the said clerk of the board of supervisors all ballots cast at such election and all documents and papers used at such election. Any person interested may contest such election within twenty days after the result thereof has been declared by filing a complaint in the superior court of the county where such election was held, and if no contest shall be commenced within said time, the declaration of the result by the board of election shall be final and conclusive.

Contest.

Issue of bonds. If a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of the issuance of bonds, the board of trustees of the district shall cause bonds in the amount stated in the order for the election to be executed and delivered, together with the assessment list, to the treasurer of the county in which the greater portion of the lands of said district is situated. Said bonds shall be of the denomination of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each; they shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees of the district and attested by the county auditor of said county, and shall be numbered consecutively, as sold and bear date at the time of their execution, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year at the office of said county treasurer upon the presentation of the proper coupons therefor. If any coupon shall not be paid when presented because there are no funds, the treasurer shall indorse such coupon "not paid for want of funds" and thereafter the amount due on such coupon shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum compounded semi-annually. Coupons for each installment of interest shall be attached to said bonds and shall be numbered the same as the bonds and attested by the fac simile signature of the county auditor. The principal of said bonds shall be payable at such times as the trustees may prescribe, which time must be expressed in said bonds but not less than ten per centum of the whole amount of bonds issued, according to their consecutive numbers, shall be paid in ten years from the date of their issue, and no less than five per centum thereof each succeeding year thereafter until all are paid. All bonds must be made payable either on the first day of July or the first day of January. If any bond shall not be presented for payment when the same becomes due, it shall cease to draw interest, but, if presented at such time and not paid for want of funds, the said county treasurer shall so indorse it and thereafter such bond shall draw interest until paid at said rate of six per centum per annum compounded semi-annually, until funds shall have been provided for its payment, which bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

"No. Reclamation District No.
In the county of, State of California.

For value received, promises to pay the holder hereof, at the office of the treasurer of said county, on the first day of 19 the sum of dollars, in gold coin of the United States, with interest in like gold coin at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable at the office of said treasurer semi-annually, on the first day of January and July in each year, on presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached. This bond is issued by authority of section 3480 of the Political Code of the State of California pursuant to an election held in said reclamation district on the day of nineteen hundred and authorizing its issuance, and is based upon an assessment levied in said district and filed in the office of the county treasurer of said county on the day of, 19.....

In testimony whereof, the said district, by its board of trustees, has caused this bond to be signed by the president of said board, and attested by the auditor of said county, with his seal of office attached, this day of, 19.....

President of said Board.

Attest:

Auditor of County."

And the interest coupons shall be in substantially the following form: Form of coupons.

"No.

The treasurer of county, California, will pay the holder hereof, on the day of, 19....., at his office in dollars, gold coin, out of the funds of Reclamation District No. for interest on bond numbered of said district.

Attest:

County Auditor."

The treasurer of said county shall place the bonds prepared pursuant to this act to the credit of said district and shall, when directed by the trustees of the district, sell any of said bonds for the best price obtainable therefor, but in no event for less than the face value of said bonds and the accrued interest thereon. Before making a sale of said bonds, notice shall be given by the county treasurer that he will sell a specified amount of said bonds, and stating the day, hour and place of such sale. Such notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by him for the purchase of said bonds or any part thereof till the day and hour named in the notice. Such notice shall be given at least twenty days before such sale, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, and in such other newspaper as the board of trustees may designate. At the time appointed the county treasurer and board of trustees shall open the bids and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest and best respon- Sale of bonds.

sible bidder. They may reject any and all bids. In case no bid is received and accepted as herein provided, or a sufficient amount of bonds can not be sold to carry on the work of construction as contemplated, the board of trustees of said district may enter into contracts and make contracts for constructing the reclamation works of said district, payable in said bonds, at par, and may use such bonds in payment for labor or services performed for, or materials or property furnished to, said district, for the purpose of constructing the reclamation works thereof and the expenses necessarily incident thereto: and in making such payments in bonds, the board of trustees of said district may draw orders upon the county treasurer, payable in bonds to the amount therein named, for such labor, material, or services so rendered, which orders shall be approved by the board of supervisors and thereafter be paid with bonds at par by the county treasurer, upon presentation, to the amount therein provided for, if such bonds then remaining in said treasury be sufficient to pay the same. Any money derived from the sale of said bonds by said county treasurer shall be placed in the treasury to the credit of said district and a proper record of such transaction shall be placed upon the books of said county treasurer. As soon as said bonds shall have been delivered to the treasurer of the county a proceeding may be commenced in the superior court of the county where the greater part of the district is situated, by the trustees of said reclamation district or any owner of land therein, to have it determined that said bonds are a legal obligation of such reclamation district. The complaint in said proceeding shall allege that on a date therein named bonds of such reclamation district were delivered to the said treasurer, stating the amount of such bonds, and praying that said bonds be adjudged to be a valid, legal obligation of such district. The summons shall be published for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending. Within ten days after the last publication of the summons any owner of land in such district, or any person interested, may appear and answer the complaint, which answer shall set forth the facts relied upon to show the invalidity of said bonds. If no answer shall be filed within said period the court shall enter judgment as prayed for in the complaint. If any person shall answer the complaint, the court must proceed as in other civil cases. The judgment in such proceeding shall be considered as a judgment in rem and shall be conclusive against said district, and against all owners of land therein and all other interested persons. The necessary expenses of such action shall be paid out of the funds of said district in the same manner that other claims against such districts are paid.

Orders on
treasurer to pay obligations.

The board of trustees of said district may draw orders upon the said county treasurer to pay any legal charge against said district out of the funds provided by sale of said bonds, which said orders shall be approved by the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater part of said district is situated, and thereafter must be paid by said treasurer out of any money, excepting the bond fund, then remaining in said treasury to the credit of said district; and no order upon the said county treasurer shall be issued by the board of trustees unless there are sufficient funds in said treasury to the credit of said district to pay said order.

The principal of said bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived as follows: Ninety days before any sum or sums shall become due or payable on account of the principal or interest, or both, of said bonds, the board of trustees of the district shall direct that such an installment of the assessment theretofore levied on the lands of said district, and upon which the bonds were issued, as may be necessary to pay the same, shall be collected in the manner provided by law and paid into the county treasury to the credit of the bond fund of said district. Should default be made in the payment of any such installment hereinbefore provided for, or any part thereof, the same shall be collected in the manner provided by law, and all remedies or proceedings now or hereafter provided by law for the collection of reclamation assessment, or for installments thereof, are hereby made applicable to and available for the collection of the installments herein provided for. No part of the money collected upon the assessment or assessments, for which said bonds were issued, shall be used for any purpose other than the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, and all sums received by the treasurer from said assessments shall be set apart as a separate fund to be known as the bond fund for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, such payments must be made upon the principal of said bonds in the order of their maturity.

How revenue to pay principal and interest is derived.

Whenever such reclamation district is situated partly in different counties, any installment or installments of assessments as herein provided for shall be paid as provided by the Political Code of the State of California for the payment of other installments of reclamation assessments. All sums which shall be paid to the treasurer of any county, other than the treasurer of the county in which the greater part of the district is situated, shall immediately be paid by said treasurer to the treasurer of the county in which the greater part of the district is situated, who shall place the same to the credit of the district as hereinabove provided. Upon a sale of any of said bonds the county treasurer is hereby authorized to accept valid outstanding warrants of such district with the accrued interest thereon in payment for said bonds.

Warrants acceptable in payment for bonds.

No assessor, tax collector, auditor or clerk shall receive any fee for any service required to be performed by them under the provisions of this act. All expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid out of any funds in the county treasury, excepting the bond fund, to the credit of the district, for which the expenses are incurred, upon the order of the board of trustees of said district approved by the board of supervisors of said county.

Assessor, etc., to receive no fee.

Bonds
may be purchased by banks,
etc..

The bonds of reclamation districts issued pursuant to this act may be lawfully purchased, or received in pledge for loans by banks, trust companies, guardians, executors, administrators and special administrators or by any public officer or officers of this state or of any county, city, or city and county or other municipal or corporate body within this state having or holding funds which they are allowed by law to invest or loan.

Additional assessments to pay deficiencies

If the assessment in any district, upon which bonds may have been issued proves inadequate to provide funds to pay the principal and interest of said bonds in full or if any deficiency arises, another assessment must be made upon the lands in such district sufficient to pay such deficiency, and assessments must be made from time to time to meet any deficiency arising in the payment of such bonds.

issued to pay assessments

If the trustees deem it advisable they may order a special election to be held prior to making an assessment, to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued for an amount to be stated in the order for such election, but no bonds shall, in such instance, be issued until an assessment for the amount of the bonds authorized at such election shall have been made and filed with the county treasurer.

SEC. 20. Section 3481 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Owners of unclaimed land may have it set off in separate
district.

3481. If the owners of lands representing more than two thirds of any body of lands within any reclamation or swamp land district, and in which the lands have not been reclaimed, desire to have the said body of lands set off from such district, they must, in addition to the petition required by section three thousand four hundred and forty-six, show to the board of supervisors that the said body of lands is capable of an independent reclamation, and that the district is not prosecuting its work of reclamation with reasonable diligence, or that the lands sought to be set off are not susceptible of practical reclamation in connection with the other lands in the district.

SEC. 21. Section 3483 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

De-lem-
tion of districts.

3483. All districts organized or created under this chapter must have a state number, and the register, upon the receipt of a copy of a petition, or certificate of the county clerk that any such district has been formed, must number the same and send the number to the county recorder of the county from which the copy or certificate came, and the recorder must number the district, and the district must thereafter be known and designated by such number. Districts organized before May twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, may retain their respective numbers. Whenever any reclamation or swamp land districts are consolidated, the consolidated districts shall be known by the number of the district containing the larger area of land.

SEC. 22. Section 3489 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

3489. Reclamation districts formed, organized or created into districts under special or general laws heretofore or now in force, may reorganize and consolidate in the manner following: Whenever the owners of a majority of acres of land in each of two or more reclamation districts, shall desire to consolidate and reorganize, they may do so by filing a notice with the county recorder of the county in which the greater portion of the lands of the combined districts are situated, setting forth that they desire to consolidate and reorganize. The notice must give the exterior boundaries of the said districts, the name and number of each of them, the number of acres of land that each contains, and must be signed by the persons owning the majority of acres of land in each district, and shall designate the number of acres owned by each signer in the district in which the same is situated. The county recorder shall record said notice in a book kept for the purpose of recording papers in relation to reclamation districts. He shall make a certified copy of said notice, and forward the same to the state land register, who shall designate a number for the reorganized district, after which time the district shall be known by such number, and shall be under the operation of and governed by the provisions of this code, and all proceedings thereafter shall be the same as though said district was organized upon an original petition and granted by the board of supervisors; provided, however, that such consolidation and reorganization shall in no manner invalidate the indebtedness of the original districts; and all the laws, rules, and regulations for the assessing, levying and collecting taxes or assessments in said districts shall remain and be in full force and all assessments and collections required for the payment of the then outstanding indebtedness in said districts, shall be the same as though they had not consolidated and reorganized until such indebtedness shall be paid and liquidated; provided, however, that the provisions of this code relative to assessments and issuing and sale of bonds are hereby made applicable to such districts. The owners of a majority of acres of land in a compact form, capable of being embraced in a swamp-land or reclamation district contiguous thereto and not a part of another district, may, by consent of the trustees of such district, have such land embraced within such district, by filing a notice duly acknowledged with the county recorder of the county in which such district is organized; the notice must give the exterior boundaries of said land, the number of acres of land therein, as near as may be, and must be signed by all the persons owning land therein; and there shall be attached thereto or indorsed thereon a written consent of the trustees of said district, duly acknowledged, that said land be embraced therein. Said notice shall be filed with the county recorder of the county aforesaid, and recorded by him in a book kept for that purpose. From the time of filing of such notice, said land shall become and be held as a part of such district; provided, that the reorganization and consolidation of any

ization and con-

two or more districts under the provisions of this act shall not be so construed as to legalize any indebtedness or any act of any of said districts, or the officers thereof, prior to the act of reorganization and consolidation; provided, further, that no land not included in some of the original districts shall be included in the reorganization and consolidation without the consent of the owner.

SEC. 23. Section 3492 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Formation of reclamation districts.

3492. The holders of title or evidences of title representing one half or more of any body of swamp and overflowed, salt marsh, or tide lands, susceptible of one mode of reclamation, and already reclaimed, or in progress of reclamation, and not included in any existing reclamation district, who may desire to form a reclamation district for the maintenance, protection, or repair of the reclamation works, in, upon, or appertaining to such body of lands, or for the completion of the reclamation thereof, may present a similar petition to that provided for in section three thousand four hundred and forty-six, and shall state that such land is reclaimed or in progress of reclamation. Such proceedings shall thereupon be had as are provided for in the formation of other reclamation districts. Such districts, when formed, and the board of trustees thereof, shall have all the rights, immunities, powers, and privileges of other reclamation districts, and the boards of trustees thereof. Such district shall be subject to all the provisions of the Political Code relating to reclamation districts and the proceedings thereof.

Repealed.

SEC. 24. Sections 3464, 3475 and 3493½ of the Political Code of the State of California are hereby repealed.

All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 366.

An act making an appropriation to pay the deficiency in the appropriation for traveling expenses and per diem of officers on detail duty, national guard, for the fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth and sixtieth fiscal years.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation: traveling expenses, national guard.

SECTION 1. The sum of four hundred ninety-four dollars and fifty cents ($494.50) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the deficiency in the appropriation for traveling expenses and per diem of officers on detail duty, national guard, for the fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth and sixtieth fiscal years.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for the sum herein made payable and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

An act to amend section ten of an act entitled "An act to define the boundary and provide for the government of levee district number two of Sutter county," approved March 23, 1876.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten of an act entitled "An act to define the boundary and provide for the government of levee district number two of Sutter county," approved March 23, 1876, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 10. Upon receipt of any money from the tax collector of the district, the county treasurer of Sutter county shall place the same to the credit of levee district number two fund, from which he shall set apart a sum sufficient to pay the interest and such part of the principal as may become due during the current fiscal year on any bonded indebtedness of the district, and shall pay the same out in accordance with law under which such bonds were issued; the remainder of such levee district number two fund shall be paid out only on warrants of the district, in the order of presentation to the treasurer. If the fund is insufficient to pay any warrant, it must be registered by the treasurer, and thereafter paid in the order of registration; provided, that warrants presented and registered shall bear only seven per cent interest per annum from date of registration.

CHAPTER 368.

An act making an appropriation to pay the claim of John Lubben, against the State of California.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the claim of John Lubben, against the State of California.

Appropriation: claim of John Lubben.

SEC. 2. The controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of John Lubben for the sum of one hundred dollars, and the treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same, and this appropriation and this warrant are hereby exempted from the provisions of section six hundred and seventy-two of the Political Code.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 369.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act concerning dependent and delinquent minor children, providing for their care, custody and maintenance until twenty-one years of age; providing for their commitment to the Whittier State School and the Preston State School of Industry, and the manner of such commitment and release therefrom, establishing a probation committee and probation officers to deal with such children, and fixing the salaries of probation officers; providing for detention homes for said children; providing for the punishment of persons responsible for, or contributing to, the dependency or delinquency of children; and giving to the superior court jurisdiction of such offenses, and repealing inconsistent acts," approved March 8, 1909.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act concerning dependent and delinquent minor children, providing for their care, custody and maintenance until twenty-one years of age; providing for their commitment to the Whittier State School and the Preston State School of Industry, and the manner of such commitment and release therefrom, establishing a probation committee and probation officers to deal with such children, and fixing the salaries of probation officers; providing for detention homes for said children; providing for the punishment of persons responsible for, or contributing to, the dependency or delinquency of children; and giving to the superior court jurisdiction of such offenses, and repealing inconsistent acts." approved March 8, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known as the "juvenile court law" and shall apply only to persons under the age of twenty-one years not now or hereafter inmates of a state institution. For the purposes of this act, the words "dependent person" shall mean any person under the age of twenty-one years:

(1) Who is found begging, receiving or gathering alms, whether actually begging or under the pretext of selling or offering for sale; or

(2) Who is found in any street, road or public place for the purpose of so begging, gathering or receiving alms; or

Juvenile

"Dependent person"
defined.

(3) Who is a vagrant; or

(4) Who is found wandering and not having any home, or any settled place of abode, or any proper guardianship, or any visible means of subsistence; or "Dependent person" defined.

(5) Who has no parent or guardian; or who has no parent or guardian willing to exercise, or capable of exercising, proper parental control; or

(6) Who is destitute; or

(7) Whose home by reason of neglect, cruelty or depravity of his parents or either of them, or on the part of his guardian, or on the part of the person in whose custody or care he may be, is an unfit place for such person; or

(8) Who frequents the company of reputed criminals, vagrants or prostitutes; or

(9) Who is found living or being in any house of prostitution or assignation; or

(10) Who habitually visits, without parent or guardian, any billiard room or pool room, or any saloon, or place where any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are sold, bartered or given away; or

(11) Who persistently refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his parents or guardian; or

(12) Who is incorrigible; that is, who is beyond the control and power of his parents, guardian or custodian by reason of the vicious conduct or nature of said person; or

(13) Whose father is dead or has abandoned his family or is an habitual drunkard, or whose father or mother does not provide for such person, and it appears that such person is destitute of a suitable home or of adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or who is in danger of being brought up to lead an idle and dissolute or immoral life; or where both parents of such person are dead, or the mother or father, if living, is unable to provide proper support and care of such person; or

(14) Who is an habitual truant within the meaning of an act entitled "An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for the violation of said act," approved March 24, 1903, and any act or acts amending or superseding the same and who is not placed in a parental school under the provisions of said act, or who being over the age of fourteen years refuses to attend public or private school, as directed by his parents, duly authorized guardian or legal custodian; or

(15) Who habitually uses intoxicating liquor as a beverage or habitually smokes cigarettes or who habitually uses opium, cocaine, morphine or other similar drug, without the direction of a competent physician; or

(16) Who from any cause is in danger of growing up to lead an idle, dissolute, or immoral life.

The words "delinquent person" shall include any person under the age of twenty-one years who violates any law of this state, or any ordinance of any town, city, county or city and county of this state, defining crime.

Superior court to sit as
court.

SEC. 2. The superior court in every county of this state shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this act, and, while sitting in the exercise of its said jurisdiction, shall be known and referred to as the "juvenile court," and is hereinafter so referred to. In counties having more than one judge of the superior court, the judges of such court shall from time to time designate one or more of their number whose duty it shall be to hear all cases coming under this act. In counties of the second class, such designation shall be made by the presiding judge. The orders and filings, if any, of the superior court, in all cases coming under the provisions of this act, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose and known as the "juvenile court record," and the court when acting under this act shall be called the "juvenile court." All cases coming under the provisions of this act shall be heard at a special or separate session of the court, and no other matter shall be heard at such session, nor shall there be permitted to be present at such session any person on trial or awaiting trial, or under accusation of crime, who does not come under the provisions of this act.

Juvenile

Petition to court to deal with dependent person.

SEC. 3. Any person may file with the clerk of the superior court a petition showing that there is within the county, or residing within the county, a dependent or delinquent person, and praying that the superior court deal with such person as provided in this act. Such petition shall be verified and shall contain a statement of facts constituting such dependency or delinquency, as defined in section one of this act, and the names and residence, if known to petitioner, of the parents or guardian of said dependent or delinquent person. There shall be no fee for filing such petition.

to appear.

SEC. 4. Upon the filing of the petition provided for in section three hereof, a citation shall issue, requiring the person or persons having the custody or control of the alleged dependent or delinquent person, or with whom such alleged dependent or delinquent person may be, to appear with said alleged dependent or delinquent person at a time and place stated in the citation. Service of such citation must be made at least twenty-four hours before the time stated therein for such appearance. The parents or guardian of said alleged dependent or delinquent person, if residing within the county in which the court sits, and if their places of residence be known to the petitioner, or if there be neither parent nor guardian so residing, or if their places of residence be not known to petitioner, then some relative of said alleged dependent or delinquent person, if any there be residing within said county, and if his residence and relationship to such alleged dependent or delinquent person be known to petitioner, shall be notified of the proceedings by service of citation requiring him or them to appear at the time and place stated in such citation. In any case the judge may appoint some suitable person to act in behalf of said alleged dependent or delinquent person, and may order such further notice of the proceedings to be given as he may deem proper. If any person, cited as herein provided, shall fail, without reasonable cause, to appear and abide by the order of the court, or

to bring said alleged dependent or delinquent person, if so required in the citation, such failure shall constitute a contempt of said court and may be punished as provided for in other cases of contempt of court.

In case such citation can not be served, or the party served fails to obey the same, and in any case in which it shall be made to appear to the court that such citation will probably be ineffective, a warrant of arrest shall issue on the order of the court, either against the parent or guardian, or the person having the custody of said alleged dependent or delinquent person, or with whom the said alleged dependent or delinquent person may be, or against the said alleged dependent or delinquent person himself, or any or all said persons; or if there be no person to be served with citation as above provided, a warrant of arrest may be issued against the said alleged dependent or delinquent person immediately. On the return of the citation or other process, or as soon thereafter as may be, the court shall proceed to hear and dispose of the case in a summary manner. Until the final disposition of any case, the said alleged dependent or delinquent person may be retained in the possession of the person having charge of said person, or may be kept, upon the order of the court, in some suitable place provided by the county, or city and county, or may be held otherwise as the court may direct.

of arrest.

SEC. 5. When any alleged dependent or delinquent person under the age of twenty-one years shall be found by said court or judge to be dependent or delinquent, within the meaning of this act, the court may make an order committing said dependent or delinquent person, for such time as the court may deem fit, but not beyond the time when such dependent or delinquent person shall reach the age of twenty-one years, to the care of some reputable person of good moral character, or to the care of some association, society or corporation willing to receive it, embracing in its objects the purpose of caring for or obtaining homes for dependent or neglected children, or to the care of the probation officer or other person to remain in the home of said dependent or delinquent person; or the court may, if said dependent or delinquent person be a boy, commit him to the Preston State School of Industry, or to the Whittier State School, during his minority, or if a girl, commit her to the Whittier State School until twenty-one years of age; provided, however, that before conveying any such dependent or delinquent person to either of such institutions it shall be ascertained from the superintendent thereof whether such dependent or delinquent person can be received, and if such dependent or delinquent person can not be received, the court shall make such other order for the disposition of such dependent or delinquent person as is meet. After making any of the above-mentioned orders the court may, from time to time, change or modify the same, or set aside the same, or commit such dependent or delinquent person to such place or institution, and for such time as the court may deem fit, but not beyond the time when such person shall attain the age of twenty-one years.

Commitment of person.

Probation
committee.

SEC. 6. The judge of the superior court in and for each county, or city and county, of the state, and in counties where there is more than one judge of the said court, the judge who has been designated as "judge of the juvenile court" shall, by an order entered in the minutes of the court, appoint seven discreet citizens of good moral character and of either sex, to be known as the "probation committee," and shall fill all vacancies occurring in such committee. The clerk of said court shall immediately notify each person appointed on said committee and thereupon said persons shall appear before the judge of the superior court to whom has been assigned all proceedings under this act, and qualify by taking an oath, which shall be entered in said juvenile court record, to faithfully perform the duties of a member of such probation committee.

office.

SEC. 7. The members of such probation committee shall hold office for four years, and until their successors are appointed and qualify; provided, that of those first appointed, one shall hold office for one year, two for two years, two for three years, and two for four years, the terms for which the respective members shall hold office to be determined by lot as soon after their appointment as may be. When any vacancy occurs in any probation committee by expiration of the term of office of any member thereof, his successor shall be appointed to hold office for the term of four years; when any vacancy occurs for any other reason, the appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Examina-
societies.

SEC. 8. The juvenile court or the judge thereof may at any time require said probation committee or probation officer to examine into the qualifications and management of any society, association or corporation, other than a state institution, receiving, or applying for, any dependent or delinquent person under this act, and to report thereon to the court. It shall be the duty of each probation committee to prepare each year one or more reports in writing on the qualifications and management of all societies, associations and corporations, except state institutions, applying for or receiving any dependent or delinquent person under this act from the courts of their respective counties, and in such report said committee may make such suggestions or comments as to them may seem fit; such report to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court appointing such committee for the information of the court. The probation committee shall also make to the court an annual report to be filed prior to the first day of December. It shall be the duty of the probation committee to exercise a friendly supervision and visitation over the dependent or delinquent person in accordance with the direction of the court, to furnish the court information and assistance whenever required, and, from time to time, to advise and recommend to the court any change or modification of the order made in the case of a dependent or delinquent person as may be for the best interests of such person. Upon request of the probation officer, any member of the probation committee shall investigate an alleged case coming under the provisions of this act, and render a report thereon to the probation officer. The probation committee shall also have the control and management of the internal affairs of any detention home heretofore or hereafter established by the board of supervisors of their county; and it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to provide for the payment of such employees as may be needed in the efficient management of such detention home.

SEC. 9. Members of the probation committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed their reasonable traveling expenses as approved by the judge of the juvenile court; and the same shall be a charge upon the county in which the court appointing them has jurisdiction, and said expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury upon a written order of the judge of the juvenile court of said county directing the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for the specified amount of such expenses.

Compensation and expenses of committee.

SEC. 10. There shall be appointed, as hereinafter provided, a probation officer in every county, and he may appoint as many deputies as he may desire; provided, however, that such deputies shall not have authority to act until their appointment shall be approved in like manner as the appointment of the probation officer himself. Such deputies, except as hereinafter provided, shall serve without compensation.

Section 10z. In every other county than those heretofore expressly enumerated the salary of the probation officer shall be thirty-five dollars per month. Other counties.

SEC. 11. The salaries of all probation officers and assistant probation officers shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county for which they are appointed, respectively, in the same manner as the salaries of county officers. How salaries are payable.

SEC. 12. The probation officers and assistant probation officers and deputy probation officers in all counties of the state shall be allowed such necessary incidental expenses as may be authorized by the judge of the juvenile court; and the same shall be a charge upon the county in which the court appointing them has jurisdiction, and said expenses shall be paid out of the county treasury upon a written order of the judge of the juvenile court of said county directing the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for the specified amount of such expenses. Expenses.

SEC. 13. The offices of probation officer and assistant probation officer are hereby created. The probation officers and assistant probation officers to serve hereunder in any county or city and county shall be nominated by the probation committee in such manner as the judge of the juvenile court in the respective counties or city and county shall direct; and the appointment of such probation officers and assistant probation officers shall then be made by the judges of the respective juvenile courts. The term of office of the probation officers and of assistant probation officers shall be two years from the date of their said appointments. In counties, or cities and counties, where this act provides for one probation officer and one or more assistant probation officers, all of such officers shall devote their entire time and attention to the duties of their offices, and no such probation officer or assistant probation officer while holding such office and receiving salary therefor, shall be a candidate or seek the nomination for any other public office or employment, and no person shall be appointed to and receive the salary attached to such office of either probation officer or assistant probation officer who is related to the judge of the juvenile court or to a member of the probation committee of such county, or city and county, by consanguinity or affinity, within the third degree computed according to the rules of law. Such probation officers and assistant probation officers may at any time be removed by the judge of the juvenile court in his discretion. Probation officer.

SEC. 15. The probation officer shall inquire into the antecedents, character, family history, environment and cause of dependency or delinquency of every alleged dependent or delinquent person brought before the juvenile court, and shall make his report in writing to the judge thereof; provided, however, that only when the judge so specially orders shall he make such inquiry or report in the case of a dependent or delinquent person who has already been placed by the juvenile court in charge of a society, association or corporation which embraces within its objects the care of dependent or delinquent children, and which has in the last report thereon by the probation committee of such county been favorably passed upon. In the event that such a society, association or corporation shall be so in charge it shall through its agents or superintendent make such report to the judge of the juvenile court in place of the probation officer. It shall be the duty of said probation officer, agent or superintendent of such society, association or corporation to be present in court in order to represent the interests of the dependent or delinquent person when the case is heard, and to furnish to the court such information and assistance as it may require and to make such report at such time; and to take charge of said dependent or delinquent person before and after the hearing as may be ordered. Every probation officer, assistant probation officer and deputy probation officer shall have the powers of a peace officer. At any time, in his discretion, such officer may bring any dependent or delinquent person committed to his care before the court for such further or other action as the court may deem proper. Every probation officer shall have the powers of a school attendance officer, in such portions of the county, in which such probation officer has been appointed, as are not otherwise provided with a school attendance officer, and shall exercise such powers when not inconsistent with his other duties. Any of the duties of a probation officer may be performed by an assistant or deputy probation officer, and shall be so performed whenever directed by the probation officer; and it shall be the duty of the probation officer to see that his assistant and deputy probation officers perform their duties.

SEC. 16. Whenever a deposition or complaint shall be filed in any court other than a superior court, charging a person with a crime and it shall be suggested to the judge, justice or recorder before whom such person is brought that the person charged is under the age of eighteen years, said judge, justice or recorder shall immediately suspend all proceedings against such person on said charge and examine into the age of such person and if, from such examination, it shall appear to the satisfaction of said judge, justice or recorder that such person is under the age above specified, he shall forthwith certify to the juvenile court of his county (a) that said person (naming him) is charged with such crime (briefly stating its nature); (b) that such person appears to be under the age of eighteen years and giving date of birth when known, and (c) the suspension of proceedings against such person on such charge by reason of his age, with the date of such suspension; and immediately thereupon all proceedings against the said person on said charge shall be suspended until said juvenile court shall issue its mandate, as hereinafter provided, directing the court before which said charge was pending to proceed with the examination into or trial thereof, and the court so suspending its proceedings shall forthwith cause such person to be taken before the juvenile court of the county for consideration and proceedings under this act. When such person shall be brought before the judge of the juvenile court said judge shall cause a complaint to be filed as provided in section three of this act and shall fix a time for considering said matter and shall cause citation to be issued, as provided in section four of this act. Pending such hearing, said judge may admit such person to bail or otherwise provide for his temporary custody in any manner provided herein for the care of a dependent or delinquent person after the finding of his delinquency. The judge of said juvenile court may further investigate the age of such person and may also inquire into the condition and care of such person and make such orders for his disposition under the provisions of this act as he may deem proper. If said judge shall, after such investigation, decide that such person was at the time said offense was alleged to have been committed of the age of eighteen years or more, such determination shall be conclusive and he shall immediately issue his mandate directing the court before which such charge is pending to proceed therewith, and upon receipt of such mandate said court shall proceed with the examination or trial of said charge as though no suspension thereof had taken place; provided, however, that if the court shall find that the person so charged is under the age of twenty-one years but a fit subject for consideration under the provisions of this act, he may make such order or orders hereunder as he may deem best in relation to such person; provided, further, however, that if such judge shall at any time conclude that such person is not a fit subject for further consideration under this act, he may remand such person to the court in which said person is charged with said offense for further proceedings on said charge. and upon receipt of the mandate of said juvenile court, or the judge thereof, the court before which said charge is then pending shall be vested with full authority to proceed with the examination or trial thereof. All statutes of limitations relating to the charge so pending against such person shall be suspended as to said person and charge from the issuance by said judge, justice or recorder of his certificate hereinbefore provided for until said juvenile court, or the judge thereof, shall issue its mandate remanding such person for further proceedings as aforesaid; and all statutes of limitation relating to any charge, made in any court, against any person under the age of twenty-one years, shall be suspended as to such charge and person whenever, and as long as, such person is before the juvenile court for consideration under the provisions of this act, or is detained by virtue of any commitment issued hereunder and unrevoked; provided, however, that if said delinquent person shall be discharged by the juvenile court as reformed, such order of discharge shall constitute a bar to any further proceedings in any court against said dependent or delinquent person upon said charge.

SEC. 17. Whenever it is claimed that any person under the age of twenty-one years is a dependent or delinquent person as defined in this act, a verified petition shall be filed in the juvenile court of the county wherein said alleged dependency or delinquency occurred, stating such dependency or delinquency and the facts constituting the same, and that said dependent or delinquent person is under the age of twenty-one years, and praying that the said court shall adjudge said person to be a dependent or delinquent person within the meaning of this act. Notice shall be given of the time and place of hearing as in the case of a person alleged to be a dependent or delinquent person, and the petition shall be heard at the time and place designated by the juvenile court. If the court shall adjudge said person to be a dependent or delinquent person, within the meaning of this act, such order shall be made as is meet in the premises, as in this act provided. If upon said hearing said court shall determine that said dependent or delinquent person is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the reformatory provisions of this act, said court may dismiss the petition hereunder and direct that such dependent or delinquent person be prosecuted under the general law. No dependent or delinquent person under eighteen years of age shall be prosecuted for crime until the matter has first been submitted to the juvenile court by petition as herein provided, or by certificate of the lower court as provided in section sixteen hereof.

SEC. 18. Whenever any person over the age of eighteen years and under the age of twenty-one years is accused of a felony, and the indictment or information has been filed in the superior court of the county wherein the crime was committed, charging said person with the commission of said felony, the judge may, in his discretion, with the consent of the accused, or upon his request, arrest said proceeding at the time of arraignment or at any time previous to the impanelment of a jury, except where the crime charged is a capital offense, and may proceed to investigate the charge against the defendant, and all the facts and circumstances necessary to determine the proper disposition to be made of said person, and shall determine whether said person shall be dealt with as a delinquent under the provisions of this act. If the court is satisfied upon such investigation that said person should be declared a delinquent and should be dealt with under this act, it may make such order as herein provided for the disposition of delinquent persons. If such person thereafter prove not to be amenable to the discipline of the school to which he may be committed, and the trustees thereof shall determine that said person should be committed to a state penitentiary, such person shall be returned to the custody of the sheriff of the county in which such crime was committed, and thereafter proceedings shall be had upon the indictment or information commencing at the point at which proceedings were arrested; and said person shall be tried for the offense alleged in the information, and if convicted shall be sent to the penitentiary for such time as the court may determine, or otherwise dealt with in accordance with the law for dealing with persons convicted of a felony. If no request is made by the defendant for proceedings under this statute, or if the defendant desires a trial by jury, or if the judge declines to consent to the application of the defendant for proceedings under this statute, said cause shall proceed in the ordinary manner up to the verdict of guilty or not guilty as the case may be. If said person is convicted, the court may thereafter receive such evidence as may be offered, touching the question as to whether or not said person should be dealt with as a delinquent in the manner hereinbefore provided in case of the application and consent of the accused before trial, and may make such order of probation or commitment to said state schools, and may from time to time modify said probation orders, as is herein provided in the case of persons adjudged delinquent. If such person during the period of his commitment to said state institution, proves to be incorrigible or not amenable to the discipline of such institution, and it shall be deemed advisable in the judgment of the trustees of such institution that said person be sent to the penitentiary, then said person shall be returned to the superior court in which the verdict was rendered, for sentence, and thereupon the court shall pronounce judgment.

SEC. 19. In the case of a person alleged to be delinquent within the meaning of this act, the juvenile court may, pending the hearing, at any time before the person is adjudged delinquent or otherwise disposed of, order that said person be detained in any detention home, provided for that purpose by any county, or it may be otherwise temporarily provided for as to the court may seem fit in any manner provided herein for the care of a person after the termination of his delinquency.

Person may be detained in detention home.

SEC. 20. If the court find a person to be delinquent, then the court may commit such person to the care and custody of the probation officer and may allow the said person to remain in the home of said person, subject to the visitation of a probation officer, and such person shall report to the probation officer as often as may be required, and be subject to be returned to the court for further proceedings whenever such action may appear necessary or desirable, or the court may commit the person to the care and custody of the probation officer, to be placed in a suitable family home subject to the supervision of said probation officer and the further order of the court; or it may order the probation officer to board out the person in some suitable family home in case provision is made by voluntary contribution or otherwise for the payment of the board of said person until suitable provision may be made for said person in a home without such payment; or the court may commit said person for such time until such person arrives at the age of twenty-one years as to the court may seem fit. to the care and custody of some association, society or corporation that will receive it, embracing within its object the care of dependent or delinquent children; or the court may commit said person to a state school as hereinbefore provided, or to such other state institution as may be authorized by law to receive it; provided, further, that should the legislative body of the county or city and county, or of a municipality, provide a suitable place for the detention of dependent or delinquent persons which they are hereby authorized and required to do, such dependent or delinquent persons may be committed thereto after the adjudication of dependency or delinquency for a definite period to be specified in such order, at the end of which time said person shall be brought before the court for further order of court. The court may thereafter set aside, change or modify said order and provide for a further detention in said place. The court shall retain the jurisdiction of any person who is found to be delinquent until such person attains his majority, or if a girl, until she attains the age of twenty-one years, unless she is married with the consent of the court, or until said court is satisfied that said person has fully reformed and that further direction and supervision under the provisions of this act are unnecessary for said person's reformation. If a boy, said person may be committed by said court to the Whittier State School or the Preston State School of Industry at any time during his minority for the period of his minority. If a girl, she may be committed to the said Whittier State School at any time before she is twenty-one years of age until she is twenty-one years of age. Such person may be committed to any other institution now or hereafter provided by the state for such persons. If such person, after being committed to the Whittier State School or the Preston State School of Industry or such other institution, shall there prove to be incorrigible or incapable of reformation under the discipline of the school to which such person may be committed, such person may be returned to the court for such further order or disposition as may at that time be determined. Upon the return of said person to the custody of the juvenile court, if said person be accused of felony, it shall be the duty of the judge of said court to sit as a committing magistrate and hold the preliminary examination of such person, and if upon said hearing he shall determine that there is probable cause to believe that the said person has committed the offense charged in the petition theretofore filed in said court, he shall hold such person to answer to the superior court, and thereupon, the usual proceedings shall be had for the trial of said case in the superior court after the filing of the information in pursuance to said order of said judge sitting as a committing magistrate, and said person shall be tried by court and jury in the usual manner for the trial of a felony; provided, however, that no minor under the age of fourteen years at the time of the commission of the offense with which he is charged shall ever be sent to a penitentiary, until he has first been committed to the Whittier State School or the Preston State School of Industry, and has there proved to be incorrigible or not amenable to the discipline of said school. No minor who is under the age of eight years or who is suffering from any contagious, infectious or other disease which would probably endanger the lives or health of the other inmates of said state schools shall be committed thereto. No person shall be committed to said state schools unless the judge of said court shall be fully satisfied that the mental and physical condition and qualifications of said person are such as to render it probable that such person will be benefited by the reformatory educational discipline of such schools.

SEC. 21. Any order providing for the custody of a dependent or delinquent person may provide that the expense of maintaining such person shall be paid by the parent or parents or guardian of such person, and in such case shall state the amount to be so paid, and shall determine whether or not the parent or parents or guardian shall exercise any control of said person, and define the extent thereof. Any disobedience of such order or interference with the custody of the person as therein determined shall constitute a contempt of court. If it be found, however, that the parent or parents or guardian of a dependent or delinquent person is unable to pay the whole expense of maintaining such person, the court may, in the order providing for the custody of such person, direct such additional amount as may be necessary to support such person to be paid from the county treasury of the county for the support of such person, the amount so ordered to be paid from the treasury of said county not to exceed, in case of any one person, the sum of eleven dollars per month; provided, further, that no order for the payment of all or part of the expense of support and maintenance of a dependent or delinquent person from the county treasury shall be effective for more than six months, unless a new order is secured at the expiration of that period. The court may thereafter set aside, change or modify any order herein provided for.

Expenses of delinquent person may be paid by parent.

Part of expense may be paid by county.

SEC. 22. Any order made by the court in case of a dependent or delinquent person may at any time be changed, modified or set aside as to the judge may seem meet and proper.

Order of court may be changed.

SEC. 23. Any person may have a private hearing upon the question of his dependency or delinquency, and upon the request of said person, or either of his parents or guardian, such hearing may be had privately in the manner provided by law for private hearings at preliminary examinations. An order of court adjudging a person dependent or delinquent under the provisions of this act shall in no case be deemed to be a conviction of crime.

Private hearing.

Person under sixteen years not to be committed to jail or prison before trial.

SEC. 24. No court, judge, magistrate or peace officer shall commit a person under sixteen years of age to any jail or prison, before trial and conviction, but if any such person is not released pending such hearing, he may be committed to the care and custody of a sheriff, constable or other peace officer who shall keep such person in a detention home or some other suitable place outside of the enclosure of any jail or prison, as the court may direct. When any person under sixteen years of age shall be sentenced to confinement in any institution to which adult convicts or prisoners are sentenced or confined, it shall be unlawful to confine such persons in the same room, yard or enclosure with such adult convicts or prisoners, or to permit such person to come or remain in contact with such adult convicts or prisoners.

Detention home.

SEC. 25. It shall be the duty of the legislative body of every county, or city and county, immediately upon this act becoming effective, to provide and thereafter maintain, at the expense of such county, or city and county, in a location approved by the judge of the juvenile court, a suitable house or place to be known as the "detention home" of said county, or city and county, for the detention of dependent and delinquent persons. Such detention home must not be in, or connected with, any jail or prison, and shall be conducted in all respects as nearly like a home as possible and shall not be deemed to be or treated as a penal institution. Such legislative body must also provide for a suitable superintendent and matron to have charge of such detention home, and for such other employees as may be needed in the efficient management of such detention home, and provide for the payment, out of the general fund of the county, or city and county, of suitable salaries for such superintendent and matron, and such other employees, such superintendent, matron and other employees to be appointed by said legislative body, upon the nomination of the probation committee and approval of the judge of the juvenile court. The superintendent, matron or other employee for such detention home may, at any time, be removed by the probation committee, in its discretion.

Superintendent and matron.

Parents may be fined or imprisoned on account of delinquent persons.

SEC. 26. In all cases where any child shall be dependent or delinquent under the terms of this act, the parent or parents, legal guardian or person having the custody of such person or any other person who shall, by any act or omission, encourage, cause or contribute to the dependency or delinquency of such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment, and the juvenile court shall have jurisdiction of all such misdemeanors; provided, however, that the court may suspend sentence for a violation of the provisions of this section and impose conditions as to the conduct, in the premises, of any person so convicted, and make such suspension to depend upon the fulfillment by such person of such conditions, and, in case of the breach of such conditions, or any thereof, the court may impose sentence as though there had been no such suspension. The court may also, as a condition of such suspension, require a bond in such sum as the court may designate, to be approved by the judge requiring same, to secure the performance by such person of the conditions imposed by the court on such suspension. Such bond shall by its terms be made payable to the State of California, and any moneys received for a breach thereof shall be paid into the county treasury.

SEC. 27. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purpose may be carried out, to wit: That the care, custody and discipline of a dependent or delinquent person as defined in this act shall approximate as nearly as may be that which should be given by his parents, and in all cases where it can be properly done, the dependent or delinquent person as defined in this act shall be placed in an approved family, with people of the same religious belief, and become a member of the family, by legal adoption or otherwise. No dependent or delinquent person as defined in this act shall be taken from the custody of his parent or legal guardian, without the consent of such parent or guardian, unless the court shall find such parent or guardian to be incapable, or has failed or neglected to provide proper maintenance, training and education for said person: or unless said person has been tried on probation in said custody, and has failed to reform, or unless the court shall find that the welfare of said person requires his custody shall be taken from said parent or guardian. In this act, words used in any gender shall include all other genders, and the word "county" shall include "city and county," the plural shall include the singular and the singular shall include the plural.

This act shall be construed.

Definition.

SEC. 28. This act shall supersede all provisions of the act entitled: "An act to establish a state reform school for juvenile offenders, and to make an appropriation therefor," approved March 11, 1889, and all amendments thereto, and all provisions of the act entitled: "An act to establish a school of industry and to provide for the maintenance and management of same, and to make an appropriation therefor," approved March 11, 1889, and all amendments thereto relating to the mode of commitments to the institutions therein named; but said acts shall control as to all matters concerning the management of said institutions, respectively.

shall be admissible in evidence," approved February 26, 1903; and the amendments thereto approved March 22, 1905, and March 27, 1907, are hereby repealed; provided, however, that all orders and judgments made heretofore under said act shall continue in full force and effect, and that the court shall retain jurisdiction of all children heretofore declared dependent or delinquent, and such children shall be hereafter dealt with in the same manner as if such orders had been made under the provisions of this act, and all proceedings now pending shall be continued under the provisions of this act. All children now on probation from justice courts shall remain on probation for the period fixed in the judgment, and if required may be certified to the superior court in the manner in said act provided. When so certified the said certificate shall be dealt with in the same manner as herein provided for a petition alleging delinquency.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 370.

An act to amend section 4234 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to salaries and fees of officers in counties of the fifth class.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4234 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries of officers in counties of fifth class.

County
clerk.

4234. In counties of the fifth class the county officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following salaries, to wit:

1. The county clerk, twenty-four hundred dollars per annum. He shall have two deputies at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars each per annum and four deputies at a salary of twelve hundred dollars each per annum. He shall have for use in his office and under his supervision and control one filing clerk, which office of filing clerk is hereby, by the terms of this act, expressly created. The said position of filing clerk to be filled by the county clerk in the same manner as deputies are appointed by him, and said filing clerk is to be at all times as to his duties under the supervision and control of the county clerk the same as deputies of such county clerk are under his supervision and control, which said filing clerk shall receive a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum. CHAPTER 371.

An act to amend section number 1632 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the settlement of accounts of executors and administrators, and filing of vouchers for expenditures.

[Approved April 5, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1632 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Expenditures less than $20 may be allowed executors without vouchers.

1632. On the settlement of his account he may be allowed any item of expenditure not exceeding twenty dollars, for which no voucher is produced, if such item be supported by his own uncontradicted oath positive to the fact of payment, specifying when, where, and to whom it was made; but such allowances in the whole must not exceed five hundred dollars against any one estate; provided, that if it appears by the oath to the account and is proven by competent evidence, to the satisfaction of the court, that a voucher for any disbursement or disbursements whatsoever has been lost or destroyed, and that it is impossible to obtain a duplicate thereof and that such item or items were paid in good faith and for the best interests of the estate, and such item or items were legal charges against said estate, then the executor or administrator shall be allowed such item or items. If, upon such settlement of accounts, it appears that debts against the deceased have been paid without the affidavit and allowance prescribed by statute or sections fourteen hundred and ninety-four, fourteen hundred and ninety-five, and fourteen hundred and ninety-six of this code, and it shall be proven by competent evidence to the satisfaction of the court that such debts were justly due, were paid in good faith, that the amount paid was the true amount of such indebtedness over and above all payments or set-offs, and that the estate is solvent, it shall be the duty of the said court to allow the said sums so paid in the settlement of said accounts.

Amounts paid for debts may be allowed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 378.

An act to amend section 241 of the Penal Code, relating to the punishment of the crime of assault.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred and forty-one of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

241. An assault is punishable by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both. Punishment of assault.

CHAPTER 379.

An Act to amend the Penal Code of California, by adding new sections thereto, to be numbered 270d, 270e, and 273h, relating to the abandonment and neglect of children, and the non-support of wife, and the evidence required to prove and the punishment of such offenses.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California three new sections to be numbered 270d, 270e and 273h respectively to read as follows:

270d. In any case where there is a conviction and sentence under the provisions of either section 270 or section 270a, of this code, should a fine be imposed such fine may be directed by the court to be paid in whole or in part to the wife of the de- Fine may be paid to wife of defendant.

defendant or guardian or custodian of the child or children of such defendant.

Proof of marriage, etc.

270c. No other evidence shall be required to prove marriage of husband and wife, or that a person is the lawful father or mother of a child or children, than is or shall be required to prove such facts in a civil action. In all prosecutions under either section 270 or 270a of this code any existing provisions of law prohibiting the disclosure of confidential communications between husband and wife shall not apply, and both husband and wife shall be competent to testify to any and all relevant matters, including the fact of marriage and the parentage of a child or children. Proof of the abandonment and non-support of a wife, or of the omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or of medical attendance for a child or children is prima facie evidence that such abandonment and non-support or omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance is wilful.

Proof of abandonment.

Person convicted may be compelled to work on roads.

273h. In all prosecutions under the provisions of either section 270 or section 270a, or section 270b, or section 271, or section 271a of this code where a conviction is had and sentence of imprisonment in the county jail is imposed, the court may direct that the person so convicted shall be compelled to work upon the public roads or highways, or any other public work, in the county where such conviction is had, during the term of such sentence. And it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of the county where such conviction and sentence are had, and where such work is performed by a person under sentence to the county jail, to allow and order the payment out of any fund available to the wife, or to the guardian, or to the custodian of a child or children, or to an organization, or to an individual appointed by the court as trustee, at the end of each calendar month, for the support of such wife, child or children, a sum not to exceed one and fifty one-hundredths dollars for each day's work of such person.

Payment made to wife, etc.

CHAPTER 380.

An act to amend section eleven hundred and ninety-one of the Penal Code of the State of California relating to the time for pronouncing judgment.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1191 of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1191. After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant on a plea of a former conviction or acquittal, or once in jeopardy, the court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment, which must not be less than two, nor more than five days after the verdict or plea of guilty; provided, however, that the court may extend the time not more than ten days for the purpose of hearing or determining any motion for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment; and provided, further, that the court may extend the time not more than twenty days in any case where the question of probation is considered in accordance with section 1203 of this code; provided, however, that upon the request of the defendant such time may be further extended not more than ninety days additional. If in the opinion of the court there is a reasonable ground for believing a defendant insane, the court may extend the time of pronouncing sentence until the question of insanity has been heard and determined, as provided in chapter VI, title X, part II, of this code.

CHAPTER 381.

An act to amend section twelve hundred and three of the Penal Code of the State of California relating to the probation of persons arrested for crime after a plea or verdict of guilty and the suspending of the imposition or execution of sentence during the term of probation, and the disposition of such accusation after full compliance with the terms of probation.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203 of the Penal Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1203. After plea or verdict of guilty, where discretion is conferred upon the court as to the extent of the punishment, the court, upon oral suggestions of either party, or of its own motion, that there are circumstances which may properly be taken into view, either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, may in its discretion refer the same to the probation officer, directing said probation officer to investigate, and to report, recommending either for or against release upon probation, at a specified time, and the court shall hear the same summarily at such specified times, and upon such notice to the adverse party as it may direct. At such specified time, if it shall appear from the report furnished by the probation officer, or otherwise, and from the circumstances, of any person over the age of eighteen (18) years, so having pleaded guilty, or having been convicted of crime, that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment, or that the ends of justice shall be subserved thereby, the court shall have power, in its discretion, to place the defendant upon probation in the manner following:

Court may suspend sentence pending investigation by probation officer.

Defendant placed on probation.

1. The court, judge or justice thereof, may suspend the imposing, or the execution of sentence, and may direct that such suspension may continue for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum possible term of such sentence, and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine, which terms and conditions may include, in the discretion of the court, the requirement of bonds for the appearance of the person released upon probation before the court, at any time that the court may require such appearance in the investigation of any alleged violation of said terms and conditions of probation, and such bonds may be at any time by the court exonerated without affecting any of the other terms or conditions of such probation; and in case of such suspension of imposition or execution of sentence, the court shall place such person on probation and under the charge and supervision of the probation officer of said court, during such suspension, or under the charge and supervision of the probation officer of the county in which such probationer is by the court permitted to reside.

Defendant given opportunity to pay fine.

2. If the judgment is to pay a fine, and that the defendant be imprisoned until it be paid, the court, judge, or justice, upon imposing sentence, may direct that the execution of the sentence of imprisonment be suspended for such period of time, not exceeding the maximum possible term of such sentence, and on such terms as it shall determine, and shall place the defendant on probation, under the charge and supervision of the probation officer during such suspension, to the end that he may be given the opportunity to pay the fine; provided, however, that upon the payment of the fine being made, judgment shall be satisfied and the probation cease.

Person on probation may be rearrested.

3. At any time during the probationary term of the person released on probation, in accordance with the provisions of this section, any probation officer may, without warrant, or other process, at any time until the final disposition of the case, rearrest any person so placed in his care and bring him before the court, or the court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant for the rearrest of any such person and may thereupon revoke and terminate such probation, if the interest of justice so requires, and if the court, in its judgment, shall have reason to believe from the report of the probation officer, or otherwise, that the person so placed upon probation is violating the conditions of his probation, or engaging in criminal practices, or has become abandoned to improper associates, or a vicious life. Upon such revocation and termination, the court may, if the sentence has been suspended, pronounce judgment after the said suspension of the sentence for any time within the longest period for which the defendant might have been sentenced, but if the judgment has been pronounced and the execution thereof has been suspended, the court may revoke such suspension, whereupon the judgment shall be in full force and effect.

and the person shall be delivered over to the proper officer to serve his sentence.

4. The court shall have power at any time during the term of probation to revoke or modify its order of suspension, of imposition or execution of sentence. It may, at any time, when the ends of justice will be subserved thereby, and when the good conduct and reform of the person so held on probation shall warrant it, terminate the period of probation and discharge the person so held, and in all cases, if the court has not seen fit to revoke the order of probation and impose sentence or pronounce judgment, the defendant shall, at the end of the term of probation, be by the court discharged.

Court may revoke order of suspension.

5. Every defendant who has fulfilled the conditions of his probation for the entire period thereof, or who shall have been discharged from probation prior to the termination of the period thereof, shall at any time prior to the expiration of the maximum period of punishment for the offense of which he has been convicted, dating from said discharge from probation or said termination of said period of probation, be permitted by the court to withdraw his plea of guilty and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and in either case the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusation or information against such defendant, who shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense or crime of which he has been convicted.

Defendant who has fulfilled conditions of probation to be released from penalties.

6. The same probation officers and assistant probation officers and deputy probation officers shall serve under this act as are appointed under the act known as the juvenile court law, and entitled "An act concerning dependent and delinquent minor children, providing for their care, custody, and maintenance until twenty-one years of age; providing for their commitment to the Whittier State School and the Preston State School of Industry, and the manner of such commitment and release therefrom, establishing a probation committee and probation officers to deal with such children, and fixing the salaries of probation officers; providing for detention homes for said children; providing for the punishment of persons responsible for, or contributing to, the dependency or delinquency of children; and giving to the superior court jurisdiction of such offenses, and repealing inconsistent acts." approved March 8, 1909, or under any laws amending or superseding the same.

Probation officers appointed under act of 1909 to serve under this act.

7. Such probation officers shall serve under this act whenever required to do so by any court having original jurisdiction of criminal actions in this state.

8. At the time of the plea or verdict of guilty of any crime of any person over eighteen years of age, the probation officer of the county of the jurisdiction of said crime shall, when so directed by the court, inquire into the antecedents, character, history, family environment, and offense of such person, and must report the same to the court, and file his report in writing in the records of said court. His report shall contain his recommendation for or against the release of such person on probation. If any such person shall be released on probation and committed to the care of the probation officer, such officer shall keep a complete and accurate record in suitable books or other form in writing, of the history of the case in court, and of the name of the probation officer, and his acts in connection with said case; also the age, sex, nativity, residence, education, habits of temperance, whether married or single, and the conduct, employment, and occupation, and parents' occupation, and condition of such person so committed to his care during the term of such probation and the result of such probation. Such record of such probation officer shall be and constitute a part of the records of the court, and shall at all times be open to the inspection of the court, or of any person appointed by the court for that purpose, as well as of all magistrates, and the chief of police, or other head of the police, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Said books of record shall be furnished for the use of said probation officer of said county, and shall be paid for out of the county treasury.

Terms of probation to be furnished person released.

9. The probation officer shall furnish to each person who has been released on probation, and committed to his care, a written statement of the terms and conditions of his probation, unless such statement has been furnished by the court, and shall report to the court, judge or justice, releasing such person upon probation, any violation or breach of the terms and conditions imposed by such court on the person placed in his care.

10. Such probation officer shall have, as to the person so committed to the care of said probation officer, the powers of a peace officer.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 382.

An act to amend section 1247 of the Penal Code of California, relating to appeals.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1247 of the Penal Code of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1247. Upon an appeal being taken from any judgment or order of the superior court, to the supreme court or to a district court of appeal, in any criminal action or proceeding where such appeal is allowed by law, the defendant, or the district attorney when the people appeal, must, within five days, file with the clerk and present an application to the trial court, stating in general terms the grounds of the appeal and the points upon which the appellant relies, and designate what portions of the phonographic reporter's notes it will be necessary to have transcribed to fairly present the points relied upon. If such application is not filed within said time, the appeal is wholly ineffectual and shall be deemed dismissed and the judgment or order may be enforced as if no appeal had been taken. The court shall, within two days after the filing of such application, make an order directing the phonographic reporter who reported the case to transcribe such portion of his notes as in the opinion of the court may be necessary to fairly and fully present the points relied upon by the appellant. If the court fails to make the order within two days after the application is filed, the notes requested in the application shall be transcribed without such order. The phonographic reporter shall, within twenty days after the filing of such application, file with the clerk of the court an original transcription and three carbon copies of the portion of the notes so required to be transcribed, excluding therefrom all argument of counsel not objected to at the time it was made. The same shall be typewritten as prescribed by the rules of the supreme court. He shall append to the original and to each copy his original affidavit that it is correct.

An act to amend section 1260 of the Political Code relating to county and township officers of counties of the thirty-first class.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4260 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4260. In counties of the thirty-first class the county and township officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law, and by virtue of their offices the following salaries and fees, to wit:

Salaries of officers in counties of thirty-first class.

1. The county clerk, three thousand two hundred and fifty dollars per annum; and in each year in which a new and complete registration of voters is required by law, he shall receive such additional amount as shall be necessary to pay deputy registration clerks for taking affidavits of registration outside of the office at the rate of ten cents each, the claims for which shall be presented and allowed by the board of supervisors as other claims are presented and allowed; he may also appoint a deputy clerk, which office of deputy clerk is hereby created, whose salary shall be three hundred dollars per annum, payable as the salaries of all other county officers are paid.

clerk.

- Sheriff. 2. The sheriff, six thousand dollars per annum.
- Recorder. 3. The recorder, two thousand two hundred and fifty dollars per annum; provided, that such recorder shall collect and pay into the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county the fees required by law to be so collected; and provided, that when the amount of said fees so collected shall amount to more than two hundred dollars in any one month, the said recorder may receive and retain for his own use, in addition to his salary, one half of all fees in excess of two hundred dollars in one month so collected; and provided, that in counties of this class the recorder may appoint two copyists for service in his office, which office of copyists for the county recorder is hereby created, and said copyists shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five hundred forty dollars each per annum, to be paid out of the county treasury in equal monthly installments, at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the recorder is paid.
- Auditor. 4. The auditor, two thousand dollars per annum.
- Treasurer. 5. The treasurer, two thousand dollars per annum.
- Tax collector. 6. The tax collector, one thousand dollars per annum.
- Assessor. 7. - Administrator. 10. The public administrator, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law.
- Superintendent of schools. 11. The superintendent of schools, eighteen hundred dollars per annum, including services on the board of education. He shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses not to exceed three hundred dollars per annum; he shall also be allowed one deputy whose salary shall be fifty dollars per month, payable the same as the salary of county officers; provided, that he shall keep his office open from nine o'clock A. M. to five o'clock P. M. of each business day.
- Surveyor. 12. The surveyor shall receive a per diem of ten dollars for all work performed for the county, in addition thereto all necessary expenses and transportation on work performed in the field.

13. The justices of the peace, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law; provided, that the amount allowed by the board of supervisors for services in prosecutions under section six hundred and forty-seven of the Penal Code, and prosecutions for fraudulently evading or attempting to evade the payment of fare for traveling on any railroad, shall not exceed twenty dollars for any one month; provided, further, that the amount allowed by the board of supervisors for services in prosecutions of misdemeanor cases other than those hereinbefore specified in this subdivision, shall not exceed the sum of thirty dollars for any one month. Justice of the peace.

14. The constable shall receive the following fees, to wit: for serving summons and complaint, for each defendant served, one dollar; for each copy of summons for service when made by him, twenty-five cents; for levying writ of attachment or execution or executing order of arrest or for the delivery of personal property, one dollar; for keeping personal property, such sum as the court may order, but no more than two dollars per day shall be allowed for a keeper when necessarily employed; for taking bond or undertaking, fifty cents; for copies of writs and other papers, except summons, complaints and subpoenas, per folio ten cents; provided, that when corrected copies are furnished him for use, no charge shall be made for copies, for serving any writ, notice or order, except summons, complaint or subpoenas, for each person served, fifty cents; for writing and posting each notice of sale of property, twenty-five cents; for serving subpoenas, each witness, including copy, twenty-five cents; for collecting money on execution, two and one half per cent, to be charged against the defendant named in the execution; for executing and delivering a certificate of sale, one dollar; for executing and delivering constable's deeds, two dollars; for every mile necessarily traveled in his township, in going only, to serve any civil or criminal process or paper, or to take a prisoner before a magistrate or to a prison, twenty-five cents, outside of his township, but within his county, twenty cents; but when two or more persons are served or summoned in the same suit and at the same time, mileage shall be charged only for the more distant if they live in the same direction; for each mile traveled outside his county in making criminal arrests, both going and returning from the place of arrest, ten cents; in transporting prisoners to the county jail, or before a magistrate, either upon arrest or for trial or examination, or after conviction, he shall receive in addition to the above mileage his actual and necessary expenses for himself and prisoners; provided, that two or more prisoners are transported at the same time, no more than one mileage shall be allowed; for making each arrest in criminal cases, one dollar and fifty cents; for sales of estrays, the same fees as for sales on execution; for summoning a jury, two dollars including mileage; for all other services the same fees as are allowed sheriffs for like services; provided, further, that no more than sixty dollars shall be allowed to any constable in counties of this class in any one month for fees and mileage in criminal matters. Constable.

visor.

15. Each supervisor, six hundred dollars per annum, and twenty cents per mile for traveling from his residence to and from the county seat; provided, such mileage shall not be allowed more than once a month; and for his services as road commissioner he shall receive twenty cents a mile one way, for all distances actually and necessarily traveled by him in the performance of his duties; provided, he shall not in any one year receive more than three hundred dollars as such road commissioner. The road commissioners shall be reimbursed for all traveling, personal and other necessary expenses while actually engaged in the performance of their duties upon the road; provided, that the full amount of expenses incurred shall not exceed three hundred dollars in any one year, to be allowed as any other claim by the board of supervisors.

Jurors.

16. In counties of this class grand jurors and jurors in the superior court shall receive for each day's attendance the sum of three dollars, and for each mile actually and necessarily traveled from residence to county seat the sum of twenty-five cents: such mileage to be allowed but once during each session such jurors are required to attend.

Settlement of fees.

17. In counties of the thirty-first class, the sheriff, county clerk, district attorney, assessor, tax collector, recorder, coroner, public administrator, and each and every justice of the peace in said counties, and each and every constable in said counties, shall make and file with the county clerk of said county, on the first day of each year, a statement in writing and verified by the oath of each official respectively making the same, setting forth in detail all fees, commissions, percentages, emoluments and moneys received for official services of every kind and description, during the last preceding year; a failure so to do shall be and constitute a waiver of all future fees to be paid to and retained by said official as compensation and shall be and constitute a bar to the retention or recovery of any fees, commissions, or percentages for compensation.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 384.

An act to amend section 4278 of the Political Code, relating to salaries and fees of officers of counties of the forty-ninth class.

Jurors.

17. Grand jurors or trial jurors in criminal cases in the superior court shall receive, as compensation for each day's attendance, per day two dollars and fifty cents, and for each mile actually traveled in attending court as a grand juror or juror at a criminal case, in the superior court in going only, per mile fifteen cents. The county clerk shall certify to the auditor the number of days attendance and the number of miles traveled by each juror, and the auditor shall draw his warrant for the amount to which each juror is entitled, and the treasurer shall pay the same.

CHAPTER 386.

An act to amend the railroad commission act by amending section fifteen thereof relating to powers and duties of the railroad commission of the State of California, and to amend section thirty-seven thereof relating to free and reduced-rate transportation for freight and passengers.

[Approved April 6, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15 of the railroad commission act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 15. The commission shall have the power and it shall be its duty to establish rates of charges, including joint rates over through routes, for the transportation of freight and passengers by all railroad or other transportation companies subject to the provisions of this act. Likewise to prescribe and establish classifications of freight. The commission shall also have the power to prescribe and establish, or modify or abrogate, from time to time, rules and regulations affecting the public of all such railroad and other transportation companies, for demurrage, damage and for receiving, storing, carrying, handling, delivering, switching, time of transit of freight and time of transit of passengers and affecting directly or indirectly the rendition to the public of any service connected with or incidental to the transportation of freight and passengers; likewise to prescribe from time to time forms of bills of lading, the same, however, to be as nearly as practicable in the form of bills of lading approved by the interstate commerce commission of the United States; to establish through routes over connecting lines of such railroad or other transportation companies and the terms and conditions under which such through routes shall be operated and, in case the companies do not agree upon the divisions between them of the joint rates established by the commission over such through routes, to establish such divisions; provided, however, that where any railroad or other transportation company is made a party to a through route with another company, and such railroad or other transportation company has itself over its own line an equally satisfactory through route between the termini of the through route established, such railroad or other transportation company shall have the right to require as its division of the joint rate its local rate over the portion of its line comprised in such through route. The commission shall likewise have the power to require any railroad company to construct, maintain and operate, upon reasonable terms which the commission shall have the power to fix, a switch connection or switch connections with the railroad of any other company or with any private sidetrack or spur of any shipper which may be constructed to connect with its railroad, where, in the opinion of the commission, such connection is reasonably practicable and can be put in with safety and will furnish sufficient business to justify the construction and maintenance of the same, and to furnish cars for the movement of such traffic to the best of its ability, without discrimination in favor of or against any shipper. The commission shall have the power to make rules, regulations and orders to prevent discrimination in the construction, operation or maintenance of industrial tracks. The commission shall likewise have the exclusive power to determine and prescribe the manner, including the particular point of crossing, of any crossing of a railroad or other transportation line by another such line, and also the terms of the installation, maintenance, use and protection of such crossing, and to require at any crossing of one railroad by another, where the same is practicable, a separation of their grades and to prescribe the terms upon which such separation shall be made and to prescribe, abolish or change any crossing of a railroad by a public road or highway, and to fix the terms of the construction, maintenance, use and protection of such crossing, and to require that such crossing be either at grade, or above or beneath the tracks of the railroad, and the proportions in which the expense of installing and maintaining such crossing shall be divided between the railroad company and the county or other public authority in charge of the public highway. The commission shall likewise have the power to require one railroad company to switch to private spurs and industrial tracks of shippers upon its own line the cars of the connecting railroad, and to prescribe the terms and compensation for such service. The commission shall have the power under such uniform rules as it may make, to prescribe the amount of demurrage which shall be paid by any railroad or other transportation company for the failure on the part of any such company to furnish cars in accordance with such rules, and likewise the amount which any shipper or consignee shall pay to any such company for failure to load or unload cars ordered by, or delivered to, such shipper or consignee under such rules. Such charges shall be uniform, the commission being required to prescribe the same penalties for both shipper or consignee and company for an equal number of cars for each day for which such demurrage is charged. Any such penalty may be recovered by action therefor as provided in section twenty-eight of this act.

Section 37. No railroad or other transportation company subject to the provisions of this act shall, directly or indirectly, issue, give or tender any free ticket, free pass or free or reduced-rate transportation for freight or passengers between points within this state except to its officers, agents, employees, surgeons, physicians, attorneys-at-law, and members of their families; to ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of railroad men's religious associations, to executive officers, organizers or agents or railroad employees' mutual benefit associations giving the greater portion of their time to the work of any such association, inmates of hospitals and charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work, and persons and property engaged or employed in educational and patriotic work and scientific research, when permitted by the commission; to the executive officers of mercantile or promotion boards or bodies within this state when traveling in the performance of duties affecting the advancement of business, of the development of trade or industry without or within this state, when authorized by the commission; to hotel employees of season resort hotels, when authorized by the commission; to indigent, destitute and homeless persons and such persons when transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and the necessary agents employed in such transportation; to inmates of the national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and of soldiers' and sailors' homes, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge; to necessary care-takers, going and returning, of live stock, poultry, milk, fruit and other freight under uniform and non-discriminatory regulations; to employees of sleeping car companies, express companies, telegraph and telephone companies; to railway mail service employees, United States internal revenue officers, post office inspectors, customs officers and inspectors and immigration inspectors when traveling in the course of their official duty; to newsboys on trains, baggage agents, witnesses attending any legal investigation in which the company is interested, persons injured in accidents or wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons; for the carriage, free or at reduced rates, of persons or property for the United States, state or municipal governments, or for charitable purposes, or of property to or from fairs and expositions for exhibit thereat. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit the interchange of free or reduced-rate transportation between common carriers, for their officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians, surgeons and members of their families; nor to prevent railroads or other transportation companies from entering into contracts with telegraph, telephone and cable companies for the exchange of services; nor to prohibit a carrier from transporting, free or at reduced rates, contractors or their employees, materials or supplies for use or engaged in the carrying out of their contracts with such railroad or other transportation companies; provided, such arrangements for free or reduced-rate carriage are made a part of the specifications upon which the contract is based or of the contract itself; nor to prohibit the carriage of passengers or property, free or at reduced rates, with the object of providing relief in cases of general epidemic, pestilence or other calamitous visitation. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the carrying out of contracts for free or reduced-rate transportation heretofore made, founded upon adequate consideration and lawful when made or to prevent the issuance of mileage, excursion or commutation passenger tickets, or joint interchangeable mileage tickets with special privileges as to the amount of free

CHAPTER 387.

An act providing for placing the names of candidates for United States senator in congress upon the official ballot at general elections, for counting, canvassing and making returns of the votes therefor, providing the method of notifying the legislature of the results of such election, and defining the duties of certain officers in relation thereto.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Names of candidates for United States senator to go on ballots of general elections.

SECTION 1. At all general elections next preceding the election of a United States senator in congress by the legislature of the State of California, there shall be placed on the official ballot by each county clerk or registrar of voters the names of those persons who have received in their respective parties the highest number of votes for United States senator at the preceding primary election. The votes for such persons at such general elections shall be counted, certified to and forwarded to the county clerk or registrar of voters by the election officers, in the same manner as votes for state officers are counted, certified to and return thereof made to the county clerk or registrar of voters at such general election. The returns so certified to the county clerk or registrar of voters shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner and the result thereof entered on the records of the canvassing board, as votes for state officers are canvassed and entered. Each county clerk or registrar of voters, so soon as the statement of the vote of his county is made out and entered on the records of the canvassing board, must prepare an abstract of so much thereof as relates to the votes given or cast for persons for the office of United States senator in congress and certify to said abstract. The county clerk or registrar of voters must seal up said abstract, endorse it "Election returns for United States senator in congress" and without delay transmit the same, by registered mail or express, to the secretary of state. On the fortieth day after the day of election, or so soon as the returns have been received from all the counties of the state, if received within that time, the secretary of state must compile and total the vote, and make out and file in his office a statement thereof, and deliver a copy of such statement under his official seal to the governor of the state. He shall also transmit duplicate copies of such statement so certified to the legislature at the commencement of its next ensuing session at which a United States senator in congress is to be elected, by delivering one copy to the president of the senate and the other to the speaker of the assembly immediately after the organization of such bodies, which officers shall forthwith open and lay the same before their respective houses and such statements shall thereupon be printed in the journal of each house.

1289. The clerk must seal up such abstract, indorse it "Election Returns," and without delay transmit it by mail or express to the secretary of state.

SEC. 3. Section thirteen hundred and nine of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1309. The clerk must seal up such abstract, indorse it "Presidential Election Returns," and without delay transmit it to the secretary of state by mail or express, or in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 4. Section thirteen hundred and forty-five of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1345. The clerk must seal up such abstract, indorse it "Congressional Election Returns," and without delay transmit it by mail or express to the secretary of state.

CHAPTER 389.

An act to amend section twenty-one of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state for the construction of sewers and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the determination of their validity, and making provisions for the payment of such bonds, and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March 31, 1891.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twenty-one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of sanitary districts in any part of the state for the construction of sewers and other sanitary purposes; the acquisition of property thereby; the calling and conducting of elections in such districts; the assessment, levy, collection, custody and disbursement of taxes therein; the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof and the determination of their validity and making provisions for the payment of such bonds and the disposal of their proceeds," approved March 31, 1891, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 21. The district may at any time be dissolved upon the vote of two thirds of the qualified electors thereof, upon an election called by the sanitary board upon the question of dissolution. Such election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as other elections of the district. Upon such or any other dissolution the property of the district shall vest in any incorporated city or town that may at said time be in occupation of a considerable portion of the territory of the district, and if there be no such incorporated city or town then the property shall be vested in the board of supervisors of the county until the formation of such a city or town; provided, however, that if at the time of such election to dissolve such district there be any outstanding bonded indebtedness of such district, then, in such event, the vote to dissolve such district shall dissolve the same for all purposes excepting only the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such indebtedness; and from the time such district is thus or otherwise dissolved until such bonded indebtedness, with the interest thereon, is fully paid, satisfied, and discharged, the legislative authority of said incorporated city or town, or the board of supervisors, if there be no such incorporated city or town, is hereby constituted ex officio the sanitary board of such district. And it is hereby made obligatory upon such board to levy such taxes and perform such other acts as may be necessary in order to raise money for the payment of such indebtedness and the interest thereon, as herein provided; and said board shall maintain the sewer system installed in proper condition and shall fulfill and compel fulfillment of any and all contracts made by the sanitary district for the right of connections made with property lying outside of the boundaries of said district; and shall maintain and protect all other rights acquired by the district; provided, that all moneys received shall be placed in the bond and interest fund or be used for making extensions within the boundaries of said sanitary district: and shall not permit connection to be made with the system installed by any property outside of the boundaries of said sanitary district existing at the time of dissolution, unless the owner of such property shall agree to pay annually from the time of connection made the property's pro rata of the tax levied to pay off any existing bonded indebtedness as though the property affected were within the boundaries of said sanitary district at the time of dissolution.

An act to amend section 1616 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the compensation and expenses of executors, administrators, and their attorneys.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1616 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1616. The executor or administrator shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care, management, and settlement of the estate, and for his services such fees as provided in this chapter; but when the decedent, by his will, makes some other provision for the compensation of his executor, that shall be a full compensation for his services, unless by a written instrument, filed in the court, he renounces all claim for compensation provided for in the will. At any time after one year from the admission of a will to probate, or the granting of letters of administration, any executor, or administrator, may, upon such notice to the other parties interested in the estate as the court shall by order require, apply to the court for an allowance to himself upon his commissions, and the court shall on the hearing of such application make an order allowing such executor or administrator such portion of his commissions as to the court shall seem proper, and the portion so allowed may be thereupon charged against the estate. Any attorney who has rendered services to an executor or administrator may at any time during the administration, and upon such notice to the other parties interested in the estate as the court shall by order require, apply to the court for an allowance to himself of compensation therefor, and the court shall on the hearing of such application make an order requiring the executor or administrator to pay to such attorney out of the estate such compensation on account of services rendered by such attorney up to the date of such order as to the court shall seem proper, and such payment shall be forthwith made. Any attorney making such application to the court for compensation and all other persons interested in the estate may appeal from any order made by the court fixing the amount of such compensation, and ordering the same paid.

An act to amend section 1667 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to distribution when decedent was not a resident of the state.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1667 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1667. Upon application for distribution, after final settlement of the accounts of administration, if the decedent was a non-resident of this state, leaving a will which has been duly proved or allowed in the state of his residence, and an authenticated copy thereof has been admitted to probate in this state, or if the decedent died intestate, and an administrator has been duly appointed and qualified in the state of his residence, and it is necessary, in order that the estate, or any part thereof, may be distributed according to the will, or if the court is satisfied that it is for the best interests of the estate, that the estate in this state should be delivered to the executor or administrator in the state or place of the decedent's residence, the court may order such delivery to be made, and, if necessary, order a sale of the real estate, and a like delivery of the proceeds. The delivery, in accordance with the order of the court, is a full discharge of the executor or administrator with the will annexed or administrator, in this state, in relation to all property embraced in such order, which, unless reversed on appeal, binds and concludes all parties in interest. Sales of real estate, ordered by virtue of this section, must be made in the same manner as other sales of real estate of decedents by order of the court.

CHAPTER 392.

An act to amend section 19 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the regulation of fires on, and the protection and management of, public and private forest lands within the State of California, creating a state board of forestry and certain officers subordinate to said board, prescribing the duties of such officers, creating a forestry fund, and defining and providing for the punishment of certain offenses for violations of the provisions of this act, and making an appropriation therefor," approved March 18, 1905, relating to slash burning.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19 of the above entitled act approved March 18, 1905, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 19. It shall be the duty of the state board of forestry, whenever it shall be deemed necessary, to notify the owner of any forest area within the state by a written notice to be served upon the person or persons or corporation, or either of them, owning or having charge of such area, or upon the agents, attorney or representative of either, by any firewarden, deputy firewarden or special firewarden or any employee of the state board of forestry, in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, or if such area belongs to any non-resident person or corporation and there is no person in control or possession thereof, and such non-resident person or corporation has no tenant, attorney, representative or agent upon whom such service can be had, or if the owner or owners of such area, or their tenants, attorneys, representatives, or agents can not after due diligence be found, then by posting the said notice in some conspicuous place upon such area and by mailing a copy thereof to the owner thereof at his last known place of residence if the same is known or can be ascertained, that the said state board of forestry intends to cause an inspection to be made of the said forest area for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the same constitutes a nuisance as hereinafter provided. The said notice shall describe the forest area to be inspected by general description and shall designate the time of such inspection. At the time so designated in said notice the said state board of forestry shall cause an inspection to be made of the said forest area and the said owner or his agent shall be permitted to be present during such inspection and shall be given a full opportunity of showing that such forest area is not a nuisance as contemplated by this act. If the said state board of forestry after such inspection finds any forest area inadequately protected adjoining, lying near, or intermingled with other forest and covered wholly or in part with inflammable debris, which by reason of such location or condition or lack of protection endangers life or property, the state board of forestry shall in writing notify the owner or owners of such areas that the condition of said areas endangers life or property and shall require such persons or corporation to clean up such areas by the use of fire or otherwise at a time and in a manner to be therein specified. Said notice may be served upon the person or persons or corporation, or either of them, owning or having charge of such areas or upon the agents of either, by any firewarden, deputy firewarden or special firewarden or any employe of the state board of forestry, in the same manner as a summons in a civil action; provided, however, that if any such area belong to any non-resident person or corporation and there is no person in control or possession thereof and such non-resident person or corporation has no tenant, bailee, depository or agent upon whom such service can be had; or if the owner or owners of such areas can not after due diligence be found, then such notice may be served by posting the same in some conspicuous place upon such area, and by mailing a copy thereof to the owner thereof at his last known place of residence, if the same is known or can be ascertained. Any and all such inadequately protected forest areas adjoining, lying near, or intermingled with other forest and covered wholly or in part with inflammable debris, which by reason of such location or condition or lack of protection endangers life or property, are hereby declared to be a public nuisance: and whenever any such nuisance shall exist within the state, and the proper notice shall have been served, as herein provided, and the time specified in said notice shall have elapsed without the nuisance having been abated, it shall be the duty of the state board of forestry to cause said nuisance to be at once abated, by burning or otherwise disposing of the inflammable debris. The expense thereof shall be paid by the state in like manner as bills for fire fighting are paid. Any and all such sum or sums so paid shall be and become a lien on the property from which said nuisance has been removed or abated in pursuance of this section, and said lien shall continue as long as the said sum or sums above referred to shall remain unpaid. The claim for any lien shall be filed by the state forester, or, under his direction, by any of his assistants or firewardens, in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property on which said nuisance existed is situated. Proceedings for the enforcement of such lien shall be instituted by the district attorney of the county where the nuisance existed, at the request of the state board of forestry and in the name of the State of California as claimant; and the costs shall be recovered in the usual manner. The state board of forestry is hereby vested with the power to cause any and all such nuisances to be abated in a summary manner.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 393.

An act to establish the legality of certain school districts and to validate all bonds heretofore issued or ordered to be issued by or on behalf of such districts.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the board of supervisors of any county of this state has established a school district consisting of a portion of the territory of an incorporated city or town, all of the proceedings of said board of supervisors had in the formation of such school district are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed and such district is hereby declared to be a legal school district, and in all cases where the board of supervisors of any county of the state purporting to act under and by virtue of the provisions of the Political Code applicable thereto, has ordered the issuance of bonds of any such school district, after a special election in such district has been held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred, at which election not less than two thirds of all the qualified voters voting at such election have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, all the proceedings of the trustees of such district and of the board of supervisors, preceding and including the issuance and the proposed issuance of such bonds, are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, and all such bonds sold or to be sold for not less than par and accrued interest are hereby declared to be legal and valid obligations of such district, in accordance with their terms.

CHAPTER 394.

An act to amend section 1444 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to appraisers of estates of deceased persons.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1444 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Appraisers of estates of deceased persons

1444. To make the appraisement, the court, or a judge thereof, must appoint three disinterested persons, one of whom must be one of the inheritance tax appraisers provided for by law (any two of which appraisers may act): provided, that the court may, in its discretion, appoint said inheritance tax appraiser as sole appraiser to appraise said estate. Said appraisers are entitled to receive a reasonable compensation for their services, not to exceed five dollars per day, to be allowed by the court or judge. The appraisers or appraiser must, with the inventory, file a verified account of their or his services and disbursements. If any part of the estate is in any other county than that in which letters issued, an appraiser or appraisers thereof may in the same manner as above provided, be appointed, either by the court or judge having jurisdiction of the estate, or by the court or judge of such other county, on request of the court or judge having jurisdiction. No clerk or deputy, nor any person related by consanguinity or affinity to or connected by marriage with, or being a partner or employee of the judge of the court, shall be appointed or shall be competent to act as appraiser in any estate, or matter or proceeding pending before said judge or in said court.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 395.

An act to establish a tax on gifts, legacies, inheritances, bequests, devises, successions and transfers, to provide for its collection, and to direct the disposition of its proceeds; to provide for the enforcement of liens created by this act and for suits to quiet title against claims of lien arising hereunder; to repeal an act entitled "An act to establish a tax on gifts, legacies, inheritances, bequests, devises, successions and transfers, to provide for its collection, and to direct the disposition of its proceeds; to provide for the enforcement of liens created by this act and for suits to quiet title against claims of lien arising hereunder; to repeal an act entitled "An act to establish a tax on collateral inheritances, bequests, and devises, to provide for the collection, and to direct the disposition of its proceeds," approved March 23, 1893, and all amendments thereto, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved March 20, 1905, and all amendments thereto and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A tax shall be and is hereby imposed upon the transfer of any property, real, personal or mixed, or of any interest therein or income therefrom, in trust or otherwise, to persons, institutions or corporations, not hereinafter exempted, to be paid to the treasurer of the proper county, as hereinafter directed, for the use of the state, in the following cases:

Tax on transfer of property.

(1) When the transfer is by will or by the intestate or homestead laws of this state, from any person dying seized or possessed of the property while a resident of the state, or by any probate homestead set apart from said property.

By will of resident.

(2) When the transfer is by will or intestate laws of property within this state and the decedent was a non-resident of the state at the time of his death.

By will of non-resident.

(3) When the transfer is of property made by a resident, or by a non-resident when such non-resident's property is within this state, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, assignment or gift, made without valuable and adequate consideration in contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor, assignor or donor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death. When any such person, institution or corporation becomes beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy to any property or the income therefrom, by any such transfer, whether made before or after the passage of this act.

Transfer without adequate consideration.

(4) Such taxes shall be and remain a lien upon the property passed or transferred until paid, and the person to whom the property passes or is transferred, and all administrators, executors, and trustees of every estate so transferred or passed, shall be liable for any and all such taxes until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed; provided, that unless sued for within five years after they are due and legally demandable, such taxes shall cease to be a lien as against any bona fide purchaser of real property; and provided, that no such lien shall cease within five years from the date of the passage of this act. The tax so imposed shall be upon the market value of such property at the rates hereinafter prescribed and only upon the excess over the exemptions hereinafter granted.

Taxes to be lien against property.

power of appointment
transfer.

Whenever any person or corporation shall exercise a power of appointment derived from any disposition of property made either before or after the passage of this act, such appointment, when made, shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act, in the same manner as though the property to which such appointment relates belonged absolutely to the donee of such power, and had been bequeathed or devised by such donee by will; and whenever any person or corporation possessing such power of appointment so derived shall omit or fail to exercise the same within the time provided therefor, in whole or in part, a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act shall be deemed to take place to the extent of such omission or failure, in the same manner as though the persons or corporations thereby becoming entitled to the possession or enjoyment of the property to which such power related had succeeded thereto by a will of the donee of the power failing to exercise such power, taking effect at the time of such omission or failure.

of tax.

SEC. 2. When the property or any beneficial interest therein so passed or transferred exceeds in value the exemption hereinafter specified and shall not exceed in value twenty-five thousand dollars the tax hereby imposed shall be:

When beneficiary is husband, etc.

(1) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the husband, wife, lineal issue, lineal ancestor of the decedent or any child adopted, as such in conformity with the laws of this state, or any child to whom such decedent for not less than ten years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent; provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's fifteenth birthday, and was continuous for said ten years thereafter, or any lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, at the rate of one per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

When
brother,
etc.

(2) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or a descendant of a brother or sister of the decedent, a wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter of the decedent, at the rate of two per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

When brother of father,
etc.

(3) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister of the father or mother or a descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the decedent, at the rate of three per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(4) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interests in such property shall be the brother or sister of the grandfather or grandmother or a descendant of the brother or sister of the grandfather or grandmother of the decedent, at the rate of four per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

When brother of grandfather, etc.

(5) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the decedent, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the rate of five per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

Other degrees of consanguinity.

SEC. 3. The foregoing rates in section two are for convenience termed the primary rates. When the market value of such property or interest exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

Rates on property in excess of $25,000.

(1) Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and up to fifty thousand dollars, two times the primary rates.

(2) Upon all in excess of fifty thousand and up to one hundred thousand dollars, three times the primary rates.

(3) Upon all in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and up to five hundred thousand dollars, four times the primary rates.

(4) Upon all in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, five times the primary rates.

SEC. 4. The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed:

(1) All property transferred to societies, corporations, and institutions now or hereafter exempted by law from taxation, or to any public corporation, or to any society, corporation, institution, or association of persons engaged in or devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, public, or other like work (pecuniary profit not being its object or purpose), or to any person, society, corporation, institution, or association of persons in trust for or to be devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, or public purpose, by reason whereof any such person or corporation shall become beneficially entitled, in possession or expectancy, to any such property or to the income thereof shall be exempt.

To charitable, etc., societies.

(2) Property of the clear value of twenty-four thousand ($24,000.00) dollars transferred to the widow or to a minor child of the decedent, and of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars transferred to each of the other persons described in the first subdivision of section two shall be exempt.

To widow

(3) Property of the clear value of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the second subdivision of section two shall be exempt.

(4) Property of the clear value of one thousand five hundred ($1,500.00) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the third subdivision of section two shall be exempt.

(5) Property of the clear value of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the fourth subdivision of section two shall be exempt.

(6) Property of the clear value of five hundred ($500.00) dollars transferred to each of the persons and corporations described in the fifth subdivision of section two shall be exempt.

SEC. 5. When any grant, gift, legacy, devise or succession upon which a tax is imposed by section one of this act shall be an estate, income, or interest for a term of years, or for life, or determinable upon any future or contingent event, or shall be a remainder, reversion, or other expectancy, real or personal, the entire property or fund by which such estate, income, or interest is supported, or of which it is a part, shall be appraised immediately after the death of the decedent, and the market value thereof determined, in the manner provided in section fifteen of this act, and the tax prescribed by this act shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the proper county, and, together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid; provided, that the person or persons, or body politic or corporate, beneficially interested in the property chargeable with said tax, may elect not to pay the same until they shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, and in that case such person or persons, or body politic or corporate, shall execute a bond to the people of the State of California, in a penalty of twice the amount of the tax arising upon personal estate, with such sureties as the said superior court may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax, and interest thereon, at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the proper county and a certified copy thereof shall be immediately transmitted to the state controller; provided, further, that such person shall make a full and verified return of such property to said court, and file the same in the office of the county clerk within one year from the death of the decedent, and within that period enter into such security, and renew the same every five years.

ecutors.

SEC. 6. Whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequest, devise, or residuary legacies exceed what would be a reasonable compensation for their services, such excess over and above the exemptions herein provided for shall be liable to said tax; and the superior court in which the probate proceedings are pending shall fix the compensation.

When
taxes are due

SEC. 7. All taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the decedent, and if the same are paid within eighteen months, no interest shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided, that if said tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax. And in all cases where the executors, administrators, or trustees do not pay such tax within eighteen months from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give a bond in the form and to the effect prescribed in section five of this act for the payment of said tax, together with interest.

SEC. 8. The penalty of ten per cent per annum imposed by section seven hereof, for the non-payment of said tax, shall not be charged in cases where, in the judgment of the court, by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation, or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, can not be settled at the end of eighteen months from the death of the decedent; but in such cases seven per cent per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of said eighteen months until the cause of such delay is removed, after which ten per cent interest per annum shall again be charged until the tax is paid; but litigation to defeat the payment of the tax shall not be considered necessary litigation.

When penalty for non-payment of tax may be suspended.

SEC. 9. Any administrator, executor, or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to the said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money he shall collect the tax thereon, upon the market value thereof, from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver, or be compelled to deliver, any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the executor, administrator, or trustee shall collect said tax from the distributee thereof, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, the executor, administrator, or trustee shall retain the tax upon the whole amount; but if it be not in money he shall make application to the superior court to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

Executor to deduct tax from property before delivery to legatee.

SEC. 10. All executors, administrators, and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of the estate, and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

Executors to sell enough property to pay tax.

SEC. 11. Every sum of money retained by an executor, administrator, or trustee, or paid into his hands, for any tax on property, shall be paid by him, within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the county in which the probate proceedings are pending. Upon the payment to any county treasurer of any tax due under this act, such treasurer shall issue a receipt therefor in triplicate, one copy of which he shall deliver to the person paying said tax, and the original and one copy thereof he shall immediately send to the controller of state, whose duty it shall be to charge the treasurer so receiving the tax with the amount thereof, and said controller shall retain one of said receipts and the other he shall countersign and seal with the seal of his office, and immediately transmit to the clerk of the court fixing such tax. And an executor, administrator, or trustee shall not be entitled to credits in his accounts, nor be discharged from liability for such tax, nor shall said estate be distributed, unless a receipt so sealed and countersigned by the controller, or a copy thereof, certified by him, shall have been filed with the court. Any person shall, upon payment to the county treasurer of the sum of fifty cents, be entitled to a duplicate, or copy, of any receipt that may have been given by said treasurer for the payment of any tax under this act.

tax paid before debts are proven.

SEC. 12. Whenever any debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the said tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir, or next of kin, a proportion of the tax so deducted or paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator, or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the county treasurer or to the state treasurer, or by said county treasurer, or said state treasurer (on warrant of the state controller) if it has been so paid.

When

SEC. 13. If a foreign executor, administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stock or obligation in this state standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, liable to any such tax, the tax shall be paid to the treasurer of the proper county on the transfer thereof. No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons having in possession or under control securities, deposits, or other assets belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent who was a resident or non-resident or belonging to, or standing in the joint names of such a decedent and one or more persons, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer herein provided, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators or legal representatives of said decedent, or to the survivor or survivors when held in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, or upon their order or request, unless notice of the time and place of such intended delivery or transfer be served upon the state controller and county treasurer at least ten days prior to said delivery or transfer; nor shall any such safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons deliver or transfer any securities, deposits or other assets belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent, or belonging to, or standing in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer, without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax and interest which may thereafter be assessed on account of the delivery or transfer of such securities, deposits or other assets, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer. under the provisions of this act, unless the state controller, or person by him in writing authorized so to do, consents thereto in writing. And it shall be lawful for the state controller or the county treasurer, personally or by representatives, to examine said securities, deposits or assets at the time of such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or failure to allow such examination, or failure to retain a sufficient portion or amount to pay such tax and interest as herein provided, or violation of the provisions of this section, shall render said safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons liable to the payment of the amount of the tax and interest due or thereafter to become due upon said securities, deposits or other assets, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interests in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution making the delivery or transfer, and in addition thereto, a penalty of not less than one thousand nor more than twenty thousand dollars; and the payment of such tax and interest thereon, or of the penalty above prescribed, or both, may be enforced in an action brought by the state controller or county treasurer in any court of competent jurisdiction.

State controller may examine securities.

Penalty.

SEC. 14. The state controller shall appoint, and may at his pleasure remove, one or more persons in each county of the state to act as inheritance tax appraisers therein. Every such inheritance tax appraiser (in addition to any fees paid him as appraiser under section 1444 of the Code of Civil Procedure) shall be paid by the county treasurer out of any funds that he may have in his hands on account of said tax, on presentation of a sworn itemized account and on the certificate of the superior court, at the rate of five dollars per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in said inheritance tax appraisement, together with his actual and necessary traveling and other incidental expenses, and the fees paid such witnesses as he shall subpoena before him, which fees shall be the same as those now paid to witnesses subpoenaed to attend in courts of record. Any such appraiser who shall take any fee or reward, other than such as may be allowed him by law, from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin, or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax, or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail ninety days, or both, and in addition thereto the court shall dismiss him from such service.

Superior court to order valuation of property

SEC. 15. (1) The superior court having jurisdiction to determine any such tax, either upon its own motion or upon the application of any interested person, including the state controller or county treasurer, shall by order direct the person, or one of the persons, appointed pursuant to section 14 of this act to fix the clear market value of property of persons whose estates shall be subject to the payment of any tax under this act. Every such appraiser shall forthwith give notice by mail to all persons known to have a claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the state controller and the treasurer of the county in which such tax is to be paid, and to such person or persons as the superior court may by order direct, of the time and place when he will hear all persons interested in the appraisement of such estate. He shall thereupon appraise the said property at its fair market value as herein prescribed; and for the purpose of making said appraisement the said appraiser is hereby authorized to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses before him, to administer oaths, and to take the evidence of such witnesses under oath concerning such property and the value thereof; and he shall make report thereof and of such value in writing to the said superior court, together with the depositions of the witnesses examined, and such other facts in relation thereto as said superior court may order or require; and the value of every future or contingent or limited estate, income, or interest shall, for the purposes of this act, be determined by the rule, method, and standards of mortality and of value that are set forth in the actuaries' combined experience tables of mortality for ascertaining the value of policies of life insurance and annuities, and for the determination of the liabilities of life insurance companies, save that the rate of interest to be assessed in computing the present value of all future interests and contingencies shall be five per centum per annum.

Appraiser may issue subpoenas.

Report to court

Insurance commissioner to determine value of contingent estate.

The insurance commissioner shall, on the application of any superior court, determine the value of any future or contingent estates, income or interest therein limited, contingent, dependent or determinable upon the life or lives of persons in being, upon the facts contained in any such appraiser's report, or other facts to him submitted by said court, and certify the same to the superior court, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the method of computation adopted therein is correct.

No allowance on account of contingent incumbrance.

In estimating the value of any estate or interest in property, to the beneficial enjoyment or possession whereof there are persons or corporations presently entitled thereto, no allowance shall be made on account of any contingent incumbrance thereon, nor on account of any contingency upon the happening of which the estate or property or some part thereof or interest therein might be abridged, defeated or diminished; provided, however, that in the event of such incumbrance taking effect as an actual burden upon the interest of the beneficiary, or in the event of the abridgement, defeat or diminution of said estate or property or interest therein as aforesaid, a return shall be made to the person properly entitled thereto of a proportionate amount of such tax on account of the incumbrance when taking effect, or so much as will reduce the same to the amount which would have been assessed on account of the actual duration or extent of the estate or interest enjoyed. Such return of tax shall be made in the manner provided by section twelve hereof upon order of the court having jurisdiction.

Where any property shall, after the passage of this act, be transferred subject to any charge, estate or interest, determinable by the death of any person, or at any period ascertainable only by reference to death, the increase accruing to any person or corporation upon the extinction or determination of such charge, estate or interest, shall be deemed a transfer of property taxable under the provisions of this act in the same manner as though the person or corporation beneficially entitled thereto had then acquired such increase from the person from whom the title to their respective estates or interests is derived.

Increase deemed a transfer and taxable.

When property is transferred in trust or otherwise, and the rights, interest or estates of the transferees are dependent upon contingencies or conditions whereby they may be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended or abridged, a tax shall be imposed upon said transfer at the highest rate which, on the happening of any of the said contingencies or conditions, would be possible under the provisions of this act, and such tax so imposed shall be due and payable forthwith by the executors or trustees out of the property transferred; provided, however, that on the happening of any contingency whereby the said property, or any part thereof, is transferred to a person or corporation exempt from taxation under the provisions of this act, or to any person taxable at a rate less than the rate imposed and paid, such person or corporation shall be entitled to a return of so much of the tax imposed and paid as is the difference between the amount paid and the amount which said person or corporation should pay under the provisions of this act. Such return of overpayment shall be made in the manner provided by section twelve of this act, upon order of the court having jurisdiction.

Highest rate on property dependent on variable contingencies.

Possible return of overpayment.

Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited.

Where an estate for life or for years can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting.

Report of appraiser.

The report of the appraiser shall be made in duplicate, one of which duplicates shall be filed with the clerk of said court and the other in the office of the state controller.

Superior court to fix value of property and amount of tax.

(2) From such report of appraisal and other proof relating to any such estate, or property, before the superior court, said court shall, by order, forthwith assess and fix the market value of such property and the amount of tax to which the same is liable, and the clerk of said court shall immediately give notice thereof by mail to the county treasurer and the state controller and to all interested persons who shall have furnished said clerk with their names and addresses for the purpose of receiving such notice.

Court may fix tax without appointing appraiser.

But said superior court may determine such tax or taxes without appointing an inheritance tax appraiser: provided, that in such determination, said court shall first fix a day upon which it will hear all parties interested in said property and in said tax, and said court shall order the clerk thereof to give notice of said hearing for such time, not less than ten days, and in such manner as said court shall direct, and said clerk shall at least ten days before said hearing mail a copy of such notice to the county treasurer and a copy to the state controller.

Superior court to have jurisdiction.

