HENRY J. BEAN

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

To the People of the State of Oregon:

I deeply appreciate the trust that has been reposed in me by the electors of the State of Oregon in choosing me for service on the Supreme Court for twenty-eight years. The opinions written by me are contained in one hundred volumes of the Oregon Supreme Court Reports.

My record is an open book. It has been my privilege to take a large part in settling litigation in regard to the important questions of water rights in the state. The work of the Supreme Court is up to date.

If again elected I shall continue to serve the people of the state to the best of my ability. My experience has rendered the duties of the office less arduous, and my long service has enabled the people of Oregon to be acquainted with me.

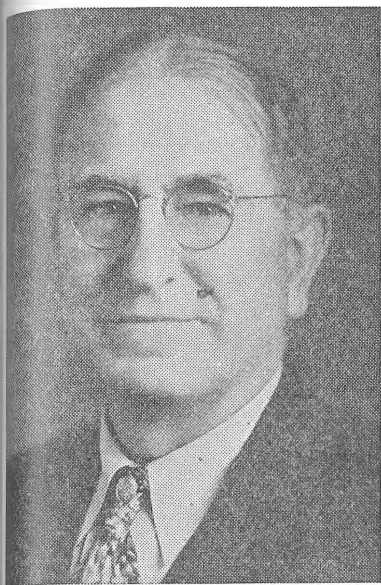

The support of the voters, both men and women, is respectfully solicited, irrespective of political faith or party affiliations.

Yours for truth and justice,

HENRY J. BEAN.

GEO. T. COCHRAN

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

Geo. T. Cochran, candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2, is a native of Union County, Oregon, where he now lives. He graduated in law at Stanford University and was elected to the honorary scholarship fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa.

After Government service in the Philippine Islands, he began practicing law in La Grande, Oregon, in partnership with his brother, Charles E. Cochran. This partnership was dissolved when C. E. Cochran moved to Portland. Later he formed the present partnership of Cochran & Eberhard with C. R. Eberhard.

In civic affairs, Mr. Cochran is now a member of the La Grande Public Library Board, of the Board of Directors of the La Grande Commercial Club and of the Rotary Club, and is Chairman of the Union County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

His wife, Martha Pearl Cochran, is also a leader in public work, having served as President and Director of the La Grande Neighborhood Club, as Vice-president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, and as County Chairman of War Work during the World War.

His daughter, Mrs. W. A. Roberts, Jr., is now living at The Dalles, Oregon.

As a lawyer, Judge Cochran has a state and national reputation. He has served as Deputy District Attorney of Union County and as City Attorney of La Grande.

In judicial experience, he heard many water cases involving streams of the State and adjudicated water titles affecting over a million acres of land.

In private practice, he is known as a keen trial lawyer and a sound and liberal judge of law. Before the Supreme Court of the United States, he argued questions vital to the people of Oregon, established the constitutionality of the Oregon Water Law, and confirmed the rights of Oregon to the Walla Walla River.

In a national way, last November, the Secretary of Interior appointed him upon a Commission to report on the economic condition of United States and Indian Reclamation Projects.

Judge Cochran is now in the prime of life. His friends take pride in asking the voters of Oregon to place him on the Supreme Court and propose the slogan:

"Able, Just, Liberal and True."

C. M. HUMPHREYS.

ROY R. HEWITT

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

Roy R. Hewitt, candidate for renomination to Position Number Two of the Supreme Court of Oregon, is qualified by experience and desire to make law serve humanity. He has specialized in the legal problems of the farmer and worker. He believes in and works for the interests of the men and women who toil.

He was born fifty-five years ago of pioneer stock in Yamhill County, Oregon. He was reared on an Oregon farm and attended the public schools of Oregon. He received two degrees from Willamette University and a Master's Degree from Clark University.

He was admitted to the Oregon Bar in 1909. He practised law for five years in Yamhill County and for the past six years has been engaged in the practice of his profession at Salem. He has had extensive experience in State and Federal Courts.

In 1932 he ran for the same position on the Supreme Court that he now seeks. In a field of four candidates he was nominated and in the General Election received 123,497 votes.

He is the author of textbooks used in the public schools and colleges of Oregon. For seven years he was a professor of law and government at Oregon State College and for five years Dean of Willamette University College of Law.

