"PEACE, PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY"

LAURIER IS GREETED BY FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE

Liberal Chieftain and Colleagues Address Gathering at Horse Show Building—Faith in Canada's Future Keynote of Speeches

An audience estimated to have numbered over five thousand last evening listened to Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the public meeting held in the horse show buildings at the Exposition grounds, Oak Bay. When it is mentioned that the Prime Minister was in excellent form and that the subjects dealt with in an address of nearly an hour's duration were those calculated to appeal particularly to an audience of British Columbians—the question of Asiatic exclusion and the naval policy of the Government—it will be understood that his speech was a masterly effort and that it elicited a perfect storm of applause.

As Sir Wilfrid, accompanied by Hon. G. P. Graham, F. E. Pardes, M. P.; E. M. Macdonald, M. P.; Hon. William Templeman, and Senator Riley, approached the entrance, those seated near that point of the immense building, gave a cheer, which, taken up in ever-increasing volume as the vast audience comprehended its significance, grew into a mighty roar of greeting.

Sir Wilfrid was escorted to the platform by F. A. Pauline, first vice-president of the Liberal association. The Prime Minister wore a Prince Albert coat, a white waistcoat and grey trousers. Thunderous cheers rang out as he made his way along the aisle and on to the platform, and he constantly raised his silk hat and bowed acknowledgments.

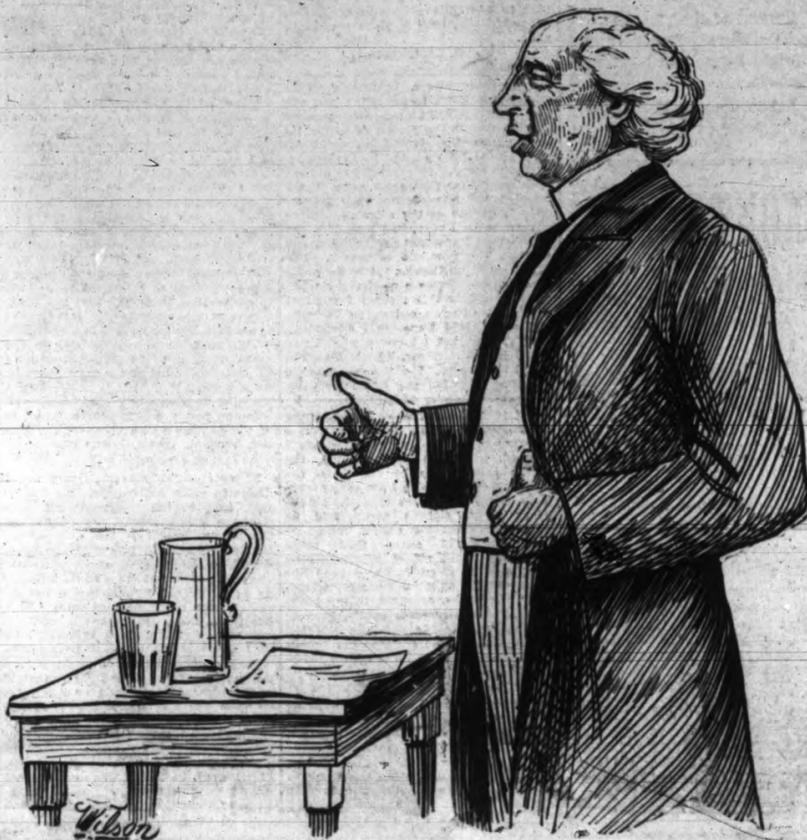

Tendered an Ovation.
As Sir Wilfrid mounted the platform this action was the signal for a received the meeting to his constituency, Oak Bay, as is known, is part of Nanaimo district.

E. M. Macdonald, M. P., was the next speaker. He dealt with the wonderful personal record of Sir Wilfrid, reciting the many achievements which had characterized his successful administration of the public affairs of the country since his Government assumed the reins of office in 1886. Mr. Macdonald is an excellent speaker and he was given the heartiest of receptions.

Progress of Canada.
Mr. Macdonald was followed by Hon. Mr. Graham, who delivered a masterly address constituting a striking exposition of the progress of Canada since the Government of Sir Wilfrid assumed office. The Minister of Railways buttressed his argument with statistics which revealed an unparalleled expansion in every direction under the wise policies which had been formulated by the administration of which he was proud to be a member. His speech, which was as instructive as it was entertaining, created a tremendous impression and he was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause.

Lieut.-Col. Currie, commanding the Fifth Regiment, and a member of the executive of the Liberal Association, on behalf of the latter organization then performed the pleasing task of presenting Sir Wilfrid with an address. This interesting feature of the proceedings over, Miss Agnes Kingham, a little tot of ten with golden hair, clad in white, and bearing a basket of beautiful pink sweet peas, mounted the platform and presented the same to the guest of the evening. As the grey-haired veteran of the political arena accepted the gift with infinite grace and charm of manner he stooped and imprinted a kiss upon the brow of the

SIR WILFRID DECLARING POLICY OF HIS GOVERNMENT ON ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION

IMPERIAL ATTITUDE OF CANADIAN STATESMEN

Masterful Speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Oriental Immigration and the Naval Policy—Canada's Responsibilities

It is doubtful if, in a career, which has seen many notable demonstrations of public esteem and confidence, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has ever had a more spontaneous and warm-hearted reception than that which was accorded him last night, when over five thousand people of Victoria and district, irrespective of party, rose to their feet cheering and applauding as he stepped forward to speak. It was some minutes before he could be heard. Having dealt with what may be termed the local features of his visit to Victoria, Sir Wilfrid took up the serious questions which he had chosen as the main subjects of his address. These were the problem of Asiatic immigration and the Government's naval policy. His exposition of the Government's attitude on both these supreme issues was characterized by calm reasoning, crushing logic and incomparable eloquence, as the master of debate replied to the criticisms which had been leveled against himself and his administration by his opponents.

It is possibly correct to say that no two public questions now engaging the attention of the people of Canada would have furnished the Prime Minister with a better avenue for the exhibition of his rare talents as an orator. At times he assumed a defiant attitude, as with raised arm and clenched fist he hammered home a great truth as to Canada's position as an integral part of the mighty British Empire.

With flashing eye, head erect and his whole attitude typifying the patriot who sets country before party he appealed to all within sound of his voice to say if the policy of his Government in handling the Asiatic immigration policy question through the art of diplomacy was not the better way; to say whether it were not better to maintain friendly relations with Great Britain's powerful ally in the Far East than to insult her by passing repressive exclusion laws against her people.

The hurricane of applause which answered these questions put to the thousands who listened to his ringing words must have been music in his ears, at a time when he stood confronting the people of the one province in the Dominion which must bear the brunt of any influx of people from Asia.

Then in regard to the naval policy, he hurled back in the teeth of his defamers the charge that he was disloyal to the Motherland in framing the naval policy of the Government as he had done; he scolded the infamous suggestion that he was seeking to bring about a policy of separation; he defied his Conservative opponents to say what their policy was in regard to the necessity of Canada assuming some share of the burden of naval defence, which had so long been borne by the taxpayers of the Old Land.

Raising himself to his full height, with arms extended appealingly for judgment and reason on the part of all who heard his words, Sir Wilfrid asked if it were not better that Canada, which had now assumed the status of a nation, should undertake a permanent policy of self-defence, rather than one which would be in the nature of a sop. Canada had the resources which could be utilized in the building of ships of war; she had the money and she could get the skilled labor. The approving cheers of the audience gave him his answer.
In an eloquent peroration the great statesman concluded a speech remarkable for the evidences it afforded of his unquestioned sincerity, his singleness of purpose, his marvellous powers of logic and his brilliant eloquence. On resuming his seat he was given three rousing cheers and a tiger, and he himself then called for three cheers for His Majesty the King. Sir Wilfrid's speech was as follows:

Tribute to Premier McBride.
Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, I do not say my duty, and it is still more my pleasure, in the very first words which I am to utter this evening to offer to you, my fellow-countrymen in the city of Victoria, my deep sentiments of gratitude for the more than royal welcome which you have been pleased to extend to myself and the friends who accompany me.
Above all I claim the privilege of

FIRE SITUATION IS IMPROVING

FLAMES WILL SOON BE UNDER CONTROL

Rain Aids Foresters to Extinguish Outbreaks in Idaho and Oregon

(Times Pressed Wire.)
Portland, Ore., Aug. 18.—According to information received to-day from all parts of the Northwest by Associate Forester Cecil, the forest fires situation continues to improve, and it is believed the fires will all be controlled or extinguished within the near future.

Save the fires in the Crater national reserve in Southern Oregon, and the Clearwater river fire in Northern Idaho, both of which are causing much trouble, the majority of forest conflagrations are comparatively small.

Rains within the past few days did much to improve the situation. Indications are for more rain soon throughout the Northwest.

According to information received here, all fires in the Wenatchee national forest, in Eastern Washington, are under control, and the assistance of troops will not be required. Like conditions obtain in other reserves in Washington and Oregon.

In Idaho the principal fire is on the south fork of the Clearwater river, in the northern part of the state. An area estimated to be 20 miles long by 10 miles wide has been burned over. While much green timber was consumed, most of the land burned over was second growth and dead timber.

In the Crater reserve, according to Cecil, there are approximately 25 fires burning. The fire area covers 50 square miles.

CHOLERA CLAIMS MANY VICTIMS IN ITALY

Government is Rushing Doctors and Nurses to Scene of the Outbreak

(Times Leased Wire.)
Bari, Italy, Aug. 18.—With the death list of 33 names hourly increasing, the virulent cholera epidemic in the vicinity of Bari, in Apulia, on the Adriatic coast, is assuming ominous proportions. The Italian government to-day is hurrying doctors and nurses from Rome to the scene of the disease, and fairs and public gatherings of all kinds have been forbidden. The peasants of the provinces adjoining the infected districts are holding religious meetings, imploring divine aid.
The nature of the cholera is of the worst. The towns of Barietta, Trani, Bitonto and Mola are principally affected.

STRIKING SENTENCES

"Is it not better to deal with Oriental immigration by a policy of conciliation and mutual agreement, such as we have adopted, than by a policy of violent legislation? Is this not better not only for Canada but for the whole Empire?"—Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"I tell the electors of British Columbia that a fair and square effort will be made to bring Victoria back into the Liberal line at the next election."—Hon. Wm. Templeman.

"No one has a right to object to expenditures on railways till every man in Canada has equal railway facilities with himself."—Hon. George P. Graham.

"We are no longer sending delegates to Washington, but Washington now sends delegates to Ottawa."—E. M. Macdonald.

THE CRIPPEN CASE

Proprietors and Editor of London Chronicle Accused of Contempt of Court.

London, Aug. 18.—The proprietors and chief editor of the Daily Chronicle to-day were ordered to appear in the court of crown cases reserved (criminal division) to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt by having published a story intimating that Dr. H. H. Crippen poisoned his wife, Belle Elmore Crippen.

The paper is held responsible for a statement that Dr. Crippen's denial of having confessed was based upon distinction between a confession and an admission. Crippen's lawyers demand the infliction of the full penalty under the law.

TRIES TO END LIFE

New York, Aug. 18.—Hearing that her husband, Louis C. Bauduy, real estate agent, had committed suicide in a hotel at Manhattan, N. Y., Mrs. Leonie Bauduy, his third wife, attempted to kill herself to-day by swallowing carbolic acid.

The attempt was the third on the part of Mrs. Bauduy. Last Friday she tried to leap in front of an elevated train, but was restrained. Later she tried to jump from the window of the police station after declaring that she was tired of her husband's cruelty. She claimed that the fact that one of his two former wives committed suicide haunted her. In February, 1904, Mrs. Bauduy shot herself.

FIRE FOLLOWS EXPLOSION

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 18.—The machine and blacksmith shops of the Seattle Car Manufacturing Company at Renton, a suburb, are in ruins to-day, destroyed by a fire that started at 6 o'clock last evening by an explosion of oil in the boiler room. The damage is estimated at $20,000. The entire plant is valued at $100,000.

ONTARIO DOCTOR SUCCUMBS TO WOUND

Man Who Called Physician to Home Declares Shooting Was Accidental

(Special to the Times.)

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—The village of Vars, 18 miles south of Ottawa, is mystified over the shooting yesterday of Dr. W. A. Empey, for the past six years a physician practicing at Vars. Alfred Blondin, a French Canadian laborer, who did the shooting, declares that it was accidental, but the doctor before he died said that Blondin had shot him deliberately and without provocation. The doctor had been summoned to attend Eva Blondin who was seriously ill. As soon as he crossed the threshold the father shot him through the back with a rifle.

The shooting occurred at 12:45 and at 4:30 Dr. Empey died at the home of L. Fetterly, a neighbor. Two hours later, Blondin, who had run into his house after the shooting and whom the people of the village were afraid to molest, was placed under arrest by Constable McDonald and Sheriff Hill. He was locked up and will be taken to the county jail to-day.

joining in this expression of my gratitude the name of my honored friend, the premier of the province, Mr. McBride (applause), for the many courtesies which he has lavished upon myself and upon my friends from the moment we landed in your city. Mr. McBride and myself, perhaps you know, do not always see eye to eye in many things political, but when we do not agree we agree to disagree and when we do not agree, I know that it is more his misfortune than his fault. (Laughter.) But I must say to the credit of Mr. McBride—I am a little older, and much older, than him and therefore have a claim to a wider experience of the play of British institutions—that his conduct on the present occasion has been after the best traditions of the amenities which have marked the relations of party leaders in the older land. ceived outburst of applause—but the famous chieftain of the Liberal party, with just the faintest suspicion of a smile playing about his mouth, with a composure which in itself was educational and a thing to marvel at, proceeded to cast his eyes to every corner of the vast auditorium, surveying the sea of faces as calmly as one might view some piece of scenery, for the first time, the while removing his overcoat.