SEC. 16. The superior court in the county in which is situate the real property of a decedent who was not a resident of the state, or if there be no real property, then in the county in which any of the personal property of such non-resident is situate, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act, and the court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder shall retain the same, to the exclusion of every other.

Court to cite persons to appear when transfer has been made and tax not paid.

SEC. 17. If it shall appear to the superior court upon petition of the state controller or the county treasurer or any other interested person that any transfer has been made within the meaning of this act and the taxability thereof and the liability for such tax and the amount thereof have not been determined, and that no proceedings are pending in any court in this state wherein the taxability of such transfer, the liability therefor and the amount thereof may be determined, said court shall issue a citation, citing the persons who may appear liable therefor, or known to own any interest in or part of the property transferred, to appear before the court on a day certain, not more than ten weeks from the date of such citation, and show cause why said tax should not be determined and paid. The service of such citation, and the time, manner, and proof thereof, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the enforcement of the determination or decree, shall conform to the provisions of chapter XII of title XI of part three of the Code of Civil Procedure; and the clerk of the court shall, upon the request of the state controller or the treasurer of the county, furnish, without fee, one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same shall be docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the state, without fee, in the same manner and with the same effect as provided by section six hundred and seventy-four of said Code of Civil Procedure for filing a transcript of an original docket. The superior court may hear the said cause upon the relation of the parties and the testimony of witnesses, and evidence produced in open court, and, if the court shall find said property is not subject to any tax, as herein provided, the court shall, by order, so determine; but if it shall appear that said property, or any part thereof, is subject to any such tax, the same shall be appraised and taxed as in other cases.

SEC. 18. If, after the expiration of eighteen months from the accrual of any tax under this article, such tax shall remain due and unpaid, after the refusal or neglect of the persons liable therefor to pay the same, the county treasurer shall notify, or the state controller may notify, the district attorney of the county in writing of such failure or neglect, and such district attorney shall bring and prosecute an action or actions in the name of the state as plaintiff, for the recovery of such tax and for the purpose of enforcing any lien or liens against all or any of the property subject thereto. In any such action the owner of any property or of any interest in property against which the lien of any such tax is sought to be enforced, and any predecessor in interest of any such owner whose title or interest was deaigned through any such decedent by will or succession or by decree of distribution of the estate of such decedent, and any lienor or incumbrancer subsequent to the lien of such tax may be made a party defendant. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made defendants shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or non-joinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases.

(a) Actions may be brought against the state for the purpose of quieting the title to any property, against the lien or claim of lien of any tax or taxes under this act, or for the purpose of having it determined that any property is not subject to any lien for taxes under this act. In any such action, the plaintiffs may be any administrator or executor of the estate or will of any decedent, whether the said estate shall have been fully administered and the estate settled and closed or not, and any heir, legatee or devisee of any such decedent, or trustee of the estate or of any part of the estate of such decedent, or distributee of the estate or of any part of the estate of any such decedent, and any assignee, grantee or successor in interest of any of such persons, and all or any other persons who might be made parties defendant in any action brought by the state under the provisions of this section, and notwithstanding that all or any of the persons enumerated in this section shall or may have assigned, granted, conveyed or otherwise parted with all or any interest in or title to the property, or any thereof, involved in any such claim of lien before the commencement of such action. All or any of the persons in this action enumerated may be joined or united as parties plaintiff. The enumeration in this section of the persons who may be made parties shall not be deemed to be exclusive, but the joinder or non-joinder of parties, except when otherwise herein provided, shall be governed by the rules in equity in similar cases. In all cases any person who might properly be a party plaintiff in any such action who refuses to join as plaintiff may be made a defendant.

Actions commenced in superior court.

(b) All actions under this section shall be commenced in the superior court of the county in which is situated any part of any real property against which any lien is sought to be enforced, or to which title is sought to be quieted against any lien, or claim of lien; but if in said action no lien against real property is sought to be enforced, the action shall be brought in the superior court of the county which has or which had jurisdiction of the administration of the estate of the decedent mentioned herein.

summons

(c) Service of summons in the actions brought against the state shall be made on the controller of state and on the district attorney of the county in which the estate of the decedent mentioned herein is being administered, or has been administered in probate proceedings, and it shall be the duty of said district attorney to defend all such actions.

Procedure.

(d) The procedure and practice in all actions brought under this section, except as otherwise provided in this act, shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure in relation to civil actions, so far as the same shall or may be applicable, including all provisions relating to motions for new trials and appeals.

Remedies
in addition.

(e) The remedies provided in this section shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any remedies provided in the sections preceding this section.

County
treasurer

tax being paid.

SEC. 19. Whenever the treasurer of any county shall have reason to believe that any transfer has been made within the meaning of this act and that a tax due thereon remains undetermined and unpaid, he shall notify the district attorney in writing of such transfer, and the district attorney, if he have probable cause to believe a tax is due, and remains undetermined, shall prosecute the necessary proceeding in the superior court to determine and fix such tax and for the enforcement and collection thereof.

Special attorney for county
treasurer.

The county treasurer in his discretion, for the better furtherance of the purposes of this act, shall be allowed to employ such special attorney or attorneys as he may deem necessary; provided, that such attorney shall be paid for his services out of the fees allowed such treasurer, as provided in section twenty-two of this act.

Sec. 20. Whenever the superior court of any county shall certify that there was probable cause for issuing a citation and taking the proceedings specified in section seventeen or eighteen of this act or for taking any proceeding or action to determine the taxability of any transfer within the meaning of this act, or to secure a fair appraisal of any property taxable under this act, or for taking any appeal from any order or judgment fixing such tax or determining the taxability of any transfer within the meaning of this act, the state treasurer shall pay, or allow, to the treasurer of any county, all expenses incurred therefor, and for his other lawful disbursements that have not otherwise been paid.

State treasurer to allow expenses of action.

SEC. 21. The treasurer of each county shall collect and pay the state treasurer all taxes that may be due and payable under this act, who shall give him a receipt therefor; of which collection and payment he shall make a report, under oath, to the controller, between the first and fifteenth days of May and December of each year, stating for what estate paid, and in such form and containing such particulars as the controller may prescribe; and for all such taxes collected by him and not paid to the state treasurer by the first day of June and January of each year he shall pay interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum.

Taxes collected by county treasurers to be paid controller in May and December.

SEC. 22. The treasurer of each county shall be allowed to retain, on all taxes paid and accounted for by him each year under this act, in addition to his salary or fees now allowed by law, three per centum on the first fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, one and one half per centum on the next fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, and one half of one per centum on all additional sums so paid and accounted for by him; provided, that no county treasurer shall be entitled to retain to his own use more than the sum of two hundred dollars out of the inheritance taxes paid on account of any transfer or transfers made by, or resulting from the death of, any one decedent.

Amounts county treasurers may retain.

SEC. 23. The treasurer of each county, in his discretion, for the better furtherance of the purposes of this act, shall be allowed to employ such special attorney or attorneys, as he may deem necessary, who shall have all the authority conferred upon the district attorney by sections seventeen and eighteen of this act, and such attorney shall be paid for his services out of the money collected under the provisions of this act a reasonable fee to be allowed by the probate court having jurisdiction, said fee, together with the sum retained by the county treasurer, in no one case to exceed the per centum allowed in such case by section twenty-two of this act.

Special attorney for county treasurer.

SEC. 24. The state controller, whenever he shall be cited as a party in any proceeding or action to determine any tax under this act provided, or whenever he shall deem it necessary for the better enforcement of this act to commence or appear in any proceeding or action to determine any tax hereunder, may, by and with the consent and approval of the attorney general, designate and employ counsel to represent him on behalf of the state, and, by and with such consent of

SEC. 28. An act entitled "An act to establish a tax on gifts, legacies, inheritances, bequests, devises, successions and transfers, to provide for its collection, and to direct the disposition of its proceeds; to provide for the enforcement of liens created by this act and for suits to quiet title against claims of lien arising hereunder; to repeal an act entitled 'An act to establish a tax on collateral inheritances, bequests, and devises, to provide for the collection, and to direct the disposition of its proceeds,' approved March 23, 1893, and all amendments thereto, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved March 20, 1905, and all amendments thereto, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby expressly repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall in no wise affect any suit, prosecution or court proceeding pending at the time this act shall take effect, or any right which the State of California may have at the time of the taking effect of this act, to claim a tax upon any property under the provisions of the act or acts hereby repealed, for which no proceeding has been commenced; nor affect any appeal, right of appeal in any suit pending, or orders fixing tax, existing in this state at the time of the taking effect of this act.

SEC. 29. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 396.

An act to amend sections one thousand seventy-five, one thousand seventy-seven and one thousand seventy-eight of the Political Code, relating to boards of election commissioners and providing for clerks and secretaries of such boards.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand seventy-five of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1075. The board of supervisors of each county is ex officio the board of election commissioners in and for the county, and the common council, or other governing body of a city, is ex officio the board of election commissioners in and for such city; provided, that in any city and county of this state having four hundred thousand or more inhabitants as shown by the

last federal census, the board of election commissioners shall consist of four persons, citizens and electors of such city and county, each of whom must be a freeholder, and have been an actual resident of said city and county at least five years preceding his appointment, who shall be appointed by the mayor; provided, that the respective executive committees of the state committees of either of the political parties who may be entitled under the provisions of this act to have members of their party appointed as members of said board of election commissioners, shall have the right, within ten days after such appointment, to file with the mayor a written protest against the appointment of a member of said board of election commissioners, as having been appointed as one of affiliation with said party, on the grounds that said appointee is not a person of well-known affiliation and standing with said party from which he has been appointed; and the mayor thereupon shall make another appointment in the place of the party against whom the protest has been filed. The members of said commission shall be ineligible to any other office or public employment, elective or appointive, during the term for which they have been appointed and for one year thereafter. Two of the persons so appointed shall be selected from the body of citizens and electors of such city and county, of known affiliation with and belonging to the political party or organization which at the last presidential election held in such city and county, polled within said city and county, the highest number of votes cast for the candidates of the political party for presidential electors at such election; and the two remaining members of said board shall be selected from the body of electors of such city and county, of known affiliation with and belonging to the political party which, at the last presidential election held at such city and county, polled within such city and county, the next highest number of votes cast for the candidates for presidential electors of a political party. The members of said commission shall, every two years, choose one of their number as chairman; in the event of their failure to select a chairman in five ballots, the oldest of said members in point of years shall be chairman. The persons first appointed as such board of election commissioners shall be appointed on the first Monday of July, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and shall each hold their office for the term of four years from and after the date of their appointment, except that of those first appointed, two (one belonging to each political party or organization as aforesaid), to be designated by the mayor, shall retire at the end of two years, when their successors shall be appointed by the mayor. Whenever any vacancy shall occur in the said board, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment as herein prescribed, and the persons so appointed to fill such vacancy shall be selected in the same manner and from the same political party or organization with which his predecessor in office affiliated and belonged at the time of his appointment thereto, and shall hold office for the balance of the unexpired term to which he was appointed. The salary of each member of the board of election commissioners in and for a city and county, having four hundred thousand or more inhabitants as shown by the last federal census shall be seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum, payable, in equal monthly installments, out of the treasury of such city and county, in the same manner as the salaries of other officers of said city and county, are paid.

SEC. 2. Section one thousand seventy-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1077. The county clerk is ex officio clerk of the board of election commissioners of the county, and the clerk or secretary of the common council or other governing body of a city is ex officio the clerk or secretary of the board of election commissioners of the city; provided, that in cities and counties, of this state having four hundred thousand or more inhabitants, the board of election commissioners shall appoint a suitable person, not one of their own number, to act as secretary, at a salary not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars per month, payable in the same manner as the salaries of the commissioners are paid. Such secretary shall hold his office during the pleasure of the said board. The secretary of the board of election commissioners shall not, during the term of his office, engage in any other calling or trade, or profession or employment, and shall be ineligible to be a candidate or delegate to any convention which shall nominate candidates for office, and he shall be ineligible to be voted for for any office while acting as such secretary; and if these provisions of the law are not obeyed, it shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners forthwith to declare his place vacated, and the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner and terms as provided for in the original appointment. Each member of the board of election commissioners, and the secretary elected by said board of election commissioners, shall, within fifteen days after receiving notice of their appointment, take the usual oath of office before any judge of the superior court of said city and county, and said oaths of office shall be filed with the county clerk of said city and county. The board of election commissioners shall have the power to appoint all deputies, and such clerks as may be necessary, and to fix their salaries at the time of their employment. All deputies and clerks thus appointed shall be equally divided between the representatives of the political parties that polled the highest and the next to the highest number of votes at the preceding presidential election. The salaries of all deputies and clerks that may be appointed by said board of election commissioners shall be payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city and county, in the same manner as the salaries of other officers of such city and county are paid. The members of the board of election commissioners, the secretary of the board of election commissioners, all deputies and clerks appointed by the board of election commissioners, and all election officers, shall have the power to administer oaths; and any false oaths taken before them, or either of them, shall be deemed to be perjury, and the person so convicted thereof shall be punished according to law.

SEC. 3. Section one thousand seventy-eight of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of clerks.

1078. The county clerk of each county, and the clerk or secretary of the common council of a city, shall, within their respective counties or cities, exercise all the powers conferred, and shall discharge and perform all the duties imposed by this code, or by any law of this state, upon such officers in respect to the conduct, management, and supervision of elections, and matters pertaining to elections, held within the respective counties or cities, as the same are now or may be hereafter prescribed by law; provided, that in any city and county, having four hundred thousand or more inhabitants, the secretary of the board of election commissioners, under the direction of the board of election commissioners, shall exercise all the powers conferred, and shall discharge and perform all the duties imposed by this code, or by any law of this state, upon the county clerk or any other officer in such cities and counties, in respect to the conduct and supervision of matters relating to elections held within such cities and counties, as the same are now or may be hereafter prescribed by law.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 397.

An act to provide for work in and upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks within municipalities, and upon property and rights of way owned by municipalities, and for establishing and changing the grades of any such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and providing for the issuance and payment of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost thereof and providing a method for the payment of such bonds.

Public
defined

SECTION 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places or courts, in the municipalities of this state now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be open or dedicated to public use, shall be deemed and held to be open public streets, lanes, alleys, places or courts, for the purpose of this act, and the city council of each municipality is hereby empowered to establish and change the grades of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, and fix the width thereof, and is hereby invested with jurisdiction to order to be done thereon any of the work mentioned in this act under the proceedings hereinafter described.

What work
done

SEC. 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole or any portion or portions, either in length or width of any one or more of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places or public ways of any such city graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, graveled or regraveled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, oiled or recoiled, and to order the construction or reconstruction therein of sidewalks, crosswalks, culverts, bridges, gutters, curbs, steps, parkings and parkways, sewers, ditches, drains, conduits and channels for sanitary and drainage purposes or either or both thereof, with outlets, cesspools, manholes, catch basins, flush tanks, septic tanks, connecting sewers, ditches, drains, conduits, channels and other appurtenances; pipes, hydrants and appliances for fire protection; tunnels, viaducts, conduits and subways, breakwaters, levees, bulkheads and walls of rock or other material to protect the same from overflow or injury by water; and poles, posts, wires, pipes, conduits, lamps and other suitable or necessary appliances for the purpose of lighting said streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places or public ways; the planting of trees thereon, and the construction or reconstruction in, over or through property or rights of way owned by such city, of tunnels, sewers, ditches, drains, conduits, and channels for sanitary and drainage purposes or either or both thereof, with necessary outlets, cesspools, manholes, catch basins, flush tanks, septic tanks, connecting sewers, ditches, drains, conduits, channels and other appurtenances, pipes, hydrants and appliances for fire protection and breakwaters, levees, bulkheads and walls of rock or other material to protect the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, public ways and other property in any such city, from overflow by water, and to order any work to be done which shall be deemed necessary to improve the whole or any portion of such streets, avenues, sidewalks, lanes, alleys, courts, places, or public ways or property or rights of way of such city.

SEC. 3. Before ordering any work done or improvement made, which is authorized by this act, the city council shall pass a resolution of intention so to do referring to the street by its lawful or official name, or the name by which it is commonly known, and briefly describing the work. Said resolution of intention shall be published twice in one or more daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said council for that purpose. The city council may include in one proceeding, under one resolution of intention and in one contract, any of the different kinds of work mentioned in this act and any number of streets and rights of way or portions thereof, and it may except therefrom any of said work already done upon a street to the official grade. The lots and portions of lots fronting upon said excepted work already done shall not be included in the frontage assessment for the class of work from which the exception is made; provided, that this shall not be construed so as to affect the special provisions as to grading contained in subdivision nine of section twenty of this act.

SEC. 4. Whenever the contemplated work or improvement, in the opinion of the city council, is of more than local or ordinary public benefit, or whenever, according to estimate to be furnished by the city engineer, the total estimated costs and expenses thereof would exceed one half the total assessed value of the lots and lands assessed, if assessed upon the lots or land fronting upon said proposed work or improvement, according to the valuation fixed by the last assessment roll whereon it was assessed for taxes for municipal purposes, and allowing a reasonable depth from such frontage for lots or lands assessed in bulk, the city council may make the expense of such work or improvement chargeable upon a district, which the said city council shall, in its resolution of intention, declare to be the district benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof.

SEC. 5. The street superintendent shall immediately after the adoption of the resolution of intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, or when the work to be done is only upon an entire crossing or intersection or any part thereof, in front of each quarter block or irregular block liable to be assessed, notices of the passage of said resolution. In case the work is chargeable upon a district as herein provided, copies of said notice shall also be posted along all the streets within such district at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart but not less than three in all on each street. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Improvement," in letters of not less than one inch in length; and shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution of intention, its date, and briefly, the work or improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution of intention for further particulars. Upon the completion of the posting of the notices of improvement the superintendent of streets shall forthwith cause to be filed in the office of the city clerk an affidavit stating the fact of the completion of the posting of such notices and the date of such completion and thereafter all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the date of the completion of such posting.

SEC. 6. At any time within fifteen days after the date of the second publication of the resolution of intention, or if the posting of the notice of improvement has been completed after the second publication of the resolution of intention, then within fifteen days after the date of the completion of the posting of the said notice of improvement, any owner of property liable to be assessed for said work may make written protest against the proposed work or against the extent of the district to be assessed, or both. Such protest must be in writing and be delivered to the said clerk of the city council, who shall endorse thereon the date of its receipt by him. At the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of the time within which said protest may be so made, the city council shall proceed to hear and pass upon all protests so made and its decision shall be final and conclusive; provided, however, that when the protest is against the proposed work, and the cost thereof is to be assessed upon the property fronting thereon, and the city council finds that such protest is made by the owners of a majority of the property fronting on the proposed work, or when the protest is against the proposed work and the cost thereof is to be assessed upon the property within a district, and the city council finds that such protest is made by the owners of more than one half of the area of the property to be assessed for said improvements, no further proceedings shall be taken for a period of six months from the date when said protest was received by the said clerk of said city council, unless the said protest be overruled by an affirmative vote of four fifths of the members of the city council. The city council may adjourn said hearing from time to time.

When jurisdiction is acquired.

SEC. 7. When no protests have been delivered to the clerk of the city council within fifteen days after the date of the second publication of the resolution of intention, or if the posting of the notice of improvement has been completed after the second publication of the resolution of intention, then within fifteen days after the date of the completion of the posting of the said notice of improvement, or when a protest shall have been found by said city council to be insufficient, or shall have been overruled, or, when a protest against the extent of the proposed district, shall have been heard and denied, immediately thereupon the city council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the proposed improvements.

SEC. 8. Before passing any resolution for the construction of improvements, plans and specifications and careful estimates of the costs and expenses thereof shall be furnished to said city council, if required by it, by the city engineer of said city: and for the work of constructing sewers, specifications shall always be furnished by him.

SEC. 9. In all resolutions, notices, orders and determinations subsequent to resolution of intention and notice of improvement, it shall be sufficient to briefly describe the work or the assessment district or both and to refer to the resolution of intention for further particulars.

SEC. 10. Before the awarding of any contract by the city council for doing any work authorized by this act, the city council shall pass a resolution ordering the work. Notice with specifications, shall be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door of said council, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered. Notice inviting such proposals, and referring to the specifications posted or on file, shall be published twice in a daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, designated by the council for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. The time fixed for the opening of bids shall be not less than ten days from the time of the first publication or posting of said notice. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the city certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council, and said council shall, in open session publicly open, examine and declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council. The city council may reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid. If the bids are rejected or no bids received the city council may within six months thereafter re-advertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, without further proceedings, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bid so rejected. But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the city clerk of said city until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter provided, has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three fourths part of the frontage, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work or improvement, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said city and shall be collected by it and paid into the general fund, and any bond forfeited may be prosecuted, and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund.

SEC. 11. Notice of such award of contracts shall be posted for five days, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of proposals for said work, and shall be published twice in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city and designated by said city council, or in cities where there is no daily newspaper by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated; provided, however, that in case there is no newspaper printed or published in any such city, then such notice of award shall only be kept posted as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 12. The owners of three fourths of the frontage of lots and lands liable to be assessed, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners or agents, shall not be required to present sealed proposals or bids, but may, within ten days after the first publication of said notice of said award, elect to take said work and enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price at which the same has been awarded, and all work done under such contract shall be subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance of the city council. Should the said owners fail to elect to take said work, and to enter into a written contract therefor within ten days, or to commence the work within fifteen days after the date of such written contract, and to prosecute the same with diligence to completion, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the original bidder to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices specified in his bid. All contracts entered into between the owners of any property and the contractor or his agents shall be duplicate and shall contain all items of expense and the total contract price therefor, and no other payment shall be allowed to or recovered by such contractor, other than as itemized and set forth in said contract. The original of such contract shall be held by the contractor or his agent, and the duplicate shall be held by the owners, who must receipt to the agent or collector therefor.

SEC. 13. But if such original bidder neglects, fails or refuses, for fifteen days after the first publication of the notice of award, to enter into the contract, then the city council, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids, as in the first instance, and award the contract for said work to the then lowest regular bidder. Should no bids be received in response to this second call for proposals, the council may again advertise for bids under the same proceedings, at any time within six months from the time set for the last reception of bids, and let the contract to the then lowest bidder, and such delay shall in no way affect the validity of any of the proceedings or assessments levied thereunder. The bids of all persons and the election of all owners, as aforesaid, who have failed to enter into the contract, as herein provided, shall be rejected in any bidding or election subsequent to the first for the same work.

SEC. 14. If the owner or contractor, who may have taken any contract, does not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the city council may give him, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the city council which may relet the unfinished portion of said work, after pursuing the formalities prescribed hereinbefore for the letting of the whole in the first instance.

Delinquent contractors.

SEC. 15. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for street work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets of said city, with two or more sureties and payable to such city, in a sum not less than twenty-five per cent of the amount of the contract, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract; and the sureties shall justify before any person competent to administer an oath, in double the amount mentioned in said bond, over and above all statutory exemptions.

Bond for faithful performance.

SEC. 16. At any time within ten days from the date of the first publication of the notice of award of contract, any owner of, or other person having any interest in any lot or land liable to assessment, who claims that any of the previous acts or proceedings, relating to said improvement are irregular, defective, erroneous or faulty, may file with the clerk of the city council a written notice specifying in what respect said acts and proceedings are irregular, defective, erroneous or faulty. Said notice shall state that it is made in pursuance of this section. All objections to any act or proceeding occurring prior to the date of the first publication of the aforesaid notice of award, in relation to said improvement, not made in writing and in the manner and at the time aforesaid, shall be waived; provided, the resolution of intention to do the work has been actually published and the notices of improvement posted as provided in this act.

Protesting erroneous proceedings.

SEC. 18. The superintendent of streets is hereby authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts, and to receive all bonds authorized by this act, and to do any other act, either express or implied, that pertains to the street department under this act; and he shall fix the time for the commencement, which shall not be more than fifteen days from the date of the contract, and for the completion of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with diligence from day to day thereafter to completion, and he may extend the time so fixed from time to time, under the direction of the city council. The work must, in all cases, be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets and the materials used shall comply with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, and all contracts made therefor must contain a provision to that effect, and also express notice, that, in no case, except where it is otherwise provided by law or the city charter will the city, or any officer thereof, be liable for any portion of the expense, nor for any delinquency of persons or property assessed. The city council may, by ordinance, prescribe general rules directing the superintendent of streets and the contractor as to the materials to be used, and the mode of executing the work, under all contracts thereafter made. The assessment and apportionment of the expenses of all such work, or improvement shall be made by the superintendent of streets in the mode provided by this act.

or labor upon the said improvement, whose claim has not been paid by the said contractor, company or corporation, to whom the said contract was awarded, may, within thirty days from the time said improvement is completed, file with the superintendent of streets a verified statement of his or its claim, together with a statement that the same, or some part thereof, has not been paid. At any time within ninety days after the filing of such claim, the person, company or corporation, filing the same, or their assigns, may commence an action on said bond for the recovery of the amount due on said claim, together with the costs incurred in said action, and a reasonable attorney fee, to be fixed by the court, for the prosecution thereof.

SEC. 20. Subdivision 1. The expenses incurred for any work authorized by this act (which expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, nor include work which shall have been declared in the resolution of intention to be assessed on a district benefited) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as otherwise in this act specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work.

Subdivision 2. The expense of the work done on main street crossings shall be assessed at a uniform rate per front foot of the quarter blocks and irregular blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossings, and separately upon the whole of each lot or portion of a lot having any frontage in the said blocks fronting on said main streets, half way to the next main street crossing, or to the end of such street if it does not meet another, and all the way on said blocks to a boundary line of the city where no such crossing intervenes, but only according to its frontage in said quarter blocks and irregular blocks.

Subdivision 3. Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expenses of the work done on one half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on the same, according to the frontage of such lots on said main streets, and the expense of the other half of the width of said street upon the lot or lots fronting on the latter half of the street at such termination.

Subdivision 4. Where any alley or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all lots or portions of lots halfway on said alley or subdivision street to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

in all directions, halfway to the next street, place or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Subdivision 6. Where a subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court terminates in another street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, the expense of the work done on one half of the width of the subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, half way, on each side, respectively, to the next street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court or to the end of such street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, if it does not meet another, and the other one half of the width upon the lots fronting such termination.

Subdivision 7. Where any work mentioned in this act (man-holes, sewers, cesspools, culverts, crosswalks, piling and capping excepted) is done on one side of the center line of any street, or sewerage or re-sewerage is ordered to be done under the sidewalk on only one side of any street for any length thereof, the assessment for the expenses thereof shall be made only upon the lots and lands fronting nearest upon that side of the street and for intervening intersections only upon the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering upon that side.

property.

Subdivision 8. Whenever any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to the United States, or to the State of California, or any lot, piece or parcel of land belonging to any county, city, public agent, mandatory of the government, school board, educational, penal or reform institution, or institution for the feeble-minded or the insane, and being in use in the performance of any public function, shall front upon the proposed work or improvement, or be included within the district declared by the city council in its resolution of intention to be the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, said city council may, in the resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall be omitted from the assessment thereafter to be made to cover the costs and expenses of said work or improvement. In the event that said lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, shall by said resolution be omitted from the assessment, then the total expense of all work done shall be assessed on the remaining lots fronting on the work or improvement, or lying within the limits of the assessment district, without regard to such omitted lots, pieces or parcels of land. In the event that the council shall, in such resolution of intention, declare that said lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned as aforesaid, or any of them, shall be included in the assessment, or in the event that no declaration is made respecting such lots, pieces or parcels of land, or any of them, then said city shall be liable for such sum or sums as may thereafter be assessed against any such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used, and so included in the assessment by reason of the aforesaid declaration, or such lots, pieces or parcels of land so owned and used respecting which the resolution of intention makes no declaration, which shall be payable by the said city out of the general fund unless the legislative body shall in its resolution of intention designate another fund.

Subdivision 9. It shall be lawful for the owner or owners of lots or lands fronting upon any street, the width and grade of which have been established by the city council, to perform, at his or their own expense (after obtaining permission from the council so to do, but before said council has passed its resolution of intention to order grading inclusive of this), any grading upon said street, to its full width, or to the center line thereof, and to its grade as then established, and thereupon to procure, at his or their own expense, a certificate from the city engineer, setting forth the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling made by him or them in said grading, and the proportions performed by each owner, and that the same is done to the established width and grade of said street, or to the center line thereof, and thereafter to file said certificate with the superintendent of streets, which certificate the superintendent shall record in a book kept for that purpose in his office, properly indexed. Whenever thereafter the city council orders the grading of said street, or any portion thereof, on which any grading certified as aforesaid has been done, the bids and contracts must express the price by the cubic yard for cutting and filling in grading; and the said owner or owners and his or their successors in interest, shall be entitled to credit, on the assessment upon his or their lots and lands fronting on said streets for the grading thereof, to the amount of the cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in his or their certificate, at the prices named in the contract for said cutting and filling; or, if the grade meanwhile has been duly altered, only for so much of said certified work as would be required for grading to the altered grade; provided, however, that such owner or owners shall not be entitled to such credit as may be in excess of the assessments for grading upon the lots and lands owned by him or them, and proportionately assessed for the whole of said grading; and the superintendent of streets shall include in the assessment for the whole of said grading upon the same grade the number of cubic yards of cutting and filling set forth in any and all certificates so recorded in his office, or for the whole of said grading to the duly altered grade so much of said certified work as would be required for grading thereto, and shall enter corresponding credits, deducting the same as payments upon the amounts assessed against the lots and lands owned, respectively, by said certified owners and their successors in interest; provided, however, that he shall not so include any grading quantities or credit any sums in excess of the proportionate assessments for the whole of the grading which are made upon any lots and lands fronting upon said street and belonging to any such certified owners or their successors in interest. Whenever any owner or owners of any lots and lands fronting on any street shall have heretofore done, or shall hereafter do any work (excepting grading) on such street, in front of any block, at his or their own expense, and the city council shall subsequently order any work to be done of the same class in front of the same block, said work so done at the expense of such owner or owners shall be excepted from the order ordering work to be done; provided, that the work so done at the expense of such owner or owners, shall be upon the official grade, and in condition satisfactory to the street superintendent at the time said order is passed.

Diagram of assess-
district.

Subdivision 10. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the cost and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the city engineer shall make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the city council, the clerk shall certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets of said city, who shall, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets or city council, on appeal, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece, or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots, or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said assessment district benefited thereby, to wit: Upon each respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section, and the provisions of subdivisions one, two, three, four, five, six and seven of this section shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this subdivision.

property.

Subdivision 11. The terms, lot, lands, piece or parcel of land wherever mentioned in this act shall be deemed to include and shall include property owned or controlled by any person, firm or corporation as a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way, and whenever a railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall front on or about or parallel or be included within or divide longitudinally any street improved under the provisions of this act or shall be included within any district to be assessed for the cost of any improvement provided in this act, such railroad right of way

(whether the same is owned in fee or as an easement) shall be included in the warrant, assessment and diagram and shall be assessed in the manner and with the same effect as other lots, lands or pieces or parcels of land are assessed as provided in this act, and such railroad, street or interurban railroad right of way shall be subject to sale for non-payment of assessments as in this act provided.

SEC. 21. After the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the street superintendent of said city, or city council on appeal, the street superintendent shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract (including all incidental expenses), in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section according to the character of the work done: or, if any direction and decision be given by said council on appeal, then in conformity with such direction and decision, which assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with all incidental expenses, the rate per front foot assessed, if the assessment be made per front foot, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot, or portions of a lot (if known to the street superintendent); if unknown the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot, and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot or portion or portions of a lot assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place or court, on which any work has been done, and showing the relative location of each district, lot, or portion of lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessments, and showing the number of feet fronting, or number of lots assessed, for said work contracted for and performed.

Making the assessment.

Owner unknown.

SEC. 22. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets, and countersigned by the mayor of said city. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

Warrant.

FORM OF WARRANT.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets), of the city of county of (or city and county of), and State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said superintendent of streets, do authorize and empower (name of contractor) (his or their) agents or assigns, to demand and receive, the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be (his or their) warrant for the same.

Countersigned by (name of mayor).

Recording
warrant,
etc.

SEC. 23. Said warrant, and assessment, together with the certificate, if any, of the city engineer of the quantity and character of the work done, shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets, the diagram shall there be filed. When so recorded the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording, unless sooner discharged; and from and after the date of said recording of any warrant, assessment and certificate, all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of the record thereof. After said warrant, assessment, and certificate are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent, or assigns, on demand, but not until after the payment to the said superintendent of streets of the incidental expenses not previously paid by the contractor, or his assigns: and by virtue of said warrant said contractor, or his agent or assigns, shall be authorized to demand and receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in such contracts and assessments.

Demand-
ment.

SEC. 24. The contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the amount assessed to each. If any payment be made, the contractor, his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment, and shall also give a separate receipt if demanded. Whenever the person so assessed, or their agents, can not conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "Unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed.

return.

SEC. 25. The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets within thirty days after its date, with a return indorsed thereon, signed by the contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand, and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid, in whole or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of streets shall record the return so made, in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment, and also the original contract referred to therein, if it has not already been recorded at full length in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office, and shall sign the record. The said superintendent of streets is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment list and warrant issued by him, and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, that no such payment so made after suit has been commenced, without the consent of the plaintiff in the action, shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and he may release any assessment upon the books of his office, on the payment to him of the amount of the assessment against any lot with interest, or on the production to him of the receipt of the party or his assigns to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section, he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed; provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss a duplicate can be issued, upon which a return may be made, with the same effect as if the original had been so returned. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid, said interest to be computed from the date of the recording of the return.

Failure to
warrant.

SEC. 26. The owners, whether named in the assessment or not, the contractor, or his assigns, and all other persons directly interested in any work done under this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of streets in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or having or making any objection to the correctness or legality of the assessment or other act, determination, or proceedings of the superintendent of streets, shall, within thirty days after the date of the warrant, appeal to the city council, as provided in this section, by briefly stating their objections in writing, and filing the same with the clerk of said city council. Notice of the time and place of the hearing, as fixed by the council, briefly referring to the work contracted to be done, or other subject of appeal, and to the acts, determinations, or proceedings objected to or complained of, shall be posted conspicuously by the clerk, on or near the chamber door of the council chambers, for five days. Upon such appeal, the said city council may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the superintendent of streets relative to said work; may confirm, amend, set aside, alter, modify or correct the assessment in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the city council; and may instruct and direct the superintendent of streets to correct the warrant, assessment, or diagram in any particular, or to make and issue a new warrant, assessment, and diagram, to conform to the decisions of said city council in relation thereto, at their option. All the decisions and determinations of said city council, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities, and irregularities which said city council might have avoided, or have remedied, during the progress of the proceedings, or which it can at that time remedy. No assessment, warrant, diagram or affidavit of demand and non-payment, after the issue of the same, and no proceedings prior to the assessment, shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality, or other defect in the same, where the resolution of intention of the council to do the work, has been actually published as herein provided, and said notices of improvement have been posted along the line of the work, as provided in section five of this act, before the passage of the resolution ordering the work to be done.

Con-
suit.

SEC. 27. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the day of the date of the warrants, as herein provided, or if an appeal is taken to the city council, as provided in section twenty-six of this act, at any time after five days from the decision of said council, or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered, or modified, as provided in said section twenty-six (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant), the contractor or his assignee may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots, or portions of lots, assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment, and diagram, or any day thereafter during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid. And in all cases of recovery under the provisions of this act, where personal demand has been made upon the owner or his agent but not otherwise, the plaintiff shall recover such sum as the court may fix, in addition to the taxable cost as attorney's fees, but not any percentage upon said recovery. And when suit has been brought, after a personal demand has been made and a refusal to pay such assessment so demanded, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have and recover the sum of fifteen dollars as attorney's fees, in addition to all taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor. Suit may be brought in the superior court within whose jurisdiction the city is in which said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands, the owners thereof can not, with due diligence, be found, the service of each of said actions may be had in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. It shall be competent to bring a single action under any such assessment irrespective of the number of lots assessed where the parties defendant are identical, and where separate actions are brought, the same may be consolidated by order of the court. The said warrant, assessment, certificate and diagram, with the affidavit of demand and non-payment, shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets and city council upon which said warrant, assessment, and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action.

SEC. 28. Whenever, in any suit, the lien of an assessment or reassessment, or of a bond issued for the cost of such work, shall be held invalid for any cause arising subsequent to the publication and posting of the resolution of intention and the posting of the notices of improvement along the line of work, or because the work or any part thereof is not sufficiently described in the resolution of intention, the contractor or his assigns, or the holder of such bond, shall have the right, within sixty days thereafter, to apply for and receive a new assessment for the cost of the work done and sufficiently described in the resolution of intention, or specifications on file, such cost to be assessed upon the property and in the same manner as provided in sections twenty and twenty-one of this act; and the street superintendent shall, within twenty days after such application, make and deliver to said applicant a new assessment, warrant and diagram in accordance with the law governing the issuance of originals of such documents, and the mayor shall in like manner countersign the said warrant, which reassessment shall be a lien on the property so assessed for two years from the date of the recording of said reassessment and warrant and be enforced in the same manner as an original assessment would be enforced. If an appeal be taken from the judgment in which such an assessment is held invalid, the time herein provided for making application for a new assessment shall not begin until such case be in some manner finally disposed of.

SEC. 29. The court in which said suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said courts; and on appeal, the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits now pending or hereafter brought under this act to recover street assessments, the proceedings therein shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this act, and also, when not in conflict herewith, by the codes of this state.

SEC. 30. The city council, instead of waiting until the completion of the improvement, may, in its discretion, and not otherwise, upon the completion of two blocks or more of any improvement, order the street superintendent to make an assessment for the proportionate amount of the contract completed, and thereupon proceedings and rights of collection of such proportionate amount shall be had as provided in the preceding sections.

Partial assessment.

SEC. 31. When any portion of any improved street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place in said city, or any sidewalk constructed thereon shall be out of repair, or pending reconstruction, and in condition to endanger persons or property passing thereon, or in condition to interfere with the public convenience in the use thereof, it shall be the duty of said superintendent of streets to require, by notice in writing, to be delivered to them or to their agents personally, or left on the premises, the owners or occupants of lots or portions of lots fronting on said portion of said street, avenue, alley, lane, court, or place, or said portion of said sidewalks so out of repair or needing reconstruction as aforesaid, to repair or reconstruct, or to do both, forthwith, said portion of said street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place, to the center line of said street in front of the property of which he is the owner, or tenant, or occupant; and said superintendent of streets shall particularly specify in said notice what work is required to be done, and how the same is to be done, and what material shall be used in said repairs, or reconstructions, or both. If said repairs, or reconstructions, or both, be not commenced within three days after notice given as aforesaid, and diligently and without interruption prosecuted to completion, the said superintendent of streets may, under authority from said city council, make such repairs, reconstructions, or both, or enter into a contract with any suitable person, at the expense of the owner, tenant, or occupant, after the specification for the doing of said work shall have been conspicuously posted by him in his office for two days, inviting bids for the doing of said work, which bids shall be delivered to him at his office on or before the second day of said posting, and opened by him on the next day following the expiration of said two days of posting, and the contract by him be awarded to the lowest bidder, if such lowest bid, in the judgment of said street superintendent, shall be reasonable. All of said bids shall be preserved in his office and open at all times after the letting of the contract to the inspection of all persons, and such owner, tenant, or occupant shall be liable to pay said contract price. Such work shall be commenced within twenty-four hours after the contract shall have been signed, and completed without delay to the satisfaction of said street superintendent. Upon the completion of said repairs, or reconstruction, or both, by said contractors as aforesaid, to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, said superintendent of streets shall make and deliver to said contractor a certificate to the effect that said repairs, or reconstruction, or both, have been properly made by said contractor to the grade, and that the charges for the same are reasonable and just, and that he, said superintendent, has accepted the same.

repairs.

SEC. 32. If the expenses of the work and material for such improvement, after the completion thereof, and the delivery to said contractor of said certificate, be not paid to the contractor so employed, or his agent or assignee, on demand, the said contractor, or his assignee, shall have the right to sue such owner, tenant, or occupant, for the amount contracted to be paid; and said certificate of the superintendent of streets shall be prima facie evidence of the amount claimed for said work and materials, and of the right of the contractor to recover for the same in such action. Said certificate shall be recorded by the said superintendent of streets in a book kept by him in his office for that purpose, properly indexed, and the sum contracted to be paid shall be a lien, the same as provided in section twenty-three of this act, and may be enforced in the same manner.

SEC. 33. In addition, and as cumulative to the remedies above given, the city council shall have power, by resolution or ordinance, to prescribe the penalties that shall be incurred by any owner or person liable, or neglecting, or refusing to make repairs when required, as provided in section thirty-one of this act, which fines and penalties shall be recovered for the use of the city by prosecution in the name of the people of the State of California in the court having jurisdiction thereof, and may be applied, if deemed expedient by the said council, in the payment of the expenses of any such repairs not otherwise provided for.

Additional penalty for neglecting repairs.

SEC. 34. Any tenant or lessee of the lands or lots liable may pay the amount assessed against the property of which he is the tenant or lessee under the provisions of this act, or he may pay the price agreed on to be paid under the provisions of section thirty of this act, either before or after suit brought, together with costs, to the contractor, or his assigns, or he may redeem the property, if sold on execution or decree for the benefit of the owner, within the time prescribed by law, and deduct the amount so paid from the rents due and to become due from him, and for any sums so paid beyond the rents due from him, he shall have a lien upon and may retain possession of the said land and lots until the amount so paid and advanced be satisfied, with legal interest, from accruing rents, or by payment by the owner.

Tenant may pay assessment.

SEC. 35. Notices in writing which are required to be given by the superintendent of streets, under the provisions of this act, may be served by any person, with the permission of the superintendent of streets, and the fact of such service shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, taken before the superintendent of streets, who for that purpose, and for all other purposes, and in all cases where a verification is required under the provisions of this act, is hereby authorized to administer oaths, or other person authorized to administer oaths or such notices may be delivered by the superintendent of streets himself, who must also verify the service thereof, and who shall keep a record, of the fact of giving such notices, when delivered by himself personally, and also of the notices and proof of service when delivered by any other person.

Service of notice.

SEC. 36. Whenever any street, or portion of a street, has been or shall hereafter be fully constructed and substantially paved in accordance with specifications adopted by the council, and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets and of the city council, and is in good condition throughout, and a sewer, gas pipes, and water pipes are laid therein, under such regulations as the city council shall adopt, the same may be accepted by the city council, by ordinance, for all time or for a term of years, as the council may determine, and thereafter the same shall be kept in repair and improved by the said municipality, for the period of such acceptance; the expense thereof, together with the assessment for street work done in front of city property, to be paid out of a fund to be provided by said council for that purpose; provided, that the city council shall not accept any portion of the street less than the entire width of the roadway (including the curbing), and one block in length, or one entire crossing; and provided, further, that the city council may partially or conditionally accept any street, or portion of a street, without a sewer, or gas pipes, or water pipes therein, if the ordinance of acceptance expressly states that the council deems such sewer, or gas pipes, or water pipes, to be then unnecessary, but the lots of land previously, or at any time, assessable for the cost of constructing a sewer, shall remain and be assessable for such cost, and for the cost of repairs and restoration of the street damaged in the said construction, whenever said council shall deem a sewer to be necessary, and shall order it to be constructed, the same as if no partial or conditional acceptance had ever been made. The superintendent of streets shall keep in his office a register of all streets accepted by the city council under this section, which register shall be indexed for easy reference thereto.

Records of street superintendent.

SEC. 37. The superintendent of streets shall keep a public office in some convenient place within the municipality, and such records as may be required by the provisions of this act. The records so kept and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any person wishing to examine them, free of charge.

Duty of

tendent.

SEC. 38. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to see that the laws, ordinances, orders, and regulations relating to the public streets and highways be fully carried into execution, and that the penalties thereof are rigidly enforced. He shall keep himself informed of the condition of all the public streets and highways, and also of all public buildings, parks, lots, and grounds of said city, as may be prescribed by the city council. He shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bonds to the municipality, with such sureties and for such sums as may be required by the city council; and should he fail to see the laws, ordinances, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets or highways carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in his person or property in consequence of said official neglect. He shall superintend and direct the cleaning of all sewers, and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the street or sewer fund of said city.

SEC. 39. If, in consequence of any graded street or public highway or sidewalk, being out of repair and in condition to endanger persons or property passing thereon, any person, while carefully using said street or public highway, or sidewalk and exercising ordinary care to avoid the danger, suffer damage to his person or property, through any such defect therein, no recourse for damages thus suffered shall be had against such city; but if such defect in the street or public highway shall have existed for the period of twenty-four hours or more after written notice thereof to the said superintendent of streets, then the person or persons on whom the law may have imposed the obligations to repair such defect in the street or public highway, and also the officer or officers through whose official negligence such defect remains unrepaired, shall be jointly and severally liable to the party injured for the damage sustained; provided, that said superintendent has the authority to make said repairs, under the direction of the city council, at the expense of the city.

SEC. 40. The city council may, in its discretion, order, by resolution that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of any of the work mentioned in this act be paid out of the treasury of the municipality from such fund as the council may designate, in which case it shall be so stated in the resolution of intention. Whenever a part of such cost and expenses is so ordered to be paid, the superintendent of streets, in making up the assessment heretofore provided for such cost and expenses, shall first deduct from the whole cost and expenses such part thereof as has been so ordered to be paid out of the municipal treasury, and shall assess the remainder of said costs and expenses proportionately upon the lots, parts of lots and lands fronting on the streets where said work was done, or liable to be assessed for such work, and in the manner heretofore provided.

SEC. 41. The city engineer, or where there is no city engineer, the county or city and county surveyor, shall be the proper officer to do the surveying and other engineering work necessary to be done under this act, and to survey and measure the work to be done under contracts for grading and macadamizing streets, and to estimate the costs and expenses thereof; and every certificate signed by him in his official character shall be prima facie evidence in all courts in this state of the truth of its contents. He shall also keep a record of all surveys made under the provisions of this act, as in other cases. In all those cities where there is no city engineer, the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of city engineer, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the city engineer shall apply to such person so appointed. Said city council is hereby empowered to fix his compensation for such services.

SEC. 42. The superintendent of streets shall, when in his judgment it is necessary, appoint a suitable person or persons to take charge of and superintend the construction and improvement of any work authorized by this act, whose duty it shall be to see that the contract made for the doing of said work is strictly fulfilled in every respect, and in case of any departure therefrom to report the same to the superintendent of streets. Such person shall be allowed for his time actually employed in the discharge of his duties such compensation as shall be just, but not to exceed five dollars per day. The sum to which the party so employed shall be entitled shall be deemed to be incidental expenses, within the meaning of those words as defined by this act.

PART II.

Change of grade.Resolution

SEC. 43. The city council is hereby empowered to change or modify the grade of any public street, lane, alley, place or court, and to regrade or repave the same, so as to conform to such modified grade, in the manner as hereinafter provided. Before any change of grade is ordered the city council shall pass a resolution of intention to make such change or modification of grade, and it shall have power at the same time and in the same resolution to provide for the actual cost of performing the work of regrading, repaving, sewerage, sidewalking, or curbing of said street or portion of street, with the same or other material with which it was formerly graded, paved, sewered, sidewalked, or curbed; and that the cost of the same shall also be assessed upon the same district which is declared to be benefited by such changed or modified grade. One or more streets or blocks of streets may be embraced in the same resolution. Such resolution shall be published twice in the newspaper in which the official notices of the city council are usually printed and published, to be designated in such resolution and shall describe the proposed change or modification of grade or regrading, and shall designate and establish the district to be benefited by such change or modification of grade or regrading, and to be assessed for the cost of the same. The superintendent of streets shall also cause to be conspicuously posted within the district designated in the resolution, notice of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be the same in all requirements of contents and posting as the "notices of improvement" provided for in section four of this act. If no objection to said proposed change or changes, or modifications of grade, shall be filed with the clerk of the council within thirty days from the first publication of the resolution of intention hereinbefore mentioned or, if objections are presented and after due notice and hearing are overruled by the council, the city council shall have power to order and declare such grades to be changed and established in conformity to said resolution, which order shall be posted by the clerk on the chamber door of the council for five days.

damages.

SEC. 44. Within thirty days after the first posting of said order, as aforesaid, any person owning property fronting upon said portions of the street or streets where such change of grade is made, may file a petition with the clerk of the city council showing the fact of such ownership, the description and situation of the property, its market value, and the estimated amount of damages over and above all benefits which the property would sustain by the proposed change if completed. Such petition shall be verified by the oath of the petitioners or their agents.

SEC. 45. Whenever such petition or petitions have been filed, the mayor, engineer or surveyor, and superintendent of streets of the city, or city and county, or board of public works if there be such board acting as a board of commissioners, shall assess the benefits, damages, and costs of the proposed change of grade upon each separate lot of land situated within such assessment district showing the same by a plat as said lot appears of record upon the last city, or city and county assessment roll. The commissioners shall be sworn to make the assessments of benefits and damages to the best of their judgment and ability, without fear or favor. The commissioners shall have power to subpoena witnesses to appear before them to be examined under oath, which any one of said commissioners is authorized to administer.

Commissioners.

Assessment on each lot.

SEC. 46. The commissioners having determined the damage which would be sustained by each petitioner, in excess of all benefits, shall proceed to assess the total amount thereof, together with the costs, charges, and expenses of the proceedings, upon the several lots of land benefited within the district of assessment, so that each of the lots shall be assessed in accordance with its benefits caused by such work or improvement; and during the progress of their work shall make a report to such city council as often as it may be required.

Damages and benefits.

SEC. 47. The commissioners shall make their report in writing, and shall subscribe to the same and file it with the city council. In their said report they shall describe separately each piece of property which will sustain damage, stating the amount of damages each will sustain over and above all benefits. They shall also give a brief description of each lot benefited within said assessment district, the name of the owner, if known, and the amount of benefits in excess of damages assessed against the same. In case the three commissioners do not agree, the award agreed upon by a majority of them shall be sufficient. In designating the lots to be assessed, reference may be had to a diagram of the property in the district affected; such diagram to be attached to and made a part of the report of the commissioners. If in case the commissioners find that conflicting claims of title exist, or shall be in ignorance or doubt of the ownership of any lot or land, or any improvement thereon, or any interest therein, it shall be set down as belonging to unknown owners. Error in the designation of the owner or owners of any land or improvements, or particulars of their interest, shall not affect the validity of the assessment.

Report of commissioners.

Majority sufficient.

SEC. 48. On the filing of said report, the clerk of said city council shall give notice of such filing by publication twice in one or more daily newspapers, or in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated; and said notice shall require all persons interested to show cause, if any, why such report should not be confirmed, before the city council, on a day to be fixed by the city council and stated in said notice, which day shall not be less than twenty days from the first publication thereof.

Notice of hearing report.

Objections to report

SEC. 49. All objections shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the city council, who shall, at the next meeting after the date fixed in the notice to show cause, lay the said objections, if any, before the council, which shall fix a time for hearing the same; of which time the clerk shall notify the objectors in the same manner as are notified objectors to the original resolution of intention. At the time set, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned, the city council shall hear such objections and pass upon the same, and at such time shall proceed to pass upon such report, and may confirm, correct, or modify the same, or may order the commissioners to make a new assessment, report, and plat, which shall be filed, notice given and had, as in the case of an original report.

Advertising for bid-

SEC. 50. In case the resolution of intention also provides for the assessing upon the district the cost of regrading or repaving such street or streets to such changed or modified grade, after the report of the commissioners as to the damages caused by such change of grade has been passed upon by the city council, it shall then advertise for bids to perform the work of regrading, repaving, sewerage, sidewalking or curbing such street or streets with the same or other material with which the same had been formerly graded, paved, sewerage, sidewalked, or curbed; first causing a notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing such work, and shall also cause notices of said work, inviting said proposals and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published twice, in a daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, and designated by the city council for that purpose. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check, payable to the city, and certified by a responsible bank, which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposals; or by a bond for said amount, signed by the bidder and two sureties, who shall justify under oath in double said amount over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council, and said council shall in open session publicly open, examine and declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by a check or a bond satisfactory to the council. The city council may reject any and all bids, and may award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder. If not accepted the city council may readvertise for proposals or bids as in the first instance, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided. All checks accompanying bids shall be held by the clerk until such successful bidder has entered into a contract, as herein provided; and in case he refuses so to do, then the amount of his certified check shall be declared forfeited to the city, and shall be collected and paid into its general fund, and all bonds so forfeited shall be prosecuted, and the amount thereof collected and paid into such fund. Notice of the awards of the contracts shall be published and posted in the same manner as hereinbefore in this section provided for the posting of proposals for said work.

Notice of awards published.

SEC. 51. After such contract has been awarded and entered into, the clerk of the city council shall certify to the city council that fact, together with the total amount of the cost of the same, whereupon the city council shall cause to be forwarded to the commissioners a copy of such certificate; whereupon such commissioners shall proceed to assess the cost of doing such work upon all the lots and land lying within the district to be assessed, distributing the same so that each lot will be assessed for its proportion of the same, according to the benefits it receives from the work, and in the same manner in which the damages caused by the change of grade were assessed upon the same. Such commissioners in making such assessment shall show the total amount for which each lot or tract is assessed, in excess of all benefits, for the total cost of changing and modifying the grade of the street, as well as the regrading, repaving, sewerage, sidewalking, and curbing of the same, and costs or damages connected therewith. The provisions of part I of this act in regard to the mode or manner of the assessment of the cost of such work shall not apply to the work in this part contemplated; neither shall the provisions of this act in regard to the issuing of bonds to represent the cost of the same, nor the provisions in regard to the right of protest against the work apply.

assessment.

SEC. 52. The clerk of said city council shall forward to the street superintendent of the city a certified copy of the report, assessment, and plat, as finally confirmed and adopted by the city council. Such certified copy shall thereupon be the assessment roll, the cost of which shall be provided for by the commissioners, as a portion of the cost of the proceedings therein. Immediately upon receipt thereof by the street superintendent, the assessment therein contained shall become due and payable, and shall be a lien upon all the property contained or described therein.

ment roll.

SEC. 53. The superintendent of streets shall thereupon give notice, by publication twice in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, or city and county, or in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated, that he has received said assessment roll, and that all sums levied and assessed in said assessment roll are due and payable immediately, and that the payment of said sums is to be made to him within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice. Said notice shall also contain a statement that all assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will be declared to be delinquent, and that thereafter the sum of five per cent upon the amount of such delinquent assessment, together with the cost of advertising each delinquent assessment will be added thereto. When payment of any assessment is made to said superintendent of streets, he shall write the word "Paid" and the date of payment opposite the respective assessment so paid, and the name of the persons by or for whom said assessment is paid, and shall give a receipt therefor. On the expiration of said thirty days, all assessments then unpaid shall be and become delinquent, and said superintendent of streets shall certify such fact at the foot of said assessment roll, and shall add five per cent to the amount of each assessment so delinquent. After the date of said delinquency no assessment shall be received unless said five per cent together with all costs be paid therewith.

property.

SEC. 54. The said superintendent of streets shall, within five days from the date of such delinquency, proceed to advertise the various sums delinquent, and the whole thereof, including the cost of advertising, which last shall not exceed the sum of fifty cents for each lot, piece or parcel of land separately assessed. Said list of delinquent assessments, with a notice of the time and place of sale of the property affected thereby, shall be published twice in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in such city, or in a weekly newspaper so published and circulated before the day of sale for such delinquent assessment. Said time of sale must not be less than seven days from the date of the first publication of said delinquent assessment list, and the place must be in or in front of the office of said superintendent of streets. If any assessment together with said penalty and costs be not paid before the time of sale the street superintendent shall proceed to sell and shall sell each lot, piece or parcel of land separately assessed at public auction to the bidder offering to pay the amount due for the least portion of such lot, piece or parcel of land so offered for sale, and shall issue a certificate therefor. If there be no bidder said property shall be struck off to the municipality.

year.

SEC. 55. All property sold shall be subject to redemption for one year by the payment of the amount of the assessment, penalty and costs and interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of sale. The superintendent of streets shall, if there is no redemption, make and deliver to the purchaser at such sale, or his consignee, a deed conveying the property sold, and shall collect for each deed one dollar. The deed of the street superintendent, made after such sale, in case of failure to redeem, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings hereunder, and of title in the grantee.

Separate
fund.

SEC. 56. The superintendent of streets shall from time to time pay over to the city treasurer all moneys collected by him on account of any such assessments. The city treasurer shall, upon receipt thereof, place the same in a separate fund, designating each fund by the name of the street, square, lane, alley, court, or place for the change of grade for which the assessment was made. Payments shall be made from said fund to the parties entitled thereto, upon warrants signed by the commissioners or a majority of them.

SEC. 57. When sufficient money is in the hands of the city treasurer, in the fund voted for the proposed work or improvement, to pay the total cost for damages, as well as for the cost of doing the work, and all other expenses connected therewith, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to notify the owner, possessor, or occupant of the premises damaged, and to whom damages have been awarded, that a warrant has been drawn for the payment of the same, which can be received at the office of such commissioners. Such notification may be made by depositing a notice, postage prepaid, in the post office, addressed to his last known place of residence. If, after the expiration of three days the service or deposit of the notice in the post office, he shall not have applied for such warrant, the same shall be drawn and deposited with the city treasurer, to be delivered to him upon demand.

Notice of damages awarded.

SEC. 58. If the owner of any premises damaged neglects or refuses, for ten days after the warrant has been placed in the hands of the city treasurer, subject to his demand, to accept the same, the city council may cause proceedings to be commenced, in the name of the city, to condemn said premises, as provided by law under the right of eminent domain. The resolution of intention shall be conclusive evidence of the necessity of the same. Such proceedings shall have precedence, so far as the business of the court will permit, and any judgment for damages therein rendered shall be payable out of a special fund in the treasury for that purpose. At any time after the trial and judgment entered, or pending appeal, the court may order the city treasurer to set apart in the city treasury a sufficient sum from said fund to answer the judgment, and thereupon may authorize or order the municipality to proceed with the proposed work or improvements. In case of a deficiency in said fund to pay the whole assessed judgment and damages, the city council may, in its discretion, order the balance thereof to be paid out of the general fund of the treasury, or to be distributed by the commissioners over the property assessed by a supplementary assessment; but in the last named case, in order to avoid delay, the city council may advance such balance out of any available fund in the treasury, and reimburse the same from the collection of assessments. The treasurer shall pay such warrants in the order of their presentation; provided, that warrants for damages and for costs of performing the work shall have priority over warrants for charges and expenses, and the treasurer shall see that sufficient money remains in the fund to pay all warrants of the first class before paying any of the second. The provisions of section one thousand two hundred and fifty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, requiring the payment of damages within thirty days after the entry of judgment, shall not apply to damages rendered in proceedings under this act. All provisions contained in parts I and IV of this act, which provisions are not in conflict herewith, shall apply to all matters herein contained.

Condemnation proceedings.

Proceedings to have precedence.

Warrants to be paid in order of presentation.

PART III.

Serial bonds
issued.

SEC. 59. The city council of any municipality in this state shall have the power, in its discretion, to determine that serial bonds shall be issued in the manner and form hereinafter provided to represent assessments of twenty-five dollars or over for the cost of any work or improvement authorized in part I of this act.

When and where payable.

SEC. 60. Said serial bonds shall extend over a period not to exceed nine years from the second day of January next succeeding their date, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year after their date, until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of not to exceed ten per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds and interest thereon shall be paid at the office of the city treasurer of said municipality, who shall keep a fund designated by the name of said bonds, into which he shall receive all sums paid him for the principal of said bonds and the interest thereon, and from which he shall disburse such sums, upon the presentation of said coupons; and under no circumstances shall said bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund. Said city treasurer shall keep a register in his office, which shall show the series, number, date, amount, rate of interest, payee and indorsees of each bond, and the number and amount of each coupon of principal or interest paid by him, and shall cancel and file each coupon so paid.

Treasurer

register.

Notice in resolution of intention.

SEC. 61. When said city council shall determine that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the expenses of any proposed work or improvement under this act, it shall so declare in the resolution of intention to do said work, and shall specify the rate of interest which they shall bear. The like description of said bonds shall be inserted in the resolution ordering the work, in the resolution of award, and in all notices of said proceedings required by this act to be either posted or published; and also a notice that a bond will issue to represent each assessment of twenty-five dollars or more remaining unpaid for thirty days after the date of the warrant, or five days after the decision of said council upon an appeal, shall be included in the warrant provided for in section twenty-two of this act.

Notifica-
treasurer.

SEC. 62. After the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the warrant, or if an appeal be taken to the city council as provided in this act, then five days after the final decision of said council, and after the street superintendent shall have recorded the return, as provided in section twenty-five hereof, the street superintendent shall make and certify to the city treasurer a complete list of all assessments unpaid, which amount to twenty-five dollars or over, upon any assessment or diagram number; and said treasurer shall thereupon make out, sign, and issue to the contractor, or his assigns, payee of the warrant and assessment, a separate bond, representing upon each lot or parcel of land upon said list the total amount of the assessments against the same, as thereon shown. And if said lot or parcel of land is described upon said assessment and diagram by its number or block, or both, and is also designated by its number or block, or both, upon the official map of said municipality, or upon any map on file in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said municipality is situated, then it shall be in said bond a sufficient description of said lot or parcel of land to designate it by said number or block, or both, as it appears on said official or recorded map.

SEC. 63. Said bond shall be substantially in the following form: Form of bond.

STREET IMPROVEMENT BOND.

Series (designating it), in the city (or other form of the municipality) of (naming it).

$ 100.

No.

Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the State of California (title of this act). I, out of the fund for the above designated street improvement bonds, series, will pay to, or order, the sum of dollars ($) with interest at the rate of per cent per annum, all as is hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of the of, State of California. This bond is issued to represent the cost of certain street work upon in the of, as the same is more fully described in assessment number issued by the street superintendent of said, after his acceptance of said work, and recorded in his office. Its amount is the amount assessed in said assessment against the lot or parcel of land numbered therein, and in the diagram attached thereto, as number, and which now remains unpaid, but until paid, with accrued interest, is a first lien upon the property affected thereby, as the same is described herein, and in said recorded assessment with its diagram, to wit: the lot or parcel of land in said of, county of, State of California,

This bond is payable exclusively from said fund, and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof is to be holden for payment otherwise of its principal or interest. The term of this bond is years from the second day of January next succeeding its date, and at the expiration of said time the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest at the rate of per centum per annum.

The interest is payable semi-annually, to wit: On the second days of January and of July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semi-annual interest, except the last, which is for interest from the semi-annual payment next preceding and to the date of the final maturity of this bond.

Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest from the owner of said lot or parcel of land, or any one in his behalf, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have said lot or parcel of land advertised and sold forthwith, in the manner provided by law.

At said of this day of in the year one thousand hundred and

City Treasurer of the of Limitation of twenty-five dollars

SEC. 64. In case the amount of unpaid assessments upon any lot or parcel of land shall be less than twenty-five dollars, then the same shall be collected as is hereinbefore provided in part one of this act.

Owner may stop issuance.

SEC. 65. If any person, or his authorized agent, shall at any time before the issuance of the bond for said assessment upon his lot or parcel of land present to the city treasurer his affidavit, made before a competent officer, that he is the owner of a lot or parcel of land in said list, accompanied by the certificate of a searcher of records that he is such owner of record, and with such affidavit and certificate such person notifies said treasurer in writing that he desires no bond to be issued for the assessments upon said lot or parcel of land, then no such bond shall be issued therefor, and the payee of the warrant, or his assigns, shall retain his right for enforcing collection as if said lot or parcel of land had not been so listed by the street superintendent.

Description of bonds.

SEC. 66. The bonds so issued by said treasurer shall be payable to the party to whom they issue, or order, and shall be serial bonds, as is hereinbefore described, and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention to do said work. They shall have annual coupons attached thereto, payable in annual order, on the second day of January in each year after the date of the bond, until all are paid, and each coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bond. They shall have semi-annual interest coupons thereto attached, the first of which shall be payable upon the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next after its date, and shall be for the interest accrued at that time, and the last of which shall be for the amount of interest accruing from the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next preceding the maturity of said bonds to the maturity thereof. The city treasurer shall, in addition to his other duties in the premises, report all coupon payments of principal upon said bonds to the street superintendent, who shall forthwith indorse the same upon the margin of the record of the assessment to the credit of which the same is paid, and said assessment shall be a first lien upon the property affected thereby until the bond issued for the payment thereof, and the accrued interest thereon, shall be fully paid. Said bonds, by their issuance, shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings thereto under this act.

SEC. 67. Whenever, through the default of the owner of any lot or parcel of land to represent the assessment upon which such bond has been, or may hereafter be, issued, and payment, either upon the principal, or of the interest, has not been, or shall not be made when the same has become, or shall become due, and the holder of the bond thereupon demands, in writing, that the said city treasurer proceed to advertise and sell said lot or parcel of land as herein provided, then the whole bond or its unpaid remainder, with its accrued interest, as expressed in said bond, shall become due and payable immediately, and on the day following shall become delinquent.

Penalty for default.

SEC. 68. Upon the application of the holder of any bond that is now or shall hereafter become delinquent as hereinbefore provided, the said city treasurer shall publish twice in a newspaper of general circulation, to be designated by him, published in the city where his office is situated, a notice which must contain the date, number, and series of the delinquent bond, a description of the property mentioned in said bond, and the name of the owner of such property (if known), and if unknown, the fact shall be so stated, the amount due thereon, and a statement that unless the amount of said bond and the interest due thereon, together with the cost of publication of such notice are paid, the real property described in said bond will be sold at public auction on a day to be therein fixed, which shall not be less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the day of the first publication of said notice, and the place of such sale, which must be the office of the said city treasurer. A like notice shall not less than fifteen days before the day of sale so fixed be served upon any such owner if known, either personally or by depositing the same in the post office at such city, addressed to such owner at his address, if known, with the postage thereon prepaid. At any time prior to the sale, the owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale under the provisions of this act may pay the whole amount of said bond then due, with costs, and such bond shall thereupon be canceled; but in case such payment is not made by such owner, or person in possession, or by some one in behalf of such owner, or person in possession, the property subject thereto shall be sold at public auction to the bidder offering to pay the amount due on the bond with costs for the least portion of such lot or parcel of land offered for sale.

Sale of property.

Notice to owner.

Owner may pay before sale.

SEC. 69. The city treasurer, before the day of sale hereinafter provided for, must file with the city clerk a copy of the publication, with an affidavit of the publisher of such newspaper, or some one in his behalf, attached thereto, that it is a true copy of the same; that the publication was made in a newspaper, stating its name and place of publication and the date of each appearance in which such publication was made, which affidavit is prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

Treasurer's affidavit.

Costs and fees.

SEC. 70. The city treasurer must collect, in addition to the amount due on such bond, the cost of the publication of such notice, and fifty cents for the certificate of sale delivered to the purchaser as hereinafter provided.

Certificate of treasurer.

SEC. 71. The city treasurer, before delivering any certificate of sale must, in a book kept in his office for that purpose, enter the date, number and series of the bond, a description of the land sold corresponding with the description in the certificate, the date of sale, purchaser's name, the amount paid, regularly number the descriptions on the margin of the book, and put a corresponding number on each certificate. Such book must be open to public inspection during office hours when not in actual use, and he shall enter on the record of the bond the words "Canceled by sale of the property," giving the date of such sale.

Lien
on the property.

SEC. 72. Immediately on the sale, the purchaser shall become vested with a lien on the property, so sold to him, to the extent of his bid, and is only divested of such lien by the payment to the city treasurer of the purchase money, including costs herein provided for, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of sale.

Redemption.

SEC. 73. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner of the property, or any party in interest, within twelve months from the date of purchase, or at any time prior to the application for a deed, as hereinafter provided. Redemption must be made in lawful money of the United States, and when made to the city treasurer he must credit the amount paid to the person named in his certificate, and pay it on demand to him or his assignees.

Recording
certificate.

SEC. 74. On receiving the certificate of sale, the recorder must file it, and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the city treasurer, the fee for which shall be fifty cents, and on presentation of the receipt of the city treasurer for the total amount of the redemption money, the recorder must, without charge, mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made.

purchaser.

SEC. 75. If the property is not redeemed within the time allowed by the provisions of section seventy-three hereof for its redemption, the city treasurer, or his successor in office, upon application of the purchaser or his assignee, must make to said purchaser, or his assignee, a deed to the property, reciting in the deed, substantially, the matter contained in the certificate and that no person has redeemed the property during the time allowed for its redemption; the treasurer shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser two dollars for making said deed, which shall be deposited in the city treasury for the use of the city after payment has been made therefrom for the acknowledgment of said deed; provided, however, that the purchaser of the property, or his assignee, or agent must, thirty days prior to the expiration of the time of the redemption, or thirty days before his application for a deed, serve upon the owner or agent of the property purchased, if named in such certificate of sale, and upon the party occupying the property, if the property is occupied, a written notice, stating that said property, or a portion thereof, has been sold to satisfy the bond lien, the date of sale, the date, number, and series of the bond, the amount then due, and the time when the right of redemption will expire, or when the purchaser will apply for a deed, and the owner of the property shall have the right of redemption indefinitely, until such notice shall have been given and said deed applied for, upon the payment of the fees, penalties, and costs in this act required. In case of unoccupied property, a similar notice must be posted in a conspicuous place upon the property at least thirty days before the expiration of the time for redemption, or thirty days before the purchaser applies for a deed; and no deed to the property sold, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be issued by the city treasurer to the purchaser of such property, until such purchaser shall have filed with such treasurer an affidavit showing that the notice hereinbefore required to be given has been given as herein required, which said affidavit shall be filed and preserved by the said treasurer as other records kept by him in his office. Such purchaser shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents for his service of such notice and the making of such affidavit, which sum of fifty cents shall be paid by the redemptioner at the time and in the same manner as the other sums, costs, and fees are paid.

SEC. 77. Whenever any railroad track or tracks of any description exist upon the street or streets upon which the city council of any city has ordered an improvement to be made, and has excepted therefrom the portions used by the track, between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks if there is more than one, the said order, unless said city council shall by resolution theretofore passed have declared the contrary, shall be deemed to be and constitute a requirement that the person or company having said railroad track or tracks thereon shall improve the said portion with improvements similar in all respects to, with the same materials, under the same specifications and superintendence, and to the like inspection and satisfaction as those ordered to be performed by said order ordering the work; provided, however, that the city council may by ordinance require increased depth of concrete between, to the full depth of, or under the ties, or both, where and whenever the city council shall, in its judgment decide that this method of construction is necessary.

property.

The city council may also require by ordinance or otherwise, any person or company aforesaid, to pave alongside of and contiguous to its rails with special types of brick or paving blocks. The resolution of intention and notice of proposed improvement shall be construed and are hereby declared to be notice to said person or company of the intention to order the same. Thereupon it shall be the duty of said person or company having such track or tracks on such street or streets to notify in writing the superintendent of streets if such person or company elects to enter upon the direct performance of such work at its own charge and expense; said notice must be delivered to the superintendent of streets within ten days after the first publication of notice of award of contract. The omission or neglect to make such election shall be construed as constituting the superintendent of streets the agent of the owner of said track or tracks, with authority to enter into a contract made in accordance with the provisions of this section for making the said improvements. Said superintendent of streets shall advertise for bids for the improvement of said portions of the street or streets lying between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks, if there be more than one. It shall be the duty of said city council to award the contract for the making of said improvements to the lowest regular responsible bidder. Such bidding and awarding of contracts shall be made in the same manner heretofore provided for the awarding of contracts for improvements, excepting that no notice of award shall be published. Immediately upon the award, the superintendent of streets shall enter into a contract with the person to whom said contract was awarded for the making of said improvement or improvements upon the portions of the street or streets described in said notice inviting bids, and at the price stated in said bid. The contractor shall execute bonds in the manner required by section fifteen of this act. Upon the completion of the work and its acceptance, the street superintendent shall make a certificate of such completion, together with a statement of the amount due under the terms of said contract for the performance of said work. Such certificate shall be countersigned by the mayor of said city, and shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets. The contractor thereupon shall be entitled to payment of the full amount of said contract price, and the recording of such certificate shall be sufficient notice to the owner of such track or tracks that said contract price is due and payable. In the event that such amount is not paid within thirty days from the date of the recording of said certificate, the contractor may file a sworn statement to that effect with the superintendent of streets, who shall record the same in his office in the book in which the certificate of acceptance has been recorded. Said contractor shall thereupon have a cause of action against said person or company owning said tracks for the amount of said contract, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, and shall also have as a security for the recovery of such amount, a first lien upon the track and franchises of said railroad, between whose rails or tracks the said work has been performed, contained within the corporate limits of the said city. In such suit, the certificate of the superintendent of streets, hereinbefore mentioned, shall be and constitute prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings, and of the right of the contractor to recover judgment against said person or company. Execution may be taken out upon the entry of judgment, and levied upon any property of said person or company subject to execution. In the event that said person or company shall file the written election to enter upon the direct performance of such work at its own cost and expense, no further proceedings shall be taken in the matter unless such person or company neglects or fails for thirty days, or for such further time as the city council may grant, to make said improvement. In the event that the improvement of the portions of the street or streets above described between the rails and for two feet on each side thereof, and between the tracks, if there be more than one, shall not be made with diligence, as herein provided or in all respects similar to the improvement of the rest of the street, or with the same materials or under the same specifications, and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, the city council of said city may, by resolution entered in its minutes, prescribe such terms and conditions as to it may seem fit and proper before permitting the said person or company to continue with the said improvement. If the said person or company shall, after three days' notice of the adoption of said resolution, fail to comply with the terms and conditions so prescribed, the city council may declare said person or company to have forfeited its privilege of performing such work under its own direction. Whereupon the street superintendent shall advertise for bids for the performance of such work, or such portion thereof as may remain uncompleted, and the contract therefor shall be awarded and entered into in the same manner hereinbefore provided for the awarding and execution of contracts where said person or company has not elected to make the improvements under its own direction; and upon the completion of the improvement, the contractor to whom such contract may be awarded, or his assigns, shall be entitled to a certificate from the street superintendent similar to that hereinabove provided for, and shall have the right to collect from said person or company by suit the amount specified in said certificate in all respects the same as hereinbefore provided where the contract is let for such improvement in the first instance. The city council may, by ordinance, prescribe and enforce such additional regulations and penalties as it may deem necessary to compel the improvements as herein provided of any portion or portions of any such street or streets so occupied by any such railroad track or tracks.

SEC. 78. None of the provisions of part I of this act in regard to a protest against the work shall apply to any work contemplated by the preceding section. All provisions of part I of this act not inconsistent with the provisions hereof shall apply hereto.

No
Protests.

PART IV.

Definitions.

SEC. 79. First—The person owning the fee, or the person in whom, on the day the action is commenced, appears the legal title to the lots and lands, by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of each county, or the person in possession of lands, lots, or portions of lots or buildings under claim, or exercising acts of ownership over the same for himself, or as the executor, administrator, or guardian of the owner, shall be regarded, treated, and deemed to be the "owner" (for the purpose of this law), according to the intent and meaning of that word as used in this act. And in case of property leased, the possession of the tenant or lessee holding and occupying under such persons shall be deemed to be the possession of such owner.

"owner."

"Work," "improve."

Second—The words "work," "improve," "improved" and "improvement," as used in this act shall include all work mentioned in this act, and also the construction, reconstruction and repairs, of all or any portion of said work.

"Incidental expenses"

Third—The term "incidental expenses," as used in this act, shall include the compensation of the city engineer for work done by him; also the cost of printing and advertising as provided in this act; also, the compensation of the person appointed by the superintendent of streets to take charge of and superintend any of the work mentioned in this act; also the expenses of making the assessment for any work authorized by this act. All demands for incidental expenses mentioned in this subdivision shall be presented to the street superintendent by itemized bill, duly verified by oath of the demandant.

Publication of notices.

Fourth—The notices, resolutions, orders or other matter required to be published by the provisions of this act, shall be published in a daily newspaper, in cities where such there is, and where there is no daily newspaper, in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, to be designated by the council of such city, as often as the same is issued, and no other statute shall govern or be applicable to the publications herein provided for; provided, however, that in case there is no daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper printed or circulated in any such city, then such notices, resolutions, orders or other matters as are herein required to be published in a newspaper, shall be posted and kept posted for the same length of time as required herein for the publication of the same in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, in three of the most public places in such city except where herein otherwise specifically provided. Proof of the publication or posting of any notice provided for herein shall be made by affidavit of the owner, publisher, printer or clerk of the newspaper, or of the poster of the notice. No publication or notice, other than that provided for in this act, shall be necessary to give validity to any of the proceedings provided for therein. The word "twice" as used in this act, referring to the number of times notices, resolutions or other matters shall be published, shall be held to mean the publication of the same in two entire issues of a newspaper, one being on one day and the other issue being on a subsequent day of the same or a subsequent week.

Fifth—The word "municipality" and the word "city," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and is hereby declared to include, all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, and those hereafter organized, for municipal purposes. "Municipality," "city."

Sixth—The words "paved" or "repaved," as used in this act, shall be held to mean and include pavement of stone, whether paving blocks or macadamizing, or of bituminous rock or asphalt, or of iron, wood or other material, whether patented or not, which the city council shall by ordinance or resolution adopt. "Paved."

Seventh—The word "street," as used in this act, shall be deemed to, and is hereby declared to, include avenues, highways, lanes, alleys, crossings, or intersections, courts and places, which have been dedicated and accepted according to law or in common and undisputed use by the public for a period of not less than five years next preceding, and the term "main street" means such actually opened street or streets as bound a block; and the word "blocks," whether regular or irregular, shall mean such blocks as are bounded by main streets, or partially by a boundary line of the city. "Street," "Main street," "blocks."

Eighth—The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and are hereby declared to include, any person or officer whose duty it is, under the law, to have the care or charge of the streets, or the improvement thereof in any city. In all those cities where there is no street superintendent or superintendent of streets, the city council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of street superintendent or superintendent of streets; and all provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent or superintendent of streets shall apply to such person so appointed. "Street superintendent."

Ninth—The term "city council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city. "City council."

Tenth—In municipalities in which there is no mayor, then the duties imposed upon said officer by the provisions of this act shall be performed by the president of the board of trustees, or other chief executive officer of the municipality. Mayor.

Eleventh—The terms "clerk" and "city clerk," as used in this act, are hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of the said city council. "Clerk."

Twelfth—The term "quarter block," as used in this act, as to irregular blocks, shall be deemed to include all lots or portions of lots having any frontage on either intersecting street half way from such intersection to the next main street, or, when no main street intervenes, all the way to a boundary line of the city. "Quarter block."

"City treasurer." Thirteenth—The term "city treasurer," as used in this act, shall be held to mean and include any person who, under whatever name or title, is the custodian of the funds of the municipality.

Hearings. SEC. 80. Whenever in proceedings hereunder, a time and place for hearing by the city council is fixed, and, from any cause, the hearing is not then and there held or regularly adjourned to a time and place fixed, the power of the city council in the premises shall not thereby be divested or lost but the city council may proceed anew to fix a time and place for the hearing, and cause notice thereof to be given by publication by at least one insertion in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, such publication to be at least five days before the date of the hearing, and thereupon the city council shall have power to act as in the first instance.

Publication and posting. SEC. 81. Whenever any resolution, order, notice, or determination is required to be published or posted, and the duty of posting or procuring the publication or posting of the same is not specifically enjoined upon any officer of the city, it shall be the duty of the city clerk to post or procure the publication or posting thereof, as the case may be. No proceeding or step herein shall be invalidated or affected by any error or mistake or departure herefrom as to the officer or person posting, or procuring the publication or posting, of any resolution, notice, order or determination hereunder when the same is actually published or posted for the time herein required.

Construction of act. SEC. 82. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purposes may be effective. No error, irregularity, informality, and no neglect or omission of any officer of the city, in any procedure taken hereunder, which does not directly affect the jurisdiction of the city council to order the improvement, shall avoid or invalidate such proceeding or any assessment for the cost of work done thereunder. The exclusive remedy of any person affected or aggrieved thereby shall be by appeal to the city council as herein provided.

Saving clause. SEC. 83. This act shall in no wise affect "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18th, 1885; or an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for payment of said bonds," approved February 27th, 1893; or an act entitled "An act to provide for local improvements upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities, such act to be known as the 'Local Improvement Act of 1901.'" which became a law February 26th, 1901, or an act entitled "An act to provide for the improvement of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, and places in municipalities, in cases where any damage to private property would result from such improvement, and for the assessment of the costs, damages and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby," which became a law April 21, 1909, or amendments to any of said acts, or any other acts on the same subject, or apply to proceedings had thereunder, but is intended to and does provide an alternate system for making the improvements provided for by this act; and it shall be in the discretion of the legislative body of any city to proceed, under the provisions either of this act or of such other acts; but when any proceedings are commenced under this act, the provisions of this act, and of such amendments thereof as may be hereafter adopted, and no other, shall apply to all such proceedings, and any provisions contained in said acts or any acts in conflict herewith shall be void and of no effect as to the proceedings commenced under this act. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Improvement Act of 1911," and shall take effect and be in force on its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 398.

An act to provide for and regulate primary elections, and providing the method whereby electors of political parties may express their choice at such primary elections for United States senator, and to repeal an act entitled an act to provide for and regulate primary elections, and providing the method whereby electors of political parties may express their choice at such primary elections for United States senator, approved March 21, 1909.

[Approved April 7, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The words and phrases in this act shall, unless such construction be inconsistent with the context, be construed as follows:

1. The words "primary election," any and every primary nominating election provided for by this act. "Primary election."
2. The words "September primary election," the primary election held in September to nominate candidates to be voted for at the ensuing November election. "September primary election."
3. The word "election," a general or city or city and county election as distinguished from a primary election. "Election."
4. The words "November election," the presidential election, the general state election, county, city or city and county election held in November. "November election."
5. The word or words "political party," "party," "political organization," or "organization," a political party or organization of electors which at the last general election before the holding of the primary election, polled at least three "Political party," etc."

per cent, of the entire vote of the state or of the county, city and county, district, or other political division for which nominations are to be made.

"Judicial officer."

6. The words "judicial officer," any justice of the supreme court, justice of a district court of appeal, judge of the superior court, justice of the peace, or justice of such inferior court as the legislature may establish in any incorporated city or town, or city and county; and the words "judicial office," the office filled by any of the above judicial officers.

"School officer."

7. The words "school officer," the superintendent of public instruction, any superintendent of schools of a county or city and county; or any school district officer or trustee; and the words "school office," the office filled by any of the above school officers.

Statute liberally construed.

This statute shall be liberally construed, so that the real will of the electors shall not be defeated by any informality or failure to comply with all the provisions of law in respect to either the giving of any notice or the conducting of the primary election or certifying the results thereof. In all counties and cities and counties in this state, having a registrar of voters and a board of election commissioners, the powers conferred and the duties imposed in this statute upon county clerks and their deputies, and other officers, in relation to matters of election and polling places, shall be exercised and performed by such registrar of voters or his deputies, and board of election commissioners; and all nominating papers, list of candidates, expenses, and oaths of office, required by this statute to be made to county clerks, shall be filed with the registrar of voters.

Registrar of voters.

Nomination of candidates.

SEC. 2. All candidates for elective public offices shall be nominated as follows:

By direct vote.

1. By direct vote at primary elections held in accordance with the provisions of this act, provided that electors of president and vice-president of the United States shall be nominated as provided in subdivision 2 of section 24 of this act; or,

By petitions.

2. By nominating petitions signed and filed as provided by existing laws.

United States senator.

Party candidates for the office of United States senator shall have their names placed on the official primary election ballots of their respective parties in the manner herein provided for state officers. This act shall not apply to special elections to fill vacancies; nor to the nomination of officers of municipalities, counties, or cities and counties whose charters provide a system for nominating candidates for such offices; nor to the nomination of officers for any district not formed for municipal purposes; nor to the freeholders to be elected for the purpose of framing a charter; nor to cities of the sixth class; nor to school district officers, other than those elected in a district of which an incorporated city or city and county or part of an incorporated city or city and county constitutes the whole or a part of such school district.

Where not applicable.

SEC. 3. The September primary election shall be held at the legally designated polling places in each precinct on the first Tuesday in September, for the nomination of all candidates to be voted for at the ensuing November election. The day of the September primary election is hereby declared to be a holiday within the meaning of section 10 of the Political Code. Any person entitled to vote at such September primary election shall, on the day of such election, be entitled to absent himself from any service or employment in which he is then engaged or employed, for the period of two consecutive hours, between the time of opening and the time of closing the polls; and such voter shall not, because of so absenting himself, be liable to any penalty, nor shall any deduction be made, on account of such absence, from his usual salary or wages. Any primary election other than September primary election shall be held on Tuesday, three weeks next preceding the election for which such primary election is held.

Other primaries.

SEC. 4. 1. At least sixty days before the time for holding such September primary election in 1912 and biennially thereafter, the secretary of state shall prepare and transmit to each county clerk and to the registrar of voters in any city and county a notice in writing designating the offices for which candidates are to be nominated at such primary election.

Secretary of state to prepare notice of offices.

2. Within ten days after receipt of such notice such county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county shall publish so much thereof as may be applicable to his county, once in each week for six successive weeks in not more than two newspapers published in such county or city and county.

Publication of notice.

3. In the case of September primary elections for the nomination of candidates for city or city and county officers to be voted for at the November election in the odd-numbered years, the city clerk or secretary of the legislative body in any such city or the registrar of voters in any such city and county shall cause the publication of notice of such primary election, together with a complete statement of the offices for which candidates are to be nominated, once in each week for four successive weeks in not more than two newspapers of general circulation published in such city or city and county, the last publication to be made not more than forty and not less than fourteen days before such primary election.

4. In the case of primary elections other than the September primary elections the city clerk or secretary of the legislative body of the political subdivision for which such primary election shall be held shall cause one publication of such notice to be given, such publication to be not more than forty and not less than fourteen days before such primary election.

SEC. 5. 1. The name of no candidate shall be printed on an official ballot to be used at any primary election unless at least thirty-five days prior to the primary election, if the candidate is to be voted for at the September primary election, and at least fourteen days prior to the primary election, if the candidate is to be voted for at a primary election other than the in more than one county, or throughout the entire state, the nomination papers, properly assembled by precincts, may be consolidated and fastened or bound together by counties; but in no case shall nomination papers signed by electors of different counties be fastened or bound up together.

County clerk to examine nomination papers.

The county clerk of any county or registrar of voters of any city and county shall examine all nomination papers herein provided for which purport to have been signed by electors of his county or city and county, and shall disregard any name appearing on such paper or papers which is not on an affidavit of registration in his office. Such officer shall affix to all nomination papers a certificate reciting that he has examined the same and stating the number of names signed thereto which appear upon the affidavits of registration. All nomination papers which by this act are required to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, shall be left with the county clerk or registrar of voters for examination, as above provided, at least forty days prior to the September primary election, and shall, with such certificate of examination attached, within five days after being so left, be forwarded by such county clerk or registrar of voters to the secretary of state, who shall receive and file the same. The verification of signatures to nomination papers shall not be made by the candidate, nor by any county clerk, or registrar of voters, nor by any of the deputies of such county clerk or registrar of voters. Each candidate shall file his affidavit with the officer to whom, and at the time when, his filing fee is paid, according to the provisions of section 7 of this act; or in cases where no filing fee is required, at the time when his nomination papers are filed; which affidavit shall state his residence, with street and number, if any; his election precinct; that he is a qualified elector in the election precinct in which he resides; the name of his party and that of the office for which he desires to be a candidate; that he intends to affiliate with said party and vote for a majority of the candidates of said party at the ensuing general election, and that if nominated he will accept such nomination and not withdraw, and that he will qualify as such officer if nominated and elected; and he shall also make the statement required in subdivision 5 of section 6 of this act. In the case of a candidate for nomination to a judicial office or a school office, no affidavit shall be made that the candidate intends to affiliate with any party or to vote for a majority or any of the candidates of any party at any election. In the case of a candidate for nomination to a school office no affidavit need be made that the candidate is an elector.

Verification not to be made by candidate, etc.

Affidavit of candidate.

Affidavit of senator and assemblyman.

5. In the case of an elector seeking nomination to the office of state senator or member of the assembly at any primary election next preceding the election of a United States senator in congress, he may include with his affidavit one of the two statements hereinafter set forth in this section and subdivision. But his failure to include either of such statements shall not be a valid ground on the part of the secretary of state for refusal to receive and file his nomination paper or papers.

Such statements, if any be made, shall be in substantially the following form:

STATEMENT NO. 1.

I further declare to the people of California and to the people of the (senatorial or assembly) district that during my term of office, without regard to my individual preference, I will always vote for that candidate for United States senator in congress who shall have received for that office the highest number of the votes cast for that position at the general election next preceding the election of a senator in congress.

Statement No. 1.

Signature of Candidate for Nomination.

If the candidate be unwilling to sign the above statement, he may include with his affidavit the following statement:

STATEMENT NO. 2.

I further declare to the people of California and to the people of the (senatorial or assembly) district, that during my term of office I shall consider the vote of the people for United States senator in congress as nothing more than a recommendation, which I shall be at liberty wholly to disregard, if the reasons for so doing seem to me sufficient.

Statement No. 2.

Signature of Candidate for Nomination.

On the ballot used at the primary election, and on the sample ballot mailed to voters under the provisions of section 13 of this act after or under the name of each candidate for state senator or assemblyman shall appear the words, "Signed Statement No. 1," or "Signed Statement No. 2," or "signed neither statement," according as the candidate included with his affidavit, "Statement No. 1," "Statement No. 2," or neither statement, respectively; and together with the sample primary ballot the county clerk or registrar of voters must include a card or slip of paper on which shall be printed all this subdivision, viz.: subdivision 5 of section 5 of this act.

6. Except in the case of a candidate for nomination to a judicial office or a school office, nomination papers shall be signed as follows: By not less than one per centum and not more than two per centum of the voters of the party of the candidate seeking nomination, within the state or political subdivision thereof in which such candidate seeks nomination.

Per centum of votes necessary as signers.

7. Except in the case of a candidate for nomination to a judicial office or a school office, the basis of percentage in each case shall be upon the highest vote polled by the party for any such candidate as may have been the candidate of such party only at the election upon which the right of the party to participate in the primary election is based, as defined in subdivision 5 of section 1 of this act. Every political party whose membership or members shall comply with the provisions of this act by filing nomination papers for one or more candidates, shall be entitled to a separate party ticket at the primary election.

Basis of percentage.

Independent nomination.

8. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the independent nomination of candidates to be voted for at any general election, by electors or bodies of electors, as provided by section 1188 of the Political Code; except that a candidate who has filed nomination papers as one of the candidates for nomination to any office on the ballots of any political party at a primary election held under the provisions of this act, and who is defeated for such party nomination at such primary election, shall be ineligible for nomination to the same office at the ensuing general election, either as an independent candidate or as the candidate of any other party, and no person shall be permitted to file nomination papers for a party nomination and an independent nomination for the same office, or for more than one office at the same election. Nor shall any person whose name has been written in upon any ballot or ballots for any office at any primary election have his name placed upon the ballot as a candidate for such office at the ensuing general election, except under the provisions of section 1188 of the Political Code, unless at such primary election he shall have received for such office votes equal in number to the minimum number of nomination papers which would have been required to be filed to have placed his name on the primary ballot as a candidate for nomination to such office.

Per centum necessary for judicial and school offices.

9. In the case of a candidate for nomination to a judicial office or a school office, nomination papers shall be signed by not less than one half of one per centum, nor more than two per centum of the total vote cast by all political parties at the last election for such judicial office or school office in the state or political subdivision thereof in which such candidate for judicial office or school office seeks nomination.

Record of nominations.

10. The officer with whom nomination papers are filed shall keep a record in which he shall enter the names of all persons filing the same, the name of the office, the party, if any, and the time of filing.

Nomination papers filed.

SEC. 6. All nomination papers provided for by this act shall be filed as follows:

1. For state officers, United States senators, representatives in congress, members of the state senate and assembly and all officers voted for in districts comprising more than one county, in the office of the secretary of state.

2. For officers to be voted for wholly within one county or city and county, except representatives in congress, and members of the state senate and assembly in the office of the county clerk of such county or in the office of the registrar of voters in such city and county.

3. For city officers, in the office of the city clerk or secretary of the legislative body of such city or municipality.

4. When nomination papers shall have been received which contain two per centum of the total vote as limited by subdivisions 6 and 9 of section 5 of this act, the officer with whom such papers are required to be filed shall not receive or file further nomination papers for the candidate named therein.

5. No more nomination papers shall be secured for any candidate than three per centum of the total vote as limited by subdivisions 6 and 9 of section 5 of this act; provided, that if, through miscalculation or otherwise, more nomination papers are secured than the said three per centum, all nomination papers in excess of said three per centum must have been returned by the candidate by mail to the respective signers thereof before any nomination papers are filed as provided in this section. And in the affidavit required to be filed in subdivision 4 of section 5 of this act, affiant must state whether he has complied with the provisions herein contained in subdivision 5 of section 6 of this act.

SEC. 7. A filing fee of fifty dollars shall be paid to the secretary of state by each candidate for state office or for the United States senate. Filing fees.

2. A filing fee of twenty-five dollars shall be paid to the secretary of state by each candidate for representative in congress or for any office, except member of senate and assembly, to be voted for in any district comprising more than one county

3. A filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the secretary of state by each candidate for the state senate or assembly.

4. A filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county when the nomination paper or papers and affidavit of any candidate to be voted for wholly within one county or city and county are filed with such county clerk or registrar of voters.

5. A filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the city clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any municipality when the nomination paper or papers and affidavit of any candidate for a city office are filed with such clerk or secretary of such legislative body.

6. No filing fee shall be required from any candidate for an office to the holder of which no compensation is required to be paid or for township offices, the compensation to the holder of which does not exceed the sum of nine hundred dollars per annum.

7. In no case shall the secretary of state receive any nomination papers for filing until the requisite fee for such filing, as prescribed in this section, has first been paid to him.

8. When a person is nominated for an office by reason of his name having been written on a ballot that has been voted at any primary election provided for by this act, he must pay the same filing fee provided for the same office to the same officer as would have been required if nomination papers had been filed to place his name on the primary ballot; otherwise his name must not be printed on the ballot at the ensuing general election, provided he is not the nominee of another party for the same office.

Disposition of
fees.

SEC. 8. The county clerk shall immediately pay to the county treasurer, and the registrar of voters in any city and county shall immediately pay to the city and county treasurer, all fees received from candidates. The city clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any municipality shall immediately pay to the city treasurer all fees received from candidates. Within ten days after the last day for filing nomination papers the secretary of state shall pay to the state treasurer all fees received from candidates and shall apportion the fees paid to him by each candidate equally among the counties within which such candidate is to be voted for and certify such apportionment to the state controller, who shall issue warrants on the state treasurer for the amount due each county and the state treasurer shall pay the same.

Expenses
of ballots, etc., how paid.

SEC. 9. The expense of providing all ballots, blanks and other supplies to be used at any primary election provided for by this act and all expenses necessarily incurred in the preparation for or the conduct of such primary election shall be paid out of the treasury of the city, county and state, as the case may be, in the same manner, with like effect and by the same officers as in the case of general elections.

Secretary of state to transmit list of names.

SEC. 10. At least thirty days before any September primary election preceding a November election the secretary of state shall transmit to each county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county a certified list containing the name and post office address of each person for whom nomination papers have been filed in the office of such secretary of state and who is entitled to be voted for in such county at such primary election, together with a designation of the office for which such person is a candidate and of the party or principle he represents. In the case of each candidate for nomination to the office of state senator or assemblyman, at the primary election next preceding the election of a United States senator in congress, the secretary of state shall certify as to whether such person has signed and included with his affidavit statement No. 1, statement No. 2, or neither statement, as such statements are defined in subdivision 5 of section 5 of this act. Such county clerk or registrar of voters shall forthwith, upon receipt thereof, publish under the proper party designation the title of each office, the names and addresses of all persons for whom nomination papers have been filed, the date of the primary election, the hours during which the polls will be open, and that the primary election will be held at the legally designated polling places in each precinct, which shall be particularly designated. It shall be the duty of the county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county to cause such publication to be made for two successive weeks prior to said primary election.

County
clerks to publish under party designation.

SEC. 11. Every publication required by this act shall be made in not more than two newspapers of general circulation published in such county or city and county, and one of such newspapers shall represent the political party that cast at the last preceding general election the highest number of votes in such county or city and county, and one of such newspapers, if any, shall represent the party which cast the next highest number of votes at such election. In any case where the publication of the notices provided for by this act can not be made as hereinbefore provided it shall be made in any newspaper having a general circulation in the city or county in which the notice is required to be published.

In what newspapers publication is to be made.

SEC. 12. 1. All voting at primary elections within the meaning of this act shall be by ballot. A separate official ballot for each political party shall be printed and provided for use at each voting precinct. The ballots must have a different tint or color for each of the political parties participating in the primary election. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county, or of the registrar of voters in any city and county, to provide such printed official ballots to be used at any September primary election for the nomination of candidates to be voted for in such county or city and county at the ensuing November election. It shall be the duty of the city clerk or secretary of the legislative body of any municipality to provide such printed official ballots for any primary election other than the September primary election. Such official ballots to be used at any primary election shall be printed on official paper, furnished by the secretary of state, in the manner provided by section 1196 of the Political Code, and in the form hereinafter provided. The names of all candidates for the respective offices for whom the prescribed nomination papers have been duly filed shall be printed thereon.

Voting, ballots, etc.

Ballots on paper furnished by secretary of state.

2. Official primary election ballots used at any primary election for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at any presidential or general state election shall be not less than twelve inches wide and as long as the herein prescribed captions, headings, party designations, directions to voters and lists of names of candidates, properly subdivided according to the several offices to be nominated for, may require; and no official primary election ballot shall be less than six and one half inches wide.

Size of ballots.

3. Across the top of the ballot shall be printed in heavy-faced gothic capital type, not smaller than forty-eight point, the words, "Official Primary Election Ballot." Beneath this heading shall be printed in heavy-faced gothic capital type, not smaller than twenty-four point, the party designation. The instructions to voters shall be printed in ten point gothic type. In the case of official primary election ballots to be used at any primary election held for the nomination of candidates other than those to be voted for at a presidential or a general state election, and on which, in accordance with the provisions of this act, the names of candidates may be printed in a single column or in two parallel columns, as the case may be, the words "Official Primary Election Ballot" shall be printed thereon in heavy-faced gothic capital type, not smaller than twenty-four point. The party designation shall be printed in heavy-faced gothic capital type, not smaller than eighteen point. The instructions to voters shall be printed in ten point gothic type.