He believes that the law should be interpreted and applied in such a way that it will not retard progress. In its interpretation he insists that greater emphasis be put upon human rights and that more thought be given to human values. He has made a careful study of court procedure and insists on progressive reform.

HEWITT FOR JUDGE COMMITTEE,

MRS. JOSEPHINE M. OTHUS, 610 N. E. 30th Ave., Portland,
LYNN A. WOOD, 860 Jefferson St., Salem,
H. E. BARKER, Secretary, Salem Trades and Labor Council.

JOHN W. McCULLOCH

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

LEGAL QUALIFICATIONS:

I have been a resident of Oregon more than 50 years; have been actively engaged in the practice of law for 40 years; was District Attorney for Grant, Harney and Malheur Counties from 1904 to 1913; was appointed Assistant United States Attorney in 1928, and later became chief assistant to United States Attorney George Neuner. When Carl C. Donough became United States Attorney he made me his chief assistant, which position I held until 1934 when I was appointed Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States and placed in charge of all legal work for the Bonneville Project for the states of Oregon and Washington. In handling this work, among other things, I have written more than five hundred legal opinions, every one of which has been acted upon, and large sums of money paid out. This work is now almost completed.

PERSONAL QUALIFICATIONS:

I was married to Olive E. Robertson February 3, 1900. We have raised and educated five very promising children: Paul, Superintendent of Schools at The Dalles; Ruth, Mrs. R. R. Masterson, Portland; Ralph, head of McCulloch Motor Co., Klamath Falls; John, "G" man in charge of Bureau of Investigation, Sacramento, California, and Esther, Mrs. Paul G. Bauer, Yakima, Washington. If there is any one thing in life for which I am most proud it is that as fast as I have earned money, I have exchanged the money earned for something more valuable than money,—the welfare, education and advancement of my children.

JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS:

Oregon has a Non-partisan Judiciary Law. It is the intent of the law to take judicial positions out of politics. While I have always taken an active interest in public affairs, I have been strictly non-partisan in the practice of law. I have had two appointments as Assistant United States Attorney, one appointment made by George Neuner, a republican, and one appointment made by Carl C. Donough, a democrat. I have had two appointments as Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, one appointment made by Attorney General John G. Sargent, a republican, and one appointment made by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, a democrat. In each instance the appointment was made, I believe, because the appointing officer thought I was the best available person for the work to be done.

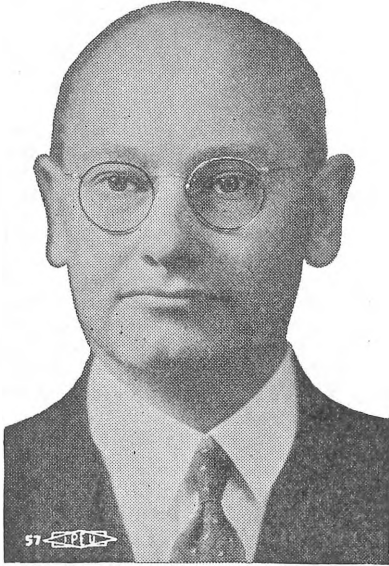

After 40 years' active practice of law in Oregon, I believe I am of a judicial temperament, and that I am qualified, morally, mentally, and physically to render competent judicial service for my state. Give me one six-year term and I will give the State good service, based upon mature experience in the law.

JOHN W. McCULLOCH.

HOWARD K. ZIMMERMAN

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 2
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

I am the presiding judge for Clatsop and Columbia Counties, serving in my tenth year. At the end of my first term, I was re-elected by a decisive majority of between three and four to one. I practiced law in Astoria for 13 years before my elevation to the circuit bench, serving five years of this time as city attorney for Astoria.

I am 48 years of age and thus combine maturity of judgment with the necessary physical energy and efficiency to perform the large volume of work which the people have a right to expect of a Supreme Court Justice. When I took office as circuit judge, I found the docket eighteen months behind. Within two years, I had brought it up to date. I have kept it up to date ever since. The same result has been accomplished in our Supreme Court since the advent of several young men on that bench. If the voters want this work kept up to date, they must choose a man young enough to carry his share of the load.