After a brief speech by Mr. Pauline, expressing the pleasure which Victorians felt at being honored by a visit from Sir Wilfrid, Hon. Mr. Templeman then called upon the Minister of Mines for a magnificent reception, but he refrained from any lengthy speech, contenting himself with formally, as a Victorian, extending to his leader a hearty welcome to the Capital City of British Columbia, and reiterating his conviction that British Columbia would at the next opportunity re-enter the Liberal fold.

A Pretty Incident.

This pretty incident of a memorable evening over, Sir Wilfrid turned and faced his auditors, who immediately became hushed with a respectful silence so as to the better catch his every word. The great chieftain opened with an expression of his keen appreciation of the magnificent and never-to-be-forgotten welcome which had been accorded himself and his friends to the Capital City of British Columbia. He dwelt with an obvious pleasure upon the point of emphasizing how much he had been impressed with the natural beauties of Victoria, which, he said, was indeed "Victoria the Beautiful." Then he related how greatly pleased he had been to be greeted with such heartiness and such lavish hospitality by the government of British Columbia, paying in this connection a tribute to the broadmindedness of Hon. Richard

Victoria the Beautiful.

I must also thank the mayor and members of the city council for the address with which they honored me the moment I landed in your city. I notice particularly in the language of this address, which indeed is beautifully worded, that with very pardonable pride—with pride which I would feel myself if I were a citizen of Victoria—the address called your city "Victoria the Beautiful."

Sir, I agree altogether in that expression. Victoria city is indeed one of the beautiful cities of the continent. It was my pleasure and privilege this morning, for the third time in my life that I have visited the city, to be whom, I understand, is one of your fellow-citizens. (Applause.)

Coming, Banner Province. And what is said of Victoria I may say also of British Columbia. British Columbia is on a fair way to dethrone Ontario as the banner province. When I go back to Ontario, and I shall be there in a few weeks, I shall tell those people who have declared it to be the banner province that they will have to look to their laurels. British Columbia can see the day when it will be the banner province of the Dominion. British Columbia is the Switzerland of America, but a Switzerland ten-fold multiplied. Why, sir, I have seen the Alps and I have seen your mountains, and I can appreciate the story that you could drop the Alps between the Rockies and the Selkirk and they would hardly fill the valley. The resources of British Columbia in fisheries, minerals and lumber are well known to my cabinet, who are well known to you, but without being a prophet or the son of a prophet, I will tell you that in agricultural products British Columbia will take a place second to none.

Mr. Templeman. In this same address from the city council there was a paragraph which rather struck me, to the effect that the city owed me somewhat itself because I had found in the person of one of its citizens, Mr. Templeman, a member of my cabinet, who could be entrusted with the important portfolio of mines. It is quite true that some years ago I selected Mr. Templeman, your fellow-citizen, as one of the members of my government. I entrusted him with one of the most important portfolios, newly created, the portfolio of mines. For this I claim no thanks. It is my pride that I always know a good thing when I see it and in this respect I will not be offensive to you, citizens of Victoria, if I say that I have this advantage over you in that I know a good thing and I keep it. (Hear, hear.) You will not be offended, I am sure, when I say that I cannot pay a similar compliment to the city of Victoria.

But if Mr. Templeman is no longer the member for this city he is still a member of the government. When I learned, after the last election, the methods by which he had been defeated, methods which I am sure everybody now knows—now that the smoke of battle has cleared away and the passion is to some extent relieved—everybody will agree that these methods do not reflect any credit on the Conservative party. (Applause.) But I thought it was my duty to my friend, Mr. Templeman, defeated, in my judgment, not in honorable battle, that he should not lose his portfolio and the government should not lose the benefit of his work, and so he is still a member of the cabinet.

Songhees Reserve. There is also a paragraph relating to the Songhees reserve. I do not exactly know how it came there, but it is there and it is there because it represents an inconvenience, and, if I may say so, a sore in the flank of Victoria. We have nothing to do with that except that if it is possible in my capacity as head of the government to serve into the pale of civilized life—the pale of the city.

Oriental Labor. This address from the city likewise contains a statement which is also referred to in the admirable address from the Liberal Association. It refers to the question of Oriental labor. I know that, of all the questions which have agitated the province of British Columbia for the last twenty years, the question of Oriental labor has been the question of all questions. I know that at the last election which took place in this province, especially in this city, the government of which I happen to be the head at this moment was misrepresented in relation to that question. Therefore I claim the privilege from my fellow-countrymen in Victoria to discuss that question and to explain to you the policy of my government upon it.

I knew when I came here that this was the question of all, the question of most interest to the citizens, and at the moment I set foot in the province, at the first meeting I addressed within its borders, that at Vancouver two days ago, I presented it in the light in which I see it and the manner in which I understand it. The manner in which I understand it is not so very different from the manner in which you understand it yourselves. The only reproach, if I may be permitted to use such an expression, to those who honestly differ from me on the question, is that they have looked at it simply from the point of view of labor, and the government has looked at it from the point of view, not only of British Columbia and of Canada, but of the whole British Empire. (Hear, hear.) There is a misrepresentation in regard to it. It is supposed that we in the east are indifferent to this question; it is supposed to concern British Columbia alone. Now in the east we are quite open to the question, it is of as much importance to us as to you, but the way in which we approach it is that it is not only a question of labor but a vast question of imperial policy, which affects the whole of the nations which compose the British Empire. (Hear, hear.)

The Laurier Policy. There are two propositions which I desire to place before you. The first is this, that in the treatment of this question it is the duty, not only of all Canadians, but it is the duty of all British subjects to look at it, to work it out, to interpret it so as to create no embarrassment to Great Britain, but to support her in her friendship with the other nations with which her trade has so much to do; and my second proposition and corollary is, that it would not be possible to maintain friendly relations between Great Britain and these friendly nations if immigration into Canada or Australia, or other parts of the Empire was not limited and checked. Mark what I say—immigration from the Orient to any British possession—to speak of one, to Canada—must be limited and checked. (Applause.) In this, I suppose, I meet the views of all present, and I judge by your applause that this is what you have in mind; that immigration must

What Other People Think

JUVENILE SMOKERS.

To the Editor—I have read the eloquent addresses of many Methodist leaders from the old land and the new. Though not a Methodist, I have great respect for that body.

I wonder does the thought of the evil right here in our midst strike to them as it does to me? I think we might begin reformation right here in Victoria, say, in our own homes. Take the evil of cigarette smoking. You see traces of it on the faces of our young men and also (I write with shame) on the boys. We parents may forbid smoking. Nay, we may plead with our youth, but the fact is still there, while from our presence they smoke cigarettes, and will be so long as they can buy them. Are the laws made only to be broken? I was told by a boy only yesterday "that every boy in town smokes cigarettes," and when I asked, "Who gives them to you?" was told, "Oh, we buy them; we can buy them anywhere in town." To test this, I sent a boy of nine years out to purchase a packet, and told him not to say who they were for; just to pretend they were for himself. He said when he returned, "That was no trick; they hand them out like candy."

I think this will show that we require a little vigilance here on Vancouver Island. We might easily spare a little and then send the rest to India to stop child marriages, etc.

I heard of a youth in this city who wished to go in for baseball, but his heart is too weak. This same youth smokes a couple of cigarettes before breakfast each morning and many during the day.

We who have the welfare of the city at heart must try to put a stop to the sale of cigarettes. They are sapping the life out of our young men and making them unfit for life in any shape.

charmed with the expansion which characterizes its development, expansion not only in size, but, above all, in beauty. ASK FOR LOWER FREIGHT RATES

Farmers Seek to Improve Trade Relations Between British Columbia and Alberta

Vancouver, Aug. 19.—Better trade relations and lower freight rates between the prairie provinces and British Columbia were the subjects of discussion and of action at the convention which opened here yesterday and will close to-day of the United Farmers of Alberta and British Columbia representatives of agriculture and commerce.

The chief resolution adopted expressed the conviction that "excessive freight rates are seriously hindering and diminishing the interchange of products under present conditions and retarding future developments in both Alberta and British Columbia, and it is further the conviction of this meeting that a substantial reduction in rates should be effected, which will not only be of the greatest importance and benefit to the producers and consumers of these provinces, but to the railway companies." Copies of this resolution will be sent to the presidents of the C. P. R., G. N. R., C. N. R. and G. T. P. and to Mr. Whyte, requesting that a meeting be arranged at a date to be agreed upon.

A standing committee of three representatives each of Alberta and British Columbia will be appointed to work out the details covering better trade relations between the two provinces. The convention also recommended the establishment in both provinces of a system of public abattoirs, either by the municipalities or by the provincial governments, under government inspection.

On motion of Mr. Crerar, president of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association, a resolution was added, that the permanent standing committee be requested to secure the co-operation of the grain growers of Manitoba and Saskatchewan and associations in the four western provinces on any points which will assist them in this work.

A resolution was adopted asking the provincial governments of British Columbia and Alberta to enact a uniform law, licensing and bonding all commission merchants handling any kind of farm product, the provisions to be along the lines laid down in the Manitoba grain act for the licensing and bonding of grain commission merchants.

The question of grading and standardization of hay will be discussed to-day. Secretary Evans said the Dominion act regarding this matter was not properly enforced, and applied to the east rather than the west. He thought that the convention should draft regulations which would establish the standard of qualities and submit them to the federal government. The hay should be inspected, and under such a system he believed that hay would figure as largely as grain in the activities of many Alberta farmers.

MOVEMENT TO DEFEAT SPEAKER CANNON

Congressman Longworth Says He Will Oppose Him in the Republican Caucus

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 19.—Following closely upon political conferences at the summer capital, Congressman Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, yesterday announced his determination to oppose Cannon for re-election as Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"I shall oppose Cannon's re-election," said Longworth, "and I shall do so in a manner that I consider proper and effective for the settlement of controversies in my party, namely, in the Republican caucus."

"In view of Cannon's unequivocal declaration that he intends to be a candidate for the Speakership of the next house," continued Longworth, "I think it incumbent upon those candidates for membership in the house who have made up their minds to state their respective positions publicly. Had Cannon not announced his candidacy, I should not have committed myself before the election, but since Cannon himself has established his candidacy, I do not propose to dodge the issue."

"I made up my mind before the adjournment of the last congress that Cannon could not be re-elected Speaker. That opinion has been strengthened since then. I am not referring to those who opposed him when I say this, but to those who have been supporting him. I think they will support him no longer. I am absolutely convinced that if there is a full attendance at the Republican caucus, Cannon cannot be elected."

"I have a genuine affection for Cannon as a man and have an honest respect for his splendid fighting qualities."

I have supported him five times for the Speakership, voting four times for his election. But I cannot do this again. I repeat that I shall oppose the re-election of Cannon, and further am firmly of the opinion that his re-election is impossible. I want it distinctly understood that I say this solely on my own responsibility and upon the suggestion of no one else." Longworth was especially anxious that the last sentence be emphasized. By those in a position to know Longworth's action is regarded as the administration's first move to eliminate Cannon.

ORDERED TO VACATE.

Independents of Zion City Served With Notice by Voliva and His Organization.

Zion City, Ill., Aug. 19.—Sixty independent church officials, Sunday school teachers and business men of Zion City have been served with a notice to vacate their places of business as soon as possible by W. G. Voliva and his organization, the owners of Zion City. Voliva declared yesterday that he would serve the independents with writs of injunction unless they obeyed his orders and vacated.

It is charged that independents are using residence property of the Zion estate for business or other alleged improper purposes, in violation of the terms of the old Dowle lease and agreement of tenancy. Independent business men and property owners of Sheridan road alone are exempt, as they are situated along the one public highway in Zion City.

We have alluded to the high plane of the political polemics of the Ministers and their conferees to the improved political morale developed as a result of the visit of the Prime Minister.

THE BY-LAWS.

The Colonist thinks we are needlessly alarmed about the telephone by-law. We are not alarmed at all, after reading its provisions, which seem to be in the public interests.

The young men of the Colonist's staff are to be congratulated upon the excellent report they gave of the speeches delivered last evening by the federal Ministerial party.

Ex-Mayor Hall suggests that the provincial government might possibly be induced to leave the illuminations which gave such great pleasure to the crowds on Wednesday evening in place until after the exhibition.

The arrangements of the Liberal Association for the accommodation of the immense throng were as nearly perfect as possible.

The people of Lashburn on the prairies must be a peculiar lot. They, in common with all other people everywhere, received Sir Wilfrid Laurier gladly, but in their address they could not think of a single thing they lacked.

The Prime Minister of Canada is a never-ending marvel to his most intimate friends. The urbanity with which Sir Wilfrid receives deputation after deputation, the unfailing courtesy with which he listens to their requests, the unaffected patience with which he hears their arguments, and the suavity with which he sometimes turns the case against them or expresses sympathy with it.

That was a striking quotation from the speeches of John Bright, the greatest of all British orators: "Rome, the dead mother of dead nations; Britain, the living mother of living nations."

LIST OF TEACHERS FOR THE FALL TERM

Children of Public Schools Return to Studies on August 29th

A list of the teachers for the fall term of the Victoria public schools has been completed by the city superintendent of schools, Dr. E. B. Paul. With few exceptions the list does not greatly differ from that of the last term, although there are some familiar names missing and several new ones appear in it for the first time. The schools will reopen on Monday, August 29th, when the children will return to their studies after nearly two full months of holiday.

Following is the list of teachers for the coming term:

PREPARATIONS FOR RECEPTION

PRINCE RUPERT IS MAKING GREAT EFFORT

Vadso Brings Word of Progress of Stewart and of Fishing at Skeena

Word was brought by the steamer Vadso, which was in port yesterday and sailed for the North early this morning, that the people of Prince Rupert are making tremendous efforts to have the demonstration to Sir Wilfrid Laurier the greatest affair of its kind ever held at a city of its size. Bills have been distributed all down the Coast at the inhabited points inviting people to attend and offering half fares on all the steamers. The result is expected to be something very unusual in an affair of that kind. Sir Wilfrid is looked upon as the father of the city, and the inhabitants look up to him with filial devotion.