Instructions to voters.

4. At least three eighths of an inch below the assembly district designation and the date of the primary election shall be printed in ten point gothic type, double leaded, the following instructions to voters:

To vote for a person whose name appears on the ballot, stamp a cross (X) in the square at the right of the name of the person for whom you desire to vote. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on the ballot, write his name in the blank space provided for that purpose. To vote for delegates to conventions write or paste the name or names of a qualified elector or electors in the blank space or spaces provided therefor.

Names in parallel columns.

5. The instructions to voters shall be separated from the lists of candidates and the designations of the several offices to be nominated for by one light and one heavy line or rule. The names of the candidates and the respective offices shall, except as may be hereinafter otherwise provided, be printed on the ballot in four or more parallel columns, each two and one half inches wide. The number of such parallel columns shall be exactly divisible by two, and such parallel columns shall be equally divided on the ballot for state and county tickets by a solid black line, extending down from the printed lines separating the instructions to voters from the lists of names of candidates to the bottom margin of the ballot. In the case of a primary election for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at a presidential or general state election the order of precedence shall be as follows, that is to say: In the columns to the left of the solid black dividing line shall be printed the groups of names of candidates for nomination to state, district and judicial offices, United States senator in congress if any, representative in congress, state senator and member of assembly. In the parallel columns to the right of the heavy black dividing line shall be printed the groups of names of candidates for nomination to county and township offices and to the office of justice of the peace. In the case of primary elections for the nomination of candidates for city, city and county or municipal offices only, the groups of names of candidates may be printed in two parallel columns and the order of precedence shall be determined by the legislative body of such city or municipality or by the board of election commissioners of any such city and county. In the case of primary elections for the nomination of congressional candidates including United States senator in congress, legislative and judicial officers other than justice of the peace, the groups or lists of names of candidates may be printed on the ballot in a single column, and shall be printed in the following order of procedure, that is to say: Judicial officers, except judges of the superior court, United out state.

If the office is that of representative in congress, or is an office the candidates for nomination to which are to be voted on in more than one county or city and county, but not throughout the entire state, except the office of state senator or assemblyman, the secretary of state shall arrange the names of all candidates for such office in alphabetical order for that assembly district which is lowest in numerical order of any assembly district in which such candidates are to be voted on; and thereafter for each succeeding assembly district in which such candidates are to be voted on, the name appearing first for such office in the last preceding district shall be placed last, the order of the other names remaining unchanged. In transmitting to each county clerk or registrar of voters the certified list of names as required in section 10 of this act, the secretary of state shall certify and transmit the list of candidates for nomination to each office according to assembly districts, in the order of arrangement as determined by the above provisions; and in the case of each county or city and county containing more than one assembly district, he shall transmit separate lists for each assembly district. Except for the office of state senator or assemblyman, the order in which the names filed with the secretary of state shall appear upon the ballot, shall be for each assembly district the order as determined by the secretary of state in accordance with the above provisions, and as certified and transmitted by him to each county clerk or registrar of voters.

9. Each group of candidates to be voted on shall be preceded by the designation of the office for which the candidates seek nomination, and the words "Vote for One" or "Vote for Two" or more according to the number to be elected to such office at the ensuing election. Such designation of the office to be nominated for and of the number of candidates to be nominated shall be printed in heavy-faced gothic type, not smaller than ten point. The word or words designating the office shall be printed flush with the left-hand margin and the words "Vote for One" or "Vote for Two" or more, as the case may be, shall extend to the extreme right of the column and over the voting square. The designation of the office and the direction for voting shall be separated from the names of the candidates by a light line.

10. The names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot, without indentation, in roman capital type not smaller than eight point, between light lines or rules three eighths of an inch apart. Under each group of names of candidates shall be printed as many blank spaces, defined by light lines or rules, three eighths of an inch apart, as there are to be candidates nominated for such office. To the right of the names of the candidates shall be printed a light line or rule so as to form a voting square three eighths of an inch square. Each

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS:

To vote for a candidate of your selection stamp a cross (X) in the voting square next to the right of the name of such candidate. Where two or more candidates for the same office are to be elected, stamp a cross (X) after the names of all the candidates for that office for whom you desire to vote not to exceed, however, the number of candidates who are to be elected. If the ballot does not contain the names of candidates for all offices for which you may desire to vote, you may vote for candidates for such offices so omitted by writing the name of the candidate for whom you wish to vote in the blank space left for that purpose. To vote for a person not on the ballot, write the name of such person under the title of the office in the blank space left for that purpose. To vote on any question, proposition or constitutional amendment, stamp a cross (X) in the voting square after the word "Yes" or after the word "No". All marks, except the cross (X) are forbidden. All distinguishing marks or erasures are forbidden and make the ballot void. If you wrongly stamp, tear or deface this ballot, return it to the Inspector of Election and obtain another.

group of names of candidates shall be separated from the succeeding group by one light and one heavy line or rule. Each series of groups shall be headed by the word "State," "Congressional," "Legislative," "County" or "Municipal" or other proper general classification, as the case may be, printed in heavy-faced gothic capital type, not smaller than twelve point. All official primary election ballots shall have printed on the back and immediately below the center thereof, in eighteen point gothic capital type, the words "Official Primary Election Ballot," and underneath these words the respective numbers of the congressional, senatorial and assembly districts in which each ballot is to be voted. In the case of a primary election for the nomination of candidates for city or city and county offices only, the designations on the back of the ballot, in addition to the words "Official Primary Election Ballot," shall be the official designation of the respective ward or the number of the assembly district in any such city and county in which each ballot is to be voted.

Printing
on back.

11. At the bottom of the last column on any official primary election ballot to be voted in September for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at the ensuing November election, there shall be left as many blank spaces defined by light lines or rules three eighths of an inch apart as there are delegates to be elected to the county convention of such party as shall have been previously apportioned by the county committee of such party and which shall be preceded by the words "Delegates to County Convention," "Vote for One" or "Vote for Two," or more, as the case may be, according to such apportionment, in which blank spaces the voter may write or paste the name or names of qualified electors of his party as delegates to the county convention of such party. Apportionment by the county central committee shall be such that not more than ten delegates shall be voted for by any one voter. The ballot shall be printed on the same leaf with a stub and separated therefrom by a perforated line across the top of the ballot. On each ballot a perforated line shall extend from top to bottom one half inch from the right hand side of such ballot, and upon the half-inch strip thus formed there shall be no printing except the number of the ballot which shall be on the back of each strip, in such position that it shall appear on the outside when the ballot is folded. The number on each ballot shall be the same as that on the corresponding stub, and the ballots and stubs shall be numbered consecutively in each county: provided, that the sequence of numbers on such official ballots and stubs for each party shall begin with the number one.

Sample ballots to be mailed to voter.

SEC. 13. At least twenty days before the September primary election each county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county shall prepare separate sample ballots for each political party, placing thereon in the order provided in subdivision 7 of section 12 of this act, and under the appropriate title of each office, the names of all candidates for whom nomination papers have been duly filed with him, or have been certified to him by the secretary of state, to be voted for at the primary election in his county or city and county. Such sample ballots shall be printed on tinted or colored paper, and one sample ballot of the party to which the voter belongs as evidenced by his registration shall be mailed to each voter entitled to vote at such September primary election not more than ten nor less than five days before the election. Such clerk or registrar of voters shall forthwith submit the ticket of each political party to the chairman of the county committee of such party and shall mail a copy to each candidate for whom nomination papers have been filed with him or whose name has been certified to him by the secretary of state, to the post office address as given in such nomination paper or certification, and he shall post a copy of each sample ballot in a conspicuous place in his office. Before such primary election the county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county shall cause the official ballot to be printed as provided by section 12 of this act, and distributed in the same manner and in the same quantities as provided in sections 1198, 1199 and 1201 of the Political Code for the distribution of ballots for elections. In the case of primary elections for the nomination of candidates for city offices it shall be the duty of the city clerk, secretary of the legislative body of such city or municipality, or such other officer charged by law with the duty of preparing and distributing the official ballots used at elections in such city or municipality, to prepare and mail the sample ballot and to prepare and distribute the official primary election ballots, and so far as applicable and not otherwise provided herein the provisions of this act shall apply to the nomination of all candidates for city offices.

Polls open.

SEC. 14. The polls must be opened at six o'clock of the morning of the day of primary election and must be kept open until six o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, when the polls shall be closed; provided, however, that if at the hour of closing there are any voters in the polling place, or in line at the door, who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so since appearing, the polls shall be kept open a sufficient time to enable them to vote. But no one who shall arrive at the polling place after six o'clock in the afternoon shall be entitled to vote, although the polls may be open when he arrives. No adjournment or intermission shall be taken except as provided in the case of elections.

Election officers.

SEC. 15. The officers for primary elections shall be the same, and shall be appointed in the same manner, as provided by law for general elections, and such officers shall receive the same compensation for their services at primary elections as provided by law for general elections. It shall be the duty of the proper officers to furnish the original affidavits of registration and indexes for use at primary elections, which shall show the names of all voters entitled to vote at such primary elections, and shall be numbered, for purposes of the primary election, in like manner as provided in section 1113 of the Political Code. And all the provisions of section 1096 of the Political Code, so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby made applicable to primary elections within the meaning of this act.

SEC. 16. Any elector offering to vote at a primary election may be challenged by any elector of the city, city and county or county, upon either or all of the grounds specified in section 1230 of the Political Code, but his right to vote the primary election ticket of the political party designated in his affidavit of registration, as provided in section 1096 of the Political Code, shall not be challenged on any ground or subjected to any tests other than those provided by the constitution and section 1230 of the Political Code of this state.

SEC. 17. Any elector who has, at least thirty days before the day of any primary election, qualified by registration and by declaration of the political party with which he intends to affiliate, as provided by section 1096 of the Political Code, shall be entitled to vote at such primary election, such right to vote being subject to challenge only as hereinbefore provided; and shall, on writing his name or having it written for him on the roster, as provided by law for general elections in this state, receive the official primary election ballot of the political party designated in his affidavit of registration, and no other; provided, however, that no one shall be entitled to vote at any primary election who has not been a resident of the state one year, and of the county ninety days, preceding the day upon which such primary election is held. He shall be instructed by a member of the board as to the proper method of marking and folding his ballot, and he shall then retire to an unoccupied booth and without undue delay stamp the same with the rubber stamp there found. If he shall spoil or deface the ballot he shall at once return the same to the ballot clerk and receive another.

SEC. 18. The voter shall designate his choice on the ballot by stamping a cross (X) in the small square opposite the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote. If he shall stamp more names than there are candidates to be nominated for any office, or if for any reason it be impossible to determine his choice for any office, his ballot shall not be counted for such office, but the rest of his ballot, if properly stamped, shall be counted. No ballot shall be rejected for any technical error which does not render it impossible to determine the voter's choice, nor even though such ballot be somewhat soiled or defaced.

SEC. 19. When a voter has stamped his ballot he shall fold it so that its face shall be concealed and only the printed designation on the back thereof shall be visible, and hand the same to the member of the board in charge of the ballot box. Such folded ballot shall be voted as ballots are voted at general elections and the name of the voter checked upon the register as having voted.

Adjournment of board.

SEC. 20. No adjournment or intermission whatever shall take place until the polls shall be closed and until all the votes cast at such polls shall be counted and the result publicly announced, but this shall not be deemed to prevent any temporary recess while taking meals or for the purpose of other necessary delay; provided, that no more than one member of the board shall at any time be absent from the polling place.

Canvass of votes.

SEC. 21. As soon as the polls are finally closed the judges must immediately proceed to canvass the votes cast at such primary election. The canvass must be public, in the presence of bystanders, and must be continued without adjournment until completed and the result thereof declared. Except as hereinafter provided, the canvass shall be conducted, completed and returned as provided by sections 1253, 1254, 1255, 1256, 1257, 1258, 1259, 1260, 1261, 1262, 1263, 1264, 1265, 1266, 1267 and 1268 of the Political Code of this state; provided, however, that the ballots of each party must be sealed and returned in separate envelopes. The number of ballots agreeing or being made to agree with the number of names on the lists, as provided by section 1255 of the Political Code, the board must take the ballots from the box, count those cast by each party, and string them separately; count all the votes cast for each party candidate for the several offices and record the same on the tally lists.

Supervisors, etc., to returns.

SEC. 22. The board of supervisors of each county, the board of election commissioners in any city and county, or, in the case of a city or municipal primary election, the officers charged by law with the duty of canvassing the vote at any city or municipal election in such political subdivision, shall meet at the usual place at one o'clock in the afternoon of the first Thursday after each primary election to canvass the returns, or as soon thereafter as all the returns are in. When begun the canvass shall be continued until completed, which shall not be later than six o'clock in the afternoon of the sixteenth day following such primary election. The clerk of the board must, as soon as the result is declared, enter upon the records of such board a statement of such result, which statement shall contain the whole number of votes cast for each candidate of each political party, and for delegates to county and municipal conventions, if any, and a duplicate as to each political party shall be delivered to the county, city and county or city chairman of such political party, as the case may be. The clerk shall also make an additional duplicate statement in the same form, showing the votes cast for each candidate not voted for wholly within the limits of such county or city and county. The county clerk or registrar of voters in any city and county shall forthwith send to the secretary of state by registered mail or by express one complete copy of all returns as to such candidates, and as to all candidates for the state assembly, state senate, representatives in congress and judicial offices, except justices of the peace. The clerk shall also prepare a separate statement of the names of the candidates of each political party who have received the highest number of votes for the several offices to be voted for wholly within such county, city and county or other political subdivision in which such primary election was held. The secretary of state shall, not later than the twenty-fifth day after any primary election, compile the returns for United States senator and for all candidates voted for in more than one county, and for all candidates for the assembly, state senate, representatives in congress and judicial offices, except justices of the peace, and shall make out and file in his office a statement thereof.

SEC. 23. Except in the case of a candidate for nomination to a judicial office or a school office, the person receiving the highest number of votes, at a primary election as the candidate for the nomination of a political party for an office shall be the candidate of the party for such office, and his name as such candidate shall be placed on the official ballot voted at the ensuing election; provided, he has paid the filing fee required by subdivision 8 of section 7 of this act. The name of the person in each political party who receives at a primary election the highest number of votes for United States senator shall also be placed on the official ballot under the heading "United States Senator." In the case of a judicial office or a school office, the candidates equal in number to twice the number to be elected to such office, or less, if so there be, who receive the highest number of votes cast by all the political parties participating in the primary election for nomination to such office, shall be the candidates for such office at the ensuing election, and their names as such candidates shall be placed on the official ballot voted at the ensuing election; provided, however, that in case there is but one person to be elected at the November election to a judicial or a school office, any candidate who receives at the September primary election a majority of the total number of votes cast for all the candidates for such office shall be the only candidate for such office at the ensuing election; and provided, further, that nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to prevent any person who was not a candidate at the primary election from becoming a candidate for such office under the provisions of section 1188 of the Political Code. The elector receiving the highest number of votes of his party in his district, ward or precinct for delegate shall be a representative of his party from the political subdivision in which he was elected in all conventions of his party in such county or city in which such political subdivision is entitled to representation. When two or more delegates are to be elected from the same political subdivision, the elector receiving a plurality over the elector next in number of votes, shall be declared elected, until as many delegates have been chosen as have been apportioned to such district, ward or precinct. It shall be the duty of the officers charged with the canvass of the returns of any primary election in any county, city and county or municipality to cause to be issued official certificates of nomination to such party candidates as have received the highest number of votes as the candidates for the nomination of such party for any offices to be voted for wholly within such county, city and county, or municipality, and cause to be issued to such delegate a certificate of his election. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to issue official certificates of nomination to candidates nominated under the provisions of this act for representatives in congress, members of the state senate and assembly and officers voted for in more than one county. Not less than thirty days before the November election the secretary of state shall certify to the county clerks or registrars of voters of each county and city and county within the state, the name of every person entitled to receive votes within such county or city and county at said November election who has received the nomination as a candidate for public office under and pursuant to the provisions of this act, and whose nomination is evidenced by the compilation and statement required to be made by said secretary of state and filed in his office, as provided in section 22 of this act. Such certificates shall, in addition to the names of such nominees respectively, also show separately and respectively for each nominee the name of the political party or organization which has nominated such person, if any, and the designation of the public office for which he is so nominated. The secretary of state shall also certify to the county clerk or registrar of voters the names of those persons who have received in their respective parties the highest number of votes for United States senator.

Secretary of state to certify names of persons entitled to receive votes.

Party conventions.

SEC. 24. 1. Party conventions of delegates chosen as hereinafter provided may be held in this state, or any political subdivision thereof, for the purpose of promulgating platforms and transacting such other business of the party as is not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Promulgation of party platforms.

2. The candidates for state officers, if any, and the candidates for state senate and assembly nominated by each political party at the primary election, and state senators of such political party whose term of office extends beyond the first Monday in January of the year next ensuing, shall meet in state convention at the state capitol at two o'clock in the afternoon of the fourth Tuesday of September after the date on which any primary election is held preliminary to the general November election. There shall be as many such state conventions held at this time as there were political parties nominating state, congressional or legislative tickets at the primary election. The members of each convention shall forthwith formulate the state platforms of their party, which said state platform of each political party shall be framed at such time that it shall be made public not later than six o'clock in the afternoon of the following Thursday. They shall also proceed to elect a state central committee of their party to consist of at least three (3) members from each congressional district, who shall hold office until a new state central committee shall have been selected. In each bissextile or leap year they shall also nominate as the candidates of their party as many electors of president and vice-president of the United States as the state is then entitled to.

3. In years when candidates for president and vice-president of the United States are to be nominated, the state central committee of any political party shall issue a call for a state convention to be held in the month of May, for the purpose of electing delegates to the national convention to nominate candidates for president and vice-president of the United States. At least fifty days before the date fixed for said state convention, said call shall be filed with the secretary of state and a copy thereof, signed by the chairman and secretary of the state central committee, shall be mailed to the chairman and secretary of each county committee of their respective parties within the state. The call for said convention shall fix the time and place for holding said state convention, together with a statement of the number of delegates entitled to seats therein, and the number of delegates apportioned to each county. The chairman and secretary of each county committee shall, within ten days after receipt of a copy of the call for the May state convention issued by the state central committee, issue a call for the assembling of a county convention, which county convention shall be composed of the delegates elected to the county convention at the last preceding September primary election. Such call shall be filed with the county clerk and a copy thereof mailed to each delegate within such county. The call issued by the county committee shall set forth the time and place for holding such county convention and the purposes of such convention, together with a statement of the number of delegates to the state convention to be chosen by said county convention.

Conventions to nominate candidates for president, etc.

4. A county convention shall be called in the manner following: The county central committee of any political party shall, at least thirty days prior to each September primary election, file a written petition signed by its chairman and secretary, with the county clerk, which petition shall contain the date and place of holding such convention, the number of delegates entitled to seats therein, also the number of delegates apportioned to each election subdivision in the territory which said convention will represent; also a brief statement of the purposes for which such convention is called, and the chairman and secretary of such county central committee shall mail or caused to be mailed a notice containing the substance of such petition to each committeeman of such party in the county. Such convention notice shall provide for the selection of a county central committee, which shall have control and management of the party campaign under the general directions of the state central committee or of an executive committee selected by such state central committee. In any county the county committee shall be selected by the county convention.

Municipal
conventions.

5. City and county or municipal conventions shall be called in like manner as state and county conventions, and delegates thereto shall be elected at primary elections held in such city and county or municipality to nominate candidates for office in such political subdivisions in like manner as herein provided for the election of delegates to county conventions. In any city and county the petition calling such convention shall be filed with the registrar of voters, and in municipalities, with the secretary or clerk of the legislative body of such municipality, and the names of candidates for delegates to such conventions shall be written or pasted on the official primary ballot in like manner and form as herein provided for county conventions. In any city and county the county committee shall be selected by the county convention.

holding conventions.

6. County, city and county, and municipal conventions shall be held not later than two weeks after the primary election at which delegates to such conventions are chosen, and the state convention not later than four weeks after the September election.

Congressional district committees.

Each party candidate nominated for representative in congress may, not later than Tuesday three weeks after the primary election, appoint a congressional district committee, which committee shall consist of not less than one nor more than three members from each assembly district in such congressional district. Such committee, if any, shall serve for the term of two years. State central committees shall be selected by the state conventions of each political party, to consist of not less than three members from each congressional district, who shall hold office until a new state central committee shall have been selected. Each such committee may select an executive committee and shall choose its officers by ballot and each committee and its officers shall have the powers usually exercised by such committees and the officers thereof in so far as may be consistent with this act. The various officers and committees now in existence shall exercise the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed until their successors are chosen in accordance with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 25. In case as a result of any primary election a person has received a nomination to any elective office without first having filed nominating papers and having his name printed on the primary election ballot, he may at least thirty days before the day of election cause his name to be withdrawn from nomination by filing, in the office where he would have filed his nominating papers had he been a candidate for nomination, his request therefor in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before the county clerk of the county in which he resides, and no name so withdrawn shall be printed on the election ballot for the ensuing general election. The vacancy created by the withdrawal of such person as aforesaid, or on account of the ineligibility of such person to qualify as a candidate because of the inhibitions of subdivision 8 of section 5 of this act shall not be filled. In all other cases vacancies occurring after the holding of any primary election may be filled by the party committee of the city, county, city and county, district or state, as the case may be.

Filling vacancies.

SEC. 26. In case of a tie vote, if for an office to be voted for wholly within one county or city and county, the county, city and county or city board, as the case may be, shall forthwith summon the candidates who have received such tie votes to appear before such board, and such board in the presence of such candidates shall determine the tie by lot. In the case of a tie vote for an office to be voted for in more than one county, such tie shall be determined by lot by the secretary of state in the presence of the candidates or their legally appointed representatives. Such summons must in every case be mailed to the address of the candidate as it appears upon his affidavit of registration.

SEC. 27. Whenever it shall be made to appear by affidavit to the supreme court or district courts of appeal or superior court of the proper county that an error or omission has occurred or is about to occur in the placing of any name on an official primary election ballot, that any error has been or is about to be committed in printing such ballot, or that any wrongful act has been or is about to be done by any judge or clerk of a primary election, county clerk, registrar of voters in any city and county, canvassing board or any member thereof, or other person charged with any duty concerning the primary election, or that any neglect of duty has occurred or is about to occur, such court shall order the officer or person charged with such error, wrong or neglect to forthwith correct the error, desist from the wrongful act or perform the duty, or forthwith show cause why he should not do so. Any person who shall fail to obey the order of such court shall be cited forthwith to show cause why he shall not be adjudged in contempt of court.

SEC. 28. Any candidate at a primary election, desiring to contest a nomination of another candidate for the same office, may, within five days after the completion of the official canvass, file an affidavit in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he desires to contest the vote returned from any precinct or precincts in such county, and thereupon have a recount of the ballots cast in any such precinct or precincts, in accordance with the provisions of this section. Such affidavit must specify separately each precinct in which a recount is demanded, and the nature of the mistake, error, misconduct, or other cause why it is claimed that the returns from such precinct do not correctly state the vote as cast in such precinct, for the contestant and the contestee. The contestee must be made a party respondent, and so named in the affidavit. No personal service or other service than as herein provided need be made upon the contestee. Upon the filing of such affidavit the county clerk shall forthwith post in a conspicuous place in his office, upon a bulletin board to be prepared for that purpose, and to have upon it in conspicuous letters the words "Notice of Primary Election Contests" a copy of the affidavit. Upon the filing of such affidavit and the posting of the same, the superior court of the county shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter and of the parties to such contest, and all candidates at any such primary election are permitted to be candidates under this act, upon the condition that such jurisdiction for the purposes of the proceeding authorized by this section shall exist in the manner and under the conditions provided for by this section. The contestant on the date of filing such affidavit, must mail a copy thereof to the contestee in a sealed envelope, with postage prepaid, addressed to the contestee at the place of residence named in the affidavit of registration of such contestee, and shall make an affidavit of such mailing and file the same with the county clerk to become a part of the records of the contest. Within two days after the expiration of the time for filing such affidavits, the county clerk shall present all such affidavits and proof of posting as aforesaid to the judge of the superior court of the county, or any judge acting in his place, or the presiding judge of the superior court of a county or city and county, or any one acting in his stead, which judge shall, upon such presentation, forthwith designate the time and place where such contest shall proceed, and in counties or cities and counties where there are more than one superior judge, assign all the cases to one department by the order of such court. Such order must so assign such case or cases, and fix such time and place for hearing, which time must not be less than one nor more than three days from the presentation of the matter to the court by the county clerk, as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the contestee to appear either in person or by attorney, at the time and place so fixed, and to take notice of the order fixing such time and place from the records of the court, without service. No special appearance of the contestee for any purpose shall be permitted, and any appearance whatever of the contestee or any request of the court by the contestee or his attorney, shall be entered as a general appearance in the contest. No demurrer or objection can be taken by the contestee in any other manner than by answer, and all the objections of the contestee must be contained in his answer in the contest. The court, if the contestee shall appear, must require the answer to be made within three days from the time and place as above provided, and if the contestee shall not appear shall note his default, and shall proceed with all convenient speed. If the number of votes which are sought to be recounted, or the number of contests are such that the judge shall be of opinion that it will require additional judges to enable the contest or contests to be determined in time to print the ballots for the election, if there be only one judge for such county, he may obtain the service of any other superior judge, and the proceedings shall be the same as herein provided in counties where there is more than one superior court judge. If the proceeding is in a county or city and county where there is more than one superior court judge, the judge to whom the case or cases shall be assigned, shall notify the presiding judge forthwith, of the number of judges which he deems necessary to participate, in order to finish the contest or contests in time to print the ballots for the primary election, and the said presiding judge shall forthwith designate as many judges as are necessary to such completion of such contest, by order in writing, and thereupon all of the judges so designated shall participate in the recount of such ballots and the giving of judgment in such contest or contests in the manner herein specified. The said judges so designated by said last mentioned order including the judge, to whom said contests were originally assigned, shall convene upon notice from the judge to whom such contest or contests were originally assigned, and agree upon the precincts which each one of such judges will recount, sitting separately, and thereupon such recount shall proceed before each such judge sitting separately, as to the precincts so arranged, in such manner that the recount shall be made in such precincts before each such judge as to all the contests pending, so that the ballots opened before one judge need not be opened before another judge or department, and the proceedings before such judge in making such recount as to the appointment of the clerk and persons necessary to be assistants of the court in making the same, shall be the same as in contested elections, and the judge shall fix the pay or compensation for such persons and require the payment each day in advance, of the amount thereof by the person who is proceeding with and requiring the recount. When the recount shall have been completed in the manner herein required, if more than one judge has taken part therein, all the judges who took part shall assemble and make the decision of the court, and if there be any differences of opinion, a majority of such judges shall finally determine all such questions, and give the decision or judgment of the court in such contest or contests, separately. Such decision or judgment of the court shall be final in every respect, and no appeal can be had therefrom. The judgment shall be served upon the county clerk or registrar of voters by delivery of a certified copy thereof, and may be enforced summarily in the manner provided in section 27 of this act, and if the contest proceeds in more than one county, and the nominee is to be certified by the secretary of state from the compilation of election returns in his office, then the judgment in each county shall show what, if any changes in the returns in the office of the secretary of state relating to such county or city and county, ought to be made, and all such judgments shall be served upon the secretary of state, by the delivery of a certified copy, and he shall make such changes in the record in his office as such judgment or expenses.

SEC. 29. No candidate for nomination to any elective office, including that of United States senator in congress, shall directly or indirectly pay, expend or contribute any money or other valuable thing, or promise so to do, except for lawful expenses. Lawful expenses as used in this section are limited to expenses for the following purposes only:

1. For the candidate's official filing fee.
2. For the circulating and verifying of nomination papers.
3. For the candidate's personal traveling expenses.
4. For rent and necessary furnishing of halls or rooms, during such candidacy, for public meetings or for committee headquarters.
5. For payment of speakers and musicians at public meetings and their necessary traveling expenses.
6. For printing and distribution of pamphlets, circulars, newspapers, cards, handbills, posters and announcements relative to candidates or political issues or principles.
7. For his share of the reasonable compensation of challengers at the polls.
8. For making canvasses of voters.
9. For clerk hire.
10. For conveying infirm or disabled voters to and from the polls.
11. For postage, expressage, telegraphing, and telephoning, relative to candidacy.

Detailed statement of expenses.

SEC. 30. Every person who shall be a candidate for nomination to any elective office, including that of United States senator in congress, shall make in duplicate, within fifteen days after the primary election, a verified statement, setting forth each and every sum of money contributed, disbursed, expended or promised by him, and, to the best of his knowledge and belief, by any and every other person or association of persons in his behalf wholly or partly in endeavoring to secure his nomination. This statement must show in detail all moneys paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished to him directly or indirectly in aid of his election, together with the name of the person or persons from whom such moneys were received; and must also show in detail, under each of the subdivisions of section 29 of this act, all moneys contributed, loaned, or expended by him directly or indirectly by himself or through any other person, in aid of his election, together with the name of the person or persons to whom such moneys were paid, or disbursed. Such statement must set forth that the affiant has used all reasonable diligence in its preparation, and that the same is true and is as full and explicit as he is able to make it. Within the time aforesaid the candidate shall file one copy of said statement with the officer with whom his nomination papers were filed, and the other with the recorder of the county or city and county in which he resides, who shall record the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, and to be open to public inspection. No officer shall issue any certificate of nomination to any person until such statement as herein provided has been filed.

SEC. 31. Any person violating any of the provisions of section 29 or section 30 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction thereof, in addition to the sentence imposed by the court, he shall forfeit all right to the office for which he was a candidate at the time of violating the provisions aforesaid. Penalty for violation.

SEC. 32. 1. Any person who shall offer, or with knowledge of the same permit any person to offer for his benefit, any bribe to a voter to induce such voter to sign any nomination paper, and any person who shall accept such bribe or any promise of gain of any kind in the nature of a bribe as consideration for signing any nomination paper, whether such bribe or promise of gain in the nature of a bribe be offered or accepted before or after signing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than one hundred and twenty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Bribe voters.

2. Any person who, being in possession of any nomination paper or papers and affidavits entitled to be filed under the provisions of this act, shall wrongfully either suppress, neglect or fail to cause the same to be filed at the proper time and in the proper place shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Failure to file nomination papers.

3. Any act or omission declared to be an offense by the general laws of this state concerning primaries and elections shall also in like case be an offense concerning primary elections as provided for by this act, and shall be punished in the same manner and form as therein provided, and all the penalties and provisions of the law governing elections, except as herein otherwise provided, shall apply in equal force to primary elections as provided for by this act. What acts are offenses against primary election law.

SEC. 33. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state and the attorney general to prepare on or before August 1, 1911, all forms necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, which forms shall be substantially followed in all primary elections held in pursuance hereof. Secretary of state and attorney general to prepare forms.

SEC. 34. This act shall be known as the direct primary law. Title.

SEC. 35. An act approved March 24, 1909, entitled "An act to provide for and regulate primary elections, and providing the method whereby electors of political parties may express their choice at such primary elections for United States senator" is hereby repealed; and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with or in conflict with the provisions of this act are also hereby repealed. Repeal.

CHAPTER 399.

An act relating to the liability of employers for injuries or death sustained by their employees, providing for compensation for the accidental injury of employees, establishing an industrial accident board, making an appropriation therefor, defining its powers and providing for a review of its awards.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Contributory negligence not a bar to recovery.

SECTION 1. In any action to recover damages for a personal injury sustained within this state by an employee while engaged in the line of his duty or the course of his employment as such, or for death resulting from personal injury so sustained, in which recovery is sought upon the ground of want of ordinary or reasonable care of the employer, or of any officer, agent or servant of the employer, the fact that such employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery therein where his contributory negligence was slight and that of the employer was gross, in comparison, but the damages may be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such employee was not guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violation of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to such employee's injury; and it shall not be a defense:

Assumption of risk no defense. Fellow servant doctrine abrogated. Employer not exempt by contract.

(1) That the employee either expressly or impliedly assumed the risk of the hazard complained of.

(2) That the injury or death was caused in whole or in part by the want of ordinary or reasonable care of a fellow servant.

Employer liable for compensation.

SEC. 2. No contract, rule or regulation, shall exempt the employer from any of the provisions of the preceding section of this act.

SEC. 3. Liability for the compensation hereinafter provided for, in lieu of any other liability whatsoever, shall, without regard to negligence, exist against an employer for any personal injury accidentally sustained by his employees, and for his death if the injury shall approximately cause death, in those cases where the following conditions of compensation concur:

When both parties subject to act.

(1) Where, at the time of the accident, both the employer and employee are subject to the provisions of this act according to the succeeding sections hereof.

When employee performing duty.

(2) Where, at the time of the accident, the employee is performing service growing out of and incidental to his employment and is acting within the line of his duty or course of his employment as such.

Where wilful misconduct not cause of injury.

(3) Where the injury is approximately caused by accident, either with or without negligence, and is not so caused by the wilful misconduct of the employee.

And where such conditions of compensation exist for any personal injury or death, the right to the recovery of such compensation pursuant to the provisions of this act, and acts amendatory thereof, shall be the exclusive remedy against the employer for such injury or death, except that when the injury was caused by the personal gross negligence or wilful personal misconduct of the employer, or by reason of his violation of any statute designed for the protection of employees from bodily injury, the employee may, at his option, either claim compensation under this act, or maintain an action for damages therefor; in all other cases the liability of the employer shall be the same as if this and the succeeding sections of this act had not been passed, but shall be subject to the provisions of the preceding sections of this act.

Right to recovery is exclusive remedy unless employer grossly negligent.

SEC. 4. The following shall constitute employers subject to the provisions of this act within the meaning of the preceding section:

(1) The state, and each county, city and county, city, town, village and school districts and all public corporations, every person, firm, and private corporation, (including any public service corporation) who has any person in service under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, and who, at or prior to the time of the accident to the employee for which compensation under this act may be claimed, shall, in the manner provided in the next section, have elected to become subject to the provisions of this act, and who shall not, at the time of such accident, have withdrawn such election, in the manner provided in the next section.

Employer defined.

SEC. 5. Such election on the part of the employer shall be made by filing with the industrial accident board, hereinafter provided for a written statement to the effect that he accepts the provisions of this act, the filing of which statement shall operate, within the meaning of section three of this act, to subject such employer to the provisions of this act and all acts amendatory thereof for the term of one year from the date of the filing of such statement, and thereafter, without further act on his part, for successive terms of one year each, unless such employer shall, at least sixty days prior to the expiration of such first or any succeeding year, file in the office of said board a notice in writing to the effect that he withdraws his election to be subject to the provisions of the act.

Employers subject to provisions of act.

SEC. 6. The term "employee" as used in section three of this act shall be construed to mean:

(1) Every person in the service of the state, or any county, city and county, city, town, village or school district therein, and all public corporations, under any appointment or contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, except any official of the state, or of any county, city and county, city, town, village or school district therein or any public corporation, who shall have been elected or appointed for a regular term of one or more years, or to complete the unexpired portion of any such regular term.

Employee defined.

(2) Every person in the service of another under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, including aliens, and also including minors who are legally permitted to work under the laws of the state, (who, for the purposes of the next section of this act, shall be considered the same and shall have the same power of contracting as adult employees,) but not including any person whose employment is but casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer.

SEC. 7. Any employee as defined in subsection (1) of the preceding section shall be subject to the provisions of this act and of any act amendatory thereof. Any employee as defined in subsection (2) of the preceding section shall be deemed to have accepted and shall, within the meaning of section 3 of this act be subject to the provisions of this act and of any act amendatory thereof, if, at the time of the accident upon which liability is claimed:

Employees subject to provisions of act.

(1) The employer charged with such liability is subject to the provisions of this act, whether the employee has actual notice thereof or not; and

(2) At the time of entering into his contract of hire, express or implied, with such employer, such employee shall not have given to his employer notice in writing that he elects not to be subject to the provisions of this act, or, in the event that such contract of hire was made in advance of such employer becoming subject to the provisions of the act, such employee shall, without giving such notice, remain in the service of such employer for thirty days after the employer has filed with said board an election to be subject to the terms of this act.

SEC. 8. Where liability for compensation under this act exists the same shall be as provided in the following schedule:

Medical and surgical treat-
supplies.

(1) Such medical and surgical treatment, medicines, medical and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, as may be reasonably required at the time of the injury and thereafter during the disability, but not exceeding ninety days, to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury, the same to be provided by the employer, and in case of his neglect or refusal seasonably to do so, the employer to be liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same; provided, however, that the total liability under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of $100.00.

payment.

(2) If the accident causes disability, an indemnity which shall be payable as wages on the eighth day after the injured employee leaves work as the result of the injury, and weekly thereafter, which weekly indemnity shall be as follows:

Payment
in total disability.

(a) If the accident causes total disability, sixty-five per cent of the average weekly earnings during the period of such total disability; provided, that if the disability is such as not only to render the injured employee entirely incapable of work, but also so helpless as to require the assistance of a nurse, the weekly indemnity during the period of such assistance shall be increased to one hundred per cent of the average weekly earnings.

(b) If the accident causes partial disability, sixty-five per cent of the weekly loss in wages during the period of such partial disability. Payment in partial disability.

(c) If the disability caused by the accident is at times total and at times partial, the weekly indemnity during the periods of each such total or partial disability shall be in accordance with said subsections (a) and (b), respectively.

(d) Said subsections (a), (b) and (c) shall be subject to the following limitations:

Aggregate disability indemnity for a single injury shall not exceed three times the average annual earnings of the employee. Disability indemnity limited.

If the period of disability does not last more than one week from the day the employee leaves work as the result of the accident no indemnity whatever shall be recoverable. No indemnity recoverable.

If the period of disability lasts more than one week from the day the employee leaves work as the result of the accident, no indemnity shall be recoverable for the first week of the period of such disability.

The aggregate disability period shall not, in any event extend beyond fifteen years from the date of the accident. Disability period limited.

(3) The death of the injured employee shall not affect the obligation of the employer under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, so far as his liability shall have accrued and become payable at the time of the death, but the death shall be deemed the termination of disability, and the employer shall thereupon be liable for the following death benefits in lieu of any further disability benefits; provided, that such death was approximately caused by the accident causing such disability:

(a) In case the deceased employee leaves a person or persons wholly dependent upon him for support, the death benefit shall be a sum sufficient when added to the benefits which shall, at the time of death, have accrued and become payable under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section to make the total compensation for the injury and death, exclusive of the benefit provided for in subsection (1), equal to three times his annual average earnings, not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, the same to be payable, unless and until the industrial accident board shall otherwise direct, in weekly installments corresponding in amount to the weekly earnings of the employee. Death indemnity when recipient wholly dependent.

(b) In case the deceased employee leaves no one wholly dependent on him for support, but one or more persons partially dependent therefor, the death benefit shall be such percentage of three times such average annual earnings of the employee as the annual amount devoted by the deceased to the support of the person or persons so partially dependent upon him for support bears to such average earnings, the same to be payable, unless and until the industrial accident board shall otherwise direct, in weekly installments corresponding to the weekly earnings of the employee; provided, that the total compensation for the injury and death, exclusive of the benefit Death indemnity recipient partially dependent.

provided for in said subsection (1) shall not exceed three times such average annual earnings.

(c) In the event that the accident shall have approximately caused permanent disability, either total or partial, and the employee shall die within fifteen years after the date of the accident, liability for the death benefits provided for in said subsections (a) and (b) respectively shall exist only where the accident was the approximate cause of death within said period of fifteen years.

Funeral expenses.

(d) If the deceased employee leaves no person dependent upon him for support, and the accident approximately causes death, the death benefit shall consist of the reasonable expenses of his burial not exceeding $100.

Average annual earnings.

SEC. 9. (1) The weekly earning referred to in section 8 shall be one fifty-second of the average annual earnings of the employee; average annual earnings shall not be taken at less than $333.33, nor more than $1,666.66, and between said limits shall be arrived at as follows:

Three hundred times average daily wage

(a) If the injured employee has worked in such employment, whether for the same employer or not, during substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding his injury, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he has earned as such employee during the days when so employed.

(b) If the injured employee has not so worked in such employment during substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employee of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or a similar employment in the same or a neighboring place shall have earned during the days when so employed.

Computation in other cases.

(c) In cases where the foregoing methods of arriving at the average annual earnings of the injured employee can not reasonably and fairly be applied, such annual earnings shall be taken at such sum as having regard to the previous earnings of the injured employee, and of other employees of the same or most similar class, working in the same or most similar employment in the same or neighboring locality, shall reasonably represent the average earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of the injury in the employment in which he was working at such time.

Previous disability not a bar to recovery.

(d) The fact that an employee has suffered a previous disability, or received compensation therefor, shall not preclude him from compensation for a later injury, or for death resulting therefrom, but in determining compensation for the later injury, or death resulting therefrom, his average annual earnings shall be such sum as will reasonably represent his annual earning capacity at the time of the later injury, and shall be arrived at according to the previous provisions of this section.

Computation of weekly loss in wages.

(2) The weekly loss in wages referred to in section 8, shall consist of the difference between the average weekly earnings of the injured employee, computed according to the provisions of this section, and the weekly amount which the injured employee, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, will probably be able to earn, the same to be fixed as of the time of the accident, but to be determined in view of the nature and extent of the injury.

(3) The following shall be conclusively presumed to be solely and wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employee:

Dependent defined.

(a) A wife upon a husband.

(b) A husband upon a wife upon whose earnings he is partially or wholly dependent at the time of her death.

(c) A child or children under the age of eighteen years (or over said age, but physically or mentally incapacitated from earning), upon the parent with whom he or they are living at the time of the death of such parent, there being no surviving dependent parent. In case there is more than one child thus dependent, the death benefit shall be divided equally among them. In all other cases questions of entire or partial dependency shall be determined in accordance with the fact, as the fact may be at the time of the death of the employee, and in such other cases if there is more than one person wholly dependent, the death benefit shall be divided equally among them and persons partially dependent, if any, shall receive no part thereof, and if there is more than one person partially dependent, the death benefit shall be divided among them according to the relative extent of their dependency.

(4) Questions as to who constitute dependents and the extent of their dependency shall be determined as of the date of the death of the employee, and their right to any death benefit shall become fixed as of such time, irrespective of any subsequent change in conditions, and the death benefit shall be directly recoverable by and payable to the dependent or dependents entitled thereto or their legal guardians or trustees.

SEC. 10. No claim to recover compensation under this act shall be maintained unless within thirty days after the occurrence of the accident which is claimed to have caused the injury or death, notice in writing, stating the name and the address of the person injured, the time and the place where the accident occurred, and the nature of the injury, and signed by the person injured or someone in his behalf, or in case of his death, by a dependent or some one in his behalf, shall be served upon the employer by delivering to and leaving with him a copy of such notice or by mailing to him by registered mail a copy thereof in a sealed and posted envelope addressed to him at his last known place of business or residence. Such mailing shall constitute complete service; provided, however, that any payment of compensation under this act, in whole or in part, made by the employer before the expiration of said thirty days shall be equivalent to the notice herein required; and provided, further, that the failure to give any such notice, or any defect or inaccuracy therein, shall not be a bar to recovery under this act if it is found as a fact in the proceedings for collections of the claim that there was no intention to mislead the employer, and that he was not in fact misled thereby; and provided, further, that if no such notice is given and no payment of compensation made, within one year from the date of the accident, the right to compensation therefor shall be wholly barred.

SEC. 11. Wherever in case of injury the right to compensation under this act would exist in favor of any employec, he shall, upon the written request of his employer, submit from time to time to examination by a regular practicing physician, who shall be provided and paid for by the employer, and shall likewise submit to examination from time to time by any regular physician selected by said industrial accident board, or any member or examiner thereof. The employec shall be entitled to have a physician provided and paid for by himself present at any such examination. So long as the employec, after such written request of the employer, shall refuse to submit to such examination, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to begin or maintain any proceeding for the collection of compensation shall be suspended, and if he shall refuse to submit to such examination after direction by the board, or any member or examiner thereof, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to the weekly indemnity which shall accrue and become payable during the period of such refusal or obstruction, shall be barred. Any physician who shall make or be present at any such examination may be required to testify as to the results thereof.

members.

SEC. 12. Any dispute or controversy concerning compensation under this act, including any in which the state may be a party, shall be submitted to a board consisting of three members, which shall be known as the industrial accident board. Within thirty days before this act shall take effect, the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a member who shall serve two years, and another who shall serve three years, and another who shall serve four years. Thereafter such three members shall be appointed and confirmed for terms of four years each. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner for the unexpired term. Each member of the board, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take the oath prescribed by the constitution. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the exercise of any of the powers or authority conferred by this act, and an award by a majority shall be valid. In case of a vacancy, the remaining two members of the board shall exercise all the powers and authority of the board until such vacancy is filled. Each member of the board shall receive an annual salary of three thousand six hundred dollars.

Organization of
board.

SEC. 13. The board shall organize by choosing one of its members as chairman. Subject to the provisions of this act, it may adopt its own rules of procedure and may change the same from time to time in its discretion. The board, when it shall deem it necessary to expedite its business, may from time to time employ one or more expert examiners for such length of time as may be required. It may also appoint a secretary and such clerical help as it may deem necessary. It shall fix the compensation of all assistants so appointed.

SEC. 14. The board shall keep its office at the city of San Francisco, and shall be provided by the secretary of state with a suitable room or rooms, necessary office furniture, stationery, and other supplies. The members of the board and its assistants, shall be entitled to receive from the state their actual and necessary expenses while traveling on the business of the board, but such expenses shall be sworn to by the person who incurred the same, and be approved by the chairman of the board, before payment is made. All salaries and expenses authorized by this act shall be audited and paid out of the general funds of the state the same as other general state expenses are audited and paid.

SEC. 15. Upon the filing with the board by any party in interest of an application in writing stating the general nature of any dispute or controversy concerning compensation under this act, it shall fix a time for the hearing thereof, which shall not be more than forty days after the filing of such application. The board shall cause notice of such hearing to be given to each party interested by service of such notice on him personally or by mailing a copy thereof to him at his last known post office address at least ten days before such hearing. Such hearing may be adjourned from time to time in the discretion of the board, and hearings shall be held at such places as the board shall designate. Either party shall have the right to be present at any hearing, in person or by attorney or any other agent, and to present such testimony as shall be pertinent to the controversy before the board, but the board may, with or without notice to either party, cause testimony to be taken, or inspection of the premises where the injury occurred to be had, or the time books and pay roll of the employer to be examined by any member of the board or any examiner appointed by it, and may from time to time, direct any employee claiming compensation to be examined by a regular physician; the testimony so taken, and the results of any such inspection or examination, to be reported to the board for its consideration upon final hearing. The board, or any member thereof, or any examiner appointed thereby shall have power and authority to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses or parties, and the production of books, papers, or records, and to administer oaths. Obedience to such subpoenas shall be enforced by the superior court of any county, or city and county.

Board

SEC. 16. After final hearing by said board, it shall make and file (1) its findings upon all facts involved in the controversy, and (2) its award, which shall state its determination as to the rights of the party.

Findings and award.

SEC. 17. Either party may present a certified copy of the award to the superior court for any county or city and county, whereupon said court shall, without notice, render a judgment in accordance therewith, which judgment, until and unless set aside as hereinafter provided, shall have the same effect as though duly rendered in an action duly tried and determined by said court, and shall, with the like effect, be entered and docketed.

SEC. 18. The findings of fact made by the board acting within its powers, shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive, and the award, whether judgment has been rendered thereon or not, shall be subject to review only in the manner and upon the grounds following: within thirty days from the date of the award, any party aggrieved thereby may file with the board an application in writing for a review of such award, stating generally the grounds upon which such review is sought; within thirty days thereafter the board shall cause all documents and papers on file in the matter, and a transcript of all testimony which may have been taken therein, to be transmitted with their findings and award to the clerk of the superior court of that county or city and county wherein the accident occurred; such application for a review may thereupon be brought on for hearing before said court upon such record by either party on ten days' notice to the other, subject, however, to the provisions of law for a change of the place of trial or the calling of another judge. Upon such hearing the court may confirm or set aside such award, and any judgment which may theretofore have been rendered thereon, but the same shall be set aside only upon the following grounds:

- (1) That the board acted without or in excess of its powers.
- (2) That the award was procured by fraud.
- (3) That the findings of fact by the board do not support the award.

Court may confirm or set aside award.

Court may remand for further hearing or may enter judgment.

SEC. 19. Upon the setting aside of any award the court may recommit the controversy and remand the record in the case to the board, for further hearing or proceedings, or it may enter the proper judgment upon the findings, as the nature of the case shall demand. An abstract of the judgment entered by the trial court upon the review of any award shall be made by the clerk thereof upon the docket entry of any judgment which may theretofore have been rendered upon such award, and transcripts of such abstract may thereupon be obtained for like entry upon the dockets of the courts of other counties, or city and county.

Appeal from award.

SEC. 20. Any party aggrieved by a judgment entered upon the review of any award, may appeal therefrom within the time and in the manner provided for an appeal from the orders of the superior court; but all such appeals shall be placed on the calendar of the supreme court and brought to a hearing in the same manner as criminal causes on such calendar.

Fees and costs.

SEC. 21. No fees shall be charged by the clerk of any court for the performance of any official service required by this act.

except for the docketing of judgments and for certified copies or transcripts thereof. In proceedings to review an award, costs as between the parties shall be allowed or not in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 22. No claim for compensation under this act shall be assignable before payment, but this provision shall not affect the survival thereof; nor shall any claim for compensation, or compensation awarded, adjudged or paid, be subject to be taken for the debts of the party entitled thereto.

Assignment of claim.

SEC. 23. A claim for compensation for the injury or death of any employee, or any award or judgment entered thereon, shall be entitled to a preference over the other debts of the employer if and to the same extent as the wages of such employee shall be so preferred; but this section shall not impair the lien of any judgment entered upon any award.

Preference of claim.

SEC. 24. Nothing in this act shall affect the organization of any mutual or other insurance company, or any existing contract for insurance or employers' liability, nor the right of the employer to insure in mutual or other companies, in whole or in part, against such liability, or against the liability for the compensation provided for by this act, or to provide by mutual or other insurance, or by arrangement with his employees, or otherwise, for the payment to such employees, their families, dependents, or representatives, of sick, accident or death benefits, in addition to the compensation provided for by this act. But liability for compensation under this act shall not be reduced or affected by any insurance, contributions, or other benefit whatsoever due to or received by the person entitled to such compensation, and the person so entitled shall, irrespective of any insurance or other contract, have the right to recover the same directly from the employer, and in addition thereto, the right to enforce in his own name, in the manner provided in this act, the liability of any insurance company, which may, in whole or in part, have insured the liability for such compensation; provided, however, that payment in whole or in part of such compensation by either the employer or the insurance company, shall, to the extent thereof, be a bar to recovery against the other of the amount so paid; and provided, further, that as between the employer and the insurance company, payment by either directly to the employee, or to the person entitled to compensation, shall be subject to the conditions of the insurance contract between them.

Blank forms.

SEC. 27. The board shall cause to be printed and furnished free of charge to any employer or employee such blank forms as it shall deem requisite to facilitate or promote the efficient administration of this act; it shall provide a proper record book in which shall be entered and indexed the name of every employer who shall file a statement of election under this act, and the date of the filing thereof, and a separate book in which shall be entered and indexed the name of every employer who shall file his withdrawal of such election, and the date of the filing thereof; and a book in which shall be recorded all awards made by the board; and such other books or records as it shall deem required by the proper and efficient administration of this act; all such records to be kept in the office of the board. Upon the filing of a statement of election by an employer to become subject to the provisions of this act, the board shall forthwith cause notice of the fact to be given to his employees, by posting and keeping continuously posted in a public and conspicuous place such notice thereof in the office, shop, or place of business of the employer, or by publishing, or in such other manner as the board shall deem most effective, and the board shall cause notice to be given in like manner of the filing of any withdrawal of such election; but notwithstanding the failure to give, or the insufficiency of, any such notice, knowledge of all filed statements of election and withdrawals of election, and of the time of the filing of the same, shall conclusively be imputed to all employees.

Right to compromise.

SEC. 28. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as impairing the right of parties interested, after the injury or death of an employee, to compromise and settle, upon such terms as they may agree upon, any liability which may be claimed to exist under this act on account of such injury or death, nor as conferring upon the dependents of any injured employee any interest which he may not divert by such settlement or for which he or his estate shall, in the event of such settlement by him, be accountable to such dependents or any of them.

Appropriation.

SEC. 29. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to be used by the industrial accident board in carrying out the purposes of this act, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the general fund from time to time in favor of said industrial accident board for the amounts expended under its direction, and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

SEC. 30. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 31. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of September, A. D. 1911.

CHAPTER 400.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to create a 'fish and game preservation fund' and unite the 'fish commission fund' and the 'game preservation fund' into a common fund to be known as 'fish and game preservation fund.'" approved March 15, 1909, by amending section one thereof, relating to the disposition of the funds mentioned in this act.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section one of an act entitled "An act to create a 'fish and game preservation fund' and unite the 'fish commission fund' and the 'game preservation fund' into a common fund to be known as 'fish and game preservation fund.'" approved March 15, 1909, by amending section one thereof, relating to the disposition of the funds mentioned in said act, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby created a fund to be known as and called "Fish and Game Preservation Fund," which said fund shall be kept in the state treasury, and shall be applicable to the payment of the expense of propagating, protecting, restoring and introducing fish in the public waters of this state, and to the propagation, protection, restoration and transferring of game birds and animals in the state, and to the introduction of game birds and animals into the state, and to the payment of the expenses incurred in the prosecution of offenders against the fish and game, and fish and game license laws of the state, and for the cost of acquisition, construction and maintenance of fish hatcheries in the state, and to all other necessary expenses, approved by the fish and game commissioners.

*Fish and game pres-
fund.*

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts so far as they conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 401.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section 635½, relating to the protection and preservation of fish.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California to be numbered section 635½ and to read as follows:

Use of two mesh fish net a misdemeanor.

635½. Every person who at any time shall cast, extend or use any two-mesh or three-mesh net or trammel net for the catching of fish, shrimp or shellfish in the waters of this state is guilty of a misdemeanor; and all the fines imposed and collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of July, 1912.

CHAPTER 402.

An act to create a reclamation district to be called "Reclamation District Number 832," and providing for the control and management thereof.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Reclamation
District
No. 832.

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created, to be called "Reclamation District Number 832," and the boundaries of such reclamation district shall be as follows:

Commencing at the northeast corner of section eight (8), township seventeen (17) north, range two (2) east; thence west one (1) mile to the northwest corner of said section eight (8); thence south one (1) mile to the southwest corner of said section eight (8); thence west to Butte creek; thence southerly along said Butte creek to the south boundary line of Butte county; thence on a direct line to the center of section thirty-two (32), township seventeen (17) north, range one (1) east, county of Sutter, State of California; thence east six (6) miles to the center of section thirty-two (32), township seventeen (17) north, range two (2) east; thence north one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile to the north line of said section thirty-two (32); thence east one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile to the northeast corner of said section thirty-two (32); thence north four (4) miles to the place of beginning.

Control.

SEC. 2. The management and control of said reclamation district is hereby made subject to the provisions of the Political Code of the State of California and other laws of this state relative to reclamation districts formed under the provisions of said Political Code.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 403.

An act to create a reclamation district to be called "Reclamation District Number 833," and providing for the control and management thereof.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created, to be called "Reclamation District Number 833," and the boundaries of such reclamation district shall be as follows:

Reclamation

CHAPTER 406.

An act regulating and limiting the appropriation of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power; fixing the terms and conditions and providing the manner and procedure upon which water for generating electricity or electrical or other power may be appropriated and providing for the renewal of licenses granted hereunder; providing for the issuing of licenses for the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power and limiting rights under such licenses; prohibiting the appropriation of water or the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power for a longer period than twenty-five years; limiting the right to the use of water appropriated for generating electricity or electrical or other power to the specific purposes for which it is appropriated; declaring certain water to be unappropriated; providing for the granting of licenses to divert and store surplus and flood waters for generating electricity, or electrical or other power and declaring what is surplus water; reserving to the state the right to regulate and fix the rates of compensation for which electricity or electrical or other power generated by water appropriated may be sold, rented or distributed; reserving to the state the right to impose charges for the use of water appropriated for electricity or electrical or other power and fixing fees and charges; preventing the combination or formation of any unlawful trust by appropriators of water or the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power and providing a penalty therefor; creating and establishing a state board of control; providing the powers and duties of said board of control and fixing their compensation; compelling persons, firms, associations and corporations supplying electricity or electrical or other power generated by the use of appropriated water to keep their plants and systems in repair and requiring an annual report from them to said board of control; providing for the appointment and compensation of employees and assistants to said board of control; limiting the expenses of said board of control and providing for the payment thereof; fixing the place of business of said board of control; declaring the diversion or use of water for generating electricity, or electrical or other power, otherwise than provided in this act, to be a misdemeanor and providing a penalty therefor, and also providing penalties for other violations of this act; repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Water or the use of water for the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power shall not be appropriated for a longer period than twenty-five years. Limit of water franchise.

Generation of electricity.

SEC. 2. Appropriation of water or of the use of water for the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power shall be made as provided by this act, and not otherwise.

Other purposes.

SEC. 3. Water or the use of water appropriated for purposes other than the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power shall not be used for the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power except under a separate and distinct appropriation made as provided in this act for such purpose.

Water not being used declared unappropriated.

SEC. 4. All water or the use of water which has been heretofore appropriated and which has not been put, or which has ceased to be put, to some useful or beneficial purpose, or which is not now in process of being put to some useful or beneficial purpose with due diligence in proportion to the magnitude of the work necessary properly to utilize for the purpose of such appropriation such water or such use of water, is hereby declared to be unappropriated.

State may fix rates.

SEC. 5. All appropriations of water or the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power shall be subject to the right of the state to regulate and fix the rates of compensation for which such electricity or electrical or other power may be sold, rented or distributed.

Application for permit to make appropriation of water.

SEC. 6. Any person, firm, association or corporation hereafter intending to appropriate water or the use of water for the generation of electricity, or of electrical or other power, before commencing the construction or enlargement or extension of any building, power house, ditch, canal or any distributing or controlling works, or performing any work in connection with said appropriation or proposed appropriation, shall make an application in duplicate to the board of control provided for in this act for a permit to make such appropriation. No person, firm, association or corporation shall wilfully divert or use water or shall wilfully attempt to divert or use water for generating electricity or electrical or other power without first complying with the provisions of this act. The possession or use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power except when a right to said water or the use thereof shall have been acquired in accordance with law shall be prima facie evidence of such wilful diversion or use or attempted diversion or use of such water.

be stated in application.

SEC. 7. Every application for a permit to appropriate water or the use of water for the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power shall set forth the residence, or principal place of business, if the applicant be a corporation, and post office address of the applicant, the source of the water or the use of water to be appropriated or used, the nature and amount of the proposed use, the head of and amount of water to be utilized, the uses to which the water and electricity or electrical or other power are to be applied, the nature, the location (which may be changed by permission of the board of control), the character, the estimated capacity, and the estimated cost of the works, and whether the water is to be and will be returned to the stream or source from which it is to be taken and if so at what point on the stream or source it is proposed to return said water to said stream or source. If the application is for the construction of a reservoir for the purpose of storing water to be used for the generation of electricity or of electrical or other power, it shall give the estimated height of the dam and the estimated capacity of the reservoir in addition to the other requirements above set forth. All applications shall be accompanied by such maps and drawings in duplicate and such other data in duplicate as may be prescribed by the board of control, and such accompanying data shall be considered as a part of the application. A true copy of such application without such accompanying data and maps and drawings shall be recorded by the applicant in the office of the recorder of the county, or city and county, in which the proposed works are to be erected, within ten days after said application is filed with said board.

Maps.

Recording of application.

Sec. 8. Upon receipt of an application under this act it shall be the duty of the board of control immediately to cause to be made an endorsement thereon of the date of its receipt and to keep the duplicate of said application and its endorsement on file as a record of the same. The board of control shall immediately examine the said application after it has been filed. If upon such examination the application is found to be defective, one copy of it and its accompanying data, maps and drawings shall be returned to the applicant for correction or completion, and the date of and reasons for the return thereof shall be endorsed thereon and a record kept of such endorsement in the office of the board of control. No application shall lose its priority of filing on account of such defect; provided, a proper application is filed in the office of the board of control within thirty days of the date of said return to the applicant. It shall be the duty of the board of control within six months to enter an order directing the rejection of such application if after further hearing the public interests shall seem to the board of control so to demand. Applications may be approved for a less amount of water or the use of water than that applied for, if there exist substantial reasons therefor, but in any event shall not be approved for more water or the use of water than can be applied to the use for which application is made under an efficient and economical use thereof.

Examination of application by board of control.

Application does not lose priority.

Approval for less amount of water.

Sec. 9. The approval or rejection of an application shall be endorsed thereon and a record made of such endorsement in the office of the board of control. One copy of the application so endorsed shall be returned immediately to the applicant in person or by registered mail. If said application be approved, the applicant shall immediately record said approved application, together with the endorsement thereon, in the office of the recorder of the county, or city and county, in which the proposed works are to be constructed and shall be authorized on receipt of said approval and on recording the same, to proceed with the construction of the necessary works and to take all steps required to apply the water or the use of the water to the purpose of generating electricity or electrical or other power as provided in the approved application, and to perfect the proposed appropriation; provided, however, that no right in or to such water or the use thereof shall vest in or accrue to the said applicant until the final permit is issued as is hereinafter provided.

Approval of rejection of application.

Construction work.

SEC. 10. Actual construction work shall begin within six months from the date of the approval of the application and the construction of the work shall thereafter be prosecuted with reasonable diligence in proportion to the magnitude of the undertaking, and if such work is not so commenced and prosecuted the board of control may revoke its approval of the application; and such work shall be completed within a reasonable time as fixed in the permit, not to exceed five years from the date of such approval. Upon application of the proposed appropriator the board of control may for good cause shown extend the time within which such work shall be completed under any permit but no such extension shall be for a longer period than one year beyond the period fixed in the permit.

Completion.

Inspection of completed works.

SEC. 11. Upon the completion of the works for the diversion and application of water or the use of water under this act, the holder of such permit or his assigns shall report such completion to the board of control, and the board of control without delay shall cause to be made a full inspection and examination of the works constructed and a report upon their construction and condition, and whether or not they conform to the terms of the application and permit and are adequate for the purposes intended.

License to use water.

SEC. 12. Upon the receipt of such report, the board shall, if the law has been fully complied with, and if the work shall have been completed in accordance with the application, issue a license to the applicant or his assigns, allowing him or them to divert and use said water, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the use proposed, for a certain period of time therein specified, but in no case for more than twenty-five (25) years. Licenses granted upon application made under this act for water or the use of water shall be numbered consecutively as to each stream or other source in the order as to the dates when such applications are filed.

Facts stated in license.

SEC. 13. Said license shall set forth the name of the licensee, his place of residence, and if a corporation or firm or association, the date of its organization and its principal place of business, the stream or source from which the water is to be diverted or used, the quantity of water the licensee is authorized to divert from the stream or source, the point or points on said stream or source at which said water is to be diverted or used, the location of the proposed works, the period of time for which the water may be used, which in no case shall be for more than twenty-five years, by what means and the purposes for which the licensee is authorized to use the same.

Rights vested in licensee.

SEC. 14. Any license issued as above provided for water or the use of water appropriated under this act shall vest in the licensee the right to the use of the amount of water mentioned therein for the period of time therein set forth, in the manner and for the purposes therein mentioned and not otherwise; provided, that such license shall not impair or affect any rights to water or the use of water which shall have become vested prior to the making of the application above provided for.

SEC. 15. Any appropriator of water or the use of water under the provisions of this act for the purpose of generating electricity or electrical or other power, or the successor or assigns of said appropriator, if a renewal or extension of the license herein provided for is desired, shall, not less than one or more than two years prior to the termination of the license granted as herein provided, notify the board of control that a renewal and extension of such license is desired. The board of control shall thereupon issue to said appropriator a renewal and extension of said license for a fixed period, but in no case for more than a period of twenty-five years from the date of such renewal in compliance with such laws of the state as shall then be in force regulating the renewal, issuing and granting of any license for water or the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power. Renewal of license.

SEC. 16. No license for the appropriation of water or the use of water as herein provided shall be valid as to any excess of the capacity of the works actually constructed. License not valid for excess.

SEC. 17. The board of control may upon application made therefor in the manner provided in this act and upon like procedure, grant to any person, firm, association or corporation a license to divert and store for the purpose of generating electricity or electrical or other power, the surplus waters of any stream during floods or high water or during those portions of the year when such water is not required or being stored for irrigation purposes, and for the purpose of this act all water which is not used during the season of flood or high water is declared to be surplus water. License to store surplus waters.

SEC. 18. All appropriations of water or the use of water for generating electricity or electrical or other power heretofore or hereafter made shall be subject to the right of the state to impose the fees and charges herein provided, and shall also be subject to the right of the state to increase or decrease such fees and charges from time to time thereafter. Appropriations subject to fees.

SEC. 19. Every person, firm, association or corporation making application for permission to appropriate water or the use of water under this act shall at the time of filing the said application pay to said board of control a fee of ten dollars. Every person, firm, association or corporation at the time of receiving a license to appropriate water or the use of water as provided in this act shall pay to said board a fee of one hundred dollars and also shall pay to said board when the said license is issued, and in addition thereto and annually thereafter shall pay to said board a charge for each theoretical horse power of the works estimated as follows: For the first one hundred (100) horse power there shall be no charge; and for Application fee.

all above one hundred (100) horse power ten (10) cents for each horse power. All fees collected shall be accounted for at the following regular meeting of the board of control and paid by said board into the general fund of the state treasury within thirty days thereafter.

Board of control.

SEC. 20. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, a board of control, to consist of five persons, is hereby created and established. Three members of said board shall be appointed by the governor for a term of four years; provided, that the members first appointed shall be appointed so that one of them shall go out of office at the end of one year, one at the end of two years, and one at the end of three years. The governor and the state engineer are hereby made ex officio members of said board of control in addition to the three members appointed by the governor. The appointed members of said board shall receive as compensation for services rendered by them, as such members, the sum of ten (10) dollars per day for each day's service actually rendered. If, however, there shall, hereafter, be created by law, any state board or commission having power to regulate or fix rates to be charged for services rendered, or commodities furnished, by public utilities, or by persons or corporations engaged in public service business, or if any state board or commission now existing shall hereafter have such powers conferred upon it, then the powers and duties of the board of control herein created shall vest in and be exercised by such board or commission, and said board of control shall thereupon cease to exist.

Compensation.

When board may cease to exist.

Powers of board.

SEC. 21. The board of control is hereby authorized and empowered to do and perform the acts and things required of it by this act and to adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of the board to provide for the public hearing upon the merits of all applications filed with the board and to prescribe the rules of procedure to be observed at such hearings.

Members may administer oaths, etc.

SEC. 22. Every member of said board of control is hereby authorized to administer oaths and to cause the production of persons, papers, records and books in all matters of business transacted before said board.

Record of business.

SEC. 23. A full and accurate record of the business transacted or acts performed by any member of the board of control and the proceedings of the meetings of said board shall be kept and shall be placed on file in the office of said board of control.

Appropriation.

SEC. 24. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the said board of control is authorized to employ such expert, technical, professional and clerical assistance and upon such terms as it may deem proper. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act during the sixty-third and sixty-fourth fiscal years the sum of fifty thousand (50,000) dollars is hereby appropriated out of the funds of the state not otherwise appropriated, and the state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw warrants upon such sum from time to time, upon the requisition of the state board of control approved by the board of examiners, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay such warrants.

SEC. 25. All indebtedness incurred for salaries and all necessary costs and traveling and other expenses of said board and each of its members and persons employed by it, while actually engaged in the business of said board, shall be paid by the state out of the funds hereby appropriated, upon a sworn statement of the person or persons incurring such indebtedness and upon the approval of the board of control and the state board of examiners upon warrants drawn upon the state treasurer as provided by law for the payment of similar costs and expenses and the drawing of similar warrants.

Salaries and expenses.

SEC. 26. All persons, firms, associations or corporations generating electricity or electrical or other power by water or the use of water appropriated under the provisions of this act, shall keep their plants and systems in proper repair and shall upon the first day of January after the passage of this act, and annually thereafter report to said board of control the condition of their plants and distributing systems, the number of kilowatt hours of electricity or electrical or other power generated during each month of said year, the number of kilowatt hours of electricity or electrical or other power rented, sold or distributed during each month of said year and the names of the persons, firms, associations or corporations to whom said power has been rented, sold or distributed.

Annual report- to board.

SEC. 27. The board of control shall maintain its office at Sacramento, California. The secretary of state shall furnish and set aside in the capitol rooms suitable for offices for said board of control, and if the secretary of state shall make and file an affidavit with the said board that it is not possible for him as such secretary of state to provide offices for said board in the capitol, then the said board may rent rooms suitable for offices, and said rental shall be deemed a necessary expense of said board.

Office of
board.

SEC. 28. No person, firm, association or corporation appropriating water or the use of water hereunder shall enter into any agreement, combination or trust in restraint of trade contrary to law, and if any of the works owned or operated by any licensee under this act or assign or assigns shall be owned, leased, trusted, possessed or controlled by any device, permanently, temporarily, directly or indirectly, tacitly, or in any manner whatsoever so that it or they form a part of or in any way effect any combination, or if it or they are in any wise controlled by any combination or conspiracy to limit the output of electricity or electrical or other power, or to increase the price at which electricity or electrical or other power is sold, rented or distributed, or to prevent the lowering of said price or in restraint of trade with foreign nations or between two or more states or territories or with any state or territory in the generation, sale, distribution of electricity or electrical or other power,

Combinations in restraint of trade prohibited.

all rights to the appropriation of water or the use of water shall cease and be forfeited to the people of the state by proceedings instituted in the courts for that purpose by the attorney general of the state either upon his own initiative or upon demand of the board of control.

Violation of this act a misdemeanor.

SEC. 29. Any violation of the provisions of this act or of any order or regulation of the board of control is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand (5,000) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. It shall be the duty of the board of control to enforce the provisions of this act and to prosecute violations thereof, by proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction, against any person, firm, association or corporation violating any such provision or failing or refusing to comply with any regulation or requirement of the board of control made pursuant to the provisions of this act.

applicable to municipal corporations.

SEC. 30. None of the provisions of this act shall apply to municipal corporations, other than irrigation districts or lighting districts, nor to the use by any irrigation district of water for the generation of electricity, electrical or other power only for use and distribution within its own limits, and as subsidiary to and mainly for the purpose of serving and carrying out irrigation, nor to the use by any lighting district of water for the generation of electricity, electrical or other power only for use and distribution within its own limits; provided, however, that all municipal corporations, other than irrigation districts and lighting districts, desiring to appropriate water for the generation of electricity, electrical or other power, and all irrigation districts and lighting districts desiring to appropriate water for the generation of electricity, electrical or other power, and all irrigation districts and lighting districts desiring to appropriate water for the generation of electricity, electrical or other power for the uses hereinabove in this section specified shall within ten days from the time that they post and record notices of appropriation, as required by law, file with the board of control a notice of said appropriation together with the name and post office address of the appropriator, the source of the water to be appropriated or used, the nature and amount of the proposed use, the head of an amount of water proposed to be utilized, the uses to which the water and power are to be applied, the nature, location, character, estimated capacity and estimated cost of the works and whether the water is to be and will be returned to the stream or source from which it is to be taken and if so, at what point on said stream or source. If the appropriation contemplates the construction of a reservoir for the purpose of storing water to be used for the generation of electricity or electrical or other power, the notices filed with the board shall also give the estimated height of the dam and the estimated capacity of the reservoir in addition to the other requirements above set forth.

SEC. 31. Wherever in this act the performance or doing of certain acts or things by any firm, association or corporation is made a misdemeanor, and a penalty provided therefor, the person, officer, member, manager, agent, director or employee of any such firm, association or corporation who by vote, act, authorization, direction, order or request shall have caused such act or thing to be done is likewise and in the same manner guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished likewise and in the same manner as the person actually performing or doing the act or thing. Agent held guilty.

SEC. 32. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 33. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 407.

An act to amend section 1410 of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the rights to water which may be acquired by appropriation.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1410 of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1410. All water or the use of water within the State of California is the property of the people of the State of California, but the right to the use of running water flowing in a river or stream or down a canyon or ravine may be acquired by appropriation in the manner provided by law; provided, that no water for the generation of electricity or electrical or other power may be appropriated for a longer period than twenty-five years, except by a municipal corporation, other than an irrigation district or a lighting district, or by an irrigation district when such electricity, electrical or other power is for use and distribution only within its own limits, and as subsidiary to and mainly for the purpose of serving and carrying out irrigation, or by a lighting district when such electricity, electrical or other power is for use and distribution only within its own limits. How right to water may be acquired.

Section 1. A department of and for the State of California to be known as the department of engineering is hereby created, to consist of an advisory board composed of the governor as ex officio member and chairman of said board, and a state engineer who shall be the chief executive officer of the department, the general superintendent of state hospitals, the chairman of the state board of harbor commissioners of San Francisco, and three other members to be appointed by the governor, which said three appointive members shall hereafter in this act be designated as the appointed members of said advisory board. The said department, its officers and employees, shall have and exercise the powers and duties hereinafter set forth and specified, and such as are or may be hereafter provided by law.

Department of engineering.

Advisory board.

SEC. 2. Section 1½ of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Consulting
board.

Section 1½. Upon this act becoming effective the governor shall appoint five persons who shall be known as a consulting board to the department of state engineering upon all matters that affect irrigation, drainage and river improvement. Such board shall meet at such times as the work requires and shall meet at least once in two months. They may report to the advisory board on all matters relating to irrigation, drainage and river improvement together with their conclusions thereon, and may render a report to the advisory board upon all plans for river improvements.

Meetings.

Reports.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Head of department.

Section 2. Upon this act becoming effective the governor shall appoint a competent civil engineer as the head of the department of engineering, and such person shall be known as the state engineer. The state engineer shall devote his entire time to the services of the state and shall not actively engage in any other pursuit while serving as such state official. He shall have charge of all the engineering and structural work of the department and may receive by and through the approval of the advisory board such special assistance of a technical character beyond the employees hereinafter specified as they shall allow for the proper conduct of the business of the department.

SEC. 4. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Hold office at pleasure of governor.

Section 3. The state engineer and the appointed members of said advisory board shall hold office at the will and pleasure of the governor. Immediately after qualifying, the advisory board shall meet and organize and shall adopt a seal for the authentication of its acts and records.

SEC. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 6a, and to read as follows:

engineer.

Section 6a. The department of engineering by and through the chairman of said advisory board shall have the power to appoint one engineer who shall be particularly skilled and qualified by experience in highway construction and who shall be designated highway engineer, and such assistant engineers, designers, draughtsmen, clerks, stenographers, and such other technical assistants and help as the advisory board may, in its judgment, deem necessary and said advisory board shall fix their salaries and compensation and prescribe their duties.

SEC. 6. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. The advisory board shall meet at such times as the work of the department may require and shall meet at least once in two months. Said board shall advise with the state engineer, highway engineer or state architect as necessity requires and may advise with the boards of managers or trustees of the various state institutions requiring engineering or structural work, and with any state commission regarding all works wherein such commission may be interested. The advisory board shall approve all plans and specifications for all public work and shall determine the kind, quality and extent of all public work of the state. All boards of managers, trustees and state commissions of state institutions shall apply to the department of engineering for plans and specifications for all public work coming under their charge, and before accepting any such work done under contract shall have a certificate from the state engineer who shall examine and certify to its completion. All public work coming under the full control of the department of engineering may upon the discretion of the advisory board be either contracted for or done by day's labor. The advisory board shall have the power, on the approval of plans and specifications by the state engineer, to direct whether any building or structure at any state institution shall be let by contract in part or in whole, or whether said building or structure shall be built by day's labor in part or in whole, but after approval of the plans, specifications and estimates by the advisory board of the department of engineering, if, in the opinion of such department of engineering, the acceptance of any bid or bids shall not be for the best interests of the state, or if in the opinion of such department of engineering the acceptance of any further bids after the rejection of all bids submitted shall not be for the best interests of the state, it may be legal for them to direct that the work or improvement of any state building, road or any other improvement be done upon a day's labor basis. Whenever any public work to be done by the state except work on property of the state on the water front of the city and county of San Francisco under the jurisdiction of the board of state harbor commissioners is placed upon a day's labor basis, it is especially exempted from any law on or relating to contracts of the state. The full control of such day's labor work is placed under the department of engineering and said department shall do all things necessary to properly carry out the work. When such work is so placed upon a day's labor basis, any appropriation which is now available or which is now or may be appropriated to become available, is by this act taken out of the control of any board of trustees, directors, commissioners, officers or other body to whom it has been appropriated, and placed exclusively under the control of the department of engineering, and the claims for said work shall be approved by the department of engineering, and audited by the board of examiners, upon whose audit the controller shall draw his warrant and the treasurer shall pay the same. The department of engineering shall have power to receive informal bids upon any subdivision of the day's labor work and the state engineer may upon the approval of the advisory board enter into an agreement for any such subdivisional work of the day's labor work.

Meetings,
powers, etc., of advisory board.

SEC. 7. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9. The department of engineering shall take full possession and control of all roads which have been declared state highways enumerated as follows: The Lake Tahoe wagon road, the Sonora and Mono road, the Mono Lake basin road and all other state highways which may hereafter be constructed and all public work being done or now completed by the department of highways. All expenditures by the state for highway purposes except as otherwise hereafter provided by law shall be under the full charge of the department of engineering, and all moneys appropriated for such purpose shall be made payable upon the proper order of said department and shall be audited by the state board of examiners. The department of engineering, in the name of the people of the State of California, shall have the power to obtain or condemn necessary rights of way for any authorized state highway or for the change of any existing state highway or for any road placed under the department's charge by law unless otherwise provided. It shall have power to alter or change the route of a road and shall do all things necessary, and obtain all tools and implements required to properly care for and manage the roads under the charge of the department. The department may, in its discretion, and by and through its chairman, appoint superintendents of the state highways who shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointive power. They shall be specially qualified in road work. All unexpended balances of money now existing by law for improvements or maintenance of whatever kind under the department of highways, and the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner shall be placed under the control of the department of engineering, and the state controller shall transfer said funds to the credit of the department of engineering. Whenever under any statutes of this state the performance of any duty or obligation is imposed upon the department of highways, the same shall be assumed by and the performance of the same shall devolve upon the department of engineering.

SEC. 8. Section 11 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 11. All architectural work of the department shall be under the charge of the state architect, and it shall be the duty of said architect to make plans and specifications and estimates for all work for state buildings. He shall, in company with the state engineer, visit and inspect all completed architectural work, and shall certify to the state engineer its proper or improper completion. The state architect shall have general charge under the state engineer of the erection of all buildings and must have an inspector at each building during the whole time of its construction.

SEC. 9. Section 17 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 17. The highway engineer shall receive not to exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per annum:

Control of state highways.

Expenditures.

Power to condemn right-of-way.

Superintendents of highways.

State architect.

the state engineer shall receive the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) per annum; and the officers and employees enumerated in section 6 of this act shall receive the following sums: Each assistant state engineer shall receive the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum; the state architect shall receive forty-eight hundred dollars ($4,800) per annum; each of the five draughtsmen shall receive two thousand dollars ($2,000) per annum; the architectural designer shall receive twenty-four hundred dollars ($2,400) per annum; the mechanical engineer shall receive twenty-seven hundred dollars ($2,700) per annum; the testing engineer shall receive twenty-one hundred dollars ($2,100) per annum; each of the two filing clerks shall receive eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum; the secretary shall receive twenty-four hundred dollars ($2,400) per annum; the blue print pressman shall receive fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum; each clerk and stenographer shall receive fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum; and the porter and messenger shall receive nine hundred dollars ($900) per annum. Such salaries shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers. The highway engineer shall furnish the state with a bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); the two assistant engineers and the state architect shall each furnish the state with a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the faithful performance of their duties. Said bonds must be approved by the governor of the State of California and filed in the office of the secretary of state. Each of the three appointed members of said advisory board shall receive the sum of three thousand six hundred dollars ($3,600) per annum, payable in equal monthly installments. Each and every one of the above-mentioned officers shall take the oath of office as prescribed for other state officers. The members of the advisory board, the state engineer and the officers and employees of the department of engineering shall be allowed their necessary traveling expenses while engaged in the discharge of their duties within the state.

Sec. 10. Section 19 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 19. The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to provide and maintain a permanent revolving fund for the payment of salaries and wages of employees in the department of engineering when employed upon public work at or for any state institution, other than those employees whose salaries are fixed and determined by section 17 of this act. Such payment so made for salaries and wages shall be charged against the institutions for which said act is performed and in favor of the department of engineering, and when collected by said department, shall be paid into the revolving fund hereby created.

appointed by the board of supervisors of the county of Sutter, at the next regular meeting of the said board after the passage of this act; and the said H. L. Hansen and the said C. W. McConaughy and the third trustee so appointed shall hold office as such trustees until their successors are elected and qualified. An election of three trustees shall be held in the said district on the first Monday in May, 1911, and every two years thereafter, and the term of office shall be two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case of any vacancy in the office of trustee of the said district, the board of supervisors of the said county of Sutter shall appoint a qualified person as trustee, who shall hold the said office for the unexpired term. The office of the said district shall be in Yuba City, county of Sutter. The board of supervisors of the county of Sutter shall have jurisdiction of all matters concerning said district. All funds of the said district shall be deposited in the county treasury of the said county of Sutter, and shall be disbursed by the treasurer of the said county of Sutter in payment of the warrants of the said district. The said district shall have power to make by-laws in conformity with the provisions of law, and shall have all the rights and powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred by the provisions of the Political Code, or by other laws of the state, upon reclamation or swamp land districts, and shall also have the right and power of purchasing real and personal property and rights of way, within the boundaries of said district, or outside thereof, that may be necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of the said district, or to acquire the same by condemnation proceedings, in the manner provided by law, and shall have the right and power to join in with other reclamation districts, levee districts, or swamp land districts, or other persons, in the construction and maintenance of levee and reclamation works, and to contract as to the same, and also to do all other acts and things that may be lawfully done by any reclamation district. All laws and parts of laws, now existing, or that may hereafter be enacted, relative to the qualification of electors for trustees, election of trustees, levy and collection of assessments, disbursements of funds, and the management and control of reclamation districts, and in and to all other matters pertaining to the management, control, or administration of reclamation districts are, so far as the same may be applicable, made a part of this act, and shall be deemed to be incorporated herein.

SEC. 3. All reclamation districts, levee districts, and swamp land districts wholly situated within the boundaries of said district, are hereby dissolved except for the purposes of liquidation and the disposition of property, and for these purposes only the existence of said districts is continued. Each of said reclamation districts, levee districts, or swamp land districts, shall pay all legal outstanding indebtedness that each may respectively owe, and may cause assessments or taxes to be levied and collected therefor, and may sell and dispose of any levees and other works of reclamation and property belonging to any of such districts, to the said Reclamation District No. 1001, and may use the proceeds received from such sale for the purpose of paying such indebtedness, and shall divide the excess of such proceeds, if any there be, among the landowners of land within such dissolved district in the proportion which the last assessment or tax assessed against each tract of land, as shown by the last assessment roll or list within such dissolved district, shall bear to the total amount of the assessment or tax levied or assessed by the said last assessment roll or list, on all the lands within such dissolved districts; provided, that in the event that a sale of any of such levees or other works of reclamation or property shall be agreed upon, and the parties are unable to agree upon the price to be paid therefor, then the question of what price shall be paid therefor shall be determined by a board of arbitration to consist of three members to be appointed by the board of supervisors of the said county of Sutter, a majority of whom must unite in the decision, and the decision of a majority of said board of arbitration shall be final and conclusive. Any lands within the boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1001, and now included in any reclamation district, however formed or existing, and which reclamation district is not wholly situated within the boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1001, are hereby excluded from said reclamation district now existing, and included within the said Reclamation District No. 1001; provided, however, that the said lands so excluded from any such existing district shall be liable for its just proportion of the existing indebtedness of any such existing district. Districts excluded.

SEC. 4. All acts, and parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and all acts creating any reclamation districts, levee districts, or swamp land districts, wholly within the above described boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1001, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 412.

An act to create a reclamation district to be called Reclamation District No. 1000, and providing for the management and control thereof, and dissolving certain levee districts, swamp land districts, and reclamation districts within the boundaries of said Reclamation District No. 1000, and providing for the liquidation and winding up of said dissolved districts.

[Approved April 8, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A reclamation district is hereby created to be called Reclamation District No. 1000, and the boundaries of said reclamation district shall be as follows: Reclamation
District
No. 1000.

Beginning at a point on the left bank of the Sacramento

CHAPTER 413.

An act establishing a state normal school at Fresno, county of Fresno, State of California, and making an appropriation for the maintenance of said school.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Fresno
State Normal School.

SECTION 1. There is hereby established in the county of Fresno, State of California, a school to be called the "Fresno State Normal School," for training and educating teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of this state; the course of study prescribed for use in said school to include agriculture and manual training.

Board of trustees.

SEC. 2. The governor, within thirty days after the passage of this act, shall appoint five persons, one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and two for four years, the successor of each to be appointed for four years thereafter, and the persons so appointed, with the governor and state superintendent of public instruction, shall constitute the board of trustees of said Fresno State Normal School, with full power and authority to select a site for the permanent location of said state normal school in said county of Fresno. Said trustees shall examine the different sites offered to be donated by the people of the said county of Fresno for the location of state normal school buildings, and select therefrom a suitable location for said state normal school buildings, and the site selected by them, upon its conveyance to the State of California, shall be and remain the permanent site for the said Fresno State Normal School of Fresno.

Appropriation.

SEC. 3. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys of the state not otherwise appropriated, for the maintenance of the said Fresno State Normal School, during the sixty-third and sixty-fourth fiscal years: provided, that no money shall be expended for said school until the site selected has been conveyed by a deed in fee simple to the State of California.

Opening of school.

SEC. 4. The said board of trustees shall provide for the opening of said state normal school at Fresno on or before October 1, 1911, in buildings or rooms to be furnished by the board of education of the city of Fresno free of cost to the State of California, and the said board shall have full power and authority to employ suitable teachers for conducting and maintaining said Fresno State Normal School, and supplying the same with necessary books, stationery and apparatus.

SEC. 5. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants for the amount herein appropriated, in favor of the officers authorized by law to receive the same, in such amounts and at such times as may be approved by the state board of examiners, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 414.

An act providing that in the event of no election having been held for the election of officers of municipalities of the sixth class at the time fixed for first election after incorporation thereof, that the officers elected at the time of the incorporation shall continue in office until after the municipal election to be held in 1912.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. When a municipality of the sixth class has been incorporated under the laws of the State of California less than sixty days prior to the date of the municipal election on the second Monday in April, and for any reason no election was held on said date and the officers of such municipality elected at the time of its incorporation have continued to hold office and have discharged the duties of such offices ever since the date of their said election, their right to hold such offices is hereby confirmed, and they are hereby declared to be the officers of such municipality and their terms shall continue until the next municipal election hereafter to be held on the second Monday in April, 1912.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 415.

An act to add a new section to article III, chapter V, title II, part IV, of the Political Code, to be numbered section four thousand one hundred and one a, relating to the payment of money into the county treasury.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to article III, chapter V, title II, part IV, of the Political Code, to be numbered section four thousand one hundred and one a, to read as follows:

County
officer may pay money to treasurer
daily.

4101a. The assessor, the tax collector, the clerk, the recorder and any other officer required to pay into the county treasury taxes, fees or other money collected by him, may pay such money to the treasurer daily without making an account of the sources from which the same was collected, and the treasurer and auditor shall credit such officer with the amount so paid in without apportioning the same to any specific fund. Such officer shall, notwithstanding such payment, make regular settlements and accounts of his collections monthly or otherwise, as may be required by law, and upon such settlements shall be credited with all amounts so paid to the treasurer and not included in his previous settlements, as so much cash.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 416.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to authorize and empower the board of trustees of the State Normal School at Los Angeles to sell and convey the lands and buildings of said school, and from the proceeds of said sale to purchase and improve a new and suitable site for said school; to erect and construct upon the site so purchased buildings and other structures and improvements necessary and proper for said school; to purchase furniture, fixtures, apparatus, and other things necessary for said school, and to rent such temporary buildings and grounds as may be necessary for the use of said school until the completion of the new school buildings" approved March 4, 1907, and making an appropriation of $100,000.00 for the purpose of purchasing a new site for the State Normal School at Los Angeles.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of an act entitled "An act to authorize and empower the board of trustees of the State Normal School at Los Angeles to sell and convey the lands and buildings of said school, and from the proceeds of said sale to purchase and improve a new and suitable site for said school; to erect and construct upon the site so purchased buildings and other structures and improvements necessary and proper for said school; to purchase furniture, fixtures, apparatus, and other things necessary for said school, and to rent such temporary buildings and grounds as may be necessary for the use of said school until the completion of the new school buildings" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. The moneys received from the sale of said lands and buildings shall be paid into the state treasury and kept in a fund to be called: "Los Angeles State Normal School building and improvement fund," to the credit of the state normal school at Los Angeles and said moneys shall not be drawn therefrom except to pay the costs and expenses of carrying out the provisions of this act and those incidental thereto, for rent of grounds and buildings as in this act provided and for the construction of new buildings and other improvements as hereinafter provided.

Los Angeles State Normal School building and improvement fund.

SEC. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. The board of trustees of the state normal school at Los Angeles is authorized, directed and empowered to examine sites and to select a new and suitable site for said school in the county of Los Angeles and to purchase for and on behalf of the State of California the necessary lands therefor, and the lands so selected and purchased shall be and remain the site of the state normal school at Los Angeles until otherwise provided by law. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to be expended by said board of trustees in the purchase of a new site for said normal school. The controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant for said sum of one hundred thousand dollars and the treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same and place said money in the state treasury to the credit of the aforesaid "Los Angeles State Normal School building and improvement fund"; provided, however, that if the site for said school, so purchased, shall cost less than one hundred thousand dollars; the unexpended balance of said sum shall be drawn from said fund and expended for the purposes set forth in section one of this act.

Trustees to purchase new site

Appropriation.

CHAPTER 417.

An act to amend section twelve hundred and forty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section twelve hundred and forty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Date from which compensation shall be assessed.

1249. For the purpose of assessing compensation and damages the right thereof shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the issuance of summons and its actual value at that date shall be the measure of compensation for all property to be actually taken, and the basis of damages to property not actually taken but injuriously affected, in all cases where such damages are allowed as provided in section one thousand two hundred forty-eight; provided, that in any case in which the issue is not tried within one year after the date of the commencement of the action, unless the delay is caused by the defendant, the compensation and damages shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the trial. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed or held to affect pending litigation. If an order be made letting the plaintiff into possession, as provided in section one thousand two hundred fifty-four, the compensation and damages awarded shall draw lawful interest from the date of such order. No improvements put upon the property subsequent to the date of the service of summons shall be included in the assessment of compensation or damages.

Damage on letting into possession.

CHAPTER 418.

An act adding four new sections to an act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, to be numbered 752a and 752b, 852a and 852b thereof, relating to the government of municipalities of the fifth and sixth classes, and providing for the so-called commission form of government.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, to be numbered 752a and read as follows:

Section 752a. The board of trustees may at any time submit to the electors at any municipal or at any special election to be held for that purpose, an ordinance to divide the administration of the municipality into five departments and provide for the assignment of its several members to be heads of such respective departments and to be appointed as the commissioners of such respective departments; provided, that if a department of public health be created the commissioner in charge may be given the powers and duties of the municipal board of health, and such health board be thereby abolished. Such ordinance shall define the duties, powers and responsibilities of each commissioner and may require such commissioner to devote a specified number of hours of each business day to the performance of such duties, in which event such commissioner may receive a compensation, the amount of same to be fixed by said ordinance. The board may, by majority vote, subject to the provisions of this section, assign its several members to be and appoint them as the respective commissioners of such several departments, and may by like vote from time to time change such assignment and appointment. It may assign employees to one or more departments, may require an officer or employee to perform duties in two or more departments, and may make such other rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper to the efficient and economical conduct of the business of the municipality. The substance of the ordinance so proposed shall be printed on the ballots used at such election substantially as follows: Shall the administration of the municipality be divided into five departments as follows: (insert the five departments of government proposed and briefly designate the powers and duties conferred upon each and the compensation each commissioner or head of department shall receive), "Yes" and "No" so printed in connection therewith that the voters may express their choice. The returns of the election shall be canvassed and declared as at other municipal elections and if it appears that a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the ordinance, such ordinance shall take effect and be in force on the tenth day thereafter.

Election on adoption of commission form of government.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, to be numbered 752*b*, and read as follows:

Section 752*b*. The board of trustees may submit to the electors at any municipal election or at a special election to be held for that purpose, the question as to whether the elective officers, or any of them, other than trustees, shall be appointed by said board, instead of being elected as provided in the preceding section. The question so submitted shall be printed on the ballots used at such election substantially as follows: "Shall the board of trustees hereafter appoint the (naming the offices) of the city (or town) of," with the words "Yes" and "No" so printed in connection therewith that the voters may express their choice. The returns of the election shall be canvassed and declared as at other municipal elections, and if it appears that a majority of the votes cast on any such proposition were in favor of the appointment of such officers or any of them, then at the expiration of the terms of office of any such officials then in office, and on the occurrence of a vacancy in any such offices, such elective officers or any of them for the appointment of whom such majority vote was so cast, shall thereafter be appointed by the board of trustees and hold office during the pleasure of such board.

Election on question of appointment of city officers.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, to be numbered 852a and read as follows:

Election
on adoption of commission form of government.

Section 852a. The board of trustees may at any time submit to the electors at any municipal or at any special election to be held for that purpose, an ordinance to divide the administration of the municipality into five departments and provide for the assignment of its several members to be the heads of such respective departments and to be appointed as the commissioners of such respective departments; provided, that if a department of public health be created the commissioner in charge may be given the powers and duties of the municipal board of health, and such health board be thereby abolished. Such ordinance shall define the duties, powers and responsibilities of each commissioner and may require such commissioner to devote a specified number of hours of each business day to the performance of such duties, in which event such commissioner may receive a compensation, the amount of same to be fixed by said ordinance. The board may, by majority vote, subject to the provisions of this section, assign its several members to be and appoint them as the respective commissioners of such several departments and may by like vote from time to time change such assignment and appointment. It may assign employees to one or more departments, may require an officer or employee to perform duties in two or more departments, and may make such other rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper to the efficient and economical conduct of the business of the municipality. The substance of the ordinance so proposed shall be printed on the ballots used at such election substantially as follows: Shall the administration of the municipality be divided into five departments as follows: (insert the five departments of government proposed and briefly designate the powers and duties conferred upon each and the compensation each commissioner or head of department shall receive), "Yes" and "No" so printed in connection therewith that the voters may express their choice. The returns of the election shall be canvassed and declared as at other municipal elections and if it appears that a majority of the votes cast at such election were in favor of the ordinance, such ordinance shall take effect and be in force on the tenth day thereafter.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled, "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, to be numbered 852b and read as follows:

Section 852b. The board of trustees may submit to the electors at any municipal election, or at a special election to be held for that purpose, the question as to whether the elective officers, or any of them, other than trustees, shall be appointed by said board, instead of being elected as provided in the preceding section. The question so submitted shall be printed on the ballots used at such election substantially as follows: "Shall the board of trustees hereafter appoint the (naming the offices) of the city (or town) of, with the words "Yes" and "No." so printed in connection therewith that the voters may express their choice. The returns of the election shall be canvassed and declared as at other municipal elections, and if it appears that a majority of the votes cast on any such proposition were in favor of the appointment of such officers or any of them, then at the expiration of the terms of office of any such officials then in office, and on the occurrence of a vacancy in any such offices, such elective officers or any of them, for the appointment of whom such majority vote was so cast, shall thereafter be appointed by the board of trustees and hold office during the pleasure of such board.

CHAPTER 419.

An act to authorize certain improvements upon the grounds and streets adjacent to the grounds of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind, at Berkeley, California, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The directors of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind, are hereby authorized to remove the present fence on the southern boundary line of the grounds of said institution, extending from the present eastern terminus of Derby street for a distance of two hundred (200) feet, more or less, to the point of intersection of said southern boundary line with the eastern line of Belrose avenue, extended northerly, as Belrose avenue is delineated upon map entitled "Claremont court, Berkeley, California," filed in the office of the county recorder of Alameda county, April 16th, 1907, in Liber 22 of maps, page 78, and to place said fence on a line parallel to and thirty (30) feet north of said southern boundary line of the grounds of said institution in order that the following described property belonging to the state may be used as a public highway, to wit:

Authori- zing direct- ors of California Institution for Deaf and Blind to make certain improve- ments.

Commencing at the intersection of the southern boundary line of the grounds of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind, in the city of Berkeley, Alameda county, Cali- fornia, with the eastern line of Belrose avenue, extended northerly; thence westerly along said boundary line of the grounds of said institution to its intersection with the easterly terminus of Derby street; thence at a right angle northerly thirty (30) feet to the northern line of Derby street; thence easterly along the northern line of Derby street, extended easterly, two hundred (200) feet, more or less, to the eastern line of Belrose avenue, extended northerly; thence northerly along said last mentioned line to the point of beginning; provided, however, that Mrs. Juliet W. Garber shall first dedicate and deed to the city of Berkeley, for the purpose of a public street, all of Belrose avenue, as delineated on said map of Claremont court, and also a strip of land two hundred (200) feet long by thirty-six (36) feet wide, extending from the eastern terminus of Derby street to the eastern line of Belrose avenue, extended northerly, and lying adjacent to the grounds of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind immediately south of the above described property belonging to the State of California, and also sufficient land to extend Belrose avenue for its full width of eighty (80) feet from its present northern terminus to the southern line of Derby street, extended easterly.

