To the reader.

Hou shalt understand (gentle Reader) that I haue (for the helpe of those that are desirous to learne to sing) caused a new print of Note to be made with letters to be ioyned to euerie Note: Whereby thou maiest know, how to call euerie Note by his right name, so that with a verie little diligence (as thou art taught in the introduction printed heeretofore in the Psalmes) thou mayest the more easilie by the viewing of these letters, come to the knowledge of perfect Solefayeng: whereby thou mayest sing the psalmes the more speedilie and easilie: The letters be these, V for Vt. R for Re. M for My. F for Fa. S for Sol. L for La. Thus where you see any letter ioyned by the note, you may easilie call him by his right name, as by these two examples you may the better perceiue.

Vt Re My Fa Sol La La Sol Fa My Re Vt

Vt Re My Fa Sol La Fa Sol La La Sol Fa La Sol Fa My Re Vt

Thus I commit thee vnto him that liueth for euer, who grant that we sing with our barts vnto the glorie of his holy name.

Amen.

One holy Ghost, eternall

God proceeding fro' above

Both from the father and the Sonne

the God of peace and love. Where one inrds and inco vs, thy heavenly grace inspire: That in all truth and godlines,

we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very comforter,
 In all wee and distresse:
 The heavenly gift of God most high which no tongue can expresse.
 The fountaine and the lively spring
 of joy celestall:
 The face is bright, the lone so cleere,
 and barieton spiritual.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, wherby Christs Church doth stand:
 In faithfull hartes writing thy law,
 the finger of Gods hand.
 According to thy promise made when giuest speech of grace:
 That through thy helpe the pealls of God,
 may stand in euery place.

O holy Ghost into our mindes send downe thy heavenly light:
 kindle our hartes with feruent loue,
 to serue God day and night.
 Strength and stability all our weakenes,
 sensible and so fraille:
 That neither flesh, the world nor diuell against vs do prevaille.

Put backe our enemies far from vs,
 and graunt vs to obtaine Peace in our hartes with God and man, without grudge or disdain.
 And graunt O Lord, that thou being,
 our leader and our guide,
 Wee may eschew the snares of sinne,
 and from thee neuer slide.

To vs such plenty of thy grace,
 good Lord graunt we thee prayt That thou maist be our comforter, at the last dreadfull day.
 Of all strife and distraction,

O Lord dissolve the bandes:
 And make the knots of peace and love,
 throughout all Christian landes.

Grant vs (O Lord) through thee to know the father most of might:
 That of his deare beloued Sonne,
 we may attaine the sight.
 And that with perfect faith also,
 we may acknowledge thee:
 The spirit of them both alway,
 one God in persons three.

Laud and prayse be to the father,
 and to the sonne equall:
 And to the holy spirit also,
 one God coeternall,
 And pray we that thy onely Sonne, touch safe thy spirit to send:

To all that do professe his name,
 vnto the worlds end.

The humble sute of a Sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I doe depend, behold my carefull hart: And when thy wil and pleasure is, release me of my smart. Thou see'st my sorowes what they are, my griefe is knowne to thee: And there is none that can remove, or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aide I crave,
 whose mercy still is prest:

To ease all those that come to thee,
 for succour and for rest.

And sith thou see'st my restless eyes,
 my teares and grievous geone:

Attend vnto my sute (O Lord)
 marke well my plaint and moene.

For sinne hath so inclosed me,
 and compass me about:
 That I am now remedlesse,
 if mercy helpe not out.
 For mortall man can not release,
 or mitigate this paine:
 But euen thy Christ my Lord and God which for my sinnes was slaine.

Whose bloodse woundes are yet to see, though

Though not with mortall eye:
Yet do thy saintes behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good:
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his woundes and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saintes,
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to prayse thy name.
But while I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my finnes shall to lament.

Least that I tread in sinners trace,
and give them my consent:
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
least that I fall downe flat:
And being downe then of my selfe, can not recouer that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe,
my sute and my request:
To graunt me pardon for my finnes,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart, my tongue & voice,
be instruments of prayse:
And in the Church and house of Saintes sing Psalmes to thee alwaies

Venite exultemus. Psal. XC7.

Sing this as the Benedictus.

○ Come and let vs now reioyce,
And sing vnto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.

○ Let vs come before his face,
With inward reverence:
Confessing all our former finnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefites,
Alway discharging:
Wherefore to him right joyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing,
And that because that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent:
And ke above all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake,
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coastes,
Of all the world so wide.

And with his louing countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaines far and neare.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And he his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

○ Come therefore and worship him,
And downe before him fall:
And let vs weepe before the Lord
The which hath made vs all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are:
His flock and sheepe of his pastures
On whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will heare his voice
Yet harden not your hart:
As in the bitter murmuring
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence,
Committed in the time:
Of trouble in the wilderness
A great and grievous crime.
Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And cryed me every way:
They proued me and saw my works
What I could do or say.

These fortie yeares I haue bene grieved
With all this generation:
And euermore I said they erred,
In their imagination.
Wherewith their haers were soe cobyed,
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger sware,
That they should not be blest
Nor see my toy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord
O that of might art most:
To God the Father and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was
For euer heretofore:
And is now at this present time,
And shall be euermore.

The song of S. Ambrose called Te Deum,

W

Præaise thee God, we knowe thee, the onely Lord to be: And as eter-

nall father, all the earth doth worship thee. To thee all Angels cry, the heauen and all the powers therein,

To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry they do not lye.

O Holy, Ho! s' b' y' ord, of Sabbath Lords the God: (spread, Throug' heaue'n and earth thy praise is and glory all abroad.

bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory, set them with thy Saintes so good.
O Lord do thou thy people saue,
blesse thine inheritance:
Lord governe them and Lord do thou,
for euer them aduance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world withouten end:
Above thy holy name. O Lord vouchsafe vs to defend From sinne this day, haue mercy Lord,
haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

my confidence in thee:

Benedictus. Luke 1. Zacharias.

The onely Lord of Israell, he prayfed

euermoze: for through his uisitacion and mercy kept in store, His people now

he hath redeemd, That long hath been in thral: And spread abroad his sauing health, vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruants true,

According to his mind:

And also his annointed king,

As we in scripture find.

As by his holy Prophets all,

Of times he did declare:

The which were since the world began,

His waies for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered,

From those that make debate:

Our enimies and from the hands,

Of all that do vs hate.

The mercy which he promised,

Our fathers to fulfil:

And thinke vpon his couenant made,

According to his will.

And also to performe the oth,

Which he befoze had swozne:

To Abraham our ffather deare,

For vs that were forlorne.

That he would giue himselfe for vs,

And vs from bondage bring:

Out of the hands of all our foes,

To serue our heavenly king.

And that without all manner feare,

And eke in righteousnesse:

And also for to leade our life.

In stedfast holinesse.

And thou O Childe which now art beorne

And of the Lord elect:

Shalt be the Word he: of the highest,

His waies for to direct.

For thou shalt goe befoze his face,

For to prepare his waies:

And also for to teach his will,

And pleasure all thy dayes.

To giue them knowledg how that thes

Saluacion is neere

And that remission of their sinnes, is through his mercie meere.

Whereby the day spring from on high,

Is come vs for to blesse:
And those for to illuminate,
Which do in darkenesse sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be,
With deach, and eke opposit:
And also for to guide their feete,
The way to peace and rest.

Magnificat. Luke. 1. Mary.

My soule doth magnifie the Lord, my spirite eke euermoze: Reioyceth in the Lord my God, Which is my Sautour.

And why & because he did regard, And gave respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaide, And let the mighty goe.

For now behold all nations,

And generations all:

From this time forth for euermoze,

Shall me right blessed call.

Because he hath me magnified,

Which is the Lord of might:

Whose name be euer sanctified,

And prayfed day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace,

All men he doth entame:

Througheit all generations,

To such as feare his name.

He shewed strength with his great arme

And made the proud to start:

With all Imaginations,

That they bare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mightie ones,

From their supernall seat:

And did exalt the meeke in heart,

As he hath thought it meete.

The hungry he replenished,

With all things that were good:

And through his power he made the rich,

Of times to want their foode.

And calling to remembrance,

His mercie euer deale:

Wath holpen by assistance,

His seruant Israel.

According to his promise made,

To Abraham befoze:

And to his seede successiuelly,

To stand for euermoze.

The song of Simeon, called

Nunc dimittis,

Lord, because my hartes desire

Hath wished long to see, My onely Lord and Saviour, Thy sonne before I dye.

The toy & health of all mankind, Desired long before: Which now is come into the world, Of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy servant now,
In peace for to depart:
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light:
Haue now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set,
Of thine abundant grace:
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face:

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Sathan ouerquell:
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

Quicunq vult. Athanasius.

Wha man soener he be, that sal-uation will attayne: The Catholike beliefe he must before all things retayne.

Which sayth vnles hee holy keepe, and vndefiledly: Without all doubt eternally, he shall be sure to dye,

The Catholike beliefe is this,
that God we worship one:
In Trinitie, and Trinitie in Vnitie alone.

So as we neither do confound,
the persons of the thre:
Ne yet the substance whole of one,
in vnder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
an other of the Sonne:
An other person proper of the holy Ghost alone.

Of father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is:
Like glory to eternall eke,
the Majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree:
And such also we do belieue,
the holy Ghost to be.

Vncreat is the Father, and vncreat is the Sonne:
The holy Ghost vncreat, is vncreat is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Sonne:
And comprehensible also is,
the holy Ghost of none.

The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so:
And in like sort eternall is,
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beliene, that each of these eternall be:
Yet thre but one eternall is,
and not eternalls thre.

As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet vncreat thre:
But one incomprehensible, one vncreat hold to be.

Almightie so the father is,
the sonne almightie so:
And in like sort almightie is,
the holy Ghost also.

And albeit that enery one,
of these almightie be.
Yet thre but one almighties is,
and not almighties thre.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not thre Gods at all,
but one God and no moe.

So likewise Lord the father is,
and Lord also the Sonne:
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not thre Lords but one.

For as we are compeld to graunt,
by Christian beutie:
Each of the persons by himselfe,
both God and Lord to be.

So Catholike religion,
forbiddeth vs alway:
That either Gods be thre, or th
there Lordes be thre to say.

Of none the father is, we made,
ne creat, nor begot:
The Sonne is of the father, not creat, ne made, but got.

The holy Ghost is of them both,
the father and the Sonne:
He made, ne creat, nor begot,
but both proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not thzee,
 one Sonne also not thzee:
 One holy Ghost alone, and not thzee holy Ghostes to be.
 None in this Trinitie, before nor after other is:
 Ne greater any then the rest,
 ne lesser be likewise.
 But every one among them selves,
 of all the persons thzee:
 Together coeternall all,
 and all coequall be.
 So Writte in Trinitie,
 as false it is before:
 And Trinitie in Unitie,
 in all thinges we adoe.
 Therefoze what man soeuer, that saluation will attaine:
 This faith touching the Trinitie,
 of force he must retaine.
 And needfull to eternall life,
 it is that every wight:
 Of the incarnating of Christ,
 our Lord beleue aright.

For this the right faith is, that we,
 beleue and eke do know:
 That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also.
 God of his Fathers substance got before the world began:
 And of his mothers substance, bozne
 in world a very man.
 Both perfect God and perfect man,
 in one, one Jesus Christ:
 That both of reasonable soule,
 and humane flesh subsist.
 Touching his Godhead equal with his Father God is he:
 Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
 and very man also:
 Yet is he but one Christ alone,
 and is not persons two.
 One not by turning of Godhead,
 into the flesh of man:
 But by taking manhood to God,
 this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one:
 But onely by the unitie,
 that is of one person.
 For as the reasonable soule,
 and flesh are one man is:
 So in one person God and man,
 is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for us sake vs all,
 to hell he did descend:
 The third day rose againe from death,
 to heauen he did ascend.
 He sits at the right hand of God,
 the almightie Father there:
 From thence to iudge the quicke and dead,
 againe he shall retre.

At whose returne all men shall rise,

with bodie's new rethod:
 And of their owne workes they shall giue, account vnto the Lord.
 And they into eternall life,
 shall goe that haue done well:
 Who haue done ill, shall goe into eternal fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beleefe,
 who doth not faithfully:
 Belieue the same, without all doubt he saved can not be.
 To Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
 all glozy be therefore:
 As in beginning was, is now,
 and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner. M.

O Lord turne not away thy face, From him that lieth prostrate: Lamenting soze his sinfull life, Before thy mercy gate. Which gate thou openest wide to those, that do lament their sin: Shut not that gate against me Lord, But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accomptes,
 How I haue liued here:
 For then I know right well (O Lord)
 How vile I shall appere.
 I neede not to confesse my life,
 I am sure thou canst tell:
 What I haue bene and what I am,
 I know thou knowst it well.

O Lord thou knowst what things be past,
 And eke the things that be:
 Thou knowest also what is to come,
 Nothing is hid from thee. (made,
 Before the heauens and earth were.
 Thou knowest what things were then,
 As all thinges els that haue bene since,
 Among the sonnes of men.

And can the thinges that I haue done,
 Be hidden from thee then?
 Nay, nay, thou knowst them all (O Lord)
 Where they were done and when.
 Wherefoze with teares I come to thee
 To beg and to entreat:

The Lords Prayer.

Even as the childe that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound:
Requering mercy for my crime,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I neede not to repeat,
What I do beg of craue:
Thou knowest O Lord before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aske,
This is the torall summe:
For mercy Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lordes prayer or Pater noster.

O We father which in heauen art, Lord hallowed be thy name: Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done in earth, euen as the same in heauen is. O Lord our daily bread this day: As we forgive our debtors, So forgive our debts we pray. Into temptation lead vs not, from euill make vs free: for kingdom, power and glory thine, Both now and euer be.

The complaint of a sinner.

W

Here righteousness doth say, Lord for my sinfull part, In wrath thou wouldst me pay Vengeance for my be leit: I can it not deny, But needs I must confesse, how that continually, thy lawes

I do transgresse. Thy lawes I do transgresse.

But like be thy will,
With sinners to contend,
Then at thy flocke shall spill,
And be lost without end,
For who liueth here so right,
That rightly he can satisfiesness not in thy sight,
Full oft and euery daie.

The scripture plaine telles me,
The righteous man offendeth,
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth.
So that the righteous man,
Doth walke in no such path;
But he saith now and than,
In daunger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so standes,
That euen the man right wise:
Falsly oft in sinfull bandes,
Whereby thy wrath may rise.
Lord I that am but dust,
And righteousness none haue:
Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truly to that poste, Whereto I cleane and shall:
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or els we perishe all:
The price of this thy blood,
Wherewith mercy I call.

The scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou dost not spare,
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,

So moist my heart to dye:
That I with sinne repleat,
May liue and sinne may dye.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in mee
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee.
So that I neuer fall,
Into such mortall sinne
That my foes infernall, Reioyce in my death therewith.

But boughsafe me to keep
From those infernall foes:
And from that lake so deepe,
Whereas no mercy growes.
And I shall sing the songes, Confermed with the iust,
That vnto thee belonges,
Which art mine onely trust.

Psalmes of Dauid in Meeter.

Beatus vir. Psal. i. T. S.

This Psalm is set first as a preface to exhort all godly men to studie and meditate the heavenly wisdom: for they be blessed that so doe: but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to misery.

he man is blest that hath not bent to wicked rede his eare: nor led his life as sinners doe, nor sat in coy-ners chayre. But in the law of God

the Lord, doth set his whole delight:

And in that law doth exercise himselfe

both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that groweth,
fast by the waters side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in her due time and tide.
Whose leafe shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish full and stand:
Euen so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly man:
they shall be nothing for:

But as the dust which from the earth,
the windes dyne to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked men,
in iudgement stand upright:
For yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place of sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men,
vnto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men,
shall quite be ouerthrowne.

Quare fremmerunt. Psal. ii. T. S.

Dauid reioyseth, that albeit enemies, and wooldy power rage, God will auance his kingdome vnto the lastest end of the world. Therefore he exhorteth princes humbly to submitte themselues vnder the same. Heretis signified Christ and his kingdome.

Sing this as the first Psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumultes raise?
what rage was in their braines?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vaine?
The kinges and rulers of the earth,
conspire and are all bent:
Against the Lord, and Christ his sonne,
which he amongst vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them say they?
let all their bondes be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law,
let vs respect the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwelth,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughtout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them vpon a day:
And in his furie trouble them,
and then the Lord will say.

6 I haue appointed him my king,
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy lawes,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselte,
did say to me, I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely Sonne,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will giue to thee,
as haire at thy request:
The endes and coastes of all the earth,
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them brise enen with a mace
as men vnder foote trod:
And as the porters hardes shall breake them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kinges and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learnd:
By whom the matters of the world,
be iudged and discerned.

11 Se that ye serue the Lord above,
in trembling and in feare:
Se that with reuerence ye reioyce,
to him in like maner.

12 Se that ye kisse and eke embrace,
his blessed sonne I say:
Least in his wrath ye sodenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath neuer so small,
shall kindle in his brest:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ,
shall happye be and blest.

Domine quid, Psal. iii. T. S.

Dauid dynen out of his kingdome by his sonne absalon, was greatly torment in minde for his sinne. Therefore he called vpon God, & is bold in his promises, against the terrors both of enemies and pester death. Then he reioyseth for the victory gotten to him and the Church, ouer theyr enemies

Lord, how are my foes increast, which berse me more and more? They kill my hart when as they say, God can him not restore. 2. But thou O Lord art my defence, when I am hard beset: thy worthy and mine honoz both, and thou holdst by my head.

4 Then with my voice vpon the Lord,
I did both call and crye:
And he out of his holy hill,
did heare me by and by.

I laide me downe and quietly,
I slept and rose againe:
For why? I know assuridly,
the Lord will me sustaine.

6 Iften thousand had hemd me in,
I could not be afraide:
For thou art still my Lord my God,
my Sallour and my aide.

7 Rise by therefore saue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou hast broke the cheekes and teeth of these wicked men all.

8 Saluation onely deth belong,
to thee O Lord aboue:
Thou dost bestow vpon thy folke,
thy blessing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iiii. T. S.

Dauid persecuted by Saul, called vpon God with assured trust, repoueth his enemies by resting his dominion, and pestereth the fauoz of God his foze all treasure.

Sing this as the first psalme.

O God that art my righte consciense,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou hast set me at libertie

when I was bound and shall.
 2 Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
 and graunt me my request:
 For into the vncleanly
 to cry I will not rest.
 3 O mostall men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
 Why wander ye in banitic,
 and follow after lyes?
 4 Know ye that good and godly men
 the Lord doth take and chuse?
 And when to him I make my plaint
 he doth me not refuse.
 5 Shine not but stand in awe therefore examine well your hart:
 And in your chamber quietly see you your selus stragert.
 6 Offer to God the sacrifices of righteousness I say:
 And looke that in the living Lord,
 you put your trust alway.

7 The greater soyt craue worldly goodes,
 and riches do embrace:
 But Lord graunt vs thy countenance,
 thy fauour and thy grace.
 8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart,
 more ioyfull and more glad:
 Then thy that of their come and wine,
 full great encrease haue had.
 9 In peace therefore lye downe will I,
 taking my rest and sleepe:
 For thou onely wilt me (O Lord) alone in safetie keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel Saules flatterers, calling vpon God to punish their malice
 When assured of successe, he concealed himself.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

I Melde thine eares vnto my word,
 O Lord my plaint consider:
 2 And heare my voice, my King, my God
 to thee I make my prayer.
 3 Heare me betime. Lord tarry not,
 for I will haue respect:
 My prayer rarely in the moone,
 to thee for to direct.
 4 And I will trust through patience,
 in thee my God alone:
 That art not pleased with wickednesse,
 and ill with thee dwels none.
 5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand, these furious fooles. (O Lord) Waine workers of iniquitie, thou hast alwaye abhoyd.
 6 The lyes and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them chare:
 And God will hate the bloo dythfull,
 and the detestfull man.
 7 Therefore will I come to thy house, resting vpon thy grace.
 And reverently will worship thee,
 toward thine holy place.
 8 Lord lend me in thy righteousness,
 for thou shalt confound my foes:

And eke the wates that I shall walke,
 before thy face disclofe.
 9 For in their mouthes there is no trust their hearts are foule and batne:
 10 Their thyoate an open sepulchre, their tongues do glofe and faine.
 11 Destroy their false constractes,
 that they may come to nought:
 12 Subuert them in their heapes of Anne which haue rebellion wzonght.
 13 But those that put their trust in thee,
 let them be glad alwaye:
 And render thanks for thy defence,
 and giue thy name the praise.
 14 For thou with fauour wilt encrease,
 the iust and righteous still:
 And with thy grace as with a shield, defend them from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vi. T. S.

David for his sinnes felt Gods hand, & conceived the horrour of euellasting death. Therefore he des-reth forgiveness, and no to die in Gods indignation. Thel sodenly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies who reioyced at his affliction.

Sing this as the first psalme.

Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
 though I deserue thine ire:
 Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
 O Lord, I thee desire.
 For I am weake therefore O Lord,
 of mercy me forbeare:
 And heale me Lord for why? thou knowest
 my bones do quake for feare.

My soule is troubled very sore,
 and bered vehemently:
 But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
 to cure my miserie?
 4 Lord turne thee to thy wanted grace,
 my little soule by take:
 O saue me not for my defects,
 but for thy mercies sake.
 5 For why? no man among the dead,
 remembereth thee one whit:
 O who shall worship thee O Lord,
 in the infernal pit?
 6 So greivous is my plaint and moone,
 that I ware wondrous faint:
 All the night long I wail my bed,
 with teares of my complaint.
 7 My sight is dim and wayeth old,
 with anguish of my heart:
 For feare of those that be my foes,
 and would my soule subuert.
 8 But now away from me all ye,
 that worke iniquitie:
 For why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and crye.

9 He heard not onely the request,
 and prayer of my heart:
 But it receyued at my handes,
 and tooke it in good part.
 10 And now my foes that bered me,
 the Lord will soone defame:
 And sodenly confound them all,
 to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii. T.S.

David falsly accused by Chus, Sauls kinsman callety God to be his defender. first, for that his conscience did not accuse hym of any euill towards Saule. Next that he couched Gods glory to awarde sentence agaynst the wicked. And so vnto Gods mercyes and promises hee warchly bold, meaninge that it shall fall on theyr neckes, that which theyr ownies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust, and confidence in thee: Saue me from them that me persecus, and eke deliue me.

2 Least like a Lion they me reare, and rend in peeces small: Whilst there is none to succour me, and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I haue done, the thing that is not right: Or els if I be found in fault, or guiltie in thy sight.

4 Or to my friends be wretched, or left him in distresse: Whitch me persecuted most cruelly, and hated me causelesse.

5 Then let my foes pursue my soules, and eke my life downe thrall into the earth: and also laye, mine honor in the dust.

6 Start vp O Lord now in thy wrath, and pac my foes to paine: Performe thy kingdom promised to me, whitch wrong I sustaine.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this thing: If thou declare thy loue of them, thy selfe as Lord and King.

8 And thou that art of all men iudge, O Lord now iudge thou me: According to thy righteousnesse, and mine integritie.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men, and be the iust mans guide:

10 By whom the secrets of all heartes, are searched and descride.

11 I take my helpe to come of God, in all my griefe and smart: That doth preferre all those that be, of pure and perfect heart.

12 The iust man and the wicked both, God iudgeth by his power: So that he seeth his mighty hand, euen every day and houre.

13 Except he change his mynde I dye, for euen as he should smite: He whets his sword, his bow he bendes, ayning where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrowes haue and sharpe: For them that do me persecute, whyles he doth mischief warpe.

15 But loe though he in travell be, of his deuitill forecast:

yet bringes forth nought at last.

16 He digs a ditch and delues it deepe, in hope to hurt his brother:

But he will fall into the pit, that he digd vp for other.

17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred: And all the mischief that he wrought, will fall vpon his head.

18 I will geue thanks to God therefore, that iudgeth righteously: And with a long will praye the name, of him that is most high.

Domine Deus nosker. Psal. viii. T.S.

The prophet, considering the excellent liberalities and fatherly providence of God towards man whom he made as it were a God ouer all his workes geneth thanks, and is allowed with the admiracons of the same.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

O God our Lord, how wonderfull, are thy workes euer where? Whose fame surmountes in dignitie, aboute the heavens cleare.

2 Euen by the mouths of sucking babes, thou wilt confound thy foes: For in their babes thy might is seene, thy graces they discloie.

3 And when I see the heavens high, the workes of thine owne hand: The Sunne, the Moone, & all the starres, in order as they stand.

4 What thing is man (Lord) thinke I then, that thou dost him remember? Or what is mans postertie, that thou dost him consider?

5 For thou hast made him litle lesse, then Angels in degree: And thou hast crowned him also, with glory and dignitie.

6 Thou hast preferred him to be Lord, of all thy workes of wonder: And at his fere hast set all thynges, that he should keepe them vnder.

7 As sheepe and neate, and all beastes els, that in thy fieldes do feede:

8 fowles of the ayre, fish in the sea, and all that therein breede.

9 Therefore must I say once agayne, O God thou art our Lord: How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world.

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

David giving thanks for his manifold victozies receiued, desireth the same woult help agayne, as agaynt his new enemies, and their malicious ayres gaulie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

With hart and mouth vnto the Lord, will I sing laud and praye: And speake of all his wondrous workes, and them declare alwayes.

2 I will be glad and much reioyse, in the (O Lord) most high: And make my songes extoll thy name, aboute the earth thrye.

3 For that my foes are broken backe,
and turned into flight:

They fall downe flat and are destroyd,
by thy great force and might.

4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou dost with iustice heare my cause,
most like a righteous iudge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folke,
and wicked to confound:

That afterward the memory,
of them cannot be found.

6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their townes destroyd:

Thou hast their fame with them defaced, through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou, that he which is above,
for euermore shall raigne:

And in the seate of equitie,
true iudgement well maintayne.

8 With iustice he will keepe and guide,
the world and eery right:

And so will yeld with equitie,
to eery man his right.

9 He is protector of the poore,
what tyme they be opprest:

He is in all adueritie,
their refuge and their rest.

10 All they that know thy holy name thereof shall trust in thee:

For thou forsakest not their suite,
in their necessitie.

The second part.

11 Sing this psalme therefore vnto the Lord that dweneh in Sion hill:

Publickly among all nations,
his noble acts and wil.

12 For he is mindful of the blood,
of those that he oppress:

Forgetting not the afflicted hart,
that seeketh to him for rest.

13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch whose enemies still remaine:

Which from the gates of death art wont,
to raffe me by againe.

14 In Sion that I may set forth, thy praise in heart and voice:

And that in thy liberation Lord,
my soule might still reioyce.

15 The heathen likee fall in the pit,
that they themselves prepared:

And in the net that they did set,
their owne feete fall ace snare.

16 God thowes his iudgements which were to eery man to marke: (good,

When as you see the wicked man,
lye trayt in his owne warke.

17 The wicked and the sinfull men,
goe downe to hell for euer:

And all the people of the world,
that God will not remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget,
the poore mans grief and payne:

The patient people neuer looke,
for helpe of God in vaine.

19 O Lord arise, least men prouaile, that be of worldly might:

And let the heathen folke receiue,
their iudgement in thy sight.

20 Lord strike such terror, feare and dread,
into the hartes of the men:

That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x. T.S.

¶ Be complacēt of all the wronges which worlde ly men vse, because of their perspective who these foe without all feare of God thinke they may do all things vncōtrolled. He calleth for remedy against such, & is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

W What is the cause that thou O Lord,
art now so farre from thine?

And hepest close thy countenance,
from vs this troublous tyme.

2 The poore doth perill by the proud,
and wicked mens desire:

Let them be taken in the craft,
that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the lust of their owne hart,
the vngodly doth delight:

So doth the wicked praye himselfe,
and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud that right and wrong, he setteth all apart:

5 Nay, nay, there is no God (sayth he) for thus he thinkes in hart.

6 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect:

And with a blast doth puffe agaynst
such as would him correct.

7 Tush, tush (sayth he) I haue no dread, least myne estate should chaunge:

And why? for all adueritie,
to him is very strange.

8 His mouth is full of cursefulness, of fraude, deceit, and guile:

Vnder his tongue doth mischief sit,
and trauell all the while.

9 He lyeth hid in wayes and holes,
to say the innocent:

Against the poore that passeh, in by,
his cruel eyes are bent.

10 And like a Lyon proudly,
lyeth lurking in his den:

If he may snare them in his net,
to speelle poore simple men.

11 And for the nonce full castely,
he croucheth downe I say:

12 So are great heapes of poore men made by his strong power his pray.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this sayth he,
therefore I may be bold:

His countenance is cast aslee,
he doth it not behold.

13 Arise O Lord, O God in whom,
the poore mans hope doth rest:

14 Lift vp thy hand forger not Lord,
the poore that be oppress.

15 What blasphemie is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not knowe it?

Domine

To heare the wicked in their hearts, say euid thou carest not for it?
 15 But thou seekest all their wickednesse, and well doest vnderstand:
 16 Their friendlesse and pooze fatherlesse, are left vnto thy hand.
 17 Of wicked and malicious men,
 then breake the power for euer:
 That they with their iniquitie,
 may perish altogether.
 18 The Lord shall reigne for euermore,
 as kynge and God alone:
 And he will chase the heathen folke,
 out of the land euyone.

19 Thou hearest O Lord the poore mans their prayes and request: (playnt, Their harres thou wilt confirme, vntill thine eares to heare be prest.
 20 To iudge the poore and fatherlesse, and helpe them to their right:
 That they may be no more oppressed, with men of worldly might.

In Domino. Psal. xi. T. S.

This psalme sheweth first what assaultes of temptacion and anguish of mynde he sustayned in persecution. Next heretofore that god sent him first out in necessity, declaring his iustice, as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

I Trust in God how dare ye then,
 say thus my soule brutill:
 Flye hence as fast as any foule,
 and hide you in your hill?
 2 Behold the picked bend their bowes,
 and make their arrowes prest:
 To shote in secret and to hurt
 the sound and harmelesse best.
 3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shroude,
 and clearly brought to nought:
 Alas the iust and righteous min,
 what euill hath he wrought?
 4 But he that in his temple is,
 most holy and most high:
 And in the heauens hath his seate,
 of royall maiestie.

The poore and simple mans estate,
 considered in mynde:
 And searcheth out full narrowly,
 the maners of mankynde.
 5 And with a chearefull countenance,
 the righteous man will be:
 But in his hart he doth abhorre,
 all such as mischiefe muse.
 6 And on the sinners casteth shares,
 as thicke as any rayne:
 Sifted and burntone: & which winde thicke, appointed for their payne.
 7 Ye see then how a righteous God,
 doth righteousnesse embrace:
 And to the iust and bright men,
 shewes forth his pleasant face.

Saluum me fac. Psal. xii. T. S.

The Prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order, beseecheth God speedily to send reformacion out. Then comforted with the assurance of Gods helpe and promises, considereth, that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will chuse his.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

Helpe Lord for good and godly men,
 do perish and decay:
 And falsly and truely from worldly men,
 is parted cleane away.
 2 Who so doth with his neighbour talke,
 his talke is all but vaine:
 For euy man bereth ineth how,
 to flatter, lye, and faine.
 3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
 and tongues that be so stout,
 To speake proud wordes and make great the Lord soon cut them out. (bragg) 4 For they say still we will preuaile, our tongues shall vs extoll:
 Our tongues are ours we ought to speake
 what Lord shall vs controll?
 5 But for the great complaynt and cry,
 of poore and me a opprest:
 Arise will I now sayth the Lord,
 and them restore to rest.
 6 Gods word is like to flint pure,
 that from the earth is tryed:
 And hath no tead then seven tymes,
 in fire be he purified.
 7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
 Lord heere thy promise then:
 And saue vs now and euermore,
 from this ill kynde of men.
 8 For now this wicked world is full,
 of mischeries manifold:
 When banerie with mortall men,
 is highly is extold.

Viquequo Domine. Psal. xiii. T. S.

David as it were overcome with afflictions, flyeth to GOD his onely refuge, and encourageth through Gods promises, he conceitly considered against the extreme horroze of death.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord, shall I neuer be remembered?
 How long wilt thou thy visage hide?
 as though thou were offended?
 2 In haet and mynde how long shall I,
 with care troubled be:
 How long shall my deadly foes,
 thus triumphe ouer me?
 3 Behold me now O Lord my God,
 and heare me sore opprest:
 Lighten myne eyes lest that I sleepe,
 as one by death posses.
 4 Lest thus myne enemy say to me,
 behold I do preuaile:
 Lead they also that hate my soule,
 reioyce to see me quiale.
 5 But for thy mercies and godnesse,
 my hope shall neuer faine:
 In thy relief and sauyng health,
 right glad shall be my hart.
 6 I will geue thankes vnto the Lord,
 and prayles to him sing:
 Because he hath heard my request,

and granted my wishings.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xliii. T. S.

He describeth the wickednes of men so growne to such licentiousnes that God was brought to bitter contempt: for which, albeit hee was greatly grieved, yet persecuted them that God would recompense in his time.

There is no God as foolish men

affirme in their mad moode: Theyz distres are all corrupt and vayne, not one of them doth good. 2. The Lord beheld from heauen high, the whole race of mankinde: And saw not one that fought in deed, the living God to finde.

They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none:

That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.

4 As all their iudgement so farre lost,
that all worke mischief fill?
Casting my people enen as bread,
not one to seeke Gods will.

When they thus rage then sodenly, great feare on them shall fall:
For God doth looe the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.

Ye mocke the bonges of the poore,
to their reproch and shame.
Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who shall giue thy people heald,
and when wilt thou fulfill:
The promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill?

8 Euen when thou shalt restore againe,
such as were captiue lad:
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

There is taught why God chose the Jewes his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them: which was, that they by liuing uprightly, might witness that they were his speciall & holy people, sing this as the 3. Psalm.

Lord within thy Tabernacle, who shall inuade still:

Whom wilt thou receiue to dwell,
in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is without spot,
whose works are iust and straight:
Whose heart doth chuse the very truth,
whose tongue speakes no deceit.

3 Not to his neighbor doth none ill,
in word, goodes, or name:

Not willingly doth moue false tales,
which might impeare the same.

4 That in his heart regarded not,
malicious wicked men:
But those that loue and reare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oth and all his promises,
that keepeth faithfully,
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth looe thereby

6 That putteth not to blame,
his money and his coine:
Ne for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe of els procure.

7 Who so doth all thinges as you see,
that here is to be done:
Shall neuer perishe in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T. S.

David prayeth to God for succour, not for his wages: but for his fathers sake, praying that hee should be bare of all iniquity, taking God onely for his refuge and strength, who suffereth his to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

Lord keepe me for I trust in the,
and do confesse in do de:

Thou art my God and of my goodes,
O Lord thou hast no neede,

2 I geue my goodes vnto the Saintes,
that in the world do dwell:
And namely to the saythfull docthe,
in betwee that excell.

3 They shall heape sorowes on their heads,
which runne as they were mad:
To offer to the Ieshu doctes, alas it is too bad.

4 As for the bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort:
I will not touch nor yet thereof,
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? The Lord the portion is,
of myne inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintaine,
my rent, my los, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell:
My heritage assigne to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that caused me,
to vnderstand the right:
For by his meanes my secret thoughtes,
do reach me euery night.

8 I see the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him ouer all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 9 Wherefore my hart and tongue also,
 both both reioyce together:
 My flesh and body rest in hope,
 when I this thyng consider.
 10 Thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue
 for Lord thou louest me:
 No yet wilt geue thy holy one,
 esurption for to be.
 11 But wilt teach me the way of life,
 for all treasure and knowledge Of perfect ioy are in thy face,
 and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvii. T. S.

Here hee complaineth to God of the cruell pride &
 arrogancie of Saule, who rageth without any cause.
 Therefore he desireth God to reuenge his innocencie and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 3. psalme.

- Lord geue eare to my iust cause,
 attend when I complaine:
 And heare the prayer that I put forth,
 with lips that do not faigne.
 2 And let the iudgement of my cause,
 procede alwayes from thee:
 And let thine eyes behold and cleare,
 this my simplicitie.

Thou hast well tride me in the night,
 and yet couldest nothing finde:
 That I haue spoken with my tongue,
 that was not in my minde.

- 4 As for the workes of wicked men,
 and pathes peruerse and ill:
 For loue of thy most holy word,
 I haue refrained still.

- 5 Then in the pathes that be most pure,
 stay me Lord and preserue:
 That from the way wherein I walke,
 my steps may neuer swerue.

- 6 For I do call to thee (O Lord,)
 and say: thou wilt me aske:
 Then heare my prayer & weigh right well
 the wordes that I haue saide.

- 7 O thou the Saviour of all them,
 that put their trust in thee:
 Declare thy strength on them that spurne,
 against thy maiestie.

- 8 O keepe me Lord as thou wouldest keepe
 the apple of thine eye:
 And vnder covert of thy winges, defend me secretly.

The second part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me,
 and dayly me annoy:
 And from my foes that goe about,
 my soule for to destroy.
 10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
 so full and eke so fat:
 That in their pride they do not spare,
 to speake they care not what.
 11 They lye in wait where I should passe with craft me to confound:
 And musing mischefe in their mindes,
 to call me to the ground.
 12 Much like a Lyon greeteth that would his pray embare:

- lurking like a Lyons whelp, within some secret place.

- 13 O Lord with hast puenent my foe,
 and cast him at thy feet:
 Save thou my soule from the ill man,
 and with the sword him smite.
 14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power,
 out of these tyrantes handes:
 Why now so long tyme ragdest haire,
 and kept vs in their bandes.

- 15 I meane from worldly men to whom,
 all worldly goodes are rife:
 That haue no hope nor part of ioy,
 but in this present life.

- 16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill,
 with pleasures to their mynde:
 Their children haue enough, and leaue to theirs the rest behynde.

- 17 But I shall with pure consciences,
 behold thy gracious face:
 So when I wake I shall be full,
 of thine Image and grace.

Diligam te Domine. Psal. xviii. T. S.

Dauid giueth thanks entering into his kingdome extolling the maruailous graces of God in his preseruation.
 Herein is the Image of Christs kingdome, which shall conquere through Christ, by the unspokeable loue of god, though at the world rest.

God my strength and fortitude, of force I must loue thee: Thou art my castle and defence. in my necessitie.

2. My God, my rocke, in whome I trust, the worker of my wealth: My refuge, buckler, & my shield, the hope of all my health.

When I sing laud vnto the Lord,
 most worthy to be serued:

Then from my foes I am right sure,
 that I shall be preserued.

4 The panges of death did compass me,
 and bound me every where:
 The flowing waues of wickednesse,
 did put me in great feare.

5 The skye and subtile snares of hell,

were found about me let:
 And for my death there was prepared,
 a deadly trapping net.
 6 I thus beset with paine and griefe,
 did pray to God for grace:
 And he forthwith did heare my plaint,
 out of his holy place.
 7 Such is his power that in his wrath,
 he made the earth to quake:
 Yea, the foundation of the mount,
 of Basan for to shake:
 8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
 when kindled was his ire:
 And from his mouth came kindled coales of hore consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
 and bowed the heavens hie:
 And vnderneath his feete he cast,
 the darknesse of the skye.
 10 On Cherubes and on Cherubines, full royally he roade:
 And on the wings of all the windes,
 came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most darke he made,
 his hid and secret place:
 With waters blacke, and ayre cloudes, enuironed he was.
 12 But when the presence of his face,
 in brightnesse shall appeare:
 The cloudes consume, and in their stead,
 come hayle and coales of fire.

The fiery darts and thunderboltes,
 disperseth them here and there:
 And with his often lightenynges,
 he putteth them in great feare.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenynges, and at thy chidinge threare:
 The spynges and the foundations,
 of all the world appeare.

15 And from above the Lord sent downe;
 to fetch me from below:
 And plucke me out of waters great,
 that would me ouerflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes,
 that would haue made me thall:
 Yea from such foes, as were to strong,
 for me to deale withall.

17 They did preuent me to oppresse,
 in tyme of my great griefe:
 But yet the Lord was my defence,
 my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
 whereas I might be free:
 And kept me safe, because he had a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent;
 so did he me regard:
 And to the cleanness of my handes,
 he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his pathes haue trod:
 And haue not wauered wickedly, agaynst my Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But enemies I haue respect;
 as his law and decree.

His statutes and commandementes,
 I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and cleane and incorrupt, appeared before his face:
 And did refrayne from wickednesse,
 and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therfore will me reward,
 as I haue done aright:
 And to the cleanness of my handes,
 appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy to:
 And with the god and vertuous men,
 right betrounfully wilt doe.

25 And to the louyng and elect, thy loue thou wilt reuerse:
 And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
 as wicked men deserue.

26 For thou dost saue the simple folke,
 in trouble when they lye:
 And dost bying downe the countenance,
 of them that loke full hie.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright:
 The Lord my God will make also,
 my darknesse to be light.

28 For by thy helpe an host of men, discomfite Lord I shall:
 By the scale and overleape,
 the strength of any wall.

29 Onspotted are the wayes of God,
 his word is purely true:
 He is a sure defence to such,
 as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord,
 for other there is none:
 Or els who is omnipotent, leuynng our God alone?

The fourth part.

31 The God that giueth me with strength is he that I do meane:
 That all the wayes wherein I walke,
 did euermore keepe cleane.

32 That made my feete like to the hartes,
 in swiftnesse of my pace:
 And for my succour brought me forth,
 into an open place.

33 He did in order put my handes,
 to battaile and to fight:
 To breake in sunder hartes of brass,
 he gaue mine armes the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
 thy right hand is my tower:
 Thy loue and familiaritie, both still increase my power.

35 And vnder me thou makest plaint,
 the way where I should walke:
 So that my feete shall neuer slip,
 nor stumble at a balke.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take,
 my foes that me annoyne:
 And from the field do not returne,
 till they be all destroyed.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes,

What they can rife no more:
 For at my fete they fall downe flat,
 I Strike them all fo loze.
 For thou doest giue me W thy strength,
 to warre in fuch a wife:
 That they be all fattered abroad,
 that by agaynft me rife.

39 Lord thou haft put into my handes,
 my moztall enemies yoke:
 And all my foes thou doest denude,
 in funder with thy froke.
 40 They caid for helpe but none gaue eare, nor helpe them with reliefe:
 Yea to the Lord they caid for helpe,
 yet heard he not their griefe.

The fift part.

41 And fill like duft before the winde,
 I dntie them vnder fete:
 And fwepe them out like fithy clay,
 that ficketh in the ftreete.
 42 Thou keepest me from feditious folke,
 that fill in trife be leade:
 And thou doest of the heathen folke,
 appoynt me to be head.

43 A people ftrange to me vnknowne,
 and yet they fhall me ferue:
 And at the first obey my word,
 whereas myne owne will fwerue.

44 I fhall be iufte to myne owne,
 they will not fe my light:
 But wander wide out of their wayes,
 and hde them out of fight.

45 But blessed be the faying Lord, moft worthy of all prayfe:
 That is my rocke and faying health,
 prayfed be he alwayes.

46 For God it is that gaue me powre, reuenged for to be:
 And with his holy word fubdude,
 the people vnto me.

47 And from my foe me deliuered,
 and fet me higher then thofe:
 That cruell and vngodly were,
 and by agaynft me tofe.

48 And for this caufe O Lord my God,
 to thee geue thanks I fhall:
 And fing out prayfes to thy name,
 among the Gentiles all.

49 Thou gauen great profperitie, vnto the kyng I fay:

50 Dauid thine annointed kyng,
 and to his feide for aye.

Cœli enarrant. psal. xix. T. S.

He moueth the faythfull to glouifie God by the work-manfhip, promotion, and ornaments of the hea-uens, and by the law wherein God is reueled fimilarly to his chofen people.

Sing this as the 14. psalme.

The heauens and the firmament,
 do wonderfully declare,
 The glory of God omnipotent,
 his workes and what they are.
 2 The wonders workes of God appeare,
 his wayes dayes fucceffe:
 The brightnes likewise which their race run
 the felfe fame thinges exprefle.

There is no language, tongue or fpeach
 Where their found is not heard:

In all the earth and coafes thereof,
 their knowledge is conferrd.

4 In them the Lord made for the funne,
 a place of great renowne:

Who like a bridegroome readie trimd, doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a balliant champion,
 who for to gea a pife:

With toy both haft to take in hand,
 fome noble enterpife.

6 And all the fkye from end to end, he compaffeth about:

Nothing can hidett from his heate,
 but he will finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
 how is his covenant fure?

Conuerting foules and making wife,
 the fimple and obfcure.

8 Just are the Lordes commaundementes, and glad both hart and mynde:

His precepts pure and genueth light, to eyes that be full blynde.

9 The feare of God is excellent,
 and doth endure for euer:

The iudgementes of the Lord are true,
 and righteous altogether.

10 And moze to be embraced alwayes,
 then fined gold I fay:

The hony and the hony combe,
 are not fo fwete as they.

11 By them thy feruaunt is foze warnde,
 to haue God in regard:

And in performance of the fame,
 there fhall be great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth know the errorous of his life? (know)

Then clenfe my foule from fecret finnes, which are in me moft rife.

13 And hepe me, that prefumptuous
 preyale not ouer me: (finnes)

And then I fhall be innocent, and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my hart,
 my wordes and thoughtes echone:

For my rede mer and my strength,
 O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dominus. psal. xx. T. S.

The people pray to God to heare theye king and receiue his sacrifice, which he offered before hee went to battell agaynft the Ammonites, declaring thae
 the heathe put their trust in hozes: But the truth
 onely in his name. wherfore the other fhall felle, but the king and his people fhall ftand.

Sing this as the 14. psalme.

In trouble and aduerfite,
 the Lord God heare the fill:

The maicte of Jacobs God, defend thee from all ill.

2 And fend thee from his holy place,
 his helpe at euery neede:

And fo in Sion ftablish thee,
 and make thee strong in deedes.

3 Remembryng well the sacrifice,

that newes him is done:
 And so receaue right thankefully,
 thy burnt offerings e chone.
 4 According to thy hartes desire,
 the Lord graunt vnto thee:
 And all thy counsell and deuise,
 full well performe may be.

1 We shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
 and our banners display:
 Vnto the Lord, which thy requestes fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
 I know well by his grace:
 And send him health by thy right hand,
 out of his holy place.

7 In Chariters some put confidence,
 and some in horses trust:
 But we remember God our Lord,
 that keepeth promise sure.

8 They fall downe flat, but we do rise,
 and stand by stedfastly:
 Now saue and helpe vs Lord and king,
 on thee when we do crye.

Domine in virtute, Psal. xxi. T.S.

David in the person of the people prayeth God for the victory geuen them agaynst the Egyptians & Am-monites. 1. Sam. xxi. wherein he was crowned with the crown of the kyng of Ammon. 2. Sam. 12. and indued with the manifold blessings of God.

Lord how ioyfull is the king in thy strength and thy power? how vehemently doth he reioyce in thee

hys Saviour: for thou hast geuen vnto him, hys godly hartes desire: is him nothing hast thou demde, of that he did requyre.

3 Thou didst preuent him with thy gifts
 and blessings manifold:
 And thou hast set vpon his heade,
 a crowne of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou madest him sure:
 O haue long life, yea such a life,
 as euer should endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy helpe, thy benefits and aide.

Great worship and great honor both,
 thou hast vpon him layd.

6 Thou wilt geue him felicitie,
 that neuer shall decay:
 And with thy chearefull countenance,
 wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the kyng doth strongly trust,
 in God for to preyale:

Therefore his godnesse and his grace,
 will not that he shall quayle.

8 But let thine enemies feele thy force, and those that the withstand:
 finde out thy foes and let them feele,
 the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an Owen burne them Lord;
 in fiery flame and fume:

Thine anger shall destroy them all,
 and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou wilt roote out of the earth,
 their fruite that should increase:
 And from the number of thy folke,
 their seede shall end and cease.

11 For why? much mischief did they muse,
 agaynst thy holy name:

Yet did they sayle and had no power,
 for to performe the same.

12 But as a marke thou shalt them set,
 in a most open place.
 And charge thy bowstrings readely,
 agaynst thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
 in thy strength euery houre:
 So shall we sing right solemnely, praying thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T.S.

David complaneth of his desperate extremities, & declareth wherof he recouereth himselfe by the nation. Under his person is figured Christ.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

O God my God wherfore dost thou, forsake me utterly:

And helpest not when I do make,
 my great complaynt and cry?

1 To thee my God euen all day long,
 I do both cry and call:
 I cease not all the night and yet,
 thou hearest not at all.

3 Euen thou that in thy sanctuary,
 and holy place dost dwell:
 Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
 and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old,
 had all their hope for euer:
 And when they put their trust in thee,
 so didst thou them deliuer.

5 They were deliuered euer when,
 they called on thy name:
 And for the faith they had in thee,
 they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worme,
 more like then any man:
 An outcast whom the people scorn,
 with all the spite they can.

And me despise as they behou,

me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads and in this wise they say.
2 This man did glory in the Lord,
his fauor and his loue:
Let him rebeme and helpe him now,
his power if he will proue.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe,
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preferre me kill in hope,
while I did sucke her brest.
10 I was committed from my birch,
with thee to haue abode:
Since I was in my mothers womba thou hast bene enter my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grieefe:
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.
12 So many Bulles do compass me,
that bee full strong of heade:
Yea Bulles so fat as though they had,
in Balan field bene fed.

