MEMBERS OF LOCAL AMERICAN LEGION ATTEND CHURCH

Hear 'Prepare for Peace' as Told by Rev. Calderwood
at Special Services

The American legion attended services last night in the Congregational church and listened to an address on "Prepare for Peace" by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Calderwood, who is a member of the American legion. Charles Compton sang "Recessional," the music being arranged by DeKoven, and the choir sang "In Flaners' Field," by Robinson. The church was crowded and great interest was shown in the service. A resume of the address follows:

Rev. Calderwood

"You went into war to end war. You fought for peace. Our government wants peace. The millions of the world's people want peace. Then why do we not have peace? It is because certain people are greedy, selfish and unbrotherly, not because they are blood-thirsty. We have made great sacrifices to prepare for war. When we are willing to make some sacrifices for peace we will have peace.

Old Method Has Failed
The old method for obtaining world peace has failed. The world was told that certain methods of procedure would operate for peace. The world took that advice. The world obeyed the commands of the war lords and now the world is starving, suffering, bleeding and bankrupt.

The world is starting to repeat the mistake of the last century. There is a race in organizing and maintaining armies, in building great navies and in creating other superb engines of destruction.

"We are pleased that our government sees the mistake and recognizes the danger of this and so hopes to lead the nations out of threatening wars to a lasting peace. To this end, our president has called a conference.

Building Committee of Tuesday Club to Make Report, Belief

The program for the next meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club, which will meet tomorrow afternoon at Masonic Temple, will include readings by Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith, actress, author and lecturer. It is also probable that there will be a report of the building committee and the submission of several propositions relative to the sale of the Tuesday Afternoon club lots at Brand boulevard and Lexington Drive.

Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith has appeared before various women's clubs throughout the country, and has just produced a pageant given at Sierra Madre. This year she is the dramatic director of the Ebell drama section.

Mrs. Hutchins, president of the club, states that tomorrow will also be charter day and that there will be a surprise in store for the members.

Evening News Boys to Be Guests at Big Shows

The Glendale Evening News carrier boys are going to see the Sheesley Shows tonight. They are going to be the guests of W. X. MacCollin, publicity representative.

"News boys are the best boosters I know," he said this morning.

"Glendale people could appreciate the high class entertainment we offer there is no question but what the American Legion's carnival will be a great success."

Columns could be used describing the different amusements and rides, but a visit to the show grounds at Harvard and Orange streets tells the story better.

COMES ON OFFICIAL VISIT

Members of Mary Jane Gillette Tent, No. 18, are anticipating a rousing good meeting tomorrow night in American legion hall, 610 East Broadway. The department inspector, Lida Pearson of Los Angeles, will be present on her official visit and other members of the department staff and visitors will probably attend the meeting. As this will be one of the most important meetings of the year the attendance will no doubt be above the average. The business session will be followed by a social hour.

SIDNEY B. DIXON AT HOME

Sidney B. Dixon of 324 South Verdugo road has returned from his annual six months' eastern visit, which included a three weeks' fishing trip in the Georgian Bay district out of Detroit. He spent the remainder of the time with his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Lahr in New York. Mr. Dixon, being the oldest living past eminent commander of Detroit Knights Templar No. 1, was the honor guest at a banquet. A banquet also was given in his honor by the G. A. R. of which he is past commander. His trip was greatly enjoyed.

MAYOR ROBINSON'S RIDE PUTS PAUL REVERE AND HIS TRIP FAR TO REAR

Paul Revere never got a ride like Mayor Spencer Robinson had Saturday afternoon south on Brand boulevard perched upon the new $12,000, seven-ton, 110 horsepower, 929-gallon, red combination pump and auto-hose-cart, officially known as "No. 4" to the Glendale Fire Department.

As "the bus" dashed up the Bcynton street hill at thirty miles an hour, he agreed that he got more thrills than from his own new Essex.

"This is one of the best trucks in southern California," stated Fire Chief A. H. Lankford this morning. "We are all ready for fires now."

The new truck is parked in Fire Station No. 2, while fire truck No. 1, which had been kept there, has been brought to the main station.

Clara Pearson and Rexford L. Thompson Wedded on Saturday

On Saturday, the fifth of November, at 6:30 p. m., Miss Clara A. Pearson became the wife of Rexford L. Thompson of El Segundo, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pearson, 644 East Harvard street.

Mrs. Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pearson of Brawley, formerly of Lomita avenue, Glendale. Rev. D. Cornell, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, performed the impressive ring ceremony, the young couple following him in the services reverentially.

They were a strikingly handsome pair, the bride in a traveling dress of dark blue poret twill with bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pearson.

At the piano, over half a century in the family, the grandmother played the wedding march. In the absence of the bride's father, who was unavoidably detained on business in Brawley, the bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, James Pearson, uncle of the bride, sang a solo and Mrs. Moore played a charming piano selection.

The "Huntington Sisters," a Gilbert Stuart portrait copied by the grandmother, one of the sisters being the great grandmother of Miss Clara Pearson, massed on each side by dahlias in pastel shades, reflected more brilliantly by red candles, formed the background for the wedding party. The soft tints of the portrait harmonized with the shades of the flowers. Around the room vases of chrysanthemums and carnations were artistically arranged.

Mrs. Guy Pearson accompanied the happy pair to Los Angeles immediately after the ceremony. Following a wedding dinner Mrs. Pearson left for Brawley, while Mr. and Mrs. Thompson went to their new home in El Segundo, where Mr. Thompson is employed in the Standard Oil works. Congratulations and good wishes from their many friends follow them.

Christian Circle Club to Give Dinner, Social

The regular weekly dinner and social gathering of the Christian Circle club, which is made up of the girls and young women of all of the churches in Glendale, will take place as usual tomorrow evening at the banquet room of the First Baptist church. The dinner will take place at 5:30 o'clock, after which the members and their friends will assemble in the Bible study room, where they will be given the weekly Bible lesson by Miss E. Maude Soper, who is the permanent teacher of the organization.

The officers of the association have made arrangements for "Mother and Daughter" night, which has been scheduled to take place at the First Baptist church on Tuesday night, November 15. The evening is to be enjoyed with the usual banquet, a short program consisting of talks and musical selections by girls of the club and the regular Bible study hour, led by Miss Soper.

R. E. ROWLEY IS PRESIDENT

Robert E. Rowley, son of L. T. Rowley, 334 Vine street, has been elected president of a chapter of the Theta Sigma Nu newly organized among the engineering students and associates at U. S. C. He recently attended the "Big Game" at Berkeley, going up on the Yale and returning via auto.

HALLOWEEN DINNER PARTY

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Farrow of 214 West Doran street entertained recently at a Halloween dinner party. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark, Miss Dorothy Clark, Mrs. Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bawn and son, Frederick, C. G. Farrow, Jr., Alice Farrow, Virginia Farrow and Dr. and Mrs. Farrow.

ARRIVE HERE FROM KANSAS

Mrs. H. McDaniel, 315 Hawthorne street, has as her guests for the winter her brother, Frank Knocke, wife and 4-year-old daughter, Frances who arrived in their car Saturday from Concordia, Kan.

GUESTS AT QUAIL DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Farrow of 214 West Doran street were guests at a quail dinner given by friends in Hollywood Thursday night.

SAY, KIDS! WOULDN'T YOU ENJOY BEING AT THIS PARTY?

Teachers Asked All Kinds of Questions and Only Able to Answer Few of 'Em

Listen, kids, the truth at last has leaked out—some school teachers don't know everything.

No doubt they would like to keep secret the facts about the A. O. U. I. T. S. That stands for "Ancient Order of Intermediate School Teachers."

The Grand Wizard of the lodge says that the order is ancient—not the individuals.

New members of the faculty were initiated into its mysteries Friday night in the home of Miss Mae McPherson, 607 North Central avenue, during the annual party.

While the Grand Wizard and his attendants were putting on their ceremonial robes and masks, the vic-tims escaped their guard in the basement. L. T. Rowley, truant officer, knew a few tricks about playing hooky. So he drove them to a drug store where they phoned back and gave the assembly the "Ford laugh."

Get Warm Welcome
When they returned, they were welcomed warmly and invited into an incense game of progressive conversation. At the opportune moment, the signal was given, they were seized by guards—and presto into the basement they went again. One by one they were brought into the court.

Miss Ethel E. Chase, 1439 East Wilson avenue, is a teacher of arithmetic but she was unable to answer the problems in ultra-rapid calculation flung at her. She also failed to solve the problem: If it takes a dozen shoe strings to go around a lamp post, how many yards of butter milk does it take to make a wedding dress for a cow?

Miss Murray Longley, 431 West Harvard street, is the principal's secretary. She was unable to tell how many keys on her typewriter. As a penalty for her ignorance, she was required to execute a modern dance with a chair.

Get One Right, Anyway
Miss Gertrude Greider, 429 North Kenwood avenue, "got by" in her geography exam when she replied that the State of Matrimony was in Heaven, but failed utterly to bound the State of Innocuous Desuetude.

Mrs. Carrie S. McLennon, Los Angeles, failed to pass an intelligence test and was given her choice of either singing a Spanish love song or performing a Spanish dance. Her "spectator" concluded that she was a fine singer.

Miss Alta Gaynor, Los Angeles, also failed to pass an intelligence test and absolutely refused to comply with instructions to divulge the details of her most recent love affair.

Well, He's Good Rider
Isaac A. Mansell, Los Angeles, was unable to square a circle or explain the Einstein Theory of Relativity. He was obliged to ride the goat whose imaginary horns had been sharpened and whose imaginary fleeces were being marcelled for the occasion.

L. T. Rowley, 334 Vine street, also was given a ride on the sawhorse—pardon, "goat." He was accused of depriving the children of the Intermediate school of their regular lunch by eating all the food in the cafeteria. He was indicted, secondly, for driving young women about the town and claiming them as relatives just because they were "trix-aux."

After each victim had been initiated and had knelt and signed the pledge, cocoa, fruit salad and cake were served and the party broke up at 11 o'clock.

Viola Yorba Retaining Lead in Queen Contest

A whirlwind climax of the American Legion Carnival Queen contest is anticipated for Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, at which time Mayor Spencer Robinson and Miss Jane Novak, film star, will preside at the coronation ceremonies at the carnival grounds, Orange and Harvard street. Many of the contestants have been materially increasing their votes by visiting nearby beach cities, where they have found a ready sale of tickets.

The official standing of contestants is as follows:

Miss Viola Yorba . . . 39,425
Miss Dorothy Morton . . . 37,425
Mrs. Warren Roberts . . . 25,575
Miss Winifred Sternberg . . . 22,800
Miss Louise Monk . . . 18,000
Mrs. Ellene Wheeler . . . 12,000
Miss Florence Kriskie . . . 10,775
Miss Edna Bronnenberg . . . 6,900
Miss Lucille Park . . . 4,100
Miss Helen De Laine . . . 2,500

MRS. C. L. MARLENEE BACK

Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee of 301 South Central avenue has returned from Barstow, where she was called by the serious illness of her father, Milton Armstrong, who passed away October 28, 1921. He was an active Mason, and his funeral services were conducted by that organization at Barstow.