Stewart is still to the fore, there being now a more steady growth without the boom features which formerly struck the visitors. The Vadso took seventy people to the town, of whom forty were railway laborers for Mackenzie & Mann. Two hundred more are needed there if they can be secured. Already seven or eight miles of the railway has been graded and is ready for the ties and steel. The ties are coming from Swanson Bay, and there is 2,000 tons of steel rails on the ground, that much having been taken over from Prince Rupert on the barge Ivy.

The railway wharf at Stewart has been delayed waiting for pilings. The wharf proper is finished and about half of the approach, but the other half has to be completed. Word was brought that the fishing season is holding out well to the end. The Claxton cannery, on the Skeena, already had 50,000 cases when the steamer left, and which it was expected would be secured within a few days. The Carlyle cannery had put up their capacity pack of 35,000, and the Vadso brought the Chinese from that cannery south.

Officers of the Vadso state that the present has been one of the best seasons they have had in the north for several years. All the last trip was fine, with the exception of one day. The Boscowitz steamer brought south 3,000 cases of new pack salmon which was discharged at Vancouver. This came from the Skeena river. Most of the fish will be shipped to the Old Country on the Blue Funnel liners.

J. A. M. Aiken, K. C., the well known lawyer and financier of Winnipeg, who is a delegate to the Canadian Methodist conference, now in session in this city, has consented to address the Canadian Club on Wednesday next, in Broad Street hall. The luncheon will be at the usual hour, 1 o'clock p. m. Members of the club can secure tickets at Hibben's and the Victoria Book and Stationery Co.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES WILL BOWL TO-MORROW

Three Rinks of Methodist Ministers and Laymen to Meet Local Bowlers

Three rinks from the Methodist conference will try conclusions with a corresponding number of local bowlers at the Beacon Hill green on Saturday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. The club grounds will undoubtedly be the scene of several very fast, exciting and sensational games as the laymen and ministers, who have been selected to meet the Victoria bowlers, are reputed to be among the most experienced players in the east. The Toronto rink is especially fast and the members of it are among the foremost bowlers in that city.

The locals recognize that they are face to face with a hard proposition, but they intend to demonstrate to the easterners that the men of the west can play as efficient a game as may be seen anywhere. The Victorians will be represented by the following: Rink A. A. Sherritt, R. Dunn, W. Wood and R. W. Coleman. Rink B. J. Dilworth, W. Bryce, T. Brown and J. A. Turner. Rink C. W. Walker, W. Gilphart, D. Stewart and E. E. Banister.

ENTRIES FOR YACHT RACES TO-MORROW

Six in Class "A" and Two in Class "B" Launches Leave Club House 2:30

Arrangements for the Victoria Yacht Club regatta to be held to-morrow afternoon are almost completed. So far seven entries have been received, four in Class A and three in Class B, with the probability that two or three more boats will enter to-day. The sailing committee of the club will meet to-day to decide the handicaps for the various boats competing. Four prizes are offered, two in each class, and it is expected that some smart sailing will be witnessed. The course is from the outer wharf to Albert Head, thence to the British Lodge beacon and back to the judges' launch off the wharf, the distance approximating six miles.

So far the following entries have been received: Class "A"—Gwenol, Gibb and Pig-gott; "Alisa," Commodore Cuppage; "Truant," Adams; "Varuna," Barnes. Class "B"—"Onida," W. A. Turner; "Clyde," Temple Brook; "Sea Wren," MacCarter.

AUTO HIGHWAY FROM CANADA TO MEXICO

Enormous Undertaking Will Be Launched by New Body Now Forming

An international highway from Mexico to Canada is to be launched in earnest at a meeting of the automobile clubs of the whole Pacific coast, which has been called by the Seattle Athletic Club for September 4th. In launching the movement, Seattle has stolen Portland's thunder, for the matter was put up to Secretary F. M. Fretwell, of the Seattle organization, by Clifton Harrison, of the Portland club, when he was over here recently.

It evidently appealed to him, for the invitation has gone out to all the clubs of the coast asking them to send delegates to a meeting at the Hotel Washington Annex in Seattle, Sunday evening, September 4. The meeting is for the purpose of organizing a Western Automobile Association, which shall include all the clubs of the United States west of the Rocky mountains. The international highway is the main object in view of the promoters, but uniform laws and other things of importance to

FAST SWIMMERS WILL COMPETE TO-MORROW

Vancouver Island Swimming Championship Star Attraction at Gorge.

To-morrow afternoon the Vancouver Island swimming championship will be held at the Gorge, under the auspices of the B. C. A. S. A. and the sanction of the B. C. A. A. U. The water sports will commence sharply at 2:30 o'clock, and the first race on the programme, which is the 100-yard dash, will be called at that time.

The committee has made final arrangements for the meet, and they are looking forward to a most successful afternoon's sport. The officials will be as follows:

Judges, Capt. McIntosh, Beaumont Boggs and P. B. Darnell; starter, Ed. Sears; announcer, J. P. Sweeney; timer, J. Gawley; clerk of course, A. J. Brace; course officer, J. Lester; judge of life-saving, Beaumont Boggs and A. J. Brace.

Entries for the meet must reach the office of A. J. Brace not later than to-night. All athletes competing must be registered with the B. C. A. S. A. and have resided on this island for at least two months. The secretary has received numerous local entries as well as many outside ones.

It will be a gala day for the swimmers. There are events on the programme which will suit the sprinters and long distance men. The teams for the big polo match, to be played in connection with the meet, are now ready for the big combat. The sturdy Y. M. C. A. five will clash with a quintette from the gallant Fifth. This exhibition game will be played in full view of the shore, and all those who attend will be afforded an excellent opportunity to witness the first public exhibition of this celebrated water game.

The prizes to be presented the winners of the championship events will be in the form of medals, while goods will be awarded in the extra events. Among the donors who have handed prizes to Roy Pomfret are: Chaloner-Mitchell Co., Ltd., challenge cup for relay race; Baxter & Johnson, medal; goods from G. H. Larrigan, Drake's Hardware, Hibben & Co. and F. Landsberg; money from Pacific Whaling Co., Thornton Fell, A. W. Elliott, R. B. McKinnis, A. R. Cann, R. W. Perry, J. C. McIntosh, J. Cockrane, Montelius Piano Co., F. B. Pemberton and H. J. Pollard.

LACROSSE RIVALS TO PLAY AT ROYAL PARK

Twelves Representing North Ward and Cloverdale Clubs Line Up To-morrow at 3 o'clock

To-morrow afternoon at the Royal Athletic park Cloverdale and North Ward lacrosse twelves will cross sticks in the final game of the senior city league. The game will be one well worth going to see, as these two city teams are more evenly matched than any teams that have played against each other on a Victoria field this year. Three times they have played draw games and each game has been a hummer from the sound of the first whistle. The last battle was Monday evening, when the final tally was five goals apiece, scored in one of the most sensational matches of the season.

To-morrow will be the final city league game of the season and as feeling runs high and the rivalry is keen on both sides, it is an assured fact that there will be little or no love lost during the game. Both teams are in the pink of condition and each scent a victory. They will line up at the Royal Athletic park as follows:

North Ward.	Position.	Cloverdale.
Johnson	Point.	Clarke
F. Sweeney (capt.)	Goal.	Lorimer
Dakers	First Defence.	Temple
Morris	Second Defence.	S. Redgrave

GARRISON LOSES TO ESQUIMALT XI

Good Scores by Pooley and Thomas Pass Total Made by Defeated Team Combined

A well made 84 by R. H. Pooley and 39 made by Thomas, both for the Esquimalt Cricket Club, in a match yesterday against the Garrison, won the game for the naval villagers who, with five double scores on their side, only succeeded in totalling 82, against 141 compiled by the Esquimalt eleven. The partnership of Pooley and Thomas was responsible for the victory, as the first wicket fell for a duck and after Thomas and Pooley there were three successive ducks following and three of the remaining men did not reach double figures.

For the Garrison, Corporal Stevens hit up a rapid 27, Col. Sergt. Roberson and Bomb. Cross scored a dozen each, Corporal Hawtreay 18, and Corporal Wyndham 16, being the remaining double-figure men. The complete scores of the match are:

SWIMMING RACES ARE ON AT THE GORGE

Spirited Contests Are Promised For To-night and To-morrow Evening

For the past ten Friday evenings the Victoria Y. M. C. A. Swimming and Life Saving Club has been holding handicap races at the Gorge. There are still two more competitions to be held, one being slated for this evening and the other for the following Friday. To-night's race will be over the 50-yard course, while the other will be 100 yards.

Every event so far has been keenly contested and the remaining ones will be closer still as so much depends on them. Two silver medals have been secured and will be presented to the swimmers who obtain the highest aggregate out of the twelve races being held. At present there are two national records being held for first place, Louis Beckwith and Charlie Hooper, and three for second place, Ray McCullum, J. Cameron and E. Crompton. The former have nine points to their credit, while the latter have eight.

That the remaining matches will be hotly contested is a foregone conclusion. The swimmers are all in condition and the pace set will be very fast. These races have brought out speedy swimmers not known before. The committee which arranged the handicaps did well in judging the speed of the competitors. As the swimmers breast the barge they are nearly altogether and this adds greater excitement to the races.

There are a large number of competitors in the races now. When the series was first inaugurated, very few swimmers took part but the interest has grown tremendously.

The death of William Albert Jones, of Esquimalt, Liverpool, was inquired into at Esquimalt. The evidence to the coroner's jury showed that the man had complained of pain in the knee, caused by falling and running a tin-tack into it. Subsequent complications caused death. The jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death."

McBride, whose action in this connection had, he said, been in accordance with the best traditions and amenities characteristic of public life in the Old Country.

All connected in any way with the arrangements for the mass meeting are to be congratulated on the success which attended their efforts. Everything passed off without a hitch. The horse show building lent itself admirably to the purpose of a great auditorium. The acoustics and the ventilation were admirable, as was also the lighting.

A feature of the opening proceedings was the singing of the "Maple Leaf" by Herbert Kent, accompanied by the band, the whole of the audience joining in the chorus.

Not the least interesting feature of the proceedings of the evening was the presence of a detachment of Boy Scouts, who presented a very soldierly appearance as they presented arms as Sir Wilfrid Laurier and party passed down the aisles to the platform.

The car service was in every way excellent, and great credit in this connection is due to A. T. Goward, local manager, H. Gibson, traffic superintendent, and all others of the operating staff. Twenty large cars were running to the grounds, and within half an hour of the close of the meeting all those in attendance had been delivered back in the city.

The great building was richly decorated with flags and bunting. From wall to wall along the roof-beams stretched deep rows of flags and about the edge of the balconies ran a heavy band of red, white and blue.

Particularly tasteful was the arrangement of the speakers' platform which was smothered in ferns and surrounded by bunting while overhead two Union Jacks, draped curtainwise, made a canopy effect. The posts supporting the roof were covered in vari-colored fabrics worked into attractive designs and the whole scheme was completed by a huge motto, in letters six feet deep, "Peace, Progress and Prosperity," selected by the Liberal Association officials as most fitted to the occasion.

During the evening the fine band of the Fifth Regiment rendered the following programme of choice music:

March, Adolphe; overture, "Morning, Noon and Night"; selection, "Moonlight in Dixie," sung by the band; selection, "Aubion," composed of English songs; selection, "Auld Scotia," composed of Harry Laurier's songs; serenade, "La Palma"; march, "Pride of the Empire"; Canadian Anthem, "Vive La Canadienne"; "Maple Leaf," from "Auld Lang Syne"; God Save the King.

The Chairman, F. A. Pauline, vice-president of the Victoria Liberal Association, occupied the chair and in a short but effective ation of an auditor. "We will again," met with a chorus of cheers.) We have not so many just now.

And it is not so long ago that the Conservative government in this province made a sweep of the country. It is not easy to predict results in British Columbia; I have not myself been a safe prophet in the past; but estimating public opinion in the province I can declare that the people are ready now more than ever before to extend to the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier the very highest praise, giving to them full credit for all they have done in the past, for their magnificent policy; recognizing that they have given the country wise legislation and a progressive policy.

When another opportunity comes I hope, at all events, that the pendulum, having swung as far as it can to the one side, will then swing to the other. (Cheers.) I may tell the electors of British Columbia that a fair and square effort will be made to bring Victoria back into the Liberal party at the next election. (Cheers.)

I extend to the prime minister of Canada, speaking for the Conservative citizens of this city as well as the Liberals, the very heartiest welcome to the city of Victoria. (Renewed cheers.)

RALPH SMITH, M. P.

Ralph Smith, M. P., was the next speaker. He had observed that the previous speaker (Hon. Mr. Templeman) had remarked upon the fine audience which had gathered to do honor to Sir Wilfrid, which was creditable to the city of Victoria. But he would remind those present that they were not now in the city of Victoria. (Laughter.) They were, indeed, in Nanaimo district which he had the honor to represent in the House of Commons. (Renewed laughter.) When political angels came to the city from the east they had to go outside the city in order to find adequate seating accommodation. Continuing, Mr. Smith said he felt sure there could be no doubt in the mind of anyone that all the people of the province of British Columbia were united in the desire to tender a hearty welcome to the prime minister of Canada. (Applause.) For ten years he (Mr. Smith) had been a supporter of the policies of the Laurier government; and in his humble opinion much of the progress and prosperity which had been the fortunate lot of Canada since 1898 was due to the wise policy of the government. (Applause.)

Concluding, Mr. Smith said he had the very greatest pleasure in joining with his colleague, Hon. Mr. Templeman, in extending a hearty welcome to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the occasion of his visit to the city of Victoria.

