Press Comments on Speech-Plan More Moderate Than Expected in Some Quarters.

(Associated Press.)

London, Oct. 7 .- The morning papers fevote ample space to the reports and comment on Mr. Chamberlain's great ef-fort at Glasgow, and it cannot be said that the public will gain much salight-ment except from the late colonial secetary's own words. Conversion to his ciews appears as distant as ever from Mercy appears as distant as eyes from the columns which have hitherto been opposed to him. All recognize the ability of his presentation of his scheme, and his most rabid opponent, the Radieut Daily News, admits that Mr. Chamberlain sincerely believes that the colonies will secode unless a preferential scheme is adopted, and adds that this extraordin-ary belief implies a melancholy confesountry during his colonial secretary

Those newspapers favorable to Mr. Those newspapers favorable to Mr. Chamberlain regard bls plan with considerable approval as being more moderate and involving a smaller measure of danger than might have been expected, and gre inclined to think that if acceptable to the colonies it has a great chance of winning public favor. A duty of 2 shillings a quarter on wheat (Mr. Chamberlain using the English term corn) will be sufficient to stimulate its production in Canada, while being unlikely to greatly restrict its importation from the United States and other wheat-producing d States and other wheat-producing ountries, and also that his proposed uties on manufacturers are in no way angerous on this point.

However, the Duily Chronicle, which epresents the great body of moderate attention to the vital difference between the views of Mr. Chamberfain and Mr. Balfour. The Premier only asked for power to retaliate intermitteatly, whilst Mr. Chamberiain insists on a general tariff. The Conservative Standard is still un-convinced and declares that Mr. Cham-berlain adduces no satisfactory proof of his assertion of the dangers menacing he country's trade, nor even that the olonies are willing to meet the Mother Country half-way.

In short, the drift of newspaper comment goes to show that Mr. Chamber-lain still has a stiff fight before him.

What Will Colonies Say?

London, Oct. 7.-While there is no evi rush on the part of the exponents of public opinion to give Joseph Chamberlam's fiscal proposals immediate endorsement, there is ample proof of a desire to exhaustively examine his programme and accept or reject it on its merits rather than on party lines. It is realized that the artitude of the conis merits radier than on party in the col-s realized that the attitude of the col-

The critics of the former secretary for the colonies claim that his whole diagnosis of the prosent state of the trade of the United Kingdom hangs on a statistical blander in the comparison of the exports of 1902 with those of 1872. The latter year was notoriously phenomenal as an export year because of the requirements of Germany and France after the war between those two countries, and it is pointed out that Great Britain furnished the bulk of these and that her exports consequently rose from $1,115,000,000 in 1871 on $1,280,000,000 in 1872, after which they gradually receded to the same total as in 1871. It is therefore shown that the whole fabric of Mr. Chamberlain's argument is based on an elementary error, and that while his fiscal arithmetic is illogical, his premises are hypothetical.

Presented to Parliament Against Trans-continental Railway—Harbor and River Estimates Passed.

(Special to the Times.)

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—A bombshell was thrown into the chamber to-day, when Mr. Taibot, Liberal member for Belle Mr. Thibot, Liberal member for Bellechasse, said that certain petitions to parhament against the national transcentimental railway were forgeries. They contained the names of dead men, men who were in the asylum, mere beys and men who, on account of their advanced age, were wholly irresponsible. They were an insult to the dignity of the House, and therefore he moved that the two petitions which he mentioned be referred to the committee on privileges and

CAMPAIGN FOR

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH AT GLASGOW

He Gives a Brief Outline of His Plans-The Question of Colonial Preference.

Glasgow, Oct. 6.—Whatever may be the opinion held regarding the great question which Mr. Chamberlain has raised or the probable issue of this cam-paign, it is generally admitted that he paign, it is generally admitted that he has opened it in a masterly manner. For nearly two hours to-night he held a vast and enthusiastic audience absorbed. As though inspired by the knowledge that the practical collapse and break-up of the Unionist party had left him in sole possession of the field, he spoke with more than his customary energy and per-maniveness.