13 They gape vpon me greedely,
as though they would me sea:
Much like a Lyon roaring out,
and ramping for his pray.
14 But I drop downe like water shed,
my iointes in sunder breake:
My heart doth in my body melt,
like waxe against the heat.

15 And like a pothead dryeth my strength my tongue it cleaueth fast vnto my iawes, and I am brought,
to dust of death at last.
16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke Conspire againt me curbely,
they pearce my handes and feet.

17 I was tormented so, that I might all my bones haue tolde Yea still vpon me they did looke, and still they me behold.
18 My garments they diuided eke,
in partes among them all:
And for my coate they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therfore I pray the be not farre,
from me at my great neede:
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to helpe me Lord make speede.
20 And stō the sword Lord saue my soule,
by thy might and thy power:
And hepe my soule thy darlyng deate,
from dogges that would deuour.

21 And from the Lyons mouth that would me all in sunder shiner:
And from the hornes of vnicornes,
Lord safely me deliuer.
22 And I shall to my bretheren all,
thy matie record:
And in thy Church shall prayse the name,
of the the lauyng Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that feare him prayse the Lord,
thou Jacob honoz him:
And all ye seide of Isaac,
with reuerence worshyp him.
24 For he despiseth not the poze,
he turneth not awyie
His countenance when they do call,
but graunteth to the cry.

25 Among the flocke that feare the Lord,
I will therfore proclaime:
Thy prayse and hepe thy promise made,
for setting forth thy name.
26 The poze shall eare and be sufficed, and those that do the denier:
To know the Lord shall prayse his name,
their hartes shall lue for euer.

27 All coastes of earth shal praise the Lord and turne to him for grace:
The Heathen folke shall worship him,
before his blessed face.
28 The kynngdome of the heathen folke,
the Lord shall haue therfore:
And he shalbe their gouernour,
and kyng for euermore.

29 The rich men of his godly giftes, shall seide and tast also:
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go downe to dust,
of life by him must tast:
My seide shall serue and prayse the Lord,
while any world shall last.
31 My seide shall playnely shew to them,
that shalbe bozne hereafter:
His iustice and his righteousnesse,
and all his workes of wonder.

Dominus regit. psal. xxiii. W. W.
David hauing tried gods manifold mercies diuind times, gathereth the assurance that God will ser-uus his goodnes for euer.
Sing this as the 22. Psalme.

The Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feede:
How can I then lacke any thing,
whereof I stand in neede?
2 He doth me solde in coates most safe,
the tender grasse fast by:
And after drinnes me to the streames,
which runne most pleasantly.
3 And when I feele my selfe neare lost,
then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in the right pathes, euen for his owne names sake.
4 And though I were euen at deathes doze
yet would I feare none ill:
For with thy rod and shepheardes crooke
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt,
in deliight of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balme refreshd,
my cup doth ouerflow.
6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defende:
And in the house of God will I,
my life for euer spend.

An other of the same by T.S

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

My shepheard is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I neede:

In pastures fatte with waters calme,
he set me forth to feede.

2 We did conuert and glad my soule,
and brought my mind in frame:

To walke in pastures of righteousnesse,
for his most holy name.

3 Yea though I walke in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:

Thy rod, thy staffe, both comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:

Thou shalt O Lord fill full my cup,
and she appoint my deade.

5 Though all my life thy fangsur I,
so franchly shewed to me:

That in thy house for evermore,
my dwelling place I shalbe.

Domini est terra, Psal. xxviii. l. H.

The grace of God being now vetered in the temple, more glorieus then before in the Tabernacle, Was with this exclamation (seeth forth the honoꝝ) of mouring the consideration of the eternal maner ons prepared in heauen, where of this was a figure.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

The earth is all the Lordes, with all her store and furniture:

2 yea this is all the world, and all that therein do endure.

3 For he hath fastly founded it,
about the Sea to stand:

4 And layd a low the liquid foudes,
to flow beneath the land.

5 For who is he (O Lord) that shall, ascende into thy hill?

6 And passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?

7 Whose handes are harmelesse, & whose no spot there doth deale: (Hate,

8 His soule not set on banerie, who hath not sworne to guile.

9 Wha that is such a one the Lord, shall place in blisfull plight:

10 And God his God and Saviour, shall yeeld to him his right.

11 This is the brode of reanayiers,
in seeking of his gate:

12 As Jacob did the Israelites, in that tyme of his race.

13 Ye waines open your gates, stand open
the euertlasting gate:

14 For there shall enter in thereby,
the kyng of glorious state:

15 What is the kyng of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord:

16 The mighty Lord in barell stout,
and reyal of the sword.

17 Waines open your gates, stand open

the euertlasting gate:

18 For there shall enter in thereby,
the kyng of glorious state.

19 What is the kyng of glorious state?
the Lord of hostes he is:

20 The kyngdome and the royaltie, of glorious state is his.

Ad te domine. Psal. xxv. T.S.

C David grieved at his sinnes, & malicious enemies most feruently prayeth for forgiveness, especially of such sinnes as he committed in his youth.

Lift myne hart to thee my God and guide most full: now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee do I trust.

2. Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a scoꝝne of me: and let them not be over:

throwne, that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them besall,
which haue them wrongfully:

4 Therefore thy pathes and thy right wates unto me Lord directe.

5 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:

6 Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I waite alway.

7 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee Lord remember:

8 And she thy pittie plentifull:
for they haue bene for ever.

9 Remember not the faulces,
and faultie of my youth:

10 Remember not how ignorant,
I haue bene of thy truth.

11 Nor after my desertes,
let me thy mercy finde:

12 But of thine owne benignitie,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

13 His mercy is full sweete,
his truth a perfect guide:

14 Therefore the Lord will anners teach,
and such as goe astray.

15 The humble he will teach,
his precepts for to keepe:

16 He will direct in all his wates,
the lowly and the meke.

17 For all the wates of God,
are truth and mercy both:

18 To them that keepe his Testament,
the witness of his troth.

The second part.

71 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord I thee intreat:
To graunt me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
12 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct:
To lead his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.

13 His sottle shall encrease,
in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seede and his posteritie,
inherit shall the land.
14 All those that feare the Lord,
know his secret intreat:
And vnto them he doth declare,
his will and testament.

15 Myne eyes and eke my hart,
to him I will aduaunce:
That pluckt my feete out of the snare,
of sinne and ignoraunce:
16 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moane:
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortlesse alone.

17 The troubles of my hart,
are multiplied in deede:
Bying me out of this misery,
necessitie and neede.

18 Behold my ponicer, remyue anguish and my payne:
Remit my sinne and myne offence,
and make me cleane agayne.

19 O Lord behold my foes,
how they do still increase:
Pursuyng me with deadly hate,
that sayne would liue in peace.
20 Defende and kepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouerthrowne,
because I trust in thee.

21 Let my simple puenesse,
me from myne enemies shewe:
Because I looke as one of thine,
that thou shouldest me defend.
22 Deliuer Lord thy folke,
and send them some relief:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
from all their payne and griefe.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. I.H.

David iniuriously oppressed, and helpelesse, yet assured of his integritie to Saule, calling God to defend him causeles afflicted. When he desired to be in the company of the faythfull in the congregation of God when he was banished by Saule, promising godly life, open prayer, thankesgiving, and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

Lord be my iudge, and thou shalt see,
my pathes be right and playne:
I trust in God and hope that he,
will strenght me to remaine.
2 Prause me my God I thee declare,
my wayes to search and try:
As men do proue their gods with fire,
my raiuing and purgery.

3 Thy goodnesse laide before my face,
I durst beholde alwayes:
For of thy truely I read the trace,
and will do all my dayes.
4 I do not lust to haue of use,
with men whose wordes are balme:
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.

5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deedes I do despise:
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtfull thinges deuise.
6 My handes I wash and do proceede,
in workes that are vpright:
Then to thine altar I make speede,
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speake & preach the praise,
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes,
thou hast bene good to mee.

8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I haue deliight and would be neare,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O but not by my soule with them,
in sinne that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much blood to spill.

10 Whose handes are eke with craft their lips thereof are full: (Guilt)
And their right hand with wench & wike for babes doth plucke and pull.

11 But I in righteousnesse intend,
my time and dayes to serue:
Haue mercy Lord and defend,
so that I do not serue.

12 My soule is staid for all astates,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I giue prayse,
in all the peoples sight.

Domini illumi. psal. xxvii. I.H.

David deliuered from great perils, greatly thanked wherein we see hys constant faith agaynst the assaults of all enemies, and the end why hee desired to lye and to be deliuered. Then hee prophesied so saith and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. psalme.

The Lord is both my health and light,
Whall man mighte me dismaide:
Sith God doth giue me strength & mighte,
why should I be afraid?

2 While that my foes with all their strength begin with me to braule:
And thinke to eate me vp, at length themselves haue caught the fall.

3 Though they in campe agaynst me esse,
my hart is not afraid:
In battell fight if they will try,
I trust in God for ayde.

4 One thing of God I do requite, that he will not deny:
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

5 That I with in his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell:

To see the beautie of his face,
and view his temple well.
6 In tyme of dread he shall me hve,
within his place most pure:
And keepe me secret by his side,
as on a rocke most sure.
7 At length I know the Lords good grace, shall make me strong and stout:
My foes to foyle and cleane deface,
that compass me about.
8 Therefore within thy house will I,
give sacrifice of prayre:
With psalmes and songes I will apply,
to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my request,
for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppress,
and send me helpe withall.
10 My hart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I see to haue thy grace:
Then see he my face sayest thou to me,
Lord I will seeke thy face.
11 In wach tyme not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my helpe till to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parentes both their sonne forsooke,
and cast me of at large:
And then the Lord himselfe yet tooke,
of me the cure and charge.
13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:
For feare of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise agaynst me still,
falle witness to depose.
15 My hart would faynt, but that in me,
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall it see,
in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God, whose whole thou his will abide thou must: (are)
And he shall ease and strengthe thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

Theyng in feare and penitencie to see God dishonored by wicked men, he cryeth, for vengeance against them, a being assured that God hath heard him, he somewhat all the feyghfull to his ratioun.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

Thou art O Lord my strength and Ray,
the succour which I craue:
Neglect me not least I be like,
to them that goe to graue.
1 The voyce of thy supplicant heare,
that vnto thee doth crye:
When I lift vp my handes vnto,
thy holy Arke most hye.
2 Repute me not among the sort,
of wicked and peruert:
That speake right faire vnto their friends,
and thinke full ill in heart.
3 According to their handle work,
as they deserue indeede.

And after these inuentiones,
let them rectifie their needs.

4 For they regard nothing Gods workes,
his law, ne yet his loze:
Therefore he will them and their seede, destroy for euermore.
5 To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I:
My voyce, my prayre, and my complaint,
that heard so willfully?
6 He is my shield and fortress,
my buckler in distresse:
My hope, my health, my heartes reliefe,
my song shall him confesse.
7 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the saluation,
of his elect by Christ.
8 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord blesse, guide, and preserue:
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer swerue.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T. S.

David exhorteth Princes (who for the most part thinke there is no God) at the least to feare him for the thunders and tempestes, for cause whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it threateth sinners, yet it moueth bys to people bys name.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Give to the Lord ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world.
Seue ye all prayse, honor, and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.
2 Seue honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worshipp him in his maiestie,
within his holy thone.
3 His voyce doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please:
He doth prepare the thunderclaps;
and gouernes all the Seas.
4 The voyce of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mightie in effect,
and most magnificent.
5 The voyce of God doth rent and brake,
the Cedar trees so long:
The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are most high and strong.
6 And makes them leape like as a Calfe, or els the Unicorn:
7 Not ouely trees but mountaynes great,
whereto the trees are boine.
8 His voyce denides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
It makes the desert quake for feare,
that called is Cadese.
9 It makes the bindes for feare to Calne,
and makes the conert playne:
Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaime.
10 The Lord will sit about the foudes, ruling the ragyng Sea:
So shall he raigne as Lord and hye,
for euer and for aye.
11 The Lord will geue his people power,
in battayle to increase:

The Lord will bleſſe his choſenfolk, with euerlaſting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Pſal. xxx. I. H.

When David ſhould dedicate his houſe to the Lord he fell extreme ſicke without all hope of life, and therefore after recovery, he thanketh God, exhorting others to do the like, and to learne by him, that God is rather merciful then ſeuere towards his, alſo that aduerſitie is to be ſeene. Then he prayeth and promiſeth to praiſe God for ever.

L I laud and praſe with hart and voſce O Lord I geue to thee: Which didſt not make my foes reioyce, but haſt exalted me. 2. O Lord my God do thee I cryde, in all my payne and grief:

Thou gaueſt an eare, and didſt proude to eaſe me with reſiſt.

3 Of thy good will thou haſt cald backe,
my ſoule from hell to ſaue:

Thou didſt reuine when ſtrength did lacke,
and kept me from the graue.

4 Sing prayſe ye Saintes that proude ſee
the goodneſſe of the Lord:

In memorie of his mercie reioyce with one accorde.

5 For why? his anger but a ſpace, doth laſt, and ſake againe:
But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

6 Though gripes of griefe and pangnes fall
ſhall lodge with vs all night: (ſaye,
The Lord to ſop ſhall vs reſtore,

7 before the day be light.

8 When I enſoyde the world at will,
thus would I boaſt and ſay:

Truſt I am ſure to feele none ill,
this wealth ſhall not decay.

9 For thou O Lord of thy good grace, haſt ſent me ſtrength and aide:
But when thou turneſt away thy face,
my minde was ſore diſmaide.

10 Wherefore againe yet did I crye, to thee O Lord of might:

My God with plaintes I did apply,
and praide both day and night.

11 What gaine is in my bloud ſaide I,
if death deſtroy my dayes:

My ſoule ſhall declare thy mercie,

or yet thy truth doſt praife?

12 Wherefore my God ſome pittie take,
O Lord I thee deſire:
Do not this ſimple ſoule forſake,
of helpe I thee requyre.

13 Then didſt thou turne my griefe & wez,
into a chearefull voyce:
The mourning wede thou tokeſt meſſe,
and madeſt me to reioyce.

14 Wherefore my ſoule buceſſantly, ſhall ſing vnto thy praife:

My Lord my God, to thee will I, gode laud and thankes alwaies.

In te Domine ſperavi. Pſal. xxxi. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger ſheweth ſuch
what meditation hee had by the power of ſapry, when death was before his eyes, and how the fa-uour of God alwaies is ready to chaſe that feare him. He exhorteth the faithfull to truſt in God, because he preferreth them.

Sing this as the 18. pſalme.

O Lord I put my truſt in thee,
let nothyng worke me ſhame:
As thou art ſure deliuer me,
and let me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord and chat anon,
to helpe me make god ſpede:

Be thou my rocke and houſe of ſtone,
my fence in tyme of neede.

3 For why? as ſtones thy ſtrength is trewe,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names ſake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Whiche ſorth my ſerue our of the ſnare,
which they for me haue layd:

Thou art my ſtrength, and all my care,
is for thy might and ayde.

5 Into thy handes Lord I commit,
my ſpury which is thy due:
For why? thou haſt redeemed it,
O Lord my God moſt true.

6 I hate ſuch ſolke as will not part,
from thyngs to be abhorde:
When they on trifles ſet their hart,
my truſt is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy toy,
I ſee it doth excell:
Thou ſeſt when ought would me annoy,
and knoweſt my ſoule full well.

8 Thou haſt not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge:
But thou haſt let me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The ſecond part.

9 Great griefe O Lord doth me aſſaile, ſome pittie on me take:

My eyes were dimme, my ſight doth my wombe for woe doth ake. (ſaye,

10 My life is woyne with griefe & payne,
my yeares in woe are paſt:

My ſtrength is gone, & through diſdaine,
my bones corrupt and waſt.

11 Among my foes I am a ſcorne,
my friends are all diſmaide:

My neighbours and my kinſmen bowe,
to ſee me ſore aſſaide.

- 12 As men once dead are out of misde,
so am I now forget:
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.
- 13 I heard the brags of all the rent,
their threats my mind did bit
How they conspire and went about,
to take my life away.
- 14 But Lord I trust in thy for aide,
not to be overtrod:
For I confesse and will haue saide,
thou art my Lord and God.
- 15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand:
Weend me from the wrath and rage,
of them that me withstand.
- 16 To me thy seruant Lord expecte,
and shew thy toyfull face:
And saue me Lord for thy godnesse,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

- 17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on the I call:
But let the wicked beare their blame,
and in the grate to fall.
- 18 O how great good hast thou in store,
sayd by full safe for them:
That feare and trust in thee therofore,
before the fomes of men.
- 19 Thy presence shall them fence & guide
from all proud brags and wronges:
Within thy place thou hast them hyde,
from all the blast of tongues.
- 20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declarde
on me his grace so farr:
As to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.
- 21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was sore opprest:
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
- 22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the saythfull be thy guide:
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.

- 23 Be strong and God shall stay your hart
be he and haue a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part ath ye in him do trust.

Beati quoram. Psal. xxxii. T. S.

David punished with greuous sickness for his sinnes smeth them happy to whom God doth not im-pute their transgressions. And after that he had filled his sinnes, and obtained pardon, he exhor-teth the wicked men to liue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

- The men is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse,
is hid and alld covered.
- 2 And blest is he to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his hart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found thereon.

- 3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne
in silence and contraynt:
My bones did weare and wast away,
with dayly moine and playnt.
- 4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so grieuous was and smart:
Thy all my blood and humors moynt,
to dimes did conuert.
- 5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sinnes disclosed:
Then thou O Lord didst me forgive,
and all my sinnes passe ouer.
- 6 The humble man shall pray therofore,
and seker he in due time:
So that the floodes of water great,
shall haue no power on him.
- 7 When trouble and aduersitee
do compass me about:
Thou art my refuge and my toy,
and thou dost rid me out.
- 8 Come hether and I shall thee teach,
how thou shouldst walke a right:
And will thee guide as I my selfe,
haue leard by proofe and sight.
- 9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the woe and fool:
Whose mouth without a rayne or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.
- 10 The wicked man shall in his folde
lozowes and grete sustayne:
But vnto him that trustes in God,
his godnesse shall remayne.

Be merry therofore in the Lord,
ye just list by your voyce:
And ye of pure and perfect hart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultatiusti. Psal. xxxiii. I. H.

The exhorteth good men to praise God for creating and governing all things, for his saythfull prome-ses, for scattering the counsell of the wicked reasching that no creature presently any man, but onely his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

- Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight:
That by right men with thankfull voyce,
should prayse the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe & song,
in psalmes and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among that soundeth with ten stringes.
- 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him prayse.
- 4 For why this word is euer true,
his wayes and all his wayes,
to iudgement equite and right,
he hath a great god will:
- And with his giftes he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.
- 6 For by the word of God alone,
the heavens all were wrought:
Their heates and powers euer chone,
his breath to passe hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the store:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
 feare God and keepe his law:
 Ye that inhabite in eche coast,
 heare him and stand in awe.
 9 What he commaunded wronght it was at once with present spede:
 What he doth will is brought to passe,
 with full effect in eche dede.
 10 The counsels of the nations I see,
 the Lord doth bring to nought:
 He doth defeat the multitude,
 of their devise and thought.
 11 But his decrees continue still,
 they neuer lack nor change.
 12 The motions of his munde and will, take place in euey age.
 13 The second part.
 13 And blest are they to whome the Lord
 as God and guide is knowne:
 Whom he doth chuse of mere accord,
 to take them as his owne.
 14 The Lord from heauen cast his sight,
 on men mortall by birth:
 Considering from his fence of might,
 the dwellers of the earth.
 15 The Lord I say whose had hath wronght mans hart and doth it frame:
 For he alone doth know the thought,
 and working of the same.
 16 A king that trusteth in his host,
 shall nought reuenge at length.
 The man that of his might doth boast,
 shall saile for all his strength.
 17 The troups of holsemen he shall saile their staves shal shew as speere:
 The strength of hope shall nor be faile,
 the riber to perseuer.
 18 But loe the eyes of God extend,
 and watch to aye the iust:
 Whose such as fence him to offend,
 and on his godnesse trust.
 19 That he of death and ail distresse,
 may set their soules from band:
 And if that dearr heere leaue oppesse,
 in bringer them to land.
 20 Wherefore our soules do still dependy on God our strength and Ray:
 He is the shield vs to defend,
 and by his aid darts away.
 21 Our soule is God hath toy and game, reioycing in his might:
 For why? in his most holy name,
 we hope and much delight.
 22 Therefore let thy godnesse O Lord, still present with vs be:
 And we alwayes with one accord
 do ouerly trust in thee.

Benedicam Domini. Psal. xxxiiii. T. 3

David hauing escaped Achis (1. Sam. 21) presenteth God for his deliuerance, giuing others example to trust in God, to feare and serue him, who defendeth
 the godly with his angels, and utterly destroyeth
 the wicked in their finnes.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

I will glue laud and hono: both vnto the Lord alwayes.

And eke my mouth for euer more,
 shall speake vnto his praise.
 2 I do delight to laud the Lord,
 in soule and eke in voyce:
 That humble men and mortales:
 may heare and so reioyce.
 3 Therefore sae that ye magnifie,
 with me the luyng Lord:
 And let vs now exalte his name,
 to gether with one accord.
 4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
 he answered me agayne:
 And me deliuered in continant,
 from all my feare and payne.
 5 Who so fey he that him behold, shall see his light most cleare:
 Their countenance shall not be dasht,
 they neede it not to feare.
 6 This like wretch for some reliefe, vnto the Lord did call:
 Who did him heare without delay and rid him out of chail.

7 The Angell of the Lord doth pitche,
 his tentes in euey place:
 To saue all such as feare the Lord,
 that nothing them deface.
 8 Take and consider well therefore,
 that God is god and iust:
 O happy man that maketh him,
 his only Ray and trust.

9 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones,
 aboue all earthly thing:
 For they that feare the liuing Lord,
 are sure to lack nothing.
 10 The Lions shall be hungered, and pinde with famine much:
 But as for them that feare the Lord,
 no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

1 Come neare therefore my children deare,
 and to my wordes giue eare:
 I shall you teach the perfit way,
 how ye the Lord should feare:
 2 Who is it that sign that would line long and lead a blessed line:
 3 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips,
 from all deceit and strife.
 4 Turne back thy face from doing ill,
 and doe the goodly dede:
 Inquire for peace and stye out misse,
 and follow it with speede.
 5 For why? the eyes of God aboue,
 vpon the iust are bent:
 His eares likewise do heare the praynt,
 of the poore innocent.

But he doth frowne and bend the browes
 vpon the wicked reyne:
 6 And curs away the memory,
 that should of them remayne.
 7 But when the iust do call and cry,
 the Lord doth heare them, so:
 That out of spayne and misery forthwith he leas them goe.

8 The Lord is kinde & straight at hand,
 to such as be contrite:

The causes also the sorrowfull,
 the meke and poore in spirite,
 19 Full many be toz miseries.
 That righteous men do suffer
 But out of all aduersities,
 the Lord doth them deliuer.
 20 The Lord doth so preserve and keepe,
 his very bones alway:
 That nor so much as one of them,
 doth perish or decay.
 21 The same shall see the wicked man,
 which he himselte hath wrought:
 And such as hate the righteous man,
 shall sone be brought to nought.
 22 But they that serue the living Lord,
 the Lord doth saue them sound:
 And who that put their trust in him,
 nothing shall them confound.

Iudica Domine. Psal. xxxv. I. H.

Sauls persecuters persecuted David, who prayeth for reuenge, that his innocency may be declared, and that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisseth to magnify Gods name all the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

Lord plead my cause agaynst my foes, confound their force and might:
 Fight on my part agaynst all those,
 that seke with me to fight.
 2 Lay hand vpon thy speare and shield,
 thy selfe in armour drese:
 Stand by for me and fight the field,
 to helpe me from distresse.
 3 Blow on thy sword and stop the way,
 mine enemies to withstand:
 What thou vnto my soule mayst say,
 loe I thy helpe at hande.
 4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
 that seke my soule to spill:
 Let them turne back and see with shame,
 that thinke to worke me ill.
 5 Let them disperse and flie abroade,
 as wind doth diue the dust:
 And that the Angel of our God,
 thet might away may thrust.
 6 Let all their wayes be boyd of light, and slippery like to fall:
 And send thine Augell with thy might,
 to persecute them all.
 7 For why: without my fault they haue,
 in secrete set their grin:
 And for no cause haue digd a caue,
 to take my soule therein.
 8 When they thinke least I haue no care,
 O Lord destroy them all:
 Let them be trapt in their own snare,
 and in their mischiefe fall.
 9 And let my soule, my hart and voyce,
 in God haue joy and wealth:
 That in the Lord I may reioyce,
 and in his sauing health.
 10 And then my bones shall speake & say,
 my parts shall all agree:
 O Lord though they do see me full gay,
 what man is like to thee?

The second part.

11 Thou dost defend the weakke fro them that are both stout and strong:
 And rid the poore from wicked men,
 their spoyle and do them wrong.
 12 My cruell foes agaynst me rise,
 to witness things vntrue:
 And to accuse me they deuise,
 of that I neuer knewe.
 13 Where I to them doe owe good will,
 they quite me with disdain:
 That they should pay my god with ill,
 my soule doth loze complain.
 14 When they were sick I mournd therofe and clad my selfe in sack:
 With fasting I did saynt full loze,
 to pray I was not slack.
 15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
 I did my selfe behaue:
 As one that maketh wokill cheare,
 about his mothers graue.
 16 But they at my disease did toy,
 and gather on a rout:
 Yea abiect flauers at me did toy,
 with mocks and cheekes full stout.
 17 The belly gods and flattering trayne, that all good things do berde:
 At me do grin with great disdain,
 and pluck their mouths as wide.
 18 Lord when wilt thou amend this geare,
 why dost thou stay and pause?
 O rid my soule mine onely deare,
 out of thes Lyons clawes.
 19 And then I will giue thanks to thee,
 before the Church alwayes:
 And whereas most of people be,
 there will I shew thy praise.
 20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
 which hate me for no fault:
 Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
 that coulde me assault.
 The third part.
 21 Of peace no word they thinke or say,
 their talks is all vntrue:
 They still consult and would betray,
 all those that peace ensue.
 22 With open mouth they run at me,
 they gape, they laugh, they stier:
 Well, well, say they, our eye doth see,
 the thyng that we desire.
 23 But Lord thou see what wayes they cease not this geare to mend: (take,
 Be not farre off nor me forsake,
 as men that sayle their friend.
 24 Awake, arise, and stier abroad,
 defend me in my right:
 Reuenge my cause my Lord my God,
 and ayde me with thy might.
 25 Accordyng to thy righteoulnesse,
 my Lord God let me see:
 And let not them their pride expresse,
 nor triumph ouer me.
 26 Let not their hartes reioyce and cry,
 there, there, this geare goeth trim:
 Nor giue them cause to say on high,

we haue our will on him.

- 27 Confound them with rebuke & shame,
that toy when I do mourne:
And pay them haime wth spite and blame,
that bragge at me with scoyne.
28 Let them be glao and cheerefull, which lone myne bryght way:
And they all tynies with hart and voyce,
shall praye the Lord, and say.

- 29 Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why, he doth delight:
To see his seruantes prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteousnesse to prayse:
Wnto the Lord my God will I, sing laud and thankes alwayes.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvi. I. H.

David vered by the wicked, & complacency of their malice, but considering gods great mercy to all creatures, specially towards his children, by faith thereof he is comforted and assured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

- The wicked with his workes brutish, doth thus persuade his hart:
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is set apart.
2 Yet doth he toy in his estate,
to walke as he began:
So long till he deserue the hate,
of God and eke of man.
3 His wordes are wicked, vile & nought,
his tongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may do well.
4 When he doth sleepe then doth he muse,
his mischief to fulfill:
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

- 5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend,
aboue the heauens high:
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
vnto the cloudye skie.
6 Much more then hilles so high & steep thy iustice is exalted:
Thy iudgement like to seas most deepe,
thou sauest both men and beast.
7 Thy mercy is aboue all thinges,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof as in thy winges,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped;
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why? the well of life so pure, doth ouerflow from the:
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as the desire to know,
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousnesse declare and shew,
to men of bryght hart.
11 Let not the proud on me preuaile,

- O Lord of thy god grace:
Nor let the wicked me abuse,
to thyow me out of place.
12 But they in their deuile shall fall that wicked workes maintaine:
They shall be overthrowne with all,
and neuer rise agayne.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvij. W. W.

Because the goodly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper, David sheweth that all things shall be granted euen with hartes desire to them that loue and feare God: but the wicked albeit they flourish for a tyme, shall at length perishe.

Sing this as the 53. psalme.

- Going not to see the wicked men,
in weaith do flourish still;
Nor yet enuy lubb as to ill,
haue bent and set their will.
1 For as greene grass & flourishing hearbes,
are cut and wither away:
So shall their great posteritie,
sone passe fade and decay.
2 Trust thou therfore in God alone,
to do well gine thy mynde:
So shalt thou haue the land as thine,
and thine suer socde shalt finde.
3 In God set all thy hartes delight,
and loke what thou wouldest haue:
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needest it not to craue.
4 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires,
on God with perfite trust:
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.
5 Thy perfite life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light:
So that the Sunne euen at none dayes, shall not shine halfe so bright.
6 Be still therfore and stedfastly, on God see thou wayt then:
Not stryking for the prosperous state,
of lewd and wicked men.
7 Shake of despight, enuie and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps auoyd and sic,
and follow not their guise.
8 For every wicked man will God destroy both more and lesse:
But such as trust in God are sure;
the land for to possesse.
9 Watch but a while and thou shalt see,
no more the wicked trayne:
No not so much as house or place,
where once heddw remayne.
The second part.
10 But mercifull and humble men,
enuy shall see and leade:
In rest and peace they shall reioyce,
for nought shall them withstand.
11 The lewd men and malicious, agaynst the iust conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him as men,
which do his banes desire.
12 But while that lewd me thus do thinke,
the Lord laughs them to scoyne:
For why? he seeth their terme approche,
when they shall sigh and mourne

- 14 The wicked haue their sword out drawn,
their bowe they haue they bent :
To overthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.
- 15 But the same sword shall pearce theirs which was to kill the iust : (harrowes, Likewise the bow shall breake to shewes, wherein they put their trust.
- 16 Doubtlesse the iust mans poore estate,
is better a great deale more :
Then all these lewd and worldly mens rich pompe and heaped store.
- 17 For be their power neuer so strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth perseuer,
the humble men and low.
- 18 He seeth by his great prouidence,
the good mens trade and way :
And will giue them inheritance,
which neuer shall decay.
- 19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bested :
When other shall be hunger bit,
they shall be glad and fed.
- 20 For who soeuer wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :
Shall quare, yea melt euen as Lambes of smoke that flies abroad. (great,
- The third part.
- 21 Behold the wicked bozoweth much,
and neuer payeth agayne :
Whereas the iust by libral giftes,
make many glad and fayne.
- 22 For they whom God doth blesse shall the land for heritage : (haue,
And they whom he doth curse likewise,
shall perishe in his rage.
- 23 The Lord the iust mans cause doth guide,
and geues him good successe :
To enery thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good aduise.
- 24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not bitterly to quayle :
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at neede and doth not faile.
- 25 I haue bene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer see :
The iust man left, nor yet his seede,
to begge for misery.
- 26 But giues alwayes most liberally,
and lendes where as is neede :
His children and posteritie, receiue of God their merde.
- 27 Flye vice therefore and wickednesse,
and vertue do imbrace :
So God shall graunt the long to haue,
on earth a dwelling place.
- 28 For God so longeth equite,
and sheweth to his such grace :
That he preferres them euer more,
but stroyes the wicked race.
- 29 Whereas the good and godly men,
inherit shall the land :
Hauing as Lordes all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.
- 30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake

of matters wise and true :

His tongue doth talke and edifie,
with truth and equitie.

31 For in his hart the law of God,
his Lord doth still abide :

So that where euer he goe or walke,
his foote can neuer slide.

32 The wicked like a rauening Wolfe,
the iust man doth deser :

By all meanes he hunt him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his handes, yet God would succour send :

Though men agaynst him sentence giue,
God will him yet defend.

34 Wait thou on God & hope his way,
he shall preserue thee then :

The earth to rule and thou shalt see,
destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I seene most strong,
and placed in high degre :

Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Laurell tree.

36 But sodenly he passeth away,
and loe he was quite gone :

Then I him sought but could scarce finde,
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Marke and behold the perishe man,
how God doth him increase :

For the iust man that haue at length,
great toy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressors, woe to them, destroyd they shall all be :

God will cut of their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God above :

Who in their trouble sendth them ayde,
of his mere grace and loue.

40 God doth them helpe them and deliuer,
from lewd men and diuils :

And still will saue them whilst that they,
in him do put their trust.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. xxxviii. I. H

David sick of some grievous disease, acknowlgeth himselfe to be chastised of the Lord for his sinnes : and therefore prayeth God to turn away his wrath, but in the end with firme confidence and commending his cause to God, hopeth for speedie helpe at his hand.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

Pray me not to rebuke (O Lord)

in thy prouoked ire :

Ne in thy heauy wrath (O Lord)

correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrowes do sticke fast in me,

thy hand doth presse me soye :

And in my flesh no health at all,

appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of,

thy wrath that I am in :

For any rest is in my house,

by reason of my sinne.

4 For loe, my wicked doynge Lord,

about my head are gone :

A greater lode then I can beare,
they lye me soye vpon.

My woundes sticke and are fetted to,
as lothsome is to see:
Which all through myne owne foolishnes,
betideth vnto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought,
in trouble and distresse:
That I goe wayling all the day,
my dolefull heauynesse.
7 My loynes are sild with soze disease,
my fleish hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken force,
I roare for grief of hart.
9 Thou knowest Lord my desire, my are open in thy sight: (groanes) 10 My hart doth pant, my strength hath myne eyes haue lost their sight. (sayd) 11 My leuers and my wanted frendes, stand lohyng on my woe:
And eke my kinsmen farre away,
are me departed fro.
12 They that did seeke my life layd snares,
and they that sought the way To do me hurt, spake lyes, and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

13 But as a deafe man I became,
that can not heare at all:
14 And as one dum that opens not,
his mouth to speake withall.
15 For all my confidence O Lord, is wholly set on the:
16 O Lord thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt giue care to me.
17 This did I craue, that t hey my foes,
triumph not ouer me:
For when my foete did slip, then they,
did toy my fall to see.
And truly I poze wrech am set,
in plague a wafull wight:
And eke my greuous heauynesse,
is euer in my sight.
18 For while that I my wickednesse,
in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinfull dedes,
my sayrowes do expresse.
19 My foes do still remaine alive,
and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.
20 They stand agaynst me that my god,
with euill do repay:
Because that god and honest thynges,
I do enue alway.
21 Forsake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:
Halt me to helpe my Lord my God,
my saferte and my stay.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. I. H.

As David hauing determined silence per had forth ins to wordes that he would not, though his bitter griefe. for he maketh certain requests which taste of mans infirmitie, yet mixed with many prayers and all to shew a mynd wonderfully troubled, that it may appeare how he did strine mightely agaynst death and desperation.

Sing this as the humble state of a Sinner.

I Sayd I will loke to my wayes,
for feare I should goe wrong:

I will take heed all tymes that I offend not in my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keepe fast, my mouth with foze and might:
Nor once to whisper all the while,
the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from god talke I did refrayne,
but soze agaynst my will.

4 My hart wact hure within my brest,
with musing thought and doubt:
Which did encrease and stre the fire,
at last these wordes brest out.

5 Lord number out my life and dayes,
which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certified,
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast poured out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto the,
so bayne is euery man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in bayne himselfe annoy:
In getting goods and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord sith things thyng wise doe
what helpe do I desire? (craue)
Of truth my helpe: both hang on the,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 For all the times that I haue done,
Lord quite me out of hand:
And make me not a fozne to seeles,
that nothing vnderstand.

10 I was as dum, and to complayne,
no trouble might me moue:
Because I know it was thy woe, he,
my patience for to proue.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge & plague:
I can them not withste no:
I saynt and pine away, for feare,
of thy most heauy hand.

12 When thou for sinne doest man rebuke,
he wacth wo and woe:
As both a clorb that moethes haue fret,
so bayne a thyng is man.

13 Lord heate my sute & giue god care, regard my teares that fall:
I soiozne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, giue me space,
my strength for to restore:
Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectaui. Psal. xl. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger, doth magnifie God therefore, and commendeth his prouidence to wordes all in his mind. Then he promitteth to giue himself wholly to Gods seruice, and declareth how God is truly worshipped. Afterward hee giveth thanks, and hauing complained of his enemies, he calleth for ayde and succour.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bease:
Strength to mee he did geue,
and he did geue me ease.

my voyce and cry to heare.
 2 He pluckt me from the lake so deepe,
 out of the myze and clay:
 And on a rocke did set my feete,
 and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a psalme of prayse,
 which I must shew abroad:
 And sing new songes of thankes alwayes,
 vnto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folke these thynges shall see
 as people much astrayd:
 Then they vnto the Lord will flye,
 and trust vpon his eyde.

5 O blest is he whose hope and hart,
 doth in the Lord reynayre.
 That with the proud doth take no part,
 nor such as lye and fayre.

6 For Lord my God, thy wondrous deedes in greatnesse faste do passe:
 Thy fauour towards vs excēdes,
 all thynges that euer was.

7 When I entend and do deuise,
 thy workes abroad to shew:
 To such a reckoning they do rise, thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt offerings thou delightst not in,
 I know thy whole desire:
 With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
 thou dost no man require.

9 Meat offerings and sacrifice,
 thou wouldst not haue at all:
 But thou O Lord hast open made,
 mine eares to heare withall.

10 But then sayd I, behold and loke,
 I come a meane to be:
 For in the volume of thy booke,
 thus it is sayd of me.

11 That I O God should do thy mind, which thing doth like me well:
 For in my hart thy Law I finde, fast place there to dwell.

12 Thy iustice and thy righteounesse,
 in great resortes I tell:
 Behold my tongue no tyme doth cease,
 O Lord thou knowest full well.

The second part.

13 I haue not hid within my brest,
 thy goodnesse as by stealth:
 But I declare and haue exprest,
 thy truth and sauing health.

14 I hope not close thy louing minde,
 that no man should it know:
 The trust that in thy truth I finde,
 to all the Church I shew.

For I with mischiefes many one,
 am sore beset about:
 My sinnes increase and so come on,
 I cannot fynde them out.

15 For why? in number they excēde,
 the heares vpon my head:
 My hart doth faynt for very dread that I am almost dead.

16 With speeche send helpe and let me see
 O Lord, I the requite:
 Make haste with ayde to succour me,
 O Lord at my desire.

17 Let them sustayne rebuke and shame,
 that seeke my soule to spill:
 Dyme back my foes, and them defame,
 that with and would me ill.

18 For that ill feates do them describe,
 that would deface my name:
 Twyces at me they rayle and crie,
 he on him, he for shame.

19 Let them in the haue ioy and wealth,
 that seeke to the alwayes:
 That those that loue thy sauyng health,
 may say, to God be praise.

20 But as for me I am but poore, opprest and brought full low:
 Yet thou O Lord wilt me restore,
 to health full well I know.

21 For why? thou art my hope and trust,
 my refuge, helpe and stay:
 Wherefore my God as thou art iust,
 with me no tyme delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T.S.

David grievously afflicted, blesteth them that pity his case, complaining of saythlesse frendes such as Iudas. Joh. xv. Then he geueth thanks for Gods mercy in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemies to triumph.

The man is blest that careful is the weedy to consider: for in the season

pericious the Lord will him deliuer.

2. The Lord will make hym safe and sound & happy in the land: and he will not deliuer him into his enemies hād.

And in his bed when he lyeth sick,
 the Lord will him restore:
 And thou O Lord wilt turne to health,
 his sickness and his sore.

4 Then in my sickness thus say I,
 haue mercy Lord on me:
 And heale my soule which is full wor,
 that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wish me ill in heart,
 and thus of me did say:
 When shall he dye, that all his name,
 may vanishe quite away.

6 And when they come to visite me,
 they aske if I do well:
 But in their heartes mischiese they hatch,
 and so their malice it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
 as though they would me charme:

And cast their fetches how to trap,
me with some mortall harme.
Some grieuous sin hath brought him to this sickness say they plaine:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not againe.

The men also that I did trust,
with me did vse deceit:
Who at my table eate my bread,
the same for me layd waie.
10 Haue mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preferred:
That I may render vnto them,
the things they haue deserued.

11 By this I know assuredly,
I am beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cause,
to triumph ouer me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintayned alway:
And in thy presence place assignd,
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israell be prayd eternally:
Euen so be it Lord will I say,
euen so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliij. I. H.

Dauid is grieued that through persecutors, hee could not be present in the congregation, protesting his presence in hart, albeit in body seperate. At last he beweyeth that notwithstanding these sorrowes & thoughtes yet he continually putteth his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the humble sute of a Sinner.

Like as the hart doth desire and pray
the wellsprings to obtaine:
So doth my soule desire alway,
with thee Lord to remaine.
2 My soule doth thirst & would draw neare,
the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appeare,
in thy presence of his light?

3 The teares all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas what griefe is this to thinke,
what freedome once I had?
Therefore my soule as at pittie binke,
is most heauy and sad.

When I did march in good aray,
turnt with my trayne:
Vnto the temple was our way,
with songs and harts most faire.
5 My soule why art thou sad alwayes,
and seest thus in my breast:
Trust still in God, for him to prayle,
I hold it alwayes best.

6 But in I haue succour at neede,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all speede,
will hast to send reliefe.
7 And thus my soule within me Lord,
doth faint to thinke vpon:
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One griefe another in doth call,
as cloudes burst out their voyce:
The cloudes of euill that do fall,
runne ouer me with noyse.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodnes,
and helpe at all assayes:
Like wise by night I did not cease,
the living God to prayle.

9 I am perswaded thus to say,
to him with pure presence:
O Lord thou art my guide and way,
my rocke and my defence.
Why do I then in penitence, hanging the head thus walke:
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and teare me with their talke?

10 For why? they bere mine inward part with panges to be abhorred:
When they cry out with stubborne hart,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soone why dost thou faint and quail
my soule with payne opprest:
With thoughts why doest thy selfe assaile,
so soe within my breast?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thou the time shalt see:
To geue him thanks with laud and prayse,
for heathen rest to thee.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xliij. T.S.

The prayere to be deliuered from them which conspire with abolon, to the ende that he mighte toyne fully prayse God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

Iudge and reuenge my cause O Lord,
from them that enill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why perst thou me theer fro?
And why walke I so heauily, oppressed with my foe.

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar goe,
of God my top and cheare:
And on my Harpe geuet, anes to thee,
O God my God most deare.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and seest thus in my breast?
Still trust in God for him to prayse,
I hold it alwayes best.
6 By him I haue deliuerance,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which doth alway,
at neede send me reliefe.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliij. T.S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faithfull to perfection, for vntayning the quarell of Gods word, as in S. Paul. Rom. viij.

Our eares haue heard our father

thens tell, and reverently record, the wondrous workes that thou hast done in alder tyme (O Lord.) How thou didst cast the Gentiles out, and drōydst them with strong hand: Plac-ting our fathers in their place, and gauest to the heathen land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor strenght
 the land of thy behest:
 But by thy hand, thyne arm and grace,
 because thou loudest them best.
 4 Thou art my King O God, that holpe
 Jacob in sondry wise:
 5 Led with thy power we chrow down such as vs againt vs rise.

6 I trusted not in bow ne sword,
 they could not saue me sound:
 7 Thou keptst vs from our enemies rage, thou didst our foes confound.
 8 And still we boast of thee our God,
 and praye thy holy name:
 9 Yet now thou goest ner with our hoak,
 but leauest vs to shame.

10 Thou madest vs flee before our foes,
 and so were ouertrod:
 Our enemies robd and spoyld our goods,
 while we were spact abroad.
 11 Thou hast vs geuen to our foes,
 as sheepe for to be slaine:
 Among the heathen euery where,
 scattered we do remaine.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
 and as a thing of nought:
 For profite none thou hast thereby,
 no gaine at all was sought.
 13 And to our neighbors thou hast made,
 of vs a laughing stocke:
 And those that round about vs dwell,
 at vs do grinne and mocke.

The second part.

14 Thus we haue for none other be,
 but for a common talke:
 They mocke thee soon, they nod their heads
 whereence they go or walke.
 15 I am ashamed continually, to heare these wicked men:
 Yea so I blush that all my face with red is couered then.

16 For why? we hear such flaudious words such false reports and lies:
 That deare it is to see their wrongs,
 their threatenings and their cries.
 17 For all this we forget not thee,
 nor yet thy conenant baste:
 18 We turne not back our hearts from thee,
 nor yet thy paths forsake:
 19 Yet thou hast trod vs down to dust,
 where dens of dragons be:
 And covered vs with shade of death,
 and great aduersity.
 20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
 and helpe of Idols sought: 21 Would not God then haue tried this out for he doth know our thought?
 22 Nay, nay, for thy names sake O Lord, alwaies are we slaine thus:
 As sheepe vnto the stubbles sent,
 right so they deale with vs.
 Up Lord why sleepest thou? awake,
 and leaue vs not for all:
 24 Why hidest thou thy countenance, and dost forget our thral?

25 For down to dust our soul is brought and we now at last cast:
 Our belly like as it were glude,
 vnto the ground cleaues fast.
 26 Rise by therefore for our defence,
 and help vs Lord at neede:
 We thee beseech of thy goodness,
 to rescue vs with speede.

Eructant cor meum. Psal. xlv. I. H.

Salomon hys maieste, honour, strenght, beauty, riches, and power are praised: hys inuicage with the Egyptian, an heathen woman, is blam, if that she renounce her people, and countrey, and geue her selfe wholly to her husband. Here is figured the wondrous full maich, and increase of Christes kingdome and the Church hys spouse now taken of the Gentils.

Sing this as the 25. psalme.

My hart doth take in hand,
 some godly song to sing:
 The praise that I shall heare therett, perrapneth to the King.
 2 My rounge shall be as quick his honer to endure:
 As is the pen of any scribe that bleth fast to write.

3 O sayest of all men,
 thy speech is pleasant pure:
 For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
 for euer to endure.
 4 About thee gied thy sword,
 O Diance of might elect:
 With honor, glory, and renoume,
 thy person pure is dect.

9 Soe forth with godly speed,
 in meeknes, truth, and right:
 And thy right hand shall thee instruct,
 in workes of deeadfull might.
 6 Thy arrows sharp and keen,
 their hearts so sore shall sting:
 That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
 yea all thy foes (O King.)
 7 Thy royall seat O Lord,

For ever shall remaine:

Because the scepter of thy realme,
Doth thyneousness maintaine.

8 Because thou lovest the right,
and dost the ill detest:

God euen thy God hath voynted thee,
with Ioy about the rest.

9 With Apyre and sauours sweet,
thy clothes are all bespread:

When thou dost from thy pallace passe, theterein to make thee glad.

10 Kings daughters do attend,
in fine and rich aray:

At thy right hand the Queene doth stand,
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take good hede,
incline and geue good care:

Thou must forgoe thy kindred all,
and fathers house most deare.

12 Then shall the king desire,
thy beauty saye and rime:

For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre, with giftes full rich to see:

And all the wealthy of the land,
shall make their suite to thee.

14 The daughter of the king,
is glorious to behold:

Within her closet the doth sit,
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:

With Virgins faire on her to waite,
she cometh to the king.

16 Thus are they brought with Ioy,
and myrrh on every side:

Into the pallace of the king,
and there they do abide.

17 In head of parents left,
(O Queene thy chance so stands)

Thou shalt haue sons whom thou shalt see as Princes in all landes.

18 Wherefore thy holy name,
all ages shall record:

Thy people shall geue thanks to thee,
for euer more O Lord.

Deus nostrum refugium. Psal. xli. I. H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Ierusalem after Senacherib with his army was druen awaye, or some other lyke sodayne and mar-uelous deliuerance, by the mighty hand of GOD:
whereby the Prophet commendinge thys great vesnerie, doth exhort the faythfull to geue them selues wholy into the hands of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection they shall be safe, as gainst all the assaults of their enemies.

The Lord is our defence and ayde
the strength whereby we stand: When we with woe are much dismayde, he is

- 3 The people he shall make to be,
vnto our bondage thall:
And vnderneath our feete, he shall
the nations make to fall.
- 4 For his the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flour ishing worth of Iacob,
his welbeloued one.
- 5 Our God ascended vp on hye,
with joy and pleasant noyce:
The Lord goeth vp aboue the hye, with trumpets royall voyce.
- 6 Sing prayes to our God, sing prayes
sing prayes to our King:
For God is King of all the earth,
all full of prayes sing.
- 7 God on the heaehen raignes and sits,
vpon his holy thron:
- 8 The Princes of the people haue,
th: in ioyned every one.
- To Abrahams people, for our God,
which is exalted hye:
As with a buckler doth defend,
the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviii. I. H.

