GREATER EDUCATION, HIGHER STANDARD, DOCTOR'S PLEA

Dr. Norman Bridge Gives Talk
at Harrower Laboratory
to Physicians' Club

Dr. Norman Bridge, seemingly hale and hearty at 77, honored the Glendale Physicians' Club, in session at the Harrower Laboratory last night, with a review of the things he has learned. Noted for his educational philanthropy, as well as his success as a financier and doctor, the speaker told the fellow members of his profession the experiences of a lifetime in summary thoughts.

More than two score were gathered to hear this venerable authority invoke a literal prayer for higher standards and greater education. Especially did he impress the fact that specialists should send patients back to their family physicians.

"I have heard it said," he pointed out, "that if a doctor sends his patient to a specialist he will never see him again. The trouble is that we are so selfish and egotistical that we cannot see beyond our losses."

Then he warned the specialist against over-emphasizing his speciality.

"I cannot help but believe the specialist is in danger of losing his sense of proportion," the speaker added. "We should keep our minds balanced so that we will not be a people of one remedy, or one disease."

"Of course, it is hard to do this for, as we get along in life, we acquire dogmatism. We have seen a lot of fads rise and fall. I mentioned tuberculosis and salvarsan as cures which have not done all that was hoped for."

"So we have got into the habit of pooh-poohing all the things," he continued. "But it is equally ridiculous for people to want us to believe in every new fad."

Buy Latest Books
"The fellow who pooh-poohs at all these, however, never buys any new books. It is my own belief that it would be a great thing if we were compelled to throw our books on physiology and pathology into the cellar and then buy the latest on the subject."

Necessity for this course was illustrated by the great strides taken in combating the plague, yellow fever and malaria. Now it is the micro-organisms to be fought.

"We must be in a receptive mood and we must be spiritually anxious all the time," he pleaded in closing his remarks.

During the round table which followed, Dr. Bridge aptly illustrated the thought by stating that while he was teaching in Rush medical college years ago, he thought deep breathing was all wrong in cure of lung trouble.

Changes His Mind
"Now I have changed my mind," he added. Answering another question he said, "We should sleep in a slight draft. However, one must be kept well covered and warm."

A rising vote of thanks was given the doctor emeritus and the physicians then enjoyed refreshments of ice cream and cake served by members of the laboratory staff.

Dr. H. G. Westphal, president of the club, and chief surgeon at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, presided.

Doctor Gives Some Advice Free; It Is: Read Dictionary!

Doctors, lawyers and business men are noted for charging for advice. Here is some free, given by Dr. Norman Bridge, millionaire, philanthropist, educator and surgeon, in his talk before the Glendale Physicians' club last night: "We do not use the dictionary enough. How many times in reading we run across a word we do not know the meaning of! Go to the dictionary and learn what it means. It is a habit we ought to have."

"Instead of spending money for other things, spend it in books of learning. Children ought to be taught in using them. And they should not pass a word without going to the dictionary."

Bootleggers! Bottle Boys! Volstead Law Passed in Glendale!

Glendale has a little Volstead law all of its own now!

The city council last night adopted an ordinance, which will be effective in thirty days, making it possible for the municipal officials to prosecute under the authority of the eighteenth prohibition amendment and collect the fines therefor.

"Watch your step, if you are a little woozy; otherwise you may be a victim of the bootlegger," is the word being passed around this morning. Of course, there is incentive to enforce the law when cash accompanies each conviction.

When Mayor Spencer Robinson signed Glendale's Volstead law last night, Councilman S. A. Davis said: "Mr. Mayor! Let me have that pen—I wish to present it to the W. C. T. U."

"I'll keep the pen. Now I'm going to get a drink—of water," said Mayor Robinson as he arose and walked to where the council's "wet stuff" is displayed in a pitcher on a table.

Another interesting thing discovered last night at the council, inadvertently that august body repealed the ordinance banning fireworks. Now they are going to have a new one in force by the Fourth of July.

The guests of the occasion were members of the team led by Howard L. Brown of 406 North Maryland avenue. The meal was prepared by wives of the losing team under the supervision of Mrs. Baird. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Harmony quartet of the Bible Institute, Los Angeles.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 24.—A drop in the nation's unemployed ex-soldiers from 700,000 to about 500,000 in the first day of the campaign to find jobs for ex-service men, was estimated by Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the American Legion. Reports from practically every city and town in the country received at Legion headquarters here showed that many had already gone over the top.

Adjutant Bolles announced that the time limit for the placing of all the country's unemployed ex-service men had been extended indefinitely and that the campaign would be waged until each one had a job.

MAY CALL ELECTION FOR GAS MAINS IN WOODLANDS

City Council and Committee in Conference; Water Question Is Also Discussed

Formation of an improvement district in Verdugo Woodlands by which gas mains may be installed by voting bonds is legal, Attorney W. E. Evans informed the city council last night during a conference between the council and a committee from the Woodlands headed by John M. Bolland as chairman. Attorney Evans represented the committee in looking up legal questions.

"We want gas in the Woodlands; we want it right away; we are going to get it right away," was the unanimous declaration of the committee.

"We will help you get gas," said the council as a unit.

F. P. Newport, head of the Newport Company, owner of large tracts in the district, informally discussed with the committee and council the taking over of his privately owned water company which, he said, has cost about $41,000 and which, he said, he will sell, with reservations, for $20,000. He proposed to use the money obtained from the sale of the water company to install gas mains.

But, it was pointed out, estimates show the gas mains will cost about $30,000. Various propositions were made to solve the $10,000 problem and it was finally decided to hold another conference with the council next Monday night.

Willing to Cooperate
Members of the committee declare the gas company has stated it is preparing to put 150 men into the district and install the mains as soon as a bond election is called.

Mr. Newport declared he is willing to cooperate in solving the gas and water questions, yet, as he expressed it, he "didn't want to be a Santa Claus for the whole community."

Members of the council last night predicted that unless the water question is settled within the next week or so, an election will be called in the Woodlands to vote bonds to install the gas mains.

It is also probable the improvement district will take in property at the mouth of the canyon which would be benefitted by the nearness of the gas mains.

Mrs. Chalmer Day at Auxiliary Gathering

Mrs. Chalmer Day, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Glendale Post of the American Legion, attended a meeting in Victory Post hall, 227 1/2 South Hill street, Los Angeles, yesterday afternoon, of all the legion auxiliaries in the county, at which time a County Council of the Women's Auxiliaries of the American Legion was organized, the purpose of which is to assist the Legion County Council in their work. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Carroll Marks.

All of the members of the various auxiliaries are invited to attend the meetings of the county council, but the voting power shall be vested in the delegates, three of which shall be appointed from each auxiliary. The local delegates will be appointed at the next meeting of the local auxiliary on April 3.

The following officers of the county council were elected at yesterday's meeting: Mrs. Bailey of Pomona, president; Mrs. Schonover of Alhambra, first vice-president; Mrs. Carr of South Pasadena, second vice-president; Mrs. Fuller of Post No. 54 of Los Angeles, third vice-president; Mrs. Cummings of Venice, treasurer; Miss Umstead of Post No. 8 of Los Angeles, secretary.

CANNOT NOW SECURE HIGH SCHOOL SITE ON WEST SIDE

Law Will Not Permit Calling of Election Until After the Tax Roll Completed

The purchase of another high school site at this time is impossible, according to information received yesterday at the office of the county board of education in Los Angeles by George U. Moyses, principal of Glendale Union High school. H. W. Yarik of 347 West Wilson avenue and T. D. Watson of 526 North Central avenue, members of the high school board of trustees.

"We find that the law will not permit us to call a bond election for the proposed high school site on the northwest side until after the new assessment roll is completed," asserted Mr. Yarik upon his return.

"The trustees at once carried out the request and suggestion made at the mass meeting in regard to finding out what could be done towards the acquisition of a west side site," remarked Mr. Moyses.

The imperative necessity of taking steps to secure options on the Gardner tract before it should be too late was brought to the board's attention at its last meeting, Wednesday afternoon, by W. B. Kelly of 927 East Randolph street.

Proposition Offered
Submission of a proposal to purchase an additional site at the same time that the $600,000 bonds are put up to a vote with the understanding that the bonds for the acquisition of the real estate should not be sold until the funds should be available, was favored by the board.

Mark Keppel, county superintendent of schools, vetoed this suggestion absolutely. He stated definitely that this proposal was out of the question.

The county counsel's ruling on the state school law, according to Mr. Keppel, provides that a board of education cannot make any purchase of real estate which it can not pay for during the year in which the purchase is made.

Receives Letter About Severe Kansas Storm

Mrs. S. A. Davis of 118 West Colorado street is in receipt of an interesting newspaper clipping from her sister, who resides in Winfield, Kansas. The article relates about the severe blizzard which was experienced at Liberal, Kansas, on March 9, and which was stated to have been the worst since 1886.

Several hundred Methodist clergy had convened for their conference in the church of that city and, owing to the severity of the storm, 150 of them were compelled to pass the night in the church pews and had to remain there for breakfast in the morning, it being impossible to navigate farther than a very few blocks. The snowdrifts were said to be ten and twelve feet high.

Bare Facts Revealed About Tale of Bear

A bear story, as bear stories go, is told about Miss Sadie Houdyshel of 308 North Orange street, a teacher in Los Angeles Elysian Heights grammar school.

With another teacher and sixty-two children she went on a nature study tour in Griffith park and visited the zoological gardens. The bare facts of the story are these:

One of the keepers of the bears permitted one of the clumsy animals to get out of the cages and while some of the children were frightened, others fed it cookies and had a great time, according to Miss Houdyshel.

Contrary to yesterday's reports, she was uninjured and enjoyed the experience very much.

RECITAL GREATLY ENJOYED

A large number of people enjoyed the vocal and instrumental recital given by Keumoku A. Louis, concert baritone, and Charles Olerich, pianist, last night in the Pacific Avenue Methodist church. The program included several Hawaiian melodies sung in the native tongue of Mr. Louis and accompanied by him on his steel guitar. "Mother Machree" and "Mother o' Mine" received much applause. Massenet's "Elegie" was also well received. Mr. Louis expressed his pleasure at singing in Glendale once more.

ST. MARK'S GUILD MEETS

The regular all-day meeting of St. Mark's Guild was held yesterday in the guild hall, with Mrs. J. L. McOmber, vice-president, in charge. The day was spent in sewing on quilt patches. At noon a "pot luck" lunch was enjoyed. The members of the guild are each sewing a pound of carpet rags at home, as part of their Lenten work.

VISITORS FROM ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mitchell of 1241 South Boynton street will have as their house guests for some time Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Douglas of River Forest, Illinois, who are expected to arrive in Glendale soon.

