NEW CHORAL HYMNS by Mr. TILLEARD.

Star of Morn and Even	2d.
Christus Consolator	2d.
Lord God of morning and of night	2d.
O Light of Life, O Saviour dear	2d.
Through the day Thy Love has spared us	2d.
Lo! He comes with clouds descending	2d.
Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear	2d.
The City of God	2d.
Great is the Lord our God	3d.

"'O Light of Life' is remarkable for a bold transition into the subdominant; of the rest, except 'Christus Consolator,' nothing need be said but that they are one and all poetical and original, while of the last-named, 'Christus Consolator,' we do not hesitate to say that nothing more beautiful of its kind has come before us."
—The Church Choirmaster and Organist, May 1, 1867.

"These Choral Hymns are sufficiently sacred, though by no means of an austere kind. They are elegantly set, and must please all who are susceptible of the influence of music, while they certainly prove the composer's taste and knowledge to be of a superior order."—Choir and Musical Record, June 1, 1867.

London: Novello, Ewer and Co.

JUBILATE DEO AND KYRIE ELEESON, in F.
By J. TILLEARD. 3d.

"There is a great desire on the part of the composer of this 'Jubilate' to write well, and at the same time appropriately. The work before us is worthy of commendation for the admirable way in which the words are set, and the religious feeling which runs through it. Some of the modulations, too, are novel, and at the same time in keeping with the character of the composition. As an easy 'Jubilate' for parish use we strongly recommend it."—Choir and Musical Record, June 1, 1867.

The Musical Times.

Published on the 1st of every month.
Price 1s. 6d.; post free, 2s. 6d.

THIS periodical, which has been many years established, contains in every number a complete choral composition set to sacred or secular words. It has always been the recognised medium between choral societies and the public, and forms a faithful record of the progress of such societies in every part of the country. The advocacy of popular class-singing will continue to be the leading feature in the Musical Times; but in order to render it also a journal which shall reflect the current musical events of the London season, an arrangement has been entered into with Mr. Henry C. Lunn (Author of "Musings of a Musician,") who has edited it since September, 1863. In addition to those original notices on new operas and concerts which have appeared from that time, leading articles on subjects of interest, by the most eminent writers on the art, will be given every month; and no exertion will be spared to uphold its character in the two-fold capacity of Musical Times and Singing-class Circular.
