MESDAMES KINNEY AND ROBINSON INTRODUCE MISS ELSA BREIDT

When Mrs. Spencer Robinson and Mrs. E. W. Kinney invited a group of Glendale music lovers to meet the young pianiste, Elsa Breidt, at the home of Mrs. Kinney at 123 West Elk Street Wednesday afternoon, the guests little dreamed they were to meet an artist who had earned her credentials in the music centers of the old world and won the approval of the most exacting musical critics of Europe for her concert work. She has been a resident of Glendale for nearly a year but so modest a resident that no one dreamed our little town was sheltering a musician of such surprising technique in her chosen instrument and such creative talent; for she is a composer as well as an interpreter of the work of others. It is explained when one learns that she had a nervous breakdown and left the east where she is well known among musicians of Chicago and New York to come west for rest and recuperation. After reaching Southern California Glendale cast its spell upon her and so dearly does she love it now that she hopes to make it her permanent home. When artists from the Atlantic coast and from the Windy City strayed this way they began asking: "Where is Glendale and Elsa Breidt?" and Miss Elsa was discovered by Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Kinney and a few others who felt it unfair not to give Glendale a chance to meet her socially before the concert which she is to give here the third week in April.

LUNCHEON FOR HOUSE GUEST

Mrs. H. R. Boyer of 232 North Orange entertained at luncheon at the Mary Louise Tea Room in Los Angeles, on Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Douglas Newell, who has been spending the past two months with her. Her tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The guests were as follows: Mesdames Foulr, Gonnerman, E. A. Lucius, N. L. Lucius and Miss Gonnerman of Los Angeles, and the Mesdames Stamps, Goodwin, Evans, Temple, Priest, Joseph, Sherman, Pearce, Lewis, Harry Lockwood, Roberts, Huntley and Miss Tholen of Glendale.

CARELESS AUTO TURN

Norman Keller, who is one of the delivery boys for a popular national weekly largely taken in Glendale, had an unpleasant experience late Wednesday afternoon when he was coming west on Broadway with a pile of about fifty heavy magazines on his bicycle. As he reached Isabel an auto going east on Broadway made a sudden unexpected turn cutting off his right of way and throwing him from the machine. His papers were spilled and he was bruised by the fall but not seriously hurt. The autoist responsible for the mishap was greatly concerned and took the boy home, offering first to go with him to make deliveries.

READING CIRCLE

ORGANIZATION HEADED BY MRS. TOLL MEETS AT CITY LIBRARY

The Mutual Benefit Reading Circle on Wednesday assembled for the first time in its new meeting place—the juvenile room at the City Library on Harvard Street. The ladies were made very welcome by Mrs. Danford, who said she could not pretend to provide what they had received at the home of Mrs. Toll but that all the accommodations the library has to offer are at their disposal. In this connection Mrs. Danford read the following original poem:

"I thought of songs and poems,
Of toasts both old and new,
But nothing that I read or heard
Seems good enough for you.

My heart is filled with something
I really can't express;
It isn't just plain welcome,
It's something more, I guess.

If you will only test us
I'm sure you'll quite agree
There is an earnest heart here
That longs to serve you free."

ANNUAL MEETING

GLENDALE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ELECTS OFFICERS AND HEARS REPORTS

There was a fine large attendance at the annual meeting of the Glendale Presbyterian church last evening. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, moderator of the session, was elected moderator of the meeting and Harry L. Howe, clerk of the session, was made secretary of the meeting.

The treasurer's report showed all bills paid, and the reports from the various organizations of the church showed increase and advancement along all lines, with bills paid and a balance in the treasury.

After reports followed the election of officers to fill vacancies and the re-election of other members whose terms expired. The three boards of the church are now as follows:

Walter E. Edmonds, Moderator of Session.

Elders, 1920—W. J. Clendenin, George G. Lemon, Harry L. Howe, clerk; J. A. Newton, Howard L. Brown. Elders, 1921—J. E. Colvin, M. P. Harrison, David Black, J. R. Baker. Elders, 1922—H. H. Schumaker, W. G. Boyd, R. P. Isitt, R. A. Petersen, H. L. Finlay.

