A glorious wave of patriotism swept over Narberth on Monday evening, on the occasion of the raising of our Honor Flag at the tennis grounds. This event was preceded by a splendid parade, in which the following organizations participated, preceded by Officer Hill on horseback: First in order came Sousa's Famous Great Lakes Band, playing spirited march music in its inimitable style. They were followed by a group of fair young maidens, each bearing a letter of the words, "Liberty Bonds." They were appropriately dressed as Goddesses of Liberty. Then came our fine body of Boy Scouts, who have been so helpful in many ways during the past few years. Then a group of attractive young ladies, members of the Wynnewood Unit of the Women's Land Army. Their businesslike uniforms excited much admiration. Next came our Ladies' Liberty Loan Committee in uniform, greeted with enthusiastic cheers for their splendid achievement during the present campaign. Following these, came our loyal Red Cross Society, that has done so much, working faithfully and unostentatiously day and night for the boys over there. Then a fine group of young girls, forming the Girls' Patriotic League, in uniform, followed by a large body of children, the Junior Red Cross. Finally, the Home Guard, looking very martial with their rifles, and marching like veterans, brought up the rear.

The tennis grounds were crowded with an expectant outpouring of citizens, waiting for the raising of the flag, the speeches and the music. Hon. Fletcher W. Stites opened the meeting by introducing Captain J. C. Curran, of the British Royal Navy, who was among those captured by the German cruiser Moewe, and held prisoner for sixteen months in Germany. In an impassioned address, he told of the horrors of captivity among the Huns. The prisoners, half starved, and with no medical attention, were driven like slaves to their tasks, and when worked to the last limit, and unable to do more, turned off without any care whatever. He told of the first American prisoner, whose ears were cut off, and who was told to go home, with this treatment as a souvenir. On being reminded that they would be made to pay for this kind of treatment, the cruel Huns carelessly replied: "Oh, no- It will soon be forgotten." He closed with a stirring appeal to America to stand back of our boys, until they carry our flag triumphantly through the streets of Berlin. Captain Curran was frequently cheered during his address, and received a great ovation at its close.

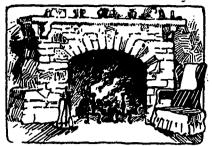

As the speaker concluded, Mr. D. R. D. Hall, president, and Mr. Wm. J. Kirkpatrick, vice-president of the Narberth Tennis Association, raised the Honor Flag, beneath the Stars and Stripes, to the top of the pole amid the enthusiastic cheers of the crowd. This was indeed a proud and happy moment, but there was more to come.

After singing of patriotic songs, accompanied by the band, Mr. Stites introduced Acting Sergeant Langford, of the U.S. Army, now home on sick leave, suffering from heart trouble, brought on by concussion. He is a young

He was appointed borough clerk during the time the borough's sewer system was constructed, he was appointed street commissioner about 1908, and served the borough until February 1, 1918. The great majority of the new roads were built by him or under his supervision. He gave his time and thoughts for at the Y. M. C. In of New York city is engaged in the commendable enterprise of establishlost one of its foremost citizens, and ing a bureau for the exchange of practical information on community activities between towns and cities of from 1000 to 25,000 population.

There is no charge for this service. The only obligation is the filling out when that road entered the State of lishing Company of a questionnaire, a of 6729 towns, with the object of "taking inventory of just how the country Mr. McClellan located in Narberth stands in the matter of community activities."

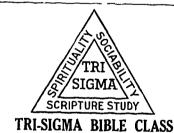

These activities are divided into six general classes, namely: Beautifying town, health of town, educational work, social life, making friends in surrounding country and charity. Altogether, there are about 85 different activities included in these six classes.

The list of activities is extremely suggestive and the whole matter will be presented at the next meeting of the Narberth Civic Association, which will be held at 8 o'clock on the evening of May 2, Thursday of this week,

There are doubtless many residents who would be interested in the promotion of some of these activities which have hitherto received no attention in our community. Many of these activities are already covered, but the bureau to be established will enable us to gain much valuable information as to ways and means of bettering our community life. It is hoped that the importance of this subject will be generally recognized by our citizens and that the meeting will be largely attended.

