A magnificent assemblage of maps, brought together for the purpose of tracing the history and progression of geographical discovery.

- 19 BERLINGERI (Francesco) Septe Giornate della Geographia (in terza Rima), large folio, a fine and perfect copy, with all the 31 MAPS engraved on copper, the first page ornamented with an illuminated initial and border, and the arms of a contemporary owner (cross-keys and antlers, with the initials T. S.) painted at foot, and the initial letter of each book elegantly illuminated, calf, £15. Firenze, Nicolo Todesco, (cir. 1480)

Priced, 1840, Payne and Foss, with title and register, mor. £16. 16s; in 1847, £21.; Sold in 1848, at Paris, 461 fr.—Francesco Berlinghieri, a Florentine, contributed greatly to the study of Italian Poetry by this popular work on Geography. It must have been published about the year 1480, as the Duke of Urbino, to whom it is dedicated, died in 1482. Perfect copies are of rare occurrence. It is supposed that this is the first book ever printed with copperplate maps.

- 20 PTOLEMÆI Cosmographia, opus Domini Nicolai (Donis) Germani, large folio, with the 32 woodcut maps, one page slightly defective, fine copy in calf extra, gilt edges, £5. Ulme, 1486

Priced by Longman, £8. This edition is much rarer than the preceding one of 1482, which contained these maps for the first time. Very few copies of it are known, while the earlier edition frequently occurs for sale, both upon paper and on vellum.

- 21 PTOLEMÆI LIBER GEOGRAPHIÆ, cum tabulis et universali figura et cum additione locorum quæ a recentioribus reperta sunt (cum annotationibus Bern. Sylvani Eboliensis), royal folio, title printed in red, 92 leaves, of which the last 30 contain the large woodcut maps, with the letterpress printed in red and blue upon them, calf neat, good sound copy, £8. 10s

Venetius, J. P. de Leucho, 1511

VERY RARE. It is three years later than the Roman edition with Ruysch's map which contained the first delineation of America. The map of the world, which comes last in the above volume, represents the New World in an extremely curious way. Brazil, a large tract, is called Terra Sanctæ Crucis, the Orinoco and Amazon are both laid down with tolerable correctness, and the upper outline of the continent bears the words, "Cani-balû romon." The continuity is broken by the margin, in consequence of the peculiar plan of the map, so that next above Cuba and Hispaniola appear near their proper places; and far beyond them, at the same degree of latitude as Ireland, an unfinished shore, with the words "Regalis Domus," indicates the northern continent, while Labrador (Terra Laboratoris) is represented as an island off the coast. What makes this Atlas of most importance is that every map in it embodies an original design, by an accomplished geographer, who laboured to reform the science according to the newest lights. It is also remarkable for the manner in which the names are printed on the maps—this having been done by types after the woodcut had been worked off. This is the first instance in which such a method of operation was ever adopted.

- 22 CLAUDII PTOLEMAEI Geographiæ Enarrationis libri octo Bilibaldo Pirckeymhero interprete, (acc.) annotationes J. de Regio Monte, folio, printed in Roman characters, in double columns, within woodcut borders, with curious woodcut initials, 50 large woodcut maps, calf, from the Marquis of Hastings' library, £10. 10s Argentoragi (sic) J. Grieninger, 1525

VERY RARE: I can only trace the sale of a single copy, which was imperfect and which I had myself in 1868. Even the Bodleian Library possesses only an imperfect one, and there is no copy in the Grenville Library. Harrisæ (Bibl. Americana) never saw one, describing it only from the catalogue of a private collection. The maps are the same as those in the edition of 1522, but the latter is not so rare as that of 1525. Sheet 27 contains the famous map of Laurentius Frisius, dated 1522, and entitled "ORBIS TYPUS UNIVERSALIS," which bears the name "America." The discovery of Columbus is described on the sheet numbered 28, and the two inner pages of that sheet contain a Map of America, or rather of the Western Ocean and Terra Nova, with the Islands. The continent extends from C. del Marusiano in N. America to Rio de Cananor in S. America. Again, the last map, which represents Gronlandia et Russia, is really a map of the Eastern Hemisphere, but also contains portions of the American coasts. As the collation is always incorrectly given, an exact description is appended. Folios 1-82, numbered, including title; annotations of Regiomontanus, 14 leaves, unnumbered; Index Ptolemæi, 34 leaves, unnumbered; followed by the Maps. I. General Ptolemæan map; sheets numbered 1-26; Orbis typus universalis, unnumbered, in this copy misplaced after general Ptolemæan map; sheets 30-34; 36 (in error for 35); 36-45; 46, 47, both on one sheet; 48 and 49.

- 23 TOLOMEO (C.) Geografia tradotta da G. Ruscelli, con expositioni del medesimo, 3 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. 60 maps, (including those of AMERICA), two apparently wanting, fine copy in the original binding, RARE, 35s Venetia, 1561
These maps of America are original, as well as the text relating to them. This first edition of Ruscelli's translation contains Zeno's remarkable chart (drawn in the fourteenth century) of the Northern regions of Europe and America, which appeared first in 1558.

- 24 PTOLEMÆI Geographia, Latine, cum tabulis ad mentem auctoris restitutis per MERCATOREM, folio, engraved title and 28 large maps engraved on steel, calf, £3. 3s
1854—in fine, Colon. 1578

First edition of Ptolemy with Mercator's series of Maps.