Deacons, 1920—W. T. Booth, J. K. Gilkerson, W. E. McCormick, J. W. Boyd, R. T. Lyans. Deacons, 1921—J. W. Cooper, chairman; Roy D. King, F. H. Eilers, L. Andrews, A. F. VanOrnum. Deacons, 1922—V. E. Skiles, Henry Lawrence, G. B. Porter, secretary.

Trustees—T. W. Preston, chairman; J. M. Fife, Dan Campbell, C. E. Boss, J. B. McClellan, T. Weilen.

The budget presented and voted on for the coming year was $9400. A fine splendid spirit of harmony pervaded the entire meeting, all actions being unanimous and the congregation faces the future with great hope and expectations for temporal and spiritual blessings.

DISTINCTIVE TYPE OF HOUSE CONSTRUCTION

It is said there are more distinctive types of residence buildings in a single small city in California than are noted in many large cities in the East. Glendale is not behindhand in this respect. Not only the most recently built, but some erected within the past five years, present both interior and exterior features that are decidedly novel. One of these latter is the home of Mrs. Amy Crist at 1293 South Boynton street, corner of East Cypress avenue. The living room which is finished in dark oak extends almost entirely across the front of the house, a solid wall with two windows in and no doors, separating it from a long and narrow sunroom to the south. Back of the southern half of the living room is the dining room, separated from it by a buttress extending to the ceiling, and windows on either side of French doors, instead of sliding doors. The effect is decidedly unique. The kitchen and two bedrooms occupy the remainder of this floor and the bathroom and two bedrooms are in the hillside basement.

ALICE GRAY BEACH

HONOREE AT SUPPER AND THEATRE PARTY OF "LUCKY THIRTEEN"

Miss Alice Gray Beach, who is to leave next Sunday for Montana, was the surprised guest of honor at a pleasant affair arranged by members of the "Lucky Thirteen" which is sorry to lose even temporarily one of its best beloved units. She had been led to believe that it was to honor Miss Vera McPherson, but that young lady is snowbound in Bear Valley and was not therefore present in the flesh, to the regret of all concerned. The party journeyed to Los Angeles and enjoyed a supper at Petifils, covers being laid for: Miss Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin West, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Candee, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McKelvey, Miss Dorinda Haviland and Miss May Church. Sweet peas centered the prettily appointed table, and the dainty place cards bore a floral decoration. At the psychological moment Miss Beach was presented with a package having the semblance of a box of flowers, but on removing the cover it was found to contain a shower of handkerchiefs folded to represent roses. Following the supper the party adjourned to the Morocco Theatre to see "Polly With a Past."

SOCIALISTS EXPELLED

NEW YORK ASSEMBLY VOTES TO OUST FIVE SUSPENDED MEMBERS AFTER ALL NIGHT DEBATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ALBANY, N. Y., April 1.—The five suspended socialist members of the New York Assembly were expelled today on charges of disloyalty following an all-night debate. An individual vote was taken on each man. They were: August Blaessens, Louis Waldman, Charles Solomon, Samuel Orr and Samuel De Witt. Lt.-Col. Theodore Roosevelt led the fight to reinstate them. One of the two women members, Miss Margaret L. Smith, spoke in favor of expulsion. Speaker Sweet took the floor to urge the ousting of the socialists. The vote on Solomon and Blaessens was 116 to 28, on Waldman 115 to 28, on De Witt and Orr 104 to 40.

As the final vote was taken applause spread through the chamber. The galleries cheered for several minutes. Unless a special session of the legislature is called, the governor cannot call a special election to fill the vacancies.

DEPORTATION SCANDALS

HOUSE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST THE BUREAU OF EMIGRATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The House Emigration Committee today started an investigation of charges that the Bureau of Emigration released on its own recognizance a number of "reds" who had been ordered deported. A sub-committee composed of Johnson of Washington, Vail of Colorado and Raker of California, took possession today of all records and papers in these cases. Most of the cases are from New York and the Pacific Northwest.

DELAWARE DEFEATS SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

HOUSE VOTE STOOD 22 TO 9, THREE MEMBERS NOT VOTING, ONE MEMBER ABSENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DOVER, Del., April 1.—The federal suffrage amendment was defeated in the House here this afternoon by a vote of 22 to 9. Three members did not vote and one was absent.

