

NOMINATION EDITOR SWAMPED BY VOTES

Friends of Probable Candidates Send In Coupons as Day For Gallery Of Pictures Draws Near

Friends of probable candidates for councilmanic positions, suggested through The Glendale Evening News, swamped the nomination editor today with votes, in anticipation of the gallery of pictures and biographies to appear in this paper on Wednesday.

On some of the ballots appeared names to be added to the list, while other persons who had polled a light vote received enough to put them close to the mark of fifty, and are in a position to have their picture and biography published under the rules.

The nomination editor again cautions persons sending in votes to give the full name and home address of the candidate. Where the business address of the person nominated appears, and not the home address, the vote cannot be counted.

Blank Appears Daily
Each day there appears in this newspaper a blank form on which Glendale residents are invited to write the names of citizens who they believe are fitted for service on the City Council. Five candidates are to be elected next April.

When any person nominated receives fifty or more nominations, his or her picture and a brief biography will be published in The Glendale Evening News.

Five nominations is the limit any one person is permitted to make. Names of all persons nominated will be published.

The nomination blank appears on page two of today's Glendale Evening News. Make use of it at once and mail it to Nomination Editor, 139 South Brand, Glendale, California.

Smooth Road Is Order Of City Fathers

CLAREMONT, Feb. 9.—No "Thank-you-moms!" That is the order of the city board of trustees to the street superintendent.

For years the dip-the-dips in the Foothills boulevard, the bane and pain of all motorists passing through Claremont, have broken auto springs and people's noses, smashed hats and wrenched backs, and now the city dads have had a change of heart. Originally built to serve as flood channels, the "thank-you-moms" had a tendency to serve as speed cops, for no car could navigate the stretch of highway in question over the legal limit.

'WEDDING BELLS' MAKES 'EM DANCE

Young People at Dobinson Play Insist on Music And Get It

There was a near riot at the Playhouse Theatre Friday night; nothing serious; just a demonstration of that peculiar psychological twist of the youth of today, which, when it wants something, is going to have it. Unaware that the after-the-show Friday night dances at this popular house had been discontinued temporarily, between forty and fifty high school students, accompanied by an equally large number of their elders, prepared to adjourn to the dance floor as soon as the curtain had rung down. Explanations were of no avail. They wanted to dance and they were going to dance. Followed hurried telephone calls all over Glendale for jazz saxophonists, trap-drummers, cowbell manipulators and all the rest which go to make up a modern jazz orchestra. They were finally secured; the dance went on and it proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the many arranged by Florence Dobinson, general manager of the Dobinson stock company. The regular schedule of Friday night dances will open again next Friday night with a special Valentine supper-dance, for which special arrangements have been made and which will be attended by many stage celebrities and persons prominent in the public and social life of Southern California.

JOHN BROWN REVIVAL OPENS WITH 4500 PRESENT

REV. O'NEILL ASSIGNED TO SAN DIEGO

Pastor of First Catholic Church In Glendale Leaves Oxnard

Rev. James S. O'Neill, organizer of Glendale's Holy Family Catholic church, and for sixteen years priest of the local parish, who has been connected with the Santa Clara parish, Oxnard, for the past two years, has been assigned to the Sacred Heart Catholic church, San Diego, by Bishop Cantwell.

Reports from Oxnard state that the change is being made upon the advice of physicians, who believe Father O'Neill's health will benefit in San Diego. For some time he has desired a smaller church, because his health would not permit him to fulfill the duties of a large parish.

When Father O'Neill came to Glendale the city had 1200 inhabitants. He established the first Catholic church here, holding services in a hall until a church was built with funds he raised. Under his leadership the present beautiful Holy Family church was built.

Many Glendale Friends. Upon his departure, two years ago, for Oxnard, a farewell dinner at the Tuesday Afternoon club was attended by hundreds of his friends, both from his church and from other denominations in the city.

During the two years he has been in Oxnard he has made hosts of friends, who regret his departure. Only recently he was made chaplain of the Oxnard Elks lodge.

Father O'Neill sends greeting to his countless Glendale friends and asks them to pay him a visit when in San Diego.