- 25 PTOLEMÆI Geographiæ libri octo Græco-Latini cum tabulis ad mentem auctoris restitutis per MERCATOREM, à Montano recogniti, large folio, superb frontispiece, portrait of Mercator, and 28 large maps engraved on steel, with a large MS. plan inserted amongst the 5 maps of Africa, shewing the course of the Nile, from the Delta to Sennaar, according to Norden's observations, calf neat, £3.
Amst. Hondius, 1605

Formerly the property of Philip Sydney, Earl of Leicester, in 1704. These two editions of 1578 and 1605 contain only the ancient Geography, as restored to its most correct state by Mercator, being thus really the true text of Ptolemy's work.

- 26 PTOLEMÆI THEATRUM GEOGRAPHIÆ VETERIS: I. Geographia, Gr. et Lat. ad codices Palatinos, opera BERTII: II, Itineraria Antonini, Provinciarum Romanarum, Civitates Gallicarum, Itinerarium a Burdigala ad Hierosolimam; TABULA PEUTINGERIANA, cum notis Velseri; Ortelii Tabularum aliquot—in 1 vol. large folio, original issue, engraved title, and 49 carefully engraved maps, fine copy in russia extra, £2. 16s
Amst. Elzevir, 1618-19

- 27 — another copy, second issue, maps and engravings, neatly coloured, Dutch vellum, gilt edges, £3. 3s
1618-19

With slight alteration in first engraved title and addition of a second; variations in some of the maps, and the text to the British Isles, Spain, Germany, Sicily, and Palestine, printed in different form from the preceding.

- 28 — another copy, third issue, with fresh variations in the maps, very fine copy in old calf gilt, £4. 4s
1618-19

This issue contains the latest revisions from the hand of Hondius, and is thus perhaps the most satisfactory copy. It contains a map of Greece newly engraved, near the end of the volume (which has also, strange to say, been substituted for the older one, in the first of the two preceding copies) and a map of Palestine, entirely redesigned.

"Recueil précieux."—Brunet.

It is difficult to obtain a fine large copy of this, THE BEST EDITION, of Ptolemy's Geography. Copies fetched, Dent's, mor. £8. 12s 6d; Hibbert's, russia, £6. 6s; Edwards's, hogskin, £8. 8s; Dr. Sumner's, russia, £6. 10s. Cropped copies sell low.

- 29 LAFRERI'S ROMAN ATLAS. TAVOLE MODERNE DI GEOGRAFIA de la maggior parte del Mondo di diversi autori raccolte et messe secondo l'ordine di Tolomeo, con i disegni di molte città, in 1 vol. imp. folio, 71 large maps and engravings, hf. bd. £6. 10s
Romæ, 1554-72

A VERY RARE and magnificent work, published partly in Rome and partly in Venice, with privilege from both the Pope and the Republic. It was the best, most complete and most correct Atlas which had till then appeared. The designs are engraved by various hands: Lafreri and Salamanca of Rome, Bertelli, Forlano, and Zalterio of Venice, Castaldi, Camotius, and others. They include three Maps of the World, all exhibiting the American continent,—the first one being on a different scheme from the others, having the poles as centres for the two hemispheres laid open, the second being, " ab Orontio olim descripta," and the third " later and more correct than any hitherto published, as is shewn by AMERICA," etc. The map of England was drawn by English residents in Rome, as appears by the subscription dated 1558. The second world-map is dedicated by Jo. Paulus Cimerlinus to Henry Earl of Arundel. The part specially relating to America consists of 4 single maps: Cuba, Hispaniola, Peru (which is a good map of entire South America), and New France (which is a good map of entire North America, including the strait of Anian, now Behring's, the existence of which was disputed at that time). It is remarkable, as shewn in these maps, how far the chorography of the regions now comprised in Canada and the States, was developed seventy years after the discovery of America. Even the quite-recent researches of Jacques Cartier were already utilized. Besides the 71 engraved single and double leaves, there are 6 pages of letterpress, containing names of places.

- 30 ORTELIUS. THEATRUM ORBIS TERRARUM, ihietz mitt vielen neuen Landtafflen gemehret, folio, frontispiece, and 68 leaves of maps, all neatly coloured by a contemporary hand, in the original binding, from P. F. von Siebold's library, £15. On title, 1573—at end, Antorff, 1572

The edition with German text is by far the rarest issue of the Atlas of Ortelius, and is remarkable for its peculiar and manifold specimens of type, in some instances block printing being apparently employed. The orthography and style of language are rather barbarous, but it is not merely a verbal translation of the Latin first edition, which appeared in 1570. It is a special edition, and in many parts, indications are given of its difference from the Latin text; as for instance in the preface, and at the description of Spain, where he reasserts and justifies his statement, made in the first edition, that the Spanish empire was the largest that ever existed; in the text to Poland, where he mentions having seen an Aurochs at Antwerp in 1570; and in various other places. There are also FIFTEEN NEW MAPS ADDED to the original set of fifty-three which were published in 1570; and some of these are dated 1572 and 1573. Amongst the additions are fresh maps of the British Isles, furnished to Ortelius, with corresponding text, by Humphrey Luyd, the Welsh antiquary. The map of Russia is by Antony Jenkinson, and dedicated to Sir Henry Sydney, governor of Wales. Daniel Rogers, another Englishman, also contributed assistance to the geographer, and a Latin epigram by him is prefixed to the work. The map of the New World, is, for the time, singularly correct and full of detail; and the advance of discovery in North America is notably remarkable. There is a curious circumstance noted in the text relating to the New World. It is that "these lands have caused our countries to be filled with sugar; so that it is now used in every kitchen, and as an article of daily food, while formerly it was, with us, found only in apothecaries' shops and employed as a medicament." This statement will be new and interesting to the persons who have read that the cultivation of sugar was only introduced by the Spaniards into America shortly before the time of Ortelius.