WAR CHALLENGE TO GREAT BRITAIN

DECLARATION OF WAR ISSUED BY LEADER OF TURKISH NATIONAL REBELS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, April 1.—Mustapha Kemal, leader of the Turkish nationalist rebels, has declared war on Great Britain, a dispatch from the Constantinople correspondent of the Morning Post said today.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN GERMANY

PRESIDENT WILSON DECLARES AMERICAN SOLDIERS ARE SUBJECT ONLY TO HIS AUTHORITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, April 1.—President Wilson today replied to a resolution of the House asking for information on the status of American troops in the army of occupation in Germany. The president wrote:

"I will state that Field Marshal Foch has no authority over United States troops in German territory nor can any one direct their activities without express orders from the president of the United States."

It should be stated further than under his general police powers under the terms of the armistice, General Allen has full authority to utilize his troops for the policing of the occupied districts for the preservation of order and to repel any attack which may be made upon him.

BANK MESSENGERS HELD UP

ROBBED ON BRIDGE BETWEEN KANSAS AND MISSOURI IN SIGHT OF SCORES OF WITNESSES

KANSAS CITY, April 1.—Two bank messengers carrying a $30,000 pay-roll were held and robbed on the bridge between Kansas and Missouri today. The robbery was witnessed by scores of spectators who sat in automobiles and watched while the bandits kept them covered. All traffic over the bridge was halted while the bandits robbed the messengers. The pay-roll belonged to the Swift Company, packers.

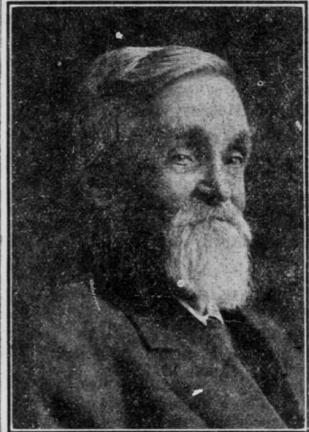

PEACE RESOLUTION

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The resolution declaring peace between the United States and Germany was favorably reported by the House Foreign Affairs Committee today. Practically no change was made in the text as introduced yesterday by Chairman Porter of the committee.

B. F. PATTERSON PASSES

THE LAST OF THE FOUNDERS OF GLENDALE IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

B. F. Patterson of 131 North Belmont died at 4:30 this morning, in his seventy-fifth year. He had an attack of grippe during the early winter and this so weakened him that when afflicted with liver and stomach trouble his formerly vigorous frame could not resist and he soon succumbed. He walked down town Saturday, but on his return home had a chill and went to bed. From this time on he rapidly failed until the end came, as stated above. He was conscious till the very last. The body is now at his late home awaiting interment. Funeral arrangements can not be made until relatives living at a distance are heard from.

B. F. Patterson, Deceased

Benjamin Franklin Patterson was born near Fredericktown, O., December 9, 1845. Here he spent his boyhood days, but the family moved to the vicinity of Atlantic, Ia., just before the Civil War commenced. He enlisted as a boy of 16 in the 20th Iowa Infantry and served his country for more than three years. In 1868 he married Miss Mary Keene. They lived on a farm near Atlantic until 1882 when they moved to Los Angeles. Mr. Patterson became interested in the San Fernando Valley, that is, the part of it now occupied by the City of Glendale, then owned largely by Messrs. C. P. Thom, E. T. Byram, Ross and Phelon, so he bought a little ranch the boundaries of which are now known as Glendale Avenue, Wilson Avenue, Adams Street and Harvard St., and moved out here in 1883. Three years later the town of Glendale was incorporated, with Mr. Patterson as one of the moving spirits in the enterprise. He bent all of his energies to the making of a beautiful city here and he lived to see his glowing dreams more than realized. When the too highly inflated "boom" collapsed in 1888, he did not desert the struggling town but remained and helped to set it on its feet again. He never lost faith in Glendale's future and to him is much of its progress and prosperity owing. Mr. Patterson was a faithful member of the G. A. R. Post here and he is the third of its members to answer taps within the last ten days.