EXECUTIVE BOARD SESSION

A business meeting of the executive board of the Glendale Music club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, 208 South Brand boulevard.

Today's World News In Brief (By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

ADIRONDACK SECTION OF N. Y. STATE IS UNDER SNOW
GLEN FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The Adirondack section of New York state, including this city, awoke this morning to find itself under a blanket of snow three inches deep.

MAN KILLED, BAKERY WRECKED BY EXPLOSION OF GAS
PETALUMA, Cal., Nov. 7.—Ole Nogart, 60, baker, was instantly killed and the bakery of T. J. Hornbuckle wrecked by a gas explosion when the baker attempted to light the fire under the ovens here today. Nogart's body was badly mangled by the explosion.

YOUTH ACCIDENTALLY KILLED WHILE ON HUNTING TRIP
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7.—Anker Goegh, 19, was accidentally killed five miles south of here while on a hunting trip with his brother, E. C. Boegh. The youth's head was entirely blown away by a charge from a shotgun which he is thought to have dropped while climbing over a fence.

BRIAND SAYS FRANCE READY TO JOIN ANY PEACE PLAN
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—France is ready to join any movement to avert new world conflicts and will approach the forthcoming conference at Washington in the most favorable spirit for the maintenance of peace, according to Aristide Briand, premier of France and chief of French armament limitation delegation arriving here today.

MOVIE THEATRE CASHIER HELD UP; $10,000 STOLEN
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—Four armed bandits held up the cashier of the Liberty moving picture theatre here shortly after 10 o'clock this morning and escaped with between $7,000 and $10,000 cash. Three of the robbers overpowered the cashier and made a quick job of the inside work. The fourth bandit was waiting outside in an automobile in which the robbers escaped.

MRS. LYDIA SOUTHARD GETS FROM TEN YEARS TO LIFE
TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Lydia Southard today was sentenced to serve ten years to life in the Idaho state penitentiary for the murder of Edward F. Meyer, her fourth husband. She was convicted late Friday after a trial lasting several weeks. The court imposed the minimum penalty under the Idaho laws. Attorneys for Mrs. Southard are expected to appeal the case.

ANOTHER CRISIS IN IRISH PEACE PARLEY NEAR CLIMAX
LONDON, Nov. 7.—The new crisis in the Irish peace situation, precipitated by the refusal of the Ulster unionists to accept the proposed compromise measures appeared today to be working swiftly towards a climax. A member of the entourage of Sir James Craig, premier of the unionist government of Ulster, told the International News Service that Ulster would not make the concessions demanded by the Sinn Fein.

INDIANA COAL MINERS ARE ORDERED BACK TO WORK
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Most of the 30,000 Indiana coal miners who went on strike last week in protest against Federal Judge Anderson's injunction decree abolishing the check-off system, mainstay of the union structure, were reported back to work today. Instructions from John L. Lewis, International president, transmitted by District President Hessler, coupled with assurances from the operators that the check-off system would be restored, caused the resumption of work.

MANY KILLED, HEAVY DAMAGE BY STORMS IN EUROPE
LONDON, Nov. 7.—Many persons were killed and enormous damage caused by heavy gales that have been sweeping northern Europe for thirty hours. Twenty-eight persons were drowned when the Finnish steamship Kustavi was sunk in the Baltic. Two persons were killed and several injured at Antwerp. Other deaths were reported from northern France. The British steamer Angus capsized in the harbor of Havre. There has been heavy loss of shipping in British ports and telephone and telegraph communication is interrupted.

SMALL BOY IS ONLY SURVIVOR OF FAMILY OF SIX
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Donald Sales, 9, was the only survivor today of a family of six. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Sales, Jr., his parents, Marjorie Sales, 12, Mrs. D. D. Sales, Sr., mother of Wilbur Sales, and R. H. Bradley, father of Mrs. Sales, were killed when the automobile in which they were riding was hit late yesterday by the westbound Sunset express on the Southern Pacific railroad at a state highway crossing at Los Medanos, Contra Costa county. The lad owes his life to his presence of mind in clinging to a truss rod on the pilot of the engine where he was tossed by the impact.

'FATTY' ARBUCKLE CASE IS CONTINUED FOR ONE WEEK
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle once more staged a court appearance here today. He was present when the manslaughter charge against him growing out of the death of Virginia Rappe, film actress, was called before Superior Judge Harold Louderback. The case went over one week. In making the motion for the continuance, Gavin McNab, chief counsel for the film comedian, declared the delay was not of the defense's seeking but was by agreement because of the two holidays this week. Assistant District Attorney Fitzgerald concurred in this and Judge Louderback postponed the opening of the trial.

SOCIETY WOMEN ATTEND FRANCE'S BLUEBEARD TRIAL
VERSAILLES, France, Nov. 7.—France's most sensational murder trial since the acquittal of the wife of former Premier Joseph Caillaux on a murder charge in the summer of 1914, opened today when Henri Landrau, modern bluebeard, was arraigned charged with killing a dozen "wives" and finances for their money. A tremendous crowd, composed mostly of women, stormed the court building, but were held back by a cordon of fifty policemen that guarded the entrance. Admission was by ticket only. The trial took on the appearance of a society event with large numbers of limousines parked outside. The full jury was sworn in at 1:30 o'clock and the prosecutor immediately began reading the indictment. The indictment charged Landrau with the specific murder of eleven women.

GREAT PARADE FOR ARMISTICE DAY IN FOUR DIVISIONS

Final Details Are Completed by
D. W. Nicoles, Who Will Act as Grand Marshal

D. W. Nicoles, marshal for the Armistice day parade, announces the following four divisions will form the procession next Friday:

Division No. 1, Patriotic Organizations—City council, city police, color guard, American legion band, American legion, Thornycroft veterans, American Legion Queen, women's auxiliary, G. A. R. women's relief corps, Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans, Daughters of the American Revolution, National Guard, Red Cross, Camp Fire Grls, high school, grammar schools, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Parent-Teacher associations.

Division No. 2, Fraternal Organizations—Elks, Silver Star Band of the Knights of Pythias, Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters, Yeomen, A. O. U. W.

Division No. 3, Civic Organizations—Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Fire Department, South Glendale Improvement association, Tuesday Afternoon club, Glendale Music club, Thursday Afternoon club, Glendale Ministers, Business Women's club.

Division No. 4, Sheesley's Circus—Division 1 will report at Harvard street and Central avenue to D. W. Nicoles or Jesse Smith. Division 2 will report on Hawthorne street, east from Central avenue, to Lieutenants Jones and Edwards. Division 3 will report on Hawthorne street, west from Central avenue to Lieutenants Whitmyer and Bullis. Division 4 will fall in line as the parade moves out.

Line of March
The order of parade will be as follows:

Starting at Central avenue and Harvard street, move south on Central to Colorado street, east on Colorado to Brand boulevard, north on Brand to Broadway, east on Broadway to Glendale avenue. From Glendale avenue the parade will counter-march back on Broadway to Brand boulevard, north on Brand to Wilton avenue, counter-march back on Brand to Broadway, west on Broadway to Central avenue, and then south on Central avenue to the starting point.

Marshal D. W. Nicoles announces this arrangement is slightly changed from the original plan.

Junior Auxiliary of Music Club Entertains

The Junior Auxiliary of the Glendale Music club met Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Parker, 212 North Orange street, with about sixty members present. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. L. N. Hagood and Mrs. Wilson were guests of the auxiliary. Mrs. Jones, president of the Glendale Music club, gave a short talk.

This was followed by a very enjoyable Italian program including the following numbers: "Echoes of Naples" (Group of Italian Melodies), by the Junior orchestra; piano solo, selections from "Il Trovatore" (Verdi), by Margaret Longley; vocal duet, "Home to Our Mountains" (Verdi), by Donna Wilson and Elea-uore Kopp, accompanied at the piano by Jean Robinson; violin solo, "Concerto No. 23" (Titi), by Virgil Drengberg, accompanied by Margaret Stuckwisch; "The Brownies" (Leon), by Junior choral club, directed by Mrs. Charles Parker.

After the program games and refreshments were enjoyed. The next meeting of the Junior Auxiliary will be held November 19 at the home of Miss Dorothy Watson, 526 North Central avenue.

DOES IT PAY? READ THIS

"Look, daddy, here's an old shoe I just found!" cried 6-year-old Earl Springer the other morning running to his father, Fred Springer, 1142 Adams Place, with a woman's gray pocketbook he had just picked up near the Glendale Research Hospital. It contained a gold pencil and some money.

It happens that the Springer family read The Glendale Evening News—as a result Miss L. E. Maranville of Montrose, who was foresighted enough to advertise its loss in this paper, has recovered her property.

BEWARE OF BARGAIN RATES

Jack Hanson, alias Norman, was arrested Saturday evening by the local police after he had sold three yearly subscriptions to the Saturday Evening Post at the rate of three years for one dollar. When taken into custody he confessed to being a fake and stated he had operated in Los Angeles along similar lines.

An investigation is being made into Hanson's past and a warning is given out by the police for everyone to report any solicitors making bargain rates on publications. The public should be careful about anything which is sold at "give away" prices.

Hanson is being held in the old Tropic city jail until he gets a hearing today before Police Judge F. H. Lowe.

JAIL MAN, HOLD HIS SISTER FOR DEATH ABANDONED BABE

Police Say They Have Full
Confession Clearing Up
Mysterious Case

James R. Wylie, age 28, a printer employed by the Southern California Edison Company, 257 East Third street, Los Angeles, is held by the police here, it being stated that he confessed to abandoning the baby born to his sister, Jessie Louise Wylie, 21, at 467 West Maple avenue, which was found Friday in a garage at Park avenue and San Fernando road.

In the confession signed by him and witnessed by Police Chief Allen O. Martin, Mrs. Irene E. Martin, Detective Sergeant J. L. Scales, Traffic Officer Walter E. Trautwein, Wylie states that the baby was born Monday, October 24, as the result of his relations with his sister; that no physician attended her; and that on the same night "through fear and without premeditation" he wrapped the child in paper and a burlap sack and disposed of it in the shed on San Fernando road.

Girl Taken to Hospital
Miss Wylie has been removed to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital for medical attention and her brother is languishing in the jail cell at the old Tropic city hall. He stated in his confession that he came to California with his sister from Chicago several years ago as both were in ill health.

Today the coroner is making a more comprehensive autopsy and tomorrow an inquest will be held at the Pulliam & Kiefer undertaking parlors. Immediately thereafter, a charge will be placed against Wylie.

Mrs. J. C. Griffin this morning identified the prisoner as the man who had, ten days ago, attempted to rent the garage at the rear of her home where Charles B. Anthony found the "dead infant Friday morning.

They Deserve Credit
To Chief of Police Martin and Detectives Scales goes the credit for solving what otherwise might have proved a baffling mystery.

Their persistency in holding fast to the few clues in their possession caused them to continue the investigation and on Saturday night Wylie told them the story after retaining Harry C. Levy as his attorney.