EDITORIAL

If there are any errors or omissions in the list of buyers of Liberty Bonds on Monday evening, we will be issue, if reported promptly.

Narberth is justly proud of her honor flag, with its blue and gold stars. It may be that by the end of the week we will have quadrupled our quota and have three blue stars. It would do our boys on the honor roll good to hear that!

did a patriotic act when they offered their grounds for Monday's great Liberty Loan rally, and the use of their flag pole for raising the honor flag. In addition to this, they are taking care of the honor flag and will see that it is hoisted on all proper occasions.

It was due to the generous offer made by William T. Harris, our fellowcitizen, that Narberth made such a splendid showing on Monday evening last. Mr. Harris started by offering to duplicate, dollar for dollar, subscriptions to the Liberty Loan up to $10,000, but when he realized how quickly this was done, he saw great possibilities and kept increasing the limit up to $30,000. This was in addition to his previous subscription of $15,000, making $45,000 of the Third Liberty Loan Bonds bought by him. The total of $60,000 sold that night was the result of this patriotic action. We take pleasure in congratulating Mr. Harris on the success of his efforts to make Narberth one star town in this campaign.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

The Civic Association, Narberth Council and the Community Club are co-operating to have a clean-up in Narberth during the early part of May. The definite date will be determined at the meeting of the Civic Association of Narberth Council, has assured the for burning rubbish and I was told operation of Council. Mr. Walton M. buy old tincans, as there was a de-Wentz, chairman of the Highway Com- mand for them. As the lots on Anthmittee, has promised the services of wyn road are clean, I have come to the borough's team. Mrs. C. P. Fowler, the conclusion that the deposits of president of the Community Club, says rubbish on our avenue must come that organization will, as a matter from the residents of Narberth of course, take a very active interest in promoting this good work. Let everybody help make Narberth a spick and span clean town this year. Let there be a rousing meeting of the To the Citizens of Narberth: Civic Association on May 2, to start the ball rolling.

AN APPEAL FOR SOCKS

Once more the Red Cross sends out a most urgent appeal to all American women to knit wool socks to the exclusion of everything else. This does not mean that our boys in the trenches need them at present, but they must be furnished in extraordinary numbers next fall and the time to knit is now.

Five years ago there started a rage among women to knit themselves pretty sweaters. Many began using needles for the first time and found it awkward. The opening of the war turned their attention to sweaters and other articles for soldiers and the Red Cross sent over thousands of dozens of these. Knitting began with renewed zeal when our own boys were to be fitted out, and no one knows how many sweaters, helmets and wristlets were made last winter.

But socks! Our grandmothers, who were supposed to know this art, did not hand it down to posterity. There woman who has succeeded in her first effort is a wonder. It can be done and is being done, but there must be some speeding up. We are told that there will be 1,500,000 cf our boys in France this year. They will require at least ten pairs of woolen socks each-probably more. That is a minimum of fifteen million pairs to be knitted by our women.

The work is being systematically divided up, and it is calculated that every woman should knit at least an abundant supply means not only health and comfort, but may mean the life of a soldier. Every stitch you knit in a pair of socks is comfort for someone. Go to it and knit your bit.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Would it be possible for you, through the columns of your paper, to ask the people of Narberth to refrain from placing rubbish on the vacant lots of Haverford avenue?

Those of us living in "Anthwyn Farms" are not claimed, either by the glad to make corrections in our next Merion or Narberth Civic Association. at the same time have just as much civic pride as persons living elsewhere. It is truly most unsightly every time one goes to and from the postoffice (which is daily) to see the tincans, staves of barrels, etc., along the sidewalk.

It seems to me on such a public thoroughfare and with a nice new road, that all persons living on or near it should have sufficient pride to The Tennis Association of Narberth keep the lots clean and attractive.

It was with much gratification that I read of the fine showing made in Narberth, my home town of only a short while, in the present Liberty Loan drive. Indeed it makes us boys feel that our "home folks" are back of us. And no doubt they are. This letter is for all those who have helped to make the Liberty Loan a success.