E. M. MACDONALD, M. P.

E. M. Macdonald, member of parliament for Pictou, N. S., and one of the most effective speakers in the House of Commons, made an excellent impression in the brief address which he made. He said:

The first words I must say as a member of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's party are words of thanks for the welcome accorded the party by the people of Victoria. Six weeks ago to-day we left Ottawa and we have visited all the provinces between there and Victoria, the great gateway to and from the Orient. And there does not exist a better showing of faith and confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier than that in Victoria and the province of British Columbia. (Hear, hear.)

The welcome comes not merely out of political faith but also from those of opposite political belief. All realize the great career of the Premier to be without reproach and are proud to believe he is possessed of those qualities that make him not only loved at home but revered abroad. (Applause.) The testimony of those whose political belief is opposite to that of the Liberal party is appreciated by the Premier and his party.

He has come to look over the vast Dominion and to ascertain the wants and needs of the people of the great west. The result of the information obtained on this visit will be seen in years ahead in legislation.

Canada is proud of Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the vigorous immigration policy, which has attracted the eyes of the whole civilized world. Canada stands first among the colonies of the Empire and is the place for all to come to who desire prosperity, peace and progress. (Cheers.)

Referring to the Dominion Government's tariff policy as regards the United States, Mr. Macdonald put the situation concisely, saying:

The time was when Canada knocked at Washington's door, but to-day, under the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, no more delegates are sent to Washington, but the United States sends its delegates to us. (Cheers.)

Great transportation lines are reaching out across the Dominion as the result of the judgment of the prophetic leader, and tariff relations will follow for the well being and safeguard of the people of the Dominion. There is one idea only in this western land, in which I confess to being a tenderfoot. There is one thing which impresses me, and it is the greatness of the conception of the whole west which one never entertained before.

Our leader believes that in 20 years from to-day Canada will be foremost in working in unison with Australia, India, South Africa and the Mother Country. There is a strong link which binds the Dominion to the mother land. Canada split the blood of her sons on

"On behalf of the Liberals of Vancouver Island I have the honor to extend a hearty welcome to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party. I would couple with that expression of feeling the fact that the long journey from Ottawa to this city has been completed without any mishap to the premier or his colleagues, and I sincerely hope that they will continue their journey to the capital and arrive there in the best of health and spirits. (Applause.) Your committee has chosen a motto for tonight which reads, 'Peace, Progress and Prosperity.' I will not enlarge upon the sentiments of this motto, as the speakers for the evening will embody them in their addresses. We chose it because we know that these sentiments are close to the heart of our great leader. (Cheers.)"

HON. W. TEMPLEMAN

Hon. Wm. Templeman was greeted very heartily indeed when he was called on as the first speaker of the evening. He said:

Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, owing to circumstances over which the Liberal party had no particular control I am not at present the representative of the city of Victoria. ("You will be yet," cried a voice). But in one sense sometimes I think I am, and I have, ever since being returned for the district of Comox-Atlin, considered myself the representative of the entire province of B. C.—(hear, hear)—and that includes this capital city of Victoria.

I desire to-night, as the representative of British Columbia in the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and on behalf of the entire population of Victoria, to extend to him and to his party the very heartiest welcome to this thriving city. I will just, politically, make one reference. Matters in British Columbia generally go with a sweep one way or the other. It is not so long ago since we had a solid seven representing British Columbia at Ottawa on the Liberal side. (The decla-

SHE WAS SURPRISED

When Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Cured her Chronic Liver Complaint

Mrs. R. Smith, of Winnipeg, Man., tells an interesting story of relief from almost intolerable sufferings:

"I can hardly tell you how great my sufferings have been. Chronic liver complaint accompanied by biliousness were a daily source of trial to me. Every day I experienced the sickening effects of these ailments. I longed for some medicine that should permanently drive them away.

Hearing of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, I thought they were worthy of a trial. My surprise was indeed great. From the very first I experienced relief. Continuing with them I found my troubles were slowly but surely leaving me, and before long I once more knew what it was to be free from the harassing effects of the ailments that had long sickened and weakened me. So great is my faith in Dr. Morse's Indian Pills that I shall never on any account be without them."

"Iced" Tea How to Make It

Use about one-quarter more of the dry leaf than you would when making tea to be served hot. Pour on boiling water and allow tea to steep five minutes (all the good can be extracted in that time). Pour off the tea into another vessel and allow it to cool gradually.

Don'ts

Don't pour hot tea on ice. If you do its delicious flavor will be dissipated. Don't put hot tea in the refrigerator to cool. If you do it will spoil in short order. Iced tea should be made two hours before serving, to give it time to gradually cool.

Ask your grocer for "Salada" Tea or send for a free trial package. We mail it without charge. Say whether you use Black, Mixed or Green Tea and the price you pay per pound.

WHALE IN ANSWER TO INDIANS PRAYERS

Klawocks Have Glorious Potlatch at Expense of Alaskan Whaling Company

The miracle of the ravens feeding the prophet Elijah, as told in the Bible, recently was surpassed among the Klawock tribe of Indians, residing on the West Coast of Prince of Wales Island, when an immense sulphur bottom whale was supplied from the depths of the sea to fill the dire want of the Indians, who had been hunting for a potlatch which long had lived in the minds of the tribe.

The arrival in Seattle recently of Capt. William E. Abernethy with the Fresno, bringing oil and guano from the Tye station in Southeastern Alaska, brought the first news of the so-called miracle among the Klawocks. According to the whalers the Lisias Sorenson, a former cod fisher from Seattle, but now converted into a whaler, had been out from the station only a few hours when she landed her hook on a monster sulphur bottom whale more than seventy-five feet in length.

A few nights before this wonderful battle of man and beast, death had stolen in to the settlement of the Klawock tribe and claimed the enfeebled body of the ancient chief of the tribe, known among the sacerdotal whites as Toothless Thomas. Far past the age of 90 years, the old chief had, in the latter years of his life, bestowed much of his worldly goods on the various members of the family, and his death found little wealth to furnish the funeral feast or potlatch. The sorrow in the community over his death was only equalled by the regret that there would be no feast for the ancient tribe leader.

Finally the old widow of the chief invoked the aid of the medicine man and the next morning the tribe was astonished to see lying high on the beach a dead sulphur whale. Their rejoicings and the glorious potlatch which followed were the greatest in the history of the Klawock tribe. In the midst of the feast on whale blubber, the occasion was somewhat marred by the approach of white men in a boat who claimed that the whale belonged to them.

Later Superintendent William Walker, of the Tye station, who Capt. Abernethy went to the Indian village and represented themselves as United States officers. They were unable to secure the whale, but a short time before the Fresno left for Seattle, the medicine man is said to have seized the harpoon, worth about $100, to the station.

Vatican Denies Statements Attributed to Cardinal Merry del Val

Rome, Aug. 19.—The Vatican has kept busy issuing denials of statements given out by Premier Canalejas and his supporters with reference to the controversy between church and state. These denials take the form of articles printed in the Vatican organs.

Madrid, Aug. 19.—The government has ordered the prosecution of Chaplain Gillin, of the chapel royal, for a seditious sermon recently preached by him, in which he called Premier Canalejas "a little Clemenceau."

FIGHT PICTURES COMING

Pantages Theatre to Present the Great Fitzsimmons-Lang Battle Next Week

The recent fight in Australia between Fitzsimmons and Lang is said to have been one of the fastest and most scientific in the history of the ring, and the fact that Billy Lang is the next probable opponent of Johnson in the minds of experts, the only man having a ghost of a show-coupled to the further fact of Bob Fitzsimmons having been the greatest fighter the world has ever known and the most popular of pugilists, now appearing to public, the announcement that the motion pictures of this, his last great battle, in which he lost the Australian title to Lang, will be shown at the Pantages all next week should meet the approval of all admirers of sport.

The pictures run about fifty minutes and are said to be the best fight pictures ever exhibited in point of action and photography.

TWO VESSELS WRECKED ON SAME EVENING

Wynnstay and Kynance Both Expected to Be Total Loss

Details of the loss of the British ships Wynnstay and Kynance, both well known at this and Sound ports, have been received in late cable advices. Both vessels were wrecked off the coast of South America during a storm which raged July 26th. The crew of the Kynance was saved and most of the crew of the Wynnstay.

The British ship Wynnstay, which has twice loaded grain at Tacoma or Europe, went ashore on Serrano Island at the entrance to the harbor of Iquique July 26th at 8 p. m. After striking, the ship sank in 20 feet of water. J. Lewis, her steward, was drowned, and in the latest advices four other members of the crew are missing.

With general cargo the Wynnstay sailed from Swansea April 28th. Both ship and cargo are a total loss. She was last in Tacoma in October, 1902, when she loaded grain for the United Kingdom for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., leaving out October 29th. At that time she was commanded by Capt. E. Jones. She was built at Glasgow in 1884 by Russell & Co., and was owned by W. Thomas, Sons & Co. She was an iron ship of 1,572 net tons and was commanded by Capt. T. Williams.

The Kynance went ashore eight miles from Tocopilla on the same evening that the Wynnstay was wrecked. She went down in 14 feet of water laden with coal and other cargo. The latest advices from Tocopilla state that the vessel will be a loss, though much of her tackle gear can be salvaged and a part of her cargo. Her entire crew was saved.

The Kynance was en route from Valparaiso to Antofagasta. At the time she was wrecked it was thought that the Italian ship Cavalier Lauro was also wrecked, but she later arrived at Tocopilla undamaged.

On her last visit to the Sound the Kynance loaded lumber cargo at Bellingham for Australia in October, 1908. The latest advices from the West steamer Gymeric, which was ashore near Colombo, state that the steamer was extensively damaged. The Salvage Association's surveyor at Colombo reported as follows to Lloyd's:

Colombo, Aug. 1.—Gymeric's bottom has sustained extensive damage; 142 floor frames intercostals, keelson badly buckled; tunnels and pedestal part rebuilt; 108 reverse frames bent; two and four bulkheads buckled, must be rebuilt; side stringer indented 11 places; 71 deck plates, five deck beams indented; 112 damaged pillars; all bulwarks and stanchions damaged; stern frame heel bent and other miscellaneous damage; four lengths of shafting bent.

The Gymeric, Capt. Hall, which is well known at this port, went ashore on Komari Point May 16th while en route from the Orient to New York with a valuable cargo of freight. At the time she was ashore, Andrew Weir, her owner, was in Tacoma on a business trip, and Mr. Weir stated that the cargo, valued at considerably more than $100,000,

The FREE COUPON Buys Your Family Dessert

Take the Coupon below to your grocer and get a package of our latest and greatest creation—Mooney's Sugar Wafers—Canada's finest delicacy—absolutely free. We will pay your grocer the full retail price of this delicious dessert.

So confident are we that you will be delighted with our latest confection—Mooney's Sugar Wafers—that we are willing to pay for the first package. When you taste them once, you'll buy them often. Never before has such a delicious dessert graced your table—never before has such an appetizing and toothsome delicacy been offered you. Mooney's Sugar Wafers are the last word—the best word in the bakers' art. Years of experiment—of unexcelled reputation—are back of this biscuit. Yet they cost no more than common kinds.

Mooney's Sugar Wafers are created by Canada's master bakers—of the finest and costliest materials—in an airy, sunlit, sanitary factory.

Your Meal is Incomplete Without Mooney's Sugar Wafers

It's interesting work—this Mooney Method of biscuit making. In making Mooney Sugar Wafers we use flour that is a special blend of hard spring wheat for nourishment and soft winter wheat for flavor. The most reliable dairymen in Western Ontario supply us with the purest and sweetest butter and cream daily. We get their best, because we pay top prices. We could pay a third less for these ingredients, but we couldn't keep the Mooney high quality standard intact. This would be poor economy—you know this.

When you get your first package of Mooney's Sugar Wafers you'll observe how crispy and flaky the double layers are—how snappy and enticing the exquisite cream between the layers is. Each wafer is a delicious sweetmeat sandwich that fairly melts in your mouth.

Mooney's Sugar Wafers are made in the largest and brightest bakery in Canada. Here we have over 200 trained employees—640 windows—3 miles of floor space. The single special equipment for producing Mooney's Sugar Wafers cost us over $20,000. We even ship our products in our own specially built private cars, so they are of even temperature in transit. When you open the dainty, dust and damp-proof package, the biscuits are fresh, crisp and appetizing—just as they come from the ovens. No other biscuit manufacturer in the country goes to this trouble and expense—but it's part of the Mooney Method of biscuit making. When you taste Mooney's Sugar Wafers for the first time you will know how delicious they really are. The luscious cream centers are made in many flavors—from real fruits.

Try The Taste Test On Mooney's Sugar Wafers

Today at luncheon or dinner, instead of serving the usual dessert, try Mooney's Sugar Wafers. Let their exquisite taste today, decide your desserts of the future. As an adjunct to the social hour; as a delightful accompaniment to ices or beverages—no other dessert confection will prove so charming as Mooney's Sugar Wafers.

It is no longer necessary to spend much money and hours of time making desserts that "might be good," when you can spend little money and no time for a dessert that's always good—Mooney's Sugar Wafers.

MOONEY'S SUGAR WAFERS

The Dessert Your Guests Will Like

Six years ago we gave to the Dominion a better Soda Cracker—better flavored—better made. Today Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas are the standard. Millions of good Canadians from coast to coast eat them. You have heard of biscuits—read of biscuits—eaten biscuits—but until you try Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas you don't know biscuits. They are everything that the ideal biscuit should be. Mooney on a soda cracker means "goodness."

Every year, since we started business in 1903, we have had to enlarge our factory to meet the increasing demand for Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas. A little better flour—a little richer butter—a little finer bakery—a little more care in baking—all these are details of the Mooney Method of biscuit making.