Appropriation.

SEC. 2. The sum of four hundred and seventy five dollars ($475) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, to the directors of the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind, for the purpose of removing and reconstructing said fence, of improving one half of said extension of Derby street adjacent to the grounds of said institution, to conform to the improvement of the adjacent portion of Derby street, and of laying a cement sidewalk thereon, and doing such other work as may be necessary in connection with the improvements herein mentioned.

SEC. 3. The controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants in favor of the board of directors of said institution for the money hereby provided, and the treasurer is hereby directed to pay said warrants.

SEC. 4. All bills for material and labor shall be first audited by the board of directors of said institution and approved by the state board of examiners before being paid.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 420.

An act authorizing municipal corporations, other than freeholder charter cities, to levy and collect a tax for park, music and advertising purposes.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any city or municipal corporation within this state, except freeholder charter cities, may levy and collect a tax, not exceeding fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars, for the purpose of providing and maintaining parks and music, and for advertising purposes, and use and expend the money realized from such tax in any manner that may be deemed best by such council, board of trustees, or other legislative body. Such tax shall be in addition to all other taxes now authorized by law to be levied, and may be levied and collected for each fiscal year. The manner of using such tax and the time of collecting the same shall be provided by the ordinance levying such tax; provided, however, that such ordinance shall not become effective until the same shall have been submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation at a special election to be held for that purpose; and such legislative body shall give notice of such election by publication at least once a week for a period of four weeks prior to such election in a newspaper printed and published in such municipal corporation. Such notice shall contain a copy of said ordinance and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote for or against the same. If upon canvassing the votes at such an election, it is found that a majority of the votes so cast are in favor of said ordinance, the same shall become effective, and said tax shall be levied and collected and used in the manner provided therein.

City trustees may levy tax for parks, music and advertising purposes

SEC. 2. Except as otherwise provided herein, the election herein mentioned shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality, and the mode and manner of levying and collecting the tax herein provided shall be the same as apply to and govern in the assessment and collection of other municipal taxes.

Election.

CHAPTER 421.

An act to amend section 395 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the place of trial of civil actions.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 395 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, is hereby amended to read as follows:

395. In all other cases, the action must be tried in the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action, or if it be an action for injury to person, or property, or for death from wrongful act, or negligence, in the county where the injury occurs, or the injury causing death occurs, or in the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action. If none of the defendants reside in the state, or, if residing in the state, and the county in which they reside is unknown to the plaintiff, the same may be tried in any county which the plaintiff may designate in his complaint, and if the defendant is about to depart from the state, such action may be tried in any county where either of the parties reside, or service is had, subject however, to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as provided in this code. If any person is improperly joined as a defendant, or has been made a defendant solely for the purpose of having the action tried in the county where he resides, his residence must not be considered in determining which is the proper county for the trial of the action.

CHAPTER 422.

An act to amend section 287 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to the causes and proceedings for the removal or suspension of attorneys and counselors.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 287 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Causes for which court may remove attorney.

287. An attorney and counselor may be removed or suspended by the supreme court, or any department thereof, or by any district court of appeal, or by any superior court of the state, for either of the following causes, arising after his admission to practice:

1. His conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence;

2. Wilful disobedience or violation of an order of the court requiring him to do or forbear an act connected with, or in the course of his profession, which he ought in good faith to do or forbear, and any violation of the oath taken by him, or of his duties as such attorney and counselor;

3. Corruptly or wilfully and without authority appearing as attorney for a party to an action or proceeding;

4. Lending his name to be used as attorney and counselor by another person who is not an attorney and counselor;

5. For the commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption, whether the same be committed in the course of his relations as an attorney or counselor at law, or otherwise, and whether the same shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor or not; and in the event that such act shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disbarment or suspension from practice therefor.

In all cases where an attorney is removed or suspended by a superior court, the judgment or order of removal or suspension may be reviewed on appeal by the supreme court.

CHAPTER 423.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be known as section two thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, relating to public ferries.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be known as section two thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, to read as follows:

2896. The provisions of article I and of article III of this chapter shall not apply to or affect any ferry owned or operated as a municipal ferry by any city and county, or incorporated city or town in this state, over waters situated in whole or in part within the limit of such city and county, incorporated city or town.

Not applicable to municipal ferry.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 424.

An act to amend section 5 of an act entitled, "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, and all acts amendatory thereof, by amending section five of said act, relating to contracts for work to be done.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five of an act entitled, "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March 18, 1885, and acts amendatory thereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 5. Before the awarding of any contract by the city council for doing any work authorized by this act, the city council shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door of said council, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered, and shall also cause notice of said work inviting said proposal, and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published for two days in a daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said city, designated by the council for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor of the city, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council, and said council shall, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council. The city council may reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any party who has been delinquent and unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the mayor or a three-fourths vote of the city council. If not approved by him, or a three-fourths vote of the city council, without further proceedings, the city council may readvertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bids so rejected. But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the clerk of said city until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter provided, has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three fourths part of the frontage, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work or improvement, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said city, and shall be collected by it and paid into its fund for repairs of streets; any bond forfeited may be prosecuted, and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund. Notice of such awards of contracts shall be posted for five days, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of proposals for said work. It shall be published for two days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city and designated by said city council, or in cities where there is no daily newspaper, by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated; provided, however, that in case there is no newspaper printed or published in any such city, then such notice of award shall only be kept posted as hereinbefore provided.

The owners of three fourths of the frontage of lots and lands upon the street whereon said work is to be done, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners or agents, shall not be required to present sealed proposals or bids, but may, within ten days after the first posting and publication of said notice of said award, elect to take said work and enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price at which the same has been awarded. Should the said owners fail to elect to take said work, and to enter into a written contract therefor within ten days, or to commence the work within fifteen days after the first posting and publication of said award, and to prosecute the same with diligence to completion, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the original bidder to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices specified in his bid. But if such original bidder neglects, fails or refuses, for fifteen days after the first posting and publication of notice of award, to enter into the contract, then the city council, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids as in the first instance, and award the contract of said work to the then lowest regular bidder. The bids of all persons and the election of all owners, as aforesaid, who have failed to enter into the contract as herein provided, shall be rejected in any bidding or election subsequent to the first for the same work. If, however, the owner or contractor, who may have taken any contract, do not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the city council may give them, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the city council, which may relet the unfinished portion of said work, after pursuing the formalities prescribed hereinbefore for the letting of the whole in the first instance. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for street work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets of said city, with two or more sureties and payable to such city, in such sums as the mayor shall deem adequate, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract; and the sureties shall justify before any person competent to administer an oath, in double the amount mentioned in said bond, over and above all statutory exemptions. Before being entitled to a contract, the bidder to whom the award was made, or the owners who have elected to take the contract, must advance to the superintendent of streets, for payment by him, the cost of publication of notices, resolutions, orders, or other incidental expenses and matters required under the proceedings prescribed in this act, and such other notices as may be deemed requisite by the city council; provided, however, that all contracts entered into between the owners of any property and the contractor or his agents to perform the work of improvement on any street, alley, lane, avenue, place, or court, shall be in triplicate and shall

The original of such contract shall be held by the city, one copy thereof shall be held by the contractor or his agent, and one copy thereof duplicate shall be held by the owners. And in case the work is abandoned by the city before the letting of the contract, the incidental expenses incurred previous to such abandonment shall be paid out of the city treasury.

CHAPTER 425.

An act to amend section 1613 of the Political Code of the State of California, fixing the term of office of school trustees.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1613 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Term of
trustees.

1613. The term of office of school trustees is three years from the first day of May next succeeding their election.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 426.

An act granting to municipal corporations of the State of California the right to construct, operate and maintain water and gas pipes, mains or conduits, electric light and electric power lines, and telephone and telegraph lines, along or upon any road, street, alley, avenue or highway, or across any railway, canal, ditch or flume.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Cities may construct, etc., water and gas pipes, and electric,
telegraph, etc., lines
on a road.

SECTION 1. That there is granted to every municipal corporation of the State of California, the right to construct, operate and maintain water and gas pipes, mains or conduits, electric light and electric power lines, and telephone and telegraph lines, along or upon any road, street, alley, avenue or highway, or across any railway, canal, ditch or flume which the route of such works intersects, crosses or runs along, in such manner as to afford security for life and property; but the municipality shall restore the road, street, alley, avenue, highway, canal, ditch or flume thus intersected to its former state of usefulness, as near as may be; provided, however, that such municipality may not use any street, alley, avenue or highway within any city and county or incorporated city or town, for such purpose, unless the right so to use the same is granted by a two-thirds vote of the governing body of such city and county, or incorporated city or town.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 427.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered section one thousand two hundred forty-eight a, relating to the removal or relocation of railroad, street and interurban railway tracks situated on lands or rights of way taken for road, highway, boulevard, street or alley purposes, under the right of eminent domain, and to compensation for such removal or relocation.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to be numbered section one thousand two hundred forty-eight a, to read as follows:

1248a. In any proceeding taken under the provisions of this title, where any railroad, street or interurban railway tracks are situated on, upon, along or across any lands or rights of way sought to be taken therein, for road, highway, boulevard, street or alley purposes, the plaintiff shall, if the complaint contains a prayer therefor, and shows the matter hereinafter provided, obtain a final judgment of condemnation ordering, in addition to the condemnation of such lands or right of way for the purposes set forth in the complaint, the relocation or removal of any railroad, street or interurban railway tracks thereon. Where the removal or relocation of such tracks is sought in any such proceeding, the complaint must contain a description of the location and proposed location of such tracks, and must be accompanied by a map showing such location and the proposed location of such tracks. The compensation to be paid for such relocation or removal of tracks shall be ascertained and assessed in the action, as in other cases, and separately from other sources of damage.

Removal of railroads, etc., from rights of way taken for roads.

CHAPTER 428.

An act to add a new section to an act entitled "An act to provide for changing or modifying the grade of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places within municipalities," approved April 21, 1909, to be numbered section five a.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to an act entitled "An act to provide for changing or modifying the grade of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts, or other places within municipalities," approved April 21, 1909, to be numbered section five a, to read as follows:

Affidavits of publication and posting of notices.

Section 5a. Proof of publication of any notice required by this act shall be made by affidavit, as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, and proof of the posting of any such notice shall be made by the affidavit of the person posting the same, setting forth the facts regarding such posting. It shall be the duty of any officer who is required by this act to have any notice published or posted, to obtain and file in his office the affidavit or affidavits in proof thereof; provided, that his failure so to do shall not affect the validity of any proceedings under this act. Any such affidavit so filed shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated regarding such publication or posting.

CHAPTER 429.

An act to provide for the sale of an excess of water when owned by a municipality, and repealing an act entitled "An act to provide for the sale of an excess of water when owned by a municipality," approved March 27, 1897.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Cities supplying own water may sell excess.

SECTION 1. Whenever the water supply owned by any city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, is in excess of the amount required to supply the water required by the inhabitants thereof, it may be declared by ordinance that such excess exists, and such excess of water may be sold outside of the limits of the corporation; but in no case shall a contract be made for a supply of any excess of water sold by a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, outside the corporate limits, for a period longer than one year; and in no case shall such a contract be made, unless the legislative authority of a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, declare by ordinance that there exists an excess of water not required to supply the inhabitants of the city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, within the term of the contract, but water not required to supply the inhabitants of the city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, may be sold by the authorities thereof outside the corporate limits, from month to month, during the existence of such excess, and shall be sold only at the rates fixed for consumers inside the corporate limits; provided, however, that the terms of this act shall not apply to any city, or city and county, having a charter framed and adopted under the authority of section 8 of article XI of the constitution of this state, and which charter contains provisions inconsistent herewith.

SEC. 2. An act entitled "An act to provide for the sale of an excess of water when owned by a municipality," approved March 27, 1897, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 430.

An act to amend section thirty-three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places, within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement," approved March 24, 1903.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section thirty-three of an act entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places, within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of such improvement," approved March 24, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Laying out, etc., streets.

Sec. 33. The following words and phrases shall, where used in this act, have the following meanings:

Definitions.

(1) The term "improvement" includes all of the improvements mentioned in section 1 of this act.

Definitions.

(2) The terms "municipality" and "city" include all incorporated cities, cities and counties, and other corporations organized for municipal purposes.

(3) The terms "city council" and "council" include any body or board in which by law is vested the legislative power of any municipality.

(4) The terms "clerk" and "city clerk" include any person or officer who acts as clerk of said city council.

(5) The terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer" include any person or officer who has charge and makes payment of the city funds.

(6) The term "street superintendent" includes any officer or board whose duty it is by law to have the care or charge of streets, or the improvement thereof, in any city. In any city where there is no street superintendent, or no such board, the city council thereof is hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to perform the duties imposed by this act on the street superintendent, and all the provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent shall apply to the person so appointed.

(7) The terms "owner" and "any person interested" include the person owning the fee, or the person in whom, on the day any protest or petition is filed, the legal title to real property appears, by deeds duly recorded in the county recorder's office of the county in which said city is situated, or any person in possession of real property, as the executor, administrator, trustee under an express trust, guardian or other legal representative of the owner, or any person in possession of real property under a written contract of purchase thereof duly recorded, or any person in possession of real property, as lessee thereof under a lease duly recorded, which shall require such lessee to pay or discharge all assessments for street or other public improvements, that may be levied or assessed against such real property.

(8) The term "property of any railroad or street railroad" shall be deemed to include and shall include property owned or controlled by any person, firm or corporation, as a railroad, street railroad or interurban railroad right of way whether such right of way be owned or controlled in fee or as an easement or by virtue of a franchise or otherwise, also the roadbed, ties and rails located on such right of way; and such property shall be assessed and the assessment thereof enforced in the same manner and to the same effect as other lands and property in the assessment district.

CHAPTER 431.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to incorporated towns and cities, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipalities, and for the districting, government and municipal control of annexed territory," approved March 19, 1889, and to add a new section thereto to be designated as section one a, relating to the taxation of property within such annexed territory for the payment of indebtedness of such municipalities.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of an act entitled "An act to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to incorporated towns and cities, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipalities, and for the districting, government and municipal control of annexed territory," approved March 19, 1889, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The boundaries of any incorporated town or city, whether heretofore or hereafter formed, incorporated, reincorporated, organized, or reorganized, may be altered and new territory annexed thereto, incorporated and included therein, and made a part thereof, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any such municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor containing a description of the new territory asked to be annexed to such corporation, and signed by not less than one fifth in number of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, computed upon the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election held therein, must, without delay, submit to the electors of such municipal corporation and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of said municipal corporation. Such question shall be submitted at a special election, to be held for that purpose, and no other; and such legislative body is hereby empowered to, and it shall be its duty to cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper printed and published in such municipal corporation, and also in a newspaper, if any such there be, printed and published outside of such corporation, but in the county in which the territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in each case at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, i. e., that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of such municipal corporation the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof; and in said notice the qualified electors of said municipal corporation, and the qualified electors residing in said territory so proposed to be annexed, shall be invited to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For Annexation" or "Against Annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty, to establish, and in such notice of election designate the voting precinct or precincts, and the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, and also in such municipal corporation. And such place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places within such municipal corporation, and also that or those commonly used within such new territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body is empowered to, and it shall, appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such municipal corporation, and for each voting place in said new territory, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election, shall be in conformity, as far as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning elections; and the judges and inspectors of such election shall, immediately on the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up and certify the tally sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling places, seal, and then immediately return the same as below provided, doing so, as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the election laws of this state; but the ballots, tally sheets, and returns shall be so returned to and deposited with the clerk of such legislative body. Such legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of three days from and after the date of said election, meet and proceed to canvass said returns; and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments, if possible, until said canvass is completed. Said canvass by such legislative body shall be conducted and completed as follows: The returns of the votes cast in said outside territory, so proposed to be annexed shall be canvassed separately; and the returns of the votes cast inside of said municipal corporation shall be canvassed separately. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass, said legislative body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the whole number of votes cast in such outside territory, the whole number of votes cast in such municipal corporation, the number thereof cast in each in favor of annexation, and the number thereof cast in each against annexation; and if it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such outside territory, and a majority of all the votes cast inside of said municipal corporation, are in favor of annexation, the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of such legislative body, shall promptly make and certify, under the seal of said municipal corporation, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of said record, so entered upon said minutes, together with a statement showing the date of said election and the time and result of said canvass, which document shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon the receipt thereof. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be deemed and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes, a part of such municipal corporation, except only that no property within such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation, excepting as provided in section one a of this act. No territory which, at the time such petition for such proposed annexation is presented to such legislative body, forms any part of any incorporated town or city, shall be annexed under the provisions of this act.

Copy of record to secretary of state.

Annexed territory not liable for prior indebtedness.

SEC. 2. A new section is added to said act and designated section one a, immediately following section one of said act, and to read as follows:

Section 1*a*. Whenever any municipal corporation to which it is proposed to annex territory under the provisions of this act shall have incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement or improvements, the petition presented to the legislative body of such municipal corporation, as hereinabove provided, may contain a request that the question to be submitted to the electors of such municipal corporation and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, shall be, whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of, said municipal corporation, and the property therein be, after such annexation, subject to taxation, equally with the property within such municipal corporation, to pay any such bonded indebtedness of such corporation, outstanding at the date of such annexation, or theretofore authorized. If such request shall be made in said petition proceedings shall be had thereon the same in all respects as upon a petition presented under the provisions of the preceding section, excepting that the notice of election shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, i. e., that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of, such municipal corporation, the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof, and that the property therein, shall, after such annexation, be subject to taxation, equally with the property within such municipal corporation, to pay such bonded indebtedness of such municipal corporation, outstanding at the date of the said annexation, or theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued. The said notice shall, in addition, distinctly specify the improvement or improvements for which such indebtedness was so incurred or authorized, and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred, outstanding at the date of the first publication of such notice, and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest payable, or to be payable on such indebtedness; and upon the canvass of the returns of the votes cast at any election held under the provisions of this section, if it shall appear that two thirds of all the votes cast in such outside territory, and a majority of all the votes cast inside of said municipal corporation, are in favor of annexation, and not otherwise, a copy of the record of such canvass shall be transmitted to the secretary of state in the same manner as provided in the preceding section. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed, shall be deemed, and shall be, complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes a part of such municipal corporation, and the property within such annexed territory shall be taxed to pay the bonded indebtedness or liability of such corporation, specified in said notice, equally with the property within such municipal corporation as it existed prior to such annexation.

CHAPTER 432.

An act to regulate the building and occupancy of tenement houses in incorporated towns, incorporated cities, and cities and counties, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof and repealing an act entitled, "An act to regulate the building and occupancy of tenement houses in incorporated towns, incorporated cities, and cities and counties, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof," approved April 16, 1909, statutes of California, of 1909, page 948.

[Approved April 10, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tenement house act.

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as the tenement house act, and its provisions shall apply to all incorporated towns, incorporated cities, cities and counties in the State of California.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of this act certain words and phrases are defined as follows:

Definitions.

A tenement house is any house or building, or portion thereof, of more than one story, which is designed, built, rented, leased, let or hired out, to be occupied or is occupied as the home or residence of four families or more living independently of each other, and doing their cooking upon the premises, or by three families so living and cooking, and having a common right in the halls, stairways, yards, water-closets, or some or any of them; provided, that a building of not more than two stories in height, which is designed, built, rented, leased, let or hired out, to be occupied or is occupied as the home or residence of not more than four families living independently of each other, and so constructed that each section is arranged to be occupied as the home or residence of a separate family and each section having an entirely independent and separate entrance and stairway from the street or from an outside vestibule on the level of the first floor of said building and with no room, hall, bathroom, water-closet, kitchen or other convenience used in common by two or more families occupying said building, shall not come within the definition of a tenement house contained in this act.

house."

An "apartment" in a tenement house is a room or a suite of rooms which is occupied, or is intended or designed to be occupied, as a family domicile.

"Apartment."

A "yard" is an open, unoccupied space on the same lot with a tenement house, between the extreme rear line of the house and the rear line of the lot.

"Yard."

A "court" is an open, unoccupied space, other than a yard, on the same lot with a tenement house. A court not extending to the street or yard is an inner court. A court extending to the street or yard and bounded on three sides by a tenement house on the same lot is an outer court. If it extends to the street it is a street court. If it extends to the yard it is a yard court. If it extends from the street to the yard it is a street-to-yard court. A court bounded on one side and both ends by a tenement house and on the remaining side by a lot-line is a "lot-line" court. A court bounded on one side and one end by a tenement house and on the remaining side by lot line and the remaining end open to the street or yard is a lot line outer court.

"Court."

A "shaft" includes exterior and interior shafts, whether for air, light, elevator, dumbwaiter, or any other purpose. A vent shaft is one used solely to ventilate or light a water-closet compartment or bathroom.

"Shaft."

A "public hall" is a hall, corridor or passageway not within an apartment.

"Public
hall."

A "stair hall" includes the stairs, stair landings and those portions of the public halls through which it is necessary to pass in going between the entrance hall and the roof.

"Stair
hall"

A "basement" is a story partly below the level of the curb, the ceiling of which is not less than four feet six inches above the curb level.

"Basement"

"Cellar." A "cellar" is any story partly or wholly below the level of the curb, the ceiling of which is less than four feet six inches above the curb level.

"Fireproof tenement house." A "fireproof tenement house" is one the walls of which are constructed of brick, stone, iron or other incombustible material, and in which there are no wooden beams or lintels, and in which the floors, roofs, stair halls and public halls are built entirely of brick, stone, iron, or other hard incombustible material, and in which no woodwork or other inflammable material is used in any of the partitions, furrings or ceilings. But this definition shall not be construed as prohibiting elsewhere than in the stair halls or entrance halls, the use of wooden flooring on top of the fireproof floors or the use of wooden sleepers, nor as prohibiting wooden handrails, and hardwood treads.

"Wooden tenement." A "wooden tenement" is a tenement of which the exterior walls or a portion thereof are of wood. Wooden buildings covered with metal, plaster, terra cotta, or veneered with masonry are wooden structures.

Length and width. For the purpose of this act the greatest horizontal linear dimension of any building shall be its length, and the next greatest horizontal linear dimension its width.

Height. The height of buildings shall be measured from the curb level at the center of the main front of the building to the top of the highest point of the roof beams in case of flat roofs, and for high-pitched roofs the average height of the gable shall be taken as the highest point of the building. For a building erected upon a street corner, the measurements shall be taken from the curb level opposite the center of either front. When the ground upon which the walls of a structure are built is above the street level, the average level for the ground adjoining the walls may be taken instead of the curb level for the height of such structure.

Building not erected for tenement. SEC. 3. A building not erected for use as a tenement house, if hereafter altered or converted to such use, shall thereupon become subject to all of the provisions of this act affecting tenement houses hereafter erected.

Tenement not to be altered. SEC. 4. No tenement house shall at any time be altered so as to be in violation of any provision of this act. If any tenement house or any part thereof be erected, altered or occupied contrary to law, such tenement house shall be deemed an unlawful structure, and the board of health, or if there be no board of health, the department charged with the enforcement of this act, may cause such building to be vacated, and such building shall not again be occupied until it or its occupation, as the case may be, has been made to conform with the law.

Per cent of lot house may occupy. SEC. 5. No tenement house hereafter erected shall occupy more than ninety per cent of a corner lot or more than seventy-five per cent of any other lot, except as otherwise provided in this act; provided, that the space occupied by open iron fire escapes erected and constructed according to law shall not be deemed a part of the lot occupied, but that the space occupied by fireproof stairs, and by vent shafts thirty-two square feet or less in area, shall be considered as part of the lot occupied. For the purposes of this section the measurements may be taken at the level of the second tier of beams (the second floor level), except where rooms on the ground floor are to be used for sleeping apartments.

SEC. 6. By corner lot is meant a lot situated at the junction of two streets, or of a street and public alley or other public thoroughfare or public park, not less than sixteen feet in width. Any portion of the width of such lot distant more than fifty feet from such junction shall not be regarded as part of a corner lot, but shall be subject to the provisions of this act respecting other than corner lots. Where, in any corner lot, the two frontages are of unequal length, either street frontage may be taken as the width of the lot. Street frontage alone and not alley frontage shall be considered in determining such lesser frontage. Corner lot.

SEC. 7. The height of no tenement house hereafter erected shall by more than one half exceed the width of the widest street upon which it stands. Limit of height.

SEC. 8. Behind every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be a yard extending across the entire width of the lot and at every point open from the ground to the sky, unobstructed, except that open iron fire escapes may project not over four feet from the rear line of the house. The depth of said yard, measured from the extreme rear wall of the house to the rear line of the lot, shall be as provided in the following sections. Yard.

SEC. 9. Except upon a corner lot, as provided in section 10, or upon a lot running through from street to street or street to public alley, or public park as provided in section 11, the depth of the yard behind every tenement house hereafter erected shall be not less than twelve feet in every part. Said yard shall be increased in depth two feet for every additional twelve feet in height of the building or fraction thereof, and may be decreased in depth one foot for every twelve feet in height of the building less than sixty feet; but it shall never be less than ten feet in depth in every part. House sixty feet high, yard not less than twelve feet wide.

SEC. 10. The depth of the yard behind every tenement house hereafter erected upon a corner lot shall be not less than ten feet in every part and at every point open and unobstructed from the level of the second tier of beams (the second floor level); provided, that where any such lot is less than one hundred feet in depth the depth of the yard be not less than ten per centum of the greatest depth of such lot, but shall never be less than five feet in every part, nor less than the minimum width of an outer court on the lot line as prescribed by this act. If rooms on the ground floor are used as sleeping apartments the yard shall be taken from the ground up. When a corner lot is more than fifty feet in width, the yard for that portion in excess of fifty feet shall conform to the provisions of section 9 of this act. Yard of corner lot not less than ten feet wide.

When one half width of alley may be included in yard.

SEC. 11. Whenever a tenement house is hereafter erected upon a lot which runs through from one street to another street or public alley or public park and said lot is not more than one hundred and fifty feet in depth, one half of the width of the narrowest street or alley may be included in the depth of the yard required by sections 9 and 10; provided, that on such lot no tenement house hereafter erected shall occupy more than ninety per centum of a corner lot, or more than seventy-five per centum of any other lot. One half of the rear street or public alley or public park may be included in the portion of lot that is left uncovered in computing the percentage; provided, said one half does not exceed the depth of yard required in sections 9 and 10. in which case only twelve feet may be included in computing the percentage to be left uncovered. If a lot is surrounded upon its four sides by streets or streets and public alleys twenty feet or more wide or public parks over twenty-four feet wide, the provisions relating to yards in sections 8, 9, 10 and 11 need not be complied with; provided, that the tenement house to be constructed on such lot does not occupy more than seventy-five per centum of the lot and contains an outer court at least eighty feet deep and of a width twice as great as the depth prescribed for yards in section 9 and open to one of the surrounding streets, alleys, or parks; provided, that said outer court shall not be required to be of a depth which shall have less than fifty feet between the rear line of said court and the line of said lot immediately behind said court.

When lot is surrounded by streets.

Courts.

SEC. 12. No court of a tenement house hereafter erected shall be covered by a roof or skylight, but every such court shall be at every point open from the bottom of the lowest room used for human habitation and lighted by such court to the sky, unobstructed, except that open iron fire escapes, as required by law, or by ordinances or regulations of incorporated towns, incorporated cities or cities and counties, may project into the court, but not more than four feet from the wall of the house. All courts in tenement houses hereafter erected shall conform to the requirements of the following sections. Except that recesses may be built on the street or yard or a court; provided, the depth of same is no greater than the width and that their area be not counted in computing the area of the court.

Minimum widths and maximum lengths of outer courts.

SEC. 13. The outer courts of all tenement houses hereafter erected shall have not less than the following minimum widths nor more than the following maximum lengths:

Building	Least width.	Maximum length
2 stories	4 feet	16 feet.
3 stories	4 feet 6 inches	25 feet.
4 stories	5 feet 6 inches	30 feet.
5 stories	6 feet	35 feet.
6 stories	8 feet	35 feet.
7 stories	10 feet	40 feet.
8 stories	12 feet	40 feet.

The length of outer courts shall not be more than the maximum lengths given in the above table, unless six inches be added to the minimum widths for each additional five feet or fraction thereof in length. The lot line outer courts shall have the same minimum width as outer courts but are not governed by the provision in this section regarding maximum lengths.

SEC. 14. The inner courts of all tenement houses hereafter erected shall have areas and minimum widths in all parts, not less than the widths and areas as follows:

Areas and widths of inner courts.

Building.	Square feet.	Least width.
2 stories.....	75.....	6 feet.
3 stories.....	120.....	7 feet.
4 stories.....	160.....	8 feet.
5 stories.....	250.....	12 feet.
6 stories.....	400.....	16 feet.
7 stories.....	625.....	20 feet.
8 stories or more....	840.....	24 feet.

SEC. 15. Lot line courts in tenement houses hereafter erected shall have areas and minimum widths in all parts not less than those specified in the following table:

Areas and widths of lot line courts.

Building.	Square feet.	Least width
2 stories	50.....	4 feet 0 inches.
3 stories	60.....	5 feet 0 inches.
4 stories	105.....	7 feet 0 inches.
5 stories	180.....	9 feet 0 inches.
6 stories	300.....	12 feet 0 inches.
7 stories	490.....	14 feet 0 inches.
8 stories	595.....	17 feet 0 inches.

SEC. 16. Every inner court, including lot line courts, shall be provided with one or more horizontal air intakes at the bottom. Such intakes shall always communicate directly with the street or yard, and shall consist of an unobstructed passageway, not less than three feet wide and six feet six inches high, which shall be left open, or if not open, there shall always be provided in said passageway open grilles or transoms, one at each end of a size not less than ten square feet each, and such open grilles or transoms shall never be covered with glass or in any other way. In case the court does not go down to the ground level, the intake shall consist of unobstructed open ducts having an open interior area of not less than sixteen square feet at any point, and covered at each end with a wire screen of not less than one inch mesh. Such duct shall be so arranged as to be easily cleaned out. These ducts or intakes must in any case be either of fireproof construction or lined with No. 26 galvanized iron on inside.

Air intakes of inner courts.

SEC. 17. No existing tenement house shall (unless the rear of the lot upon which it stands abuts upon a public alley at least ten feet wide) hereafter be enlarged or its lot be diminished so that any building on such lot shall at any point approach nearer than ten feet to the rear of the lot. Where a tenement house, now or hereafter erected, stands upon a lot, other than a corner lot, no other building shall hereafter be placed upon the front or rear of that lot, unless the minimum distance between such buildings shall be at least ten feet, if neither building exceeds the height of one story; or twelve feet if either building exceeds the height of one story, but not the height of two stories, and so on, two additional feet to be added to such minimum distance of ten feet for every story more than one in the height of the highest building on such lot. Every rear tenement hereafter erected, or every tenement that hereafter becomes a rear tenement by the erection of a building or buildings on the front of the same lot, shall have direct access to a street, or to a public alley or other public thoroughfare or public park at least sixteen feet wide, by a passageway not less than five feet wide by seven feet high.

Enlarging existing tenement.

Rear tenements.

Windows.

SEC. 18. In every tenement house hereafter erected every room, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street, or upon a yard or court of the dimensions specified in sections 8 to 16 of this act, and such windows shall be located as to properly light all portions of such rooms.

Window area of each room.

SEC. 19. In every tenement house hereafter erected the total window area of each room, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be at least one eighth of the superficial area of the room, except in the cellar or basement, where it shall be one sixth, and the upper half of all windows shall be made so as to open the full width. The total window area of any such room shall never be less than twelve square feet, measured to outside of sash.

Area of each room.

SEC. 20. In every tenement house hereafter erected all rooms, except water-closet compartments and bathrooms, shall be of the following dimensions: In each apartment there shall be at least one room containing not less than one hundred and twenty square feet of floor area, and each other room shall contain at least ninety square feet of floor area. Each room shall be in every part not less than nine feet from the finish floor to the finished ceiling; provided, that an attic room need be but nine feet high in but half its area. Except that small closets and water-closet compartments, and bath rooms, may be not less than seven feet six inches in height, and except that buffet kitchens or pantries may be less than ninety square feet of area; provided, that same are not occupied or intended or designed to be occupied as bed rooms.

Aleoves to be separately lighted.

SEC. 21. In every tenement house hereafter erected an alcove in any room shall be separately lighted and ventilated and must conform to all the requirements of other rooms, and shall not be less than ninety square feet in area. No part of any room in a tenement house hereafter erected shall be enclosed or subdivided at any time, wholly or in part, by a curtain portière, fixed or movable partition, or other contrivance or device, unless such part of the room so enclosed or subdivided shall contain a separate window as herein required, and shall have a floor area of not less than ninety square feet; provided, however, that closets or alcoves of not more than twenty-five square feet floor area do not come within the provisions of this section.

SEC. 22. In every tenement house which is hereafter erected, which is occupied or arranged to be occupied by more than two families on any floor, or which exceeds four stories and cellar in height, every public hall or stair hall shall have at least one window at each floor opening directly upon the street or upon a yard or court, except as otherwise provided in this section. Any part of a hall, which is shut off from any other part of said hall by a door or doors, shall be deemed a separate hall within the meaning of this section. In every tenement house hereafter erected, where the public hall is not provided with a window opening directly to the outer air as above provided, there shall be a stair well not less than twelve inches wide extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and all doors leading from such public halls shall be provided with translucent glass panels of an area not less than five square feet for each door, and also with fixed transoms of translucent glass over each door.

in stair halls.

SEC. 23. In every tenement house hereafter erected, one at least of the windows provided to light each public hall or part thereof shall have an area of at least twelve square feet measured to outside of sash. In every such house there shall be in the roof, directly over each stair well, a ventilating skylight provided with ridge ventilators having a minimum opening of forty square inches, or such skylight shall be provided with fixed or movable louvres; the glazed roof of such skylight shall be not less than twenty square feet in area. In tenement houses hereafter erected, where the stairs and public halls are not provided with windows on each floor opening directly into the outer air, the skylights shall be provided with both such rigid ventilators, and also with fixed or movable louvres, or movable sashes.

Minimum
area of hall windows and skylight.

SEC. 24. In every tenement house hereafter erected, the windows required by law on each floor to light or ventilate stair halls shall be at least fifteen square feet of area measured to outside of sash. Sash doors in entrance halls and public halls shall be deemed the equivalent of a window for lighting purposes: provided, that such doors contain the amount of glazed surface prescribed for windows.

Minimum
area of stair hall window.

SEC. 25. Every vent shaft hereafter constructed in a tenement house shall be at least twenty square feet in area, and the least dimension of such vent shaft shall be at least four feet; and if the building be above sixty feet in height such vent shaft shall, throughout its entire height, be increased in area three square feet for each additional twelve feet or fraction thereof; and for each twelve feet of height less than sixty feet such vent shaft may be decreased in area three feet. Every such vent shaft shall be constructed of fireproof materials or shall be covered on the outside with Every such vent shaft shall be provided with a horizontal air intake or duct at the bottom communicating with the street or yard or a court; such duct or air intake to be not less than four square feet in total area. Such duct shall be constructed of fireproof material or shall be lined on the inside with metal, and shall enter the shaft at a point not less than six inches above the bottom thereof, and shall be provided with a wire screen of not less than one inch mesh at each end. Such duct shall be so arranged as to be easily cleaned out.

Access to rooms. SEC. 26. In every apartment of four or more rooms, in a tenement house hereafter erected, access to every living room and bedroom and to at least one water-closet compartment shall be had without passing through any bedroom.

No cellar rooms for living purposes. SEC. 27. In no tenement house hereafter erected shall any room in the cellar be constructed, altered, converted or occupied for living purposes; and no room in the basement of a tenement house shall be constructed, altered, converted, or occupied for living purposes, unless all of the following conditions of this act be complied with, and at least one third of the basement shall be above grade for building; provided, in each case of each such room the ceiling shall be at least four feet six inches above the adjoining street grades and actual ground levels.

Basement rooms.

(1) Such rooms shall be at least nine feet in every part from the floor to the ceiling.

(2) There shall be appurtenant to such room or apartment a water-closet conforming to the regulations and ordinances relating to water-closets, of the incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county in which the tenement house is or is to be built.

Basement walls damp-proofed.

SEC. 28. If the basement of any tenement house hereafter erected is used or designed to be used for living purposes, it shall have all walls below the ground level and all cellar or lower floors damp-proofed and water-proofed. When necessary to make such floors and walls damp-proof and water-proof, the damp-proofing and water-proofing shall run through the walls as high as the ground level and continue throughout the floor. All cellars and basements in such tenement houses shall be properly lighted and ventilated to the satisfaction of the department charged with the enforcement of this act.

Bottom of shafts to be six inches below floor level.

SEC. 29. In every tenement house hereafter erected, the bottom of all shafts, courts, areas, and yards which extend to the basement for light or ventilation of living rooms, must be six inches below the floor level of the part occupied or intended to be occupied. In every tenement house all shafts, courts, areas and yards shall be properly graded and drained, and connected with the street sewer so that all water may pass freely through into it, and when required by the department charged with the enforcement of this act, shall be properly concreted.

Sinks and running water.

SEC. 30. In every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be in each apartment a proper sink with running water; provided, there is a water system accessible to said tenement house.

SEC. 31. In every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be a separate water-closet in a separate compartment within each apartment, and one shower bath or bath tub in a separate compartment, shall be provided on each floor for every ten rooms, or fraction thereof, and arranged so that one bath tub or shower is accessible to each apartment; provided, that where there are apartments consisting of but one or two rooms there may be one water-closet compartment for every two such apartments accessible from each such apartment through the public hall, and not more than twenty feet distance from an entrance of each such apartment; provided, there is a water system accessible to such tenement house. Each compartment shall not be less than two feet four inches wide, and shall be enclosed with plastered partitions which shall extend to the ceiling. Every such water-closet compartment shall have a window or windows of at least six square feet total area opening directly upon a vent shaft, court, street or yard. However, a bath tub or shower may be placed in the separate water-closet compartment where neither bath tub nor shower, nor water-closet are to be used by more than one apartment. Every water-closet compartment shall be provided with proper means for lighting same by night. The floor of every such water-closet compartment shall be made water-proof with asphalt, tile, cement or some other non-absorbent water-proof material.

Water-closets and baths.

SEC. 32. No wooden tenement house shall hereafter be erected which shall contain more than one hundred and fifty rooms, exclusive of bathrooms.

Wooden tenements not to contain more than 150 rooms.

SEC. 33. No wooden tenement house exceeding three stories in height, exclusive of cellar, shall hereafter be erected. However, the building may step up to follow the grade; provided, no part of the said building is over three stories in height.

No wooden tenement exceeding three stories.

SEC. 34. A non-fireproof tenement house may be built four stories in height; provided, the exterior walls are all of brick or stone or concrete and all other municipal requirements for this class of building are complied with. If, in addition to above requirements, all joists, girders, studding, furring and the soffits of stairs be lathed with metal lath and plastered, such tenement houses may be built not to exceed six stories; provided, the height limits imposed by municipal ordinance for all buildings of this particular class be not exceeded. A cellar is not a story within the meaning of this section; provided, that no part of such cellar is occupied or arranged to be occupied for living purposes. However, the building may step up to follow the grade; provided, that no part of said building exceeds the number of stories provided for in this section.

Four-story tenement not fire-proof.

Six story.

SEC. 35. Every tenement house hereafter erected exceeding six stories or parts of stories in height (above the curb) shall be a fireproof tenement house. A cellar is not a story within the meaning of this section; provided, no part of such cellar is occupied or arranged to be occupied for living purposes.

Exceeding six stories to be fire-proof.

Stand-pipes, fire-escapes,
etc.

SEC. 36. Every tenement house shall be provided and equipped with standpipes and with metallic fire escapes, combined with suitable metallic balconies, platforms and railings, as provided for, or which shall be provided for by the ordinances of the incorporated town, city or county in which the tenement house is situated. No incumbrance of any kind shall at any time be placed before, upon or against any stairway, steps or landings or fire escapes in or upon any tenement house. All fire escapes upon tenement houses shall be kept in good order and repair, and every exposed part thereof shall at all times be protected against rust by durable paint.

roof.

SEC. 37. Every tenement house hereafter erected shall have stairs with a guide or hand rail, leading to the roof and enclosed between ceiling and roof by fireproof partitions with fireproof door to same opening on to roof, except that in non-fireproof tenement houses hereafter erected such partitions may be of wood covered with metal on both sides. These stairs shall be at least two feet six inches wide and constructed as specified in section 41 of this act. All doors in the above partitions shall be fire doors, metal lined on both sides.

Stairs from
to roof.

SEC. 38. Every tenement house hereafter erected shall have at least one flight of stairs extending from the entrance floor to the roof, and the stairs and public halls therein shall be at least three feet wide in the clear; and every non-fireproof tenement house containing not more than fifty rooms shall have a secondary flight of stairs running from the top floor down to the second floor and not less than two feet six inches wide. A fire escape may take the place of this second stairway; provided, said fire escape connects directly with a public hallway or is accessible to each apartment.

Additional flight of stairs for tenement-having
50 rooms

SEC. 39. Every non-fireproof tenement house hereafter erected containing over fifty rooms, exclusive of bathrooms, above the entrance story, shall also have an additional flight of stairs for every additional eighty rooms or fraction thereof; if said house contains not more than one hundred rooms above the entrance story, in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building shall be at least one half wider than is specified in sections 38 and 42 of this act. However, where an additional flight of stairs is added in accordance with the provisions of this section, the secondary stairway required in section 38 may be omitted.

Additional
stairs for fireproof tenement-having
120 rooms.

SEC. 40. Every fireproof tenement house hereafter erected containing over one hundred and twenty rooms above the entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, shall have an additional flight of stairs for every additional one hundred and twenty rooms or fraction thereof, but if said house contains not more than one hundred and eighty rooms above the entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, in lieu of an additional stairway, the stairs, stair halls and entrance halls throughout the entire building may each be at least one half wider than is specified in sections 38 and 42 of this act; and if such house contains not more than three hundred rooms above entrance story, exclusive of bathrooms, in lieu of four stairways there may be but three stairways; provided, that one of such stairways and the stair halls and entrance halls connected therewith are at least one half wider than is specified in sections 38 and 42 of this act.

SEC. 41. Each flight of stairs mentioned in the last two sections shall have an entrance on the entrance floor from the street or street court, or from an inner court which connects directly with the street. All stairs shall be constructed with a rise of not more than eight inches, and with treads not less than nine inches wide, exclusive of nosings. Where winders are used all treads at a point eighteen inches from the strings on the wall side shall be at least ten inches wide.

Stairs to have entrance from street.

SEC. 42. Every entrance hall in a tenement house hereafter erected shall be at least three feet six inches in the clear from the entrance up to and including the stair enclosure, and beyond this point three feet wide in the clear. In every tenement house hereafter erected, access shall be had from the street to the yard, either in a direct line or through a court.

Width of entrance.

SEC. 43. In non-fireproof tenement houses hereafter erected no closet of any kind shall be constructed under any stairway leading from the first story, exclusive of the cellar, to the upper stories, but such space shall be left entirely open and kept clear and free from incumbrance.

No closet under stairs in non-fireproof tenement.

SEC. 44. In every tenement house hereafter erected there shall be an entrance to the cellar or other lowest story from the outside of said building.

Entrance to cellar.

SEC. 45. No tenement house shall be increased in height, its lot decreased so that its yard shall be diminished to less than is required by sections 8 to 11 inclusive of this act, or so that a greater percentage of the lot shall be occupied by buildings or structures than provided for in section 5 of this act. For the purpose of this section, the measurements for computing the percentage of lot to be occupied may be taken at the level of the second tier of beams the second floor level except in tenement houses where rooms on the ground floor are to be occupied as sleeping apartments; provided, that the space occupied by open iron fire escapes and by chimneys or flues located in yards and attached to the house, which do not exceed five square feet in area and do not obstruct the light or ventilation, shall not be deemed part of the lot occupied.

Tenement not to be increased in height or lot decreased.

SEC. 46. No tenement house shall be increased in height so that said building shall exceed in height by more than one half the width of the widest street on which it stands.

Limit in height.

SEC. 47. Any shaft or court used or intended to be used to light or ventilate rooms intended to be used for living purposes, and which may hereafter be placed in tenement houses erected prior to the passage of this act, shall not be less in area than twenty-five square feet, or less than four feet in width in any part, and such shaft shall under no circumstances be roofed or covered over at the top with a roof or skylight; every such shaft shall be provided at the bottom with a horizontal intake or duct of a size not less than four feet square and communicating directly with the street or yard, and such duct shall be so arranged as to be readily cleaned out. Such vent shaft shall be constructed of fireproof materials or shall be covered with metal on the outside and with metal lath and plaster on the inside, and such duct shall be constructed of fireproof materials, or shall be lined on the inside with metal.

Courts for ventilation and light.

Additional rooms to comply with this act.

SEC. 48. Any additional room or hall that is hereafter constructed or created in a tenement house shall comply in all respects with the provisions of this act applicable to tenement houses to be erected hereafter, except that such rooms may be the same height as the other rooms of the same story of the house.

Alteration diminishing light prohibited.

SEC. 49. No tenement house shall be so altered that any room or public hall or stairs shall have its light or ventilation diminished in any way not approved by the health department or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose.

Subdividing rooms by curtains, etc.

SEC. 50. No part of any room in any tenement house shall hereafter be enclosed or subdivided wholly or in part, by a curtain, portière, fixed or movable partition, or other contrivance or device, unless such part of the room so enclosed or subdivided, shall contain a window, as required by section 18 of this act, and have a floor area of not less than ninety square feet; provided, however, that closets or alcoves of not more than twenty-five square feet in area do not come within the provisions of this section.

New water-closets.

SEC. 51. Every new water-closet hereafter placed in a tenement house, except one provided to replace a defective or antiquated fixture in the same location, shall comply with the provisions of section 31 of this act relative to water-closets in tenement houses hereafter erected.

Increasing size of wooden tenements.

SEC. 52. No existing wooden tenement house shall hereafter be increased in size so as to contain more than one hundred and fifty rooms, exclusive of bath rooms.

Increasing height.

SEC. 53. No wooden tenement house shall be increased in height so as to exceed three stories, exclusive of the cellar. However, the building may step up to follow the grade; provided, no part of said building is over three stories in height.

Altering non-fireproof tenements to four stories.

SEC. 54. A non-fireproof tenement house may hereafter be altered to be four stories in height; provided, the exterior walls are all of brick or stone or concrete and all other municipal requirements for this class of building are complied with. If, in addition to the above requirements, all joists, girders, studing, furring and the soffits of stairs be lathed with metal lath and plastered, such tenement houses may be built not to exceed six stories; provided, the height limits imposed by municipal ordinances for all buildings of this particular class be not exceeded. A cellar is not a story within the meaning of this section; provided, that no part of such cellar is occupied or arranged to be occupied for living purposes. However, the building may step up to follow the grade; provided, no part of the said building exceeds the number of stories provided for in this section.

SEC. 55. No tenement house shall hereafter be altered to exceed six stories or parts of stories in height unless it is a fireproof tenement house. A cellar is not a story within the meaning of this section; provided, no part of such cellar is occupied or arranged to be occupied for living purposes.

Alter tenement to six stories.

SEC. 56. No stairs leading to the roof in any tenement house shall be removed or replaced with a ladder, unless a new stairway is built in conformity with requirements of section 37.

Stairs to roof not to be removed.

SEC. 57. No public hall or stairs in a tenement house shall be reduced in width so as to be less than the minimum width prescribed in sections 38 and 42 of this act.

Public hall not to be reduced.

SEC. 58. In every tenement house containing fifteen rooms or more, where the public halls and stairs are not in the opinion of the health department, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, sufficiently lighted, the owner of such house shall keep a proper light burning in the hallway near the stairs upon each floor from sunrise to sunset.

Health department may require light in hall.

SEC. 59. In every tenement house containing fifteen rooms or more, a proper light shall be kept burning by the owner in the public hallways, near the stairs, upon the entrance floor, and upon the second floor above the entrance floor of said house, every night from sunset to sunrise throughout the year, and upon all other floors of the said house from sunset until ten o'clock in the evening.

Lights to be kept burning by owner.

SEC. 60. No water-closets shall be maintained in the cellar of any tenement house without a special permit in writing from the health department, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose which shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the maintenance of such closets.

No water-closets in cellars.

SEC. 61. In every tenement house existing prior to the passage of this act, at least one water-closet shall be provided for every two families; provided, however, that the health department, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, may exempt any tenement house existing prior to the passage of this act from the provision in this section above contained, whenever, in the judgment of said department, it would not be detrimental to the health of the occupants of said tenement house, and the written permit be signed by an officer of said department authorized so to do and filed in said department as a part of its records; provided, further, that the above exemption shall not apply to extensions of or additions to tenement houses existing prior to the passage of this act.

Water-closets in existing tenements.

SEC. 62. In no now existing tenement house shall any room purposes.

in the cellar be constructed, altered, converted or occupied for living purposes; and no room in the basement of a tenement house shall be constructed, altered, or converted to be occupied for living purposes, unless all of the following conditions of this act be complied with, and at least one third of the basement shall be above grade for building; provided, in each case it shall be at least four feet six inches above the street grade and actual ground level. Such rooms shall be at least eight feet six inches high in all now existing tenement houses in every part, from the floor to the ceiling. There shall be appurtenant to such room or apartment a water-closet conforming to the regulations and ordinances relating to water-closets, of the incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county in which the tenement house is or is to be built. All walls shall be damp-proofed, and there shall be an open area way extending to bottom of basement floor and running clear across outside of at least one room in each apartment.

Floors and walls around water-closets.

SEC. 63. In all tenement houses the floor and wall surfaces beneath and around all water-closets and sinks shall be maintained in good order and repair, and if of wood shall be kept well painted with light colored paint.

Keeping
tenements
in order.

SEC. 64. The owner of every tenement house shall see that such house and all parts thereof shall be kept in good order and the roof shall be kept so as not to leak, and all rain water shall be so drained and conveyed therefrom as to prevent its dripping on the ground or causing dampness in the walls, ceilings, yards, or areas.

Keeping
tenements
clean.

SEC. 65. The owner of every tenement house shall see that such house and every part thereof shall be kept clean and free from any accumulation of dirt, filth or garbage or other matter in or on the same, or in the yards, courts, passages, areas or alleys connected or belonging to the same.

Walls of courts to be white-washed

SEC. 66. The walls of all yard courts, inner courts and shafts, unless built of light colored brick or stone, shall be thoroughly whitewashed by the owner, or shall be painted a light color by him and so maintained.

Health department may require walls to be painted white.

SEC. 67. In all tenement houses the health department, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, may require the walls and ceilings of every room that does not open directly on the street to be kalsomined white or painted with white paint when necessary to improve the lighting of such rooms, and may require this to be renewed as often as may be necessary.

Using wall paper.

SEC. 68. No wall paper shall be placed upon a wall or ceiling of any tenement house unless all wall paper shall be first removed therefrom and said wall and ceiling thoroughly cleaned.

Garbage
receptacles.

SEC. 69. The owner of every tenement house shall provide for said building proper and suitable conveniences or receptacles for ashes, rubbish, garbage, refuse and other matter.

Keeping
stock in tenements prohibited.

SEC. 70. No horse, cow, calf, swine, goat or sheep, chickens or poultry shall be kept in a tenement house, or within twenty feet thereof on the same lot, and no tenement house or the lot, or premises thereof, shall be used for a lodging house or stable, or for the storage or handling of rags.

SEC. 71. Whenever there shall be more than eight families living in any tenement house, in which the owner does not reside, there shall be a janitor, housekeeper, or some responsible person, who shall reside in said house and have charge of same, as the department charged with the enforcement of this act shall so require.

Janitor for tenements of more than eight families.

SEC. 72. No room in any tenement house shall be so overcrowded that there shall be afforded less than four hundred cubic feet of air to each person occupying such room.

Four hundred feet of air for each person.

SEC. 73. No tenement house or any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any combustible article except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the department of any incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county to which this act applies, which are now charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances, or regulations, relating to the erection of buildings, the protection of public health, and police and fire protection. No tenement house nor any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any article dangerous or detrimental to life or health, nor for the storage, keeping or handling of feed, hay, straw, excelsior, cotton, paper stock, feathers or rags.

No tenement to be used to store combustible or dangerous articles.

SEC. 74. No bakery, and no place of business in which fat is boiled, shall be maintained in any tenement house which is not fireproof throughout, unless the ceilings and side walls of said bakery or place where fat boiling is done are made safe by fireproof materials around the same; and there shall be no openings either by door or window, dumb-waiter shafts or otherwise, between said bakery or said place where fat is boiled in any tenement house and the other parts of said building.

No bakery in any except fireproof tenement.

SEC. 75. All transoms and windows opening into halls from any portion of a tenement house where paint, oil, spirituous liquors or drugs are stored, for the purpose of sale or otherwise, shall be glazed with wire glass, or they shall be removed and closed up as solidly as the rest of the wall. And all doors leading into such hall from such portion shall be made fireproof.

Treatment of windows where paint, etc., is stored.

SEC. 76. All scuttles and penthouses and all stairs or ladders leading thereto shall be easily accessible to all tenants of the building, and kept free from incumbrance, and ready for use at all times. No scuttle and no penthouse door shall at any time be locked with a key, but either may be fastened on the inside by movable bolts or hooks.

Scuttles to be accessible to all tenants.

SEC. 77. No room in a tenement house erected prior to the passage of this act shall hereafter be occupied for living purposes, unless it shall have a window opening directly upon the street, or upon a yard not less than ten feet deep, or above the roof of an adjoining building, or upon a court of not less than twenty square feet in area, open to the sky without roof or skylight, unless such room is located on the top floor and is adequately lighted and ventilated by a skylight opening directly to the outer air, or is on the top floor and has a window opening upon a court not less than ten square feet in area and not more than three feet below the top of the walls of said court. Every room which does not comply with the above provisions shall be provided with a sash window, opening into an adjoining room in the same apartment, which latter room either opens directly on the street or on a yard of the above dimensions, or itself connected by a similar sash window or series of windows with such an outer room. Said sash window shall be a vertically sliding pulley-hung sash not less than three feet by five feet between stop beads, both halves shall be made so as to readily open, and shall be glazed with translucent glass; and so far as possible it shall be in line with windows in outer rooms opening on the street or yard as to afford a maximum of light and ventilation. In the case of rooms located in apartments that extend through from the street to the yard, thus insuring thorough ventilation, where such rooms are already provided either with windows, window openings, glass sliding doors, or large alcove openings to adjoining rooms, but do not comply with all the provisions of this section, the health department or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose when satisfied that no material improvement in the light and ventilation of such rooms can be had that would warrant the providing of new windows of the size and kind specified, may permit the occupancy of such rooms for living purposes in the following cases; provided, such improvements or alterations as may be practicable and as are required by said department are made by the owner:

No room to be lived in unless it has outside window.

(1) Where there is an existing window or window opening from such interior room to an adjoining room and such window or opening is not less than ten square feet in area.

(2) Where there is an existing glass sliding door or an alcove opening of sufficient size from such interior room to an adjoining room.

(3) Where rooms located on the top floor open upon a court of less size than twenty square feet but such rooms have sufficient light and ventilation.

(4) Where, owing to the size of partitions, arrangement of rooms, location of fixed closets or stairs, or the interposition of air shafts, it is impracticable to provide a window of the required size, and a window as large as practicable is provided.

SEC. 78. In all now existing tenement houses whenever a public hall on any floor is not light enough in the day time to permit a person to read in every part thereof without the aid of artificial light, the wooden panels in the doors located at the ends of the public halls and opening into rooms shall be removed, and ground glass or other translucent glass or wire glass panels of an aggregate area of not less than four square feet for each door shall be substituted; or said public hall may be lighted by a window at the end thereof with the plane of the window at right angles to the axis of the said hall, said window opening upon the street or upon a yard or court.

SEC. 79. In all now existing tenement houses, the wood-work enclosing all water-closets shall be removed from the front of said closets and the space underneath the seat shall be left open. The floor and other surface beneath and around the closet shall be maintained in good order and repair and if of wood shall be kept well painted with light colored paint.

Water-closets in existing tenements.

SEC. 80. In all now existing tenement houses the wood-work inclosing sinks located in public halls or stairs shall be removed, and the space underneath sink shall be left open. The floors and wall surfaces beneath and around the sink shall be maintained in good order and repair, and if of wood shall be well painted.

Woodwork inclosing sinks to be removed

SEC. 81. In all now existing tenement houses there shall be at the bottom of every shaft or inner court, a door or window giving sufficient access to each shaft or court to enable it to be properly cleaned out.

Window at bottom of shaft

SEC. 82. In all tenement houses erected prior to the passage of this act, where a connection with a sewer is possible, all school sinks, privy vaults or other similar receptacles used to receive fecal matter, urine or sewage, shall be completely removed and the place where they are located properly disinfected under the direction of the health department or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose. Such appliances shall be replaced by individual water-closets of durable non-absorbent material, properly sewer-connected, and with individual traps, and properly connected flush tanks providing an ample flush of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl. Each water-closet shall be located in a compartment completely separated from every other water-closet, and such compartment shall contain a window of not less than three square feet in area opening directly to the street, or yard, or on a court of the minimum size prescribed in section twenty-five of this act. The floors of the water-closet compartments shall be water-proof as provided in section 31 of this act. Where water-closets are placed in the yard to replace school sinks or privy vaults, the structure containing the water-closets shall not exceed ten feet in height; such structure shall be provided with a ventilating skylight in the roof, of adequate size, and each water-closet shall be located in a compartment separated completely from every other water-closet. Proper and adequate means for lighting the structure at night shall be provided. There shall be provided at least one water-closet for every two families in every tenement house existing on the day this act takes effect subject to the provisions of section 61 of this act. Except as in this section otherwise provided, such water-closets and all plumbing in connection therewith shall be in accordance with the ordinances and regulations in relation to plumbing and drainage.

School sinks, etc., to be replaced by individual water-closets.

SEC. 83. Every tenement house erected prior to the passage of this act shall have in the roof a penthouse or a scuttle, Penthouse or scuttle in roof.

which shall be not less than twenty-one by twenty-eight inches, and located in the ceiling of a public hall. All scuttles shall be covered on the outside with metal, and shall be provided with stairs or stationary ladders leading thereto and easily accessible to all tenants of the building. No scuttle and no bulkhead door shall at any time be locked with a key, but either may be fastened on the inside by movable bolts or locks. All key locks on scuttles and on penthouse doors shall be removed.

Plans for tenement and statement to be submitted to building department before construction.

SEC. 84. Before the construction or alteration of a tenement house, or the alteration or conversion of a building for use as a tenement house is commenced, and before the construction or alteration of any building or structure on the same lot with a tenement house, the owner or his agent or architect, shall submit to the building department subject to the inspection and approval of the health department, or if there be no health department or no building department, then to such departments as shall be designated for that purpose by municipal ordinance, of the municipality in which said work is contemplated, a detailed statement in writing, verified by the affidavit of a person making the same, of the specifications for the construction and for the light and ventilation of such tenement house or building upon blanks or forms to be furnished by such departments, and also a full and complete copy of the plans of such work. Such statement shall give in full the name and residence, by street and number, of the owner or owners of such tenement house or building. If such construction, alteration or conversion is proposed to be made by any other person than the owner of the land in fee, such statement shall contain the full name and residence, by street and number, not only of the owner of the land, but of every person interested in such tenement house, either as owner, lessee, or in any representative capacity. Said affidavit shall allege that said specifications and plans are true and contain a correct description of such tenement house, building, structure, lot and proposed work. The statements and affidavits, herein provided for, may be made by the owner, or the person who proposes to make the construction, alteration or conversion, or by his agent or architect. No person, however, shall be recognized as the agent of the owner unless he shall file with the department of health or other department by municipal ordinance designated for that purpose, a written instrument signed by such owner designating him as agent. Any false swearing in a material point in such affidavit shall be deemed perjury. Such specifications, plans and statements shall be filed in said departments and shall be deemed public records, and no such specifications, plans or statements shall be removed from said departments. The said departments shall cause all such plans and specifications to be examined. If such plans and specifications conform to the provisions of this act relative to the light and ventilation and sanitation of tenement houses hereafter erected or altered, as the case may be, the health department or other department designated by municipal ordinance for this purpose shall issue a written certificate to that effect to the person submitting the same, and if they conform to the provisions of this act relative to the fire protection of tenement houses hereafter erected or altered, as the case may be, the building department or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose shall issue a written certificate to that effect to the person submitting the same. Such certificates shall state that state tenement house act has been complied with. Each department may, from time to time, approve changes in any plans and specifications previously approved by it: provided, the plans and specifications when so changed, shall be in conformity with the law. The construction, alteration or conversion of such tenement house, building or structure or any part thereof, shall not be commenced until the filing of such specifications, plans and statements, and the approval thereof, as above provided. The construction, alteration or conversion of such house, building or structure, shall be in accordance with such approved specifications and plans. Any permit or approval which may be issued by the health department and the building department or other departments by municipal ordinance designated for that purpose, but under which no work has been done above the foundation walls within one year from the time of the issuance of such permit or approval, shall expire by limitation. Said departments shall have power to revoke or cancel any permit or approval in case of any failure or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this act, or in case any false statement or representation is made in any specification, plans or statements submitted or filed for such permit or approval.

SEC. 85. No building hereafter constructed as or altered into a tenement house shall be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation until the issuance of a certificate by the health department, or other department by municipal ordinance designated for that purpose, that said building conforms in all respects to the requirements of this act relative to the light and ventilation and sanitation of tenement houses hereafter erected, nor until the issuance by the building department or other department by municipal ordinance designated for that purpose of a certificate that said building conforms in all respects to the requirements of this act relative to fire protection of tenement houses hereafter erected. Such certificates shall be issued within ten days after written application therefor, if said building at the date of such application shall be entitled thereto.

SEC. 86. If any building hereafter constructed as or altered into a tenement house be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation in violation of the last section, during such unlawful occupancy said premises shall be deemed unfit for human habitation, and the department of health, or other department charged with the enforcement of this act, may cause them to be vacated accordingly.

Tenements in violation of this act may be vacated.

Department of city to enforce this act.

SEC. 87. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of this act shall be enforced by the departments of any incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county to which this act applies, which are now charged with the enforcement of laws, ordinances, and regulations relating to the erection of buildings, the protection of public health or police or fire protection.

Department of health may enter tenement for inspection.

SEC. 88. The department of health or other department charged with the enforcement of this act in any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county to which this act applies, and the officers and agents of such departments, shall have the right and it shall be its and their duty to enter into tenement houses and buildings within the said municipal corporation for the purpose of inspecting such houses and buildings to secure compliance with the provisions of this act, and to prevent violations thereof.

Department of health, etc., may enforce provisions not inconsistent with this act. This act minimum requirements.

SEC. 89. Nothing in this act shall be construed to abrogate or impair the powers of the department of health, the department of public works or of the courts to enforce any provisions of the charter or building ordinances and regulations of any incorporated town, incorporated city, or city and county, not inconsistent with this act, or to prevent or punish violations thereof. The provisions of this act shall be held to be the minimum requirements adopted for the protection, health and safety of the community. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as prohibiting the local legislative body of any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county, from enacting from time to time supplementary ordinances imposing further restrictions. But no ordinance, regulation or ruling of any municipal authority shall repeal, amend, modify or dispense with any provision of this act.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 90. Every person who shall violate or assist in violation of any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both, and in addition to the penalty therefor, shall be liable for all costs, expense and disbursements paid or incurred by the department, by any of the officers thereof, or by any agent, employee or contractor of the same in the prosecution of such violation.

Procedure for prevention of violations.

SEC. 91. Except as herein otherwise specified the procedure for the prevention of violations of this act, or for the vacation of premises unlawfully occupied, or for other abatement of nuisance in connection with a tenement house, shall be as set forth in charter and ordinances of the municipality in which the procedure is taken. In case any tenement house, building or structure or any part thereof is constructed, altered, converted or maintained in violation of any provision of this act or of any order or notice of the departments charged with its enforcement, or in case a nuisance exists in any such tenement house, building or structure or upon the lot on which it is situated, said departments may institute any appropriate action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful construction, alteration, conversion or maintenance, to restrain, correct or abate such violation or nuisance, to prevent the occupation of said tenement house, building or structure, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct or business in or about such tenement house or lot. In any such action or proceeding said departments may, by affidavit setting forth the facts, apply to the superior court, or to any judge thereof, for an order granting the relief for which said action or proceeding is brought, or for an order enjoining all persons from doing or permitting to be done any work in or about such tenement house, building, structure or lot, or from occupying or using the same for any purpose, until the entry of final judgment or order. In case any notice or order issued by said departments is not complied with, said departments may apply to the superior court, or to any judge thereof, for an order authorizing said departments to execute and carry out the provisions of said notice or order, to remove any violation specified in said order or notice, or to abate any nuisance in or about such tenement house, building or structure, or the lot upon which it is situated. The court, or any judge thereof, is hereby authorized to make any order specified in this section. In no case shall the said departments or any officer thereof or the municipal corporation be liable for costs in any action or proceeding that may be commenced in pursuance of this act.

SEC. 92. Every fine imposed by judgment under section 90 of this act upon a tenement house owner shall be a lien upon the house in relation to which the fine is imposed from the time of the filing of a certified copy of said judgment in the office of the recorder of the county in which said tenement house is situated, subject only to taxes and assessments and water rates, and to such mortgage and mechanics' liens as may exist thereon prior to such filing; and it shall be the duty of the department of health, or other department by municipal ordinance designated for that purpose, upon the entry of such judgment, to forthwith file the copy as aforesaid, and such copy upon filing shall be forthwith indexed by the recorder in the index of mechanics' liens.

Fine becomes lien on tenement.

SEC. 93. In any action or proceeding instituted by the departments charged with the enforcement of this act, the plaintiff or petitioner may file in the county recorder's office of the county where the property affected by such action or proceeding is situated, a notice of the pendency of such action or proceeding. Said notice may be filed at the time of the commencement of the action or proceeding, or at any time afterwards before final judgment or order, or at any time after the service of any notice or order issued by said department. Such notice shall have the same force and effect as the notice of pendency of action provided for in the Code of Civil Procedure. Each county recorder with whom such notice is filed shall record it, and shall index it in the name of each person specified in a direction subscribed by an officer of the department instituting such action or proceeding. Any such notice may be vacated upon the order of a judge of the court in which such action or proceeding was instituted or is pending. The recorder of the county where such notice is filed is hereby directed to mark such notice and any record or docket thereof as canceled of record, upon the presentation and filing a certified copy of such order.

Tenement owner to file statement in department of health.

SEC. 94. Every owner of a tenement house and every lessee of the whole house, or other person having control of a tenement house, shall file in the department of health or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose a notice containing his name and address, and also a description of the property, by street and number, and otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the departments charged with the enforcement of this act to easily find the same; and also the number of apartments in each house, the number of rooms in each apartment, and the number of families occupying the apartments. In case of a transfer of any tenement house, it shall be the duty of the grantee of said tenement house to file in the department of health, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, a notice of such transfer, stating the name of the new owner, within thirty days after such transfer. In case of the devolution of the said property by will, it shall be the duty of the executor and the devisee, if more than twenty-one years of age, and in the case of devolution of such property by inheritance without a will, it shall be the duties of the heirs, or in case all the heirs are under age, it shall be the duty of the administrator of the deceased owner of said property to file in said department a notice, stating the death of said owner and the names of those who have succeeded to his interests, within thirty days after the death of the decedent, in case he died intestate, and within thirty days after the probate of his will, if he died testate.

Owner to file notice of agent to receive service of process.

SEC. 95. Every owner, agent or lessee of a tenement house shall file in the department of health, or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, a notice containing the name and address of such agent of such houses, for the purpose of receiving service of process, and also a description of the property, by street and number or otherwise, as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the department charged with the enforcement of this act to easily find the same. The name of the owner or lessee may be filed as agent for this purpose.

Department of health to index names.

SEC. 96. The names and addresses filed in accordance with sections 94 and 95 shall be indexed by the department of health or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose, in such a manner that all of those filed in relation to each tenement house shall be together and readily ascertainable. The board of health or other department designated by municipal ordinance for that purpose shall provide the necessary books and clerical assistance for that purpose, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the municipality. Said indexes shall be public records, open to public inspection during business hours.

SEC. 97. Every notice or order in relation to a tenement house shall be served five days before the time for doing the thing in relation to which it shall have been issued.

Serving notices.

SEC. 98. In any action brought by any department charged with the enforcement of this act in relation to a tenement house for injunction, vacation of the premises, or other abatement of nuisance, or to establish a lien thereon, it shall be sufficient service of summons to serve the same as notices and orders are served under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sufficient service of summons

SEC. 99. A tenement house shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, if it or any part of it shall be used for the purposes of a house of prostitution or assignation of any description, with the permission of the owner thereof, or his agent, and said penalty shall be a lien upon the house and the lot upon which the house is situated.

Penalty for using tenement as house of prostitution.

SEC. 100. A tenement house shall be deemed to have been used for the purposes specified in the last section with the permission of the owner or lessee thereof, if summary proceedings for the removal of the tenements of said tenement house, or so much thereof as is unlawfully used, shall not have been commenced within five days after notice of such unlawful use, served by the department charged with the enforcement of this act in the manner prescribed by law for the service of notices and orders in relation to tenement houses.

When tenement is deemed to have been used as house of prostitution with owner's consent.

SEC. 101. In a prosecution against an owner or agent of a tenement house under section 316 of the Penal Code, or in an action to establish a lien under section 99 of this act, the general reputation of the premises in the neighborhood shall be competent evidence, but shall not be sufficient to support a judgment without corroborative evidence, and it shall be presumed that their use was with the permission of the owner or lessee; provided, that such presumption may be rebutted by evidence.

Competent evidence.

SEC. 102. Said action shall be brought against the tenement house as defendant. Said house may be designated in the title of the action by its street and number, or in any other method sufficiently precise to secure identification. The property shall be described in the complaint. The plaintiff, except as hereinafter provided, shall be any department charged with the enforcement of this act.

Tenement as defendant.

SEC. 103. Said action shall be brought in the superior court in the county or city and county in which the property is situated. At or before the commencement of the action, the complaint shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county or city and county, together with a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a brief description of the property affected thereby.

Action brought in superior court.

Judgment establishes penalty as lien.

SEC. 104. The judgment in such action, if in favor of the plaintiff, shall establish the penalty sued for as a lien upon said premises, subject only to taxes, assessments, and to such mortgages and mechanics' liens as may exist thereon prior to the filing of the notice of pendency of the action.

Statutes
repealed.

SEC. 105. All statutes of the state and ordinances of incorporated towns, incorporated cities and cities and counties, as far as inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed as repealing or abrogating any present law or ordinance in any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county of the state, further restricting the percentage of the lot to be covered by a tenement house, the number of stories or the height of such house, the number of apartments therein, the occupation thereof, the materials to be used in its construction, or increasing the size of yards or courts, the air space to each individual occupying a room, the requirements as to sanitation, ventilation, light, protection against fire.

restrict.

SEC. 106. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as abrogating, diminishing, minimizing or denying the power of any incorporated town, incorporated city or city and county by ordinance to further restrict the percentage of the lot to be covered by a tenement house within said municipality, the number of stories or the height of such house, the number of apartments therein, the occupation thereof, the materials to be used in its construction or increasing the size of yards or courts, the air space to each individual occupying a room, the requirements as to sanitation, ventilation, light, protection against fire.

No city ordinance to repeal this act.

SEC. 107. Except as herein otherwise provided, every tenement house shall be constructed and maintained in conformity with the existing law, but no ordinance, regulation or ruling of any municipal authority shall repeal, modify or dispense with any provisions of this act.

Improvements to be made in one year.

SEC. 108. All improvements specifically required by this act upon tenement houses erected prior to its date of passage, shall be made within one year from said date, or at such earlier period as may be fixed by the boards of health charged with the enforcement of this act.

Permit to construct.

SEC. 109. Every person desiring to construct a tenement house shall obtain a permit from the department charged with the enforcement of this act. Every owner or lessee of a tenement house shall obtain at the beginning of each year a license from the department charged with the enforcement of this act.

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION. 1. Power is hereby given to all cities and counties and municipalities within this state to grant franchises for the purpose of laying pipes in the streets, roads, avenues, alleys and public highways therein, for the purpose of carrying steam heat under high pressure; to be used, distributed and sold to the inhabitants thereof, for heating purposes. The granting of such franchises shall be subject to the provisions of the act entitled "An act providing for the sale of street railroad and other franchises in counties and municipalities, and providing conditions for the granting of such franchises by legislative or other governing bodies, and repealing conflicting acts," and any act or acts amendatory thereof.

Franchise to lay steam heating pipes.

CHAPTER 446.

An act to amend section ten hundred forty-four of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to conduct of municipal elections.

[Approved April 12, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred forty-four of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Conduct of municipal elections.

1044. Except in the particulars or cases otherwise provided for in the constitution or laws of the state or by the provisions of a freeholder charter duly adopted or amended pursuant to the constitution of this state, all municipal elections, where the same are held separate from state elections, and all elections held under the authority of section eight of article eleven of the constitution, to elect boards of freeholders, or to vote upon proposed charters, or upon amendments to existing charters, and all other special elections, including all special elections to vote upon or for or against any proposition or question authorized to be submitted to a vote, shall be conducted under the provisions of sections ten hundred forty-four, eleven hundred twenty, eleven hundred twenty-one, eleven hundred thirty-three and eleven hundred fifty-one of this code.

CHAPTER 447.

An act to amend section ten hundred seventy-nine of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to expenditures in respect to elections.

[Approved April 12, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section ten hundred seventy-nine of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Expenditures for
purposes.

1079. Whenever the clerk, secretary or any other officer of a county, city, or city and county, is charged with the performance of any official duty, in respect to elections, which involves the expenditure of public moneys, such expenditures shall be subject to the control and supervision of the board of election commissioners; and when any printing or other service is to be performed, or materials are to be furnished, the amount of which in the aggregate shall exceed the value of five hundred dollars, it shall be the duty of the board of election commissioners to invite proposals for the work, or the furnishing of the materials, and to let the contract for the same to the lowest responsible bidder therefor, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as is required in the letting of contracts for doing other and similar work or furnishing other and similar materials, for county, city, or city and county purposes; provided, that no such proposal or bid shall be required for the contract to print ballots or the printed index of the precinct registers, or the tally lists, if, in the judgment of the county clerk or registrar of voters, the time within which such ballots or index must be had does not reasonably admit of such proposal and bid, or where an emergency requires the immediate performance of a duty relating to the management or conduct of an election, and delay in the performance of such duty might imperil the holding of the election at the time and in the manner provided by law.

CHAPTER 448.

An act to amend section eleven hundred eighty-eight of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to nomination of candidates otherwise than by primary elections.

[Approved April 12, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section eleven hundred eighty-eight of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1188. A candidate for public office may be nominated otherwise than at a primary election, in the manner following: A certificate of nomination containing the name of the candidate to be nominated, with the other information required to be given in the certificates provided for in section 5 of the primary law, shall be signed by electors residing within the district or political division for which the candidate is to be presented equal in number to at least three per cent of the entire vote cast at the last preceding general election in the state, district or political division for which the nomination is to be made. Each such certificate must be a separate paper and contain the name of one signer thereto and no more. In addition to the other matter required to be set forth in such certificate it must also set forth that the signer has not been elected as a delegate to any political party convention; that he has not voted at any primary election at which a candidate was nominated for the public office mentioned in the said certificate; that he has not joined in any manner in nominating any other candidate or candidates for the same office, or in nominating the same candidate or candidates for the same office under another or different political party name or designation. The signature must be made by the party signing at the end of the certificate, and must add thereto the date of signing and his place of residence and occupation, giving street and number, where such street and number or either exist, and if no street or number exist then such a description of the place of residence as will enable the location to be readily ascertained. Each such signer must verify such certificate by making oath that the same is true, before an officer authorized to take an oath in this state, or before a special verification deputy appointed by him under the provisions of section 5 of the primary election law, which oath must be certified as required for an affidavit. Any person who signs any name other than his own to such certificate, or makes a false oath to such certificate, shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in a state's prison for a term not exceeding five years. The said certificates must be fastened together and bound by precincts and arranged in all respects in the manner and form required for the arrangement, binding and fastening of original affidavits of registration by the provisions of section 1113 of the Political Code; and each such book or package must have endorsed upon the outside the number of the precinct, and for which assembly district, as the same are numbered in the county, city, or city and county, and the name of the political party or organization, which is designated in the certificates, and no such certificates shall be received or filed by any officer to whom the same are required by law to be presented, unless the same comply with the provisions of this section. The clerk or officer to whom any such certificate is presented for filing is authorized and directed to strike out or disregard the name or names of any electors who, upon examination of the affidavits of registration, or otherwise, may be found to have signed such certificates or any thereof, in violation of the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 449.

An act to add a new section to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, to be known as section one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six a, relating to the payment of the burial expenses of deceased persons.

[Approved April 12, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, to be known as section one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six a to read as follows:

1726a. Whenever a public administrator takes possession of the estate of a deceased person, as provided in section seventeen hundred and twenty-six of this code, and the method of the defrayal of the expense of the burial of said deceased is not otherwise provided for by law, or by the rules, agreement or death benefits of any order or lodge to which the deceased may at the time of his death belong, or with which he may have been affiliated. the public administrator may, in order to defray the proper expenses of the burial of the body of the deceased, apply to a judge of the superior court of the county in which said public administrator is acting, for an order permitting the public administrator to summarily sell any personal property belonging to the deceased, and to withdraw any money that the deceased may have on deposit with any bank, and to collect any indebtedness or claim that may be owing to or due the deceased. If upon such application it appears to the court by competent evidence, that the total value of the estate of the deceased is less than seventy-five dollars, the judge shall make an order granting the application and there shall be no administration upon the estate of the deceased unless additional estate be found or discovered. No notice of the application need be given and no fee shall be charged by the clerk of the court or the public administrator or his attorney for the filing of said application, or for any duty or service of the clerk or public administrator or his attorney connected therewith. Upon the sale of the personal property of the deceased, or the collection of any money, claim or indebtedness by the public administrator under said order the public administrator shall use the same for the expenses of the burial of the deceased. The public administrator shall file with the clerk of the court a statement showing the property of the deceased that came into his hands, the amount received from the sale of any personal property, and the disposition of the property of the deceased, and shall file with the clerk vouchers showing what disposition was made of the said property or the proceeds thereof.

Burial expenses of deceased persons.

CHAPTER 450.

An act to amend section two hundred and twenty-four of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the adoption of children and the consent necessary thereto.

[Approved April 12, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two hundred and twenty-four of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

224. A legitimate child can not be adopted without the consent of its parents, if living; nor an illegitimate child without the consent of its mother, if living; except, that consent is not necessary from a father or mother deprived of civil rights, or adjudged guilty of adultery or cruelty, and for either cause divorced, or adjudged to be habitually intemperate in the use of intoxicants, or who has been judicially deprived of the custody of the child on account of cruelty or neglect. Neither is consent of any parent necessary in case of any abandoned child. Any child deserted by its parents without provision for their identification, or relinquished by its parent or parents for the purpose of adoption expressed in writing signed and acknowledged by such parent or parents before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, shall from the date of such act of desertion or of such relinquishment be deemed to be an abandoned child within the meaning of this section. Any child left in the care and custody of another by its parent or parents without any provision for its support, for the period of one year, may after such notice to the parent or parents residing within the state and to such other relatives of said child residing within the county as the court shall require, be determined by order of the juvenile court of the county in which said child was so left to be an abandoned child within the terms of this section. Any abandoned child within the meaning of this section or any child whose parent or parents have been judicially deprived of its custody on account of cruelty or neglect, maintained by or in the custody of any orphan asylum within this state, any charitable organization or society receiving state aid or receiving commitments from the juvenile court, may be adopted with the consent of the managers of such orphan asylum, charitable organization or society. Any orphan child for whose support no provision has been made by any person for a period of one year, but who has been maintained during said year by or in the custody of any orphan asylum within this state, any charitable organization or society receiving state aid or receiving commitments from the juvenile court, may be adopted with the consent of the managers of such orphan asylum, charitable organization or society.

CHAPTER 451.

An act to regulate the vocation of dealing in fish and in wild game and animals by wholesale for profit and to provide therefrom revenue for the propagation and restoration of fish and game in the State of California.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

License for fish dealers.

SECTION 1. Every person engaged in the vocation of dealing in, buying and selling fish or shellfish or wild game or animals by wholesale in this state, must first obtain a license before engaging in such vocation.

SEC. 2. The controller of state shall prepare suitable licenses, of the classes designated by the fish and game commissioners which shall purport to license the holder of such license to buy, sell and deal in fish and shellfish and wild game and animals in this state by wholesale for the term of one year from the first day of July of one year to the first day of July of the year following. All licenses shall be numbered consecutively beginning with number one and contain blanks for the insertion of the name of the holder, his residence, and place of business, which information shall be furnished by the applicant to the board of fish and game commissioners. The controller shall sign all licenses and deliver the same to the fish and game commissioners, on demand, who shall be charged for the same by the controller. Each license, before delivery to the applicant for a license, must be countersigned by the president of the board of fish and game commissioners and the president of the board of fish and game commissioners shall execute a bond to the people of the State of California in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon him by this act.

SEC. 3. Licenses shall be issued and delivered upon application to the state board of fish and game commissioners or their deputies. The licenses herein provided for shall be issued as follows: To any citizen of the United States and to any person who has duly made his declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States as provided by law, upon the payment of five dollars; to any person not a citizen of the United States upon the payment of twenty dollars. Not more than one license shall be issued to any one person for the same year, except upon an affidavit by the applicant that the one issued has been lost or destroyed, and no license issued as herein provided shall be transferable or used by any other person than the one to whom it was issued. Every person having a license as provided herein, who refuses to exhibit such license upon demand of any officer authorized to enforce the fish and game laws of this state, or any peace officer of this state, or who transfers or disposes of the same to another person to be used as a license, shall forfeit this license.

To whom

SEC. 4. The said license fees must be paid to the fish and game commissioners or to some one designated by them for that purpose.

To whom fee is paid.

SEC. 5. The money collected from the sale of such licenses shall be paid by the board of fish and game commissioners into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

SEC. 6. The violation of any provision of this act is hereby declared a misdemeanor, and every person violating any of its provisions, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than twenty nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than ten nor more than one hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and all fines collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 452.

An act to add three new sections to the Penal Code of the State of California, to be numbered sections 630, 630a and 630b, regulating the business of wholesale dealers in fish and in wild game and animals and providing for a record of transactions therein.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California; to be numbered section 630, and to read as follows:

Fish business without license misdemeanor.

630. Every person who carries on the business of purchasing, selling, and dealing in fish or in wild game or wild animals by wholesale in this state, except by authority of a license, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California, to be numbered section 630a, and to read as follows:

Register of fish and
bought.

630a. Every wholesale dealer in fish or in wild game or wild animals who buys or deals in the fish or in the wild game or animals of this state for profit, shall upon receipt or purchase of any fish or of any wild game or wild animals in this state, enter at the time of the transaction, in a register kept by him for that purpose, in the English language, the date, the kind and weight of fish so received or bought, and the date, the kind and number of wild game or animals so received, or bought, and the name and the residence of the person or persons from whom the same was received, or purchased. Every person who violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code of the State of California, to be numbered section 630b, and to read as follows:

Failure to produce register
misdemeanor.

630b. Every wholesale dealer for profit in any of the fish or wild game or animals of this state who fails, refuses, or neglects to produce for inspection his register to any fish and game commissioner of this state, or any duly appointed, qualified, and acting assistant thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 453.

An act to amend section 3493m of the Political Code relating to land uncovered by the recession or drainage of the waters of inland lakes.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3493m of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3493m. Any person desiring to purchase any of the lands now uncovered or which may hereafter be uncovered by the recession or drainage of the waters of inland lakes, and inuring to the state by virtue of her sovereignty, or the swamp and overflowed lands not segregated by the United States, must make an application therefor to the surveyor general of the state, which application must be accompanied by the applicant's affidavit that he is a citizen of the United States, or has declared his intention to become such, a resident of this state, of lawful age, that he desires to purchase such lands (describing them by legal subdivisions, or by metes and bounds, if the legal subdivisions are unknown), under the provisions of this article, for his own use and benefit, and for the use and benefit of no other person whomsoever, and that he has made no contract or agreement to sell the same, and that he does not own any state lands which, together with that now sought to be purchased, exceeds six hundred and forty acres. The provisions of this section shall not affect or apply to any land uncovered by the recession or drainage of the waters of any lake or other body of water, the waters of which are so impregnated with minerals as to be valuable for the purpose of extracting therefrom such minerals; but the land uncovered by the recession or drainage of such waters shall be subject to lease for periods of not longer than twenty-five years upon such charges, terms and conditions as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 454.

An act regulating the extraction of minerals from the waters of any stream or lake and prohibiting the extraction of minerals from said waters except under lease from or express permission of the state for a period not exceeding twenty-five years.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Extracting minerals from waters.

SECTION 1. Minerals contained in the waters of any stream or lake in this state shall not be extracted from said waters except upon charges, terms and conditions prescribed by law. No person, firm, corporation or association shall hereafter gain the right to extract or cause to be extracted said minerals from said waters by user, custom, prescription, appropriation, littoral rights, riparian rights, or in any manner other than by lease from or express permission of the state as prescribed by law; and no such lease or permission shall be granted for a longer period than twenty-five years.

SEC. 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 455.

An act to provide for the division of municipalities into sewer districts, and for the construction of, or acquisition and maintenance of sewers therein, providing a system of district sewer bonds to pay the cost of such construction of, or acquisition and also for the payment of such bonds.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Municipalities may create sewer districts.

SECTION 1. The legislative body of any city, town or municipal corporation, incorporated under the laws of this state may create from time to time, as hereinafter provided, within such city, town or municipal corporation separate sewer districts whenever in the judgment of such legislative body it may be necessary or convenient for the proper sanitation and drainage of such districts to construct or acquire any sewer or sewers therein, and may designate such districts by distinctive names and numbers and may as hereinafter provided, provide for the incurring of indebtedness to pay for the cost of the construction or acquisition of sewers in such districts.

SEC. 2. Whenever the legislative body of any such city, town or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by a vote of two thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of such municipality, determine that the public interest or convenience requires the construction of, or acquisition by purchase or otherwise of a sewer or any sewers in any part of the territory of such municipality, said legislative body shall describe in said resolution a district, naming and numbering the same as hereinabove provided, and declare said district to be the district benefited by said work or improvement, or acquisition of such sewer, and may, at any subsequent meeting, by ordinance passed by a vote of two thirds of all of its members, and also approved by the said executive, adopt plans and specifications for the proposed sewer work (if to be constructed), and also describe the territorial district upon which the expense of such proposed sewer work or improvement, or acquisition, shall be chargeable, as hereinafter provided, and shall provide therein for a special election to be held in such city, town or municipal corporation. At such election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such city, town or municipal corporation, the proposition of incurring indebtedness for the purposes set forth in said resolution, and no question other than the incurring of the indebtedness for such purposes shall be submitted at such special election. The ordinance calling such special election shall also recite the objects and purposes for which the proposed indebtedness is to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed sewer work, improvement, or sewer system to be acquired, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election shall be held, the manner of holding such election, and the manner of voting for or against the incurring of such indebtedness. In all particulars not recited in such ordinance, such election shall be held as is provided by law for holding general municipal elections in such city, town or municipal corporation. The maximum rate of interest to be paid on such indebtedness shall be six (6%) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually.

two succeeding weeks prior to the date set for such election by the legislative body of said city, town or municipal corporation. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the affirmative votes of two thirds of all the aforesaid qualified electors of said city, town or municipal corporation voting at such special election, to authorize the incurring of said indebtedness and the issuance of bonds therefor as provided herein; provided, however, if the proposition so submitted at such election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the aforesaid qualified electors of such city, town or municipal corporation, voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative branch of such municipality shall have no power or authority within six months after such election, to pass any ordinance calling another election for incurring any indebtedness for sewer work within any sewer district which has within its boundaries any of the territory of the district in which, at said election, the requisite number of votes for the issuance of said bonds has not been cast therefor.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued in the name of the city, town or municipal corporation in which such sewer district has been formed, and shall be payable in the following manner: A part to be determined by the legislative body of the municipality, which part shall not be less than the one fortieth part of the whole amount of such indebtedness, shall be payable each and every year on a day and date, and at a place within the United States, to be fixed by the legislative body of the city, town or municipal corporation issuing the said bonds, and designated in such bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date, until the whole of said indebtedness shall have been paid. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative body of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and shall be payable on the day, and at the place fixed in such bonds, and with interest at the rate specified in such bonds, which rate shall not be in excess of six per cent per annum, and shall be payable semi-annually, and said bonds shall be signed by any officer of said city, town or municipal corporation designated for that purpose by the city council, board of trustees or other legislative body of such city, town or municipal corporation, by resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of all of its members, and shall also be signed by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk of such city, town or municipal corporation. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer. In case any of such officers whose signatures appear on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds to the purchaser, such signatures or counter-signatures shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officers had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds.

SEC. 5. The legislative body of the city, town or municipal corporation within whose territory such sewer district has been created as herein provided, may issue and sell said bonds at not less than their par value, and the proceeds of the sale of such bonds shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of the proper sewer district fund and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the said ordinance.

bonds.

SEC. 6. Before the legislative body of such city, town or municipal corporation shall award the contract for doing any sewer work or improvement, the expense of which is to be paid out of the proceeds of sales of the bonds issued in accordance with the provisions of this act, said legislative body of said city, town or municipal corporation, shall cause notice with specifications to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the chamber door of said legislative body, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing said sewer work or improvement, and shall also cause notice of said work inviting said proposals and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published for two consecutive insertions in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, published and circulated in said city, town or municipal corporation, designated by said legislative body for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, town or municipal corporation, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check, payable to the order of the executive officer of said city, town or municipal corporation, certified by a responsible bank for an amount which shall be not less than ten (10%) per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount, and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties who shall justify before an officer competent to administer an oath, in double such amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of said legislative body, and said legislative body shall in open session examine and publicly declare the same. Said legislative body may reject any or all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the price named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the executive officer of said city, town, or municipal corporation, or a three-fourths vote of the legislative body of said city, town or municipal corporation. If not approved by said executive officer or a three-fourths vote of said legislative body, without further proceedings the said legislative body may readvertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bid so rejected. But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the clerk of said city, town or municipal corporation, until the contract for doing said work has been entered into by said lowest bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work within ten days after said contract shall have been awarded, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said city, town or municipal corporation. The said legislative body shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem adequate from the bidder to whom the contract for said work or improvement is awarded, to insure the faithful performance of said contract. Such officer of said city, town or municipal corporation as the legislative body thereof shall designate, is authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts and to receive all bonds authorized by this act, and is authorized to fix the time for the commencement, which shall not be more than fifteen days from the date of the contract, and for the completion of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with diligence from day to day until completion, and he may extend the time so fixed from time to time under the direction of said legislative body of said city, town or municipal corporation; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting such city, town or municipal corporation itself from constructing or completing such sewer or improvement, and buying the material, and employing the labor necessary therefor; provided, however, that this section shall not apply where sewer systems, or any part of a sewer system, already constructed has been, or is to be acquired under this act; and provided, further, that in cities, towns and municipal corporations operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8, article XI of the constitution of the State of California, and providing for a board or department of public works, all the things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative body of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board or department of public works of such city, town or municipal corporation, and in case such charter also prescribes the manner of letting and entering into contracts for the furnishing of labor, materials or supplies for the construction or completion of public work or improvements, all contracts for the construction or completion of sewer work or improvement shall be let and entered into in conformity with the provisions of such charter.

SEC. 7. The legislative body of said city, town or municipal corporation shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect each year upon the property situated within such sewer district formed as hereinbefore set forth, and upon such property only, and until such bonds are paid or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of such city, town or municipal corporation set apart for that purpose, sufficient to meet all sums coming due for the principal and interest on such bonds, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy; provided, however, that if the maturity of the indebtedness created by the issue of said bonds or any part thereof, be made to begin more than one year after the date of the issuance of such bonds, such tax shall be levied and collected at the time and in the manner aforesaid, annually, each year, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, on or before the payments herein provided for, shall become due. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for the municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the time, and in the manner, as other municipal taxes are collected, and shall be used for no other purpose than the payment of the sum or sums of money due on said bonds and the accruing interest thereon.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of the legislative body of every city, town or municipal corporation, wherein sewer work or improvement is being made or acquired under the provisions of this act, to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out and maintaining such sewer work or improvement, to appoint all needful agents, superintendents and engineers to properly look after the construction and operation of such sewers; provided, that in cities, town and municipal corporations operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section 8, of article XI of the constitution of the State of California, and having a board or department of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative body of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board or department of public works of such city, town or municipal corporation.

Duty of city legislative bodies to make regulations, etc.

SEC. 9. This act shall in nowise affect any other act by the provisions of which sewer work or improvement may be done within or by any city, town or municipal corporation, but it is intended to and does provide an alternate system of proceedings for sewer work and improvements, and it shall be within the discretionary powers of the legislative body of any city, town or municipal corporation to proceed in making such improvements either under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of any other act. But when any proceedings are commenced under this act the provisions of this act and such amendments thereto as may hereafter be adopted, shall thereafter apply to all work done under such proceedings until the completion thereof. If, after certain sewer work or improvement has been done or sewers acquired under provisions of this act, the legislative body of any city, town or municipal corporation shall deem it necessary or convenient to construct or acquire any additional sewer or sewers, it shall be within the discretionary powers of the legislative body of any city, town or municipal corporation to proceed in making such improvement either under the provisions of this act or under the provisions of any other act relative thereto. But any provisions contained in any other acts in conflict with the provisions hereof shall be void as to, and of no effect upon, proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act, except as herein provided. The word "sewer," as used in this act, shall be deemed to, and is hereby declared to, include sewers for sanitary or drainage purposes, drains or conduits for surface or storm waters, and the outlets therefor.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 456.

An act to amend "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

"An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Minors not to work more than nine hours a day.

SECTION 1. No minor under the age of eighteen shall be employed in laboring in any manufacturing, mechanical, or mercantile establishment, or other place of labor, more than nine hours in one day, except when it is necessary to make repairs to prevent the interruption of the ordinary running of the machinery, or when a different apportionment of the hours of labor is made for the sole purpose of making a shorter day's work for one day of the week, and in no case shall the hours of labor exceed fifty-four hours in a week.

a sworn statement being made to him by the parent of such child that such child is past the age of twelve years, that the parents or parent of such child are incapacitated for labor, through illness, and after investigation by a probation officer or attendance officer of the city, or city and county, in which such child resides, or in cities and counties where there are no probation or attendance officers, then by such other competent person as the judge may designate for this purpose. The permit so issued shall specify the kind of labor and the time for which it is issued, and shall in no case be issued for a longer period than shall seem necessary to the judge issuing such permit. Such permit shall be kept on file by the person, firm or corporation employing the child therein designated, during the term of said employment, and shall be given up to such child upon his quitting such employment. Such certificate shall be always open to the inspection of the attendance and probation officers of the city and county, city or county, in which the place of employment is situated, or the officers of the state bureau of labor statistics; and provided, that the attendance officer of any county, city and county, or school district in which any place of employment, in this section named, is situated, shall have the right and authority, at all times to enter into any such place of employment for the purpose of investigating violations of the provisions of this act, or violations of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for the violation of the act," approved March 24, 1903, and amended March 20, 1905; provided, however, that if such attendance or probation officer is denied entrance to such place of employment, any magistrate may, upon the filing of an affidavit by such attendance or probation officer setting forth the fact that he had a good cause to believe that the provisions of this act, or the act hereinbefore referred to, are being violated in such place of employment, issue an order directing such attendance or probation officer to enter said place of employment for the purpose of making such investigations; and provided, that any such child over the age of twelve years may be employed at any of the occupations mentioned in this act during the regular vacation of the public schools of the city, county, or city and county, in which the place of employment is situated, upon the production of a permit signed by the principal, vice-principal of the school, or secretary of the board of school trustees or board of education of the school which such child has attended during the term next preceding any such vacation. Such permit shall contain the name and age of the child to whom it is issued, and the date of the termination of the vacation for which it is issued, and shall be kept on file by the employer during the period of employment, and at the termination of such employment shall be returned to the child to whom it was issued. No minor who is under sixteen years of age shall be employed or permitted to work at any gainful occupation during the hours that the public schools of the city, town or school district in which his place of employment is situated are in session,

Sec. 3. Every person, firm or corporation employing minors under eighteen years of age, in any manufacturing establishment, shall post, and keep posted, in a conspicuous place in every room where such help is employed, a written or printed notice stating the number of hours per day for each day of the week required of such persons. Every person, firm, or corporation, agent or officer of a firm or corporation, employing or permitting minors under sixteen and over fifteen years of age to work in any mercantile institution, office, laundry, manufacturing establishment, workshop, place of amusement, restaurant, hotel, apartment house, or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages, shall keep a record of the names, ages, and places of residence of such minors, and shall have on file a certificate of age and schooling, as provided in this act, for every such minor so employed, said record and certificate to be open at all times to the inspection of the school attendance and probation officers of the city and county, city, or county, in which the place of employment is situated, or of the officers of the state bureau of labor statistics.

Age and schooling certificates.

An age and schooling certificate shall be approved only by the superintendent of schools of the city or county, or by a person authorized by him in writing, or where there is no city or city and county superintendent of schools, by a person authorized by the local school trustees; provided, that the superintendent or principal of any school of recognized standing shall have the right to approve an age and schooling certificate, and shall have the same rights and powers as the superintendent of public schools to issue the certificate herein provided, for children attending such schools. The persons authorized to issue age and schooling certificates shall have the authority to administer the oaths necessary for carrying out the provisions of this act, but no fees shall be charged for issuing such certificates. An age and schooling certificate shall not be approved unless satisfactory evidence is furnished by the last school census, the certificate of birth or baptism of such child, the public register of birth of such child, or in some other manner, that such child is of the age stated in such certificate. A duplicate copy of each age and schooling certificate granted under the provisions of this act shall be kept by the person issuing such certificate, such copy to be filed with the county superintendent of schools in the county where the certificate is issued; provided, that all such copies of certificates issued between June 25th and December 25th of any year shall be filed not later than December 31st of such year; and those issued between December 25th and June 25th of the ensuing year shall be filed not later than June 30th of each year. Such certificates shall be substantially in the following form, to wit:

Age and Schooling Certificate.—This certifies that I am the (father, mother, or guardian) of (name of the child), and that (he or she) was born at (name of town or city), in the county of (name of county, if known), and state (or country) of (name), on the day (day and year of birth), and is now (number of years and of months) old. Form of certificate

Signature, as provided in this act.

