Jordan Now a Militant Pacifist

On his return to Stanford University from the East last week, Dr. David Starr Jordan gave out the following statement:

"By declaration of Congress, approved by the President, our country is now in actual war. The only way out is forward, and our duty is to do all that may be possible for the safeguarding and strengthening of democracy in Europe.

"I will not change one word I have spoken against war, but the issues are now changed. At home and abroad the first question is now the world-wide defense of Government by the people and for the people."

Another of Mrs. Mabel Gray Young's delightful muscals is to be given at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. F. C. Pudan will assist.

YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG

WILBUR D. NESBIT in S. F. Call

Your flag and my flag,
And how it flies today
In your land and my land,
And half a world away!
Rose-red and blood-red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow-white and soul-white
The good forefathers' dream;
Sky-blue and true blue, with stars to gleam aright—
The glorious guidon of the day; a shelter through the night.

Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat
And fifers shrilly pipe!
Your flag and my flag—
A blessing in the sky,
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie!

Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old glory hears our glad salute and ripples to the sound.

Your flag and my flag
And, oh, how much it holds;
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—
Red and blue and white.

The one flag, the great flag, the flag for me and you—
Glorified all else beside—the red and white and blue!

Local Whist Tournament Is Ended

At the conclusion of the fifth and last fortnightly session of the Manzanita Club's whist tournament, a totaling of the number of tricks taken by the participants in eighty hands played shows Mrs. A. A. Decker to have led the ladies and F. William Graske the gentlemen. The consolation prizes were awarded to A. A. Decker and Miss Genevieve Webb.

This tournament, with other interesting features, has been among the most pleasant social affairs promoted by this organization. The committee having the matter in charge deserves much credit.

NEWS NOTES

Old glory now floats proudly from a staff over the Carmel Postoffice. It is raised and lowered daily, which is correct flag etiquette.

Garnet Holme is director of the historical pageant, preparations for which are now going on, at San Jose. Recently he directed the patriotic tableaux and pageantry of the Kiddies' Ball, in San Francisco.

Lloyd Nix, son of the Pacific Grove merchant, has enlisted in the army, at San Luis Obispo, where he was attending school.

It is interesting to learn that one of the $3000 prize winners in the flashlight name contest is a niece of Mrs. H. M. Jaquith. Mrs. Katharine W. ... with her suggestion—"Daylo"—was one of the winners. She, with her father and two daughters, visited here during "Fleet" summer.

The San Francisco Veteran Volunteer Firemen have tendered their services to the United States government.

Beginning on May 1st, all wood orders will have to be paid for when ordered.

Wade Stewart
Fred Leidig

An attractive program is anticipated by the Carmel Missionary Society, at 3 p.m. next Wednesday, at the Presbyterian chapel. "Japan" is the subject. Strangers and friends will be welcome.

Since April 1 twenty names have been added to the membership roll of Carmel Red Cross chapter. The response to the appeal for funds has so far been sufficient to purchase material for immediate use.

Mr. and Mrs. Burbank, recently married at San Jose, will arrive here on their honeymoon tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ball have as guest this week Mrs. H. A. Holcomb of Los Angeles.

Next Monday evening the Boys' Club will be entertained by Mrs. R. W. Hicks.

Being City Trustee Is Not a Sinecure

Those residents of Carmel-by-the-Sea who make it their business to criticize and find fault with the things the Board of Trustees do or do not do would probably change their tactics did they occasionally attend a meeting of the board.

They would get some idea of the many difficult problems this body has to confront and solve. If they did but hear the discussions on various matters of public weal, they would get some conception of the conscientious and painstaking manner in which the board members endeavor to perform the duties for which they were elected.

At a two-hour session of the Trustees on Tuesday evening routine matters, communications, committee reports, and other matters were taken up.

In the absence of President Fraser, Trustee Beardsley presided.

The matter of regulating the storage of gasoline and distillate will be taken up with the League of California Municipalities by Trustee Beardsley.

I. B. Waterbury, President-elect of the Sanitary Board, was present to confer and cooperate in matters concerning the removal of unsightly and unsanitary shacks.

Ordinance No. 13, regulating the destruction of trees, interference with power lines, and the moving of houses, was ordered published in the Pine Cone.

The next meeting will be held on May 1.

Civic League Disbands

A meeting of the Carmel Civic League was held at the City Hall last Monday evening to discuss the disposal of the remaining funds. It was voted to turn the funds over to the City Trustees for the repair of the watering trough and the purchase of receptacles for rubbish.

