir, and ranging themselves in the back seats; the elders near the grate. The Cross-bearer with the Versiculars having approached the grate, remain there about the length of an Ave Maria, she then places the Cross on the step of the grate, and all three retire to their places. The Superiorress enters last, holding the right hand of the Postulant, who is accompanied on the other side by the Mother-Assistant. When they approach the grate the Postulant makes a low courtesy before the blessed Sacrament, and kneels with her hands joined.

HYMNUS.

O Gloriōsa Vir-
ginum, Sublimis inter sidera,
Qui te creāvit párvu-
lum, Lactente nutris úteria.

HYMN.

O Mary ! whilst thy Maker blést,
Is nourished at thy Virgin's breast,
Such glory shines, that
stars less bright, Behold thy face, and
lose their light.

Quod Eva tristis ab-
stulit,
Tu reddis almo ger-
mine :
Intrent ut astra flébi-
les,
Cæl reclúdis cárddines.

The loss that man in Eve deplores, Thy fruitful womb in Christ restores,
And makes the way
to heaven free,
For them that mourn,
To follow thee.

Tu Regis asti januā,
Et aula lucis fulgida : Vitam datam per Vir-
ginem, Gentes redémpta plau-
dite.

By thee the heavenly
gates display,
And shew the light of
endless day :
Sing ransom'd nations,
sing and own
Your ransom was a Virgin's son.

Jesu, tibi sit glória, Qui natus es de Vír-
gine,

May age to age for ever sing,
The Virgin's son and Angels' king ;

Cum Patre, et almo Spíritu,
In sempiterna sæcula.
Amen.

And praise with the
celestial host,
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

If this Hymn do not suffice during the entrance of the Nuns, the two middle verses will be repeated; the last is not to be sung, until they are all in their places, that they may bow while it is repeating.

V. Ora pro ea sancta Dei génetrix. (Paschal time Alleluia)
R. Ut digna efficiátur promissiónibus
Christi. (Alle.)

V. Pray for her, O
holy Mother of God.
R. That she may be made worthy of the
promises of Christ.

For a plural number.

V. Ora pro-eis sancta Dei génetrix.
R. Ut dignæ effici-ántur promissiónibus Christi.

V. Pray for them, O
holy Mother of God.
R. That they may be made worthy of the
promises of Christ.

The Celebrant being come to the Altar with his assistants, says the following prayers, during which the Choir turns towards the grate.

OREMUS.

LET US PRAY.

R. Amen.

O GOD, who hast
wonderfully raised up
in thy church, under the patronage of the glorious Virgin Mary, Mother of thy only begotten Son, the humble order which thou
hast chosen, merci-
fully grant that as we devoutly honour her
memory on earth, we may deserve to be strengthened by her
assistance here, and to enjoy everlasting happiness hereafter, thro'
the same Jesus Christ
our Lord. Amen.

The prayer being finished, the Celebrant blesses the Candle which is prepared on the Altar, saying:

V. Adjutorium nostrum in nōmine Dómini

R. Qui fecit cælum & terram.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made the heavens and the earth.

LET US PRAY.

O Lord Jesus Christ,
son of the living God,
we humbly beseech
thee, bless ✕ this Candle (or these Candles) infuse into it (or into them) by the virtue of thy holy ✕ cross,
thy heavenly benediction, who hast granted
it to mankind to dispel darkness, and may it
receive such a blessing
by the sign of the holy ✕ cross, that in whatever places it (or they) shall be lighted
or placed, the princes
of darkness, with all their powers, may depart, and tremble, and
fly dismayed from those habitations, and never more presume to trouble those who serve thee almighty God, who livest and reignest with

Patre in unitate Spíritus Sancti Deus. Per ómnia sæcula sæculórum.

R. Amen.

God the Father, in the unity of the holy Ghost, one God, world without end. R. Amen.

The Celebrant then incenses the Candle, and sprinkles it with Holy Water, after which he approaches the grate with his assistants, and presents it lighting to the Postulant, who receives it kneeling on the step of the grate, where she remains until the following prayer is ended by Amen.