Since that time Wylie has not spoken of the matter and seems to want to rest his fate with the court. His sister cannot be made to believe that he confessed and she is steadfast in refusing to submit to a medical examination at the hospital.

Work of Excavating for New Hotel Is Now Half Complete

The work of excavating for the Ambrosini hotel at the northeast corner of Glendale avenue and East Broadway, is now half completed, announces Anthony Ambrosini.

"Our next work as soon as the excavating is finished," says Mr. Ambrosini, "is to get in touch with some Glendale contractor for putting in a reinforced concrete retaining wall to keep the side walls from caving in. The wall must be put in as soon as possible so as not to delay the construction work which is to follow.

"Blue prints have been prepared of the work to be done and have been left at 148 South Jackson, as I am now residing temporarily in Eagle Rock. All the work done will be under my supervision."

West Glendale Club Call Meeting Tonight

A meeting of the West Glendale Improvement Association has been called for 7:30 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the high school for the purpose of discussing the proposed site for the new high school, the bond issue as outlined and, too, for the purpose of filling vacancies among the officials of the organization. All members of the association and others interested in the progress of the northwestern section of the city are invited to attend tonight.

CHANCE TO SECURE $100

A hundred dollars for band purposes will be given to the Glendale Union high school if one parent of every student there joins the Parent-Teachers' Association. Mrs. Elliott B. Wyman, president of the organization, Mrs. Fred Stoff, its historian, and George Lockwood, chairman of its membership committee, explained the purpose of the drive this morning at an assembly this morning.

MRS. H. G. M'BAIN BURNED

Mrs. Harry G. MacBain of 614 East Lomita avenue was slightly burned about one arm and hand shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon when the gasoline in which she was cleaning some clothes ignited and set fire to her dress. She immediately ran into the back yard and rolled in the dirt and extinguished the blaze. The fire department was called.

'WAR' IS TOPIC OF SUNDAY TALK BY REV. PRESTON

Cannot Sign Armistice With Devil; Cannot Get Peace With Sin, He States

"There is quite an analogy between war and the battles a Christian has to fight," declared the Rev. Harley G. Preston, in his sermon on "War" yesterday morning at the West Glendale Methodist church.

"The millennium has not yet arrived. War has ever been present in the world. It seems to have begun when Lucifer exalted himself as equal with God. The forces of Christ are arrayed against the forces of sin and Satan. In this regard Christ came not to send peace but a sword.

"I feel confident, now that the war is over and won in the interests of civilization, that if the men themselves who fought could have a vote as to future wars they would vote them out of existence if they were a better way of preserving our national honor. An evidence of this is found in the message of peace sent from the recent American Legion National Convention at Kansas City to President Harding and the nation as a whole.

Must Conquer Self

"However, we cannot sign an armistice with the devil; we cannot come to terms of peace with sin. Too frequently there are those who 'tote' themselves right out of the Lord's enlistment office if there appears to be a little self-sacrifice imminent. To enlist as a Christian warrior on one side, above all else, learn to conquer himself. To be a soldier means sacrifice.

"There is another gas mask: The helmet of salvation mentioned by the Christian warrior St. Paul. This mask is proof against the deadly stupefying atmosphere of sin and temptation. It has been well tested. Even Jesus tried it out in the wilderness.

"Patriotism for one's country is right and proper, but friends and comrades in life's battles, above all, write in letters of fire 'Loyalty to the God of Nations.' Without God no nation could exist, those nations which have forgotten God, have gone down in decay and ruin.

At Critical Times

"Are we in the midst of a battle and does it seem that it is going against us? Look up and see Jesus Christ, the Grand Field Marshal, of the Victorious Armies of God, our general and commander-in-chief. He appears on the field of life's battles at critical times to all who look for and expect Him. His presence inspires us to victory. Too often we do not recognize the presence of our Commander.

"Let's fight the good fight and lay hold on eternal life and be able to say with St. Paul after our last battle, 'I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, I have finished my course and am now ready to be offered. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.'

San Fernando Valley

Discuss Tentative Program

Fourteen representatives of the San Fernando Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce met at the Hollywood Country club recently at the call of the newly elected president, Cecil Wilcox of the Lankershim Laconic, and discussed a tentative program for the coming year's work. In an informal way several matters of importance were touched upon, including the passage of a state law requiring motor trucks to pay a road maintenance tax, carload terminal rates on certain commodities to valley points, half-rates for winter irrigation, school matters, road maintenance, the future of the Valley fair.

Burbank's Building Record

According to the figures of the Burbank building inspector, the October record shows sixty-eight permits issued with a total value of $111,195, larger than any other month since January 1, except March and June, bringing the grand total for the first ten months of the year to $893,403.

Deciduous Tree Pruning

The agricultural extension service will hold a demonstration illustrating the latest methods of pruning deciduous trees at W. H. Bach's place in Orange Cove, Tuesday, November 8, at 10 o'clock. Representatives of the state department will be present and illustrate a descriptive talk with practical work on several varieties of trees.

Scouts Control Traffic

The Boy Scouts are assisting the Burbank police daily now at the grammar school grounds and San Fernando boulevard. At 12:05 p. m. two Scouts are stationed near the corners with red flag to provide a safety zone for the little folks to cross the street. Again at 2:05 the boys take their places and usher the little folks across the thoroughfare.

$2000 Weekly Pay Roll

The Empire China Factory at Burbank is now running to about one-third of their capacity and they are to this and they hope to reach full capacity in a few weeks, possibly by January 1. Their pay roll now, the thing in which the business men take so much interest, amounts to about $2000 dollars weekly and this will be increased as they enlarge production.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Celebrate Armistice Week Pastor As Police Judge Glendale Setting a Pace Get That Friendly Spirit

By Gil A. Cowan

THIS is Armistice week! The American legion is celebrating with a carnival. It behooves everyone to get the carnival spirit and enter into the fun. At Harvard and Orange streets you will find everything in the way of midway amusements. On Armistice day there will be two minutes of silence at 9 o'clock in memory of the hero dead. Then there will be a parade and other events during the day with a wrestling and boxing show in the evening to conclude the day's celebration.

Memories of the World War and that eventful day when news of preliminary peace was received are still fresh in the minds of Glendale people. Only today the former Captain Sidney Kane, one of the proprietors of Rich's Auto Supply Station at Colorado and Brand boulevards, placed pictures on display which were taken by himself during the war. He was a member of the Royal Air Force of the British army and besides several airplanes in which he spilled there were others shot down on the fields of France.

All told there are twenty-one pictures which will convince anyone of the terrible reality of war for the service men. Now that they are back home and again enjoying the fruits of their labor, it is well that they take a holiday and provide enjoyment for themselves and everyone else.

Motorists, be careful!

When you go through Burbank be more than careful. A minister, the Rev. J. H. Avery, has been appointed city recorder, an office which carries with it the duties of police judge. Charles B. Fisher, an attorney, resigned, and the board of trustees believed that the laws should be religiously enforced.

Therefore the appointment of the pastor, and let it be known that Burbank has traffic officers who are going to be equally religious in the performance of their duties.

Using the advertising columns of "home town" newspapers as a barometer, Glendale rates fifth in business in Southern California. It is exceeded only by Los Angeles, San Diego, Long Beach and Pasadena.

With business conditions proportionately better here than elsewhere there seems to be no question but that Glendale is the most favored city in Southern California.

It is surprising to the person who has resided here for years to think of Glendale passing Santa Ana, San Bernardino, Riverside, Redlands or El Centro, but that is actually what has happened and it is only a matter of months until others will be passed, for the tide of population is turning northward and Glendale, Burbank and Eagle Rock will be the fastest growing communities suburban to Los Angeles.

Only yesterday some former residents of the east, who moved here from Redondo Beach, stated that several of their relatives are coming west—and they are going to locate in Glendale, "the garden spot of the Southland."

"Trade at Home." If you haven't been in the habit of so doing, start today. While you are down town at the theatres or the carnival, notice what your own "home town" merchants have to offer. Read their advertising in The Glendale Evening News—the representative paper of the city.

Tell your neighbors about the bargains, tell them when you see a good show here, indulge in that friendly spirit that is necessary to the life of any community. When new neighbors come into the community, impress upon them the importance of their subscribing to The Glendale Evening News if they want to be acquainted, know what is going on, and get the advantage of "home town" news and advertising.

A. Musgrove Roberts, Prominent Singer, Is Now Resident of City

Glendale's musical circles and artistic colony have been enriched by the addition of one of the world's prominent singers and vocal teachers in the person of A. Musgrove Roberts, who has sung in Europe, Africa, Australia, Tasmania, New Zealand, Canada, and the United States, in all of which countries he has secured the favorable comment of the foremost critics. The music critic of the New York Herald says of him: "He is one of the best baritones in America today," while the critic of the Minneapolis Journal writes, "He sings with the authority and assertion of artistic mastery."

It is not alone as a singer, however, that Mr. Roberts has gained eminence, for many have been the singers who have benefited by his teaching and counsel. In fact, numbers of Mr. Roberts' pupils are prominently before the public on the concert and operatic stages of Europe and America. In addition, numbers of others are filling choir positions, either as directors or soloists.

That Mr. Roberts is an all round musician of more than ordinary merit is evidenced by the fact that his name is widely known as an author and composer, while he has the distinction of being one of a very few singers capable of conducting an orchestra.

Mr. Roberts has not yet completed his plans for the season, but expects that he will divide his time between this city and Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. K. Parkinson of 915 Mountain street and Mrs. F. H. Melius of 355 West Lexington drive will spend next week-end at the Parkinson cottage at Newport Beach.

REV. H. G. PRESTON AND WIFE GIVEN REAL GREETING

New Minister West Glendale Methodist Church Honor Guest at Reception

"The people of the Pacific Avenue church have the chance of a life time to build up a large church. Don't let this golden opportunity slip by. There is a big work to be done in Glendale. Rev. Preston has only been here a couple of weeks and I have already heard several comments on his preaching and work."

"Including this statement in his remarks Rev. C. M. Calderwood, president of the local ministerial association, welcomed the Rev. Harley G. Preston, new pastor of the West Glendale Methodist church, at a reception tendered Friday night at the church to Rev. and Mrs. Preston and Miss Lucile Hixon, who will assist in the church work this year.

"I predict that your church is going to grow by leaps and bounds and that Rev. Preston is going to do his share," declared the Rev. V. H. Brink of the Central Avenue Methodist church.

Rev. W. W. Cookman, former pastor of the church for three years, warmly welcomed the Preston family.

J. H. Garnsey, 438 Vine street, president of the Men's Federated Brotherhood of Glendale, predicted that the congregation at the West Glendale church would need a much larger house of worship within the next five years.

Wonderful Opportunity

In response the Rev. Mr. Preston remarked: "I can see a wonderful opportunity and a big work to be done here. I can hardly reply to the many kind things said here tonight. If I have been an inspiration to any one through my preaching or personal contact or am to be in the future, it has been and shall be possible only through the inspiration and power received from the Man of Galilee. Work and persistent prayer are of great importance.