It's with this record of perfection in biscuit production that we offer what we believe is our greatest creation—Mooney's Sugar Wafers. The coupon entitles you to a package-FREE. All we ask is that you purchase a 25 cent package of Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas from your grocer. This is to insure our new dessert reaching responsible people, like yourself, who are undoubtedly already acquainted with the high standard of quality maintained by us. The first package of Mooney's Sugar Wafers is "our treat." TRY THEM TODAY.

THE MOONEY BISCUIT AND CANDY COMPANY, Ltd., STRATFORD, CANADA

Japan and India, which are awakening to new life. America and Germany are making strenuous efforts to obtain their trade; the United States greater efforts, perhaps, than any other. Shall it be said that Canada is to do nothing? No. It is our boast that we shall do more to obtain the trade of these old civilizations which are waking to new life. If we want to obtain that trade the only way to do so is to treat these men with respect, treat them as fellow-beings. Is it not, after all, in accord with the best traditions of Christianity that we should know neither race nor color but treat all nations alike. (Loud applause.)

An Honorable Arrangement.

I repeat, it would not be wise to allow these men of the Asiatic races to come here in unchecked numbers. If we allow that we would pay dearly, because the two elements not being assimilable there would be a collision. But to the honor of their governments themselves they have enforced restrictions and we depend on their honor to carry them out.

So long as we maintain that policy it seems to me we have met every reasonable desire that comes from British Columbia, as we have checked Japanese immigration far more surely than we have the Chinese by legislation. We have checked Hindu immigration more effectively by conciliation than we could by act of parliament and thus, I think, we have solved that problem in a manner which should have the support of every Canadian. (Cheers.)

Opposition Tricky.

I know that in the last election there was an anti-Asiatic cry used against my colleague Mr. Templeman. There were men who told you that if the Liberals were returned it would mean that the G. T. P. would be built by Asiatic labor, and that this province would be invaded by hordes of these men. Didn't you hear that? And didn't you see the placards calling the people to use this against the government, and the first page of one of our newspapers here was covered with advertisements professing to put the people on their guard. Two years have elapsed. The G. T. P. is nearly completed and not one Asiatic laborer has been imported to work on that road. (Applause.) As to the Asiatic hordes who were to invade our shores, we know that they are simply myths, a phantasm; never had any existence except in the imagination of those who wanted to use them as an unfair argument in an election.

A Canadian Navy.

In the addresses to which I have referred reference has been made to the creation of a Canadian navy. As I understand the addresses presented both by the city and the Liberal Association I think I can say that the policy of the government in this matter is fully appreciated by the people of Victoria. (Cheers.) Why did we adopt that policy? We adopted that policy because we think that Canada, having reached the status of a nation, with a population of seven million souls, larger than many an independent nation, has reached a stage when it behooves her to accept the full duties and responsibilities of a nation. Great Britain, up to the present, has carried alone the burden of defending her immense fabric of Empire over the world. Do you not believe that the time has come when, at last, Canada having reached the position it has, should undertake to do her share of that work and to some extent relieve the British taxpayers of the burden she has been carrying for so many years? (Cheers.)

Conservatives Divided.

In the month of March, 1909, this question came before parliament. We took it up in all its bearings. We discussed it, and, I am glad to say, an unanimous resolution was passed at that time that Canada should build a navy of her own. But in the following year, when we came to implement the resolution, there had been a change of heart on the part of the opposition. They had changed. What is the policy of the Conservative party? The Conservative party has no position on this question. They are divided—one wants one way, the other wants the other way. Mr. Monk, the leader of the Quebec Conservatives, takes one position; Mr. Borden takes another position.

Let me first discuss the position of Mr. Borden. The policy he has adopted is not that which he supported in 1909. In 1910 he argues that, instead of building a navy of our own, we should send a contribution to Great Britain, give at once to Great Britain the price of two Dreadnoughts, or something like $25,000,000. I did not adopt that policy, because it did not seem to me to be in consonance with the rights, duties and responsibilities we owe to ourselves both as individuals and as a nation.

The British Empire.

What is the British Empire? The British Empire in my humble opinion—and I am sure in yours also—is the greatest and the most astonishing fabric ever reared by the hand of man. (Cheers.) It is composed of a galaxy of young nations—Canada is a nation; Australia is a nation; New Zealand is a nation, and the last and not the least is the new nation which just had its birth the other day, South Africa. (Applause.) States which only ten years ago were at war with each other are now at peace under the British crown. If a galaxy, it follows that if these nations are to assist the Mother Country it is by taking on their own shoulders the duties and responsibilities of nations. I am reminded of an utterance in a speech of John Bright. When reviewing the career of Rome as an imperial power—and of England as an imperial power, he made use of these words which have lived in my mind for thirty years, "Rome, the mother of dead empires; England, the living mother of living nations." (Applause.) England is indeed the living mother of living nations; and it is because we are daughters and acknowledge our duties that we think the best way to help her is to develop our resources and adopt methods of defending ourselves; because every nation owes it to herself to defend herself by land and sea. (Hear, hear.)

The Disloyalty Cry.

I prefer our plan to the plan of that part of the opposition led by Mr. Borden. What is the view of the other part led by Mr. Monk, who, in the province of Quebec, says that there shall be nothing done, no navy created, no contribution of money, but that England should defend us if need be—a craven policy which, I regret, is advocated by men who once called themselves Conservatives. (Applause.)

It is stated in Quebec that we should do nothing; that our policy is fatal to autonomy. You have heard it here that our policy is leading us to separation. I have read a speech of Mr. Barnard's in which he did not hesitate to put my own loyalty under suspicion and in which he asserted that, in 1899, I had stated that at the time of the war that not one man, not one gun, should go to South Africa from Canada.

I have a newspaper extract here in which reference is made to myself by Mr. Sam Barker, of Hamilton, in an interview with the Colonist, in which he said "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given more lip-loyalty to the Empire."

Well, sir, if Sir Wilfrid Laurier has given lip-loyalty to the Empire in the opinion of Mr. Barker that is a matter for discussion and I think we can take issue on that. If Mr. Barker has that opinion I may have another opinion myself, and I think I will not be taxed with undue pride if I say that my loyalty is as good as the loyalty of Sam Barker. (Tumultuous cheering.)

Mr. Barnard's Attack.

But when it comes to the statement of fact by Mr. Barnard that, at the time of the war, I said, "not a man or a gun should go to South Africa," this is not a matter of opinion, it is a matter of fact. The fact is true or not true; and I have only to say to Mr. Barnard that I challenge him to verify this statement at any time he pleases. (Cheers.) My career is there like an open book since I first entered public life. All my words are recorded in public records and newspapers and I defy Mr. Barnard to find such words as "France." (A remarkable demonstration of approval of the Premier's challenge greeted these words.)

I am accustomed to these attacks. I have been in public life a very long time now and it is not the first time I have been attacked similarly. Mr. Barnard can find Tory newspapers in the east where he will find the same words—where I am known, in Ontario and Quebec, I never trouble myself to answer these attacks, but when I come to British Columbia where I am not known, having been here only three times in sixteen years, I owe it to myself to defend my course. (Applause.)

The Fact of the Case.

Now, what is the truth in regard to this matter of the war in South Africa? In 1899 President Kruger flung an insulting word to the British Empire; in fact he called upon the Empire to withdraw from South Africa. At once a wave of enthusiasm and indignation passed over the Empire wherever there were subjects of British blood. In the province of Quebec the majority are not of English blood; they are of French blood like myself. Blood is always thicker than water. It was natural that there should be more enthusiasm among the English-speaking people than the French, but I went alone to these people and said to them, "I know you have not the same sentiments in this matter that our English fellow-subjects have but I ask you to do for gratitude what they do from enthusiasm." In three weeks from that day our troops were on the ocean going to fight for the British crown. (Applause.)

At the present time when a new question has arisen in this matter of the creation of a navy, when this new problem comes up, the same tactics are adopted. In the English provinces I am attacked with the cry that my policy is leading to separation and in Quebec with the cry that it will lead to the loss of our autonomy and independence. The prejudices of one race are appealed to against the other.

Common Citizenship.

I stand upon the broad ground of our common citizenship, whatever may be our race or our creed. (Cheers.) I am no more afraid of these appeals in one province or another, and I know that in this case truth and justice will prevail. (Renewed cheers.)

What has happened? It has made Canada a nation, Australia a nation, New Zealand a nation and South Africa a nation. The point in the measure of autonomy, of legislative independence which has been given to us. Do you suppose that the loyalty which exists to-day in all these young nations would exist if, instead of being governed by themselves, they were governed by Downing street and the Colonial office? Now, autonomy has made these nations and it is the basis on which the British Empire rests to-day. (Applause.)

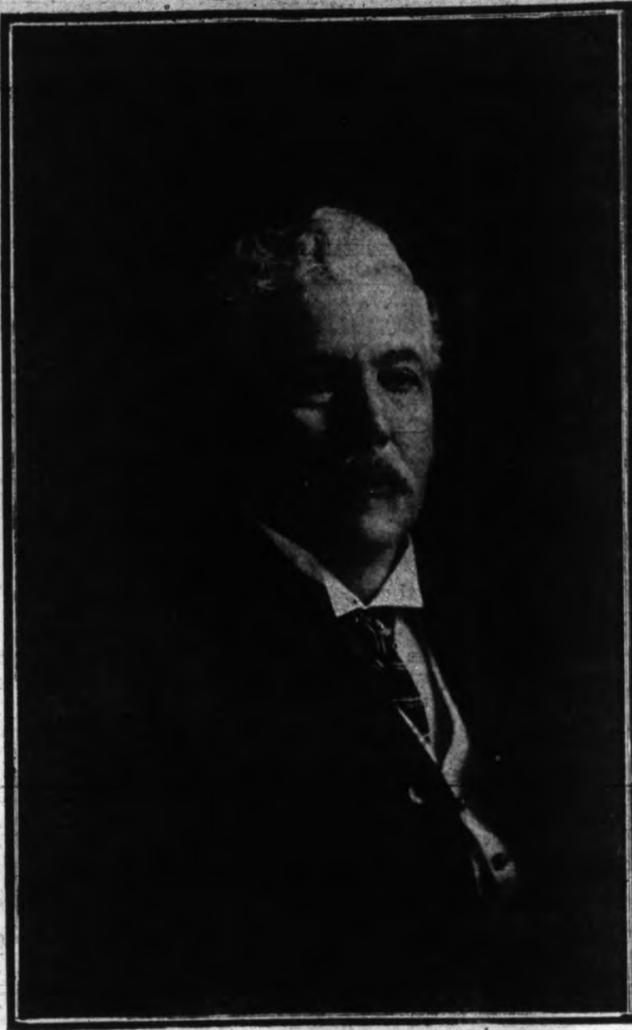

Closer Union.

The old men in this audience from Quebec and Ontario remember the struggles of those days when La Fontaine and Baldwin and William Lyon MacKenzie were asking for a form for popular government, for the constitutional rights to govern themselves, that there was the same attack that it should not be done because it would lead to separation. Every step forward was met by the extreme Tories with the cry that it would lead to separation. Instead of that it led to closer union and our policy will be followed by closer union than ever before. (Applause.)

I do not apprehend, for my part, that Great Britain can ever be in danger; Great Britain fears no foe on the face of the earth. But the time may come when Great Britain may be put on trial and, if the day ever comes, when God forbid, if it ever comes Great Britain will be assisted by the daughter nations from all parts of the earth to meet this common danger and crush it. This is the explanation of our policy. I have told you of the policy we have adopted on these two questions of Oriental rail and the navy. I beg you, my fellow-countrymen, to look upon these questions from the standpoint of the Empire and not alone of Canada or British Columbia.

Let us be true Canadians, true British subjects. Let us always see that the flag of Great Britain, whether it floats in Europe or on the Pacific or over these new nations shall always carry forward what it has always carried with it, Freedom, Justice, Emancipation and Tolerance. (Loud and prolonged cheering.)

Cheers for the premier were lustily given and Sir Wilfrid then called for three cheers for the King. The proceedings terminated with the playing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the regimental band.

HON. WILLIAM TEMPLEMAN

Minister of Mines and of Inland Revenue in the cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and British Columbia's representative in the administration.

DISCHARGED CEMENT AT POWELL RIVER

Steamer Bramley Now at Tacoma After Which She Will Load Lumber at Puget Sound

Steamer Bramley, under charter to W. R. Grace & Co., passed out yesterday, bound to Tacoma, after having discharged three thousand tons of cement at Powell river. There is a large wharf at that point, but the water is not sufficiently deep to allow of large steamers discharging easily. Some dredging will have to be done to make the mooring easy. The Bramley tied up in such a way that only one hatch could be worked at one time, and then she was backed in and the other hold emptied. The officers of the ship report that there are 600 men at work at that place, preparing it for the new pulp mill which is to be erected there. The Bramley has still in her hold 2,500 tons of nitrate of soda, which was brought from South American ports for discharge at Tacoma. When this has been cleared she will load lumber on Puget Sound for South America. Second Engineer Dodd of the Bramley dropped off her for the purpose of trying to secure a first-class certificate, but the marine department officials being busy were unable to conduct the necessary examination until September. Mr. Dodd will go to Tacoma on the ferry boat to-night, and will take his examination when he returns to England.

A GLIMPSE OF THE PREMIER.

DEPARTURE DELAYED.

Crippen and Mile. Leneve Are Still Held at Quebec.

(Special to the Times.)

Quebec, Aug. 19.—Crippen and Mile. Leneve are still here, fretting under the delay in the arrangements for their departure. No one knows the reason for it outside of Inspector. Dow, and the attorney-general and they do not talk. Autos are kept in constant readiness near the corner of Maple avenue and Grande alley, each party having some friend among the staff of the St. George's boarding house, where Inspector Dew's party are all stopping and every train is being watched.