Accipe filia charísima, lumen corporále, in signum lúminis intéríoris, ad repelléndas omnes tenebras ignorátiæ, vel erróriis; ut lúmine divinæ sapiéntiæ illustráta, cum fervóre Sancti Spíritus, Jesu Christi Ecclésiæ sponsi, æténum consórтиum mereáris. Qui vivit & regnat cum Deo Patre in unitate ejúsdem Spíritus Sancti Deus. Per ómnia sæcula sæculórum,

R. Amen.

Receive, dearly beloved daughter, this corporal light, as an emblem of the inward light, to dispel all the darkness of ignorance or error: that being illuminated with the light of divine wisdom, with the fervour of the holy Ghost, thou mayest deserve to be eternally united with Jesus Christ, the spouse of the church, who liveth and reigneth with God the Father, in the unity of God the holy Ghost, world without end. R. Amen.

The Sermon follows, during which the Nuns and the Postulant sit down. (1)

After the Sermon the Superioreess raises the Postulant from her seat, and, with the Assistant, conducts her to the grate, where the Celebrant proposes the following questions, during which the Choir turns to the Altar.

My Child, What do you demand?

The mercy of God, the holy habit of religion, the charity of the order, and the society of the Mothers and Sisters.

Is it with your free will and consent you demand the habit of religion?

Yes, my Rev. Father, (My Lord, in case a Bishop officiates.)

Turning to the Superioreess, he says, Rev. Mother have you inquired into the other points necessary to be known for those who enter into religion, and are you fully satisfied?

Yes, Rev. Father.

My dear Child, have you a firm intention to persevere in religion to the end of your life, and do you think you have sufficient strength to bear constantly the sweet yoke of our Lord Jesus Christ, for the love and fear of God alone?

Relying on the mercy of God, and on the prayers of the Mothers and Sisters, I hope to be able to do so.

Then making a courtesy she kneels down.

(1) If there be no Sermon, the Celebrant may give a short exhortation to the Postulant.

The Celebrant rising, says,

Quod Deus in te incœpit, ipse perficiat.

R. Amen.

The Celebrant: Ex-
uat te Dóminus vête-
rem hóminem cum ác-
tibus suis.

Amen.

What God has commenced in you, may
he himself perfect.

The Postulant re-
pplies, Amen.

May the Lord banish
from you the old man
with his works.

The Postulant Amen.

She then rises, courtesys to the Celebrant, and retires, accompanied by the Superiorress, the Assistant and others if necessary, to the place appointed to change her secular dress for the religious habit. Her hair is not to be cut off until her profession.

Immediately the Chauntress entones the Psalm, In exitu Israel, which the Choirs sing alternately.

PSEAUME 113.

In exitu Israël de Ægypto : * domus
Jacob de populo bár-
baro.

Facta est Iudea
sanctificatio ejus : *
Israël potestas ejus.

Mare vidit, & fugit :
 Jordánis convérsus
est retrórsum.

PSALM 113.

When Israel went out of Egypt; the house of Jacob from a barbarous people.

Judea was made his sanctuary, Israel his dominion.

The sea saw, and fled : Jordan was turned back.

Montes exultáverunt
ut aríetes : * & colles
sicut agni óvium.

Quid est tibi mare,
quod fugisti : * & tu Jordánis, quia con-
vérsum es retrórsum ?

Montes exultástis si-
cuit aríetes : * & colles
sicut agni óvium.

A fácie Dómini mota
est terra : * à fácie Dei Jacob.

Qui convértit petram
in stagna aquárum : * & rupem in fontes
aquárum.

Non nobis, Dómine,
non nobis : * sed nó-
mini tuo da glóriam.

Super misericórdia
tua, & veritate tua : *
nequándo dicant Gen-
tes ; Ubi est Deus
eórum ?

Deus autem noster
in cœlo : * ómnia quæ-
cúmque voluit, fecit.