Rev. John Sheehy of Pomona succeeds Father O'Neill in the Oxnard parish.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD FOR VETERANS

Members of Patriotic Organizations Honor Departed Comrades; Sermon Preached by Rev. C. A. Cole

Memorial services honoring departed comrades were held yesterday afternoon at G. A. R. hall, 902 South Glendale avenue, by patriotic organizations of Glendale, under the auspices of N. P. Banks post, G. A. R.

Members of the G. A. R., Women's Relief corps, Mary Jane Gillett tent, No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans' auxiliary, No. 7, Sons of Veterans, camp 22, and Glendale post, No. 127, American Legion, participated in the services. Rev. C. R. Norton, chaplain of N. P. Banks post, W. G. Collins, commander of N. P. Banks post, Mrs. Mary Bennett, president of the Women's Relief corps and Miss Lenora Skelton, patriotic instructor of the Women's Relief corps, had charge of the services.

The bugle call was given by Thomas Long and Rev. Cowan offered prayer. C. M. Clark and Mr. Long, the latter a Spanish War veteran, gave short talks. Rev. Clifford A. Cole, pastor of the Central Christian church directed the memorial address. The services were impressive and opened with the singing of "America" by the audience. Frank Booth sang two vocal selections and Rev. Cole sang a solo. Vacant chairs for deceased members of all patriotic organizations participating in the service had been decorated with acacia blossoms and during the service when the roll was called, a bouquet of carnations and ferns was placed on the chairs of the departed comrades and a tribute paid to the deceased.

Eighteen Honored. There were eighteen vacant chairs; eight for N. P. Banks post, six for the Women's Relief corps and one for each of the other organizations. The hall was appropriately decorated with flags, a large cross in front of the altar being decorated with white and green flowers and flags. Prayer was offered by Rev. Norton and the service closed with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee" by the audience. Following is the memorial address delivered by Rev. Cole:

"Since death and despair first struck cold the hearts of men, memorials have been kept. All nations and all ages have had their monuments and symbols by which they have attempted to keep in everlasting remembrance their leaders and the valorous deeds of their brothers. You are not building monuments today nor are you worshipping at marble shrines, but you are bringing forth from memory's walls the pictures of your brothers and sisters who this year have gone to that bourne from which no traveler returns.

"Peculiarly sacred is the memory of comrades of the Civil war. You not only bring from memory's

GOVERNOR AND WOOD SPEAK TONIGHT

Richardson to Talk Before 'Y' Banquet; Education Head at Forum

Friend W. Richardson, governor of California, and Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, political adversaries and leaders of the principal contending political forces of the state, are scheduled to address two large Glendale gatherings at the same hour tonight.

Early fears that the appearance of the two state leaders on the same night would result in small attendance at both of the meetings have proved groundless. Capacity audiences are assured with tickets for the Y. M. C. A. father and son banquet and the Chamber of Commerce forum dinner sold out.

Six hundred persons will near the governor speak at the father and son affair at the Presbyterian church. As many, it is expected, will listen to Superintendent Wood at the Broadway High school auditorium. Plans to have the governor's talk broadcast over the radio were not put through, so that Glendaleans wishing to hear either of the speakers will have to be present "in the flesh."

Wood At Forum

Mr. Wood comes to Glendale at the request of the High School Teachers' club. Members of the club are in charge of the monthly forum dinner at the Chamber of Commerce. With the address of Mr. Wood on school conditions in the state, the teachers plan to launch an active campaign in favor of the proposed $2,400,000 school bond issues for Glendale.

Lon J. Haddock, reitor and lecturer, will not be able to accept the invitation to speak at the Wood meeting tonight. He has been engaged for some time to talk before the Southern California Academy of Science at Santa Monica tonight and, therefore, as much as he would like to speak in Glendale tonight, his previous acceptance of the Santa Monica invitation will prevent.

Three Persons Suffer Hurts In Car Crashes

Three automobile accidents in Glendale over the week-end resulted in minor injuries to passengers. Peter De Costa of Los Angeles received a gash on the knee Saturday night when the car in which he was riding with L. J. Attorney Enters Race For State Executive

The Glendale Evening News is in receipt of a letter announcing the candidacy of Attorney Emory D. Martindale of Los Angeles for Governor of California in 1926. A luncheon will be held by his friends February 11 in the Clark hotel, it is announced. In a preliminary statement Mr. Martindale believes the primary election law and the initiative and referendum should be changed, as he terms them "effective weapons" in the hands of radicals.