Thanks are given to God for the notable deliuance of Hierusalem from the handes of manye kings: the estate whereof is praised, for that God is present at all times to defende it: this psalme ser-meth to bee made in the time of Ahas, Iosaphat, As-sa or Zechia: for then chetye, was the cite by foraine Princes assailed.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

- Great is the Lord and with great prayse, to be aduanced still:
Within the city of our Lord,
vpon his holy hill.
- 2 Mount Zion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The city of the mighty King,
on her Northside doth stand.
- Within the pallaces thereof,
God is a refuge knowne:
For loe the Kinges are gathered, and together eke are gone.
- 4 But when they did behold it so,
they wonderd, and they were Astonied much and sodenly were driuen backe with feare.
- 5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very woe they cry:
As doth a woman when she shall,
go trauell by and by.
- 6 As thou with Easterne wind the ships,
vpon the sea doest beake,
So they were staid, and euen as we heard our fathers speake.
- 7 So in the city of our God,
we saw as it was told:
He is in the city, which our God,
for euer will behold.
- 8 O Lord we wait and do attend,
on thy good helpe and grace:
For which we do all times attend,
within thy holy place.
- 9 O Lord according to thy name,
for euer is thy prayse:

- And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousness alwayes.
- 10 Let for thy iudgements Sion mount,
filled be with ioyes:
And eke of Iuda graunt (O Lord)
the daughter to reioyce.
- 11 So walke about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towres that therevpon are builded on a roe.
- 12 And make ye well her bulwaches all,
behold her towres there:
That ye may tell thereof to them,
that after shall be here.
- 13 For this God is our God, our God
for euermore is hee:
Yea and vnto the death also,
our guider shall he be.

Audite hæc omnes. Psal. xlix. I. H.

Gods spirit moneth the consideration of mans
lyfe, shewing that the wealthy are not happy:
eik: but note howe all things are ruled by Gods providence who as hee iudgeth these worldie misfers to euertlasting torment: so doth hee prescribe his, and will rewarde them in the daye of the resurrection. i. The. i.

Sing this as the 45. psalme.

- All people hearken and giue eare,
to that that I shall tell:
- 2 Both hye and low, both rich and poore,
that in the world do dwell.
- 3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse of many things right wise:
In vnderstanding what my hart,
his study exercise.
- 4 I will incline mine eares to know
the parables so darke?
And open all my doubtfull speech,
in meeter on my Harpe.
- 5 Why should I feare afflictions,
or any carefull toyle:
Or els my foes which at my heeles,
are prest my life to spoyle?
- 6 For as for such as riches haue, wherein their trust is most:
And they which of these treasures great,
themselues do brag and boast.
- 7 There is not one of them that can,
his brothers death reuenge Or that can geue a price to God sufficient for him.
- 8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attaine:
- 9 Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in graue remaine.
- 10 They see wise men as well as fooles,
subiect vnto deathes hands:
And being dead straungers possesse,
their goods, their rents, their lands.
- 11 Their care is to build houses fayre,
and so determine sure:
To make their name right great on earth
for euer to endure.
- 12 Yet shall no man alwayes enioy,
high honor, wealth and rest:
But shall at length fall of deathes cap,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

- 13 And though they crye their lookyng to be most lewd & vaine: (thoughtes, Their children yet approue their talke,
and in like sinne remaine.
- 14 As sheepe into the fold are brought,
so shall they into graue:
Death shall them eare, and in that day
the last shall Lordship haue.
- 15 Their Image and their royall port,
shall fade and quite decay:
When as from house to pit they passe,
with wise and well away.
- 16 But God will surely preferue me from death and endlesse paine:
Because he will of his good graue,
my soule receaue againe.
- 16 If any man were wondrous rich,
feare not I say therof:
Although the glory of his house,
increaseth moze and moze.
- 17 For when he dyeth of all these thinges,
nothing shall be receaue:
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.
- 18 Yet in this life he takes himselfe,
the happiest vnder sunne:
And others likewise flatter him,
saying all is well done.
- 19 And presuppose he liue as long,
as did his fathers old:
Yet must he needes at length gine place,
and be brought to deathes solde.
- 20 Thus man to honour God hath calde,
yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beastes so doth he liue,
which turne to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psal. L. W. W.

The prophetie how God will call all nations by the Cobell, and require no other sacrifice of his people, but confession of his benefites, and thanks giving: and how he detesteth all such as seeme zealous of ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God onely.

The mighty God, thernal hath this speke: And all the world, he will call and prouoke: Euen from the East and so forth to the west. 2. From toward

Sion, which place him liketh best, God will appeare in beauty most excellent.

2. One God will come, before that long tyme be spent.

- Denouncing are shall goe before his face:
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.
- 4 Then shall he call the earth and heauens bright:
To iudge his folke,
with equitie and right.
- 5 Saying go too,
and now my saintes assemble:
My peace they keepe,
their gifts do not dissemble.
- 6 The heauens shall,
declare his righteousness:
For God is iudge
of all thinges moze and lesse,
- 7 Heare my people,
or I will now reueale:
Lill Isaac,
I will thee nought conceale:
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee:
- 8 For giuing not,
all maner offerings to me.
- 9 I haue no need,
to take of thee at all:
Goates of thy fold,
or Calfe out of thy stall:
- 10 For all the beastes,
are mine within the woodes:
On thousand hills,
catrell are mine owne goodes.
- 11 I know for mine,
all birdes that are on mountaines:
All beastes are mine,
which haunt the fields and fountaines.

- 12 Hungrie if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is mine,
that in the world doth dwell.
- 13 Eate I the flesh,
of great Bulles or Bullocks?
Or drinke the blood,
of Goates, and of the Rockes?
- 14 Offer to God,
praise and hartie thankesgiving:
And pay thy bowes,
vnto God euerming.
- 15 Call vpon me,
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I helpe,
and thou shalt honoꝛ me.
- 16 To the wicked,
thus saith thernal God,
Why dost thou preach,
my lawes and bestes abroad:
Seeing thou hast,

them with thy mouth abused:
17 And hatest to be,
by discipline reformed?

My wordes I say,
thou dost respect and hate:

18 If that thou see,
a theefe as with thy mate.

Thou runnest with him,
and so your pray do seeke:

And art all one,
with baudes and ruffians eke.

19 Thou giuest thy selfe,
to backbite and to slander:

And how thy tongue,
deceaueth tis a wonder.

20 Thou sittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:

And how to put thy mothers sonne to shame.

21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue:

Thou didst me iudge,
because I staid so long.

Like to thy selfe,
yet though I keep long silence:

Once shalt thou feele,
of thy wronges iust recompence.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord:

And feare not when,
he threatheth with his word:

Least without helpe,
I spoile you as a pray:

23 But he that thankes
offreth, prayeth me ay:

Saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh thys trace:

I will him teach
Gods sauing health to embrace.

Another of the same by I. H.

The God of Gods the Lord, hath cald the earth by name:
From where: e the sunne doth rise, vnto,
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his sayre place,
his glozy bright and cleare:

The perfect beaur^e of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God shall come in hast, to speake he shall not doubt:

Before him in the fire walk,
and tempest round about.

4 The heauens from on high,
the earth below likewise:

He will call forth to iudge and trye,
his tolke he doth denie.

5 Bying forth my Saintes (saith he) my faithfull flocke to deare:

Which are in bond and league with me,
my law to loue and feare.

And when those thinges are tride,
the heauens shall receiue:

That God is iust, and all must bide,

the iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people O giue heede,

Israel to thee I cry:

I am thy God, thy helpe at neede,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is lacke:

Thou offerest dayly vnto me,
much more then I do lacke.

9 Thinkst thou that I do neede, thy cattell young or old?

Or els so much desire to feede,
on Goates out of thy fold?

10 Nay, all the beastes are mine,
in woodes that eate their fill:

And thousandes more of neat and kine,
that runne wild in the hills.

The second part.

11 The birdes that build on high,
in hills and out of sight:

And beastes that in the fieldes do lye,
are subiect to my might.

12 Then though I hungred sore,
what neede I oughr of thine:

Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To Bulles such haue I minde, to eate it dost thou thinke?

Or such a sweetnesse do I find,
the bloud of Goates to drinke?

14 Fine to the Lord his praise,
with thankes to him apply:

And see thou pay thy vowes alwaies, vnto the God most high.

15 Then seeke and call to me,
when oughr would worke thee blame,

And I will sure deliuer thee,
that thou maist prayse my name.

16 But to the witched traine, which talke of God each day:

And yet thei worke as foule and baينه,
to them the Lord will say.

17 With what a face dost thou,
my worke ouce speake or name?

Why doth thy talke my law allow,
thy deedes deny the same?

18 Whereas thou to amend,
thy litte thou art so lacke:

My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behind thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a theefe dost see,
by theft to lue in wealth:

With him thou runst and dost agre,
likewise to thine by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold,
that wines and maides desire:

Thou likest it well, and wastest bold,
to vse that life most vile.

By

- 21 Thy lips thou dost apply,
to flaunder and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye,
and still doth olde the same.
- 22 Thou studiest to reuile,
thy friends to thee so neare:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile,
thy mothers some most deare.
- 23 Therent while I do wink,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on stil, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
- 24 But sure I will nor let,
to stitewhen I begin:
Thy fautes in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.
- 25 Marke this I you require,
that haue not God in mind:
Least when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to finde.
- 26 He that both giue to me,
the sacrifice of prayse:
Dost please me well, and he shall see,
to walke in godly waies.

x. Misere mei. Psal. Li. W. W.

David rebuked by the pprophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to God, protesting his naturall corruption. Wherefore he prayeth God to forgive his finnes, and reuend in hym his holy spirit promising that he wuld not be unthankfull of those great graces. Finally, fearing lest God would punish the whole Church for his fault, hee requiereth that he would rather increase his graces towards the same.

O

Lord consider my detrelle, and now with thyd some pity take: My sinnaes, deface, my fautes redreffe, good Lord for thy great mercies sake. 2. Washe me (O Lord) and make me cleane, from this brutt and unskill act: And purifie yet once agayne, my baynous crime and blondy fact.

Remoore and sorrow doth constraine,

- me to ack knowledge mine exesse:
My finnes alas do still remaine, before my face without release.
- 4 For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight,
And if I were therfore condemned,
yet were thy iudgements iust & right.
- 5 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceined in sinne:
Yea of my mother so boine was,
and yett vlie wretch remaine therein.
- 6 Alid behold Lord thou dost lone,
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above,
thou hast reuealed me to conuert.
- 7 If thou with thy sp purge this blot,
I shalbe cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
theknow in whitenesse shall I passe.
- 8 Therefore O Lord such toy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strenght may now amend,
which thou hast swagde for my trespassa.

- 9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
for I haue felt inough thy hand:
And purge my finnes I rite desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
- 10 Make new my heart within my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

- 11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedely my toyments end:
Take nor from me thy spirit and grace,
which may from daungers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those toyes againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine,
which vnto thee may direct my minde.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall see sinne.
- 14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgiue me this my bloude vire:
My heart and tongue shall then accord to sing thy mercies and iustice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue brittle,
O Lord which art the onely way:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous works & prayse alway.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many a one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest thou none.
- 17 The beaute heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord thou neuer dost relect:
And to makee truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
- 18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face,
poure out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Ierusalem thy grace, build by thy waies and ioue it still.

9 Thou shalt accept then our offerings, C 4 of

of peace and righteousnesse I say :
Yea Calmes and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

An other of the same by T.N.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- Have mercy on me God after thy great abundant grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my finnes deface.
- 2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sinne :
For I do know my faultes, and still my finnes are in mine eyne.
- 3 Agaynst thee, thee alone, I have offended in this case :
And until haue I done before the presence of thy face.
- 4 That in the things that thou hast done,
vpright thou mayst be true :
And eke in iudging that the wronge,
may passe vpon thy foe.
- 5 Behold in wickednesse my kinde,
and shapè I did reace:
And loe my Anfull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceale.
- 6 But loe, the truth of inward partes,
is pleasaunt vnto thee:
And secretes of thy wisdom thou,
reuealed hast to me.
- 7 With hope Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed for:
Yea wash thou me and so shall I,
be whiter then the snow.
- 8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me,
to heare the pleasing voice:
That to the busied bones which thou,
hast broken may reioyce.
- 9 From the beholding of my finnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deedes of wickednes,
do bitterly deface.
- 10 O God create in me a hart,
vnsportred in thy sight:
And eke with in my bowels Lord,
renew a stabled spittle.
- 11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving helpe,
goue me againe I pray.
- 12 With thy free spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore:
Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall,
be turned vnto thy loye.
- The second part.
- 13 O God that art my God of health,
from bloud deliure me:
That prayser of thy righteousnesse,
my tongue may sing to thee.
- 14 As thy lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord vnloose:
The maples of thy mouth,
my mouth shall so disclose.
- 15 I would haue offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings

I know thou wilt not be.
16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice,
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

- 17 In thy good will deale gently Lord,
to Sion and withall: Graunt that of thy Ierusalem,
by eard may be the wall.
- 18 Burnt offerings giftes and sacrifice,
of Justice in that day.
Thou shalt accept, and Calmes they that vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. Lii. I. H.

David described the arrogant tyrann of Doeg Saulls chief shepard, who by false surmises caused Abimelech, and the Idrieses to be slayne. Hee prophesied his destruction, encourageth the faith-full to trust in God, who most sharply reuengeth his, and rendereth thanks for his deliuerance. Heres in is lively set forth the kinglydome of Antichrist.

Why doest thou Tyrant boast abroad, thy wicked workes to prayse?

Doest thou not know there is a God, whose mercyes last alwayes? 2. Why doest thy mynde yet still deuite, such wicked wiles to wage? Thy tongue vntrue in forging lyes, is like a ra-four harpe.

- 3 On mischief why sett thou thy mynde,
and wilt not worke vpright?
Thou hast more lust full tales to finde,
then bying the truth to light.
- 4 Thou doest delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, bloud and wrong:
Thy lyes haue learned the dancing stile,
O false deceitful tongue.
- 5 Therefore shall God for euer confound, and plucke thee from thy place:
Thy kebe rote out from the ground,
and so shall thee deface.
- 6 The iust when they behold thy fall,
with feare will prayse the Lord:
And in reproch of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man which would not take,
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
8 But I an Olive fresh and Greene,
Will spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath bene,
upon the loving God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise,
to thee with truth and hope:
I will set forth thy name alwayes,
wherein by Saints is reioyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. Liii. T. S.

David describeth the crooked nature, the cruelty and punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, and deserveth the delivrance of the Soules, that they may reioyce together.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

The foolish man in that which he,
within his hart hath said:
That there is any God at all,
hath bitterly denyd.

2 They ate corrupt, and they also,
a haynous worke have wrought:
Among them all there is nor one,
of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt down on finnes of men,
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would,
be wise and seeke for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feede upon:
Evy prele as they feede on bread:
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismayd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieged,
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they retreates are of God.

8 O Lord geue thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill:
Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Syon hill.

9 When God his people shall restore,
that east was captivie lad:
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel halde glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. Liii. I. H.

David in great danger rhyming Elyhuus, collecth upon God to destroy his enemies, promising sacrifice for his delivrance.

Sing this as the 46. psalme.

God save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnes sake:
Unto the strength Lord of the same,
I do my cause besake.

2 Regard O Lord, and give an care to me when I do pray:
Bow downe thy selfe to me, and heare
the wordes that I do say.

3 For strangers by agayne me rise,
and ryauntes bece me kill:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seeke my soule to spill.

4 But loe my God doth give me ayde,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soule is stayd,
the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay agayne all those,
for me that lye in wayre:
And in thy reach destroy my foes.
with their owne snare and bayre.

6 An offering of free hart and will,
then I to thee shall make:
And praye thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free,
from them that craze conspire:
And now myne eye wish Ioy doth see,
on them my hartes desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lv. I. H.

David in great distress, complaineth of Santes cru-eltye and fallhoode of his familiar acquaintance, effectuously mouinge the Lord to pittie him. Then assured of delivrance, he setteth forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.

Sing this as the 35. psalme.

God geue care and do apply to heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy selfe away.

2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and aunswere me agayne:
With plagues I pray full Ioye opprest, great griefe both me constrainye.

3 Because my foes with threats and cryes oppress me through despyre:
And so the wicked sort likewise,
to vex me have delihte.

4 For they in counsell do conspire, to charge me with some ill:
So in theyr haly wrath and ire,
they do pursue me still.

5 My hart doth faynt for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest:
The terroze and the bread of death,
doth worke me much unrest.

6 Such breadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror whelmeth me withall,
that I no wyse can make.

7 But I do say, who will geue me
the sweet and pleasaunt winges
Of some fayre dove that I may see,
and rest me from these thynges?

8 Loe then I would goe faire away,
to flye I would not cease:
And I would hede my selfe, and say
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be come in all the hallowe,
and not abide behinde:
That I were quite and carepast
these blackes of boytous wynde.

10 Deathe them Lord and from them pull theyr deathly double tongue:
For I have spoyed theyr Curys full,
of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day through did close her as a wall:
In midd of her is mischiefeflout,
and sorrow eke withall.

12 Her play partes are wicked playne,
her beebes are much too vile:
And in her strectes there doo remaine,
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second part.

13 If that my foes disleeke my name,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies cheque and blame,
some where I could me hide.

14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which friendship didst pretend:
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
within the house of God.

16 Let deary in hast vpon them fall,
and send them quicke to hell:
For mischiefefl raigneth in their hall
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I vnto my God do cry,
to him sey helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and he doth succour me.

18 At morning, noone, and euening tyme,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue cryde,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though warre be nere at hand:
Althoughe the number be full great,
that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth raigne,
both now and evermore:
Will heare when I to him complayne,
and punishe them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they,
to turne will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor do not feare the Lord.

22 Upon their friends they laid their hands which were in conenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bandes,
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they haue war within their hart
as butereate their wordes:
Although they wordes were smooth as oyle
they cut as sharpe as swordes.

24 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord,
the iust in thall to see.

25 But God shall cast them deepe in pit, that truste for bloud alwayes:
He will no guilefull man permit,
to liue out halfe his dayes.

26 Though such be quite destroyed & gone,
as thsee (O Lord) I trust:
I shall depend thy grace vpon,
with all my heart and iust.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I. H.

David being brought to this the kynge of Sath.
2. Sam. 21. 2. complayneth of his saemes, & maas deh (sicore), cruelly in God & promiteth to pres
fozme his deyn, whiche was, to paye God in hys Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

H Ave mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me deuour,
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.

2 Mine enemies dayly entecoste,
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid,
with boastes and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for ayde,
by thee will I abide.

4 Gods promise I do mind and prayle,
O Lord I sticke to thee:
I do not care at all of sayes,
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake, they wret them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take is how to worke me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hysde,
close watch for me to lay:
They spy my pathes and snares haue tide,
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischiefefl set,
thou God on them wilt scowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.

8 Thou seest how oft they make me see,
and on my teares dost looke:
Rescue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.

9 When I do call vpon thy name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceiue it by the same,
that God doth take my part.

10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord be is my helpe and stay
I do not care for man.

12 I will performe with hart to free,
to God my bowes alwayes:
And I (O Lord) all times to thee,
will offer thankes and prayle.

13 My soule from death thou dost defend and keepe my feete bright:
That I before thee may ascend,
with such as lucin light.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I. H.

David in the desert of Siph betrayed by the iha:
bitaunes, and in the same Catic with Saul collect vnto God, with full confidence that hee will per fozme his promise, and shew his glory in heauē and earth against the cruel enemies, Therefore he cons deth laud and praye.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

The pittie for thy promise sake,
haue mercy Lord on me:
For why? my soule doth her betake,
vnto the helpe of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy winges,
I let my selfe full far:
Till mischief, malice, and like things,
be gone and ouerpast.

3 I call vpon the God most hye,
to whome I tricke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by,
the cause I haue in hand.

4 From heauen he hath sent his ayde,
to saue me from their sight:
That to deuour me haue assayed,
his mercy truth and might.

5 I led my life with Lyons fell,
all set on wpaty and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are speeres & arrowes long,
as sharpe as I haue seene:
They wound & cut with theyr quick tounge,
like swordes and weapons heene.

7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bight:
Exalt thy prayle in earth abroad,
thy maiesty and might.

8 They laye their net, and do prepare a prayme cause and pit:
Wherein they thinke my soule to share,
but they are fallen in it.

9 My hart is set to laud the Lord
in him to ioye alwayes:
My hart I say doth well accord,
to sing his laud and prayse.

10 Awake my toy, awake I say,
my Lute, my Harpe, and string:
For I my selfe before the day,
will rise, setoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell,
the goodnes of my God:
And shew his prayse that doth excell,
in heauen: landes abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as farre,
as heauens all are hye:
His truerh as hye as any starre,
that standeth in the skye.

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bight:
Extoll thy prayse on earth abroad,
thy maiesty and might.

Si verè vtique. Psal. LViii. I. H.

Che describeth hys malicious enemies Sauls flat recerz, who secretly and openly fought his destruction, from whom he appealeth to gods iudgement showing that the iust shall reioyce, at the punishment of the wicked to Gods glorie.

Sing this as the 48. psalme.

Ye rulers which are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust, not knowing neede of might?

2 Say in your hatreds ye marke and misse,
in mischief to consent:
And where you should thus iustre ble,

your handes to bydes are bent.

3 This wicked sort in their birth day,
haue eered on this wife:
And from their mother womb alway,
haue bled craft and lyes.

4 In them the poyson and the breath,
of serpents do appeare:
Yea like the adder that is deafe,
and fast doth stop his eare.

5 Because he will not heare the voyce,
of one that charmerly well:
No though he were the chiefe of choyce,
and did therein excell.

6 O God breake thou their teeth at once, within their mouth throughtout:
The tuskes that in their great chaw bones,
like Lyons whelpes hang out.

7 Let them consume away in waste,
as water runnes forthright:
The wastres that they do spoote in hal,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snayles do wast within the shell,
and vnto stime do runne:
As one before his time that fell,
and neuer saw the sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The iust shall say it doth them good, that God doth benegante take:
And they shall wash their feete in bloud,
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tel,
that good men haue regard:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. psal. Lix. I. H.

C David in great danger of Saule, who sent to slay him in hys bed, declareth hys innocency and their suyppaying God to descey all malicious sinners who linc for a tyme to exercise hys people, but in the end consume in hys wrath, to Gods glorie.
The singer prayeth to god, assured of his mercies.

Eripe ayde and saue me from my foes, O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those, that rise and arme with me. 2. O Lord preserve me from thole arm, whose doyngs are not good: And let me sure and safe from them that still thirst after blood.

3 For loe they wait my soule to take,
they rage against me still:

Fear for no fault that I did make,
I neuer did them ill.

4 They runne and do themselves prepare,
when I no wher offend:

Arise and saue me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hostes of Israell, arise and strike all landes:

And pity none that doth rebel,
and in their mischiefe laundes.

6 At night they stirre and seeke abroad,
as houndes they houle and grin:

And all the city cleane throughout,
from place to place they runne.

7 They spake of me with mouth alway,
but in their types were swordes:

They greed my death and then would say,
what? none doth heare our wordes.

8 But Lord thou hast theys wayes espyed,
and laught thereat apace:

The Heathen folke thou shalt deride,
and mocke them to their face.

9 The strength that doth my foes withstand
O Lord doth come of thee:

My God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort offence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundant still:

That I may see my foes in case,
such as my hart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once O God,
least it from mind do fall:

But with thy strength byue them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill wordes and truthles tong, confound them in their pride:

Their wicked oathes with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath (O Lord)
that nought of them remaine:

That men may know throughout the world that Jacobs God doth raigae.

14 As euening they returne apace,
as dogs they gein and cry:

Througout the streets in euery place,
they runne about and spy.

15 They seeke about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:

As if they find a house wherein they may,
be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will prayfe:

For thou art my defence and God,
at neede in all assayes.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me sayd
O Lord I sing to thee:

Thou art my fort, my fence and ayde
a louing God to me.

Deus repulisti, Psal. Lx. I.H.

David now kinge ouer Iudah, after many victories sheweth by euident signes, that God elected him king, assuring the people that GOD will prosper them, if they appoint the same. After he prayeth vnto to God to finish that that he had begun.

Sing this as the 59. psalme.

O Lord thou didst by cleane forsake,
and scatterest vs abroad:

Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to vs O God.

2 Thy might doth moue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:

The burr thereof O Lord restore,
for it both bow and quake.

3 With heauy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:

And thou hast geuen vnto vs,
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as feare thy name
a token shall ensue:

That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and saue thy folke that fauour thee:

That they thy helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord graunt this to me.

6 The Lord didd speake from his own place
this was his toyfull tale:

I will deuide Sichern by pace,
and mete out Succoths bale.

7 Gilead is geuen to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:

Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet.
ouer Edome throw my shooe:

And thou Palestine oughtst to seck,
for fauour me vnto.

9 But who will bying me at this tye, vnto the Citie strong?

O who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou O God which didst forsake, thy folke, their land, their coastes?

Our warrs in had thou wouldst not take,
nor walke among our hostes.

11 Gene ayde, O Lord, and be relieue,
from them that vs disdain:

The helpe that hostes of men can giue,
it is but all in baye.

12 But through our God we shall haue to take great things in hand: (might)

We will tread down and put to flight, all those that vs withstand.

Exaudi Deus, Psal. Lxi. I.H.

Whether he were in danger of the Ammonites, or purified of Babylon, here he cometh to be deliuered, and confirmed in his kingdom, promising perpetual prayfe.

Sing this as the 59. psalme.

Regard

Regard O Lord for I complaine, and make my sute to thee:
Let not my words returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to mee.
2 From of the coastes and vtmost parts,
of all the earth abroad:
In grieffe and anguish of my hart,
I cry to thee O God.
3 Upon the rocke of thy great power,
my wofull mind repose:
Thou art my hope, my forte and tower,
my fence against my foes.
4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy winges I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.
5 The Lord doth my desire regarde,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly giftes doth he rewarde,
all them that feare his name.
6 The king shall be in health matutine,
and so prolong his dayes:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euermore alwayes.
7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, truth and grace, defend him from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with prayse vnto thy name:
That all my bowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Plal. Lxii. I. H.

Dauid declareth by his example, & the nature of God that he & all people must trust in God alone, seeing that all without God goeth to nought, who onely is of power to saue, and that he rewardeth man according to his works.

Sing this as the 61. Psalm.

My soule to God shall giue good heede,
and him alone intend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health and aide:
He is my stay that no pretence,
shall make me much dismayde.
3 O wicked folke how long will ye,
vile crafts: sure you must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tattering wall.
4 Whom God doth loue, ye seeke alwayes to put him to the worse:
Ye loue to lye, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefe desire:
From all ill feares me to defend,
none but him I requirer.
6 He is my rocke, my strength and tower,
my health is of his grace:

He doth support me, that no power,
can moue me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My forte, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is mine onely trust.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Pouer out your hearts to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.
9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sleight:
With things most vile do them compare,
for they can keepe no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, or stealth,
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goodes well got flow in with let not your hearts theer on. (wealth) 11 The Lord long sith one thing doth tell, which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good and kinde
thy mercy doth exceede:
So that all foules with thee shall kinde,
according to their deede.

Dauid after his daunger of Ziph, getteth thanks to God for his wonderfull deliuerance, in whose mercies hee trusteth euen in the midst of miserie: prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrariwise happinesse to all them that trust in the Lord. 1. Samuel. 3.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

O God my God I warch betime,
to come to thee in hast:
For why? my soule and bodie both,
do thirst of thee to tast.
2 And in this baraine wilderness,
where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.
3 That I might see yet once againe, thy glory, strength and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
within thy temple bright.
4 For why thy mercies faere surmount,
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall giue to thee,
due honour, laud and prayse.
5 And whilste I liue, I will not faile,
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my handes when I do pray.
6 My soule is fild as with marrow,
which is both fatte and sweeter:
My mouth therefore shall sing thy songs,
as are for thee most meete.
7 When as in bed I thinke on thee,
and eke all the night ride:
For vnder couert of thy winges,
thou art my layfull guide.

- 8 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seeke my soule to destroy,
them death shall soone devour.
- 10 The sword shall them delioure each one their carnalles shall feede
The hungrye fores which do runne, their pray to seeke at neede.
- 11 The king and all men shall reioyce,
that do professe Gods word:
For lyers mouthes shall then be stoppt,
which haue the truelye disturbd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxiii. I. H.

David prayeth agaynst the false reprochers & slandersers, he declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. psalme.

- O Lord but on my voice giue eare, with plaintes when I do pray:
And rid my life and soule from dread,
of foes that threaten to slay.
- 2 Defend me from that sort of men,
which in detraites do lurke:
And from the trowning face of them,
that all ill feates do worke.
- 3 Who whet their conynges as we haue seen men whet and sharpe their swordes
They shoote abroad their arrowes hene
I meane most bitter wordes.
- 4 With pryuy sleight shote they their shaftes
to the byright man to hit:
The iust beware to hit by craft,
they care of feare no whit.
- 5 A wicked worke they haue deceeide,
in counsell thus they crye:
To vse deceite let vs not deade.
what? who can it espye?
- 6 What waies to hurt they talke & muse,
all times within their hart:
They all consult what feates to vse,
each doth inuent his part.
- 7 But yet all this shall not awaile,
when they thinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall sure assaile,
and wound them euery one. (withall,
- 8 Their craft and their ill conynges shall worke them felmes such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
- 9 Then all that see shall knowe right well that God the thing hath wrought:
And prayse his werrye workes, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
- 10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with ioynde and boyce,
whose hart is pure and right.

Te decet himnus. Psal. Lxv. I. H.

It thanksgyuing vnto God by the saythfull, who are signified by Zion, and Ierusalem, for the thosing, preferuation, and gouernance of them, and for the abundant blessings poured forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. psalme.

Their bowes to thee they do maintaine,

2 For that thou doest their prayer heare,
and doest thereto agree:
Thy people all both farre and neare,
with trust shall come to thee.
- 3 Our wicked lyfe so farre exceeides, that we should fall therein
But Lord for geue our great misdoings, and purge vs from our sinne.
- 4 The man is blest whom thou doest chuse,
within thy Courtes to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall vse,
with pleasures that excell.
- 5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of the doth life:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coastes likewise.
- 6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou makest the mountaines strong and

- 7 The swelling seas thou doest asswage, and make their streames full still:
Thou doest reftayne the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
- 8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth,

Which mozne & eueryng in great myrth,

- 9 When that the earth is chapt and drye,
and thristeth moze and moze:
Then with thy drops thou doest apply,
and much increase her store.
- 10 The floud of God doth ouerflow,

The felde and corne which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
- 11 With wet thou doest her furrowes fill,
whereby her clouds do fall:
Thy drops on her thou doest distill,
and blesse her fruite withall.
- 12 Thou bestest the earth of thy god grace,
with saye and pleasaunt crop:
Thy cloudes distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop.
- 13 Whereby the desert shall begyn, full great increase to bring:
The little hilles shall ioy therein,
much fruite in them shall spring.
- 14 In places playne the flocks shall fede,
and couer all the earth:
The ballyes with corne shall so excede, that men shall sing for myrth.

Iubilate Deo. psal. Lxvi. T.S.

He exhorteth to prayse the Lord, in his wonderful works. He setteth forth the power of God to assaye rebelles, and sheweth gods mercy to Irael, to prouoke all men to heare, and prayse his name.

Sing this as the 68. psalme.

- Y Es men on earth in God reioyce, with prayse set forth his name:
Extoll his might with hart and boyce,
geue glory to the same.
- 3 How wonderful O Lord say ye,
in all thy workes thou art:
Thy foes for feare do seeke to thee,

all for against their hart.

11 Amen that dwell the earth through-do praise the name of God: (out,
The laud thereof the world about,
is shewed and set abroad.
12 All folk e come forth behold and see,
wharthinges the Lord hath wrought: Hearke well the wondrous workes, that he for man to passe hath brought.

13 He layd the sea like heapes on byc, therein a way they had:
On foote to passe both saye and dry,
wherof their hartes were glad.
14 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all thinges behold:
As such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.

15 Ye people gene vnto our God,
due laud and thankes alwayes:
With topfull voyce declare his load,
and sing vnto his prayse.
16 Which doth entue our soule with life,
and it preserve withall:
He stayeth our feete so that no strife,
can make vs slip or fall.

17 The Lord doth proue our iudges with if that they will abide: (sirs,
As workemen do when they desire:
to haue their metalls tryde.
18 Although thou suffer vs to long,
in prison to be cast:
And their with chaynes & fetters strong,
to lye in bondage fast.

The second part.

19 Although I say thou suffer men,
on vs to ride and raigne:
Though we through fire and water runne,
of very griefe and payne.
20 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace, dispose it to the best:
And bring vs out into a place,
to liue in wealth and rest.

21 Vnto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my selfe apply,
my bowes to thee to pay.
22 The bowes that were in my mouth I in all my griefe and smart: (spake,
The bowes I say which I did make,
in dolour of my hart.

23 Burnt offerings I will gene to thee,
of Oxen fat and Hammes:
None other sacrifice shall be,
of Bulloches, Goates, and Lambes.
24 Come forth, & harken here full soone,
all ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

25 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my roring make speeke apace,
to prayse him by and by.

26 But if I seele my hart withiu,
in wicked workes retoyce:
O if I haue delihte to sinne,
God will not heare my voyce.

19 But surely Sod my boye hath heard and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and graunteth my desire.
20 All prayse to him that hath not put,
nor call me out of mynde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do neuer finde.

Deus miferatur. Plal. Lxvii. H. I.
Sweet prayer for all the sayethall to obtayne the fauour of god, and to be lightened with his countenance, to the end that his way and iudgements may be knowne throughout the earth. Retoycing that god is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

HAue mercy on vs Lord,
and graunt to vs thy grace:
To shew to vs do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know,
the way to godly wealthe:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saynyng healty.

3 Let all the world O God,
giue prayse vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world is wide,
let all retoyce with myght:
For thou with cruety and right, dost guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
giue prayse vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth encrease, great store of fruite shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace, shall blesse vs eke with all.

7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both farre and neare:
The folke throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus, Plal. Lxviii T. S.

Dauid expresteth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all meanes and most straunge voyces declareth himselfe to them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promises, grace and victories doth excell all worldly things, wher-foze all men are moued to prayse God for: euer.

Et God arise, and then his foes will turne themselves to flight: thys enemies then wil run abroas and scatter out of sight. . And as the fire doth melt the waxe, and wind blowes smoke away: So in the presence of the Lord, the wicked shall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall hartely reioyce:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearefull in their voyce.
4 Sing praise, sing praise vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the skye:
Extoll this name of Jah our God,
and hymn do magnifie.

5 That same is he that is aboue,
within his holy place:
That father is of fatherlesse,
and iudge of widowes case.
6 Woules he genes and issue both,
vnto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thral,
and rebels to distresse.

7 When thou didst march before thy folke
the Egyptians from among:
And brougth them through the wilderness,
that was both wide & long. (downe, 8 The earth did quake, the rayne poud heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai shooke in such sort,
as it would cleane in kinder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rayne, abundantly was waight:
And if so be it barraine warr,
by the it was reftreight.
10 Thy chosen flocke doth there remaine,
thou hast prepard that place:
And for the poore thou doest prouide,
of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

11 God will gene women childes iust,
to magnifie his name:
When as his people triumphes make,
and purchase buyre and fame.
12 And puissant kynges for all their power, shall flye and take the foyle:
And women which remaine at home,
shall helpe to part the foyle.

13 And though ye were as blache as pots your hue shall passe the Dowe:
Whose winges and feathers seme to haue,
siluer and gold aboue.
14 When in this land God shall triumph
ouer kynges both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in heighe others passe:
Yet Zion Gods most holy hill, doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leape for pride together?
This hill of Zion God doth loue,
and there will dwell for euer.

17 Gods army is two millions, of warriours god and strong:

The Lord also in Sinai,
is present them among.
18 Thou didst O Lord ascend on high,
and captiues led them all:
Which in tymes past thy chosen flocke,
in prison kept and thral.

Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine:
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell,
in thy temple deuine.
19 Now prayed be the Lord, for that he poureth on vs such grace:
From day to day he is the God,
of our healtch and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone,
saluation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom I leape,
all dangers, death and payne.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies and beake the heary scalpe: (head,
Of those that in their wickednesse,
continually do walke.
22 From Basan will I bring sayd he,
my people and my shepe:
And all mine owne as I haue done,
from daunger of the depe.
23 And make them dippe their feete in of those that hate my name: (bloud,
And dogs that haue their tongues embryde with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou O God, thine enemies doest besace:
And how thou goest as God and king,
into thine holy place.
25 The singers go before with toy,
the minstres follow after:
And in the middt the damels play,
with Tambrell and with Taber.

26 Now in the congregations,
(O Israell) prayse the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posteritie,
gene thanks with one accord.
27 Their chiefe was Iude Benjamin,
but Iuda made their host:
With Zabulon and Neptalim, which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath giuen power to the,
so Lord make firme and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.
29 And in thy temple gistes will we,
gene vnto the O Lord:
For thine vnto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

30 Yea & strange kynges to vs subdue, shall do like in those dayes:
I meane to the they shall present,
their gistes of land and prayse.
He shall bestroy the shearemans ranches,
the Calues and Bulles of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as loue to agyt.
31 Then shall the Lordes of Egypt come, and presence with them bring: The

The Wholes most blacke shall stretch their vnto their Lord and King. (hands 2 Therefoze ye kingdomes of the earth,
 gise praise vnto the Lord:
 Sing psalmes to God with one consent,
 therero let all act; d.

33 Who though he ride and erie hart,
 aboue the heauens bright:
 Yet by the fearefull thunderclaps, men may well know his might.

34 Therefoze the strength of Israel,
 ascribe to God on high:
 Whole earth and power doth far extend about the cloudy skye.

35 O God, thy holinesse and power,
 is dead for euermore:
 The God of Israel giues vs strength,
 prayled be God therefoze.

Saluum me fac. psal. Lxix. I. H.

Christ and his elect is figured in Danids zeale and anguish: the malicious cruelty of whose enemies and their punishment, Judas and such fearour:
 norcy, who are accused. Then gathereth he cour-rage in afflictions & offereth prayles to God, which are more acceptable then all sacrifices. Finally he doth prouoke all creatures to pietyes, prospering of the kingdome of Christ and building of Jus-ta where all the faithfull and their seede shall dwell for ever.

Anc me O God, and that with speede, the waters flow full fast: So mye my soule doe they proceede, that I am soze agast. 2. I stick full deepe in slith and clay, whereas I feele no ground: I fall into such slouds I say, that I am lyke be drownd.

3 With crying off I saynt and quayle,
 my throte is hoarse and drye:
 With looking by my sight doth fayle,
 for helpe to God on high.

4 My foes that guilelesse do oppresse my soule, with hate are led:
 In number sure they are no lesse,
 then hayes are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they bere me soze,
 they prosper and are glad:
 They do compell me to refoze,
 the thynge I neuer had.

6 What I haue done for want of wit,

thou Lord all tymes canst tell:
 And all the faultes that I commit,
 to the are knowne full well.

7 O God of hostes defend and say,
 all those that trust in thee:
 Let no man doubt of thynke away,
 for oughte that chaunceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake, that I doe beare this blame:
 In spite of thee they would me make,
 to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers sonnes my brethren all,
 forsake me on a row:
 And as a stranger they me call,
 my face they will not know.

10 Wnto thy house such zeale I beare, that it tech pine me much:
 Their cheeke and taunted at thee to heare
 my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.
 11 Though I doe fall my flesh to chaffe,
 yea if I weepe and inone:
 Yet in my teeth this geare is cast,
 they passe nor thereupon.

12 If I for griefe and payne of heart,
 in sackcloth ble to walke:
 Then they anon will it peruert, thereof they tell and talke.

13 Both bye and low, and all the thron,
 that sit within the gate:
 They haue me euer in theyr tongue,
 of me they talke and prate.

14 The Dribhards which in wine delight,
 it is their chiefe pastime:
 To seeke which waye to worke me spite,
 of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while O Lord I pray, that when it pleaseth thee:
 For thy great trith thou wilt alway,
 send downe thine ayde to me.

16 Wluche thou my feete out of the mire
 from drowning doe me keepe:
 From such as owe me wrath and ire,
 and from the water deepe.

17 Least with þ waues I should be drownd
 and depth my soule deuour:
 And that the pit should me confound,
 and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hostes, to me geue care,
 as thou art god and kinde:
 And as thy mercy is most deare,
 Lord haue me in thy mynde.

19 And do not from thy seruauit hide,
 nor turne thy face away.
 I am opprest on euery side,
 with hast geue care I say.

20 O Lord wnto my soule draw nigh,
 the same wth ayde repose:
 Because of their great ryanmy,
 acquite me from my foes.

The third part.
 21 That I asbe rebuke and shame, thou knowest and thou canst tell:
 For those that seeke and worke the same,
 thou sett them all full well.

22 When they with brags do breake my
I seeke for helpe anon: (hart)
But finde no frendes to ease my smart, to comfort me not one.

23 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
too cruell for to thinke:
And gaue me in my thyrst withall, strong vineger to drinke.

24 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their backe, and do them bind
in thraldome for to be.

26 Doure out thy wrath as hote as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.

27 As desert dry theyr house disgrace,
their offspringes eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tentes doe dwell.

28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lye full fore:
And if that thou doe wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.

29 Then let them heape by mischief all,
sith they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will,
they neuer haue a part.

30 And race them cleane out of the booke
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they neuer looke,
in number of the iust.

The fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with woe and grieffe
haue bene full sore opprest:
Thy helpe shall geue me such reliefe,
that all shall be redrest.

32 That I may geue thy name the prayse,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes,
with hartie thankes among.

33 Which is more pleasaunt vnto thee,
such minde thy grace hath borne:
Then eyther Ore. or Calfe can be that hath both hoofe and horne.

34 When simple folke doe this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
All ye that take the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hostes doth hate the pooze when they complayne:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them nor dispayne.

36 Wherefore the hysre and earth below,
the sea with floud and streame,
His praysethey shall declare and shew with all that liue in them.

37 For sure our God will Sion saue, and Iudaes Citie build:
Such folke the possession there shall haue,
her streetes shall all be filld.

38 His seruantes seebe shall keepe the all ages out of minde: (same)
And there all they that loue his name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiuto. Psal. Lxx. I. H.

The prayeth to be right speedely deliuered, his enemies to be ashamed, and all that seeke the Lordes to be comforted.

Sing this as the 72. psalme.

O God to me take heede,
of helpe I thee require:

O Lord of hostes with hast make speede, helpe, helpe, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wishe me ill.

3 Confound them that apply,
and seeke to worke me shame:
And at my harme doe laugh and cry,
so, so, there goeth the game.

4 But let them ioyfull be,
in thee with loy and wealth:
Which onely trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy sauing health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mythe and sue accord:
All glory, honoz, laud, and prayse,
be geuen to thee (O Lord.)

6 But I am weake and pooze, come Lord thine ayde I lacke:
Thou art my say and helpe, therefore make speede and be not slacke.

In te Domine. Psal. Lxxi. I. H.

The prayeth in sayth established by promise, and caree freed from the woche of God from his youth, to be deliuered from his wicked and cruell sonne Abaddon, with his confederat, promising to be thanks full therefore.

Sing this as the 69. psalme.

M^y Lord my God, in all distresse
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppresse,
nor once take holde on me.

2 As thou art iust, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dredd:
Beue care and to my sute accord,
and send me helpe at neede.

3 Be thou my rocke, to whome I may,
for ayde all tymes resort:
Thy promise is to helpe alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

4 Saue me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folke binunt, and eke from them,
that cruelly deuour.

5 Thou art the say wherein I trust, thou Lord of hostes art he:
Yea from my youth I had a iust,
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept eue from my byrth, and I through thee was borne, Wherefore I will thee prayse with mythe,
both euening and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldeome seene,
much folke about me thron:
But thou art now and still hast bene,

my fence and ayde so strong.
 8 Wherefoze my mouth no time shal lacke,
 thy glory and thy prayse:
 And eke my tongue shall not be slacke,
 to honoz thee alwayes.
 9 Refuse me not O Lord I say,
 when age my limmes doth take,
 And when my strength doth wasse away,
 doe not my soule forsake.
 10 Among themselues my foes enquire,
 to take me through deceite:
 And they agaynst me do conspire,
 that for my soule layd wayre.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they sayd,
 for God from him is gone:
 Dispatch him quite for to his ayde,
 I wis there cometh none.
 12 Do not absent thy selfe away,
 O Lord when neede shall be:
 But that in tyme of griefe thou may,
 in hast geue helpe to me.
 13 With shame confound and owerthrow,
 all those that seeke my life:
 Oppresse them with rebuke also,
 that sayne would worke me strife.
 14 But I will patiently abide,
 thy helpe at all assayes:
 Still more and more ech tyme and tyde,
 I will set forth thy prayse.
 15 My mouth thy iustice shall record,
 that dayly helpe doth lend:
 But of thy benefites O Lord,
 I know no count nor end.
 16 Yet will I go and seeke forth one,
 with thy good helpe O God:
 The sauyng health of the alone,
 es Hew and let abroad.

The third part.

17 For of my youth thou takest the care, and doest instruct me still:
 Therefore thy wonders to declare,
 I haue great mynde and will.
 18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didst me keepe and stay:
 For sake me not vnto myne age,
 and till my head be gray.
 19 That I thy strength & might may shew,
 to them that now be here:
 And that our selds thy power may know,
 hereafter many a yere.
 20 O Lord thy iustice doth excede, thy daynges all may see:
 Thy workes are wonderfull in daede,
 oh, who is like to the?
 21 Thou madest me fele afflictions soze,
 and yet thou didst me saue:
 Yea thou didst helpe and me restore,
 and tokest me from the graue.
 22 And thou myne honour doest increase,
 my dignitie maintayne:
 Yea thou doest make all strife to cease,
 and comfortest me agayne.
 23 Therefore thy saythfulnesse to prayse,
 I will both Lute and sing:
 My harpe shall sound thy laud alwayes,
 O Israels holy king.

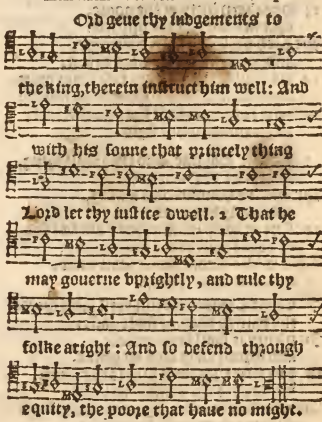

24 My mouth shall toy with pleasure
 when I shall sing to thee: (voice,
 And eke my soule shall much reioyce,
 for thou hast made me free.

25 My tanguie thy brightness shall and speake it dayly still: (sound,
 For griefe and shame do them confound,
 that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. LXXII. I.H.
 Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Salomon vnder whose shall be righteousnes, peace and felicity, vnto whome all kinges and nations shall do homage, whose name & power shall endure for ever.

Old geue thy iudgements to the king, therein instruct him well: And with his sonne that princely thing Lord let thy iustice dwell. That he may gouerne brightnessly, and rule thy folke aright: And so defend through equity, the poore that haue no might.

And let the mountaynes that are high,
 vnto their folke geue peace:
 And eke let little hilles apply,
 in iustice to encrease.
 4 That he may helpe the weake & poore, with ayde and make them strong:
 And eke destroy for euermore,
 all those that doe them wrong.
 5 And euen from age to age shall they, regard and feare thy might:
 So long as Sunne doth shine by day,
 or els the Moone by night.
 6 Lord make the king vnto the iust,
 like rayne to feedes new mowne:
 And like to drops that lay the dust,
 and fresh the land new sowne.
 7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
 and all shall be at peace:
 Vntill the Moone shall leaue to yme, wasse, change, and to increase.
 8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
 from those to here throughout:
 And from the fountes within the land,
 through all the earth about.
 9 The people that in desert dwell, shall kneele to him full thicke:

And all his enemies that rebell,
The earth and dust shall like.
10 The Lords of all the world,
great gifts to him shall bring.
The Kinges of Saba, and Arabia, gave many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All things shall seeke with one accord,
in his good graces to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serve him at his hand.
12 For he the neede for doth saue,
that vnto him doe call:
And eke the simple folke that haue,
no helpe of man at all.

13 He taketh pity of the poore,
that are with neede opprest:
He doth prefer the euermore,
and bringeth the simple to rest.
14 He shall Rede the life from deat from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blond that they shall bleede,
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall giue, and they shall bring,
to him of Sabacs gold:
He shall be honoured as a King,
and dayly be extold.

16 The mighty mountaynes of his land,
of corne shall beare such throng:
That it like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Citties eke full shall speede
the fruites thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall farre exceede,
and spring as greene as grasse.

18 For euer they shall prayse his name,
while that the Sunne is light:
And thinke them happy through the same all folke shall blesse his might.

19 Praise ye the Lord of hostes and sing to Israels God echone:
For he doth euer wondrous thing,
yea he himselfe alone.

20 And blessed be his holy name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may prayse the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus, P sal. Lxxij. T. S.

¶ Dauti teacheth that neither the prosperitie of the ungodly, nor the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods Children, but rather induce them to consider Gods providence, and to reuerence his instruments, for that the wicked vanishe away like smoke, and the godly enter into life eternall like, in hope wherof he resigneth himselfe to Gods handes.

Sing this as the 44. Psalm.

How euer it be yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel:
And to all such as safely keepe,
their conscience pure and welk 1 yet like a foole I almost slip,
my feete began to slide:
And ere I wist euen at a pinche,
my steps away gan glide.

For when I saw such foolish men,

I grudged, and did disdayne:
That wicked men all things should haue without turne of payne.
4 They neuer suffer panges nor grieft,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.

And free from all aduersitie,
when other men be thent:
And with the rest they take no part of plagie or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace,
their neckes as doth a chaine:
And are euen waite as in a robe,
with rapin and disdayne.