The mountains skipped like rams, and the hills like the lambs of the flock.

What ailed thee, O
thou sea, that thou
didst flee : and thou, O Jordas, that thou
wast turned back ?

Ye mountains, that
ye skipped like rams,
and ye hills, like lambs
of the flock ?

At the presence of the Lord the earth was moved, at the presence of the God of Jacob.

Who turned the rock
into pools of water,
and the stony hill into fountains of water.

Not to us, O Lord,
not to us : but to thy name give glory.

For thy mercy, and
for thy truth's sake :
lest the Gentiles should say, Where is their God ?

But our God is in heaven : he hath done
all things whatsoever
he would.

Glória Patri, &c.

The Lord hath been mindful of us, and hath blessed us.

He hath blessed the house of Israel; he hath blessed the house of Aaron.

He hath blessed all that fear the Lord, both little and great.

May the Lord add blessings upon you: upon you and upon your children.

Blessed be you of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

The heaven of heavens is the Lord's: but the earth he has given to the children of men.

The dead shall not praise thee, O Lord: nor any of them that go down to hell.

But we that live bless the Lord; from this time, now, and for ever.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

If this Psalm be concluded before the return of the Postulant, Consérvame. Ps. 15. Quám dilecta, Ps. 83. Lætatus sum in his, or any of the other gradual Psalms may be added.

After the Postulant leaves the Choir, the bench upon which her robe and outside dress had been previously placed, is brought by the Sacristan to the grate, that they may be blessed by the Celebrant, in a low voice, as follows.

LET US PRAY.

O God, Father of
tenderness and mercy,
who tempering the severity of thy judgment,
hast granted that the son should not suffer
for the offence of the father, and who by a wonderful dispensation
making a good use of the bad, frequently
bestowest the grace of thy favor by the ministry of sinners, we beseech thy great clemency that it may not be detrimental to thy servant (or servants)
here, that she receives this day the habit of the holy order dedicated to the honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary,

O Lord Jesus Christ,
only-begotten of the eternal Father, who
vouchsafedst to assume the veit of our mortality in the womb of the blessed and immaculate Virgin Mary, and by the mystery of thy incarnation to renew the world grown old in sin: We humbly im-
plore thee that by the intercession of the Virgin Mary, thy mother,
thy servant here being renewed in spirit, may put off the old man
with all his acts, and deserve to put on the new man who was cre-

BET US PRAY.

O Holy Spirit, who
hast vouchsafed to reveal thyself God and Lord to mortals, we entreat the boundless
favor of thy goodness,
that as thou breathest
where it pleaseth thee,
so mayest thou grant
to this thy servant
(or servants) the spirit of devotion, by the intercession of the most
blessed Virgin Mary,
to whom particularly
she hath resolved to be a devoted servant
in holy religion, thou
mayest truly convert
her from the vanity
of the world, and fill
her with so ardent a

zeal for the observance of this holy purpose,
that by a righteous
and godly life in unfeigned humility, obedience, chastity, resignation of property,
and charity towards female youth, with a firm perseverance in fraternal love, she may be enabled to arrive happily at the consummation of this holy purpose, which
mayest thou vouchsafe
to grant, who with the Father and Son livest
and reignest one God
world without end.

R. Amen.

At the conclusion of these prayers the Superiorress raises the Novice, who after making a genuflection to the blessed Sacrament turns towards the Reverend Mother. The Assistant presents the Cincture with the rest of her dress, to the Superiorress, who puts on the Cincture, while the Celebrant repeats the following. The Choir remains all the time turned towards the Altar.

Cum esses júnior
cingébas te, & ambu-
lásbas ubi volébas: cùm autem senúeris, álius
te cinget: In nómine Patris  & Fílii, &
Spíritus sancti.

When thou wast
younger, then didst
gird thyself, and didst walk where thou
wouldst: but when
thou shall be old,
another shall gird thee.
In the name of the Father,  and of the Son,  and of the Holy Ghost.

His Assistant replies, Amen.