Deceased is survived by one son, O. E. Patterson, of San Francisco; four daughters, Mrs. Chas. Hezmal-halch of Blythe, Mrs. Thomas Weir of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Olive Nelson and Miss Mabel Patterson of Glendale; a brother and two sisters living in the East.

B. F. BOURNE BEREAVED

Mrs. Theodore A. Kramer, sister of B. F. Bourne, Jr., of the Glendale Realty Company, died at her beautiful home, 1725 Milan Avenue, South Pasadena, Cal., Wednesday morning, March 31. Services will take place Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock from the residence, 1725 Milan Avenue, South Pasadena.

REYNDERS-POLDER

P. C. Reynders and Miss Jennie Polder were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents in Montebello. They are now enjoying a short honeymoon after which they will go to housekeeping in the home the groom recently bought of Chas. Josselyn at 437 Palm Drive. Mr. Reynders is a printer and works in the private job office of the Hammond Lumber Company, but prefers to live in Glendale.

HIGH TENSION LINE

NEW 70-FOOT POLES BEING SET ALONG CENTRAL AVENUE TO CARRY HIGH VOLTAGE WIRES

The setting of new poles by the Southern California Edison Company for the high tension lines along Central Avenue has been exciting considerable interest from passersby during the last few days. The poles have been set as far south as Colorado and the southern limits of the city will soon be reached. The new poles are 70 feet long, painted green, and the lower portion, that goes into the ground, heavily creosoted, to preserve the wood. The wires now carried on the 40-foot poles lining both sides of Central Avenue are being transferred to the new poles. They carry a current of 15,000 volts and are extremely dangerous to work among, yet the men handling them do not seem to exercise any unusual care. The touching of two of the wires at the same time, or the touching of one by a person who had any sort of ground connection would be instantly fatal. It is interesting to view the setting of one of these long poles. With a "jenny," a wheeled arrangement with three long arms and a rope and pulley attachment, slowly raises the pole to an upright position and drops it into the hole, which is ten feet deep. The Edison Company has a 50-year franchise for this line along Central Avenue, secured before Glendale became a city. There is another of these high tension lines passing through the city, the one crossing on steel towers a short distance south of Montrose. Still another strung on steel towers passes west and south of the city along the Los Angeles river and one can be seen on the hill slopes of Griffith Park. All these lines carry electric current from power plants many miles away, far up in canyons and mountain streams where the rushing waters turn turbines that generate electricity.

HAS MOVED INTO NEW HOME

C. F. Kuehnle, who had a very handsome two-story house built on the hillside, a short distance east of the corner of Cypress Ave. and Boynton St., recently has just moved in. The location is rarely beautiful, the eucalyptus-clad hills, with their peculiar and life-giving odor towering far above it, a peach orchard stretching to the southeast, down the hillside, and the whole City of Glendale spread out to the view of the beholder, in the foreground with the foothills and mountains beyond. The house and grounds represent an investment of over $10,000. Mr. Kuehnle is a Los Angeles business man, but like many others similarly situated, prefers the pure, healthful air of Glendale and the wonderful scenic views afforded, to the crowded streets of the big city.

FISHING TRIP TO SESPE RIVER

Harry Hall, A. L. Baird and Dr. T. C. Young, accompanied by their wives, started at 2:30 this morning for a day of fishing in the Sespe river. The program was for them to take breakfast in Fillmore, then go for an early morning fish. Dinner was to be eaten in Fillmore and then a new location was to be sought and another season of angling enjoyed.

HUCKLEBERRY FINN

ESTHER RALSTON CHARMING SWEETHEART IN PLAY AT PALACE GRAND

It was quite a matter of course that the announcement of Huckleberry Finn as an attraction at the Palace Grand would bring big audiences, particularly of children; but the crowds of adults who gathered for the two shows Wednesday night demonstrated what a hold the story of the immortal boy has upon the heart of the world. Mark Twain's deathless creation can always be depended upon to pack a house whether it be to hear the "speakers" or see "the movies." Aside from the incidents of the story the river scenes showing broad stretches of the Mississippi were very beautiful and calculated to cause a tug of home sickness in the breasts of middle-westerners particularly if they had ever dwelt in a "river town." Huckleberry Finn, as depicted on the screen now showing at the Palace Grand, is the real thing, and our own Esther Ralston makes a most charming Mary Jane who fully justifies the loyal boyish love of the hero.