"I have a sense of humor that helps me over the hard places. It helped me in France when the shells were dropping not far away and I was laughing at the antics of an officer near me when I should have had my own face to the ground.

"If you folks think half as much of me as I think of you, we will get along fine. I am proud of the officials we have and the solid support the congregation is giving me."

Program Is Presented

The program was under the direction of George H. Moore, president of the board of trustees, and the church had been beautifully decorated by the women with flowers, palms and flags.

The orchestra of the First Methodist church played several selections including "For Love and Honor" and "Tomorrow Land." Miss Dona Wilson sang a solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," accompanied by Miss Ethel Wilson.

Refreshments were served by the women of the church.

Among those present were: Harold Adams, who reported that the congregation was well pleased with its new pastor in every way and liked the way he went about his work; John Camphouse, who spoke in behalf of the Sunday school, remarking that "good things are put up in small packages;" the Rev. J. C. Livingston, of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, who spoke a few words of welcome, and the Rev. Julius Soper, 1305 North Maryland avenue, who also addressed the audience briefly.

Benefit for Disabled Soldiers

Eagle Rock's American legion and auxiliary are planning a delightful benefit for the disabled soldiers at Thornycroft to be given on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, November 19, at the beautiful hillside home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bessolo. There will be a splendid program by professionals and refreshments will be served by the women.

Bitten by Tarantula

Mrs. J. L. Dawson has been dangerously ill at her home in Tujunga as the result of a tarantula bite. While taking some clothing from a box in which it had been packed, Mrs. Dawson felt a stinging sensation in her wrist and remarked that something must have bitten her, although she saw no insect. Later a serious symptom developed and Dr. Smith, on being called, said it was undoubtedly a tarantula bite.

Boosters to Banquet

The Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce booster banquet will be held Tuesday evening, November 15, at the Women's club house. This is the regular annual banquet, held each year. The club women will serve the dinner.

Tujunga Chamber to Elect

On Tuesday, November 15, the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce will elect nine directors, three to serve two years, and three to serve three years.

CHILDREN COMPLIMENTED

The Holy Family Catholic church was crowded with members of the parish yesterday morning who came to take communion at the 8 o'clock mass. The Rev. Father James S. O'Neill complimented the children of the Sunday school for the number among them who has 100 per cent records. His brief sermon was upon strength of character.

MEMBERS OF LOCAL AMERICAN LEGION ATTEND CHURCH

Hear 'Prepare for Peace' as Told by Rev. Calderwood at Special Services

of the nations for the purpose of discussing the problems that confront the nations and to formulate agreements on a program of the limitation of armaments.

"In the government's official invitation to the conference we find this statement: 'The rivalries of armaments are not only without economic justification but are a constant menace to the peace of the world.'

No Economic Justification

"It is true that the rivalries of armaments are without economic justification. The leading nations spent $16,000,000,000 on war purposes this year when millions are crying for bread. This is without economic justification. The expenditures of our own government was for war. We are not justified either economically or morally in spending $40,000,000 for one battleship when that amount would keep 1,000,000 starving people alive for a year. In a few years these battleships will be thrown onto the junk heap and the money spent for them would have saved eternal lives. This year the United States has spent $1,422,000,000 on armies and navies alone. Herbert Hoover says that this is inconceivable folly when people are starving. We cannot afford this expenditure and much less can other nations afford it.

"It is true, too, that rivalries in armaments are a constant menace to the peace of the world. People used to think that heavy armaments were a protection. Arms and bayonets pointed at each other's throats do not insure peace; they arouse suspicions that lead to war. If all the world is prepared for war there will be war. And when some nations are armed others are afraid, and for protection arm themselves.

Ready to Start Fight

"If every nation has a superb engine of war, well geared up, someone will start one of them going and then all will start. Men have recommended armed peace. What is that? It is the policy that Europe followed this last century. Billions of money were spent and millions of men were highly trained. This was done to safeguard Europe. The people were called upon to make great sacrifices to do this. Europe prepared for war and she got what she prepared for. Europe made gigantic preparations and she got a gigantic war. This last war proved one thing clearly: that armed peace leads to war. Charles Jefferson says that the war shot to pieces many things, but there were two things that were especially shot to pieces and torn to shreds; and these were the adage, 'In times of peace prepare for war' and the delusion, 'Armaments are a guarantee of peace.' Our government has seen the folly of this and has called a conference of the nations to correct the mistake. We say that Germany made a mistake the last fifty years. Then, why should we repeat the mistake?"

"War does not settle difficulties. It makes more difficulties. We have more national and international problems now than before the war. We solved one problem and made a dozen more.

Force Not Only Way

"Our best weapons are not brute force, but spiritual idealism. It was so in the past war and it will be so in times of peace. Force is not the only way to govern men. It is not so in the family circle, in the school nor in the nation. 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit,' saith the Lord.' So long as we are compelled to think of other nations as bullies and they think of us as a bully there will be danger of war. We dare not run the risk.

"We can't reconcile Christianity, with great preparations for war. War is a device for settling international disputes by killing men. All the instruments of war are perfected for the purpose of killing men. War means atrocities; it can't do its work without them. War covers the earth with graves; it maims and cripples our best men; it starves the women and children. Has civilization no better way to settle disputes? We pray that the conference which meets this week will rediscover that way. Jesus told us the way 1900 years ago. He is the way. We made great sacrifices for war. Can we not make a few sacrifices for peace. It is better to sacrifice a few millions for peace than to sacrifice billions for war."

Frank H. Christman Is Injured by Fall

Frank H. Christman, 130 North Maryland avenue is slowly recovering from the effects of a fall he had the misfortune to suffer while doing carpenter work the latter part of last week. Mr. Christman slipped while working on a roof and fell striking his left side against a timber. Three ribs were broken and several ligaments of the back were injured.

The accident happened while working on the new house for C. E. Robinson, 600 North Glendale avenue. When the work was started Mr. Robinson authorized the Smith-Babcock-Hamilton real estate and insurance company, 204 East Broadway, to write up compensation insurance for the men employed, and the Norwich Indemnity company made a prompt settlement.

Gilbert Emery of 329 North Kenwood street returned yesterday from a five days' trip to San Francisco and Berkeley, where he went to witness the football game Saturday between U. S. C. and the University of California. Mr. Emery made the trip with a number of fellow students and fraternity brothers of the University of Southern California.

"One must certainly credit the Glendale Chamber of Commerce for being a live wire organization and right on the job," says Harold D. Charlton, architect, 113 East Broadway. "I had no more than become squared away in my new office here when I was given a chance to become a member and did it. Of course I had always planned to go down and join the Chamber of Commerce but it met me more than half way."

Deaths and Funerals

FRANK MONAGHAN Frank Monaghan passed away at his residence, 520 North Louise street, yesterday, Sunday, November 6, 1921, at the age of 71 years. Mr. Monaghan had been a resident of Glendale for seven years and of California for 67 years. He was born in New York state. He leaves a widow, Gertrude H. Monaghan, two sons, Frank E. Monaghan of Messilla Park, New Mexico, and Charles B. Monaghan of Los Angeles, and one daughter, Mrs. Lillian M. Daniels of Medford, Oregon.

Mr. Monaghan was the senior member of the firm of Monaghan & Murphy, general merchandise, at Needles, Calif. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and of the Elks lodge of Santa Ana.

Funeral services will be announced later, awaiting the arrival of his son and daughter. L. G. Seavern Under-taking company, directors. CHARLES JOSEPH McLAUGHLIN Charles Joseph McLaughlin, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. McLaughlin of 443 West Wilson avenue, passed away yesterday, Sunday, November 6, 1921, at a Los Angeles hospital, at the age of one month and eight days. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the L. G. Seavern Under-taking company's parlors. Interment at Calvary cemetery, Los Angeles.

MRS. ELIZABETH J. EMERSON Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Emerson, grandmother of B. M. Emerson, 441 Salem street, are being held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Nov. 7, 1921, in the Little Church of the Flowers, with Elder W. M. Adams of Los Angeles, assisted by Rev. E. L. Neff, pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist church, officiating.

Mrs. Emerson was born in Indiana, January 24, 1832, and passed away in Los Angeles last Friday morning, Nov. 4, 1921, at the age of 89 years, 9 months and 10 days, her demise being due to old age.

Besides the grandson here, Mrs. Emerson leaves to mourn her loss two daughters, Mrs. Cora E. Cone and Mrs. Ella Jones of Los Angeles. The remains will probably be sent back to the former home in Kansas.

MRS. ELIZABETH H. SCHREMP Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Hugh Schremp, who passed away Thursday, November 3, 1921, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers by the Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment in the Forest Lawn cemetery was in charge of L. G. Seavern.

WORLD MUST MAKE ANSWER, STATES REV. EDMONDS

'What Shall I Do With Jesus?' Most Important Question, Says Pastor in Talk

The third of the series of sermons on the general theme "Back to God," suggested by a recent article from the pen of William Jennings Bryan, was delivered Sunday morning by the Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian church.

The day's text was from St. Matthew: "What shall I do with Jesus?" "The world today has this question on its hands and must answer," stated Rev. Edmonds. "When you have answered every other for it is the solution of all. Jesus Christ has brought into the world so much light and joy and yet He is the center of so much obloquy and question. So many people have obliterated and repudiated Him. It is time we put Him in all our affairs where He belongs for all the good we have we owe to Him. We should be willing to open the door of our heart and let Him in. It is no surprise if blatant infidels malign Him, but that those in churches and pulpits should do so—"

Footprints of Maker "Everywhere you go you see the footprints of the Maker, who planned and cared for every detail of His creation—who cares for the sparrow and counts the hairs of your head, who feeds and clothes you. If the gospel doesn't lead you out to accomplish practical things, you haven't got it. Jesus Christ has come into the world to reach and touch all needs. "Back to Christ—does it mean retrograde? No, we go back to buttress our faith and strengthen it. Suppose a storm, where will your faith stand? It means to go back and accept the fact of the historic Christ. If you accept His mortal life, I can prove His divinity. One is interlinked with the other. History proves scripture. This Book truly is the inspired word of God. We say, 'Let history go if it seems to contradict Scripture.' All Men Have Sinned "Every believer on Jesus Christ has the Spirit dwelling in him. Polished modern philosophy comes to us with the fallacy that Christ is at variance as all men are divine, that the divine spark is in every man, and if it is just fanned a little, it bursts out into good flame. No, all men have sinned and come short; the divine spark comes only with regeneration. "They say, 'Japan may have its own little religions all right; they suit there.' No, humanity is the same everywhere. They, who say such things, are stealing the liver of heaven to serve the devil. "Back to Christ" means, again, back to the Son of Man, the Man who lived in all points as we, knowing everything of experience and suffering, a real man. His hands pierced with real nails and with real scars that were caused by his sins. He sits on the throne with those scars. "Back to Christ" means to the eternal Christ. "What will you do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

W. Griffin Gives Opinion Concerning Center of Glendale Editor The Evening News:—I noticed in your columns that several indications have been given as the probable future center of Glendale. However, the real future center of this city has not been mentioned. Ideas of far-sighted business men are what create business centers. The intersections of the great thoroughfares of trade have given birth to our greatest cities. In the middle ages Venice, Genoa and Hamburg grew to be great cities because they lay on the trade routes between Europe and the far east. History has proved many times that business centers follow the great arteries of trade.