After receiving the cincture the Novice kneels, and the Superiorress gives her the blessed veil; the Assistant withdraws the other, and the Celebrant says,

Accipe velum cándi-
dum signum intérnæ
puritatis, ut sequáris Agnum sine mácula, & ámbules cum eo in albis. In nómine Fa-tris,  & Fílii, & Spíritus sancti.

Receive the white
veil, the emblem of inward purity, that thou mayest follow
the lamb without stain
and mayest walk with him in white. In the name of the Father,
 and of the Son,  and of the Holy Ghost.

His Assistant replies, Amen.

The Novice then rises, and the Superioreess puts on her cloak or mantle, while the Celebrant says,

Reddat tibi Dóminus stolam immortalitatis, quam perdidisti in prævaricatione primi parentis : In nomine Patris,  & Filii, & Spíritus sancti.

May the Lord restore to thee the robe of immortality, which thou didst lose in the prevarication of thy first Parent. In the name of the Father,  and of the Son,  and of the Holy Ghost.

His Assistant replies, Amen.

The Novice being thus clothed, makes first a bow to the Superioreess, then a genuflection to the blessed Sacrament, and afterwards places herself on her knees. The Assistant hands her her wax Candle, and the Celebrant sprinkles her with holy Water through the Choir-grate, saying aloud, with his hands extended over her,

V. Dóminus vobis. V. The Lord be with you.

R. Et cum spíritu tuo. R. And with thy spirit.

The Chauntress turning towards the Altar continues the responsary. Regnum mundi: which the Choirs, facing each other, continue.

LET US PRAY.

Attend, O Lord, to
our supplications, and vouchsafe to bless ✠
this thy servant, whom in thy holy name we have arrayed in the habit of this holy order, and grant that
by thy bounty she may devoutly perse-

and merit eternal life, through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

seen, whom I have
loved, in whom I have
believed, and towards
whom my heart in-
clineth.

When the foregoing responsary is commenced by the Chauntress the Assistant raises the Novice who retires a few paces from the grate and sings,

V. Eructávit cor
meum verbum bonum:

V. My heart hath
uttered a good word.
I speak my works to the king.

The Choir repeats

R. Quem vidi, quem

didi, quem diléxi.

R. Whom I have seen, whom I have
loved, in whom I have
believed, and towards
whom my heart in-
clineth.

The Novice.

V. Elégi abjécta

mei Jesu Christi.

V. I have chosen
to be an abject in the house of my Lord Jesus Christ.

The Choir,

R. Quem vidi, &c. R. Whom I have seen, &c.

The Novice then making a profound inclination repeats the Versicle.

Glória Patri, & Fílio, & Spíritui Sancto. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

The Choir,

R. Quem vidi, quem amávi, in quem cré-didi, quem diléxi. R. Whom I have seen, whom I have loved, in whom I have believed, and towards whom my heart inclineth.

The Novice's Candle is then taken from her, nor is it returned 'till after she has embraced the Nuns. The Celebrant then kneels, and entones the Hymn Veni Creator Spíritus, which the Choirs continue alternately, kneeling also. The Novice meanwhile prostrates with her arms extended in form of a cross, and remains so during the following suffrages and prayers.

HYMNUS.

HYMN.

Come plastic Spirit,
come! descend!
Visit the souls of thine:
With heavenly grace
correct, amend,
And influence benign.

Thou Paraclete, so
truly styl'd;
Thou gift of the most High;
Fountain of life, fire,
sweetness mild,
And unction's moving
sigh.

The seven-fold meed
to mortals sent,
Finger of God's right
hand,
Truth in each language
eloquent,
Resounds at thy command.

Light up in us this
sacred fire,
Reanimate our heart;
Cherish, support, direct, inspire,
And thy whole self
impart.

Amen.

With pow'r resistless
now repel
Our soul's infernal foe; Guide us secure from
death and hell,
Thy peace, thy love
bestow.

Give us the Father
here to know,
Give us to know the Son,
And thee the Spirit of the two,
May we at all times
own.

