1. Reference Memorandum to Imperial Japanese Government, File AG 000.5 (4 Feb 46) LS, dated 4 February 1946, directing the apprehension of Lt. TAKEMURA, Hisao. He was listed as being a former member of the 239th Infantry Regiment, 41st Division at Kapokap, Wewak area, New Guinea - sailed to Japan from Wewak 16 January 1946 on board vessel Rikawa Maru.

2. On 28 February 1946 a Captain TAKEMURA, Hisao was interned at Sugamo Prison (Tokyo Detention Camp) who was believed to be the one requested. Interrogation revealed that the TAKEMURA confined was a commander of a stretcher bearer company attached to the 20th Division, and not the one listed on the above memorandum.

3. Proceedings have been initiated to release the TAKEMURA presently confined, and it is requested that renewed effort be taken to apprehend the correct TAKEMURA.

1. It is desired that the apprehension of the following war criminal suspects be expedited:

WAKABAYASH, Seisaku	Vice Adm.
INOUE, Kenichi	Capt (Navy)
YOSHINUMA, Yoshiharu	Ensign

2. In the case of WAKABAYASH and INOUE it is believed that their comparative high rank coupled with the fact that they both held high military positions, should be sufficient information to enable their immediate apprehension. WAKABAYASH's probable present address is: Tokyo, Setagaya-Ku, Taishi-Cho, 486. In the case of YOSHINUMA it is believed that adequate information was given to insure his immediate apprehension.

3. The report for the month of May 1946, as requested in reference "c" above, will contain a detailed report on the apprehension progress of subject Japanese war criminal suspects.