- 31 ORTELIUS THEATRUM ORBIS TERRARUM, opus nunc tertio recognitum et auctum, 1589—PARERON in quo veteris Geographiæ aliquot Tabulæ, 1584 Nomenclator Ptolemaicus, 1584—in 1 vol. roy. folio, the frontispiece, maps, and the engravings elegantly COLOURED by a contemporary hand, fine copy, in ancient calf binding, with Coat of Arms on the sides, formerly in the library of the Earl of Coventry, with his autograph on the title, £5.

The number of Maps in the Theatrum is 167, contained on 100 leaves; in the Pareron, there are 12; so that this edition comprises 59 maps more than the original one, and 44 more than the preceding edition in German. The additional maps are dated in various years from 1584 to 1589. That of China is dated 1584, and in the text on the back of it, contains two Chinese words, in the Chinese character; so that this Atlas is really the first European book in which Chinese characters appeared, being one year earlier than the work on China published by Gonzalez de Mendoza, at Rome, in 1585, to which the priority has hitherto been attributed. The book is a very fine one, printed in bold, clear types, upon strong and thick paper; being in this respect superior to the other editions. The colouring, which is remarkably good and harmonious, and causes a considerable accession of distinctness in the maps, gives a special value to this copy. In the text to the map of Valentia, there is a singular statement made, which is wholly altered in the later edition. It is this: "Ager-hujus urbis (Valentiæ) ubique à Mauris colitur . . . Avorumque prosapiam lingua Arabica et religione Mahumetana palam et vulgo profitentur in hunc usque diem; conniventibus Rege et Inquisitione." This startling charge is modified in the 1590 edition to " . . . à gente e Mauris oriunda et paternum sive oritum sermonem ac fere vitæ morem adhuc retinente colitur."

- 32 ORTELI Theatrum Orbis Terrarum, opus nunc denuo ab ipso auctore recognitum multisque locis castigatum et quamplurimis novis Tabulis atque commentariis auctum (1590)—Parergon sive veteris Geographiæ aliquot Tabulæ (1591)—Nomenclator Ptolemaicus, 1591—3 parts in 1 vol. royal folio, frontispiece, fine portrait, and 202 uncoloured maps, beautifully engraved, with small Bible prints round the map of Palestine, and the march of Abraham, etc. vellum, £7. Antv. Plautin, 1590-1

BEST EDITION of the work. It contains in the Theatrum, 11, and in the Parergon, 14 maps in addition to those of the preceding Latin edition. But what gives it greater value is the circumstance that the map of the world is re-engraved, as is also that of America, and that a map of the Pacific Ocean is added, all with the object of giving its true form to the New Western Continent. In this edition of Ortelius, which thus is entitled to the name of an Editio Princeps or Parentis, South America is for the first time drawn with a correct outline, differing considerably from all the maps previously published, and the upper portion of North America is also materially changed. The additional number of details, names of places, etc. upon these maps render the edition a very remarkable one. Nor is it less remarkable for the delineation of New Guinea, in the map of the Pacific Ocean; that debated land being clearly drawn as an island, with a strait dividing it from Australia. The names of places are given upon the north, while the southern shore, although without names, is completely drawn, with its bays, rivers, and islets. Now the fact that New Guinea was an island is supposed to have first become known from the discovery and navigation of the strait by Torres, after whom it is called, in 1606; and the general belief concerning Australia has hitherto been, that the Dutch first discovered it in 1610. These important additions and alterations seem to have been chiefly effected in 1589. Ortelius makes a strange linguistic statement in the text to Iceland (which is one of the additional maps) that Icelandic and Ancient German are the same language, he having compared the former tongue with the Francic Gospels of Outfried.

- 33 EARLY DUTCH CHARTS. Four large sheets of vellum, some of them much damaged by water, containing Maps of the Pacific, Indian and Atlantic Oceans, including the Coast of China, India, Polynesia as far as New Guinea, Africa, parts of Europe, and the greater portion of SOUTH AMERICA, with the name Brasilia, £7. 10s circ. 1600

Probably the work of one of those famous navigators whose daring and enterprise carried them round the world, and raised the Dutch Republic to its once great eminence of wealth and power.

- 34 MERCATORIS ATLAS MINOR a J. HONDIO plurimis aeneis tabulis auctus atque illustratus, stout oblong 4to. many maps, the text in German, fine copy, in the original hogskin, with the arms and portrait of Henricus Julius, Duke of Brunswick and Lüneburg, and the initials H.I.K. 1624, stamped in gold on the sides, £2. 2s Arnhemii, 1621

Includes maps of the World, of the American continent, Virginia et Florida, Cuba, St. Domingo, Jamaica, S. America, the Straits of Maghellan.

- 35 MERCATORIS (Gerardi) et I. HONDII ATLAS NOVUS sive descriptio geographica totius Orbis Terrarum, 3 vols. impl. folio, frontispieces and 318 large Maps, all finely coloured, many of them having portraits and coats of arms, some leaves discoloured, and a hole burnt through the margins of three, vellum, £10. Amst. 1638

A splendid work, bearing the highest testimony to the learning and labour of the editors. The latest geographical discoveries are incorporated in their work, and contributions by the best authorities in each country are made use of. This is the first Atlas containing anything like a fair description of the United States; the settlements of the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth, the establishment of James' City, and the position of Fort Orange and New Amsterdam (the future city of New York), being all clearly laid down, although then but a few years in existence. It is interesting to observe the records on the map of New England, of the recent English investigations. Besides the general map of the world, there are seventeen special maps for America and its parts. A voyage from Bermuda to Ireland in an open boat, by five Englishmen, is noticed as an unprecedented fact. Another feature of the work is its amplitude of detail in the maps of Eastern Europe; and two large maps which shew the courses of the Rhine and the Danube are also valuable and uncommon.