To God the Father
glory be,
And Son, who from
the dead
Arose in immortality,
The Holy Ghost to
shed. Amen.

*When these prayers are finished, the Celebrant sprinkles the Novice with holy water.
The Assistant then raises her; makes a genuflection with her to the blessed Sacrament, and afterwards conducts her to the Superi-ores, where the Novice kneels to salute the reverend Mother, who immediately raises and cordially embraces her: she afterwards embraces the rest of the Nuns one after another, commencing by the elders on the right side, then on the left.*

s 2

In crossing the Choir she makes a genuflection to the blessed Sacrament, and a little inclination before and after embracing each Nun. She finishes by the Mother-Assistant, who brings her back to the grate, where she again kneels, holding her candle.

While the forementioned ceremony is going forward, that is, as soon as the Novice salutes the Superiorress, the Chantresses entone the psalm Ecce quām bonum, which is sung by the Choir, facing each other.

Et quām jucūndum
habitare fratres in
unum.

Behold, how good
and how pleasant it is
for brethren to dwell
together in unity.

The Chantresses,

Sicut unguéntum in
cápite: quod descéndit
in barbam, barbam
Aaron.

Like the precious
ointment on the head,
that ran down upon
the beard, the beard
of Aaron.

The Choir,

Ecce quām bonum, & quām jucūndum,
habitare fratres in
unum.

Behold, how good
and how pleasant it is
for brethren to dwell
together in unity.

The Chantresses,

Quod descéndit in
oram vestiménti ejus, sicut ros Hermon, qui
descéndit in montem Sion.

Which ran down to the skirt of his garment, as the dew of Hermon, which de-scendeth on Mount Sion.

The Choir,

Ecce quām bonum, & quām jucundum,
habitare fratres in
unum,

Behold, how good
and how pleasant it is
for brethren to dwell
together in unity.

The Chantresses,

Quóniam illuc man-
dávit Dóminus bene-
dictiónem, & vitam
usque in sǽculum.

For there the Lord
hath commanded bles-
sings and life for ever more.

The Choir,

Ecce quām bonum, & quām jucundum,
habitare fratres in
unum.

Behold, how good
and how pleasant it is,
for brethren to dwell
together in unity.

The Chantresses,

Glória Patri, & Fílio, & Spíritui Sancto.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.

The Choir,

Ecce quam bonum, & quam jucundum,
habitare fratres in
unum.

Behold, how good
and how pleasant it is,
for brethren to dwell
together in unity.

The Chantresses,

Sicut erat in princí-
pio, & nunc, & semper:
& in sæcula sæculó-
rum, Amen.

As it was in the beginning is now, and
ever shall be, world
without end, Amen.

If this psalm be not sufficiently long, it will be repeated before Gloria Patri is said.

After the last versicle, the Chauntresses en-tone the Deus misereatur, which is continued by the Choir, while the Nuns depart in procession as they entered. Towards the conclusion of the Ecce quam bonum the Cross-bearer rises from her place and takes the Cross; the two Versiculars accompanying her, and leading the way, while the Novices and the young professed advance on each side towards the middle to make a genuflec-tion. They then follow the Cross, each in her rank, the Novice last, between the Superioress and the Assistant.

PSALM lxvi.

Deus miscreatur nostri, et benedicat nebis:
 * illuminat vultum suum super nos, et miscreatur nostri.

Ut cognoscamus in terra viam tuam :* in omnibus gentibus salvare tuum.

Confiteantur tibi populi, Deus ;* confiteantur tibi populi omnes.

Lætentur et exultent gentes ;*, quoniam iudicas populos in equitate, et gentes in terra dirigis.

Confiteantur tibi populi Deus, confiteantur tibi populi omnes :* terra dedit fructum suum.

Benedicat nos Deus, Deus noster, benedicat nos Deus :* et metuant eum omnes fines terræ.

May God have mercy on us and bless us :* may he cause the light of his countenance to shine upon us, and may he have mercy on us.

