The 1928
JAMBALAYA
Tulane University
New Orleans, La.

FOREWORD

In this volume of the Jambalaya we have attempted to present a record of one year of our lives as students of Tulane University.

Soon our college days will be over and we, like many before us, will be gone and the things we have done will be called "tradition." This love for "tradition," this knowledge that we too will be looked back upon is the underlying reason for our presenting to you a book, garbed in the fashion of a period so dear to us all.

If, then, in years which are to come, this book will aid in bringing back fond remembrances, in recalling old faces and friendships, and the days which were so happily spent at Tulane, then our effort shall not have been entirely in vain and we shall have justified the faith.

DEDICATION

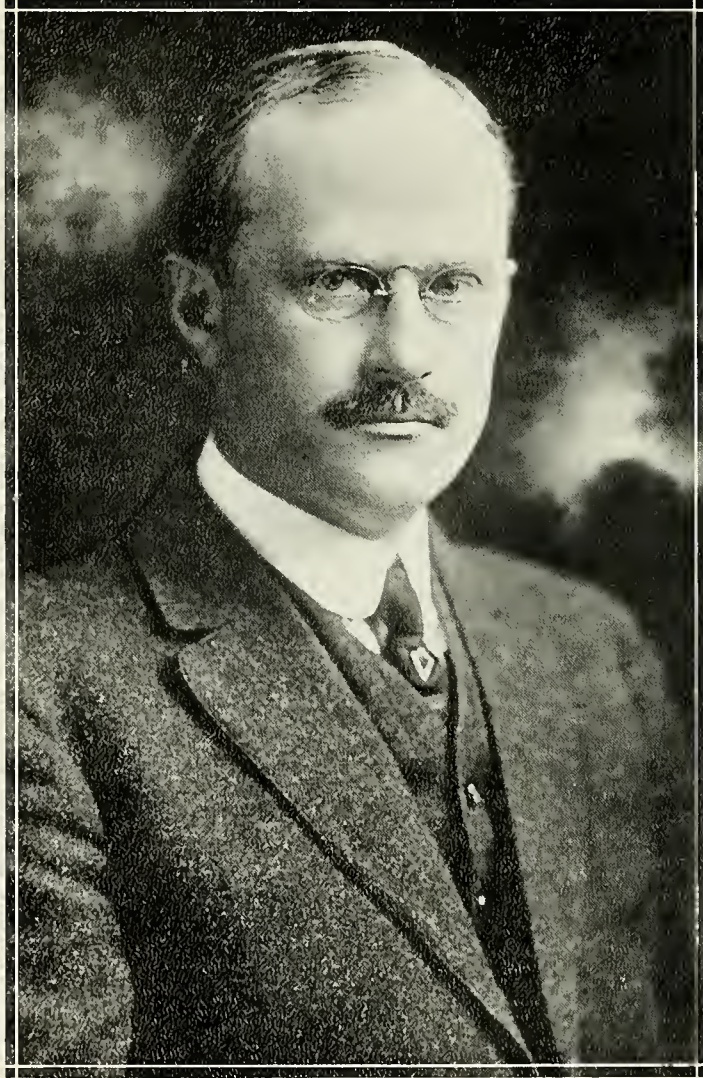

to

Dr. Wilbur C. Smith

Who, as a teacher, has done more than train the minds of men; who as Director of Athletics, has ever bent his energies towards the realization of a greater department of athletics; and who, as a man, has, by his own example, influenced the characters of those men with whom he has been constantly associated; the Jambalaya Staff respectfully dedicates this, the thirty-third volume of the Jambalaya.

ALBERT BLEDSOE DINWIDDIE, Ph.D., LL.D.
President of the University

The President's Letter

A student publication necessarily reflects in large measure the character, ideals, and interests of the students. This is true of the serious portions of the book as well as of those devoted to the lighter or the humorous side of college life. There is also a business side of the compilation and publication of such a book; and an editorial side, in which judgment and taste are brought into play. It seems to me that in all respects the JAMBALAYA has from year to year shown progress. It is now a well organized, well edited, and attractive volume, and to each student who possesses one it will be an invaluable record of friendships and experiences throughout the rest of his or her life. I look for this JAMBALAYA to be the best issue yet published by the students of Tulane.