- 36 MERCATORIS et HONDII Atlas ou Représentation du Monde universel et des parties d'icelui, 3 vols. imp. folio, frontispieces and Maps, all finely coloured, many containing portraits and coats of arms, very fine copy in vellum, edges gilt and gaufréd, £12. 1633-39-39

In many respects a better edition than the Latin. The text is only in part a translation, and contains a great number of details omitted in the Latin issue. It is evidently the work of a superior hand, and in many places disagrees in judgment from the statements of the other edition; as for instance, may be observed in the remarks on Seneca's prophecy about America. The text to the general map of America is also quite different. There is in this edition a notice of the Pilgrim Fathers' voyage, and the founding of the town of Plymouth, which does not appear in the Latin one. Again, Smith's adventures in Virginia are not alluded to in the latter, while they are in the French copy. There are in the text to Europe numerous ethnological and linguistic particulars, which are omitted in the Latin. The text to England, Ireland, and Lithuania, is much more ample and correct, and to that of France many historical details are added; but on the other hand the Latin contains an additional map of Southern Muscovy, an additional general map of Juliers, Cleves, etc., a second map of Bois-Le-Duc, and has an essay on the old Frankish language, not in the French edition. In the Latin, also, the maps of Franconia and Morocco, are entirely new and re-engraved on a different plan. On the other hand, in the French edition, besides the general superiority and greater extent of the text, there is a map of Hamburg and the Elbe borders, a map of Henneberg, one of Breslau, and one of Ancient Sicily, all of them omitted in the Latin. The text to Palestine is different in the two editions.

- 37 LUBIN (Augustini) Orbis Augustinianus sive Conventuum Ordinis Eremitarum Sancti Augustini descriptio, engraved title, list of provinces, and 60 coloured maps, including 7 of AMERICA, by Lubin; Topographia Augustiniana, frontispiece and 22 views of the different Augustinian Convents, etched by Albert FLAMEN; in 1 vol. obl. 4to. old red MOROCCO, gilt edges, from the Lamoignon library, with the book-mark, extremely rare, £5. Paris, 1659

- 38 PORTULANUS. Dutch Charts of the Pacific Ocean, comprising the Coasts of China, Japan, Formosa, the Philippine and contiguous Islands, Borneo, Cambodia, Malacca, etc. elaborately designed and executed upon 2 large sheets of vellum and 4 larger sheets of paper, nearly four feet in length by nearly three feet in breadth, from P. F. von Siebold's library, £5. cir. 1660
- Apparently drawn up by some Dutch Mariner while engaged in a voyage of discovery, and displaying great accuracy in all its details.

- 39 VAN LOON, Klaer lichtende Noort Ster, ofte ZEE-ATLAS, waer in vertoont werde de Geleghenthyt van alle de Zee-kusten des Aerdebodens, roy. folio, elegant coloured frontispiece and 45 double maps, all carefully COLOURED, with beautifully illuminated Coats of Arms, etc. vellum, calf back, £10. Amst. 1661

A very valuable work, unmentioned by Asher in his excellent Bibliography of the Atlases and maps relating to the New Netherlands, although its North American charts are infinitely superior to, and different from that of Blaeu and of Van Keulen mentioned below. It is unquestionably the best Atlas representing the coasts of the New United States yet published to that time.

- 40 BLAEU (Jo.) ATLAS MAJOR sive Cosmographia Blaviana, 11 vols. atlas folio, frontispieces illuminated and the maps coloured, engravings of geographical instruments, costume, etc. without frontispieces to Vols. II. III. V. XI. bound in vellum painted green, gilt edges, £S. 10s Amst. 1662-65

This magnificent work has been very unjustly depreciated; its intrinsic value is very great, especially with regard to the maps of England, Scotland, and Ireland, which are copious to an extent previously unknown. It might even be regarded, by the collector of works on America as the first special Atlas of the future United States, just as Wytfhet (see post in alphabet) was the first special Atlas of America. It is also the first Atlas of Scotland, the maps and text for this division of the work having been prepared by John Scott and Robert Gordon. In Vol. VIII. the first leaf or two are slightly damaged.

- 41 LIGHTNING COLUMNE (The) or Sea-Mirroure, containing the Sea-Coasts of the Northern, Eastern and Western Navigation, setting forth all the Ports, Rivers, Bayes, Roads, Depths and Sands, etc. for the use of all Sea-Men, with a brief instruction of the Art of Navigation, 3 vols. in 1, royal folio, engraved titles, numerous maps, charts and woodcuts, half bound, 15s Amst. 1677

- 42 VAN KEULEN'S ATLAS: THE GREAT and newly enlarged SEA ATLAS or Water-World, containeing exact descriptions of all the Sea Coasts of the whole World, impl. folio, frontispiece on title, and 153 COLOURED MAPS, double size, with a text in the beginning, an interesting and excellent Atlas in the original old calf gilt, stamped on the sides, £2. 2s Amsterdam, 1682
Including no less than 38 American Maps, which are particularly valuable for the Cartography of the present United States and the more northerly regions.
- 43 D'ANVILLE, ATLAS GENERAL, narrow elephant folio, containing 34 large maps, most of them on double sheets pasted together, coloured, green vellum, 15s 1737-56
- 44 ——— the same, a later edition in atlas folio, containing 44 maps on 55 leaves, some of the maps on double sheets pasted together, and including the maps of the two Hemispheres re-engraved by Barbié du Bocage, to shew the advance of discovery to the year 1780; besides a collection of 46 smaller maps from other works of D'Anville scattered through the Mémoires of the Académie des Inscriptions, bds. 30s
1737-80
- A very valuable and important series of Maps, giving in many instances, especially with regard to America and Polynesia, information which appeared here for the first time. For example, the Australian researches are laid down, and in the map of S. America it is to be remarked that 50,000 square leagues, according to French measure, are figured with details, which in all previous maps had been left blank as unknown. The additional maps of the later edition are: France, 2 maps; Western and Slavonic Europe, 2 maps; Persian Gulf, Phœnicia, Euphrates, West Africa, Central Africa, Guinea, Antient India; without mentioning the other maps which are no less valuable and illustrative of Geography although they do not form an integral portion of the work.