I am a graduate of the Salem public schools, the University of Oregon and the Stanford University Law School.

I understand the problems of the farmer. I was raised on an Oregon farm. My father still lives on the old home place north of Salem. I appreciate and sympathize with the problems of labor. I have a son in a labor union. During the recent labor troubles among factions of loggers and sawmill workers, I, together with other officials of my district, have firmly and impartially insisted upon obedience to law. At the same time, I have counselled in a friendly way with both sides of the controversy. As a result, the mills and camps in Clatsop and Columbia counties have been operating a good deal of the time when they were closed down in most of the state. This has been a distinct benefit to both employers and employees as well as the public in general.

I have always worked with others in organizations and activities for the betterment of my community and state. I am now the president of the Astoria Y. M. C. A., a member of the Red Cross Advisory Board and the Oregon Prisoners Aid Society and am active in the work of the Kiwanis Club, the Masonic and Oddfellows Lodges, the American Legion and the Grange.

HOWARD K. ZIMMERMAN.

J. O. BAILEY

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 3
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

In 1932 I was elected judge of the Supreme Court of the state of Oregon, Position No. 3, pursuant to the 1931 Nonpartisan Judiciary Act, and now occupy that position. My first term as Supreme Court judge expires this year and I am a candidate for re-election.

I was born fifty-seven years ago on a farm near Grinnell, Iowa, attended the public schools of that state and later was graduated from Harvard University. In 1907 I was admitted to the bar in the state of Washington and practiced law in Spokane for three years. In 1910 I came to Portland, Oregon, which has since that time been my place of residence. There I was engaged in the general practice of law continuously until assuming my present position, with the exception of five years, 1915 to 1920, when I was assistant Attorney General of the state of Oregon. I am married and have four children.

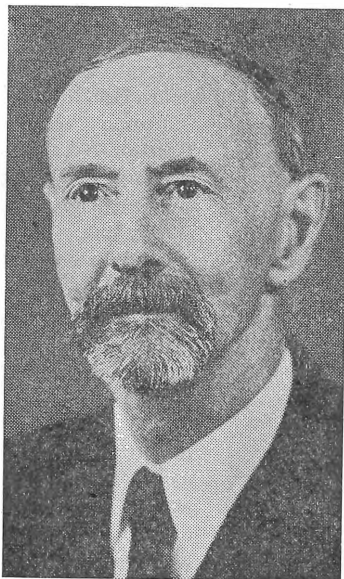

For eight years, 1925 to 1933, I was a member of the Oregon state legislature, serving two sessions as state representative and two sessions as state senator. From 1927 to 1930 I was a director of the Portland public schools.

The work of the Supreme Court is now up to date. My candidacy for re-election is submitted to you for your favorable consideration.

J. O. BAILEY.

B. S. MARTIN

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 3
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

B. S. Martin was born in Benton County, Oregon, of pioneer parents. After finishing the public schools he attended Campbell's Select School. After completing a College Preparatory Course he entered the Oregon State College; graduating from this college he received two diplomas, after which he took graduate work at University of Oregon. He then took up the study of law and was admitted to the Bar. He has been in active practice for many years, and his long experience has qualified him for sound judicial reasoning without prejudice or bias.

He has been an industrious student in his profession and is well qualified by education, legal training, industry and temperament to discharge the duties of the Supreme Court Justice fairly and impartially to all.

JAMES T. CHINNOCK

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 5
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

I am a candidate for Position No. 5, Supreme Court Justice of Oregon on the nonpartisan ballot. I have been in active practice of law in this state for thirty years. I am 55 years of age. In 1910 I was elected a member of the State Water Board of Oregon, and for eight years held that important office. During that time I made a special study of irrigation, drainage, and water power law. I have been recognized as a specialist in these subjects.

This office was judicial in character, and while acting as such officer I heard and determined many adjudications, among which were Rogue River, Chewacan River, North Powder River, Lost River and numerous other streams in western and eastern Oregon.

Born on a farm near Hudson, Wisconsin, I came to Oregon in 1889. I was graduated from the Law Department of the University of Minnesota in 1905; entered the practice of law that year; have been in the general practice of law in Grants Pass for the past twenty years.