Telephone Exchange Will Be Installed In The News Office

Increasing business has made it mandatory that The Glendale Evening News install a private telephone exchange.

Already the order has been placed with Manager Fred Deal of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, and within the next few days patrons will be greeted by a "hello girl" all our own.

There will be a commercial switchboard placed in the center of the business office and from there calls will radiate to the different departments, with twelve stations to start.

Five direct trunk lines to the Glendale exchange will be used for the present to carry the incoming and outgoing calls. The number will remain the same, Glendale 132.

The Glendale Evening News already has, of course, a complete telephone system, but, as stated, increasing business has made it necessary to put in an even more elaborate phone plant.

The paper's management always is alive to the business requirements of this rapidly growing city and since last September the present system has been inadequate to the needs.

Hereafter the public is requested to call for the department desired, such as classified advertising, display advertising, circulation, job printing, bookkeeping, city editor, social editor, or name the person with whom they wish to converse.

MRS. E. C. RAY ENTERTAINS

MUSIC CLUB HOLDS FEDERATION NIGHT ENTERTAINMENT

Public Concert Is Complete
Success and Is Heard
by Large Audience

"Federation Night," which was observed last night by the Glendale Music club at a concert given at the high school auditorium by members of all the federated musical organizations of this city, proved to be most successful. The announcement that it would be a public concert brought forth a very large crowd, with every seat in the auditorium taken.

Last night's program was in celebration of Los Angeles County Music Federation Week, which will close Saturday night. All of the federated music clubs in the county are having public programs during this week.

In explaining some of the aims of the State Federation of Music clubs, of which she is first vice-president and chairman of extension, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Glendale Music club, stated that it aimed to make America the music center of the world and to promote and develop American musical art, at the same time recognizing what other countries are doing. The federated music clubs endeavor to have at least one number on every program that of an American composer.

Telegrams were read by Mrs. Jones from Mrs. Cecil Frankel, president of the California Federation of Music clubs, and other federation officers congratulating the club on what it has done and is doing and also a letter from Mrs. Mary Mason, head of the Los Angeles Symphony orchestra, who commended the splendid work Glendale is doing for music.

Mrs. Spencer Kelly, president of the Matinee Music club, was introduced by Mrs. Jones, and gave words of greeting from that organization. She was especially pleased with the work of the high school orchestra and girls' glee club and the juvenile and junior auxiliary members.

Mrs. Jones announced the final try-outs of the music memory contest to be held Saturday morning at the T. (Continued on Page 4)

CANNOT NOW SECURE HIGH SCHOOL SITE ON WEST SIDE

high school district is $17,444,740. Of this amount five per cent may be spent for high school purposes or $872,237. Of this amount $179,000 has been spent previously and $85,000 was consumed in the purchase of the site, leaving a balance of $608,237.
"Every dollar of the $600,000 to be voted will be needed for the new high school plant," declared Mr. Yarick. "It is not until after the tax roll is completed for the year that we are going to be crowded for funds. There isn't a doubt in my mind but that the enrollment will be over 2000 by the time the school is completed."

Increased Valuation
"The high school fiscal year ends June 30," said Mr. Moyle. "The new assessment roll will not be usable until after August 10. It is estimated that the valuation of the district then will be increased $4,000,000 or $5,000,000, which will give the board an additional bonding capacity of between $160,000 and $200,000. However, $608,000 is all the bonding capacity which the board will have when the coming election is held."

"That nothing further can be done in the matter called for the new assessment roll is available is the opinion of both Mr. Yarick and Mr. Moyle."

"If we had the money available, I would be in favor of purchasing a site on the northwest side of the city if it could be secured at reasonable terms and in a suitable location," declared Mr. Yarick. "Of course, I have no particular site in mind."

Mr. Moyle also feels favorable toward the acquisition of an additional site on the west side of the city, he said.

Looking Into Future

"As a far-sighted business proposition," he remarked, "looking ahead and getting school property in advance of the actual time that it is needed seems a very excellent plan. From the indications of the present time one would judge that the northwest side of the city would be a very reasonable place for a high school in the future. It is a real estate guess, but from present indications it would seem as though development would be out in that direction."

Information was obtained at yesterday's visit to the county office that it would be possible to have the bond election called in about thirty days. After consultation, members of the board decided that a further delay of about a week would be desirable in order to permit residents of the district, who have not registered since the first of the present year, to do so thirty days before the election.

Many Must Register

The fact that only 60 per cent of the voters are now registered was emphasized yesterday by Mr. Moyle. He feels that it is imperative that all those who have not registered, should do so without further delay. According to the records of the county registrar's office, there are now four official registrars in Glendale. The names of S. S. MacDougall and Elizabeth A. Tisdale cannot be located in the city directory. Mrs. Sara M. Ryan resides at 322 West Acacia street and Mrs. M. E. Myton of 1504 East Maple street may be found during the day at 612 East Broadway, across the street from the city hall.

Committee representing the property owners in Verdugo Canyon appeared regarding the proposition of securing gas mains in that district. This appearance was in lieu of previous meetings in which the matter of purchasing water system in that district had been discussed.

W. E. Evans, representing the committee, set forth in detail the proposition of calling an election under the Act of 1915 providing for acquiring of certain utilities. Under this act, it would be possible to dispose of the property acquired in two different ways, to-wit:

First—Under Act of 1921, the disposition could be submitted to the city as a whole in which provisions would be made for the way proceeds from the sale would be spent.

Second—That the city charter provides that the city can own and sell and dispose of proceeds under the general laws which provide for an ordinance of procedure.

He recommended that there be some arrangement made with the Gas company regarding the purchase of this equipment, provided that such election was carried. He further stated that in case the Gas company did purchase the plant that they would refund for each service connection installed and that these refunds would probably be sufficient to retire bonds.

This procedure was discussed at some length after which the matter of purchasing the water plant was discussed with Mr. Newport. His proposition to sell water plant to the city and use the proceeds of such sale for the installation of gas mains, was not looked upon favorably by the committee, owing to certain conditions in the sale, and they had taken the alternative measure as a means of solving their problem.

Another proposition that was presented and discussed was to the effect that the district be bonded for

Hawaii Troupe Heads Program at T. D. & L.

As the featured attraction on the Meiklejohn & Dunn vaudeville road show which is coming to the T. D. & L. theatre today and Saturday, Clemens' troupe of native instrumentalists and singers will be heard in a program that is truly representative of Hawaii. Each of the members of this troupe is a real Hawaiian and they play and sing as only the natives of this country can. This act is really a whole production in itself for the restless volcano. Hilo, will be seen in action during the finale of this act.

Those ebony-faced entertainers, the Dixie Trio, are riotous in their fun-making and there is not a dull moment during the fifteen minutes of wholesome fun which these darlings offer. Besides the unbounded comedy which these three fellows have in their act, each of them is a dancer of note and all of them have voices that would alone make them liked.

That serenading violinist, Otesco, is a most fascinating personality. Garbed in the costume of Pierot, this engaging little musician fairly fascinates his audience with his selections and quaint bits of comedy.

There are very few acts that are re-engaged at Grauman's Million Dollar theatre in Los Angeles. The Griffin Twins are said to hold the record for appearances at this theatre for they have played at at Grauman's eleven different weeks. Although quite young in years, these two juveniles have a cycle of dances that will make them favorites during their engagement in Glendale.

A big question is answered in the photoplay, "Why Girls Leave Home," in which beautiful Anna Q. Nilsson is starred.

Powerful Sea Story Featured at Glendale

The salt air of the sea blows through the powerful story of "Dr. Jim," the Universal special attraction starring Frank Mayo, which is seen today at the Glendale theatre. From waxed floors that are trod by the "four hundred" to the slippery decks of a four-master in the waters of tropic seas, the action of a strong drama of marriage, written for Mr. Mayo by Stuart Paton, takes its course.

"Dr. Jim" is an eminent surgeon with a penchant for heading the pleas of his sick children before thinking of his wife's claims upon him. When he neglects her, she becomes dissatisfied, and, in imagination, is forlorn and neglected. A breakdown sends the doctor to the southern seas and his wife accompanies him. On the ship they have chartered is a crew of rough characters captained by a man without soul or mercy. This skipper is handsome enough, however, in the light of a yellow moon—and the husband's illness makes the emphasis of this romantic quality a simple matter.

Added to this quality there will be plenty of comedy on the bill. A preview of "Follow Suit" will be given while Eddie Barry and Harry Gribben will be seen in "A Designing Husband," "Mutt and Jeff" and a Pathe Review round out the big bill.

For one week beginning this Saturday a copy of the latest hit, "My Dream of You," featuring popular Glendale girl, will be given away free with a purchase of two 35c pieces, at the SONG SHOP, 113 W. Broadway, Glendale, Calif.—Adv.

Want Some Top Soil To Cover Sandy Lawn?
A. B. Clement is making another free offer. This time it is the finest top soil for covering a sandy lawn. He states that another street is being cut through his Clement Orange Grove tract and anyone wishing to get the dirt may have it for calling. Mr. Clement had good luck in giving away his orange crop, the orange trees, and he hopes the same will be true of the loam. Those who transplanted the orange trees are warned to whitewash them to protect them from the sun.

ORGAN DEDICATION AT HOLY FAMILY CHURCH SUNDAY

Special Musical Service to Be Given Under Direction of Harry Girard

The new pipe organ of the Holy Family church will be officially dedicated at 8 o'clock mass Sunday morning by the Rev. Father James S. O'Neil.

A special musical service will be rendered by a choir of forty voices especially organized and trained for this event. This will be under the personal direction of Harry Girard, who will preside at the organ. It will be augmented by the regular children's choir under the leadership of Miss Ada Gies of 823 North Brand boulevard.

The several organizations connected with the church, such as the Holy Name Society of Glendale Parish, the Young Ladies' Institute, and the Altar Society, will be officially represented. Glendale Council No. 1920, Knights of Columbus, will receive communion in a body.

To Give Famous Mass

The 10:30 o'clock mass will be celebrated by the full choir. It will render Charles Gounod's famous St. Cecilia mass, written for an ensemble of mixed voices with soprano, tenor and baritone solos. The soloists will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard and Henri La Bonté.

The new organ, which will receive its final tuning and adjustment today or tomorrow, was built from specifications furnished by Mr. Girard. The console is two manuals, with full pedal equipment and the latest electric action. The five and one-half horse-power motor with special electric generator gives a direct wind pressure of ten inches.

The organ has been tested and is adequate in every way for its requirements," declared Mr. Girard "It is as fine an instrument as any of its size in Southern California and one of which all citizens of Glendale should be proud."