The forty-first plate is a folding one, larger than all the others, containing a view of the "Territorium et Dominium Kerpense et Lommerschum Ducatus Brabantie," by Gerard Stempel, of Gouda, Canon of St. George of Cologne, 1587; with two Coats of Arms. This Atlas, which shews a wonderful advance of geographical knowledge, and which we may presume to be the work of Stempel, engraved in Holland, and published in Cologne, appears unknown to the bibliographical writers. The frontispiece is in De Bry's style; and perhaps this Atlas is one of the earliest works of one of that family.

Cet ouvrage de la plus grande magnificence, a été exécuté aux frais de Lord Kingsborough, qui en a fait hommage à plusieurs bibliothèques publiques du continent, particu-lièrement à la Bibliothèque royale, à Paris, et à celle de l'Institut de France. Le prix de chaque exemplaire était de 175 livres (2000 fr. Klaproth). Les quatre premiers volumes renferment les planches lithographiées, au nombre de plus de 1000 ; les trois autres contiennent l'explication des planches et plusieurs mémoires inédits, écrits en différentes langues, ainsi que des appendices en anglais. Le septième volume est entièrement rempli par un ouvrage important qui a pour titre :—Historia universa de las cosas de Nueva España, por el M. R. P. Fr. Bernardino de Sahagun.—Brunet.

After an interval of seventeen years two more volumes of this extraordinary work have been published, in every respect uniform with the preceding, consisting, 1. of Supplementary Notes in English and Spanish ; 2. of Extracts from the works of Torquemada, Acosta and Garcia, illustrating the last portion of the Mexican paintings, contained in the collection of Mendoza, and shewing the correspondence which exists between many of the Mexican and Hebrew laws ; 3. Adair's History of the North American Indians, their customs and descent from the Jews ; 4. Cartas ineditas de Hernando Cortez ; 5. Cronica Mexicana de Tezozomoc ; 6. Historia Chichimeca y Relaciones por Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxochitl.

"When, some four centuries ago, the enterprise of Spanish navigators opened the vast continent of America to the admiration of Europe, the civilization of the New World was found to be concentrated in two spots, and two only, of that enormous territory. One of these favoured regions was Peru : the other was Mexico. It was in MEXICO ESPECIALLY THAT ART, POLITICS AND SCIENCE HAD RECEIVED THEIR GREATEST DEVELOPMENT. All the rest of North America, from the shores of Hudson's Bay to the mouths of the Mississippi, was desolate and barbarous, diversified only by swamp, forest, or prairie, and populated by savages without knowledge or laws. Mexico alone redeemed the character of the new continent, and presented to the eyes of the invaders a spectacle so marvellous as to satisfy even the expectations which the great discovery had raised. There the Spaniards found an organized State, an ancient polity, and opulent capital, an exalted dynasty, a formidable priesthood, and a people well skilled in mechanical and decorative arts. So great, in fact, was the proficiency of the Mexican workmen, so elaborate the system of government, and so impressive the whole evidence of wealth and grandeur, that for some time the civilization of Mexico was regarded as superior to that of Europe. Although, indeed, the researches of modern inquirers has enabled us to supply some corrective to these ideas, it is really probable that in certain respects the Spaniards found Mexico more advanced than Spain, and we have been recently assured on the authority of a comprehensive history that this civilization was the necessary incident of geographical and natural advantages. Such was the situation and configuration of Mexico that it could hardly fail to make progress, and all that was discovered there in the shape of national wealth or political order represented the extraordinary opportunities which nature had provided."—Times, Dec. 8, 1858.

This curious and amusing book contains nearly 1000 copper-plate engravings of Towns, and woodcuts of Costumes after Titian and others. Copies have sold for as much as £8. The value of the work has not been sufficiently recognized; it is a geographical vocabulary alphabetically arranged, and to every article there is appended a list of all the writers who have treated of it, specially or incidentally. But besides the names of places, there are also antiquarian headings in the alphabet, such as "Balnea," "Barones," "Basilica," and numerous others, each of which is accompanied by a list of authors on the subject, with the sizes, dates, and number of editions. Thus this great compilation forms an historical, geographical, and antiquarian Cyclopædia. Two indexes are prefixed, the first containing the names of between twelve and thirteen thousand writers, the second a table of matters.

- The author travelled through India, the islands of the Indian Archipelago and elsewhere, as well as in China; but the information which he gives concerning the last country was so precise, copious and important, that it was supposed to affect the interests of the Spanish mission. Hence ensued a controversy, which was suppressed by the Inquisition.

PORTUGUESE VOYAGES and Discoveries.