In 1926 I was appointed city attorney for Grants Pass, and served as such officer under four mayors, until 1935.

In 1928 I was elected state representative for Josephine County, reelected in 1930, and in 1934 was elected state senator from my district, serving four years.

I was twice elected president of the Oregon Reclamation Congress, and as a member of the legislature I prepared and introduced the bills which were enacted into law and provided for the refinancing of the indebtedness of both irrigation and drainage districts in this state.

I also prepared and assisted in preparing many bills enacted into laws to assist the cities of this state to reduce municipal expense and indebtedness and interest on municipal bonds. I believe my experience as a legislator and a lawyer has qualified me for the important position to which I aspire.

I have also been interested in development of the mining industry in this state, and have made a special study of mining law.

The development of water power from our potential natural resources, from the legal point of view, for the benefit of the public, has been among my most important objectives.

As a member of the legislature I also introduced and secured the passage of many bills which have reduced taxes, and bills to perfect the inheritance tax laws. I was, in the senate, chairman of the important committee on Assessment and Taxation.

I am a past president of the Southern Oregon Bar Association.

If elected, I will, to the best of my ability, render impartial justice to all persons.

JAMES T. CHINNOCK.

From 1918 to 1920 he served as First Assistant United States Attorney under the late Lester W. Humphreys, who was United States District Attorney for Oregon. He was appointed to the circuit court for Multnomah County in 1930 to succeed the late Judge John H. Stevenson, and was elected to succeed himself in 1932. In 1937, while serving as

As a citizen he has, by his activities and conduct, earned and gained the esteem and approval of all who know him best. As a lawyer he holds a high place with both laymen and members of his profession. As a circuit judge he demonstrated his fitness for that exacting position. As a supreme court judge he has proved by the high standard of the opinions written by him that he possesses the qualities of a genuine jurist.

Judge Lusk is a scholar, a student, a jurist, and a patriotic citizen.

He has served the people of Oregon with credit to himself and honor to the state of Oregon.

LUSK FOR SUPREME COURT JUDGE COMMITTEE,

By LAWRENCE T. HARRIS.

I. H. VAN WINKLE

Candidate for Nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court, Position No. 5
(Nonpartisan Judiciary Ballot)

I am a candidate to fill the vacancy in the Supreme Court caused by the death of Judge Campbell last year, and now held by appointment by the Governor until filled at the next general election.

I am now completing eighteen years as attorney-general of Oregon following many years as assistant in that office. This position has given me wide experience in construing the statutes and constitutional provisions of the State and United States, and has required a thorough familiarity with the law and procedure in the courts. The questions considered in the legal opinions and oral advice of this office include practically the entire field covered in the duties of a Supreme judge. The interpretation involved in such questions requires the exercise of judgment for their solution similar to that of the court. My opinions upon such questions very rarely have been reversed by the courts.

My duties as attorney-general have also required me to represent the State in a very large number of cases in all of the state and federal courts, including the United States Supreme Court, many of them of great importance. This experience cannot be otherwise than most helpful in the discharge of the duties of the office to which I aspire.

I was born and reared on a farm near Halsey in Linn County, Oregon, and am a graduate of Willamette University, in both the Colleges of Law and Liberal Arts, having earned my own way while a student there. I was for many years an instructor in the College of Law of Willamette, in addition to the active practice of my profession, and was Dean of that College from 1913 to 1927, and am now Dean Emeritus.

I have vigorously, but fairly, enforced the criminal laws when assigned to such duty by the order of the Governor, as provided by law, in cases where the local law enforcement agencies have been inadequate, or, for any reason, prevented from acting efficiently. I procured the enactment of the law requiring payment of royalties for the taking of sand and gravel from navigable streams, resulting in the increase of the common school fund by over half a million dollars up to now, without increasing taxation on property, and such income will continue indefinitely. I secured title to more than 20,000 acres of land for the common school fund.

I materially aided in the enactment of the laws providing for soldiers' bonus and loans, and successfully defended them when attacked in court. I have always construed such laws so the veterans could receive the benefits intended for them, also the fish and game laws granting special privileges to veterans. I wrote the original law granting veterans and their widows exemption from taxation of their homesteads, or other property selected, to the value of $1,000, and have always construed such statute liberally.