There are upwards of fifty thousand earthworms in every acre of ordinary agricultural land.

DYNAMITE WRECKS RAILWAY CARS

(Times Leased Wire.) Spokane, Wash., Aug. 19.—Great Northern train No. 44, Seattle to Kansas City, was wrecked by dynamite one mile west of Nippon, Wash., near the summit of the Cascades, at 2 o'clock this morning. The train was rocked but not derailed, although nineteen windows were blown out and the wood-work splintered. Conductor Corcoran was in charge of the train. The diner and one Pullman which contained about 15 passengers, were the cars damaged. It is not known whether the explosion was the result of an accident, or whether it was a premeditated attempt on the part of train-wreckers to derail the mail train.

BOURASSA ON CANADA'S FUTURE.

Antigonish, N. S., Aug. 18.—Henry Bourassa, M. P., the Nationalist leader of Quebec, to-day spoke on the annexation of Canada to the United States in an address before the summer school of science of the Father Xavier college. In his speech he said that Canada had three possible destinies. First, that of remaining in the position in which she is at present. This, he said, would be impossible. The second destiny, he said, could be an imperial federation, and the third was "annexation to the United States and independence. The penetrative influence of trade by rail and coastal lines, the mental propensity of the two peoples living under the same or similar conditions, industrial and social, the constant intercommunication of Canadians and Americans, are all powerful factors making for annexation."

PARIS TO LONDON FLIGHT.

Upchurch, Eng., Aug. 19.—John Moisant completed the repairs to his aeroplane to-day and said that he hoped to complete his flight from Paris to London this evening. A stiff breeze delayed his departure after the machine had been made ready for the flight.

MORE TROUBLE FEARED.

London, Ont., Aug. 19.—Far from being satisfied with the treatment they have received, Grand Trunk railway trainmen here have appealed to the international executive, and the opinion is freely expressed that there will be more trouble.

FIVE HUNDRED IDLE.

Employers Lockout Bricklayers and Masons at Winnipeg.

(Special to the Times.) Winnipeg, Aug. 19.—Union bricklayers and masons employed by the Loyal-Mitchell company failed to respond when the call for them was given at 7 o'clock this morning and a lock-out arranged by employers went into effect at noon. The masters held a meeting, when reports were received and it was decided to go ahead with the lock-out.

The secretary of the Builders Exchange says that about 500 men are affected by the employers' orders. All firms in the building trades are not affiliated with the exchange, but most of the big concerns are actively connected with it.

The men did not expect the lock-out to be put in force, but they say they are not alarmed at the outlook. It means practically a tie up on big jobs. With bricklayers and masons idle other trades will find it difficult to go on.

—David Cochenour, who is employed at the B. C. Soap Works, fell from his wheel on Belleville street this morning. His head came in contact with the pavement and he was rendered unconscious. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital where he speedily recovered.

—A meeting of the B. C. A. A. will be held this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Blanchard St. Arrangements will be made for the coming championships to be held on September 28th. Other general business will be transacted and a full attendance is requested.

—Antonio Nepco, a Roumanian, charged in the police court with discharging a revolver in his cabin on Herald street, was acquitted this morning, having pleaded justification. Two men named Mitchell and Stewart are alleged to have made an attempt to break into Nepco's cabin. They are in jail and will be brought before the court to-morrow. Richard Lowe appeared for Nepco this morning.

—The members of the visiting press party with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the members of the British Columbia legislative gallery, were yesterday afternoon the guests of Premier McBride, hon. president of the legislative press gallery of British Columbia, at an automobile drive over the completed portion of the M.W. Bay road. On the return to town the party met Sir Wilfrid at the press quarters in the government buildings, and were entertained by Hon. Mr. McBride prior to the departure of the eastern pressmen last night.

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of the late Albert Edward Perkin takes place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Victoria Undertaking Parlors, Yates street. Rev. H. A. Carson will conduct the services and the remains will be interred in Ross Bay cemetery.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late George Anderson took place from the Hanna parlors at 2 o'clock. Many friends attended the services at the chapel, which were conducted by Rev. Mr. Wenning. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The pall-bearers were as follows: S. P. Gardner, James Jamieson, N. K. Wilson, T. Anderson, G. H. Hardy and J. M. Hughes.

South African battlefields fighting for the Mother Country. That was in 1900. In 1897, before the other colonies moved in the matter the great Canadian proposed British Preference, giving tariff preference to the Mother Country.

Canada's assuming of the responsibility of defense was not heard of until Sir Wilfrid Laurier's term of office. We hear from the Opposition that it is a tinpot war and in Quebec even some say Sir Wilfrid is bartering away the rights of the people, and that the people are being misled. They say Australia is doing something different. Let me tell you that Canada and Australia stand in exactly the same position. There is this difference, however: Australia has gone to Great Britain for her ships. They will be built in British ship-yards, while Canada will do her ship-building at home. (Prolonged cheer).

The navy will go to the assistance of the Mother Country should she need assistance. (Hear, hear).

Sir Wilfrid believes that English ship-building firms will establish ship-building yards on both the Atlantic and Pacific shores of the Dominion where the ships of the Canadian navy will be built. There is no wonder he gets a reception worthy of his great career. Even the shrewd Conservatives realize that Sir Wilfrid is the echo of the true sentiment of Canada. (Cheers).

HON. G. P. GRAHAM

"We of the east have much to learn from the west," commenced Hon. G. P. Graham, "and likewise, from what I see, the west has much to learn from the east. Kipling says 'east is east and west is west,' but there is here no east and no west, but all are Canadians and British subjects. I can but re-echo appreciation of the wonderful reception which you have given to the prime minister, not only by the people but by the people led by the government of the province. I thank you heartily for doing honor to the man whom we all delight to honor."

Mr. Graham referred to the fact that the committee had chosen for their motto, Peace, Progress and Prosperity. In no land was the last of these in more active operation than in the Dominion of Canada. He asked to be allowed to express in concrete form some illustrations of the progress the country had made. He would not apologize for talking business when so many ladies were present, because he knew that at some time every young lady expected to have some man talk business to her.

Mr. Graham then gave some comparative figures to show the progress that had been made in every line since the year 1896, the time when the Liberal government came into power. In 1896 the products of the country were valued at $239,000,000, in 1910 it was $622,000,000. In detail this showed the following increases:

1896	$ 8,401,000
1910	$40,530,000
Fisheries.
1896	$11,000,000
1910	$36,560,000
Forests.
1896	$27,324,000
1910	$47,658,000
Animals.
1896	$37,404,000
1910	$54,932,000
Agriculture.
1896	$8 37,404,000
1910	$102,347,000
Manufactures.
1896	$10,200,000
1910	$35,953,000

There was no comparative statement of the exports available, but the purchases were an indication of the wealth of the country, and these showed that the western provinces were eight times as rich as they were in 1896, for in that year they spent only $8,400,000, whereas this year they were spending $64,869,000.

There were increases all along the line as the following figures indicated: In post office.....37 per cent. Money and postal order.....67 per cent.

Post office savings banks...46 per cent. Letters carried.....257 per cent. Articles carried.....206 per cent. Money through post office...241 per cent. In 1896 there were 23,716 people came to settle in the country, but last year there were 208,794 people. The number of homesteads taken up in 1896 was 1,337, last year the number was 41,268. The western provinces had now two million acres more under cultivation than they had in 1896. The freights carried by rail in 1896 were worth $24,000,000, while last year they were valued at $66,842,258. The bank deposits in 1896 were $194,000,000, in May last they were $861,000,000.

There was no effect without a cause, but they were told that a bountiful Providence caused all the progress and prosperity. True, they owed a great deal to Providence, but there was the same Providence in 1897 that there was in 1910. There was the same raw material in the country. Some ascribed it to the luck star under which the prime minister was born. While he did not himself believe in luck, if his hearers did, Sir Wilfrid's was a good star under which to live and they should stick to it.

Continuing, the minister of railways said that governments could do much. There was so much in the way affairs were managed that a wise or unwise policy could make or unmake nations. The government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier had reorganized the tariff after consulting with the people, and the result was that they were able to spend millions for the benefit of the country and still have millions left. Anyone who travelled through all the provinces of Canada and landed in British Columbia, and listened to an average of five deputations, must arrive at the conclusion that it was not an easy matter to govern a country. One deputation would ask for a reduction of the tariff, and the same day another deputation would protest against any reduction, and suggest that in some respects it might be increased. Some asked for immigration restriction, while another asked that the restrictions be removed. The building of a nation was not an easy task. The tariff had been grappled with by the government when it came into power, and some items put on the free list, while the duty on others had been reduced. The effect of the reductions was totally different from what was predicted. Every industry in the country was today fairly prosperous.

Germany, one of the greatest nations of to-day, did not treat Canada as Canadians thought she should be treated. A treaty between Great Britain and Germany was at the instance of the Canadian government abrogated in order that Canada might get her rights. Canada imposed a surtax upon German goods and kept it there until that great nation came and asked to have it removed.

The present government showed appreciation of what Great Britain had done for the country. They did not admire a young man who showed no appreciation of what his parents had done for him until he got something more from them. Canada said she would not wait for her mother to buy her favor, but set an object lesson by allowing the goods from that country to pay 33 per cent. less duty than from any other country. Great Britain between Sir John's death and the time the Liberals came into office this number had increased to only 1,800. Last year the number taken up was 41,000. It was the progressive policy of the government which had helped materially in bringing about this result.

In the matter of transportation Sir John Macdonald had a vision. No one denied the wisdom of the construction of the C. P. R. even if they did object to the methods of carrying it out. All the credit for this was due to Sir John A. Macdonald. He advised his hearers to consult the records and find out how much railway construction had been carried out between the time of Sir John's death and the time the party went out of power. It was useless to bring people into the country unless they were ready to build railways for them.

When the Grand Trunk Pacific railway is completed there would be 27,000 miles of railway in the country. Compared with other countries this was the greatest mileage per head, but compared with the amount of territory, it was the smallest. Those who lived in the towns where everyone wanted a sidewalk to his house, especially if he happened to be an alderman, recognized the importance of transportation. The great length and breadth of Canada had to be opened up. They had already spent $400,000,000 on railways and yet they were still on the fringe of the country. Had they not built the national Transcontinental railway they could have paid off the national debt. This had been increased from 60,000,000 to 72,000,000, the amount which that railway was expected to cost.

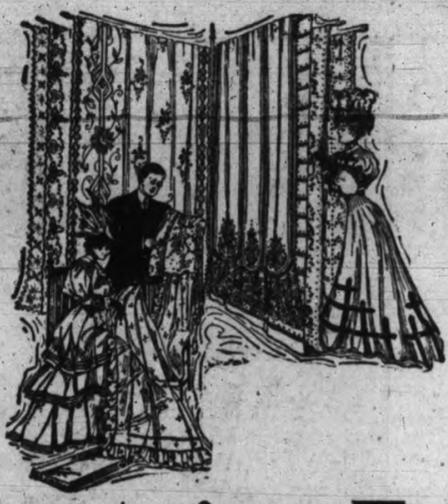

Sometimes the farmers complained of the giving of aid to railways, but it was a fact that of all the money spent in that way eighty per cent of it was for the benefit of the tillers of the soil. The government which helped build railways was developing the country.

He told of a man in a town in Ontario who gave it as his opinion that the time for aiding railways had passed. That man was living in a town where from ten to fifteen trains a day ran in and out and mail was delivered at his door. He told him that he had no right to object to spending money on railways until every man in the country had just as good facilities as he. He believed in bringing in people as rapidly as possible, and then providing transportation facilities for them.

Mr. Graham then referred to the action of the government in the establishment of a labor bureau. This under the able management of William Lyon Mackenzie King had, since its inception, saved much money to the country in the settlement of strikes. Mr. King had recently settled the Grand Trunk strike and the men were again back to work.

Now the government were entering upon a new line of work. They recognized that Germany was the centre of industry, and that her success in this respect was due largely to her admirable system of technical schools. The government of Canada was anxious that Canadians should have as good opportunities as Germans in this respect. The matter of education was one for the provinces to take up, but the provinces had agreed to the appointment of a commission of practical men, one of whom was a non-might give Canada anything she liked, but Canada had given first. Some free traders said that they should give this rebate to all countries, as it was the higher rate that would rule the prices. This was not correct, for the goods obtained from the Mother Land prevailed, as all had to sell in the same market.

When the Liberal government came to power they went to Washington and were given a number of good dinners, but the principal joint served was "cold shoulder." The result of this was that they went in search of other markets, and to day they were trading with the Mother Land. They were willing to do business with anyone that would reciprocate. Unless Uncle Sam was willing to give a quid pro quo there would be no treaty. He was always on the look out for number one, and he felt sure the people of this country would be willing to back up the government that would do the same for Canada.

Speaking of immigration, Mr. Graham said that every acre tilled meant something to everyone. British Columbia reaped some of the benefit from the crops raised on the prairies. They were able to sell the excellent fruit which he saw raised in this province in exchange for wheat. If the government sat still and the prairie provinces remained aparently settled this market would not be available.

Sir John Macdonald had done something towards settling up the country. In 1878 there were 1,700 homesteads taken up and by 1896, during the time line of the Trades and Labor Council of Toronto, to examine into the conditions of technical education in every part of the world. When they reported, the information they gathered would be placed in the hands of the provinces, and this would be a guide to them in the inauguration of a system of technical education.

In conclusion Mr. Graham appealed particularly to the young men of the country to take part in public affairs, to help in the development of the country, and to follow in the steps of the fathers of confederation in working for the good of this great Dominion.

LIBERAL ADDRESS

Lieut.-Col. Currie, in a clear and distinct voice, read the following address from the Liberals of Vancouver Island: To the Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier, P. C., G. C. M. G., Prime Minister of Canada.