- 393 AZURARA, Chronica do Descobrimento e Conquista de GUINÉ, com Introdução e notas de Santarem, e com um Glossario, 4to. coloured portrait, printed within borders, calf, £2. 2s Paris, 1841
- 394 BARROS Y COUTO, DECADAS DA ASIA. BARROS, Decadas I-III, Lisboa, 1628 — BARROS, Decada IV, Madrid, 1615—COUTO, Decadas IV-IX, 3 vols. Lisboa, 1726—together 7 vols. sm. folio, Spanish calf gilt, not uniform, VERY RARE, £20. 1615-1736

A set exactly corresponding with the above was priced by Thorpe, in 1824, £25. The rarest part of the present copy is the 4th Decade of Barros; its title and last couple of leaves are mended, but it is of the original edition, which was never reprinted except in 8vo. form. (No. 395) This part alone was priced by Thorpe, £5. 5s. The cause of its rarity is that it was left unfinished, and only appeared posthumously, fourteen years after Couto had endeavoured to supply the want of it with his own fourth Decade.

- 395 BARROS Y COUTO, da ASIA (dos Feitos, que os Portuguezes fizeram no descubrimento e conquista dos mares e terras do Oriente) nova edição, com Indice geral, 24 vols. 12mo. maps and portrait, calf neat, £6. Lisboa, 1778-88

The best account of the Early Discoveries of the Portuguese in Asia. In this edition all that appeared of the original work has been reprinted, and the missing portions supplied from other sources.

Priced, 1824, Rivington and Cochrane, £8. 8s; 1840, Payne and Foss, mor. £12. 12s; Fetched, Langles, 133 fr. Collation, Decades I.—IV. by Barros, 2 vols.; Life of Barros, and Index, 1 vol. Another Fourth Decade, and Decades V.—XII. by Couto, 15 vols. including Index to Couto.

Reprinted from the excessively rare edition of 1554-61. This modern issue is in itself a very valuable book, as the original edition is almost entirely inaccessible.

 "On trouve difficilement cette histoire, qui passe pour fort exacte."—Brunet.
 Heber's copy fetched £11. 15s; and others have sold as high as 30 guineas.
 This is the work which Bruce the traveller is accused of having pillaged and then destroyed, supposing his own copy unique. The suspicion arose from the circumstance that some of his discoveries are anticipated in this volume.
- 404 PRIDHAM, Ceylon and its Dependencies, 2 vols. 8vo. maps (pub. 28s) cl. 9s 1849

 Purchas says in his preface, that he has incorporated the substance of more than twelve hundred writers of voyages and travels. "His work is not only valuable for the various instruction and amusement contained in it, but is also very estimable on a national, and I may add, a religious account."—Granger.
 "We owe to the zeal and vast erudition of this laborious man, one of the most celebrated collections of voyages which have ever appeared—valuable alike for the abundance of its materials and its importance in the history of early discoveries, especially those of the English."—Biog. Univers.

This original and best edition has the Comparative Vocabulary, wanting in the other editions, of the following Languages, viz., English, Malayu, Javan (Jawa, Basa Krama, Sunda), Madurese (Madura Sumcnap), Bali, Lampung. "An important work, being on the whole, the best account of this fine Island that has yet appeared. It was principally compiled from materials supplied by the officers subordinate to the author, during the five years of his intelligent and successful government of the Island."—Mac Culloch.

For the contents of this valuable collection see Gamba, Testi di Lingua, Ven. 1839, 8vo. No. 2751.

"Ramusio was the most learned compiler of the age."—Santarem.

"C'est une Collection précieuse, peu vantée par les libraires, peu recherchée par les amateurs de beaux livres, parce qu'elle n'est pas ornée d'estampes, mais seulement de gravures en bois qui n'ont rien d'agréable: elle est estimée par les savans, et regardée encore aujourd'hui par les géographes comme un des recueils les plus importants. Ramusio avoit, soit à raison des voyages qu'il avoit faits lui même, soit à raison de ses grandes connoissances dans l'histoire, la géographie, les langues, soit enfin à raison des correspondances multipliées avec ces personnes qui pouvoient être de quelque utilité à son entreprise, toutes les facilités nécessaires pour former une excellente collection."—Camus.

"Ramusio recueillit dès le 5me. siècle les relations qui pouvaient faire connaître les côtes de l'Afrique, une partie de l'Asie et les découvertes faites jusqu' alors dans le Nouveau Monde; il enrichit ces voyages de savantes préfaces, et composa des dissertations importantes."—DARU.

"Ramusio's collection of Voyages and Travels, the most perfect work of that nature extant in any language whatsoever; containing all the discoveries to the East, West, North and South; with full descriptions of all the countries discovered; judiciously compiled, and free from that great mass of useless matter, which swells our English Hackluyt and Purchas; much more complete and full than the Latin De Bry, and, in fine, the noblest work of this nature."—LOCKE.

Sampaloc, extra muros de Manila, Sotillo, 1734-44
 The third volume especially is of extreme rarity; very few copies of the work have ever reached Europe.

- 436 SCHIEFFER, History of Lapland, sm. folio, frontispiece, map and plates, calf, 14s
Oxford, 1674
 Still a classical work, and containing able dissertation on the Lapp and Finnish languages, with specimens. It seems now a general belief that the Lapps lived all over Northern Europe before the Celtic and Germanic invasions, and it has been suggested that the Dwarfs of our Fairy Tales were really Lapps left behind, when the great body of the race was either destroyed or driven northwards. A similar theory might be used to establish a connection between the Celts and the "Giants."

