Dear General MacArthur:

I take great pleasure to transmit to you the following telegraphic message from President Chiang Kai-shek:

"General Douglas MacArthur: May I wish you many happy returns of the day and with each advent ever increasing strength to continue the historic task of freeing this part of the world from Communist menace, and thereby ensure final triumph of our common faith. My wife joins me in sending you and Mrs. MacArthur warm regards. Chiang Kai-shek. January 22, 1951."

Please accept my own heartfelt felicitations on the anniversary of your birthday and my sincerest wishes for many happy returns of the day. The radiant sun shedding its warmth and light during these wintry days is a happy augury, presaging success which will ultimately crown your magnificent endeavors to secure peace to the Far East.