There are many things yet needed at Tulane. Among these needs I place first those which would promote the health and comfort of the students; a gymnasium, large enough to accommodate all of the men students, with extensive floor space for exercise, for basketball and for other games; with numerous showers, lockers and other conveniences for the students; a community building where all students would like to gather to read, to play, to give concerts and plays, and to do all of those things which students should and would do if they had an attractive and suitable building of their own.

Let us hope that some way may be found to provide those things which are so close to my heart that I think about them day and night.

For Newcomb College it is difficult to say what I want first. My head and my heart are not agreed on this. For the standing of Newcomb in the college world and for the convenience and comfort of the students, we need two things: a commodious, well arranged and well equipped library building and a large auditorium with additional rooms for music, in which this department might find adequate facilities for all of its present and future activities.

Yours for a better and finer Tulane,

A. B. Diuiddie

President.

NEWCOMB COLLEGE

PIERCE BUTLER, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.

Dean

Newcomb College was founded by Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb in October, 1886. It was her desire to establish in this college a memorial to her daughter, Harriott Sophie Newcomb. In her will, which is dated May 12, 1898, she left to the administrators of the Tulane Educational Fund, for the benefit of Newcomb College, the residue of her estate after the payment of certain specified legacies. Mrs. Newcomb's feeling for the people of New Orleans and her desire to advance the cause of education of young women in Louisiana were the reasons that moved her to make this foundation. It was her specific desire that there should be maintained a simple form of daily religious exercises in a chapel or assembly room, but she specifically provided, "I desire that worship and instruction shall not be of a sectarian or denominational character."

There are at present six buildings of fine structure upon the campus, and several smaller buildings which are used for various purposes. An additional building, which will be a dormitory, is now being erected on the ground fronting Audubon Place, next to Doris Hall. this building Warren Newcomb House, in memory of

The Board of Administrators has named Mrs. Newcomb's husband,

The present attendance is 699. These students are following the different regular courses offered by the College, namely, the one leading to the B.A. Degree, the one leading to the B.S. Degree, the four-year course in Art, leading to the B. Design Degree, or the four-year course in Music, leading to the B. Music Degree.

The purpose of the College is to foster the intellectual life in any way that may seem most helpful and promising for the maintenance of a high standard of culture, and it endeavors to equip young women for effective and intelligent service to society.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

EDWARD A. BECITTEL, Ph.D.

Dean

The College of Arts and Sciences is, with the exception of Newcomb College, the largest College of the University, with an enrollment of some 550 students and a faculty of more than forty. This College offers a wide opportunity for thorough training in language, literature, the social sciences, and the laboratory sciences. Its purpose is to prepare men for research work in the graduate schools, or for admission to professional study, or for a business career. The Pre-Medical Courses give a thorough preparation for the study of Medicine, while other courses provide for the needs of those who plan to enter upon the study of Law.

THE COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

CHARLES CASSIDY BASS, M.D.

Dean

Emerson once said, and very truly, "The first wealth is health." It is more precious to a people than good roads, the improvements of rivers and harbors, the fostering of agriculture, or the conservation of natural resources. Upon good health depends efficiency and happiness. The line between efficiency and inefficiency is drawn upon the ability of the individual to go to work today; that between happiness and unhappiness upon the ability to enjoy the work of today.

Health is the great problem of life. In the past health has been dependent largely on curative medicine. In the future it will be largely upon preventive medicine. Statistics show that every fifty seconds a life is lost to our country through preventable diseases. Medical science believes that the known preventable diseases constitute only a fraction of those that can be prevented.

Ever since its establishment in 1834, the Medical College of Tulane University has been doing its utmost to raise a standard of medical education throughout the country. Now, after ninety years of active existence, it has taken its place with the leading medical colleges, not only of the state and country, but of the whole world.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

DOUGLAS SMITH ANDERSON, B.E., M.E.

Dean

The College of Engineering offers courses of professional training in the fundamental principles underlying the various branches of Engineering and Architecture. The formulation of these courses is the outgrowth of the best thought of educators and the engineering profession and of our own experience during the last two decades.

The technical studies in the College of Engineering are contained in four divisions called schools. The schools are divided into departments. A department includes subjects, or groups of subjects, which are similar in nature. The schools are: Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Chemical Engineering, Architecture.

