

THE BEE.

THE BEE IS PUBLISHED DAILY.
BY JEROME BAVON.
STATE PRINTERS.

THE UNION IS NOT PRESERVED.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 26, 1834.

FOR GOVERNOR:

J. B. DAWSON.

To be remembered at the polls.

Edward D. White voted in favor of a candidate to bring distress and ruin upon the great hollering interest of our State. Remember that we sent him to Congress to advocate our cause, and to represent our words.

Remember that he sold the one and mocked at the other.

REMEMBER that John B. Dawson was raised up—that we have grown up together. From a small province to an independent State.

Remember that the confidence of his fellow citizens in us, that has ever been respected, is gone; and that he sold us a man, and insulted us as a slave.

REMEMBER that our last publication have come to hand.

The bill introduced in the House of Representatives has passed the House of Representatives.

It is in the Senate very doubtful, as to whether there have three votes that one can be secured in the U. S. Bank should be rechartered.

The state of affairs that was passed at about 10 o'clock on Friday night, after a session of fourteen hours. The friends of the Administration were driven to the extreme to get a session after a month's delay, to give the judiciary and indispensable, but that it was a session, and not by long session, but by every minute, which the majority of the minority will be defeated.

The Committee of Investigation into the affairs of the U. S. Bank has been suspended, and is advanced to Washington, in consequence of a refusal of the President and Directors to submit to its credit books, showing the falsehoods of individual, to inspection.

Government had passed a law requiring the publication of every pamphlet, periodical, &c., to deposit a copy of the same in the national library at Boston.

A letter from Paston 12 says—

"From the day of the earthquake (29th January) to the date, continual quakings have been heard, and on the 1st March so strong a motion was felt, that it shook down some of the few houses that remained standing."

"The $3000 sent by General Santander for the relief of the sufferers had been received, and was very gratifying.

On the 1st April, April 6, From the papers of Venezuela we learn with profound sorrow that after the horrible contest between the troops of the government of Ecuador and those of his opponent had ceased, it broke out at 3 A.M. and the fighting was renewed.

It is said that the first mentioned party has become reconciled, while on the other hand, the army of the Government is suffering great privations, and the people are obliged to make unceasing sacrifices in order to sustain the army.

The regulars, i.e., making frightful ravages in the interior of South Carolina. In Mayberry, No woe, distress, forty persons have fallen victims to their残酷行径.

Russell at length obtained the public pulse of his cause, long expected, and may now present himself at Weston Bridge. His work is now secured, and the chances shall henceforth be considered as favorable.

For the last demonstration, he will be based on the Russian side of the Atlantic, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our last paper we find the debates which recently appeared in the House of Commons upon the treaty between two powers.

The speaker without distinction said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently appeared in the House of Commons upon the treaty between two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty be-

tween two powers.

The speaker without distinction

said that the east from England had been outwitted,

and that the East India Company had

not been successful in its efforts to save her honor.

Mr. Sheldrake is remarkably vigorous and forcible in his advocacy, and his speech is well calculated to impress the members of the Committee of the House.

The English, crossing however Turkey and Russia, and

returning to the Atlantic of Great Britain. In our

last paper we find the debates which recently ap-

peared in the House of Commons upon the treaty between two powers.