The dedication of this organ marks another step in the completion of Father O'Neil's life work.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Fulfilling Citizenship Education Topic of Day Hurrah for Music Week

By Gil A. Cowan

HAS an orator ever thrilled you to the bottom of your boots? The late Theodore Roosevelt had that faculty as his jaws snapped shut at the conclusion of a dynamic thought.

Major William T. Morgan, who appeared here yesterday at the Glendale Union High school and spoke before the Rotary club, provided such a thrill for his hearers.

How bitterly he assailed the civic slacker, how vividly he pointed out the duties of a citizen.

"Did you ever telephone your chief of police, the sheriff, the prosecuting attorney, or other officer, who you, as an American citizen, helped put into office, that you were with him in the full enforcement of the law?" he demanded.

"Do you consider yourself better than the law because you do not like it? Do you deny your loyalty to the president, or the governor, or the mayor because you are of a different political faith?" he asked.

"If you do, it is a stab in the very heart of the government of the people, the rule of the majority!" There is something for every resident of Glendale to think about. And it is embarrassing to the many citizens being a registered voter, ready for jury duty, ready to answer the call of your country, ready to obey the laws of the land, the major added.

Only forty per cent of the estimated eligible citizens of Glendale are registered, it is stated. For an intelligent community that is an appalling fact.

Cannot the deputy registrars establish themselves in important places around town in the evenings. It is embarrassing to the many citizens to go to a private home after dark to realize their desire to be good citizens.

How about it folks? There are a few more days in which to qualify for the coming state election. Let Glendale make a record and prove its population as well as patriotism.

Education! That is the topic of the day. Bonds for a new high school! That is a way of exemplifying Glendale's desire to be foremost.

A week ago Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid of the University of Southern California made a stirring plea for education. Again last night Dr. Norman Bridge, in a speech here, urged more knowledge.

You cannot help but agree that the improvement of mind is the greatest accomplishment, for with that comes all other things.

Musical education as well as mental, physical training as well as mental, literary development as well as scientific are necessary for harmony. Which brings to mind the work of Music Week. Hundreds of young people have been stirred by the campaign featured by the Federation of Music Clubs.

We have been giving great credit to the realtors for their "Own Your Own Home" week. Now let a good word be said about the musical endeavor. Three cheers for it!

MUSIC CLUB HOLDS FEDERATION NIGHT ENTERTAINMENT

D. & L. theatre, which has been donated for the purpose by Ralph Allan. A group of twelve selections to be chosen by the committee will be played on the pipe organ by Wesley Kuhle. Complete account of the arrangements for the tryouts will be found elsewhere in this issue.

The Cadman trio concert, "Flawatha," to be given tonight at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club was also announced.

Piano solo "Under the Leaves," by Margaret Chappell, member of the juvenile auxiliary. As an encore she played "The Lark" (Tschaiikowsky). For so young a musician her interpretation of these selections was excellent.

Vocal numbers, "June Rhapsody" (Mabel Davis), and "The Rosary" (Nevin), by the Glendale Union High School Girls' Glee club, Earl Meeker, director.

Piano solo, "To a Water Lily" (MacDowell), by Miss Winifred Parker, member of the junior auxiliary. From Tuesday Club Violin solos, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" (Cadman), and "On the Banks of the Stream" (Bois Du Sres), by Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong Welcome, Miss Gertrude Champlain, accompanist, both members of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club.

Duets, "Until" (Sanderson), "Grey Dawn" (Johnson) and "A Dream" (Larlett), by Howard Edward Cavanah, tenor, and Beatrice Huntly Cavanah, mezzo-soprano, with Mrs. Mary Newman as accompanist, members of the Glendale Music club. Mr. and Mrs. Cavanah are recent additions to the music colony of Glendale and are members of the Glendale Music club. Mrs. Newman is a composer-pianist. Mr. and Mrs. Cavanah sang as an encore, "Genevieve."

Harp solos, "An Bada" (Hasslemans) and "Menuet" (Hasslemans), by Mrs. Enoha Hopkins, member of the Glendale Music club. As an encore she played "Songs" (Dubey).

Vocal numbers, "Dusk Witch" (Paul Ambrose) and "Morning" (Oley Speaks), by the members of the Madrigal club, Mrs. C. A. Parker, director, and Mrs. Wright, accompanist.

The Chickering piano used was through the courtesy of the Glendale Music company.

Announcement was made of the regular Glendale Music Club concert to be held April 7, at which time Mrs. Catherine Shank will be the soloist.

Scout Leaders Plan Impressive Ceremony

"The presentation of the charter to the Verdugo Hills District Council by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America will be an event of great importance to the communities in this territory," asserts H. F. Bonner, scout executive.

Plans for this ceremony were made yesterday noon in the Glen Inn by a committee consisting of Mr. Benner, A. T. Cowan, S. P. Collins, Burbank; G. M. Inley, Tujunga, and Dr. Harry B. Crawford, Eagle Rock.

A scout program in honor of this event will be held in the auditorium of Glendale Union High school the evening of April 13.

The official presentation of the charter will be made by Stuart W. French, member of the Twelfth Regional committee and president of the Pasadena Boy Scout council.

Scout activities will be depicted on the stage by various troops of scouts. The Scout Oath will be repeated by Troop No. 1 from Tujunga; the Scout Laws will be repeated by three troops from Burbank. A knot tying exhibition will be given by Troop No. 1 from Eagle Rock.

Glendale boys will illustrate camp life of the boy scouts, a boy scout troop meeting, and typical boy scout games.

Patriotic songs by all the scouts in the district will be a feature of the entertainment.

"All parents and friends of scouts are invited to attend," remarked Mr. Benner. "There will be no charge for admission and no solicitation of money for any purpose."

You have heard about "rolling up the sidewalks." But did you ever see it? Last night Janitors Hamner and Murphy at Hayward & McCartney's real estate office, 142 South Brand boulevard, were seemingly caught in the act.

And then it was learned that they were rolling up a rug at 11 o'clock which they had swept off. "The bosses told us there couldn't be any dust stay under their feet, so we gave the floor covering a good old-fashioned cleaning."

Chinese Find Eggs of Pigeon 'Stop Smallpox'

SHANGHAI, China—According to the press Chinese here have discovered an infallible safeguard against smallpox. Some genius has found that pigeon's eggs are a "tonic food" and that a person dieted with the same is in no danger of contracting smallpox. The rumor has spread around town and there is a rush to purchase pigeon's eggs, and the same are now in great demand at the extraordinary price of seven cents apiece. "Truly," as one editor observed, "the spectacle of the public gullied by a silly rumor is enough to make an intelligent man laugh." Especially, it may be added, the man who has pigeon's eggs for sale.

Plans Made for Big Rotarian Convention

LOS ANGELES—Preliminary plans for what is confidently predicted will be the largest convention of the International Association of Rotary Clubs ever held, scheduled to take place in Los Angeles from June 5 to 9, are under way following a meeting of the national convention executive committee.

Expecting an attendance of more than 10,000 members representing Rotary clubs all over the world, contracts for 3,000 room reservations have been prepared to assure visitors adequate accommodations. A convention budget fund of approximately $100,000 has also been composed. The Rotary clubs are composed of representative business men of the world. Since they will gather here when the post-war business reconstruction period is at its height their discussions are expected to be of interest in all civilized lands.

Radio Phone Speeds Town's Firefighters

YORKVILLE, O.—Fire Chief A. F. Malasky wants to speed up his volunteer members of the local fire-fighting department. Accordingly he has decided to install a wireless phone receiving set in the village building. An amplifier, he announced, will be attached so that the firemen may hear concerts, sermons, etc., broadcasted from Pittsburg. Chief Malasky expects the plan to result in more of the volunteers loafing about the municipal building, making them available for quicker action when an alarm is sounded.

DRY RAIDS 'TIPPED OFF'
MIAMI, Fla., March 24.—Liquor valued at from two to three hundred thousand dollars slipped quietly out of the hands of federal prohibition agents just as they thought all plans had been made to seize it during the roundup which has been in progress here, it was admitted by Colonel L. G. Nutt, in charge of the flying squadron of clean-up men. Several places where raids had been planned, Colonel Nutt said, were tipped off that the enforcement agents were coming and large stocks of liquor were removed.

FIVE RICHEST MEN CAUSE QUESTION AS TO IDENTITY

Fords, Rockefeller, Schwab and Baker Lead Wall Street Big Guessing Contest

By MAX KASE
 Written for International News Service
 NEW YORK—Wall street has contracted its brow and is speculatively chewing at the end of a frayed pencil. A great guessing contest is on. Not concerning bears or bulls or foreign exchange or the political situation in Patagonia. Nothing so simple. Five citizens of the United States are known to have paid an income tax on a net income of $5,000,000 a year last year. The revenue department has been appealed to for the identity of this quintet, but the revenue department is not saying. It never does. And so Wall street is guessing.

Wall street sleuths have made some progress and have positively determined that two of the privileged five-million-dollar citizens are Michiganites, while the remaining three come from this city. Going still further with their deductions, the financial "Hawkshaws" believe for a certainty that the Fords—Henry and Edsel—are the Michigan members of the exclusive high-paying income tax clique. The elder Ford's extensive holdings are known to insure him an income well in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. Edsel is a large shareholder in his father's company and, together with his tractor company, is believed to qualify for membership.

John D., of Course

But when it comes to the New York members of this particular quintet the local "Sherlocks" have torn their hair and wilted their collars in their concentrated exertions and admit they are stumped. One guess is as good as another. John D. Rockefeller, Sr.; John D., Jr.; George F. Baker, Charles M. Schwab, Thomas F. Ryan, J. P. Morgan and William Rockefeller have been brought forward as most likely candidates. In fact, John D., Sr., is positively believed to be one of the three.

It is doubtful whether John D. knows his exact income. The "oil king's" railroads and banks and oil wells and mines and interests in other enterprises, Wall street has figured, must yield him the necessary income to be classed with the elite. John D., Jr., is also receiving serious consideration in view of the large transfers of property being made over to him by his father. John D., Sr., it is known, has steadily placed the junior in control and ownership of valuable properties in recent years.

George Baker Wealthy

George F. Baker, the banker, with his large railroad interests and holdings in numerous industrial corporations, is another who may be one of the three. "G. F." is not so well known to the public at large, but he can write checks quite as large as the next man. Charles M. Schwab, with his steel holdings; J. P. Morgan, the international banker; William Rockefeller (the silent); Thomas F. Ryan, of copper fame—may be one of the favored three.

Those of the Wall street element who believe in a hunch declare it will be a family affair—two Fords from Michigan and three Rockefellers from New York.

And, also, Wall street is wondering. Perhaps some unknown who has not yet flashed across the financial firmament is one of the three local members. If so, who is he? The contest is waxing hot and merry.