7 They are so fed, that euen for fat,
their eyes oft tyme out start:
And as for worldly goodes, they haue more then can with their hart.
8 Their life is most licentious, boastlyng much of the wrong:
Which they haue done to simple men,
and euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the liuing Lord,
they spare nor to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly thynges,
as wight they do esteeme.
10 The people of God oft tymes turne to see their prosperitie state: (backe,
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same cate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they,
should know of vnderstand
These worldly thynges, since worldly men, be Lordes of sea and land.

12 For we may see how wicked men,
in riches still increase:
Rewarded well with worldly goodes,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why doe I from wickednesse,
my fantasie refrayne:
And walk my handes with innocences,
and cleanse my hart in baynes?
14 And suffer scourges euer day,
as subject to all blame:
And euer mourning from my youth,
suffrayne rebuke and shame.

15 And I had almost sayd as they,
in thinking myne estate:
But that I should thy children iudge,
as folke vnforsunate.

16 Then I berought me how I might
this matter vnderstand:
But yet the labour was too great,
for me to take in hand.

17 Vntill the tyme I went vnto thy holy place, and then:
I vnderstood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.
18 And namely how thou settest them,
vpon a Slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou dost them all deface.

19 Thou al men must at that strange sight,

to see how sodenly:

They are destroyed, dispatched, consumed,
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight,
shall ebbe and passe away.
The third part.
21 Yet thus my hart was grieved then,
my minde was much opprest:
22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beast.
23 Yet neuer the lesse by my right hand,
thou holdst me alwayes fast:
24 And with thy counsell dost me guide to glory at the last;

25 What thing is there that I can wish but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing,
like thee that I can love.
26 My flesh and my heart both faile,
but God dost keepe me neuer:
For of my heart is the strength,
my portion, the Lord ever.
27 And loe all such as thee forsake,
thou shalt destroy eachone:
And those that trust in any thing,
saying in thee alone.
28 Therefore will I draw neare to God,
and euer with him dwell:
30 In God alone I put my trust,
his wonders will I tell.

Vt quid Deus. Psal. Lxxiii. I. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the Church and true religion, vnder the name of Zion & the altars destroyed. But trusting in the might & free mercies of God, by his conuauant, requiring helpe and succour to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruantes, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72. psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this daunger deepe?
Why dost thine anger kindle thus,
at thine owne pasture deepe?
2 Lord call the people to thy thought,
which haue bene thine so long:
The which thou hast redeemed and brought from bondage sore and strong.
3 Heare minde I say, and thinke vpon,
remember it full well:
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift vp thy foote and come in hast,
and all thy foes desace:
Which now at pleasure rob and wast,
within thy holy place.
5 And thy congregations all,
thine enemies toare O God:
They let as signes on euery wall,
their banners spilde abroad.
6 As men with axes hew downe trees,
that on the hilles do grow:
So mine eye bittes and swoydes of thee,
within thy temple now.
7 The selking sawed, the carued boordes,
the goodly graven stones:
With axes, hammers, files and swoydes,

they beate them downe at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile:
The house appointed to thy name,
they rase downe to the soile.
9 And thus they saide within their heart dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they by in euery place
Gods houses through the land.
10 Yet thou no signe of helpe dost send our Prophets all are gone:
To tell when thys our plague shall end,
among vs there is none.
11 When wilt thou Lord once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (Hams) Shall they alway blaspheme thy name and ralle on thee so long:
12 Why dost with thine right hand abacke,
and hide it to thy sight?
O plucke it out and beate slacke,
to giue thy foes a spite.
The second Part
13 O Lord when art my King and Lord, and when shall I haue beene:
Feat thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath seene:
14 The seas that art so deepe and dead,
thy might doe make them dry:
And thou didst breake the serpens head,
that he therein did dye.

15 Feat thou didst brake the heades so great of whales that are so fell:
And gauest them to the folke to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.
16 Thou madest a spring with streames to flow from rock both hard and hie: (rise)
And eke thy hand hath made likewise,
deepe riuers to be drye.
17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou seest to serue vs with thine shine,
the light and eke the sunne.
18 Thou dost appoint the ends and coasts of all the earth about:
Both sommer heats and winter frogs,
thy hand hath found them out.
19 Think on O Lord, no time forges thy foes that thee desame:
And how the foolish folke are set,
to ralle vpon thy name.
20 O let no cruel beast deuour,
thy Turtle that is true:
Forget not alwaies in thy power,
the poore that much doe rue.
21 Regard thy conuauant and behold,
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and darke, for euery one old,
our Realme as now doth stand.
22 Let not the simple goe away,
with disappointed names:
But let the poore and needy eye,
giue praise vnto thy name.
23 Rise Lord, let bee by thee mans sinne,
the cause that is thine owne:
Remember how that thou blasphemers
art by the foolish one.

24 The voyce forget not of thy foes,
for the presuming bye:
As moze and moze increast of those,
that hate the spitefully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. N.

Come the faithful prayse the Lord who shall come to iudge at his tyme, when the wicked shall drinke the cuppe of his wrath. But the righteous shall be spaled to honoz.

Sing this as the 44. psalme.

Vnto the God we will geue thanks,
we will geue thanks to thee:

Sith thy name is so neare, declare thy wondrous workes will we.

I will brightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may:

The earth is weak and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:

And vnto the vngodly ones,
set not your hornes so hye.

I cast vnto them set not by,
your rayfed hornes so hye.

And see that you do with iuste necke,
not speake presumptuously.

For neither from the Taberne portes,
nor from the Westerne dore:

Nor from forsaken wilderness, protection doth pseece.

For why? the Lord our God he is,
the righteous iudge alone:

He putteth downe the one, and setts an other in the throne.

For why? a cup of mighty wine,
is in the hand of God:

And all the mighty wine therein,
himselfe doth poure abroad.

As for the lees and filthy dregs, that do remaine of it:

The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and suske them euery whit.

But I will talke of God I say,
of Jacobs God therfore:

And will not cease to celebrate,
his prayse for evermore.

In lumber breake the hornes of all vngodly men will I:

But then the hornes of righteous men,
shall be exalted hye.

Gloria patri.

To father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therfore:

As in beginning was, is now
and shall be evermore.

In Iudca. Psal. Lxxvi. I. H.

There is described the power of God a care for the defence of his people by the destruction of Senas charbes army, for which the faithful are exhortet to be thankfull.

Sing this as the 66. Psalme.

To all that now in Iury dwell
the Lord is clearly knowne

His name is great in Israel, a people of his owne.

As Salem he his tents hath pight
to carrie there a space:

In Sion he he hath delight,
to make his dwelling place:

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the speare and shield:

And brake the eye to ouerthrow
in battell on the field.

4 Thou art moze worthy honoz Lord
moze might in thee doth lie:

Then in the strongest of the world that rob on mountaines he.

5 But now the proud are spoyld through and they are fallen on sleepe:

Through men of warre no helpe can be,
themselves they could not keepe.

6 At thy rebuke O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:

As halfe a sleepe their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord in deede, what man the courage hath

To bide thy sight, and doth not dread,
when thou art in thy wrath?

8 When I dost make thy iudgements heard from heauen through the ground:

Then all the earth full of afeard,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand,
in iudgement for to speake:

To saue the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth rage,
shall turne vnto thy prayse:

Hereafter Lord do thou restraine their wrath and thyrates alwayes.

Make bowes and pay them to your God
ye folke that nigh him be:

Bring giftes all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might,
from princes great of byath:

And full of terror is his sight
to all the kinges on earth.

Voce mea ad. Psal. Lxxvii. I. H.

David rehearseth his great afflictions a grievous temptations, whereby he is priten to consider his former conuersation, a the conde of Gods workes in the preferation of his seruantes, and so he chs firmeth his faith agaynst these temptations.

With my voyce to God doe cry, with harre and harty cheare: My voyce to God I like on hye: and he my fate doth heare. In tyme of grieue I laught to God, by night no rest I took: But I receyvt my hart des to him abroad.

abroad, my soule comfort for soke.

When I to thinke on God intend,
my trouble then is moode,
I spake but could not make an end,
my heare was stoppt to soze.
4 Thou holdest mine eyes alwaies fro rest,
that I there with awake:
With feare am I to soze opprest,
my speach doth me forsaie.

5 The dayes of old in minde I call,
and oft did thinke vpon:
The times and ages that are past,
full many yeares agone.

6 By night my songes I call to minde,
once made thy prayse to shew:
And with my heart much talke I finde,
my spirites do searely to know.

7 Will God said I at once for all,
cast off his people thow?
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly vnto vs?

8 What is his goodnes cleane decayde,
for euer and a day?
9 Is his promise now delatde,
and doth his truty decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget,
his mercies manifold:
O shall his wrath encrease to hate,
his mercie to withhold?

10 At last I saide my weakenes is the cause of this mistrust.
Gods mightie hand can helpe all this,
and change it when he lust.
The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon,
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his workes I will declare,
and what he did deuis:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsaile wise.

13 Thy workes O Lord are all bright, and holie all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that oft dost shew,
thy wonders euerie houre:
And dost make thy people know,
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine owne folke thou dost defend with strength and stretched arme:
The sonnes of Jacob that descend,
and Iosephs seed from harme.

16 The waters Lord perceiued thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for feare a side did see,
the deptyes on trembling fell.

The clouds that were both thicke & blacke
did come full plentyfusly?
The thunder in the aire did cracke,
thy shafts abroad did fly:

17 Thy thunder on the earth was heard,
the lightnings from aboue:
18 With flashes great made them afearde,
the earth did quake and moue.
19 Thy waves within the sea doe lye,
thy pathes in waters deepe:
Yet none can there thy keps espy,
nor know thy pathes to keepe.
20 Thou ledest thy folke vpon the land,
as shepe on euerie side:
Through Aegyptes & through Aarens hand,
thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. psal. Lxxviii. T. S.

Here smeth how God of his mercy chose his Church of the posteritie of Abraham, calling in their reeth
the rebellion of their fathers, their their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be abas men of their peruerse sinnestes. The holy ghost hath comprehended, as it were the summe of all Gods benefites, that the grosse people might in few wordes the effect of the whole historie.

Attend my people to my lawe, and to my words incline. My mouth shall speake strange parables, and senten ces deuine, Which we ourselues haue heard and leard, euer of our fathers

olde: And which to our instruction,

our fathers haue vs to te.

4 Because we should not keepe it close,
from them that should come after Who should Gods power to their race and all his workes of wonder. (praise)

5 To Jacob he commaundement gaue,
how Israel should line:
Willing our fathers should the same,
vnto their children giue.

6 That they and their posteritie, which were not strong by tho:
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their feede also.

7 That they may haue the better hope,
in God that is aboue:
And not forget to keep his lawes,
and his ppecepts in loue.

8 Not being as our fathers were,
rebellin in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts,
to know the God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim,
their neighbours for to spoile:
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they tooke the spoile?

10 For why? they did not keepe with God
the covenant that was made:

For yet would walke or lead their lines,
according to his trade.

11 But put into oblivion,
his counsell and his will:
And all his workes most magnifike, which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders our forefathers,
did he him selfe disclose:

In Egypt land within the field,
that called is Chanos?

13 He did deuise and cut the sea,
that they might passe as once:
And made the waters stand as still,
as doth an heape of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud,
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderness and gaue the people drinke:
As plentifull as when the deapest,
doe flow by to the brinke.

16 He dyed out riuers out of rocks,
that were both drye and hard:
Of such abundance, that no fouds
to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this against the Lord, their sinne they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high,
to wrath in wilderness.

They tempted him within their hartes
like a people of mistrust:

Requiring such a kind of meat,
as serued to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuratton,
in their vnfaithfullnesse:
What? can this God prepare for vs,
a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold, he brake the stonie rocks,
and fouds forthwith did flow:
But can he now giue to his folke,
both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this he waxed wroth,
with Iacob and his seede:
So did his indignation,
on Israell procede.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully, belene and hope, that he Could alwayes helpe and succour them,
in their necessitie.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in funder:

24 And raynd downe Quina for them to eat,
a fode of mickle wonder.

25 When earthly men wish angels fode were sed at the request:

26 He bad the East winde blow away,
and broughte in the South west.

27 And raynd downe helly as thicke as dew and saule as thicke as sand:

28 Which he did cast amidd the place, where all the tentes did stand.

29 Then did they eate exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:

Yet more and more they did desire,
to serue their lust and willes.

30 But as flesh was in their mouthes his wrath upon them fell:

31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choyle of Israell.

32 Yet fell they to their wretched sinne,
and still they did him greeue:

For all the wonders that he wroughte,
they would him not beleue.

33 Their dayes therefore he wrothened,
and made their honoꝝ bayne:

Their yeares did wast and passe away,
with terrors and with payne.

34 But euer when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by.

Remembryng then he was their strength,
their helpe and God most hye.

35 Though in their mouthes they did but and flatter with the Lord: (glose,
And with their tongues and in their hartes, dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

36 For why? their hartes were nothing to him nor to his trade: (uent,

For yet to keepe, or to perfoꝝme
the couenaunt that was made.

37 Yet was he still so mercie full,
when they desired to dye:

That he forgane them their misdeedes,
and would not them destroy.

38 Yea many a tyme he turned his wrath,
and did him selfe aduise:

And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.

39 Considering that they were but fleshy,
and euen as a winde:

That at passeth away, and cannot well
returne by his owne kinde.

40 How often tymes in wilderness,
did they their Lord prouoke?

How did they moue and stirre the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke?

41 Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
and tempted God eisthoone:

Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would haue done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he:

Delivered them out of the handes,
of the heere enemy.

43 For how he wrought his miracles,
as they themselves beheld:

In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zaan field.

44 For how he returned by his power,
their waters into blood:

That no man might receiue his drinke
at riuers nor at foud.

45 For how he sent them (swarmes of flies which

which did them seize annoy:
And did their country full of frogs,
which should their land destroy.

The fit part.

46 No; how he did commit their fruites,
vnto the Caterpillar:
And all the laboz of their handes,
he gaue to the Grashopper.
47 With hailestones he destroyed theire
so that they were all lost. (vines)
And not so much as wilde figge trees, but he consumed with frost.
48 And yet with hailestones once againe,
the Lord their cattell smote:
And all their flockes and heardees likewise,
with thunderboltes full hote.
49 He cast vpon them in his ire,
and in his fure strong:
Displeasure, wrath, and euil spirittes,
to trouble them among.
50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.
51 He strake also the first borne all,
that by in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beastes,
with in the tentes of Ham.

52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did pferue and keepe:
And carried them through wilbernesse,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.
53 Without all feare both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thall:
Wher eas their foes with rage of sea,
were ouerwhelmed all.
54 And brought them out into the coastes
of his owne holy land:
Euen to the Mount which he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
and did their land diuide:
And in their tentes he set the tribes of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most high,
they sinned and tempted still:
And would not keepe his testament
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray:
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and shate away.

The sixt part.

58 And grieved him with their hill altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their Idols, behemently prouoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began agayne,
to kindle in his brest:
The naughtines of Israel,
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsooke the Tabernacle, of Silo where he was:
Right conuersant with carnally men,
euen as his dwelling place:
61 Then suffered he his might and power,
in bondage for to stand:
And gaue the honoz of his Akes,

into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
worsh with his heritage:
63 The young men were deuourd with fire
maydes had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the Widewes also,
did perishe euerie one:
And not a widow left a lone,
their death for to be none.
65 And then the Lord began to waite,
like one that slept a tyme:
And as a balaunte man of warre,
rested after wine.
66 With Emwoods in the hinder part,
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perperuall.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle,
of Ioseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda, wher eas he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Sion,
which he did loue so well.
69 Wher eas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made,
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
Which he tooke vp and brought away,
euen from the folds of sheepe.
71 As he did follow the Swes with young
the Lord did him aduance:
To feed his peop'le Israel,
and his int' crance.
72 Thus Dauid with a faithfull hart,
his flocke and charge did feed:
And prudently with all his power,
did gouerne them in deed.

Deus, uenerant. psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamity that they suffered when Antiochus destroyed their temple and City, desiring aide against his tyranny, lest God and religion should be contemned by heathen, who should see them forsaken and perishe.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

O Lord the Semites doe invade,
thyne heritage to spoile:
Ierusalem an heape is made,
thy temple thydebesoile, 1 The bodies of thy faintes most deare,
abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that doe thee feare,
the beasts deuour and wast.
3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as warespill they haue:
So that there is not one of them,
to lake their dead in grane.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stocke, almost the world throughout:
The enemies at vs test and mocke, which dwell our coastes about.

3 What thou O Lord thus in thine ire, againe.

which is our strength and say: We say,
full and lift by your voyce, to Jacobs God, I say, 2. Wherefore your instrumentes most meet, some to psall psalme to sing: Strike by with harp and lute to witte, on every pleasant string.

- 3 Blow as it were in the new Awone, with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done,
at any solemne feast.
- 4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.
- 5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed,
should still oblerue the same.
- 6 When God I say had thus prepar'd, to bring him from that land
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not understand.
- 7 I from his shoulders tooke (saith he)
the burthen cleane away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.
- 8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call,
I holpe thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall,
in thunder secretly.
- 9 Yea at the waters of disford,
I did thee tempt and prone:
Whereas the goodness of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst moue.
- 10 Heare O my folke, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleane to me.

The second part.

- 11 Thou shalt not God in thee reuerse of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise to bow of serue,
a strange or foraine God.
- 12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then arise of me abundantly,
and I will giue it thee.

- 13 And yet my people would not heare,
my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

- 14 Then did I leane them to their will,
in hardness of their heart:
To walke in their owne counsell still,
them selues they might peruert.
- 51 O that my people would haue heard,
the wordes that I did say:
Ande that Israel would regard,
to walke within my way.
- 16 How faine would I confound their foes
and bring them downe full low:
And turne my hand vpon all those,
that would them ouerthrow?
- 17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as flames should seeke him till:
But of his folke the time and age, should flourish euer still.
- 18 I would haue fed them with the crop,
and finest of the wheate:
And made the rocke with honey drop,
that they their fillies should eate.

Deus stetit. Psal. Lxxxii. I. II.

David declaring God to be present with Judges and Magistrates, reponeth their partiality, and vniuersitallnesse, and exhorteth them to doe iustice but seeing no amendment, hee desireth God to speake iustice himselfe.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

- A God the please with men of might,
the Lord himselfe doth stand:
To plead the cause of trueti and right,
with iudges of the land.
- 2 How long (saith he) will you proceede,
falle iudgement to awarde:
And haue respect for loue of meede,
the wicked to regard?
- Whereas of due you should defend,
the fatherlesse and weake:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in iudgement kindly speake.
- 4 If ye be wise defend the cause,
of poore men in their right:
And rid the neyby from the clauies,
of tyrants force and might.
- 5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vaine to them I talke:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darknesse walke.
- For loe euen now the time is come,
that all thinges fall to nought:
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for game are for and bought.
- I had decreed it in my sight,
is sworn to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for loue I did you call.
- 7 But nor withstanding ye shall dye
as men and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you quite away.
- 8 O Lord and let thy strength be knowne and iudge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thyne owne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quis similis. Psal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

The Jewe like the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies, both at home and far off: also that all such wicked people be stricken with his lightninge, that they may know his power.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

DO not O God reſtaine thy tongue,
in ſilence do not ſay:
Withhold not Lord thy ſelfe ſo long,
nor make no more delay.
2 For why? behold thy foes, and ſee
how they do rage and cry:
And thoſe that beate an hate to thee hold vp their heads on hye.
3 Againſt thy folke they uſe deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lye in wayte,
their counſell both conſpire.
4 Come on ſay they, let vs excell,
and plucke theſe folke away:
So that the name of Iſrael,
may bitterly decay.

5 They all conſpire within their hartes,
how they may thee withſtand:
Againſt the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and hand.
6 The tentes of all the Edomites,
the Iſmaelites alſo:
The Hagarens and Hababites, with diuers other moe.

7 Heball with Ammon, and likewiſe
doth Amaleke conſpire:
The Philiftines againſt the iſle,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Aſhur eke is well apard, with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and ayde,
to Lots poſterity.

9 As thou didſt to the Madianites, ſo letue them Lord e chone:
As to Sifer and to Iabin
beſide the brooke kiſon.
10 Whome thou in Endor didſt deſtroy, and waſt them through thy might:
That they like downe on earth did lye,
and that in open ſight.

The ſecond part.

11 Make them now and their Lordes ap-like Zeb and Ozeb than: (peas)
As Zaba and Zalmana were,
the kinges of Madian.
12 Which ſaid let vs throughout the land
in all the coaſtes abroad:
Poſſeſſe and take into our hand,
the ſayre houſes of God.

13 Turne them O God with ſtopres as faſt
as wheeles that haue no ſtay:
O like the chaffe which men do caſt,
with windes to flye away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty foxes ſpilles:
And as the flame doth quite conſume,
the mountanes and the hills.
15 And let the tempeſt of thy wrath,
vpon their neckes be layd:
So of thy ſtoy my wind and thower,
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Low bying them all I the deſire,
to ſuch rebuke and ſhame:
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learne to ſeeke thy name.

17 And let them euer more daily,
to ſhame and ſhaunder fall:
And in rebuke and obloquy,
to periſh eke withall.
18 That they may know and ſeele full well,
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doeſt excell,
and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Pſal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

David ciled his countrey, beſeteth arcently to returne to Gods tabernacle, & aſſembly of the ſaintes to praife God. Then hee praifeſſeth the courage of the people, that paſſe the wiſedome to aſſemble themſelues in Zion.

Sing this as the 67. psalme.

HOW pleaſant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoſtes to me?
The tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleaſant Lord they be?
2 My ſoule both long full ſoze to goe,
into thy courtes abroad:
My hart doth luſt my fleſh alſo,
in thee the liuing God.
3 The ſparrowes find a come to reſt,
and ſaue themſelues from wrong:
And eke the ſwallow hath a neſt,
whereto to kepe her yong.
4 Theſe birdes full nigh thine altar may,
haue place to ſit and ſing:
O Lord of hoſtes thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my king.
5 Oh they be bleſſed that may dwell,
within thy houſe alwayes:
For they all times thy ſayces do tell,
and euer geue thee praife.
6 Yea happy ſure likewiſe are they,
whole ſay and ſtrength thou art:
Which to thy houſe do mind the way,
and ſeeke thee in their hart.
7 As they go through the vale of teares,
they digge by fountaines ſtill:
That as a ſpring it all appeares,
and thou their pits doeſt fill.
8 From ſtrength to ſtrength they walke full no ſainctnes there ſhalbe: (caſt)
And ſo the God of Gods at laſt, in Zion they do ſee.

9 O Lord of hoſtes no geue heede,
and heare when I do pray:
And let it through thine eares proceede
O Jacobs God I ſay.
10 O Lord our ſhield of thy good grace, regard and ſo draw neere:
Regard I ſay, behold the face,
of thine annointed deere.
11 For why? within thy courtes one day,
is better to abide:
Then other where to kepe or ſay,
a thouſand dayes beſide.
12 Much rather would I kepe a doyle,
within the houſe of God:
Then in the tentes of wickednes,
to ſettle mine abode.
13 For God the Lord light and defence, will grace and worke in thee:
And no good thing ſhall be withhold,
from them that purely ſee.

14 O Lord of hostes that man is blest, and happy sure is he
That is persuaded in his best,
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti Do. psal. Lxxxv. I. H.

Because God withgrete not his ribs from his Church
after the returne from Babylon, first they put him in mynde that hee should not leaue the worke of his grace vnsperite, and complaine of their long affliction.
Then they reioice in hope of promised deliuerance, which was a figure of Christes kyngdome,
vnder which should be perfect felicitye.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

T Hou hast bene mercifull in deede,

O Lord vnto thy land:

For thou restoredst Jacobs seede,
from thraldome out of band.

2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:

And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coueredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:

And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God of health do now conuert,
thy people vnto thee:

Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to bee.

5 Why? shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceed on vs?

And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore,
and quicken vs, that we

And all thy folke may euermore, be glad and ioy in thee?

7 O Lord on vs do thou declare,
thy goodnesse to our wealthe:

Shew forth to vs, and do not spare,
thyne aide and saving health.

8 I will hearken what God saith, for he speakes to his people peate:

And to his Saintes, that neuer they returne to foolishnesse.

For why? his helpe is still at hand,
to such as do him feare:

Wherby great gloiy in the land, shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For trueth and mercy there shall meete,
in one to take their place:

And peace shall iustice with hisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As trueth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly:

So righteousnesse shall shew her face,
and looke from heauen high.

12 Yea God himselfe doth take in hand,
to giue vs each good thing:

And though the coastes of all the land,
the earth her fruites shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice goe, much like a guide or stay:

He shall direct his steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

Inclina Domine, Psal. Lxxxvi. I. H.

David sage afflicted, prayeth feruently for deliuerance:
sometimes rehearsing his miseries a meeres received, desiring also to be instructed of the Lord, that he may feare and glorify his name. He com-plaigneth also of his auersaries, and requireth to be deliuered from them.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

L Ord bow thine eare to my request,
and heare me by and by:

With grievous paine and griefe oppress,
full pooze and weake am I.

2 Plesene my soule, because my wayes and doings holy be:

And saue thy seruant O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy Lord on me expresse, defend me eke withall:

For though the day I do not cease,
on thee to crye and fall.

4 Comfort O Lord thy seruants soule, that now with paine is pinde:

For vnto thee Lord I extoll, and list my soule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free:

And eke thy mercy plentifull,
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray, regard and giue an care:

Marke well the wordes that I do say,
and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me mone,
to thee I do complaine:

For why? I know and well do proue, thou answerest me againe.

8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none,
with thee to be comparde:

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not bene heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame:

Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glouthe thy name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne:

Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy trueth proceede:

O loyne my heart to thee so nye,
that I thy name may dreade.

12 To thee my God will I giue prayse, with all my heart (O Lord):

And glorify thy name alwayes,
for euer through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shewed to me,
is great and both excell:

Thou hast my soule at libertie,
out from the lower hell:

14 O Lord the proud againt me rise, and heapes of men of might:

They seeke my soule and in no wise,
will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke, full slacke and slow to wrath:

Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke thy trueth no measure hath.

- 16 Turne to me and mercy graunt,
thy strength to me apply:
O helpe and saue thine owne seruant,
thy handmaides soune am I.
- 17 On me some signe of fauor shew,
that all my foes may see:
And be ashamed, because Lord thou,
dost helpe and comfort mee.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. Lxxxvii. I. H.

The holy ghoſt promiſeth that the Church, as yet in miſeric aſter the captiuitie of Babylon, ſhould be reſtor'd to great excellencie, ſo that nothing ſhould be more comfortable then to be numbred among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

That Cite ſhall full well endure,
her ground worke ſhall doth ſay:

Upon the holy hill full ſure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loues the gates of Sion beſt, his grace doth there abide:
He loues them more then all the reſt
of Jacobs tentes beſide.

3 Full glorious things reported be,
in Sion and abroad:
Great things I ſay are ſaide of thee,
thou Cite of our God.

4 On Rahab I will caſt an eye,
and beare in minde the ſame:
And Babylon ſhall eke apply,
and learne to know my name.

5 Loe Iouſtine and Tyre alſo, with Ethiopie likewise:
A people old full long agoe,
were borne and there did riſe.

6 Of Sion they ſhall ſay abroad,
that diuers men of fame:
Haue there ſprung vp. and the high God,
hath founded ſaſt the ſame:

7 In their records to them it ſhall,
through Gods deuiſe appeare,
Of Sion that the chiefe of all,
had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with ſuch as ſing,
there in great plentie bee:
My fountains and my pleaſant ſpringes,
are compaſt all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. Lxxxviii. I. H.

The faithfull ſoye afflicted by ſickneſſe, perſecution, aduerſitie, and as it were left of God without any conſolation: Yet call on God by faith, and ſtrive againſt deſperation.

Oh God of health, the hope and ſaue, thou art alone to me: I call and crye throughout the day, and all the nyght to thee. 2. O let my prayers ſoone

aſcend, vnto thy ſight on hye: Encluse

thyne care (O Lord) extend and harken to my cry.

3 For why: my ſoule with woe is filld,
and doth in trouble dwell:

My life and breath almoſt doth yeelde,
and draweth nigh to bell.

4 I am eſteem'd as one of them,
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among thoſe men,
that haue no ſtrength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remaine:
It were more eaſe for me to bee,
with them the which are ſaine.

6 As thoſe that lye in graue I ſay, whom thou haſt cleane forgozt:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardſt them not.

7 Yea like to one ſhut by full ſure,
within the lower pit:
In places darke and all obſcure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thyne anger and thy wrath likewise,
full foze on me doth lye:
And all thy ſcourges againſt me riſe,
my ſoule to bere and trye.

9 Thou putſt my friends far off from me,
and makeſt them hate me ſoye:
I am ſhut by in priſon ſaſt,
and can come forth no moze.

10 My ſight doth ſaſt through grief & woe
I call to thee O God:
Throughout the day my hands alſo,
to thee I ſtretch abroad.

The ſecond part.

11 Doeſt thou vnto the dead declare,
thy wondrous workes of fame?
Shall dead to life againe repaire,
and prayſe thee for the ſame?

12 O: ſhall thy louing kindneſſe Lord,
be preached in the graue?
O: ſhall with them that are deſtrode,
thy trueth her honoz haue?

13 Shall they that lye in darke full low,
of all thy wonders wor:
O: there ſhall they thy iuſtice know,
where all things are forgozt?

14 But I (O Lord) to thee alway,
do cry and call apace:

My prayer eke ere it be day,
ſhall come before thy face.

15 Why doſt thou Lord abhorre my ſoule,
in griefe that ſeeketh thee?
And now O Lord why doſt thou hide,
thy face away from mee?

16 I am afflicted as dying filld,
from youth thus many a yeare:

The terrors which do here me fill,
with troubled mind I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage,
full foze vpon me fall:

Thy terrors eke donot aswage,
but me oppresse withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:

And all at once with streames full about,
beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my frendes,
and louers euery one:

Yea and mine old acquaintance all,
out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias, Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

Dauid prayeth God, for his couenaunt made betwene him and his elect by Iesus Christ, then he complaineth of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. finally he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions mentioning the shortnes of mans life and consuming himselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

Tsing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare:

And with my mouth from age to age,
thy trueth I will declare.

2 For I haue said that mercy shall,
for euermore remaine:

In that thou doest the heauens say,
thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect (saith God) I made,
a couenant and bestest:

My seruant Dauid to perswade,
I sware and did protest.

4 Thy seebe for euer I will say,
and stablish it full fast:

And still by hold thy throne alway,
from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth,
thy wondrous workes O Lord:

Thy saintes within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth reioyce.

6 Who with the Lord is equal! then,
in all the cloudes abroad?

Among the sonnes of all the Gods;
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of his saintes, is greatly to be dreadd:

And ouer all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hostes, in all the world,
what one is like to thee:

On euery side most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seene to be.

9 The raging sea by thine aduise, thou rulest at thy will:

And when the waues thereof arise,
thou makest them calme and still.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdued, and thou hast it despoild:

Yea thou thy foes with mighty arme,
hast scatted all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine & still haue bene, likewise the earth and land:

The world with all that is therein,

thou foundedst with thy hand.

12 Both North, and South, with East, and thy selfe didst make and frame: (West, South, Tabor, mount, and the Ihermon, reioyce and payle thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and full of powe,
all might therein doth lye:

The strength of thy right hand ech howes,
thou listest by on lye.

14 In righteousnes and equity,
thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth acight,
thy present power O God:

For in the fauour of thy sight,
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce:

And though thy righteousnes haue they,
a pleasant fame and noyce.

17 For why? their glory, strength and ayde,
in thee alone doth lye:

Thy goodness eke that hath vs staid,
shall lift our hoine on lye.

18 Our strength that doth defend vs well,
the Lord to vs doth bring:

The holy one of Israell,
he is our guide and king.

19 Sometime thou wilt vnto thy saintes
in visions thou didst shew:

And thus then dost thou say to them,
thy mind to make them know.

20 A man of might I haue crect, your king and guide to be:

And let him by whome I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

21 My seruant Dauid I appoint,
whome I haue searched out:

And with my holy oyle anoint,
him king of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is ready still,
with him for to remaine:

And with mine arme also I will,
him strengthen and sustaine.

23 The enemies shall him not oppresse,
they shall him not denoure:

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednes;
on him shall haue no power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight:

And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall, shall still vpon him lye:

And in my name his hoine eke shall,
be lifted by on lye.

26 His kingdome I will set to be,
vpon the sea and land:

And eke the running floods shall he,
embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his hart,
on me and thus shall say:

My father and my God thou art,
my rocke of health and day.

28 Askest one hozne I will him take of all on earth that springes:
His might and honor? that make,
aboue all worldly kinges.

29 My mercy shalbe with him still,
as I my selfe haue told:
My faithfull conenant so fullfill,
my mercy I will hold.

30 And eke his seede I will sustaine,
for euer strong and sure:
So that his seat shall still remaine,
while heauen doth endure.

The fourth part.

31 If that his sonnes forsake my law,
and so beginne to swerue:
And of my iudgements haue none awe,
nor will nor them obserue.

32 O; if they do not vse aright,
my statutes to them made:
And for all my commaundementes light,
and will not kepe my trade.

33 Then with my rod will I begin,
their dosages to amend:
And so with scourging for their sinne,
when that they do offend.

34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take hym fro:
Nor handle him with craftines,
and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my conenant I will hold,
with all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips hath told,
shall alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by my holynesse,
and that performe will I:
With Dauid I shall keepe promise, to him I will not lye.

37 His seede for euermore shall raigne, and eke his throne of might:
As doth the Sunne it shall remaine,
for euer in my sight.

38 And as the Moone within the skye,
for euer standeth fast:
Faithfull witnessse from on hye,
so shall his kingdome last.

39 But now O Lord thou dost reiect, and now thou chaungest there:
Yea thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine owne annoynted deare.

40 The conenant with thy seruant made,
Lord thou hast quite vndone:
And downe vpon the ground also,
hast cast his royall crowne.

The fift part.

41 Thou plackest his hedges by thine might,
his walles thou dost confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarke downe,
and breakst them to the ground.

42 That he is soze destitute and toznie,
of commers by throughout:
And so is made a moche and scoznie,
to all that dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand hast lifted by,
that hym so soze annoy:
And all his foes that him denour,
to thou hast made to toy.

44 His swordes edge thou dost take away that should his foes withstand:

To him in waere no victory
thou gennest nor vpper hand.

45 His glory thou dost also wast,
his throne, his top, and mirth:
By thee is ouerthrowne and cast,
full low vpon the earth.

46 Thou hast cut of and made full hozt,
his youth and lusty dayes:
And rauid of him an ill report,
with shame and great dyspraise.

47 How long away from me O Lord,
for euer wilt thou turne?
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burne?

48 O call to minde remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men,
as thinges in vaine to wast?

49 What man is he that lieth here,
and death shall neuer see?
O; from the hand of hell his soule,
shall he deliuer free?

50 Where is O Lord thine old goodnesse,
so oft declared before:
Which by thy truth and by rightnesse,
to Dauid thou hast sworne?

51 The great rebukes to mind I call,
that on thy seruants lye:
The rayling of the people all,
borne in my brest haue I.

52 Wherewith O Lord thine enemies,
blasphemed haue thy name:
The steps of thine annoynted one,
they cease not to defame.

53 All praise to thee O Lord of hostes,
both now and eke for aye:
Through skye & earth, and all the coastes,
Amen, Amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. I.H.

Moses seeing the people, neither admonished by the benedicte of their life, nor by plagues, to bee thankfull, prayeth God to turne their hartes and continue his mercies towardes them and their pos-teritie for euer.

Sing this as the 78. Psalme.

Thou Lord hast bene our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be exprest.

2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
the earth or world abroad:
From age to age and alwayes still,
for euer thou art God.

3 Thou grindest man through griefe & paine to dust or clay, and then:
And then thou sayest againe returne,
againe ye sonnes of men.

4 The lasting of a thousand yeare, what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appaere,
or as a watch by night.

5 So soone as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade:
All as a sleepe, and like the graue,
whose beauty soone doth fade.

9 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but faderly by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead, and dry.

7 For though thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayde:
And of thy seruent wath and fame,
we are full sore afraid.

8 The wicked workes that we haue wrought thou seest before thine eye:
Our many fautes yea eke our thoughts,
thy countenance doth spye.

For though thy wrath our dayes do wast thereof doth nought remaine:
Our yeares consume like words of blase
and are not cald againe.

10 Our time is thre score yeare and ten,
that we do liue on mould:
If one see fourescore, surely then we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

11 Yet of this time the strength and chiefe,
the which we count byon:
Is nothing els but painefull grief,
and we like blades are gone.

12 Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath: (these,
O in his hart who doth the feare
according to thy wrath?)

13 Instruct vs Lord to know and try how long our dayes remaine:
That then we may our harts apply,
true wisdom to attaine.

14 Returne O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath procede?
Shew fauour to thy seruants now,
and helpe them at their neede.

15 Rekeles vs with thy mercy sone,
and then our toy shalt be:
All times so long as life shall last,
in hart releyce shall we.

16 As thou hast plagued vs before,
now also make vs glad:
And for the yeares wherein full soe affliction we haue had.

17 O Let thy worke and powet appeare,
and on thy seruants light:
And shew vnto thy chiltren deare, thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand,
on vs thy seruants thus:
Confirme the waykes we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to vs.

Qui habitat. Psal. XCI. I. H.
There is described the assurance hee liueth in, that committeyth hymselfe wholly to Gods protectiō in all temptation. A promise of God to those that loue hym, know hym, and trust in hym to deliuer them and geue them immortall glory.

Sing this as the 99. psalme.

HE that within the secret place of Gods most hye doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keepe him well.

1 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he in him will I my whole affiance lay.

He shall defend the from the snare,
the which the hunter layd:
And from the deadly plague and care whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings will cover the,
and keepe the safely there:
His faith and trust thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and speare.

5 So that thou shalt not neede I say,
to feare or be affright:
O fall the waftes that flye by day,
nor terror of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that pryncly, doth walke in darke so fast:
Nor yet of thar which doth destroy,
and at none dayes doth wast.

7 Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shalt be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet thou shalt be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That euen like to their delect,
the wicked haue reward.

9 For why? (O Lord) I onely trust,
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the hest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not neede none ill to feare,
with the it shall not mell:
Nor yet the plague shall once come neare,
the house wherethou dost dwell.

11 For why? vnto his angels all,
with charge commaundeth he:
That still in all thy wayes they shall,
preferre and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall the beare by still wayting thee byon:
So that thy sore shall neuer chaunce,
to spurne at any stone.

13 Upon the Lyon thou shalt goe,
the Adder kill and long:
And tread vpon the Lyons yong,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth vnto me,
I will dispatch him quite:
And him defend because that he,
doth know my name aright.

15 When he for helpe on me doth cry,
an answer I will geue:
And from his griefe rake him will I,
in glory for to lue.

16 With length of yeares & dayes of wealth
I will fulfill his rone:
The godnesse of my sauing health,
I will declare to hym.

Bonum est. Psal. XCii. I. H.

A psalme for the Sabbath to singe by the people to acknowledge and prayse God in his workes. Was not receyued therein: but the wretched consider not the vngodly, when hee is most doying, shall most speedily perish. In the end is described the felicitie of the iust, placed in the house of God in praise of the Lord.

Sing this as the 88. psalme.

IT is a thing both god and me re,
so praise the best Lord:

And to thy name O thou most high,
to sing with one accord.

2 To shew the kindness of the Lord
betwixt ere day be light:

And she declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten stringed instrument,
on Lute and Harpe so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent,
of instruments most meete.

4 For thou hast made me to reioyce, in things so wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart and voice,
thy handiworkes to see.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy workes to shew?

So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.

6 The man binwisethari not the wit,
this geare to passe to byng:
And all such foolcs are nothing fit,
to vnderstand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grass do spring full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill,
for euer shall be waste.

8 But thou art mightie Lord most hye, yea thou dost raigne therefore:
In euery time eternally,
both now and euermore.

9 For why? O Lord behold and see, behold thy foes I say:

How all that worke iniquitie,
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an Onicozne, salt list mine home on hye:
With fresh and new prepared Oyle, thyne oynted king am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes, shall see the fall and shame:

Of all that by against me rise,
mine eare shall heare the same.

12 Theiust shall flourish by on hye,
as date trees bud and blow:

And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:

With in his courtes they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and wel besene:

And pleasauntly both bud and spring,
with boughes and branched greene.

15 To shew that Gods god and iust, and bright in his will:

He is my rocke, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Domiaus regnauit. Pal. XCiii. I. H.

He prayeth the power of God in the creation of the worlds, and beareth down all people which list them by against his majesty, and prouoeth to consider his promises.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.
The Lord as king aloft doth raigne,
in glory godly bright:

And he to shew his strength and maine, hath giue himselfe with might.

1 The Lord like vnto the earth hath made,
and shap'd it so fure:

No might can make it moue or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought thy seat was set before:

Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast bene euermore.

4 The stomes O Lord, the stoues do rise,
they roare and make a noyle:

The stoues (I say) did enterpyle,
and lifted by their voice.

5 Yea though the stomes arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell:

The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on hye doth dwell:

6 And loke what promise he doth make,
his household to defend:

For iust and true they shall vntake,
all times withouten end.

Deus vltionum. Pal. XCiiii. I. H.

He prayeth God against the violence of tyrants, & comforteth the afflicted by the good illuof their afflictions, and by the rume of the wicked.

Sing this as the 78. psalme.
O Lord thou dost reuenge all wrong,
that office longes to thee:

Sith benedictio thy belong, declare it, all may see.

2 Set forth thy selfe for thou of right,
the earth dost iudge and guide:

Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway,
with lifting vp their voice?

How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out and proudly prate their ill?

Shall they reioyce which befo shout,
whose workes are euer ill?

5 Thy stocke O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoile and befeullage:

Against thy people they do rage,
still dayly more and more.

6 The widowes which are comfortlesse,
and strangeres they bestroy:

They slay their children fatherlesse,
and none do put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand this caske they haue of the:

Can Jacobs God this vnderstand?
tush, no he cannot see.

8 O folke binwise and people iude,
some knowledg now discern:

Ye foolcs among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.

9 The Lord which made the care of man,
he needes of right must heare:

He made the eie, al things must then,
before his light appeare.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them honest end:

Shall he not then pouderes detect?
yom

how can ye scape his hand?

The second part. (man)

11 The Lord both knowe the thoughts of his heart he seeth full plaine:
The Lord I say menis thoughts doth see, and sinder them bit blame.

12 But Lord that man is happie sere, whom thou dost keepe in awe:
And though correction dost procure, to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest, in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men thet he supplest, and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse, his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did chuse, he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that iudgement be decreed, to iustice to convert:
That all may follow her with pride, that are of bright heart.

16 But who vpon my part shall stand, against the curst traitor?
Or who shall rid me from their hand, that wicked wopkes maintame?

17 Except the Lord had bene mine aide, mine enemies to expell:
My soule and life had now bene laide, almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say my foot doth slide, and now am liene to fall:
Thy goodnesse Lord did so proude, to stay me by withall.

19 When with my selfe I mused much, and could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch, and that did ease my minde.

20 Wilt thou inhaurt thy selfe and draw, with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence in stead of law, much mischief do commit.

21 For they consult agaynst the life, of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are wise, to shed the guilelesse blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me, a strong defence of locke:
He is my God to him I flee, he is my strength and rocke.

23 And he shall cause their mischieses all, themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall, our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus, Psal. XCv. I. H.

¶ An earnest exhortation to prayse God for the gouernment of the world, and election of his Church to rebewe the rebellion of the olde fathers, who temptred God in the wilbernes, and therfore entred not the land of promise.

Sing this as the Benediclus.

O Come let vs lift vp our voyce, and sing vnto the Lord:
In him our rocke of health reioyce, let vs with one accord.

2 Yea let vs come before his face, to geue him thanks and prayse:

In singing psalmes vnto his grace, let vs be glad alwaies.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt, a great and mighty God:
A King aboue all Gods throughout, in all the world abroad.

4 The secretres of the earth to depe, and corners of the land:
The tops of hills that are so stepe, he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his, for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is, his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let vs bow and prayse the Lord, before him let vs fall:
And kneele to him with one accord, the which hath made vs all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for vs he doth proude:
We are his folke he doth vs seide, his shepe and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will heare, then harden not your heare:
As ye with grudging many a yeare, prouoght me in desert.

Whereas yone fathers temptred me, my power for to proue:
My wondrous wopkes when they did see, yet still they would me moue.

10 Twise twentie yeares they did me grieue and I to them did say:
They erre in heart and not beliene, they haue not knowne my way.

11 Wherefore I sware when that my wrath was kindled in my bzell:
That they should neuer tread the path, to enter in my rest.

Cantate Domi. Psal. Xcvi. I. H.

¶ An exhortation both to the Jewes and Gentiles to prayse God for his mercy. And this specially ought to be referred to the kingdom of Christ.

Sing this as the 77. psalme.

Sing ye with prayse vnto the Lord, new songes of toy and myght:
Sing vnto him with one accord, all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing vnto the Lord I say, prayse ye his holy name:
Declare and shew from day to day, iustation by the same.

3 Among the heathen ke declare, his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare, in all the world throughout.

4 For why? the Lord is much of might, and worthy prayse alway:
And he is to be dread of right, aboue all Gods I say.

5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord, that hath the heauens made.

6 All praise and honour ke do dwell, for aye before his face:

Both power and might like wise erreil,
with in his holy place.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world:

All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe vnto the Lord.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glory of his name:
And eke into his courtes do go,
with gifts vnto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall downe and worship ye the Lord,
with in his temple bright:

Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his sight:

10 Tell all the world raigue aboute,
the Lord doth raigue aboue:
Yea he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with princely might:

To iudge the nations euer one,
with equite and right.

12 The heauens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce:

The sea with all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noyse.

13 The field shall joy and every thing,
that springeth on the earth,

The wood and euery tree shall sing,
with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and comming of his might:

When he shall iustly iudge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus reg. Psal. XCvii. I.H.

the kingdom of Christ, because full to the rebels and dolaters, and to fill to the iust, whom he exhorteth to innocencie, to reioyng and thankesgiving.

Sing this as the 95. Psalm.

The Lord doth raigue whereat the earth,
may toy with pleasant voice:

And eke the fies with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.

2 But cloudes and darknesse eke do swell,
and round about him bear:

Yea right and iustice euer well,
and wide about his feat.

3 Yea fire and heat at once do rume,
and go before his face:

Which shall his foes and enemies burne, abroad in euery place.

4 His lightninges eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare:

Whereat the earth did looke and gale,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hills like waxe did melt, in sight and presence of the Lord:

They fled before that rulers might,
which guide shall the world.

6 The heauens eke declare and shew,
his iustice all abroad:

What all the world may see and know,
the glorie of our God.

Confusion sure shall come to such,

as worship Idols baine:

And eke to those that glozy much,
dum pictures to maintaine.

8 For all the Idols of the world, which they as Gods do call:

Shall see the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Iuda shall reioyce:

For at thy iudgement: they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyse.

10 That thou O Lord art let on bye,
in all the earth abroad.

And art exalted wonderfully,
aboue ech other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord do this,
hate all thinges that are ill:

For he doth hate the sinners of his,
from such as would them spill:

12 And light doth spring vp to the iust,
with pleasure for his part:

Great ioy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of bright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holinesse proclame:

Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mirthfull of the same.

nicated his saluation to all nations.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song,

For he hath wrought throughout the world his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worshipely,
he doth his foes deuour:

And get himselfe the victory,
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know, his iusting health and might:

The Lord doth eke his iustice shew,
in all the worldens sight.

4 His grace and tenderly to Israel,
in minde he doth recorde:

That all the earth hath seene right well,
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voice,
all people on the earth:

Give thankes to God, sing and reioyce,
to him with ioy and mirth.

6 Upon the vayne vnto him sing,
give thankes to him with Idalmes:

Reioyce before the Lord our king,
with trumpets and with Idalmes.

7 Yea let the Sea with all therein,
for ioy both roare and swell:

The earth like wise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the fountes reioyce therin,
and clap their hands apace:

And eke the mountaines and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to iudge and trie,
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightie,
with iustice and with right.

Dominus regnauit. psal. XCix. I. H.

The commendeth the power, equitie and excellence of the kingdome of God by Christ, ouer the Iewes & Gentiles, prouoking them to magnifye
the same, to feare the Lord as the auient fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling vpon God were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

The Lord both reigns although at it,
the people rage full foie:

Yea he on Cherubins doth sit,
though all the world do toare.

The Lord that doth in Syon dwell, is high and wor:ious great:

Above all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

Let all men praise thy mightie name,
for it is fearefull sure:

And let them magnifie the same that holy is and pure.

The princely power of our king,
doth loue iudgement and right:

Thou rightly rulest every thing,
in Jacob through thy might.

To praise the Lord our God deuit,
all honoz to hym doe:

His foreshole worship him before,
for he is holy to.

Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Quies on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gaue them sunweate all.

With in the cloud to them he spake then did they laboz still:

To kepe such lawes as he did make,
and pointed them out still.

O Lord our God thou didst them heare and answeredst them againe:

Thy mercy did on them appeare,
their doers didst not maintaine.

O land and praise our God and Lord,
with in his holy hill:

For why? our God throughout the world is holy euer still.

2. Iubilate Deo omnis. Psal. C.

Howe exhorteth all men to serue the Lords, who haue made vs to enter into hys Courtes, and assemblies to praise hys name.

All people that on earth do dwell.