It was an inspiring scene within St.
Andrew's hall, where he delivered his speech. Every corner of the auditoriumwas packed with a crowd cheering, singling and waving handkerchiefs as Mr. Chamberlain went to the platform, A distinguished company of peers and members of the House of Commons were present. He was greeted at the station with a great demonstration,

Mr. Chamberlain, after a few prelim-

The speaker paid the highest tribute to Mr. Balfour. He continued:

"It seems as though, in this country, there have always been men who did not know the meaning of loyalty and friendship. To them I may say that nothing that they may do will have the elightest influence to affect in the slightest degree the friendship and confidence existing between the Premier and my-self. self.

tea, half the duty on sugar, with corresuonding reductions upon gocoa and coffee. The net result of these remissions would be that the town artisan's food would, according to the most elaborate calculations, cost him twepence halfpenny (five cents) less pef week than it did at present, while that of the agricultural laborer would cost him twopence (four cents) less, but if, as he believed, a great part of the tax on food would be paid by the foreigner, there would be a reduction in the cost of food, both for the artisan and the agricultural laboror. The loss to the exchequer he estimated at $2,800,000; a moderate duty of ten per cent, on manufactured goodswould give to the exchequer $9,000,000 a year, and he would make use of that for remission of taxes. "What would the colonies says?" He believed they would treat generously any offer wo might make.

Mr. Chamberlain concluded; "I wish Mr. Chamberian concluded: 'I wish to warn you, to urge you to implore you to do nothing, that will tend towards the disintegration of the Empire-not to refuse to sacrifice futile superstition in inapt prejudice and thereby to lose the result of centuries of noble effort and patriotic endeavor."

Winnipeg, Oct. 6.—The Canadian Pacific announces to-day a reduction of from 2 to 3 cents per 100 pounds in wheat rates from Manitoba and Northwest points to Lake Superior ports. The Canadian Northern announce an advance of 1 cent per 100 pounds, making the rates equal on both roads.

A Calgary dispatch says there has been a wholesale reduction in freight rates by the C. P. R. on goods going from Calgary north and south on the Calgary & Edmonton line. The change went into effect yesterday. The rate generally is a reduction of about 33 percent. This will be a great boon to the Calgary wholesaler and manufacturer. There is an equal reduction on all local freight on these points of about the same amount. A traders' rate has also been established between Calgary, Lethbridge, Pincher Creek, Fernie and other points along the C. P. R.

Excellent Performance Given by Fame

Channing Ellery's Royal Italian band has again come and gone, leaving pleas-ant memories behind. The organization appeared at the Victoria theatre list night, but, as usual, did not receive the musical patronage which should bespeak the musical culture on such occasions. In initiscal patronage which should be speak the inusical culture on such occasions. In composition the band is not quite the same as when it appeared here in other years. Sir Henrit Mrs. Oliver and party arrived at the scene of the exhibition at 2:20 o'clock and were received by His Worship Mayor McCandless and Segretary R. H. Swinerton amid the strains of the National Authem played by the band. They were except the does not apply to the entire display in the upper gallery, for there are specimens of drawing, penmanship, etc., where His Honor was to speak the words that started the machinery in motion.

Mayor McCandless expressed deep gratification at the splendid character of the exhibition, which, in his opinion, surpassed those of the past two years. These, unfortunately, had not been financially successful, but with favorable weather and the support of the public he had every reason to believe the association would make this one pay its way. Briefly alluding to the exhibits, His Worship commented on their permanship for weeks in advance of the fair, but this which is now being done. Of course, this which is now being done. In formally opening the exhibition Sir Henri Joly said:

"Mr. Mayor, officials, ladies and gentlemen—I do not intend to detain you long, because I am anxious to see the exhibits, and I know you are. Last year I riewed with much interest your exhibition and derived therefrom very much pleasure. I am anxious to see that you have advanced and that this year's exhibition is better than that of last year. The weather of Monday was against your success, but we trust that it will only urge you to give the committee your heartfest support in every way. The exhibition is not held only for exhibiting produce and manufactures, but so that the general public may get a correct imreartiest support in every way. The exhibition is not held only for exhibiting produce and manufactures, but so that the general public may get a correct impression of our progress in industrial and agricultural pursuits and everything which tends to promote the prosperity of the whole province. I now declare this exhibition open and wish you, Mr. Whalt & Co. have a very pretty while to engint the boxing tournament will be continued.

The weather is perfect, everything is running smoothly, the exhibition of the success in your undertaking, and I trust that everyone in the district will feel it his and her duty to attend and thus ensure the success of this exhibition of 1003." (Applause).

The Chilliwack district display is one of the striking attractions on the main floor. Arranged on the right as one enters the front entrance, it at once commands attention and is the object of nuch favorable comment. It is designed in the shape of two arches diagonally crossing each other and gracefully spanning a pyrabiid built of roots, fruits, etc. Looming above all and forming the upper sections of the arches are arranged cereals with straw attached. The whole required no small amount of ingenuity to erect.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TURN.