BIG FLOODS BRING STARVATION FOR TWO MILLIONS

Shantung Province Swept by Yellow River; Crops Are Total Ruin, Report

By EDNA LEE BOOKER
Written for International News Service
SHANGHAI, China.—More than two million people are facing starvation in Shantung Province, having been rendered destitute by the floods caused by the Yellow river, according to reports of the Shantung International Famine Relief committee, just issued.

The Shantung farmer—and the people of this province are simple-minded, peace loving, unprogressive people, is worrying more about driving the wolf from his door and locating his next meal than he is the "Shantung Question."

Last year the terrible famine in China was caused by drought—this year by floods. The Yellow river—China's sorrow—was on a rampage during the summer and early fall, broke its dykes and, like a great octopus, reached out its arms and sucked in the winter crops of wheat, millet and kaoliang (grain).

During the heavy fall rains the Yellow river broke through the dykes, which are in very bad condition, in several places; the water in the Grand Canal overflowed, and then came the two-mile break in the dyke at Leching.

Sought Refuge on Roofs
The angry water swept unchecked over the low, flat country, and the farmers, who were not yet on their feet from the terrible drought of last year, sought refuge on the roofs of their houses or escaped by boats, helpless before the coming water.

The Yellow river ruined the millet and wheat crops, but the long-suffering farmers harvested the kaoliang crop by going out in boats and cutting the tops—which grow very tall—that reached above the water. Now Shantung is covered with snow and ice, and the stretches of water which did not recede are frozen, and the spring crops cannot be planted.

According to reports of the Shantung International Famine Relief Committee, Shantung is facing one of the worst famines in her history this spring. Reports show that seven million people have been affected by the floods and that approximately two million will be in dire need in the spring.

Last year three million dollars—local currency—was spent in famine relief work. Two-thirds of this amount came from the American Red Cross and the famine drive launched in America.

Relief Fund Small
This year the committee, which is composed of consular officials, business men and missionaries, has only $450,000 for relief work, but additional funds will be secured from the Maritime Customs surtax and a famine drive to be launched in China shortly.

Wheat depots are being established under the direction of the district workers, chosen by the committee, and the hungry, shivering peasants, from their cheerless, cold little mud houses, walk miles to the depots for a portion of food.

The country is desolate and barren. Miles and miles of dead white snow stretch on and on, without the brightness that comes with the sunshine. Across the frozen "No Man's Land" come the starving, riding their donkeys, or walking as they push their wheelbarrows containing bedding and, perhaps, their womenfolk, along the path toward the nearest wheat depot.

Because of the lack of funds careful investigations of the needy are being made, and only those in dire distress are helped.

Famine Comes Yearly
There is famine every year in Shantung. The people live from hand to mouth, and only the military and official classes have money.

The Shantung province, with its great, undeveloped resources, is bankrupt. Shantung is $10,000,000 in debt, and the debt is growing. Because of the constant demands of the military authorities there are no funds for repairing the Yellow river dykes, and the devastation caused by floods will continue. The cost of repairing the dyke at Leching alone is approximately one-half million dollars. And while the militarists are eating up the money of the province the great masses of the people—the producers—are living on the ragged edge of nothing.

Jekyll-Hyde Preacher Is Trapped As Thief

WASHINGTON.—William Simms, a negro, is leading the placid life of an inmate of a local jail after pursuing the dual existence of a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde long enough to land him in the clutches of the police.

Simms was a porter during the day and is alleged to have stolen shoes from the shop in which he was employed. At night he was the preacher of the Church of Ark, inadvertently preaching against theft.

It developed that Simms had been selling the stolen shoes to members of his congregation, who expressed profound amazement at his arrest in view of the regularity with which he had, from his pulpit, exhorted them not to steal.

Declares Movies Need More Irishmen to Act

CHICAGO—What the motion picture industry needs, according to Col. P. E. Holp, lecturer for the Society for Visual Education, is more Irishmen.

"Since vulgarity has been banished from the films, stupidity has taken its place," said Colonel Holp. "What we need is more real humor in our pictures. More Irishmen in the industry will accomplish this result."

"Irishmen are able to see the funny side of things. They could bring it out in the celluloids. There is nothing funny in destroying property or hurting people. Yet that is what passes for 'humor' in most of our present day 'comedies.'"

"Fun does not depend upon vulgarity. Horseplay is not the concomitant of real humor. True humor is clean, bright and wholesome. Wit and wisdom should be combined in equal parts."

Miss Katherine Force, sister of Mrs. William K. Dick, former wife of the late John Jacob Astor, is a successful real estate operator.

Get Rich Scheme Is Based on Gold Ships

LONDON—Salvaging torpedoed bullion ships is the latest get-rich-quick scheme in England.

An engineer is now advertising in the newspapers that, with a few thousand dollars, he can salvage a vessel with $10,000,000 worth of bullion. He claims to have exclusive information regarding the location and offers to recover the money within three weeks.

The British admiralty admit the possibility of the feat. They confess that during the last four years they have raised 440 important vessels and recovered property to the value of $250,000,000.

In addition, they have the charted position of over 2,000 British merchant vessels, many of which contain great quantities of valuables. Nearly 2,000,000 of tonnage is within easily workable depth.

But it is not allowable for private people to go to work on their own account and raise these vessels. The British treasury lays claim to them all, and before a person can attempt salvage he must first buy the vessel at the figure the treasury imposes—and then take all risks.

Cobbler Proud Over Work for President

EMPORIA, Kan.—The proudest man in town today is E. A. Spady, a quiet cobbler, who for many years has "stuck to his last" in good old-fashioned style. For Spady recently turned out a most important job—repairing a pair of President Harding's shoes.

They attracted crowds to the cobbler's window, where they were placed on exhibition, and Spady was "hot" by the movie camera men while he put new heels and soles on them.

The President sent the shoes to Spady on the recommendation of Homer Hoch, congressman of this district, who told Harding of Spady's skill as a shoemaker.

Officials of London have decreed that children under sixteen shall not see certain motion pictures unless accompanied by parents or guardians. There are two classes of films that are passed by the British board of film censors. One class is passed for "universal" exhibition and another for "adult" exhibition only.

Moral Reform Wave Sweeps Mexico City

MEXICO CITY—A wave of moral reform that might be likened to the blue law agitation of the United States is sweeping over Mexico City. The latest agitation is for the separation of the sexes in the moving picture theaters. Most of the movies here are quite dark during the performance and the moralists say that there is as much unlicensed romance in the balconies and the dusky corners of the orchestra as there is on the screen. Leaders of the moral reform movement predict national decadence and a rapid lowering of the moral standard if the sexes are not separated or the lights turned on.

Some of the moving picture houses here are particularly adapted to the development of romance.

Honey should always be kept in the dark, as light will cause it to granulate.

Millions Illiterate in America, Is Claim

CHICAGO—"Five million people in the United States can neither read nor write any language. Many thousands of children are housed in insanitary and dangerous schoolhouses. More than 1,800,000 children have less than thirty-four square feet of playground each. Sixty-seven per cent of the children of the country are under-nourished. We are a nation of sixth-graders taught by eleventh-graders."

This was the statement of Mark T. McKee in an address here in which he outlined plans for the home for motherless and fatherless children proposed by the Brotherhood of American Yeomen.

There are approximately 14,000,000 foreign-born living in the United States, and more than 7,000,000 cannot read the English language.

Farmers Use Trucks To Evade High Rates

CHICAGO—Farmers living on hard roads within a hundred miles of Chicago are evading high freight rates by sending their livestock to the Union stockyards in rubber-tired vehicles.

A report covering shipments and receipts for the last year shows that 51,100 hogs arrived on rubber-shod carriers, as compared with 33,100 in 1920. The number of sheep increased from 2,600 to 3,600 and cattle and calves from 9,200 to 9,500 during the same period.

One load recently arrived here after a hundred-mile trip. It contained sixty head of hogs, averaging 225 pounds. The largest number of trucks come from points forty to fifty miles distant.

Charles Lamb, the English author, was debarred from entering the ministry by an impediment in his speech.

Austrian Savant, Saying U. S. Mothers Are Dumb, Lazy Cooks, Is Challenged at Once

Dr. Clemens Pirquet

Dr. S. Josephine Baker

By MARGERY REX
Written for International News Service
NEW YORK, March 24.—American mothers like to sleep and hate to cook.
They don't know what is good for their children to eat. And they are too lazy to tear themselves from their moorings—of a morning—in order to learn what a child thinks about when breakfast time comes.
The malnutrition which exists among our children today is directly traceable to the mothers who are deaf to alarm clocks and who send off children to school without a single mouthful, according to Dr. Clemens Pirquet, noted Austrian pediatricist, who spoke before the Academy of Medicine here.

Dr. Pirquet was in charge of the American Relief Administration's feeding stations in Austria during the war. He discussed his ideas on malnutrition, comparing conditions in Austria to those in the United States.

Austrian Physician's Charges
"Here in America," he said, "I find many mothers who are bad cooks. They do not know what is good for their children, and if they are met with resistance or indifference on the part of the children they give them nothing to eat."
"Many women are of the opinion that they should not force their children to eat. They have been told that if a child is forced it will not digest its food. That, of course, is untrue. Geese that are not at all hungry are fattened in spite of their lack of appetite."
"Some children are not punctual at their meals, and that is a cause of malnutrition."

"But one of the chief reasons for malnutrition is that mothers will lie in bed and permit their children to go to school with only a mouthful or nothing at all."
Dr. S. Josephine Baker, head of the bureau of child hygiene of New York City, does not believe that women place the luxury of an hour's extra sleep in the morning above a child's welfare. In discussing Dr. Pirquet's statements, she said, recently:

"We Can Rely on Her"
"The American mother is sound. Personally I feel that we can rely on her good judgment."
"There is, however, just a scintilla of truth in some of these criticisms. The trouble is often that she doesn't recognize the evils of malnutrition or the causes of it. When she does she will do as well by her older children as she has done by her babies."
"Malnutrition in America is due not so much to laziness or to lack of food as it is to ignorance of how to feed children."
"We have gone from the simplicity of the dairy to the delicatessen, with its rich prepared foods, spiced meats, overseasoned salads and sweets. We need more green, leafy vegetables, such as spinach, lettuce, beet-tops and chard."

"Curiously enough, the same reaction takes place among the children of the rich as among the poor. The well-to-do family may have a child who is 'finicky' about what he eats. He won't have the sturdy appetite of the little one who is caught, dirty and happy, playing about even in dangerous city streets. It is possible he is too well protected and because his exercise too often consists of a walk through the park dressed in his best."