Right Honorable Sir.—On behalf of the Liberals of Vancouver Island, we extend to you, our distinguished chief, a most cordial welcome. Many of us recall your first visit to this city, in the preliminary to the great triumph of 1896, and since that time have followed with undiminished personal interest your brilliant record of statesmanship. We have beheld the evolution of our country from a comparatively obscure colony into a prosperous and resourceful nation within the Empire. With unbounded satisfaction we have contemplated the grebbing of our trade and revenues, the remarkable improvement of our industrial conditions and the tremendous growth of our immigration. You, Sir Wilfrid, and your government, to a large extent, have been the inspiration of that progress, to which the people of Canada have abundantly testified by repeatedly sustaining you at the polls. May we refer, for the moment, to what we regard as the outstanding features of your administration during the last fourteen years.

In the numerous trade negotiations and adjustments of the tariff to which your government has addressed itself, the most important and significant achievement was the British Preference. This was an impressive act of statesmanship, being the first practical step towards the trade consolidation of the Empire. It is gratifying to recall that in this great movement Canada led the way, her example being followed by the other colonies. We also wish to emphasize our satisfaction at the enlarged powers now enjoyed by Canada in her treaty negotiations, as exemplified in the French Treaty and the conventions with the United States.

We in British Columbia share with our friends in the east the incalculable benefits of your Northwest policy. To this source is due the prosperity that Pacific province enjoys. It stimulated our lumbering, created our fruit-growing industry and promoted settlement which constantly is increasing. It gave Canada, as a whole, a status in the world never previously attained. Since the Northwest policy was inaugurated immigration and grain production have increased ten-fold, the value of the crop now being estimated in terms of hundreds of millions. The million Canadians who left our country during the regime of your predecessors have been more than regained; and, notwithstanding all this, we realize that this great Canadian west is merely at the beginning of its progress and prosperity.

Reference to the immigration which followed the adoption of your Northwest policy suggests a question in which British Columbians were intimately concerned—the difficult problem of Oriental immigration. Your attitude on this vexatious subject protected the interests of our province and expressed your appreciation of the Imperial considerations involved. We are pleased to assure you that the immigration which caused complaint has practically ceased, and we desire to congratulate you upon attaining that object without arousing international ill-will and with the entire approbation of the Imperial authorities.

Your name will be inseparably linked with the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, which is rapidly nearing completion. Already many towns, full of the promise of metropolitan growth, have risen along the route, and the fertile valleys the road will traverse are daily feeling the quaking impulse of settlement. Another feature of your railway policy in the West was your encouragement of the Crow's Nest Pass line, which wholly altered the outlook in southern British Columbia. These great systems, and your generous subsidies for railway construction in our province, afford evidence of your appreciation of the great outstanding need of the western country.

In many respects, the naval policy of your government is the most momentous feature of this country's political history since confederation. It is the unmistakable sign of Canada's development into the position of full partner in the Empire. We in British Columbia, with many thousand miles of coast-line requiring protection, appreciate the importance of naval defence. Moreover, we have a sentimental attachment to the navy because our harbor at Esquimalt has been a naval base, and we are more than pleased that the day is at hand when ships-of-war will be anchored there again. Your policy reflects your faith in the loyalty, capacity and zeal of the Canadian people, and your realization of the truth that in no way can the Empire endure except in the development of its component parts.

We desire to refer to a feature of your record which has won the admiration of all Canadians, irrespective of politics. This is your noble work of cementing more firmly together the various races of Canada, in the common resolution to make their country worthy of the high place it is destined to fill in the world. Time does not permit us to deal with the many other accomplishments of your government, such as, for instance, the creation of the railway commission, commission on conservation of natural resources, the department of labor, the department of mines with a British Columbian as its first minister; or with the generous treatment accorded our province in respect of public buildings, harbor improvements and the protection of shipping on our coast.

It gives us pleasure to extend a hearty welcome to your able colleague, the Honorable George Graham, minister of railways and canals, whose administration of his department has won wide-spread admiration; and to the other members of your party, who, we know, are profoundly impressed with the progress and prosperity of the Canadian West.

In conclusion, permit us to congratulate you upon your continued excellent health and vigor, notwithstanding the constant demands upon your time and energy, and to express the earnest hope that you may be spared for many years to discharge the important duties devolving upon the first minister of Canada.

Signed on behalf of the Liberals of Vancouver Island.

GARDEN PARTY WAS BRILLIANT

GAY SCENE ON LAWNS OF GOVERNMENT HOUSE

Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Paterson Hosts at Smart Function in Honor of Sir Wilfrid

The most brilliant and fashionable social event of the present season was the garden party and reception held yesterday afternoon at Government House by His Honor, the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, and Mrs. Paterson, in honor of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

For weeks the event, the first large public function given by His Honor and Mrs. Paterson, had been eagerly looked forward to in social circles and when the day finally arrived it proved to be an ideal one. "A regular Victoria day," as old-timers said.

The invitations read: "From three to five" and shortly after the hour appointed hundreds of carriages, automobiles, and taxis were lined up in front of the east entrance, while the beautiful grounds were gay as a kaleidoscope picture with smartly gowned ladies and a goodly sprinkling of gentlemen, among whom the gay scarlet and blue and gold of the military men lent a vivid touch of color.

Many of the Victoria ladies had taken with them visiting friends from across the border. The extremely smart toilettes of the latter were very much admired.

The brilliant sunshine and delightfully warm afternoon combined to make the occasion a thoroughly enjoyable one, and gay laughing groups wandered at will under the grand old trees, over the lawns and through the shrubberies, or inspected the ground floor of Government House, which was handsomely decorated and thrown open.

Refreshments were served from a large marquee, decorated with quantities of sweet peas. The Fifth Regiment band, stationed on the lower lawn, furnished a splendid programme throughout the entire afternoon.

His Honor and Mrs. Paterson received together, standing to the right of the avenue, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the guest of honor, did not receive formally, but chatted pleasantly with all who approached him.

Mrs. Paterson wore a very rich and becoming white gown of silk lace heavily embroidered, and hat en suite.

Among other gowns noticed were: Mrs. Richard McBride—Persian silk in mauve shades, with tunic over dress of reseda, green chiffon, and picture hat.

NEW LICENSE BY-LAW SOON

WILL BE CONSIDERED ON MONDAY NEXT

Some of Important Clauses in the Measure Prepared by City Solicitor McDiarmid

F. H. McDiarmid, city solicitor, has prepared a new by-law to take the place of all measures previously enacted by the city council for the regulation of licensed premises and of applications for liquor licenses and their issue. This important by-law which was introduced at last evening's meeting of the board and held over for consideration on Monday evening next read in part as follows:

"All applications for a license, or a renewal or transfer of a retail license shall be required by the board by seven days' notice in writing to the applicant, to be accompanied by a plan of the premises.

"No change in any part of the building shall be made in any licensed premises at any time without a permit from the board.

"No card playing, dicing, lottery, raffle, sweepstake or sale of lottery, raffle or sweepstake tickets shall be permitted in or upon said licensed premises.

"No gambling of any description, whether with or without the use of any machine or other device shall be permitted in or upon said licensed premises.

"All licensed premises for the sale of liquor by retail shall be situated upon the ground floor, the front of which shall be so that a clear view can be had of the interior of the saloon and billiard room, if any, from without, during prohibited hours, and shall be so lighted as to make this possible. All existing licensed premises aforesaid shall, immediately, make the necessary alterations to conform with this regulation.

"No person obviously under the influence of liquor shall be permitted to remain in saloons or restaurants or in the bar-room of a hotel, and no female customer shall be permitted to come upon or remain in saloons or bar-rooms.

"Any female supplied with drink or drinking shall be deemed a customer.

"Each such licensee shall authorize the licensee to sell spirituous or other liquors according to the terms and conditions thereof only, and only upon the days not being Christmas day or being a day fixed for the holding of any election for mayor and aldermen for the city of Victoria and during the hours as set by the city council.

"Any licensee who sells or suffers or permits to be sold on his premises any spirituous or fermented liquor on any of the above days or during any of the hours not above enumerated shall be deemed to have sold such liquor without a license.

"Every holder of a license for the sale of liquor shall permit entry upon the licensed premises at all times when anyone is upon the premises, of any appointed officer of the corporation, police officer, or constable in order to enable him to ascertain whether the regulations governing the licensed premises are obeyed, and no person shall refuse entry or obstruct any such officer or constable in so entering.

"Holders of existing licenses for the sale of liquor under the following headings shall conform to the regulations in this and the following sections, respectively applicable, and otherwise shall observe the same.

"Any person guilty of a breach of any provision contained in this by-law (where no other penalty is prescribed by law for the special offence) shall on conviction forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

"In addition to and not in substitution for the penalties set out in the next preceding subsection any person, who shall have on two occasions been convicted of any infraction of this by-law, whether for the same offence or same class or kind of offence or not, shall on report thereof by the chief of police to the board lose his license to sell liquor and the board shall not renew or grant the said license to the said party so convicted or to any one on his or her behalf."

ALD. SCHULTZ STILL MEMBER OF COUNCIL

Resolution Passed at North Vancouver Asking Him to Reconsider Resignation

North Vancouver, Aug. 18. — The grades were again in the limelight at the city council meeting, when the promised letter of Ald. Schultz came to hand. A week ago the council was in receipt of a telegram from Ald. Schultz tendering his resignation and stating that letter followed. A letter was read from him at the last meeting, but there was nothing to be gathered from its contents to indicate any connection with the telegram, neither was a definite resignation over the writer's name to be found.

Ald. Schultz said in his communication that he was loath to express an opinion on the mayor's attitude in silencing the audience while the business of the city was being transacted. He further claimed that the mayor had listened to the voice of a ratepayers' meeting in opposition to the wish of the majority of the council. Ald. Schultz did not agree with the appointment of a ratepayers' committee.

The mayor asserted that Ald. Schultz voted for the by-law for the establishment of the grades and the law says that the by-law shall be registered. Ald. Irwin moved that the resignation be not received and that he be asked to reconsider it. Ald. Smith seconded the motion. Ald. Irwin said he appreciated the good work that Ald. Schultz had been instrumental in introducing in the nature of school sites and parks and being so near the end of the term he thought it would be advisable to ask him to remain on.

The mayor asked if there was anything in the letter bearing the form of a resignation. The clerk answered in the negative. "Well, the resignation is not in," declared His Worship.

Ald. Irwin thought it could be taken in connection with the telegram. "That might have been a joke played on Ald. Schultz," asserted the mayor.

Ald. Fowler said if Ald. Schultz resigned on the matter of grades it was up to Ald. Irwin, Smith and himself to resign also, but he could not see the object of this and it was his opinion that Ald. Schultz should finish out his term of office. The motion of Ald. Irwin and Smith was then put and passed unanimously.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

And Muscular Rheumatism Disappeared When the Nerves Were Restored by DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Feeble, wasted, starved nerves often make their condition known by nervous headaches. This is one of the first and most marked symptoms.

If you are at all subject to rheumatism you have noticed how much worse it gets when the system gets run down.

Both nervous headache and muscular rheumatism disappear when Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is used to rebuild and revitalize the wasted and weakened body.

Mr. James Riley, moulder for the Waterloo Engine Co., 46 Jarvis St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "I suffered for years with muscular rheumatism and as I also had frequent and severe attacks of nervous headache I concluded that the trouble came from the nerves and began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. As I continued this treatment the rheumatism was gradually driven out of the system, my nerves got stronger and steadier and the headaches disappeared. I consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a splendid nerve regulator and health builder."

You cannot possibly make a mistake in using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, when the nervous system gets run down, for by forming new, rich blood this great food curbs builds up the nerve cells as nothing else can.

When you have made up your mind to test this treatment, go at it in earnest and keep at it regularly until you feel again the joy of health and vigor.

STRENGTHENING GARRISON.
 MARCH, Aug. 19.—Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson yesterday announced that he had authorized the formation of the department of Honolulu and the establishment of a considerable military detail in the Hawaiian Islands. The department will include two regiments of infantry, one of cavalry, one of field artillery and six companies of coast artillery.

PLAY THAT MADE STATESMEN ACT

WINSTON CHURCHILL'S PRISON REFORM SCHEME

Solitary Confinement and Other Horrors Pilloried by J. Galsworthy in "Justice"

The extraordinary influence which the stage and the writer of plays can exert has just been shown in a remarkable fashion, says Public Opinion, John Galsworthy's dramatic and intense play, "Justice," in which he pilloried the sentence to solitary confinement and other horrors of the prison system, is to be followed by action equally dramatic on the part of Winston Churchill, who, as home secretary, is responsible for our prison system. This will revolutionize that system. Cause and effect in this case are freely admitted by Mr. Churchill.

What Mr. Churchill proposes to do is thus summarized by the Nation: "He proposes to check imprisonment for the non-payment of fine—this punishment fell on 90,000 persons last year—by giving time for payment.

"To abolish mere imprisonment for youths between 16 and 21 and substitute a curative and reforming element and to introduce a system of defaulters' drill outside the prison; to cut down separate confinement for all but recidivists from three months to one month.

"To supply some educational food to prisoners in the way of quarterly lectures; to relieve political offenders of degrading conditions.

"To do away with the ticket-of-leave system; and to place convicts on license under the supervision of a central agency, drawn from officials and representatives of Prisoners' Aid Societies.

"Incidentally, Mr. Churchill made some grave admissions as to the effects of the Preventive Detention Act, and the necessity for 'scrutinizing' its work. Finally, in an eloquent passage, he exhorted his hearers to a tireless effort towards the discovery of some regenerating process, and an unflinching faith that there is a treasure, if you could only find it, in the heart of every man."

"Mr. Churchill's statement was made at the close of a debate on the report of the home office vote," says the Morning Post. "Some of the changes it proposed in the treatment of prisoners are to come into force at once, others are to be the subject of future legislation. "The suggested changes to be submitted for parliamentary sanction include: "The granting of time to every person of fixed abode in which to pay any fine inflicted.