For this reason the district lying about the intersections of San Fernando road, Pacific avenue, and Colorado street, is destined to be the future center of Glendale. San Fernando valley is the granary of the great southland and is daily pouring forth its riches into the great metropolises that lie to the south of us, and in the future this abundance of wealth is going to be indefinitely increased. San Fernando road is the avenue of trade that is going to feed southern California. Colorado boulevard connects us with the east.

Already this district is building up rapidly and far-sighted business men are planning the day when a great city will lie along the San Fernando road. The only logical center for Glendale is the locality near the intersection of San Fernando road and Colorado boulevard. Respectfully yours, W. GRIFFIN.

Charlie Chaplin in 'The Idle Class' at T. D. & L. Theatre

Doubtless thousands of his admirers think Charlie Chaplin was born with flat feet and never wears good clothes. They are disillusioned, however, by the comedian himself in an emphatic manner. For in his latest First National picture, "The Idle Class," which is shown at the T. D. & L. theatre today, he appears in the dapper guise in which his California neighbors see him in public.

For the first time, it is said, Charlie plays a vital role, so to speak, and reveals himself in other than slum habiliments. Alice Terry, a high school girl 13 years old, hailing from central Illinois, enjoys the rare distinction of blossoming from obscurity into the ranks of featured players almost overnight.

With considerably less than a year's experience before the camera, most of which was consumed in the playing of small parts, the youthful blonde actress was discovered by Rex Ingram when he began the selection of the cast for "Hearts Are Trumps," the Metro production of the famous Cecil Raleigh melodrama, which is to be seen at the T. D. & L. today also. Just last Saturday Miss Terry and Mr. Ingram were wedded—a social event of importance in the Hollywood film world.

J. R. Grey Invites Police Head's View About School Site

J. R. Grey, 667 West Doran, has addressed the following open letter to A. O. Martin, chief of police, of Glendale:

"Our citizens are now engaged in a controversy over the selection of a high school site. As facilities for, and mode of transportation, will enter largely into a final decision by the board of trustees we would very much appreciate an expression of opinion on this matter from your good self as head of the traffic department, under our charter.

"If a site is selected on the east side, the obvious conclusions are: It will be necessary to make use of the transfer point at Broadway and Brand boulevard our children coming in from both north and south Glendale meeting at that point. "As there are from 600 to 800 of them (estimated) now, with constantly growing numbers, such a crowd will undoubtedly create great congestion in the very heart of the business district. Will it, therefore, be possible for one line with all of the added facilities practicable to take care of this great number within the school entrance hour without great overcrowding and delay? If not, will such a condition of overcrowding in the cars as must ensue, with mixed sexes of high school age be against public decency and public morals?"

"Again during the delay waiting for transfer cars the children will hang around and some fountains and cigar stands will be applied on returning home. The temptation will be to remain over in the business district with the plausible excuse 'no cars available for transfer.' "On the other hand a school site selected out on the west side away from the business district on or near the main line of the Pacific Electric will not require transfers, delay, or congestion at any point for the following reasons: The main line of the Pacific Electric on Brand boulevard practically bi-sections our present population. It also about equally divides the area of the city from south Glendale to the Burbank city line, so that beginning at the extreme south end when cars are returning from Los Angeles practically empty our children will be sure of a seat and proper service.

"They will only have to walk a few blocks from either side of Brand boulevard to catch a car and without transfer or delay may reach the school in from ten to twenty minutes, thus saving time and delay. When school is dismissed in the afternoon the same applies. The children are picked up by cars returning to Los Angeles, dropped off at interesting streets and soon reach their homes. "Your valued opinion on the above will be greatly appreciated. "Sincerely yours, "J. R. GREY."

W. Griffin Gives Opinion Concerning Center of Glendale

Editor The Evening News:—I noticed in your columns that several indications have been given as the probable future center of Glendale. However, the real future center of this city has not been mentioned. Ideas of far-sighted business men are what create business centers. ## Terrors Are Really Terrors in Bowling League Local Elks Figures recently compiled by Bert Ward, secretary and general manager of the Glendale Elks recently organized House Bowling league, show that the "sure shot" Terrors, who were announced a few days ago to be setting the pace in the "games won" column, also way out in front in the total pin count. Their phenomenal mark for the first six contests is 4953, their nearest rival being the E. Z.'s, who are trailing along practically 400 digits below Captain Ulrich's men with a total of 4585.

The Terrors' lead of 256 pins established in the opening night's play was increased over their closest competitors last week when they tallied up a total of 2421 to 2209 for the E. Z.'s for a net gain of 212 pins. At the rate they are now going the pacemakers will clinch the league championship within the next few weeks, unless some of the lesser lights show a sudden reversal of form and trample over the confident Terrors.

The E. Z.'s are being pushed for honors in the runner up position by the climbing P. D. Q.'s, who exhibited a sudden improvement in their match with the Wizards last week by winning all three games by a comfortable margin. This helped to offset the defeat of three straight encounters suffered in the opening week at the hands of the relentless Terrors. They are now safely holding down third place with 4340 pins to their credit.

The other five aggregations follow in their order of total pins: Buzzards, fourth; Bambinos, fifth; K. P.'s, sixth; Jays, seventh; Wizards, eighth.

The standings:

	1st Wk.	2d Wk.	Total
Terrors	2532	2421	4953
E. Z.'s	2376	2209	4585
P. D. Q.'s	2125	2215	4340
Buzzards	2184	2094	4278
Bambinos	1982	2124	4106
K. P.'s	2055	2044	4099
Jays	1956	2136	4092
Wizards	1975	1908	3883

The Terrors claim high game honors with a score of 911. Their nearest rival to this mark is that of $21, which was rolled by the E. Z.'s. Booby honors go to the Jays, who are knocking at the cellar door in seventh place. Their low score is 516 and was bowled during the first week of the tournament.

Following is a list of all of the bowlers participating in the tournament as they have been classified by the executive committee:

Class A (including bowlers who average 170 or over)—Apfel, Caswell, Viohl, Fortunato, Stone, Huesman, Fortunato, Gilubly, Ward, Hildebrand, Brown, Ulrich, Wyckoff.
Class B (including bowlers who average 150 or over)—Chambers, Card, Clark, Timmons, H. H. McGills, Lawrence, Fanset, Dodson.
Class C (including bowlers who average between 135 and 150)—Talbot, Sauter, H. Wright, Albright, Kausen, Ireland, Hadlee, Jones, Watters, West.
Class D (including bowlers who average below 135)—Tone McGreggor, Salmacia, Service, Strother, Rose, Vogel, Young.

Jess Willard Asks for Another Fight With Jack Dempsey

By JACK VEIOCK
Written for International News Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Balm for wounded personal pride, spelled with a capital "B."
That is what Jess Willard would like to get out of pugilism before he hangs up his gloves for all time. And this despite the fact that he has just made a rich oil strike out west.
Will Willard really fight Dempsey again? Will he actually accept a match and train for it? Oil or no oil, he will.

In a message received today from the big fellow, who is "wallowing" in a golden pool of oil, he declares he will start working any time that Dempsey signs.

"Pretty busy here in Kansas right now with oil," his message read, but will start working in California during the winter if Dempsey will sign and give assurance that he will be there this time.

"Family is wintering in California, and I expect to go there before long."
Tex Rickard, who brought Willard and Dempsey together at Toledo, has Willard lined up for a return bout for the title. The promoter recently interviewed Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, in Chicago, but did not succeed in signing the champion. He returned east pretty well satisfied with prospects of putting the match through, however, and he expects to stage the return bout by next July. He has no idea of giving up the match for he is confident that it would be a drawing card.

DON'T WRITE; ALL SOLD

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 7.—For the first time in history, the Congressional Record is listed among the "best sellers." Inquiries at the government printing office brought the reply that the supply of Records in which appeared the remarks that nearly cost Congressman Blanton his seat in the house, was exhausted and no more would be available. A large number of the copies were sold before the house ordered Blanton's speech expunged, but the printing office is still flooded with orders.

HELD ON DOUBLE MURDER

LEBANON, Ore., Nov. 7.—The bodies of John Painter, rancher, and his 13-year-old son, Bert, were found in a single shallow grave near here. Pete Beebe, an employe on the Painter ranch, has been arrested and charged with the double murder. He had been hauling wood for his employer and collecting money therefor. That may furnish the motive for his alleged crime. Painter and his son had been missing since October 19.

WANTS VOLUNTEERS TO HELP ON CALL FOR RED CROSS

Chairman Frank Ryan Urges Workers Get Busy; Great Need of Memberships

Responses to Chairman Frank Ryan's call for volunteers to assist in making the fifth annual Red Cross roll call the most successful in the history of that organization in southern California, have been coming into the two Los Angeles headquarters and at the local branches in generous numbers. There is still need, however, Chairman Ryan points out, for every man and woman who can spare even part of their time, to enroll for service during the call from Armistice day, November 11, to Thanksgiving day, November 24, and he asks that they give in their names to the nearest headquarters at once. At every Red Cross branch there will be found an aide in charge who will furnish the necessary information.

In urging the people of southern California to rally enthusiastically to the aid of the Red Cross, Chairman Ryan says:
"The remarkable work performed by the Red Cross during the great war is a matter of world history. The nations have paid their grateful tribute of appreciation on many occasions. But there remains much to be done before the devastation caused by that long period of destructive activity can be even appreciably eradicated. And in this labor of reconstruction the Red Cross is called upon to take a leading, indispensable part."

Service Is Provided

"In the hearts of all Americans there is a particular pride in the sacrifices made by our young men and women. And it cannot be doubted that it is the desire of each and all of us that these sufferings shall be minimized to the extent of our ability. For the veterans of the world war the Red Cross is providing service costing $10,000,000 a year, which is more than all the membership fees paid to the Red Cross during the last year. The American Red Cross has been in touch with an average of 129,215 ex-service men and their families, and it made 32,495 loans of money to men entering federal vocational training. It is from the dollar membership fees that this wonderful work is supported.

"This, however, is only one of the many activities of the Red Cross, no suffering that came in the wake of the war touched more deeply the hearts of all mankind than did the ills that fell to the lot of the little children of Europe.

"Subjected to untold miseries, homeless and half-starved, their cries for help fell on the sympathetic ear of this happy nation, whose own children were scarcely touched by war's ravages. To feed and give medical attention to these unhappy little ones, the Red Cross budget for the coming year contemplates the expenditure of $6,000,000; and this, too, will come from the dollar memberships which will be solicited during the roll call. The demands are great, but I am sure they will meet more than the American people will meet cheerfully, willingly, generously."