No candidate for a degree is allowed to restrict himself to the narrow training which might be imparted by any one school. Work in the technical departments of one of the above schools is made the backbone or principal part of a four years' course, and supplemental work is required in other schools in the college.

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE.

MORTON ARNOLD ALDRICH, A.B., Ph.D.
Dean

The purpose of this College has been, since its establishment in 1914, to offer substantial professional training preparatory to a business career. The instruction offered is planned for students sufficiently able and mature to do work of university grade, and no student is received unless prepared to do work of this character. It is essential, also, to the permanent success of the College that its students approach their work in an earnest professional spirit. Students failing to do so may expect to be asked to withdraw.

In order to make the course available for business men and women, classes are also held at night from 8 to 9:45 o'clock. These classes meet at Gibson Hall, Tulane University, each course being held one night a week. By thus devoting only one night a week to attending a course, a student may take any of the night courses offered.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

RUFUS HARRIS, LL.B.

Dean

The Tulane College of Law has been in existence since 1847, when it was known as the Law Department of the University of Louisiana. It was incorporated with its present organization in 1884, and the name of Tulane was added to perpetuate the memory of the public-spirited citizen who then endowed it. Its diplomas have been conferred on more than 1600 graduates.

The purpose of the College of Law is to provide opportunities and facilities for training equal to those afforded elsewhere. It purports to inculcate a sound knowledge of both substantive and adjective law. However, the school recognizes a duty beyond equipping and training of men to become practitioners. Many of the University students find its courses valuable training for citizenship and business careers. To this end the College has selected instructors for their fitness to teach.

Satisfactory completion of at least two years of college work in approved institutions is required for entrance, and a period of three years of law study is required for graduation. The curriculum of the College of Law is unusually attractive.

The College of Law owns a large and well selected library, by the use of which students become familiar with the extensive sources of the law and "learn how to find law."

The College is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and has been given the Class-A rating by the American Bar Association, and its degree is registered by the New York College Board of Regents. These are the standardizing agencies for law schools.

THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

CHARLES CASSIDY BASS, M.D.

Dean

This school was established in 1938. In 1908, the Pharmaceutical School of the Medical Department became the Department of Pharmacy of the Tulane University of Louisiana, and in 1913, with the reorganization of the divisions of the University related to Medicine, the School of Pharmacy became a part of the reconstituted College of Medicine.

The school holds membership in the American Conference of Pharmaceutical Faculties, organized to promote the interests of pharmaceutical education.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

DENEGRE MARTIN, M.D.

Dean

The Graduate School of Medicine is the Post-Graduate Department of the College of Medicine of the Tulane University of Louisiana. It is the Mecca for the physicians who wish to take short review courses, or those leading to a specialty. During the forenoon instructions are given by men of training and experiences in the Clinics of the Charity Hospital, Touro Infirmary and the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, and in the afternoon and evening didactic lectures are delivered at the Hutchinson Memorial, covering all of the branches of Medicine.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

ALFRED ARCHINARD LEEFE, D.D.S.

Dean

There is nothing which has caused more regret to the Board of Administrators of Tulane University than the necessity of discontinuing temporarily the Dental School. It was found that in order to meet the raised standards of dental education in a way which the Board regarded as commensurate with the work of the University in other professional fields, the budget required for the school would create a constantly increasing annual deficit which would in a few years amount to approximately $100,000.00. The administration is willing neither to compromise the position which it has constantly maintained for high standards of education nor to embark on the ultimately ruinous policy of accumulating deficits. This explains why the Board has been compelled to suspend temporarily its School of Dentistry.

It is hoped that at least the dental clinic, which has been operated so successfully, may be continued for it would be nothing less than a calamity to be obliged to abandon this outstanding service to the poor people of New Orleans.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

JOHN McLAREN McBRYDE, Litt.D.

Dean

The Graduate School offers to men and women the opportunity of extending and rendering more thorough the scholarship obtained in undergraduate courses, and of advancing the boundaries of knowledge by specialized work and research.

The privileges of this school are extended to graduates of this University and of other institutions of equal grade. The general scope of the graduate instruction offered in any subject may be gathered from the statements describing the Courses of Instruction. The work of graduate students is expected, however, to be in a measure independent of the regular courses of instruction.