"Edition fort rare, qui paraît avoir été imprimée à Rome, vers 1473, avec les caractères romains grossièrement gravés dont se servait Jean Schurener de Bopardia. Vendu jusqu'à £13. 18s; mar. Heber."—Brunet. The errors of this text, which in the following edition, Mombrazio sought to correct, prove conclusively that it preceded the edition by Jenson, dated 1473, which the bibliographers always place first in order.
- 455 SOLINUS DE MIRABILIBUS MUNDI, ed. Bonino Mombritio, sm. 4to. vellum, £3. 3s (? Ferraria, 1473)
FIRST ISSUE, and EXCESSIVELY RARE, of Mombrazio's edition of Solinus. This is shewn by the circumstance that there are signatures to the sheets in this volume, and that no other copy is known with them; and besides that, there are numerous transpositions and errors in the printing of the text, the substance of three pages being in one place omitted (without any loss of the folios that compose the sheets), so that there are only 120 instead of 122 leaves, as in the regular edition of the book described by Audiffredi, Dibdin, and Brunet. These writers attribute the production of the volume to Milan, but it seems more likely that it was printed in Ferrara. The Biogr. Univ. refers it to the latter place. The typographical arrangement of the text proves that this edition was printed, almost page for page, after the preceding undated one. This, if it had been noted before, would have settled the disputed question of priority.
COLLATION: Table, etc. a sheet of 6 leaves; text, sheets 1 and 2, ten leaves each, unsigned; sheets c to k, 8 leaves each; l, four leaves, and o ten leaves, forming together one sheet of 14 leaves; m and n, 8 leaves each.

- 487 (VANDEN BOS) Leben und Tapffere Thaten der aller-berühmtesten See-Helden, Admiralen, und Land-Erfinder unserer Zeiten, angefangen mit Christoforo Colombo und geendigt mit dem Admiral M. A. de Ruyter, etc.; unlängst in Nider-Teutscher Sprache aufgesetzt, durch V. D. B., anjetzo aber in unsere Hoch-Teutsche überbracht, von Matthia Krämer. Samt einem Anhang, vieler Denckwürdigkeiten, welche der Niederländische Author den Helden-Thaten Almeyda, Albuquerque, und Acunix, ausgelassen, etc., beygetragen durch Erasmus Francisci, thick sm. 4to. 1090 pp. engraved title, map, plates of battles by sea and land, with portraits of Columbus, De Ruyter, Tromp, Heyn, Heemskirk, Lonque and Wassenaar, vellum, £2. Nürnberg, 1681

Rare; unmentioned by Brunet, Ebert and Muller (Navigateurs Hollandais) and not in the Bodleian Library. It is better than the original Dutch, in having additions and corrections. Among the voyages described in the volume are those of DRAKE, CAVENDISH, CLIFFORD, NORRIS and other eminent ENGLISH NAVIGATORS.

- 488 VERA (Gerard de) Trois Navigations admirables faites par les Hollandois et Zelandois au Septentrion lesquelles ont descouvert la mer Weygats. . . . avec grands dangers et incroyables difficultez, 12mo. maps, numerous plates illustrative of their enforced ten-months' residence at the North Pole, limp vellum, £8. 8s Paris, 1599

Rare edition of this curious narrative. Veer and his companions were blocked up in the ice, and underwent experiences and hardships unknown before their time, and such as have seldom occurred since. It is singular that the investigation of Veer and his fellow Dutchmen should have given us a knowledge of Nova Zembla which has not been improved since. The land which he took for Greenland was probably Spitzbergen.

- 489 VERA (Ger. di) Tre Navigazioni nella Norvegia, Moscovia, e Tartaria verso il Catai, e Regno de' Sini; la Nuova Zembla et la Groenlandia, tradotte da Giunio, sq. 8vo. maps and curious engravings, one of which was in red ink, some leaves stained at the end, bds. 12s Venet. 1599

This valuable little volume has been forgotten, amid all the geographical controversy of late years.

VOYAGES OF THE DUTCH.

- 492 BEGIN ENDE VOORTGANGH der vereenighde Nederlantsche Oost-Indische Compagnie, 2 very stout volumes, oblong sm. 4to. with 220 curious maps and plates, finely engraved in the De Bry style, vellum, from the late P. F. von Siebold's library, £15. 15s Amst. 1646

RARE. Notwithstanding the limited nature of the title, these volumes relate almost as much to America as to the East Indies. Sixteen of the voyages in this collection were here published for the first time, and a complete copy of the whole work is not easy to find, as each piece, although the pagination is consecutive, was separately printed. Much of the information contained in the valuable maps was not generally diffused for above a century afterwards; witness the admirable map of the World in the account of Spilbergen's Voyage in Vol. II. America is most completely and accurately drawn there, in its true shape; California is correctly represented as a Peninsula, although in most Atlases and geographical books, even down to the middle of last century, it was drawn and described as an island. Hudson's Bay is called "The bay where Hitson did winter," and the discoveries of the English navigator are all set forth. There are eight of the plates missing, but this is a trifling deficiency in a collection of so much importance for the history of geography.

- 493 OOST EN WEST-INDISCHE VOYAGIE:

Acosta composed part of his work in Peru, and the remainder on his return to Europe. It is one of the most valuable and interesting of the early Spanish writers upon America. Edward Grimeston is said to have been the translator.
- JOSEPH DE ACOSTA, né à Medina del Campo, vers l'an 1539, passa, apres avoir professé la theologie à Ocana, en 1571 aux Indes occident. et fut le second Provincial de l'ordre des Jésuites au Perou où il séjourna pendant 17 ans, Il mourut recteur a Salamanca, le 11 février, 1600. VERY RARE and valuable. This work is apparently unknown to the bibliographers, as it is not mentioned by Brunet, Salva, Rich, or Stevens. COLLATION: Title and preliminary matter, 15 leaves; text, pp. 1-412; table, 9 leaves.
- 569 ARMITAGE's History of Brazil, from 1808 to the abdication of Don Pedro I. in 1831, 2 vols. 8vo. portraits, (pub. 24s) hf. bd. 7s 6d 1836

VERY RARE. A third volume was published in 1796, but the above two volumes form the complete work as originally issued, (Lowndes does not quote a third at all) and contain a single index for both.
- 571 BANCROFT, History of the United States, Vols. I.-IV. 8vo. to the year 1760, portraits, map and plates, (pub. at £2. 8s) cloth, 9s Boston, 1848-52

This valuable collection is very rare, because of the accidental destruction by fire of a great number of copies. Moreover, very few copies have all the sixteen parts that were published. The present one has not the final piece, A Voyage to Arabia (which by right ought not to have been included), but has the rarer parts containing the CARTAS of CORTES, and the examen of the Narration of CABEZA DE BACA.