That we may know thy way upon earth :* in all nations thy salvation.

Let people confess to thee, O God :* let all people give praise to thee.

Let the nations be glad and rejoice :* for thou judgest the people with justice, and directest the nations upon the earth.

Let the people, O God, confess to thee, let all the people give praise to thee :* the earth hath yielded her fruit.

May God, our God, bless us ; may God bless us ;* and all the ends of the earth fear him.

When all have retired the Sacristan closes the grate, and the company depart.

The Reception or Clothing of Lay-sisters is performed in the same manner, except that they do not sing, but remain kneeling while the Chauntresses repeat the versicles that are marked.

END OF THE

CEREMONY

OF THE

RECEPTION OR CLOTHING.

CEREMONY OF A PROFESSION.

On the day of a Profession the Sacristan prepares whatever is necessary for a solemn Mass, also the holy-water pot, and the black veil in a silver basket, or any such vase. The other preparations are the same as for a Reception. The second Mistress of Novices leaves an ink-stand near the grate, with the vows of the Novice written on parchment, and signed by the Novice herself.

ORDER OF THE CEREMONY.

Every thing being prepared in the front Choir as for a Reception, the Nuns enter in procession, singing the Hymn Veni Crætator.

Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the son of man shall come in the glory of his Father, with his angels: and then will he render to every man according to his works.

When the Sermon is finished, the Novice approaches the grate, where the Celebrant, being seated proposes the following questions.

My Child, what do you demand?

The Novice, kneeling, replies. Though most unworthy, Reverend Father, (My Lord, if a Bishop officiate) I humbly beseech you to receive me to the holy Profession.

Do you think yourself sufficiently instructed in what regards the Institute of this Monastery, the essential vows of religion, the rules and constitutions, and do you know well to what you propose to oblige yourself in making profession.

Yes, Reverend Father, with the grace of God.

After the Post-Communion the Choir kneels, and the Superiorress says, or sings the versicle.

The Choir,

Psalms.

The Deacon and Sub-Deacon say the Confiteor at the Altar, after which the Celebrant, preceded by his assistants approaches the Grate, holds the blessed Sacrament before the Novice, and says Domine non sum dignus three times; the Superioress standing near the Novice till she has pronounced her vows.

At the end of the third Domine non sum dignus the Novice kneels on the step before the grate, makes a profound adoration before the blessed Sacrament, and reads aloud her vows.

In the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and under the protection of his immaculate Mother, Mary ever Virgin, I, Sister N. N. called in Religion N. N. do vow and promise to God, Poverty, Chastity, and Obedience, and to persevere until the end of my life in this Institute for the charitable Instruction of poor girls in this Enclosure, according to the Rules and Constitutions of this Congregation of the Presentation of our Blessed Lady, approved of and confirmed by the Apostolical Authority of our Holy Father Pope I^{ius} VII. under the authority, and in presence of you, my Lord, Right Reverend Father in God, N. N. Bishop of N. N. (or in presence of the Priest who officiates by the appointment of the Bishop) and of our Reverend Mother, Sister N. N. called in Religion N. N. Superioress of this Convent of the Presentation. In the year of our Lord N. N.

If the Superioreess cannot attend, her Assistant will be named in the foregoing formulary: she will also perform the duty of the Superioreess during the Ceremony.

When the Novice pronounces her vows, the Mother-Assistant presents her a pen, with which she makes a ✕ at the end of her signature; the Celebrant then gives her the holy Communion, saying;

Quod Deus in te
incœpit, ipse perficiat, & corpus Dómini nostri Jesu Christi, custodiatur ánimam tuam in vitam æternam, Amen.

What God has commenced in thee, may
he himself perfect, and may the body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve thy soul unto everlasting life, Amen.

Having Communicated she kneels at a little distance, and after a few minutes rises to present the formulary of her profession on her knees to the Superioreess.

Mass is finished; after which the Celebrant takes off the Chasuble and puts on a Cope; then comes to the Grate, and commences the following antiphon, which the Choir, kneeling, continues.