Town or city, and date.

There personally appeared before me the above named (name of person signing) and made oath that the following certificate by (him or her) signed is true to the best of (his or her) knowledge and belief.

I hereby approve the foregoing certificate of (name of child), height (feet and inches), complexion (fair or dark), hair (color), having no sufficient reason to doubt that (he or she) is of the age therein certified, and I hereby certify that (he or she) (can or can not) read English at sight, and (can or can not) write legibly simple sentences in the English language. There is hereto attached a written request from the prospective employer of such child, that an age and schooling certificate be granted to such child.

Signature of the person authorized to sign, with his official character and authority.

Town or city and date.

This certificate belongs to the person in whose behalf it is drawn, and it shall be presented to (him or her) whenever (he or she) leaves the services of the person, firm, or corporation holding the same. The certificate as to the birthplace and age of the minor under sixteen and over fifteen years of age shall be signed by his father, his mother, or his guardian; if a child has no father, mother, or guardian living in the same city or town, his own signature to the certificate may be accepted by the person authorized to approve the same. Every person authorized to sign the certificate prescribed by this act, who knowingly certifies to any false statement therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The county superintendent of schools of each county shall file with the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics a report showing the number of age and schooling certificates issued to male and female minors, fifteen years of age, and such other detailed information as the commissioner may require. Said report to be filed during the months of January and July of each year for the preceding six months, ending June 25th and December 25th of each year, and cover certificates issued during said periods and on file in the office of the county superintendent of schools as described in paragraph five of this section.

SEC. 4. Any person, firm, corporation, agent, or officer of a firm or corporation that violates or omits to comply with any of the foregoing provisions of this act, or that employs or suffers or permits any minor to be employed in violation thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each and every offense. A failure to produce any age and schooling certificate or permit or to post any notice required by this act, shall be prima facie evidence of the illegal employment of any person whose age and schooling certificate or permit is not produced, or whose name is not so posted. Any fine collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the school funds of the county, or city, or city and county in which the offense occurred; except such fines imposed and collected as the result of prosecutions by the officers of the bureau of labor statistics. In such cases one half of the resultant fine or fines shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the contingent fund of the bureau of labor statistics, and one half paid into the school funds of the county, or city, or city and county in which the offense occurred.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the employment of minors at agricultural, horticultural, or viticultural or domestic labor during the time the public schools are not in session, or during other than school hours. Nor shall anything in this act be construed to prohibit any child between the ages of fifteen and eighteen years, who is by any statute or statutes of the State of California, now or hereafter in force, permitted to be employed as an actor, or actress, or performer, in a theatre, or other place of amusement, previous to the hour of ten o'clock P. M., in the presentation of a performance, play or drama, continuing from an earlier hour till after the hour of ten o'clock P. M., from performing his or her part in such presentation as such employec between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock P. M.

Employment as actor in theatre not prohibited.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the bureau of labor statistics to enforce the provisions of this act. The commissioner, his deputies, and agents, shall have all powers and authority of sheriffs to make arrests for violations of the provisions of this act.

Enforcement of act.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to prevent the taking of fish by means of weirs, dams, nets, traps or seines in certain tide water on the coast of Mendocino county," approved March 25, 1909.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to prevent the taking of fish by means of weirs, dams, nets, traps or seines in certain tide water on the coast of Mendocino county," approved March 25, 1909, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as section 4 and to read as follows:

Act subject to Penal Code, section 634.

Section 4. The provisions of this act are subject to section 634 of the Penal Code, and the use of such weir, dam, net, trap or seine for the purpose of catching fish, and the taking of fish from any weir, dam, net, trap or seine in the waters described in this act shall be permitted at the times and in the manner set out in said section 634 of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 459.

An act to amend section 1817 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to county school tax.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1817 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

County superintendent to estimate school fund needed.

1817. The county superintendent of every county, and of every city and county, must, at least fifteen days before the first day of the month in which the board of supervisors of such county, or city and county, is required by law to levy the amount of taxes required for county, or city and county purposes, to furnish to the board of supervisors and to the auditor, respectively, an estimate in writing of the minimum amount of county or city and county school fund needed for the next ensuing school year. This amount he must compute as follows:

Number of teachers.

First—The county superintendent of every county and of every city and county must ascertain in the manner provided for in subdivisions one and two of section eighteen hundred and fifty-eight of the Political Code, the total number of teachers for the county, or the city and county.

$550 per teacher.

Second—The county superintendent of every county and of every city and county must calculate the amount required to be raised at five hundred and fifty dollars per teacher. From this amount he must deduct the total amount received from state apportionments for the next preceding school year and the remainder shall be the minimum amount of county, or city and county school fund needed for the ensuing school year; provided, that if this amount is less than sufficient to raise a sum equal to thirteen dollars for each pupil in average daily attendance in the county, or city and county, for the school year closing June thirtieth preceding, then the minimum amount shall be such a sum as will be equal to thirteen dollars for each pupil in average daily attendance in the county, or city and county, for the school year ending June thirtieth preceding; but in no case shall the rate of tax levied for county or city and county school purposes in any one year exceed fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of taxable property in the county or city and county. Maximum rate.

Minimum per pupil

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 460.

An act to amend section 1728 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the formation of joint union high school districts.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1728 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1728. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors residing in two or more contiguous school districts, having in the aggregate one hundred or more pupils in average daily attendance as shown by the last reports of the teachers in said school districts, shall present a petition to the superintendent of schools of the county in which the greater number of families of said proposed joint union high school district reside, or if two or more counties are tied in that respect, to the superintendent of schools of one of said counties to be determined by lot by all the superintendents of schools interested. Thereupon the same proceedings shall be had on such petition as are directed in section seventeen hundred twenty-seven, except that the county superintendent of schools shall file his certificate of the result of the election with the county clerk of each county in which any part of the joint union high school district is situated. If it appears from such certificate that a majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the formation of such district, such joint high school district shall be deemed to be formed from the time of the filing thereof. The county clerk shall record the certificate in full in his record of high school districts. Formation of joint union high school districts.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 461.

An act to amend section 1725 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the formation of high school districts.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1725 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Formation of high school districts in cities, etc.

1725. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors residing in an incorporated city or town or a school district in which the average daily attendance in the elementary schools of the district shall be one hundred or more as shown by the last reports of the teachers in said district, shall write in a petition for the formation of a high school district therein under a name to be specified in the petition, they shall present the same to the superintendent of schools of the county, or in case of a joint school district to the superintendent of schools of the county in which the greater number of heads of families of such district reside. The superintendent to whom such petition is presented may require an affidavit from one or more of the petitioners as to the correctness of the facts as given in the petition. Within twenty days after receiving said petition the superintendent of schools shall verify the signatures to such petition, and if he finds them sufficient shall call an election in such incorporated city or town, including any territory annexed thereto under the provisions of section fifteen hundred seventy-six, or in such school district, for the determination of the question, and shall appoint three qualified electors thereof to conduct said election. Said election shall be called by posting notices thereof in three public places in said incorporated city or town, or school district, at least two weeks before the election, and by publishing such notice at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published therein at least as often as once a week, if there be such a newspaper, the first publication to be not less than two weeks before the election. Said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed for conducting elections of school trustees. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words "High School District—Yes" and "High School District—No," and electors voting at such election shall make a cross with pencil, ink, or rubber stamp, after the answer they desire to give. It shall be the duty of said election officers to canvass the vote at such election as soon as the polls are closed, and to report the result of said election to the superintendent of schools within five days subsequent to the holding thereof. Within ten days after receiving the returns of said election the superintendent of schools shall record the result thereof in a book kept by him for that purpose, and if the majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the high school district, he shall also make and file with the county clerk of every county in which any part of such proposed high school district lies, a certificate showing the number of votes cast at such election for and against the high school district, and declaring the result thereof. Such county clerk shall record said certificate in full in a book to be kept by him for that purpose and designated the record of high school districts. If it shall appear from such certificate that a majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the formation of such district, such high school district shall be deemed to be formed from the time of the filing thereof.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 462.

An act to amend section 1727 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the formation of union high school districts.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1727 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1727. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors residing in each of two or more contiguous school districts in the same county, having an average daily attendance in the aggregate in the elementary schools of one hundred pupils or more shall unite in a petition to the superintendent of schools of such county, for the formation of a union high school district under a name to be specified in the petition, he shall, within twenty days after receiving said petition verify the signatures thereto, and if he finds them sufficient, call an election for the determination of the question, and shall appoint three qualified electors in each of the districts petitioning, to conduct the election therein. Said election shall be held separately and simultaneously at a public schoolhouse in each of the districts petitioning, and shall be called by posting notices thereof in three public places in each district, one of which places shall be a public schoolhouse thereof, at least two weeks before the election, and by publishing such notice at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published at least as often as once a week in said proposed union high school district, if there be such a newspaper, the first publication to be not less than two weeks before the election. Said election shall be conducted by the officers appointed for that purpose, in the manner provided by law for conducting elections of school trustees. The ballots used at such election in each district shall contain the words of union high school

Election.

“Union High School District—Yes” and “Union High School District—No,” and electors voting at such election shall make a cross with pencil, ink or rubber stamp, after the answer they desire to give. It shall be the duty of the said election officers in each district to canvass the vote at said election as soon as the polls are closed, and report the result to the superintendent of schools within five days subsequent to the holding of said election. Within ten days after receiving the returns of said election, the superintendent of schools shall combine the votes “for” and “against” the formation of the union high school district and declare such result and record the result, with the details of the vote in each district, in a book kept by him for that purpose. If a majority of the votes cast at the election are in favor of the formation of the union high school district, he shall also file with the county clerk of the county, a certificate showing the total number of votes cast in each district in favor of the union high school district, the total number of votes in each district against the union high school district, the aggregate result of said election and the boundaries of said proposed district. If it shall appear from such certificate that a majority of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the formation of such district, such union high school district shall be deemed to be formed from the time of the filing thereof, and the county clerk shall record said certificate in full in his record of high school districts.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 463.

An act to amend section 1722 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to petitions for the formation of high school districts.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 1722 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Heads of families may sign petitions.

1722. Whenever by the provisions of this article the signatures of heads of families or of electors are required to any petition, any person who at the time of signing such petition is the head of a family, shall be competent to sign a petition, or any elector shall be competent to sign a petition. The superintendent of schools may require an affidavit from one or more of the petitioners as to the correctness of the facts given in the petition.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after its passage.

CHAPTER 464.

An act to amend section 1736 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the disincorporation of a high school district.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1736 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1736. Any high school district may, after the expiration of three years from its formation, or after it has been acting as such for three years, disincorporate and be dissolved in the following manner: A petition signed by two thirds of the heads of families or two thirds of the electors of each school district composing such high school district as shown by affidavit of one or more of the petitioners shall be presented to the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over such high school district, which petition shall set forth briefly the reasons for disincorporation, and shall pray that the question may be submitted to the voters in said district. Upon receiving such petition the said superintendent of schools shall verify the signatures to said petition and shall, if he finds them sufficient, call an election in each school district of such high school district, and shall submit to the voters therein the question of disincorporation of such high school district. At the time of calling such election, which must be held in all the school districts of the high school district upon the same day, the superintendent of schools must appoint three electors in each school district contained within such high school district to conduct the election. Notice of election shall be given by posting and publication as provided by section seventeen hundred twenty-seven in case of an election for the formation of a union high school district. Said election shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for conducting elections of school trustees. The ballots shall have printed on them the words "Disincorporation—Yes" and "Disincorporation—No." and electors voting at such election shall make a cross with pencil, ink, or rubber stamp, opposite the answer they desire to give. The election officers shall report the result of such election within five days thereafter to such superintendent of schools. If a majority of all the votes cast at such election are opposed to disincorporation no further petition shall be entertained or election ordered for a similar purpose within three years next following such election. If two thirds of all votes cast at such election are in favor of disincorporation the superintendent of schools shall, at the end of the existing school year, suspend said high school district, and report the result of the election and the fact of such suspension to the board of supervisors of his county. Upon receiving such report, said board shall, at the first meeting thereafter, make an order declaring said high school district duly disincorporated and dissolved, to take effect at the end of the existing school year. When a high school district has disincorporated under the provisions of this section, the property thereof shall be sold by said board of supervisors and the proceeds of such sale, together with any moneys in the treasury to the credit of such disincorporated high school district, shall be disposed of as provided in section seventeen hundred thirty-five. If a high school district so disincorporated has an outstanding bonded indebtedness, taxes shall be levied and collected on all property in the territory constituting such high school district at the time of its disincorporation, for the purpose of paying principal and interest of such bonds, in the same manner, and at the same time as if said district had not been disincorporated.

CHAPTER 465.

An act to amend Section 1734 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the admission of a school district to a high school district or the exclusion of a school district from a high school district.

[Approved April 14, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1734 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Admission
of school district to
district.

1734. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors residing in any school district contiguous to a high school district, in the same or in adjoining counties, as shown by the affidavit of one or more of the petitioners, shall present to the superintendent of schools who has jurisdiction over said high school district, a petition for the annexation of such school district to such high school district, accompanied by an agreement signed by a majority of the members of the high school board of the high school district to which annexation is desired, and by a majority of the trustees of such school district, consenting to such annexation and setting forth the terms thereof, such superintendent of schools shall, after verifying the signatures thereon and finding them sufficient, transmit such petition and agreement to the board of supervisors of his county with his recommendations thereon. Such board may thereupon, in their discretion, make an order annexing such school district to such high school district upon the terms agreed on. Whenever it appears that the terms agreed upon by the trustees of the district seeking to be an-nexed and the high school board include the assumption by the district to be annexed of its pro rata portion of any bonded indebtedness existing against the high school district, the board of supervisors shall call an election in the district so proposing to assume such indebtedness for the purpose of determining whether such indebtedness shall be authorized and assumed. Such election shall be held as provided in section seventeen hundred forty-five, except that the returns shall be made to the board of supervisors. If it shall appear from the returns of such election that two thirds of the votes cast at such election were cast in favor of the assumption by the district seeking to be annexed of its pro rata portion of such bonds, then and not until then shall such district be annexed to such high school district. If such bonded indebtedness is assumed by the annexed district then all levies of taxes made for the payment of the same and interest thereon, shall be upon the property of such annexed district at the same rate as levied upon the property of the original high school district. Whenever a majority of the heads of families or a majority of the electors residing in any union or joint union high school district, and two thirds of the heads of families or of the electors residing in any school district which is a part thereof, as shown by the affidavit of one or more of the petitioners, shall present to the superintendent of schools who has jurisdiction over said high school district petitions asking for the exclusion of such school district from such high school district, accompanied by an agreement signed by a majority of the high school board of such high school district and a majority of the trustees of such school district, consenting to such exclusion and setting forth the terms thereof, such superintendent of schools shall, after verifying the signatures thereto and finding them sufficient, transmit such petitions and agreement to the board of supervisors of his county, with his recommendations thereon. Such board may thereupon, in their discretion, make an order excluding such school district from the high school district upon the terms agreed on; provided, however, that no school district shall be excluded from a high school district having an outstanding bonded indebtedness, where such exclusion would so reduce the amount of taxable property in such high school district that said outstanding bonded indebtedness would exceed five per cent of the taxable property of such high school district after the exclusion, as shown by the last equalized assessment of the county or counties in which such high school district is located. The order of the board of supervisors annexing a school district to, or excluding it from, a high school district shall be entered by their clerk in his record of high school districts and he shall also send a copy thereof to the county clerk of each county in which any part of such high school district is situated, who shall enter it in his record of high school districts.

Assumption of indebt-ness.

Exclusion of school district from high school
district.

CHAPTER 466.

An act to add a new section to title II, part III of the Penal Code of California, to be numbered section 1616 and relating to the care of female prisoners in county jails.

[Approved April 15, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to title II, part III of the Penal Code of California, to be numbered section 1616, relating to the care of female prisoners in county jails, and to read as follows:

Care of female prisoners in county jails.

1616. Whenever any female prisoner or prisoners are confined in any county jail in the state, and no regular jail matron has been appointed, there shall be designated by the sheriff some suitable woman who shall have immediate care of such female prisoner or prisoners. Such female prisoners shall be so kept that they cannot see or be seen by, or converse with, any male prisoners confined in said jail, and it shall be unlawful for any male officer or jailer to search the person of any female prisoner, or to enter into the room or cell occupied by any female prisoner, except in the company of such matron or woman having the care of such female prisoner.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 482.

An act to amend section one of an act entitled "An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for violation of the act," approved March 24, 1903, and as amended by act approved March 20, 1905, and relating to age of school children.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of "An act to enforce the educational rights of children and providing penalties for violation of the act," approved March 24, 1903, and as amended by act approved March 20, 1905, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Age of
children.

Section 1. Unless excused, as hereinafter provided, each parent, guardian, or other person, in the State of California, having control or charge of any child between the ages of eight and fifteen years, shall be required to send such child to a public school, during the time in which a public school shall be in session, in the city or city and county or school district in which said child resides; provided, that should it be shown to the satisfaction of the board of education of the city or city and county, or of the board of trustees of the school district, in which such child resides, that the child's bodily or mental condition is such as to prevent or render inadvisable attendance at school or application to study, a certificate from any reputable physician that the child is not able to attend school, or that its attendance is inadvisable, must be taken as satisfactory evidence by any such board, or that such child is being taught in a private school, or by a private tutor, or at home by any person capable of teaching, in such branches as are usually taught in the primary and grammar schools of this state; or that any such child between the age of twelve and fifteen has been given a permit to work by the proper judicial officers in accordance with section two of "An act regulating the employment and hours of labor of children, prohibiting the employment of minors under certain ages, prohibiting the employment of certain illiterate minors, providing for the enforcement hereof by the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics and providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved February 20, 1905; or that no public school is located within two miles, by the nearest traveled road, of the residence of the child; or that the child has completed the prescribed grammar school course; then it shall be the duty of such board of education or board of trustees, upon application of the parent, or guardian, or other person having control or charge of such child, to excuse such child from attendance at school, during the continuance of such defect or condition upon which such excuse is granted; and provided, further, that circumstances rendering attendance impracticable or dangerous to health, owing to unusual storm or other sufficient cause, shall work an exemption from the penalties of this act. If any parent or guardian or other person having control or charge of any such child presents proof to such board of education or board of trustees, by affidavit, that he is unable to compel such child to attend school, said parent, guardian or other person shall be exempt from the penalties of this act, as regards the subsequent non-attendance at school of such child, and said child may, in the discretion of such board, be deemed a truant and subject to assignment to the parental school.

In addition to the monthly salaries herein allowed, each constable may receive and retain for his own use, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law for services rendered by him in civil cases.

Reporter.

16. The official reporter of the superior court shall receive the fees allowed by law.

17. The compensation allowed each officer above enumerated shall be in full for all services, and shall include the pay of all deputies (except in the case of the district attorney wherein one deputy is provided for within the discretion of the board of supervisors) except as provided in section four thousand two hundred and ninety, which provides certain fees and commissions for the assessor and license collector.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 487.

An act prohibiting the placing or maintaining of signs, mechanical devices, transparencies, pictures or advertisements on or upon property of the State of California, or on or upon property of any city, city and county or county in the State of California, and prohibiting the placing or maintaining of any signs, mechanical devices, transparencies, pictures or advertisements upon property of any person or private corporation without consent in writing therefor having been first obtained, and providing a penalty for the violation of the provisions of this act, and declaring such signs, mechanical devices, transparencies, pictures and advertisements to be a public nuisance.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation to place, cause to be placed or to maintain, or cause to be maintained without lawful permission on or upon any property, either real or personal, belonging to the State of California, or to any city, city and county or county in the State of California, any sign, picture, transparency, advertisement or mechanical device which is used for the purpose of or which does advertise or bring to notice any person or persons or article or articles of merchandise or any business or profession or anything that is to be or has been sold, bartered or given away.

Unlawful to place signs without permission.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation to place, cause to be placed, maintain, or cause to be maintained on or upon any property, either real or personal, within the State of California, in which said person, persons or corporations have no estate or right of possession, any sign, picture, transparency, advertisement or mechanical device which is used for the purpose of, or which does advertise or bring to notice any person or persons, or article or articles of merchandise or any business or profession or anything that is to be or has been sold, bartered or given away, unless such person, persons or corporation obtain the consent of the owner or owners, lessee or lessees of said property, or person or persons in lawful possession of said property before such sign, picture, transparency, advertisement or mechanical device is placed on or upon said property.

Consent of owners of property.

Lawful notices.

Sec. 3. Nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent the posting of any notice required by law or order of any court, to be posted, nor to prevent the posting or placing of any notice, particularly pertaining to the grounds or premises upon which the same is so posted or placed, or to prevent the posting or placing of any notice, sign, or device used exclusively for giving public notice of the name, direction or condition of any highway, street, lane, road or alley.

Road signs.

Nuisance.

Sec. 4. Any such sign, picture, transparency, advertisement or mechanical device so placed on any property, contrary to the provisions of this act, is and shall be a public nuisance.

Penalty.

Sec. 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 488.

An act to amend section 137 of the bank act, relating to the dissolution of banks, discharge of certain receivers and escheat of unclaimed funds.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 137 of the bank act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Application to dissolve bank.

Section 137. 1. Any bank shall have the right, on application of the stockholders or members to apply to the superior court of the county wherein its principal place of business is situated, to dissolve said bank in the manner provided for in title VI, part III of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Funds of dissolved banks to be paid into state treasury.

2. It is hereby made the duty of every person or corporation holding funds of any bank, at the end of five years from and after such bank has ceased to receive deposits, or do business, to pay the same into the state treasury, which money shall be held in the state school land fund; and at the same time it shall be the duty of such person or corporation to furnish to the state controller a list of the names of all depositors to whom said moneys belong or to whom said bank owes the same.

Dividends may be paid into county treasury.

3. At the expiration of four months after the settlement of the final account of the receiver of any bank appointed prior to July 1, 1909, any dividends due depositors, or other creditors, or stockholders of such bank and remaining unpaid or uncalled for and in the hands of such receiver may be paid by him into the treasury of the county in which such bank is situated, which money shall be held in the treasury of said county, and at the same time it shall be the duty of such receiver to furnish to the county treasurer of said county a list of names of all depositors or other persons to whom such money belongs or who are entitled thereto and thereupon such receiver shall be entitled to his discharge.

4. The moneys referred to in subdivision two of this section may be drawn out on the warrants of the state controller, issued on proofs of ownership, approved and allowed by the state board of examiners and all moneys referred to in subdivision three of this section shall be paid out on the order of the court appointing such receiver. Withdrawal of moneys.

5. All moneys paid under subdivisions two and three of this section, unclaimed for within five years after being paid in, shall by operation of law, and without action had, escheat to the state. All moneys held by any county treasurer under subdivision three of this section, when such moneys have escheated to the state as hereinbefore provided, shall be paid by the county treasurer into the state treasury, and thereafter only be drawn out in such manner as now provided for by law for the estates of deceased persons escheated to this state. Moneys may escheat.

6. The state board of examiners must invest such moneys in the same manner that the state school land fund is invested as provided by law. But any claimant shall be entitled to recover as herein provided only the principal so paid into the state treasury. Investments.

CHAPTER 489.

An act to prevent the manufacture or sale of dairy products from unhealthy animals, or that are produced under unsanitary conditions; to prevent deception or fraud in the production and sale of dairy products, and in the manufacture and sale of renovated butter and oleomargarine; to license the manufacture and sale of renovated butter, and oleomargarine; to regulate the business of producing, buying and selling dairy products, oleomargarine, renovated or imitation butter and cheese; to provide for the enforcement of its provisions and for the punishment of violations thereof, and appropriating money therefor and to repeal section 17 of an act approved March 4, 1897, entitled "An act to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of butter and cheese, to secure its enforcement, and to appropriate money therefor," and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No person, firm or corporation, by themselves or their agents or employees, shall sell, expose for sale, or offer for sale, or shall exchange, present, or deliver to any creamery, Sale of unclean milk, etc., prohibited.

cheese factory, milk condensing factory, or other buyer or consumer of milk or milk products, any unclean, unwholesome, stale, or impure milk, cream, butter or condensed or evaporated milk, or other article produced from such milk or cream, neither shall any person or persons, firm or corporation, by themselves or their agents or employees, sell, expose for sale, or offer for sale, or exchange, present or deliver to any consumer, creamery, cheese factory, milk condensing factory, or any other buyer or consumer, any milk, cream, butter, cheese, condensed milk or other products manufactured therefrom, which has been produced in or by a dairy, or factory of dairy products, or that is or has been handled in any store or depot, that is in an unsanitary condition, or that is produced from cows affected by any disease, or from cows within five days after or fifteen days preceding parturition.

Unsanitary dairies.

SEC. 2. A dairy shall be deemed unsanitary within the meaning of this act, among other causes that render milk, or products made therefrom, unclean, impure, and unhealthy, in the following cases:

(a) If the drinking water is stagnant, polluted with manure, urine, drainage, decaying vegetable or animal matter.

(b) If the yards or enclosures are filthy or unsanitary or if any part of such yards or enclosures, other than pastures, are made the depositories of manure in heaps or otherwise where it is allowed to ferment and decay.

(c) If a suitable milk house or room is not provided and maintained, properly screened to exclude flies and insects, for the purpose of cooling, mixing, canning, and keeping the milk. Said milk house or room shall not be located in or be a part of any residence, or dwelling house, or any barn or poultry house, and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever.

(d) If any milk or cream shall be cooled, stored, mixed, canned, or kept in any room or place which is occupied by any person or persons as a sleeping or living apartment, or occupied by horses, cows, hogs or other animals, or fowls of any kind, and if the milk shall not be cooled to as low a temperature as practicable within one hour after it is drawn from the cows.

(e) If any urinal, privy, vault, open cesspool, horse stable, pigpen, stagnant water, accumulation of manure or other filth shall be permitted within one hundred feet of any such milk house or room, or within fifty feet of any cow stalls or stanchions or other place where milking is done.

(f) If the walls become soiled with manure, urine or other filth.

(g) If the interior of cattle stables, bars, milking sheds, milk house or room, an application of lime whitewash is not made at least once in two years, or oftener if in the judgment of the agent of the state dairy bureau it is needed, or if in the mangers, or other receptacles from which cows are fed, decaying food or other material is allowed to accumulate.

(h) If the pails, cans, bottles or other containers of milk, or its products, or the strainers, coolers or other utensils coming in contact with the milk or its products, are not sterilized by boiling water or superheated steam each and every time the same are used.

(i) If the person or wearing apparel of the dairyman, his employees, or other persons, who come in contact with milk and its products, are soiled or not washed from time to time with reasonable frequency.

SEC. 3. A creamery or any factory of dairy products, or any store, depot or other place where milk is handled or kept for sale, shall be deemed unsanitary under the meaning of this act, among other causes that render milk, or products made therefrom, unclean, unwholesome, impure, stale or of low grade or inferior quality, in the following cases:

unsanitary creameries.

(a) If milk or cream is received that has reached an advanced stage of fermentation, or that shows a state of putrefactive fermentation, or if it is received in cans or other containers that have not been sterilized by means of boiling water or superheated steam after each delivery.

(b) If the utensils and apparatus that come in contact with milk or its products in the process of manufacture are not thoroughly washed and sterilized by means of boiling water or superheated steam, after each using.

(c) If the floor is so constructed as to permit the flowing or soaking of water, milk or other liquids underneath or among the interstices of such floor, where fermentation and decay may take place, or if such floor may not be readily kept free from dirt.

(d) If drains are not provided that will convey refuse milk, water and sewage away to a point at least fifty yards distant from such creamery or factory of dairy products, or if any cess-pool, privy vault, hog yard, slaughterhouse, manure or any decaying vegetables or animal matter, shall be within a distance that will permit foul odors to reach any such creamery or other factory of dairy products or store or depot where milk or its products are sold or handled.

(e) If such creamery or factory of dairy products, does not permit access of light and air sufficient to secure good ventilation.

(f) If in any building or buildings used in connection with any creamery, or factory of dairy products, any insects or other species of animal life are permitted, or if upon the floor, the sides or the walls, any milk or its products, or any other filth is allowed to accumulate, or ferment, or decay, or if the bodies or wearing apparel of persons employed, or coming in contact with any milk or its products, in any creamery, or factory of any dairy products, shall be unclean and not washed from time to time with reasonable frequency.

SEC. 4. No person, firm or corporation shall hereafter sell, offer for sale, or receive for the purpose of sale, any milk, skim milk or cream, except such sale, offer, or receipt, shall, as to quantity, be based upon the liquid gallon, containing two hundred and thirty-one cubic inches, or the liquid quart containing fifty-seven and seventy-five one-hundredths cubic inches, or the proper and complete liquid subdivision thereof: provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed as prohibiting the buying or selling of milk or cream either by weight or on the basis of its butter fat contents: and provided, further, that in any hotel, restaurant, or other eating place, where milk is sold with meals, or where it is sold to be drunk immediately, it may be sold by the glass.

Pasteur-
butter.

SEC. 5. No person or persons, firm or corporation, by themselves or their agents or employees, shall manufacture for sale, offer for sale, expose for sale, or have in his, its or their possession for sale, any package of butter upon which, or upon the wrapper or container of which, there shall be printed, or otherwise marked, the word pasteurize or any of its derivatives, unless in the process of the manufacture of the butter contained therein either the milk or cream from which the same was made shall have been exposed to a temperature exceeding one hundred and fifty degrees Fahrenheit, or unless in the process of pasteurization such milk or cream be heated to a temperature of not less than one hundred and forty degrees Fahrenheit and retained at least twenty minutes in the heat at said temperature.

be sold by pound.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, offer for sale, or to cause or permit to be sold or offered for sale, any butter in prints or packages or otherwise other than by or in terms of pounds and ounces, avoirdupois, or for a greater weight than the true net weight thereof.

Registration of dairies.

SEC. 6. Every person, firm or corporation operating any dairy, where more than four cows are milked, and every creamery, cheese factory, receiving station, skimming station, ice cream or ice milk manufacturer, or milk condensary, shall on or before the first day of November of each year, cause to be registered with the secretary of the state dairy bureau a statement showing the full name and address of such person, firm or corporation so operating the same, and also the full name and address of the owner or owners of the business so being operated, in case the person operating the same is not the owner, together with a statement of the class of such business carried on by such person or corporation, and the number of cows then being milked, in case of a dairy.

Annual
report.

SEC. 7. The secretary of the state dairy bureau shall provide blanks for reporting dairy statistics, and he shall annually, on or before the first day of October each year, cause to be mailed to each person, firm or corporation engaged in operating any dairy making butter or cheese from more than four cows, and to all dairies where more than four cows are milked, and to all creameries, cheese factories, ice cream or ice milk manufacturers, and milk condensaries, one or more of such blanks, and each such person, firm or corporation shall, on or before the first day of November following, make out and transmit to said secretary of the state dairy bureau a full and accurate report of the amount of butter, cheese or other dairy products, manufactured or produced during the year ending September 30th, and the dairies shall report the number of cows milked during said year.

SEC. 8. In case any butter is sold, or offered for sale, in a package or wrapper purporting to designate the producer of such butter, such producer must be correctly designated; and if under a label purporting or calculated to designate the place of production, it must correctly designate the place where made. No person, firm or corporation shall put up in package or wrapper, or otherwise prepare for shipment or sale, any butter under a label purporting to designate the producer or place of production, except in accordance with the provisions hereof; nor shall any person sell or offer for sale any butter in a package or wrapper purporting to designate the name of the producer or the place of production, except in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Correct designations on butter wrappers.

SEC. 9. For the purposes of this act, every article, substance, or compound, other than that produced from pure milk, or cream from the same, made in the semblance of butter, and of a color resembling butter, by whatever means the coloring is accomplished, and designed to be used as a substitute for butter made from pure milk or cream, is hereby declared to be imitation butter; and for the purposes of this act, every article, substance, or compound, other than that produced from pure milk, or cream from the same, made in the semblance of cheese, and designed to be used as a substitute for cheese made from pure milk or cream, is hereby declared to be imitation cheese; provided, that the use of salt, rennet, and harmless coloring matter for coloring the product of pure milk or cream, shall not be construed to render such product an imitation; and provided, that nothing in this section shall prevent the use of pure skimmed milk in the manufacture of cheese.

Imitation butter.

Imitation cheese.

SEC. 10. No person, by himself or his agents or servants, shall render, manufacture, sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or have in his possession with intent to sell or to use or to serve to patrons, guests, boarders, or inmates in any hotel, eating-house, restaurant, public conveyance or boarding-house, or public or private hospital, asylum, or eleemosynary or penal institution, any article, product or compound made wholly or partly out of any fat, oil, or oleaginous substance or compound thereof, not produced directly and at the time of manufacture from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, which article, product, or compound shall be colored in imitation of butter or cheese produced from unadulterated milk or cream, or be made to resemble yellow butter in color, by whatever means the coloring is accomplished; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture or sale, under the regulations hereinafter provided, of substances or compounds, designed to be used as an imitation, or as a substitute for butter or cheese made from pure milk or cream from the same, in a separate and distinct form not resembling butter or cheese, and in such a manner as will advise the purchaser and consumer of its real character, free from colors-tion or ingredients that cause it to look like butter or cheese made from pure milk or cream, the product of the dairy.

Branding
oleomargarine.

SEC. 11. Each person, who, by himself or another, lawfully manufactures any oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, shall mark the same by branding, stamping, or stenciling upon the top and sides of each tub, firkin, box, or other package in which such article or substance shall be kept, and in which it shall be removed from the place where it is produced or put up, in a clear and durable manner, in the English language, the words "oleomargarine," or "substitute for butter," or "substitute for cheese," as the case may be, in printed letters in plain roman type, each of which shall not be less than one inch in height by one half inch in width, and in addition to the above shall prepare a statement, printed in plain roman type, of a size not smaller than pica, stating in the English language its name, and the name and address of the manufacturer, the name of the place where manufactured or put up, and also the names and actual percentages of the various ingredients used in the manufacture of such oleomargarine, imitation butter or imitation cheese; and shall place a copy of said statement within and upon the contents of each tub, firkin, box, or other package, and next to that portion of each tub, firkin, box, or other package, as is commonly and most conveniently opened, and shall label the top and sides of each tub, firkin, box, or other package by affixing thereto a copy of said statement, in such manner, however, as not to cover the whole or any part of said mark of "oleomargarine," "substitute for butter," or "substitute for cheese." The absence of the markings and labelings specified in section 11 hereof shall always be construed as a representation that the contents or substance in question is butter, or cheese, as the case may be.

Absence of markings.

Shipping
oleomargarine

SEC. 12. No person, by himself or another, shall knowingly ship, consign, or forward by any common carrier, whether public or private, any oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, unless the same be marked and contain a copy of the statement, and be labeled as provided by section 11 of this act; and no carrier shall knowingly receive the same for the purpose of forwarding or transporting, unless it shall be manufactured, marked, and labeled as hereinbefore provided, and unless it is consigned and by the carrier receipted for by its true name: provided, that this act shall not apply to any goods in transit between foreign states across the State of California.

All oleomargarine

marked.

SEC. 13. No person or his agent shall knowingly have in his possession or under his control any oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, unless the tub, firkin, box, or other package containing the same, shall be clearly and durably marked and labeled as provided by section 11 of this act, and also contain a copy of the statement required by said section 11 of this act; and if the tub, firkin, box, or other package be opened, then a copy of the statement described in said section 11 of this act, shall be kept with its face up, upon the exposed contents of said tub, firkin, box, or other package; provided, that this section shall not be deemed to apply to persons who have the same in their possession for the actual consumption of themselves or family, and for no other purpose.

SEC. 14. No person, by himself or another, shall sell, or offer for sale, or take orders for the future delivery of any oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, under the name of butter, or under the pretense that the same is butter or cheese; and no person, by himself or another, shall sell any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, unless he shall inform the purchaser distinctly, at the time of the sale, of its true name and character, and that the same is a substitute for butter or cheese, as the case may be, and shall deliver to the purchaser, at the time of the sale, a separate and distinct copy of the statement described in section 11 of this act; and no person shall use in any way in connection or association with the sale, or exposure for sale, or advertisement of any oleomargarine or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, the words "butterine," "creamery," or "dairy," or the representation of a cow or any breed of dairy cattle, or any combination of such words and representations, or any other words or symbols, or combinations thereof, commonly used by the dairy industry in the sale of butter or cheese.

Butter used in charitable institutions.

SEC. 18. No butter or cheese not made wholly from pure milk or cream, salt, and harmless coloring matter, shall be used in any of the charitable or penal institutions that receive assistance from the state.

Having possession of oleomargarine.

SEC. 19. Whoever shall have possession or control of any imitation butter or imitation cheese or any oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, or any renovated butter, contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be construed to have possession of property with intent to use it as a means of committing a public offense, within the meaning of chapter three, of title twelve, of part two, of an act to establish a penal code; provided, that it shall be the duty of the officer who serves a bench warrant issued for imitation butter or imitation cheese, or oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, or any renovated butter, to deliver to the agent or inspector of the state dairy bureau, or to any person by such dairy bureau authorized in writing to receive the same, a perfect sample of each article seized by virtue of such warrant, for the purpose of having the same analyzed, and forthwith to return to the person from whom it was taken the remainder of each article seized as aforesaid. If any sample be found to be imitation butter or imitation cheese, or oleomargarine, or a substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, or renovated butter, it shall be returned to and retained by the magistrate as and for the purpose contemplated by section fifteen hundred and thirty-six of an act to establish a penal code; but if any sample be found not to be imitation butter or imitation cheese, or oleomargarine, and not a substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter or cheese, or renovated butter, it shall be returned forthwith to the person from whom it was taken.

SEC. 20. No person, firm or corporation, by themselves or their agents or employees, shall sell, offer for sale, or expose for sale, or have in his, its, or their possession for sale, any oleomargarine or any renovated butter, unless the same shall have printed upon each and every package, roll, print, square, and upon any container of such renovated butter, or oleomargarine, the words "renovated butter," or the word "oleomargarine," as the case may be in letters not less than one half inch in height, and who shall not have secured from the state dairy bureau, now existing under the laws of this state, a license as provided hereinafter.

Renovated butter defined.

SEC. 21. The term renovated butter as used in this act is hereby defined to mean and include butter that has been reduced to a liquid state by melting and drawing off such liquid or butter oil and churning or otherwise manipulating it in connection with milk or any product thereof.

License required of manufacturer, etc.

SEC. 22. No person, firm or corporation, shall engage in the business or occupation of manufacturing, selling, dealing in, or furnishing renovated butter, oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, without first having applied for and obtained a license so to do, as hereinafter provided. Any person, firm, or corporation, desiring to engage in the business or occupation of manufacturing, selling, dealing in or furnishing to his, its or their patrons, oleomargarine, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, or imitation butter, or adulterated butter, or renovated butter, as in this act defined, shall first make application each year to the state dairy bureau for a license, and upon payment of a license fee of the amount mentioned herein, to the state dairy bureau, said bureau shall issue to the applicant a license. All such licenses shall contain the following proviso: Provided that this license does not authorize the holder thereof to manufacture, sell, deal in or furnish any oleomargarine, or similar substances designed to be used as a substitute for butter, which contain any coloring matter or which resemble yellow butter in appearance. All said licenses shall expire on June 30th of each year, and may be issued in periods of one year, or less than one year, upon payment of a proportionate part of the license fee. The fees for issuing said licenses are hereby fixed at the amounts below named, annually. The fee for issuing said license to manufacturers of any of said substances within this state shall be one hundred dollars, and if issued to wholesale dealers in, or importers or agents for importers of any of said substances the fee shall be fifty dollars, and if issued to retail dealers in any of said substances the fee shall be five dollars, and if issued to the keeper of any hotel, restaurant, boarding-house or other place where meals are served and payment is received therefor, either immediately or by the day, week or month, the fee shall be two dollars. The term "wholesale dealer," as used in this section 22 hereof, includes all persons, firms or corporations, who sell any of said substances in quantities of ten pounds or more at a time or in the same transaction. The term retail dealer includes all persons who sell only in quantities of less than ten pounds. All licenses, while in force, shall be kept conspicuously displayed in the place of business of the party or parties to whom they have been issued. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, to manufacture, buy, sell, deal in, or furnish to his, its or their patrons or to have in possession, for any purpose whatsoever other than for consumption in his own family, or for transportation in case of a boat or railroad company, or for the purpose of storage in case of a warehouse or cold storage company, any oleomargarine, or similar substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, or any substance resembling butter, but not made wholly from pure milk or cream, or any imitation butter, or adulterated butter, or renovated butter, as in this act defined, without first having applied for and obtained from the state dairy bureau of the State of California, the license herein required.

SEC. 23. All license fees paid to the state dairy bureau under this act shall be paid by said bureau into the state treasury, and shall be added to the appropriation made for the same fiscal year for the state dairy bureau, and its expenditure shall be at the disposal of said bureau for its use.

Records of sales, etc., of oleomargarine.

SEC. 24. Every person, firm, or corporation who is required by the provisions of section 22 hereof to obtain and hold a manufacturer's or a wholesaler's or importer's license shall keep a correct record in a form separate from all other business in which every sale and purchase of renovated butter, imitation butter, oleomargarine, or any substitute for butter or substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, or resembling butter, which substance is not made wholly from pure milk or cream, or any imitation cheese or imitation dairy products of any kind, shall be recorded at the time of the transaction, giving in detail the quantity sold or purchased, the name and location of the buyer or seller, the date, and the place to which it was shipped or delivered, and by whom the order or sale was put up and delivered. Every warehouse, cold storage company, boat, railroad or other transportation company shall keep a correct record of all oleomargarine, imitation butter, renovated butter, substitute for butter, imitation cheese, or other imitation dairy products, which at any time may be in their possession, or which may be transported or stored by them, showing the owner, the quantity and kind of goods, the date when stored, and when removed, in case of warehouses and cold storage companies, and showing the character of goods billed, the quantity, the name and address of consignor and consignee, and the date of transportation, in case of boats and railroad companies. All said records, herein required to be kept, shall at all times during business hours, be open to the inspection of the agents and inspectors of the state dairy bureau, and of any officer of any city or county board of health, and of any peace officer of any city or any county of the state. A failure to keep any of the records herein required to be kept or to permit the inspection of such records, by any inspector or agent of the state dairy bureau, or of any city or county board of health, or by any peace officer of any city or county, as herein required, is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and punishable as provided herein.

Records open to inspection.

Failure to keep records a misdemeanor.

Giving false reports of lot tests a misdemeanor.

SEC. 25. Any person, firm or corporation, whether as principal, agent, manager or otherwise, who buys or sells dairy products, or deals in milk, cream, or butter, and who buys or sells the same upon the basis of their richness or weight, or the percentage of cream or butter fat contained therein, who gives or reports to any dairyman or patron a false test, or who uses any apparatus, test bottle, or other appliance, or who uses the "Babcock test," or machine of like character, for testing such dairy products, cream, or butter, which is not accurate and correct, or which gives wrong or false percentages, or which is calculated in any way to defraud or injure the person with whom he deals, and any owner, manager, agent, or employee of any creamery, condensary, cheese factory, or other person who falsely manipulates, underreads, or overreads the Babcock test, or any other contrivance used for determining the quality or value of milk or cream, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 26. The state dairy bureau shall from time to time inspect and examine as to their accuracy, or their adaptability to give accurate results, all glassware, measures, scales, weights and other apparatus used in creameries, and factories of dairy products, where milk and cream are purchased, to determine the amount or percentage of fat in milk or cream. Said state dairy bureau shall supply at cost, and not oftener than once a year, to every creamery, or other factory of dairy products where milk and cream, or either, are purchased, on application not more than two tubes or bottles and one pipette of the forms used with the Babcock test, which it shall first examine as to accuracy, and if accurate, or adapted to give accurate results under the usual method of operating the Babcock test, said state dairy bureau shall certify to this by marking durably and permanently upon each and every piece of apparatus supplied the letters "D. B." Said state dairy bureau shall also, upon payment at the rate of one dollar for each dozen, test or examine into the accuracy of all test bottles or tubes and pipettes sent to it direct from any creamery, or other factory of dairy products, where milk or cream are purchased, and if found accurate, or adapted to give accurate results, the letters "D. B." shall be marked upon each piece of apparatus examined. The state dairy bureau shall pay all money received for making such tests or examinations into the state treasury and the same shall become a part of the appropriation for the use of the state dairy bureau, and its disposition shall be at the disposal of the state dairy bureau in enforcing the provisions of this act.

Dairy bureau to examine measures, etc.

To furnish Babcock tubes.

May test tubes for factory.

SEC. 27. The state's standard measure, or pipette, shall have a capacity of seventeen and six tenths cubic centimeters, and the standard test tubes or bottles for milk shall have a capacity of one cubic centimeter of mercury at a temperature of sixty-five degrees Fahrenheit between "zero" and "five" on the graduated scale on the neck thereof; the scale to have a length of not less than six and five tenths (6.5) millimeters for each per cent, or six and five tenths centimeters between zero and ten on the graduated scale on the neck thereof. Said scale to be graduated to at least two tenths of one per cent. The milk fat in the neck of said bottle to be read from the lower line of separation between the fat and the water to the top of the fat column at a temperature not lower than one hundred and thirty degrees Fahrenheit and not higher than one hundred and forty degrees Fahrenheit.

Standard measures.

All cream sold in the State of California on the basis of the richness or the percentage of milk fat contained therein, shall be tested by the Babcock test, using a weighed sample of eighteen grams, or a weighed sample of nine grams (results to be doubled), weighed on a balance sensitive to ten milligrams, and tested in a test bottle with a scale graduated to at least five tenths of one per cent. Said scale to be of a length of at least one centimeter to every five per cent where an eighteen gram sample is used. Where a nine gram sample is used in a bottle graduated for eighteen grams, the test bottle must have a scale graduated to at least two tenths of one per cent. Said scale to be of a length of at least two centimeters to every five per cent. Where a nine gram sample is used in a bottle graduated for nine grams, the test bottle shall have a scale graduated to five tenths of one per cent and shall be of a length not less than seven centimeters for every fifty per cent. The milk fat in the test bottle shall be read at a temperature not lower than one hundred and thirty degrees Fahrenheit and not higher than one hundred and forty degrees Fahrenheit. The fat column must read from the bottom of the lower meniscus to the bottom of the upper meniscus; provided, however, that no test bottles now in use in any creamery or other factory of dairy products or by any private party in this state shall be condemned or declared unfit for use prior to the expiration of one year from the taking effect of this act, if the scale thereof is correctly calibrated.

Milk.

SEC. 28. It shall be unlawful for any person to produce, manufacture or prepare for sale, or to sell or offer for sale, or have on hand for sale, any milk, including condensed or evaporated milk, or any product of milk, that is adulterated within the meaning of this act. The words "product of milk" as used in this act, shall not apply to any product into which milk, or a product of milk, may enter as an ingredient or component of a food product that does not consist of milk, or milk products alone, such as pastry, and confectionery; provided, that this section shall not be construed to prevent the use of common salt (chloride of sodium) in dairy products. Any label, printed matter, or advertising or descriptive matter appearing upon, or in connection with any package, parcel or quantity of milk or milk products when being sold, offered for sale, or having on hand for sale, and having reference to the article being sold, offered for sale, or on hand for sale, shall conform to the provisions of this act, and if it fails to conform to the provisions of this act, such article shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of this act. It shall be unlawful for any person under this act, when selling, or offering for sale, or having on hand for sale, milk or any product of milk to use the words "milk," "condensed milk," "sweetened condensed milk," "skim milk," "condensed skimmed milk," "evaporated cream," "cream," "butter," "cheese," "butter-milk," "ice-cream," or "ice milk," either verbally, or printed or written on any label or printed matter, in connection with the sale, or offering for sale, or having on hand for sale, of milk or any product of milk, or upon any bill of fare used in any hotel, restaurant or other places where meals are served, when the article shall not conform to the standards and provisions of section 29 of this act.

SEC. 29. Milk and the products of milk enumerated in this section shall be deemed adulterated within the meaning of this act if it or they shall not conform to the following definitions and standards:

(1) Milk is the fresh, clean, lacteal secretion obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, properly fed and kept, excluding that obtained within fifteen (15) days before and five (5) days after calving, and contains not less than three (3.0) per cent of milk fat, and not less than eight and five tenths (8.5) per cent of solids; not fat.

(2) Skim milk is milk from which a part or all of the cream has been removed and contains not less than eight and eight tenths (8.8) per cent of milk solids.

(3) Condensed milk or evaporated milk, is milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated and contains not less than twenty-four and five tenths (24.5) per cent of total milk solids, including not less than seven and seven tenths (7.7) per cent of milk fat.

(4) Sweetened condensed milk is milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated and to which sugar (sucrose) has been added, and contains not less than twenty-four and five tenths (24.5) per cent of total milk solids, including not less than seven and seven tenths (7.7) per cent of milk fat.

(5) Condensed skim milk is skim milk from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated, and contains not less than 18 per cent of milk solids.

(6) Cream is that portion of milk, rich in milk fat which rises to the surface of milk on standing, or is separated from it by centrifugal force, is fresh and clean and contains not less than eighteen (18) per cent of milk fat. Cream.

(7) Evaporated cream, or clotted cream, is cream from which a considerable portion of water has been evaporated.

(8) Milk fat, or butter fat, is the fat of milk and has a Reichert-Meissel number not less than twenty-four (24) and a specific gravity not less than .905 (40 degrees C.). Butter.

(9) Butter is the clean, non-rancid product made by gathering in any manner the fat of fresh or ripened milk or cream into a mass, which also contains a small portion of the other milk constituents, with or without salt, and a harmless coloring, and contains not less than eighty (80) per cent of milk fat.

(10) Cheese is the sound, solid, and ripened product made from milk or cream, by coagulating the casein thereof with rennet or lactic acid, with or without the addition of ripening ferments and seasoning, and with or without salt and harmless coloring matter. All cheese marked "Full cream cheese," or "Full milk cheese," must contain in the water-free substance, not less than fifty per cent (50%) of milk fat. All cheese marked "Half skim cheese," must contain in the water-free substance not less than twenty-five (25) per cent of milk fat. All cheese not plainly marked or branded as to its quality must contain in the water-free substance not less than fifty (50) per cent of milk fat. Cheese.

(11) Buttermilk is that portion of the cream which remains after the separation and removal therefrom of the butter fat in the process of churning, without the addition of water. Butter-milk.

(12) Ice cream is the frozen product, made from pure sweet cream and sugar with or without a harmless flavoring or Ice cream coloring, and contains not less than twelve (12) per cent of milk fat, and not more than six tenths (.6) of one per cent of pure and harmless vegetable gum or gelatin.

Fruit ice. (13) Fruit ice cream is the frozen product made from pure, sweet cream, sugar, and sound, clean, mature fruits, and contains not less than ten (10) per cent of milk fat, and not more than six tenths (.6) of one per cent of pure and harmless vegetable gum or gelatin.

Nut ice. (14) Nut ice cream is the frozen product made from pure, sweet cream, sugar, and sound, non-rancid nuts, and contains not less than ten (10) per cent of milk fat, and not more than six tenths (.6) of one per cent of pure and harmless vegetable gum or gelatin.

Ice milk. (15) Ice milk is the frozen product, containing less fat than ice cream, and made from pure, sweet milk and sugar, with or without a harmless flavoring or coloring, and contains not less than two and four tenths (2.4) per cent of milk fat, and not more than six tenths (.6) of one per cent of pure and harmless vegetable gum or gelatin.

Unlawful to sell skimmed milk not properly labeled. SEC. 30. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, exchange or deliver, or to offer for sale, exchange or delivery, or to cause or permit to be sold, exchanged or delivered, or to be offered for sale, exchange or delivery, or to have in possession for sale, exchange or delivery, any milk from which any part of the cream shall have been removed, or any skimmed milk, unless the same be offered for sale and sold as skimmed milk, or unless there shall be attached to the outside of every vessel, can or package from or in which such skimmed milk is sold or held for exchange or delivery, a tag upon which shall be printed in black letters at least one inch in height the word "skim" or the words "skimmed milk."

Milk wagons, etc., to bear name of owner. SEC. 31. All wagons, vehicles, or carts from which market milk, cream, butter, ice cream, buttermilk, or ice milk are sold, marketed, delivered, or peddled, shall have the name and address of the owner plainly painted thereon, in letters at least three inches high, and one and a half inches wide, on both sides of such vehicle.

"Ice milk" to be properly labeled. SEC. 32. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to manufacture for sale, sell, or furnish with meals or drinks which are sold, any frozen edibles, made principally of skimmed milk, or principally of milk, unless the same shall conform to the definitions and standards herein fixed in section 29 for "ice milk" or "ice cream."

Unlawful to use borax, etc., to prevent souring. SEC. 33. It shall be unlawful for any person to produce, manufacture or prepare for sale, or to sell, or to offer for sale, or to have on hand for sale, any milk, or product of milk, to which has been added, or that may contain, any compound of boron, salicylic acid, formaldehyde, or other chemical or substance for the purpose of preventing or delaying fermentation or souring. It shall be unlawful for any person to produce, manufacture or prepare for sale, or to sell, or to offer for sale, or to have on hand for sale, any milk, cream or condensed milk to which any coloring matter has been added by any person, or to which any gelatin or other substance has been added by any person to increase the consistency of such milk, cream or condensed milk, so as to make such milk, cream or condensed milk appear richer or of better quality; provided, that this section shall not be construed to prohibit the use of harmless coloring matter and common salt (chloride of sodium) in butter and cheese.

Adding coloring, etc.

SEC. 34. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, manufacturing any frozen goods, which do not conform to the standards and provisions of this act for ice cream, to sell, or offer to sell, or represent the same as ice cream, or under the name of ice cream; and all frozen goods which do not conform to the standards and requirements of this act for "ice cream," but which do conform to the standards and requirements for "ice milk" herein, for the purpose of this act, shall be known as "ice milk," and shall be sold and designated as "ice milk," and not otherwise, and shall be billed as "ice milk," and every person, firm or corporation selling, furnishing or delivering to any person any such "ice milk" shall distinctly inform the purchaser at the time in each and every instance that the said goods are "ice milk." The absence of such declaration shall always be construed as a representation on the part of the vendor that the goods are ice cream.

Every tub, receptacle or packer in which there shall be kept, sold, or delivered, at any time, any "ice milk," as herein defined, shall have conspicuously and securely attached thereto a durable tag, giving the name and address of the manufacturer or vendor of the same, and containing the words "ice milk" in letters at least one inch high and one half inch wide, and containing no other reference to the name or character of the goods therein contained. The absence of such tag or label shall always be construed as a representation on the part of the maker or vendor that said goods are ice cream.

Every wagon, vehicle or cart, in or from which any "ice milk" shall be sold, furnished, delivered or peddled, shall have plainly and durably painted on both sides thereof, the name and address of the owner, in letters at least three inches high and one and a half inches wide, and also the words "ice milk" on each side thereof, in letters at least four inches high, and two inches wide, and there shall be no other reference to the name or character of the goods being sold or delivered. The absence of such words and letters shall always be construed as a representation on the part of the owner or vendor that said goods are ice cream.

Every person, firm or corporation, who sells, keeps for sale, delivers, or furnishes in connection with meals, or in connection with drinks, or otherwise, any ice milk, within the meaning of this act, to be used or eaten on the premises where sold, shall keep at all times posted or hung in at least two conspicuous places within the premises, and in plain view of the public, durable signs having printed or painted thereon the words "we sell ice milk," or "we serve ice milk," in letters at least four inches high and two inches wide. The absence of such signs, words and letters, as herein required shall always be construed as a representation on the part of the owner, or person selling or serving the goods, that they are ice cream. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to manufacture, sell, deliver, furnish, serve, or keep on hand any ice milk, within the meaning of this act, unless the same is done in compliance with all the requirements hereof.

cheese.

SEC. 35. Every person, firm, or corporation, who shall at any creamery, cheese factory, or private dairy, manufacture cheese in the State of California, shall at the place of manufacture, brand distinctly and durably on the bandage of each and every cheese manufactured, and upon the package or box, when shipped, the grade of cheese manufactured, as follows: "California full-cream cheese," "California half-skim cheese," and "California skim cheese."

Dairy bureau to furnish brands.

All brands for branding the different grades of cheese shall be procured from the state dairy bureau, and said bureau is hereby directed and authorized to issue to all persons, firms, or corporations, upon application therefor, uniform brands, consecutively numbered, of the different grades herein specified in section 35 of this act. The state dairy bureau shall keep a record of each and every brand issued, and the name and location of the manufacturer receiving the same. No manufacturer of cheese in the State of California, other than the one to whom such brand is issued, shall use the same, and in case of a change of location, the party shall notify the bureau of such change. The different grades of cheese are hereby defined as follows: Such cheese only as shall have been manufactured from pure milk, and from which no portion of the butter fat has been removed by skimming or other process, and having not less than fifty per cent of butter fat in the water-free substance, shall be branded as "California full-cream cheese"; and such cheese only as shall be made from pure milk, and having not less than twenty-five per cent of butter fat in the water-free substance, shall be branded "California half-skim cheese"; and such cheese only as shall be made from pure skim-milk shall be branded "California skim cheese"; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to "Edam," "Brickstein," "Pineapple," "Lamburger," "Swiss," or hand-made cheese, not made by the ordinary Cheddar process. No person, firm or corporation shall sell, or offer for sale, any cheese, manufactured in the State of California, not branded by an official brand and of the grade herein defined in section 35 of this act.

"Persons"
defined.

Act of agent deemed act of corporation.

SEC. 36. The word "persons," as used in this act, shall be construed to import both the singular and plural, as the case demands, and shall include individuals, corporations, companies, societies and associations. When construing and enforcing the provisions of this act, the act, omission or failure of any employee, officer, agent or other person, acting for or employed by any individual, corporation, company, society or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case also be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of such individual, corporation, company, society or association, as well as that of the person. The provisions of this act shall be construed to apply to hotel keepers, restaurant keepers and boarding-house keepers or any person who shall serve meals and accept money therefor.

SEC. 37. Every agent and inspector of the state dairy bureau, and every inspector of any city, county or state board of health is hereby authorized to enter upon and inspect any dairy, dairy premises, creamery, cheese factory, ice cream factory, or other place where dairy products of any kind are being produced, sold, delivered or used, or where they suspect that oleomargarine, or other substances designed to be used as a substitute for butter, or renovated butter, or imitation butter, or imitation cheese are being manufactured, sold, kept, delivered, transported or stored in violation of any of the provisions of this act. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to prevent or interfere with the duly authorized inspectors or agents of the state dairy bureau, or any city, county or state board of health, or the inspectors thereof, from entering or inspecting any place or premises where milk or products of milk or where oleomargarine, or imitation butter or cheese, or renovated butter, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, are produced, manufactured, prepared, sold, kept for sale, furnished or served, or to prevent or interfere with such inspectors or agents in the event they deem it advisable to secure samples of milk or milk products, or oleomargarine, or imitation butter or cheese, or renovated butter, or any substance designed to be used as a substitute for butter, at or from any such place or person, for the purpose of ascertaining whether this act is being violated, or to interfere with or prevent any such inspector or agent from examining any record or books required by the provisions of this act to be open to the inspection of the state dairy bureau, or its agents.

SEC. 38. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to fail, neglect or refuse to do any of the things required to be done by the provisions of this act; and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to do any of the things prohibited by the provisions of this act; and in every case the failure, neglect or refusal to do anything required by this act, and the doing of anything prohibited by this act, is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as herein provided.

SEC. 39. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of sections 9 to 24 both inclusive of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished for the first offense, by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred and fifty dollars; or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding thirty days; and for each subsequent offense, by a fine of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 40. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of sections 25 to 35, both inclusive, or of section 37 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars; or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days and not exceeding sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Other sections.

SEC. 41. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of this act other than sections 9 to 35, both inclusive, and section 37 (the punishment for which is provided in sections 39 and 40 hereof) shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than one hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Disposition of fines.

SEC. 42. One half of all the fines imposed for the violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be paid to the county in which the fine is imposed. The other one half shall be paid to the state treasurer and shall become part of and is hereby appropriated to the "state school fund."

Dairy
enforce act.

SEC. 43. It shall be the duty of the state dairy bureau, now existing under the laws of this state, to enforce the provisions of this act; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any city or county board of health or other city or county official from enforcing the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that no conviction shall be had where a conviction is sought upon any alleged sample of milk, or product of milk, unless such sample has been taken in duplicate, sealed and marked for identification and one of such samples left with the person accused. The state dairy bureau is authorized under this act to gather and compile statistics relative to the dairy industry, and to disseminate the same and other information useful to, and to the general good and development of the dairy industry of the state, and to do such other things as will tend to promote the dairy industry of the state.

contagious diseases among cattle.

Whenever any agent or inspector of the state dairy bureau shall discover the existence of any contagious or infectious disease among dairy cattle, or have reason to believe that such disease may exist, the same shall be immediately reported to the state veterinarian. The state dairy bureau shall have power to employ an agent or secretary at a salary of twenty-four hundred dollars a year, and such inspectors, assistants and chemists as from time to time it may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this act, and to fix the compensation of such inspectors at not to exceed five dollars per day, exclusive of their necessary and actual expenses, such expenses to be itemized and rendered under oath, or one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month exclusive of their necessary and actual expenses. Such agents shall have had experience in the manufacture of dairy products and the handling of dairy cattle. The state dairy bureau, through its agent and secretary, and assistant agents, shall inspect the dairies, dairy cattle, creameries and other factories of dairy products, markets and other places where dairy products are prepared or handled, and keep a careful record of such inspection and report the same to the state dairy bureau and upon evidence obtained that any of the provisions of this act are being violated, the state dairy bureau, through its agent and secretary, or its inspectors, shall duly enter complaint against the party or parties, responsible for such violations and cause the same to be prosecuted, except in cases where any dairy, creamery or other factory of milk products, or store or depot where milk and its products are handled and sold, is found to be in an unsanitary condition, in which case the agent and secretary, or the inspector, for the district in which the violation occurred, shall serve upon the owner, or owners, or person in charge of the dairy, creamery or other factory of milk products so found to be in an unsanitary condition, a written notice specifying in detail the changes required to be made to place such dairy, creamery, or other factory of milk products or store or depot in a sanitary condition as defined in this act. Should such changes not have been made at the expiration of thirty days after the date when the notice was served, the state dairy bureau, through its agent and secretary, or its inspectors, shall enter complaint against the person or persons responsible for such unsanitary conditions and cause them to be prosecuted for violating this act.

Officers of

Inspection.

SEC. 44. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of each and every county of this state, upon application of the state dairy bureau, or its agent and secretary, or any of its inspectors or assistant agents, to attend to the prosecution, in the name of the people, of any action brought for the violation of any of the provisions of this act within his county.

Duty of district attorney to bring actions.

SEC. 45. The provisions of section 15 of the act approved March 4, 1897, entitled "An act to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of butter and cheese, to secure its enforcement, and to appropriate money therefor," are hereby expressly continued in force; and the present state dairy bureau shall continue in existence in all respects as now constituted under existing laws; and the members thereof shall continue to be chosen and appointed in all respects as now provided under existing laws; the intention being that the existing laws, under which said bureau is constituted and now exists and by which its powers are conferred and its duties are prescribed, shall in no way be impaired or affected by this act.

SEC. 46. Section 17 of an act entitled "An act to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of butter and cheese, to secure its enforcement, and to appropriate money therefor," approved March 4, 1897, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 490.

An act to amend sections 2, 3, 4 and 6 of an act entitled "An act to define personal property brokers and regulate their charge and business," approved April 16, 1909.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of an act entitled "An act to define personal property brokers and regulate their charge and business" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Broker
may charge 2 per cent per month.

SECTION 2. Such personal property broker may charge, receive and collect a benefit or percentage upon money or other thing advanced, or for the use and forbearance thereof, of two per centum per month where such loan or advance is made upon security properly falling within the scope of business as set forth in section one hereof.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

No further charges may be made.

SECTION 3. No further or other charges either for recording, insuring or examining the security or property, or for the drawing, executing or filing of papers, or for any services or upon any pretext whatsoever beyond the aforesaid charge for interest or discount shall be asked, charged, or in any way received, where the same would thereby make a greater charge for the money or thing advanced than the aforesaid rate of two per centum per month, and where made, all such charges shall be considered and be of the same effect as so much added interest: provided, however, that with the consent of the borrower he may be required to pay the fees or charges actually expended where the same are made necessary by law to give full legal effect to any instrument given hereunder.

SEC. 3. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contract bearing greater rate not valid.

SECTION 4. No contract of any kind or nature made by any personal property broker which comes within the scope of business as set forth in section one hereof, or which in any way involves any security given to secure the performance of such contract, shall be valid or of any force, virtue or effect, either at law or in equity, if there is therein or thereon directly or indirectly charged, accepted or contracted to be received or paid, either in money, goods, discount, or thing in action, or in any other way, a greater benefit, rate of discount, or interest than the rate of two per centum per month; and if a greater benefit, rate of discount or interest than two per centum per month is directly or indirectly advanced or paid upon any such contract as is in this section designated, the excess above the said rate of two per centum per month so advanced or paid may be demanded and recovered by the person or his legal representatives or assigns who advanced or paid the same from the person or corporation either to whom or for whose use or benefit such payment or advance or any part thereof was made.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The failure of any person or corporation, or any employee, employecs, agent, agents, representative or representatives making, renewing or extending a loan or advance properly falling within the scope of business as set forth in section one of this act to comply with any or any part of the provisions of section five hereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and for the first offense punished in the manner now provided by law and for each subsequent offense by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail of not less than ten days and not to exceed six months or by both such fine or imprisonment.

Failure to comply with act a misdemeanor.

Penalty.

CHAPTER 491.

An act to amend section 292 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California so as to provide for service by publication of a citation requiring the accused to answer in proceedings for the removal or suspension of attorneys and counselors at law.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 292 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

292. Upon receiving the accusation, the court shall make an order requiring the accused to appear and answer it at a specified time, and shall cause a copy of the order and of the accusation to be served upon the accused at least five days before the day appointed in the order. If it shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court or judge that the accused resides out of the state; or has departed from the state; or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state; or conceals himself to avoid the service of the order to show cause, the court or judge may direct the service of a citation to the accused, requiring him to appear and answer the accusation, to be made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the proceeding is pending for thirty days. Such citation must be directed to the accused, recite the date of the filing of the accusation, the name of the accuser, and the general nature of the charges against him, and require him to appear and answer the accusation at a specified time. On proof of the publication of the citation as herein required the court shall have jurisdiction to proceed to hear the accusation and render judgment with like effect as if an order to show cause and a copy of the accusation had been personally served on the accused.

CHAPTER 492.

An act to amend sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 14 and 16 of an act entitled an act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use at the option of indicated local authorities of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such elections; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act, approved March 20th, 1903, and adding a new section thereto to be known and designated as section 16a relating to voting or ballot machines.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of an act creating a state commission on voting or balloting machines, defining their powers, and providing for the use at the option of indicated local authorities of voting or ballot machines for receiving and registering the vote in one or more precincts of any county, or city and county, city or town, at any or all elections held therein, and for ascertaining the result at such elections; and providing for the punishment of all violations of the provisions of this act, approved March 20th, 1903, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Supervisors may provide for use of voting machines.

Section 2. The board of supervisors, or other board having charge and control of elections in each of the counties, and cities and counties, cities or towns of the state, may, at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting called for the purpose, provide for and require the use of a voting or ballot machine, or machines, for receiving and registering the vote at any or all elections held in such county, city and county, city or town, respectively, or in any one or more precincts thereof, and every such board of supervisors, or other board having charge and control of elections in each of the counties, and cities and counties, cities or towns of the state, may determine upon and require the use of voting or ballot machines at any and all elections to be held within such county, city and county, city or town of the state, or in any one or more precincts thereof, and thereupon the voting or ballot machine or machines so determined upon and required shall be used in voting for all public officers, or candidates for nomination to public office, to be voted for by the voters of such counties, cities and counties, cities or towns of the state, or in the precinct or precincts thereof for which the same shall have been so determined upon and required, and also in voting upon all amendments to the constitution. and upon all laws or propositions or questions which may be lawfully submitted to such voters, and for receiving and registering the votes cast at any and every such election. Any such board so authorized to provide for and require the use of a voting or ballot machine as hereinbefore specified, may, if the machine has been approved as in this act required, at its option resolve to provide and use only such a voting or ballot machine so constructed and arranged that the voting or ballot machine will not permit of voting a straight party ticket, or for any candidate, by any other method than by turning or pushing the keys separately of each voting space, for each separate candidate voted for. Party nominations may be designated by usual or reasonable abbreviation of party names.

SEC. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. No voting or ballot machines shall be approved by the said board unless the same be so constructed as to provide facilities for voting for the candidates of as many different parties or organizations as may make nominations for office, and for and against as many different propositions or amendments as may be submitted, nor shall any such machine be approved unless the same will permit a voter to vote for any person for any office; it must enable the voter to vote and select a ticket all from the nominees of one party or a ticket selected in part from the nominees of one party, and in part from the nominees of any or all other parties, and in part from independent nominations, or in part or in whole of the names of persons not nominated by any party or upon any independent ticket: such machines must also secure to the voter privacy and secrecy in the act of voting; such machines must also be so constructed that a voter can not vote for a candidate or a proposition or amendment for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote, also to prevent voting for more than one person for the same office, except in cases where the voter is lawfully entitled to vote for more than one person for the same office, in which event they must enable the voter to vote for as many persons for that office as he is by law entitled to vote, and no more; they must also prevent his voting more than once for the same person for the same office; and allow of his reversing his vote in case of mistake or desire to change; and such machines must be so constructed that all votes cast for any person voted for, or for or against any proposition or amendment submitted to the voters, shall be accurately registered or recorded, and any machine to be approved by said board must be of such kind, style or pattern as will permit the exercise by each voter of the full right and privilege of his elective franchise under the constitution and laws of this state. All voting machines approved by the state commission shall have a separate voting device for each candidate appearing on the ballot. Such machines may also have thereon a straight ticket device for each of the parties for voting a straight ticket vote for candidates of such party; but if so equipped with separate straight ticket voting devices, such separate straight ticket voting devices must be locked out of operation. Machines which have been approved with such straight ticket mechanism thereon may be used in elections with such mechanism rendered inoperative, and machines with such straight ticket mechanism entirely removed therefrom, or machines which omit a party designation of candidates by column or line which have been approved, may be used in such elections, and the omission, removal, or locking out of operation of such straight voting mechanism from the machine that has otherwise been approved by the commission, need not require a further examination and approval of a machine of that type. The ballot at any election, whether general, primary, municipal, or otherwise, shall be arranged upon the voting machine as to the order of offices, order of candidates' names, blank spaces, and in all other respects, for such election, as required by the law prescribing the form and order of the ballot for such election.

ment of ballot.

SEC. 3. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Supervisors to furnish machines,
etc.

Section 5. The board of supervisors or other board having charge and control of elections adopting a voting or ballot machine shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, provide for such polling place or places, as they may determine, one or more voting machines in complete working order and also such other accessories as may be required for the practical working of the machine, and shall thereafter preserve and keep the machines in repair, and shall have custody of the furniture and equipment. If it shall be impracticable to supply each and every election precinct with voting or ballot machine or machines at any election following such adoption, as many may be supplied as it is practicable to procure, and the same may be used in such election precincts within the county, or city and county, city or town, as the board having control may direct. Where the board having charge and control of elections, is not the board having control of appropriations of money generally for the territory, but receives its appropriation from the board of supervisors, or board having control of appropriations of money generally for the territory; then and in such event the board of supervisors or board having control of appropriations of money generally, for the territory represented by such board so having charge and control of elections, shall have exclusive power to purchase or otherwise provide voting or ballot machines for use in such territory. The board of supervisors or board having control of the finances of any county, city and county, or political subdivision, shall have power to sell, lease, alter, exchange, or otherwise at its discretion dispose of any voting machine or voting machine appliances owned by such county, or city and county.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, shall not later than twenty-four hours next preceding the election, cause to be delivered to one of the inspectors of election, duly appointed, at his residence, all necessary supplies, stationery, blank forms, poll and tally lists, and instructions to voters, necessary and proper to the conduct of the election and to the counting and canvassing of the votes, and the return thereof, which forms, blanks, lists, and other stationery shall have been previously prepared by the said county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, in such manner as to be adapted to the conducting and returning of such election by such voting or ballot machines as are used at the election. The supplies previously mentioned to be delivered to such inspector, shall, in addition to all other necessary forms, lists, or blanks, include one card stating the penalty for tampering with or injuring a voting machine; two seals for sealing voting machines; one envelope in which the keys to the voting machine are sealed, said envelope to have printed or written thereon the number and location of the election precinct in which the machine is to be used, the number of the machine, the number shown on the protective counter thereof, after the machine has been prepared for the election, and any designation that may be on such seal as the machine is sealed with. Said envelope to have attached to it a detachable receipt for the delivery of the keys of the voting machine to the inspector of the election at his residence; one envelope in which the keys to the voting machine can be returned by the inspectors after the election; one card stating the name and telephone address of the superintendent for the day of election; two diagrams of the voting face of the machine as appears after the ballot label showing the titles of the offices and the names of the candidates, and statement of propositions, together with the voting indicators for each, shall have been inserted in the voting machine, and also suitable printed instructions for the guidance of the board of election.

Election supplies to be furnished not later than twenty-four hours preceding election.

SEC. 5. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. At least sixty days before any election, other than a special election, at which voting machines are to be used in any political subdivision, the county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, shall designate one or more deputies, to be provided by the board having charge and control of elections, who are competent for the purpose, as voting machine instructors, and shall cause one or more voting machines of the type to be used at the election, to be set up in his office, for the purpose of having such voting machine instructors give instructions to persons applying to serve as election officers at the ensuing election, and shall also publish notice in one or more daily or weekly newspapers, in such political subdivision, if any is there published, stating that instruction will be given at such office (stating the location thereof) as to the use of voting machines, to all persons otherwise qualified, who shall apply to serve as election officers at the ensuing election, and requesting qualified persons to attend at such office and apply to serve, and take such instructions. Such notice may also be sent by mail to all such persons as the said county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, may deem likely to take the same. Such voting machine instructors shall give such instructions to those who apply (subject to the control of the clerk or registrar of voters, that too great a number from a given precinct need not be instructed) and shall report the result to such clerk or registrar of voters, and such clerk or registrar of voters, if satisfied with the report, may issue a certificate of competency to such person, and shall enter the name of such person in the proper book, by precincts, with the residence of such person and the date of certificate of competency, and mail such certificate to such person at the address shown by his application or registration. In making up a recommendation of names of persons suitable for election officers, the clerk or registrar of voters shall, where the person is otherwise qualified and able to serve, prefer the persons in each precinct, who have received such a certificate, and the persons thus shown in such recommendation shall be appointed as election officers in the proper precincts, and unless they fail to appear and be sworn or are excused for cause, by the clerk or registrar of voters, shall serve as an election officer at the election.

Certificate of competency.

Certificate holders preferred.

SEC. 6. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Duties of precinct board.

Section 8. The precinct board of election of each precinct shall meet at the polling place therein, at least one hour before the time set for the opening of the polls at each election, and shall proceed to arrange within the guard rail the furniture, stationery, and voting or ballot machine for the conduct of the election. The inspectors of election shall then and there have the voting or ballot machine, instructions to voters, and stationery required to be delivered to them for such election. The inspector shall thereupon cause at least two instruction cards to be posted conspicuously within the polling place. They shall see that the model, if such model is furnished, is placed where each voter can conveniently operate it and receive instructions thereon as to the manner of voting before entering the machine. They shall post one diagram inside the polling room and one outside, in places where the voters can conveniently examine them. They shall see that the lantern or other means provided for giving light is in such a condition that the voting machine is sufficiently lighted to enable voters to readily read the names on the ballot labels. They shall see that the ballot labels are in their proper places on the machine. They shall open the counting compartment of the voting machine in the presence of the public and the members of the board of election, before the opening of the polls, and inspect the recording dials of such machine, and see that each counter number on each dial for a candidate is set at zero (000), and make a certificate substantially in the form hereinafter provided. If any counter number upon such dial for any candidate is found not to register zero (000), a statement of the actual register of such counter number, together with the designating number of said dial and letter, shall be made and signed by the election board as to every such dial number so found registered above zero (000). In such event, in each separate case, the number so found above zero (000) upon the dial of any particular candidate must be deducted from the total vote of such candidate as shown upon that counter number at the close of the polls. The tally sheet shall have plainly printed thereon, so as to occupy an entire page thereof, a statement and certificate substantially in the following form:

NOTICE TO ELECTION OFFICERS.

The board of election shall, before opening the polls, open the counting compartment of the voting machine in the presence of the public and the members of the board of election, and inspect the recording dials of such machine, and see that each counter number on each dial for a candidate is set at zero (000), and make a certificate substantially in the form below provided. If any counter number upon such dial for any candidate is found not to register zero (000), a statement of the actual register of such counter number, together with the designating number of such dial and letter, shall be made and signed by the election board as to every such dial number so found registered above zero (000). In such event, in each separate case, the number so found above zero (000) upon the dial of any particular candidate must be deducted from the total vote of such candidate, as shown upon that counter number at the close of the polls.

SEC. 7. Section 10 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Instructing voter in operation of machine.

Voting secret.

Time voter may remain within machine booth.

Section 10. After the opening of the polls, the inspectors shall not allow any voter to pass within the guard rail until they ascertain that he is duly entitled to vote. Before each voter enters the voting machine, the inspectors of election shall, so far as possible, inform him how to operate the machine, and illustrate same upon the model of the machine, if any be furnished, and call his attention to the diagram. If any voter shall, after entering the voting machine, ask for information regarding its operation, the inspectors of election shall give him such necessary information. The operation of voting by an elector, while voting, shall be secret and obscured from all other persons except as provided in cases of voting by assisted electors. At any election at which the number of officers to be elected plus the number of propositions or amendments to be voted on shall together make a total of fifteen or less, no voter shall remain within the voting or ballot machine booth longer than two minutes, and if he shall refuse to leave it after the lapse of two minutes, he may be removed by the inspectors. At any election at which the number of officers to be elected plus the number of propositions or amendments to be voted on shall together make a total of more than fifteen, no voter shall remain within the voting or ballot machine booth longer than three minutes, and if he shall refuse to leave it after the lapse of three minutes he may be removed by the inspectors. The inspectors of election shall occasionally examine the face of the machine and the ballot labels to determine if same have been injured or tampered with. No vote cast in the irregular or blank column shall be counted for a person whose name is printed upon the ballot or face of the machine as a candidate for the same office for which he is voted in the irregular or blank column. All voters in the polling place or standing in line entitled to vote, at the hour for closing the polls, must be permitted to vote.

Sec. 8. Section 11 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 11. As soon as the polls of the election are closed the inspectors of election thereat shall immediately lock the voting or ballot machine against voting, and in the presence and full view of the public who may be lawfully within the polling place, proceed to demonstrate and declare the result of such election as registered or recorded or received by the machine, (subject to any legal deductions made under the provisions of section eight of this act) in the following manner: One of the inspectors shall, under the scrutiny of the other inspector, of a different political party, in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machine, commencing with the first party or top column, or commencement of the ticket as arranged, announce in distinct tones to the clerks of election, the designating number and letter of each counter, and the vote registered thereon, and the clerks of election shall correctly record each announcement so made upon separate respective tally sheets, provided for that purpose, before another announcement is made by the inspector. The said inspector shall then in like manner announce the vote recorded for each office on the irregular ballot, and the election clerks shall in like manner record the same. The inspector shall then also in like manner announce the vote on each question or proposition submitted at the election, and the clerk shall in like manner record the same. The canvass of each office shall be completed before proceeding to the next, and the vote as announced shall be written by the clerks in ink on the two tally lists provided therefor in the same order. After completing and writing down the canvass, in the manner aforesaid, the inspectors of election shall verify the same by comparing the figures on the tally lists with the figures on the counters in the machine, and the names recorded on or in the device for voting for persons not nominated, and also with the result registered on the machine as to the vote upon questions or propositions, and in making such comparison and verification, one of the inspectors shall again distinctly announce and recall aloud the vote registered upon each counter. The board of election shall then certify in the appropriate place on the tally list, as to the number of voters that voted at the election, as shown by the poll lists, and by the number registered on the public counter, and the number registered on the protective counter, and the number or other designating mark on the seal with which the machine has been sealed, together with other information regarding the machine as provided on the tally list. The counter compartment of the voting machine shall remain open until the tally list and all other reports have been fully completed and signed, after which they shall lock the counter compartment and deliver the keys thereof in a sealed envelope to the county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be.

SEC. 9. Section 14 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Proportion of machines to number of voters.

Section 14. For any election in any county, city and county, city or town, in which voting or ballot machines are to be used, the election precincts in which such machines are to be used shall be created by the officers charged with the duty of creating election precincts, in such manner as to comply with the following requirements: That in case the number of officers to be elected plus the number of propositions or amendments to be voted on shall together make a total of fifteen or less, one voting machine shall be provided for every four hundred registered voters or fraction thereof; and in case the number of officers to be elected plus the number of propositions or amendments to be voted on shall together make a total of more than fifteen, one voting machine shall be provided for every two hundred and fifty registered voters or fraction thereof. At any election in any precinct where these requirements are not complied with, voting machines shall not be used.

SEC. 10. Section 16 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Election
officers.

Section 16. The provisions of section 1142 of the Political Code shall apply where voting or ballot machines are used pursuant to this act; provided, however, that at any precinct or polling place where two voting machines are used, two additional clerks of election shall be appointed for service at such polling place, for the election. In any city, or city and county, or county, where voting machines are to be used at any election, or where voting machines are owned, the board having charge and control of elections may, by a majority of such board adopt a resolution to be entered in its minutes, provide for a superintendent as herein provided, and may thereupon select and appoint a superintendent for the care, repair, adjustment, arrangement, testing, and preparation of voting or ballot machines. Such person must be a skilled machinist familiar with the arrangement, adjustment, and mechanism of voting machines, and shall, before his appointment, be examined by the board having control of elections as to his competency in these respects. His appointment must also, where made for a territory wholly included within any city, or city and county, be approved by the mayor of any such city, or city and county, who shall also have the right to examine such person as to his competency. Said superintendent shall be considered a public officer, and shall hold office under such appointment until removed by the board having charge and control of elections, for cause, and by an order in writing entered in its minutes, after giving such superintendent an opportunity to be heard, which order of removal shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to review. In any city, county, or city and county, which at the last general election therein had a registration of voters exceeding seventy thousand, the said board having control of elections may fix the compensation of such superintendent at a sum not to exceed the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per year, payable monthly, and may, by the resolution of appointment, provided such appointment is made by the year, provide that the services of such superintendent shall be given exclusively to said board while he remains in its employ, or under such appointment. Unless such appointment is made by the year and in the manner last mentioned in such a city, county, or city and county, and in any event in all other cases, and places, such superintendent so appointed pursuant to this act shall receive a compensation at the rate of ten dollars per day for every day he shall be actually employed; provided, however, that in any such place where his compensation is fixed by the day under this act, the board having control of elections may fix his compensation at a lesser sum when he is employed merely as caretaker of such voting machines. Such superintendent must file his acceptance of the appointment with the board having charge and control of elections within five days after notice of his appointment, and before entering upon his duties shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of this state for public officers, which oath may be taken by and filed with the county clerk, or registrar of voters, and file a bond in a sum to be fixed by the board having charge and control of elections, and not less than ten thousand (10,000) dollars, in a city and county, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, with surety and to be approved and recorded as may be required for other officers of such city, county, or city and county; and it shall be his duty to care for, keep in repair, arrange, adjust, test, and prepare all voting machines for complete and correct operation at any election in the political subdivision for which he is appointed. All such voting or ballot machines shall be by him or under his direction, arranged, adjusted, and prepared for correct operation at any election in accordance with the provisions of the law of this state, and in accordance with the mechanism and rules for the adjustment and correct operation of such voting machines. The county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, shall deliver to such superintendent for his guidance, a copy of any written or printed instructions which may be furnished by the person or corporation which manufacture the voting machines in use in such political subdivisions. The board having charge and control of elections may also select and employ any additional persons, as assistants, to such superintendent, in the performance of his duties, and may fix and allow the compensation to be paid to said assistants. The said superintendent of voting machines shall, not later than the day previous to the day of election, file with the clerk, or registrar of voters, his affidavit specifying the voting machines by number, that have been adjusted for use at such election, and stating that every one of such machines have been so

elections.

Section 16a. Within not more than thirty-five, nor less than twenty-five days, before the holding of any election in any county, city and county, city or town, at which is to be used voting or ballot machines, under the provisions of this act, the county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, shall fix a day, which shall not be more than twenty days, nor less than five days, before the date of such election, upon which the voting or ballot machines to be used at such election shall be examined, tested and sealed as hereinafter provided. At least twenty days before an election in any political subdivision where voting machines are to be used in one or more precincts of such subdivision, under and pursuant to the law of this state, it shall be the duty of the county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, to notify in writing, by mail, with postage prepaid, the chairman or secretary of the executive or central committee of any political party or organization for the territory, the membership of which may have made nominations of candidates to be voted for at such election, or of any political party whose party name is lawfully used as a designation by a candidate, that it may appoint representative of such political party who shall be authorized to attend and observe the final adjustment, testing and sealing of such ballot machines, and thereupon it shall be the right of such committee to appoint as many representatives, not to exceed three for each political party or organization, as it may see fit to select for such purpose, and to issue certificates of such appointment to such representatives, by the secretaries of such committees or organizations, respectively. Such notice shall also name and specify the date and place where such examination, testing and sealing of such machines will commence, and that the same will continue, if necessary, at said place from day to day until completed. The committee or organization empowered to appoint such representatives, shall immediately, upon making such appointment, notify the said representative or representatives so appointed, respectively, of such appointment and of the time and place where such examination, testing and sealing of such voting or ballot machines will commence, and shall also forthwith, send to the said county clerk, registrar of voters, or city or town clerk, as the case may be, the name and full address of each such representative appointed. Thereafter, at the time specified in such notice, and until the completion thereof, the said representative or representatives shall be entitled to attend and observe the final adjustment, testing and sealing of such voting machines, under the directions of the board of election commissioners, or of the superintendent provided for by this act, and such adjustment, testing and sealing shall proceed in the presence of as many of said representatives as shall assemble to observe and view the same, and a full and complete opportunity shall then and there be given by such superintendent and his assistants, to such representatives to observe the processes by which such adjustment, testing and sealing is performed, and to see that the said voting machines are so adjusted that each counter is set at zero (000), and without any vote registered thereon for the advantage of any party or candidate or otherwise. When the said machines are so sealed they shall not be unsealed again except by the precinct election boards on the day of election, to the extent necessary for the proper and lawful conduct of the election. Any candidate may attend in person or appoint in writing signed by such person, a representative to attend, with all the rights and privileges provided by this section.

SEC. 12. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 13. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 494.

An act to amend that certain act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, by amending sections 16, 61 and 68 thereof and by adding a new section to be numbered section 68½.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16 of that certain act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 16. When any deposit with a bank shall be made by or in the name of any married woman or minor, the same shall be held for the exclusive right and benefit of such depositor, and free from the control or lien of all other persons, except creditors, and shall be paid, together with the dividends, if any, and interest, if any, thereon to the person in whose name deposits shall have been made, and the receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge for such deposit, or any part thereof, to the bank. When any deposit with a bank shall be made by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given in writing to such bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest, if any, thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the deposit was made. When a deposit with a bank shall be made by any person in the names of such depositor and another person or persons, and in form to be paid to either or the survivor or survivors of them, such deposit thereupon, and any additions thereto made by either of such persons upon the making thereof, shall become the property of such persons as joint tenants, and the same, together with all interest thereon, shall be held for the exclusive use of the persons so named, and may be paid to either during the lifetime of all or any or to the survivor or survivors after the death of one or more of them, and such payments and the receipt or acquittance of the one to whom such payment is made shall be valid and sufficient release and discharge to said bank for all payments made on account of such deposit. The surviving husband or wife of any deceased person, or, if no husband or wife is living, then the children of said decedent, or, if no children are living, then the father or mother of such decedent, and if neither the father nor mother is living, then the brothers and sisters of such decedent, may, without procuring letters of administration, collect of any bank any sum which said deceased may have left on deposit in such bank at the time of his or her death; provided, such deposit shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars. Any bank, upon receiving an affidavit stating that said depositor is dead, and that affiant is the surviving husband or wife, as the case may be, or stating that decedent left no husband or wife, and that affiant is, or affiants are, the children, or stating that decedent left neither husband, wife nor children, and that affiant is the father or mother, as the case may be, of said decedent, or stating that the decedent left neither husband, wife, children, father nor mother, and that affiants are the brothers and sisters, as the case may be, and that the whole amount that decedent left on deposit in any and all banks of deposit in this state, does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, may pay to said affiant or affiants, any deposit of said decedent, if the same does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars and the receipt of such affiant is sufficient acquittance therefor.

SEC. 2. Section 61 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 61. Savings banks may purchase, hold and convey real and personal property as follows:

1. The lot and building in which the business of the bank is carried on; such lot and building shall not cost the savings bank an amount exceeding its capital and surplus; and the authority of a two-thirds vote of a full board of directors shall be necessary to authorize the purchase or construction thereof.

2. Such as may have been mortgaged, pledged or conveyed to it in trust for its benefit in good faith, for money loaned in pursuance of the regular business of the corporation.

3. Such as may have been purchased at sales under pledges, mortgages or deeds of trust made for its benefit for money so loaned and such as may be conveyed to it by borrowers in satisfaction and discharge of loans made thereon.

No savings bank shall purchase, hold, or convey real estate in any other case or for any other purpose; and all real estate described in subdivision three of this section must be sold by the bank within ten years after the title thereto is vested in it by purchase or otherwise, unless permission to hold said real estate for a longer period be given by the superintendent of banks in writing. Parcels of real estate not sold within ten years, or extension of said period as above provided, may be purchased by any persons or parties wanting them, at the price to be determined by arbitration of three persons appointed by the superior court as appraisers, at the request of the would-be purchasers. No savings bank shall purchase, own, or sell personal property, except such as may be requisite for its immediate accommodation for the convenient transaction of its business, and mortgages on real estate, bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, gold and silver bullion and United States mint certificates of ascertained value, and evidences of debt issued by the United States. No savings bank shall purchase, hold or convey bonds, securities or evidences of indebtedness, public or private, except as follows:

Other real property to be sold within ten years.

What savings banks may purchase.

(a) Bonds or interest-bearing notes or obligations of the United States, or those for which the faith of the United States is pledged for the payment of interest and principal.

(b) Bonds of this state.

(c) Bonds of any state in the United States that have not, within five years previous to making such investment by such bank, defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest thereof.

(d) Bonds of any city, county, city and county, town, township, or school district of this state; bonds of the permanent road division in any county issued in pursuance of the provisions of part III, title VI, article IX of the Political Code; bonds issued by irrigation districts which are permitted to be invested in as provided for in an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled "An act relating to the bonds of irrigation districts, providing under what circumstances such bonds may become legal investments for the funds of banks, banking associations, trust companies, insurance companies, and for the state school funds, and providing that such bonds may be deposited as security, and providing for a commission for approving such bonds, for a report thereon, for the filing of such report and for the registration of such bonds in the office of the state controller." approved March 9, 1911; bonds of any sewer district, drainage district, protection district, or sanitary district, in any county in this state; provided, that the total amount of bonds of any sewer district, drainage district, protection district, or sanitary district so issued shall not exceed fifteen per cent of the taxable property of said district as shown by the last equalized assessment book of the county.

(e) Bonds of any city, town or county which has in each case, at the time of the investment, more than twenty thousand inhabitants, as ascertained by the United States, or state census made next preceding such investment, in any of the states of the United States, other than in the State of California, issued pursuant to the authority of any law of such states; provided, the entire bonded indebtedness of such city or county or town shall not exceed fifteen per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property therein, including the issue of bonds in which said investment is made as shown by the last assessment preceding the investment; and provided, further, that such city, town or county or state in which it is situated has not defaulted in payment of any part of either principal or interest thereon within five years previous to making such investment.

(f) First mortgage or underlying bonds of any steam railway, the income of which is sufficient to pay all operating expenses and fixed charges, and which is completed and operated, wholly or in part, in any of the states of the United States.

(g) Bonds of street railroads, water, light, light and power, gas, and other public utility and industrial corporations.

All bonds authorized for investment by this section shall be secured by a mortgage or trust deed, which is, at the time of making such investment, (1) a first or underlying mortgage or trust deed of the corporation issuing said bonds, or (2) a refunding mortgage or trust deed used to retire all prior lien mortgage debts of said corporation outstanding at the time of making said investment; provided, that the income of such corporation is sufficient to pay all operating expenses and fixed charges, including interest on all of its mortgage indebtedness and that the income of such corporation or of the corporation or corporations out of which it shall have been formed through consolidation shall have been sufficient to pay its operating expenses and fixed charges including interest on all mortgage indebtedness for a period of three years next preceding the purchase of such refunding bonds, or that payments of its said bonds have been guaranteed by a corporation that has paid all its operating expenses and fixed charges for a period of three years prior to guaranteeing the payment of such bonds.

(h) First mortgage bonds or deeds of trust issued by real estate corporations; provided, that said bond issue shall not exceed sixty per centum of the market value of the real estate taken as security.

No savings bank shall purchase the bonds of any corporation or make a loan on the bonds of any corporation, if the main or principal franchise of such corporation expires prior to the maturity of its bonds, or if the main or principal franchise or special privilege granted to such corporation by any city, county, or city and county, expires before the maturity of such bond issue.

(i) Collateral trust bonds when secured by a deposit of an equal amount of bonds which are authorized for investment by this section and a sufficient amount of other security so that the bonds shall represent not more than ninety per cent

(90%) of the market value of the total security pledged therefor.

SEC. 3. Section 68 of this act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 68. Every savings bank or savings bank department of a bank, shall at all times maintain a lawful money reserve equivalent to four per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits; one half of such reserve shall be kept on hand in lawful money of the United States, and one half may consist of bonds of the United States or of lawful money of the United States on hand or on deposit subject to call with any reserve bank provided for in section twenty of this act; provided, however, that no savings bank or department shall be required to maintain in its own keeping a reserve in lawful money of the United States in excess of four hundred thousand dollars, and when the reserve in its own keeping reaches that amount the balance of cash necessary to make up the four per centum, may be kept on deposit subject to call with any reserve bank provided for in section 20 of this act. No new loan shall be made during any deficiency in the lawful money reserve. Deposits with the commercial banks, or commercial departments, on open account, to facilitate business transactions, as provided in this section, shall be permitted, and shall not be construed as loans. Not more than eight per centum of the deposits of any savings bank shall be deposited with any one bank. No savings bank or savings department shall receive deposits of other banks other than savings deposits and such deposits shall not be treated or considered as a part of the legal reserve of such depositing bank; and provided, that the sum so deposited shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any one bank.

Reserve of savings banks.

SEC. 4. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered 68½.

Section 68½. Where a decedent, at the time of his or her death, left moneys on deposit with a savings bank, it shall be lawful for any public administrator, who shall become the administrator of the estate, to allow such deposit to remain in said savings bank, and also, it shall be lawful for him to deposit therein to the account of said decedent, any and all moneys of said estate not required for the current expenses of administration. Such deposit, whether made by the decedent or a public administrator, shall relieve the public administrator from depositing the same with the county treasurer. Moneys so deposited, whether by the decedent or by a public administrator, may be drawn upon demand without notice, upon the order of said administrator, countersigned by a judge of a superior court, when required for the purpose of administration or otherwise.

Deposits of deceased persons may remain in savings banks.

CHAPTER 495.

An act to amend that certain act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, by amending sections 11, 20, 23, 33, 35, 39, 43, 49, 60, 62, 80, 82, 83, 96, 123, 133, 124 and 121 thereof, and by adding new sections 12a, 52, 53, and 84 thereto.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11 of an act entitled "An act to define and regulate the business of banking," approved March 1, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Meetings
of bank directors.

Oath.

Section 11. The board of directors of a bank must hold a meeting at least once a month. Each director, when appointed or elected, shall take an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such bank, and will not knowingly violate or wilfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of law applicable to such bank, and that he is the owner in good faith and in his own right of the shares of stock of the actual market value required by section 10 of this act, subscribed by him or standing in his name on the books of the bank, and that the same is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt: and, in case of reelection or reappointment, that such stock was not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt during his previous term. Such oath shall be subscribed by the director making it, and certified by the officer before whom it is taken; and shall be immediately transmitted to the superintendent of banks, and filed and preserved in his office.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act to be known as section 12a.

All banks must have capital stock paid in.

