Dear Maria & Anne, 1861

I got out of town in good order last night & found all well. Ma bush. In the mail was your (Ms) letter & the enclosed from Henry & Caroline.
When you have both read E's return it to me, for it will be barren to read it, & I will condense in a legible hand for him.

This is not the one to read to Anne Perry - I will send in the other. I did not have time to tell you dear Maria last night, that I found Mary much more on her hind legs than in the morning. "She was better," "was rarguil," "had sat up an hour & a half," & I think I shall be easy now & have a good night." "I think Maria had better go sat night, I shall do very well then," when I opposed this she said "there will not be the least necessity for her to stay" Wendell will be at home !!! "Don't you think her mind a little affected. Give this letter to Anne, & she must burn it.

Fanny Garrison was in the cars, going down to Springfield to stay till Monday. Fanny & Ann is her mother over again
- very amiable - I said all that was proper about Anne & Phebe, but they were well aware of Phebe's sickness.

Here has gone to the mail & I will enclose any other letter. 3 D. Lewis came last night. Ever yours D. W. I should stay in town wedder or no. It isn't decent safe or proper to come away. Take a walk in the air every day. Do it as a formality. I sent C. Thomas letter famous. What is there he would like as a memento. write I say.