The main headquarters of the Red Cross roll call in Los Angeles are at 295 South Broadway, telephone, Pico 1449; while the women's headquarters are at 921 West Seventh street, telephone, Pico 4394. Local branches are established in every community in southern California which is associated with the Los Angeles chapter.

Local headquarters for the Red Cross drive will be established at the Brand boulevard branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank from November 14 to November 24, from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m.

Plenty of Beets and Lots of Wine, Too

SHARPSBURG, Md.—This may be a small town, but the residents are full of big ideas.

Sharpsburg is famous for its beets. This year the beet crop was so great that the residents were completely overstocked with the vegetable. They were in a quandary as to how they could best dispose of the large surplus.
While this momentous question was being pondered over by Sharpsburgers, one of the residents came to the front with the announcement that he was going to make wine out of his surplus of beets.

But another obstacle presented itself in the carrying out of this plan in using the beets. His surplus stock of beets was so enormous that there was nothing available to hold the huge amount of wine the beets would produce.
Then another bright idea struck him.

He is now digging a cistern in which the wine will be stored.

CAPE LOST; TENT STOLEN

Dan Bruce of 321 Vine street reports to the police that a short seal-skin cape fell from his motor car Saturday evening while on Brand boulevard, Mountain street or Central avenue. He offers a reward in the classified columns today.

C. P. Williams of 821 North Central avenue reports that a white tent was stolen from 117 West Burchett street.

All-American Team Hard to Pick From Many Football Stars

By JACK VEIOCK
International News Service
Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—With the football season more than half over many brilliant players have crowded their way into the limelight, demanding recognition as all-American timber.

Out of this assemblage of crack performers, whose playing has stood out notably in the achievements of their team, the make-up of the mythical eleven will be chosen.
It will not be easy to select the first player for each of the eleven positions. There is, as usual, an abundance of crack backfield talent and while such players as "Bo" McMillan and "Mal" Aldrich stand out in great prominence, there is no telling what player may push them into the background by a series of super-feats before the season ends.

McMillan, who seems to be the whole thing at Centre, is bound to come in for serious consideration again this year. After his feat of beating Harvard, he deserves it. Yet, there are several other quarterbacks to dispute McMillan's right to the title as the country's premier in the pivotal job.
Killing of Penn State; O'Hearn of Yale; Euwer of Princeton; Buell of Harvard, and Romney of Chicago, are some of them. How any quarterback could be much better than this lad is hard to figure.

Among the half backs, Aldrich, Yale's captain, looms up as a particularly brilliant player. Owens of Harvard; Garrity of Princeton; Barron of Georgia Tech, a great halfback despite the fact that Penn State stopped his team; Wood of the Army; Koehler of the Navy; French of the Army; Lightner of Penn State; Davies of Pitt; Ramsay and Lechler of Cornell, and many others stand out. Such a player is Captain Jim Robertson of Dartmouth, halfback, who leads rival players in scoring points with a total of 67.

King of the Navy, and Into, Yale's big linesman, are two of the greatest tackles of the season. Bentz of Penn State; Landis of Yale, and Stein of Pittsburg, rank among the foremost centers. Holloran of Pitt; Macomber of Harvard; Blair of Yale; MacCollum of Penn State, and Roberts of Centre, are flashy ends.

Basketball Practice Will Soon Start at Local High School

Although the football season will not be over for several weeks in the various high schools of southern California, interest is already being stimulated at the local institution regarding the outlook of the coming basketball season. The official call has not yet been made for the prospective court men to don their trunks and elbow pads, although Coach Normal C. Hayhurst has stated that actual practice will begin about the first of December.

As a nucleus for this year's varsity quintet Coach Hayhurst will have "Vic" Colburn and Willard "Bill" Goertz, forwards, and Wilfred Cline, guard, who were all regulars on last season's squad. If this capable trio can be aided with the addition of four equally good players Glendale will undoubtedly acquire another gilt edged pennant to drape on its well populated walls. Colburn, who generally plays "roaming forward," was one of the flashiest basket tossers in the Central league last year, his almost impossible shots taking several close contests out of the fire during the last few minutes of play.

Another strong point in Glendale's favor is the fact that the team will be strengthened off the court as well as when they are in action. Coach Hayhurst will be ably assisted in drilling the scantily clad athletes by the able services of Howard Butterfield, who has just led the lightweight football team to a league championship. Butterfield's strong point is basket ball, being one of the foremost players in the state last year when playing with the varsity team of the University of Southern California, of which squad he was captain.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once
Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

White gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

A. Metzetti Ready for Grappling With J. Hackenschmidt

A. Metzetti, the Hollywood wrestler who will grapple with John Hackenschmidt, local athlete in the main event of the athletic program given by the American Legion here next Friday night, has undergone some strenuous training and is ready to meet his opponent that evening, announces his manager, Ralph B. Staub, 1211 East Harvard street. Mr. Staub expressed much confidence in his man, as follows:

"Metzetti has been doing some hard work in getting ready for this bout, as it is a match he has been eagerly hoping for, and I have much confidence in the outcome. The bout will be the last number on the program of the evening and will draw a big crowd, I think, as both men are good wrestlers and have a number of friends interested in the outcome. All I have to say is that the crowd who watches Metzetti will not be disappointed."

Permanent Officers Will Be Chosen by Local Athletic Club

A meeting of the Glendale Athletic club for the purpose of electing permanent officers for the organization has been called by Chairman L. E. Thompson for 7:45 o'clock tonight at 111-A East Broadway.
In addition to the election of officers, announces Mr. Thompson, there is some routine business concerning the charter and by-laws which must be disposed of tonight. A social hour has been provided and today a personal invitation is being extended by Rex Randall to all members to be present tonight.

CLEVER SCHEME ALLEGED JUDGE ANGELLOTTI TO QUIT

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—An attractive young woman and two men, armed with guns, government credentials and stars were seized by federal authorities in what is declared to be one of the cleverest and most extensive booze "shakedown" schemes disclosed since prohibition became a law. The woman, Mrs. Mabel Burns, 21, was arrested at Peoria. A .38 calibre revolver was found in her possession. She also carried two letters authorizing her to investigate prohibition violations as a "supervising prohibition agent." These were forged credentials, according to officials. Her husband, James Burns, alias James Austin, was seized at Aurora and Walter Reiss, alias Michael Hurley, was arrested in Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Chief Justice Frank M. Angellotti has confirmed reports that he contemplates resigning from the state supreme court bench. Justice Angellotti has already advised Governor William D. Stephens of his intention to retire about the middle of this month. He advised Governor Stephens in order that his successor may be selected and appointed. His term does not expire until January, 1927. Justice Angellotti, who resides in San Rafael, was elected associate justice of the supreme court on November 4, 1902, and became chief justice November 21, 1904.

DISARMAMENT TOPIC OF TALK GIVEN BY DR. C. M. CRIST

Wishes Success to Gathering of World Figures About to Convene at Capital

A large audience was present at the First Methodist church yesterday morning to listen to an address by the pastor, Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist, on the timely topic, "Shall the Nation Disarm?" The text was from Isaiah 2-4, "And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

"This question of war and our responsibility in the case is an extremely vital matter. When I consider it in all its bearings it stirs my very soul and I shall speak very plainly on it at this time. I may say something with which you may not all agree, but they are my sincere views."

"During the war when we were brought face to face with the terrible scourge of Belgium, the cruelties and indignities perpetrated on women and children, the horrors of the deadly gas, the frightfulness of the submarine, the slaughter of young men by the hundreds of thousands and even millions, some religious leaders ascribed to God as part of His world plan. Said Dr. R. A. Torrey: 'As awful as conditions are across the waters today and as awful as they may become in our own country, the darker the night gets the lighter my heart gets.'

War Not Christ's Ally
"Now this may be Dr. Torrey's view and those of his school of thought, but it is not the views of Methodism nor of those other great religious bodies who believe that the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, is to win the world. Neither does it harmonize with the prophecy of Isaiah as contained in the text. War is not an ally of Christ, but, as Sherman said, is Hell. Force cannot make individuals or nations Christian."

"My heart lightens when steps are taken as in the coming conference to find ways and means to prevent future wars. We are making for better conditions. When forty-five out of forty-eight states voted for national prohibition, a great stride was taken. This was a victory just as important and as praiseworthy as the battles across the sea and every patriot will be interested in its enforcement."

Results of Warfare
"The evils of war are not debatable and its after-effects are far reaching. The present day jazz music, the extremes in women's attire, so many divorces, so much depravity and crime are the evil results of war. The entire world is in a serious condition, but not hopeless. Its chaotic condition is a challenge to the Church of Christ. Never was a day that calls for greater heroism and zeal. Fidelity and courage are in great demand. War has brought about these conditions. To disarm is the remedy."

"We are now confronted with the dilemma, 'disarm' or 'die.' Finance demands it. The six large nations of the world spent last year for military and naval purposes over sixteen billions of dollars, which is two billions more than they all spent in fourteen years preceding the world war. Naturally, the manufacturer of arms and munitions will oppose disarmament and governments should prohibit the private interests to continuing this manufacturing."

Germany Is Busy
"Germany is now leading commercially because the allies have relieved her of the burden of war preparation and it has been a boon to Germany and a lesson to all other nations of the world. At the present rate, Germany will save enough to pay off the allies in a few years, while if we continue our expense we will have only a few obsolete battleships to show for all our expense."

"The deadly character of present and future warfare makes it absolutely imperative that wars cease. Deadly gas, disease germs and other deadly methods would speedily exterminate the entire human family. Lord Bryce, General Pershing, Marshal Haig, General Bliss and others earnestly urge against future wars. In the language of President Harding, 'This must never happen again.' Success to the conference!"

George M. Lindsey Busy on Plans for Several Structures

The George M. Lindsey company, 127 West Broadway, has completed plans for a one-story brick and frame building of three store rooms at Huntington Park for Henry H. Severin of that place. The building will be 50 by 50 feet, costing $6,000, and will be built by sub-contract under the supervision of Mr. Lindsey.

The office is now busy on plans for a $6,000, one and one-half story, eight room brick and frame residence for Mrs. L. F. McLinn, 57 Opechee Way, Verdugo Woodlands. The plans call for hardwood floors, woodstone bath, tile sink, tile fireplace, electric water heater, and gas radiation.

Mr. Lindsey also announces that he is furnishing plans and will build by sub-contract a five room, frame, colonial design residence for Lester H. Jones at 305 North Cedar street. The residence with hardwood floors, tile fireplace, woodstone bath and gas radiation, will cost $4,000.

Coach Pipal, Back From World Trip, to Be Banquet Speaker

At a banquet to be held in the bungalow of the First Presbyterian church one week from tonight, November 14, when the Hi-Y entertains the football team of the high school, Coach Joe Pipal of Occidental college, who recently returned from a tour of the world studying athletics of different countries, will be the principal speaker.

Coach Pipal will speak on the topic of athletics in different countries and will compare athletics in the United States. The speaker coached Occidental college when it won the coast championship in 1915. During the war Mr. Pipal was athletic director with the armies in France and after the armistice was chosen as national athletic director for Czecho-Slovakia.