It is also for those who have not helped. To the latter we make an appeal. Not for a gift, not for charity nor for alms, but an appeal to their common sense, to their patriotism and to exercise one good means of a rule we all follow, the rule of self-preservation. How may they do all this? How may they use their common sense, show their patriotism and protect themselves without any cost, but instead at a profit? By buying Liberty Bonds!

APPEAL FOR BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Pennsylvania Free Library Commission, Pennsylvania State Library, Harrisburg.

February 28, 1918.

Mr. A. J. Loos, Narberth, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Remembering your help and co-operation last fall when the American Library Association raised money for the "War Libraries," we are coming to you again for help, feeling sure the cause in itself is our justification.

Under separate cover we are sending you copies of the A. L. A. War Library Bulletin, which gives a report on the work done with the money raised and the books given, and outlines of a fresh "drive" for books. Enclosed is a copy of a personal letter from a camp librarian. Recently the Commander of a vessel about to join the fleet in European waters, asked the A. L. A. Dispatch Office for 1,000 cases of 50 books each to distribute to the vessels already in service there. There were just 200 books to give him!

All this will give you an idea of the need for books proven by the use made of them in the camps and cantonments. The money raised is being used to the best advantage possible. But thousands of books are still needed, such books as are standing unused on the shelves of hundreds of our homes. Can not you help gather these books for this use by co-operating in this "drive"? Advertise and manage it as seems best in your town, and later when you are ready to ship them, shipping directions will

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER Civic Association Meeting

To the Editor of Our Town:

Now that Narberth has gone way beyond the $170,000 mark as against The Election of Officers and an allotment of $47,500, will the Evening Ledger critic who slandered us a few weeks ago please take notice? in the Y. M. C. A. tonight (Thursday), Let him compare our showing with May 2, at 8 P. M. It is hoped that those of the other Main Line towns, population for population, not overlooking the number of enlistments, and then let him tell us which is the banner burg on the electrified line to Paoli.

But just between you and me, Brother Jacobs, where did Narberth ever get that much money? When you consider the number of subscriptions that were made by our folks on city banks, for which we get no credit, and add the amount we will report, it would appear as though we were living in a pretty wealthy town after all. One sure thing, folks in this town are not living on a bluff.

I am not giving away a secret when I tell you that Will Harris, the movie man, came across beautifully and that his roll swelled the total considerably. Must be lots of money in the movie business-but there isn't. But Will Harris always digs pretty deep for a good cause, as you must admit.

Why go to France to see No Man's Land, when we have one right here in Narberth? Up there on the hill, at and near the junction of Harris street and Harris avenue, are some roadways compared with which the shell holes and craters of the French battlefield are smooth as glass. This would be a good testing ground for tanks. If they can negotiate the local grounds, nothing in Europe can stop man, and a superb exponent of the best type of our magnificent soldiers, who are offering their lives in the glorious cause of liberty. His talk worked the feelings of the crowd up to a white head of enthusiasm, while, at his description of the cruelties he had personally witnessed, groans of horror swept over the mass of humanity that crowded closer, in order not to miss a word. As he depicted these scenes, in simple yet forceful language, whose eloquence exceeded that of many more polished speakers, his hearers were swayed as never before. Rousing cheers greeted his assertion that no matter how long the war lasted, if it took twenty years, the Germans would be beaten, and the American flag carried through the streets of Berlin. He appealed to his hearers to give to the limit to back up their boys at the front, and save their children from the cruelties inflicted on the little ones of France and Belgium.

After this, came the great outpouring of generous response to the appeals of Mr. Stites for an increase of subscriptions, over the $109,000 already subscribed. The responses were quick, Mr. Stites leading with an additional $1000 to that already subscribed by him. Mr. Wm. T. Harris had announced that he would give $10,000 additional to the $15,000 he had already subscribed, if a like amount were raised in the meeting. This was soon done, and then Mr. Harris kept on increasing his offering, until he reached the sum of $30,000 over and above his original $15,000, if this amount were equalled. Mr. Stites, in his inimitable and persuasive way, kept up a rapid fire of invitations, which proved irresistible, and in less than an hour the $30,000 was oversubscribed, bringing the total, with Mr. Harris' $30,000 to $169,100, or more than three and a half times our quota. This gives Narberth two blue stars on the Honor Flag, and before the campaign is over, we may yet achieve another star, and three gold stars for the number of individual subscribers. We already have two gold stars assured.