In straight-flung words Mr. Chamber lain has announced his policy, and the to be joined in Great Britain. There is no ambiguity about the utterances of the r of the new reform movement. The ex-Secretary for the Colonies has always plain business man. After his usual exactly what he proposed to do, and why, in his opinion, it was necessary to necessity for a change of policy if Great one of the great nations of the world. In brief, the contention of Mr. Chamberlain is that the foreign commerce of the Empire has of late years been at a standstill. The exports to foreign countries have ceased to expand. Business dealings with the colonies alone have stood between the country and practical trade decline. Such is the effect of the hosmay trilly of foreign countries; a hosnility british Empire as a possible result of Little which had been frankly manifested and a rebuff of Canmberlain by the British proceed from the months of the Little Englanders without attracting serious attention in Canada. We are getting accustomed to that sort of thing. But there is a limit, and if by he demonstrate of this the public men who, or the public press which, at all times ostentationally expenses the cause of fereigners when they come in conflict with desired.

White had been frankly manifested and determinedly pursued in spite of the classoft will live to vent their disappointment through the channels which statesmen and the alternate presentation of check after check to the smiter. If Mr. Chamberlain succeeds in getting that truth driven into the unreceptive intellects of the average Briton he will propose as they were wont 40 do. They exhibited a beautiful mare weighing 1,950 pounds, on which they captured a first. Galbraith & Son, Brandon, competed strongly against them. They had a number of Clydesdale stallions, which to horse fanciers appeared almost faothiess. They were beautiful-booking animals, and naturally enough took prizes. J. T. and J. W. Wilkinson, however, potted the greater number of premiums. They had some differen animals here from their well-known stock farm in Chilliwack, and took first for the best roadster in three diasess; swoepestakes for stallion and five of his get; special for best roadster; championship for best mare in three different silowings; special for best turpout, double ask single.

Johnson is a hoat in limself, and Ruthersford and Johnson (J.) did good work. Four more goals were made by the Garrison in the second half, Many thought that in playing down hill the Columbias would hold their own better. The soldiers, however, not only held them down, but added materially to their account.

them down, but added materially to the account.

The result of this game makes the final contest for silver medals presented by the B. C. Agricultaral Association between the Garrison and Victoria teams. This game is being played this afternoon. Both teams are confident, and the match should therefore be interesting. Sergt. Wood, of the Garrison, during the game yesterday, remarked that he hoped play wouldn't get too hot, as he wanted to save his men for today, and continuing said: "Of course

Foofball, Tray Shooting and Boxing in Yesterday's Programme.

Yesterday's Programme.

Yesterday's match between the Columbia and Garrison teams was poorly contested. The final result was 9 goals to 1 in favor of the soliders. Throughout the game the local team was outclassed, the Garrison, playing an irresistible combination, and putting up a splendid defence when necessary. The soldiers, it was plainly evident, were in the best of trim, and it was equally evident that some of the Columbias was equally evident that some of the Columbias was playing the game for the first time this season, Under these circumstances there is little wonder the result was an overwhelming victory for the Garrison.

The ball was kicked off later than the scheduled time, and for, a considerable space play was most even. Finally, however, the onshanghts of the Garrison forwards, took effect, and the first goal was zeored for the soldiers midst the scheduled time, and for, a considerable space play was most even. Live Wire Evicted Colony of Rodents Upon the Heads of Women.

It rained mice at the Auditorium hotel yesterday afternoon. Not candy mice with a fine coat of chocolate on the outside, but real mice, and a panic followed. The deluge continued for ten minutes, and feminine stricks and scurrying feet continued just as long.

The clouds for this storm began to gather several weegs ago. Several old mice decided to migrate to the second floor. They must have guessed that the partor rooms were the most exclusive, and there they began the work of forming a colony. The first thing that they did was to eat their way through the carpet. When they stopped they were clinging to the ceiling of the lobby. Not far away hung a chandelier. The top was the site of their colony.

But there had been many additions in the meantime, and the colony numbered twenty-five or thirty. Then a famine struck the community. The carpeuters had been busy and new carpets had been laid. Their path was blocked, and starvation stared them in the face.

Then a happy thought struck one of the mothers. The cries of her children had made her desperate, and it was with joy that she caught sight of an electric stire.

s group of women stood and waited for he rain to pass that they might go shopping.

All at once the mouse struck a solid substance. She thought forty cats had attacked her. Then came a blinding flash and a report like a pistol shot. The twenty globes became dark—the fuse had turned out. Then the mother mouse toppied out. She finded fairly in the centre of the group.

"Heavens" shrieked one of the women, and there was a strunpede.

The mouse, dazed by the contact with the lire wire, did not know just what to do, and followed the women.