Mr. Pipal returned to Occidental college two months ago after he had made a tour of the world in the interest of athletics, studying each country intensively and his talk at the Hi-Y banquet will be an interesting resume of his observations and the place America holds in the realm of athletics.

The complimentary banquet served by the Hi-Y to the football team at the end of the season will be an elaborate affair, announces Rex C. Kelley, Y. M. C. A. secretary of the Glendale district. Dale Wood, president of the Hi-Y will act as toastmaster during the evening. In addition to Coach Pipal it is announced there will be several other speakers of note.

Lions Roar and Bears 'Bark' for Sheesley Animal Shows Arrive

Roars of lions and woofs from the bears kept residents in the vicinity of Harvard and Orange streets awake last night.

The Sheesley Shows has a regular animal circus among the many big amusements they bring here for the American Legion carnival. For those walking around the circus grounds this morning they saw real live bears tethered in the vacant lots where the big tops are going up.

Miss Lavera Kitterman Is Hostess to Friends

Miss Lavera Kitterman of 311 North Kenwood street was hostess last week to a group of sixteen young people at a very delightful Thanksgiving and bunco party. Place cards and tally cards were of miniature turkeys. Carnations and roses were used for decoration. First prize at bunco, which consisted of a yellow basket of candy, was awarded to Ellis Thomas and consolation prize to Edwin Murphy. At the close of the evening refreshments were served. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. G. Edwin Murphy, Miss Dorothy Hamilton, Miss Mildred Johnson, Miss Helen Conway, Miss Mary Rich, Miss L. Perkins, Miss Lois Percy, George Redinger, Cecil Perroy, J. Malling, Edwood Ingelone, Arthur Schoen, Vern Wilson and the hostess, Miss Lavera Kitterman.

RAILROADS GROW BETTER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Continued improvement in the condition of the railroads is reflected in the monthly report of the Southern Pacific company for September. Just made public. Net revenue from railway operation for the month showed an increase of $338,084 and an increase in net revenue from railway operations for the nine months ending with September of $19,059,923 is shown by the report.

NO PROMISES FROM BOARD

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 7.—The railroad board made no pledges or promises to the railroad employees in the settlement of the threatened strike, according to the report which has been made to President Harding, it was stated officially at the white house. The president has received a complete report on the strike settlement from the labor board, but it will not be made public.

JUSTICE ON THE JOB

The bedraggled individual indignantly denied that he was intoxicated when the police officer testified that he found the prisoner lying in the street.

"WIFE AND DAUGHTER RESTORED BY INTERNAL BATHS"

Mr. Martin J. T. Eberhard of 858 So. Seventh St., San Jose, Cal., who is my wife and daughter in joyful remembrance of what has been done for them by means of the "J. B. L. Cascade."

"The 'J. B. L. Cascade' cleanses the lower intestine its entire length and keeps it always free of poisonous waste. Thousands testify that Constipation, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Biliousness, Headaches and all the many serious troubles which they cause are absolutely relieved and prevented by this Nature Treatment."

ROBERTS & ECHOLS

102 East Broadway
will gladly explain to you the simple operation of the "J. B. L. Cascade," why it is so certain in its results, and will give you free of cost, an interesting little book containing the results of the experiences of Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, who was a specialist on Intestinal Complaints for 25 years in that city. Why not cut this out as a reminder to get this book as soon as possible. Remember, please, it is free.

FULL YEAR WILL BE NEEDED TO BUILD CHURCH'S HOME

Presbyterians Expect to Be in New Structure Next Year at Christmas Time

"We hope to break ground soon and lay the corner stone on next Easter," stated the Rev. W. E. Edmonds, speaking about the new Presbyterian church. "The new church will be a big edifice. It will take a year to build the auditorium and eight or nine months to build the Sunday school. The officers of the church hope to occupy the building, or at least part of it, by Christmas, 1922."

"The new church auditorium will seat 1400, just double our present capacity of the church. The Sunday school is being built to accommodate 1000 people."

"The new site, on the northwest corner of Harvard avenue and Louise street, will be much better because it will be centrally located and accessible from all parts of the city. The car line from the east passes within one block of it and the line from the north and south comes within two blocks."

To Sell Present Church
"The plan of the trustees is to sell the present church to another denomination. It is an excellent church building outside of being overcrowded. We feel that churches ought not to be torn down unless there is some special reason. We feel that it was erected as a house of worship and ought to be maintained as such."

"One hundred and fifty thousand dollars is the estimated cost of the new church. A drive last October brought in $107,000. At that time it was planned to put about $100,000 into a church. The city has been growing and the future looms up big. The plans have been accepted by the official boards and the congregation at the last business meeting several months ago. Robert H. Orr of Los Angeles is now getting out working drawings."

"The total of $150,000 is exclusive of furnishings such as pews, draperies, carpets and stained glass windows."

"The organ is memorial, given by Anthony Ambrosini, in memory of his wife. It will be removed to the new church building."

To Remove Old Bell
"The bell was installed with the first church and was the first in the valley. It has tolled for all these years and there is a good deal of sentiment connected with it. The trustees expect to take it to the new building also."

"The present property as well as The Manse property, is all free from debt. The church has had a wonderful record in its financial program."

"The growth of the church just like the growth of the town has been wonderful. Those of us who came here when the town was smaller and have seen it grow and develop think it is wonderful. The growth of the church all comes within the past ten years, and as churches go, I think that is a fine record."

'Ginger,' Trick Mule, and 'King,' Trained Dog, Are Featured

"Old Buckskin" brings 'em out. H. E. Homer, as he otherwise is known, believes the public loves educated animals, and he is right. They were more than pleased at the performances yesterday of "Headlight," the wonder horse, and "Honey Boy" at the Glendale theatre.

Today a complete change of program is offered and "Old Buckskin" introduces "Ginger," the trick mule, and his trained dogs, "King" and "Frieda." The latter is a little toy fox terrier while King is a beautiful blue-blooded Dane.

"You will get a great 'kick' out of 'Ginger,'" declares Mr. Homer. "While today is the only opportunity of seeing these animals, Manager W. A. Howe has prepared an excellent program for Armistice week. Tomorrow two hours of solid enjoyment are offered at the three vaudeville performances combined with a feature film."

One of the most mystifying stories ever screened has been used to bring Barbara Bedford before the public as a star today at the Glendale theatre in "Cinderella of the Hills."

The tale is that of a girl of the Ozark Mountains, mistreated and misunderstood, who stands out against the rest of her little world in a fight for the right. An engineer comes to her father's home to sink oil wells, and becomes interested in the girl's case. He finally helps her to happiness; but not until he has solved several puzzling questions. The story is based on "The Little Fiddler of the Ozarks," a tale by John Breckenridge Ellis.

THUG'S VICTIMS WOMEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—A "coupe bandit" who terrorized the Hyde Park and Woodlawn residential sections for several hours, was captured by police after a long chase in which his car was riddled by bullets. The bandit had held up twenty women on the street by leaping from his coupe, which had been stolen. Several of his victims, all women, needed medical attention. The bandit gave his name as Frank Wilkins. "I took a thriller, a good old thriller, boys," was his only explanation.

The Ideal Home Calls for Better Home Furnishings

FALL—the most delightful season of the year, is here, and you are probably making plans for the social gatherings of friends and family that will naturally come with cooler weather.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—In the Popular street studios, a bit of Parnassus, bound to earth in Brooklyn, are two who dwell in that state of matrimony made famous by Fannie Hurst.

And yet there is a difference, too. While Miss Ethel Traphagen—she still uses her maiden name—and her husband, William R. Leigh, have separate homes, they live right next door to each other. They eat three meals a day together and visit back and forth. Yet both are free to pursue their careers in their own way.

Where have you heard those names before? Well, Ethel Traphagen is an artist and designer of note, as well as an author of books on costume design, while her distinguished husband paints vivid pictures of our great southwest, which have brought sunlight and a breath of clean air from the desert into many a home and art gallery.

In June the marriage took place, and until recently these two artists have been roughing it in canyons and plains of the wildest parts of Arizona.

Having lived happily in the primitive style, Miss Traphagen and Mr. Leigh now return to the most modern married state, the separate household.

Bride Tells of Agreement "Doing as you please," says Miss Traphagen, "being absolutely yourself, that is the way to preserve one's own individuality.

"Marriage should not interfere with it, but the trouble is that many people don't understand the value of individuality. Some women have to give up their work, when two cannot agree on the value of going on with a career.

"But I believe that each one must work out his or her own salvation in matrimony or in a career, as it seems best to do."

A very picturesque person, Miss Traphagen. Tall, slender, with chestnut braids wrapped tight about her shapely head, she resembles the type of women Burne-Jones, the great English painter, loved to portray.

"More simplicity in life would help us all," she continued. "The trouble with many modern women, not business women, of course, is that they like to ape the styles and mannerisms of the society women or the moneyed rich. They are content to follow a leader.

"One's own real self is the pearl of great price and should not be relinquished.

"My husband moved over here from Fifty-ninth street.

"Why? Oh, because I didn't like Fifty-ninth street," she exclaimed, with a twinkle.

"These separate houses are studios Nos. 32 and 33, near enough for companionship, far enough apart for two careers to keep on flourishing.

"We'll keep on doing whatever we like, and both will retain our old friends.

"I must use my maiden name, for my work is known in connection with it, so it would be foolish to change it."

STORY HOUR BRINGS YOUNG FOLKS TO CITY LIBRARY

About Forty-five Children in Attendance Last Saturday;
New Books Released

The story hour in the young people's department at the Glendale public library is increasing in popularity, as was evidenced by the crowd of forty-five youngsters who gathered together last Saturday afternoon to hear the following stories told by Miss Leone Shattuck. The story hour is held every Saturday.

New books released for distribution in the young people's department this week are as follows:

"The Bobbsey Twins," series of books by Laura Lee Hope. The Bobbsey Twins, "The Bobbsey Twins in the Country," "The Bobbsey Twins at School," "The Bobbsey Twins at Snow Lodge," "The Bobbsey Twins on a Houseboat," "The Bobbsey Twins at Meadow Brook," "The Bobbsey Twins at Home," "The Bobbsey Twins in a Great City," "The Bobbsey Twins on Blueberry Island," "The Bobbsey Twins on the Deep Blue Sea."

Just Like Real Life

Many of the adventures are comical in the extreme, and all the accidents and incidents that ordinarily happen to youthful personages happen to these many-sided little folks. Their haps and mishaps make delightfully entertaining reading.

"Raggedy Andy" stories by John Gruelle. A companion book to "Raggedy Ann."

"Metipom's Hostage," by Ralph Henry Barbour. Being a narrative of certain surprising adventures involving one David Little in the first year of King Philip's war.

"Rilla of Ingleside," by L. M. Montgomery. This is a book of the daughter of "Anne of Green Gables."

Story of Printing

"Paul and the Printing Press," by Sara Ware Bassett. Primarily this is the story of an active, up-to-date school boy, and incidentally the reader is told the story of printing and the invention of the printing press.

