Zoological and Acclimatisation Society of Victoria.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL AS READ AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, FEB. 15TH, 1836.

THE Council of the Zoological and Acclimatisation Society has much pleasure in submitting its Twenty-second Annual Report to the Subscribers.

During the past year the Society has made very satisfactory progress, the Gardens having been much improved, and the Zoological collection largely increased. The Director of the Society visited England and the Continent in the early part of the year, and sent and brought out a considerable number of animals and birds, the whole of which were carried free by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company. The Company has for years past acted with the greatest generosity and liberality to the Society, and the Council desires again to express its thanks to the Company and its superintendent here, Mr. G. Withers.

To accommodate the new additions, several pretty structures have been erected, and fresh enclosures made. The public has shown its appreciation of the efforts of the Society, 80,428 visitors having paid at the gates during the year, being an increase of nearly 4,000 on last year. The funds of the Society have also been otherwise increased, the Government and Parliament having granted the sum of £2,000, being an increase of £500 on the usual vote, and the Hon. the Chief Secretary was good enough to have the sum of £1,000 placed on the additional estimates as a special vote for building and fencing. This amount has been a great assistance to the Society, as it has provided funds for several necessary works.

A new Reptile house will shortly be erected, and other improvements are in contemplation, which will have the effect of rendering the Gardens even more attractive than at present.

A new feature in the Gardens, which promises to become a great success, and add much to their popularity, is the establishment of the Saturday open-air concerts, which were commenced on the 12th of last December, under the auspices of the Melbourne Coffee Gardens Society. Mr. Siede, the well-known musician, is conductor of the band, which numbers twenty-five of the best instrumentalists in Melbourne. It is intended to continue the concerts during the summer months. A commodious band-stand has been erected, and also a large shelter-shed, where excellent light refreshments can be obtained on concert days. It is intended, before the the next concert season commences, to effect many improvements in that part of the grounds, and no effort will be spared to make these entertainments both attractive and popular.

It has been determined to despatch the Assistant Director, Mr. Dudley Le Souef, to Europe at once for fresh attractions for the Gardens. It has been found from experience that the best and cheapest way to procure animals is to send for them, and the Council fully recognises the great importance of not only keeping up the Zoological collection, but also increasing it as funds permit.

There is little to report as to acclimatisation in the past year. The Pheasants continue to spread at Gembrook, but the Californian

Quail, which were some time since very numerous there, have not increased so rapidly as the Council hoped they would. This is very disheartening, but the Council has information that this fine bird is thriving in other parts of this district.

The Starlings, liberated by the Society in the Zoological Gardens two or three years ago, have increased rapidly, and large flocks are now to be seen both there and in the University grounds.

Mr. Archibald Fishin, as agent for Sir Samuel Wilson, kindly presented the Society with 2,000 Brown Trout Fry in November last, from Ercildoune, the greater part of which were successfully placed in suitable waters in Gippsland and in streams near Melbourne.

In the early part of the year, when the Society's Act of Incorporation came into force, it became necessary for the Government to appoint three gentlemen to act as Government Members of the Council, and Mr. John Halfey and the Hon. R. D. Reid, M.L.A., were appointed in place of Dr. Thomas Black and Judge Casey, and Mr. Wm. Robertson was re-appointed. Dr. Black, as is well known, was one of the founders of the Society, and occupied the position of its President for many years, but in January last he determined to resign his seat on the Council, though still taking a deep interest in the welfare of the Society. In the month of April the collector, Mr. Segerberg, resigned and Mr. George Slade was appointed by the Council to succeed him, and so far he has been fairly successful.

The Council desire to thank the Hon. Robert Simpson, the retiring President, for his services during his year of office, and also the retiring Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Purchas. The thanks of the Council are also due to the Hon. Prosector of the Society, Mr. A. H. S. Lucas, and the Hon. Veterinary Surgeon, Mr. W. T. Kendall, who has been most attentive to the health of the various animals in the Gardens. The heaviest losses the Society has sustained through deaths during the year have been the old Lioness, a Hen Ostrich, a Cassowary, an Alpaca, and two large Boa Constrictors.

It now devolves on the meeting to elect a President, two Vice-Presidents, and an Hon. Treasurer for the ensuing year, and three Members of the Council, Messrs. Venables, Ryan and Moule, being the three Members who have attended the fewest meetings of the Council, retire, but are eligible for re-election.

The balance-sheet, audited by Messrs. Langton and Holmes, laid before the meeting showed the receipts from all sources to have been £5,969 12s. 10d., and the expenditure £4,484 12s. 6d, leaving a credit balance at the Bank of Victoria, on 1st January, 1886, of £1,485 0s. 4d. This balance includes a sum of £1,000 granted by the Chief Secretary for permanent improvements.

The Office-bearers for the ensuing year were then elected, with the following result :—President: The Hon. C. J. Jenner, M.L.C.; Vice-Presidents: The Hon. R. Simson, F. R. Godfrey, Esq.; Hon. Treasurer: Albert Purchas, Esq.; Members of Council: George Bruce, Esq., F. G. Moule, Esq., Charles Ryan, Esq.

The meeting closed by a unanimous vote of thanks to the Director and the retiring President.