"The substitution for prison in the case of young men between the ages of 16 and 21, whose offences are not serious and who are not incorrigible, of a system of 'defaulters' drill."

"The reduction of the maximum period of imprisonment in such cases to three years except in very serious offences."

Mr. Galsworthy's Praise. All these things Mr. Galsworthy characterises as "the soundest effort at reform made in our time."

"The whole scheme of reform contemplated," he writes in the London Times, "an attempt, such as we have not seen in our time, to diminish criminality, and the waste and suffering entailed by criminality. It stamps the administrators responsible for it with the hall-mark of foresight. In connection with the Borstal system, and probation, it is the beginning of a new state of things.

"These changes are one and all inspired by imagination, without which reform is dead, and by common sense.

"These reforms are not humanitarian and over-lenient, they are merely sensible, and ten years hence will be regarded as part of the A B C of our system.

"The home secretary is now laying down the principle that the young shall not be punished except for their good; and it will be the most astonishing thing in the world if that principle is not generally accepted with acclamation. The proposition that no youth shall be sent to prison for less than a month, moreover, deals a wholly admirable blow to the grave evil of the happy-go-lucky three-day, six-day, ten-day term of imprisonment, that perfect day term of imprisonment, that perfect incubator of the criminal germ. When these proposals for dealing with youthful offenders come to be developed in the form of an act of parliament it is to be hoped that the authorities will extend them so as to embody the general principle that no first offender of any sort or age shall be committed to prison, except under some form of the Borstal treatment.

"The reform of separate confinement does not, in my belief," continues Mr. Galsworthy, "go far enough, but it goes, no doubt, as far as can be expected at the moment, in face of the uncanny faith and attachment with which this species of punishment has so long been regarded."

"No more important statement affecting the administration of the criminal law has been made for many years than that by the home secretary," says the Times. "Every one who speaks from experi-

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

Do you know, I have about come to the conclusion that there is such a thing as a bad temper germ? What makes me think that? Well, haven't you noticed, when one member of the family has a bad temper spell, an out-with-the-world fit, it seems as if things didn't calm down again until that spell had gone the family rounds?

For all the world like a cold in the head. Maybe big sister gets it first and snubs mother most superciliously, and snaps at father, and weeps when big brother teases her, and fusses about the food and frets and sulks until everybody wonders where the nice jolly sister they used to know, has gone. And then father catches it and has it in his peculiar way, and then little sister and big brother, and finally the maid, have their two or three days when they are at odds with everybody and every body.

Just the way that last winter big brother brought home a cold from the office and everybody in the family had some form of cold before it entirely disappeared. Only, if this bad temper business is a germ, there must be one way that it's quite different from all other germs. What's that? Why, that mothers are immune, of course.

gestion and I've just been trying it out, and it certainly works. Suppose, instead of backing up to mother or sister or hubby, you try it to-morrow.

"I ought to go home to-night, but I'm so busy over until to-morrow, so that I can go to the market place," a visitor to our city said to me, recently. "The market place! What possible interest can you have in that?" I queried, in wonder. He is a professor of English literature.

"That's my way of seeing a new city," he explained. "I think the right way to see the people of any city is to go to three places—their market places, their theatres, and their churches. There you see three big phases of their life—what they eat, how they amuse themselves and how they worship."

Isn't that a rather interesting suggestion for voyagers? Ruth Cameron

FASHIONS BY ACCIDENT. Sober people with cares and interests that keep their minds from a keen absorption in the prevailing fashions are of the opinion that the present modes have reached the climax of absurdity. The tight skirt which is provoking the mirth of the cartoonists, but as yet is not noticeably retarding the progress of Canadian women, may or may not be the result of accident, but certain it is that thousands of women have from time to time borne the yoke—if it may be called a yoke—of another's mischance, without in the least being aware of it.

Take, for instance, the twisted silken strand worn so generally now in the hair by young girls. It owes its origin, so the story goes, to the Princess de Lamballe losing her hat. This lovely lady was following the hunt when the piece of headgear took its departure; nor was it expedient to dream of retarding so important a function for a mere hat, even though bearing a long, drooping plume. When at last the Princess was at liberty to stop and gather up her dishevelled tresses, nothing offered itself for the purpose but a dainty blue silk garter. Hence do Toronto maidens wield the paddle or the tennis racket or taking the air informally in an automobile confine their tresses with the silken band.

It is said that the jeweled dog collar was first worn by Queen Alexandra and that a slight scar on her throat suggested this pretty adornment. However this may be, another story illustrates the Queen Mother's tender kindness for her friends as well as accounting for a hair fashion of the '70's. A lady's maid, in dressing the coiffure of one of the maids of honor, so scorched the front of her tresses that, nothing but the erstwhile fringe or "pony bang" was possible. The plight of the useful maiden came to the ears of the lively Princess of Wales, who thereupon, without any accident whatever, had her hair cut in exactly the same way and shortly all feminine Europe exhibited the "pony bang."

The Jersey had an immense vogue amongst women with or without figures. It originated from a little incident in connection with the same royal lady. Once in Scotland an irresistible impulse to throw a line into a mountain burn came over her and a lady in waiting set out to procure in the nearest town some cosy addition to her highest wardrobe, that would facilitate the fishing expedition. The only article discovered had never been fashioned for the female form, but the Princess must have looked charming in it, for the close-fitting jersey had soon a wide vogue. The red jacket is credited to a romp of the Empress Eugenie with her son. In which the Empress took the part of an English soldier. A sudden inspiration of this lovely French woman once caused an epidemic of rose trimmings, scattered irregularly over dainty gowns. The true story was that one evening just as the Empress' toilet was completed for a state dinner-given to the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Princess and Princess of Wales, she discovered that a series of drops of liquid rouge had accidentally fallen upon her white lace gown. She told her maid to pin an artificial rose over each spot and the idea of the fascination and unconventional decoration was eagerly seized upon by the great Paris dressmakers. The style is revived in Paris still from time to time.

A little dog with a taste for nullity suggested to the famous beauty, Countess Castiglione, the rimless hat; for he chewed the brim of a beautiful for he chewed the brim of a beautiful creation of lighorn and roses, left carelessly upon a seat one day at a St. Cloud picnic. The merry favorite, driving home wearing her curtained headgear, was considered by the admiring populace who saw her, to have invented a new style. And indeed she had, for the rest of the fashionables soon also were wearing rimless hats.

LASSOED EAGLES. Fernie Aug. 18.—While mountain climbing near Morrissey Percy Bean noticed a deer and a fawn on the hillside near him. He crept cautiously through the brush endeavoring to get a better view of the pair, and while thus engaged he saw a huge eagle alight on a jutting crag of rock a short distance away. He investigated and discovered a nest containing a pair of golden eaglets. He was unable to get to the nest, but decided to get the eaglets nevertheless. Removing his shoelaces he made a lasso and attaching it to a sapling he aroused the curiosity of the birds by sundry yells of an alluring nature, slipped the noose over its head and unconsciously pulled it off its perch. He carried his prize down the hill, fighting off the mother bird at frequent intervals. Here he met his brother John and they decided to return to the aerie and secure the other bird. This was captured by the same method and both were brought to the city. The birds are about the size of a full grown hen turkey and have a spread of wings of about five feet. They are well feathered and would have been able to fly before long. They are thriving in captivity and are capable of consuming large quantities of neck steak. Percy will raise the pair.

REVELSTOKE FINANCES. Revelstoke, Aug. 18.—At the last meeting of the city council Ald. Bews submitted a statement of the estimates for the year. The water and light at present had no chance to give any revenue on the new expenditure. Expenses for the year had been high, but a 25-cent rate of taxation would make a complete clean-up of the year's business, although even that would not pay off the arrears in overdraft. He advised the council to provide for them by selling debentures extending over a long period. Ald. Bews suggested floating a by-law for say $50,000 to pay off all the arrears and reduce the tax rate to 25 mills. The council as a whole favored the proposal feeling assured that the by-law would carry. The mayor said that although the council was later this year with the tax rate than they anticipated, yet it was the earliest of any previous council. The arranging for the by-law would only take a little time.

WEDDED AT KAMLOOPS. Kamloops, Aug. 18.—St. Andrew's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Mary Gordon, daughter of the late Alex. Gordon, one of the pioneers of the North Thompson valley, was united in marriage to Hugh McCaughey of this city. Only the immediate relations of the bride and groom witnessed the interesting ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Barbara Gordon. The groom was supported by Mr. John G. Gordon, brother of the bride. Rev. W. A. Wylie was the officiating clergyman.

WILL SERVE SENTENCES. Vancouver, Aug. 18.—The steamer Camosun brought T. Williams, who will serve ten years in the provincial penitentiary at New Westminster. He was convicted on a charge of arson. An Indian named Louis has also been brought down to "do" six months for supplying liquor to his fellow-rod men. Louis is quite an old friend in this respect, and puts in nearly every winter comfortably in the jail.

NEW COAL STREAM STRUCK. Merritt, Aug. 18.—A new seam of coal has been struck at the Middleboro collieries. No. 3 seam, located 250 feet back of No. 2 tunnel. It means that more men will be employed and Superintendent Gray states that the staff would be increased at the rate of ten men per month for at least twelve months.

PARISH PICNIC OF ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Enjoyable Afternoon Spent at Cordova Bay—Gordon Head Woman's Institute Meets

(Special Correspondence.) Gordon Head, Aug. 18.—On Tuesday the annual parish picnic of the St. Luke's church, Cordova Hill, was held at the First Cadboro Bay. A large number were present and after tea sports of all kinds were indulged in. The little girls' sack race, won by Betty Medd, created much amusement, as did the relay race won by Charlie King and Captain Cullin. In the young men's race Wilfrid Holmes won and in the boys of twelve and under race, Stanley Featherston came a close first. On Friday last the Women's Institute of Gordon Head held their monthly meeting. A large number of members were present and important business matters were discussed. At St. Michael's, Rev. D. C. Gardner, of Stanford University, officiated at the wedding of J. P. Merriman and Edith, eldest daughter of Mr. Walter Heal of Lake district. A reception was held at the home of the bride's father and the presents were numerous and costly. On Friday the 19th inst. the annual picnic of the St. Alden's church will be held at the First Cordova beach. Harry Todd, who has for the past few months been at Jordan river, returned home last week.

BRITISH COLUMBIA DAIRYMEN MEET Representations to Be Made to C. P. R. Regarding the Handling of Milk

Vancouver, Aug. 18.—The thirty-third annual meeting of the British Columbia Dairymen's Association held upon the exhibition grounds: The result of the discussion was that the newly appointed secretary of the association, Mr. A. Jull, was instructed to take them, M. A. Jull, up with the officials of the road, and urge that the same system be adopted with reference to the handling of milk and cream shipments as exists in Manitoba and other eastern provinces. The meeting was presided over by President W. E. Buckingham, of Eburne. Other officers present were: Vice-President Shannon of Cloverdale, and Second Vice-President, F. H. Bishop of Victoria. W. E. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture, also attended the meeting, and gave valuable advice with reference to the various matters that came up for discussion. The association also took up the matter of the dairy competitions which are being held all over the province from month to month. It was decided to issue gold, silver and bronze medals as awards for the best kept dairies. A silver cup was also provided for, which will be awarded from year to year, and become the property of the dairymen who wins it in three successive seasons. P. H. Moore, provincial dairy expert, was appointed judge of the competitions, and Mr. Mackie, of Eburne, was appointed to co-operate with Mr. Moore during the month of November, when the heaviest work will be done. The former secretary of the association, R. W. Hodson, late live stock commissioner, having resigned, J. A. Jull, who is the present commissioner, was selected in his stead. Mr. Jull brings to the position, a wide knowledge of dairy matters, and is in every way well qualified for it. The meeting adjourned until the annual meeting in the fall.

DESTRUCTION OF FERRY CAUSES INCONVENIENCE

Travellers Experience Difficulty Crossing Bella Coola River—Mysterious Case

(Special Correspondence.) Bella Coola, Aug. 12.—Mystery surrounds the death of Harry Thompson, whose body was found on the beach near the Drammoy-cannery. There was a cut on the head and the body was brought by launch from Kemsquilt. Later the remains were sent back to Kemsquilt for burial. Many friends of the deceased who reside in this vicinity are calling for a further examination, as they claim there is a possibility of foul play. The absence of a ferry at the crossing of the Bella Coola river, twenty-five miles up the valley, is causing serious inconvenience to travellers and from the upper valley and the interior country. The old ferry was swept away by a freshet early in May and since that time people travelling with horses have been compelled to swim their horses and cross themselves and their goods on a raft or in a log canoe. The Bella Coola is a swift flowing stream, and more than one horse has been lost at this point when the river was high. A special fund for the building of a new ferry has been at the disposal of the local road authorities since last spring. Ex-Lieut. Governor Dunsmuir arrived recently on his yacht Dolaura. While ashore he was entertained by Dr. H. T. Jamieson and wife.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

When I have lived a few more years where city noises rise, where buildings stand in rows and tiers, and smoke obscures the skies, I'll seek me out a hermitage, a place of grass and trees, and OUT OF there I'll write life's final page among the birds and bees. DOORS Among the bees and birds I'll dwell, remote from clanging town, and chase myself through grove and dell, and watch the sun go down. I'll seek the cowslip and the rose, and lie in new mown hay, exulting in the breeze that blows from islands far away. I'll watch the little lambs perform their gambols on the lea, and guard the chickens from the storm—ah, that's the life for me! This thing of working at a desk, in shacks that scrape the skies, and using language picturesque concerning hungry flies, is not the life for man ordained, 'tis but the treadmill toil; how lucky he who has attained close quarters with the soil! He revels in the rain that pours upon the fragrant sod; his heritage is out of doors, and there he visits God. Oax Mason