First edition of the Latin; with additional matter. A MS. note on fly-leaf describes Chauveton as "hereticus, mendax, calumniator, et . . . prædicator Calvinista."
- 578 BERNALDEZ (Andrés) Historia de los Reyes Catolicos D. FERNANDO y Da. ISABEL, Cronica inédita del siglo XV (con introduccion de Lafuente y Alcántara), 2 vols. 8vo. sd. 18s; or the 2 vols. in one, hf. morocco, uncut, 25s Granada, 1856
A very valuable and interesting chronicle, published here for the first time, after having for three centuries and a-half shared the neglect and obscurity which Antonio deplored as the fate of all good early writers. Bernaldez was an eye-witness of the events that he describes, and on intimate terms with Ponce de Leon and the other great men of the time. The history of England and Scotland is also woven into his pages; and his Chronicle may be said to conclude with an account of the battle of Flodden Field. Not the least interesting part of his work is the description of the Discovery of America, Vol. I. pp. 269-334, and his account of COLUMBUS, WHOM HE KNEW AND ADMIRER. He calls him a "Mercader de libros de estampa," which is more likely to be a correct designation than that usually given to the great navigator.

VERY RARE. I have only met with one other copy which I sold in 1860 for £3. 15s. The work is not mentioned by any of the bibliographers.
- 585 BUCCANEERS. Voyages and Adventures of Capts. Barth. SHARP and others in the South Sea, also Capt. Van Horn surprizing Vera Cruz, with the Relation of Sir Henry Morgan's Expedition and his taking Panama, etc. 12mo. hf. calf, 10s 1684

Brunet's collation of this VERY RARE book is erroneous in giving 87 leaves as the contents of the first part, instead of 88 (the two last leaves being each numbered 87).

De Bure, in whose time only five parts were known, speaks of their excessive rarity. Richarderie has no other particularisation of parts than those noticed by De Bure; nor was Llorente, in his notice of the works of Las Casas, better informed, as he only mentions the first five.

In order of publication, this is the first European book in which Chinese characters occur; but actually it is the second, as one of Ortelius' maps, engraved in 1584, but not published till 1590, bears two Chinese words in the native character. According to Nicholas Antonio, the above Itinerary of the new world (which occupies leaves 268—368) was written by F. Martin Ignacio, and was never published separately. Translations were made into Latin, French, Italian, and English.

American collectors require this "Itinerario," which is little known; it is not mentioned by Ternaux. The Itinerary gives curious details concerning the Canaries, St. Domingo, Jamaica, Cuba, Portorico and especially on Mexico. Ortelius, in his Atlas, declared that he had received more information concerning America, from this Itinerary than from any other single book.

 A very rare work, apparently unknown to the writers on American bibliography. The large folding map of the world contains a map of America, in which the extreme north-west corner bears the words "India orientalis." The author seems to have been one of the latest geographers who endeavoured to reconcile the new discoveries with the original theories. There are some chapters specially devoted to a description of the New World. The author was a Maltese by birth, but resided at Ratisbon as a commander of the order of St. John. A piece of verse at the end is addressed to him by Edmund Hollyng, M.D. an Englishman, in Ingolstadt.

First edition of this celebrated work, the most complete Atlas of America published up to that time. The text is a complement of all then existing information. Appended is "Asia secundum rationes geographicas delineata, Ursellii, 1600," 14 maps.

- 794 WYTFLIET, Magin, et autres, Histoire universelle des Indes Occidentales et Orientales et de la conversion des Indiens, 3 vols. in 1, sm. folio, maps a little worned, hf. bound, 36s
Douay, 1611
 The first of the three parts composing this volume is generally supposed to be a translation of the preceding article. It is not merely such, for although the maps are precisely the same, the text is very considerably changed; large augmentations from more recent sources of knowledge are given, and a few judicious omissions made in it. The second part contains four maps on two leaves. The whole outline of New Guinea is given in part 1, the famous strait is marked, and the separation of that island from Australia distinctly laid down.
- 795 XERES (Fr.) Libro primo de la CONQUISTA DEL PERU et PROVINCIA DEL CUZCO de le Indie Occidentali (on second leaf:) tradotta in lingua Italiana per Dominico del Gaztelu, sq. 8vo. calf extra, gilt edges, £5. 5s

The statement clearly made on the second title concerning the translator and the original work disposes of the confusion of Brunet and HARRISSE on the subject. It proves the book to be a version of the Spanish one printed at Seville by Perez (in 1534) and that the translator was a native of Tudela in Navarre.
- 797 YUCATAN, Case of the agent to the settlers on the coast of Yucatan and the late settlers on the Mosquito shore, 4 parts in 1 vol. 4to. hf. bound, from the Marquis of Hastings' library, a collection of official papers, PRIVATELY PRINTED and VERY RARE, £2. 2s
