CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Society shall be "THE NEW JERSEY SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The purposes of the Society are to keep alive among ourselves and our descendants, and in the community, the patriotic spirit of the men who achieved American independence; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records, and other documents relating to the War of the Revolution, and to promote social intercourse and fellowship among its members.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any person shall be eligible to membership who is a male above the age of twenty-one (21) years, and is descended from an ancestor who assisted in establishing American independence, during the war of the Revolution, in any one of the following capacities :

1. A military or naval officer.
2. A soldier, sailor or marine.
3. A member of a Committee of Correspondence or Council of Safety, or other similar body.
4. A member of a Provincial or of the Continental Congress.
5. An officer in the service of one of the original Colonies or States, or of the National Government representing or composed of these Colonies or States. Provided, that such service was of so important a character as to render the official specially liable to arrest and punishment by the British Government. ²

6. Any recognized patriot actually arrested and punished for giving aid and comfort to the patriotic cause. Provided, that if such ancestor, having assisted in establishing American independence in any of the above capacities, either adhered to the enemy or failed to maintain an honorable record throughout the war of the Revolution, his previous service shall not entitle his descendants to membership in this Society. And provided further, that no person shall be admitted to membership unless at least one member of the Society, or some well-known citizen of New Jersey, shall state in writing his be-belief that the applicant for admission is of good moral character, and would be a worthy member of the Society.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

1. The Officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and a Registrar, who, with ten other members, shall constitute a Board of Managers.

2. The Officers and Managers, and Delegates to the National Society, shall be elected by a vote of the majority of the members present at the annual meetings of the Society, and shall hold office for one year, or until their successors are elected.

3. The Board of Managers shall fill any vacancy occurring among the officers of the Society or the members of the Board, or the delegates to the National Society.

4. In addition to the officers above provided for, the Board of Managers may, from time to time, appoint a Chaplain, a Historian, and such subordinate officers as they may deem necessary, who shall hold office until the annual meeting next succeeding their appointment.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

1. The annual meeting shall be held on the 26th day of December, the anniversary of the battle of Trenton, in every year, except when that date shall fall on Sunday or Monday, in which case the meeting shall be held on the Tuesday immediately following.

2. The hour and place of meeting shall be designated by the Board of Managers.

3. Special meetings may be called by the President or Board of Managers at any time. The President shall call a special meeting whenever requested in writing so to do by five or more members.

4. Ten members shall constitute a quorum at all meetings.

5. General business may be transacted at any special meeting.

ARTICLE VI.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to this Constitution may be offered to any meeting of the Society, but shall not be acted on until the next meeting. A copy of every proposed amendment shall be sent to each member, with a notice of the meeting at which the same is to be acted on, at least one week prior to said meeting.

A vote of two-thirds of those present shall be necessary to its adoption.

BY-LAWS.

SECTION I.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

1. The names and proofs of qualification of candidates for membership shall be sent to the Secretary. They shall be referred by him to a committee on membership, consisting of three members of the Society to be appointed by the President. This committee shall report, as soon as practicable, to the Board of Managers, on the qualifications and character of candidates. A vote of two-thirds of the Managers present at any meeting of the Board shall be necessary to the election of a member.

2. The amount of the initiation fee shall in all cases accompany the application for membership. If the application be rejected, the amount of the initiation fee shall be returned to the applicant. No member shall be elected unless the initiation fee be first paid.

3. The Board of Managers shall have power to suspend or expel any member of the Society, for sufficient cause, by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Board. Provided, that at least two weeks' notice of such proposed action shall have been given to such member. A member so suspended or expelled shall have the right to appeal to a meeting of the Society from the action of the Board of Managers.

SECTION II.

INITIATION FEE AND DUES.

1. The initiation fee shall be five ($5) dollars; the annual dues three ($3) dollars; or the payment at one time of fifty ($50) dollars shall constitute a life member, with exemption from payment of dues thereafter.

2. The annual dues shall be payable on the first day of April in each year.

3. Persons becoming members during the months of January, February and March in each year shall not be liable for payment of dues for the preceding year.

4. A member who shall remain in arrears for dues for three months after notice of his indebtedness has been sent him, may be dropped from the rolls by the Board of Managers.

5. The initiation fees and all payments for life membership shall be used by the Board of Managers for the purpose of publishing such documents as they may deem advisable, or for such special purposes as may be ordered by a vote of two-thirds of the Board.

SECTION III.

THE PRESIDENT.

The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, or in his absence a Chairman pro tempore, shall Preside at all meetings of the Society and Board of Managers, and shall have a casting vote. He shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer, and shall enforce a strict observance of the Constitution and By-Laws, and regulations and rules of the Society and Board of Managers.

SECTION IV.

THE SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election, and of such other matters as may be directed by the Society or Board of Managers. He shall have charge of the seal, certificate of incorporation and records, and, together with the presiding officer, shall certify all acts of the Society. He shall, under the direction of the President or Board of Managers, give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and Board of Managers. He shall keep a record of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and Board of Managers, and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders and proceedings affecting them or appertaining to their respective duties.

SECTION V.

THE TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society. All monies shall be deposited in some bank or savings' institution in this State, to the credit of the "New Jersey Society of the Sons of the American Revolution," and shall be drawn on the check of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society or by the Board of Managers; he shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. He shall make a report to the Board of Managers whenever called upon to do so.

SECTION VI.

THE REGISTRAR.

The Registrar shall keep a roll of members, and in his hands shall be lodged all the proofs of qualification for membership, and all the historical and genealogical papers of which the Society may become possessed. Under the direction of the Board of Managers he shall keep in a suitable book, copies of such documents as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

SECTION VII.

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers shall have the general superintendence of the interests and business of the Society; they shall perform such duties as may be committed to them by the Society; they shall have power to make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution, By-Laws and Resolutions of the Society, as may be necessary for their own management and the government of the Society. At each annual meeting they shall make a general report. Five members shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Board.

SECTION VIII.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to these By-Laws may be made at any meeting of the Society by a vote of a majority of the members present. Provided, that a notice of the meeting and a copy of the proposed amendment shall be sent to every member at least one week prior to such meeting.
