Reveram Dec. 30. '42

Dear Cousin.

This I presume will be the last letter I shall write for this year - do you never mind the error of it. I ~~thought~~^{think} Sentence was written under the misapprehension that it was Saturday ~~the~~ ^{the} last day of the year - so you need not make the most of it, unless you like. I have written my remarks in E. Wright's ~~about~~ ^{about} they will do. You shall see them in next Lord's day in the afternoon of the day - unless I should come to dinner. What I want you to do for me is to ^{get} Whiston or somebody to look over the Old Chur.
Soc's Annual Reports & take off the amounts of the receipts into the treasury from its formation till 1840 - when the split took place. I want also to know who the Ex. Coms were all along - especially the last year or two. The Report of '39 I should like to see with my looking eyes. Moreover I want to see Wright's Lafontaine. Do you own it, or know where it is to be had, & what I want is a motto for an article. I think of writing tomorrow on Liberty Party - & think that a good one, & all the better for being from his book, may be found in the fable of the frog ^{who tried} ~~to~~ to make himself no bigger as the ox. I intend to make my heart merry with Liberty Party, & rejoice the coxicles thereof. Verily, I will laugh and poke fun at it. I will be facetious you, I will say unto it Ha! Ha!

If it be possible, I want to see the vol. of Fielding that contains Tom Thumb the Great, for the same purpose. I will write an order on the Librarian of the Athenaeum for it if you should have any opportunity to send on to me any of you tomorrow. Ladies go there continually. Librarian's room the only one you can get into on the second floor. The reason I give all this trouble is that I have to return on Monday morning to attend a Saturnian Convention - composed it! & want to get my articles to the printer in good season. Farewell for the day six hours.

Ever thine

To Dr. Knapp

Lebanon &c. Newh.: Please to send me the volume of Fielding's Works that contains the tragedy of 'Tom Thrasby, the Great! I have no catalogue - but it is on the bookcase opposite the door of your little room, about as high as your head. Charge it either to me, or ^{to my father} if I have more books than I should. At any rate let me have it, as I want it for a particular purpose & shall return ~~you~~ my books next week.

Yours respectfully

Edmund Quincy