For Council

DR. PAUL S. TRAXLER, the twelfth to receive more than fifty nominations in The Glendale Evening News' nominations for City Council campaign, now being conducted. Who's next?

When The Glendale Evening News announced that it would receive fifty or more nominations for city councilmen, it was stated that all who received fifty or more nominations would have their pictures published, also a brief biography. It happens that Dr. Paul Traxler is the twelfth proposed candidate to receive fifty or more nominations, so his picture appears above and following is a brief story about him.

Dr. Paul S. Traxler was born in Chicago thirty-three years ago, educated in the Chicago public schools, and later graduated from the college of medicine, University of Illinois, in 1914. After serving one year as interne in the City Hospital at St. Louis, Mo., he returned to Chicago, where he engaged in the general practice of medicine and surgery.

Upon America's entry into the World war, Dr. Traxler joined the medical corps of the army and was assigned to surgical service. Following several months in army camps here, he was sent to France with the surgical staff of Evacuation hospital No. 15, and spent eleven months in relief work abroad.

Re-entering active practice upon his discharge from the army, Dr. Traxler came to California, believing that the climate here might have beneficial effect on the health of Mrs. Traxler. He lo-

HUGE TABERNACLE IS PACKED AT MEETING

Rev. Gideon Higginbotham Preaches at Two Services; Expect Evangelist Here From Alabama Thursday

Ten Glendale churches combined to pour 4500 worshippers into the John E. Brown tabernacle on North Kenwood street yesterday morning, and nearly as many again at night. Both services were conducted by Rev. Gideon Higginbotham, advance evangelist of the Brown party.

What Rev. Higginbotham offered the great throngs that twice yesterday filled the tabernacle, was old-time religion—and they liked it, listening intently while he told of his early days in Red Gulch, of his call to Christianity twelve years ago and his tireless fight for the Lord. For his theme Rev. Higginbotham took the story of Gideon's war with the Midianites, choosing for his text Judges, 7:21: "And they stood every man in his place around about the camp; and all the host ran, and cried, and fled."

Battle Continues. "The scene of Gideon's battle with his enemies is re-enacted today," the preacher said. "God's children are living in caves, while the enemy possesses the land. It is God's will that his children should have the best in the land. It is God's plan to work through human agencies. A man stood in a field, threshing wheat. God saw it was the right man and he spoke to him. It was Gideon. God called him to lead the children of Israel to victory, and Gideon accepted the call. "God never sends men and women on a wild goose chase or a fool's errand. There is no place in the church of God today for a drone. We are saved to serve.

Must Stand Test. "God can never use a man or woman who cannot stand the test. How much faith have we in God? How much faith has God in us? Back in your lives, each one of you, when the crucial hour came, did you stand the test? Are you prepared to stand the test that will come to you in this campaign? You're going to have a revival such as Glendale never knew, but it's going to take real men and real women to stand the test.

FIRST PLACE IN LEAGUE AT STAKE

Huli Trucks and Radios to Mix In Crucial Game Tomorrow Night

First place in the City basketball league will be at stake tomorrow night when the Huli Trucks and Radios meet at Harvard High school gym. The two teams are tied for first place, the truckmen having won four games, while the Radios have won three. Neither team has suffered defeat since the season started.

In the first week of play the truckmen defeated Standard Oil, 29 to 21. The second week saw a victory over the Christian church, 56 to 9, while last week the truckmen took two games, beating the Calla Lily 28 to 25, and the Legion crew, 65 to 25.

The Radios opened the league schedule with a win over the Christian church, 55 to 10. They took an extra period game from the Calla Lily crew the second week, 29 to 27, and last week won from the Methodist Episcopal church team 31 to 20, after trailing for the best part of the first three quarters.

Tonight the Christian church will meet the M. E. church. The M. E. churchmen have won two and lost two, while the Christian church team has three defeats and no victories to its credit.

Wednesday night will see another tie settled when the Calla Lily crew and the Standard Oil meet. The truckmen won from the M. E. church 44 to 17, the first week, but dropped two hard luck games, one to Radios, 29 to 27, and the other to Huli Trucks, 28 to 25. The Oiler lost to the truckmen, 29 to 21, and to the M. E. churchmen, 25 to 15, but won last week from the Christian church, 40 to 7.