Section 12a. Every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation advertising that he or it is transacting the business of a bank, savings bank, or trust company, or making use of any office sign at the place where such business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or, in other words, indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank, or that deposits are received there or payments made on check, or that interest is paid on deposits, or that certificates of deposit, either with or without interest, are being issued, or that any other form of banking business is transacted, and every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation making use of or circulating any letter-heads, bill-heads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates or circulars, or any written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, paper, whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or advertising that such business is the business of a bank, savings bank or trust company, must have the proper capital stock paid in and set aside for the purpose of transacting such business, as provided for in this act. And every person, firm, company, copartnership or corporation doing any of the things or transacting any of the business defined in this section, must transact such business according to the provisions of the bank act. Nothing in this section contained shall prohibit building and loan associations from receiving deposits of money and executing certificates therefor in accordance with the laws governing such associations, but all such certificates other than certificates of stock must designate on the face thereof the terms under which such certificates are issued. Every person, firm, company, copartnership or officer of any corporation violating the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Section 20 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 20. Every bank, other than a savings bank, shall have at all times as lawful reserve an amount equal to fifteen per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits; two fifths of such reserve shall be in its own keeping in lawful money of the United States; one half of the remainder of such lawful reserve may consist of moneys on deposit, subject to call, with any bank or banks in this state, other than a savings bank; and the balance of such reserve may consist of moneys on deposit, subject to call, with any bank or banks in the cities of New York, Chicago or St. Louis, other than a savings bank; provided, that every bank receiving deposits as a reserve depository bank of other banks, shall maintain as a lawful reserve at least twenty per centum of the aggregate amount of its deposits; two fifths of such lawful reserve of such depository bank shall be in lawful money of the United States in its own keeping; one half of the remainder of such lawful reserve of such depository bank may consist of moneys on deposit, subject to call, with any bank or banks in this state, other than a savings bank; and the balance of such reserve may consist of moneys on deposit, subject to call, with any bank or banks in the cities of New York, Chicago and St. Louis, other than a savings bank. If the lawful money reserve of any bank shall be less than the amount required by this section, such bank shall not increase its liabilities by making any new loans or discounts, otherwise than by discounting bills of exchange on sight, or making any dividends from profits until the full amount of its lawful money reserve has been restored. The superintendent of banks may notify any bank, whose lawful money reserve shall be below the amount herein required, to make good such reserve; and, if it shall fail for thirty days thereafter to make good such reserve, such bank shall be deemed insolvent and may be proceeded against under the provisions of this act; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to conflict with the provisions of section forty-three of this act.

SEC. 4. Section 23 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Banks doing departmental business.

Section 23. When a bank desires to do a departmental business, it shall first obtain consent of the superintendent of banks, and in its application file a statement making a segregation of its capital and surplus for each department. Such capital and surplus, when so apportioned and approved by the superintendent of banks, shall be considered and treated as the separate capital and surplus of such department as if each department was a separate bank. Every bank hereafter organized doing a departmental business shall have paid up in cash a capital stock as follows:

dred thousand dollars if it transacts both a savings and trust business, and not less than five hundred thousand dollars if it transacts a commercial, savings and trust business.

The foregoing classification shall not apply to any bank already in existence which has received its certificate to do a banking business from the superintendent of banks. The capital stock referred to herein shall be increased from time to time and to the same extent as provided for in section nineteen of this act.

SEC. 5. Section 33 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 33. No officer or employee of any bank shall, directly or indirectly, for himself or as the partner or agent of others, borrow any of the deposits or other funds of such bank, nor shall he nor any director become an endorser or surety for loans to others, nor in any manner be obligor for moneys borrowed or loaned by such banks; except that a commercial bank may buy from, or discount, for a director of said bank, bills of lading and bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing value actually owned by the director negotiating the same. The office of any officer or employee who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section shall immediately become vacant, and he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Officer may not borrow bank funds.

Penalty.

SEC. 6. Section 35 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 35. No director, or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank shall, directly or indirectly, for his own account, for himself, or as the partner or agent of others, sell or transfer, or cause to be sold or transferred to the bank of which he is a director, officer, employee, or controlling stockholder, any mortgage on real estate or contract arising from the sale of real estate made by any corporation or syndicate in which such director or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder is personally or financially interested, without the consent in writing of the superintendent of banks. Any director, or officer, or employee, or controlling stockholder of any bank who knowingly violates or consents to the violation of this provision shall be deemed guilty of a felony.

Officer may not sell mortgage on real estate to bank.

Penalty.

SEC. 7. Section 39 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 39. Any officer, director, agent, teller, clerk or employee of any bank who either,

Officer may not overdraw account.

First—Knowingly overdraws his account with such bank, and thereby obtains the money, notes or funds of any such bank; or,

Second—Asks or receives or consents or agrees to receive any commission, emolument, gratuity or reward, or any money, property or thing of value, for his own personal benefit, or of personal advantage, for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person, firm or corporation any loan from, or the purchase or discount of any paper, note, draft, check or bill of exchange, by such bank, or for permitting any person, firm or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank, is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 8. Section 43 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Designating depositorie.

Section 43. No bank shall deposit any of its funds in any other bank, unless such other bank has been designated as a depository for its funds by the vote of a majority of the directors or trustees of the bank making the deposit, exclusive of the vote of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated: provided, however, that any bank may designate any other bank its depository by vote of a majority of its directors, including the vote of any director or trustee who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated, if such bank has secured the previous approval of the superintendent of banks.

SEC. 9. Section 49 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Unlawful for commercial banks to advertise as savings
banks

Section 49. It shall not be lawful for any commercial bank, individual banker, trust company, association, firm, stock company or corporation, to advertise or put forth a sign as a savings bank, either directly or indirectly, or in any way to solicit or receive deposits as a savings bank, or in any way which might lead the public to believe that such deposits are received or invested under the same conditions or in the same manner as deposits in savings banks, except in the case of savings banks or banks having a savings department, subject to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 10. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered section 52.

Certified checks.

Section 52. Whenever a check drawn on any bank is certified by any officer or employee of such bank, the amount thereof shall be immediately charged against the account of the person, firm or corporation drawing the same. It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of any bank to certify any check drawn upon such bank unless the person, firm or corporation drawing the check has on deposit with the bank at the time such check is certified, an amount of money subject to the payment of such check, equal to the amount specified in such check. Any officer or employee of any bank who shall wilfully violate the provisions of this section, or shall resort to any device, or receive any fictitious obligations, directly or indirectly, in order to evade the provisions hereof, or who shall certify checks before the amount thereof shall have been regularly entered to the credit of the drawer, shall be guilty of a felony.

SEC. 11. Section 60 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Capital stock of savings banks.

Section 60. Every savings bank hereafter organized must have paid up in cash a capital stock of not less than.

(a) Twenty-five thousand dollars, if it transacts business in any city or town the population of which does not exceed five thousand persons;

(b) Fifty thousand dollars, if it transacts business in any city the population of which is more than five thousand persons but does not exceed twenty-five thousand persons;

(c) One hundred thousand dollars, if it transacts business in any city the population of which is more than twenty-five thousand persons but does not exceed one hundred thousand persons:

(d) Two hundred thousand dollars, if it transacts business in any city the population of which is more than one hundred thousand persons but does not exceed two hundred thousand persons:

(e) Three hundred thousand dollars, if it transacts business in any city the population of which is more than two hundred thousand persons.

Excepting that any savings bank organized without capital stock must have a reserve fund of at least one million dollars. Until the capital stock or reserve fund hereinbefore required shall be actually paid in, the superintendent of banks shall refuse to issue the certificate required by this act. The foregoing classification shall not apply to any savings bank already in existence which has received its certificate to do a banking business from the superintendent of banks; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to affect the provisions of section nineteen of this act relative to the proportion of capital and surplus deposits, or of section twenty-three of this act relative to the capital stock required of banks doing a departmental business.

SEC. 12. Section 62 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 62. No savings bank shall, directly or indirectly, deal or trade in real or personal property in any other case or for any other purpose than is authorized by this act, and shall not contract any debt or liability for any purpose whatever other than for deposits, except as in this section provided. Savings banks may pay regular depositors, when requested by them, by draft upon deposits to the credit with their banks, and charge current rate of exchange for such drafts. No savings bank shall borrow money, or pledge or hypothecate any of its securities, except to meet the immediate demands of its own depositors, and then only in pursuance of a resolution adopted by a vote of a majority of its board of directors, duly entered upon their minutes, wherein shall be recorded the ayes and nays upon each vote; also with the written approval of the superintendent of banks, and he shall have the authority to fix the amount to be borrowed, and the term and rate of interest thereon: provided, however, that savings banks may, in the manner authorized by law, and without the written approval of the superintendent of banks, borrow the public moneys of the state, counties, cities and counties, and towns and receive such public moneys on deposit: provided, also, that savings banks may in the manner authorized by law, and without the written approval of the superintendent of banks, tendent, chief deputy, attorney, assistants and examiners, traveling expenses, furnishing of rooms and rent. Each bank shall pay an annual charge of twenty-five dollars and, in addition thereto, each bank shall also pay annually its share of the total amount of other expenses and salaries of the banking department, to be determined by the proportion which the capital and surplus which shall include all reserve and contingent funds of any incorporated bank, or the surplus reserve and contingent funds of any bank organized without a capital stock bear to the capital, surplus, reserve and contingent funds in the aggregate of all such banks receiving certificates of authorization from the superintendent of banks, as shown by the last report of such bank to the superintendent of banks. All moneys collected or received by the superintendent of banks, under and by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall be by him delivered to the treasurer of the state, who shall deposit the same to the credit of said banking fund, and the unexpended balances of all moneys heretofore paid into the state treasury by any of the bank commissioners, shall be retained and become a part of said fund. If any such bank shall fail to pay such charges as are herein required, the superintendent shall forthwith cancel the certificate of said bank.

SEC. 18. Section 133 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Superintendent of banks to require deficiencies in capital to be made good.

Section 133. Whenever the superintendent of banks shall have reason to believe that the capital of any bank is reduced by impairment or otherwise below the amount required by law or by its articles of incorporation, he shall require such bank to make good the deficiency within sixty days after the date of such requisition. He shall examine or cause to be examined any such bank to ascertain the amount of such impairment or reduction of capital and whether the deficiency has been made good as required by him.

SEC. 19. A new section is hereby added to said act which shall be numbered section fifty-three.

Par value of capital stock.

Section 53. The capital stock of any bank having a capital stock, shall have a par value of at least one hundred dollars and the paid up value shall be endorsed on the face of each certificate issued, which paid up value shall be the same on all certificates issued. No bank shall have preferred stock.

SEC. 21. Section 124 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Inspection of banks.

Section 124. Every bank shall be subject to the inspection of the superintendent of banks. The superintendent of banks, the chief deputy, or some competent person or persons to be appointed by the superintendent of banks, to be known as examiners, shall visit and examine every bank, other than savings bank, at least twice in each year, and every savings bank at least once in each year. On every such examination inquiries shall be made by him as to the condition and resources of the bank, the mode of conducting and managing its affairs, the action of its directors, the investment and disposition of its funds, the safety and prudence of its management, the security afforded to those by whom its engagements are held and whether the requirements of its articles of incorporation and the law have been complied with in the administration of its affairs, and as to such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. He shall have power in like manner to examine every bank whenever, in his judgment, its condition and management is such as to render an examination of its affairs necessary or expedient. He shall also have power to examine, or cause to be examined, every agency located in this state of any foreign bank or banking corporation, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it has complied with the laws of this state, and for such other purposes and as to such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. The superintendent, chief deputy, and every such examiner shall have the power to administer an oath to any person whose testimony he may require on the examination of any bank, or on the examination of any agency of any foreign bank or banking corporation, and to compel appearance and attendance of any such person for the purpose of any such examination. The result of such examination shall be certified by persons making the examination on record of the bank examined. When a bank shall have been examined by any examiner, and he finds securities therein which are, in his judgment, of doubtful value, he shall report the same to the superintendent of banks, who thereupon shall be authorized to employ appraisers at the expense of such bank to appraise said securities at a compensation to be fixed by the superintendent of banks.

SEC. 22. Section 121 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 121. The superintendent of banks shall employ a chief deputy, attorney, and such assistants and examiners as he may need to discharge in a proper manner the duties imposed upon him by law, none of which examiners or assistants or attorney shall be interested in any bank in this state as director, stockholder, officer or employee, and they shall perform such duties as he shall assign to them. He shall fix the compensation of the chief deputy, attorney, assistants and examiners, which compensation shall be paid monthly on his certificate and on the warrant of the controller out of the state treasury; provided, however, that the total expenditures provided for in this act shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars per annum. The chief deputy shall within fifteen days from the time of his appointment take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. No person shall be appointed a chief deputy who has not had at least three years' active banking experience, either as an executive officer or employee of some bank in this state. In case of the absence or inability to act, or vacancy in the office of superintendent of banks for thirty consecutive days, the chief deputy shall execute to the people of the state a bond in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, with corporate surety or two sureties to be approved by the controller and treasurer of the state, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of the superintendent while such deputy acts as superintendent, and upon filing such bond such deputy shall have all the power and duties of superintendent of banks until the inability of the superintendent shall be removed, or until a new superintendent of banks shall have been appointed by the governor. No superintendent of banks, chief deputy, or bank examiner, shall be or shall become indebted, directly or indirectly, either as borrower, endorser, surety, or guarantor, to any bank under his supervision or subject to his examination.

CHAPTER 496.

An act to provide for work upon streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts and places forming the exterior boundaries of any municipality, whether partly, or wholly, within or without said boundaries, and providing for the construction of sewers, drains and sidewalks thereon and in connection therewith.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Streets forming boundaries of cities deemed public streets.

SECTION 1. All streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, or places forming the exterior boundaries of any municipality of this state, whether partly, or wholly, within or without said boundaries, now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated to public use, shall be deemed and held to be open public streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, places or courts for the purposes of this act, and the city council of each municipality, and the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipality is located, are hereby empowered to establish and change the grades of said streets, lanes, alleys, avenues, places or courts, and fix the width thereof, and are hereby invested with jurisdiction to order to be done thereon any of the work mentioned in section two of this act, under the proceedings hereinafter described.

Council and supervisors may order such streets improved.

SEC. 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, said council and said board of supervisors are hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole, or any portion, either in length or width, of any streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, places or courts forming the exterior boundaries of any municipality, whether partly, or wholly, within or without said boundaries, graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, graveled or regravled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, oiled or reoiled, sewerred or resewerred, and to order sidewalks, manholes, culverts, bridges, cesspools, gutters, tunnels, curbing and crosswalks to be constructed therein, and to order storm water ditches, channels, breakwaters, levees or walls of rock or other material to protect the same from overflow or injury, and to order any other work to be done, which shall be necessary to complete the whole, or any portion of said streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places or sidewalks, and they may order any of said work to be improved; and also to order a sewer or sewers with outlets for drainage or sanitary purposes, in, over, or through any right of way granted or obtained for such purposes.

SEC. 3. The council of each municipality, and the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipality is located, shall have concurrent jurisdiction of all proceedings under this act, and the council, or board, passing the resolution of intention hereinafter provided for shall thereafter have exclusive jurisdiction of all work and proceedings covered by said resolution, except as herein otherwise provided.

Council and supervisors have concurrent jurisdiction.

SEC. 4. Before ordering any work done, or improvement made, which is authorized by section two of this act, the said council, or the said board of supervisors, shall pass a resolution of intention so to do and describing the work, which shall be posted conspicuously for two days on or near the chamber door of said council, or board, and published by two insertions in one or more daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspapers published and circulated in said municipality, and designated by said council, or board, for that purpose. The street superintendent of said municipality, when the resolution is passed by said council, or the county surveyor, when the resolution is passed by said board, shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart, but not less than three in all, or when the work to be done is only upon an entire crossing, or any part thereof, in front of each quarter block and irregular block liable to be assessed, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice of Street Work," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution, its date, and briefly the work or improvement proposed, and refer to the resolution for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice, similar in substance, to be published for six days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said municipality, and designated by said council, or board, or in municipalities where there is no daily newspaper, by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated. In case there is no such paper published in said municipality, said notice shall be posted for six days on or near the chamber door of said council, or board, and in two other conspicuous places in said municipality. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement, where the same is for one block or more, may make a written objection to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication and posting of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of the council, or board, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception by him. Said council, or board shall, at its next meeting, fix a time for hearing said objections not less than one week thereafter. The clerk of said council, or board, shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections, by depositing a notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of said objections in the post office of said municipality, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector, or his agent, when he appears for such objector. At the time specified said council, or board, shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. At the expiration of twenty days after the expiration of the time of said publication of said notice given by said street superintendent, or county surveyor, and at the expiration of twenty-five days after the advertising and posting, as aforesaid, of any resolution of intention, if no written objection to the work therein described has been delivered, as aforesaid, by the owners of the majority of the frontage of the property fronting on said proposed work or improvement or if any written objection has been overruled by the said council, or board, the said council, or board, shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any of the work to be done, or improvement to be made, which is authorized by this act; which order or resolution, when made, shall be published for two days, the same as provided for the publication of the resolution of intention. Before passing any resolution for the construction of said improvements, plans and specifications and careful estimates of the costs and expenses thereof shall be furnished to said council, or board, if required, by the city engineer of said municipality, or the county surveyor, and for the work of constructing sewers, specifications shall always be furnished by him. Whenever the contemplated work of improvement, in the opinion of the council, or board, is of more than local or ordinary public benefit, or whenever, according to estimate to be furnished by the city engineer, or county surveyor, the total estimated costs and expenses thereof would exceed one half of the total assessed value of the lots and lands assessed, if assessed upon the lots or land fronting upon said proposed work or improvement, according to the valuation fixed by the last assessment roll whereon it was assessed for taxes for county purposes, and allowing a reasonable depth from such frontage for lots or lands assessed in bulk, the council, or board, may make the expense of such work or improvement chargeable upon a district, which the said council, or board, shall, in its resolution of intention, declare to be the district benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof. Objections to the extent of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by said work or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, may be made by interested parties in writing, within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication of the notice of the passage of the resolution of intention. The council, or board, shall, at its next meeting, fix a time for hearing said objections not less than one week thereafter. The clerk thereof shall thereupon notify the persons making such objections by depositing a notice thereof in the post office of said municipality, postage prepaid, addressed to each objector. At the time specified the council, or board, shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive. If the objections are sustained, all proceedings shall be stopped; but proceedings may be immediately again commenced by giving the notice of intention to do the said work or make said improvements. If the objections are overruled by the council, or board, the proceedings shall continue the same as if such objections had not been made.

SEC. 5. The owners of a majority in frontage of lots and lands fronting on any street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, or of lots or lands liable to be assessed for the expense of the work petitioned to be done, or their duly authorized agents, may petition the council, or board, to order any of the work mentioned in this act to be done, and the council, or board, may order the work mentioned in said petition to be done, after notice of its intention so to do has been posted and published as provided in section four of this act.

SEC. 6. Before the awarding of any contract by the council, or board, for doing any work authorized by this act, the council, or board, shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council, or board, chamber door, inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered, and shall also cause notice of said work, inviting said proposal, and referring to the specifications posted or on file, to be published for two days in a daily, semi-weekly, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said municipality, designated by the council, or board, for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said municipality, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor of the municipality, or president of the board of supervisors, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of said council, or board, and said council, or board, shall, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council, or board. The council, or board, may reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any party who has been delinquent and unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality or county, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid. If not approved by the council, or board, without further proceedings, the council, or board, may readvertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bid so rejected. But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the clerk of said council, or board, until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter provided, has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three fourths part of the frontage, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work or improvement, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said municipality, or county, and shall be collected by it and paid into its fund for repairs of streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts and places herein mentioned, and any bond forfeited may be prosecuted, and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund. Notice of such awards of contracts shall be posted for five days, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the posting of proposals for said work, and shall be published for two days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said municipality and designated by said council, or board, or in municipalities where there is no daily newspaper, by one insertion in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper so published, circulated and designated; provided, however, that in case there is no newspaper printed or published in any such municipality, then such notice of award shall only be kept posted as hereinbefore provided. The owners of three fourths of the frontage of lots and lands upon the street whereon said work is to be done, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners or agents, shall not be required to present sealed proposals or bids, but may, within ten days after the first posting and publication of said notice of said award, elect to take said work and enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price at which the same has been awarded. Should the said owners fail to elect to take said work, and to enter into a written contract therefor within ten days, or to commence the work within fifteen days after the first posting and publication of said award, and to prosecute the same with diligence to completion. it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, to enter into a contract with the original bidder to whom the contract was awarded, and at the prices specified in his bid. But if such original bidder neglects, fails or refuses, for fifteen days after the first posting and publication of the notice of award, to enter into the contract, then the council, or board, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids, as in the first instance, and award the contract for said work to the then lowest regular bidder. The bids of all persons and the election of all owners, as aforesaid, who have failed to enter into the contract as herein provided, shall be rejected in any bidding or election subsequent to the first for the same work. If the owner, or contractor, who may have taken any contract, does not complete the same within the time limited in the contract, or within such further times as the council, or board, may give them, the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall report such delinquency to the council, or board, which may relet the unfinished portion of said work, after pursuing the formalities prescribed hereinbefore for the letting of the whole in the first instance. All contractors, contracting owners included, shall, at the time of executing any contract for street work, execute a bond to the satisfaction and approval of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, with two or more sureties and payable to such municipality, or county, in such sums as the council, or board, shall deem adequate, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract; and the sureties shall justify before any person competent to administer an oath, in double the amount mentioned in said bond, over and above all statutory exemptions. Before being entitled to a contract, the bidder to whom the award was made, or the owners who have elected to take the contract, must advance to the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, for payment by him, the cost of publication of the notices, resolutions, orders, or other incidental expenses and matters required under the proceedings prescribed in this act, and such other notices as may be deemed requisite by the council, or board. And in case the work is abandoned by the council, or board, before the letting of the contract, the incidental expenses incurred previous to such abandonment shall be paid out of the treasury of the municipality, or county.

SEC. 7. The superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, is hereby authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts, and receive all bonds authorized by this act, and to do any other act, either express or implied, that pertains to the street department under this act; and he shall fix the time for the commencement, which shall not be more than fifteen days from the date of the contract, and for the completion of the work under all contracts entered into by him, which work shall be prosecuted with diligence from day to day thereafter to completion, and he may extend the time so fixed from time to time, under the direction of the council, or board. The work provided for in section two of this act must, in all cases, be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and the materials used shall comply with the specifications and be to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and all contracts made, therefor must contain a provision to that effect, and also express notice that, in no case, except where it is otherwise provided in this act, will the municipality, or county, or any officer thereof, be liable for any portion of the expense, nor for any delinquency of persons or property assessed. The council, or board, may, by ordinance, prescribe general rules directing the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor and the contractor, as to the materials to be used, and the mode of executing the work, under all contracts thereafter made. The assessment and apportionment of the expenses of all such work or improvement shall be made by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, in the mode herein provided.

Contractor's bond covering labor and materials.

SEC. 8. Every contractor, person, company, or corporation, including contracting owners, to whom is awarded any contract for street work under this act, shall, before executing the said contract, file with the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, a good and sufficient bond, approved by him, in a sum not less than one half of the total amount payable according to the terms of said contract. such bond shall be made to inure to the benefit of any and all persons, companies, or corporations who perform labor on, or furnish materials to be used in the said work of improvement, and shall provide that if the contractor, person, company, or corporation to whom said contract was awarded fails to pay for any materials so furnished for the said work of improvement, or for any work or labor done thereon of any kind, that the sureties will pay the same, to an amount not exceeding the sum specified in said bond. Any materialmen, person, company or corporation, furnishing materials to be used in the performance of said work specified in said contract, or who performed work or labor upon the said improvement, whose claim has not been paid by the said contractor, company, or corporation, to whom the said contract was awarded, may, within thirty days from the time said improvement is completed, file with the superintendent of streets or county surveyor, a verified statement of his or its claim, together with a statement that the same, or some part thereof, has not been paid. At any time within ninety days after the filing of such claim, the person, company, or corporation filing the same, or their assigns, may commence an action on said bond for the recovery of the amount due on said claim, together with the costs incurred in said action, and a reasonable attorney fee, to be fixed by the court, for the prosecution thereof.

SEC. 9. Sub. 1. The expenses incurred for any work authorized by this act (which expense shall not include the cost of any work done in such portion of any street as is required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, nor include work which shall have been declared in the resolution of intention to be assessed on a district benefited) shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, except as hereinafter specifically provided; each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per front foot sufficient to cover the total expense of the work.

Assessment of expenses.

Sub. 2. The expense of all improvements, until the streets, avenues, street crossings, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, are finally accepted, as provided in section eighteen of this act shall be assessed upon the lots and lands, as provided in this section, according to the nature and character of the work. And after such acceptance the expense of all work thereafter done on the portion thereof lying within the municipality shall be paid by said municipality out of the street department fund, and all work thereafter done on the portion thereof lying without the boundaries of the municipality shall be paid by said county out of the general road fund, and if at any time thereafter the portion thereof lying without the boundaries of the said municipality shall be included within its boundaries, then the expense of all work thereafter done thereon shall be paid by said municipality out of the said street department fund.

Expenses after completion to be borne by city.

Sub. 3. The expense of the work done on main street crossings shall be assessed at a uniform rate per front foot of the quarter blocks and irregular blocks adjoining and cornering upon the crossings, and separately upon the whole of each lot or portion of a lot having any frontage in the said blocks fronting on said main streets, halfway to the next main street crossing, and three hundred feet on blocks where no such crossing intervenes within six hundred feet of such street crossing, but only according to its frontage in said quarter blocks and irregular blocks.

Main street crossings.

Sub. 4. Where a main street terminates in another main street, the expenses of the work done on one half of the width of the street opposite the termination shall be assessed upon the lots in each of the two quarter blocks adjoining and cornering on the same, according to the frontage of such lots on said main street; provided, that lots and lands more than three hundred feet from such termination on such cross street shall not be assessed for any portion of such expense at such termination, and the expense of the other half of the width of said street upon the lot or lots fronting on the latter half of the street at such termination.

One main street terminating in another.

Sub. 5. Where an alley or subdivision street crosses a main street, the expense of all work done on said crossing shall be assessed on all lots or portions of lots halfway on said alley or subdivision street to the next crossing or intersection, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another.

Alley crossings.

Sub. 6. The expense of work done on alley or subdivision street crossings shall be assessed upon the lots fronting upon such alley or subdivision streets on each side thereof, in all directions, halfway to the next street, place or court, on either side, respectively, or to the end of such alley or subdivision street, if it does not meet another; provided, that lots and lands more than three hundred feet from such crossing on such alley or subdivision street shall not be assessed therefor.

One alley terminating in another.

Sub. 7. Where a subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court terminates in another street, avenue, lane, alley, place or court, the expense of the work done on one half of the width of the subdivision street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court opposite the termination, shall be assessed upon the lot or lots fronting on such subdivision street, or avenue, lane, alley, place, or court so terminating, according to its frontage thereon, halfway on each side respectively to the next street, avenue, lane, alley, court, or place, or to the end of such street, avenue, lane, alley, place, or court, if it does not meet another; provided, that lots and lands located more than three hundred feet from such termination on such subdivision street shall not be assessed therefor, and the other one half of the width upon the lots fronting such termination.

Work done on one side of street center.

Sub. 8. Where any work mentioned in this act (manholes, cesspools, culverts, crosswalks, piling, and capping excepted) is done on either or both sides of the center line of any street for one block or less, and further work opposite to the work of the same class already done is ordered to be done to complete the unimproved portion of said street, the assessment to cover the total expenses of said work so ordered shall be made upon the lots, or portions of the lots only fronting the portions of the work so ordered.

Act of 1879 not applicable.

Sub. 9. Section one of chapter three hundred and twenty-five of the laws of this state, entitled "An act amendatory of and supplementary to an act to provide revenue for the support of the government of this state, approved April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven," approved April nineteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, shall not be applicable to the provisions of this section; but the property herein mentioned shall be subject to the provisions of this act, and be assessed for work done under the provisions of this section.

Different kinds of work may be included in resolution.

Sub. 10. The council, or board, may include in one resolution of intention and order any of the different kinds of work mentioned in this act, and it may except therefrom any of said work already done upon the street to the official grade. The lots and portions of lots fronting upon said excepted work already done shall not be included in the frontage assessment for the class of work from which the exception is made.

Engineer to make diagram of district.

Sub. 11. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that the costs and expenses of the work and improvement are to be assessed upon a district, the council, or board, shall direct the city engineer, or county surveyor, to make a diagram of the property affected or benefited by the proposed work or improvement, as described in the resolution of intention, and to be assessed to pay the expenses thereof. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, the area in square feet of each of such lots, pieces, or parcels of land, and the relative location of the same to the work proposed to be done, all within the limits of the assessment district; and when said diagram shall have been approved by the council, or board, the clerk shall, at the time of such approval, certify the fact and date thereof. Immediately thereafter the said diagram shall be delivered to the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, of said municipality, or county, who shall, after the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and council or board, on appeal, if an appeal is taken, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district, as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from such work, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece, or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total amount of the costs and expenses of such proposed work, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots, or portions of lots, and subdivisions of land in said district benefited thereby, to wit: upon each respectively in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. In other respects the assessment shall be as provided in the next section and the provisions of subdivisions three, four, five, six, seven and eight of this section shall not be applicable to the work or improvement provided for in this subdivision.

Superintendent of streets to estimate assessment.

SEC. 10. After the contractor of any street work has fulfilled his contract to the satisfaction of the street superintendent, or county surveyor, and council, or board, on appeal, if an appeal is taken, the street superintendent, or county surveyor, shall make an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in said contract (including any incidental expenses), in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section according to the character of the work done; or, if any direction and decision be given by said council, or board, on appeal, then in conformity with such direction and decision, which assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for and performed, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with any incidental expenses, the rate per front foot assessed, if the assessment be made per front foot, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot or portion of a lot (if known to the street superintendent, or county surveyor, if unknown the word "unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot), and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot or portion or portions of a lot assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram exhibiting each street or street crossing, lane, alley, place, or court, on which any work has been done, and showing the relative location of each district lot, or portion of lot to the work done, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessments, and showing the number of feet fronting, or number of lots assessed, for said work contracted for and performed.

Warrant.

SEC. 11. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and countersigned by the mayor of said municipality, or the president of said board. The said warrant shall be substantially in the following form:

FORM OF THE WARRANT.

Form of warrant.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets) of the city of, county of, (or county surveyor of county, or city and county of), and State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, do authorize and empower (name of contractor), (his or their) agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be (his or their) warrant for the same.

Countersigned by (name of mayor of municipality or president of board).

(Name of superintendent of streets or county surveyor.)

Warrant, etc., recorded.

Said warrant, assessment, and diagram, together with the certificate of the city engineer, or county surveyor, shall be recorded in the office of said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor. When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording, unless sooner discharged; and from and after the date of said recording of any warrant, assessment, diagram and certificate, all persons mentioned in section thirteen of this act shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of the record thereof. After said warrant, assessment, diagram, and certificate are recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, or his agent, or assigns, on demand, but not until after the payment to the said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, of the incidental expenses not previously paid by the contractor, or his assigns; and by virtue of said warrant said contractor, or his agent, or assigns, shall be authorized to demand and receive the amount of the several assessments made to cover the sum due for the work specified in such contracts and assessments. Whenever it shall appear by any final judgment of any court of this state, that any suit brought to foreclose the lien of any sum of money assessed to cover the expense of said street work done under the provisions of this act has been defeated by reason of any defect, error, informality, omission, irregularity, or illegality in any assessment hereafter to be made and issued, or in the recording thereof, or in the return thereof made to, or recorded by, said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, any person interested therein may, at any time within three months after the entry of said final judgment, apply to said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, who issued the same, or to any superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, in office at the time of said application, for another assessment to be issued in conformity to law; and said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall, within fifteen days after the date of said application, make and deliver to said applicant a new assessment, diagram, and warrant in accordance with law; and the acting mayor of the municipality, or president of the board, shall countersign the same as now provided by law, which assessment shall be a lien for the period of two years from the date of said assessment, and be enforced as provided in section nine of this act.

SEC. 12. The contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his, or their behalf, shall call upon the persons assessed, or their agents, if they can conveniently be found, and demand payment of the amount assessed to each. If any payment be made the contractor, his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall receipt the same upon the assessment in presence of the person making such payment, and shall also give a separate receipt if demanded. Whenever the persons so assessed, or their agents, can not conveniently be found, or whenever the name of the owner of the lot is stated as "unknown" on the assessment, then the said contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, shall publicly demand payment on the premises assessed. The warrant shall be returned to the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, within thirty days after its date, with a return indorsed thereon, signed by the contractor, or his assigns, or some person in his or their behalf, verified upon oath, stating the nature and character of the demand, and whether any of the assessments remain unpaid, in whole or in part, and the amount thereof. Thereupon the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall record the return so made, in the margin of the record of the warrant and assessment, and also the original contract referred to therein, if it has not already been recorded at full length in a book to be kept for that purpose in his office, and shall sign the record. The said superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment list and warrant issued by him, and give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, that no such payment so made after suit has been commenced, without the consent of the plaintiff in the action, shall operate as a complete discharge of the lien until the costs in the action shall be refunded to the plaintiff; and he may release any assessment upon the books of his office, on the payment to him of the amount of the assessment against any lot with interest, or on the production to him of the receipt of the party or his assigns to whom the assessment and warrant were issued; and if any contractor shall fail to return his warrant within the time and in the form provided in this section he shall thenceforth have no lien upon the property assessed: provided, however, that in case any warrant is lost, upon proof of such loss a duplicate can be issued, upon which a return may be made, with the same effect as if the original had been so returned. After the return of the assessment and warrant as aforesaid, all amounts remaining due thereon shall draw interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid.

SEC. 13. The owners, whether named in the assessment or not, the contractor, or his assigns, and all other persons directly interested in any work provided for in this act, or in the assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to the contract in a good and substantial manner, or having or making any objection to the correctness or legality of the assessment or other act, determination, or proceedings of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall, within thirty days after the date of the warrant, appeal to the council, or board, by briefly stating their objections in writing, and filing the same with the clerk of said council, or board. Notice of the time and place of the hearing, briefly referring to the work contracted to be done, or other subject of appeal, and to the acts, determinations or proceedings objected to or complained of, shall be published for five days. Upon such appeal, the said council, or board, may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, relative to said work; may confirm, amend, set aside, alter, modify, or correct the assessment in such manner as to them shall seem just, and require the work to be completed according to the directions of the council, or board; and may instruct and direct the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, to correct the warrant, assessment, or diagram in any particular, or to make and issue a new warrant, assessment, and diagram, to conform to the decisions of said council, or board, in relation thereto, at their option. All the decisions and determinations of said council, or board, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities, and irregularities which said council, or board, might have remedied and avoided; and no assessment shall be held invalid, except upon appeal to said council, or board, as provided in this section for any error, informality, or other defect in any of the proceedings prior to the assessment, or in the assessment itself, where notice of the intention of the council, or board, to order the work to be done, for which the assessment is made, has been actually published in any designated newspaper of said city for the length of time prescribed by law, before the passage of the resolution ordering the work to be done.

SEC. 14. At any time after the period of thirty-five days from the date of the warrants, as herein provided, or if an appeal is taken to said council, or board, as provided in section thirteen of this act, at any time after five days from the decision of said council, or board, or after the return of the warrant or assessment, after the same may have been corrected, altered, or modified, as provided in said section thirteen (but not less than thirty-five days from the date of the warrant), the contractor or his assignee may sue, in his own name, the owner of the land, lots, or portions of lots, assessed on the day of the date of the recording of the warrant, assessment, and diagram, or any day thereafter during the continuance of the lien of said assessment, and recover the amount of any assessment remaining unpaid, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid. And in all cases of recovery under the provisions of this act, the plaintiff shall recover the sum of fifteen dollars, in addition to the taxable cost as attorney's fees, but not any percentage upon said recovery. And when suit has been brought, after a personal demand has been made and a refusal to pay such assessment so demanded, the plaintiff shall also be entitled to have and recover said sum of fifteen dollars, as attorney's fees, in addition to all taxable costs, notwithstanding that the suit may be settled or a tender may be made before a recovery in said action, and he may have judgment therefor. Suit may be brought in the superior court of the county within whose jurisdiction the said work has been done, and in case any of the assessments are made against lots, portions of lots, or lands the owners thereof can not, with due diligence, be found, the service in each of such actions may be had in such manner as is prescribed in the codes and laws of this state. The said warrant, assessment, certificate, and diagram, with the affidavit of demand and non-payment, shall be held prima facie evidence of the regularity and correctness of the assessment and of the prior proceedings and acts of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and council, or board, upon which said warrant, assessment, and diagram are based, and like evidence of the right of the plaintiff to recover in the action. The court in which said suit shall be commenced shall have power to adjudge and decree a lien against the premises assessed, and to order such premises to be sold on execution, as in other cases of the sale of real estate by the process of said courts; and on appeal, the appellate courts shall be vested with the same power to adjudge and decree a lien and to order such premises to be sold on execution or decree as is conferred on the court from which an appeal is taken. Such premises, if sold, may be redeemed as in other cases. In all suits now pending, or hereafter brought to recover street assessments, the proceedings therein shall be

SEC. 15. The council, or board, instead of waiting until the completion of the improvement, may, in its discretion, and not otherwise, upon the completion of two blocks or more of any improvement, order the street superintendent, or county surveyor, to make an assessment for the proportionate amount of the contract completed, and thereupon proceedings and rights of collection of such proportionate amount shall be had as provided herein.

SEC. 16. The records kept by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor in conformity with the provisions of this act, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

notices in writing.

SEC. 17. Notices in writing which are required to be given by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, under the provisions of this act, may be served by any person with the permission of the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, and the fact of such service shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, taken before the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, who for that purpose, and for all other purposes, and in all cases where a verification is required under the provisions of this act, is hereby authorized to administer oaths, or other persons authorized to administer oaths, or such notices may be delivered by the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, himself, who must also verify the service thereof, and who shall keep a record of the fact of giving such notices, when delivered by himself personally, and also of the notices and proof of service when delivered by any other person.

by council.

SEC. 18. Whenever any street, or portion of a street, has been or shall hereafter be fully constructed to the satisfaction of the superintendent of streets or county surveyor, and of the council, or board, and is in good condition throughout and a sewer, gas pipes, and water pipes are laid therein, under such regulations as the council, or board, shall adopt, the same shall be accepted by the council, or board, by ordinance, and thereafter shall be kept in repair and improved by the said municipality or county as herein directed; provided, that the council, or board, may partially or conditionally accept any street, or portion of a street, without a sewer, or gas pipes, or water pipes therein, if the ordinance of acceptance expressly states that the council, or board, deems such sewer, or gas pipes, or water pipes to be then unnecessary, but the lots of land previously, or at any time, assessable for the cost of constructing a sewer shall remain and be assessable for such cost, and for the cost of repairs and restoration of the street damaged in the said construction, whenever said council, or board, shall deem a sewer to be necessary, and shall order it to be constructed, the same as if no partial or conditional acceptance had ever been made. The superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, shall keep in his office a register of all streets accepted by the council, or board, under this section, which register shall be indexed for easy reference thereto.

SEC. 19. The council, or board, shall have full power and authority to construct sewers, gutters, and manholes and provide for the cleaning of the same, and culverts or cesspools, or crosswalks or sidewalks, or any portion of any sidewalk upon or in any of such streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts or places, and also for drainage purposes over or through any right of way obtained or granted for such purposes, with necessary and proper outlet or outlets to the same, of such materials, in such a manner and upon such terms as it may be deemed proper.

Council has authority to construct sewers, etc.

SEC. 20. The said council, or board, may, in its discretion, order by resolution that the whole or any part of the cost and expenses of any of the work mentioned in this act be paid out of the treasury of the municipality, or county, from such fund as the council, or board, may designate. Whenever the work to be done is situated partly within and partly without the municipality, both the council and the board may, in their discretion, order, by resolution, that the whole, or any part of the costs and expenses of the work mentioned in this act be paid out of the treasury of said municipality, or county, or both, and when the whole or a portion thereof is to be paid out of both, each shall pay such proportion thereof, as may be agreed upon, from such funds as the said council or board may designate.

Costs may be paid from treasury.

SEC. 21. Whenever a part of such cost and expenses is so ordered to be paid, the superintendent of streets, or county surveyor, in making up the assessment heretofore provided for such cost and expenses, shall first deduct from the whole cost and expcuse such part thereof as has been so ordered to be paid out of the municipal treasury or county treasury, as the case may be, and shall assess the remainder of said cost and expense proportionately upon the lots, parts of lots, and lands fronting on the streets where said work was done, or liable to be assessed for such work, and in the manner heretofore provided.

Assessment when improvements are partly within city.

SEC. 22. The city engineer, or where there is no city engineer, or the proceedings hereunder are before the board of supervisors, the county or city and county surveyor shall be the proper officer to do the surveying and other engineering work necessary to be done under this act, and to survey and measure the work to be done under contracts for grading and macadamizing streets, and to estimate the costs and expenses thereof; and every certificate signed by him in his official character shall be prima facie evidence in all courts in this state of the truth of its contents. He shall also keep a record of all surveys made under the provisions of this act, as in other cases.

Proper officer to do surveying, etc.

SEC. 23. The term "incidental expenses," as used in this act, shall include the compensation of the city engineer or county surveyor for work done by him to be fixed by said council or board; also the cost of printing and advertising as provided in this act, and not otherwise. All demands for incidental expenses mentioned in this section shall be presented to the street superintendent, or county surveyor, by itemized bill, duly verified by oath of the demandant.

"Incidental expenses" defined.

Publication of notices, etc.

SEC. 24. The notices, resolutions, orders or other matter required to be published by the provisions of this act, shall be published in a daily newspaper, in municipalities where such there is, and where there is no daily newspaper, in a semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, to be designated by the council, or board, as often as the same is issued, and no other statute shall govern or be applicable to the publications herein provided for; provided, however, that only in case there is no daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper printed or circulated in any such municipality then such notices, resolutions, orders or other matters as are herein required to be published in a newspaper, shall be posted and kept posted for the same length of time as required herein for the publication of the same in a daily, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, in three of the most public places in such municipality. Proof of the publication or posting of any notice provided for herein shall be made by affidavit of the owner, publisher or clerk of the newspaper, or of the poster of the notice. No publication or notice, other than that provided for in this act, shall be necessary to give validity to any of the proceedings provided for herein.

Proof of publication.

Definitions: "Council."

SEC. 25. Whenever the words "council" or "board" are used herein only that word applying to the body before which the proceedings are pending shall be used in the reading and construction of the provisions of this act in relation to proceedings before such body. The word "council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law is the legislative department of the government of any municipality. The word "board" is hereby declared to include the board of supervisors of any county, or city and county.

"Board."

"Superintendent of streets."

SEC. 26. The words "superintendent of streets," "street superintendent" or "city engineer" used herein, shall be used in the application and construction of this act only when the resolution of intention and the proceedings are under the jurisdiction of the council of the municipality, and this act shall then be read and construed as if the words "or county surveyor," were not incorporated herein, and when the resolution of intention and the proceedings are under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors, the county surveyor shall perform all of the acts and duties herein required of the superintendent of streets and city engineer, and this act shall be read and construed, when said proceedings are under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors, as if the said words "street superintendent," "superintendent of streets" and "city engineer" were not incorporated herein, and the words "county surveyor" only were used.

"County surveyor."

SEC. 27. The words "work," "improved" and "improvement," as used in this act shall include all work mentioned in this act, and also the construction, reconstruction and repairs of all or any portion of said work. "Work."
"Improved."

SEC. 28. The word "municipality," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include and is hereby declared to include, all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, and those hereafter organized, for municipal purposes. "Municipality."

SEC. 29. The words "paved" or "repaved," as used in this act, shall be held to mean and include pavement of stone, whether paving blocks or macadamizing, or of bituminous rock or asphalt, or of iron, wood or other material, whether patented or not, which the council or board shall by ordinance adopt. "Paved."

SEC. 30. The word "street," as used in this act, shall be deemed to, and is hereby declared to, include avenues, highways, lanes, alleys, crossings, or intersections, courts and places, and the term "main street" means such actually opened street or streets as bound a block; and the word "blocks" whether regular or irregular, shall mean such blocks as are bounded by main streets, or partially by a boundary line of the municipality. "Street."
"Blocks."

SEC. 31. The terms "street superintendent" and "superintendent of streets," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and are hereby declared to include, any person or officer whose duty it is, under the law, to have the care or charge of the streets, or the improvement thereof in any municipality. In all those municipalities where there is not a street superintendent or superintendent of streets the council thereof is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a suitable person to discharge the duties herein laid down as those of street superintendent, or superintendent of streets; and all provisions hereof applicable to the street superintendent, or superintendent of streets shall apply to such person so appointed. "Street superintendent."

SEC. 32. The term "clerk," as used in this act, is hereby declared to include any person or officer who shall be clerk of the said council, or board. "Clerk."

SEC. 33. The term "quarter block" as used in this act as to irregular blocks, shall be deemed to include all lots or portions of lots having any frontage on either intersecting street halfway from such intersection to the next main street or, when no main street intervenes within six hundred feet of such intersection, only those lots or portions of lots or lands within a distance of three hundred feet therefrom shall be considered as being within the quarter block. "Quarter block."

SEC. 34. The term "one year," as used in this act, shall be deemed to include the time beginning with January first and ending with the thirty-first day of December of the same year. "One year."

SEC. 35. That said act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage.

CHAPTER 497.

An act making an appropriation for furnishing and equipping the exposition building at Los Angeles.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation: Los Angeles exposition building.

SECTION 1. Of the balance now remaining in the appropriation made by chapter 699, approved April 22, 1909, entitled "An act to provide for an exposition building at Los Angeles in Agricultural Park for the use of all of the counties of this state, for the purpose of maintaining permanent exhibits therein of the resources of the different counties, and to make an appropriation for the construction of said exposition building," there is hereby reappropriated and made available for the purpose of equipping and furnishing the exposition building at Los Angeles, California, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. The controller of state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in favor of the board of directors of the sixth district agricultural association for the amounts herein made payable as provided in section one hereof, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall be exempt from the provisions of section six hundred seventy-two of the Political Code of California.

CHAPTER 498.

An act declaring a state highway from the Shasta county line through Lassen county to the Modoc county line, and making an appropriation for its improvement and maintenance.

[Approved April 22, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Lassen state highway.

SECTION 1. That certain highway known as the county road, and beginning on the boundary line between Shasta and Lassen counties in the northeast corner of township 37 north, range 6 east, and running and extending through township 38 north, range 6 east, township 38 north, range 7 east, township 38 north, range 8 east, to the Modoc county line, a distance of twenty-nine miles, is hereby declared to be, and the same is, a state highway and shall be designated and known as the Lassen State Highway.

Engineering department to control.

SEC. 2. The said road hereby constituted a state highway is hereby placed under the supervision and control of the department of engineering of the State of California.

SEC. 3. The department of engineering is hereby authorized to construct, repair and maintain said highway when appropriations are available therefor, and to modify grades thereon wherever necessary.

SEC. 4. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars to be expended under the supervision of said department, for the construction, repair and maintenance of said highway and modification of grades thereon. Of the sum hereby appropriated three thousand dollars thereof shall be available on the first day of July, 1911, and the remaining two thousand dollars thereof shall be available on the first day of July, 1912. Appropriation.

SEC. 5. The controller of the State of California is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the said amounts and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 499.

An act regulating the placing, erection, use and maintenance of electric poles, wires, cables and appliances, and providing the punishment for the violation thereof.

[Approved April 22, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No commission, officer, agent or employee of the State of California, or of any city and county or city or county or other political subdivision thereof, and no other person, firm, or corporation shall

(a) Run, place, erect or maintain any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity, on any pole, or any crossarm, bracket or other appliance attached to such pole, within a distance of thirteen (13) inches from the center line of said pole; provided, that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (a) shall be held not to apply to telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires or cables which are attached to a pole to which is attached no wire or cable other than telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wire or cable, except within the corporate limits of any city or town which shall have been incorporated as a municipality, nor shall the foregoing provisions be held to apply to such wires or cables in cases where the same are run from underground and placed vertically on poles, nor to "bridle" or "jumper" wires on any pole which are attached to telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires on the same pole, nor to any "aerial" cable, as between such cable and any pole on which it originates or terminates, nor to wires run from Provisions not applicable to telephone wires, etc.

"lead" wires to arc lamps or to transformers placed upon poles, nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of a pole, as between it and the said pole, nor to any "aerial" cable containing telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires where the same is attached to a pole on which no other wires or cables than wires continuing from said cable are maintained: provided, that electric light or power wires or cables are in no case maintained on the same side of the street or highway on which said "aerial" cable is placed.

Electric
wire within thirteen inches of pole.

(b) Run, place, erect or maintain in the vicinity of any pole (and unattached thereto) within the distance of thirteen (13) inches from the center line of said pole, any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity, or place, erect or maintain any pole (to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity) within the distance of thirteen (13) inches (measured from the center of such pole) from any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity; provided, that as between any wire or cable and any pole, as in this paragraph (b) named, only the wire, cable or pole last in point of time run, placed or erected, shall be held to be run, placed, erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of this paragraph: and further provided, that the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall not be held to apply to telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires or cables on poles to which are attached no other wires, as between such wires and poles to which are attached no other wires or cables than telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires; provided, such wires, cables and poles are not within the corporate limits of any town or city which shall have been incorporated as a municipality.

Last wire, etc., run in violation.

Wires within four feet of each other.

(c) Run, place, erect or maintain, above ground, within the distance of four (4) feet from any wire or cable conducting or carrying less than six hundred volts of electricity, any wire or cable which shall conduct or carry at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity, or run, place, erect or maintain within the distance of four (4) feet from any wire or cable which shall conduct or carry at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity any wire or cable conducting or carrying less than six hundred volts of electricity; provided, that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (c) shall be held not to apply to any wires or cables attached to a transformer, within a distance of four (4) feet, (measured along the line of said wire or cable) from the point where such wire or cable is attached to such transformer, nor to wires or cables within buildings or other structures, nor to wires or cables where the same are run from underground and placed vertically on poles, nor to any "lead" wires or cables between the point where the same are made to leave any pole for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point at which they are made to enter such building or structure: and provided, further, that as between any two wires or cables, or any wire or any cable run, placed, erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of this paragraph (c), only the wire or cable last in point of time run, placed or erected shall be held to be run, placed, erected or maintained thus in violation of said provision; and further provided, that where no more than one crossarm is maintained on a pole, all the wires or cables conducting or carrying at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity shall be placed on the crossarm on one side of the pole, and all the wires or cables conducting or carrying less than six hundred volts of electricity shall be placed on the crossarm on the other side of the pole; and further provided, that the space between any wire or cable carrying or conducting at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity and any wire or cable carrying less than said voltage shall be at least thirty-six (36) inches clear measurement in a horizontal line; and further provided, that where two or more systems for the distribution of electric light or power occupy the same poles with wires or cables, all wires or cables conducting or carrying at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity shall be placed on the crossarms on one side of the pole, and all wires or cables conducting or carrying less than said voltage shall in such case be placed on the crossarms on the other side of the pole; and further provided, that the space between any wire or cable conducting or carrying at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity and any wire or cable conducting or carrying less than said voltage shall be at least thirty-six (36) inches in measurement in a horizontal line; and further provided, that in such construction all crossarms shall be at least thirty-six (36) inches apart in a vertical line.

Two systems occupying same poles.

(d) Run, place, erect or maintain any wire or cable, which shall conduct or carry at any one time more than six hundred volts of electricity, without causing each crossarm, or such other appliance as may be used in lieu thereof, to which such wire or cable is attached to be kept at all times painted a bright yellow color; or, on such crossarm, or other appliance used in lieu thereof, shall be placed enamelled iron signs, providing, in white letters on a green background, the words "High voltage," and these letters shall be not less than three (3) inches in height, said signs shall be securely fastened on the face and back of each crossarm. The provisions of this paragraph (d) shall not be held to apply to crossarms to which are attached wires or cables carrying or conducting more than ten thousand volts of electricity, and which are situated outside the corporate limits of any town or city which shall have been incorporated as a municipality.

Crossarms holding wire carrying more than 600 volts to be painted yellow.

(e) Run, place, erect or maintain any "guy" wire or "guy" cable attached to any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity, without causing said "guy" wire or "guy" cable to be effectively insulated at all times at a distance of not less than four (4) feet nor more than eight (8) feet (measured along the line of said wire or cable) from the upper end thereof, and at a point not less than eight (8) feet vertically above the ground

Guy wires to be insulated.

from the lower end thereof; and further provided, that whenever two or more "guy" wires or "guy" cables are attached to a pole there shall be at least one foot, vertical space, between the points of attachment; and further provided, that no insulation shall be required at the lower end of a "guy" wire or "guy" cable where the same is attached to a grounded anchor; none of the provisions of this paragraph (e) shall be held to apply to "guy" wires or "guy" cables attached to poles carrying no wire or cable other than telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wire or cable, and which are situated outside the corporate limits of any town or city which shall have been incorporated as a municipality.

Vertical wires to be insulated.

(f) Run, place, erect or maintain, vertically on any pole, any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity, without causing such wire or cable to be at all times wholly encased in casing equal in durability and insulating efficiency to a wooded casing not less than one and one half inches thick. The provisions of this paragraph (f) shall not be held to apply to vertical telephone, telegraph or other "signal" wires or cables on poles where no other than such wires or cables are maintained, and which are outside the corporate limits of any town or city which shall have been incorporated as a municipality.

All lamps may not be placed on poles with transformers.

(g) Place, erect or maintain on any pole, or on any crossarm or other appliance on said pole, which carries or upon which is placed an electric arc lamp, any transformer for transforming electric currents.

Wires carrying more than 15,000 volts.

(h) Run, place, erect or maintain any wire or cable carrying more than fifteen thousand volts of electricity across any wire or cable carrying less than said voltage or across any public highway, except on poles of such height and so placed at each crossing that under no circumstances can said wire or cable of said voltage higher than fifteen thousand volts in case of breakage thereof or otherwise, come in contact with any wire or cable of less than said voltage, or fall within a distance of ten (10) feet from the surface of any public highway; or in lieu thereof double strength construction may be installed, in which case the wires carrying a voltage higher than fifteen thousand volts shall, between the points of crossing, be of a cross-section area equal to at least twice that used in the line outside of such crossing, except where the conductor used is equal to four naught (0000) Brown and Sharpe gauge or greater, in which case the wires or cables will be considered as complying with the law.

Safety bolts for suspension wires.

(i) Run, place, erect or maintain any suspension wire to which is attached any "aerial" cable of "seventy-five pair number nineteen Brown and Sharpe gauge" or over, or of "one hundred pair number twenty-two Brown and Sharpe gauge" or over, suspended from a crossarm (or from any other structure or appliance from which said suspension wire is hung) by a single bolt and clamp without at the same time attaching said suspension wire to said crossarm, structure or appliance by an additional "safety" bolt and clamp (or other "safety" appliance for thus attaching said suspension wire) of tensile strength equal to the first herein said bolt and clamp.

SEC. 2. None of the provisions of the preceding section shall be held to apply to "direct current" electric wires or cables having the same polarity, nor to "signal" wires when no more than two (2) of such "signal" wires are attached to any one pole; provided, that none of such "direct current" or "signal" wires shall in any case be run, placed, erected or maintained within the distance of thirteen (13) inches from the center line of any pole (other than the pole or poles on which said wires or cables are carried) carrying electric wires or cables: and provided, further, that as between any two wires, or cables, or any wire or cable run, placed, erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of this section 2 only the wire or cable last in point of time run, placed, erected or maintained shall be held to be run, placed, erected or maintained thus in violation of said provisions.

Preceding not applicable to direct current wires, etc.

SEC. 3. No commission, officer, agent or employee of the State of California, or of any city and county or city or county or other political subdivision thereof, and no other person, firm or corporation shall run, place, erect or maintain any "span" wire attached to any wire or cable used to conduct or carry electricity, without causing said "span" wire to be at all times effectively insulated between the outer point at which it is in any case fastened to the pole or other structure by which it is hung or supported, and at the point at which it is in any case thus attached; provided, that such insulation shall not in any case be placed less than two (2) feet nor more than four (4) feet from said point at which said "span" wire is so attached, and that when in any case such "span" wire is attached along its length to any two (2) such wires or cables, conducting or carrying electricity and extending parallel to each other, not more than ten (10) feet apart, such insulation shall not be required therein at any point between such parallel wires or cables: none of the provisions of this section (3) shall be held to apply where "feeder" wires are used in place of "span" wires.

Span wires.

SEC. 4. Any violation of any provision of this act shall be deemed to be a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable upon conviction by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty
for violation.

SEC. 5. All acts or parts of acts which are in conflict with the, or with any of the provisions of this, act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect six months from the date of its passage in so far as it relates to new work, and a period of five years shall be allowed in which to reconstruct all existing work and construction to comply with the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 500.

An act to regulate the construction and maintenance of subways, manholes, and underground rooms, chambers, and excavations, used to contain, encase, cover, or conduct wires, cables, or appliances to conduct, carry, or handle electricity, and providing the punishment for the violation thereof.

[Approved April 22, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No commission, officer, agent, or employee of the State of California or of any city and county or city or county or other political subdivision thereof, and no other person, firm or corporation, shall build or rebuild or cause to be built or rebuilt within the State of California:

Dimensions of electric wire subways.

(a) Any subway, manhole, chamber, or underground room used or to be used to contain, encase, cover or conduct any wire, cable, or appliance, to conduct, carry or handle electricity, unless such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room shall have an inside measurement of not less than four (4) feet at the maximum points between the side walls thereof, and between the end walls thereof, and not less than five (5) feet at all points between the floor thereof, and the top or ceiling thereof, or if circular in shape, at least four (4) feet diameter inside measurement, and not less than five (5) feet at all points between the floor and ceiling thereof; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not be held to apply to any such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room, within which it is not intended or required that any human being perform work or labor or be employed: further provided, that the provisions of this paragraph (a) shall not be held to apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities, that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with this law within the space or location so designated by the proper municipal authorities.

Openings to outer air.

(b) In any subway, manhole, chamber or underground room used or to be used to contain, encase, cover or conduct any wire, cable or appliance to conduct, carry or handle electricity, any opening to outer air which is less than twenty-six (26) inches if circular in shape, or less than twenty-four (24) inches by twenty-six (26) inches clear measurement if rectangular in shape.

Openings to be not less than three feet from street-car track.

(c) In any subway, manhole, chamber or underground room, used or to be used to contain, encase, cover or conduct any wire, cable or appliance to conduct, carry or handle electricity, any opening which is at the surface of the ground, within the distance of three (3) feet at any point from any rail or any railway or street-car track; provided, that the provisions of this paragraph (c) shall not be held to apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with this law within the space or location so designated by the proper municipal authorities.

(d) Any subway, manhole, chamber or underground room, used or to be used to contain, encase, cover or conduct any wire, cable, or appliance to conduct, carry, or handle electricity, unless the floor of such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room is made of stone, concrete, brick, or other similar material not subject to decomposition; provided, that this paragraph (d) shall not be held to apply to any such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room within which it is not intended or required that any human being perform work or labor or be employed.

Floor of subway to be of concrete, etc.

(e) Or maintain any subway, manhole, chamber or underground room, used, or to be used, to contain, encase, cover or conduct any wire, cable or appliance to conduct, carry or handle electricity, unless such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room is kept at all times in a sanitary condition, and free from stagnant water, or seepage, or other drainage, or any offensive matter dangerous to health, either by sewer connection or otherwise; provided, that this paragraph (e) shall not be held to apply to any such subway, manhole, chamber or underground room, within which it is not intended or required that any human being perform work or labor or be employed.

Subways to be kept free from seepage, etc.

SEC. 2. Any violation of any provision of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable upon conviction by a fine not exceeding five hundred (500) dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 3. None of the provisions of subdivisions a, b, c, and d, of section one of this act shall be so construed as to be retroactive or apply to works already constructed, and all acts or parts of acts which are in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of passage.

CHAPTER 501.

An act making an appropriation for the care and custody of the custom house at Monterey, California.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That the sum of five hundred dollars be appropriated for the care and custody of the custom house at Monterey.

Appropriation: care of Monterey custom house.

SEC. 2. That the said money is to be expended by and under the direction of the board of Monterey custom house trustees, as created under an act entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of a board of Monterey custom house trustees and for the acquisition and control of the Monterey custom house property, and providing for an appropriation for the preservation, protection and improvement of said property," approved March 16, 1901.

SEC. 3. That the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant in favor of said board for the money herein made payable, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 502.

An act to provide for the continuation of the construction of the highway known as Kings river highway, and to make an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation: state highway

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars to continue and complete the state highway now partially completed by the State of California from the General Grant National Park to the floor of the Kings river canyon.

SEC. 2. The money appropriated under the provisions of this act is hereby made available as follows: On May 1, 1911, twelve thousand five hundred dollars, and on July 1, 1912, twelve thousand five hundred.

SEC. 3. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrants at such times and in such sums as the state department of engineering shall present claims for, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same.

SEC. 4. This act shall be in effect from and after its passage and approval.

CHAPTER 503.

An act to make an appropriation for the maintenance of the state highway from Emigrant Gap, Placer county, to the west end of Donner Lake, Nevada county.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation: state highway.

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for the maintenance and upkeep of the state highway from Emigrant Gap, Placer county, to the west end of Donner Lake in Nevada county. Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) shall be available on the first day of May, 1911, and two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) shall be available on the first day of May, 1912.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants in such sums and at such times as the state engineer may present claims therefor, and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 504.

An act providing for the improving and caring for the grounds of the Fresno State Normal School and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of improving and caring for the grounds of the Fresno State Normal School. Appropriation: Improving grounds, Fresno Normal.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants for the amount herein appropriated in favor of the officers authorized by law to receive the same, in such amounts and at such times as may be approved by the state board of examiners, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 505.

An act making appropriation for the installation of irrigating pipe lines at the Napa State Hospital.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

CHAPTER 568.

An act to amend sections sixteen hundred and fifty-eight, sixteen hundred and sixty-one and sixteen hundred and sixty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure, all relating to the distribution of the estates of deceased persons.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section sixteen hundred and fifty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1658. At any time after the lapse of four months from the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration, any heir, devisee, legatee (or his assignee, grantee or successor in interest) may present his petition to the court for the legacy or share of the estate to which he is entitled, or any portion thereof, to be given to him upon his giving bonds, with security, for the payment of his proportion of the debts of the estate. Payment of legacies.

SEC. 2. Section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1661. If, at the hearing, it appears that the estate is but little indebted, and that the share of the party applying may be allowed to him without loss to the creditors of the estate, the court must make an order in conformity with the prayer of the applicant, requiring: Prayer of applicant granted.

1. Each heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee, or successor in interest) obtaining such order, before receiving his share or any portion thereof, to execute and deliver to the executor or administrator, a bond, in such sum as may be desig- Legatee's bond.

nated by the court, or a judge thereof, with sureties to be approved by the judge, payable to the executor or administrator, and conditioned for the payment, whenever required, of his proportion of the debts due from the estate, not exceeding the value or amount of the legacy or portion of the estate to which he is entitled. Where the time for filing or presenting claims has expired, and all claims that have been allowed, have been paid, or are secured by mortgage upon real estate sufficient to pay them, and the court is satisfied that no injury can result to the estate, the court may dispense with the bond:

Executor to deliver heir's portion.

2. The executor or administrator to deliver to the heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee or successor in interest), the whole portion of the estate to which he may be entitled, or only a part thereof designating it.

If, in the execution of the order, a partition is necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it must be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The costs of these proceedings must be paid by the applicant, or if there are more than one, must be apportioned equally among them.

SEC. 3. Section sixteen hundred and sixty-five of said code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Final distribution of estate.

1665. Upon the final settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator, or at any subsequent time, upon the application of the executor or administrator, or of any heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee or successor in interest), the court must proceed to distribute the residue of the estate in the hands of the executor or administrator, if any, among the persons who by law are entitled thereto; and if the decedent has left a surviving child, or the issue of a deceased child, and any of them, before the close of the administration, have died while under age and not having been married, no administration on such deceased child's estate is necessary, but all the estate which such deceased child was entitled to by inheritance must, without administration, be distributed as provided in the Civil Code. A statement of any receipts and disbursements of the executor or administrator, since the rendition of his final account, must be reported and filed at the time of making such distribution; and a settlement thereof, together with an estimate of the expenses of closing the estate, must be made by the court, and included in the order or decree, or the court or judge may order notice of the settlement of such supplementary account, and refer the same as in other cases of the settlement of accounts.

CHAPTER 569.

An act providing for the supervision and control by the state board of charities and corrections of the placing of dependent children into homes and for the supervision of all societies or organizations engaged in such work and known as children's home finding societies.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any organization, society or persons to engage in the work of placing dependent children into homes in this state without first obtaining a permit therefor, duly executed in writing, from the state board of charities and corrections.

Unlawful to place dependent children in homes without permit.

SEC. 2. The said state board of charities and corrections may investigate, or cause to be investigated, the books, records, and methods of such organizations, societies, or persons, and the disposition of the children coming into their custody; and it may make such rules and regulations as it may deem best for the government and regulation of such societies or persons, and may require such reports as it may desire.

Board of charities may investigate societies.

SEC. 3. The said state board of charities and corrections is hereby authorized and empowered to withdraw and cancel any permit to engage in the work of placing children into homes for any failure to observe the rules and regulations established for their government, or the failure to report as required, or for any failure on their part to perform their work as required by the best interests of the state, but no permit shall be canceled or withdrawn without due notice and hearing.

Permit may be withdrawn.

SEC. 4. It is hereby made a misdemeanor for any person or persons, either as individuals or officers of any association or society, to engage in the work of placing children into homes, or the soliciting of funds therefor, in this state without a permit duly executed in writing by the state board of charities and corrections, authorizing said persons or such association or society to engage therein, or to engage in such work after any permit has been canceled.

Misdemeanor to engage in work without permit.

SEC. 5. This act shall not be construed as applying to any regularly established orphan home or any officer or official thereof acting for or on behalf of such home receiving aid from the state for the care of orphans, half-orphans or abandoned children in any effort such institution or its officers may make to procure the adoption into homes or any officer or official thereof acting for or on behalf of such home of any such children.

Not applicable to orphan home.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 570.

An act to establish the California State Reformatory; to provide for purchase of land therefor; and the construction of buildings and other improvements in connection therewith; to provide for the commitment and transfer of prisoners thereto and therefrom; to provide for the equipment, conduct and management thereof; and to make an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

California State Reformatory.

SECTION 1. There is hereby established a reformatory for the confinement, discipline and instruction of prisoners committed thereto as hereinafter provided, to be known as the California State Reformatory.

Who may be sent to reformatory.

SEC. 2. Any male person not less than sixteen and not more than thirty years of age at the time of sentence, convicted of felony for the first time may be sentenced to confinement in said reformatory, when in the judgment of the court said person is capable of reformation and said sentence is compatible with the general welfare, and the sentence shall designate the minimum and maximum term prescribed by law for the particular offense, but shall fix no other term; provided, however, that if no minimum is fixed by law the court shall fix a minimum of one year. The provisions of sections 1588 of the Penal Code relating to credits for good conduct shall not apply to prisoners in the state reformatory.

Penal Code, sec.
1588, not applicable.

Prison
to manage.

SEC. 3. The state board of prison directors shall manage and maintain said reformatory when ready for occupancy as hereinafter provided. Said board shall employ a superintendent, who shall be the executive head of said reformatory, and shall establish such other positions as the needs of the service may from time to time require. Such positions shall be filled by the superintendent in the manner provided by law. The board may consolidate or abolish such positions and may fix and change the salaries to be paid.

Superintendent.

Rules.

SEC. 4. The board of prison directors shall establish the rules under which the reformatory shall be conducted for the purpose of reformation of those committed to it; and shall adopt such methods as the board may deem expedient to restore them to freedom as self-supporting and self-respecting members of the state. Such rules shall include provision for keeping records of the facts known of each prisoner on entrance and of his conduct and progress at such intervals as the board may fix. Each prisoner on entrance shall be thoroughly examined by a competent physician for physical or mental defects or abnormalities, and shall be provided such physical and surgical treatment as may be necessary to overcome such defects, so far as practicable.

Prisoners
examined.

SEC. 5. The board of prison directors shall, by rule, establish not less than three grades for the prisoners committed to the reformatory, one of which shall be the entering grade. The board shall so far as practicable establish rules by which each prisoner shall be promoted to a higher grade or reduced to a lower grade in accordance with his conduct.

Grades for prisoners.

SEC. 6. The board of prison directors shall make and enforce rules governing the release of prisoners on parole and their conduct while on parole and their final discharge, and it is hereby declared the policy of the law that prisoners in said reformatory shall be given their liberty whenever in the judgment of the said board such release is compatible with the public welfare, and said prisoner will conform to its rules concerning prisoners on parole and support himself by honest industry; provided, that no prisoner shall be released before the expiration of the minimum term fixed by law for the offense of which he was convicted, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrict the power of the governor to pardon any prisoner.

Parole.

SEC. 7. Whenever the governor of the state, the superintendent of said reformatory, or any member of the state board of prison directors is dissatisfied with the conduct of a paroled prisoner he may issue a written order, reciting the commitment and parole of said prisoner and his dissatisfaction with the conduct of said paroled prisoner, and directing his arrest and return to said institution, and said order shall be a sufficient warrant for any parole, probation or peace officer named therein to arrest and deliver said prisoner to any officer of said reformatory for return thereto, and it is hereby made the duty of all such officers to execute any such order in like manner as a warrant of arrest for felony. At the next meeting of said board it shall determine whether or not the order by which such prisoner was placed on parole shall be revoked. If any prisoner on parole shall leave the state without permission from said board he shall be held to be an escaped prisoner and shall be arrested as such.

Return of paroled prisoner whose conduct is not satisfactory.

SEC. 8. The board of prison directors may give a final release to any prisoner who has fulfilled the conditions required of him in the reformatory and upon parole, when in the judgment of the board he is fitted to take his place as a free citizen of the state, and shall have power, by so providing in the order of release, to restore said prisoner to all the rights of citizenship. When any prisoner shall have served the maximum term provided by law for the offense of which he was convicted he shall thereupon be discharged. No petition or other form of application for the parole or release of a prisoner shall be entertained by the board, except the application made by the prisoner himself.

Final release of prisoner.

SEC. 9. The board of prison directors may establish rules by which any prisoner appearing to be incorrigible may be removed to any one of the state prisons. Such prisoner shall serve the maximum term established by law for the offense of Incorrigible prisoner may be removed to prison of which he was convicted, including the time served in the reformatory, with such deductions for good conduct during his incarceration in such prison as the law and the rules of the prison may allow.

Prisoner
transferred from prison to reformatory.

SEC. 10. The board of prison directors may transfer from the state prisons to said reformatory any prisoner serving his first term for felony who in their judgment can be reformed and restored to a life of honest industry; provided, that the consent of the prisoner to be bound by the terms of this act, and for the maximum period fixed by law for the offense of which he was convicted unless sooner discharged, shall be first procured in writing. Said prisoner shall thereafter be treated in all respects as though originally committed to said reformatory.

Prison
laws applicable to reformatory.

SEC. 11. The laws governing the state prisons of this state in relation to expenses of transportation of prisoners to and from the same, escapes, prevention of escapes, suppression of riots, revolts, mutinies, or insurrections, and the punishment of crimes committed therein, are hereby made applicable to the reformatory.

Instruction in reformatory.

SEC. 12. The discipline of the reformatory shall include instruction in the elementary school courses and in pursuits by which the prisoners may support themselves when released. Said instruction shall chiefly be given in agriculture and horticulture by the best methods as developed by the University of California and the department of agriculture of the United States. Instruction in other forms of labor may be established in the discretion of the board of prison directors; provided, that the prisoners shall be distributed among the various trades and employments so that no excessive number be directed to any trade or employment.

Disposition of products.

SEC. 13. Products of said reformatory shall so far as possible be supplied for state, county, municipal, school or other public use, and the reformatory shall collect or be credited with the fair market price therefor. No manufactured product shall be supplied, sold, exchanged or given away for private use or profit.

Probation officers to co-operate in getting employment for paroled prisoners.

SEC. 14. The probation officers of the state shall cooperate with the state board of prison directors and the state parole officer, in procuring employment for and supervising paroled prisoners and the probation officers of each county shall act as parole officer for all prisoners on parole living within the limits of their county, under such general rules as may be established by the state board of prison directors and under the supervision of the state parole officer.

Earnings
prisoners.

SEC. 15. The board of prison directors may allow to prisoners such proportion of their earnings above the cost of their maintenance as the board may deem proper.

Commission to locate reformatory.

SEC. 16. A commission consisting of the governor of the State of California, the lieutenant governor of the state and three other persons, to be selected by the governor of the state, is hereby constituted a commission for the location and construction of said reformatory as hereinafter more particularly provided. Said commission, as soon after the passage of this act as possible, shall select a suitable site for said reformatory of not less than six hundred acres. The said commission is directed to secure land susceptible of irrigation if necessary and suitable for the agricultural and horticultural work to be carried on by the prisoners. When a suitable site is selected by said commission they are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase the land so selected, together with water and water rights appertaining thereto, and if necessary shall purchase additional water rights or make provision for the development of water for use on said land. The purchase price of said land may be made payable in installments out of the appropriations hereinafter provided, as may be agreed between said commission and the owner or owners of said land. Title to the land shall be taken in the name of the State of California and first payment therefor shall be made at the time of the delivery of deed or deeds by the owner or owners to the governor of the State of California for and on behalf of the state. The said commission shall adopt plans for the buildings to be erected upon said land for said reformatory to accommodate not less than one thousand prisoners, and may employ architects or engineers or both in the preparation of said plans, and in the construction of said buildings. The said commission is authorized to employ and fix the compensation of such free labor and skilled assistants as may be needed in the erection of such buildings and shall so far as possible utilize the labor of prisoners in said construction as hereinafter provided.

Purchase

Buildings.

SEC. 17. The state board of prison directors shall on the request of the said commission furnish a list of not less than one hundred (100) nor more than three hundred (300) prisoners in San Quentin and Folsom state prisons, who would be available for use in the construction of said reformatory. In the selection of such men for said list the board of prison directors shall name those men who are skilled in building and who have shown themselves active and energetic, and so far as possible shall name those who under the rules of the said board of prison directors would be entitled to parole on or before the completion of the buildings of said reformatory, as estimated, and who would be suitable for transfer to said reformatory upon its completion. From this list so submitted as aforesaid, the state board of prison directors shall designate those to be employed in constructing the buildings of said reformatory, and upon such designation said board of prison directors shall cause to be transported to the location selected for said reformatory said prisoners in such numbers and at such times as may be required by said commission. Temporary buildings may be erected for housing said prisoners while engaged in said work of construction. The state board of prison directors is authorized and directed to employ a superintendent and necessary guards while engaged in said construction and particularly to have charge of them during the hours they are not actually engaged upon the buildings of the said reformatory. During the hours that said prisoners are actually engaged in work of construction of said building they shall be under the supervision and direction of those officers and foremen employed by said commission to erect said buildings. At any time during the progress of said work, prisoners engaged therein who have shown themselves unfit to work under the conditions herein provided, shall be returned to the state penitentiary on order of the board of prison directors, and any prisoner who makes his escape from such employment shall be returned to the state prison from which he was originally transferred. The state board of prison directors shall have the same jurisdiction to parole prisoners engaged in this work as any other prisoners in any other state prison, and shall make such rules concerning their custody and discipline while engaged in said work as may be necessary. The state board of prison directors may fix the compensation to be paid to said prisoners for their work while constructing said buildings, not to exceed twenty-five cents per day, such money to be paid to said prisoners upon their parole or final discharge, from the money hereinafter appropriated, unless the board declares said amount forfeited by bad conduct. The state board of prison directors shall provide the necessary food, clothing and transportation for said prisoners while engaged in said work, to be paid upon their order by the state board of examiners from the moneys herein appropriated for the construction of said reformatory buildings. There is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this law the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars; five thousand dollars to be available July 1, 1911, and one hundred and forty-five thousand dollars to be available July 1, 1912.

SEC. 18. Whenever the buildings are so far completed as in the judgment of said commission to be available to receive prisoners committed by the court, a proclamation to that effect shall be published by the governor and thereafter the courts may commit prisoners to the said reformatory in the manner hereinafter provided, and during the progress of said work shall be treated in the same manner as the prisoners transferred by [from] the state prisons as herein provided: provided, further, that on January 1, 1915, the commission hereinafter provided shall terminate. Thereupon the state board of prison directors shall take charge of said reformatory and be vested with the powers hereinafter conferred upon the said commission, and thereafter all further construction and expenditure shall be under their direction and control.

SEC. 19. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 571.

An act to amend section four thousand three hundred and sixteen of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to sheriffs, clerks and constables, and their deputies.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

SEC. 2. The conveyance herein authorized to be made by said State of California is for the purpose of perfecting of record the title of the State of California in and to the property first described in section one hereof, and likewise for the purpose of perfecting of record the title of the county of Sacramento in and for the property last described in section one hereof.

CHAPTER 576.

An act to amend section 10, of an act entitled "An act to authorize the incorporation of rural cemetery associations," approved April 18, 1859, and all acts amendatory thereof.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10 of an act entitled "An act to authorize the incorporation of rural cemetery associations" approved April 18, 1859, and all acts amendatory thereof, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Cemetery lands exempt from taxes.

Section 10. The cemetery lands and property of any association, formed pursuant to this act, shall be exempt from all public taxes, rates, and assessments, and shall not be liable to be sold on execution, or be applied in payment of debts due from any individual proprietors. But the proprietors of lots, or plots, in such cemeteries, their heirs, or devisees, may hold the same exempt therefrom, so long as the same shall remain dedicated to the purposes of a cemetery.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 577.

An act providing for the removal of human remains from cemeteries in any city or city and county in this state and repealing all acts in conflict therewith.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The governing or legislative body of any city, or city and county, in this state may, by ordinance duly passed, and under such lawful rules and regulations which it may adopt, provide for the exhuming, taking up, and removal from cemeteries within the boundary lines of such city, or city and county, or from cemeteries owned and controlled by such city, or city and county, that may have been located without its boundaries (and in which such cemeteries no interments of human remains have been made for a period of not less than five years), of any or all the human remains interred in such cemeteries. Trustees may order removal of human remains from cemeteries within city limits.

SEC. 2. Any person claiming ownership of any cemetery lot may file in the office of the county recorder, in which such cemetery is situated, a verified statement describing the lot so claimed by him, together with a statement of his name and of Owner of cemetery lot may file statement with county recorder.

the place at which the notice referred to in section three of this act may be served upon him. No fee shall be charged by the county recorder for filing such statement.

Notice to owner of lot before exhuming remains.

SEC. 3. In the rules and regulations provided for in section one of this act, it shall, among the other matters therein set forth, be provided that no human remains shall be exhumed, taken up, or removed from any such cemetery unless notice of the intended action shall have been given to the person claiming ownership of the cemetery lot in which said human remains are interred, by serving such notice upon him personally in the same manner as summons in a civil action is served.

Remains may be removed if owner of lot can not be found.

SEC. 4. If no person has filed the statement provided for in section two of this act, or if the person who has filed such statement can not be found at the place therein designated by him, or if said notice is served, and the person so notified does not within thirty days, after the service of said notice, complete the removal of said human remains, the persons in charge of said cemetery may without cost to the owner of said lot, remove said human remains and reinter the same in a careful and respectful manner, at a place to be designated in the rules and regulations aforesaid, and the remains of no more than one person shall be interred in one grave, and headboard shall be placed on said grave.

Record filed with coroner.

SEC. 5. Immediately after said remains are so interred, the person causing the same to be done shall file in the office of the coroner of said city and county, or of the county, in which said city is situated, a statement of the name of the person whose remains are so removed, together with all other data available concerning said remains, and also a description of the place where said remains are reinterred.

SEC. 6. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the taking of private property without due compensation first made.

SEC. 7. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 578.

An act relating to the opening of streets through cemeteries.

[Approved April 21, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Opening streets through cemeteries.

SECTION 1. No streets, alleys or roads shall be opened or laid out within the boundary lines of any cemetery located in whole or in part within the lines of any city or city and county of this state, where burials have been had within five years prior thereto, without the consent of the corporation or association owning and controlling such cemetery.

CHAPTER 579.

An act to establish a standard for evaporated milk and condensed milk.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 580.

An act to amend section four hundred and ninety-nine of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to the use of the same street or tracks by two lines of street railway.

[Approved April 24, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and ninety-nine of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

499. The legislative body of any incorporated city, city and county, or town, may permit two or more lines of street railway to use the same portion of the same street or the same tracks upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the companies operating such railways; but no permission shall be granted to one company to use the same tracks or portions of the same street for a distance of more than five consecutive blocks, without the consent of the person or company occupying said portion of the street and then only upon payment of an equal portion of the cost of construction of the tracks and appurtenances used by such railways jointly; provided, that any incorporated city, city and county, or town may own and operate street railways within or without the municipal limits, and may occupy the same street or tracks occupied or used by any street railway within its limits for any number of blocks, upon payment to the owner thereof of an equal portion of the estimated cost of construction, at the time of such occupation, of such tracks or appurtenances as such city, city and county, or town may elect to use jointly with said street railway. Where such portion of such street shall be occupied by City trustees may permit two or more street railway lines to use same tracks.

a track or tracks of a different gauge from the track or tracks proposed to be constructed thereon by a line of street railway under a different management, such last-mentioned line of street railway may nevertheless construct its track or tracks, subject to the limitation before prescribed, over the same ground as may be occupied by such prior track or tracks; provided, the same can be so constructed as not to interfere with the operation of such prior track or tracks beyond such necessary interference therewith as shall be incident to such construction with reasonable skill, care and diligence.

CHAPTER 581.

An act to amend sections 3785 and 3786 of the Political Code, relating to tax deeds.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3785 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Tax deeds made after five years.

3785. If the property is not redeemed within five years from the date of the sale to the state, the tax collector, or his successor in office, must make the state a deed of the property. Said deed shall be in substance and may be in form, as follows:

Form.

CHAPTER 582.

An act to carry into effect the provisions of subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as the said article was amended on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in so far as the same relates to the state university; and also to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California; and to that end making a continuing appropriation and creating an annual fund therefor; and repealing an act entitled: "An act to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California by the levy of a rate of taxation and the creation of a fund therefor, and to repeal an act approved February 14, 1887, entitled: 'An act to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California by the levy of a rate of taxation and the creation of a fund therefor,' and also to repeal an act approved February 27, 1897, entitled 'An act to provide additional support and maintenance, and for the acquisition of necessary property and improvements of the University of California, by the levy of a rate of taxation, and the creation of a fund therefor,' " approved March 20, 1909.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

State university
created.

SECTION 1. In order to carry into effect the provisions of subdivision (e) of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California, as the said article was amended on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in so far as the same relates to the state university, and to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California, there is hereby created an annual fund, to be called "the state university fund." Said fund for the sixty-third fiscal year shall be equal to but not more than seven per cent in excess of the amount received by the university under the provisions of chapter three hundred and twenty-nine of the statutes of nineteen hundred and nine for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven: and provided, further, that such fund for each of the sixty-fourth, sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth fiscal years shall be equal to but not more than seven per cent in excess of the amount received by the university under this act for the immediately preceding respective fiscal year.

Treasurer
to transfer funds.

SEC. 2. The state treasurer shall each year transfer from the revenues from the taxes provided for in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state as said article was amended on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, together with all other state revenues, to the separate fund created by section one of this act, to be called the "state university fund," the amount of money provided for under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 3. The money paid into the said "state university fund" is hereby appropriated, without reference to fiscal years, for the use and support of the University of California, and is exempted from the provisions of part three, title one, article eighteen, of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, relating to the board of examiners. When there is any money in the said fund, the same may be drawn out upon the order of the board of regents of the University of California, or such officers of the board as may be duly authorized thereto. Upon the receipt of the order, the controller must draw his warrant upon the state treasurer, payable to the order of the treasurer of the University of California, out of the said "state university fund."

Fund appropriated without reference to fiscal years.

SEC. 4. The money derived from said fund must be applied only to the support and permanent improvement of the University; provided, however, that not less than one fourth of the said "state university fund" shall, until the close of the seventy-first fiscal year, be placed in a fund to be known and designated as the permanent building fund and which said fund must be devoted solely to the purposes of buildings and providing permanent improvements for the university. The board of regents must include in its biennial report to the governor the statement of the manner and for what purpose all of the moneys referred to and raised under this act were expended.

Disposition of funds.

SEC. 5. An act entitled "An act to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California by the levy of a rate of taxation and the creation of a fund therefor, and to repeal an act approved February 14, 1887, entitled 'An act to provide for the permanent support and improvement of the University of California by the levy of a rate of taxation and the creation of a fund therefor,' and also to repeal an act approved February 27, 1887, entitled 'An act to provide additional support and maintenance, and for the acquisition of necessary property and improvements of the University of California, by the levy of a rate of taxation, and the creation of a fund therefor,'" approved March 20, 1909, is hereby repealed. This act shall not be construed as in any way repealing or amending any other existing law which provides for the support, maintenance or improvement of the state university.

Repealed.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 583.

An act to amend sections 8 and 9 of, and to add two new sections to be known as sections 8a and 8b to, an act entitled "An act to regulate the sale and use of poisons in the State of California and providing a penalty for the violation thereof," approved March 6, 1907, as the title of said act was amended March 19, 1909.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8 of an act entitled "An act to regulate the sale and use of poisons in the State of California and providing a penalty for the violation thereof," approved March 6, 1907, as the title of said act was amended March 19, 1909, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 8. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, furnish or give away or offer to sell, furnish or give away or to have in their or his possession any cocaine, opium, morphine, codeine, heroin, alpha eucaine, beta eucaine, nova caine or chloral hydrate or any of the salts, derivatives or compounds of the foregoing substances or any preparation or compound containing any of the foregoing substances or their salts, derivatives or compounds, excepting upon the written order or prescription of a physician, dentist or veterinary surgeon licensed to practice in this state, which order or prescription shall be dated and shall contain the name of the person for whom prescribed, written in by the person writing said prescription, or if ordered by a veterinary surgeon it shall state the kind of animal for which ordered and shall be signed by the person giving the prescription or order. Such order or prescription shall be permanently retained on file by the person, firm or corporation who shall compound or dispense the articles ordered or prescribed and it shall not be again compounded or dispensed if each fluid or avoirdupois ounce contains more than eight grains of opium or one grain of morphine, or two grains of codeine, or one half grain of heroin, or one grain of cocaine, or one grain of alpha eucaine, or one grain of beta eucaine, or one grain of nova caine, or sixty grains of chloral hydrate, excepting upon the written order of the prescriber for each and every subsequent compounding or dispensing. No copy or duplicate of such written order or prescription shall be made or delivered to any person, but the original shall be at all times open to inspection by the prescriber and properly authorized officers of the law and shall be preserved for at least three years from the date of the filling thereof; provided, that the above provisions shall not apply to sales at wholesale by jobbers, wholesalers and manufacturers to pharmacies, as defined in section one of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice

Drugs not to be sold except on physician's prescription.

Prescriptions permanently on file.

No copies to be made.

Not applicable to jobbers.

Record of sales.

Date of sale.	Quantity and name of article.	Name of purchaser.	How delivered.	Name of person selling.
---------------	-------------------------------	--------------------	----------------	-------------------------

And said book shall always be open for inspection by any peace officer or any member of the board of pharmacy or any inspector by them authorized and such book shall be preserved for at least five years after the date of the last entry therein. It shall be unlawful for any practitioner of medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine to furnish to or to prescribe for the use of any habitual user of the same any cocaine, opium, morphine, codeine, heroin, or chloral hydrate, or any salt, derivative or compound of the foregoing substances or their salts, derivatives or compounds; and it shall also be unlawful for any practitioner of dentistry to prescribe any of the foregoing substances for any person not under his treatment in the regular practice of his profession, or for any veterinary surgeon to prescribe any of the foregoing substances for the use of any human being; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent any duly licensed physician from furnishing or prescribing in good faith as their physician by them employed as such, for any habitual user of any narcotic drugs who is under his professional care, such substances as he may deem necessary for their treatment, when such prescriptions are not given or substances furnished for the purpose of evading the purposes of this act; provided, that the above provisions shall not apply to preparations sold or dispensed without a physician's prescription containing less than two grains of opium, or one fourth grain of morphine, or one half grain of codeine, or one sixth grain heroin, or one sixth grain cocaine, or one sixth grain eucaine, or one sixth grain nova caine or one sixth grain beta eucaine or ten grains chloral hydrate in one fluid ounce or, if a solid preparation, in one ounce, avoirdupois ounce.

Unlawful to prescribe for habitual users.

Not applicable to certain prescriptions.

SEC. 2. A new section, to be known as section 8a, is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Possession of opium pipes a misdemeanor.

Section 8a. The possession of pipes used for smoking opium (commonly known as opium pipes) and the usual attachments thereto is hereby made a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by the penalties prescribed in section 7 of this act.

SEC. 3. A new section, to be known as section 8b, is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Drugs and pipes to be destroyed.

Section 8b. All narcotic drugs specified in section 8 and also all pipes used for smoking opium (commonly known as opium pipes) and the usual attachments thereto, seized under the provisions of this act shall be ordered destroyed by the judge of the court in which final conviction was had: said order or destruction shall contain the name of the party charged with the duty of destruction as herein required.

SEC. 4. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sale of carbolic acid prohibited.

Section 9. The sale or furnishing of carbolic acid (phenol) in quantities of less than one pound is prohibited unless upon the prescription of a physician, dentist or veterinary surgeon duly licensed to practice in this state, but this prohibition shall not apply to solutions of carbolic acid (phenol) containing not over ten per cent of the carbolic acid (phenol) and not less than ten per cent of ethyl alcohol. All sales of carbolic acid (phenol) thus diluted so as to contain no more than ten per cent of carbolic acid (phenol) may be made under the same conditions as the drugs enumerated in schedule "B" as found in section seven, but sales of carbolic acid (phenol) containing more than ten per cent of said acid shall be registered subject to the same regulations as the poisons enumerated in schedule "A" as found in section seven.

CHAPTER 584.

An act to provide for the collection, compilation and publication of agricultural and other industrial statistics for the State of California, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Agricultural society to publish annually agricultural and industrial statistics.

SECTION 1. The board of directors of the state agricultural society are authorized, and it is hereby made their duty, to collect, compile and publish annually, on or before the 31st day of January in each year, statistics showing the yield of agricultural and other farm and industrial products of the State of California for each preceding year, and shall, as nearly as may be practicable, ascertain and publish each year the number of acres of land within the state that are under irrigation, and the number, location and extent of any new irrigation enterprises, exclusive of individual pumping plants, that may have been started within the state during the preceding year.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars per annum is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and the controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant from time to time up to the amount of said appropriation in favor of the board of directors of the state agricultural society, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 585.

An act providing for the acquisition by the State of California for the United States of America of the right of way for cut-offs in rectification and improvement of the San Joaquin river, and appropriating fifteen thousand dollars for said purpose.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. From any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, there is hereby appropriated for the purpose of effectuating the conveyance by the present owners directly to the United States of America of the right of way for cut-offs or channels in rectification and improvement of the channel and navigation of the San Joaquin river, such cut-offs or channels being shown in and on house document No. 1124, sixtieth congress, second session.

SEC. 2. The governor of the State of California is hereby authorized to take and make such purchases, sales and conveyances of land as shall be necessary or convenient to the end of effectuating the aforesaid direct conveyance of such right of way to the United States of America, and the immediate return to the treasury of the State of California of the proceeds of the sale of any lands by him necessarily bought and thereafter sold on behalf of the State of California in the effectuation of the aforesaid purpose of acquiring said right of way for the United States of America; provided, that all and singular the said purchases and sales and all expenditures on account thereof be approved or audited by the state board of examiners.

SEC. 3. The controller of state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant in favor of the governor of the State of California for the amount herein made payable as provided herein and for the purposes hereof and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

CHAPTER 586.

An act appropriating money to pay the expense of maintaining an exhibit of the products of the State of California at the Italian International Exposition, to be held in the city of Turin, kingdom of Italy, in the year 1911.

[Approved April 25, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation:
exhibit at Italian International Exposition.

SECTION 1. The sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of collecting, transporting and maintaining an exhibit of the products of the State of California at the Italian International Exposition to be held in the city of Turin, in the kingdom of Italy, in the year 1911, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants on the general fund from time to time and for such portion of said sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and in favor of such persons as the governor of the State of California shall direct and the state treasurer is directed and empowered to pay the same.

SEC. 2. This act is exempt from the provisions of section 672 of the Political Code of the State of California.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 587.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to prohibit the sophistication and adulteration of wine, and to prevent fraud in the manufacture and sale thereof," approved March 7, 1887.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to prohibit the sophistication and adulteration of wine, and to prevent fraud in the manufacture and sale thereof," approved March 7, 1887, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 588.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of the lands embraced within such districts, and also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes," approved March 31st, 1897, by amending section 59 of said act, relative to the levying of assessments.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 59 of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of the lands embraced within such districts, and, also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes," approved March 31, 1897, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 59. The board of directors may, at any time, when in their judgment it may be deemed advisable, call a special election and submit to the qualified electors of the district the question whether or not a special assessment shall be levied for the purpose of raising money to be applied to any of the purposes provided in this act. Such election must be called upon the notice prescribed, and the same shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of section 30 of this act. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used. At such elections the ballots shall contain the words "Assessment—Yes" or "Assessment—No." If two thirds or more of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board shall, at the time of the annual levy hereunder, levy an assessment sufficient to raise the amount voted; provided, however, that an assessment of not to exceed two per centum of the value of the assessable property within the district may be levied in any one year without such vote by the adoption of a resolution by at least four fifths of the members of the board of directors, such amount not, however, to exceed the sum of seventy-five thousand ($75,000) dollars: provided, further, that if a petition signed by qualified voters in the district equal in number to fifteen per centum of the votes cast at the last preceding general election in such district, shall, within thirty days after the board shall by resolution have provided for the levying of such assessment, be filed with such board petitioning that an election relative to the levying of such assessment be held, such assessment shall not be levied without the election provided for in this section; provided, further, however, that in case of an unexpected emergency by which the flow of water in the canal is interrupted, the amount of the indebtedness incurred in the repair of the works of said district, caused by such interruption, not to exceed in any one year forty thousand ($40,000) dollars, may also, in addition to the assessments hereinbefore provided for, be levied by the adoption of a resolution by at least four fifths of the members of the board of directors, at the time of the levying of the annual assessment provided for in this act, without the submission of the question of such levy to a vote, as in this section hereinbefore provided.

Directors may call election on question of special assessment.

Emergency indebtedness.

CHAPTER 589.

An act to amend section 292 of the Civil Code of the State of California relating to the subscription and acknowledgment of articles of incorporation.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 292 of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Subscription and acknowledgment of articles of incorporation.

292. The articles of incorporation must be subscribed by three or more persons, a majority of whom must be residents of this state, and acknowledged by each before some officer authorized to take and certify acknowledgments or conveyances of real property. The signature of each person named in said articles of incorporation as directors of such corporation shall be affixed to said articles of incorporation and acknowledged by each before some officer authorized to take and certify acknowledgments of conveyances of real property.

CHAPTER 590.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for temporary floors in buildings more than three stories high in the course of construction and for the protection of the life and limb of workmen employed in such buildings from falling through joists or girders, and from falling bricks, rivets, etc., approved March 6, 1909, and to make the act apply to buildings more than two stories high in the course of construction.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any building more than two stories high in the course of construction shall have the joists, beams or girders of each and every floor below the floor or level where any work is being done, or about to be done, covered with flooring laid close together, or with such other suitable material to protect workmen engaged in such building from falling through joists or girders, and from falling planks, bricks, rivets, tools, or any other substance whereby life and limb are endangered.

Temporary floors in buildings more than two stories high.

SEC. 2. Such flooring shall not be removed until the same is replaced by the permanent flooring in such building.

Not to be removed.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the general contractor having charge of the erection of such building to provide for the flooring as herein required, or to make such arrangements as may be necessary with subcontractors in order that the provisions of this act may be carried out.

Duty of contractor.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the owner or the agent of the owner of such building to see that the general contractor or subcontractors carry out the provisions of this act.

Duty of owner.

SEC. 5. Should the general contractor or subcontractors of such building fail to provide for the flooring of such building, as herein provided, then it shall be the duty of the owner or the agent of the owner of such building to see that the provisions of this act are carried out.

When contractor fails to provide.

SEC. 6. Failure upon the part of the owner, agent of the owner, general contractor, or subcontractors to comply with the provisions of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as such.

Misdemeanor.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect within sixty days.

CHAPTER 591.

An act to amend section four hundred and ten of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to foreign corporations, and the penalty for failure to file certified copies of articles of incorporation by said foreign corporations.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 410 of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

410. Every corporation organized under the laws of another state, or territory, or of a foreign country, which shall neglect or fail, within ninety days from the taking effect of this section, to comply with the conditions of sections four hundred and eight and four hundred and nine of this code, shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction; and it is hereby made the duty of the secretary of state, as he may be advised that corporations are doing business in contravention of sections four hundred and eight and four hundred and nine of this code, to report the fact to the governor, who shall instruct Foreign corporations failing to comply with law.

Proceedings to recover fine.

Corporations failing to comply may not maintain suits.

Corporations exempted.

(1) the district attorney of the county wherein such corporation has its principal place of business, or (2) the attorney general of the state, or both, as soon as practicable, to institute proceedings to recover the fine provided for in this section, and the amount so recovered must be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund of the state; in addition to which penalty, no foreign corporation which shall fail to comply with sections four hundred and eight and four hundred and nine of this code can maintain any suit or action in any of the courts of this state, or acquire or convey any legal title to any real property within this state, until it has complied with said sections; provided, that any such corporation which, prior to the eighth day of March, nineteen hundred and one, shall have complied with the provisions of the act entitled "An act to amend 'An act in relation to foreign corporations.'" approved April first, eighteen hundred and seventy-two." approved March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine. is exempted from the provisions of this section and the two sections next preceding.

CHAPTER 592.

An act to amend sections 20 and 22 of an act entitled "An act for preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded foods and liquors and regulating the traffic therein, providing penalties, establishing a state laboratory for foods, liquors and drugs and making an appropriation therefor," approved March 11, 1907.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20 of an act entitled "An act for preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded foods and liquors and regulating the traffic therein, providing penalties, establishing a state laboratory for foods, liquors and drugs and making an appropriation therefor," approved March 11, 1907. is hereby amended to read as follows:

Misdemeanor to violate act.

Adulterated food to be destroyed.

Section 20. Any person, firm, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Food found to be adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded within the meaning of this act may, by order of any court or judge, be seized and destroyed.

