

E 440
.5
.B76

FLM
2015
057363

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

00001739359

E440
5
B76

REMARKS

OF

HON. J. E. BOULIGNY,
ON THE
SECESSION OF LOUISIANA.

DELIVERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, FEBRUARY 5, 1861.

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks the permission of the House to give the floor to the gentleman from Louisiana, (Mr. TAYLOR,) who desires to make a few observations.

No objection was made.

Mr. TAYLOR announced the secession of the State of Louisiana, and his own withdrawal from the House. He has withheld his remarks for revision.

Mr. BOULIGNY obtained the floor.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the gentleman from Louisiana will proceed.

Mr. BOULIGNY said: I take this occasion to express my regret that I am not able to agree with the honorable Senators from my State, and especially with my colleague (Mr. TAYLOR) who has just taken his seat, although I entertain the greatest regard for their opinions. In the outset, permit me to say that until a few moments ago, I was in the same condition with my colleague, not having received official information of the passage of the ordinance of secession by the convention of my State. Nor have I received from the Legislature of my State, now in session, any information of the passage by that body of a resolution instructing her Senators, or requesting her Representatives, to withdraw from Congress. For one, although I respect that body, I shall not obey its request. I was not elected by that body, and I have nothing to do with it, or it with me.

In reference to the convention, I will say that I respect that body, as I do the Legislature of my State. Many of its members are my personal and intimate friends; but I think they have shown discourtesy to me when they have not even thought proper to send me a copy of their ordinance of secession; certainly, I shall pay it no attention until it is communicated to me. (Laughter.)

Mr. Speaker, there is another reason which compels me to differ with the Senators and Representatives of my State. I am the only member of Congress from Louisiana who was elected as an American Union man. To those principles I shall stand forever. (Great applause in the galleries.)

Again: when I came here, I took the oath to sustain the Constitution of the United States. What does that mean? Does not the Constitution of the United States mean the Union of the United States? I so understand it; and to that oath I shall adhere firmly to the end. Whenever I am instructed by my immediate constituents, and am requested by them to withdraw from Congress, I shall comply with those instructions as soon as they are received. Then, and not until then, I shall resign; and after resigning my position, I shall yet be a Union man, and stand under the flag of the country which gave me birth. (Great applause in the galleries and on the floor.)

THE BOUNTY

SUCCESSION TO GOVERNOR

BY A MEMBER OF THE GOVERNORIAL FAMILY

It will be observed that the author of this article is not a member of the family of the late Governor, but a member of the family of the late Captain Cook. He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his father, which is now in its second edition, and is highly esteemed. He is also the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed. He is also the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

A man's name is his title, and a man's name is his title. The author of this article is not a member of the family of the late Captain Cook, but a member of the family of the late Captain Cook. He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed. He is also the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed. He is also the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

He is the son of the Rev. Mr. Cook, who was born at Great Yarmouth in 1746, and died at Liverpool in 1811. He is the author of a history of the life and services of his grandfather, Captain Cook, which is now in its third edition, and is highly esteemed.

Deacidified using the Bookkeeper process
Neutralizing agent: Magnesium Oxide
Treatment Date: January 2015

Preservation Technologies
A WORLD LEADER IN COLLECTIONS PRESERVATION

111 Thomson Park Drive
Cranberry Township, PA 16066
(724) 779-2111