THEORY AND PRACTICE

"I trust, Brother Johnson," said the presiding elder, "that you are endeavoring as far as possible to bring up your children by the rule of kindness; requesting rather than commanding, and explaining to them carefully why they should obey your injunctions?"

IT STILL RAN ON

A story is told about a citizen whose daughter is about to be married, and who has been trying to get a line on what the expense of the rather elaborate ceremony will be. He approached a friend of his, seeking information.

"Morris," he said, "your oldest daughter was married about five years ago, wasn't she? Would you mind telling me about how much the wedding cost you?"

Spencer Robinson reports the sale of property at 106 South Glendale Avenue consisting of a warehouse and an office to R. M. Brown, who has been his tenant for some time and conducted a feed and fuel business under the name "Glendale Feed and Fuel Company."

Howard E. Best, brother of Mrs. W. H. Nicholson of this city, is now connected with the Crystal Ice Company of Glendale. He was formerly in the employ of Young's Market, Los Angeles. He is an ex-soldier having served for 14 months in Siberia from which he returned last January.

Mrs. Annie Dewing of North Weare, New Hampshire, who is a cousin of W. A. George of 400 West Stocker Street, has just arrived and will be a guest in his home for the remainder of the winter. She reports that she left three feet of snow on a level and that Southern California looks very inviting to her. She has been here before.

I. D. Wallingford and wife of Camden Point, Mo., who came recently with their two children to visit a brother of Mr. Wallingford at Alhambra, are in Glendale today searching for a house to rent, as they wish to live here for a time with a view to buying. Mr. Wallingford lived at Downey when a small boy, but this is his first time back to California in 30 years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nicholson of 1215 East Wilson Avenue were host and hostess at a family dinner on Sunday at which their little daughter, Virginia, held the place of honor in celebration of her fourth birthday. It was made a gala occasion and the Nicholson home was beautifully decorated with Cecil Brunner roses and ferns. Covers were laid for nine and the little girl received many beautiful gifts.

They are looking forward to making Glendale their future home and will be a great asset to our city.

HONORING MR. AND MRS. VOM BRUCH

Mrs. Harry St. Clair, assisted by her daughters, Mary and Nancy, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter vom Bruch of Chicago, Ill., at a sumptuous dinner party last evening at her home, 1250 South Maryland Ave. After dinner the evening was spent in music and talking over old times. Mr. and Mrs. vom Bruch will be remembered as members of the vom Bruch Evangelistic party, who held meetings in Glendale last fall. Mrs. vom Bruch at the piano and Mr. vom Bruch as business manager. They say they have burned all bridges behind and are in California to stay. Harry vom Bruch, the Evangelist, is in Cleveland, O., at present holding meetings. He is well and having wonderful success for the Master.

FROM FAR BRYNMAWR

MR. AND MRS. C. L. PECKHAM ENTERTAIN GROUP OF OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham were host and hostess at a smartly appointed Spanish dinner given Wednesday evening in the old adobe house, La Ramada, for former Brynmawr (Chicago) residents. White wistaria and red roses centered the table at which places were indicated for Mrs. Charles Barker and brother, Dr. Morse, Luther and Cornelia Flagg, of Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. George Otis and Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Otis of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clark, Miss Prudence Clark, Mrs. Lee Doty and Miss Dell Smith of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ennis, daughter and son-in-law of host and hostess, Charles Vassar Peckham, of Los Angeles; Miss Gladys Peckham, who is attending school in Pasadena but came home for the dinner, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, the host and hostess. Following the dinner a pleasant evening was spent rehearsing old songs and talking about old times in "dear old Chicago."

OLD FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Benjamin Robinson, Jr., of 407 North Louise Street was very agreeably surprised yesterday afternoon when two of his old time friends from Paso Robles came up from Los Angeles to spend the afternoon with him. Raymond Toile and Charles Dalrymple, who were associated with Benjamin Robinson in Boy Scout work in Paso Robles, before the Robinsons came to Glendale, came down from their home town a few days ago to visit friends in Los Angeles and could not return without first coming to Glendale. While they came out to Glendale yesterday expecting to spend only the afternoon and evening, their host did not lose time in persuading them to remain with him over night, and the young men very reluctantly left Glendale this morning homeward bound.