COURSES FOR TEACHERS

JAMES ADAIR LYON, A.M., D.Sc.
Dean

For many years Tulane University has operated a number of courses to meet the need of those whose hours of employment will not permit attendance upon regular classes. The classes are scheduled in the afternoon hours and on Saturdays, thus making it possible for teachers especially, if they so desire, to add to their equipment in many subjects.

These courses are of full college grade, conducted by regular members of the faculty, and in the case of students who have satisfactorily fulfilled the entrance requirements, credits obtained may be applied towards a degree.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

GARRET POLHEMUS WYCKOFF
Director

For seven years the Department of Sociology of the Tulane University of Louisiana has been giving courses intended for those expecting to make social work their profession. Two years ago these were organized into a one-year course for the training of social workers.

In June, 1927, the Board of Administrators of Tulane University voted to authorize the expansion of the course into the School of Social Work.

The school is a member of the Association of Schools of Professional Social Work.

The particular phase of social work for which training is at present offered are Family Social Work, Children's Case Work, Medical Social Work, Community Organization, Vocational Guidance, and Social Research. Field work with a social agency doing good work in its line is required of each student and occupies two full days of each week. Supervision of this work is in charge of a member of the faculty in order to make certain that it is really educative to the student.

The School of Social Work is on a strictly graduate basis and has in its student body this year graduates of universities as far distant as Texas, Florida, and New York.

"Tulane's team will be composed of inexperienced men with plenty of weight and speed. Reserve strength is lacking, but the squad is determined to make a good showing with the hardest schedule ever attempted by the Green Wave. There are no easy games on the schedule, and there will be no opportunity at any time during the season for the gridsters to let up."

This was the message sent by Coach Bernard W. Bierman to the United Press office in Atlanta on September 22, when the syndicate requested some "dope" on the 1927 football team. The Greenie mentor's words were all too true. In lieu of the fact that Tulane only won two out of their eight games, it was the showing she made against Georgia and Georgia Tech that counted so much along with that decisive victory over our traditional foes, the Louisiana State Tigers, on Thanksgiving Day.

Tulane made a master move in obtaining Bierman as head coach for the football team. An experienced mentor, well versed in the style of football the Greenies have been accustomed to using for the past several years, Bernie fit well into the general scheme of things. Besides that, Bierman is well-known here, and is held in high esteem by those athletes who worked under him at Tulane during 1923, 1924 and 1925. He possessed an air of confidence which he soon instilled into each of his Green Wave candidates.

COACH BIERMAN

Bernie is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where he won letters in football, basketball and track. He first coached the Butte High school. After that he entered the U. S. Marine Corps, during the World War, and after being discharged with the commission of captain, he began coaching the University of Montana football squad. During his regime at Montana, 1919 to 1922, he won the state basketball championships twice, plus three track and football titles. Bernie made such a remarkable showing with his Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical College athletic teams that he was the first man considered last spring when it was urgent that Tulane find a new coach.

Lester Lautenschlaeger and Pete Mailhes assisted Coach Bierman in prepping the Greenies for the 1927 schedule. Les, who is well known here, having made his letters in football, basketball and baseball while at Tulane, coached the backfield, giving special attention to the signal calling position. Pete and his scrubs provided the daily "meat" for the Greenies. Pete's Greenie Reserves, for that is what the scrubs really are, won both of their games. They traveled to Lake Charles, where they defeated a Cavalry team, and then took over the Tiger scrubs in their own camp while Tulane's varsity was making her noble stand against the Georgia Bulldogs in the new Tulane stadium.

Another newcomer to Tulane athletics in 1927 was one Theodore Jamison Cox, whose official title was coach of the freshman team. Ted, as the big boy is known in the Greenies' lot, also assisted Coach Bierman et al., before his freshman squad reported on the first day of school. Ted is one of the hardest working coaches ever seen here, and railbirds coming to the Tulane stadium daily to see the Greenies in practice looked forward to seeing Ted move the bucking machine by himself, and then get some huskies at it and yell in deep voice: "Come on, get in there!"

Claude "Monk" Simons, as usual, kept the Greenies in perfect physical condition all during the season. As the Atlanta Georgian said during the early part of the pre-game season: "As usual, Monk Simons, one of the best known members of the Tulane athletic corps, was seen running around the old Greenie ball lot, unblushingly clad in his trunks." "Monk" always had the Tulane footballers on the hop.