SEC. 2. Section 22 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 22. No dealer shall be prosecuted under the provisions of this act, when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer or other party residing in the United States from whom he purchased such article to the effect that the same is not adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded within the meaning of this act, designating it, and can also establish by satisfactory evidence that the article sold by him was mislabeled and that at the time of making such sale he was not aware of that fact. Said guaranty to afford protection must contain the name and address of the party or parties making the sales of such article to said dealer, and an itemized statement showing the articles purchased; or a general guaranty may be filed with the secretary of the United States department of agriculture by the manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber or other party in the United States and be given a serial number, which number shall appear on each and every package of goods sold under such guaranty with the words "guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30, 1906." In case the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer or other party making such guaranty to said dealer resides without this state, and it appears from the certificate of the director of the state laboratory that such article or articles were adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded, within the meaning of this act, or the national pure food act, approved June 30, 1906, the district attorney must forthwith notify the attorney general of the United States of such violation.

Dealer not to be prosecuted when he holds wholesaler's guaranty.

CHAPTER 597.

An act to amend section ten of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California relating to holidays.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Holidays.

10. Holidays within the meaning of this code, are every Sunday, the first day of January, twelfth day of February, to be known as Lincoln day, twenty-second day of February, thirtieth day of May, fourth of July, ninth day of September, first Monday in September, twelfth day of October, to be known as "Columbus day," twenty-fifth day of December, every day on which an election is held throughout the state, and every day appointed by the president of the United States or by the governor of this state for a public fast, thanksgiving or holiday. If the first day of January, twelfth day of February, twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the ninth day of September, the twelfth day of October or the twenty-fifth day of December falls upon a Sunday, the Monday following is a holiday. Every Saturday from twelve o'clock noon until twelve o'clock midnight is a holiday as regards the transaction of business in the public offices of this state, and also in political divisions thereof where laws, ordinances or charters provide that public offices shall be closed on holidays; provided, this shall not be construed to prevent or invalidate the issuance, filing, service, execution or recording of any legal process or written instrument whatever on such Saturday afternoons; and provided, further, that the public schools of this state shall close on Saturday, Sunday, the first day of January, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the twenty-fifth day of December and on every day appointed by the president of the United States or the governor of this state for a public fast, thanksgiving or holiday. Said public schools shall continue in session on all other legal holidays and shall hold proper exercises commemorating the day. Boards of school trustees and city boards of education shall have power to declare a holiday in the public schools under their jurisdiction when good reason exists therefor.

CHAPTER 598.

An act to amend section 4254 of the Political Code of California, relating to salaries of officers of counties of the twenty-fifth class.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4254 of the Political Code of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

4254. In counties of the twenty-fifth class the county officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their office, the following salaries, to wit:

1. The county clerk, two thousand two hundred dollars per annum; provided, that in counties of this class there shall be one deputy clerk, who shall be appointed by the county clerk and paid a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, in equal monthly installments, at the same time, in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the county clerk is paid; and during each year in which a primary election is held throughout the state the county clerk shall be allowed to employ additional help at a total cost not to exceed three hundred dollars to be paid out of the same fund as the salary of the county clerk.

2. The sheriff, five thousand dollars per annum, and fees, commissions, and mileage for the service of papers or process coming from courts other than those of his own county.

3. The recorder, one thousand six hundred dollars per annum; provided, that such recorder shall collect and pay into the county treasury, for the use and benefit of the county, the fees required by law to be collected; and provided, that when the amount of said fees collected shall exceed two hundred and fifty dollars in any month, the recorder may receive and retain for his own use, in addition to his salary, one half of all fees in excess of two hundred and fifty dollars in any month so collected.

4. The auditor, one thousand six hundred dollars per annum.

5. The treasurer, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, and the fees and commissions now or hereafter allowed by law.

6. The tax collector, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and the fees and commissions now or hereafter allowed by law.

7. The assessor, two thousand six hundred dollars per annum, and the fees and commissions now or hereafter allowed by law; provided, that in counties of this class there shall be allowed two deputies who shall be appointed by the assessor, one to receive a salary of one thousand three hundred eighty dollars per annum and one to receive a salary of one thousand three hundred twenty dollars per annum in equal monthly installments, at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the assessor is paid. It shall be the duty of said deputies, among other things, to make and correct all necessary plats, maps, and block books for the assessor's office; provided, also, that for each name upon the assessment roll, representing one or more statements in excess of four thousand five hundred, the assessor shall receive fifty cents.

District
attorney.

8. The district attorney, two thousand two hundred dollars per annum; provided, that in counties of this class there shall be allowed one deputy who shall be appointed by the district attorney, and who shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars per year, to be paid in equal monthly installments, out of the same fund, at the same time, and in the same manner as the salary of the district attorney is paid.

11. The superintendent of schools, two thousand dollars per annum. He shall also be allowed his actual traveling expenses when visiting the schools of the county, which expenses shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars in any one year. He shall receive nothing for his services as a member of the board of education. The superintendent of schools shall be allowed one deputy, to be appointed by the principal, which said deputy shall be allowed a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, to be paid at the same time, in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the superintendent of schools is paid.

Surveyor.

12. The surveyor shall receive one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, and in addition thereto actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in connection with field work. He shall have one deputy at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; said deputy to be appointed by the principal and paid at the same time and in the same manner as other county officers. It shall be the duty of the surveyor among other things, to make all necessary county and road maps, and all necessary plans and specifications for bridge work and county buildings; provided, however, that when in the judgment of the board of supervisors of the county it is necessary to employ additional assistance for the performance of said work other than with regard to roads, the board of supervisors may allow the necessary and actual expense thereof; provided, he shall receive nothing for preparing any map or plat necessary to accompany reports made by him on road work, nor for preparing and keeping up the necessary and proper records of his office. He shall at all times be subject to the orders of the board of supervisors. The office of the surveyor shall be kept open for the accommodation of the public with the surveyor, his deputy or a competent clerk in charge, from nine o'clock A. M. until five o'clock P. M. the same as other county offices, and the said county surveyor shall be allowed the sum of fifty dollars per month, or six hundred dollars per annum for the service of a competent clerk, which office is hereby created; said clerk to be appointed by the said surveyor and to be paid out of the same fund, at the same time and in the same manner as other county officers are paid.

13. For the purpose of regulating the compensation of justices of the peace and constables, townships of this class of counties are hereby classified according to the population as shown by the census of 1910: (1) Townships having a population of five thousand or more shall belong to and be known as townships of the first class; (2) townships having a population of three thousand and less than five thousand shall belong to and be known as townships of the second class; (3) townships having a population of two thousand seven hundred and fifty and less than three thousand shall belong to and be known as townships of the third class; (4) townships having a population of two thousand five hundred and less than two thousand seven hundred and fifty shall belong to and be known as townships of the fourth class; (5) townships having a population of one thousand five hundred and less than two thousand five hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the fifth class; (6) townships having a population of seven hundred and fifty and less than one thousand five hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the sixth class; (7) townships having a population of less than seven hundred and fifty shall belong to and be known as townships of the seventh class; providing, that the board of supervisors of the county may, prior to any general election, consolidate one or more townships into one.

Classification of townships.

13a. Justices of the peace shall receive the following monthly salaries, to be paid each month as the county officers are paid, which shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by them in criminal cases, to wit: In townships of the first class, ninety dollars; in townships of the second class, forty dollars; in townships of the third class, fifty dollars; in townships of the fourth class, forty dollars; in townships of the fifth class, forty dollars; in townships of the sixth and seventh class, twenty dollars. They shall act as road commissioner in their respective districts, and shall thereafter receive for their services as such road commissioners mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile each, one way, for all distances actually traveled by them in the discharge of their duties as such road commissioners; provided, that such mileage as road commissioner shall not, in any one year, exceed the sum of three hundred dollars for any one of the commissioners.

Witnesses.

16. Witnesses in criminal cases shall receive one dollar and fifty cents per day, and ten cents per mile for each mile actually traveled, one way only. The court shall make an order directing the auditor to draw his warrant on the county treasurer for the amount due, and the treasurer shall pay the same. The court may disallow any fee to a witness unnecessarily subpoenaed.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately after its passage.

CHAPTER 599.

An act to amend section 530 of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March 12, 1872, relating to the election, term of office and qualifications of the superintendent of state printing.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 530 of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code" approved March 12, 1872, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

530. The superintendent of state printing shall be appointed by the governor of the state, with the advice and consent of the senate and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. He shall be a competent practical printer, and before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office shall give a good and sufficient bond to the people of the State of California in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by governor, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond shall be filed in the office of secretary of state. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the term of office of any person elected to the office herein mentioned prior to the adoption hereof.

CHAPTER 600.

An act to amend sections 2319, 2319a, 2319b, 2319c, 2319d, 2319e, 2319f, 2319h, 2319j of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the state commissioner of horticulture, and prescribing the powers, duties and compensation of said state commissioner of horticulture and the officers and employees appointed by said commissioner and providing methods, means and penalties for the enforcement of such powers and duties and providing for the appointment of additional officers, fixing their compensation and prescribing their duties.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2319 of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

2319. The state commissioner of horticulture of California shall be a citizen and resident of this state, and his term

Commissioner of horticulture, appointment, term, etc.

shall be for four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. The governor may remove such commissioner from office at any time upon filing with the secretary of state a certificate of removal signed by the governor. In the case of vacancy in said office by death, resignation, removal from office, or other cause, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. In appointing such commissioner and his successor or successors, it shall be the duty of the governor to disregard political affiliations, and to be guided in his selection entirely by the professional and moral qualifications of the person so selected for the performance of the duties of said office. Said commissioner shall be a civil executive officer. The salary of said commissioner shall be four thousand dollars per annum, and he shall be allowed his traveling and incidental expenses necessary in the discharge of his duties. For the direction and accomplishment of his work the said commissioner may and is hereby empowered to appoint certain deputies, secretary, quarantine officers, superintendents, assistants, and clerk as hereinafter provided, who shall hold office at the pleasure of said commissioner and perform any and all duties pertaining to their office or employment which the said commissioner may require of each of them, and may be removed from office or position at any time by said commissioner filing with the secretary of state a certificate signed by said commissioner so removing such deputy, secretary, quarantine officer, superintendent, assistant, or clerk. The traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the officers and employees herein provided for in the performance of their duties shall be paid from the funds appropriated for the support of the office of the state commissioner of horticulture. Said commissioner may arrange his office into three divisions, to wit: executive office, quarantine division, insectary and pathological division. Said commissioner may appoint a chief deputy who shall be an expert entomologist and horticulturist and shall have charge of the work in the field and shall represent the commissioner ex officio with the county horticultural commissioners when so authorized in accordance with the provisions of the law. Such chief deputy shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner may appoint a secretary, who shall be a civil executive officer. Said secretary shall be versed in horticulture and entomology and shall compile such bulletins and such publications as may issue from the office of said commissioner from time to time, and shall perform all other duties as may be required of him by said commissioner. Such secretary shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner may appoint a clerk whose salary shall be one thousand five hundred dollars per annum. The main office of such commissioner shall be at the city of Sacramento. The secretary of state shall furnish and set aside at the capitol a room or rooms suitable for offices for said commissioner, and if the secretary of state shall make and file an affidavit with the said commissioner stating that it is not possible for him, as such secretary of state, to provide and set aside an office for said commissioner in the capitol or in any state building under his control, because there is no such office room or rooms available, then, and after the making and delivery of such affidavit to such commissioner, the said commissioner may rent rooms convenient and suitable for his offices at a rental not to exceed one thousand dollars per year. The office of said commissioner shall be kept open every day except holidays, and shall be in charge of the secretary, during the absence of the commissioner. Said commissioner may also keep and maintain an office in the city and county of San Francisco at a yearly rental not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars. Said commissioner may appoint for the work of the quarantine division a chief deputy quarantine officer who shall be a skilled entomologist and particularly conversant with the nature of foreign insect pests and diseases and effective means of preventing their introduction, and shall have charge of the commissioner's San Francisco office provided for in this section of this act. Such chief deputy quarantine officer shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner may appoint a deputy quarantine officer who shall be a competent entomologist for the purpose of quarantine work. Such deputy quarantine officer shall receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner shall also properly maintain and operate the state insectary located on the state capitol grounds in Sacramento from funds provided by law for such purpose, and shall appoint for the work of the insectary division a superintendent of the insectary, who shall be an expert entomologist able to perform all the necessary duties with reference to the importation, rearing and distribution of beneficial insects. The salary of the superintendent of the state insectary shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner may appoint an assistant superintendent of the insectary, who shall be an economic entomologist, at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. Said commissioner may appoint a field deputy for the insectary division, who shall be a practical entomologist and whose salary shall be one thousand five hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of all the officers above mentioned shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of other state officers. Said commissioner may also appoint, by and with the approval of the governor, such temporary deputies from time to time as may be required and such temporary deputies shall receive such reasonable compensation per diem as may be fixed by said commissioner.

SEC. 3. Section 2319*b* of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Quarantine regulations.

2319*b*. Said commissioner may, by and with the approval of the governor, establish, maintain and enforce such quarantine regulations as may be deemed necessary to protect the nurseries, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit-pits, fruit, seeds, vegetables or other articles of horticulture, against contagion or infection by injurious disease, insects or pests, by establishing such quarantine at the boundaries of this state or elsewhere within the state, and he may make and enforce, with the approval of the governor, any and all such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to prevent any infected stock, tree, shrub, plant, vine, cutting, graft, scion, bud, fruit-pit, fruit, seeds, vegetable or other article of horticulture, from passing over any quarantine line established and proclaimed pursuant to this act, and all such articles shall, during the maintenance of such quarantine, be inspected by such commissioner or by deputies appointed in writing by said commissioner, and he and the deputies so conducting such inspection shall not permit any such article to pass over such a quarantine line during such quarantine, except upon a certificate of inspection signed by such commissioner or in his name by such a deputy who has made such inspection. All approvals by the governor given or made pursuant to this act shall be in writing and signed by the governor in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and the other in the office of said commissioner before such approval shall take effect.

SEC. 4. Section 2319c of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

2319c. Upon information received by such commissioner of the existence of any infectious disease, insect or pest, dangerous to any article, or to the interests of horticulture within this state, or that there is a probability of the introduction of any such infectious disease, insect or pest into this state or across the boundaries thereof, he shall proceed to thoroughly investigate the same and may establish, maintain and enforce quarantine as hereinbefore provided, with such regulations as may be necessary to circumscribe and exterminate or eradicate such infectious diseases, insects or pests, and prevent the extension thereof, and is hereby authorized to enter upon any ground or premises, and inspect any stock, tree, shrub, plant, vine, cutting, graft, scion, bud, fruit-pit, fruit, seed, vegetable or other article of horticulture or implement thereof or box or package pertaining thereto, or connected therewith or that has been used in packing, shipping or handling the same, and to open any such package, and generally to do, with the least injury possible under the conditions to property or business, all acts and things necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER 601.

An act to provide for the reimbursement of counties in this state, which sustain net loss of revenue by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation, under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for each fiscal year hereafter to and including the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, one thousand nine hundred eighteen, the sum of one hundred and thirty thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven dollars for the purpose of reimbursement of counties in this state which sustain net loss of revenue by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state, and as provided in section thirty of an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled, "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation."

Appropriation: reimbursement of counties for loss of railroad taxes.

SEC. 2. The counties which sustain net loss of revenue, by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation under the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state are the counties of Imperial, Madera, Nevada, Placer, San Bernardino, Siskiyou, and Yuba.

Counties.

and the amount of net loss of revenue which said counties sustain by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation is as follows: Imperial, twenty-one thousand fifty-four dollars; Madera, two thousand four hundred seventy-eight dollars; Nevada, five thousand eight hundred sixty-one dollars; Placer, thirty-six thousand three hundred four dollars; San Bernardino, fifty-two thousand nine hundred eighty-seven dollars; Siskiyou, five thousand forty-five dollars; Yuba, seven thousand one hundred seventy-two dollars.

SEC. 3. The controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of each of said counties for the amount of net loss of revenue to said counties respectively, in equal installments at the time and in the manner provided for settlement between treasurers of the counties or cities and counties and the state controller, by section three thousand eight hundred and sixty-six of the Political Code and as is required by the provisions of section thirty of an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation" and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 602.

An act appropriating money for the purpose of payment of that part of the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district, on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten which is provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and as provided in an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled, "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation."

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any money not otherwise appropriated the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of payment of that part of the principal and interest of any bonded indebtedness created and outstanding by any city, city and county, county, town, township or district, on the eighth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, as is provided in section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of this state and as provided in an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation," and of said moneys hereby appropriated the sum of six hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be available for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth nineteen hundred and twelve and the sum of eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be available for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

Appropriation: principal and interest of bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant for said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary for said fiscal years, in the manner and at the times and as is required by the provisions of section twenty-nine of an act of the thirty-ninth session of the legislature, entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section fourteen of article thirteen of the constitution of the State of California as said constitution was amended November 8, 1910, providing for the separation of state from local taxation, and providing for the taxation of public service and other corporations for the benefit of the state, all relating to revenue and taxation," and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 603.

An act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, relating to confidential communications.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1881. There are particular relations in which it is the policy of the law to encourage confidence and to preserve it

Cases in which witnesses may not be examined.

Husband and wife.

inviolate; therefore, a person can not be examined as a witness in the following cases:

1. A husband can not be examined for or against his wife without her consent; nor a wife for or against her husband, without his consent; nor can either, during the marriage or afterwards, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage; but this exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceedings for a crime committed by one against the other; or in an action brought by husband or wife against another person for the alienation of the affections of either husband or wife or in an action for damages against another person for adultery committed by either husband or wife.

Attorney and client.

2. An attorney can not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment; nor can an attorney's secretary, stenographer, or clerk be examined, without the consent of his employer, concerning any fact the knowledge of which has been acquired in such capacity.

Confessor and confessant.

3. A clergyman or priest can not, without the consent of the person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

Physician and patient.

4. A licensed physician or surgeon can not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending the patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient; provided, however, that after the death of the patient, the executor of his will, or the administrator of his estate, or the surviving spouse of the deceased, or, if there be no surviving spouse, the children of the deceased personally, or, if minors, by their guardian, may give such consent, in any action or proceeding brought to recover damages on account of the death of the patient, caused by the negligent or wrongful act of another.

Public officer.

5. A public officer can not be examined as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 604.

An act to amend sections seventeen hundred fifty-one, seventeen hundred fifty-six, seventeen hundred fifty-eight and seventeen hundred fifty-nine of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the admission of pupils to high schools, and to the tuition of pupils of one county attending high schools in another county and providing for payment of same.

[Approved April 26, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1751 of the Political Code is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1751. Any graduate of the elementary schools of this state and any other person who furnishes to the principal of the high school he desires to attend, and to the superintendent having jurisdiction over such high school, satisfactory evidence of his fitness for high school work, may attend any high school in this state: provided, that any person residing in a high school district may attend the high school in another high school district only upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the high school board of the two districts, or if such boards fail to agree, on such terms as the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction by the provisions of this article over the high school he desires to attend may prescribe; and provided, further, that any person not residing in a high school district or residing in a place which is subject to a county tax for the support of a county high school, or county high schools, and desiring to attend a high school in a high school district situate entirely outside the county in which such person resides may attend such high school only upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the high school board of the high school which he desires to attend and the superintendent of schools of the county in which he resides, or if they fail to agree on such terms as the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction by the provision of this article over the high school he desires to attend may prescribe. When terms have been made and agreed upon as provided for in this section, the superintendent of schools of the county in which such person resides is authorized and empowered to apportion and cause to be paid over to the high school which such person desires to attend such portion of the high school tuition fund of his county provided for by sections 1758 and 1759 of this code or such portion of the fund provided for the support of a county high school or county high schools as provided in sections 1756 and 1757 of this code, as may be equitable and as may be agreed to by the high school board of the high school such person desires to attend.

Admission of pupils to high school.

SEC. 2. Section 1756 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Estimate of tax for maintenance.

1756. It shall be the duty of every high school board to make and file with the board of supervisors of each county in which any part of their high school district is situated, on or before the first Monday of September of each year, an estimate of the amount of money required for maintaining the high school for the current school year, including rent of temporary quarters, if any. The first such estimate after the formation of such district shall also, if temporary quarters have been secured for the high school, include the amount of money required to provide the necessary furniture and apparatus for such temporary quarters. Every county board of education acting as trustees of a county high school shall annually make and file with the board of supervisors of their county the estimate required by this section, and an estimate of the amount needed for the current year to pay for the education of all high school pupils residing in such county outside of a high school district and attending a high school in another county, such estimate to be based upon the report of the superintendent of schools of such adjoining county provided for by section 1758 of this code. Should the trustees of any county high school, or the high school board of any high school district, fail to make the estimate provided for by this section, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of schools of the county (or) having jurisdiction over such high school district, to make and file such estimate on or before the second Monday of September.

SEC. 3. Section 1758 of the Political Code of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Special tax for education of pupils not residing in a high
district.

1758. For the purpose of defraying the cost of educating high school pupils residing in any county and not in any high school district, a special tax shall be annually levied by the board of supervisors of each county in which there is no county high school upon all property in the county not situated in any high school district, in the manner hereinafter provided. Every superintendent of schools to whom any report is made under section seventeen hundred forty-three, shall verify each such report as to the new pupils therein mentioned as attending high school and residing in his county but not in any high school district, and shall compile a report showing the total number of such high school pupils residing in his county outside of any high school district, the net cost of educating each of such pupils, the total net cost for all of such pupils, and the total net cost to each high school district for all of such pupils attending therein; to be determined as hereinafter provided. The net cost in any year of educating a new pupil attending a high school and not residing in any high school district shall be the excess, if any, of the total cost for such year, of educating each high school pupil of the district maintaining such high school over the amount per pupil paid by the state to such high school district for that year. If it shall appear to a superintendent of schools by the reports of the principals in the several high schools of his county that pupils living in an adjoining county are attending high school in his county, then said superintendent of schools shall compile a report showing the names of said pupils, the county from which they came and the net cost of educating each and the total cost of educating all of such pupils. Said report shall be forwarded by registered mail to the superintendent of schools of the county from which such pupils attend. to be by said superintendent of schools to whom such report is sent filed with the board of supervisors of such county on or before September first of each year. The cost of educating each high school pupil of any high school district shall be determined by dividing the total amount expended by the high school district for maintaining school during any school year, by the average daily attendance of pupils enrolled in the high schools of the district during the same school year. The amount paid per pupil by the state to any high school district in any one year shall be determined by dividing the high school district's income from the state high school fund for that year, by the average daily attendance of pupils enrolled in the high schools of the district for that year.

Method of determining cost per pupil.

SEC. 4. Section 1759 of the Political Code of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

1759. Not later than the first Monday in September of each year the superintendent of schools of each county in which there is not a county high school shall certify to the board of supervisor and to the county auditor of such county, the total net cost, for the preceding year, of educating all high school pupils residing in such county and not in any high school district, and the estimated amount needed for that purpose for the current year. The board of supervisors with whom such certificate is filed must, at the time of making the tax levy for that year for county purposes, levy a special tax upon all taxable property in the county not situated in any high school district, sufficient in amount to defray the net cost, for the current year, of educating all high school pupils residing in such county and not in any high school district. If it shall appear by the report of the superintendent of schools that pupils residing in one are attending high school in another county, the supervisors of the county in which said pupils live shall levy a tax as is provided by this section to pay the cost of educating such pupils. If the board of supervisors fail to make such tax levy the auditor of the county must make the same. Said tax when collected shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in a fund to be known as the high school tuition fund. The auditor shall, not later than the last Monday in December and the last Monday in May of each year, notify the superintendent of schools of the amount in such fund, and the superintendent of schools shall thereupon apportion the same to the several high school districts having territory in his county, or to high schools in adjoining counties as provided above, in proportion to the total net cost to each of said districts of educating its high school pupils who reside in his county outside of any high school district, as shown in his report for the preceding school year compiled as directed in section seventeen hundred fifty eight, and certify such apportionment to the auditor. The amount so apportioned to each high school district shall be paid into the treasury of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over such high school district, to the credit of the special fund thereof, and shall be used to maintain the high school, and paid out in the same manner as other high school funds. The superintendent of schools of a county having high school pupils attending high school in an adjoining county shall draw his order on the county auditor in favor of the superintendent of schools in which such pupils attend school, for any money belonging to any high school outside of his county as provided in this section. The county auditor of said county shall draw his warrant as directed by the superintendent of schools and the county treasurer shall pay the same. A superintendent of schools in whose favor such order is drawn shall pay the amount of said money into the county treasury to the credit of the high school or schools educating the children from the county paying such money.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect July 1st, 1911.

CHAPTER 605.

An act to amend section 4259 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to salaries and fees of officers in counties of the thirtieth class.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4259 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 611.

An act to amend section 2643 of the Political Code relating to the powers of boards of supervisors relating to roads.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2643 of the Political Code is herein amended to read as follows:

2643. The boards of supervisors of the several counties of the state shall have general supervision over the roads within their respective counties. They must by proper order: Powers of supervisors over roads.

1. Cause to be surveyed, viewed, laid out, recorded, opened, and worked, such highways as are necessary to public convenience, as in this chapter provided.

2. Cause to be recorded as highways all highways which have become such by usage, dedication or abandonment to the public, or by any other means provided by law, and to prepare and record proper deeds and titles thereto.

3. Abolish or abandon such as are not necessary.

4. Acquire the right of way over private property for the use of public highways, and for that purpose require the dis- Right of way.

trict attorney to institute proceedings, under title VII, part III. of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to pay therefor from the general road fund or the district road fund of the county.

5. Levy a property tax for road purposes.

6. Cause to be erected and maintained, at the intersections and crossings of highways, guide posts, properly inscribed.

Apportionment of taxes.

7. Cause the road tax collected each year to be apportioned to the several road districts entitled thereto, and kept by the county treasurer in separate funds.

8. Audit all claims on the funds set apart for highway purposes, and specify the fund, or funds, from which the whole or any part of any claim, or claims, must be paid.

Gates.

9. In their discretion, they may provide for the establishment of gates on the public highways, in certain cases, to avoid the necessity of building road fences, and prescribe rules and regulations for closing the same, and penalties for violating said rules; provided, that the expense for the erection and maintenance of such gates shall in all cases be borne by the party or parties for whose immediate benefit the same shall be ordered.

Sprinkling.

10. For the purpose of sprinkling the roads in any part of the county with oil or water, the board of supervisors may erect and maintain waterworks and oil tanks and reservoirs, and for such purposes may purchase or lease real or personal property. The costs of such waterworks, oil tanks and reservoirs and the sprinkling of said roads with oil or water may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund, or the district fund of the district or districts benefited. Whenever it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of any county that the public convenience and necessity demand the acquisition or construction of a road in excess of three miles in length, the cost of which will be too great to pay out of any of the road funds of the county, the board of supervisors may, by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of said board, determine to acquire or construct such road, and may, therefore, proceed to acquire or construct such road and if the cost of such road, when constructed, shall exceed five thousand dollars, such cost may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund or the district fund of the district or districts benefited: and provided, however, that whenever it is determined by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of any county that it will cost less to repair, reconstruct or rebuild any existing main line road in said county, which is in excess of three miles in length and the cost of the repairing, reconstruction or rebuilding of which will exceed five thousand dollars, than it will to acquire or construct a new road between the same points, the said board of supervisors may, by resolution passed by a four-fifths vote of said board, determine to repair, reconstruct or rebuild such road and the cost thereof may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund or the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

Roads may be paid for out of general fund.

11. Whenever it shall be determined that any grading, graveling, macadamizing, ditching, sprinkling, or other work upon highways is necessary, and is to be done, and where the estimated cost of such work amounts to three hundred dollars, the board of supervisors must, by proper order, direct the county surveyor to make definite surveys of the proposed work, and to prepare profiles and cross-sections thereof, and to submit the same with the estimate of the amount or amounts of work to be done, and cost thereof, and with specifications thereof. Said report shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the surveyor's office, and the other to be filed with the clerk of the board of supervisors. The board upon receipt of such report must advertise for bids for the performance of the work specified. Such advertisement for bids must be published for two weeks in two newspapers, one published at the county seat and the other at a point nearest the proposed work.

Surveyor to submit estimates.

Advertising for bids.

Such advertisement must be in the following form :

“OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

 Clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of

And such advertisement must also be posted, for at least two weeks prior to the opening of the bids for the proposed work, in three conspicuous places in the district or districts in which the proposed work lies, and one at the site of the proposed work. Bids must be included in sealed envelope, addressed to the clerk of the board of supervisors, and must be indorsed: “Bids for,” and must be delivered to said clerk prior to the hour specified in the advertisement. The board shall publicly open and read such bids as may be submitted, and must award the contract for the work to the lowest bidder; unless it shall appear to the board that the bids are too high, and the work can be done more cheaply by day labor, in which case the bids must be rejected, and the work ordered done by the road commissioner, or commissioners, in whose district or districts the work may be situated. In case the work shall be let by contract, monthly or quarterly payments may be made thereon upon the receipt of a certified estimate by the county surveyor of the amount of work done during the preceding month or quarter, to the extent of seventy-five per cent of the value of said work, the remaining twenty-five per cent being due on the completion of the work. The services of the surveyor in making such partial estimates must be paid for by the contractor. Upon the completion of the work, the county surveyor must examine the same, and if completed in accordance with the specifications thereof, he must submit to the board of supervisors a certificate over his signature and official seal to the effect that such work by the contractor therefor, has been completed in accordance with the specifications therefor, and recommending its acceptance. The board shall thereupon audit the same and direct its payment out of the proper fund or funds.

Side paths. 12. In their discretion they may set apart on any public road or highway a strip of land for a side path, and make an order designating the width of such path and cause the lines separating the path from the road to be located and marked by stakes or posts, placed at such distances apart as they shall deem proper. After said paths have been set apart, and the lines separating the same from the road have been located and marked, as aforesaid, the use of the same is hereby restricted to pedestrians and riders of bicycles and other vehicles propelled solely by the power of the rider. Expense of erecting and maintaining such path may be charged to the general county fund, the general road fund, and the district fund of the district or districts benefited.

CHAPTER 612.

An act relating to lakes and streams, the waters of which contain minerals in commercial quantities; withdrawing state lands within the meander lines thereof from sale; prescribing conditions for taking such minerals from said waters and lands, and providing for the leasing of lands uncovered by the recession of the waters of such lakes and streams.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Waters containing minerals withdrawn from sale.

SECTION 1. There is hereby withdrawn from selection and sale all of the lands embraced within the original meander lines of streams and lakes belonging to the state, the waters of which contain minerals in commercial quantities, and all such lands which may hereafter inure to the state by virtue of its sovereignty, excepting such lands now contracted to be sold under sections 3493^m to 3493^t, both inclusive, of the Political Code.

Water may be taken only under this act.

SEC. 2. No person, firm or corporation shall take water from such streams or lakes containing minerals and extract from such waters such minerals, except under the terms and conditions of this act; and no person, firm or corporation may lease any land herein referred to and extract therefrom minerals deposited therein or thereon, except under the terms and conditions of this act.

SEC. 3. Every person, firm or corporation taking from the waters of such stream, lakes or lands any minerals, shall file, on or before the last Monday in January of each year, with the county assessor of the county in which any such stream or lake is situated, and also with the state controller, a written statement, duly verified, showing in tons of two thousand pounds, the amount of mineral taken by such person, firm or corporation from such water or land during the year ending December 31st last preceding and sold by said person, firm or corporation during the said year preceding. Any such person, firm or corporation neglecting or refusing to furnish such statement shall be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars for each day after the said last Monday in January such person, firm or corporation shall fail to furnish such statement, and, in addition to said fine, shall forfeit all leases granting the right to extract such minerals from said water and said land. Any person who shall, either on behalf of himself or any firm or corporation, verify any such statement which shall be untrue in any material part, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Statement to be filed with county assessor and state controller.

SEC. 4. In case either the assessor or the state controller shall not be satisfied with the statement as returned, he may make an examination of the matters necessary to verify or correct said statement, and, for that purpose, may subpoena witnesses and call for and compel the production of necessary books and papers belonging to the person, firm or corporation making the returns.

Examination of statement.

SEC. 5. The county assessor of the county shall, after examination and approval by him and the state controller of such statement, proceed to collect from such person, firm or corporation a royalty of twenty-five cents for each ton of two thousand pounds of mineral taken from such water or land by such person, firm or corporation and sold during the preceding year, in the manner provided for the collection of personal property taxes; provided, that the royalty on sodium bicarbonate and on sodium hydrate so taken shall be fifty (50) cents for each ton of two thousand pounds.

Royalty.

SEC. 6. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to lease any lands under this act must make application therefor to the surveyor general of the state, describing the lands sought to be leased by legal subdivisions, or, if the legal subdivisions are unknown to the applicant, by metes and bounds. The application must be accompanied by a filing fee of ten dollars.

Application to lease lands.

SEC. 7. Upon the receipt of such application, the surveyor general shall direct the county surveyor of the county in which such lands are situated to survey the land sought to be leased. The county surveyor shall make an actual survey of the land, at the expense of the applicant, establishing the four corners to each quarter section, and connecting the same with a United States survey; and within thirty days file with the surveyor general a copy, under oath, of his field notes and plat. If the county surveyor fails to make the survey as herein provided, the surveyor general shall immediately direct another person to make the survey at the expense of the applicant, and said survey shall be made and completed within thirty days after the authorization, and the field notes and plats, or copies thereof, shall be sworn to by the surveyor making them and shall be filed with the surveyor general.

Approval or rejection of application.

SEC. 8. All applications to lease land under this act shall be approved or rejected by the surveyor general within ninety days after the receipt thereof. Immediately after the approval of the application, the surveyor general shall execute and deliver to the applicant a lease of the lands described in the application.

Rental.

SEC. 9. The lands designated in this act shall be leased at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents per acre per year, payable yearly in advance. All moneys received as rental for such lands and as royalty upon the mineral product of the waters of the lakes, streams or lands above mentioned, shall be paid into the state school land fund.

First payment.

SEC. 10. Whenever any lease is delivered to the applicant by the surveyor general, the lessee shall, within fifteen days thereafter, present said lease to the treasurer of the State of California, and make payment of the first annual rental. The treasurer shall receive the money and give a receipt therefor. All subsequent annual payments of rental must be paid to the state treasurer, in like manner, within fifteen days after they become due. In case payments are not made as herein provided, the lease and all rights thereunder shall cease and terminate. No lease shall run for more than twenty-five years: provided, that upon the expiration of any lease, such lease may be extended for a period of twenty-five years upon such terms and conditions as may then be prescribed by law.

lease.

Reservations to state.

SEC. 11. All leases made under the authority of this act shall contain a reservation to the state of a right to locate rights of way across such leased lands, subject only to the requirements that the rights of way shall be located in such manner as to cause the least injury to the leased lands across which the same may be located, and that any damage suffered by the lessee of such lands shall be compensated by the lessee of the lands for whose benefit the right of way is required; and every such lease shall be subject to, and shall contain a reservation of, the right of any city and county or incorporated city or town of this state to at any time appropriate and take, under the laws of this state relative to the appropriation of waters, water from any stream or lake tributary to or discharging into any stream or lake of the character mentioned in section one of this act for any use or uses within the authorized powers of such city and county, or incorporated city or town.

Lease to
way.

SEC. 12. Leases of rights of way, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, for access to any waters or lands designated by this act, may be applied for and granted in the manner herein provided for leasing lands. Such rights of way shall be leased at an annual rental of two dollars and fifty cents an acre, and the same shall be paid as herein provided for leased lands.

SEC. 13. All leases of mineral lands provided for by this act shall cease and terminate on December 31st of any year if the lessee or assigns has not, during the year preceding, extracted or removed from such land and water an amount of mineral equal, in the aggregate, to a minimum of five tons per acre of land leased; provided, that when a lease is not delivered to the lessee until after the fifteenth day of January of any year, the minimum tonnage for such year shall be less than five (5) tons, and shall be proportional to the number of days remaining in such year after the completion of the works.

Termination of lease.

SEC. 14. The surveyor general is hereby authorized to prepare, make, execute and deliver all papers, instruments and documents, and to do any and all things necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Powers of surveyor general.

SEC. 15. The legislature shall have the right to change, from time to time, the royalty per ton of minerals extracted and the annual rental per acre of land, and such change shall apply to all persons, firms or corporations holding leases hereunder; provided, that no lease given under this act shall be subject to any change, as to the royalty or rental provided for in said lease, subsequent to the execution of such lease until after ten years from the passage of this act.

Legislature may change royalty.

SEC. 16. Any lessee hereunder may abandon and surrender a lease at the expiration of any calendar year by filing with the county assessor of the county in which is situated the lands described in said lease, and with the surveyor general and the state controller, notices of said abandonment or surrender; but said notices must be filed at least sixty days before the expiration of said calendar year; and said abandonment and surrender shall not absolve the said lessee from the payment of any royalty which may be due at the end of said fiscal year for minerals extracted from the waters or lands in this act specified.

Abandonment of lease.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 613.

An act to recognize and declare valid all proceedings in consolidated reclamation district No. 813.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Consolidated reclamation district No. 812 as formed by the board of supervisors of Kings county, State of California, and now existing is hereby recognized and declared valid, and all proceedings on organization and formation are hereby approved and declared valid.

Reclamation district No. 812 declared valid.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 614.

An act amending an act entitled, "An act providing that, in any city of the first class or city and county in this state, where by general law or by charter the board of police commissioners of such city, or city and county are authorized and empowered to appoint, promote, suspend, disrate or dismiss any police officer or member of the police department, and to prescribe rules and regulations, for the government, discipline, equipment and uniform of such police department, and from time to time alter or repeal the same, and to prescribe penalties for the violations of any such rules and regulations, all such rules and regulations must be reasonable and couched in plain and concise language, and providing that such board of police commissioners shall prescribe a separate and distinct penalty for the violation of each of such rules and regulations which shall be graded according to the importance and nature of the rule or regulation violated, and providing that such penalty shall in all cases be reasonable, and that the same shall be couched in plain and concise language, and printed or published, as the case may be, in the manual or guide published for the guidance and information of the police officers or members of such police department and in connection with the rule or regulation to which the same is intended to apply, and providing further that such board of police commissioners shall not have power to inflict unreasonable penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations; nor to inflict penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations arbitrarily, nor unless justified by proper and competent evidence, also providing certain procedure in hearings for the violation of such rules and regulations, and that courts of competent jurisdiction may review the proceedings had upon such hearings for certain purposes, and that all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed," approved March 23, 1907 by amending the title of said act, and making said act applicable to certain cities of the second and one half class.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Act giving

also providing certain procedure in hearings for the violation of such rules and regulations, and that courts of competent jurisdiction may review the proceedings had upon such hearings for certain purposes, and that all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed."

SEC. 2. An act entitled "An act providing that, in any city of the first class or city and county in this state, where by general law or by charter the board of police commissioners of such city, or city and county, are authorized and empowered to appoint, promote, suspend, disrate or dismiss any police officer or member of the police department, and to prescribe rules and regulations for the government, discipline, equipment and uniform of such police department, and from time to time to alter or repeal the same, and to prescribe penalties for the violations of any such rules and regulations, all such rules and regulations must be reasonable and couched in plain and concise language, and providing that such board of police commissioners shall prescribe a separate and distinct penalty for the violation of each of such rules and regulations which shall be graded according to the importance and nature of the rule or regulation violated, and providing that such penalty shall in all cases be reasonable, and that the same shall be couched in plain and concise language, and printed or published, as the case may be, in the manual or guide published for the guidance and information of the police officers or members of such police department and in connection with the rule or regulation to which the same is intended to apply, and providing further that such board of police commissioners shall not have power to inflict unreasonable penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations; nor to inflict penalties for the violation of such rules and regulations arbitrarily, nor unless justified by proper and competent evidence, also providing certain procedure in hearings for the violation of such rules and regulations, and that courts of competent jurisdiction may review the proceedings had upon such hearings for certain purposes, and that all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed," approved March 23, 1907, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rules for police department must be reasonable, etc.

Section 1. In any city of the first class, or in any city of the second and one half class containing a population of over forty-two thousand by the federal census of 1910, or in any city and county in this state, where by general law, or by charter the board of police commissioners or board of trustees of such city or city and county are authorized and empowered to appoint, promote, suspend, disrate or dismiss any police officer or member of the police department, and to provide rules and regulations for the government, discipline, equipment and uniform of such police department, and from time to time to alter or repeal the same, and to prescribe penalties for the violation of any such rules and regulations; all such rules and regulations must be reasonable and couched in plain and concise language, so that the same may be easily understood by persons of ordinary education and understanding, and such board of police commissioners or board of trustees shall prescribe a separate and distinct penalty for the violation of each of such rules and regulations, which said penalties shall be graded according to the importance and nature of the rule or regulation violated, and the consequent gravity of its violation, and in all cases such penalties shall be reasonable, and shall be couched in plain and concise language, so that the same may be easily understood by persons of ordinary education and understanding; and such penalties, together with the several rules and regulations to which they are intended to apply, shall be printed or published, as the case may be, in the manual or other guide published for the guidance or information of the police officers or members of such police department, and each of such penalties shall be so printed or published in direct connection with the particular rule or regulation to which the same is intended to apply, so that the rule or regulation and the penalty for its violation may be easily and readily understood. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to prevent or prohibit any such board of police commissioners or board of trustees from prescribing other and more severe penalties for a second or repeated violation of any such rule or regulation, or a subsequent violation of any such rule or regulation thus prescribed; provided, that such penalties shall be reasonable, and shall be printed or published as hereinbefore provided for, nor shall anything in this section contained be construed to prevent or prohibit such board of police commissioners or board of trustees from prescribing like or similar penalties for the violation of more than one of such rules and regulations; provided, that the same shall be printed or published in connection with the rule or regulation to which the same is intended to apply as hereinbefore provided.

Severer penalties may be made for second violation of rules.

Section 2. No penalty for the violation of any rule or regulation of the board of police commissioners or board of trustees of any such city or city and county, as is mentioned in section two of this act, shall be inflicted upon any police officer or member of the police department thereof, except that a full, fair and impartial hearing before such board of police commissioners or board of trustees shall first have been had upon the charge or complaint preferred against such officer or member as hereinafter provided. Such hearing can be had only upon a written charge or complaint filed with the secretary or clerk of such board, which must be verified by the oath of the person making the same, and must contain a statement in ordinary and concise language of all the facts constituting the charge made. A copy of such charge or complaint shall be served upon the person charged at least five days prior to the time set for the hearing thereof. At such hearing the person charged shall have the right to appear in person and by counsel and make defense to such charge: he may produce witnesses to testify in his behalf upon such hearing; he shall also have the right, if he shall so request, to have all of the testimony given upon such hearing, both against him and in his behalf, reduced to writing by questions and answers, or reported by a stenographer and transcribed, which said written or transcribed testimony shall be filed and remain of record in the office of the secretary or clerk of the said board of police commissioners or board of trustees, and such board must render its decision upon the evidence adduced upon such hearing and not otherwise. No such board of police commissioners or board of trustees shall have power or authority to inflict any penalty for the violation of any such rule or regulation, arbitrarily, nor unless such evidence shall justify such action.

Superior court may inquire into proceedings.

Section 3. In any such city, or city and county, as is mentioned in section two of this act, where the right to hold the office of police officer or member of the police department is dependent upon the "good behavior" of such officer or member subject to reasonable rules and regulations of the board of police commissioners or board of trustees thereof, such right to hold such office is hereby declared to be a substantial right of which he shall not be deprived arbitrarily, nor summarily, nor otherwise than upon a hearing as hereinbefore in this act provided. Superior courts, and all courts of competent jurisdiction, shall have the power, by proper proceedings instituted for that purpose, to inquire as to the regularity of proceedings of boards of police commissioners or boards of trustees upon hearings herein provided for, and to review the evidence adduced upon such hearings, and to make such orders and render such judgments as the circumstances and the law shall warrant; provided, however, that the courts shall not interfere with the proper exercise of discretion by such boards.

Section 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 615.

An act to provide for the dissemination of knowledge regarding the various propositions and constitutional amendments which are to be submitted to the people of the State of California and for the distribution of copies of said propositions and amendments to various institutions of learning throughout the state.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of encouraging the study and investigation of the various propositions and constitutional amendments which are hereafter submitted to the people and to stimulate interest therein, and study thereof by addresses, debates and general discussions throughout the various institutions of learning of the State of California, the secretary of state shall, within six months after the adjournment of each session of the legislature, have printed in the manner prescribed by section 1195 of the Political Code a sufficient number of all propositions and constitutional amendments which are to be submitted to a vote of the people at any election thereafter, to supply each institution of higher learning with twenty-five copies, and each high school and grammar school with ten copies thereof and deliver the same to the superintendent of public instruction.

Copies of constitutional amendments to be furnished schools.

SEC. 2. The superintendent of public instruction shall immediately prepare such instructions to the heads of said institutions and schools, as he may deem sufficient to properly accomplish the object expressed in section one of this act, and shall forward said propositions and constitutional amendments to the heads of said institutions and schools together with such instructions.

Superintendent of public instruction to make statement to heads of schools.

CHAPTER 616.

An act to amend section 4144 of the Political Code of the State of California, relative to the burial of bodies by coroners and the defrayal of the expense thereof.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4144 of the Political Code of the State of California, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

4144. When an inquest is held by the coroner, and no other person takes charge of the body of deceased, he must cause it to be decently interred; and he may, in order to decently inter the body of the deceased, apply to a judge of the superior court of his county for an order permitting the coroner to summarily sell any personal property belonging to the deceased, and to withdraw any money that the deceased may have on deposit with any bank and to collect any indebtedness or claim that may be owing or due the deceased. If upon such application it appears to the court, by competent evidence, that the total value of the estate of the deceased is less than seventy-five dollars the judge shall make an order granting the application; and there shall be no administration upon the estate of the deceased unless additional estate be found or discovered. No notice of the application need be given and no fee shall be charged by the clerk of the court or coroner for the filing of said application, or for any duty or service of the clerk or coroner connected therewith. Upon the sale of the personal property of the deceased or the collection of any money, claim or indebtedness by the coroner, he shall use the same for expenses of the funeral of the deceased. The coroner

CHAPTER 617.

An act to enable counties to join with incorporated cities and towns within such counties in the joint construction of public buildings to be used jointly for county and municipal purposes.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Supervisors and city council may construct joint
building.

SECTION 1. Whenever, in its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county determines that it is necessary that a public building for county purposes be erected within any incorporated city or town in such county, such county may join with such incorporated town or city in the joint construction and erection of such public building, and may share the cost thereof, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by such board of supervisors and the city council or other governing body of such incorporated city or town; and such joint public building may be used jointly by such county and such incorporated city or town; provided, that in no event shall the county contribute more than one half of the cost of construction of such joint public building.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 618.

An act to amend section 4256 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to compensation of officers and jurors of counties of the twenty-seventh class, their clerks, deputies, stenographers and assistants.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4256 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 620.

An act to amend section four thousand two hundred forty-seven of the Political Code of the State of California relative to salaries and fees of officers in counties of the eighteenth class.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four thousand two hundred forty-seven of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries of officers in counties of eighteenth class.

4247. In counties of the eighteenth class the county officers shall receive, as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices, the following salaries, to wit:

County
clerk.

1. The county clerk, three thousand three hundred dollars per annum, and five hundred dollars additional per annum when a registration of voters is required by law. He shall also be allowed one copyist, which office of copyist is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of nine hundred dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid; and provided, further, that in any year when a new registration of voters is required by law, that said county clerk may appoint such number of deputies as may be necessary for the convenient registration of voters in their respective precincts or townships, each of said deputies to receive the sum of ten cents per name for each elector registered by him. Said sum to be paid out of the general fund of said county on the representation and filing with the board of supervisors of said county, of a duly verified claim therefor, approved by said county clerk.

2. The sheriff, four thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and the fees or commissions for the service of all papers whatsoever issued by any court outside of the superior court in and for his county. He shall appoint a jailer, to take charge of the branch county jail, at a salary of nine hundred (900) dollars per annum, and a deputy jailer, at a salary of nine hundred (900) dollars per annum, who shall act as a jailer for the county jail, and the salaries of which deputies shall be paid by the county in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salaries of the other county officers are paid. It shall be the duty of any officer who is required by this act to have any notice published or posted, to obtain and file in his office the affidavit or affidavits in proof thereof; provided, that his failure so to do shall not affect the validity of any proceedings under this act. Any such affidavit so filed shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated regarding such publication or posting.

CHAPTER 630.

An act providing for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent certain special assessments for public improvements, and providing for the effect and enforcement of such bonds.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

"Street opening act of 1903."

"Park act."

"Street improvement act of 1909."

"Improvement bond."

"Assessment."

"Delinquency."

SECTION 1. The expression "street opening act of 1903" as herein used shall mean the act entitled "An act to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, or straightening, in whole or in part, of public streets, squares, lanes, alleys, courts, and places within municipalities, for the condemnation of property necessary or convenient for such purposes, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expenses of such improvement," approved March 24, 1903 (Stats. 1903, page 376) and acts amendatory thereto. The expression "park act" as herein used shall mean the act entitled "An act to provide for the acquisition by municipalities of land for public park or playground purposes by condemnation, and for the establishment of assessment districts and the assessment of property therein to pay the expense of acquiring such land," approved April 22, 1909 (Stats. 1909, page 1066). The expression "street improvement act of 1909" as herein used shall mean the act entitled "An act to provide for the improvement of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts and places in municipalities, in cases where any damage to private property would result from such improvement, and for the assessment of the costs, damages, and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby," approved April 21, 1909 (Stats. 1909, page 1042). The expression "improvement bond" as herein used shall mean a bond issue under the provisions of this act. The terms "assessment" or "assessment roll" as herein used shall mean a special assessment made under the provisions of any of the acts herein in this section specified. The term "delinquency" as herein used shall mean delinquency in the payment of an assessment made under the provisions of the acts herein in this section specified.

and the expression "time of delinquency" shall mean the time in said acts fixed when assessments become delinquent. The expression "city council" as herein used shall mean the legislative body of the municipality.

"City council..

SEC. 2. The city council of any municipal corporation of this state may, in its discretion, at or before the time of the confirmation of any assessment or assessment roll in proceedings had and taken under the street opening act of 1903, the park act or the street improvement act of 1909, determine that improvement bonds may issue to represent such assessments, which determination shall be made by resolution or ordinance.

Council may determine the issue of improvement bonds.

SEC. 3. Whenever it is determined as provided in section 2 hereof that improvement bonds may be issued to represent assessments, the owner of any lot or parcel of land against which an assessment has been made, when the amount of such assessment is fifty ($50) dollars or over, may at any time prior to delinquency, elect to pay such assessment in installments and to have an improvement bond issued against such lot, in the form and manner and with the effect in this act provided: provided, there be no other bond or bonds outstanding against said lot representing any special assessment.

Owner of lot may elect to pay assessment in installments.

SEC. 4. Such election shall be made by such owner or his agent thereunto duly authorized in writing filed with the superintendent of streets, or if said assessment is in the custody of the city tax collector with such tax collector, an affidavit made before a competent officer that he or his principal, as the case may be, is the owner of the lot or parcel of land in question, which affidavit must be accompanied by a certificate of a searcher of records, that he or his principal is such owner and also by filing with such officer a written agreement upon the form hereinafter fixed, waiving all objections of whatsoever kind or nature against the assessment and all proceedings thereto and undertaking to pay the amount of such assessment in either five or ten annual installments, each of which shall be due on the first day of July of each year, and the first of which shall be due on the first day of July next following the date of such bond, with interest on all deferred payments at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable at the same time as the installments of principal. Said agreement shall contain a provision to the effect that in case of default in the payment of any installment of the principal provided for therein, or interest accrued on deferred payments, at the time called for by said agreement, then, and in that event, the entire remaining unpaid installments shall become immediately due and payable, and that the same, and all liens and agreements which are security therefor, may be collected and enforced as in this act provided. Said agreement shall be in the following or substantially the following form (filling blanks):

Election to be made in writing.

Rate of interest.

The undersigned, being the owner of the lot assessed in the assessment for said lot being assessed therein for the sum of ($) dollars, does hereby expressly waive and release all objections of whatsoever kind or nature against the said assessment and all proceedings prior thereto, and in consideration of the benefit of said improvement and of the extension of time for paying therefor herein requested, do undertake and agree to pay the amount of said assessment, to wit: the sum of ($.....) dollars in yearly installments, at the time, in the manner, and with the interest, specified and provided in (title of act), and do request and elect to have a bond issue against said lot in the manner and form and with the effect provided in said act, and do expressly agree that in the case of default in the payment of any installment of the principal provided for in said bond, or interest accrued on deferred payments, then, and in that event, that the entire remaining unpaid installments shall become immediately due and payable, and that the same, and all liens and agreements which are security therefor, may be collected and enforced as in this act provided.

Form of agreement.

ment.

Upon an election being effected as herein provided the superintendent of streets, or other officer having in his custody said assessment, shall make a note thereof in his records opposite the assessment as to which such election is made. All agreements and affidavits made and filed hereunder shall be bound in a substantial book and kept among the records of the superintendent of streets, or other officer having custody of such assessments. At the time of delinquency, such officer shall advise, in writing, the city treasurer respecting the assessments as to which the owners have elected to pay in installments. The city treasurer shall thereupon prepare a separate bond representing each assessment as to which such right of election has been exercised, running for either five (5) or ten (10) years, as specified in the agreement made as herein provided, which bond shall be in the following or substantially the following form (filling blanks):

ment.

SEC. 7. Improvement bonds or any number of such bonds, issued hereunder, except as otherwise provided in section nine hereof, shall be sold to the highest cash bidder, after advertisement for bids, which advertisement shall be published for at least three times in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city, or if there be no such daily newspaper, then such advertisement shall be published once in a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper so published and circulated; provided, however, that said bonds shall not be sold for less than par. If any bond be sold for an amount in excess of par such excess shall be paid into the general fund of the city.

Proceeds
of sale.

SEC. 8. The proceeds of the sale of such improvement bonds shall be paid into the fund of the proceeding to represent assessments in which said bonds were issued.

City may advance
funds.

SEC. 9. It shall be competent for the city to advance to the appropriate fund the par value of all or any part of said bonds, in which case said city shall have the same rights in respect to the enforcement and collection thereof as other purchasers. Where the city advances money as in this section provided it shall have full authority at any time to sell said bonds to reimburse itself therefor.

Holder of bond may demand

not made.

SEC. 10. Whenever, through the default of the owner of any lot or parcel of land upon which such bond is issued to represent the assessment, payment, either of the principal or of the interest, is not made when the same has become due, and the holder of the bond thereupon demands, in writing, that the city treasurer proceed to advertise and sell said lot or parcel of land as herein provided, then the whole bond or its unpaid remainder, with its accrued interest, as expressed in said bond, shall become due and payable immediately, and on the day following shall become delinquent.

Procedure
of sale.

SEC. 11. Upon the application of the holder of any bond that is now or shall hereafter become delinquent as hereinbefore provided, the said city treasurer shall publish twice in a newspaper of general circulation, to be designated by him, published in the city where his office is situated, a notice which must contain the date, number, and series of the delinquent bond, a description of the property mentioned in said bond, and the name of the owner of such property (if known), and if unknown, the fact shall be so stated, the amount due thereon, and a statement that unless the amount of said bond and the interest due thereon, together with the cost of publication of such notice are paid, the real property described in said bond will be sold at public auction on a day to be therein fixed, which shall not be less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the day of the first publication of said notice, and the place of such sale, which must be the office of the said city treasurer. A like notice shall not less than fifteen days before the day of sale so fixed be served upon any such owner if known either personally or by depositing the same in the post office at such city addressed to such owner at his address if known with the postage thereon prepaid. At any time prior to the sale, the owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale under the provisions of this act may pay the whole amount of said bond then due, with costs, and such bond shall thereupon be canceled; but in case such payment is not made by such owner or person in possession, or by some one in behalf of such owner, or person in possession, the property subject thereto shall be sold at public auction to the bidder offering to pay the amount due on the bond with costs for the least portion of such lot or parcel of land offered for sale.

Prior to sale owner may pay whole amount due.

SEC. 12. The city treasurer, before the day of sale hereinafter provided for, must file with the city clerk a copy of the publication, with an affidavit of the publisher of such newspaper, or some one in his behalf, attached thereto, that it is a true copy of the same; that the publication was made in a newspaper, stating its name and place of publication and the date of each appearance in which such publication was made, which affidavit is prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

Evidence of publication of notices.

SEC. 13. The city treasurer must collect, in addition to the amount due on such bond, the cost of the publication of such notice, and fifty cents for the certificate of sale delivered to the purchaser as hereinafter provided.

Costs collected.

SEC. 14. The city treasurer, before delivering any certificate of sale must, in a book kept in his office for that purpose, enter the date, number and series of the bond, a description of the land sold corresponding with the description in the certificate, the date of sale, purchaser's name, the amount paid, regularly number the descriptions on the margin of the book, and put a corresponding number on each certificate. Such book must be open to public inspection during office hours when not in actual use, and he shall enter on the record of the bond the words "canceled by sale of the property," giving the date of such sale.

Record of certificates of sale by city treasurer.

SEC. 15. Immediately on the sale, the purchaser shall become vested with a lien on the property so sold to him, to the extent of his bid, and is only divested of such lien by the payment to the city treasurer of the purchase money, including costs herein provided for, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of sale.

by the owner of the property, or any party in interest, within twelve months from the date of purchase, or at any time prior to the application for a deed as hereinafter provided. Redemption must be made in lawful money of the United States, and when made to the city treasurer he must credit the amount paid to the person named in his certificate, and pay it on demand to him or his assignees.

Record of certificates of sale by recorder.

SEC. 17. On receiving the certificate of sale, the recorder must file it, and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the city treasurer, the fee for which shall be fifty cents, and on presentation of the receipt of the city treasurer for the total amount of the redemption money, the recorder must, without charge, mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made.

Deed to property not redeemed.

SEC. 18. If the property is not redeemed within the time allowed by the provisions of section sixteen hereof for its redemption, the city treasurer, or his successor in office, upon application of the purchaser, or his assignee, must make to said purchaser, or his assignee, a deed to the property, reciting in the deed, substantially, the matter contained in the certificate, and that no person has redeemed the property during the time allowed for its redemption; the treasurer shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser two dollars for making said deed, which shall be deposited in the city treasury for the use of the city after payment has been made therefrom for the acknowledgment of said deed: provided, however, that the purchaser of the property, or his assignee, or agent, must, thirty days prior to the expiration of the time of the redemption, or thirty days before his application for a deed, serve upon the owner or agent of the property purchased, if named in such certificate of sale, and upon the party occupying the property, if the property is occupied, a written notice, stating that said property, or a portion thereof, has been sold to satisfy the bond lien, the date of sale, the date, number, and series of the bond, the amount then due, and the time when the right of redemption will expire, or when the purchaser will apply for a deed, and the owner of the property shall have the right of redemption indefinitely, until such notice shall have been given and said deed applied for, upon the payment of the fees, penalties, and costs in this act required. In case of unoccupied property, a similar notice must be posted in a conspicuous place upon the property at least thirty days before the purchaser applies for a deed; and no deed to the property sold, in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be issued by the city treasurer to the purchaser of such property, until such purchaser shall have filed with such treasurer an affidavit showing that the notice hereinbefore required to be given has been given as herein required, which said affidavit shall be filed and preserved by the said treasurer as other records kept by him in his office. Such purchaser shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents for his service of such notice and the making of such affidavit, which sum of fifty cents shall be paid by the redemptioner at the time and in the same manner as the other sums, costs and fees are paid.

SEC. 19. The deed, when duly acknowledged or proved, shall be conclusive evidence of all things which the bond upon which it is based is conclusive evidence, and prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings subsequent to the issue of the bond, and conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free of all incumbrances, except the lien for state, county, and municipal taxes.

Evidence of regularity of proceedings.

An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations," approved March 11, 1909, by adding thereto a new section to be designated as section 2a, relating to the taxation of property within any of such consolidated municipal corporations for the payment of indebtedness of any other of such consolidated municipal corporations, and by amending section 4 of said act.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled, "An act to provide for the consolidation of municipal corporations," approved March 11, 1909, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section, to be designated as section 2a, to follow section 2 of said act, and to read as follows:

municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated under the provisions of this act shall have incurred, or authorized the incurring of, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement or improvements, the petition provided for in section two of this act may contain a request that the question to be submitted to the electors of such municipal corporations shall be whether such municipal corporations shall become consolidated as hereinafore provided, and the property in any one or more, specified in said petition, of such municipal corporations, be, after such consolidation, subject to taxation, equally with the property in any other one or more, specified in said petition, of said municipal corporations, to pay any such bonded indebtedness, specified in said petition, of said other municipal corporation or corporations, outstanding at the date of such consolidation, or theretofore authorized. If such request shall be made in said petition, proceedings shall be had thereon, the same in all respects as upon a petition presented under the provisions of the preceding section, excepting that the notice of election shall, in addition to the matters required by the preceding section, distinctly state that it is proposed that such property as it may be proposed in said petition shall be taxed to pay such bonded indebtedness of any one or more of such municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated, as specified in said petition, other than that in which such property is situated, shall, after the date of such consolidation, be taxed equally with the property within the municipal corporation or corporations originally incurring, or authorizing the incurring of, such indebtedness, to pay the same. The said notice shall, in addition, distinctly specify the improvement or improvements for which such indebtedness was so incurred or authorized, and state the amount or amounts of such indebtedness already incurred outstanding at the date of the first publication or posting of such notice, and the amount or amounts of such indebtedness theretofore authorized, and to be represented by bonds thereafter to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest payable or to be payable on such indebtedness; and upon the canvass of the returns of the election held in pursuance of such notice, if it shall appear that two thirds of all the ballots cast in each municipal corporation the property in which it is proposed, as aforesaid, shall, after consolidation, be subject to taxation to pay any bonded indebtedness of any other of the said municipal corporations proposed to be consolidated shall be in favor of such consolidation, and that a majority of the votes cast in each of the other municipal corporations so proposed to be consolidated shall be in favor of consolidation, and not otherwise, the same proceedings shall be had as in the preceding section it is provided shall be taken when a majority of the votes cast in each such municipal corporation shall be in favor of such consolidation, and such consolidation shall be deemed to be completed in the same manner, and with the same effect, as in said section provided. After the completion of the consolidation of such municipal corporations as hereinabove provided, the property in each of said municipal corporations which, in said petition and notice, it was proposed should be taxed to pay any specified bonded indebtedness of any other of said municipal corporations so consolidated, shall thereafter be taxed equally with the property within the municipal corporation originally incurring, or authorizing the incurring of, such bonded indebtedness for the payment of such specified indebtedness.

SEC. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. That no property in any of the municipal corporations consolidated under the provisions of this act shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of any of the other such municipal corporations, contracted or incurred prior to or existing at the time of such consolidation, unless the proceedings for such consolidation shall have been had in accordance with the provisions of section 2a of this act, in which event the property in such municipal corporations shall be taxed as provided in said section. The legislative body of any consolidated municipal corporation, consolidated under the provisions of this act, shall provide for the payment of the indebtedness or liability of each of the municipal corporations consolidated therein, and shall levy and collect the necessary taxes therefor, and for that purpose, and for all other purposes, such consolidated municipal corporation and its officers, shall be deemed the successor and successors of such municipal corporations so consolidated and their respective officers.

No property to be taxed for prior indebtedness except in accordance with section 2a.

CHAPTER 633.

An act to amend sections two and four of "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds, to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 7, 1893.

[Approved April 27, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities and also the payment of such bonds," approved February 27, 1893, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2. The city council of any municipality in this state shall have the power, in its discretion, to determine that serial bonds shall be issued in the manner and form hereinafter provided to represent assessments of twenty-five dollars or over for the cost of any work or improvement authorized by the said street work act. Said serial bonds shall extend over a period not to exceed ten years from their date, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year after their date, until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of not to exceed ten per cent per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds and interest thereon shall be paid at the office of the city treasurer of said municipality, who shall keep a fund designated by the name of said bonds, into which he shall receive all sums paid him for the principal of said bonds and the interest thereon, and from which he shall disburse such sums upon the presentation of said coupon; and under no circumstances shall said bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund. Said city treasurer shall keep a register in his office, which shall show the series, number, date, amount, rate of interest, payee and indorsees of each bond, and the number and amount of each coupon of principal or interest paid by him, and shall cancel and file each coupon so paid.

City council may determine to issue bonds to represent assessments for street work.

City treasurer to keep register.

SEC. 2. Section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Bond may be issued for each unpaid assessment of $25.

Section 4. After the full expiration of thirty days from the date of the warrant, or if an appeal be taken to the city council, then five days after the final decision of said city council, and after the street superintendent shall have recorded the return, the street superintendent shall make and certify to the city treasurer a complete list of all assessments unpaid, which amount to twenty-five dollars or over, upon any assessment or diagram number; and said treasurer shall thereupon make out, sign and issue to the contractor, or his assigns, payee of the warrant and assessment, a separate bond, representing upon each lot or parcel of land upon said list the total amount of the assessments against the same, as thereon shown. And if said lot or parcel of land is described upon said assessment and diagram by its number or block, or both, upon the official map of said municipality, or upon any map on file in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said municipality is situated, then it shall be in said bond a sufficient description of said lot or parcel of land to designate it by said number or block, or both, as it appears on said official or recorded map. Said bond shall be substantially in the following form:

This bond is issued to represent the cost of certain street work upon, in the of, as the same is more fully described in assessment number issued by the street superintendent of said, after acceptance of said work, and recorded in his office. Its amount is the amount assessed in said assessment against the lot or parcel of land numbered therein, and in the diagram attached thereto, as number, and which now remains unpaid, but until paid, with accrued interest, is a first lien upon the property affected thereby, as the same is described herein, and in said recorded assessment with its diagram, to wit: the lot or parcel of land in said of county of State of California.

This bond is payable exclusively from said fund, and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof is to be holden for payment otherwise for its principal or interest. The term of this bond is years from its date, and at the expiration of said time the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest at the rate of per centum per annum. The interest is payable semi-annually, to wit: on the second days of January and of July in each year hereafter, upon presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of and thereafter the interest coupons are for semi-annual interest, except the last, which is for interest from the semi-annual payment next preceding and to the date of the final maturity of this bond. Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest, from the owner of said lot or parcel of land, or any one in his behalf, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have said lot or parcel of land advertised and sold forthwith, in the manner provided by law.

authorized agent, shall at any time before the issuance of the bond for said assessment upon his lot or parcel of land, present to the city treasurer his affidavit, made before a competent officer, that he is the owner of a lot or parcel of land in said list, accompanied by the certificate of a searcher of records, that he is such owner of record, and with such affidavit and certificate, such person notifies said treasurer, in writing, that he desires no bond to be issued for the assessments upon said lot or parcel of land, then no such bond shall be issued therefor, and the payee of the warrant, or his assigns, shall retain his right for enforcing collection, as if said lot or parcel of land had not been so listed by the street superintendent. The bonds so issued by said treasurer shall be payable to the party to whom they issue, or order, and shall be serial bonds, as is hereinbefore described, and shall bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention to do said work. They shall have annual coupons attached thereto, payable in annual order, on the second day of January in each year after the date of the bond, until all are paid, and each coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bond. They shall have semi-annual interest coupons thereto attached, the first of which shall be payable upon the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next after its date, and shall be for the interest accrued at that time, and the last of which shall be for the amount of interest accruing from the second day of January or July, as the case may be, next preceding the maturity of said bonds to the maturity thereof. The city treasurer shall, in addition to his other duties in the premises, report all coupon payments of principal upon said bonds to the street superintendent, who shall forthwith indorse the same upon the margin of the record of the assessment to the credit of which the same is paid and said assessment shall be a first lien upon the property affected thereby, until the bond issued for the payment thereof, and the accrued interest thereon shall be fully paid. Said bonds, by their issuance, shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings thereto under said street work act and under this act, previous to the making of the certified list of all assessments unpaid to the amount of twenty-five dollars or over by the street superintendent to the city treasurer, and of the validity of said lien up to the date of said list.

An act to amend section 4239 of the Political Code of the State of California relating to officers and salaries and fees of officers of counties of the tenth class.

[Approved April 28, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4239 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries of officers in counties of tenth class.
County
clerk.

4239. In counties of the tenth class the county officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their office, the following salaries, to wit:

1. The county clerk, two thousand dollars per annum; provided, that he shall appoint one deputy at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, two court room deputies at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum each, one office deputy at twelve hundred dollars per annum, and a deputy or deputies not to exceed two for the purpose of registering electors, to be paid not to exceed four dollars per diem each; provided, that such deputies so employed for registering electors shall not be employed except during a year when a general election is held throughout the state, and then only between the first day of June and the fifteenth day of November of said year. Each of said deputies to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as county officers are paid.

2. The sheriff, two thousand dollars per annum; provided, he shall appoint one under-sheriff at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and three deputy sheriffs, at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum each; said under-sheriff and each of said deputies shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as county officers are paid. The sheriff shall also receive such fees as are allowed sheriffs by section 4300b of the Political Code of the State of California, except that for traveling in the service of any paper required by law to be served, in either civil or criminal process or proceeding for each mile actually and necessarily traveled, one way only, twenty cents. No constructive mileage to be allowed.

3. The recorder, two thousand dollars per annum; provided, that the recorder shall appoint one deputy at a salary of twelve hundred dollars per annum, and four copyists at a salary of nine hundred dollars each per annum to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as county officers are paid; provided, that said copyists being eligible, may be appointed deputies of said recorder without further compensation.

4. The auditor, two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; provided, that the expenses incurred, if any, in making extensions of assessments and tax rolls shall be paid out of said sum of two thousand four hundred dollars, compensation above mentioned; and provided, further, that said auditor shall appoint one deputy at a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as county officers are paid.

5. The treasurer, two thousand dollars per annum, and such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law; provided, that the treasurer shall appoint one deputy at a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as county officers are paid.

6. CHAPTER 637.

An act to amend an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation of levee districts in the various counties of this state and to provide for the erection of levees, dikes and other works for the purpose of protecting the lands within such districts from overflow and to levy assessments to erect and construct and maintain such levees, dikes and other works and to pay the necessary costs and expenses of maintaining said districts," approved March 20, 1905, by providing for the formation thereunder of levee districts situate partly in different counties and to make said act applicable to such districts.

[Approved April 28, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to provide for the formation of levee districts in the various counties of this state, and to provide for the erection of levees, dikes and other works for the purpose of protecting the lands within such districts from overflow and to levy assessments, to erect and construct and maintain such levees, dikes and other works and to pay the necessary costs and expenses of maintaining said districts," approved March 20, 1905, is hereby amended by adding thereto nine new sections, to be numbered from seventeen to twenty-five, both inclusive, and to read as follows:

Land in different counties may form a levee
district.

Section 17. Levee districts may be formed, governed and maintained under this act where the land embraced therein shall be situate partly in different counties, and all the preceding sections hereof shall be applicable to such districts, except as herein provided, and nothing hereinafter contained shall in any manner limit or qualify the first sixteen sections of this act. In such districts, except as hereinafter provided, all acts and duties required to be performed by any county officer or board shall be done or performed by the officer or board of the county in which the petition mentioned in section one shall be filed. All sections subsequent hereto in this act shall refer to districts situate partly in different counties.

Petition filed in county of larger portion of land.

Section 18. In districts situate partly in different counties the petition mentioned in section one shall be filed with the board of supervisors of the county in which the greater portion of the land to be embraced within such district is situate, and such board shall have the same jurisdiction for all the purposes of this act as if all the land of the district were situate within the county, except as in this act otherwise provided.

Designation.

Section 19. At the time and after the proceedings mentioned in section four hereof, such board of supervisors must declare such levee district formed as a subdivision of such counties and shall designate such district by the name of joint levee district of and counties.

Section 20. Upon the recording of the declaration that the levee district is formed as required by section six hereof, a copy thereof, duly certified by the clerk of the board of supervisors, must be immediately transmitted to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each other county in which any portion of such district may be situate, which shall be kept in the office of such last named clerk.

Declaration forwarded to all supervisors of counties represented.

Section 21. The notice of election mentioned in section seven shall be published for the time designated therein in a newspaper published in each county in which any portion of such district is situate.

Publication of election notice.

Section 22. The board of trustees of such joint district shall divide the total estimate provided for in section eight hereof, in proportion to the value of the real and personal property of the district in each county. Such value to be determined by the equalized values of the last assessment rolls of such counties. The board of trustees shall, after the approval of the estimate as provided in said section eight, report, as provided in said section, to the board of supervisors of each of such counties, on or before the first day of September of each year, and furnish each of such boards of supervisors such estimate, together with a statement of the part thereof apportioned to each county.

Division of estimate among counties.

Section 23. The provisions of section nine shall apply to the county assessors and boards of supervisors of each county in which any portion of the district may be situate, so far as the portion of such district in such county is concerned.

Applicable to assessors and supervisors of each county.

Section 24. The provisions of section ten shall apply to the officers of each county in which any portion of such district is situate.

To officers of each county.

Section 25. The treasurer of the county in which the petition mentioned in section one was filed, and in which the district was organized, shall be the repository of the funds of the district. The treasurers of any other counties in which is situate a portion of said district, must, at any time, not more often than four times each year, upon the order of the board of trustees, pay over to the treasurer of the county where said petition mentioned in section one was filed, all moneys in their possession belonging to the district. Said last named treasurer is authorized and required to receive and receipt for the same, and to place the same to the credit of the district. All moneys of the district received from any source shall be by him placed in a fund to be called the joint levee district of and counties.

Treasurer of county in which petition was filed to be repository of funds.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 638.

An act to amend section 103½ of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California.

[Approved April 29, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 103½ of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Clerk to justice's court in cities of second and one half and third classes, duties, etc.

103½. Every city justice's court in any city or town of the second and one half class and the third class shall have a clerk, who shall be appointed by the justice of the peace of said court, subject to the approval of the board of supervisors of the county, and shall hold office during the pleasure of said justice. Said clerk shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. He shall keep a record of the proceedings of said court and issue all process ordered by the justice of said court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines, forfeitures and fees paid into said court. He shall render each month to the city council an exact account under oath of all fines, forfeitures and fees paid and collected. He shall prepare bonds, justify bail, when the amount has been fixed by the court or justice, and may administer and certify oaths, and shall remain in the court rooms of said court during court hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for the proper performance of his duty. He shall have custody of all records and papers of said justice court. Every clerk of the justice's court in any city or town of the second and one half class shall receive an annual salary of one thousand four hundred dollars, and every clerk of the justice's court in any city or town of the third class shall receive an annual salary of one thousand two hundred dollars; said salaries shall respectively be payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said cities and said salaries shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by the clerks of said courts.

CHAPTER 644.

An act to amend section 4257 of the Political Code, relating to salaries and fees of officers of counties of the twenty-eighth class.

[Approved April 29, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4257 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Salaries of officers in counties of twenty-eighth class.

4257. In counties of the twenty-eighth class the county and township officers shall receive as compensation for the services required of them by law or by virtue of their office the following salaries, to wit:

County
clerk.

1. The county clerk, three thousand dollars per annum, and when a new great register of voters is required by law to be made, he shall receive three hundred dollars additional, which shall be in full for all services required in registering voters and making the great register.

Sheriff.

2. The sheriff, fifty-one hundred dollars per annum, which includes the fifteen hundred dollars heretofore allowed the under-sheriff. He shall also have for his own use all fees for service of all papers served by him and issued without his county. The said fifty-one hundred dollars to be in full of all fees or percentages as license collector.

3. The recorder, thirty-two hundred dollars per annum, in full of all services, including filing and recording mining and other location notices. Recorder.

4. The auditor, two thousand dollars per annum. The county auditor shall charge and collect for the clerical service of making estimates of tax sales provided for in section three thousand eight hundred and seventeen of this code the sum of twenty-five cents for each tax sale if the property is delinquent for two years or less; the sum of fifty cents for each sale if the property is delinquent for more than two years. If said estimates are returned to the auditor and redemptions made within thirty days from date of issue and prior to the change of penalty, as provided for in section number three thousand eight hundred and seventeen of this code, the amount charged for making said estimates shall be refunded to the redemptioner. If the redemption is not made as herein provided then the sum charged for making the estimate shall be retained by said auditor for his services of making said estimate. Auditor.

5. The treasurer, twenty-four hundred dollars per annum; provided, that all commissions received by the treasurer on the collection of inheritance taxes shall be paid into the county treasury. Treasurer.

6. The tax and license collector, two thousand dollars per annum; provided, that one half of all commissions received by the tax collector on the collection of licenses shall be paid into the county treasury. Tax collector.

7. The assessor, twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, and he is hereby allowed in addition thereto ten deputies, to be appointed by him, who shall each receive not to exceed four dollars per day while engaged in the performance of their duties; provided, that the amount paid for services of deputy assessors shall not exceed twenty-four hundred dollars in any one year; provided, that all commissions received by the assessor on the collection of personal property taxes shall be paid into the county treasury. Assessor.

8. The district attorney, twenty-one hundred dollars per annum, and he is hereby allowed in addition thereto one deputy appointed by him, who shall receive nine hundred dollars per annum; provided, that the district attorney is entitled to receive and retain for his own use fifteen dollars to be taxed as costs for each suit brought under the provisions of article VI, chapter I, title VIII, of part III of the Political Code. District attorney.

9. The coroner, such fees as are now or may be hereafter allowed by law. Coroner.

10. The public administrator, such fees as are now or may be hereafter allowed by law. Administrator.

11. The superintendent of schools, eighteen hundred dollars per annum, and necessary expenses for traveling in visit- Superintendent of schools.

ing schools in the county, to be allowed by the supervisors of the county; and there shall be, and there is allowed to the superintendent in addition, a clerk or bookkeeper, who shall be appointed by the superintendent of schools, who shall be paid a salary of six hundred dollars per annum, said salary to be paid by such county in monthly installments at the time and in the manner and out of the same fund as the salaries of county officers are paid.

Surveyor.

12. The surveyor, ten dollars per day for all work performed for the county, and, in addition thereto, all necessary expenses and transportation for work performed in the field, which per diem and expenses shall be in lieu of all fees and per diem heretofore allowed by law.

Classification of townships.

13. For the purpose of regulating the compensation of justices of the peace and constables, townships in this class of counties are hereby classified according to their population, as shown by the federal census of nineteen hundred ten as follows: Townships having a population of three thousand and more shall belong to and be known as townships of the first class; townships having a population of two thousand five hundred and less than three thousand shall belong to and be known as townships of the second class; townships having a population of one thousand eight hundred and less than two thousand five hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the third class; townships having a population of fourteen hundred twenty-five and less than fourteen hundred fifty shall belong to and be known as townships of the fourth class; townships having a population of fourteen hundred fifty and less than eighteen hundred shall belong to and be known as townships of the fifth class, and townships having a population of less than fourteen hundred twenty-five shall belong to and be known as townships of the sixth class.

Justices of the peace.

14. Justices of the peace shall receive the following salaries, which shall be paid monthly, in the same manner as the salaries of county officers are paid, out of the general fund of the county, and which shall be in full for all services rendered by them in criminal cases, to wit: In townships of the first class, eighty-five dollars per month; in townships of the second class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the third class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the fourth class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the fifth class, fifteen dollars per month; and in townships of the sixth class, fifteen dollars per month. In addition to the monthly salaries herein allowed for services in criminal actions, cases and examinations, each justice of the peace may, for his own use, collect the following fees, and no other, in civil actions:

Each justice of the peace shall be allowed, in civil actions before him, for all services to be performed by him before trial, three dollars; and for the trial, and all proceedings subsequent thereto, including all affidavits, swearing of witnesses and jury, and the entry of judgment and issue of execution thereon, four dollars; and fifteen cents for each hour actually engaged in such trial after the expiration of eight hours; and in all cases where judgment is rendered by default or confession, for all services, including execution and satisfaction of judgment, three dollars. Fees.

For certificate and transmitting transcript and papers on appeal, one dollar.

For taking an acknowledgment of any instrument, for the first name, fifty cents; for each additional name, twenty-five cents.

For taking depositions, per folio, fifteen cents.

For all services connected with the posting of estrays, one dollar.

In cases before the justice of the peace, when the venue shall be changed, the justice before whom the action shall be brought, for all services rendered, including the making up and transmission of the transcript and papers, shall receive three dollars; and the justice of the peace before whom the trial shall take place shall receive the same fees as if the action had been commenced before him.

For performing the duties of coroner, when that coroner fails to act, the same fees and mileage as are allowed the coroner in like cases.

For issuing each process, writ, order, or paper required by law to be issued not otherwise provided for, twenty-five cents.

For each certificate or affidavit not otherwise herein provided for, twenty-five cents.

For administering oath or affirmation not otherwise herein provided for, twenty-five cents.

For taking and approving bond or undertaking, including the justification of sureties, fifty cents.

15. Constables shall receive the following salaries, which shall be paid monthly, in the same manner as the salaries of county officers are paid out of the general fund of the county, and which shall be in full of all services rendered by them in criminal cases, to wit: In townships of the first class, one hundred dollars per month; in townships of the second class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the third class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the fourth class, seventy-five dollars per month; in townships of the fifth class, fifteen dollars per month; and in townships of the sixth class, fifteen dollars per month. In addition to the monthly salaries herein allowed for services in criminal actions, cases and proceedings, each constable shall also be allowed all necessary expenses actually and properly incurred, in arresting and conveying prisoners to court or to prison, and also all necessary expenses actually incurred in the transportation of prisoners from prison to court, and the return of said prisoner to prison; Constables.

and shall be allowed, also, for each mile actually traveled, both in going and coming, in the service of subpoenas, in criminal actions, per mile, ten cents; which said expenses and mileage shall be audited and allowed by the board of supervisors as other claims against the county are audited and allowed, and shall be paid out of the county treasury.

In addition to the monthly salaries herein allowed for services in criminal actions and cases, each constable may, for his own use, collect the following fees, and no others, in civil actions:

Fees.

For serving summons and complaint, for each defendant served, fifty cents.

For each copy of summons for service, when actually made by him, twenty-five cents.

For levying writ of attachment or execution, or executing order of arrest, or for the delivery of personal property, one dollar.

For serving writ of attachment or execution on any ship, boat or vessel, three dollars.

For keeping personal property, such sum as the court may order; but no more than one dollar and fifty cents per day shall be allowed for a keeper when necessarily employed.

Unlawful to sell adulterated insecticide.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall offer to deliver to any other person or any person who shall sell or offer for sale in this state any such adulterated or misbranded insecticide or paris green or lead arsenate or fungicide which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act, or export or offer to export the same to any foreign country shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such offense be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars for the first offense, and upon conviction for each subsequent offense not exceeding three hundred dollars, or to be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court; provided, that no article shall be deemed misbranded or adulterated within the provisions of this act when intended for export to any foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the foreign purchaser; but if said article shall be in fact sold or offered for sale for domestic use or consumption, then this proviso shall not exempt said article from the operation of any of the provisions of this act.

Penalty.

Article for export.

Examination of specimens.

SEC. 3. The examination of specimens of insecticides, paris greens, lead arsenates and fungicides shall be made by the director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California in person or by deputy, for the purpose of determining from such examination whether such articles are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act; and if it shall appear from any such examination that any of such specimens are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act, the said director shall cause notice thereof to be given to the party from whom such sample was obtained. Any party so notified shall be given an opportunity to be heard under the rules and regulations adopted by the United States government for the enforcement of the national insecticide act of 1910, and if it appears that any of the provisions of this act have been violated by such party, then the said director shall at once certify the facts to the proper district attorney, with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article duly authenticated by the analyst or officer making such examination, under the oath of such officer. After judgment of the court, notice shall be given by publication in such manner as the said director may determine.

SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of each district attorney to whom the said director shall report any violation of this act or present satisfactory evidences of any such violation, to cause appropriate proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted in the proper courts of the State of California without delay, for the enforcement of the penalties as in such case herein provided.

Duty of district attorney to prosecute.

SEC. 5. In any action, civil or criminal, in any court in this state, a certificate, under the hand of said director, and the seal of said university, stating the results of any analysis purporting to have been made under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that the sample or samples mentioned in said analysis or certificate were properly analyzed as in this act provided; that the substances analyzed contained the component parts stated in such certificate and analysis; and that the samples were taken from the parcels or packages or lots mentioned or described in said certificate.

Evidence of proper analysis.

SEC. 6. That the term "insecticide" as used in this act shall include any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling or mitigating any insects which may infest vegetation, man or other animals, or households, or be present in any environment whatsoever. The term paris green as used in this act shall include the product sold in commerce as paris green and chemically known as the aceto-arsenite of copper. The term "lead arsenate" as used in this act shall include the product or products sold in commerce as lead arsenate and consisting chemically of products derived from arsenic acid (H_2AsO_4) by replacing one or more hydrogen atoms by lead. That the term "fungicide" as used in this act shall include any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any and all fungi that may infest vegetation or be present in any environment whatsoever.

Definitions: "insecticide."

Paris green.

"Lead arsenate."

"Fungicide."

SEC. 7. That for the purpose of this act an article shall be deemed to be adulterated—

In the case of paris green: First, if it does not contain at least fifty per centum of arsenious oxide; second, if it contains arsenic in water-soluble forms equivalent to more than three and one half per centum of arsenious oxide: third, if any substance has been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality or strength. In the case of lead arsenate: First, if it contains more than fifty per centum of water; second, if it contains total arsenic equivalent to less than twelve and one half per centum of arsenic oxide (As_2O_3); third, if it contains arsenic in water-soluble forms equivalent to more than seventy-five one-hundredths per centum of arsenic oxide (As_2O_3); fourth, if any substances have been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce, lower, or injuriously affect its quality or strength; provided, however, that extra water may be added to lead arsenate (as described in this paragraph) if the resulting mixture is labeled lead arsenate and water, the percentage of extra water being plainly and correctly stated on the label.

Adulterated paris green.

Adulterated lead arsenate.

Other insecticides.

In the case of insecticides or fungicides, other than paris green and lead arsenate: First, if its strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold; second, if any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article; third, if any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted; fourth, if it is intended for use on vegetation and shall contain any substance or substances which, although preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating insects, shall be injurious to such vegetation when used.

"Mis-branded" defined.

SEC. 8. That the term "misbranded," as used herein, shall apply to all insecticides, paris greens, lead arsenates, or fungicides or articles which enter into the composition of insecticides or fungicides, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to all insecticides, paris greens, lead arsenates, or fungicides which are falsely branded as to the state, territory, or country in which they are manufactured or produced.

That for the purpose of this act an article shall be deemed to be misbranded—

Mis-branded insecticides.

In the case of insecticides, paris greens, lead arsenates, and fungicides: First, if it be an imitation or offered for sale under the name of another article; second, if it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser, or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package; third, if in package form, and the contents are stated in terms of weight or measure they are not plainly and correctly stated on the outside of the package.

Others than paris green, etc.

In the case of insecticides (other than paris greens and lead arsenates) and fungicides: First, if it contains arsenic in any of its combinations or in the elemental form and the total amount of arsenic present (expressed as per centum of metallic arsenic) is not stated on the label; second, if it contains arsenic in any of its combinations or in the elemental form and the amount of arsenic in water-soluble forms (expressed as per centum of metallic arsenic) is not stated on the label; third,

if it consists partially or completely of an inert substance or substances which do not prevent, destroy, repel or mitigate insects or fungi and does not have the names and percentage amounts of each and every one of such inert ingredients plainly and correctly stated on the label; provided, however, that in lieu of naming and stating the percentage amount of each and every inert ingredient the producer may at his discretion state plainly upon the label the correct names and percentage amounts of each and every ingredient of the insecticide or fungicide having insecticidal or fungicidal properties, and make no mention of the inert ingredients, except in so far as to state the total percentage of inert ingredients present.

SEC. 9. That no dealer shall be prosecuted under the provisions of this act when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer, or other party from whom he purchased such articles, to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act, designating it. Said guaranty to afford protection shall contain the name and address of the party or parties making the sale of such articles to such dealer, and an itemized statement showing the articles purchased; or a general guaranty may be filed with the secretary of the United States department of agriculture by the manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber or other party in the United States and be given a serial number, which number shall appear on every package of insecticide or fungicide sold under such guaranty with the words "guaranteed by" (the name of the guarantor) under the insecticide act of 1910; and in such case said party or parties shall be amenable to the prosecutions, fines, and other penalties which would attach in due course to the dealer under the provisions of this act.

Dealer not to be prosecuted when he can show wholesaler's guaranty.

SEC. 10. That the word "person" as used in this act shall be construed to mean both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies and associations. When construing and enforcing the provisions of this act, the act, omission or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any corporation, company, society or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be also deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such corporation, company, society, or association, as well as that of the other person.

"Person" defined.

Act of agent deemed act of corporation.

SEC. 11. Every lot, parcel, or package of commercial insecticides or fungicides or materials to be used for fungicidal or insecticidal purposes, sold, offered, or exposed for sale, within this state, shall be accompanied by a plainly printed label, stating the name, brand, and trade-mark, if any there be, under which the insecticide or fungicide is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer, importer, or dealer, the place of manufacturer, and a chemical analysis, stating the percentages claimed to be therein, of the substance or substances alleged to have insecticidal properties, specifying the form or forms in which each is present, and the materials from which all constituents of the insecticides are derived. All analyses of substances for which methods have been agreed upon by the American association of official agricultural chemists, are to be made by such official methods. In the case of those insecticides the selling price of which is less than one half cent per pound, said label need only give a correct general statement of the nature and composition of the insecticide it accompanies.

Conditions governing sale.

Manufacturers selling insecticide at price of not less than one half cent per pound to register.

SEC. 12. The manufacturer, importer, agent of, or dealer in any commercial insecticide, or materials used for insecticidal purposes, the selling price of which to the consumer is not less than one half cent ($\frac{1}{2}$ cent) per pound, shall, before the same is offered for sale, obtain a certificate of registration from the secretary of the board of regents of the University of California, countersigned by the said university, authorizing the sale of insecticides in this state, and shall securely fix to each lot, parcel, or package of insecticide the word "registered" with the number of registry. The manufacturer, importer, agent, or dealer obtaining such registry shall pay to the said secretary the sum of one (\$1.00) dollar, to be applied as provided in section 18 of this act; such registration shall expire on the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was given; provided, the provisions of this section shall not apply to any agent whose principals shall have obtained a certificate of registration as herein provided. Every such manufacturer, importer, agent, or dealer, who makes or sells, or offers for sale, any such substances, under a name or brand, shall file, on or before the first day of July in each year, a statement under oath, with the director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California, stating such name or brand, and stating the component parts, in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this act, of the substances to be sold or offered for sale, or manufactured under each such name or brand.

Analyses of samples

SEC. 13. The said director shall annually, on or before the first day of September, take samples in accordance with the provisions of section 14 hereof, of the substance made, sold, or offered for sale under every such name or brand, and cause analyses to be made thereof in accordance with the provisions of section 11 hereof, and said analyses may include such other determinations as said director may at any time deem advisable. Dealers in or manufacturers of insecticides must give free access to the director of the agricultural experiment station or his duly authorized deputy, to all the materials which they may place on the market for sale in California. Whenever the analysis certified by the said director shall show a deficiency of not more than five per cent of the substance alleged to have insecticidal properties, the statement of the manufacturer or importer as required in section 11 of this act, shall not be deemed to be false in the meaning of this act; provided, that this act shall not apply to sales of insecticidal materials made to a registered manufacturer of insecticides or to sales for export outside of this state; provided, further, that the said director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California shall, upon the receipt of a sample of insecticide, accompanied with a nominal fee of one dollar furnish to the user of said commercial insecticide such examination or analysis of the sample as will substantially establish the conformity or non-conformity of the said insecticide to the guarantee under which it was sold.

SEC. 14. The director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California, in person or by deputy, is hereby authorized to take a sample, not exceeding two pounds in weight, for analysis by the said director or his deputies, from any lot, parcel or package of insecticide or fungicide, or material, or mixture of materials used for insecticidal or fungicidal purposes, which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent or dealer; but said sample shall be drawn in the presence of said party or parties in interest or their representatives. In lots of five tons or less, samples shall be drawn from at least ten packages, or, if less than ten packages are present, all shall be sampled; in lots of over five tons, not less than twenty packages shall be sampled. The samples so drawn shall be thoroughly mixed, and from it two equal samples shall be drawn and placed in glass vessels, carefully sealed, and a label placed on each, stating the name or brand of the insecticide or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample was drawn, and the time and place of drawing; and said label shall also be signed by the said director or his deputy making such inspection, and by the party or parties in interest or their representatives present at the drawing and sealing of said samples. One of said duplicate samples shall be retained by the party whose stock was sampled, and the other by the director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California.

Taking of samples.

SEC. 15. The director of the agricultural experiment station of the University of California shall publish in bulletin form, from time to time, at least annually, the results of the analyses, hereinbefore provided with such additional information as circumstances may advise.

Publication of results of analyses.

SEC. 16. There is hereby provided for carrying out the purposes of this act, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of five thousand dollars for each fiscal year hereafter, beginning with the first day of July, 1911.

Appropriation.

SEC. 17. All persons charged with the enforcement or execution of any of the provisions of this act shall not directly or indirectly be interested in the sale, manufacture or distribution of any insecticide or fungicide affected by this act.

Persons who may not be interested in sale, etc.

SEC. 18. All moneys, whether received from registry and analytical fees or special license fees, shall be paid to the secretary of the board of regents of the University of California for the use of said board in carrying out the provisions of this act.

Disposition of fees.

Repealed. SEC. 19. An act to prevent fraud in the sale of paris green used as an insecticide, chapter LIII, page 69, statutes of 1901, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 20. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 654.

An act granting certain lands and salt marsh and tide lands of the State of California, including the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Oakland, and regulating the management, use and control thereof.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Marsh and tide lands granted to Oakland.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all the salt marsh and tide lands in the present city of Oakland, lying and being southerly from the southern line of East Fourteenth street in said city of Oakland, and easterly from the eastern limits of the former town of Oakland (as said easterly limits of said town are described in the act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled "An act to incorporate the town of Oakland and to provide for the construction of wharves thereat," approved May 4, 1852, and as said eastern limits of said town are determined and defined by the supreme court of the State of California, in the action entitled "City of Oakland versus Oakland Water Front Company," decided by said court September 13, 1897), and the right to wharf out therefrom, to be forever held by said city and by its successors in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the expressed conditions following, to wit:

Purposes
for which lands may be used.

That said lands shall be used by said city and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor, for a term not exceeding twenty-five years, and on such other terms and conditions as said city may determine, including a right to renew such lease or leases for a further term not exceeding twenty-five years or to terminate the same on such terms, reservations and conditions as may be stipulated in such lease or leases, and said lease or leases may be for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with navigation or commerce, with reversion to the said city on the termination of such lease or leases of any and all improvements thereon, and on such other terms and conditions as the said city may determine, but for no purpose which will interfere with navigation or commerce; subject also to a reservation in all such leases or such wharfing out privileges of a street, or of such other reservation as the said city may determine for a belt line railroad where the same may be deemed necessary by the said city; and such other reservations as the city may require, and for sewer outlets, and for gas and oil mains, and for hydrants, and for electric cables and wires, and for such other conduits for municipal purposes, and for such public and municipal purposes and uses as may be deemed necessary by the said city; provided, however, that each person, firm or corporation or their heirs, successors or assigns now in possession of land or lands abutting on said lands, within the boundaries of the city of Oakland, lying and being southerly from the southern line of East Fourteenth street in said city of Oakland and easterly from the eastern limits of the former town of Oakland as hereinbefore firstly described, and lying and being westerly from the easterly boundary line of the city of Oakland as it existed in A. D. 1908, shall have a right to obtain a lease for a term of twenty-five years from said city of said land and wharfing out privileges therefrom with a right of renewal for a further term of twenty-five years pursuant to the provisions of this act and on such terms and conditions as said city may determine and specify, subject to the right of said city to terminate said lease at the end of the first twenty-five years or refuse to renew the same, or to terminate the lease so renewed during the term of such renewed lease on such just and reasonable terms for compensation for improvements at the then value of said improvements as said city may determine and specify. Upon obtaining such lease and wharfing out privileges such person, firm or corporation, their heirs or assigns, shall quitclaim to said city any right they or any of them may claim or have to the said lands hereby granted. This grant shall carry the right to such city of the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands or wharfing out privileges hereby granted. The State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California. No discrimination in rates, tolls or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors in the management, conduct or operation of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in this section. There is hereby reserved in the people of the State of California the right to fish in the waters on which said lands may front with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

Right to fish reserved to people.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 655.

An act to provide for the erection and equipment of a building at the California Institution for the Deaf and the Blind at Berkeley, to be used for instruction in manual and industrial arts, and to make an appropriation therefor.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Appropriation building, California Institution for Deaf and Blind.

SECTION 1. The sum of sixty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of erecting and equipping a building at said institution to be used for instruction in manual and industrial arts.

SEC. 2. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant for the amount herein made payable, in such amounts and at such times as may be approved by the state board of examiners, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same. The amount hereby appropriated shall be available July 1, 1911.

SEC. 3. All bills for material and labor, incurred in carrying out the provisions of section 1 of this act, and all bills for payment in whole, or in part, of any contract made to carry out the provisions of section 1 of this act, shall be first audited by the board of directors of said institution and approved by the state board of examiners before being made.

CHAPTER 656.

An act granting to the city of Los Angeles the tide lands and submerged lands of the state within the boundaries of the said city.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tide lands granted to Los Angeles.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Los Angeles, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all tide lands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of said city, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within said boundaries, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and by its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever: provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands or any part thereof for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor:

Purposes for which lands may be used.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city, or by its successors;

No discrimination in rates.

Reserving, however, in the people of the State of California, the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purposes.

Right to fish reserved to people.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 657.

An act granting certain tide lands and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Oakland and regulating the management, use and control thereof.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tide lands
granted to Oakland.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all tide lands and submerged lands whether filled or unfilled, which are included within that portion of the city of Oakland that lies westerly of the western line of Pine street, as Pine street exists between Atlantic street and Goss street and as shown upon that certain map entitled "Map of land on Oakland point (railroad ferry landing) city of Oakland, tract 406," filed May 24, 1864, in book of maps 5, page 33, records of Alameda county, and said western line of Pine street produced northerly and southerly, excepting, however, from said tide lands and submerged lands such of said lands as lie northerly of the northern boundary line of the city of Oakland, and the western extension thereof, as said northern boundary line was established by an act of the legislature of the State of California, entitled, "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act to incorporate the city of Oakland,' passed March twenty-fifth, 1854, and repealing certain other acts in relation to said city," approved April 24th, 1862, to be forever held by said city and by its successors in trust for the use and purposes and upon the expressed conditions following, to wit:

Purposes
for which lands may be used.