When Child Does Not Eat
"Any hungry child will eat, unless something is the matter. That thing may be adenoids, diseased tonsils, bad teeth, or eye-strain—eye trouble often interferes with appetite."
"Never force a child to eat if he is free from defects. If he doesn't eat don't make remarks about it."
"Pay no attention to such refusal and above all don't argue."
"If a child won't eat a regulation breakfast of cereal, eggs, cocoa or milk and bread and butter, say nothing, but be sure he gets nothing more—until lunch is served."
"If he won't eat lunch don't give him an opportunity to get any food until dinner is ready."
"A child can go from twenty-four to forty-eight hours without food unharmed. Then he will eat normally if not fed between meals."
"Now, this may seem strange, but if a child takes his meals regularly then it is all right to give him extra things, such as fruit, bread and butter or cookies, between meals. That doesn't interfere as it would if he didn't eat his meals. That's the way it works, odd as it may seem."

American Women Good Cooks
Dr. Baker was asked what she thought of American women as cooks. She defends the culinary art as practiced in this country.
"Not good cooks?" she said in surprise. "That's not true. New York is quite a foreign city, but the foreign women are excellent cooks although they have many traditions about cooking. And the native-born American woman has always had a fine reputation as a chef."
"Our children really suffer more from ignorance than they do from neglect."
"Over-excitement is a great cause of under-nourishment today. It brings about over-stimulation. Bad air in theatres, lack of proper rest, ill-ventilated sleeping apartments and lack of harmony in homes all react upon children."
"Poor children sometimes have no place to play. Rich ones often simply don't play. If the rich child won't eat what he has and the poor one hasn't anything to eat the net result is the same."
"Baby Death Rate Lower"
"Our baby death rate is seventy-one per thousand now, lower than ever before. Eleven years ago it was 144 out of 1,000."
"These mothers don't always recognize an evil, but when they do they are vigilant in combating it. One reason that children are ill-fed is that during the war we had to change types of food through necessity. And people who have become prosperous eat too much ready-prepared food."
"Our under-nourishment problem is different from Europe's. In Austria, especially, there simply isn't food enough. They have had to devise ways of making the least amount serve to sustain life."
"Before the war we had only 5 per cent under-nourished children. Today we have 25 per cent. The situation is serious, but I believe implicitly in the wisdom of American women."

Few Married Couples Happy, Asserts Judge
NEW YORK—"I have an idea that very few married couples are really happy," Supreme Court Justice Irving Lehman said from the bench in a talk to counsel in a separation action. He made a last minute effort to effect a reconciliation between a man and his wife before the case was taken for decision.
Henry G. Schmidt and his wife, Ida Belle, run a hairdressing establishment. Schmidt brought an action for a separation, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. His wife countered with a charge of abandonment.
"I do not find that these people have been an ideally united couple. I have an idea that very few married couples are really happy," said Justice Lehman. "But they have gotten along fairly well for fourteen years and only parted after a flareup in a theatre."
"I am not going to try to force people to live together, but this couple have gotten along together and have built up a good business during their fourteen years of married life, and my impression is that they should live together."

Hawk Eating Rabbit Gets Shock of Life
LAMOILLE, Nev.—A long-eared Nevada jack-rabbit, sprawled across two high-tension wires, caused a short circuit and completely demoralized electric service here until "trouble shooters" snowshoed twenty miles and removed the carcass.
Mr. Rabbit was cooked to a turn and had all the hair singed off him. Suspended fully ten feet above the snow, power company employes were at a loss to account for the presence of the body until they observed a hawk encircling the spot.
Evidently the hawk had carried his prey to the wires for a meal and received the shock of his life.

Oles Makes Good His Pledge to Donate Pay
YOUNGSTOWN, O.—Mayor George L. Oles is preparing to make good on his pre-election pledge to devote his $500 per month salary to the poor, he has informed the Emergency Relief organization.
When told by the city auditor when his first pay check would be forthcoming, Oles said:
"It will provide $5 each for food-stuffs for 100 needy families for one week."
One thousand two hundred eighty-one Japanese women entered California during 1921.

Twenty Billion Dollars' Worth Of Securities Aid Dodgers In 'Cheating' U. S.

By J. E. JONES
Special to The Glendale Evening News.
WASHINGTON, March 24.—Nineteen times since the framing and adopting of the constitution of the United States the people have been called upon to make amendments to the original and basic document. New holes show constantly, and they have to be plugged. A few weeks ago President Harding advocated in his message, the twentieth amendment to the constitution in order to check the increasing volume in tax-exempt securities. There isn't the same thrill about tax matters as was found in other previous reasons for changing the constitution, when a check was placed on the drinking of booze, and when suffrage was granted to women; or even when the election of United States senators was left to the people to decide by direct vote.

Nevertheless the new constitutional amendment would remedy a pernicious and growing evil. Philip H. Gadsden of Philadelphia, one of the country's clearest thinkers, argued this proposed constitutional amendment at some length before the committee on ways and means of the house of representatives.

"Suppose I were in your state," he told the committee chairman, "and I was worth a million dollars, and you issued these tax-exempt securities and I invested half of my income in tax-exempt securities, so that I did not contribute anything to the state government at all?"

And, according to Mr. Gadsden, that is just what a lot of rich men and women are doing: investing in gilt-edged securities that have been especially exempted from taxation in order to make them desirable for people who have surplus money that they want to put to work with the least possible physical and mental exertion.

In order to carry on the railroads, public utility and telephone and telegraph business of this country it is necessary to raise nearly $2,000,000,000 of new money a year. Mr. Gadsden points out that with a rate of return limited on public utilities to 8 per cent in the majority of instances, and with municipal bonds yielding 4.55 per cent, an investor subject to a surtax of over 10 per cent cannot afford to buy public utility securities. He concludes that this means that all new capital obtained by public utilities from private investors under these conditions must come from individuals having a taxable income of $15,000 or less per year. Such restriction makes it quite impossible for the public utilities to interest the heavy investors—hence the troubles that we hear so much about whenever these semi-public institutions and industries are discussed.

Tax-Exempt Securities

According to President Harding nearly twenty billion dollars in tax-exempt securities are in existence. That means that this vast sum of wealth is escaping taxation, and that rich tax dodgers are having things made easy for them by a system that has grown and grown until it has become a menace. It stands to reason that if the very rich dodge twenty billion dollars worth of taxes that the rest of the people of the country are paying it for them.

Congressman McFadden of Pennsylvania, in commenting on the condition says "that the time fill come, unless the evil of issuing tax-exempt securities is checked, when half of the people of the country will be paying the entire burden of taxes of the other class; that class best able to pay will be relieved from the payment of taxes."

Mr. McFadden also points out the seriousness of the situation when he says that "the continuation of the present tax-exemption system will ultimately lead to the complete tax exemption of moneys and credits and to the imposition of heavier taxes on farms and other lands."

Who's Independent?

When John Quincy Adams was president, nearly 100 years ago, he predicted the end of political parties. "There still remains one effort of magnanimity, one sacrifice to passion, to be made by the individuals throughout the nation who have heretofore followed the standards of political party." With this simple little thing accomplished, Adams saw the end of political parties, to be followed by a setting together of "countrymen and friends."

Maybe Adams had his schedules wrong, because many now claim to discover the disintegration of political parties in these latter days. Once, for a few weeks, even the sagacious Roosevelt thought he discovered "independent thought" when he carried the Bull Moose campaign through the south. Within the past few weeks the republican leaders in Washington have been singing their songs of party praise, and the democrats have been denying it all. The "independents" have claimed to find promise for the future in the "farm bloc," and the decision of the labor movement "to support their friends, no matter which party they are in" at the election this fall. Thus ruffles of party discord are seized upon to prove that party in government is on the decline. As a matter of stern history, past and present, the party system of government has become a deeply ingrained American tradition, and those who see in the affairs and politics of the national capital the disintegration of party management, are on the wrong track.

Operation Relieves Criminal Tendency

DENVER—Removal by a skillful surgical operation of a splinter of bone which for years had been pressing against his brain has resulted, in the belief of doctors here, in relieving Fred Schwab, twenty-two, from a penitentiary sentence.

An injury to Schwab's head when he was four years old robbed him of his memory, it is said, and caused him to stray far from the path of rectitude.

More than a year ago, Judge A. F. Hollenbeck, sitting in criminal court here, agreed to suspend sentence on young Schwab, following his conviction of automobile theft, if the youth would agree to submit to an operation to relieve the pressure on his brain which was believed to be responsible for his waywardness.

Recently District Attorney Van Cise asked the boy to choose between the penitentiary and the surgeon's knife. Schwab chose the latter.

The surgeon who performed the operation has expressed the belief that Schwab would recover his normal mentality.

MAY VETO ARMY MEASURE

WASHINGTON, March 24.—President Harding may veto the pending army bill, it was indicated at the White House, if congress passes it with directions as to how the overseas troops of the United States shall be distributed. The bill cuts the Hawaiian and Philippine garrisons to mere skeleton organizations.

The president considers, it was stated officially, that congress has nothing to say about where the troops of the United States shall be stationed, as that power is invested in the President as commander-in-chief of the army and navy.

STEALS $3, GETS 15 YEARS

LOS ANGELES, March 24.—A maximum of fifteen years in the penitentiary is the penalty Patrick Mahan must pay for the theft of $3. This was the sentence imposed on Mahan by Superior Judge Reeve after the accused man had entered a plea of "guilty" to a charge of burglary.

A past record which revealed that he has been in difficulties with the authorities on several occasions was brought out against Mahan when a plea for probation was made. Mahan declared on his latest arrest that he was led to commit the burglary because he was hungry.

The Sport Crucible

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service Sports Editor

LEESBURG, Fla., March 24.—According to no less authority than the ball club itself, you can write it down in the family Bible that the Phillies have no intention of running eighth in a field of eight National League clubs this year.

Not that they reckon themselves good. Any team that languishes in last place for three consecutive campaigns has few illusions. It is merely that they have looked about them, and, like good business men, have selected their victim in advance. The Chicago Cubs, in training on the west coast, will be pleased to learn they are to be gently but firmly escorted to the league basement, and there left to their own devices. The Cincinnati Reds, now a team of comparatively small caste, are another outfit the Phoolish Phillies hold very lightly.

"We may be bad enough," they remark to the credulous inhabitants of the benighted Floridan town, "but the Cubs are worse. What we are going to do to them will just about come within the law of manslaughter. Nice boys, the Cubs. We have nothing against them personally. Indeed, our sleep has been troubled of late by qualms of conscience. It will really not be a very nice thing to treat the Cubs the way we intend to. It seems almost like making war on women and children.

"The Reds are not any better than the law allows, either. The Cubs are one team we will top, another might be the Reds."