Sing to the Lord with cheerefull voice:

Him serue with feare his prayse foith

tell, Come ye before him and celoyce.

The Lord ye know is God in deede, without our aide he did vs make We are his flocke he doth vs feede, and for his shepe he doth vs take.

Enter then his gates with praise,
approch with ioy his courts & noes:
Praise, laud, and blisse his name alwaye,
for it is seemely so to doe.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer sure:
His truth at all times firmly stand,
and shall from age to age endure.

An other of the same.

Sing this as the 68. psalme.

I praise the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:

Serue him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and kepe:

Not we our selues for we are his owne flocke and pasture the pe.

O goe into his gates alwaye, geue thankes within the same:

Within his courts set foith his praise,
and laud his holy name.

For why? the godnesse of the Lord,
for euer more doth raigne:

From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remaine.

Misericordiam. Psal. Ci. N.

David describeth what gouernement hee will ob-serue in his house and kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and reseruing the godly persons.

Sing this as the 81. psalme.

I Mercy will and iudgement sing,
O Lord God vnto the:

And wisely do in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.

And in the midst of my house walke,
in purchase of my spire:

And I no kind of wicked thing,
will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to me:

From me shall part the froward hart,
none shall will I se.

Him will I stop that dauntereth,
his neyghbo: priuily:

The losty hart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hye.

Mine eyes shall be on them, with in the land that faithfull be:

In perfect way who walketh, shall be seruant vnto me.

I will no guilefull person haue
with in my house to dwell:

And in my presence he shall not remaine that lieth doth tell.

Sometimes I will deli:op enen all,
the wicked of the land:

That I may from his city cut the wicked workers hand.

Dominiceaudi. Psal. Cii. N.

curtaine compared may be.

- 3 His chamber beames lye,
in the chundes full sure,
Which as his Charlors
are made him to beare:
And there wch much swiftnesse,
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings tryding,
of winde in the ayre.
- 4 He maketh his spirites,
as Heralds to go,
And lightnings to serue,
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro,
To saue or consume thinges,
as seemeth him best.
- 5 He grounded the earth,
so firmly and fast,
That it once to moue,
none shall haue such power:
6 The deeppe a faire covering,
for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature,
the hilles would denoue.
- 7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters do fly,
And so giue due place,
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder,
so fearefull they be,
That in their great raging,
they hast loone away.
- 8 The mountaines full hye,
they then by ascend,
If thou do but speake,
thy word they fulfil:
S likewise the ballies,
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointed,
remaine they do still.
- 9 Their boundes thou hast set,
how far they shall run,
So as in their rage,
not that passe they can:
For God hath appointed,
they shall not return,
The earth to destroy moze,
which made was for man.
- The second part.
- 10 He sendeth the springes,
to strong streames full lakes,
Which runne do full swift,
among the huge hilles:
11 Where both the wild asses,
their thirst oft times shake,
And beastes of the mountaines, thereof drinke their fill.
- 12 By these pleasant springes,
of fountaines full faire,
The foules of the ayre,
abide shall and dwell:
13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and there,
Among the greene braunches,
their songes shall exche.

- 14 The mountaines to moke,
the cloudes he doth ble,
The earth with his workes,
are wholly repleat:
- 15 So as eke brute cattel,
he doth not refuse:
But graffe doth pounde them,
and herbe for mans meat,
Yea bread, wine and oyle,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong:
- 16 The Cedars of Liban,
this great Goddido make,
Which trees he doth nourish,
that grow by so long:
- 17 In those may birdes build,
and make there their nest,
In fire trees the Stozes, remaine and abide:
- 18 The hye hilles are succours,
for wilde Goates to rest,
And eke the rockes stony,
for Conies to hide.
- 19 The Stone then is set,
for heales to runne,
The dayes from the nightes,
thereby to discern:
And by the descending,
also of the Sunne,
The cold from heate away,
thereby we do learne.
- 20 When darkenelle doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth do all,
the beastes of the wood:
- 21 The Lyons raunge roaring,
their pray to denair,
But yet it is thou (Lord)
which giuest them food.
- 22 As for ne as the Sunne is by, they crye,
To couch in their dens,
then are they full saue:
- 23 That man to his worke may,
as righte doth requite,
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.
- the third part.
- 24 How sundry (O Lord)
are all thy workes found,
With wiseome full great,
they are in dede wrought:
So that the whole world,
of thy prayse doth found,
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.
- 25 So as the great sea,
which large is and broad,
Where thinges that creepe swarme,
and beastes of ech sort,
- 26 There both mightie whips saile,
and some lye at roade:
The Whale huge and monstrous,
there also doth spoie.
- 27 All thinges on the walte,
thou dost them reueile,
And thou in due time,
full well dost them feede.
- 28 Now when it doth please the,

the same so to give.
 They gather full gladly,
 those things which they use,
 Thou openest thy hand,
 and they finde such grace,
 that they with god things,
 are filled we see:
 29 But soe are they troubled,
 if thou turne thy face,
 for if thou their breath take,
 vile dust they be.

30 Against when thy spirit,
 from thee doth proceed:
 All things to appoint,
 and what shall enuee 31 Then are they created,
 as thou hast decreed,
 And doest by thy goodness,
 the dry earth reue.
 32 The people of the Lord,
 for ever shall last,
 Who may in his workes,
 by right well reioyce:
 His loke can the earth make,
 to tremble full fast,
 And likewise the mountaines,
 to smooke as his voice.

33 To this Lord and God,
 sing will I alwayes,
 So long as I live,
 my God prayse will I:
 34 Then am I most certaine,
 my wordes shall him please.
 I will reioyce in him,
 to him will I cry.

35 The sinners O Lord,
 confirme in thine ire,
 And eke the puerse,
 them rote out with shame:
 But as for my soule now,
 let it still desire,
 And say with the faithfull, prayse ye the Lordes name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cv. N.

He prayseth the singular goodness of God, for choosing a peculiar people to himselfe, neuer ceasing to do them good euen for his promise sake.

Sing this as the 95. psalme.

Thus prayse vnto God the Lord,
 and call vpon his name:
 Among the people eke declare,
 his workes to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
 and sing vnto him prayse:
 And talke of all the wondrous workes,
 that he hath wrought alwayes.

3 In honour of his holy name,
 reioyce with one accord:
 And let the heart also reioyce,
 of them that seeke the Lord.

4 Seeke ye the Lord, & seeke the strength of his eternall might:
 And seeke his face continually,
 and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done
 keepe full in mindfull hart:
 Ne let the iudgements of his mouth,
 out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
 his seruant are the seed:
 Ye his elect the children that of Jacob doe proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I say,
 the mightie Lord our God:
 And his most rightfull iudgement see,
 through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant, which he hath made to his:
 He hath remembered euermore,
 to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made,
 with Abraham long ago:
 And faithfull oth which he hath sworn,
 to Isaac also.

10 And did confirme the same for us,
 that Jacob should obey:
 And for eternall covenant,
 to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, loe I to you,
 all Canaan land will giue:
 The lot of your inheritance,
 wherein your seed shall liue.

12 Although their number at that time,
 did but small appeare:
 You were small, and in the land,
 they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walke from land to land without a sure abode:
 And while from sundry kingdoms they,
 did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppresses hand,
 he suffered them to take:
 But euen the great and mightie kings,
 reioiced for their sake.

15 And thus he said, touch ye not those that mine annointed be:
 Ne do the Idolythers any harme,
 that do pertaine to me.

16 He called a death vpon the land,
 of bread he stroyd the store:
 Wnt he against their time of need,
 had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Joseph which had once bene sold to liue a slave in woe:
 18 Whose see they hurt in stocks, whose the yron pearst also. (sould)

19 Wntill the time came when his cause, was knowne apparantly:
 The mightie word of God the Lord,
 his faultlesse truth did cry.

20 The king sent and deliuered him,
 from prison where he was:
 The ruler of the people then,
 did freely let him passe.

21 And euer all his house he made,
 him Lord to beare the sway.
 And of his substance made him hane,
 the rule and all the say.

22 That he might to his instruct,
 the princes of the land:
 And wisdoms lore his eunge might teach to vnderstand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land, came I seel also:

 And Jacob in the land of Ham,
 did lute a stranger ethi:
 24 His people be exceedingly,
 in number made to flow:
 And ouer all their enemies,
 in strength he made them grow.
 25 Whose heart he turned, that they w^d hate his people did intreat:
 And did his seruants wrongfully,
 abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull seruant Moses then,
 and Aaron whom he chose:
 He did commaund to go to them,
 his message to disclose.
 27 The wondrous message of his signes,
 among them they did shew:
 And wonders in the land of Ham,
 then did they worke also.

28 Darkness he sent and it was darcke,
 in stead of bright day:
 And vnto his commission,
 they did not disobay.

29 He turned their waters into blood,
 he did their fishes slay:
 30 Their land brought frogs euen in the where their king had his place,

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarmes of noyson flies:
 And all the quarters of their land,
 were filld with crawling lice.

32 He gaue them cold and stony haile,
 in stead of milde raine:
 And fiery flames within their land,
 he sent vnto their paine.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
 whereon their figs did grow:
 And all the trees within their coastes,
 downe did he ouerthrow.

34 He spake, then Caterpillers did and Grasshoppers abound:
 35 Which ate the grasse in all these land,
 and fruite of all these ground.

The fift part.

36 The first begotten in their land,
 eke deadly did he smite:
 Yea the beginning and first fruite,
 of all their strength and might.

37 With gold and silver he them brought,
 from Egypt land to passe:
 And in the number of the tribes,
 no feble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
 when they did thence depart:
 For terror and the feare of them,
 was fallen in to their heart.

39 To shroud them from the perishing heat,
 a cloud he did display:
 And fire he sent to giue them light,
 when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused quassles, to raise their request:
 And with the bread of heauen,
 he filld their hunger he respect.

41 He opened then the stony rocks,
 and water gushed out:
 And in the dry and parched ground,
 like riuers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant,
 eye iustfull was he do:
 Which to his seruant Abraham,
 he plightred long ago.

43 He brought his people forth with mercy
 and his elect with ioy.
 Out of the cruel land where they,
 had liued in great annoy.

44 And of the weathen men he gaue,
 to them the fearefull landes:
 The labours of the people eke,
 they tooke into their handes.

45 That they his holy statutes might,
 obserue for euermore:
 And faithfully obey his lawes, praye ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domi. Psal. Cvi. N.

The people dispersed vnder Antiochus do magnify the goodness of God among the repentant: & pray to be gathered from among the heathen, that they may praise his name.

Sing this as the 95. psalme.

Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
 his mercy dureth for aye:

3 Who can expresse his noble acts,
 or all his prayse display:
 3 They blessed are that iudgement haue,
 and iustly do alway:

4 With fauour of thy people Lord, remember me I pray.

5 And with thy sauing health O Lord,
 bouchate to visite me:
 That I the great felicitee,
 of thine elect may see.

And with thy people's ioy I may,
 a ioyfull mind possesse:
 And may with thine inheritance,
 a glorying heart expresse.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
 haue sinned euery one:
 We haue committed wickednesse,
 and lowely we haue done.

7 The wonders great which thou O Lord
 hast done in Egyptland:
 Our fathers though they saw them all,
 yet did not vnderstand.

For they thy mercies multitude,
 did keepe in thankfull mind:
 But at the sea, yea the red sea
 rebelled most vnkind.

8 Neuertheless he saued them,
 for honour of his name:
 That he might make his power knowne,
 and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did them rebuke,
 and forthwith it was drie:
 And as in wildernesse so through the deepe he did them guide.

10 He saued them from the cruel hand,
 of their despitefull foe:
 And from the enemies hand he did,
 deliuer them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppreffors whetend,
not one was left alive:
12 Then they believed his wordes & praye
in long they did him gaine:
13 But by and by with thankfullly,
his wordes they cleane forgat:
And for his counfel and his wil,
they did neglect to waite:
14 But lusted in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert templed God,
the stay of al their trust:
15 And then their wanton minde a distress,
he suffered them to haue:
For waisting leaues the wilderness,
into their soule he gaue.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
and of feare they did grudge:
Aton the holy of the Lords,
so did they enuy much:
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan & Abiram,
And all Abirams compeny,
did conre in that hour.
18 In their assembly handled was,
the holc containing fire:
And waisting haues did then burne by,
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Aholab they,
an Idol case did frame:
And there the molten Image they,
did worship of the same.

Into the likeness of a Calf,
that feedeth on the grass:
20 Thus they their glory curd, and alle their honours did efface:
21 And God their onely Saviour, unkindly they forgote:
Which many great and mightie things,
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham, for a time
most wondrous workes had done:
And by the red sea dreadfull things,
performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their fo shewing them,
to bring destruction on them all,
to be purpose in his mind,
had not his chosen Moses stood before them in the breach:
To turne his wrath least he out them with slaughter should have made: 24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give:
Yea and the wordes that he had spake,
they did no whit believe:
25 But in their tents with grudging hearts,
they wickedly repinde:
Not to the bolce of God the Lord,
they gaue an habiting place:
26 Therefore against them he raised his strong reuenging hand:
Them to destroy in wildernes,
ere they should see the land.

17 And to destroy them led among,
the nations with his rod:
And through the countres of the world,
to scatter them abroad.
8 To what Idol then they did,
adayne them selues also:
And eate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsoke him tho.
29 Thus with their own inventions,
his wrath they did prouoke:
And in his so insindled wrath,
the plague upon them brouke.
30 But Ohlines stood by with zeale,
the sinners vnto to slay:
And iudgement he did ecurcure,
and then the plague did stay.
The fourth part.
31 It was impured vnto him,
for righteousnesse that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is,
from race to race for aye.
32 At waters eke of Meribah,
they did him angry make:
Yea so far forth that they of les was,
then punisht for their sake.

33 Because they bett his spirit to fore,
that in impatient heart:
His lawes spake he indidely,
his feruor was so great.
34 For as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people tho:
35 But were among the weathen men, and leard their wordes also.
36 And did their Idolsenie, which were,
their crime and decay:
37 To slendere their sonnes & daughters they,
did offer by and slay.
38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife,
the guiltlesse bloud they spill:
Yea their own sonnes and daughters bloud
withour all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Carann Idols then,
offred with wicked hand:
And lo with bloud of innocents,
defiled was the land.
39 Thus were they styned with the workes
of their owne filthy war:
And with their owne inventions,
a whoring did they stay.
40 Therefore against his people was,
the Lodes wrath indidely laid:
And euen his owne inheritance
therefore he did abhorre.
41 Into the hands of weathen men,
he gaue them for a pray:
And in their iudges their Lords, whom were forced to obey.
42 Yea and their hardfull entences,
opposed them in the land:
And they were humbly made to sloupe,
as subiects to the hand.
43 Full of offences from thral had he,
delivered the weathen.
But with their sinners they a wrath,
prouokt their iudgement.
Therefore they by the sea with comde,

were brought fulllow to ye:
 44 yet when he saw them in distresse,
 he hathened to their cry.
 45 The cald to mino his covenant,
 which he to them had swoze:
 And by his mercies multitude,
 repented him therfoze.
 46 And fauour he them made to finde,
 before the sight of those:
 That led them captiue from their land,
 when earth they were their foes.
 47 Saue vs O Lord that art our God,
 saue vs O Lord vs pray:
 And from among the weachenfolke,
 Lord gather vs away.
 48 That we may spread the noble prayse,
 of thy most holy name:
 That we may gloze in thy prayse,
 and founding of thy fame.
 49 The Lord the God of Israel be blest for euermore:
 Let all the people say amen,
 prayse ye the Lord therfoze.

Confitemini Do. Psal. Cviij. W. K.

David propheseth all that are redeemed by the Lord and gathered unto him, to geue thanks therfoze who by sending prosperitie and wealth by hunger men unto him. Therfoze as the righteous there ceases, shall the wicked haue their mouths stopped.

Sing this as the 96. psalme.
Gue thanks vnto the Lord our God,
 for gracious is he:
 And that his mercy hath no end,
 all moztall men may see.
 2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
 with thanks should prayse his name:
 And shew how they from foes are freed,
 and how he wrought the same.
 3 We gathered them forth of the lands,
 that lay so farr abroad:
 From East to West, from North to South
 his hand did find them out.
 4 They wandred in the wilderness,
 and strayed from the way:
 And found no city where to dwell,
 that serue might for their stay.
 5 Whose thirst and hunger was so gone,
 in those deserts so boide:
 That fatnesse did them foze assaile,
 and eke their soules ariue.
 6 Then did they cry in their distresse,
 vnto the Lord for ayde:
 Who did remoue their troublous state,
 according as they prayd.
 7 And by that way which was most right
 he led them like a guide:
 That they might to a city goe,
 and there also abide.
 8 Let men therfoze before the Lord,
 confesse his godnesse then:
 And shew the wonders that he doth,
 before the sonnes of men.
 9 For he the empty soul sustaine, whome thirst had made to faint:
 The hungry soule with godnesse fed,
 and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darknesse depe, whereto: ey of death do wait:
 Fast bound to take such troublous soymes,
 as yron chaines do treat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lord's owne word
 they sought so to rebel:
 Ekeeming light his counsigly hye,
 which doe so far excell.
 12 But when he humbled them full low they then fell downe with geete:
 And none was found so much to helpe,
 whereby to get reliefe:
 13 Then did they cry in their distresse,
 vnto the Lord for aide:
 Who did remoue their troublous state,
 according as they prayd.
 14 For he from darknesse out them brought and from death's dreafull shade:
 Wurling withfoze the yron bandes,
 which did before them late.
 15 Let men therfoze before the Lord,
 confesse his kindnesse then:
 And shew the wonders that he doth,
 before the sonnes of men.
 16 For he threw downe the gates of brass and brake them with strong hand.
 Their iron barres he smote in two,
 nothing could him withstand.
 17 The foolish talke great plagues do fele,
 and cannot from them wend:
 But heape on more to those they haue,
 because they do offend.
 18 Their soules so much did loath al meate, that none they could abide:
 Whereby death had them almost caught,
 as they full cruelly ride.
 19 Then did they cry in their distresse,
 vnto the Lord for ayde:
 Who did remoue their troublous state,
 according as they prayd.
 20 For he then sent to them his word which health did sone restore:
 And brought them from those dangers depe
 whereto they were before.
 The third part.
 21 Let men therfoze before the Lord,
 confesse his kindnesse then:
 And shew the wonders that he doth
 before the sonnes of men.
 22 And let them offer sacrifice,
 with thankes and also feate:
 And speake of all his wondrous wothes,
 with glad and ioyfull cheate.
 23 Such as in Ships or byttle barres,
 into the seas descend:
 Their marchandise though feartfull louds,
 to compass and to end.
 24 Those men are foxed to behold
 the Lord's wothes what they be:
 And in the daungerous depe the same,
 most meruefous they see.
 25 For at his word the stormy winde,
 ariseth in a rage:
 And stretch by the farges so,
 as nought can them asswage.
 26 Then are they lifted by so hye,
 the cloues they see me to gaine:

And plunging downe the depth, but their soules continue with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele.
As men with feare of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feele.

28 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aide:
Who did remouue their troublous state,
according as they prayde.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdie stones to cease:
So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much do craue:
And are by him in hauen brought,
which they so faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonder that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of thy folke,
with praise extol his name:
And where the elders do comient,
let them there do the same.

33 For running floods to dry deserts,
he doth oft change; and turne:
And dryeth by as it were dust,
the springing well and fountaine.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt, full barren doth he make:
When on their sinnes that dwell therein,
he doth full vengeance take.

35 Againe the wilderness full tide,
he maketh fruite to beare:
With pleasant springes of waters cleare,
though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a Citie may them build,
to dwell in for their vse.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and in theyardes alls plant:
To yeeld them fruites of such increase,
as none may seem to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also their battie beast make,
by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought,
by the oppressors frowne:
And minisly do thyough many plagues,
that compass them about.

40 Then doth he vnto them bring to shame,
which did them fore oppress:
And likewise caused them to erre,
with in the wilderness.

41 But yet the poore he rayled by,
out of their troubles doo pe:
And oft tyme doth his traine augment,
much like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous shall beheld this sight,
and also much reioice:
Whereas the wicked and prauers,
with griefe shall stop their boice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceiue,
the kindnes of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. Cviii. N.

David with hart and voyce prayeth the Lord and assureth himselfe of the promise of God concerning his kingdom ouer Ierusalem, and his power against other nations, who though hee seeme to forsake vs for a tyme, yet he alone in the end will cast downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95. psalme.

God my hart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voyce in song,
in giuing praise also.

2 Awake my vsole, and my harpe,
to eete melodie to make:
And in the morning I my selfe right early will awake.

3 By me among the people, Lord, full praised shalt thou bee:
And I among the heathen folke, will sing (O Lord) to thee.

4 Because thy mercie Lord is great,
aboue the heauens: he:
And eke thy truth doth reach the cloudes,
within the loftie hee.

5 Aboue the starry heauens hee,
eract thy selfe O God:
And Lord display vpon the earth,
thy glorie all abroad.

6 That thy dearely beloued may,
be set at libertie:
Helpe, O my God, with thy right hand,
and harken vnto me.

7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefoe my loyes abode:
Sichem I wil denide, and meete,
the vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Bethleah shall be mine owne, Hananah mine shall be:
My head strength Ephraim, and law shall Iuda giue for me.

9 As for my washpot and my sho,
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestina,
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the Citie strong,
be guide to conduct me:
O how by whom to Edom land, comeyed shall I be.

11 Is it not thou O God which late,
hadst by forsaken quite:
And thou O Lord which with our host,
didst not go forth to fight?

12 Since vs O Lord thy saluing aide:
when troubles do assaile:
For all the height of man is vaine,
and can no whit auail.

13 Though God we shall a ballant act;
and wot this of renoune:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them downe.

Deus laudem meam. Psal. Cix. N.

David being lawfully accused by Scules associates, praiseth

prayeth God to helpe him to destruy his enemies, who represent Iudas the traitor vnto Iesus christ and all like enemies of the Children of God.

Sing this as the 98. psalme.

I In speechles silence do not hold,
O God thy tongue alwayes:
O God euen thou I say that art,
the God of all my praye.
2 The wicked mouth and guilefull mouth on medicines be:
And they with fals and lying tongue,
haue spoken vnto me.

3 They did beset me round about,
with wordes of hatefull spight:
Without all cause of my desert,
against me did they fight.

4 For my god will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
My god with ill, my trespases with hate they did repay.

5 Set thou the wicked ouer them,
to haue the vpper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou,
his hatefull foe to stand.

6 When he is iudged let him then,
condemned be therin:
7 And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sinne.

8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take:

9 His children let be fatherles,
his wife a widow make.

10 Let his offsprings be bagabonds,
to beg and seeke their bread:
Wandering out of the walled place, where erst they haue bene led.

11 Let couetousertortioner,
catch all his goods and store:
And let the straungers spoile the fruite,
of all his toyle before.

12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:
That on his children fatherles,
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posterity,
for euer be destroyed:
Their names out blotted in the age,
that after shall succede.

14 Let not his fathers wickednes,
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let thou not his mochers sinne,
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord,
let them remaine for aye:
Hath from the earth their memozy,
he may cut cleane away.

16 Sith mercy he forgat to shew,
but did pursue with spight:
The troubled man, and sought to slay,
the woeful harred wight.

17 As he did cursing loue, it shall betide vnto him so:
And as he did not blessing loue,
it shall be farre him fro.

18 As he with cursing ad his selfe, so it like water shall

Into his bowels, and like oyle into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to couer him for aye:
And as a girdle wherewith he,
shall girded be alway.

20 Loe let this same be from the Lord,
the giuerdon of my foe:
Yea and of thole that euill speake, against my soule also.

21 But thou O Lord that art my God,
deale thou I say with me:
After thy name deliuer me,
for god thy merites be.

22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my payned brest
my hart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Euen so do I depart away,
as dorch bedewing shade:
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needfull food,
enfebled are my knees:
And all herfatnes hath my flesh,
enforced bene to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproch, to them was made to be:
And they that did vpon me loke,
did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercy Lord,
saue and deliuer me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this Lord is thy mighty hand:
And that thou, thou had done it Lord,
so shall they vnderstand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with louing grace:
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy seruant shall reioyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame,
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke,
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth,
gene thanks vnto the Lord:
And I among the multitude,
his prayes will record.

31 For he with helpe at his right hand will stand the poore man by:
To saue him from the man that would condemne his soule to dye.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. Cx. N

Dauid propheseth of the power, and exulting kingdome of Christ, and of the Priesthood, which should put an end to the Priesthood of Aley.

Sing this as the 67. psalme.

The Lord did say vnto my Lord,
sit thou at my right hand:
Till I haue made thy foes a stole,
whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send,
the scepter of thy might:

And thy mortall foes be thou,
the ruler in their sight

And in the day on which thy raigne and power they shall see:
Then hereby fre will offerings shall,
the people offer thee.

Yea with an holy worshipping,
then shall they offer all:

Thy braches dew is the dew that doth,
from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworne, and neuer will repent what he doth say:

By the order of Melchisedech,
thou art a Priest for aye:

The Lord thy God on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay:

Shall wound for thee the stately kings
vpon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall iudge, and fill the place with bodies dead:

And ouer diuers countries, shall in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drinke out of the brooke,
that runneth in the way.

Therefore he shall lift vp on hye,
his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. psal. Cxi. N.

¶ Hee giveth thanks to the Lord for his mercie full workes towards his Church, and declarer thre

W
Thy hart I do accord, to prayle and laud the Lord, in presence of the LORD: for great hys workes are found, to search them such a bound, as do hym loue and trust. His workes are glorious, also his righteousnes it doth endure for ever. His wondrous workes

he would, we still remember should,

his mercie fayleth neuer.

5 Such as to hym loue beare,
A portion shall fayle.

¶ He hath by for them layde:

For this they shall well finde,
He will them haue in mynde,
And keepe them as he sayd.

6 For he did not disdayne,
His workes to shew them playne:
By lightninges and by thunder;

When he the heathens land,
Did giue into their hand,

Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his workes ensueth,
Both iudgement, right and truth,

Whereto his statutes tend:
8 They are decreed sure,
for ever to endure.

Which equitie doth end,
Redemption he gaue:

His people for to saue,
9 And hath also required,

His promise not to fayle:
But alwayes to preuaile,
His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with hart full sayns,
True wisdom would attayne,

The Lord feare and obey:
Such as his lawes do keepe,
Shall knowlege haue full depe,
His prayle shall last for aye.

Beatus vir. Psal. Cxii. W. K.

¶ The psalmer the felicity of them that feare God and condemne the cursed state of the wickednes of God.

Sing this as the Lordes prayer.

T He man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth loue in deare:

2 His seede on earth God will byreate,
And blesse such as from him procede.

3 His house with god he will fulfill,
His righteousnesse endure shall still.

4 Vnto the righteous doth arise,
In trouble toy, in darknesse light,

Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his sight:

5 Yea pittie moueth such to lend,
He doth by iudgement thyngs expend.

6 And surely such shall neuer fayle, for in remembraunce had is he:

7 No rydings ill can make him quayle;
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His hart is firme, his feare is fast,
for he shall see his foes downe cast.

9 He did well for the poore provide,
His righteousnesse shall still remaine;

And his estate with prayle abide,
Though that the wicked mandis dayne.

10 Yea gnally his seede threvert shall be,
And to consume his state to see.

In exitu Israel. Psal. Cxliiii W. W.
 Israels deliuered out of Egypt putteth vs in remem brance of Gods great mercyes towards his child dren, and of our vnbthankfulness for the same.

Sing this as the 85. Psalme.

When Israell by Gods aduise,
 from Chanaan land was bent:
 And Jacobs house the Rearngers left,
 and in the same trayne went.

- 1 In Iuda God his glory shewed,
 his holynesse most bright:
 So did the Israelites declare,
 his kingdome power and might.

The sea it saw and sobenly,
 as all amalde did fle:
 The roaring streames of Iordans floud, recedid backwardly.

- 4 As Rams assayed the mostaynes ship,
 their strength he did them forsake:

And as the feily trembling Lambes,
 their tops did beate and shake.

- 5 What ayld the sea as all amalde,
 so sobenly to fle?
- Ye rowlyng waues of Iordans floud,
 why ranne ye backwardly?
- 6 Why shooke ye his as Rams assayed,
 why did your strength so shake?
 Why did your tops as trembling lambes,
 for feare quiet and quake?

 Before the face of Jacobs God,
 feare ye both sea and land.

The saythful oppressed by Ioualous cruantes pray uise that they will nor be vniindful of so great that are in thee alwayes.

 Why shall the heathen scornes say,

 To you and to the children that 17 They that be dead do not with prayse

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi. N.
David being in great danger of Saule in the desert of Gham, perceiving the great and inestimable love of God towards hym, magnified such great mercies, and prophesied that he will bee thankfull for the same.

Sing this as the 111. Psalme.

Love the Lord because my boyce,
and prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my dayes I call on him,
he bowed his eare to me.
3 Euen when the snarers of cruell death,
about beset me round:
When paynes of hell me caught, and whē
I woed and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God the Lord,
then did I call and say:
Deliver thou my soule O Lord,
I do the humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very mercifull, and iust he is also:
And in our God compassion,
doth plentyfully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve,
all those that simple be:
I was in wofull misery,
and he relieved me.
7 And now my soule sith thou art safe,
returne vnto thy rest:
For largely loe the Lord to the,
his bountie hath expressed.

8 Because thou hast deliuered,
my soule from deadly thral:
My moysted eyne from mourntull teares,
my liding face from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land, of life will walke therfore:
10 I did beleue, therfore I spake,
for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I sayd in my distresse and feare, that all men lyers be:
12 What shall I say the Lord for all,
his benefites to me?
13 The wholesome cup of sayung health,
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lordes name I will call,
when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the bowes,
that I haue him behight:
Yea euen at this present tyme,
in all his peoples sight.

15 Right deare and precious in his sight,
the Lord doth aye esteeme:
The death of all his holy ones,
what euer men do deme.

16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant loe,
I do my selfe confesse:
Sonne of thy handmaid, thou hast broght
the bondes of my distresse.

17 And I will offer by to the,
a sacrifice of prayse:
And I will call vpon the name,
of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the bowes,
that I haue him behight:
Yea euen at this present tyme,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Yea in the courtes of Gods own honke, and in the midst of the:
O thou Ierusalem I say,
wherfore the Lord prayse ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxvii. N.
The euergeth the Gentiles to prayse God because he hath accomplished as well to them as to the Jewes the promise of Ihesus Christ.

Sing this as the 98. Psalme.

O All ye nations of the world,
prayse ye the Lord alwayes:
And all ye people euer where,
set forth his noble prayse.
2 For great his kindnesse is to vs,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherfore prayse ye the Lord our God,
prayse ye the Lord I say.

Confitemini Do. Psal. Cxviii. N.
David reiected of Saule of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdom, for the which he hideth all them that feare the Lord, to be thankfull: vnder whose person, Christ is liuely set forth who should be of his people reiected.

Sing this as the 84. Psalme.

O Since ye thankes vnto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure,
foreuer towards the.
2 Let Irael confesse and say,
his mercy dureth for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dureth for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,
euen now confesse and say:
The mercy of the Lord our God,
endureth still for aye.
5 In trouble and is heauinesse, vnto the Lord I cryde:
Which loungly heard me at large,
my sure was not denide.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor feare what man can do to me,
when God standes me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them,
that helpe to succour me:
Therfore I shall see my deare, vpon myne enemy.
8 Better it is to trust in God,
then in many mortall seide:

o put confidence in kinglyes,
or princes in our neede.
9 All nations haue enclosed me,
and compassed me round:
10 But in the name of God shall I,
myne enemies confound.
11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say: (name,
But through the Lordes most mighty,
I shall worke their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lordes name:
I quench their thornes that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust foze at me,
that I in daede might fall:
But through the Lord I found such helpe,
that they were vanquishd all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my toy, my myght, and song:
He is become foze me in daede,
a Sauiour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God,
both bying to passe great thynges:
He causeth voyce of toy and health,
in righteous mens dwellynge.

16 The right hand of the Lord both bying
most mighty thynges to passe:
His hand hath the prehemynence,
his foze is as it was.

17 I will not dye but euer live,
to better and declare:
The Lord his myght and wondrous power,
his workes and what they are.

18 The Lord himselfe hath chastened and hath corrected me:
But hath not giuen me ouer yet,
to death, as ye may se.

19 Set open vnto me the gates, of truth and righteousnesse:
That I may enter into them,
the Lordes prayse to confesse.

20 This is the gate euens of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway, shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will giue thanks to the O Lord,
because thou hast heard me:
And art become most longlyng,
a Sauiour vnto me.

22 The stone which ere this tyme among the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be bled.

23 This was the mighty worke of God,
this was the Lordes owne fact:
And it is maruelous to behold,
with eyes that noble act.

24 This is the topfull day in daede, which God himselfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and toy therein,
in hart, in minde, in thought.

25 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we will with one accord:

26 Blessed be he that comes to vs,

in the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that sheweth vs light, bind ye therefore with cord:
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and giue thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my god I will confesse, and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise,
thy mercy towards me.

29 O giue vs thanks vnto the Lord,
foz gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth indure,
foz euer towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix. W. W

The Prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods law wherein he cannot satisfie him selfe, nor expresse sufficiently his affection, therto adding notable complaines and consolations meete foze the sayth:
full to haue, both in hart and voyce: and in the Hebrie enter & beles begin with one letter of the Alphabet,

B

Blessed are they that perfectare and pure in mynde and hart, whose lyues and conuersation, from Gods lawes neuer starr. 2. Blessed are they that keepe them selfes, his statutes to obserue: Seehyng the Lord, with all their hart, and neuer from him swerne.

3 Doubtlesse, such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thyng:
Which steadfastly walke in his pathes,
without any wandryng.

4 It is thy will and commaundement, that with attentive heder thy noble and diuine preceptes, we learne and haue in daede.

5 Oh would to God it might the please,
my wayes so to addresse:
That I might both in hart and voyce,
thy lawes haue and confesse.

6 So should no shame my life attayne,
whilst I thus see mine eyes:
And bend my mind alwayes to wisse,
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I prayse with byright hart,
and magnifie thy name:
When I shall learne thy iudgementes iust,
and

and likewise proue the same.
 8 And wholly will I giue my selfe,
 to keepe thy lawes most right:
 Forsakeme not for euer Lord, but thew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what meanes maye a yong man best,
 his life learne to amend:
 If that he make and keepe thy word,
 and therein his time spend.
 10 Unfaynely I haue the fought,
 and thus saking abide:
 O neuer suffer me (O Lord)
 from thy pceptes to slide.

11 Within my hart and secret thoughts, thy wordes I haue hid still:
 That I might not at any time, offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy name O Lord,
 and payle the euermore:
 Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
 O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preach,
 and publicly day and night:
 The iudgements all which did procede,
 from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes, please me no lesse in dede:
 Then all the treasures of the earth,
 which worldlings make their mede.

15 Of thy pceptes I will still muse,
 and thereto frame my talke:
 As at a marke so will I ayne,
 thy wayes how I may walke.

16 My onely ioy shall be so fast,
 and on thy lawes so set:
 That nothing can me so far blinde,
 that I thy wordes forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy seruant now such grace
 as may my life prolong:
 Thy holy word then will I keepe,
 both in my hart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut vp
 so open and make bright:
 That of thy law and marvellous workes,
 I may haue the cleare sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth,
 wandring now here now there:
 Thy word therefore to me disclose,
 my footesteps for to cleare.

20 My soule is raiuent with desire,
 and neuer is at rest:
 But seekes to know thy iudgements hie,
 and what may please the best.

21 The proud men and malicious, thou hast destroyed ech one:
 And curst are such as do not,
 thy bestes attend vpon.

22 Lord turne from me rebuke and shame which wicked men conspire:
 For I haue kept thy couenants, with zeale as hote as fire.

23 The ioynces great in counsell see,
 and did against me speake:
 But then thy seruant thought how he,

thy statutes might not breake.
 24 For why thy couenants are my ioy,
 and my great harts solace:
 They serue in the de of counsellers,
 my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The iij. part.

25 I am alas as brought to grieue,
 and almost curst to dust:
 Restore therefore my life agayne,
 as thy promise is iust.

26 My wayes when I acknowledged,
 with mercy thou didst heare:
 Heare now efciones and me instruct,
 thy lawes to loue and feare.

27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know,
 thy pceptes and thy loze:
 Thy workes then will I meditate,
 and lay them vp in boze.

28 My soule I fele so fere oppress, that it melteth for greife:
 According to thy word therefore,
 haue Lord to send reliefe.

29 From lying and deceitful lips,
 let thy grace me defend:
 And that I may learne thew to loue,
 thy holy law me lend.

30 The way of reaty both straight and sure
 I haue cholen and found:
 I set thy iudgements me before,
 which keepe me safe and sound.

31 Since then O Lord I forced my selfe, thy couenants to embrace,
 Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
 nor check in any case.

32 Then will I ren with topfull cheare,
 where thy word doth me call:
 When thou hast set my hart at large,
 and rid me out of thrall.

HE The fifth part.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade, of thy statutes diuine:
 And it to keepe euen to the end,
 my hart will I encline.

34 Graunt me the knowledge of thy law,
 and I shall it obey:
 With hart and mind and al my might,
 I will it keepe I say.

35 In the right path of thy pceptes, guide me Lord I require:
 None other pleasure do I wish,
 nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline my hart thy lawes to keepe,
 and couenants to embrace:
 And from all filthy auarice,
 Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From bayne desires and worldly lusts turne back mine eyes and sight:
 Giue me the sprite of life and power,
 to walke thy wayes aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise Lord, which thou hast made to me:
 Which am thy seruant and do loue,
 and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproch and shame which I so feare,
 from me O Lord expell:
 For thou dost giue with equitie,
 and

*and iustice
 and iustice*

and

and therein dost excell, 40 Beholde my hartes desire is bent,
 thy lawes to keepe for aye Lord strengthen me so with thy grace, that it perke ofme I may.
 V A V The vi Part.
 41 Thy mercies great and manifold,
 let me obtaine (O Lord)
 Thy saving health let me enjoy,
 according to thy word.
 42 So shall I stop the bawdy moutyes of lewd men and brunt:
 For in thy faithfull promises,
 stands my comfort and trust.
 43 The word of truth with in my mouth,
 let ever still be prest:
 For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
 my hope doth stand and rest.
 44 And whilst that breath within my brest,
 doth naturall life preserve:
 Yea till this world shall be dissolved,
 thy lawe will I observe.
 45 So walke will I as set at large,
 and made free from all dreade:
 Because I sought how for to keepe,
 thy precepts and thy reade.
 46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
 as thinges of most great fame:
 Even before kinges I will them blaste,
 and shrinke no whit for shame.
 47 I will reioyce then to obey, thy noble bestes and will:
 Which evermore I have loued best,
 and so will loue them still.
 48 My handes will I lift to thy lawes, which I have dearly sought:
 And practise thy commandements,
 in will in dede and thought.
 Z A I N The vij. Part.
 49 Thy promise which I madst to me,
 thy seruant Lord remember For therein haue I put my trust, and confidence for ever.
 50 It is my comfort and my joy,
 when troubles me assaile:
 For were my life not by thy word,
 my life would soune me fayle.
 51 The proude and such as God contemne, shall made of me a scoone:
 Yet would I not thy law forsake,
 as he that were forlorne.
 52 But cal to mind Lord thy great workes shewed to our fathers old:
 Wherby I see thy toy firm mount,
 my greife an hundred fold.
 53 But yet alas for feare I quake,
 seeing how wicked men:
 Thy law forsake and did procure,
 thy iudgements who knoweth when.
 54 And as for me I frande my songs,
 thy statutes to exalt:
 When I among the strangers dwell,
 and thoughtes gan me assault.
 55 I thoughte upon thy name O Lord,
 by night when others sleepe:
 As for thy law also I kept,

and euer will I keepe.
 56 Thy grace I did obrayne because,
 thy covenants sweete and deare,
 I did embrace and also keepe,
 with reuerence and with feare.
 H E T H. The viii. part.
 O God which art my part and lot,
 my comfort and my stay:
 57 I haue deere d and promised,
 thy lawe to keepe alway.
 58 Mine earnest hart did humbly sit,
 in presence of thy face:
 As thou therefore hast promised,
 Lord graunt me of thy grace.
 59 My life I haue examined, and tryde my secret hart:
 Which to thy statutes caused me,
 my fete straight to conuert.
 60 I did not stay nor linger long,
 as they that slothfull are:
 But hastily thy lawes to keepe,
 I did my selfe prepare.
 61 The cruell bandes of wicked men,
 haue made of me their pray:
 Yet would I not thy lawe forget,
 nor from the go astray.
 62 Thy righteous iudgement shewed toward to great is and so hie: (me)
 That euen at midnight will I rise, thy name to magnifie.
 63 Companion am I to all them,
 which feare the in their hart:
 And neither will for loue nor dread,
 from thy commaundments start.
 64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously, do all the world fulfill:
 O teach me how I may obey,
 thy statutes and thy will.
 T E T H. The ix. part.
 65 According to thy promise Lord,
 so hast thou with me dealt:
 For of thy grace in sundry sores,
 haue I thy seruant felt.
 66 Teach me to iudge alwayes aright,
 and giue me knowledge sure:
 For certainly beareme I do,
 that thy precepts are pure.
 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
 I erred and went astray:
 But now I keepe thy holy word,
 and make it all my stay.
 68 Thou art both good and gracious,
 and giuest most liberally:
 Thy ordinances how to keepe,
 therefore O Lord teach me.
 69 The proud and wicked men haue fogged,
 agaynst me many a lie:
 Yet thy commandments still observe,
 with all my hart will I.
 70 Their hartes are swolne with worldly as greafe so are they fat: (wealth)
 But in thy law be I delight, and nothing seke but that.
 71 O happy time may I well say,
 when thou didst me correct:

70 As a guide to learne thy lawes, thy rods did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law,
is deare manifold:
Then thousands great of silver and golde,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The x. part.

73 Sing thy hands haue made me Lord
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge I shew how to learne,
to put thy lawes in hie.
74 So they that feare the shall reioyce,
when euer they me see:
Because I haue leard by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When is thy rod the world is plagued,
I know the cause is iust:
So when thou doest correct me Lord,
the cause iust needes be iust.
76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy seruant best,
so from all ill me defend:

77 Thy tender mercies poure on me,
and I shall surely liue:
For toy and consolation both,
thy lawes to me do giue.
78 Confound the poud whose false prettice is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy bestes to know,
I will my selfe employ.

79 Who so with reuerence doe thee feare,
to me let them retire:
And such as doe thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My hart without all waivering,
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I shall be spent.

C A P H The xi. part.

81 My soule doth faint and ceaseth not thy saving health to craue:
And for thy wordes sake still I trust,
my hartts desire to haue.

82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
Oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord,
why doest thou thus delay?

83 As a skan bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dryde:
Yet will I not out of my hart,
let thy commandements slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet liue,
before I see the houre:
That on my foes which were torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt poure

85 Idelumptuous men haue digged pits thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they doe procure.

86 But thy commandements are all true,
and causelesse they me graue:
To thee therefore I do complaine,
that thou mightst me relieue.

87 Almost they had me cleane destroyde, and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me Lord agayne to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keepe,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The xii. part.

89 In heauen Lord where thou doest dwell thy word is stablished sure:
And shall for all eternitie,
fast grauent there endure.
90 From age to age thy trust abides,
as doth the earth withnesse:
Whose ground work thou hast laide so sure as no tounge can expresse.

91 Euen to this day we may well see,
how all things perseuere:
According to thy ordinance,
for all things thee reuere.
92 Had it not bene that in thy lawe,
my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse,
I had bene brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye,
in memorie keepe fast:
By them thou hast me life restord,
when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Saue me therefore for to thy lawes,
my eares and hart incline.

95 The wicked men do seeke my hate,
and thereto lye in way:
But I the while considered,
thy noble acts are great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandements and thy word,
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The xiiij. part.

97 What great desire and feruent loue,
do I beare to thy law?
All the day long my whole deuise,
is onely on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me faire to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I keepe it as a thing,
of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keepe,
and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do passe also,
the auncient men in dede:
And all because to keepe thy lawes,
I held it aye best dede.

101 My feete I haue restrained eke,
from enery euil way:
Because that I continually,
thy word might keepe I say.

102 I haue not swerde sed thy iudgements
nor yet shonke any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby,

 find I thy wordes alway?
 Do as I please in my mouth,
 what ought to sweete I may. (leatud)

 that vterly I haue!
 All wicked and vngodly waies,

N V N The xiiii. part.

- 105 E Wen as a lancet to my feete,
 so doth thy worde shine bright:
 And to my parbes where euer I go,
 it is a flaming light.
- 106 I haue boeh sworn and will perfoyme,
 most certainly doubtlesse:
 That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
 and them in life expresse.
- 107 Affliction hath me sore oppress,
 and brought me to deathes doze:
 O Lord as thou hast promised,
 so me to life restore.

 most franchly I the giue:
 Accept and reach me now I may,
 after thy iudgements iue.
- 109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
 that daungers it assaile:
 Yet do I not thy law forget,
 nor it to keepe will faile.
- 110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
 to catch me at a Bray:
 Yet did I not from thy precepts,
 once swarne of goe astray.

- 111 Thy law I haue so clained alway,
 as mine owne heritage:
 And why? for therein I delight,
 and let my whole courage,

 thy statutes to fulfill:
 Euen so likewise vnto the end,
 I will continue still.

L A M E C H The xv. part.

- 113 T He crafty thoughtes & double harted
 I do alwaies detest:
 But as for thy law and precepts,
 I loued them euer best.
- 114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
 my shield of strong defence:
 Therefore haue I thy promises,
 lookt for with patience.
- 115 Goe too therefore ye wicked men,
 depart from me anone:
 For th: commandments will I keepe,
 of God my Lord alone.
- 116 As thou hast promised so perfoyme,
 that I may not assaile:
 Nor let my hope abuse me so,
 that through distrust I qualle.
- 117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
 for ought they do or say:
 And in thy statutes pleasure take,
 will I both night and day.
- 118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy fette,
 as do thy statutes break:
 As nought amales their subtiltie,

their counsell is but weak.

- 119 Like dyssle thou castest the wicked out where euer they goe or dwell:
 Wherefore can I as thy statutes,
 loue nothing halfe so well.
- 120 My flesh alas is taken with feare,
 as though it were benomd.
 For when I see thy iudgements, dreights
 I am as one abond.

- 121 I Do the thing that lawfull is,
 and giue to all men right:
 Religne me not to them that would,
 oppresse me with their might.
- 122 But for thy seruant surety be,
 in that thing that is good:
 That proud men giue me not the fofte,
 which rage as they were wood.
- 123 Mine eyes th: waiting are now blind
 thy health so much I craue:
 And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.
- 124 Intreat thy seruant lowly,

 Thy statutes of most excellencie, teach me also to know.
- 125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
 graunt me to vnderstand:
 Now by thy statutes I may know,
 best what to take in hand.
- 126 It is now time Lord to begin,
 for tructy is quite decayd:
 Thy law likewise they haue transgress,
 and none against them sayd.
- 127 This is the cause wherefore I lotts
 thy lawes better then gold:
 Or Jewels fine which are est:md,
 most costly to be sold.
- 128 I thought thy precepts al most iust,
 and so them laide in hope:
 All craftie and malicious waies,
 I do abhorre therfore.

 and full of things profound:
 My soule therfore doth keepe them sure,

 they finde a light most cleare:
 And very I doo vnderstand,
 when they it reade or heare.
- 131 For toy I haue both gaped & breath'd to know thy commandment:
 That I might guide my life thereby,
 I sought what thing it ment.
- 132 With mercy and compassion Lord,
 behold me from aboue:
 As thou art wont to behold such,
 as thy name feare and loue.

 that I thy will may know:

ZADE The xviii. part.

And when thou doest sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous iudge:

139 With zeale and watch I am confound and euen pinde away:

To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:
And I thy seruant nothing more,
do loue or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degre:

Yet do I not thy helles forget,
nor wipke away from thee.

142 Thy righteousnesse Lord is most iust,
for euer to endure:
Also thy law is truely it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grieffe haue sealed on me,
and brought me wondrous low:

Yet do I still of thy precepts, delight to heare and know.

144 The righteousnesse of thy iudgements, doth last for euer more:

Then teach them me, for euen in them,
my life lyeth by in store.

KOPH The xix. part.

145 With seruent hart I said & crde,
now answer me O Lord:

That thy commandements to obserue,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suite,
with most humble request:

Save me therefore and I will keepe,
thy precepts and thy best.

147 To thee I crye euen in the moone,
before the day wane light:

Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes preuent I watch by night,
and ere they call I wake.

That by deuyng of thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my boice,
and pittie on me take:

As thou wast wont so to iudge me Lord,
least life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neare and do procure,
my death maliciously:

Which from thy law are farre gone back,
and straid from it lewdly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neare for need doth so require:

And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments I haue leard not now but long agoe:

That they remaine for euer more,
thou hast them grounde so.

RESH The xx. part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law,
I euer take fast hold.

154 Defend my god and righteous cause, with speed me succour send:

From death as thou hast promised,
Lord keepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked far they are,
from hauing health and grace:

Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I graunt, what counsell can them attaine?

And as thou hast me iudged ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:

Yet from thy lawes I neuer shonke, nor went away therefore.

158 And truely it is for grieffe I dye,
when I these traitors see:

Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seeke to know thee.

159 Behold for I do loue thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:

As thou art god and gracious Lord, restore my life againe.