The following is a list of names and amounts subscribed at this meeting. These, in nearly every instance, are amounts additional to previous subscriptions. It is an Honor Roll of which we may well be proud:

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman of the Woman's Committee Council National Defense, has sent a message to the Pennsylvania Suffrage Association in which she says that the most important work that can be done at present in the interest of the war is to work for the passage of the Federal amendment.

Plans for a State ratification campaign contingent upon passage of the amendment, including election of chairman; Henderson and Keim. Legislative candidates who will vote Meets the first Monday of the month in support of woman suffrage, are now being made.

Local items are always interesting You do not have to send us a quantity of them to be acceptable. We are thankful for even one or two. A few items from many people will make Our Town a very newsy sheet indeed.

Walter Miller Burkhardt, of 100 Maple avenue, and Mary W. Magarvey, of Philadelphia, were married at noon on Saturday, April 27, at the Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, Broad and Diamond streets, Philadelphia, by the Rev. John R. Davies.

Mr. Samuel P. Bowman, of 116 Elmwood avenue, has about 1500 little flowering plants which he will give away to the boys and girls of Narberth, if they will call on Saturday afternoom, Sunday, or any evening after 5.30. First come, first served.

Once more it seems necessary to state that Our Town will not print unsigned communications. It is not necessary that your name be printed in connection with any letter that you may write to the paper, but the editor must know who the writer is or the letter will not be published.

The first of the new million dollar Charlie Chaplin series to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Tuesday, May 14, is called "A Dog's Life." A carefully trained dog is shown in the picture with Chaplin, and it is hard to tell which is the "funniest." It will probably be some time before another of the series will be produced on account of the nation's call for military service of Charlie Chaplin who will leave for England in June to "do his bit."

RED CROSS

The wonderful demonstration of patriotism in Narberth on Monday evening was not only an exceptionally fine boost for the Liberty Bonds, but was a reminder to all ladies who watched that line of Red Cross nurses passing that they were indeed in the slacker class, by not donning their caps and aprons and swelling the number.

Several said they knew nothing about the parade. If they had been at the Red Cross work room any day last week they would have known. Now, while we are keyed up to the highest pitch since hearing those soul-stirring speeches and after realizing what a bunch of real good patriotic men we have (especially Mr. William S. Harris) in our little town, do let it make us ashamed of our lukewarm patriotism so far, and pitch in and work like good fel-

Plan your calling and your shopping days so they will not interfere with your time you have given to your local unit.

If you have not as yet your uniform, you can procure one at the Red Cross work room, Y. M. C. A. Building, near the station. You can also rent one for 10 cents at the same place.

Anything you want to know about the Red Cross just stop in the work room any day but Saturday and any one there will be glad to answer any questions and will welcome any one.

An Unusual Opportunity to Secure an Attractive House "Built to Order" in Narbrook

To meet the unprecedented demand for modern homes, the Narberth Civic Association's Park Committee is arranging to build a number of attractive houses at Narbrook, the park development on Windsor avenue, Narberth, one of the most delightful spots on the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is being developed on co-operative even houses have already been erected under direction of D. Knickerbacker Boyd and Victor D. Able, consulting architects to the association.

Every property is subject to wise restrictions and all owners share in the advantages of the park, brook, shaded and open spaces and winding roads, upon one side of which only houses may be erected.

Plans are now under way and all prospective purchasers will be afforded an opportunity to have any new house planned and designed to meet their own especial views and requirements if they act promptly and confer with the association's architects at 309 Otis Building, Sixteenth and Sansom streets, Philadelphia.

The above drawing shows one pair of houses which will be built for two purchasers of adjoining properties. Purchasers are now having plans prepared along definite lines. The total cost of these attractive houses is $7000 and upwards.

The time is short as all houses must be completed for early fall occupancy. You should not miss this chance to own your own house and have it designed to suit YOU. This will be done if you make your decision before May 1st.

See the property for yourself.

Call on William D. Smedley, office close to Narberth Station, and he will show you lots and quote prices. Terms will be made to sult your convenience.

But decide now or before May 1st.