And so they beguile the passing hours while waiting for the noon train to pause slightly at the place they call the depot and the village manicurist to pass along exactly at 5:05 on her virtuous way home. At that, their chatter may be no idle fancy. The Cubs appear none too good, in truth, and the return of Arthur Fletcher to shortstop is certain to react to the benefit of the Phil's chances. Some are inclined to think kindly of their team. They may live this down. As the club now looks, it looks best for the pitching owing to Lee Meadows, one of the best right handers in the game; Hubbell, obtained from the Giants, is likely to turn in a good performance almost any day he starts, and they have Jimmy Ring ballyhooed for a great come-back. Walter Betts also looked the part of a major league pitcher on several occasions last year.

That accounts for the right handers. Those who prefer the eccentric arm are Colonel Stover, once with the Giants, and one L. Pinto. The latter is not one of William S. Hart's equine pals; neither is he Mexican, nor cigar store Indian. He is Scotch by nationality, a fact indicated by the economic character of his pitching.

Unlike any left-hander, L. Pinto is not at all free with passes. Young Weisport, with the team part of last season, is also of some left-hand promise. Henline and Peters are a pair of very fair catchers, and the infield, according to present indications, will be composed of Leslie, late of New Orleans, at first base; Jimmy Smith, former Giant, Red, Brave, and what not, at second; a good combination if Leslie makes the raffle.

Smith can't hit a lick, but there is nothing the matter with his defensive play.

The outfield, to be made up of Cy Williams, Curtis Walker and Lee King, is fair enough. It lacks consistency. King is one of the best hitters in the league against left-handed pitching. Williams is a mark for a good Southpaw, and Walker, a good hitter against any kind of pitching, is susceptible to defensive derelictions. King is no defensive giant, either.

The Phillies are essentially a club that will need plenty of good pitching to get by. Therefore, Cubs or no Cubs, they must show something more than a gift of oratory to finish above the cellar. They can't talk themselves out of last place.

The Christmas football trip to Honolulu by a mainland team is getting to be a regular habit. Two years ago the University of Nevada crossed the big water. Last season the University of Oregon made the trip. Now St. Mary's college is arranging to play on Christmas and New Year's day. There is no question that these trips are good for the sport. It gives the island teams a chance to see in operation ideas that prevail in football in the states and the travelers also are in line to pick up knowledge, not to mention the entente cordiale that is kept established.

The first college baseball game on the Pacific Coast was played between the teams of St. Mary's and Santa Clara colleges in 1873. It was staged at San Mateo, California, and was won by the former nine by a score of 10 to 4. It would be interesting to know just what has become of each of the men who composed the lineups.

Coach Leader of the University of Washington crews should develop some highly efficient submarines per-formers even though he appears pessimistic about the chances of the first crew next month against the University of California. From the reports of crews getting swamped and swimming ashore or being picked up by launches, the inference is that it is somewhat dusty on Lake Washington these spring days. The boys seem to be getting quite as much exercise haling out their boats as they do from working at the oars.

According to Coach Enoch Bagshaw of the University of Washington football team the chances of a winning team next fall hinges on the amount of knowledge that is assimilated during the spring practice which will begin next month. The call will be issued for the men to get into their moleskins in the first week in April, and the indications are that there will be no loafing on the job. The 24 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Oregon agricultural college is something that every effort will be made to wipe out. Likewise there was no satisfaction in being held to a scoreless tie by Stanford university, a team which only now is getting over its English Rugby spree and endeavoring to relearn the American game.

Eddie Diggins, the young California lightweight and a product of the Olympic club of San Francisco, who is well thought of by coast ring fans as a future contender for the championship crown, again demonstrated the fact that he carries a punch by knocking out a rugged sailor boy opponent in the third round of a bout. John L. Herget, known to ring fans of a couple of decades ago as "Young Mitchell," has the management of Diggins and is grooming him with an eye to a future career.

Sports Chatter

By BILL UNMACK
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The notoriety of the purchase of Jimmy O'Connell for $75,000 by the New York Giants from the San Francisco "Seals" has a different psychological effect on various players. Everyone believes that the notoriety gained by O'Connell through the sale will mean considerable "razzing" from the bleachers.

O'Connell himself says he expects it, "but it won't bother me." On the other hand, "Willie" Kamm, another brilliant star of the San Francisco team who is considered next in line to follow O'Connell to the majors at a big purchase price, says he would like to be in O'Connell's shoes and that such notoriety would bother him (Kamm).

"Yes, I guess the fans will kid me about being a $75,000 beauty," says O'Connell, "but that won't bother me. I know I'm no beauty and I haven't $75,000, so what's the use? Naturally, I would rather have them pulling for me—It sort of helps a fellow—yet I know razzing is a part of the baseball profession, and when a fellow gets a certain amount of it, then he does not pay any more attention to it. I got my share after the Chicago Cubs offered $10,000 for me before I had played a game in the coast league. For a while it bothered me."

On the other hand, Willie Kamm shows an altogether different feeling. He says:

"I think O'Connell is a marked player and will be for some time to come. Personally, I would not like to be in his place. The fans will undoubtedly expect too much from him and if he makes a boot or fails to come through in a pinch, they surely will give him a good time. It is all very well to say that their abuse does not bother you, but it does just the same. I hope when I am sold that it will be for an ordinary sum, lacking in the national notoriety that O'Connell received. It may be all right for the 'gate,' but that does not help a player's personal feelings in the matter. I know when a man climbs the ladder and into fame he is more or less a public character, but I don't want to climb any $75,000 ladder."

Both Kamm and O'Connell are showing up in good shape at the training camp at Boyes Springs, Calif. Both are brilliant in the field and if early conditions count both will prove better with the bat this year. O'Connell hit for .327 last season and he has started out in training as a regular Babe Ruth. In the first practice game he took a regular Babe Ruth swing and broke his bat.

Young Al Lefevre, the infielder from New York, is creating a very favorable impression in the San Francisco camp. Aside from his baseball ability Lefevre is a likeable young chap with a big supply of personality. He says the east is going to watch O'Connell very closely and Lefevre comes out here as a regular "correspondent," having commissions from numerous eastern papers.

Regional Conference to Take Place in Los Angeles and Realtors Are Invited

The quarterly conference of the board of directors of the California Real Estate association will open on Saturday morning, March 25, at 9:30 o'clock in the Hotel Alexandria at Los Angeles. The business sessions will last one hour and at 10:30 o'clock President C. C. Tatum will throw the doors open for the open regional conference of realty dealers, to be held at the Alexandria. State Real Estate Commissioner Edwin T. Keiser will speak on strengthening the realty license act. Reports will be made by committee chairmen on transportation, taxation, housing, irrigation, reclamation and standard forms. The governor's proclamation on "Own Your Home" will be read.

Invitation to Dealers
"All realty dealers of California, whether they are members of realty boards or the state association," President Tatum declared, "are invited to attend this open conference. The press is especially welcome. The California Real Estate association is building up its membership by investigating important statewide questions, seeking their solution in a way that will help the development of California real estate which is the basis of all our wealth, our prosperity and our business. There are 1,300,000 property owners in California. One in every three citizens owns some property, and it is our business to look after their interests."

Regional Director O. A. Vickrey of Los Angeles will preside at the open conference. A committee on resolutions will be named.

Dinner at Long Beach
Proceeding the state conference will be the dinner of the Long Beach Realty Board, Friday night, at the Hotel Virginia. The president's cup won by President Henry P. Barbour for 1922 at the state convention of realtors, will be presented by the donor, Fred E. Reed of Oakland.

William H. Akin, chairman of the state association legislative committee, is in charge of preliminary plans for the regional meet. He declared today that advance reservations indicated a representative attendance of realtors from leading districts of the state. Col. William Gay Garland will at this conference report on the progress of the Realtors End of the Trail Caravan to San Francisco on May 29.

Patrolman Ropes Stray Dogs With His Lasso

NEW YORK—Patrolman Edward Traynor didn't come from Texas, but he's "champeen" lariat thrower of New York, and has become a terror to stray dogs. As a dog catcher, Traynor has become the pride of "Gotham's finest." Because stray canines were speedier afoot than he, Traynor invented the system of lassoing the mongrels. On his vacation he went to the Catskills and roped steers, becoming adept at the art. And many Bronx dogs have heard the singing whine of his lariat.

Aguinaldo Asked to Visit Spanish Vets

LOS ANGELES—Remembering the magnanimous spirit displayed by Abraham Lincoln toward his enemies and those of his flag and how the war with Spain united the North and South, the executive committee of Spanish War Veterans, having in charge the arrangements for the twenty-fourth annual convention of United Spanish War Veterans, to be held here in August, today voted to extend a special invitation to Emilio Aguinaldo, leader of the insurrectionists in the Philippine Islands, to be the convention's guest of honor. Recent cablegrams gave the committee the cue that Mr. Aguinaldo planned an extensive tour of the United States this summer.

Other guests of honor invited were Secretary of War Weeks, Secretary of the Navy Denby, Secretary of the Interior Fall, who are members of Spanish War Veterans' camps; United States Senators Johnson and Shortridge, Governor Stephens and many state, county and city officials. Roosevelt camp, of this city, will extend a special invitation to young "Teddy" Roosevelt to attend the convention as its own guest. Roosevelt camp was named in honor of his illustrious father.

ASKS FOR OIL PROTECTION

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24.—President Harding has asked congress to appropriate $100,000 to insure a supply of fuel oil for the navy by protecting the western Osage reserve in California and Wyoming. The reserve was created by Theodore Roosevelt when the battleships of the Atlantic fleet were converted into oil burners. It was explained that the shortage of fuel oil makes it necessary for the navy to protect its present reserve and to explore for a new supply.

PLANS AMERICAN CARDINAL

Bird Short Circuits Transcontinental Wire

DENVER.—Transcontinental telephone communication was seriously interfered with when a sparrow, seeking a suitable place to build a "home," dropped a piece of fine wire across the span of telephone wires on the outskirts of Denver.

For ten days mysterious "trouble" showed on a pair of wires used for direct talking between New York and San Francisco.

Finally two linemen took up an all-night vigil atop of a pole and discovered the tiny bit of wire that had been left by the homeless sparrow. Low temperatures at night that caused the telephone wires to "tighten up" permitted the small strand to form a connection that resulted in a "short circuit."