160 What thy word doth detre, must be
and so it hath beene euer:

Thy righteous iudgements are alse,
most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN The xxi. part.

161 P Rinces haue sought by crueltie, causelesse to make me crouch:

But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.

162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merry and glad:

Then be that of rich spoiles and pray,
great hope and plenty had.

163 As for all yes and falsitie,
I hate most and detest:

For why? thy holy lawes do I,
aboue all things loue best.

164 Seven times a day I praye the Lord singing with heart and voice:

Thy righteous actes and wonderfull,
so cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue
as do thy statutes loue:

As danger shall their quiet state,
impaire or once remoue.

David banished from among the barbarous Arabians through false reproches of eniuous flatterers; las-

Within these tents so blacke,
Which kedars are by name:
By whome the shecke elect,

I came a peace to make,
And see a quiet life:

Sing this as the x. Commandments.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely:
And flee to him foz his defence
In all their neede and misery.
Their faith is sure firme to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner stone:
Honored with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Zion.

And as about Ierusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass:
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case.
So God in deed, in every neede,
His faithfull people dorch defend:
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God
And will not suffer certainly:
The sinners and vngodlyes rode,
To tary vpon his family.
Least they also from God should go,
Falling to sinne and wickednesse.
O Lord defend world without end:
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to Christians al,
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide.
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,

With hypocrites throwne downe to hell,
God will them send paines without end,
But Lord graunt peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might,
And to his Sonne our Sauiour:
And to the holy Ghost whose light,
Shine in our hartes and vs succour,
That the right way from day to day,
We may walk and him glorifie:
With hartes desire all that are here,
Worship the Lord and say, Amen.

In conuertendo. Psal. Cxxvi. W. K.
This Psalme was made after the returne of the people from Babilon, and sheweth that the meane of their deliurance was wonderful, after the seventy yeares of captivity foretold by Ieremy
25. 12. 3. 29. 10.

When that the Lord againe his Zion had forth brought, from bondage great and also seruitude extreme: His worke was such as did surmount mans hart and thought, so that we were much like to the that vse to drame: Our mouthes were with laughter filled then, and he our tongues did shew vs ioyfull men.

3 The heathen folke,
were forced then this to confesse,
How that the Lord
foz them also great things had done.

3 But much more we
and therefore can confesse no lesse, Wherefoze to ioy
we haue good cause as we begun.

4 O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts,
the flowing riuers send.

5 Full true it is that they which sow in teares in deed,
A time will come when they shall reape in mirth and ioy:

6 They went and wept
in hearing of their precious seede, Foz that their foes,
full oftentimes did them annoy.
But their returne

That we with heartes most carefull,
Would feare before thy face.

- 5 In God I put my whole trust,
my soule waiteth on his will:
For his promise is most iust,
and I hope therein still.
- 6 My soule to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway:
Hope then thy that watch and warde,
to see the dawning day.
- 7 Let Israel then boldly,
in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy,
that his deliuer must.
- 8 For he it is that must saue,
Israel from his sinne:
And all such as surely haue, theire confidence in him.

from age to age, for aye.

Memento Domine. Psal. Cxxxii. M.

The faithful grounded on Gods promise made vnto Dauid, desirerh that he would establish the same both as touching hys posteritie, and the building of the temple, to pray there as was foretolden.

how to the Lord he swore, and bowd a bowe to Jacobs God, to heep for euere:

more. I will not come within my house, nor come by to my bed, nor let my temples take their rest, or the eyes

in my head.

- 11 I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God, to be an habitation.
- 6 We heard of it at Euphrata,
there did we heare this sound:
And in the fieldes and forrestes there,
these voyces first were found.
- 7 We will assay and go in now,
his tabernacle there?
Before his footstole to fall downe,
by on our knees in feare.
- 8 Arise O Lord arise I say,
into thy resting place:
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.
- 9 Let all thy Priestes be clothed Lord,
with truth and righteousnesse:
Let all thy Saintes and holy men,
sing all with ioyfulness.
- 10 And for thy seruants Dauid's sake,
refuse not Lord I say:
The face of thine appointed Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The second part.

- 11 The Lord to Dauid swore in truth,
and will not breake from it:
Saying the feute of thy body,
by on thy seare shall sit.
- 12 And if thy finnes my coneuant keepe,
that I shall leaue echone:
Then shall their finnes for euer sit,
by on thy princely throne.
- 13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Sion,
and loner therein to dwell:
14 Saying this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.
- 15 And I will blesse with great increase,
her victuals euery where:
And I will satisfie with bread,
the needy that be there.

- 16 yea I will decke & cloth her Priestes,
with my saluation:
And all her Saintes shall sing for
of my protection.
- 17 There will I surely make the borne,
of Dauid for to bud:
for there I haue ordaind for myne,
a lantern bright and good.
- 18 As for his enemies I will cloth,
with shame for euermore:
But I will cause his crowne to shine,
more fresh then heretofore.

For certaynely. &c.

His seruante Dabac I say:
He gaue the same to dwell,
And there abide for aye:
For certaynely. &c.

23 To mynde he did vs call,
In our most base degre:
24 And from opprethors all,
In safetie let vs free.

Super flumina. Psal. Cxxxvii. W. W.

The Israelites in their captivity hearing the Caldeans reproch and blaspheme God, and his Religion, desire God to punish the Egiptians, who persecuted the Babylonians against them, & prophesie the destruction of Babylon.

When as we late in Babylon,
He rinces round about, and in rement

byaunce of Ston, the teares for grieft burst out. We hangd our harps and in-strumetes the willow trees vpon: for in that place men for their vs, had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
sayd to vs tauntingly:
Now let vs heare your wylful songes,
and pleasaunt melody.

4 Alas sayd we who can once frame,
his joyous full hart to sing:
The prayes of our louyng God,
thus vnder a strange kyng?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem,
out of my hart let sibe:
Then let my fingers quite forget,
the warbylyng harpe to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
be tyed for ever fast:
If that I toy before I see,
thy fall deliuerance past.

7 Therfore O Lord remember now,
the cursid noyse and cry:
That Edoms sonnes agaynst vs made,
when they razed our Citie.
Remember Lord, their cruell wordes,
when as with one accord:
They cryed, on, sake, & raze their walle
in despite of the Lord.

8 Euen so, what thou (O Babylon)
at length to dust be brough:
And happy shall that man be cald,
that our reuenge hath wrought.

9 Yea blessed shall that man be cald, that takes thy children young:
To daly their bones agaynst bars stone which lye the firetes among.

Confitebor tibi. psal. Cxxxviii. N.

David prayeth the goodnes of God toward him, for which, euen foreign Princes shall praye the Lord together with hym. And he's assured to haue like comfort: of God hereafter, as heereofore.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.
The will I praye with my whole hart,
my Lord my God alwayes: Euen in the presence of the Gods,
I will aduance thy praye:
Toward thy holy temple I,
will loue and worship the:
And praised in my thankfull mouth,
thy holy name shall be.

2 Euen for thy louyng kindnes sake,
and for thy reuch withall:
For thou thy name hast by thy word,
aduanced ouer all.

When I did call thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also:
the power of encreased strength,
within my soule to grow.

Yea all the kings on earth they shall give praise to the O Lord:
or they of thy most holy mouth,
haue heard the mightie word.
They of the waies of God the Lord,
in singing shall entreat:
because the glory of the Lord,
it is exceeding great.

The Lord is high, and yet he doth,
behold the lowly spirit:
But he contemning knowes a farre,
the proud and loftie wight.
Although in midst of trouble I do walke yet shall I stand:
Renewed by the O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand.

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be:
By thy right hand the Lord God will,
performe his worke to me.
Thy mercy Lord endures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the worke,
which thine owne hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

David to cleanse his hart from all hypocrysy, sheweth that nothing is so secret which God seeth not after declaring his zeale and feare of God, he pro-testeth to be enemy to all them that contene God

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Lord thou hast me tryed and knowne,
my sitting thou dost know:
And rising eke my thoughtes a farre,
thou understandst also.
My pathes yea and my lying downe,
thou compassedst alwayes:
And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.

No word is in my tongue (O Lord)
but knowne it is to thee:
Thou me behinde holdst and before,
thou layest thine hand on mee.
To wonderfull about my teach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is to thee that I the same,
cannot attayne but will.

From sight of thy all seying spite,
Lord whether shall I go:
whether shall I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro:
To heauen if I mount aloft,
loe thou art present there:
All if I lye downe below,
euen there thou dost appere.

Yea let me take the moynnyng winges,
and let me goe and hyde:
en there where are the farthest partes,
where flowing sea doth lye.

Yea euen whether also shall,
thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

Yea if I say the darknesse
yet shoud me from thy light:
Loe euen also the darkest night,
about me shall be light.
Yea darknesse wher not from thee,
but night doth thine as day
To thee the darknesse and the light, are both a like alway.

The second part.

For thou possessedst my rayner,
and thou hast covered me:
When I within my mothers womb,
enclosed was by thee.

The will I prayse, made fearefull,
and wondrously I am:
Thy workes are marueilous, right well
my soule doth know the same.

My bones they are not hid from thee
although in secret place:
I haue bene made and in the earth,
beneath I shaped was.

When I was formelesse, then thine eye,
saw me, for in thy booke:
Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion toke.

The thoughts therfore of thee (O God)
how deare are they to me:
And of them all how passing great,
the endlesse number be.

If I should count the sand, loe their summe,
more then the sand I see:
And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

The wicked and the bloudy man,
oh that thou wouldest slay:
Euen those (O God) to whom depart, depart from me I say.

Euen those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speake full wickedly:
Those that are lifted by in bayne,
being enemies to thee.

Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise:
Content I not agaynst them all,
agaynst thee that arise?

I hate them with vnfayned hate,
euen as my bitter foes:
Try me (O God) and know my hate,
my thoughtes prone and disclose.

Consider Lord if wickednesse,
in me there any be:
And in thy way O God my guide,
for euen lear thou me.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl. N.

David prayeth unto the Lord agaynst the cruelty fallood, and iniuries of his enemies, assuring him selke of his succour. Wherefore he prouoketh the Lord to prayse the Lord, and to assure themselves of his curiaj.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

Lord saue me from the euill man and from the cruell wightes

Deliver me, which euill doe unagine in their spires.
Which make on me continuall warre,
their tongues loe they haue wher:
Like serpents vnderneath their lips,
is adders poppon let.

3 And thou continuest holy : without worshipp of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee : they trusted in thee and thou diddest deliuer them.

5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for me, I am a worme, and no man: a besp scape of men, and outcast of the people.

7 All they that see mee, laugh me to scorn: they shoote out their lips, and shake their head saying.

8 He trusted in God, that he would deliuer him: let him deliuer him, if he will haue him.

9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon
my mothers breasts.

10 I haue bene left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God, euē from my mothers wombe.

11 I doe not from me, for trouble is hard at hand:
and there is none to helpe me.

12 Many open are come about me: fatte bulles of Babylon close me in on euery side.

13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a ramping and roaring Lion.

14 I am powdered out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart also in the midst of my body is euen like melting ware.

15 My strength is dried by like a potheard, & my tongue cleaueth to my gummies: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16 For (many) dogges are come about me: and the counsel of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They peared my hands & my feete, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking vpon me.

18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots vpon my vesture.

19 But be not thou farre from me, O Lorde: thou art my succour, haue thee to helpe me.

20 Deliuē my soule from the sword: my dearling from the power of the dogge.

21 Saue me from the Lions mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the homes of the Unicemes.

22 I will declare thy name vnto my brethren in the middest of the congregation: will I praise thee.

23 O praise the Lorde ye that feare him: magnifie him al wee of the seede of Iaakob, and feare him al wee keede of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poore, hee hath not hid his face from him:
but when he called vpon him, he heard him.

25 My praise is of thee in thy great congregatiō: my boies will I performe in the light of thym y feare him.

26 The poore shall eate and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lorde, shall praise him, your heart shall sing for euer.

27 All the endes of the world shall remember themselues, & be turned vnto the Lorde: and al the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the kingdome is the Lordes: and hee is the gouernour among the people.

29 All such as be fatte vpon earth: haue eaten and worshipped.

30 All they that go downe into the dust shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickened his owne soule.

31 My seede shall serue him: they shall bee counted
vnto the Lorde for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: vnto a people that shall be doyme, whom the Lorde hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23.

The Lorde is my sheppard: therefore can I lacke nothing.

2 He shall feede me in a greene pasture: and leade me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall comfort my soule: and bring me forth in the pathes of righteousnesse for his names sake.

4 Yea, though I walke through the valley of the shadowe of death, I will feare no euill: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before mee against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercy shall folowe me al the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lorde for euer.

Dominus est terra. Psal. 24.

The earth is the Lords, & all that therein is: the Morning prayer.

1 For he hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floods.

2 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lords: or who shall rise vp in his holy place?

3 Euen hee that hath cleane hands & a pure heart:
and that hath not liti by his minde vnto vanitie, nor sworne to deeuie his neighbour.

4 He shall receiue the blessing from the Lorde: and righteousnesse from the God of his saluation.

5 This is the generation of them that seeke him:
euē of them that seeke thy face, O Iacob.

6 Lift vp your heads, O pee gates, and be pee l
by pee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

7 Who is the King of glory? it is the Lorde strong and mighty, euen the Lorde mighty in battell.

8 Lift vp your heads, O pee gates, and be pee list
by pee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

9 Who is the King of glory? euen the Lorde of hostes, hee is the King of glory.

Ad te Domine. Psal 25.

Vnto thee, O Lorde, will I lift up my soule, my God,
I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph ouer me.

2 For al they the hope in thee shall not bee assa-med: but such as transgress without a cause, shall bee put to confusion.

3 Shewe me thy wayes, O Lorde: and teach mee thy paths.

4 Leade me forth in thy truth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath bene my hope al the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lorde, thy tender mercies:
and thy louing kindnesse which hath bene euē of olde.

6 O remember not the finnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy thinke thou vpon me (O Lorde) for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lorde: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that be meeke shall be guide in iudgements:
and such as be gentle, them shall he learne his way.

9 All the paths of the Lorde are mercy & truth: vnto such as keepe his couenant and his testimonies.

10 For thy names sake, O Lorde: be mercifull vnto my sinne for it is great.

11 What man is he that feareth the Lorde: him shall he teach in the way that hee shall chuse.

12 His soule shall dwell at ease: and his seede shall inherit the land.

13 The secret of the Lorde is among them that feare him: and hee will shewe them his couenant.

14 Mine eyes are euē looking vnto the Lorde: for hee shall plucke my feete out of the net.

- 15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me:
 16 I am desolate and in miserie.
 17 The ioyes of my heart are enlarged: & being about me out of troubles.
 18 Looke vpon mine aduertise and miserie: and 19 giue me all my sinne.
 20 Consider mine enemies how many they are: and they beare a rancorous hate against me.
 21 O keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let me not be founded, for I put my trust in thee.
 22 Let perfectnesse and righteous dealing waite vpon me: for my hope hath bene in thee.
 23 Deliu'er Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.
 Iudica me Domine. Plak. 26.

BE thou my iudge, O Lorde, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath bene also in the Lorde, therefore shal I not fall.

- 1 Examine me, O Lorde, and proue me: trie out my reines and my heart.
 2 For thy louing kindenesse is euer before mine eyes: and I wil walke in thy truech.
 3 I haue not dwelt with vaine persons: neither wil
 I haue fellowship with the deceitful.
 4 I haue hated the congregation of the wicked: and wil not sit among the vngodly.
 5 I wil wash my hands in innocencie, O Lorde:
 and so wil I goe to thine altar.
 6 That I may shewe the voyce of thanksgiuing:
 and tel of all thy wonderous workes.
 7 Lorde, I haue loued the habitation of thy house:
 and the place where thine honour dwelleth.
 8 O shut not by my soule with the sinners: nor se with the bloudthirstie.
 9 In whose hands is wickednesse: and their right hands are full of gifts.
 10 But as for me, I wil walke innocently: O Lorde sinner me, and be mercifull vnto me.
 11 By foote standeth right: I wil prayse the Lorde in the congregations.
 Dominus illuminatio. Psal. 27.

The Lorde is my light and my saluation, to whom then shal I feare: the Lorde is the strength of my life, of whom then shal I be afraid?

- 1 When the wicked (euen mine enemies and my foes) came vpon me to eate by my flesh: they stumbled and fel.
 2 Though an hoste of men were laide against me, yet shal not my heart be afraid: & though there rose by oare against me, yet wil I put my trust in him.
 3 One thing haue I desired of the Lorde, which I wil require: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lorde, and to discourse his temple.
 4 For in the time of trouble he shal hide mee in his tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shal
 he hide me, and set me vpon a rocke of stone.
 5 And now shal he lift by mine head: about mine enemies round about me.
 6 Therefore wil I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse: I wil sing and speake psalms vnto the Lorde.
 7 Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crye vnto thee: haue mercy vpon me, and heare me.
 8 Thy heart hath talked of thee, seeke ye my face:
 the face which I seeke.
 9 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant away in displeasure.
 10 Thou hast bene my succour: seake me not, neither forsake me, O God of my saluation.
 11 When my father and my mother forsake me: the Lorde taketh me vpon.

- 12 Teach me thy way, O Lorde: and leade me in the right way, be cause of mine enemies, 13 Deliu'er me not ouer into the wil of mine aduer-saries: for there are false witnessnes risen by against me,
 and such as speake wrong.
 14 I should be utterly haue fainted: but that I be-lieue verily in the goodnesse of the Lorde in the land of the liuing.
 15 O tary thou the Lords lesaure: be strong, and he shal comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lorde.

Ad te Domine. Psal. 28.

Vnto thee wil I crye, O Lorde my strength: thinke no scoome of me, lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that goe downe into the pit.

- 1 Heare the voyce of my humble petitions when I crye vnto thee: when I holde by my hands toward the mercie seate of thy holy Temple.
 2 O plucke mee not away (neither destroy mee) with the vngodly and wicked doers: which speake friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.
 3 Reward them according to their deedes: and according to the wickednesse of their owne inuentions.
 4 Recompense them after the worke of their hands:
 pay them that they haue deserued.
 5 For they regard not in their minds the workes of the Lorde, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shal
 he breake them downe, and not build them vp.
 6 Prayse be the Lorde: for he hath heard the voyce of my humble petitions.
 7 The Lorde is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him, & I am helped: therefore my heart daunceth for ioy, and in my song wil I praise him.
 8 The Lorde is my strength: and hee is the whollome defence of his anointed.
 9 O saue thy people, & giue thy blessing vnto thine inheritance: seee them, and let them by for euer.
 Afferte Domino. Psal. 29.

Bring vnto the Lorde (O pee mightie) being pong in rammes vnto the Lorde: ascribe vnto the Lorde worship and strength.

- 1 Giue the Lorde the honour due vnto his name:
 worship the Lorde with holy worship.
 2 It is the Lorde that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.
 3 It is the Lorde that ruleth the sea, the voyce of the Lorde is mightie in operation: the voyce of the Lorde is a glorious voyce.
 4 The voyce of the Lorde breaketh the Cedars trees:
 yea, the Lorde breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.
 5 He made them also to skip like a calf: Libanus also and Syon like a pong Unicorne.
 6 The voyce of the Lorde denudeth the flames of fire, the voyce of the Lorde shaketh the wilderness: yea, the Lorde shaketh the wilderness of Cades.
 7 The voyce of the Lorde maketh the Hindes to bring forth pong, and discouereth the thicke bushes: in his Temple doeth euerie man speake of his honour.
 8 The Lorde stretcheth about the water flood: and the Lorde remaineth a king for euer.
 9 The Lorde shall giue strength vnto his people:
 the Lorde shall giue his people the blessing of peace.
 Exaltebo te Domine. Psal. 30.

I wil magnifie thee, O Lorde, for thou hast set mee
 by: and not misse my foes to triumph oer me.
 2 O Lorde my God, I cryed vnto thee: and thou hast healed me.
 3 Thou O Lorde hast brought my soule out of hel: thou hast kept my life from them that goe downe to the pit.

Morning
 prayer.

4 Sing psalmes vnto the Lord (O ye saints of his:) and giue thanks to him for a remembrance of his holinesse.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heauinesse may endure for a night, but ioy commeth in the morning.

6 And in my prosperitie I sayd, I shal neuer be remoued: thou Lord of thy goodnesse hadst made my hill so strong.

7 Thou diddest turne thy face (from mee:) and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lord: and gate me vnto my Lord right humbly.

9 What profit is there in my blood: when I goe downe to the pit?

10 Shal the dust giue thanks vnto thee: or shal it declare thy truthes?

11 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercy vpon me: Lord be thou my helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heauinesse into ioy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, & girded me with gladnesse.

13 Therefore shal euery good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I will giue thanks vnto thee for ever.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. 31.

In thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: let me neuer be put to confusion, deliuer me in thy righteousnesse.

2 Bowe downe thine eare to me: make hast to deliuer me.

3 And be thou my strong rocke, and the house of defence: that thou mayest saue me.

4 For thou art my strong rocke, and my castle: bee thou also my guide, and leade me for thy names sake.

5 Drawe me out of the net that they haue laide secretly for me: for thou art my strength.

6 Into thy handes I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I haue hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath bene in the Lord.

8 I will be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast knowen my soule in aduersities.

9 Thou hast not shut me vp into the hand of the enemy: but hast set my feete in a large roume.

10 Haue mercy vpon mee, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heauines, yea, my soule and my body.

11 For my life is woren olde with heauinesse: and my peres with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquitie: and my bones are consumed.

13 It became a reproofe among all mine enemies, but specially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of mee, and they that did see me without, contemped themselues from me.

14 I am cleane forgotten, as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I haue heard the blasphemie of h multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspire together against me, & take their counsel to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath bene in thee, O Lord: I haue said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand, deliuer me from h hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Show thy seruant the light of thy countenance: and saue me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I haue called vpon thee: let the bigodly bee put to confusion, and be put to silence in the graue.

20 Let h lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, & disdainfully, & despitefully speake against h righteous.

21 O howe plentifull is thy goodnesse, which thou hast layde vp for them that feare thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, euen before the times of men!

22 Thou shalt hide them secretly by thine owne presence, from the prouoking of all men: thou shalt keepe them secretly in thy tabernacle from h strike of tongue.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath bestowed me marueilous great kindnes in a striding cite.

24 And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Neuertheless thou heardest the voyce of my prayer: when I cried vnto thee.

26 O howe the Lord alpe his Saintes: for the Lord preferueth them that are faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the pious doer.

27 Be strong, and be shal stablish your hearts: all ye that put your trust in the Lord.

Beati quo um. Psal. 32.

Blessed is he whose vnrightheadnesse is forgiven: and whose sinne is couered.

2 Blessed is the man vnto whom the Lord imputeth no sinne: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

4 For thy hand is heauie vpon mee day and night: and my moisture is like the drought in sommer.

5 I will knowledge my sinne vnto thee: and mine vnrightheadnesse haue I not hid.

6 I said, I will confesse my finnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgauest the wickednesse of my sinne.

7 For this shall euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shal not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide mee in: thou shalt preserue mee from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliuerance.

9 I will enforme thee, & teach thee in h way wherein thou shalt goe: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouths must be holden with bitte and bridle, least they fall vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remaine for the bigodly: but who so putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on euery side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lord: and be ioyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate iusti. Psal. 33.

Reioyce in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the iust to be thankful.

2 Praise the Lord with harpe: sing Psalmes vnto him with the late and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing vnto the Lord a newe song: sing psalmes freshly (vnto him) with a good courrage.

4 For the voyce of the Lord is true: and all his works are faithful.

5 He toucheth righteousnes and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heaues made: and all the hostes of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, as it were vpon an heape: and layeth by the deepe as in a treasure house.

8 Let all the earth feare the Lord: stand firm vnto him all ye that dwell in the world.

9 For he spake, and it was done: he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsell of the he nauight: and maketh the deuices of the peo none effect, and calleth out the counsellors of h

Evening prayer.

11 The counsell of the Lorde shall endure for ever: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord Jehoua: and blessed are the folke that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked downe from heauen, and beheld all the children of men from the habitation of his dwelling: he considered all them that dwell in the earth.

14 He fashioned all the hearts of them: and understood all their wishes.

15 There is no kin, that can be saved by the multitude of an host: neither is any mightie man deliuered by much strength.

16 A horse is counted but a vaine thing to saue a man: neither shall hee deliuer any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is vpon them that feare him: and vpon them that put their trust in his mercy.

18 To deliuer their soules from death: and to feed them in the time of dearth.

19 Our soule hath patiently caried for the Lord: for he is our helpe, and our shield.

20 For our heart shall reioyce in him: because wee haue hoped in his holy name.

21 Let thy mercifull kindnesse (O Lorde) be vpon vs: like as we doe put our trust in thee.

Benedicam Domino. Psal. 34.

I will alway giue thanks vnto the Lord: his praise shall euer be in my mouth.

2 My soule shall make her boast of the Lorde: the humble shall heare thereof and be glad.

3 My praise the Lorde with me: and let vs magnifie his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my feare.

5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 Lo, the poore crieth, and the Lorde heareth him: yea, and saueh him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the Lord carrieth round about them that feare him, and deliuereth them.

8 O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 Weare the Lord yee that be his saints: for they that feare him lacke nothing.

10 The Lions doe lacke, and suffer hunger: but they which seeke the Lord, shall want no manner of thing that is good.

11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me: I will teach you the feare of the Lord.

12 What man is he that lusteth to flue, and would faine see good dayes: keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips that they speake no guile.

13 O cease to euill, & doe good: seeke peace, & ensue it.

14 The eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers.

15 The countenance of the Lorde is against them that doe euill: to roote out the remembrance of them from the earth.

16 The righteous cry, and the Lorde heareth them: and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.

17 The Lord is high vnto them that are of a conuoluted heart: and will saue such as be of a humble spirit.

18 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord deliuereth them out of all.

19 He keepeth all his bones: so that none of them shall be broken.

20 His misfortune shall slay the vngodly: and they that hate the righteous, shall be desolate.

21 The Lord deliuereth the soules of his seruants:

and all they that put their trust in him, shall not bee desolate.

Iudica Domine. Psal. 35.

Pleade thou my cause, O Lorde, with them that Morning stirre with mee: and fight thou against them that prayer, fight against me.

2 Lay hand vpon the shield and buckler: and stand by to helpe me.

3 Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute mee: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them bee confounded and put to shame that seeke a ster my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord scattereth them.

6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they haue priuily laid their net to destroy mee without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that he hath laide priuily catch him selfe: that he may fall into his owne mischief.

9 And my soule, be ioyful in the Lorde: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bone shall say, Lorde, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in misery, from him that oppresseth him.

11 False witness did rise by: they sayde to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Heere the selfe, when they were sicke I put on sacke cloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shall come into mine owne bosome.

14 I behaued my selfe as though it had bene my friends, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourned for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very aduersers came together against me vnawares, making mooves at mee, and reared not.

16 With the flatterers were bulle mockers: which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities which they bring on me, and my deaerling from the Lions.

18 So will I giue thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them winke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their coming is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull wordes against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped on me with their mouthes, & sayd: Flye on thee, flye on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou shalt see, O Lorde: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lord.

23 Awake & stand by to iudge my quarrel: auenge thou my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Iudge me, O Lorde my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would we haue our neighbour let them say, We haue deuoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion & shame together that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them be glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prospe of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shal be talking of thy righteousness: and of thy praye at the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. 36.

My heart the wech me the wickednes of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himselfe in his owne sight: until his abominable sinne be found out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vntighteous, and full of deceit: he hath left off to behaue himselfe wisely, and to doe good.

4 He imagineth mischief vpon his bed, and hath set himselfe in no good way: neither doeth hee abhorre any thing that is euil.

5 Thy mercie (O Lord) reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy faithfullnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousness shal be like the strong mountaines: thy iudgements are like the great deepe.

7 Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast, howe excellent is thy mercie, O God: and the children of men shal put their trust vnder the shadowe of thy wings.

8 They shal be satisfied with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt giue them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuier.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shal we see light.

10 O continue sooth thy louing kindnes vnto them that knowe thee: and thy righteousness vnto them that are true of heart.

11 Let not the foote of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast me downe.

12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednes: they are cast downe, and shal not be able to stand.

Noli emulari. Psal. 37.

Ret not thy selfe, because of the vngodly: neither be thou enuious against the euil doers.

2 For they shall soon be cut downe like the graske: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.

3 But thou thy trust in the Lord, & be doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and hee shal giue thee thy hearts desire.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, & put thy trust in him: and he shal bring it to passe.

6 He shal make thy righteousness as cleare as the light: and thy iust dealing as the noone day.

7 Holde thee still in the Lord, & abide patiently vpon him: but grieue not thy selfe at him, whose way doeth prosper, against y man that doeth efter euil counsaile.

8 Leane off from wraich: and let go displeasure: fret not thy selfe, else shalt thou be moued to doe euil.

9 Wicked doers shal be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shal inherite the land.

10 Yet a litle while, and the vngodly shal be cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and hee shal be away.

11 But the meeke spirited shal possesse the earth: and shal be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The vngodly seeketh counsaile against the iust: and gnaweth vpon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shal laugh him to scoone: for he hath seene that his day is coming.

14 The vngodly haue diuined out the wordes, and haue bent their bowe to cast downe the poore: & needie, and to slay such as be of a right countenance.

15 Their sword shal goe through their owne heart: and their bow shal be broken.

16 A final thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly shal be broken: and the Lord vpholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shal endure for euer.

19 They shal not be reuorsed in the perditions time: & in the dayes of death they shal haue prouide.

20 As for the vngodly they shal perish, and the enemies of the Lord shal consume as the fawce of lambes: yea, euen as the smoke shal they consume away.

21 The vngodly boiuelth, and papeth not agottes: but the righteous is merciful and liberal.

22 Such as be blessed of God, shal possesse y lands: and they that be cursed of him, shal be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himselfe.

24 Though he fall, he shal not be cast away: for the Lord vpholdeth him with his hand.

25 I haue bene young, and now am olde: and yet saw I neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his seede beging their bread.

26 The righteous is euer merciful, and leneth, and his seede is blessed.

27 Flee from euil, and doe the thing that is good: and dwell for euermore.

28 For the Lord loueth the thing that is right: he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preserved for euer.

29 The righteous shal be punished: as for the seede of the vngodly it shal be rooted out.

30 The righteous shal inherite the land: and dwell therein for euer.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom: and his tongue wil be talking of iudgement.

32 The laue of God is in his heart: and his goings shal not slide.

33 The vngodly seeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The Lord wil not leaue him in his hand: nor condemne him when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keepe his way: and he shal promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the land: when the vngodly shal perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I my selfe haue leene y vngodly in great powere and flourishing like a greene Bay tree.

37 And I went by, and loe, he was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where be found.

38 Keepe innocencie, and take heede vnto the thing that is right: for that shal bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressours, they shal perish together: and the ende of the vngodly is, they shal be rooted out at the last.

40 But the saluation of the righteous cometh of the Lord: which is also their strength in the time trouble.

41 And the Lord shal stand by them, & saue them: he shal deliuer them from the vngodly, and shal saue them because they put their trust in him.

Domine in iurore. Psal. 38.

Pleas me not to rebuke (O Lord) in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heauie displeasure.

2 For thine arrowes haue stuck fast in me: and thy hand hath pressed me fore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesse are gone ouer my head: and are like a soce burthen too heauie for me to beare.

5 My woundes stinke, and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

Evening prayer.

Morning prayer.

... into a great trouble and misery:
mourning all the day long.

7 For my loines are filled with a soze disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and soze smitten: I haue roared for the verp disquietnes of my heart.

9 Lozde, thou knowest all my disire: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panted, my strength hath failed me: and the light of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers & my neighbours did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kindred stood a farre off.

12 They also that sought after my life laide curses for me: and they that went about to doe me euil, talked of wickednes, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for mee, I was like a deafe man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doerh not open his mouth.

14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no repposes.

15 For in thee, O Lozde, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lozde my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen mine enemies) should not triumph ouer mee: for when my foote slippt, they reloyed greatly against me.

17 And I truly am set in the plague: & my heauines is euer in my sight.

18 For I wil confesse my wickednesse: and be sozz for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies liue, & are mightie: and they that hate me byongfull, are many in number.

20 They also that reward euil for good, are against me: because I folow the thing that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lozde my God: be not thot farre from me.

22 Make thee to helpe me: O Lozde God my saluation.

Dixit Custodiam. Psal. 39.

I said, I wil take heede to my waupes: that I offend not in my tongue.

2 I wil keepe my mouth (as it were with a bydle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea euen from good wordes, but it was paine and grieft to me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus mulling, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lozde, let me know mine end, & the number of my waupes: that I may be certified how long I haue to liue.

6 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euen as nothing in respect.

7 & verily euery man liuing is altogether vanitie. For man walketh in a vaine shadow, and disquiets himselfe in vaine: he heapeth by riches, and can tell who shall gather them.

8 And now Lozde, what is my hope: truly my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer me from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.

10 I became dumbe, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from mee: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy beaue hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beautie to consume away like as freetting a garment: euery man there is vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lozde, and with thine eares ouer my calling: hold not thy peace at my teares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner:

as all my fathers were.

15 Oh spare mee a liue, that I may recouer my strength: befoze I go hence, and be no moze seene. Expectans expectaui. Psal. 40.

I waited patiently for the Lozde: and he enclined vnto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay: and set my feete vpon the rocke, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: euen a thanksgituing vnto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and feare: and shall put their trust in the Lozde.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lozde: and is turned not vnto the yowde, and to such as goe about with lies.

6 O Lozde my God, great are thy wonderous workes which thou hast done: like as bee also thy thoughtes which are to vs ward, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.

7 If I woulde declare them and speake of them they should be moe then I am able to expresse.

8 Sacrifice and meate offering thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares hast thou opened.

9 Burnt offerings and sacrifice for sinne hast thou not required: then said I, Lozde, I come.

10 In the volume of the booke it is written of mee, that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: I am content to doe it, yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I haue declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: lozde, I wil not retrain my lips, O Lozde, and that thou knowest.

12 I haue not hidde thy righteousness in my heart: my talking hath bene of thy trueth, and of thy saluation.

13 I haue not kept backe thy louing mercie and trueth: from the great congregation.

14 With praise will thou thy mercie from mee, O Lozde: let thy louing kindnesse and thy trueth alway preferue me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about mee, my sinnes haue taken such holde vpon me, that I am not able to looke by: yea, they are moe in number then the haire of mine head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lozde, let it be thy pleasure to deliuer me: make haste (O Lozde) to helpe me.

17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seeke after my soule to destroy it: let them be diu uen backward and put to rebuke that wish me euill.

18 Let them be desolate & rewarded with shame, that say vnto me: fie vpon thee, fie vpon thee.

19 Let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as loue thy saluation, say alway, The Lozde be praised.

20 As for me, I am poore and needie: but the Lozde careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and redeemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. 41.

Blessed is hee that considered the poore (and needie) Euen trouble: the Lozde shall deliuer him in the time of pray

2 The Lozde preferue him and keepe him aliuie, that he may be blessed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the wil of his enemies.

3 The Lozde comfort him when he lieth sicke vpon his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, Lozde be mercifull vnto me: heale my soule, for I haue sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speake euil of me: when shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if hee come to see me, hee speaketh vanitie: and his heart conceiveth faithfull in him selfe, and when he commeth forth, he relecth it.

7 All mine enemies whither together against me: euen against me doe they imagine this euill.

8 Let the sentence of guiltlesse proceed against him: and now that he speaketh, let him rise by no more.

9 Yea, euen mine owne familiar friend whom I trusted: which did also eate of my bread, hath laide great wait for me,

10 But be thou mercifull vnto me, O Lord: raise thou me by againe, and I shall reward thee.

11 By this I know thou knowest me: that mine enemy doth not tryping he against me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou shalt requite me: and shalt set me before thy face for euer.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: world without end. Amen.

Quemadmodum. Psal. 42.

Like as the hart desireth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after thee, O God.

2 My soule is a thurst for God, yea, euen for the living God: when shall I come to appeare before thy presence of God?

3 My teares haue bene my meat day and night: while they dayly lay vnto me, where is now thy God?

4 Now when I thinke thereupon, I poyze out my heart by my teare: for I went wch the multitude, and brought them forth vnto the house of God.

5 In the voyce of psalle and thanksgivings: among such as keepe holy day.

6 Why art thou so full of heavynesse, (O my soule:) and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7 But thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thanks for the helpe of his countenance.

8 By God, my soule is bereed within me: therefore will I remember thee, concerning the land of Jordan, and the litte hill of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyse of the water pipes: all thy waues and stormes are gone our me.

10 The Lord hath granted his louing kindnesse on the day time: and in the night season did I sing of him and made my prayer vnto the God of my life.

11 I will say vnto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten mee: Why goe I thus heauily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

12 My bones are smitten asunder, as with a sword: while mine enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth.

13 Namely, while they say dayly vnto mee: where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou so bered, O my soule: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Iudica me Deus Psal. 43.

Giue sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the vngodly people: O deliuer mee from the deceitfull and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee: and why goe I to brauisly, while the enemy oppresseth me?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may goe vnto the altar of God, etten vnto the God of my ioy and gladnesse: & vpon the harpe will I giue thanks vnto thee, O God my God.

5 Why art thou so heavy, O my soule: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

6 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thanks, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Deus auribus. Psal. 44.

When ye haue heard with our eares, O God, our fathers haue tolde vs: what thou hast done in the time of old.

2 How thou hast drinen out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they gat not the land in possession: through their owne strength: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hand and thine arme, & the light of thy countenance: because thou haddest a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my King (O God:) send helpe vnto Jacob.

6 Through thee will we ouerthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them vnder: that rise vp against vs.

7 For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall helpe me.

8 But it is thou that sauest vs from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate vs.

9 We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for euer.

10 But now thou art faire off, and putteth us to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makest vs to turne our backs vpon our enemies: so that they which hate vs, spoile our goods.

12 Thou lettest vs to be eaten by like sheepe: and hast scattered vs among the heathen.

13 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.

14 Thou makest vs to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about vs.

15 Thou makest vs to be a byword among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at vs.

16 My confusion is dayly before thee: and the shame of my face hath covered me.

17 For the voyce of the slanderer and blasphemer: for the enemy and auenger.

18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet doe we not forget thee: nor behaue our selues proudly in thy covenant.

19 Our heart is not turned backe: neither our steps gone out of thy way.

20 No not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of Dagens: and covered vs with the shadow of death.

21 If we haue forgotten the Name of our God, and holden by our hands to any strange God: shall not God search it out: for he knoweth the very secretts of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: are counted as sheepe appointed to be slaine.

23 O Lord, why sleepest thou: awake and be not absent from vs for euer.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our misery and trouble?

25 For our soule is brought low euen vnto the dust: our belly cleaereth vnto the ground.

26 Arise and helpe vs: and deliuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Eruduit cor meum. Psal. 45.

My heart is inciting of a good matter: I speake of the things which I haue made vnto the King.

2 My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.

3 Thou art faire: then the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for ever.

4 Sitd thee with thy sword upon thy thigh, & thou most mighty: according to thy wrath and reuolue.
5 God lache haue thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meeknesse, and right counsell, and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharpe, and the people shall be subdued vnto thee: euen in the middell among the Kings enemies.

7 Thy spear (O God) endureth for ever: the scepter of thy kingdom is a right scepter.

8 Thou hast loued righteousnes, and hated iniquity: wherefore God (euen thy God) hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellows.

9 All thy garments smell of Snythe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the Snyppalaces, wherby they haue made thee glad.

10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the Queene in a besure of Gold (wrought about with diuers colours.)

11 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, incline thine eare: forget also thine owne people, and thy fathers house.

12 So shall the king haue pleasure in thy beauty: for he is thy Lord (God) and worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall see thee with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

14 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought vnto the King in raiment of needle worke: the virgins that be her fellows shall haue her company, and shall be brought vnto thee.

16 With joy and gladnesse shall they be brought: and shall enter into the Kings palace.

17 In fear of thy fathers thou shalt haue children: whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people giue thanks vnto thee world without end.

Deus noster reugium. Psal. 46.

God is our hope and strength: a very present helpe in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not feare though the earth be moued: and though the hills bee carried into the middell of the Sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shall make glad the City of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the most High.

5 God is in the middell of her, therefore shall he not be remoued: God shall helpe her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much adoe, and the kingdoms are moued: but God hath silenced his voyce, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 Come hither, & behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought vpon the earth.

9 He maketh warres to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the speare in lumber, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Omnes gentes laudate. Psal. 47.

Clap your hands together, (all ye people): & sing vnto God with the voyce of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: he is the great King vpon all the earth.

3 He shall subdue the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feet.

4 He shall chuse out an heritage for vs: euen the worship of Jacob whom he loued.

5 God is gone by with a merry noyse: and the Lord with the sound of the trumpe.

6 Sing praises, sing praises vnto (our) God: O sing praises, sing praises vnto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with vnderstanding.

8 God reigneth ouer the heathen: God sitteth vpon his holy teate.

9 The princes of the people are ioynd vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (which is very high exalted) doth defend the earth as it were with a shield.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. 48.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the City of our God, euen vpon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Sion is a faire place, and the top of the whole earth: vpon the North side lieth the City of the great King, God is well knowen in her palaces as a sure refuge.

3 For loe, the Kings of the earth: are gathered and gone by together.

4 They marched to see such things: they were astonied, and suddenly cast downe.

5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorrow: as vpon a woman in her trauaile.

6 Thou shalt breake the ships of the sea: through the East winds.

7 Like as we haue heard, so haue wee seene in the City of the Lord of hostes, in the City of our God: God by holdeth the same for euer.

8 We wait for thy louing kindnesse (O God:) in the middes of thy Temple.

9 O God, according vnto thy Name, so is thy praise vnto the worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteousnesse.

10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Iuda be glad: because of thy iudgements.

11 Talk about Sion, and goe round about her: and tall the towres thereof.

12 Marke well her bulwarkes, set by her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for euer and euer: he shall be our guide vnto death.

Andite hæc omnes. Psal. 49.

Hear ye this all ye people: ponder it with your eares, all ye that dwell in the world.

2 High and low, rich and poore: one with another.

3 My mouth shall speake of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of vnderstanding.

4 I will encline mine eare to the parable: and shew my darke spech vpon the tape.

5 Wherefore should I feare in the dayes of wickednesse: and when the wickednesse of my heeles compasseth me round about?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliuer his brother: ney make agreement vnto God for him.

8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules: so that he must let that alone for euer.

9 Hea, though helme long: and see not the graue.

Fuening prayer.

10 For hee seeth that wise men also die, and perish together: as woe as the ignorant and foolish, and leave their riches for other.

11 And yet they thinke that their houses shal continue for ever: and that their dwelling places shal endure from one generation to another, and cal the lands after their owne names.

12 Neuertheless, man wil not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared vnto the beastes that perish, this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishnesse: and their posteritie prayle their saying.

14 They lie in the hel like sheepe, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous that haue domination of them in the morning: their beautie shal consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath deliuered my soule from the place of hel: for he shal receiue me.

16 Be not thou afraid though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased.

17 For hee shal cary nothing away with him when he dieth: neither shal his pompe follow him.

18 For while he liued, he counted himselfe a happy man: and so long as thou doest wel vnto thy selfe, men wil speake good of thee.

19 He shal follow the generation of his fathers: and shal neuer see light.

20 Man being in honour, hath no vnderstanding: but is compared vnto the beastes that perish.

Deus deorum, Psal. 50.

The Lord, euen the most mighty God hath spoken: and called the world, from the rising vp of the sunne, vnto the going downe thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beautie.

3 Our God shal come, and shal not keepe silence: there shal goe before him a consuming fire, & a mightie tempest shal be kindled by round about him.

4 He shal cal the heauen from above: and the earth, that he may iudge his people.

5 Gather my Santes together vnto me: those that haue made a covenant with me, with sacrifice.

6 And the heauens shal declare his righteousnesse: for God is iudge himselfe.

7 Heare, O my people, and I wil speake: I my selfe wil telle thee against thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.

8 I wil not reprove thee, because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings: because they were not alway before me.

9 I wil take no bullocke out of thine house: no: hee goates out of thy foldes.

10 For al the beastes of the forest are mine: and so are the carrels vpon a thousand hills.

11 I knowe al the fowles vpon the mountaines: and the wilde beastes of the fieldes are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I wil not tel thee: for the whole world is mine, and al that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I wil eate Bullies fleshy: and drinke the blood of Goats?

14 Offer vnto God thanksgiuings: pay thy vowes vnto the most high.

15 And cal vpon me in the time of trouble: so wil I heare thee, and thou shalt prayle me.

16 But vnto the vngodly saide God: Why doest thou preach my lawes, and takest my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my words behind thee.

18 When thou lawest a thiefe thou consentedst vnto him: and hast bene partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy moueh speake wickednes: and with thy tongue thou hast set agaynste deitie.

20 Thou hast and spakest forth thy prophesies, and hast slandered thine owne mothers sonne.

21 These things hast thou done, & I hidde my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am euen such a one as thy selfe: but I wil reprove thee, and let thee see these thy things that thou hast done.

22 Consider this, ye that forget God: I will plucke you away, and there be none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offereth me thanks and prayle, hee honoureth me: and to him that ordereth his conuersation right, wil I shew the saluation of God.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 51.

HAue mercy vpon me, O God, after thy gre at goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

2 Wash mee thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

3 For I knowelege my faults: and my sinne is euen before me.

4 Against thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: when thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare: that thou art iudge.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: & in sinne hath my mother conceiued me.

6 But loe, thou requirdest trueth in the inward partes: and shalt make me to vnderstand wisecons secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssope, and I shal be cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shalbe whiter then snowe.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy & gladnes: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my sinnes: and put out all my misdeedes.

10 Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renuew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast mee not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 O giue me the comfort of thy hope againe: and stablish me with thy free spirit.

13 Then shal I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shalbe conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuere me from bloodguiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shal sing of thy righteousnesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lippes (O Lord:) and my mouth shal shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the walls of Ierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, with the burnt offerings: and oblations: then shal thy offer yong bullockes vpon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. 52.

Why boastest thou thy selfe, thou tyrant: that thou canst doe mischiefe?

2 Whereas thy goodnes of God: endureth yet dayly.

3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednesse: and with lyes thou curtest like a sharpe razor.

4 Thou hast loued brightness more then goodnesse: and to talke of lies more then righteousnesse.

5 Thou hast loued to speake al words that may doe hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shal God destroy thee for ever: he shal take thee, and plucke thee out of thy dwelling, & root thee out of the land of the liuing.

orning
ayer.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and feare: and shall laugh him to scorn.

8 Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength: but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

9 As for me, I am like a greene Olive tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercie of God for euer and euer.

10 I will alwayes giue thanks vnto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it wel.

Dixit impiens. Psal. 53.

The foolish body hath sayd in his heart: there is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednes: there is none that doth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without vnderstanding that worke wickednes: eating vp my people as if they would cate bread: they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afrade where no feare was: for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh that the saluation were giuen to Israel out of Sion: oh that the Lord would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

8 Then should Jacob reioyce: and Israel should be right glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. 54.

Sue mee, O God, for thy names sake: and auenge me in thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the wordes of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me: & tyrants (which haue not God before their eyes) seeke after my soule.

4 Behold, God is my helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soule.

5 He shall reward euill vnto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I giue thee, and praise thy name (O Lord): because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my trouble: & mine eye hath seene his desire vpon mine enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 55.

Hear me my prayer, O God: and hide not thy selfe from my petition.

2 Take heede vnto me, & heare me: how I mourne in my prayer, and am bereft.

3 The enemy crieth so, and the vngodly commeth on so fast: for they are minded to doe me some mischief, so maliciously: are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within me: and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefullnesse and trembling are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a dove: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Alas, then would I get me away farre off: and remaine in the wilderness.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormes, winds and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues (O Lord) & deuide them: for I haue spied varietousnes and strife in the cite.

10 Day and night they goe about within the walles thereof: mischiefes also & sorowes are in the middes of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceit and guile goe not out of their strettes.

12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could haue borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduersarie that did magnifie himselfe against me: for then (peraduenture) I would haue bid my selfe from him.

14 But it was euen thom my companion: my guide, and mine owne familiar friend.

15 Weooke sweete counsell together: and walked in the house of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily vpon them, and let them goe downe quicke into hel: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

18 In the euening & morning, & at noone day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shall heare my voice.

19 It is hee that hath deliuered my soule in peace, from the battaile that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea, euen God that endureth for euer, shall heare me, and bring them downe: for they will not turne, nor feare God.

21 He laide his handes vpon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his couenant.

22 The wordes of his mouth were softer then butter, hauing ware in his heart: his wordes were smoothes ther then oyle, and yet be they very wordes.

23 O call thy burthen vpon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for euer.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The bloodthirstie & deceitful men shall not liue out halfe their dayes: neuertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 56.

Be merciful vnto me, O God, for man goeth about Morning to denoure me: he is daily fighting and troubling prayer: me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swallowe me vp: for they be many that fight against mee, O thou most high.

3 Neuertheless, though I am sometime afraid: yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God because of his wordes: I haue put my trust in God, and will not feare what flesh can doe vnto me.