COACH SIMONS

And now, last but not least, in the realm of Tulane athletics we arrive at Dr. Wilbur C. Smith, director. "Doc" arranged Tulane's schedule, one of the best and most formidable ever, and was kept busy arranging this, that and the other all during the football season. However, after football, "Doc's" worries are just beginning, as there are other sports which he arranges for.

Considering the fact that Tulane's 1927 football record did not make such a good showing in the lose-and-win column, one must say that the wave did itself and Coach Bierman proud. Those Greenies did fight; anyone seeing them hold Georgia in the third quarter of that hectic game; anyone seeing them run riot over a much too highly touted Louisiana State football team; anyone seeing them fight like demons against Georgia Tech on a field of muck and mire in Atlanta will vouch for that. The Marine spirit of "never say die" was deeply instilled within the hearts of every one of those Greenies, and as the old adage exclaims: "It's not what you win, but how you played"—Tulane's Green Wave did nobly!

A REVIEW OF THE SEASON

The mighty Mississippians from the University of Mississippi came to New Orleans on October 1 with victory in their hearts and a good football team to boot. After the final whistle the Greenies found themselves the victors by a 19 to 7 score. The Wave ran wild over Messrs. Cohen, Walker and Company. Some eight thousand spectators came out of the new stadium praising the Greenies as the "wonder team of the season." Greenie stock soared 'way up among the clouds.

Billy Banker, Tulane's "Blond Flash," ran roughshod over the Ole Miss squad. He scored two of Tulane's six-pointers while the "Old Reliable," Johnny Menville, accounted for the other. After carrying the ball across for six points, Johnny added to his glory by booting the extra point. Captain Pat Browne saw the game from the sidelines, an injury to his ankle keeping him from playing. Sale Lilly stood out in the Ole Miss squad, doing his best to stem the Tidal Wave, but to no avail.

The next week the Greenies traveled to Atlanta, where they met the Thousand and One Knights of Georgia Tech. Tulane played a devil-dog game against the Jackets. But, after wallowing around on a field of muck and mire knee deep, the Greenies found themselves holding the smaller end of a 13 to 6 score. There were two reasons why Tulane was beat by Tech—Stumpy Thomason and Tech's reserves. The Greenies were outnumbered, Tech has no end to its reserve strength; a backfield was substituted, the whole line was renewed, and meanwhile Tulane's reserve strength was sapping.

Billy Banker made a deep impression on all the sports writers and spectators at that game. By tearing through the Tech line, by swerving in and out of secondary defenses, and finally after getting away from Tech's safety, Billy ran 92 yards for a touchdown. The whole Tulane team made a gallant stand against the Jackets. From end to end the line fought like enraged wildcats, the backs did all they could—but the Thousand and One Knights could not be held until they had made their thirteen points.

The Aggies from Mississippi A. and M. beat the Greenies 13 to 6 in Tulane's stadium the week after Tulane's memorable game against Tech. It was a sort of disappointing defeat. All defeats are disappointing to the vanquished, but this was too unexpected. The Greenies were conceded to be the better team, A. and M. was Bierman's former team, and in a general way it was thought that Tulane could lick 'em. As usual Banker played a stellar game, but Pappenheimer, Piekens et al. were not to be stopped. It was a battle between Pappenheimer and Banker for most of the game; the A. and M. lad slightly outrunning the Olive and Blue gridster.

Traveling to Nashville, the Greenies took the smaller end of a 32 to 0 score with the Vanderbilt Commodores holding their own in Dudley Field. The McGuginites entered the game favorites, and the showing they made against the Wave justified the pre-game dope. "Bounding" Billy Spears as skipper of the Ye Goode Shippe Vanderbilte, ran his crew safely through a menacing Green Wave. In plain, unadulterated English, Vanderbilt was too much for the Wave, and that's all there is to that game.

The records show that Georgia beat Tulane 31 to 0. That, however, fails to tell one-half of the story. Tulane played a brand of football during that game which she never had exhibited before. The Greenies' stand in the third quarter of the fray when they held the Bulldogs for five downs on the two-yard line was reminiscent of the stand those Frenchmen made in the first battle of the Marne some twelve or thirteen years ago. Although the Greenies were decisively defeated by the Bulldogs, everyone seeing the game praised them for their noble stand. Georgia's highly touted Bulldogs were not overrated, but the Greenies could not turn the trick as she did against Vanderbilt back in 1924.