SAW A RESEMBLANCE

Little Andrew was playing in the yard, in which there is a coop for his pigeons. All pigeons were inside with the exception of one which was walking up and down in front of the door. Andrew ran up to his mother in great excitement and said: "Mamma, is that one a collector?" Whereat his mother asked him why. Then Andrew said: "Well, he can't get in."

MRS. LINDLEY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. D. C. Lindley of 362 West Lomita entertained at luncheon within the week in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Leah P. Fisher, of Boulder, Colorado, who has been spending the winter here and who is to leave for Colorado in the near future. A green and white color scheme was carried out in floral decorations and other table appointments. The guests, who were for the most part from Los Angeles and old friends of the honoree and their hostess, spent a pleasant social afternoon following the luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Lindley are comparatively new comers in Glendale having purchased the home of Mrs. Joseph Renshaw when she left Glendale last fall.

Spencer Robinson declares there is a strong movement from the Imperial Valley to the lands of the San Fernando Valley on the part of ranchers who have perhaps made their pile in the Imperial yet do not want to forsake the farming game. He admits that the San Fernando Valley soil does not equal in richness the deep deposits in the Imperial, but says the migrants think they will live longer under the milder sun of our valley.

Harry St. Clair of 1250 S. Maryland left yesterday for Bakersfield to spend a couple of weeks visiting his son, Ralph, and family.

"A New Lease of Life Through Internal Baths"
Mr. E. Shain of Santa Cruz, Cal., writes to the Tyrrell Hygienic Institute:
"My wife and I will be 85 years young next Birthday and consider that the 'J. B. L. Cascade' has given us a new lease on life for we now enjoy the best of health. We were going down hill fast but the Cascade has given us such health as we have not enjoyed in years."
The "J. B. L. Cascade" cleanses the lower intestine its entire length and keeps it always free of poisonous waste.
Thousands testify that Constipation, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Biliousness, Headaches and all the many serious troubles which they cause are absolutely relieved and prevented by this Nature Treatment.
Roberts & Echols in Glendale will be glad to show you the "J. B. L. Cascade," explain its simple operation and will give you, free on request, an interesting little book by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, a noted specialist on Internal Bathing for 25 years in that City. Clip this out as a reminder to ask for the booklet at your first opportunity.

low guests who found them however but the charming mask of a matured artist of poise and well-developed powers. When she graciously yielded to the desire of her audience and played most brilliantly one of the movements of Moszkowski's concerto, her audience was spellbound with wonder and pleasure, particularly the pianists present. Her second selection was as different as possible in character—"My Joy," a song by Chopin, transcribed by Liszt, and Miss Breidt's poetic interpretation of the composer's emotion, was even more delightful and satisfying. All the ladies were eager to greet and thank her for the pleasure she had given them and a seat beside her was in request when the hostess, who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. A. Leighton, and her sister, Mrs. A. B. Cohn, summoned her guests to the dining room. There they circled a very beautiful and smartly appointed refreshment table centered with a cut glass bowl containing a Frenchy confection in flowers of massed pink sweet peas shot with sprays of Persian lilacs and yellow jonquils, enfolded in ferns. The pink, lavender and green color scheme was carried out in a larger basket of flowers in the living room and repeated in the ice-cream served, the angel food dispensed with it, and the bon bons.
Large jars filled with peach bloom completed the decoration of the living room.
Following the refreshments Miss Breidt played with appreciation and artistic feeling for the benefit of disappointed late comers who had missed her first number, the prelude to McDowell's E. Minor Suite and "Arabesque" by Debussy.

Miss Margaret Goetz, a concert singer of celebrity, who had known Miss Breidt as a young girl in Chicago, told the ladies something about her musical career before the honoree arrived. She quoted the comments of the press of London and continental cities following recitals there, all highly flattering to the young American. Mrs. Robinson, who spent three years in Germany pursuing a musical education, declared that few of the distinguished pianists who have visited Los Angeles during the present winter can approach Miss Breidt as an artistic interpreter, and she thinks Glendale should feel highly honored to have been selected for the home of a young woman destined to become famous. Miss Breidt like most distinguished musicians was precocious in her development and at the age of eight played Beethoven's Concerto with the Thomas Orchestra, Chicago's great musical organization. She has also played with the New York Symphony Orchestra under Damrosch, and was a soloist on programs with Marcella Sembrich.