"The Star People," by Gaylord Johnson.

New books released during the past week in the adults' department at the public library include the following:

"How to Use the Steel Square," by International Correspondence School.

"How to Sing a Song," by Yvette Guilbert.

"Principles and Practice of Surveying," second volume, by Breed and Hosmer.

"Reclaiming the Arid West," by George W. James.

"Out of Gloucester," by Conroy.

"Make Your Own Hats," by Gene Martin.

Story of Stevenson

"Stevenson, How to Know Him," an interesting story of the life and works of this companionable author, by Richard A. Rice.

"Carlyle, How to Know Him," by Bliss Perry.

"Dickens, How to Know Him," a life sketch, criticism and analysis, by Richard Burton.

"Wordsworth, How to Know Him," by C. T. Winchester.

"Tennyson, How to Know Him," by Raymond M. Alden.

"Dante, How to Know Him," by Alfred M. Brooks.

"Burns, How to Know Him," by W. A. Nelson.

"Defoe, How to Know Him," by William P. Trent.

"Matthew Arnold, How to Know Him," by Stuart P. Sherman.

Three Story Block for Apartments and Business Is Planned

The De Luxe Building company of Los Angeles has just purchased through the real estate firm of J. F. Stanford, 112 1/2 South Brand boulevard, two lots on South Brand boulevard, near Park avenue, and intends to erect a three-story business building and apartment house on the property, states Mr. Stanford.

Mr. Stanford's realty firm has been so busy the past few days, he states, that it has been necessary for him to enlarge the office force and two members have been added. They are E. A. Messerley, 640 North Orange street, who will have charge of the insurance department, and A. O. Merrick, formerly sales manager for the Garford Motor Works, Los Angeles, who will assist in the real estate department for Mr. Stanford.

"We have no complaints to make for the last few days," said Mr. Stanford, "as business has been very good and I believe it is going to continue. Besides the sale of the two lots on South Brand boulevard, the office also sold a home at 523 Milford street to Miss Fundell, and the northeast corner of Harvard street and Columbus avenue, improved with a duplex house and a four-room bungalow in the rear, to a local capitalist.

"In the department of building we have just completed a modern five-room home for James Wyvell at 1215 North Brand boulevard, and we have under way a $4,100 home for James M. Greaves at 535 West Vine street, a $5,000 home for John Baldwin at 1318 North Columbus avenue, which is now ready for the finish carpenters, and modern five-room house and garage at 522 West Alexander."

Varied Amusements Will Be Provided at Legion Carnival

BOBBIE BURNS MURRAY
Producer of the "Jountel Girls," with Sheesley Shows here this week.

What about the entertainment to be provided by the Sheesley Shows which bring the attractions for the American legion carnival this week? That is the question everybody is asking and the answer is simple: Just about everything in the way of high class "midway" amusements will be found on the carnival grounds, Harvard and Orange streets.

For instance, there is "Bobbie Burns" Murray, producer of the musical tabloid show called the "Jountel Girls," who promises visitors a happy hour. Then there is the trained animal show, minstrels, etc.; merry-go-round, ferris wheel and other rides; games of skill and laugh-provoking novelties that come here highly commended by newspapers and organizations of other communities.

Twenty-five railroad cars are necessary to transport the Sheesley Shows aggregation of entertainers and concessionaires.

W. E. Palmer Risks Life Fighting Fire Under Burning Truck

W. E. Palmer who is engaged in hauling sand from Roscoe to Glendale, and who has established an office in Stuart's drug store at East Broadway and Glendale avenue, had a close call yesterday morning when he crawled under his burning truck at South San Fernando road and Eulalia street and shut off the gas from a twenty-five gallon tank. The front end of the truck was all ablaze and the efforts of several men in shoveling sand and fighting the fire with chemicals failed. While the blaze was all around the big tank Mr. Palmer crawled under the truck with a pair of pliers and shut off the gas.

The truck stalled Saturday afternoon at South San Fernando road and Eulalia street, and yesterday morning with the help of Henry J. Eyrard, 926 South Brand boulevard, the engine was primed and cranked. The careburetor caught fire and in a short time the blaze gained considerable headway. Fire companies No. 1 and No. 2 responded. Chemicals were furnished by Harry Schaffer and B. G. Jackson, and sand was thrown on the blaze but to no avail until Mr. Palmer succeeded in shutting off the gas, sustaining several burns on the hands and face while doing so.

The loss, states Mr. Palmer, is about $200. Repairs were on hand this morning and the truck was in commission again before noon.

Live Cole Class Will Give Big Entertainment

The officers of the Live Cole class of the First Christian church Sunday school have practically completed their arrangements for the entertainment and concert to be given under the auspices of the organization in the near future. No definite date has yet been decided upon, although it will probably come next Tuesday night, November 15.

The setting of the actual date will not be made until an announcement is made stating when the church building, which is now braced up on two-foot stilts, will be placed on the cement foundation. The affair as originally scheduled was to have taken place last Tuesday evening, but the fragility of the present structure prevented it.

The purpose of the entertainment, which is to consist of a varied program of readings and vocal and instrumental selections, is to raise sufficient funds for the purchase of furniture for the Live Cole class' private room in the new church building. An excellent program has been arranged, several of the performers being nationally known artists. Mrs. Frederick Farnham, who has arranged the program, has announced the following selections:

Instrumental solo, Miss Dorothy Forbes; reading, Miss Nellie Jepson; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edward Cavanah; reading, Miss Elva Bowen; whistling solo, Miss Dorris Forbes; vocal solo, Mrs. Cavanah; selection, Weishaupt Stringed Orchestra; reading, Miss Villah Erntine Withrow; vocal solo, Howard Edward Cavanah; descriptive pantomime, "Little Bo Peep," Misses Dorothy and Dorris Forbes and Nellie Jepson; whistling solo, Mrs. Fern Eillean Carlock; vocal solo, Henry Cantor; reading, Miss Dorothy Forbes; selection, Weishaupt Stringed Orchestra; reading, Miss Dorris Forbes; vocal solo, James Vager; reading, Miss Elva Bowen.

Niagara Falls came into existence because ice in past ages closed the ancient outlet of Lake Erie. The lake overflowed along a new course, which caused it to tumble over a cliff.

LOCAL LEGION GETS PAMPHLET ABOUT COMPENSATION

History of Legislation Is Outlined; Only Justice Is Sought by Soldiers

James F. McBryde, adjutant of the local post of the American Legion, is in receipt of a pamphlet prepared by John Thomas Taylor, vice-chairman of the legislative committee of the American Legion, and including a complete history of the adjusted compensation legislation as it now stands in Washington. The purpose of distributing the pamphlet to all of the posts throughout the country is that of familiarizing all ex-service men with facts regarding the adjusted compensation measure and also to place the proposition before the public at large.

The circular states that "The American Legion asks for no bonus—that sounds too much like a gift or a present from the government. It merely asks the government to assist the ex-service man in overcoming some of the financial disadvantages incident to his military or naval service."

Should Meet Obligation
"The American Legion asks nothing in its selfish interests at the expense of the country, but at the same time, it does not feel that its obligation to ex-service men and women should be altogether passed by at this time and all economizing done at the expense of the ex-service man."

Following is the statement published in the circular and taken from a resolution passed at the first convention of the American Legion on November 12, 1919, showing that "The American Legion did not initiate compensation legislation, but rather it seems to have been the spontaneous desire of Congress itself to recognize the necessity for an adjustment of compensation."

"Be it resolved, that while the American Legion was not founded for the purpose of promoting legislation in its selfish interest, yet it recognizes that our government has an obligation to all ex-service men and women to relieve the financial disadvantages incident to their military service—an obligation second only to that of caring for the disabled and for the widows and orphans of those who sacrificed their lives, and one already acknowledged by our Allies—but the American Legion feels that it cannot ask for legislation in its selfish interests, and leaves with confidence to Congress, the discharge of this obligation."

Many Bills Pending
At the time of the adoption of this resolution it was stated that there were fifty-five bills pending in the House of Representatives designed to compensate ex-service men for economic handicaps incurred as a result of service rendered to their country. Since that time, however, practically all of them have been laid over or tabled either in the Senate or the House of Representatives or at the request of President Harding.

Besides giving a resume of all resolutions adopted and bills proposed regarding the subject of compensation since the incorporation of the American Legion the booklet takes up every possible phase and argument that has ever been presented on the question. Several pages are given over to the methods of reimbursement to the World War veterans of Canada, Australia and other Ally countries. Excerpts from this section follow:

"Australia sent 10 per cent of her population overseas and paid its fighting forces 40 per cent higher than our men were paid. When its fighters were brought home, an Australian blinded in the war received a home for which he paid a nominal rent of a few cents a month to his government. Those returned men who were unable to connect with positions immediately were paid anywhere from $10 to $15 a week until they obtained employment."

Canadian Treatment
"Let us see how returned Canadians were dealt with. Returned Canadian soldiers were given adjusted compensation according to whether the man was married or single, each married man getting from $10 to $300 per year, based on the length of service. Returned Canadians received $75 per month while awaiting employment."

At the request of Lemuel Bolles, who is the national adjutant of the American Legion, the adjutants of all posts in the country are instructed to make known the contents of the bulletinized history of adjusted compensation to every ex-service man and to all civic and business organizations and to the general public. The pamphlet is being held at the disposal of those interested in the subject at Mr. McBryde's offices on Brand boulevard.

SEIZE 3500 BOTTLES BREW
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—What is said to be one of the largest seizures of home brew ever made by prohibition officers took place here when 3400 bottles were found in a raid at 1144 Mariposa street. J. Kelly was the only person arrested. In other raids made about the city eight arrests were made by prohibition enforcement officers.

$150,000 DIAMOND THEFT
HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Nov. 7.—Three bandits leaped out of a road-side here, clubbed two Chicago jewelers, tied them to a tree and robbed them of diamonds said to be valued at $150,000. The victims were M. Schwartz and A. H. Nathan, representatives of H. Swartz, Chicago jewelry merchant.

RIVER RATES TO BE CUT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Bay and river boat carriers operating on the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers were authorized by the railroad commission to make immediate reductions in the rates on many commodities, including beans, flour, grain, rice and hay. The reductions range from 27 1/2 cents to $1 per ton, and follow the suggestion made by the commission in its decision of October 6 that the carriers make a voluntary reduction of 20 per cent on the chief commodities handled.

While the commission found that the rates in effect were not yielding an unreasonable return, the reduction was suggested to stimulate business. The present reductions do not carry out fully the recommendations of the commission but it is expected that lower rates will be extended to other articles.

MINISTER IS SENTENCED

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—The Rev. Fred R. Royston, former Methodist minister, was sentenced in federal court here to serve eighteen months at McNeil's Island prison, following his plea of guilty to the charge of violating the Mann act. He entered his plea just as the task of securing a jury to try him had been started. He was charged with transporting Miss Frankie Edwards, 19, from her home in Salem, Ore., to Centralia, Wash. The girl lived next door to Royston, who has a wife and 11-year-old daughter.