5 They daily mistake my wordes: al that they imagine, is to doe me euil.

6 They holde altogether, and keepe them selues close: and marke my steppes, when they lay waite for my soule.

7 Shall they escape of their wickednes: thou (O God) in thy displeasure shalt cast them downe.

8 Thou tellest my sittings, put my teares into thy bottel: are not these things noted in the booke?

9 Whensouer I call vpon thee, then that mine enemies be put to flight: this I knowe, for God is on my side.

10 In Gods wordes will I reioyce: in the Lordes wordes will I comfort me.

11 Yea, in God haue I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can doe vnto me.

12 Vnto thee (O Lord) will I pay my vowes: vnto thee will I giue thanks.

13 For thou hast deliuered my soule from death, and my feete from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

of his prayse to be heard.
 8 Which holdeth our soule in life: and suffereth not our feete to slip.
 9 For thou (O God) hast proued vs: thou also hast tryed vs, like as silver is tryed.
 10 Thou broughtest vs into the snare: and layedst trouble vpon our lornes.
 11 Thou sufferedst men to rbe ouer our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest vs out into a wealthy place.
 12 I wil go into thy house with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my vowes which I promised with my lips, & I shall with my mouth when I was in trouble.
 13 I wil offer vnto thee fatte burnt sacrifices, with the incense of rammes: I wil offer bullocks and goats.
 14 O come hither & hearken at ye that feare God: and I wil tell you what he hath done for my soule.
 15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him prayse with my tongue.
 16 If I encine vnto wickednesse with mine heart: the Lord wil not heare me.
 17 But God hath heard mee: and considered the voyce of my prayer.
 18 Praiseed bee God which hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.

Deus misericatur. Psal. 67.

God be merciful vnto vs, and blesse vs: and shew vs the sight of his countenance, and bee merciful vnto vs.
 2 That thy way may be knowne vpon earth: thy saving health among all nations.
 3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let al the people praise thee.
 4 Let the nations reioyce and be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously, and governe the nations vpon earth.
 5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let al the people praise thee.
 6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, euen our owne God shall giue vs his blessing.
 7 God shall blesse vs: and all the endes of the world shall feare him.

Esurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.
 2 Like as the smoke vanissheth, so shall thou driue them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.
 3 But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merry and ioyfull.
 4 O sing vnto God, and sing praises vnto his name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his name, yea, and reioyce before him.
 5 He is a father of the fatherles, and defendeth the cause of the widowes euen God in his holy habitation.
 6 He is y God that maketh men to be of one minde in an house, & bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the riuagates continue in scarcenesse.
 7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wilderness.
 8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sini: also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, searcht a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: & refreshedst it when it was wearie.
 10 Thy congregation shall blow the reiu: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.
 11 The Lord gaue the word: great was the companye of the preachers.
 12 Kings with their armies did flee & were discouered: and they of the household deuided the spoyle.

 13 Though ye haue lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a Dove: that is covered with silke wings, and her feathers like golde.
 14 When the almightie scattered Kings for the sake sake: then were they as white as snowe in Salmo.
 15 As the hill of Basan, so is Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Basan.
 16 Why say ye so ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.
 17 The charites of God are thowtie thousand, euen thowtands of Angels: and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sini.
 18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led captiuitie captiue: & receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thy enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.
 19 Praiseed be the Lord God dayly: euen the God which helpeth vs, and pouereth his benefites vpon vs.
 20 He is our God, euen the God of whom cometh saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.
 21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairie scalpe of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.
 22 The Lord hath said, I wil bring my people againe, as I did from Basan: mixe oune wil I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deepe of the sea.
 23 That thy foote may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.
 24 It is well seene, O God, how thou goest: howe thou my God and King goest in the sanctuarie.
 25 The fingers goe before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst all the dauides playing with the cymbrels.
 26 Giue thanks, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.
 27 There is lile Benjamin in their ruler, and the Princes of Iuda their counsaile: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Iudithah.
 28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: as a blissh the thing, O God that thou hast wrought in vs.
 29 For thy temples sake at Ierusalem: so that kings being pleased vs into thee.

30 When the company of the speare men, and multitude of the mightie, are scattered abroad among the bestes of the people (so that they humbly bring pieces of silver): and when he hath scattered the people that delight in warre.
 31 Then shall the princes come out of Egypt: the Moziás land shall come stretch out her hands vnto God.
 32 Sing vnto God, O see kingdomes of the earth: O sing praises vnto the Lord.
 33 Which stretch in the heauens ouer all from the beginning: see, he doeth send out his voyce, yea, and that a mighty voyce.
 34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.
 35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength & power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum me fac. Psal. 69.

Salue me, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.
 2 I sicke fall in the deepe myze where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods tuncme ouer me.
 3 I am weary of crying, my throte is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.
 4 They that hate me without a cause, er more than the haire of my head: they that are mine enemies,

Morning prayer.

Evening prayer.

and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mightie.

5 I praised them the things that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me. O Lord God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an asiant vnto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

10 I wept and chaffened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

11 I put on a sackeloth also: & they kessed vpon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drummers make songs vpon me.

13 But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercies: euen in the truth of thy saluation.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate mee, and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallowe me by: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare me O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

19 Draw nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heavinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. 22 They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vinegar to drinke.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal: and let the things that should haue bene for their wealth be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see no: and euer how downe their backs.

25 Downe out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathful displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke howe they may vex them whome thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousness.

29 Let them be wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poore and in heavinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lift me by.

31 I will praise the name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanks giuing.

32 This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullocke, that hath hoznes and hooves.

33 The humble shall consider this, & be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall liue.

34 For the Lord heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth praise him: the sea, and all that mouth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of Juda: that men may dwell there, & haue it in possession.

37 The posteritie also of his seruants shall inherite it: and they that loue his name shall dwell therein.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal. 70.

HASTE thee, O God, to deliuer mee: make haste to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me evil.

3 Let them (for their reward) be soone brought to shame: that crie out me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seeke thee, be ioyful & glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poore and in miserie: haste thee vnto me (O God).

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lord make no long tarrying.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. 71.

In thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer Morning be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliuer me in thy prayer.

2 Be thou my strong hold, wherunto I may flay me: rest: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked: out of the hand of the vnrighorous & cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I bene holden by euer since I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my praye shall be alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praye: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

8 Call me not away in the time of age: for sake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speake against mee, and they that lay waite for my soule, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

10 Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish, that are against my soule: let them be covered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me evil.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praye thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speake of thy righteousness and saluation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth by vntil now: therefore will I tell of thy wonderous works.

16 For sake me not, O God, in mine olde age, when I am gray headed: vntil I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 What great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, & yet diddest thou turne & refresh me: yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth againe.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honor: and comforted me on euery side.

20 Wherefore will I praise thee and thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musike: vnto thee will I sing vpon the Harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 57.

Be mercifull vnto me, O God, be mercifull vnto me, for my soule trusteth in thee: and vnder the shadowe of thy wings shal be my refuge, until this spynneth be ouerpast.

2 I wil call vnto the most high God: euen vnto the God that shal performe the cause which I haue in hand.

3 He shal send from heauen: and saue me from the reproofe of him that would eate me vp.

4 God shal send forth his mercy: and trueth: my soule is among Lyons.

5 And I lye enen among the children of men (that are set on fire): whose teeth are speares and arrowes, and their tongue a sharpe sword.

6 Set vp thy selfe, O God, aboute the heauens: and thy glory aboute at the earth.

7 They haue laide a net for my feete, and pressed downe my soule: they haue digged a pit befoze me, and are fallen into the middes of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I wil sing and giue praise.

9 Awake vp my glory, awake Lute and Harpe: I my selfe wil awake right early.

10 I wil giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: & I wil sing vnto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatnesse of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy trueth vnto the cloudes.

12 Set vp thy selfe, O God, aboute the heauens: and thy glory aboute at the earth.

Si vere vtrique. Psal. 58.

A Re your minde set vpon righteousnesse, & ye congregation: and do ye iudge the thing that is right, & ye somes of men?

2 Hea, ye imagine mischief in your heart vpon the earth: and your hands deale with wickednesse.

3 The vngodly are froward euen from their mothers wombe: as soone as they be borne they go astray, and speake lyes.

4 They are as venomous as the poyson of a Serpente: euen like the deafe Adder that stoppeth her eares.

5 Which refuseth to heare the voyce of the charmer: charme he neuer so wisely.

6 Breake their teeth (O God) in their mouthes, smite the chaw bones of the Lyons, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they shoote their arrowes, let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a fraile, and bee like the vntimely fruite of a woman: and let them not see the sunne.

8 O euer your pots be made whote with thornes: so let indignation bere him, euen as a thing that is rawe.

9 The righteous shal reioyce when hee seeth the vengeance: he shal wash his footes in the blood of the vngodly.

10 So that a man shal say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtlesse there is a God that iudgeth the earth.

Eripe me de inimicis. Psal. 59.

Deliver me from mine enemies, (O God): Deliver me from them that rise vp against me.

2 Deliver me from the wicked doers: and saue me from the bloodthirsty men.

3 For loe, they lie waiting for my soule: the mightie men are gathered against me, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They runne and prepare them selues without my fault: arise thou therefore to helpe mee, and bestoide.

5 Stand vp (O Lord: God of hosts) thou God of Israel, to visite all the heathen: and be not mercifull vnto them that offend of malicious wickednesse.

6 They goe to and fro in the euening: they grinne like a dogge, and runne about throughe the cite.

7 Beholde, they speake with their mouth, & swords are in their iппes: for who doeth heate?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt haue them in derision: and thou shalt laugh at the heathen to scoone.

9 My strength wil I ascribe vnto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

10 God sheweth his goodnesse plenteously: and God shal let me see my desire vpon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lest my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people, & put them downe, O Lord, our defence.

12 For the gloze of their mouth, & for the wordes of their lips, they shal be taken in their pride: and why? their preaching is of curling and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and knowe that it is God which ruleth in Jacob, and vnto the ends of the world.

14 And in the euening they wil returne: grinne like a dogge, and wil goe about the cite.

15 They wil runne here and thither for meate: and grudge if they be not satisfied.

16 As for me, I wil sing of thy power, & wil praise thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou hast bene my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Vnto thee (O my strength) wil I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercifull God.

Deus repulisti nos. Psal. 60.

O God, thou hast cast vs out, and scattered vs abroad: thou hast also bene displeas'd, & turne thee vnto vs againe.

2 Thou hast moued the land, and diuided it: heale the sores thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed the people feary things: thou hast giuen vs a drinke of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast giuen a token for lych as feare thee: that they may triumph because of the crueltie.

5 Therefore were they beloued deliuered: helpe me with thy right hand, and heare me.

6 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I wil reioyce and diuide Sichem: and meete out the halley of Susath.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Iuda is my law giuer.

8 Iboah is my washpot, ouer Edom wil I cast out my shoe: Philistia be thou glad of me.

9 Who wil leade me into the strong cite: who wil bring me into Edom?

10 Hall thou not cast vs out, O God: wilt not thou, O God, goe out with our hosts?

11 O be thou our helpe in trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

12 Throughe God shal we doe great actes: for it is he that shal treade downe our enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 61.

Heare my crying, O God: giue eare vnto my prayer.

2 From the endes of the earth wil I call vnto thee: when my heart is in heauinesse.

3 Let me be vp vpon the rocke that is higher then I: for thou hast bene my hope, and a strong tower for me against the enemy.

4 I wil dwell in thy tabernacle for euer: & my trust shal be vnder the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou, O Lord, hast heard my desires: and hast giuen an heritage vnto those that feare thy name.

6 Thou shalt graunt the king a long life: that his perces may endure throughout all generations.

7 He shall dwell before God for ever: & prepare thy loving mercie and faithfulnesse, that they may preserve him.

8 So will I alwayes sing prayles unto thy name: that I may dayly performe my vowes.

Nonne Deo. Psal. 62.

ening
yer.

My soule truly waiteth still upon God: for of him cometh my saluation.

2 He is my defence, and my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long will we imagine mischiefes against euery man: ye that bee flaine euery daye of you, yea, as a cotinging wall that ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their deuice is onely holy to put him our whom God wil exalt: their delight is in lies, they giue good wordes with their mouth, but curse with their heart.

5 Reuerthesse, my soule, waite thou still upon God: for my hope is in him.

6 He truly is my strength and my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rocke of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 I put your trust in him alway (ye people): pouerze out your hearts before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but baime: the children of men are deceitful vnder the twilightes, they are altogether lighter then banitie it selfe.

10 I trust not in waxing and robberye, giue not your selues vnto banitie: if riches increate, let not your heart vpon them.

11 God spake once and twise: I haue also heard the same, that pouer belongeth vnto God.

12 And that thou Lord art mercifull: for thou rewardest euery man according to his worke.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. 63.

O God, thou art my God: early will I seeke thee.

2 My soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and drye land, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holinesse: that I might be held thy pouer and glory.

4 For thy louing kindnesse is better then the life it selfe: my lippes shall praise thee.

5 As long as I liue will I magnifie thee on this manner: and lift up my hands in thy name.

6 My soule shall be satisfied enen as it were with marrow and fatnesse: when my mouth prayseth thee with ioyful lippes.

7 Haue I not remembered thee in my bed: & thought vpon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast bene my helper: therefore vnder the shadowe of thy wings will I reioyce.

9 My soule hangeth vpon thee: thy right hand hath upheld me.

10 These also that seeke the hurt of my soule: they shall goe vnder the earth.

11 Let them fall vpon the edge of the sworde: that they may be a portion for stones.

12 But the king shall reioyce in God, al they also that sweare by him, shall commend: for the mouth of them that speake lies shall be stopped.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 64.

Hear my voyce, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from feare of the enemye.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the sword: and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Which haue whet their tongue like a sword: and shoote out their arrowes, euen bitter wordes.

4 That they may punitly shoote at him which is perfect: suddenly doe they hit him, and feare not.

5 They courage themselves in mischiefes: and committe among them selues howe they may say swares, and say that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickednesse, and practise it: that they keepe secret among themselves, euery man in the deepe of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoote at them with a swift arrowe: that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their owne tongues shall make them fall: in so much that who so seeth them shall laugh them to scozne.

9 And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceiue that it is his worke.

10 The righteous shall reioyce in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and al they that are true of heart, shall be glad.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. 65.

Thou, O God, art prayled in Sion: & vnto thee Evening shall the doxer be performe in Hierusalem.

Evening
Prayer.

2 Thou that hearest the prayer: vnto thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeedes grieueth against mee: ob be thou mercifull vnto our finnes.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou chooseth and reuellest vnto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euen of thy holy Temple.

5 Thou shalt shewe vs wonderful things in thy righteousnesse, O God of our saluation: thou that art the hope of all the endes of the earth, and of them that remaine in the broad sea.

6 Which in his strength setteth fast the mountains: and is girded about with power.

7 Which stilleth the raging of the sea: & the noise of his waues, and the madnesse of his people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth, shall be afraid at thy tokens: that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

9 Thou blessest the earth, and blessest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The river of God is full of water: thou preparatest their coigne, for so thou prouidest for the earth.

11 Thou waterest her furrows, thou sendest raine into the little valleys thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of raine, and blessest the increase of it.

12 Thou crownest the peere with thy goodnes: and thy cloudes drop fatnesse.

13 They shall diop vpon the dwellings of the wisdernesse: and the little hills shall reioyce on euery side.

14 The feldes shall be full of sheepe: the valleys also shall stand to sticke with corne, that they shall laugh and sing.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. 66.

O Be ioyful in God al ye lands: sing prayles vnto the honour of his name, make his prayer to bee glorious.

2 Say vnto God, O howe wonderful art thou in thy workes: through the greatnesse of thy power shall thine enemies be found spars vnto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy name.

4 I come hither, and beholde the workes of God: how wonderful he is in his doing toward the children of men.

5 Hee turned the sea into drye land: so that they went through the water on foote, there did wee reioyce thereof.

6 He ruleth with his power for ever, his eyes behold the people: and such as wil not beleue, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 I prayle our God (ye people) & make the voyce of

of his praise to be heard.

8 Which holdeth our soule in life, and suffereth not our feete to slip.

9 For thou, O God, hast prooued vs: thou also hast tryed vs like silver is tryed.

10 Thou thoughtest vs into the snare: and saydest trouble vpon our loynes.

11 Thou sufferdest men to ride ouer thy head: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest vs out into a weathy place.

12 I will goe into thy hou's with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my vows which I promised with my lips, & spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer vnto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the meate of Rams: I will offer bullocks and goats.

14 Come hit her & hearken, all ye that feare God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soule.

15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him praise with my tongue.

16 If I incline vnto wickednesse with mine heart: the Lord will not heare me.

17 But God hath heard mee: and considered, the voyce of my prayer.

18 Praise bee God, which hath not cast out my prayer: no: turned his mercy from me.

Deus miseratur. Psal. 67.

God be mercifull vnto vs, and blesse vs, and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be mercifull vnto vs.

2 That thy way may be knowne vpon earth: thy sauing health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 Let the nations reioyce and be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folk righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, euen our owne God shall giue vs his blessing.

7 God shall blesse vs, and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanishes, so shall thou digne them away: and like as waxe melteth in the fire, so let the wickedly perishe at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be gladd and reioyce before God: let them also be merry and ioyfull.

4 Sing vnto God, and sing psalms vnto his Name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon a horse, praise him in his Name, yea, and reioyce before him.

5 He is a father of the fatherles, and defendeth the cause of the widows: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but setteth the rannagates continue in fearcenes.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wilderness.

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: refreshed it when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lord gaue the word: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: & they of the Loue'd divided the spoile.

13 Though ye haue lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a Dove: that is couered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered Kings for their sake: then were they as white as snow in Salomon.

15 As the hill of Balan, so is Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Baian.

16 Why say ye so ye high hills: this is Gods hill, in which it pleased him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.

17 The charers of God are twenty thousand, euen thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone by on high, thou hast let captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts to men: yea euen thy enemies that the Lord God might dwell among them.

19 Praise be the Lord daily: men the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefites vpon vs.

20 He is our God: euen the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairy scalpe of such a one as geth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people againe, as I did from Balan: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deep of the Sea.

23 That thy foote may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well seene, O God, how thou goest: how thou my God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

25 The singers goe before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst are the Damocels playing with the timbrels.

26 Give thanks, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their Ruler, and the Princes of Iuda their counsaile: the Princes of Zabulon, and the Princes of Naphtali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: bless the thir O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy Temples sake at Ierusalem: so shall Kings bring presents vnto thee.

30 When the company of the spearmen, and multitude of the mighty are scattered aboyas among the heafts of the people: so that they humbly bring pieces of silver) and when he hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

31 Then shall his princes come out of Egypt: the Moarians shall soone stretch out her hands vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O yee kingsdomes of the earth: O sing praises vnto the Lord.

33 Which stretch in the heauens euer all from the beginning: soe, he dork send out his voyce yea, and that a mighty voyce.

34 Ascribe yee the power to God ouer Irael: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.

35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

and wouldestroy me guiltlesse, are mighty.

5 I prayd them the things that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplicitie, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hostis, be ashamed for my cause: let not thole that seek thee, be confounded through me. O Lord God of Israel.

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers childzen.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten me: and the rebukes of them pr rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

10 I wept and chastened my selfe with fastings: and that was turned to my reproofe.

11 I put on sackcloth also and they iested vpon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards made songs vpon me.

13 But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee in an acceptable time.

14 Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

15 Take me out of the mire, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallow me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: O heall thee and heare me.

19 Draw nigh vnto my soule and saue it, oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproofe, my shame and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heavinesse: I looked for some to haue pittie on me, but there was no man: neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirstie, they gaue me vinegar to drinke.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withall: and let things that should haue bene for their wealch) be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and euer bows downe their backs.

25 Downe out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may bere them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

29 Let them bee wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poore, and in heavinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lift me vp.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall praise the Lord: better then a bullocke that hath hoynes and hooves.

33 The humble shall consider this, and bee glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall liue.

34 For the Lord heareth the poore, and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth praise him: the Sea, and all that moneth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of

Juda: that men may dwell there, & haue it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his seruants shall inherite it: and they that loue his Name shall dwell therein.

Deus in adiutorium. Psal. 70.

H Alse thee, O Lord, to deliuer me: make hast to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded, that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backward and put to confusion that wish me euill.

3 Let them (for their reward) bee soone brought to shame: that cry ouer me, There, there.

4 But let all thole that seeke thee, bee ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poore and in miserie: haile thee vnto me, (O God.)

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lord make no long tarrying.

In te Deum speraui. Psal. 71.

I N thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: but rid me & deliuer me in thy righteousnes, encline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, wherunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vn-godly: out of the hand of the vrighteous & cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I been holpen vp euer since I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my praise shall be alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speake against me, & they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsel together, saying: God hath forsaken him: persecute him, and take him, for: there is none to deliuer him.

10 Soe not far from me, O God, my God haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded & perish that are against my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me euill.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praise thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall daily speake of thy righteousness and saluation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness onely.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me from my youth by untill now: therefore wil I tel of thy wondrous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: but till I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 What great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, & yet didst thou turne and rectify me: yea, & broughtest me from the deepe of the earth againe.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honoz: and comforted me on euery side.

20 Therefore will I praise thee & thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musick: vnto thee will I sing vpon the Harpe, O thou Holy One of Israel.

Morning Prayer.

21 Hypocrites will be faime when I sing vnto thee: and so will my soule whom thou hast deliuered.

22 Hy tongue also shall talke of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame that seke to doe me euil.

Deus iudicium. Psalm. 72.

Give the King thy iudgements (O God): and thy righteousness vnto the Kings sonne.

2 Then shall hee iudge the people according vnto right: and defend the poore.

3 The mountaines also shall bring peace: and the little hilles the righteousness vnto the people.

4 He shall keepe the simple folke by their right: defend the children of the poore, and punish the wrong doer.

5 They shall feare thee as long as the Sunne and Moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He shall come downe like the raine into a fleece of wooll: euen as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the Moone endureth.

8 His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood vnto the world's end.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneele before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis and of the Isles shall giue presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall downe before him: all nations shall doe him seruice.

12 For he shall deliuer the poore when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13 Hee shall be fauourable to the simple and needie: and shall preterue the soules of the poore.

14 Hee shall deliuer their soules from falshood and wrong: and deare shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall salue, and vnto him shall be giuen of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made euer vnto him, and daily shall he be prayed.

16 There shall be an heape of corne in the earth: he vpon the hilles: his fruite shall shake like Libanus, and shall be Greene in the citie, like grasse vpon the earth.

17 His name shall endure for euer, his name shall remaine vnder the Sunne among posterities: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, euen the God of Israel: which onely doeth wonderous things.

19 And blessed be the name of his maiestie for euer: and all the earth shall be filled with his maiestie, Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psalm. 73.

Truely God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto such as are of a cleane heart.

2 Heuertheless my feete were almost gone: my treadings had welnigh slip.

3 And why? I was grieued at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperitie.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lustie and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they be so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with crueltie.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doe euen what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemie: their talking is against the most high.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto the heauen: and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore sal the people vnto them: and there shall seeke they no small advantage.

11 Tuff (say they) how should God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most high?

12 Loe, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the world, and these haue riches in possession: and I saye, then haue I cleansed my heart in saine, and washed my hands in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I bene purified: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said euen as they: but loe, then should I haue condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Untill I went into the sanctuarie of God: then vnderstood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, howe thou dost let them in slippery places: and castest them downe, and destrovest them.

18 O how suddenly doe they consume: perish, and come to a fearful end?

19 Yea, euen like as a dreame when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the citie.

20 Thus my heart was grieued: and it went euen through my reines.

21 So foolishly was I and ignorant: euen as it were a beast before thee.

22 Heuertlesse I am alway by thee: for thou hast holoen me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that receiue me with glory.

24 Upon whom haue I in heauen but thee? and there is none vpon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for euer.

26 For loe, they ye forsake thee that perish: thou hast destroyed al them that commit fornication against thee.

27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy workes (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid Deus. Psalm. 74.

O God, wherefore art thou absent from vs so long? why is thy wrath so hot against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 I thinke vpon thy congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of olde.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift vp thy feete, that thou mayest bitterly destroy euery enemy: which hath done euil in thy sanctuary.

5 Thine aduersaries roare in the middes of thy congregations: and set by thy banners for tokens.

6 Hee that helmed timber arose out of the thicke trees: was knowne to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But now they brake downe al the carried worke thereof: with Axes and Hammers.

8 They haue set fire vpon thy holy places: and haue defiled the dwelling place of thy name, euen vnto the ground.

9 Yea, they saide in their hearts, let vs make a nocke of them altogether: thus haue they burnt by us the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one Prophet more: no not one is there amongst vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, howe long shall the aduersarie doe this dishonour: howe long shall the enemy blaspheme thy name, for euer?

12 Uppon whom hast thou set thy hand: why pluckest thou thy right hand out of thy bosome to consume the enemy?

13 For God is my King of olde: he helpe that is done upon earth, he doeth it himselfe.

 14 Thou diddest diuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.
 15 Thou smorest the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gauest him to bee meate for the people in the wilderness.
 16 Thou broughtest out fountaines and waters out of the hard rocks: thou dyestst vp mightie waters.
 17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the tisme.
 18 Thou hast fer all the borders of the earth: thou hast made Summer and Winter.
 19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and howe the foolish people hath blasphemed thy name.
 20 O deliuer not the soule of thy Turtle Dove vnto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poore for euer.
 21 Looke vpon the covenant: for all the earth is full of darkness, and cruell habitations.
 22 Wh let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and needy giue praye vnto thy name.
 23 Arise, O God, mainteine thine owne cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee dayly.
 24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, increaseth euer more and more.

Confitebor tibi. Psalm. 75.

Vnto thee (O God) doe wee giue thanks: yea, vnto thee doe we giue thanks.
 2 Thy name also is so high: and that doe thy wonderous workes declare.
 3 When I receive the congregation: I shall iudge according vnto right.
 4 The earth is weak, & all the inhabitants thereof: I beare vp the pillars of it.
 5 I said vnto the fooles, deale not so madly: and to the vngodly, let not by your hozne.
 6 Set not by your hozne on high: and speake not with a stiff necke.
 7 For promotion cometh neither from the East nor from the West: nor yett from the South.
 8 And why? God is the iudge: hee putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.
 9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and hee powreth out of the same.
 10 As for the vregs thereof: all the vngodly of the earth shall drinke them, and sucke them our.
 11 But I will talke of the God of Jacob: & praye him for euer.
 12 All the hoznes of the vngodly also will I breake: and the hoznes of the righteous shall be exalted.

Notus in Iudaea. Psalm. 76.

In Iewrie is God knowne: his name is great in Israel.
 2 At Salem is his Tabernacle: and his dwelling in Zion.
 3 There brake hee the arrowes of the bowe: the shields, the sword, and the battel.
 4 Thou art of more hozne and might: then the hills of the robbers.
 5 The proud are robbed, they haue slept their sleep: and all the men (whose handes were mightie) haue found nothing.
 6 As thy rebake (O God of Jacob) both the charret and hozle are fallen.
 7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?
 8 Thou diddest cause thy iudgements to be heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was still.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe all the meeke vpon earth.
 10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praye: and the fiercenesse of them shall thoutrefraine.
 11 Promise vnto the Lord your God, and keepe it, all yee that are round about him: bring presents vnto him that ought to be feared.
 12 Hee shall refraine the spirit of princes: and is wonderfull among the kings of the earth.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psalm. 77.

I will crie vnto God with my voyce: euen vnto God I will I crie with my voyce, and hee shall hearken vnto me.
 2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ranne and ceased not, in the night season my soule refused comfort.
 3 When I am in heauinesse I will thinke vpon God: when my heart is veyed, I will complaine.
 4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so feeble that I cannot speake.
 5 I haue considered the dayes of old: and the yeres that are past.
 6 I call to remembrance my song: and in the night I commune with mine owne heart, and search out my spirits.
 7 Will the Lord absent himselfe for euer: and will he be no more increas'd?
 8 Is his mercie cleane gone for euer: and is his promise come utterly to an end for euermore?
 9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut vp his louing kindnesse in displeasure?
 10 And I saide, It is mine owne infirmitie: but I will remember the yeres of the right hand of the most highest.
 11 I will remember the workes of the Lord: and call to mind thy wonders of old time.
 12 I will thinke also of all thy workes: and my talking shall be of thy doings.
 13 Thy way, O God, is holy: who is so great a God (as our God?)
 14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: and hast declared thy power among people.
 15 Thou hast mightily deliuered thy people: euen the sonnes of Jacob and Joseph.
 16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee, and were afraid: the deytbes also were troubled.
 17 The cloudes poured out water, the ayre thunders: and thine arrowes went abroad.
 18 The voice of thy thunder was heard, round about: the lightnings shone vpon the ground, the earth was moued and shooke withall.
 19 Thy way is in the sea, & thy paths in the great waters: and thy footstepes are not knowne.
 20 Thou leddest thy people like sheepe: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Attendite popule. Psalm. 78.

Heare my Laue, O my people: encline your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.
 2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old.
 3 Which we haue heard and knowne: and such as our fathers haue told vs.
 4 That wee should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shewe the honour of the Lord, his mightie and wonderfull workes that he hath done.
 5 Hee made a covenant with Jacob, and gaue Israel a Lawe: which he commaunded our forefathers to teach their children.
 6 That their posteritie might knowe it: and the children which were yett vnborne.

Euening prayer.

7 To the intent that when they came by: they might feede their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the workes of God: but to keepe his comandements.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubburne generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleauely not stedfastly vnto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim: which being harnessed & carrying bowes, turned themselues backe in the day of battell.

11 They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walke in his Lawe.

12 But for as what he had done: & the wonderfull worke that he had shewed for them.

13 Marvellous things did he in sight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euen in the field of Zoan.

14 He deuicid the Sea, and led them goe through:
he made the waters to stand on an heape.

15 In the day time also he led them with a cloud:
and all the night through with a sight of fire.

16 He claue the hard rockes in the wilderness: & gaue them drinke therof, as it had bin out of a great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the Ronp rocke: so that liguished our like the riuers.

18 Yet for all this they stuned more against him:
and prouoked the most Highest in the wildrnesse:

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meate for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: shall God prepare a table in the wildrnesse?

21 Hee smote the Ronp rocke in deede, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withal: but can he giue bread also, or prouide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came by heauie displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleueed not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he commanded the cloudes above: and opened the doores of heauen.

25 Hee rained downe Hanna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them fooode from heauen.

26 So man did eate Angels fooode: for he sent them
meate ynough.

27 Hee cauled the East winde to blowe vnder heauen: and through his power hee brought in the South west winde.

28 He rained flesh vpon them as thicke as dust: and searched soules like as the land of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents: euen rounde about their habitation.

30 So they did eate and were wel filled, for he gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But while the meate was yet in their mouthes, the beaue wrath of God came vpon them, and slew the wealchiest of them: yea, and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for al this they sinned yet more: and beleued not his wonderous workes.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in banitie:
and their yeeres in trouble.

34 When hee slew them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquired after God.

35 And they remembred that God was their strength:
and that the high God was their redeemer.

36 Neuertheles, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue:

37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his covenant.

38 But hee was so mercifull that hee forgau the misdoings: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For hee considered that they were but flesh: and that they were enen a winde that passeth away, and commeth not againe.

41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wilddernesse: and grieved him in the desert.

42 They turned backe and tempted God: and moued the holyone in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: & of the day when hee deliuered them from the hand of the enimie.

44 Howe hee had wrought his miracles in Egypt:
and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 Hee turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the riuers.

46 He sent lice among them, and deuoured them by and frogs to destroy them.

47 Hee gaue their fruite vnto the Caterpillar: and their labour vnto the Grasshopper.

48 Hee destroyed their vines with haile stones: and their Mulberry trees with the frost.

49 Hee smote their cattel also with haile stones: and their flockes with hote thunderboles.

50 Hee cast vpon them the furiousnes of his wrath, anger, displeasure, and trouble: and sent euil angies among them.

51 Hee made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soule from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

52 And smote al the first borne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

53 But as for his owne people, he led them forth like sheepe: and carried them in the wildrnesse like a flocke.

54 Hee brought them out safely that they should not feare: and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of his Sanctuarie: euen to his mountaine, which hee purchased with his right hand.

56 Hee cast out the heathen also befoze them: caused their land to be deuicid among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tentes.

57 So they tempted and displeaed the most high
God: and kept not his testamontes.

58 But turned their backs, & fel away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their ill sifers: and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, hee was wroth: and tooke foze displeasure at Israel.

61 So that hee forooke the tabernacle in Silouen:
the tent that hee had pitched among them.

62 Hee deliuered their power into captiuitie: and their beautie into the enemies hand.

63 Hee gaue his people ouer also vnto the sword: and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not giuen to mariage.

65 Their Dirks were staine with the sword: and there were no widowes to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleepe: and like a Syant refreshed with wine.

67 Hee smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Ioseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
69 But chose the tribe of Iuda: euen the hill of Sion, which hee loued.

70 And there hee builded his temple on high: and layd the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually.

71 He chose David also his seruante: and tooke him away from the sheepfolds.

72 As he was following the Queene great with yong ones, he tooke him: that he might feede Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithfull and true heart: and ruled them pudently with all his power.

Deus, uenient. Psal. 79.

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy Temple haue they desited, and made Hierusalem an heap of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy seruantes haue they giuen to be meate vnto the foules of the ayre: and the flesh of thy saints vnto the beastes of the land.

3 Their blood haue they shed like water on euery side of Hierusalem: & there was no man to burie them.

4 Wee are become an open frame to our enemies: a very scoyne and derision vnto them that are round about vs.

5 Now, how long wilt thou be angrie: shall thy ire loue burne like fire for euer?

6 Put out thine indignation vpon the heathen that haue not known thee: and vpon the kingdomes that haue not called vpon thy name.

7 For they haue deuoured Jacob: and layde waste his dwelling place.

8 Remember not our olde sinnes, but haue mercy vpon vs, and that soone: for wee are come to great miserie.

9 Helpe vs, O God of our saluation, for the glory of thy name: O deliuer vs, and be mercifull vnto our sinnes for thy names sake.

10 Therefore voe the heathen say: where is now their God?

11 Let the vengeance of thy seruants blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our sight.

12 Let the sorrowfull sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatness of thy power ptektue thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blasphemed thee: reward thou them, O Lord, seuen foldes into their bosome.

14 So we that be thy people & sheepe of thy pasture, shall giue thee thanks for euer: and wil alway be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. 80.

Hear, O thou shepheard of Israel, thou that leasdest Ioseph like a sheepe: sheue thy selfe also vpon that sitest vpon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, & Manasse: sitte by thy strength, and come and helpe vs.

3 Turne vs againe, O God: sheue the light of thy countenance, and we shalbe whole.

4 O Lord, God of hostes: howe long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of teares: and giuest them plenteoulnesse of teares to drinke.

6 Thou hast made vs a very strife vnto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh vs to scoyne.

7 Turne vs againe, thou God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shalbe whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou madest roomes for it: and when it had taken root: it filled the land.

10 The hilles were covered with the shadow of it: and the boughes thereof were like y goodly Cedars trees.

11 She stretched out her branches vnto the sea: and her boughes vnto the river.

12 Why hast thou then broken downe her hedge: that all they which go by, plucke off her grapes?

13 The wilde Boze out of the wood doeth roote it by: and the wilde beasts of the field deuourte it.

14 Turne thee againe, thou God of hostes, looke downe from heauen: beholde, and disite this vine.

15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy selfe.

16 It is burnt with fire, and cut downe: and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand be vpon the man of thy right hand: and vpon the sonne of man vpon whom thou madest so strong for thine owne selfe.

18 And so wilt not we goe backe from thee: O let vs liue, and we shall call vpon thy name.

19 Turne vs againe, O Lord God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shalbe whole.

Exultate Deo. Psal. 81.

Sing mee merrily vnto God our strength: make a cheerefull noise vnto the God of Jacob.

2 Take the Psalme, bring hidier the Tabret: the mery Harpe, with the Lute.

3 Blow by the Trumpet in the new moone: euen in the time appointed, and vpon our solemne feast day.

4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This hee ordeined in Ioseph: for a testimony: when he came out of the land of Egypt, and had heard a strange language.

6 I eased his shoulder from the burthen: and his hands were deliuered from making the posts.

7 Thou calledst vpon me in troubles, & I deliuered thee: heard thee what time as y some fell vpon thee.

8 I proued thee also at the waters of Arise.

9 Heare, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken vnto me.

10 Where shall no strange god bee in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other God.

11 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not heare my voyce: and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gaue them by vnto their owne hearts lust: and let them follow their owne imaginations.

14 O that my people would haue hearkened vnto me: for if Israel had walked in my wayes.

15 I should soone haue put downe their enemies: and turned my hand against their aduersaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should haue bene found liers: but their time should haue endured for euer.

17 Hee should haue fedde them also with the finest wheate flour: and with hony out of the stony rocks should I haue satisfied thee.

Deus scru. Psal. 82.

God standeth in the congregation of princes: he is a iudge among gods. Euening praye.

2 How long will ye giue wrong iudgement: and accept the persons of the vngodly?

3 Defend the poore and fatherlesse: see that such as be in neede and necessitie haue right.

4 Deliuer the outcast and poore: saue them from the hands of the vngodly.

5 They will not be learned, nor vnderstand: but walke on still in darkenesse: all the foundations of the earth be out of course.

6 I haue sayd, ye are gods: and ye are all children of the most High.

7 But ye shal be like men: yal like one of y princes. 8 Arise,

8 Arise, O God, and iudge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus quis similis. Psal. 83.

Hold not thy tongue, O God, keepe not still thy silence: Refraine not thy selfe, O God.

2 For loe, thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee haue lift vp their head.

3 They haue imagined craftily against thy people: and taken counsell against thy secret ones.

4 They haue said, Come, and let vs roote them out, that they bee no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they haue cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The Tabernacles of the Gomitites and the Amalites: the Moabites and Hagarenes.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, & Amalech: the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Assur also is ioynd unto them: and hee holpen the children of Lot.

9 But do thou to them as t'wto the Midianites: vnto Siser, and vnto Jabin, at the brooke Assilon.

10 Which perished at Endor: and became as the doeing of the earth.

11 Make them and their princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their princes like as Zeba and Zalmana.

12 Which say, Let vs take to our selues: the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like vnto a wheele: and as the stubbe before the winde.

14 Like as the fire that burneth by the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountaines.

15 Persecute them euen to such thy tempell: and make them afraid with thy Royme.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seeke thy Name.

17 Let them bee confounded and bered euer more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall knowe that thou (whose name is Jehouah): art onely the most high:st ouer all the earth.

Quam dilecta. Psal. 84.

O how amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hostes?

2 My soule hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh reioyce in the liuing God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest, where she may lay her yong: euen thy altars, O Lord of hostes, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praying thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy wayes.

6 Which going through the vale of miserie, vse it for a well: and the pooles are filled with water.

7 They will go from strength to strength: and vnto the God of gods appeareth euery one of them in Sion.

8 O Lord God of hostes, heare my prayer: hearken, O God of Jacob.

9 Beholme, O God, our defender: and looke vpon the face of thine anoynted.

10 For one day in thy courts: is better then a thousand.

11 I had rather be a dooze keeper in the house of my God: then to dwell in the tents of vngodlinesse.

12 For the Lord God is a sight and defence: the Lord will giue grace and wooship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that liue a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hostes: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti Domine. Psal. 85.

Lord thou art become gracious vnto thy land: thou hast turned away the captiuitie of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people: and covered all their sinnes.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy selfe from thy wrathful indignation.

4 Turne vs then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from vs.

5 While thou be displeas'd at vs for euer: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 While thou not turne againe and quicken vs: that thy people may reioyce in thee?

7 Shew vs thy mercy, O Lord: and graunt vs thy saluation.

8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for hee shall speake peace vnto his people, and to his saints, that they turne not againe.

9 For his saluation is nigh them that feare him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercie and truth are met together: righteousness and peace haue kissed eche other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousness hath looked downe from heauen.

12 Yea, the Lord shall shew louing kindnesse: and our land shall giue her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shall goe before him: and hee shall direct his going in the way.

Inclina Domine. Psal. 86.

Bow downe thine eare, O Lord, and heare me: for I am poore and in miserie.

2 Pitye thee my soule, for I am hely: my God saue thy seruant that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be merciful vnto mee, O Lord: for I will call dayly vpon thee.

4 Comfort the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lord) doe I lift vp my soule.

5 For thou Lord art good and gracious: and of great mercy vnto all them that call vpon thee.

6 Giue eare Lord vnto my prayer: and ponder the voyce of mine humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee (O Lord): there is not one that can doe as thou doest.

9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and wooship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wonderful things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way (O Lord) and I will walke in thy truth: O knit my heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy name.

12 I will thanke thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praye thy name for euer more.

13 For great is thy mercy toward mee: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the netthermost hell.

14 O God, the yowde are risen against me: and the congregations of naughty men haue sought after my soule, and haue not let thee before their eyes.

15 But thou (O Lord God) art full of compassion & mercy: long suffering, plentiful in goodness & truth.

16 O turne thee then vnto mee, and haue mercy vpon me: giue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and help the soune of thine handmaid.

17 Shew some good token vpon me for good, that they which hate mee, may see it, & be ashamed: because thou Lord hast holpen mee, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. 87.

Her foundations are vpon the holy hills: the Lord

houseth the gates of Sion, more then all the dwellings

ing

lings of Jacob.

2 Thy excellent things are spoken of thee: thou art as God.

3 I will think upon Rahab and Babylon: with the heat that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also: and they of Egypt, with the Egyptians, loe, there was he bozne.

5 And of Sion it shall be reported, that hee was bozne in her: and the most high shall stablish her.

6 The Lord shall reuerſe it when he wylteth by the people: that he was bozne there.

7 The fingers alſo and trumpeters ſhall hee re- hearſe: all my freſh ſprings ſhall be in thee.

Domine Deus. Plal. 88.

O Lord God of my ſaluation, I haue cryed day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy preſence, encline thine eare vnto my calling.

2 For my ſoule is full of trouble: and my life vnto death nigh vnto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that go downe into the pit: and I haue bene euen as a man that hath no ſtrength.

4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that bee wounded and lie in the graue: which be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou haſt layed me in the loweſt pit: in a place of darkeneſſe, and in the deepe.

6 Thine indignation ſpeth hard vpon me: and thou haſt veyed me with all thy ſoznes.

7 Thou haſt put away mine acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am lo ſaſt in priſon: that I cannot get forth.

9 My ſight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue ſtretched out my hands vnto thee.

10 Doeſt thou ſhew wonders among the dead: or ſhall the dead riſe by againe and praye thee?

11 Shall thy louing kindneſſe bee helued in the graue: or thy faithfullneſſe in deſtruction?

12 Shall thy wonderous workes bee knowne in the darke: and thy righteouſneſſe in the lande where all things are forgotten?

13 Vnto thee haue I cryed, O Lord: and early ſhal my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorreſt thou my ſoule: and hideſt thou thy face from me?

15 I am in miſeric, and like vnto him that is at the point to die: (euen from my mouth by) thy retroys haue I ſuffered with a troubled minde.

16 Thy wrathfull diſpleaſure goeth ouer mee: and the feare of thee hath bindone me.

17 They came round about mee dayly like water: and compaſſed me together on euery ſide.

18 My louers and friends haſt thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my ſight.

Miſericordias Domini. Plal. 89.

Mercy ſhall be alway of the louing kindneſſe of the Lord: with my mouth wil I euer bee ſhewing thy trueth, from one generation to another.

2 For I haue ſaid, mercy ſhall be ſet by for euer: thy trueth ſhall thou ſtabliſh in the heauens.

3 I haue made a covenant with my choſen: I haue ſwozne vnto Dauid my ſeruant.

4 Thy ſeede wil I ſtabliſh for euer: and ſee by thy thron from one generation ro another.

5 O Lord, the very heauens ſhal praye thy wonderous workes: and thy trueth in the congregacion of the ſaints.

6 For who is hee among the cloudes: that ſhall be compared vnto the Lord?

7 And what is he among the gods: that ſhall be like vnto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counſell of the ſaints: and to bee had in reuerence of all them that are about him.

9 O Lord God of hoſtes, who is like vnto thee: thy trueth (moſt mightie Lord) is on euery ſide.

10 Thou ruleſt the raging of the ſea: thou ſilleſt the waues thereof when they ariſe.

11 Thou haſt ſubdued Egypt, and deſtroyed it: thou haſt ſcattered thine enemies abroade with thy mightie arme.

12 The heauens are thine, the earth alſo is thine: thou haſt layed the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou haſt made the North and the South: Taboz and Bermon that reioyce in thy Name.

14 Thou haſt a mighty arme: ſtrong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

15 Righteouſneſſe and equitie is the habitacion of thy ſeate: mercy and trueth ſhal goe before thy face.

16 Bleſſed is the people (O Lord) that can reioyce in thee: they ſhal walke in the light of thy conſcience.

17 Their delight ſhall be dayly in thy name: and in thy righteouſneſſe ſhal they make their doakt.

18 For thou art the glory of their ſtrength: and in thy louing kindneſſe thou ſhalt liſt by our bones.

19 For the Lord is our defence: the Help one of Iſrael is our King.

20 Thou ſpakeſt ſometimes in viſions vnto thy ſaints, and ſaydeſt: I haue laide helpe vpon one that is mightie, I haue craied one choſen out of the people.

21 I haue found Dauid my ſeruant: with my help he hath ſubdued his enemies.

22 My hand ſhal hold him faſt: and my arme ſhal ſtrengthen him.

23 The enemy ſhall not be able to doe him violence: the ſonne of wickedneſſe ſhal not hurt him.

24 I ſhal ſmite downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

25 My trueth alſo and my mercy ſhall be with him: and in my name ſhal his home be exalted.

26 I wil ſet his dominion alſo in the ſea: and his right hand in the floods.

27 He ſhal call me, thou art my father: my God and my ſtrong ſaluation.

28 And I wil make him my ſeek bozne: higher then the kings of the earth.

29 My mercy wil I keepe for him for euermore: and my covenant ſhal ſtand faſt with him.

30 His ſeede alſo wil I make to endure for euer: and his thron as the dayes of heauen.

31 But if his children forſake my Law: and walke not in my iudgements.

32 If they breake my ſtatutes, and keepe not my commandements: I wil viſite their offences with the rodde, and their ſinne with ſcourges.

33 Neuertheleſſe, my louing kindneſſe wil I not bitterly take from him: no ſuffer my trueth to falſe.

34 My covenant wil I not breake, no alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I haue ſwozne once by my holineſſe that I wil not falſe Dauid.

35 His ſeede ſhal endure for euer: and his ſeate is like as the ſunne be fore me.

36 Hee ſhal ſtand faſt for euermore as the moone: and as the faithful witneſſe in heauen.

37 But thou haſt abhorred and forſaken thine awopured: and art diſpleaſed at him.

38 Thou haſt broken the covenant of thy ſeruants: and caſt his crowne to the ground.

39 Thou haſt ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken

ken done his strong holdes.

40 All they that go by, spoile him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.

41 Thou hast let by the right hand of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.

42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword: and giuest him not victorie in the battell.

43 Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his thome downe to the ground.

44 The dayes of his youth hast thou thozened: and covered him with dishonour.

45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy selfe, for euer: and shal thy wrath burne like fire?

46 Wh remember how thozt my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men, for nought?

47 What man is he that liuert, & shal not see death: and shal he be deliuerd his soule from the hand of hel?

48 Lord, where are thy old louing kindnesse: which thou swarest vnto Dauid in thy tructh?

49 Remember (Lord) the rebuke that thy seruants haue: and how I doe beate in my bowe the rebukes of many people.

50 Wherewith thine enemies haue blasphemed thee, and slandered the footsteps of thine anointed: prayled be the Lord for euermore. Amen. Amen.

Domine, refugium. Psal. 90.

Morning prayer.

Lorde, thou hast bene our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountaine were brought forth, or euer the earth and the world were made: thou art God from euerlasting, and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayest, Come againe ye children of men.

4 For a thousand yeeres in thy sight, are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a waich in the night.

5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a sheepe: and fade away luddenly like the grasse.

6 In the morning it is Greene, and groweth by: but in the evening it is cut downe, dried by, and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeedes before thee: and our secret finnes in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: we bring out yeeres to an ende, as it were a tale that is tolde.

10 The dayes of our age are threecore yeres and ten, & though men be so strong that they come to fourescore yeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach vs to number our dayes: that we may appoy our hearts vnto wisdom.

13 Turne thee againe (O Lord) at the last: and be gracious vnto thy seruants.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeres wherein we haue suffered aduersitie.

16 Shewe thy seruants thy worke: and their chylde open thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lord our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, O prosper thou our handy worke.

Qui habitat. Psal. 91.

Who so dwelleth vnder the defence of the most high: shall abide vnder the shadowe of the Almighty.

2 I will say vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong holde: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For he shal deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noyome pestilence.

4 He shal defend thee vnder his wings, & thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faithfullnesse and tructy shalbe thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrowe that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the darknesse: nor for the sicknesse that despoyleth in the thome day.

7 A thousand shall fall before thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eye shalt thou beholde: and see the reward of the ungodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no euill happen vnto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall giue his Angels charge ouer thee: to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foote against a stone.

13 Thou shalt goe vpon the Lion & Adder: the young Lion and the Dragon shalt thou tread vnder thy feete.

14 Because he hath let his loue vpon me, therefore shal I deliuer him: I shal set him by, because he hath knowen my name.

15 He shal call vpon me, and I will heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him, & bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I satisfie him: and shew him my saluation.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal. 92.