K. OF P. ENTERTAINMENT
A good-sized crowd of Pythians and their friends attended the entertainment prepared for them by Glendale Lodge No. 331, Knights of Pythias, Tuesday evening. This lodge seems to have unusual dramatic and musical talent in its membership, as is evidenced by the excellence and variety of its monthly programs. An amusing spelling farce was offered by Framm, Hibbert and Templeton, featuring "Mr. Schickelheimer." Mrs. F. J. Willett contributed piano numbers and Messrs. Kelly and Black, with Mrs. Kelly as accompanist gave several songs. Two rival teams from the audience engaged in a spelling match, which caused great amusement. The "reel" old-fashioned dances were a feature of the dance program. A stag smoker for men only is planned for an early date.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS
The public schools are closed today and tomorrow as a concession to Easter week and also to compensate in some small part for the vacation lost through the influenza epidemic.

At the High School plans are already being made for the oratorical contest, the big event of the year, which takes place the first week in April. Inter-class tryouts will take place during the week ending April 16th to pick class representatives and the next problem will be how to divide up the tickets since the auditorium will be inadequate for the seating of the students without taking into account any of the outsiders who desire to attend.
Boy Scouts will probably utilize a portion of their holiday in hikes to the mountains and seashore. Now is the lovely season of the year when wild flowers are at their best and many lovers of the wilds among pupils and students will follow the trails.
The Tropico Hill, El Bonita or Dead Horse Canyon, and the Griffith Park hills and their approaches are named as good hunting ground for botanists.

READING CIRCLE

Mrs. Crawford reviewed "Fundamentals in Education" by Professor Usher, a magazine article. It was a discussion of the faults of the old curriculum and the needs of the new. Professor Usher says: "Life itself is the best bone in education. The teacher should be able to arouse an interest in life in the minds of his pupils."
Mrs. Toll read a letter from Mrs. Schoff, president of the National Congress of Mothers. The letter dealt with legislation to be brought before the national government for the protection of the mother and the unborn child and asked members to sign the petition to be presented to government officials. Good backing is needed, it was declared, because it calls for large appropriations.
Mrs. Barton announced the District Convention for April 29th and 30th in Los Angeles.
Mrs. Cotton reported on program plans for the Circle picnic and Mrs. Kurtz on the luncheon.
In the afternoon a chapter from a new book on heredity was read which brought out considerable interesting discussion.

MISSIONARY POEM
Some people aspire to heights which they never reach, to lofty ambitions which terminate only in failure and disappointment. They have not accomplished a single act for the Master's cause. Simply because they have despised the day of small things, and because they could not go to the foreign field, have folded their hands and let souls perish in their midst. These thoughts have led me to write this little Missionary Poem:

There's a cry from countless millions
Which is heard throughout the land:
"Come bring to us glad tidings;
Lend to us a helping hand.

A cry from heathen nations
Come to us across the sea:
"Oh come, and tell the story
Of salvation full and free!"

If you can not come in person,
Give your silver and your gold
To support a willing helper
Who will gospel truths unfold.

The fields are white to harvest,
And the workers ready stand
To spread the glorious message
Through the far-off heathen land.

It rests with us to send them,
'Tis the least that we can do
To express our love for Jesus
Who has died for me and you.

Must we go to lands far distant,
Where the heathen people dwell?
To preach the blessed gospel,
And the Saviour's love to tell?

Must we leave our friends and kindred
All the ties we hold so dear,
To raise a fallen brother
And a lonely heart to cheer?

Dear friends, it is not needful
Some great mission to fulfill;
Seek to tread the path of duty
And to learn the Master's will.

We can find it all around us,
In the home or busy street,
We can speak a word in season
To the perishing we meet.

We can do an act of kindness,
We can raise a sinking soul,
Point them to the blessed Saviour
Who can cleanse and make them whole.

Then when our day is ended,
And our resting time has come,
We shall go to meet our Saviour
And hear His glad, "Well done!"