Over under the chandeller the mice kept coming down. It seemed they had all been in the neighborhood when the fuse burned out, and they were all more or less dazed. They run for the news counter and another commotion followed. At the clerk's desk they met a woman who had been seeding at the crowd that was frightened by the lone mouse. A moment later a queer expression crossed her face.

"Can I help you, Madam?" gallantly inquired a drummer.

"Between $13,000 fast $14,000 has already been paid. On Wednesday, the last day of the month, and yesterday a number of the larger property owners and corporations came in and paid their taxes."

T. G. Blackstock, who is one of the heaviest investors in Kootenay mining account of the lacreased value of its product. Caused by the increased value of its product. property owners and corporations came in and paid their taxes."

T. G. Blackstock, who is one of the heaviest investors in Kootenay mining interests, was in the city last week. Approached by a representative of the Mining the Gooderham-Blackstone interests in British Columbia, Mr. Blackstock in British Columbia, Mr. Blackstock stated that he had no ifews to impart that could be considered as being of interest to the general public. Pressed for a statement concerning the future plans of the War Eagle and Centre Star companies, Mr. Blackstock will the statement concerning the future plans of the people, the few reaging the advantage, not over foreign nations, but leading the international commerce of Great Britain would decline. Therefore the colembra was progressing satisfactorily. The hing was progressing satisfactorily. The shandonment of free trade that could be considered as dealy of the ferset to the general public. Pressed for a statement concerning the future plans of the War Eagle and Centre Star companies, Mr. Blackstock said that everything was progressing satisfactorily. The plans for concentration would be carried out with as little delay as possible, and he looked for successful resuls. The ores of Rossiand, said Mr. Blackstock, "The ores of Rossiand," said Mr. Blackstock, and the looked for successful resuls. The ores of Rossiand, said Mr. Blackstock, and the propose to adopt. There was a time when it was not uncommon for some mitting engineers to decry the lensents of milling, but I think it is now generally admitted that concentration win be the means of giving Rossland its full measure of prosperity. Just what that prosperity will amount to I do not at present care to predict. This much is certain, however, there is an almost unlimited tonage of low grade ore, as unlimited tonage of low grade ore, as fellowship. Thirty-two moulders in the employ of the Frost & Wood Company at Smith's Falls, on Tuesday went out on strike. The trouble arose over the revisal of one of the moulders who was promoted to a foremanship to any longer pay his dues to the union. The firm refused to dis-charge him for this reason. The men considered him a non-union man and refused to longer work with him.

COINAGE OF WORDS.

Growth of the English Language—The is a sufficient expression for any thing.

Modern Dictionary.

Introduced must be coined under the authority of the law. So long as there is a sufficient expression for any thing or idea, so long is there no need for a or idea, so long is there no need for a new name.

When Huxley coined the word "agnostic," fashioning it according to the laws of the English tongue, there was necessity for a pame for a man who simply put revelation among the things which were unknowable, "Sceptic" would not serve, for the sceptic claims the right to reason about revelation, No such good reason had Browning for importing "banality." Already we had several expressions for the common place. Consequently, for every one who uses "banality", a thousand use "agnostic," One is useful, the other is useless, —Current Literature.

The sad news was received last evening of the death near Kelowna, Okanagan, yesterday morning of William Maemilian, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maemilian, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maemilian, fourth son of the Okanagan in the hope of being benefited, but the bope was vain. He became gradually worse, and Monday his father receiveds word to go up without delay. He left at once, but arrived too late to see his son alive. The young man was in fis twenty-second year and came here with the other members of the family when a little boy. Sincere sympathy is felt for Serborn.

COAT COLLAR FACTS

If you test a coat by the collar, you'll appreciate the perfection of "FIT-REFORM" Collars on "FIT-REFORM" Coats. Note our adoption of the very newest thing for fall wear—the long, narrow collar, with rather a wide roll as it joins the coat in front

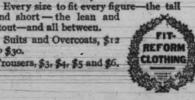

"FIT-REFORM" Collars are hand shaped — hand moulded—hand stitched. Only by hand work can the collar be made to snugly hug the neck and retain its perfect shape. That is why a "FIT-REFORM" Collar lends the finishing touches to a perfect coat.

Whether it is a single detail—or the suit as a whole—"FIT-REFORM" Clothes are absolutely faultless.

Paper telegraph poles are one of the developments of the art of making paper useful. The paper poles are said to be lighter and stronger than those of wood, and to be unaffected by sun, rain, dampness, or any of the other causes which shorten the life of a wooden pole.

The bright new goods in our Art China Department have caused considerable excitment among the many admirers of nice goods. We are displaying an exceptionally fine line of "Doulton Ware" on our first floor. Weiler Bros. *