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands or any part thereof, for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California.

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors.

No discrimination in rates.

(d) There is hereby reserved, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said land for said purpose.

Right to fish reserved to people.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 658.

An act to amend section 1750 of the Political Code relating to course of study for high schools.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1750 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1750. The course of study for every high school shall be prepared by, or under the direction of, the high school board or trustees having control thereof, and except in incorporated cities and towns having boards of education, shall be subject to the approval of the county board of education. Said course of study shall embrace a period of not less than four years, and for every high school there shall be prescribed at least one course of study that will prepare graduates therein for admission into the State University; and every high school course may include training in athletics and military drill and tactics, for which may be given credit as a part of said high school work, and instruction therein shall be given at such times and in such manner as said high school board shall determine. The high school board or trustees may prescribe an additional course or additional courses of study subject to approval as herein provided, including instruction in manual training, domestic science and art, agriculture, horticulture and dairying to be duly credited as a part of such high school work. The high school board of each district, which has not already done so, shall adopt a list of text-books for use in such high school district of text-books prescribed by the state board of education, and the clerks or secretary of said board shall certify to the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over such high school, a list of all text-books so adopted or previously adopted by order of said board or then in use in said high school; and no change shall thereafter be made in said list of books for the term of four years after adoption; provided, that the high school board may, at a regular meeting, adopt for a period of not less than four years such additional or other text-books as they may deem best, but the same shall not be changed for four years. The order of adoption shall be entered upon the minutes of the board, and a certified copy thereof shall be at once transmitted by the clerk or secretary of the high school board or trustees to the superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over such high school. The said board shall enter into a written contract with the publisher of the text-books so adopted for their use or purchase, during such period. The high school board of any high school district, or trustees of any county high school, may prescribe post-graduate courses of study for the graduates of such high school, or other high schools, which course of study shall approximate the studies prescribed in the first two years of university courses. The high school board of any high school district, or trustee of any high school wherein such post-graduate courses of study are taught, may charge tuition for pupils living without the boundaries of the district or county wherein such courses are taught.

CHAPTER 659.

An act to amend section two thousand nine hundred eighty-two, of the Political Code, relating to the secretary and assistant to the secretary of the state board of health.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two thousand nine hundred eighty-two of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Secretary of state board of health, salary,
duties.

2982. The secretary of the state board of health shall receive an annual salary of thirty-six hundred dollars and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. He shall enforce all orders and regulations of the state board of health, and shall vigilantly observe sanitary conditions throughout the state, and take all necessary precautions to protect it in its sanitary relations with other states and countries. He shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the state board of health and of his own acts, and shall file a written report of the same at each regular meeting of the board. There shall be an Assistant. assistant to the secretary of the state board of health, who shall be appointed by and hold office at the pleasure of, and perform such duties as shall be prescribed by, said board. The assistant to the secretary of the state board of health shall receive an annual salary of twenty-four hundred dollars. The salaries of the secretary and assistant to the secretary shall be paid out of the general fund at the times and in the manner in which state officers are paid.

SEC. 2. This act shall be in effect from its passage.

CHAPTER 660.

An act to amend section three thousand and seventy-five of the Political Code of the State of California relating to the office of the state registrar of the bureau of vital statistics and the state board of health, and providing for deputies, clerks and assistants and their compensation.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand and seventy-five of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

3075. CHAPTER 664.

An act to repeal an act entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of pilots, and defining their duties and compensation at the port of Wilmington and the bay of San Pedro," approved March 19, 1889.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of pilots, and defining their duties and compensation at the port of Wilmington and the bay of San Pedro," approved March 19, 1889, is hereby repealed. Repealed.

CHAPTER 665.

An act to amend section 596 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the transaction of insurance business.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 596 of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

596. No company shall transact any insurance business in this state without first complying with all the provisions of the laws of this state, and thereafter procuring from the insurance commissioner a certificate of authority, and continuing to comply with the laws of this state: provided, that insurance may be procured from or placed with companies not authorized to transact business in this state upon the terms and conditions hereinafter stated. Every such certificate of authority shall expire on the first day of the July after its issuance, unless sooner revoked. No certificate of authority shall be granted or renewed to any company in arrears to the state or to any county, city and county, city or town in the state for fees, licenses, taxes, assessments, fines or penalties accrued on business previously transacted in the state, nor while said company is otherwise in default for failure to comply with any of the laws of this state regarding the governmental control of such company by the state. No person shall act as agent in any transaction of any insurance business for any insurance company not authorized to transact such business in this state. A surplus line broker is one licensed by the insurance commissioner to act as broker in soliciting, negotiating, and effecting insurance under conditions hereinafter stated, to be procured from or placed with companies not authorized to transact such business in this state. Within the meaning of this law "authorized companies" are those authorized by the insurance commissioner to transact in the State of California the kinds of insurance business that they are transacting. All others are "unauthorized companies." The insurance commissioner may issue a license authorizing any individual to act as surplus line broker from its date until the first of July following, on the following conditions:

(a) Payment to the insurance commissioner of a fee of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars in advance.

(b) Delivery to the insurance commissioner of a bond to the State of California in the sum of five thousand ($5000) dollars with sureties having the qualifications mentioned in sections 1056 and 1057 of the Code of Civil Procedure, conditioned that said licensee will fully and faithfully comply with the requirements of section 596 of the Political Code

A surplus line broker, after having procured from and placed with authorized companies the total amount of insurance obtainable on any property from a majority of all authorized companies, may place the excess of insurance desired over such amount with unauthorized companies. No insurance is to be procured from or placed with unauthorized companies by any one except by a surplus line broker and under such conditions. The following are the duties of a surplus line broker with which he is required to comply.

Duties of surplus line
broker.

1. To maintain in good faith an office in this state.
2. To keep in said office books of account correctly showing in separate accounts all business transacted with unauthorized companies. Said books are to specify the dates of such insurance going into effect, the name of the insurers and of the insured, the gross premiums payable therefor, the terms, character of insurance and locations of the insured property. They shall also contain statements in the same detail of all such insurance canceled, or on which premiums have been increased or reduced and the amounts of additional or of return premiums thereon. Such books are to be open at all times for the inspection of, and examination by, the insurance commissioner, or any one appointed by him for said purpose.

3. Within one week after the surplus line broker shall have obtained knowledge of the completion of the procurement of insurance on any property from an unauthorized company, he shall file with the insurance commissioner a true report showing the name of the insured and of the insurers, the character of the insurance, location of the property, gross premium payable therefor, and the date of such insurance taking effect and the term thereof; also a list of authorized companies comprising a majority thereof from whom the insurance so effected was not obtainable. As soon as practicable after any such insurance has been canceled or any premium thereon has been increased or reduced, such surplus line broker shall file with the insurance commissioner a report thereof in the same detail as above required in the case of the report above referred to.

4. On or before the first day of March of each year he shall file with the insurance commissioner a sworn statement of all business transacted under his license during the last preceding calendar year ending December 31st. Such statements shall contain true accounts of the gross amount of insurance procured from and placed with unauthorized companies during said calendar year, the gross premiums charged therefor including additional insurance premiums, and the gross amount of all insurance canceled during said year, and the gross return premiums thereon. Such statements shall also include additional premiums charged during said calendar year on insurance previously effected and the gross return premiums during said calendar year on insurance previously effected.

5. All such reports and statements shall be made on blanks to be furnished surplus line brokers by the insurance commissioner on application therefor.

6. On or before the first day of June of each year said surplus line broker shall pay to the insurance commissioner for use of the State of California three (3%) per cent of the gross premiums charged, less three (3%) per cent of all return premiums on policies canceled, or upon which the premiums have been reduced during the year ending December 31st last preceding.

The insurance commissioner shall revoke the license of any surplus line broker who wilfully fails or refuses to perform any of his duties hereinabove specified. If in the opinion of the insurance commissioner the solvency of any surety on a bond hereby required has become impaired or doubtful, he shall notify the surplus line broker in writing, and unless within ten (10) days after receipt of such notice the solvency of such surety is proved to the satisfaction of the insurance commissioner, or a new bond is substituted therefor, said insurance commissioner shall revoke the license of the surplus line broker. The removal of the office of the surplus line broker from this state, or the removal therefrom of his accounts of his business as such, or the closing of his said office for a period of more than twenty (20) consecutive days, shall constitute a termination of the authority of said surplus line broker, and shall be tantamount to an express revocation of his license.

whether or not the insurance commissioner thereafter revokes the same. No new license shall be issued to any surplus line broker whose license has been revoked for any reason other than the insufficiency of his sureties, within the period of one year after such revocation, and until all indebtedness of said surplus line broker on former business has been paid to said insurance commissioner. Every insured for whom insurance has been effected with unauthorized companies shall produce for examination by the insurance commissioner, whenever requested by him, in writing, so to do, all policies, contracts, and other documents evidencing such insurance and disclose to him the true amount of the gross premiums paid or agreed to be paid therefor, or, upon refusal so to do, he shall forfeit to the State of California, the sum of two hundred ($200) dollars for each refusal. All policies and other contracts of insurance, issued without full compliance by all parties concerned with the laws of this state, shall be null and void.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect on July 1st, 1911.

CHAPTER 666.

An act to amend section 450 of the Civil Code of the State of California, relating to provisions which must be contained in policies of life insurance.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section four hundred and fifty of the Civil Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

Provisions of life insurance policies issued in this state.

450. Every contract or policy of life insurance hereinafter made by any person or corporation, with and upon the life of a resident of this state, and delivered within this state, shall provide, in event of default of any premium payment after three full annual premiums shall have been paid on such policy, that without any action on the part of the insured, the net value of such policy based upon the reserve basis used in computing the premiums and values thereunder (the policy to specify the mortality table and rate of interest so adopted) which net value shall be at least equal to its entire net reserve at the date of default, including that of dividend additions, if any, based upon a standard not lower than the American experience tables of mortality with interest at three and one half per cent yearly, less a surrender charge of not more than two and one half per cent of the face amount of the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto and less any indebtedness to the company on or secured by the policy, shall be applied as a single premium to the purchase of one of the following stipulated forms of insurance:

First—Paid-up non-participating term insurance in the amount of the face of the policy, plus dividend additions, if any, for such a period as the net value outlined above will purchase at the net single premium, at the attained age of the insured at the time of the lapse, based upon the reserve basis described in the policy; provided, however, that under endowment contracts the term shall not extend beyond the endowment period named in the original contract, and the excess value, if any, shall be applied as a net single premium to purchase in the same manner paid-up pure endowment insurance, payable at the end of the endowment period named in the contract if the insured be then living, or,

Second—Paid-up non-participating term insurance in the amount of the face of the policy, plus dividend additions, if any, and less any outstanding indebtedness, for such a period as the net value outlined above will purchase at the net single premium, at the attained age of the insured, based upon the reserve basis described in the policy; provided, however, that under endowment contracts the term shall not extend beyond the endowment period named in the original contract, and the excess value, if any, shall be applied as a net single premium to purchase in the same manner paid-up pure endowment insurance, payable at the end of the endowment period named in the contract if the insured be then living, or,

Third—Paid-up non-participating insurance payable at the time and on the conditions named in the policy for such an amount as the net value outlined above will purchase at the net single premium, at the attained age of the insured, based upon the reserve basis described in the policy; provided, however, that the policy may be surrendered to the company, at its home office, upon due application by the legal owner thereof, within one month after date of premium default, for a specified cash value which shall be at least equal to the sum which would be otherwise available for the purchase of the automatic form of insurance provided therein; and provided, further, that the company may defer payment of such cash value for not more than six months after application therefor is made. No agreement between the company and the policy holder or applicant for insurance contrary to the foregoing shall be held to waive any of the provisions provided above. Any life insurance policy issued upon the life of a resident of this state, and delivered within this state, which does not contain an automatic non-forfeiture value in conformity with the foregoing shall be construed as granting non-participating term insurance, as provided in paragraph first of this section, and such a benefit shall be read into the contract. The provisions of this section shall not apply to annuities, industrial policies or to term contracts issued for periods of twenty years or less.

Surrender of lapsed policy.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 667.

An act to amend section six hundred and eleven of the Political Code relative to the publication of statements of insurance companies.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 611 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Publication
of statements of insurance
companies.

611. All insurance companies doing business in this state must make and file with the insurance commissioner, on or before the first day of March of each year, statements which must exhibit the condition and affairs of every such company, on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, a synopsis of which statements, as adjusted by the commissioner upon a proper examination of the same, must be published by such company in the city or city and county where the principal office in this state is located, said publication to be daily for the period of one week in some daily newspaper of general circulation or four consecutive times in some weekly newspaper of general circulation.

CHAPTER 668.

An act to amend section 1513 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the powers and duties of the county superintendent of schools of each county.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Duties
of county superintendents
of schools.

SECTION 1. Section fifteen hundred forty-three of the Political Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

1543. It is the duty of the county superintendent of schools of each county:

First—To superintend the schools of his county.

Apportion
moneys.

Second—1. To apportion the school moneys to each school district, as provided in section one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight of this code, at least four times a year. For this purpose he may require of the county auditor a report of the amount of all school moneys on hand to the credit of the several school funds of the county not already apportioned; and it is hereby made the duty of the auditor to furnish such report when so required; and whenever an excess of money has accumulated to the credit of a school district by reason of a large census roll and small attendance, beyond a reasonable amount necessary to maintain a school for eight months in such district for the year, the superintendent of schools shall place said excess of money to the credit of the unapportioned school funds of the county, and shall apportion the same as other school funds are apportioned.

2. If in any school district there has been an average daily attendance of only five or a number of pupils less than five during the whole school year, the superintendent shall, after giving due notice to all parties interested by sending notices by registered mail to each of the trustees, or, by causing notices to be posted in three public places in the district, one of which shall be at the door of the schoolhouse, for not less than ten days, report the fact to the board of supervisors at their first meeting in August. The board of supervisors shall investigate the matter, and, if in its judgment it would be better to temporarily suspend the school district, they shall immediately so suspend it. If the board of supervisors find that there are other school facilities or that there is no reasonable chance to reestablish the district they shall declare the district lapsed, and shall attach the territory thereof to one or more of the adjoining districts in such manner as may be by them considered most convenient for the residents of said lapsed district.

3. At the meeting of the board of supervisors in the months of July, August, or September, the board of supervisors may reestablish a suspended school district upon proper showing of the people or board of school trustees of the district that there are eight or more pupils of the district ready to attend school.

Re-establishment of suspended districts.

4. After a district has been suspended, the county superintendent shall at the time of making the apportionment of school moneys as provided in section 1858 of the Political Code, set aside for such suspended district, the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars. This amount, with any unexpended balance to the credit of the district, shall be held for the use of the suspended district, in case it should be reestablished, and so much of it as may be needed to keep the property of the suspended district insured, and to pay the census marshal, may be expended by the trustees in the same manner as if the district were not suspended. But no subsequent apportionment shall be made to a suspended district, until it is reestablished as provided in subdivision three of this section.

adjoining districts whenever a petition signed by the majority of heads of families as shown by the last preceding school census residing in each of said districts shall be presented to the board of supervisors. Such petition must be filed with the county superintendent and by him presented to the board of supervisors with such suggestions as he thinks best. A temporarily suspended district when reopened shall be considered the same as a new district in regard to its next apportionment.

Property of lapsed districts sold.

8. When any district has been declared lapsed, the board of supervisors shall sell or otherwise dispose of the property thereto belonging, and shall place the proceeds of such sale to the credit of the district. Thereupon the superintendent shall determine all outstanding indebtedness of said lapsed district, and shall draw his requisition upon the county auditor in payment thereof. Any balance of moneys remaining to the credit of said lapsed district after all indebtedness has been paid shall be transferred by the superintendent to the credit of the district into which the said lapsed district has been merged. If the lapsed district has been attached to more than one of the adjoining districts, the superintendent must apportion the moneys remaining to the credit of the lapsed district to the several districts pro rata according to the number of school census children of the respective districts as shown by the last preceding school census. Should there not be sufficient funds to the credit of the lapsed district to liquidate all of the outstanding indebtedness thereof, the superintendent shall draw his requisition upon the county auditor pro rata for the several claims.

Requisitions for expenses.

Third—On the order of the board of school trustees, or board of education of any city or town having a board of education, to draw his requisition upon the county auditor for all necessary expenses against the school fund of any district. The requisitions must be drawn in the order in which the orders therefor are filed in his office. Each requisition must specify the purpose for which it is drawn, but no requisition shall be drawn upon the order of the board of school trustees or board of education against the funds of any district except the teachers' or janitors' salaries, unless such order is accompanied by an itemized bill showing the separate items, and the price of each, in payment for which the order is drawn; nor shall any requisition for teachers' or janitors' salaries be drawn unless the order shall state the monthly salary of teacher or janitor, and name the months for which such salary is due. Upon the receipt of such requisition the auditor shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the parties for the amount stated in such requisition.

Form of order blanks.

The order of the board of school trustees, or board of education, shall be made only on the form of blank approved by the superintendent of public instruction; provided, that said blanks shall be printed and furnished to the school districts by the board of supervisors of the respective counties of the state, and when signed by at least two members of the board of trustees, or the officials authorized to sign orders for the board of education shall be transmitted to the superintendent, who shall, in case he approve said demand, indorse upon it, "Examined and approved," together with the number and date when approved, and shall, in attestation thereof, affix his signature thereto, and deliver the same to the claimant, or his order, who shall transmit the same to the auditor, who shall, in case he allows said demand, indorse upon it, "Allowed," together with the number and date when allowed, and shall, in attestation thereof, affix his signature thereto, and deliver the same to the claimant and make a proper record thereof and charge against the particular fund of the particular district against which such demand was allowed; and said demand, when so approved, and signed by the superintendent, and when so allowed and signed by the auditor, shall constitute the requisition on the auditor, and the warrant on the treasury within the meaning of this act.

Fourth—To keep open to the inspection of the public a register of requisitions, showing the fund upon which the requisitions have been drawn, the number thereof, in whose favor, and for what purpose they were drawn, and also a receipt from the person to whom the requisition was delivered. Register of requisitions.

Fifth—To visit and examine each school in his county at least once in each year. For every school not so visited the board of supervisors must, on proof thereof, deduct ten dollars from his salary. Visit to schools at least annually.

Sixth—To preside over teachers' institutes held in his county, and to secure the attendance thereof of lecturers competent to instruct in the art of teaching, and to report to the county board of education the names of all teachers in the county who fail to attend regularly the sessions of the institute; to enforce the course of study, the use of text-books, and the rules and regulations for the examination of teachers prescribed by the proper authority. Preside over teachers' institutes.

Seventh—He shall have power to issue temporary certificates of equivalent grades to persons holding valid secondary or high school, elementary or grammar school, kindergarten-primary and special certificates granted by county boards of education of California; or to persons who are graduates of colleges, normal schools, or universities and who hold valid certificates issued outside of California when, in the judgment of the superintendent, such certificates correspond in grade to any certificate which may be issued under the provisions of section seventeen hundred and seventy-five of the Political Code of California; which temporary certificate when issued between July first and December thirtieth shall expire on January first following; and when issued between January first and June twenty-ninth shall expire on July first following; provided, further, that he shall have power to issue temporary elementary certificates valid for two years to graduates of the University of California and to graduates of the Leland Stanford Junior University: and provided, further, that no person Issue temporary certificates.

shall be entitled to receive a temporary certificate more than once in the same county.

Distribute laws, etc.

Eighth—To distribute all laws, reports, circulars, instructions, and blanks which he may receive for the use of school officers.

Keep reports.

Ninth—To keep in his office the reports of the superintendent of public instruction.

Keep record of official acts.

Tenth—To keep a record of his official acts, and of all the proceedings of the county board of education, including a record of the standing, in each study, of all applicants examined, which shall be open to the inspection of any applicant or his authorized agent.

Pass upon school-house plans.

Eleventh—Except in incorporated cities having boards of education, to pass upon and approve or reject all plans for schoolhouses. To enable him to do so, all boards of trustees, before adopting any plans for school buildings, must submit the same to the county superintendent for his approval.

Appoint certain trustees.

Twelfth—To appoint trustees to fill all vacancies for the full term thereof; when new districts are organized to appoint trustees for the same, who shall hold office until the first day of May next succeeding their appointment. In case of the failure of the trustees to employ a janitor, as provided in section sixteen hundred and seventeen, subdivision seventh, of this code, he shall appoint a janitor, who shall be paid out of the school fund of the district. Should the board of school trustees of any district fail or refuse to issue an order for the compensation of such service, the superintendent is hereby authorized to issue, without such order, his requisition upon the county school fund apportioned to such district.

Make reports.

Thirteenth—To make reports, when directed by the superintendent of public instruction, showing such matters relating to the public schools in his county as may be required of him.

Preserve records.

Fourteenth—To preserve carefully all reports of school officers and teachers, and, at the close of his official term, deliver to his successor all records, books, documents, and papers belonging to the office, taking a receipt for the same, which will be filed in the office of the county clerk.

Grade schools.

Fifteenth—The county superintendent shall, unless otherwise provided by law, in the month of July of each year grade each school, and a record thereof shall be made in a book to be kept by the county superintendent in his office for this purpose. And no teacher holding a certificate below the grade of said school shall be employed to teach the same.

Appoint census marshal.

Sixteenth—To appoint a school census marshal in any district if the board of trustees or board of education therefor fail to appoint a census marshal within the time fixed by law.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 669.

An act defining certain classes of contracts for the exchange of indemnity, prescribing regulations therefor and fixing a license fee.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Individuals, partnerships or corporations may exchange reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts providing indemnity among each other from fire loss or from other damage to their own property in accordance with the following provisions of this act; provided, that no individual, partnership or corporation thus exchanging indemnity shall assume on any single risk an amount greater than ten per cent of the net financial rating of such individual, partnership or corporation; such financial rating to be shown by the reports of a commercial agency having at least one hundred thousand members.

SEC. 2. Such individuals, partnerships or corporations so contracting among themselves shall have the power to appoint an attorney, agent or other representative and shall, through their attorney, agent or other representative, file with the insurance commissioner of this state a certificate in writing, verified by the oath of said attorney, agent or other representative, setting forth:

(a) The name or title by which said individuals, partnerships or corporations intending to make such contracts shall be known. The insurance commissioner may reject any name or title so submitted when the same is an interference with or too similar to one already appropriated or likely to mislead the public in any respect and, in such case, a name not liable to such objection must be chosen.

(b) A verified copy of the form of policy, contract or agreement under or by which such indemnity is to be exchanged.

(c) A verified copy of the form of power of attorney or other authority of any said attorney, agent or other representative setting forth the character of such representation and the authority of such representative.

(d) The location of the office or offices through which said policies, contracts or agreements are to be issued.

(e) Such attorney in fact shall also file a stipulation or agreement in writing that any notice, provided by law or by any insurance policy, proof of loss, summons or other process may be served upon the attorney in fact or upon the insurance commissioner of the State of California, in all actions or in other legal proceedings against such individuals, partnerships or corporations thus exchanging indemnity under the provisions of section one of this act. All notices, proofs of loss, summons or other legal process so served shall give jurisdiction over the persons of such individuals, partnerships or corporations thus exchanging indemnity. Whenever such service of notice, proofs of loss, summons or other process shall be made upon the insurance commissioner, he must, within ten days thereafter, transmit by mail, postage paid, a copy of such notice, proof of loss, or summons or other process to the attorney in fact so appointed by such individuals, partnerships or corporations so contracting among themselves and shall be addressed to such attorney in fact at the home or principal office through which such policies are to be issued. The sending of such copy by the insurance commissioner shall be a necessary part of the service of the notice, proof of loss, summons or other process. When any notice, summons or other legal process is served upon the insurance commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this section, the service as to such individuals, partnerships, or corporations thus exchanging indemnity shall be deemed complete at the end of sixty days after the date of the mailing of such copy of such notice, proof of loss, summons or other legal process to the attorney in fact as herein provided for.

Examination of rating of subscribers.

(f) The attorney, agent or other representative shall, whenever and as often as the same shall be requested, file with the insurance commissioner a statement verified by his oath to the effect that he has examined the commercial rating of the individuals, partnerships or corporations, composing the subscribers in such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange as shown by a commercial agency having at least one hundred thousand subscribers and that, from such examination, it appears that no subscriber of such exchange has assumed on any single risk an amount of liability greater than ten per cent of the net financial rating of such subscriber when such risk was assumed.

Business done in state.

(g) There shall also be filed with the insurance commissioner by any said attorney, agent or other representative, a written stipulation to the effect that all insurance written by him upon property situated within this state shall be deemed to be business done in this state and within the terms and subject as to taxation to the provisions of section 14 of article XIII of the constitution of this state.

Attorney to procure certificate of authority

SEC. 3. The agent, attorney or other representative, by or through whom are issued or negotiated any policies of or contracts or agreements for any insurance or indemnity of the character referred to in section one of this act, shall procure from the insurance commissioner a certificate of authority stating that all the requirements of this act have been complied with and upon such compliance and the payment of a fee of fifty dollars the insurance commissioner shall issue such certificate. Such certificate must be renewed annually, for which a fee of ten dollars shall be paid. Any such certificate so issued as above may be revoked or suspended by the insurance commissioner if any of such individuals, partnerships or corporations exchanging indemnity under the provisions of this act fail to comply with any or all of the requirements of this act.

SEC. 4. The attorney in fact of such individuals, partnerships or corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange shall file with the insurance commissioner of this state, on or before the first of March of each year, upon forms to be prepared by the insurance commissioner, a statement which must exhibit the condition and affairs of such exchange on the 31st day of December then next preceding.

Annual Statement.

SEC. 5. The insurance commissioner, whenever he deems necessary, must make an examination of the condition and affairs relating to the exchange of indemnity of such individuals, partnerships or corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange and must make such an examination before issuing its original certificate of authority to do business in this state: or where the home office of the inter-insurance or reciprocal exchange is located outside of the State of California, and when such inter-insurance or reciprocal exchange is licensed by the insurance commissioner or department of the state where such home office is located, the insurance commissioner shall accept as satisfactory a certificate of compliance issued by the insurance commissioner or department of the state where said home office is located. Such examination shall verify the certificate and statement filed by the attorney in fact. Such exchange must open its books and papers for the inspection of the insurance commissioner and shall otherwise facilitate such examination and the commissioner may administer oaths and examine under oath any person relative to the contracts of such exchange, and if he finds the books to have been carelessly or improperly kept or posted he must employ sworn experts to rewrite, post and balance the same at the expense of such individuals, partnerships or corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange. Such examination must be conducted in the county where such individuals, partnerships or corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange has its principal office and must be private. Whenever the commissioner shall make such examination as aforesaid the same must be at the expense of the individuals, partnerships and corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange; such expense to be paid in advance, and in the event of refusal to pay such expenses the insurance commissioner may refuse to issue any such certificate of authority and must revoke any existing certificate of authority authorizing such individuals, partnerships and corporations composing such reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange to execute such contracts of indemnity.

Examinations to be made by insurance commissioner.

SEC. 6. Unincorporated inter-indemnity companies who do not issue policies of insurance, who do not charge expenses of management except in liquidation of losses, nor accept premiums from its members shall be exempt from the provisions of this act.

indemnity upon a risk or risks situated in the State of California, held by an individual, partnership or corporation as a subscriber of any reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange which exchange is not authorized to do business in the State of California shall be null and void; provided, that any insurance agreement or agreement for indemnity on goods in transit or the property of common carriers used by such common carriers in the transaction of their business as such carriers shall be deemed not rendered void.

Taxation.

SEC. 8. For the purpose of taxation under the provisions of section 14 of article XIII of the constitution of the State of California all contracts of indemnity upon risks located in this state between individuals, partnerships and corporations under the provisions of this act shall be deemed to be contracts of insurance upon business done in this state under and subject to the provisions of such section 14, article XIII of the constitution of the State of California.

SEC. 9. Individuals, partnerships and corporations exchanging reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts providing indemnity among each other shall be exempt from the provisions of other insurance laws of this state.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect July 1, 1911.

CHAPTER 670.

An act to amend section 4233 of the Political Code of the State of California, relating to the duties and salaries of officers in counties of the fourth class.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

All other matters wherein a justice of the peace may lawfully charge fees for the services, he may collect and retain for his own use such fees as are chargeable by law as his compensation.

(6) In townships having a population of one thousand and less than fifteen hundred, justices of the peace shall each receive as a salary the sum of fifty dollars per month as full compensation for all services rendered by them in both criminal cases and civil cases. All fees chargeable and collectible by justices of the peace in criminal and civil cases for services rendered by them shall be collected and by them paid monthly into the county treasury.

In all other matters wherein a justice of the peace may lawfully charge fees for his services, he may collect and retain for his own use such fees as are chargeable by law as his compensation.

(7) In townships having a population of less than one thousand, justices of the peace shall each receive as a salary the sum of thirty dollars per month as full compensation for all services rendered by them in both criminal and civil cases. All fees chargeable and collectible by justices of the peace in criminal cases and in civil cases for services rendered by them shall be collected and by them paid monthly into the county treasury.

In all other matters wherein a justice of the peace may lawfully charge fees for his services, he may collect and retain for his own use such fees as are chargeable by law as his compensation.

Constables.

15. In counties of this class constables shall be compensated as follows, and all salaries herein provided shall be paid as follows, in the same manner as the salaries of county officers are paid, viz.:

(1) In townships having a population of twenty thousand or more, constables shall each receive a salary of one hundred dollars per month for all services rendered by them in criminal cases. As compensation for all services rendered in civil cases and all other matters wherein they may charge fees for their services, a constable may collect and retain for his own use as his compensation such fees as are now, or may hereafter be allowed by law.

(2) In townships having a population of five thousand and less than twenty thousand, constables shall each receive the sum of seventy-seven dollars and fifty cents per month as a salary for all services rendered by them in criminal cases. As compensation for all services rendered in civil cases and in all other matters wherein they may charge fees for their services, a constable may collect and retain for his own use as his compensation such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law.

(3) In townships having a population of forty-four hundred and less than five thousand, constables shall each receive the sum of seventy-seven dollars and fifty cents per month as a salary for all services rendered by them in criminal cases, civil cases and in the performance of all other duties imposed upon them by law. All fees chargeable and collectible in both criminal cases, civil cases, and in all other cases wherein fees are chargeable by constables, they shall collect in advance and pay monthly into the county treasury.

(4) In townships having a population of four thousand, and less than forty-four hundred, constables shall each receive the sum of seventy-five dollars per month as a salary for all services rendered by them in both criminal and civil cases. All fees collected by them in civil and criminal cases shall be paid by them monthly into the county treasury. For all other services performed by them they may charge and retain for their own use such fees as are chargeable at law.

(5) In townships having a population of fifteen hundred and less than four thousand, constables shall each receive the sum of sixty dollars per month, as a salary for all services rendered in both civil and criminal cases. All fees collected by them in civil and criminal cases shall be paid monthly by them into the county treasury. For all other services performed by them they may charge and collect for their own use such fees as are allowed by law.

(6) In townships having a population of less than fifteen hundred, constables shall each receive the sum of forty dollars per month, as a salary for all services rendered by them both in civil and criminal cases. All fees collected by them both in criminal and civil cases shall be paid monthly into the county treasury. For all other services performed by them, they may charge and collect for their own use such fees as are allowed by law.

Constables shall be allowed all necessary expenses incurred in conveying prisoners. The population herein referred to in classifying the townships for the purpose of regulating the compensation of justices of the peace and constables shall be the population found and determined by the federal census taken in the year 1900; provided, that if a township census be taken after the taking of the federal census, under the provisions of section four thousand and fifty-five then such census shall be known and shall become the official census of the township in which the same is taken, and the population therein determined shall be and become the official population of such township; and provided, further, that any census of the population of a township under the provisions of subdivisions twelve and a half of section twenty-five of an act entitled, "An act to establish a uniform system of county and township government," approved April 1st, 1897, taken after the federal census of 1900 and prior to the repeal of said subdivision twelve and a half of said act, shall be the official census of said township until the next lawful census thereof.

Supervisors.

16. Each supervisor, two thousand four hundred dollars per annum and mileage of ten cents per mile for each mile actually traveled in going to and from their residence to the county seat or in the performance of the duties required of them by law or by virtue of their office; provided, that in attending sessions of the board only four milages shall be allowed for each month and that the total mileage allowed shall not exceed five hundred dollars in any one calendar year; provided, that nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to affect the compensation or mileage of any incumbent supervisor, but said incumbent shall be paid such compensation and allowed such mileage as is now provided and allowed by law.

Jurors.

17. The fees of grand jurors and trial jurors in the superior courts of said counties of the fourth class, in civil and criminal cases shall be three dollars, in lawful money of the United States, for each day's attendance, and mileage to be computed at the rate of fifteen cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in attending court, in going only.

In criminal cases such fees and mileage of said trial jurors in the superior court shall be paid by the treasurer of the county out of the general fund of said county upon warrants drawn by the county auditor upon the written order of the judge of the court in which said juror was in attendance, and the treasurer of said county shall pay said warrants. The board of supervisors of said county is hereby directed to make suitable appropriation for the payment of the fees herein provided for.

SEC. 2. The provisions of this act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 671.

An act to provide for the incorporation and organization and management of municipal water districts.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Municipal water district.

SECTION 1. A municipal water district may be organized and incorporated and managed as herein expressly provided and may exercise the powers herein expressly granted or necessarily implied.

People of county may organize.

SEC. 2. The people of any county or portion of a county, whether such portion includes unincorporated territory or not, in the State of California, may organize a municipal water district under the provisions of this act by proceeding as herein provided.

SEC. 3. A petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors of the county in which the proposed water district is located, signed by at least twenty-five per centum (25%) of the freeholders, owners of real property, within the boundaries of the proposed municipal water district, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such water district, and shall pray that the same be incorporated under the provisions of this act, and such petition shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper printed and published in such county or counties, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which same will be presented. When such petition is presented the board of supervisors shall give notice of an election to be held in said proposed water district for the purpose of determining whether or not same shall be incorporated. Such notice shall particularly describe the boundaries so established and shall state the proposed name of the proposed incorporation (which name shall contain the words "..... municipal water district") and this notice shall be published at least four weeks prior to such election in a newspaper printed and published within the boundaries named and the said notice shall be posted in two places in each precinct within such boundaries. At such election the proposition to be submitted shall be: "Shall the proposition to organize municipal water district under (naming the chapter containing this act) of the acts of the thirty-ninth session of the California legislature be adopted?" and the election thereupon shall be conducted, the vote canvassed and the result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to other county elections. Within four days after such election the vote shall be canvassed by the board of supervisors. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of organizing such municipal water district the county clerk shall immediately transmit to the secretary of state and to the county recorder each a certificate stating that such proposition was adopted. In case less than a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said proposition the organization fails but without prejudice to renewing proceedings at any time in the future.

Sec. 4. At an election to be held within such water district under the provisions of this act and the laws governing county elections not inconsistent herewith, the municipal water district thus organized shall proceed within ninety days after its formation, to the election of a board of directors consisting of five members. Two of these members determined by lot among themselves shall hold office for two years and three of them for four years. Thereafter at each biennial water district election either two or three directors, as the case may be, shall be elected for a term of four years. The election of directors of such municipal water district shall be in every second year after its organization, on the fourth Saturday in March and shall be known as the general water district election. A second election shall be held, when necessary, as hereinafter provided, on the third Saturday after such general election.

Elections.

and shall be known as the second general water district election. All other elections which may be held by authority of this act, or of the general laws, shall be known as special water district elections.

Nominations.

SEC. 5. (1) The mode of nomination and election of all elective officers of such water district to be voted for at any water district election shall be as follows and not otherwise:

(2) The name of a candidate shall be printed upon the ballot when a petition of nomination shall have been filed in his behalf in the manner and form and under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Petition.

(3) The petition of nomination shall consist of not less than twenty-five individual certificates, which shall read substantially as follows:

PETITION OF NOMINATION.

County
clerk to furnish blanks.

(4) It shall be the duty of the county clerk to furnish upon application a reasonable number of forms of individual certificates of the above character.

(5) Each certificate must be a separate paper. All certificates must be of uniform size as determined by the county clerk. Each certificate must contain the name of one signer thereto and no more. Each certificate shall contain the name of one candidate and no more. Each signer must be a qualified elector, must not at the time of signing a certificate have his name signed to any other certificate for any other candidate for the same office, nor, in case there are several places to be filled in the same office, signed to more certificates for candidates for that office than there are places to be filled in such office. In case an elector has signed two or more conflicting certificates, all such certificates shall be rejected. Each signer must verify his certificate and make oath that the same is true, before a notary public or a verification deputy, as provided for in this section. Each certificate shall further contain the name and address of the person to whom the petition is to be returned in case said petition is found insufficient.

Each certificate separate.

(6) Certification deputies, under this section, must be qualified electors of such municipal water district and shall be appointed by the county clerk or clerks upon application in writing, signed by not less than five qualified electors of such municipal water district. The application shall set forth that the signers thereto desire to procure the necessary signatures of electors for the nomination of candidates for municipal office at an election therein specified, and that the applicants desire the person or persons whose names and addresses are given, appointed as verification deputies, who shall upon appointment be authorized and empowered to take the oath of verification of the signers of petitions of nomination. Such verification deputies need not use a seal, and shall not have power to take oaths for any other purposes whatsoever and their appointments shall continue only until all petitions of nomination, under this section, shall have been filed by the county clerk.

Certification deputies.

(7) A petition of nomination, consisting of not less than twenty-five individual certificates for any one candidate, may be presented to the county clerk not earlier than forty-five days, nor later than thirty days before the election. The county clerk shall endorse thereon the date upon which the petition was presented to him.

Petition presented to county clerk.

(8) When a petition of nomination is presented for filing to the county clerk, he shall forthwith examine the same, and ascertain whether or not it conforms to the provisions of this section. If found not to conform thereto, he shall then and there in writing designate on said petition the defect or omission or reason why such petition can not be filed, and shall return the petition to the person named as the person to whom the same may be returned in accordance with this section. The petition may then be amended and again presented to the clerk as in the first instance. The clerk shall forthwith proceed to examine the petition as hereinbefore provided. If necessary, the board of supervisors shall provide extra help to enable the clerk to perform satisfactorily and promptly the duties imposed by this section.

Signer may withdraw name.

(9) Any signer to a petition of nomination and certificate, may withdraw his name from the same by filing with the county clerk a verified revocation of his signature before the filing of the petition by the clerk, and not otherwise. He shall then be at liberty to sign a petition for another candidate for the same office.

Candidate may withdraw name.

(10) Any person whose name has been presented under this section as a candidate may, not later than twenty-five days before the day of election, cause his name to be withdrawn from nomination by filing with the county clerk a request therefor in writing, and no name so withdrawn shall be printed upon the ballot. If upon such withdrawal the number of candidates remaining does not exceed the number to be elected, then other nominations may be made by filing petitions therefor not later than twenty days prior to such election.

Petition filed.

(11) If either the original or amended petition of nomination be found sufficiently signed as hereinbefore provided, the clerk shall file the same twenty-five days before the date of the election. When a petition of nomination shall have been filed by the clerk it shall not be withdrawn nor added to and no signature shall be revoked thereafter.

Petition preserved two years.

(12) The county clerk shall preserve in his office for a period of two years, all petitions of nomination and all certificates belonging thereto, filed under this section.

Certified list of candidates.

(13) Immediately after such petitions are filed, the clerk shall enter the names of the candidates in a list, with the offices to be filled, and shall not later than twenty days before the election certify such list as being the list of candidates nominated as required by the provisions of this act, and the board of supervisors shall cause said certified list of names and the offices to be filled, designating whether for a full term or unexpired term, to be published in the proclamation calling the election at least ten successive days before the election in not more than four newspapers of general circulation published in the county in which such municipal water district is located. Said proclamation shall conform in all respects to the general state law governing the conduct of municipal elections now or hereafter in force, except as above required.

Ballots.

(14) The county clerk shall cause the ballots to be printed and bound and numbered as provided by state law except as otherwise required in this act. The ballots shall contain the list of names and the respective offices as published in the proclamation and shall be in substantially the following form:

GENERAL (OR SPECIAL) DISTRICT ELECTION,
..... municipal water district
(inserting date thereof).

Instructions to voters: To vote, stamp or write a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote. All marks otherwise made are forbidden. All distinguishing marks are forbidden and make the ballot void. If you wrongly mark, tear or deface this ballot, return it to the inspector of election and obtain another.

(15) All ballots printed shall be precisely on the same size, quality, tint of paper, kind of type, and color of ink, so that without the number it would be impossible to distinguish one ballot from another; and the name of all candidates printed upon the ballot shall be in type of the same size and style. A column may be provided on the right hand side for questions to be voted upon at municipal water district elections, as provided for under this act. The names of the candidates for each office shall be arranged in alphabetical order, and nothing on the ballot shall be indicative of the source of the candidacy or of the support of any candidate.

All ballots of same size, etc.

(16) The name of no candidate who has been duly and regularly nominated, and who has not withdrawn his name as herein provided, shall be omitted from the ballot.

No name to be omitted.

(17) The officers to be filled shall be arranged in separate columns in the following order:

Order of officers.

“For director (if any) vote for five.”

“For _____ (if any) vote for one.”

“For _____ (if any) vote for (giving number).”

(18) Half-inch square shall be provided at the right of the name of each candidate wherein to mark the cross.

(19) Half-inch spaces shall be left below the printed names of candidates for each office equal in number to the number to be voted for, wherein the voter may write the name of any person or persons for whom he may wish to vote.

(20) The county clerk shall cause to be printed sample ballots identical with the ballot to be used at the election and shall furnish copies of the same on application to registered voters at his office at least five days before the date fixed for such election, and shall mail one such ballot to each voter entitled to vote at such election, so that all of said sample ballots shall have been mailed at least three whole days before said election.

Sample ballots.

(21) In case there is but one person to be elected to an office, the candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast for all the candidates for that office shall be declared elected; in case there are two or more persons to be elected to an office, as that of director, then those candidates equal in number to the number to be elected, who receive the highest number of votes for such office shall be declared elected; provided, however, that no person shall be declared elected to any office at such first election unless the number of votes received by him shall be greater than one half the number of ballots cast at such election.

Votes necessary to elect.

(22) If at any election held as above provided there be any office to which the required number of persons was not elected, then as to such office the said first election shall be considered to have been a primary election for the nomination of candidates, and a second election shall be held to fill said office. The candidates not elected at such first election, equal in number to twice the number to be elected to any given office, or less if so there be, who receive the highest number of votes for the respective offices at such first election, shall be the only candidates at such second election; provided, that if there be any person who, under the provisions of this subdivision, would have been entitled to become a candidate for any office except for the fact that some other candidate received an equal number of votes therefor, then all such persons receiving such equal number of votes shall likewise become candidates for such office. The candidates equal in number to the persons to be elected who shall receive the highest number of votes at such second election shall be declared elected to such office.

Second election.

(23) The said second election, if necessary to be held, shall be held three weeks after the first election.

(24) All the provisions and conditions above set forth as to the conduct of an election, so far as they may be applicable, shall govern the second election, except that notice of election need be published twice only; and provided, also, that the same precincts and polling places shall, if possible, be used.

(25) If a person elected fails to qualify, the office shall be filled as if there were a vacancy in such office, as hereinafter provided.

(26) No informality in conducting municipal elections shall invalidate the same, if they have been conducted fairly and in substantial conformity to the requirements of this act.

Provisions of municipal election to govern.

SEC. 6. The provisions of the law relating to the qualifications of electors, the manner of voting, the duties of election officers, the canvassing of returns, and all other particulars in respect to the management of municipal elections so far as they may be applicable, shall govern all water district elections; provided, that the boards of supervisors shall canvass the returns of the first election, and that thereafter the board of directors shall meet as a canvassing board, and duly canvass the returns within four days after any water district election.

Officer
subject to recall.

SEC. 7. Every incumbent of an elective office, whether elected by popular vote or appointed to fill a vacancy, is subject to recall by the voters of any municipal water district organized under the provisions of this act, in accordance with the recall provisions of the general laws of the state with reference to municipal corporations.

Board of directors.

SEC. 8. The board of directors shall be the governing body of such municipal water district. It shall hold its first meeting on the third Monday after its election. It shall choose one of its members president, and shall thereupon provide for the time and place of holding its meetings and the manner in which its special meetings may be called. All legislative sessions of the board of directors whether regular or special shall be open to the public. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board of directors shall establish rules for its proceedings.

To act by ordinance.

SEC. 9. The board of directors shall act only by ordinance or resolution. The ayes and noes shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances or resolutions and entered upon the journal of the proceedings of the board of directors. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed or become effective without the affirmative votes of at least three members of the board. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the board shall be in these words: "Be it ordained by the board of directors of municipal water district as follows:". All resolutions and ordinances shall be signed by the president of the board of directors and attested by the secretary.

SEC. 10. The board of directors shall, at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable, elect by majority vote, three commissioners who shall constitute the commissioners of the named water district but no director shall be eligible to appointment to such commission. The said commissioners shall have the power of making and entering into all contracts, to appoint a secretary who may be a member of the commission, and such other assistants and employes as may be necessary for the exercise of the powers of the district, to fix their compensation, prescribe their duties and remove any appointee at pleasure, and to generally manage its affairs subject to such restrictions as the board of directors may impose. The commissioners shall receive such compensation as the board of directors shall determine and shall serve during its pleasure. Vacancies in the board of commissioners shall be filled by the board of directors. The secretary of the commission shall act as secretary of the board of directors. Each of the members of the board of directors shall receive, for each attendance at the meetings of the board, five dollars and his necessary expenses and shall receive no other compensation. Any vacancy in the board of directors shall be filled by the remaining members.

Board to elect three commissioners.

SEC. 11. No informality in any proceeding or informality in the conduct of any election, not substantially affecting adversely the legal rights of any citizen, shall be held to invalidate the incorporation of any municipal water district, and any proceedings, wherein the validity of such incorporation is denied, shall be commenced within three months from the date of the certificate of incorporation, otherwise said incorporation and the legal existence of said municipal water district and all proceedings in respect thereto shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

Informality not to invalidate.

SEC. 12. Any municipal water district incorporated as herein provided, shall have power:

Powers of district.

1. To have perpetual succession;
2. To sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided herein or by law, in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction;
3. To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure;
4. To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, or lease, hold, use, enjoy, and to lease or dispose of real and personal property of every kind, within or without the district, necessary to the full exercise of its powers;

5. To acquire, or contract to acquire, lands, rights and privileges, and construct, maintain and operate conduits, pipe lines, reservoirs, works, machinery and other property useful or necessary to store, convey, supply or otherwise make use of water for the benefit of the district;

6. To sell water under the control of the district to the municipalities and precincts comprising the same and to the inhabitants thereof without preference to such municipalities and precincts; and it may, whenever there is a surplus above that which may be required by such municipalities and precincts, sell or otherwise dispose of such surplus outside of the district to persons, firms, public or private corporations;

7. To have and exercise the right of eminent domain and, in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use, to take any property necessary to supply the district or any portion thereof with water, whether such property be already devoted to the same use or otherwise, and may condemn any existing water works or system, or any portion thereof owned by any person or corporation. In proceedings relative to the exercise of such right, the district shall have the same rights, powers and privileges as a municipal corporation;

8. To borrow money and incur indebtedness and to issue bonds or other evidences of such indebtedness; also to refund or retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the district or property thereof;

9. To cause taxes to be levied for the purpose of paying any obligation of the district;

10. To make contracts, to employ labor and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of the foregoing powers.

SEC. 13. The powers herein enumerated shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be exercised by the board of directors above provided for and elected as prescribed herein.

President of commissioners.

Auditor.

SEC. 14. The commissioners shall elect one of its members president, who shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the commissioners or the board of directors. They shall appoint an auditor, who shall not be a member of the board of directors, and who shall be charged with the duty of installing and maintaining a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely and at all times show the financial condition of the district. He shall draw warrants to pay demands made against the district when such demands have been first approved by at least two of the commissioners. The commissioners shall also designate a depositary or depositaries to have the custody of the funds of the district, all of which depositaries shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss, and who shall pay the warrants drawn by the auditor for demands against the district under such rules as the directors may prescribe.

Resolution to incur bonded indebtedness.

SEC. 15. Whenever the board of directors deem it necessary for the district to incur a bonded indebtedness it shall, by resolution, so declare and state the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred and the amount thereof, and shall direct the commissioners to take, or cause to be taken, such proceedings as may be necessary to incur such debt and in the manner herein provided.

SEC. 16. The commissioners shall adopt a resolution reciting the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the foregoing section, state the proposition to be submitted to the electors, the amount of debt proposed to be incurred, the maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not exceed forty years, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed five per cent per annum.

Proposition submitted to electors.

They shall fix a date upon which an election shall be held for the purpose of authorizing said bonded indebtedness to be incurred, and shall transmit a certified copy of the resolution fixing such date to the county board of supervisors. It shall be the duty of such board to provide for holding such special election on the day so fixed and in such manner and form as special elections are held and conducted within the municipality.

Election.

Such board shall give notice of the holding of such election, which notice shall contain the resolution adopted by the commissioners of the water district, the location of polling places and the names of the officers selected to conduct the election, which shall consist of one judge, one inspector and two clerks, in each precinct. Such notice shall be published for two weeks in a newspaper published in each municipality in such water district which paper shall be designated by the commissioners of the water district, or if there is no newspaper printed in any municipality, then by posting such notice in three public places therein. All the expenses of holding such election shall be borne by the district and shall be paid or credited to each city or to the county in case of precincts outside of incorporated areas, upon the filing of a verified claim therefor with the secretary of the commission. The returns of such election shall be made, the votes canvassed and the results thereof ascertained and declared as in case of other special elections within such municipalities. The board of supervisors shall certify the result of such election to the commissioners of the water district. No irregularities or informalities in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have otherwise been fairly conducted. In all respects not otherwise provided for herein said election shall be called, managed and directed as is by law provided for special elections in the municipalities or precincts in which such election is to be held.

Notice to be published

SEC. 17. If from such returns it appears that more than two thirds of the votes cast at such election were in favor of and assented to the incurring of such indebtedness, then the commissioners may, by resolution, at such time or times as they deem proper, provide for the form of such bonds and for the issuance of any part thereof, and may sell or dispose of the bonds so issued at such times or in such manner as they deem to be to the public interest.

Two thirds vote necessary to carry.

Bonds
exempt from taxation.

SEC. 18. Any bonds issued by any district are hereby given the same force, value and use as bonds issued by any municipality and shall be exempt from all taxation within the State of California.

Commissioners
may construct
works across streams, streets,
etc.

SEC. 19. The commissioners shall have power to construct works across any stream of water, watercourse, street, avenue, highway, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of said works may intersect or cross: provided, such works are constructed in such manner as to afford security for life and property, and said commissioners shall restore the crossings and intersections to their former state as near as may be, or in a manner not to have impaired unnecessarily their usefulness. Every company whose right of way shall be intersected or crossed by said works shall unite with said commissioners in forming said intersections and crossings and grant the rights therefor. The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart to locate, construct and maintain said works over and through any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this state, and to have the same rights and privileges appertaining thereto as have been or may be granted to the municipalities within the state.

Municipalities to fix rates, collect charges,
etc.

SEC. 20. The commissioners shall have no supervision or control of any of the distributing systems of the several municipalities, but the distribution of water in said municipalities, the fixing of rates and collecting of charges therefor shall be under the exclusive supervision and control of each such municipality, and the control of the district shall end with the delivery of water to the several municipalities at the point of delivery by said district: provided, that until a municipality or a precinct shall acquire a distributing system the district may own and lease the same to the municipality or precinct upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon.

Estimate
of water needed by each municipiality.

SEC. 21. Immediately after the organization of the board an estimate may be prepared of the probable amount of water that will be used by the several municipalities and precincts comprising said district, which estimate shall be based upon the population of said municipalities and precincts and thereafter the board may, in lieu of the other methods of procuring funds herein provided, notify the several municipalities of the estimated probable cost of the organization and conduct of such district, exclusive of the purchase of lands and the construction of works, canals and reservoirs, and the proportionate amount payable from each of such cities, whereupon each of such municipalities shall be required to contribute to said district its proportionate amount of the cost of organization of said district: provided, that the sums so paid by each of such municipalities shall be credited to the municipality making the payment and the same deducted from the charge for water first delivered to said municipality as herein provided.

What rate must cover.

SEC. 22. The commissioners in the furnishing of water to any municipality or precinct shall fix such rate as will pay the operating expenses of the district, provide for repairs and depreciation of works owned or operated by it, pay the interest on any bonded debt, and, so far as possible, provide a sinking or other fund for the payment of the principal of such debt as it may become due; it being the intention of this section to require the district to pay the interest and principal of its bonded debt from the revenues of the district.

SEC. 23. If, from any cause, the revenues of the district shall be inadequate to pay the principal or interest on any bonded debt as it becomes due, then the board of directors may cause a tax to be levied for that purpose as herein provided. Tax levy to meet deficiency.

SEC. 24. The board of directors shall determine the amount necessary to be raised by taxation and shall fix a rate of tax to be levied which will raise the amount of money required by the district. The commissioners shall thereupon, and within a reasonable time previous to the time when the board of supervisors is required by law to fix its tax rate, certify to the board of supervisors the rate so fixed with a direction that at the time and in the manner required by law for the levying of taxes for municipal purposes, such board of supervisors shall levy and collect a tax in addition to such other tax as may be levied by such board of supervisors at the rate so fixed and determined, and it is made the duty of the officer or body having authority to levy taxes within each county to levy the tax so required. And it shall be the duty of all county officers charged with the duty of collecting taxes, to collect such tax in time, form and manner as county taxes are collected and when collected, to pay the same to the district ordering its levy and collection. Such tax shall be a lien on all property within the territory comprising the district and of the same force and effect as other liens for taxes, and its collection may be enforced by the same means as provided for the enforcement of liens for state and county taxes. Tax levy.

County officers to collect taxes.

SEC. 25. Ordinances may be passed by the electors of any municipal water district organized under the provisions of this act in accordance with the methods provided by the general laws of the state for direct legislation in municipal corporations. Ordinances may be passed by electors.

SEC. 26. Ordinances may be disapproved and thereby vetoed by the electors of any such municipal water district by proceeding in accordance with the methods provided by the general laws of the state for protesting against legislation in municipal corporations. Ordinances may be vetoed by electors.

SEC. 27. Any portion of a county or any municipality, or both, may be added to any water district organized under the provisions of this act, at any time upon petition presented in the manner herein provided for the organization of such water district, which petition may be granted by ordinance of the board of directors of such water district. Such ordinance shall be submitted for adoption or rejection to the vote of the electors in such water district and in the proposed addition, at a general or special election held as herein provided, within seventy days after the adoption of such ordinance. If such ordinance is approved the president and secretary of the board of directors shall certify that fact to the secretary of state and Municipality may be added to district.

to the county recorder of the county or counties in which such water district is located.

Nothing repealed.

Definitions.

SEC. 28. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as repealing or in any wise modifying the provisions of any other act relating to water or the supply of water to, or the acquisition thereof by, municipalities within this state. The term "municipality," as used in this act, shall include a consolidated city and county, city or town, and the word "district" shall apply, unless otherwise expressed or used, to a water district formed under the provisions of this act, and the word "board" and the words "board of directors" shall apply to the board of directors of such district, and the word "commissioners" shall apply to the commissioners of such water district, and the commissioners shall be regarded as a board of commissioners.

SEC. 31. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

An act granting to the city of Long Beach the tide lands and submerged lands of the State of California within the boundaries of the said city.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tide lands
granted to Long Beach.

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Long Beach, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the tide lands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of said city, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific ocean, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within said boundaries, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city and by its successors, solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever: provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon, for limited periods, for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor;

Purposes for which lands may be used.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the state, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

Harbor improved without expense to state.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or by its successors;

No discrimination in rates.

Reserving, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

Right to fish reserved to people.

CHAPTER 677.

An act to regulate the public service of stallions and jacks in the State of California.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Jacks and stallions for public service to be registered.

SECTION 1. Every association, person, firm or corporation standing or offering any stallion or jack for public service in this state shall cause the name, description, and pedigree of such stallion or jack to be enrolled by a stallion registration board hereinafter provided for, and secure a license from said board, as provided in section 3 of this act. All enrollment and verification of pedigree shall be done in the office of the secretary of the California state board of agriculture. All license certificates for stallions or jacks issued under this act shall thereupon be presented to and recorded by the county recorder of the county or counties in which said stallion or jack is used for public service.

Stallion registration board.

SEC. 2. In order to carry out the provisions of this act, there shall be constituted a stallion registration board, whose duty it shall be to verify and register pedigrees; to pass upon certificates of veterinary examination; to provide, when necessary, for veterinary inspection; to issue stallion or jack license certificates; to make all necessary rules and regulations; and to perform such other duties as may be necessary to carry out and enforce the provisions of this act. Said board shall hold meetings at the office of the secretary of the California state board of agriculture the first Tuesday and subsequent days of February, May, August, and November of each year, and such other meetings as may be necessary. Said stallion registration board shall be composed of three members, consisting of the president and the secretary of the California state board of agriculture and the state veterinarian.

Meetings.

Members.

Stallion must be free from disease, etc.

SEC. 3. In order to obtain the license certificate herein provided for, the owner of each stallion or jack shall forward an affidavit signed by a licensed veterinarian to the effect that he has personally examined such stallion or jack, and that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, said stallion or jack is free from hereditary, infectious, contagious, or transmissible disease or unsoundness. The owner of said stallion or jack shall also furnish to the stallion registration board the stud-book certificate of registry of the pedigree of the said stallion or jack when said stallion or jack is registered, and all other necessary papers relative to his breeding and ownership. Upon verification of pedigree and certificate of breeding (in case of pure-bred stallions and jacks), and receipt of veterinarian's affidavit, as provided for in this act, a license certificate shall be issued to the owner.

SEC. 4. The presence of any one of the following named diseases shall disqualify a stallion or jack for public service, and the examining or inspecting veterinarian is hereby duly authorized to refuse to give an affidavit of soundness to the owner of such stallions or jacks affected with any one or more of the diseases herein specified in a transmissible or hereditary form, and the examining or inspecting veterinarian shall so report the same to the secretary of the stallion registration board. Laryngeal hemiplegia, (roaring or whistling); pulmonary emphysema. (heaves, broken wind): chorea, (St. Vitus' dance, crampiness, shivering, stringhalt); bone spavin; ring-bone; sidebone; navicular disease; osteoporosis; curb, when accompanied with faulty conformation of hock; glanders, farcy; maladie du coit; urethral gleet; mange; or any contagious or infectious disease, and the said board is hereby authorized to refuse its certificate of enrollment for any stallion or jack affected with any one of the diseases herein above mentioned and to revoke the previously issued enrollment certificate of any stallion or jack found on subsequent examination and investigation to be so affected.

Diseases which disqualify.

SEC. 5. The stallion registration board shall make and keep records of all stallions and jacks enrolled in the State of California; said stallions or jacks to be enrolled as "pure-bred," "cross-bred," "non-standard bred," "grade," or "mongrel," according as the facts may have been determined. Upon making the enrollment of said stallion or jack, said stallion registration board shall issue the above said license. The stallion registration board is authorized, in cases of emergency, to grant temporary license certificates without veterinary examination, upon receipt of an affidavit of the owner to the effect that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, said stallion or jack is free from infectious, contagious, or transmissible disease or unsoundness. Temporary license certificate shall be valid only until veterinary examination can reasonably be made.

Records.

Temporary certificates.

SEC. 6. The owner of any stallion or jack used for public service in this state shall post and keep affixed, during the entire breeding season, copies of the license certificate of such stallion or jack, issued under the provisions of this act, in a conspicuous place, both within and upon the outside of the main door leading to every stable or building where the said stallion or jack is used for public service. Each bill and poster and each newspaper advertisement shall show the enrollment certificate number, and state whether it reads "pure-bred," "grade," "cross-bred," "non-standard bred" or "mongrel" and it shall be illegal to print or advertise any misleading reference to the breeding of said stallion or jack, his dam or his sire.

Certificate to be posted.

Advertisement to show certificate number, etc.

SEC. 7. The license certificate issued for a stallion or jack whose sire and dam are of pure breeding, and the pedigree of which is registered in a studbook recognized by the United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., an act

SEC. 8. A fee of two dollars and fifty cents shall be paid to the secretary of the California stallion registration board for the examination and enrollment of each stallion or jack pedigree, and for issuance of a license certificate in accordance with the breeding of the stallion or jack as above provided, which shall be in force and effect for a period of one year from its date, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. The fee shall be paid to the secretary of the California stallion registration board at the time the application is made for enrollment. Upon a transfer of the ownership of any stallion or jack enrolled under the provisions of this act, the certificate of enrollment may be transferred to the transferee by the secretary of the California stallion registration board, upon submittal of satisfactory proof of such transfer of ownership, and upon payment of a fee of one dollar. A fee of one dollar shall be paid annually for the renewal of a license certificate. A fee of one dollar shall be paid for a duplicate license certificate, upon proof of the loss or destruction of the original certificate.

Transfer of ownership.

Duplicate certificate.

Examination of licensed stallion upon complaint.

SEC. 9. Every stallion or jack for which a license has been issued shall be exempt from further examination, unless from later developments it becomes known, and a complaint is filed, certified to by three men, one of whom shall be licensed veterinarian, that said stallion or jack has some hereditary, contagious, or infectious disease which was not evident at the time of previous examination. When such complaint is made, and a request for examination is asked, such complaint shall be filed with the secretary of the California stallion registration board, who shall have another examination made, but the owner of the stallion or jack shall have the right to select a veterinarian legally qualified to practice as such in this state, to act with such examining veterinary, and in case these two shall fail to agree upon a verdict or decision these two veterinarians shall appoint a third qualified veterinarian, with the consent and approval of said board and owner, who shall act as referee therein, and the decision of said referee shall be final. If such complaint is found to be correct it shall be so reported to the secretary, who shall revoke the license in force; provided, that the owner of any stallion used for public service in this state shall have a lien on all colts sired by said stallion for the service fee for a period of one year from the date of the foaling of said colt, as now provided by law.

SEC. 10. Every association, person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for each offense; or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty
for violation.

SEC. 11. The funds accruing from the above named fees shall be used by the said stallion registration board to defray the expenses of enrollment of pedigrees and issuance of licenses; to provide for the examination of stallions and jacks when necessary; to publish reports or bulletins containing lists of stallions and jacks examined, which shall be not less than one in each year; to encourage the horse breeding interests in this state; to disseminate information pertaining to horse breeding, and for any other purposes as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this act. Each member of the above committee shall receive his actual expenses incurred while in the performance of any duty imposed under the provisions of this act; the secretary of said board shall receive for his services an amount to be fixed and agreed upon by said board. It shall be the duty of the said stallion registration board to enforce the provisions of this act, and to make an annual report, including financial statement, to the governor of the state on September 15th of each year.

Of the total amount hereby appropriated three thousand dollars shall be available July 1, 1911, and seven thousand dollars July 1, 1912.

CHAPTER 681.

An act to amend sections 1183, 1184, 1185, 1187, 1190, 1192, 1193, 1194, 1195, 1197, 1202 and 1203, of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California and to repeal sections 1183a, 1200 and 1203a of said code, all relating to the liens of mechanics and others.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1183 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1183. Mechanics, materialmen, contractors, sub-contractors, artisans, architects, machinists, builders, miners, teamsters and draymen, and all persons and laborers of every class performing labor upon, or bestowing skill or other necessary services, or furnishing materials to be used or consumed in or furnishing appliances, teams and power contributing to the construction, alteration, addition to or repair, either in whole or in part, of any building, wharf, bridge, ditch, flume, aqueduct, well, tunnel, fence, machinery, railroad, wagon road or other structure, shall have a lien upon the property upon which they have bestowed labor or furnished materials, for the value of such labor done and materials furnished and for the value of the use of such appliances, teams or power, whether at the instance of the owner, or of any other person acting by his authority or under him, as contractor or otherwise; and every contractor, sub-contractor, architect, builder or other person having charge of the construction, alteration, addition to or repair either in whole or in part of any building, or other improvement as aforesaid shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter. Any person who performs labor in any mining claim or claims, or in or upon any real property worked as a mine, either in the development thereof or in working thereon by the subtractive process or furnishes materials to be used or consumed therein, has a lien upon the same and the works owned and used by the owners for milling or reducing the ores from the same, for the value of the work or labor done or materials furnished by each respectively, whether done or furnished at the instance of the owner of such mining claim or claims or real property worked as a mine, or his agent, and every contractor, sub-contractor, superintendent or other person having charge of any mining or work or labor performed in and about such mining claim or claims or real property worked as a mine, either as lessee or under a working bond or contract thereon shall be held to be the agent of the owner for the purposes of this chapter. The liens in this chapter provided for shall be direct liens, and shall not in the case of any claimants, other than the contractor be limited, as to amount, by any contract price agreed upon between the contractor and the owner except as hereinafter provided; but said several liens shall not in any case exceed in amount the reasonable value of the labor done or material furnished, or both, for which the lien is claimed, nor the price agreed upon for the same between the claimant and the person by whom he was employed; nor in any case, where the claimant was employed by a contractor, or sub-contractor, shall the lien extend to any labor or materials not embraced within or covered by the original contract between the contractor and the owner, or any modification thereof made by or with the consent of such owner, and of which such contract, or modification thereof, the claimant shall have had actual notice before the performance of such labor or the furnishing of such materials. The filing of such original contract, or modification thereof, in the office of the county recorder of the county where the property is situated, before the commencement of the work, shall be equivalent to the giving of such actual notice by the owner to all persons performing work or furnishing materials thereunder. In case said original contract shall, before the work is commenced, be so filed, together with a bond of the contractor with good and sufficient sureties in an amount not less than fifty (50) per cent of the contract price named in said contract, which bond shall in addition to any conditions for the performance of the contract, be also conditioned for the payment in full of the claims of all persons performing labor upon or furnishing materials to be used in such work, and shall also by its terms be made to inure to the benefit of any and all persons who perform labor upon or furnish materials to be used in the work described in said contract so as to give such persons a right of action to recover upon said bond in any suit brought to foreclose the liens provided for in this chapter or in a separate suit brought on said bond, then the court must, where it would be equitable so to do, restrict the recovery under such liens to an aggregate amount equal to the amount found to be due from the owner to the contractor, and render judgment against the contractor and his sureties on said bond for any deficiency or difference there may remain between said amount so found to be due to the contractor and the whole amount found to be due to claimants for such labor or materials or both. No change or alteration of the work or modification of any such contract between the owner and his contractor shall release or exonerate any surety or sureties upon any bond given under this section. It is the intent and purpose of this section to limit the owner's liability, in all cases, to the measure of the contract price where he shall have filed or caused to be filed in good faith with his original contract a valid bond with good and sufficient sureties in the amount and upon the conditions as herein provided. It shall be lawful for the owner to protect himself against any failure of the contractor to perform his contract and make full payment for all work done and materials furnished thereunder by exacting such bond or other security as he may deem satisfactory.

Mechanics have lien upon property on which they have labored, etc.

owner's liability.

SEC. 2. Section 1184 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1184. Any of the persons mentioned in the preceding section, except the contractor, may at any time give to the owner a notice that they have performed labor or furnished materials, or both, to the contractor or other person acting by the authority of the owner, or that they have agreed to do so, stating in general terms the kind of labor and materials and the name of the person to or for whom the same was done or furnished, or both, and the amount in value, as near as may be, of that already done or furnished, or both, and of the whole agreed to be done or furnished, or both, and any of said persons who shall on the written demand of the owner refuse to give such notice shall thereby deprive himself of the right to claim a lien under this chapter. Such notice may be given by delivering the same to said owner personally, or by leaving it at his residence or place of business with some person in charge, or by delivering it to his architect, or by leaving it at the latter's office with some person in charge. No such notice shall be invalid by reason of any defect in form; provided, it is sufficient to inform the owner of the substantial matters herein provided for. Upon such notice being given it shall be lawful for the owner to withhold, and in the case of property which, for reasons of public policy or otherwise, is not subject to the liens in this chapter provided for, the owner or person who contracted with the contractor, shall withhold from his contractor sufficient money due or that may become due to such contractor to answer such claim and any lien that may be filed therefor including the reasonable cost of any litigation thereunder.

SEC. 3. Section 1185 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Land subject to lien.

1185. The land upon which any building, improvement, well or structure is constructed, together with a convenient space about the same, or so much as may be required for the convenient use and occupation thereof, to be determined by the court on rendering judgment, is also subject to the lien, if at the commencement of the work, or of the furnishing of the material for the same, the land belonged to the person who caused said building, improvement, well or structure to be constructed, altered or repaired, but if such person, owned less than fee simple estate in such land, then only his interest therein is subject to such lien, except as provided in section 1192 of this code.

SEC. 4. Section 1187 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Claim of lien filed in recorder's office.

1187. Every original contractor, claiming the benefit of this chapter, within sixty days after the completion of his contract, and every person save the original contractor claiming the benefit of this chapter, within thirty days after he has ceased to labor or has ceased to furnish materials, or both; or at his option, within thirty days after the completion of the original contract, if any, under which he was employed, must file for record with the county recorder of the county or city and county in which such property or some part thereof is situated, a claim of lien containing a statement of his demand after deducting all just credits and offsets, with the name of the owner or reputed owner, if known, also the name of the person by whom he was employed, or to whom he furnished the materials, with a statement of the price, if any, agreed upon for the same and when payable, and of the work agreed to be done and when the same was to be done, if agreed upon, and also a description of the property to be charged with the lien, sufficient for identification, which claim must be verified by the oath of himself or of some other person. Any trivial imperfection in the said work, or in the completion of any contract by any lien claimant, or in the construction of any building, improvement or structure, or of the alteration, addition to, or repair thereof, shall not be deemed such a lack of completion as to prevent the filing of any lien; and, in all cases, any of the following shall be deemed equivalent to a completion for all the purposes of this chapter: the occupation or use of a building, improvement, or structure, by the owner, or his representative; or the acceptance by said owner or said agent, of said building, improvement, or structure, or cessation from labor for thirty days upon any contract or upon any building, improvement or structure or the alteration, addition to, or repair thereof; the filing of the notice hereinafter provided for. The owner may within ten days after completion of any contract, or within forty days after cessation from labor thereon, file for record in the office of the county recorder of the county where the property is situated, a notice setting forth the date when the same was completed, or on which cessation from labor occurred, together with his name and the nature of his title, and a description of the property sufficient for identification, which notice shall be verified by himself or some other person on his behalf. The fee for recording the same shall be one dollar. In case such notice be not so filed then the said owner and all persons deraining title from or claiming any interest through him shall be estopped in any proceedings for the foreclosure of any lien provided for in this chapter from maintaining any defense therein based on the ground that said lien was not filed within the time provided in this chapter; provided, that all claims of lien must be filed within ninety days after the completion of any building, improvement or structure, or the alteration, addition or repair thereto.

Owner may file record of completion with recorder.

SEC. 5. Section 1190 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1190. No lien provided for in this chapter binds any property for a longer period than ninety days after the same has been filed, unless proceedings be commenced in a proper court within that time to enforce the same; or, if a credit be given, then ninety days after the expiration of such credit; but no lien continues in force for a longer time than one year from the time the work is completed, by any agreement to give credit, and in case such proceedings be not prosecuted to trial within two years after the commencement thereof, the court may in its discretion dismiss the same for want of prosecution, and in all cases the dismissal of such action (unless it be expressly stated that the same is without prejudice) or a judgment rendered therein that no lien exists, shall be equivalent to the cancellation and removal from the record of such lien.

Time of continuance of lien.

SEC. 6. Section 1192 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1192. Every building or other improvement or work mentioned in any of the preceding sections of this chapter constructed, altered or repaired upon any land with the knowledge of the owner or of any person having or claiming any estate therein, and the work or labor done or materials furnished mentioned in any of said sections with the knowledge of the owner or persons having or claiming any estate in the land, shall be held to have been constructed, performed or furnished at the instance of such owner or person having or claiming any estate therein, and such interest owned or claimed shall be subject to any lien filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, unless such owner or person having or claiming any estate therein shall, within ten days after he shall have obtained knowledge of such construction, alteration or repair or work or labor, give notice that he will not be responsible for the same by posting a notice in writing to that effect in some conspicuous place upon the property, and shall also, within the same period, file for record a verified copy of said notice in the office of the county recorder of the said county in which said property or some part thereof is situated. Said notice shall contain a description of the property affected thereby sufficient for identification, with the name, and the nature of the title or interest of the person giving the same, said copy so recorded may be verified by anyone having a knowledge of the facts, on behalf of the owner or person for whose protection the notice is given.

SEC. 7. Section 1193 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contractor may recover only amount due.

1193. Any contractor shall be entitled to recover, upon a lien filed by him, only such amount as may be due him according to the terms of his contract, after deducting all claims of other parties for work done and materials furnished, as aforesaid, and embraced within his contract; and in all cases where a lien shall be filed under this act for work done or for materials furnished to any contractor, he shall defend any action brought thereon at his own expense; and during the pendency of such action, the owner may withhold from the contractor the amount of money for which such lien is filed; and in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, the said owner shall be entitled to deduct from any amount due, or to become due by him to the contractor, the amount of such judgment and costs; and if the amount of such judgment and costs shall exceed the amount due by him to the contractor, or if the owner shall have settled with the contractor in full, he shall be entitled to recover back from the contractor, or his bondsmen or sureties on any bond given for the faithful performance of his contract, any amount so paid by him, the said owner, in excess of the contract price, and for which the contractor was originally the party liable. No act done by such owner in compliance with any of the provisions of this chapter shall be held to be a prevention of the performance of any such contract by the contractor, or to have exonerated the sureties on such or any bond given for faithful performance, or for the payment of liens of persons performing labor or furnishing materials, or both; provided, that such act was done in good faith and without design to injure or harass any one.

SEC. 8. Section 1194 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

Deficiency of proceeds under decree of foreclosure

1194. Whenever on the sale of the property subject to any of the liens provided for in this chapter, under the judgment or decree of foreclosure of such lien, there is a deficiency of proceeds, judgment for the deficiency may be docketed against the party personally liable therefor in like manner and with like effect as in action for the foreclosure of mortgages.

SEC. 9. Section 1195 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1195. Any number of persons claiming liens may join in the same action and when separate actions are commenced, the court may consolidate them. The court must also allow, as a part of the costs, the money paid for verifying and recording the lien, such costs to be allowed to each claimant whose lien is established, whether he be plaintiff or defendant, or whether they all join in one action or separate actions are consolidated.

Persons claiming liens may join in action.

SEC. 10. Section 1197 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1197. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for work done or materials furnished to maintain a personal action to recover said debt against the person liable therefor; and the person bringing such personal action may take out an attachment therefor, notwithstanding his lien, and in his affidavit to procure an attachment need not state that his demand is not secured by a lien; but the judgment, if any, obtained by the plaintiff in such personal action shall not be construed to impair or merge any lien held by said plaintiff under this chapter; provided, only, that any money collected on said judgment shall be credited on the amount of such lien in any action brought to enforce the same, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Lien does not impair right of personal action to recover debt.

SEC. 11. Section 1202 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1202. Any person who shall wilfully give a false notice of his claim to the owner under the provisions of section one thousand one hundred and eighty-four shall forfeit his lien. Any person who shall wilfully include in his claim filed under section one thousand one hundred and eighty-seven work or materials not performed upon or furnished for the property described in the claims shall forfeit his lien.

Forfeit of lien.

SEC. 12. Section 1203 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1203. No mistake or errors in the statement of the demand, or of the amount of credits and offsets allowed or of the balance asserted to be due to claimant, nor in the description of the property against which the claim is filed, shall invalidate the lien, unless the court finds that such mistake or error in the statement of the demand, credits and offsets, or of the balance due, was made with the intent to defraud, or the court shall find that an innocent third party, without notice, direct or constructive, has since the claim was filed, become the bona fide owner of the property liened upon, and that the notice of claim was so deficient that it did not put the party upon further inquiry in any manner.

Mistake in statement not to invalidate lien.

SEC. 13. Sections 1183a, 1200, and 1200a of the Code of Civil Procedure are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 14. The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed with a view to effect its purpose. They are not intended as a reenactment of the provisions of former statutes, with the policy heretofore impressed upon the same by the courts of this state, but are intended to reverse that policy to the extent of making the liens provided for, direct and independent of any account of indebtedness between the owner and contractor, thereby making the policy of this state conform to that of Nevada and the other Pacific coast states.

CHAPTER 682.

An act for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies.

[Approved May 1, 1911.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Fraternal benefit societies.

SECTION 1. Any corporation, society, order or voluntary association, without capital stock, organized and carried on solely for the mutual benefit of its members and their beneficiaries, and not for profit, and having a lodge system with ritualistic form of work and representative form of government, and which shall make provision for the payment of benefits in accordance with section five hereof, is hereby declared to be a fraternal benefit society.

Lodge system.

SEC. 2. Any society having a supreme governing or legislative body and subordinate lodges or branches by whatever name known, into which members shall be elected, initiated and admitted in accordance with its constitution, laws, rules, regulations, and prescribed ritualistic ceremonies, which subordinate lodges or branches shall be required by the laws of such society to hold regular or stated meetings at least once in each month, shall be deemed to be operating on the lodge system.

Representative form of government.

SEC. 3. Any such society shall be deemed to have a representative form of government when it shall provide in its constitution and laws for a supreme legislative or governing body, composed of representatives elected either by the members or by delegates elected directly or indirectly by the members, together with such other members as may be prescribed by its constitution and laws; provided, that the elective members shall constitute a majority in number and have not less than two thirds of the votes, nor less than the votes required to amend its constitution and laws; and provided, further, that the meetings of the supreme or governing body, and the election of officers, representatives or delegates shall be held as often as once in four years. The members, officers, representatives or delegates of a fraternal benefit society shall not vote by proxy.

SEC. 4. Except as herein provided, such societies shall be governed by this act and shall be exempt from all provisions of the insurance laws of this state, not only in governmental relations with the state, but for every other purpose, and no law hereafter enacted shall apply to them, unless they be expressly designated therein. Societies exempt.

SEC. 5. Subsection 1. Every society transacting business under this act shall provide for the payment of death benefits, and may provide for the payment of benefits in case of temporary or permanent physical disability, either as the result of disease, accident or old age; provided, the period of life at which the payment of benefits for disability on account of old age shall commence, shall not be under seventy years, and may provide for monuments or tombstones to the memory of its deceased members and for the payment of funeral benefits. Such society shall have the power to give a member, when permanently disabled or on attaining the age of seventy, all or such portion of the face value of his certificate as the laws of the society may provide; provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of benefit certificates for a term of years less than the whole of life which are payable upon the death or disability of the member occurring within the term for which the benefit certificate may be issued. Such society, shall, upon written application of the member, have the power to accept a part of the periodical contributions in cash, and charge the remainder, not exceeding one half of the periodical contribution, against the certificate with interest payable or compounded annually at a rate not lower than four per cent per annum; provided, that this privilege shall not be granted except to societies which have readjusted or may hereafter readjust their rates of contributions and to contracts affected by such readjustment. Benefits.

Subsection 2. Any society which shall show by the annual valuation hereinafter provided for that it is accumulating and maintaining the reserve necessary to enable it to do so, under a table of mortality not lower than the American experience table and four per cent interest, may grant to its members, extended and paid-up protection or such withdrawal equities as its constitution and laws may provide; provided, that such grants shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of such members to whom they are made. Society to maintain reserve.

SEC. 6. The payment of death benefits shall be confined to wife, husband, relative by blood to the fourth degree, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepchildren, children by legal adoption, or to a person or persons dependent upon the member; provided, that if after the issuance of the original certificate the member shall become dependent upon an incorporated charitable institution, he shall have the privilege, with the consent of the society, to make such institution his beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary, and, from time to time, have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules or regulations of the society, Beneficiaries.

and no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of the said member; provided, that any society may, by its laws, limit the scope of beneficiaries within the above classes.

Membership.

SEC. 7. Any society may admit to beneficial membership any person not less than sixteen and not more than sixty years of age, who has been examined by a legally qualified physician and whose examination has been supervised and approved in accordance with the laws of the society; provided, that any beneficiary member of such society who shall apply for a certificate providing for disability benefits, need not be required to pass an additional medical examination therefor. Nothing herein contained shall prevent such society from accepting general or social members.

Certificate to specify amount of benefit.

SEC. 8. Every certificate issued by any such society shall specify the amount of benefit provided thereby, and shall provide that the certificate, the charter or articles of incorporation, or, if a voluntary association, the articles of association, the constitution and laws of the society and the application for membership and medical examination, signed by the applicant, and all amendments to each thereof, shall constitute the agreement between the society and the member, and copies of the same certified by the secretary of the society, or corresponding officer, shall be received in evidence of the terms and conditions thereof and any changes, additions or amendments to said charter or articles of incorporation, or articles of association, if a voluntary association, constitution or laws duly made or enacted subsequent to the issuance of the benefit certificate shall bind the member and his beneficiaries, and shall govern and control the agreement in all respects the same as though such changes, additions or amendments had been made prior to and were in force at the time of the application for membership.

Funds.

SEC. 9. Subsection 1. Any society may create, maintain, invest, disburse and apply an emergency, surplus or other similar fund in accordance with its laws. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, such funds shall be held, invested, and disbursed for the use and benefit of the society, and no member or beneficiary shall have or acquire individual rights therein or become entitled to any apportionment or the surrender of any part thereof, except as provided in subsection 2 of section 5 of this act. The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which the expenses of the society shall be defrayed, shall be derived from periodical or other payments by the members of the society and accretions of said funds; provided, that no society, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter be incorporated or admitted to transact business in this state, which does not provide for stated periodical contributions sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligations contracted, when valued upon the basis of the national fraternal congress table of mortality as adopted by the national fraternal congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard with interest assumption not more than four per cent per annum, nor write or accept members for temporary or permanent disability benefits except upon tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum.

Subsection 2. Deferred payments or installments of claims shall be considered as fixed liabilities on the happening of the contingency upon which such payments or installments are thereafter to be paid. Such liability shall be the present value of such future payments or installments upon the rate of interest and mortality assumed by the society for valuation, and every society shall maintain a fund sufficient to meet such liability regardless of proposed future collections to meet any such liabilities.

Deferred payments considered fixed liabilities.

SEC. 10. Every society shall invest its funds only in securities permitted by the laws of this state for the investment of the assets of life insurance companies: provided, that any foreign society permitted or seeking to do business in this state, which invests its funds in accordance with the laws of the state in which it is incorporated, shall be held to meet the requirements of this act for the investment of funds.

Investment of funds.

SEC. 11. Every provision of the laws of the society for payment by members of such society, in whatever form made, shall distinctly state the purpose of the same and the proportion thereof which may be used for expenses, and no part of the money collected for mortuary or disability purposes or the net accretions of either or any of said funds shall be used for expenses.

Distribution of funds.

SEC. 12. Seven or more persons, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are citizens of this state, who desire to form a fraternal benefit society, as defined by this act, may make and sign (giving their addresses) and acknowledge before some officer competent to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of incorporation, in which shall be stated:

Organization of society.

First—The proposed corporate name of the society, which shall not so closely resemble the name of any society or insurance company already transacting business in this state as to mislead the public or to lead to confusion.

Second—The purpose for which it is formed—which shall not include more liberal powers than are granted by this act; provided, that any lawful social, intellectual, educational, charitable, benevolent, moral or religious advantages may be set forth among the purposes of the society—and the mode in which its corporate powers are to be exercised.

Third—The names, residences and official titles of all the officers, trustees, directors or other persons who are to have and exercise the general control and management of the affairs and funds of the society for the first year, or until the ensuing election at which all such officers shall be elected by the supreme legislative or governing body which election shall be held not later than one year from the date of the issuance of the permanent certificate.

Papers to be filed with insurance commissioner.

Must secure at least 500 applications to complete organization.

Such articles of incorporation and duly certified copies of the constitution and laws, rules and regulations, and copies of all proposed forms of benefit certificates, applications therefor and circulars to be issued by such society, and a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the insurance commissioner conditioned upon the return of the advanced payments, as provided in this section, to applicants, if the organization is not completed within one year, shall be filed with the insurance commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary, and if the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this act, and all provisions of law have been complied with, the insurance commissioner, shall so certify and retain and file the articles of incorporation, and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing said society to solicit members as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of said certificate from the insurance commissioner said society may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly payment, in accordance with its table of rates as provided by its constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. But no such society shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate nor pay or allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow, to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least one thousand dollars each, and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians, and certificates of such examinations have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such society, nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated, nor until there has been submitted to the insurance commissioner, under oath of the president and secretary, or corresponding officers of such society, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of stated periodical contributions which shall be sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligation contracted, when valued for death benefits upon the basis of the national fraternal congress' table of mortality, as adopted by the national fraternal congress August 23, 1899, or any higher standard at the option of the society, and for disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience and for combined death and permanent total disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum, nor until it shall be shown to the insurance commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer, or corresponding officer of such society, that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment as herein provided per one thousand dollars of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars, all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants, and no part of which may be used for expenses. Said advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held in trust, and, if the organization is not completed within one year as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants. The insurance commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable, and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the society has complied with all the provisions of law he shall issue to such society a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such society at the date of such certificate. The insurance commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made and a certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate. No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this section shall be valid after one year from its date, or after such further period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the insurance commissioner upon cause shown, unless the five hundred applicants herein required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided, and the articles of incorporation and all proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of said preliminary certificate, or at the expiration of said extended period, unless such society shall have completed its organization and commenced business as herein provided. When any domestic society shall have discontinued business for the period of one year, or has less than four hundred members, its charter shall become null and void. Every such society shall have the power to make a constitution and by-laws for the government of the society, the admission of its members, the management of its affairs and the fixing and readjusting of the rates of contribution of its members from time to time; and it shall have the power to change, alter, add to or amend such constitution and by-laws and shall have such other powers as are necessary and incidental to carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the society.

Advance payments held in trust.

Insurance commissioner may examine.

Preliminary certificate not valid after one year.

Power to make a constitution.

SEC. 13. Any society now engaged in transacting business in this state may exercise, after the passage of this act, all of the rights conferred thereby, and all of the rights, powers and privileges now exercised or possessed by it under its charter or articles of incorporation not inconsistent with this act, if incorporated; or, if it be a voluntary association, it may incorporate hereunder. But no society already organized shall be required to reincorporate hereunder, and any such society may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time in the manner provided therein or in its constitution and laws and all such amendments shall be filed with the insurance commissioner, and shall become operative upon such filing, unless a later time be provided in such amendments or in its articles of incorporation, constitution or laws.

Mergers
and transfers.

SEC. 14. No domestic society shall merge with or accept the transfer of the membership or funds of any other society unless such merger or transfer is evidenced by a contract in writing, setting out in full the terms and conditions of such merger or transfer, and filed with the insurance commissioner of this state, together with a sworn statement of the financial condition of each of said societies, by its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, and a certificate of such officers, duly verified under oath of said officers of each of the contracting societies, that such merger or transfer has been approved by a vote of two thirds of the members of the supreme legislative or governing body of each of said societies. Upon the submission of said contract, financial statements and certificates, the insurance commissioner shall examine the same, and, if he shall find such financial statements to be correct and the said contract to be in conformity with the provisions of this section, and that such merger or transfer is just and equitable to the members of each of said societies, he shall approve said merger or transfer, issue his certificate to that effect, and thereupon the said contract of merger or transfer shall be of full force and effect. In case such contract is not approved, the fact of its submission and its contents shall not be disclosed by the insurance commissioner.

Annual
license.

SEC. 15. Societies which are now authorized to transact business in this state may continue such business until the first day of July next succeeding the passage of this act, and the authority of such societies may thereafter be renewed annually, but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding July; provided, however, the certificate of authority shall continue in full force and effect until the new certificate of authority be issued or specifically refused. For each such certificate of authority or renewal the society shall pay the insurance commissioner ten dollars. A duly certified copy or duplicate of such certificate of authority shall be prima facie evidence that the licensee is a fraternal benefit society within the meaning of this act.

Foreign societies must secure certificates.

SEC. 16. No foreign society now transacting business organized prior to the passage of this act, which is not now authorized to transact business in this state, shall transact any business herein without a certificate of authority from the insurance commissioner. Any such society shall be entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business within this state upon filing with the insurance commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter or articles of association; a copy of its constitution and laws, certified by its secretary or corresponding officer, a power of attorney to the insurance commissioner as hereinafter provided; a statement of its business under oath of its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, in the form required by the insurance commissioner, duly verified by an examination made by the supervising insurance official of its home state or other state satisfactory to the insurance commissioner of this state; a certificate from the proper official in its home state, province or country that the society is legally organized; a copy of its contract, which must show that benefits are provided for by periodical, or other payments, by persons holding similar contracts, and upon furnishing the insurance commissioner such other information as he may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working and upon showing that its assets are invested in accordance with the laws of the state, territory, district, province or country where it is organized, he shall issue a certificate of authority to such society to do business in this state until the first day of the succeeding July and such certificate of authority shall, upon compliance with the provisions of this act, be renewed annually, but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding July; provided, however, that certificate of authority shall continue in full force and effect until the new certificate of authority be issued or specifically refused. Any foreign society desiring admission to this state shall have the qualifications required of domestic societies organized under this act and have its assets invested as required by the laws of the state, territory, district, country, or province where it is organized. For each such certificate or renewal the society shall pay the insurance commissioner twenty dollars. When the insurance commissioner refuses to issue a certificate of authority to any society, or revokes its certificate of authority to do business in this state, he shall reduce his ruling, order or decision to writing and file the same in his office, and shall furnish a copy thereof, together with a statement of his reasons, to the officers of the society, upon request, and the action of the insurance commissioner shall be reviewable by proper proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction within the state; provided, however, that nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall be taken or construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this state during the time such society was legally authorized to transact business herein.

Same qualifications required of foreign as of domestic society.

SEC. 17. Every society, whether domestic or foreign, now transacting business in this state shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, and every such society hereafter applying for admission, shall, before being licensed, appoint in writing the insurance commissioner and his successors in office to be its true and lawful attorney, upon whom all legal process in any action or proceeding against it shall be served, and in such writing shall agree that any lawful process against it which is served upon such attorney shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the society and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding in this state. Copies of such appointment, certified by said insurance commissioner, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original thereof might be admitted. Service shall only be made upon such attorney, must be made in duplicate upon the insurance commissioner or in his absence upon the person in charge of his office and shall be deemed sufficient service upon such society; provided, however, that no such service shall be valid or binding against any such society when it is required thereunder to file its answer, pleading or defense in less than thirty days from the date of mailing the copy of such service to such society. When legal process against any such society is served upon said insurance commissioner he shall forthwith forward by registered mail one of the duplicate copies prepaid and directed to its secretary or corresponding officer. Legal process shall not be served upon any such society except in the manner provided herein.

Meetings.

SEC. 18. Any domestic society may provide that the meetings of its legislative or governing body may be held in any state, district, province or territory wherein such society has subordinate branches and all business transacted at such meetings shall be as valid in all respects as if such meetings were held in this state. But its principal office shall be located in this state.

No personal liability.

SEC. 19. Officers and members of the supreme, grand or any subordinate body of any such incorporated society shall not be individually liable for the payment of any disability or death benefit provided for in the laws and agreements of such society, but the same shall be payable only out of the funds of such society and in the manner provided by its laws.

Subordinate body may not waive constitution.

SEC. 20. The constitution and laws of the society may provide that no subordinate body, nor any of its subordinate officers or members shall have the power or authority to waive any of the provisions of laws and constitution of the society, and the same shall be binding on the society and each and every member thereof and on all beneficiaries of members.

Benefits may not be attached.

SEC. 21. No money or other benefit, charity or relief or aid to be paid, provided or rendered by any such society shall be liable to attachment, garnishment or other process, or be seized, taken, appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law to pay any debt or liability of a member or beneficiary, or any person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment.

Amendments to constitution filed with insurance commissioner.

SEC. 22. Every society transacting business under this act shall file with the insurance commissioner a duly certified copy of all amendments of or additions to its constitution and laws within ninety days after the enactment of the same. Printed copies of the constitution and laws as amended, changed or added to, certified by the secretary or corresponding officer of the society shall be prima facie evidence of the legal adoption thereof.

Annual reports.

SEC. 23. Every society transacting business in this state shall annually, on or before the first day of March, file with the insurance commissioner in such form as he may require, a statement under oath of its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, of its condition and standing on the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and of its transactions for the year ending on that date and also shall furnish such other information as the insurance commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The insurance commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society. In addition to the annual report herein required, each society shall annually report to the insurance commissioner a valuation of its certificates in force on December 31st, last preceding, excluding those issued within the year for which the report is filed, in cases where the contributions for the first year in whole or in part are used for current mortality and expenses, provided the first report of valuation shall be made as of December 31st, 1912. Such report of valuation shall show, as contingent liabilities, the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation; and, as contingent assets, the present mid-year value of the future net contributions provided in the constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected. At the option of any society, in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the net value of the certificates subject to valuation hereinbefore provided and said net value, when computed in case of monthly contributions, may be the means of the terminal values for the end of the preceding and of the current insurance years. Such valuation shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary, or at the request and expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the department of insurance of the home state of the society, and shall be filed with the insurance commissioner within ninety days after the submission of the last preceding annual report. The legal minimum standard of valuation for all certificates, except for disability benefits, shall be the national fraternal congress' table of mortality as adopted by the national fraternal congress August 23, 1899, or, at the option of the society, any higher table, or, at its option, it may use a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with interest assumption not more than four per centum per annum. Each such valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation. Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep the net contributions for such benefits in a fund separate and apart from all other benefit and expense funds and the valuation of all other business of the society; provided, that where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent total disability benefits, the valuation shall be according to tables of reliable experience and in such case a separation of the funds shall not be required. The valuation herein provided for shall not be considered or regarded as a test of the financial solvency of the society, but each society shall be held to be legally solvent so long as the funds in its possession are equal to or in excess of its matured liabilities. Beginning with the year 1914 a report of such valuation and an explanation of the facts concerning the condition of the society thereby disclosed shall be printed and mailed to each beneficiary member of the society not later than June 1st of each year, or, in lieu thereof, such report of valuation and showing of the society's condition as thereby disclosed may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficiary member of the society. The laws of such society shall provide that if the stated periodical contributions of the members are insufficient to pay all matured death and disability claims in full and to provide for the creation and maintenance of the funds required by its laws, additional increased or extra rates of contribution shall be collected from the members to meet such deficiency; and such laws may provide that, upon the written application or consent of the member, his certificate may be charged with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by valuation, with interest not exceeding five per centum per annum.

Provisions
to insure future security.

SEC. 23a. If the valuation of the certificates, as hereinbefore provided, on December 31st, 1917, shall show that the present value of future net contributions, together with the admitted assets, is less than ninety per centum of the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities, such society shall be required thereafter to reduce such deficiency not less than five per centum of the total deficiency on said December 31st, 1917, at each succeeding triennial valuation. If at any succeeding triennial valuation such society does not show such percentage of improvement, the insurance commissioner shall direct that it thereafter comply with the requirements herein specified. If the next succeeding triennial valuation after the receipt of such notice shall show that the society has not made the percentage of improvement required herein, the insurance commissioner may, in the absence of good cause shown for such failure, institute proceedings for the dissolution of such society, in accordance with the provisions of section 24 of this act, or, in the case of a foreign society, he may cancel its certificate of authority to transact business in this state. Any such society, shown by any triennial valuation, subsequent to December 31, 1917, not to have made the improvements herein required shall, within one year thereafter, complete such deficient improvements, or thereafter, as to all new members admitted, be subject, so far as stated rates of contribution are concerned, to the provisions of section 12 of this act, applicable in the organization of new societies; provided, that the contributions and funds of such new members shall be kept separate and apart from the other funds of the society until the required improvement shall be shown by valuation. If such required improvement is not shown by the succeeding triennial valuation, then the said new members may be placed in a separate class and their certificates valued as an independent society in respect of contributions and funds.

SEC. 24. The insurance commissioner, or any person he may appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any domestic society. He may employ assistants for the purpose of such examination, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society and may summon and qualify as witness under oath and examine its officers, agents and employces or other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of the society. The expense of such examination shall be paid by the society examined, upon statement furnished by the insurance commissioner, and the examination shall be made at least once in three years. Whenever after examination the insurance commissioner is satisfied that any domestic society has failed to comply with any provisions of this act, or is exceeding its powers, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, or is transacting business fraudulently, or whenever any domestic society, after the existence of one year or more, shall have a membership of less than 400 (or shall determine to discontinue business), the insurance commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the attorney general, who shall, if he deem the circumstances warrant, commence an action in quo warranto in a court of competent jurisdiction, and such court shall thereupon notify the officers of such society of a hearing, and it shall then appear that such society should be closed, said society shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business and some person shall be appointed receiver of such society, and shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, moneys and other assets of the society and shall forthwith, under the direction of the court, proceed to close the affairs of the society and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto. No such proceedings shall be commenced by the attorney general against any such society until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society and a reasonable opportunity given to it, on a date to be named in said notice, to show cause why such proceedings should not be commenced.

Sec. 25. No application for injunction against or proceedings for the dissolution of, or the appointment of a receiver for, any such domestic society or branch thereof shall be entertained by any court in this state unless the same is made by the attorney general.

Sec. 26. The insurance commissioner, or any person whom he may appoint, may examine any foreign society transacting or applying for admission to transact business in this state. The said insurance commissioner may employ assistants, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society, and may summon and qualify as witness under oath and examine its officers, agents and employces and other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of the society. He may, in his discretion, accept in lieu of such examination the examination of the insurance department of the state, territory, district, province or county where such society is organized. The actual expenses of examiners making any such examination shall be paid by the society upon