Thursday night the Legion and Christian church teams will clash. Next week is the final week of the schedule and upon the outcome of tomorrow night's game will hinge the winner of first place and trophy. The games are open to the public, there is no admission charge, and the contests are scheduled to start at 7:30 o'clock.

Cupid Lands K.O. On Jack

This is one of the most interesting studies of ESTELLE TAYLOR, to whom JACK DEMPSEY was married recently, an inset of Jack himself and the artist's impressions of the high spots in Dempsey's life. Reports regarding Dempsey's retirement from the prize ring are conflicting. The latest report is he will participate in two more battles. A go with Gibbons is planned, also one with Wills.

JACK AND ESTELLE

Two fights, one in California and one in New York, are on Jack Dempsey's calendar for the summer, according to rumors in fight circles which followed the announcement of his marriage to Miss Estelle Taylor, motion picture star, at San Diego Saturday night. One of the champion's opponents will be Tommy Gibbons and the other will be Harry Wills, it is said.

Dempsey obtained his marriage license Saturday noon, but at that time said the marriage would not be held until Sunday or Monday.

However, the champion and Miss Taylor returned late Saturday afternoon from Tia Juana, where they attended the races, and went direct to a San Diego church where the champion's mother, Miss Taylor's sister and Joe Benjamin witnessed the ceremony. The ceremony was semi-secret, but announcement of the wedding was made later at a San Diego hotel, where a wedding banquet was served.

Before the wedding, Dempsey announced that he would retire from the ring as soon as Miss Taylor became Mrs. Dempsey, but today it is hinted that he will defend his title on two more occasions, and then pack his gloves in moth balls.

New Shingle Firm to Build Glendale Plant

Indicating an increased building activity in this territory and the manner in which larger manufacturers regard the development in this district, is the announcement that C. F. Stepler has been licensed by the Pioneer Paper Co. of Los Angeles to establish the C. F. Stepler Pioneer Shingle Co. at 404 Ivy street.

The arrangement provides for the application in Glendale and vicinity of asphalt slate-surfaced shingles, manufactured by the Pioneer Paper Co. The C. F. Stepler Shingle Co. will be a separate concern, licensed to distribute and supply these shingles, in order to keep pace with the demand for Pioneer asphalt slate-surfaced shingles for roofing right over the old wood shingles and for new construction on residences, schools and other public buildings.

The Pioneer Paper Co. is the largest exclusive manufacturer of roofing and building papers in the west. The slate for the Pioneer slate-surfaced shingles is a California product, mined in the Yosemite valley district.

People of Great Britain are eating more raisins, and the reported shortage of Smyrna and Greek crops are expected to cause the British to consume the fruit from America.

KID KAPLAN IS READY FOR BOUT

Featherweight Champ Ends Training for Battle With Bud Ridley

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—Kid Kaplan, featherweight champion, wound up his training today for his twelve round no-decision battle here Tuesday night at Jack Doyle's Vernon arena against Bud Ridley of Seattle. It will be the first no-decision twelve round fight in California since the new bout law went into effect.

Kaplan, who is living in a Highland Park bungalow, took a little road work today and eased off training, which has been strenuous for several days.

Ridley is regarded as a better boxer than the new champion but Kaplan was not expected by critics to have any trouble winning through his superior socking ability and his victory by the Kayo route was predicted in many quarters.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Just when everything seemed set for smooth sailing, a veritable feast of concord, at the annual meeting of the National Lawn Tennis association in this city Saturday, a storm cloud develops upon the western horizon.

It appears that certain flaws in the procedure of ranking American lawn tennis players—alleged flaws, that is to say—as well as charges of discrepancies and errors in the rating of western players, has excited the ire of the Western Lawn Tennis association and resolutions setting forth this feeling will be presented at the meeting of the national body by J. C. Stewart, the president of the western organization.

So far as the writer can learn, the western association will raise the following points:

1. The ranking list as sent out by the ranking body is not official, because it was made by a subcommittee of the ranking committee.

2. The members of the subcommittee are all easterners, viz: Norris Williams, Julian Myrick and Nathaniel Niles.

3. George Lott, jr., and Marion Leighton, of Chicago, did not receive adequate recognition by subcommittee.

4. Norris Williams was beaten by Lott in the national tourney, and so, although he was a Davis Cup player, his name was not listed, because of insufficient data.