LITERACY TEST FOR IMMIGRATION NOT SUCCESS, CLAIM

Expert Finds Law Tends to Keep Desirable Foreigners Away From America

By W. H. ATKINS
 Written for International News Service
 WASHINGTON—The literacy test in American immigration laws is a failure, and operates to keep out of the United States the more sturdy, industrious classes of European laborers, according to Dr. John J. Constat, Washington surgeon, who returned here recently from a four months' tour of Europe in a survey of immigration problems for the government.
 Dr. Constat made a special study of conditions affecting immigration in Southern European countries. Though his observations covered many other countries in Central and Western Europe.
 A vigorous stand by the United States to force the adoption by other countries of higher medical standards to govern those who seek passage on ships bound for the United States is recommended by Dr. Constat, in a report which he will submit to Secretary of Labor Davis.
 Suggestions Are Made
 Secretary Davis invited Dr. Constat, for many years a close student of immigration and Americanization questions, to suggest modifications in present immigration rules and regulations on the basis of his investigations abroad.
 Dr. Constat asserted today that the health of America's future immigrant population can only be assured, and in turn the health of American communities safeguarded, by imposing severe medical tests abroad. He believes the United States, by joint action with foreign powers, can so tighten the inspection rules at foreign ports that transportation of mental or physical defectives out of those countries to the United States can be stopped.
 The suggestions of Dr. Constat may later be laid before President Harding. Before his departure for Europe, Dr. Constat discussed with the president the object of his mission abroad, and the latter expressed a desire to learn the results of the survey both of labor and immigration conditions as they now exist.
 Europe, now struggling industrially, needs practically all of her surplus labor to help in rehabilitation, Dr. Constat declared. In some few of the countries of Southern Europe, including Italy, wherein the large populations do not permit of such expansion, there is a surplus of laborers who might make useful citizens in this country if they were admitted, he declared.
 While in Europe Dr. Constat, by special request of the Greek government, introduced American methods into the Greek hospital system and supervised the setting up of new Red Cross units upon the American plan. For this service he received the thanks of the Greek government and was the recipient of honors from its highest officials.

WHEN 'WOMAN IS SLAVE'

CHICAGO, March 24.—History proves, according to Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller and divorced wife of Harold F. McCormick, the Harvester "king," that "if a woman marries outside her own clan or tribe, she'll be a slave."

ORDERS SENT TO MINERS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 24.—Official call for suspension of mining operations at midnight March 31 in both the anthracite and bituminous coal fields of the country has been mailed to subordinate officials of the union from headquarters of the United Mine Workers, it was stated at headquarters.

MORE THAN MILLION JOIN CHURCH IN YEAR, REPORT

Federal Council Gives Figures, Showing Nation Becoming
Attached to Religion

WASHINGTON.—More than one million persons in the United States became church members last year, according to the Federal Council of Churches.

That America is becoming more and more a nation of churchgoers is revealed by statistics compiled by the Council, which show that every day during the last five years an average of 2,173 persons became church members, an average of three congregations have been organized daily and an average of four and one-half persons per day have joined the ministry. The total church membership of the United States is placed at 45,997,199, an increase of 4,070,345 over the figures of 1916.

There are 233,104 congregations, manned by 200,900 ministers, in the country, according to the Council's figures, which is an increase of 5,617 congregations and 8,204 clergy over the government figures for 1916. Commenting on reports that a ministerial shortage prevails, the Council pointed out that the increase in clergy has been approximately 50 per cent more than the increase in the congregations, explaining that the difference of 33,014 between ministers and congregations does not indicate a corresponding shortage of pastors, as many ministers, especially in the rural districts, have charge of two or more churches.

Catholics Show Gain

Roman Catholics made a membership and adherents gain in the last five years of 2,163,831, and have 17,885,946 of the 45,997,199 persons in the United States listed officially as church members. There are 16,580 Roman Catholic churches, manned by 21,643 priests, in this country.

The total religious constituency of the United States, including all members and adherents, is estimated by the council at 95,858,094 persons, of which 73,795,229 are Protestants, 17,885,646 Roman Catholics, 1,120,000 Jews, 411,054 Eastern Orthodox (Greek and Russian) and 1,646,170 Latter Day Saints, generally known as Mormons.

For the first time on record, according to the council's figures, the Baptists have passed the Methodists in total membership, the former's membership being placed at 7,835,254 persons and the latter's at 7,797,991 persons. The Lutherans, with a membership of 2,467,645, and the Presbyterians with 2,384,982 members, stand third and fourth, respectively.

Figures For Methodists

The Methodist Episcopal Church (North), the largest single Protestant communion, has a membership of 3,938,655, a gain in the last year of 62,595 persons and an increase of 220,870 over the 1916 figures. The Methodist Episcopal Church (South) with a membership of 2,346,067, gained 231,588 members since the 1916 census was taken, 93,315 of which came within its folds last year. The Protestant Episcopal Church, apparently recovering from its war loss, gained 11,208 members in the last five years, and now has a membership of 1,104,029 persons, an increase of 7,124 since last year. An interesting fact noted by the Council is the apparent stagnation of the Salvation Army, whose reported membership of 35,969 is an increase of only 65 persons over the figures of five years ago.

The combined Baptist bodies show a gain of 681,937 persons over the figures of 1916. Each of the major Baptist denominations show an increase for that period. The Northern Baptist Convention has a membership of 1,252,878 persons and the Southern Baptist convention has a membership of 3,199,005. The latter body made a gain of 293,063 members, the largest made by any single communion. The National Baptists (colored) show an increase of 177,746 persons. Fourteen other Baptist bodies show a loss of 7,687. The Latter Day Saints (Mormons) reported a membership of 587,918, an increase of 113,000 over the 1916 census figures.

British Movies May Close to Avoid Tax

LONDON.—English cinema exhibitors are threatening to close down in the summer unless the existing high entertainment tax imposed by the British government is abolished. "Each day brings the film industry nearer to ruin," declared Mr. A. E. Newbould, M. P., the chief spokesman of the English film industry, at a mass meeting of exhibitors held in London.

The meeting, called to denounce the continuation of the tax which at present raises a dollar and a half, passed a unanimous resolution stating that ruin faced the industry if the impost were not abolished.

One proposal to be submitted to the government as a result of the meeting is that the tax should be removed during the summer months, failing which it is suggested that the theaters should close down altogether, thus throwing thousands of people out of employment.

GETS WARRANT FOR HAIR

DEXTER, Me.—Because she had a spat with her husband and he hid her hair, Constable Thomas E. Wood was called on by the angry frau and asked to come to her home and find the hair. As the woman had no search warrant, Officer Wood was unable to comply with her request for aid in recovering the missing adornment.

Assistant to P. M.

John H. Bartlett of New Hampshire, chairman of the Civil Service commission, has been nominated by President Harding succeeding Hubert Work who was made postmaster general. Mr. Bartlett was governor of New Hampshire for two years.

Newmark's Coffee to Be Given to Women

A questionnaire sent out recently by one of the prominent commercial organizations of Los Angeles to thousands of home owners of Southern California revealed a surprising lack of loyalty to home products on the part of the great buying public. An analysis showed that in general the purchaser made no effort to ascertain whether the goods he was buying were made in the east or by some local manufacturer whose payrolls were vital in maintaining the industrial life of the community itself.

This indifference would not be so amazing, perhaps, if it applied only to certain lines of dry goods and house wares, for example, which are competitive with eastern manufacturers. When, however, this attitude extends to the broad field of food-stuffs, it certainly shows an absence of the "pull together" spirit on which typical westerners have always prided themselves.

Nowhere in the United States are food products prepared and packed in a more sanitary manner than in Southern California plants. Home products are of superior flavor, of infinite variety and of highest food value. In the matter of coffee, for instance, though one can boast a number of coffee roasters which are famous for their blends far and wide, there are many thousands of housewives who apparently still believe that some brand which is packed 2000 or 3000 miles away, has some special claim to superiority.

So that the coffee loving public in Glendale and a score of other cities might have an opportunity to prove to its satisfaction that Newmark's high grade coffee has everything that can be asked in the way of aroma and flavor, Newmark Brothers have announced a "Newmark's Coffee Week" running from March 25 to April 1. During this period half-pound cans of Newmark's coffee will be given away free to housewives through their local grocery dealers.

Tourists to Battle Scenes Grow Fewer

PARIS.—The organization of trips to the battlefields has been a failure, state important touring agencies. Whereas, in 1919, figures showed that visitors to the country and the French people themselves were very keen to visit the scenes of fierce battles, today no one is attracted by the lavish propaganda sent out to visit the ruins.

That not enough attractions remain for the visitor. Debris has been cleared away, and souvenir hunters usually leave disappointed. In many parts the ruins no longer exist, for new villages have sprung up, and new roads have been built. Even trees have been planted which in many sectors have completely changed the appearance of the land from one of bleakness and destruction to a land of prosperity. While the battlefields were still an attraction unless shown that more Americans and British visited them than any other nationals. In three years barely 150,000 French people visited them.

This year special trains, automobile excursions and guides have been suppressed, and many of the hotels built along the battle line to house would-be visitors have been put to other uses.

Dick Kerr Has Rival for Title As 'Tiniest'

CHICAGO.—Dick Kerr, "midget" twirler of the White Sox, has a rival for the title of "tiniest" of baseball players. "Wee" Dicky came prominently into the calcium by defeating the Cincinnati Reds in two memorable games of the 1919 world's series. And now along comes Jose Acosta, Cuban twirler for the same "whitened" White Sox, with fifteen pounds less avoirdupois than Kerr, although towering an inch above the height of the famous "tiny man." Kerr stands 5 feet 6 inches and Acosta 5 feet 7 inches. Dick, however, touches the beam at 160 pounds, against Acosta's 145.

PLEADS GUILTY BY PHONE

ZANESVILLE, O.—Pleading guilty by telephone is the latest here. L. A. Wright, of Newark, "tagged" by police for parking his car in a safety zone, was in a hurry to get home. After mailing a check to pay his fine, he telephoned police headquarters and pleaded guilty.

KILLS SELF BY ACCIDENT

SAN JOSE, Cal., March 24.—Ivan Treadwell, 45, wealthy rancher and owner of Alaskan mines, accidentally killed himself when a shotgun he was placing in his automobile at his ranch south of here was discharged. The shots entered his abdomen, causing almost instant death.

Youngstown, Ohio, Reform Mayor Is Not Satisfied by His Work, So He Declares

Asserts He Is Bound Hand and Foot by the Regulations of Civil Service

By International News Service
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio.—"I am not satisfied with my administration thus far," declared Mayor George L. Oles, in an interview with the International News Service, in reviewing his first month in office. "You see, I'm bound hand and foot by civil service regulations. If I could only say to Police Chief James Watkins: 'Come, Jim, get your money, you're fired!' as I would do in my private business, I'd get somewhere. As it is I have to fight sixteen quack lawyers, the politicians, bootleggers and the underworld."

The mayor finds himself at the end of his second month in office the center of an imbroglio due to the changes he has attempted to institute. He faces the biggest fight in his life, with the political interests of both parties massing their forces against him. Though fighting virtually alone, Oles has public sentiment preponderantly with him.