It is a good thing to giue thanks vnto the Lord: and to sing prayles vnto thy name, O most highest.

2 To tell of thy louing kindnesse early in the morning: and of thy tructy in the night season.

3 vpon an instrument of ten strings, and vpon the Lute: vpon a foud instrument, and vpon the Harpe.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad through thy workes: and I will reioyce in giuing prayle for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughts are very deepe.

6 An vnwise man doeth not wel consider this: and a foole doeth not vnderstand it.

7 When the ungodly are Greene as the grasse, and when all the workers of wickednesse doe flourish: then shal they be despoyled for euer, but thou Lord art the most highest for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enemies (O Lord) loe thine enemies shall perish: and all the workers of wickednesse shalbe despoyled.

9 But my home shalbe exalted like the home of an Antiquarie: for I am anointed with fresh oyle.

10 Mine eye also shal see his lust of mine enemies: and mine eare shal heare his desire of the wicked that rise by against me.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a Palme tree: and shal spread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as bee planted in the house of the Lord: shal flourish in the courtes (of the house) of our God.

13 They also shal bring forth many fruite in their age: and shalbe fat and wel liking.

14 That they may shewe how true the Lord is my strength is: and that there is no vnrighteousnesse in him.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. 93.

The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparell: the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded him selfe with strength.

2 He hath made the round world so sure, that it can not be moued.

3 For since the world began hath thy seat bene prepared: thou art from euermaking.

4 The floods are risen (O Lord) the floods haue life by their voyce: the floods lift by their waues.

5 The waues of the sea are mightie, and rage horribly: but yet the Lord that dwelleth on high is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are well sure: holinesse becommeth thine house for ever.

Deus vltionum. Psalm. 94.

O Lord God, to whome vengeance belongeth: thou God to whome vengeance belongeth, shewe thy selfe.

1 Arise thou iudge of the world: and reward the poore after their deserting.

2 Lord, how long shall the ungodly: how long shall the ungodly triumph?

3 How long shall all wicked doers speake so disdainfully: and make such proud boasting?

4 They smite downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

5 They murder the widow and the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.

6 And yet they say, Tully, the Lord shall not see: neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

7 Take heene ye iniurie among the people: O ye fooles, when wil ye vnderstand?

8 He that planted the eare: shall he not heare? or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

9 O he that nurtereth the heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall he not punish?

10 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vaine.

11 Blessed is the man whome thou chastenest (O Lord): and teachest him in thy Law.

12 That thou mayest giue him patience in time of aduersitie: until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

13 For the Lord will not faile his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.

14 And righteousnesse turne againe into iudgement: all such as be true in heart shall follow it.

15 Who wil rise by with me against the wicked: or who wil take my part against the euil doers?

16 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my soule had bene put to silence.

17 But when I sayde, my foote hath slipped: thy mercie (O Lord) held me vp.

18 In the multitude of the sorowes that I had in my heare: thy consolours haue refreshed my soule.

19 While thou haue any thing to doe with the scoole of wickednesse: which inuiginate mischief as a lawe.

20 They gather them together against the soule of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.

21 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.

22 He shall recompense them their wickednesse, and destroy them in their owne malice: yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

Venit exultemus. Psalm. 95.

O Come, let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.

2 Let vs come before his presence with thanksgiving: and shewe our selues glad in him with psalmes.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hilles is his alio.

5 The sea is his, and hee made it: and his handes prepared the dry land.

6 Come, let vs worship, and fall downe: & kneele before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is (the Lord) our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hands.

8 To day if yee will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts: as in the p[ro]uocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

9 When your fathers tempted mee: p[ro]oued mee, and saue my workes.

10 Fourtie yeeres long was I grieved with this generation, & said: it is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowne my workes.

11 Unto whome I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Cantate Domino. Psalm. 96.

O Sing vnto the Lord a newe song: sing vnto the Lord all the whole earth.

2 Sing vnto the Lord, and praise his name: be telling of his saluation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his wonders vnto all people.

4 For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be prayed: he is more to be feared then all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen, they bee but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heauens.

6 Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his Sanctuarie.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord (O ye hundreds of the people) ascribe vnto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord the honour due vnto his name: bying presents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beautie of holinesse: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is king: and that it is hee which hath made the round world: so fast that it cannot be moued, and how that he shall iudge the people righteously.

11 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

12 Let the selde be ioyful, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lord.

13 For hee cometh, for hee cometh to iudge the earth: and with righteousnesse to iudge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominius regnauit. Psalm. 97.

The Lord is king, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the Isles may be glad thereof.

2 Cloudes and darkenesse are round about him: righteousness and iudgement are the habitation of his seat.

3 There shall goe a fire before him: and burne by his enemies on euery side.

4 His lightning gaue shine vnto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.

5 The hilles melted like waxe at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heauens haue declared his righteousness: and all the people haue seene his glory.

7 Confounded be all they that worship carued images, and that delight in vaine gods: worship him all ye gods.

8 When heard of it, and reioyced: and the daughters of Iuda were glad, because of thy iudgements, O Lord.

9 For thou Lord art higher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted farre above all gods.

10 O yee that loue the Lord, see that yee hate the thing which is euil: the Lord preferreth the foules of his faiths, hee shall deliuer them from the hand of the ungodly.

2 Let your songs be of him, and praise him: and let your talking be of all his wondrous works.

3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the heart of them reioyce that seeke the Lord.

4 Seeke the Lord and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

5 Remember the marueilous works that hee hath done: his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth.

6 Ope the eeres of Abzaham his seruant: ye children of Iacob his chosen.

7 He is the Lord our God: his iudgements are in all the world.

8 Hee hath benee away mindfull of his couenant and promises: that he made to a thousand generations.

9 Euen the couenant that he made with Abzaham: and the othe that he swaue vnto Israhac.

10 And appointed the same vnto Iacob for a lawe: and to Israel for an euerslasting Testament.

11 Saying, Vnto thee wil I giue the land of Canaan: the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there were per but a fewe of them: and they strangers in the land.

13 What time as they went from one nation to another: from one kingdome to another people.

14 He suffered no man to doe them wrong: vnt reespooned euen kings for their sakes.

15 Touch not mine anointed: and do my Prophets no harme.

16 Howsoeuer, he called for a death vpon the land: and destroped all the position of bread.

17 But hee had sent a man before them: euen Joseph which was sold to be a bond seruant.

18 Whose seeke they hurt in the Rockes: the prom entered into his soule.

19 Vntill tyme came that his cause was known: the word of the Lord tryed him.

20 The king sent and deliuered him: the prince of the people let him goe free.

21 He made him lord alio of his house: and ruler of all his substance.

22 That he might enforme his princes after his wil: and teach his Senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Iacob was a stranger in the land of Ham.

24 And hee increased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 Whose heart turned, so that they hated his people: and dealt vniuersely with his seruants.

26 Then sent he Moses his seruant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkenesse, and it was darke: and they were not obedient vnto his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood: and slew their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in their kings chambers.

31 He spake the word, and there came al manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gaue them hailstones for raine: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and figge trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coastes.

34 He spake the word, and the grasshoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable: and did eate vp all grasse, in their land, and deuoured the fruite of their ground.

35 He smote all the first borne in their land: euen the chiefest of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver & golde: there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a covering: and fire to giue light in the night season.

39 At their desire he brought quailles: and he filled them with the bread of heauen.

40 He opened the rocke of stone, and the waters flowed out: so that riuers ranne in drie places.

41 For why? he remembered his help promise: and Abzaham his seruant.

42 And hee brought forth his people with ioy: and his chosen with gladnesse.

43 And gaue them the landes of the Heathen: and they tooke the labours of the people in possession.

44 That they might keepe his statutes: and obserue his lawes.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 106.
Giueth thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

1 Who can expresse the noble actes of the Lord: or shew forth all his prayes?

2 Blessed are they that alway keepe iudgements and doe righteouslyesse.

3 Remember me, O Lord, according to the fauour that thou bearest vnto thy people: & visite me with thy saluation.

4 That I may see the felicitie of thy chosen: and reioyce in the gladnesse of thy people, and giue thanks with thine inheritance.

5 We haue sinned with our fathers: we haue done amisse, and dealt wickedly.

6 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnes in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, euen at the red sea.

7 Reuerencelesse, hee helped them for his names sake: that he might make his power to be known.

8 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dryed by: so he led them through the deepe, as through a wilderness.

9 And hee saved them from the aduersaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enemy.

10 As for those that troubled them, the waters overwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.

11 Then blessed they his wordes: & sang prayse vnto him.

12 But within a while they forgate his works: and would not abide his counsaile.

13 But lust came vpon them in the wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.

14 And he gaue them their desire: and sent leannes withall into their soule.

15 They angered Moses also in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord.

16 So the earth opened, and swallowed by Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

17 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt by the vngodly.

18 They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.

19 Thus he turned their glory: into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.

20 And they forgate God their sauiour: which had done so great things in Egypt.

21 Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearefull things by the red sea.

22 So hee said hee would haue destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stand before him in the gap: so turne away his wrathfull indignation, lest hee should destroy them.

23 Yea, they thought scoone of that pleasant lande and gaug no residence vnto his word.

25 But murmured in their tentes: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lit he vp his hand against them: to ouerthrowe them in the wilderness.

27 To cast out their seede among the nations: and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They ioynd themselves vnto Baal Beoz: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him vnto anger with their owne inuentions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then flood by Phinees, and prayed: and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted vnto him for righteousnesse: among all posterities for euermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Holes for their sakes.

33 Because they provoked his spirit: so that hee spake vnaduisedly with his lips.

34 Neither desktroped they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: & learned their workes.

36 In so much that they worshipped their idoles, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.

37 And shed innocent blood, euen the blood of their sonnes and of their daughters: whom they offered vnto the idoles of Chanaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoring with their owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: in so much that hee abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And hee gaue them ouer into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them were Lordes ouer them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.

42 Many a time did he deliuer them, but they rebelled against them with their owne inuentions: & were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuertheless, when he saw their aduersitie: he heard their complaint.

44 He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them according vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea, hee made al those y had led them away captiue to ptey the.

45 Deliuer vs O Lord our God: y gather vs from among the heathen: that wee may giue thanks vnto thy holy name, and make our boall of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from euerslasting, and world without ende: and let al the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino. Psal, 107.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercie endureth for euer.

2 Let them giue thanks, whom the Lord hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enemy.

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the East and from the West: from the North & from the South.

4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.

5 Hungrie and thirsteth their soule fainted in them.

6 So they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: and he deliuered them from their distresse.

7 He led them forth by the right way: that they might goe to the citie where they dwelt.

8 That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

2 For he satisfieth the empty soule: and filleth the hungry soule with goodnesse.

10 Such as sit in darknesse and in the shadowe of death: being fast bound in miserie and yon.

11 Because they rebelled against the wordes of the Lord: & lightly regarded the counsell of the most high.

12 He also brought downe their heart through heauinesse: they fel downe, and there was none to helpe them by.

13 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

14 For he brought them out of variences, & out of the shadowe of death: and brake their bonds in lunder.

15 That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brasse: and smitten the barres of yron in lunder.

17 Foolishly men are plagued for their offence: and because of their wickednesse.

18 Their soule abhorred al manner of meate: and they were euen hars at deathe dooe.

19 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

20 He sent his word, and healed them: and they were saued from their destruction.

21 That men would therefore prayse the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and tel out his workes with gladnes.

23 They that goe downe to the sea in shippes: and occupie their businesse in great waters.

24 These men see the workes of the Lord: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For at his word the stormie wind ariseth: which lifteth up the waues thereof.

26 They are caried vp to the heauen, and downe againe to the deepe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble.

27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 So when they cry vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuereth them out of their distresse.

29 For hee maketh the storme to cease: so that the waues thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they are at rest: and so hee bringeth them vnto the haueu where they would be.

31 That men would therefore prayse the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in congregacion of the people: and prayse him in the seate of the elders.

36 And there he fettereth the hungrie: that at they may build them a citie to dwell in.

37 That they may sowe their land, and plant vineyardes: to peeble them fruites of increase.

38 He blesseth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

Euening
prayer.

OSing vnto the Lorde a newe song: for he hath done marueilous things.

2 With his owne right hand, and with his holy armes: hath he gotten himselfe the victorie.

3 The Lorde declared his saluation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 He hath remembred his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world haue seene the saluation of our God.

5 Shewe your selues ioyful vnto the Lorde, all ye lands: sing, reioyce, and giue thanks.

6 Praise the Lorde vpon the harpe: sing to the harpe with a Psalm of thanksgiving.

7 With trumpets also & Shabomes: & shewe your selues ioyful before the Lorde the King.

8 Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be ioyful together before the Lorde: for hee is come to iudge the earth.

10 With righteousness shall he iudge the world: and the people with equitie.

Domini regnauit. Psal. 99.

The Lorde is King, be the people neuer so impatient: hee sitteth betwixt the Cherubims, be the earth neuer so inquier.

2 The Lorde is great in Sion: and high aboue all people.

3 They shall giue thanks vnto thy name: which is great, wonderful, and holy.

4 The kings power loueth iudgement, thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed iudgement and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Magnifie the Lorde our God: and fall downe before his foote stooles, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among such as call vpon his name: these called vpon the Lorde, and he heard them.

7 He spake vnto them out of the cloudy pillar: for they kept his testimonies, & the law that he gaue them.

8 Thou hearest them (O Lorde our God): thou forgauest them, O God, and punishedst their owne inuentions.

9 Magnifie the Lorde our God, and worship him vpon his holy hill: for the Lorde our God is holy.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. 100.

OBe ioyful in the Lorde all ye landes: serue the Lorde with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

2 We be sure that the Lorde he is God, it is he that hath made vs, & not we our selues: we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

3 O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courtes with praise: be thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his name.

4 For the Lorde is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam & iudicium. Psal. 101.

MY song shall be of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lorde, will I sing.

2 Let me haue vnderstanding: in the way of godlinesse.

3 When wilt thou come vnto mee: I will walke in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the annes of vnfaithfulnesse: there shall no such cleaue vnto me.

5 A stoward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Who so prauily slauereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Who so hath all a proud looke, and high stomache: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes looke vpon such as be faithful in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Who lo leaderh a goodly life: hee shall be my seruant.

10 There shall no deceitful person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies shall not tary in my sight.

11 I shall looke downe vnto all the vngodly that are in the land: that I may roote out all wicked doers from the cite of the Lorde.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 102.

Hear me my prayer, O Lorde: and let my crying come vnto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dapes are consumed away like the smoke: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

4 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 For the voyce of my groaning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pellicane in the wilderness: and like an owle that is in the desert.

7 I haue watched, & am euen as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone vpon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reuile me all the day long: & they that are mad vpon me, are twaine together against me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: & mingled my drinke with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation & wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dapes are gotten like a shadowe: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou (O Lorde) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And why? thy seruantes thinke vpon her bones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall feare thy name, O Lorde: and all the kings of the earth thy maiestie.

16 When the Lorde shall build by Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When hee turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore: destitute: and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that come after: and the people which shall be borne, shall praise the Lorde.

19 For he hath looked downe from his Sanctuary: out of the heauen did the Lorde behold the earth.

20 That he might heare the mournings of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the Lorde in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lorde.

23 Wee brought downe my strength in my iourney: and softned my dapes.

24 But I sayd, O my God, take mee not away in the middle of mine age: as for thy peccers they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou Lorde in the beginning hast layde the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy hands.

26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeres shall not faile.

28 The children of thy seruantes shall continue and their seede shall stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic anima. Psal. 103.

Praise the Lord, O my soule: and all that is within me, praise his holy name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soule: and forget not all his benefites.

3 Which forgiveth all thy iniquities: & healeth all thine infirmities.

4 Which saveth thy life from destruction: & crowns thee with mercy and loving kindnesse.

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee pong and lustie as an Eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousnesse & iudgement: for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7 He shewed his wayes vnto Moyses: his workes vnto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of comp assion and mercy: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 He wil not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after our iniquities: nor rewarded vs according to our wickednesse.

11 For looke how high the heauen is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercie also toward them that feare him.

12 Looke how lowe the Gall is from the West: so farre hath he set our iniquities from vs.

13 Yea, like as a father pitteth his owne children: enen so is the Lord mercifull to them that feare him.

14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The dayes of man are but as grasse: for he flourisheth as a floure of the field.

16 For as soone as the wind goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall knowe it no more.

17 But the mercifull goodnesse of the Lord endureth for ever and euer, vpon them that feare him: and his righteousnesse vpon childrens children.

18 Euen vpon such as keepe his covenant: and thinke vpon his commandments to doe them.

19 The Lord hath prepared his seat in heauen: and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.

20 O Praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excell in strength: ye that fulfill his commandment, and hearken vnto the voyce of his wordes.

21 O Praise the Lord al ye his hostes: ye seruantes of his that see his pleasure.

22 O speake good of the Lord, al ye workes of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soule.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. 104.

Praise the Lord, O my soule: O Lord, be my God, then art thou come exceeding glorious, thou art clothed with maiestie and honour.

2 Thou deckest thy selfe with light as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heauens like a curtainaine.

3 Which layeth the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the cloudes his charer, and walketh vpon the wings of the winde.

4 He maketh his angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire.

5 He layeth the foundations of the earth: that it neuer should mooue at any time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deepe like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of the thunder they are afraid.

8 They goe by as high as the hills, and downe to the valleys beneath: euen vnto the place which thou hast appointed for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not passe: neither turne againe to couer the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the riuers: which runne among the hills.

11 All beastes of the fielde drinke thereof: and the wilde asses quench their thirst.

12 Wherein the fowles of the ayre haue their habitation: and sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruite of thy workes.

14 He bringeth forth grasse for the cattel: & greene herbe for the seruitour of men.

15 That he may bring foode out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyle to make him a cheereful countenance, & bread to strengthe the mans heart.

16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sappe: enen the Cedars of Libanus, which he hath planted.

17 Wherein the birds make their nestes: and the fittre trees are a dwelling for the Socke.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wilde Goats: and so are the stony rocks for the Conies.

19 Hee appointed the Moone for certaine seasons: and the Sunne knoweth his going downe.

20 Thou makest darkenesse that it may bee night: wherein all the beastes of the forest doe moue.

21 The Lions roaring after their praye: bee seeke their meate at God.

22 The sunne ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them downe in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his worke, and to his labour: vntill the evening.

24 O Lord, howe manifolde are thy workes: in wisdome hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beastes.

26 There goe the ships, & there is that Leuiathan: whom thou hast made to take his pasture therein.

27 These waite al vpon thee: that thou maiest giue them meate in due season.

28 When thou giuest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned againe to their dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath goe forth, they shall be made: & thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious maiestie of the Lord: shall endure for ever: the Lord shall reioyce in his workes.

32 The earth shall tremble at the looke of him: if he doe but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

33 I will sing vnto the Lord, as long as I liue: I will praise my God, while I haue my being.

34 And loe that my wordes please him: my voyce shall be in the Lord.

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soule, praise the Lord.

Confite mini Domino. Psal. 105.

through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.

41 Let helpe be the poore out of misery: and maketh him households like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous will consider this, & reioyce: and the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: & they shall vnderstand the loving kindnesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. 108.

O God, my heart is ready (my heart is ready) I will sing and giue praise with the best member that I haue.

1 Awake thou Lute and Harpe: I my selfe will awake right early.

2 I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praise vnto thee among the nations.

3 For thy mercy is greater then the heauens: and thy truth reacheth vnto the cloudes.

4 Set vp thy selfe (O God) aboute the heauens: and thy glory aboute all the earth.

5 What thy beloved may be deliuered: let thy right hand saue them: and heare thou me.

6 God hath spoken in his holinesse: I will reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Banaas is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head.

8 Iuda is my lawginer. Souda is my washpot: ouer Ebron will I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistines will I triumph.

9 Who will leade me into the strong cite: and wha will bring me into Edom?

10 Hast thou not forsaken vs, O God: and wilt thou not God goe forth with our hostes?

11 O helpe vs against the enemy: for saine is the helpe of man.

12 Through God we shall do great acts: and it is he that shall tread downe our enemies.

Deus laudem. Psal. 109.

Hidde not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitful is opened vpon me.

2 And they haue spoken against mee with falsse tongues: they compassed mee aboute also with wordes of hatred, and sought against me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them loe, they take now my contrary part: but I giue my selfe vnto prayer.

4 They haue they rewarded me euill for good: and hated for my good will.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him: and let Sathan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is giuen vpon him, let him bee condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be few: and let another take his office.

8 Let his children bee fatherlesse: and his wife a widow.

9 Let his children be bagabonds, and begge their bread: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume al that he hath: and let the strangers spoyle his labour.

11 Let there bee no man to pitie him: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: & let not the sinne of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may roote out the memorial of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his minde was not to do good: but persecuted the poore helpelesse man, that he might slay him that was deere at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen vnto him: hee soued not blessing, therefore shall it bee farre from him.

17 He clothed himselfe with cursing like as with a rayment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.

18 Let it bee vnto him as the cloke that he hath vpon him: and as the girdle that yee is alway giued withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord vnto mine enemies: and to those that speake euill against my soule.

20 But deale thou with mee (O Lord God) according vnto thy Name: for sweete is thy mercie.

21 Deliuer me, for I am helpelesse and poore: and my heart is wounded within me.

22 I goe hence like the shadow that departeth: and am as a grasshopper.

23 My knees are weake through fasting: my flesh is dyped vp for want of samelie.

24 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heads.

25 Helpe mee (O Lord my God:) oh saue mee according to thy mercie.

26 And that they shall know how that this is thy hand: and that thou Lord hast done it.

27 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: and let them be confounded that rise vp against mee, but let thy seruant reioyce.

28 Let mine aduersaries bee clothed with shame: and let them cauer themselves with their owne confusion, as with a cloke.

29 As for mee, I will giue great thanks vnto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude.

30 For hee shall stand at the right hand of the poore: to saue his soule from vniuersall Iudges.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. 110.

The Lord sayde vnto my Lord: sit thou on my right hand, vntill I make thine enemies thy foete stoole. Morning prayer.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Sion: bee thou ruler euen in the mids among thine enemies.

3 In the day of thy power shal the people offer thee free will offerings with an holy worship: the deaue of thy birth is of the wombe of the morning.

4 The Lord sweare, and will not repent: thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

5 The Lord vpon thy right hand: shal wound euery Kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall iudge among the heathens, he shall sit the places with the dead bodies: and situate in sunder the heads ouer diuers countreys.

7 Hee shall drinke of the brooke in the way: therefore shall hee lift vp his head.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 117.

I will giue thanks vnto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithfull, and in the Congregation.

2 The workes of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that haue pleasure therein.

3 His worke is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousnesse endured for euer.

O Give thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercie endureth for euer.

2 Let Israel now confesse that he is gracious: and that his mercie endureth for euer.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confesse: that his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Yea, let them now that feare the Lord confesse: that his mercie endureth for euer.

5 I called vpon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not feare what man doeth vnto me.

7 The Lord takeh my part with them that helpe mee: therefore shall I see my desire vpon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed mee round about: but in the Name of the Lord wil I destroy them.

11 They kept me in on euery side, they kept me in (I say) on euery side: but in the Name of the Lord wil I destroy them.

12 They came about me like Bees, and are extinct euen as the fire among the thornes: for in the Name of the Lord I wil destroy them.

4 Beholde, hee that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

5 The Lord himselfe is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence vpon thy right hand.

6 So that the Sunne shall not burne thee by day: neither the Moone by night.

4 The deepe waters of the poultie: had gone euen ouer our soule.

5 But prayle be the Lord: which hath not giuen vs ouer for a praye vnto their teeth.

7 Our helpe standeth in the name of the Lordy: which hath made heauen and earth.

2 The hills stand about Hierusalem: euen so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for euermore.

3 For the rod of the vngodly cometh not into the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put their hands vnto wickednesse.

4 Doe well, O Lord: vnto those that be good and true of heart.

5 As for such as turne backe vnto their owne wickednesse: the Lord shall leade them forth with the cuffed boers, but peace shall be vpon Israel.

Super flumina. Psal. 137.

By the waters of Babylon we late downe and wept: when we remembered (thee) O Sion.

2 As for our harps, we hangd them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

3 For they that led vs away captiue, required of vs then a song and melodie in our beautie: sing vs one of the songs of Sion.

4 How shal we sing vs Lords song: in a strange land.

5 If I forget thee, O Hierusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the rooke of my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Hierusalem in my mirth.

7 Remember the childzen of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Hierusalem: how they lapde, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon, waiked to misery: yea, hap- py shall he be that rewardeth thee as thou hast serued vs.

9 Blessed shall hee be that taketh thy childzen: and thowert them againe at the founes.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 138.

I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, in my whole heart: euen before vs Gods wil I sing praise vnto thee.

2 I wil worshipping toward thy holy temple, O praise thy Name, because of thy louing kindnes & truely: for thou hast magnified thy Name, & thy word aboue al things.

3 When I called vpon thee, thou heardest me: and enuestst my soule with much strenght.

4 All the Kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they haue heard the wordes of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shal sing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect vnto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them as farre off.

7 Though I walke in the mids of trouble, yet shalt thou reserue me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand vpon the furiousnesse of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall saue me.

8 The Lord shall make good his louing kindnesse toward me: yea, thy mercie, O Lord, endureth for euer, despite not then the workes of thine owne hands.

Domine

Morning
prayer.

Domine probasti. Psal. 139.

O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and knowest me: thou knowest my bowels sitting, and mine upping, thou understandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and speakest out all my wayes.

3 For Lot, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned me behind and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot obtaine into it.

6 Whether shall I go then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I goe then from thy presence?

7 If I climb by into heauen, thou art there: if I goe downe to hel, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remaine in the vtremost partes of the sea.

9 Euen there also shall thy hand leade me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

10 If I say, Aduenture the darknesse shall couer me: then shall my night be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darknesse is no darknesse with thee, but the night is as cleare as the day: the darknesse and light (to thee) are both alike.

12 For my reins are thine: thou hast covered mee in my mothers wombe.

13 I will giue thanks vnto thee, for I am fearesfully & wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works, and that my soule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I bee made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being vnperfect: & in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare are thy counsels vnto me, O God: O how great is the summe of them.

18 If I tell them, they are moe in number then the sand: when I awake by, I am present with thee.

19 Wilt not thou slay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye bloodthirstie men.

20 For they speake vnrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine.

21 Doe not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with those that rise vp against thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore: euen as though they were mine enemies.

23 Trie mee, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: pious me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Looke wel if there be any way of wickednes in me: and leade me in the way euerlasting.

Requie me Domine. Psal. 140.

Deliver me O Lord, from the euill man: and preserue me from the wicked man.

2 Which imagine mischief in their hearts: and stirre by stirre all the day long.

3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: Adders poison is vnder their lips.

4 Keepe mee, O Lord, from the hands of the vngodly: preserue mee from the wicked men which are purposed to ouertrow my goings.

5 The proud haue layd a snare for mee, and spyed a net aboade with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.

6 I said vnto the Lord, thou art my God: heare the hope of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast covered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischieuous imagination prosper, lest they bee too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their owne lips fall vpon the head of them: that compass me about.

10 Let hote burning coales fall vpon them: let them bee cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they neuer rise vp againe.

11 A man full of words, shall not prosper vpon the earth: euill shall hunt the wicked person to ouertrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will avenge the poore: and maintaine the cause of the helpless.

13 The righteous also shall giue thanks vnto thy Name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Domine clamasti. Psal. 141.

Lord, I call vpon thee: haste thee vnto me: and consider my voyce, when I cry vnto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting vp of my handes bee an euening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch O Lord before my mouth: & keepe the doore of my lips.

4 Let not mine heart bee enclined to any euill thing: let mee not be occupied in vngodly works, with the men that worke wickednesse, least I eate of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balmes breake mine head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickednesse.

7 Let their Iudges be ouertrowen in stony places: that they may heare my words, for they are sweete.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and beweth wood vpon the earth.

9 But mine eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, & cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe me from the snare which they haue layd for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nets together: and let me euer escape them.

Voc me ad Dominum. Psal. 142.

Icried vnto the Lord with my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lord: O Lord, I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaints before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirit was in heavinesse, thou knowest my path: in the way wherein I walked, they haue priuily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked also vpon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cried vnto thee, O Lord, and sayde: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the liuing.

7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very lowe.

8 Deliver me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soule out of prison, that I may giue thanks vnto thy Name: which thing if thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous reioyce vnto my company.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 143.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: Hearken vnto me for thy truth and righteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not into iudgement with thy seruants: for in thy sight shall no man iuue being iustified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life downe to the ground: he hath layd mee in the darknesse, as the men that haue bene long dead.

Evening

 4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadowe.

- 5 Bowe thy heauens, O Lord, and come downe: touch the mountaines, and they shall smoke.
- 6 Call forth thy lightning, and reare them: shoote out thine arrowes, and consume them.

- 9 I will sing a new song vnto thee, O God: and sing praises vnto thee vpon a ten stringed Lute.
- 10 Thou hast giuen victorie vnto Kings: and hast deliuered Dauid thy seruant from the perill of y sword.
- 11 Saue me & deliuer me from the hand of strange children: whose mouth talketh of banitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquitie.
- 12 That our ioyes may growe by as the young plants: and that our palmyetts may be as the polliced corners of the Temple.
- 13 That our garners may bee full and plenteous wth all manner of floze: that our sheepe may vying forth thousandes, and ten thousandes in our streets.

FINIS.
y end of y psalm of David an

¶ A prayer containing the duetie of euery true Christian.

Holl mightie God, mercifull and louing Father, I wretched sinner come vnto thee in the Name of thy dearely beloved Sonne Iesus Christ my onely Sauour and Redeemer: and most humbly beseech thee for his sake to be mercifull vnto me, and to cast all my finnes out of thy sight and remembrance, through the merites of his bloody death and passion.

Bestow vpon me (O Lord) thy holy Spirit of wisdom and grace: Gouverne and leade mee by thy goodly waye, that it may be a lantern vnto my feete, and a light vnto my steps. Shew thy mercy vpon mee, and to lighten thy natural blindness and darknesse of my heart through thy grace, that I may dayly be renewed by the same Spirit and grace: By the which (O Lord) purge the grossenesse of my hearing and vnderstanding, that I may profitably reade, heare, and vnderstand thy word and heauenly will, beleue and practise the same in my life and conuersation, and euermore hold fast that blessed hope of euerlasting life.

Fortifie and kill all vice in me, that my life may expresse my faith in thee: mercifullly heare the humble sute of thy seruant, & graunt me thy peace al my dayes: Graciously pardon mine infirmitie, and defend me in all dangers of body, goods & name: But most chiefly, my soule against all assaults, temptations, accusations, subtil baits and sleights of that old enemy of mankind Satan that roaring Lion, euer seeking whom he may deuoure.

And here (O Lord) I prostrate, with most humble minde craue of thy diuine Maiesty, to be mercifull vnto the vniuersall Church of thy Sonne Christ: And especially according to my bounden duetie, beseech thee for his sake to bestow, saue and defend the principall member therof, thy seruant our most deare and louetaine Lady Queene Elizabeth, increase in her royal heart true faith, godly zeale, and loue of the same: And grant her victory ouer all her enemies, a long, prosperous and honourable life vpon earth, a blessed end, and life euertlasting.

Moreover, O Lord, grant vnto her Maiesties most honourable Councellours, and euery other member of this thy Church of England, that they and wee in our severall callings, may truly & godly serue thee: Plant in our hearts true feare and honour of thy Name, obedience to our Prince, and loue to our neighbours: Increase in vs true faith and Religion: Replenish our mindes with all goodness, and of the great mercy keepe vs in the same til the ende of our liues: Giue vnto vs a godly zeale in prayer true humilitie in prosperitie, perfect patience in aduersitie, and continual joy in the holy Ghost.

And lastly I commend vnto thy fatherly protection, all that thou hast giuen mee, as wife, children, and seruants: Aye mee, O Lord, that I may gouerne, nourish, and bring them by in thy feare & seruite. And for as much as in this world I must waluares be at warre and strife, not with one sort of enemies, but with an infinite number, not onely with flesh and blood, but with the Deuill which is the prince of darknesse, and with wicked men executors of his most damnable will: Grant mee therefore thy grace, that being armed with confidence, I may stand in this battaile with an invincible constancie against all corruption, which I am compassed with on euery side, untill such tyme as I haue ended this combat which during this life I must sustaine, in the end I may attaine to thy heauenly rest, which is prepared for mee and all thine elect, through Christ our Lord and onely Sauour.

Almightie God, the Father of mercie, and God of all comfort, which onely forgivest sinne: forgive vnto vs our finnes, good Lord, forgive vnto vs our finnes, that by the multitude of the mercies they may be couered, and not imputed vnto vs, and by the operation of the holy Ghost, wee may haue power and strength hereafter to resist sinne by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Tuesday.

Lord God, which bestitest not a contrite heart, and forgettest the finnes and wickednes of a sinner, in what houre soeuer he doeth mourne and lament his old manner of living: grant vnto vs (O Lord) true contrition of heart, that wee may vehemently despise our sinfull life past, and wholly be conuerted vnto thee, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Wednesday.

Mercifull Father, by whose power and strengthe wee may overcome our enemies both bodily and ghostly: grant vnto vs, O Lord, that according to our promise made in our baptism, wee may overcome the chief enemies of our soule, that is, the desires of the world, the pleasures of the flesh, and the suggestions of the wicked spirit: and to after lead our liues in holines and righteousnesse, that wee may serue thee in spirit and in truth, and that by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Thursday.

Almightie and euertlasting God, which not onely giuest euery good and perfect gift, but also createst those gifts that thou hast giuen: we most humbly beseech thee (mercifull God) to increase in vs the gift of faith, that wee may truly beleue in thee, and in thy promise made vnto vs: and that neither by our negligence, nor infirmitie of the flesh, nor by grievousnesse of temptation, neither by the subtil craftes and assaults of the deuill, wee bee pluen from faith in the blood of our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Friday.

Grant vnto vs, O mercifull God (we most heartily beseech thee) knowledge and true vnderstanding of thy worde, that all ignorance expelled, wee may knowe what thy will and pleasure is in all things, and how to doe our duties, and truly to walke in our obedienc: and that also wee may expresse in our living, those things that wee doe knowe, that wee be not onely knowers of thy worde, good Lord, but also be workers of the same, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Saturday.

Almightie God, which hast prepared euertlasting life to all those that be thy faithful seruants: graunt vnto vs Lord, sure hope of the life euertlasting, that wee being in this miserable world, may haue some taste and feeling of it in our hearts, and that not by our deserting, but by the merites and deserting of our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

O Merciful God, our onely aide, succour, & strength at all times: graunt vnto vs, O Lord, that in the time of prosperitie we be not proud, and to forget thee, but that with our whole heart and strength we may cleaue vnto thee, and in the time of aduertitie, that we fall not into misbeliitie and desperation, but that alwayes with constant faith, we may call for helpe vnto thee: I graunt this, O Lord, for our aduocates sake, and Saviour Iesus Christ, Amen.

Sunday.

O Almighty and merciful Lord, which giueth vnto thy elect people the holy Ghost, as a sure pledge of thy heauenly kingdome: Graunt vnto vs, O Lord, thy holy Spirit, that hee may beare witness with our spirit, that wee be thy children, and heires of thy kingdome, & that by the operation of this thy Spirit, we may kill all carnal lustes, vnlawful pleasures, concupiscences, euil affections, contrary vnto thy will, by our Saviour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

A prayer for trust in God.

The beginning of the sal of man, was trust in himselfe. The beginning of the resioyng of man, was distrust in himselfe, and trust in God. O most gracious and most wise guide, our Saviour Christ, which doest lead them the right way to immortall blessednes, which truely and vnfainedly trusting in thee, commit themselves to thee: Grant vs, that like as we be blind and feeble indeed, so we may rake and repute our selues, but to see to see, that alway we may haue thee before our eyes, to follow thee, being our guide, to be ready at thy call most obediently, and to commit our selues wholly vnto thee, that thou which surely knowest the way, maist lead vs the same way vnto our heauenly desires: to thee with the Father and the holy Ghost, be glorie for euer, Amen.

Certaine godly prayers to be vsed for sundry purposes.

A generall confession of finnes, to be said every Morning.

O Almighty God our heauenly Father, I confesse and know ledge, that I am a miserable and a wretched sinner, & haue manifold wayes most grieuouly transgressed thy most godly comandemets, through wicked thoughts, vngodly lustes, vnlawful wordes & deedes, committed at my whole life. In Anne am I borne and conceived, & there is no goodnes in me, in as much as if thou shouldest enter into thy narrow wicket with me, Iudging me according vnto the same. I were neuer able to suffer and abide it, but must needs perish and be damned for euer: So little helpe, comfort, or succour is there either in me, or in any other creature. Whely this is my comfort (O heauenly Father) that thou diddest not spare thy onely deare beloved sonne, but diddest giue him by vnto the most bitter, and most vile and slanderous death of the crosse for mee, that he might so pay the ranstone for my finnes, satisfie thy iudgement, fill & pacifie thy wrath, reconcile me againe vnto thee, and purchase me thy grace and fauour, & eueralasting life. Therefore through the merite of his most bitter death and passion, and through his innocent bloodshedding, I beseech thee, O heauenly Father, that thou wilt vouchsafe to be gracious and mercifull vnto me, to forgive and pardon me of all my finnes, to lighten my heart with thy holy Spirit, to renue, confirme, & strengthen me with a right and perfect faith, and to inflame me in loue toward thee and my neyghbour, that I may henceforth with a willing and glad heart, walke as becommeth me in thy most godly commandements, and to glorie and praise thee eueraastingly. And alis that I may with a free conscience and quiet heart, in all manner of temptations, afflictions, or necessities, and euen in the very pangs of death, hold believ and merry vnto thee, and say, I beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth, and in Iesus Christ, &c. But, O Lord God heauenly father, to comfort my selfe in affliction and temptation with these articles of the Christian faith, it is not in my power, for faith is thy gifte: and forasmuch as thou wilt be prayed vnto, and called vpon for it: I come vnto thee to pray and beseech thee, both for that and for all other my necessities, euen as thy deare beloved Sonne our Saviour Iesus Christ himselfe hath taught vs. And from the very bottom of my heart I cry and say, Our Father which art in heauen, halowed be thy name, &c.

Prayers to be said in the Morning.

O Merciful Lord God, heauenly father, I render most high laudes, praise, and thankes vnto thee, that thou hast preferred me, both this night and all the times and dayes of my life hitherto, vnder thy protection, and hast suffered me to liue vntill this present houre. And I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to receive me this day, and the residue of my whole life, from henceforth into thy tuition, ruling and governing me with thy holie Spirit, that all manner of darknes, of misbeliiefe, infidelitie, and of carnal lustes, and affections, may be utterly chased and diuinen out of my heart, and that I may be iustified and saved both body and soule through a right and perfect faith, and so walke in the light of thy most godly truth, to thy glorie and praise, and to the profit and furtherance of my neyghbour, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, Amen.

All possible thankes that we are able, wee render vnto thee, O Lord Iesus Christ, for that thou hast willed this night past to be prosperous vnto vs: and wee beseech thee likewise to prosper at this same day vnto vs for thy glorie, and for the health of our soule, and that thou which art the true light, not knowing as we going downe, and which art the Sonne eternal, giuing life, foode, and gladnes vnto all things, vouchsafe to shine into our mindes, that wee may not any where stumble to fall into any sinne, but may thyow thy good guiding and conducting, come to the life eueraasting, Amen.

O Lord Iesus Christ, which art the true Sonne of the worlde, euermore arising, and neuer going downe, which by thy most holosome appearing & sight, dost bring forth, preferre, nourish, & refresh all things as well that are in heauen, as also that are on earth: we beseech thee mercifull & fauourably to shine into our hearts, that the might of darknes of finnes, & the mistes of error on euery side diuinen away, that bright shining within our hartes, we may all our life space goe without any stumbling of offence, & may decently and seemely walke (as in the day time) being pure & cleane from the workes of darknes, and abounding in all good workes which God hath prepared for vs to walke in, which with the Father and with the holy Ghost maist and reigne for euer and euer, Amen.

Godly prayers.

O God and Lowe Iesus Christ, thou knowest, yea and hast also taught vs how great the infirmities and weaknesse of man is, and how certaine a thing it is that it can nothing doe without thy godly helpe. If man trust to himselfe, it cannot be auoyded, but that he must headlong runne & fall into a thousand vncloings and mischities. O our Father haue thou pittie and compassion vpon the weaknesse of vs thy children, be thou prest and ready to helpe vs, alwayes shewing thy mercie vpon vs, and prospering wharsoeuer wee godly go about, so that thou giuing vs light, we may see what things are truly good in deede: thou encouraging vs, we may haue an earnest desire to the same: and thou being our guide, we may come where to obtaine them: for wee hauing nothing but mistrust in our selues, doe yeld and commit our selues full and whole vnto thee alone, which worketh all things in all creatures, to thy honour and glory. So be it.

A prayer against temptation.

O Lord Iesus Christ, the onely way and fence of our mortall state, and onely hope, our onely saluation, our glory, and our triumph, who in the flesh (which thou hadst for our onely cause taken vpon thee) diddest suffer thy selfe to be tempted of Satan, and who onely and alone of all men didst utterly overcome and banis quills, scine, death, the world, the deuil, and all the kingdome of hell: and wharsoeuer thou hast lo overcome, for our behoofe it is that thou hast overcome it: neither hath it bene thy will to haue any of thy seruants to keepe battell, or fight with any of the foresaid euils, but of purpose to reward vs with a crowne of the more glory for it. And to the intent that thou mightest likewise ouerthrowe Satan in thy members, as thou haddest aboue done in thine owne person, giue thou (we beseech thee) vnto vs thy stoutnes (O Lion most vices rotulous of the tribe of Iuda) strength against the roaring Lion, which continually wandreth out and fro, seeking whom hee may deuoure. Thou being that same Serpent, the true giuer of death and life, that was nailed on high vpon a crosse, giue vnto vs thy kille ones, wisnesse against the deceitfull awaying of the most subtilite serpent. Thou being a Lambe as white as snow, the vanquisher of Satans Pyramie, giue vnto vs thy kille sheepe the strength and vertue of thy spirit, that being in our selues doe kee and feeble, and in thee strong and vsant. We may withstand and overcome all assaults of the deuil, so that thy ghostly enemy may not glory on vs, but being conquered though they see, we may giue thanks to thy mercie, which neuer leauest them beleue that put their trust in thee, who liuest and reignest God for euer without end, Amen.

A prayer for the obtaining of wisdom.

O God of our fathers, and Lord of mercie, thou that hadst made all things with thy word, and ordeined man through thy wisdom, that he should haue dominion over the creatures which thou hast made, that he should order the world according to equitie and righteousness, and execute iudgements with a true heart: giue mee wisdom, which is euer about thy lease, and put me not out from among thy children: for I thy seruant and sennet of thy handmaid, am a feeble person, of a short time, and too young to the vnderstanding of thy iudgements and lawes: yea, though a man be neuer so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, hee shall be nothing worth. O send thy wisdom out of thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maiestie, that the may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy sight, for he knoweth & vnderstandeth all things, and thee shall conduct me right soberly in thy lawes, and prelerue me in yer power, so shall my workes be acceptable. Amen.

A prayer against worldly carefulnesse.

O Most deare and tender father, our defender and nourisher, endue vs with thy grace, that we may cast off the great blindness of our mindes, and carefulnesse of worldly things, and may put our whole studie and care in keeping of thy holy law, and that we may labour and traualle for our necessities in this life, like the birdes of the ayre, and the lilies of the field with out care. For thou hast promised to be careful for vs, and hast commanded that vpon thee we should cast all our care: which liuest and reignest without end, Amen.

A prayer necessary for all persons.

O Mercifull God, I a wretched sinner reknowledge my selfe bound to keepe thy holy commandments, but yet unable to performe them, a to be accepted for iust without the righteousnesse of Iesus Christ thy onely sonne, who hath perfectly fulfilled thy lawe, to iustifie all men that beleue and trust in him. Therefore graunt mee grace, I beseech thee, to be occupied in doing of good workes, which thou commandest in holy Scripture, all the daues of my life, to thy glory, and yet to trust onely in thy mercie, and in Christes merites, to be purged from my sinnes, and not in my good workes, be they neuer so many. Giue mee grace to loue thy holy word faithfully, to search the Scriptures diligently, to reade them humbly, to vnderstand them truly, to liue after them effectually. Ouer my life. O Lord, that it may be alway acceptable vnto thee. Giue me grace not to reioyce in any thing that displeaseth thee, but euer more to delight in those things that please thee, be they neuer so contrary to my desires. Teach mee so to pray, that my petitions may be graciously heard of thee. Keepe me vngift among diuersities of opinions and iudgements in the world, that I neuer swaue from thy truth taught in holy Scripture. In prophesie, O Lord, saue me, that I waye not prouide. In adueritic helpe me, that I neither despaire nor blasphemeth thy holy Name, but taking it patiently, to giue thee thanks, and trust to be deliuered after thy pleasure. When I happen to fall into sinne through faultie, I beseech thee to worke true repentance in my heart, that I may be loy without desperation, trust in thy mercie without presumption, that I may amend my life, and become truly religious without hypocrisie. Iohly in heart without fainting, faithfull and trustie without desert, merry without lightnesse, sad without mistrust, sober without sombfulnesse, content with mine owne without conset in sic, to sell my neighbour his fault as chat it shold without dissimulation, to instruct my houses holde in thy lawes truly, to obey our Duene and all gouernours vnder her vnsainedship, to receive all lawes and common ordinances (which disagreeeth not from thy holy word) obediently, to pay euery man that which I owe vnto him, to backbite no man, nor slander my neighbour secretly, and to aduorse all vice, louing all goodnesse earnestly. O Lord grant me thus to doe, for thy glory of thy holy name. Amen.

A prayer for patience in trouble.

How hast thou (O Lord) humbled and plucked me downe? I dare not vnceth make my prayers vnto thee, for thou art angry with mee, but not without my deserting. Certainly I haue sinned. Lord, I confesse it: I will not deny it: but, my God, pardon my trespasses, releaseth my debts, render now thy grace againe vnto me, stoppe my woundes, for I am all to plagi: so and beaten: yet Lord this notwithstanding I abide patiently, & giue mine attendance on thee, continually waiting for reliefe at thy hand, and that not without shall, for I haue receiued a token of thy fauour and grace towards me, I meane thy word of promise concerning Christ, who for mee was offered on the Crosse for a ranfome, a sacrifice & price for my finnes: wheres foze according to that thy promise, defend mee Lord by thy right hand, & giue a gracious eare to my requestis, for all mans stapes are but vaine. Beat downe therefoze mine enemies thine owne selfe with thy power, which art mine only alder and protectoz, O Lord God Almighty. Amen.

¶ A prayer to be said at night going to bed.

O Mercifull Lord God heauenly Father, whether wee sleepe oz wake, liue oz die, wee are alwayes thine. Wherefoze I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to take care and charge of me, and not to suffer me to perish in the works of darknesse, but to kindle the light of thy countenance in my heart, that thy godly knowledge may dayly increafe in me though a right & pure faith, and that I may alwayes be found to walke and liue after thy will and pleasure, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A prayer to be said at the houre of death.

O Lord Iesus, which art the onely health of all men liuing, and the euertlasting life of them which die in faith: I wretched sinner giue and commit my selfe wholly vnto thy most blessed will. And being sure that the thing cannot perish which is committed vnto thy mercy, willingly now I leaue this fraille & wicked flesh in hope of the resurrection, which in better wise shall restore it to me againe. I beseech thee, most mercifull Lord Iesus Christ, that thou wilt by thy grace make strong my soule against all temptations, and that thou wilt couer and defend me with the buckler of thy mercy against all the assaults of the deuil. I see my wickednesse that there is in my selfe no helpe of saluation, but all my confidence, hope and trust is in thy most mercifull goodnesse. I haue no merites nor good workes which I may alleg before thee. O finnes and euill workes (alas) I see a great heape, but through thy mercy I trust to be in the number of them to whom thou wilt not impute their finnes, but take and accept me for righteous and iust, and to be the inheritor of euertlasting life. Thou mercifull Lord wash home for my sake, thou diddest suffer both hunger and thirst for my sake, thou diddest teach and reach, thou diddest pray and fast for my sake, thou diddest all good workes and deedes for my sake, thou sufferdest most grieuous paines and torments for my sake. And finally thou gavest thy most precious body to die, and thy blood to be shed on the crosse for my sake. Now most mercifull Saviour, let all these things profite mee, which thou freely hast giuen mee, that hast giuen thy selfe for mee. Let thy blood cleanse and wash away the spots and foulesnesse of my finnes. Let thy righteousness hide and couer mine vniuersall iniquities. Let the merites of thy passion and blood, bee the satisfaction for my finnes. Giue mee Lord thy grace, that my faith and saluation in thy blood waue not in mee, but bee euert firme and constant, that the hope of thy mercie & life euertlasting neuer decay in me, that charitie waue not colde in me. Finally that the weakenesse of my flesh bee not overcome with the feare of death. Graunt mee, mercifull Saviour, that when death hath shut vp the eyes of my body, yet that the eyes of my soule may still behold and looke vpon thee, that when death hath taken away the vse of my tongue and speech, yet that my heart may cry and say vnto thee, In manus tuas Domine, commendo spiritum meum, (that is to say) O Lord, into thy hands I giue and commit my soule: Domine Iesu accipe spiritum meum: Lord Iesu receive my soule vnto thee. Amen.