Veni sancte Spíritus, reple tuorum corda fi-
délium, & tui amóris
in eis ignem accende.

Come, Holy Ghost,
replenish the hearts of thy faithful, and en-
kindle in them the fire of thy Divine Love.

After the Antiphon the Celebrant says the following prayers, while the Nuns rise and turn towards the Altar.

Ps. cxviii.

The Choir answers after each, Amen.

The Assistant then takes the Candle from the newly-professed, who approaches the grate, and kneels, while the Celebrant puts the black veil on her head, saying, Suscipe Vulum sacrum, pudoris & reverentiae signum, quod perferas ante tribunal Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ut habeas vitam eternam, & vivis in saecula saeculorum.

Receive the holy Veil, the emblem of chastity and modesty, which mayest thou carry before the judgment seat of our Lord Jesus Christ, that thou mayest have eternal life, and mayest live forever and ever.

His Assistant replies, Amen.

The newly-Professed turns towards the Superiorress, who pins her Veil, while the Assistant takes away the white Veil. Her Candle is then given to her; she retires a few steps from the Altar, and sings, Posuit signum in faciem meam.

He has placed his seal upon my forehead.

The Choir,

Legions of martyrs in
the chorus shine,
And vocal blood with
vocal music join.

By these thy church
inspir'd with heav'n-
ly art,

Around the world
maintains a second
part,

And tunes her sweetest
notes, O God, to thee,
The Father of un-
bounded majesty ;
The Son, ador'd co-
partner of thy seat,

And equal everlasting Paraclete.

Thou king of glory, Christ: of the most
high,
Thou co-eternal filial
Deity.

Thou, who to save the world's impending

OBAMUS.

LET US PRAY.

Deus, qui justificas
impium & non vis mortem peccatorum, sup-
pliciter exoramus: ut famulam tuam, (or,
famulas tuas) de tua
misericordia confiden-
tem, (or, confidentes)
caelesti protegas benig-
nus auxilio, & assidua
protectione conserves,
ut tibi juciter famule-
tur, (or, famulentur) & nullis tentationibus
a te separetur, (or,
separentur).

O God, who justifies the wicked, and
willest not the death
of sinners, we hum-
bly beseech thee bountifully to protect with thy heavenly assistance
the servant confiding
in thy mercy, and by thy constant protection preserve her, that she may serve thee
continually, and not be separated from thee
by any temptations.

Deus misericors, Deus
clemens, cui bona
cuncta placent, sine
quo nihil boni incho-
atur, sine quo nihil
boni perficitur, adsint humillimis nostris pre-cibus tue pietatis au-
tes, & hanc famulam tuam cui, (or, has famulas tuas quibus,) in tuo sancto nomine
velum imposimus, ab

O Merciful God, O God of clemency, to whom all good things
are pleasing, without whom nothing good is accomplished, lend thy compassionate ears to our most humble prayers, and defend this thy servant, on whom, in thy holy name, we have put the veil, from every worldly vanity,
secular impediment,

te, & sacerdotali impedimento, ac carnali desiderio defende, & concede ei, (or, eis) propitiatus: ut in hoc sancto proposito devotæ (or, devotæ) persistere valeat, (or, valeant) & remissione peccatorum percépta, ad electorum suorum consortium valeat, (or valeant) selficetur pervenire. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

R. Amen.

and carnal desire; and mercifully grant that she may be able to persevere devoutly in this holy purpose, and having received the forgiveness of her sins, to be united with thy effect, through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

The Celebrant then sprinkles the newly Professed with holy water, after which she rises and the ceremony concludes like that of a Reception or Clothing.

When Lay-Sisters are Professed, Mass is said with all the ceremonies of second Class; the profession is like that of Choir Nuns, except that they omit the fourth vow, and merely repeat the appropriate versicles in a low voice, instead of singing them.

Those who cannot write will sign their profession formula with a  and if they cannot read they will get it by heart.

FINIS.