During his unique campaign last fall Oles promised that he would reduce the municipal expenses, would eliminate superfluous offices and would reorganize the police department. He intimated that he would have a private conference with Police Chief James Watkins which might result in the latter's dismissal. He promised to wage war on bootleggers, gamblers, immoral women, and to clean out the underworld. He said he would treat the rich and the poor alike.

Makes Good Start
Oles has made a good start toward redeeming these promises. He has asked the police department to accept a horizontal wage reduction of 10 per cent, and has requested the cooperation of city council in reducing and readjusting salaries of all other municipal employes. Council has tackled the problem reluctantly, most of the councilmen having their ears to the ground.

The mayor has likewise made a start toward cleaning out the undesirable, though he claims to be handicapped in this respect by failure of the police, under Chief Watkins, to cooperate as they should. As an outcome of this situation Oles has suspended Watkins and says he is prepared to force his dismissal. The latter is fighting the move and has openly expressed contempt of the mayor. It will be a finish fight, as

Watkins is regarded as an astute politician.

Oles finds that he is seriously handicapped by civil service regulations, which prevent him from doing many things that he would do if he were operating his own business. The civil service commission consists of "hold-overs" from the previous administration and the members have displayed no particular friendliness toward Oles.

Try to Discredit Him
Pressure of all kinds is being put forth to weaken Oles and to discredit him. He denies reports circulated to the effect that he will resign and says they are put forward by his enemies.

"I will follow the motto I learned when a boy," declared the mayor, "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Even the mayor's enemies are surprised at his fighting qualities, which they never suspected he possessed. Oles says he has just started and will carry out his pre-election pledges if it takes every ounce of energy he possesses.

"The politicians and the underworld of Youngstown can't scare me and can't swerve me from my purpose," declared Oles. He has also called on all city departments to reduce the number of their working forces.

French Plan Race to Supplant Bennett Cup

PARIS—The Aero Club of France has fixed September 20 as the date for the Henry Deutsch de la Meurthe Cup. The race is a speed contest and is international. It replaces the late Gordon Bennett Cup, won outright in 1920 by Sadi Lecoq, France's speed king.

The race is to be run over a circuit of fifty kilometers instead of 100 as heretofore, and competitors must cover this circuit six times. Only one attempt is allowed each competitor, although preliminary flights over the circuit any day before the race will be authorized.

Last year Georges Kirsch of France won the race, covering the distance of 300 kilometers in one hour four minutes and thirty-nine seconds. Hopes are entertained that this year American machines will compete. British, Italian and French entries are practically certain.

Gay Parrot Decorates Latest French Chapeau

LONDON—A multi-colored parrot, flamboyant and decorative, perched on the summit of the crown of a woman's hat, is to be the millinery craze of the season.

The parrot is life-size, life-like and in every way resembles the real bird. They are said to be the "craze of the moment" in Paris and the Riviera, where they have succeeded the parrot perching sunshades that have been a feature of the season.

LENINE IS SERIOUSLY ILL

LONDON, March 23.—Nicolai Lenine is not suffering from cancer as reported, said an Exchange telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. Lenine's illness is now attributed to a four-year-old wound inflicted by a political enemy who was trying to take his life. A German specialist is on his way to Moscow.

Never Took $60 Worth of Baths in My Life

CODY, Wyo.—Jeff Chapman wasn't even a "regular Saturday nighter," he protested in defense against an action of Blanche Gokel, proprietor of a "hot springs" bath establishment here, who was suing him for $130 due on baths. The court awarded a judgment of $60 against Chapman, prompting this explosion from the defendant: "I declare I never took $60 worth of baths in four months. In fact, Your Honor, I never took $60 worth of baths in my whole life."

Barn Is Seized for Midnight Rooster Go

BUCYRUS, O.—"City folks" can be depended upon to frame freakish fads, Edgar Kaler, farmer, residing near here, will tell the world. Forty automobiles were parked in Kaler's barnyard upon his arrival home last night. The occupants had come from Cleveland. They had brought roosters along. The Clevelanders liked Kaler's barn, they said, and wanted to stage a chicken fight. The festivities continued until 2 a. m., when Kaler called for the sheriff to disperse the party.

LINGO FIXES SPEED RATE

SANTA FE, N. M.—If you speak Spanish you may drive your automobile twenty miles an hour in New Mexico, but if your tongue only manipulates the English language you must hold the bus down to fifteen miles an hour. The 1921 enactments of the New Mexico legislature, it has been found, as printed in English, provide for a speed limit of fifteen miles an hour. The Spanish version provides a twenty-mile limit.

Queen Mary is the first queen of England, indeed, the first woman, to receive the degree of doctor of civil law from Oxford university.

What About Your Sunday Dinner?

If it is a complete success it will be because your meat is good. If you try to save a few pennies and select a poor piece of meat your dinner will be ruined no matter how good the balance of the meal may be, and if you did save a few pennies you will think it is a bad investment. IT IS AN ABSOLUTE FACT, you can't take a piece of old cow meat and make it as tender and juicy as a piece of nice well fattened steer that has been raised for beef and not to give milk and raise calves. We sell nothing but the very choicest A-1 steer beef and if you order from the

Reverend C. Kelley, local Y. M. C. A. secretary, states that the Y. M. C. A. Christian Calling conference, to be held in Glendale Saturday and Sunday, promises to be a big gathering. ## Valuables Obtained in Home Robbery

Fred Dobrowski reports that his home at 1601 South Brand boulevard was entered yesterday. A step-ladder was placed to a window and the screen removed. A number of articles of clothing were stolen, including a fur coat. A wrist watch, two wedding rings, and a band ring were in the loot, also.
Peter Carpi reports that some one tried to gain entrance into his home at 1611 South Glendale avenue through a south window and a door last night. Firing a shotgun from the front window, Mr. Carpi observed a man with a long overcoat cross the street and disappear into the night.

J. HERBERT SMITH SCHOOL COUNCIL IS THREE TEAMS TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN CLASS B ORGANIZED FOR INTERMEDIATE

Tells of Conference Held in San Francisco; Greetings Given to Visitors

In addition to the citizenship address delivered by Major William T. Morgan before the Glendale Rotary club yesterday noon, J. Herbert Smith, secretary, read a most interesting report of the proceedings at the district conference in San Francisco last week.

J. Shreve Durham, international secretary of the Home Visitation campaign to be conducted here by all the religious organizations, was among the visitors and stated that he was a life honorary member of the Shreveport, La., club.

Other visitors included George W. Byers of Champaign, Ill.; Dr. Roy Sherry and George Bear of Pasadena; P. P. Whitney of Dickinson, N. D.; E. W. Dunn of Brigham, Utah, and Ed Stafford of Marquette, Mich.

A decided ovation was tendered Major Morgan after the meeting as he proved to be one of the most dynamic speakers ever heard in Glendale.

C. E. Neale distributed skull caps free, F. J. W. Henry served Sierra Club ginger ale and William A. Howe presented each member and guest with a pass to his Glendale Theatre, making it a most worthwhile affair from every standpoint.

Class Elections Are Held to Name Representatives to Carry on Business

The student body of the Intermediate school has voted in favor of an amendment to the constitution of the school athletic association, which provides for a council composed of two members from each class and three members of the faculty to meet with the association officers and carry on the business of the association, since the school has grown too large for many assemblies. The class elections for council members took place Wednesday and resulted as follows:

- A-8-I, Homer Searles, Elizabeth Walker.
- A-8-II, Freeman Brant, Evelyn Harris.
- A-8-III, Richard Wolcott, Mabel Todd.
- A-8-IV, Grant Abbott, Bernice Collins.
- A-8-V, Wilbur Read, Mary Sawyer.
- B-8-I, Leslie Tronsier, Marjorie Phillips.
- B-8-II, Len Leech, Marian Dueb.
- B-8-III, John Copeland, Elizabeth Klann.

- A-7-II, Howard Rettberg, Jeanette Yarborough.
- A-7-III, Carroll Toll, Mary Campbell.

Fairview Tract Like Young City With 80 New Houses to Date

Fairview is the wonder subdivision of the southwest, it is stated by realtors who are in close touch with the situation. It is in the northwestern part of Glendale between this city and Burbank, the two most rapidly growing communities in the country.

Literally speaking, a young city is growing up there, about 80 houses having been built in the last few months where a year ago there was only a barley field and growing crops.

Hamlin & Hepburn, the successful subdivision firm with general offices at 202 West Broadway, report that seven units have been entirely sold out and that the eighth now is nearly gone. A week or ten days will see the last of the low priced lots gone.

The big inducement offered, aside from the wonderful view of the mountains and accessibility, is the fact that practically anyone can afford a home here where all modern improvements are included in the purchase price. The terms are most reasonable, it is stated.

The desire on the part of the Babcock Tent Theatre is to have the women of Glendale and vicinity judge the merit of the attraction and with that end in view this offer is made, it is stated.

John D. Rommel and Family Arrive Here

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rommel and son, John D. Jr., arrived Wednesday from Louisville, Ky., and are staying at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rommel of 143 Sumner avenue, Eagle Rock. It only took one month to convince Mr. Rommel that he had better sell his tire and auto accessory business, building, home and furniture and get into the midst of southern California's prosperity at the earliest possible moment. He will have the Rommel Construction company of 144-A South Brand boulevard build a home for him at once.

With but three weeks of play remaining in the schedule of Class B bowling league, the pennant winner is practically as far from being decided as at the beginning of the first match.

Following Wednesday night's matches, which resulted in a number of surprises and upsets, three teams are tied for first place and two more are within striking distance of the top.

The trio of squads who are sharing the lead are the Vogels, Lawrence and Wattles. The Vogels, who have been setting the league afire with their spectacular playing during the past four weeks, struck a decided slump Wednesday night in their match with the Bullards and lost their second match of the season, the score being 2 to 1. It was the first victory of the season for the rejuvenated Bullards, who have securely lodged themselves in last place.

The Lawrence, after having lost three out of their last four matches, suddenly came to life and walloped the heretofore league-leading Wattles squad by taking the odd game. This unusual feat was accomplished after the first game had been lost.

The Wests, playing minus the services of their star anchor man, pushed the Salmacias down to fifth place by copping the final and deciding game of their three-cornered series. They are now within a single game of first place.

High individual honors for the past week's play were taken, for the third consecutive time, by Roys, anchor man of the San Fernando Vogels, who rolled up a total of 214 for his last game. High scores on the other teams were as follows: Wattles, Abbey, 181; Lawrence, Kausen, 171; Wests, Brown, 192; Salmacias, Newkirk, 187; Bullards, Bullard, 162.