5. Specifically, as regards point No. 5, it is set forth that Mrs. Ruth Meise of Saginaw, Michigan, received a higher rating in the women's western hon-

Fans who attended the Shell Oil-Sawtelle game yesterday witnessed a thrilling ninth-inning finish, when Sawtelle scored two runs to tie the score, only to lose in the last half of the ninth when Delaguerra rapped out a single that brought in the winning run.

Canadians' Gathering Put Off Account Rain

Rain caused the postponement of the big tourist gathering in the Coliseum, Los Angeles, until next Saturday. The affair was originally planned for last Saturday. Glendale sent a delegation to a special committee meeting and promise was made that a big crowd of Glendallians and a band will be on hand next Saturday.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Babe Ruth from now on faces a never-ending fight to keep in condition, says an expert on physical training, who had an opportunity to look the infant over before he left for the Ozark mountains to begin getting ready for the coming season.

"The Babe," says this expert, "is naturally given to taking on fat and he now has reached the age when every winter's relaxation after a hard season on the diamond will be more serious than the preceding one. The fat will stick more and more meticulously to Ruth's ribs until it finally gets a strangle hold on his flesh tissues.

"The Babe was up at his farm in Sudbury, Mass., this winter, working on the woodpile and doing other chores calculated to keep a man's weight down, but despite that fact he took on thirty pounds. When I saw him here, as he started for the Ozarks, he looked healthy enough, but he had the appearance of a man who is beginning to find that there is more than mere luck in being a 200-pounder.

"This is the kind of fat that he can work off from time to time until it shows him completely, but it is also the kind of fat that brings about some physical weakness in the process of reduction.

"I'd say that one of these days when Old Mr. Fat gets his strangle hold on Ruth the home-run king will acquire a girth that will make Uncle Robby of Brooklyn—before his illness—seem a mere trifle."

It is an odd thing that many of the champion batters of the major leagues have been forced to retire because they were the victims of fat. Too much flesh naturally makes a man slower, but it also hits the batter in a place which is seldom thought of by the man who does not follow the training side of baseball very closely. It makes him so great around the belt that he cannot see the low balls.

Dan Brouthers was one of the best batters that the game ever saw and at his best could pick anything out of the air that was pitched to him. High or low, it was all the same to him. He'd slam the high ones out to the fence and lift the low ones over the wall.

One day he overheard a catcher tell the pitcher to keep the ball around his knees. He laughed, but suddenly he discovered that he could not hit 'em around his knees as he once had. He could not find the ball because there was an obstruction in the line of his vision. The obstruction was firmly at-

RINGSIDE GOSSIP BY FAIR PLAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—When a manager makes an assertion and a promoter takes it up, the manager is in an embarrassing position unless he made his assertion in good faith.

After the Jack Delaney-Tiger Flowers battle, Walk Miller, who is Flowers' manager, claimed that his colored boy had got the works between rounds in that fight, meaning that Delaney's gloves had been loaded for the knockout. He was loaded for the knockout, he said, that if Delaney would agree to a return fight, Flowers would fight him for nothing, giving his share to charity.

Up comes Frank Flournoy, matchmaker of the Garden, saying that Flowers does not have to be as generous as all that. He added that the negro would receive an attractive sum if he would again enter the ring with Delaney.

Delaney's manager has been hanging around the Garden waiting for Miller to come to terms. Just at present Flowers' manager is holding off on a question of money—so it does not look as though he has any intention of letting his fighter do battle for nothing, or anything like nothing.

The date which the Garden authorities want to fill is February 26, the date upon which Berlenbach and Delaney were to meet. Berlenbach, as is known, has decided to rest for a while.

It is not often these days that one hears such charges as Miller made about Delaney's gloves being loaded. It is a pretty risky thing for a second to attempt, as even a fairly watchful referee can detect it. The usual way it is done is to slit the glove with a safety razor while pretending to massage the glove hands, and then pour in some plaster of paris. A dash of water from the water bottle completes the job, and the fighter thus treated has a fist that would crack a brick.

However, since Tiger Flowers is booked to meet Tut Jackson, Sailor Darden, Jackie Clark, Al-jentown Joe Gans and Lee Anderson this month, he cannot be accused of laziness, whatever other charge Pete Reilly, Delaney's manager, may see fit to bring against him.