The organization then voted to disband, as the original purposes of the league has reverted to the municipality.

All the guests of the Taylors have departed for their homes except Mrs. Taylor's mother, who will remain here until September.

WEEKLY GREETING

Resolute thoughts find words for themselves and make their own vehicle. Inspiration and expression are relative sides. He who feels deeply will express strongly. The language of slight sensation is naturally feeble and superficial.—Sir P. Francis.

Hayes' "No"

Congressman E. A. Hayes has a lot of explaining to do to the patriotic citizens of his district. That he can approve the murder of innocents by Germany, and sit serene while the mad dog among nations violates every rule of humanity is so foreign to the estimation in which Mr. Hayes has been held by his constituents that his task becomes the more difficult. His vote of "No" on the resolution declaring a state of war is one of the surprises of the day.—Santa Barbara Press.

The vote cast against the war resolution by Congressman E. A. Hayes of this district comes as a distinct surprise. His paper, the San Jose Mercury-Herald, has certainly not prepared the people of this district for the news. Its editorial columns have said nothing that would imply that the man who controlled them intended to vote against the resolution.—San Jose News.

Writers and speakers who are fond of quoting "Uncle Remus" are prone to attribute to "Brer Rabbit" the habit of "layin' low and sayin' nuffin'." They need to be reminded that it was "Brer Fox" who "lay low," and that it was the Tar-Baby who "sed nuffin'." It is strange how misquotations and misapplications persist, but it is stranger still how they originate. Notwithstanding a thousand corrections, Sam Weller is still frequently quoted as warning his respected father to "be ware of vidders."

Notice to TAXPAYERS

All taxpayers are required by the constitution to annually make and deliver to the Assessor a statement, under oath, setting forth specifically ALL the real, personal, or other class of property, owned by such persons, or in their possession, or under their control, as the same stands of record at 12 o'clock Meridian on the first Monday of March.

The Political Code provides, that all property must be assessed at its "full cash value," and defines "full cash value" as being "the amount at which the property would be taken in payment of a just debt from a solvent debtor."

Unsecured Personal Property
The taxes on all unsecured personal property are due and payable and must be paid at the time the assessment is made.

Exemptions
Any person or association, claiming any property to be exempt from taxation, MUST make the claim and pay the same every year, in the manner provided by law. This applies to the $100 allowed on personal property of householders; the $1000 allowed soldiers, sailors, marines, etc., and property used solely and exclusively for religious worship.

Assessments
Any information desired relating to assessments will be gladly furnished on application, and all objections should be made before the Board of Equalization adjourns, instead of waiting until it is time to pay taxes.

Remember, that if you fail to make a statement you will be liable to arbitrary assessment, which is expensive to yourself and causes much trouble to others.

One Cannot Corner Advertising

In a broad sense, any means used to draw attention toward any purpose is advertising.

In commercial usage, the means is anything that secures publicity, and the purpose is to sell something.

The "something" may be an article, business, professional services, manual labor, skill, transportation facilities, etc.

Advertising may have the smallest beginning. If rightly conducted, it is bound to grow. It is as much for the little fellow as for the big corporation.

Add to your ability, your ambition, and your "something" Honest Advertising, and the Twentieth Century Giant will open your door to Success.

Carmel Women Nobly Doing Their "Bit"

Every afternoon in these piping times of war finds a large number of patriotic and charitable Carmel women of the Red Cross at headquarters devoting their time and energies to the making of garments and other necessities for the boys at the front.

Those who desire to do work of this character will be welcome at headquarters. Others who prefer to help the cause by sewing at home, will be given work and material by the committee in charge.

Anyone having a sewing machine to loan should consult with Miss Hutchinson. The machine is needed at headquarters.

The following verses, by Mr. George W. Fishback, are particularly appropriate just now:

WHAT DO YOU DO ?

These lines that you read are addressed to you,
You are the one whom we now have in view.
We've heard you affirm that you're loyal and true.

But to help your dear country, pray,
What do you DO ?

You deplore war's necessity, but you say from the start
That you're back of the nation, with your whole loving heart.
The thought does you honor, your impulse is good;
That's how the true patriot always has stood.

But to show your devotion, pray,
What do you DO ?

If you can't join the boys at the actual front,
You can help them to bear the battle's brunt
By joining the Red Cross, and doing your part
To care for the wounded and sore of heart.
That you can DO.