Auburn the next week eked out a 6 to 6 tie over the Greenies in the new stadium. Both teams played about the same brand of ball all during the game. Banker again stepped out and made six more points for the Wave. Auburn seems to hold a jinx over the Greenies. Last year she helped Tulane dedicate her new $300,000 stadium, and to climax the affair she ran away with a 2 to 0 victory. The Wave was out for revenge this year, but the best she could get was a tie.

Sewanee helped Tulane celebrate Homecoming Day by defeating the Wave by a 12 to 6 score. Kimbrough, erstwhile captain of the Mountain Tigers, and Schoolfield, another blond flash, were the two main reasons why the Greenies failed to defeat Sewanee. Again Banker did his best by running across the Sewanee goal.

Tulane climaxed her season by decisively defeating, licking, trouncing—or what have you—the Louisiana State University Tigers in their own stadium up in Baton Rouge on Thanksgiving Day. The Greenies ran up a 13 to 6 score against the Tigers, which upset all pre-game dope. Gene McCarroll and Billy Banker made the touchdowns which cut the Tiger's jugular vein, while Captain Pat Browne's dependable toe accounted for the extra marker after Banker had crashed through the Tigers' line.

"Tulane Lindbergh's Her Way to 13 to 6 Victory" proclaimed the extra editions of the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate. Truly, the Wave by virtue of her aerial attack defeated the L. S. U. gridsters. With Dick Baumbach calling signals in a fashion that would have made Les Lautenschlaeger proud, with Johnny Menville fighting nobly while a sore leg tormented him, while Banker tore hither and thither through the Tiger team, while Gene McCarroll rared up and snared a long pass, the east stands of the L. S. U. stadium were going wild. It was a fitting climax—with the setting sun, red as fire, settling peacefully behind the west side stands of the Tiger lot, the curtain came down on the 1927 football season.

After that game Tulane lost five letter men: Bill Maier, Adam Harper, Alfred Stoessel, Johnny Menville and Captain Pat Browne, all having had three years of varsity football at Tulane.

Tulane's team was honored on two occasions this year. Once, when Billy Banker was selected on the Associated Press' second All-Southern team, and later when Johnny Menville was sent to the Pacific Coast with the All-Southern squad.

The 1928 Tulane football schedule will be:

Sept. 29—Louisiana Normal	Tulane Stadium
Oct. 6—Mississippi A. and M.	Jackson, Miss.
Oct. 13—Georgia Tech	Tulane Stadium
Oct. 20—Vanderbilt	Tulane Stadium
Oct. 27—Georgia	Athens, Ga.
Nov. 3—Millsaps	Tulane Stadium
Nov. 10—Auburn	Tulane Stadium
Nov. 17—Sewanee	Tulane Stadium
Nov. 24—Louisiana College	Tulane Stadium
Thanksgiving Day—L. S. U.	Tulane Stadium

"JACK" PIZZANO

Jack was one of the "fightines" Greenies on the team this season. When not calling signals, he was backing up the line of defense or carrying the ball. As alternate-captain, Jack led the team through three games in the absence of Captain Pat Browne. Jack has one more year of Southern Conference football, and it would not surprise us at all this year to see the Pennsylvania lad make a strong bid for an All-Southern berth.

"BILL" MAIER

When Bill played his last game of football for Tulane this year, the Green Wave lost the best utility man it has had since Fred Lamprecht did his stuff. Bill not only played a stellar game at guard, but when Johnny Walls was forced out of the Greenie line-up due to illness, he was shifted to the pivot position, where he performed nobly.

WILLIS "BILL" BANKER

Bill has had so many complimentary things said about him that it is hard for us to write of him without repeating. "That 'baby' really goes!" was one of the many remarks we heard about Billy during the L. S. U. game, and that in every sense describes what Banker did during his first year of Southern Conference football. It is a safe bet to say that Billy will make All-Southern this next year, and then give a couple of fellows a good fight for an All-American berth in his last year of football. Tulane can bank her hopes on Banker.

"JOHNNIE" MENVILLE

"The Old Reliable," as Johnnie was dubbed by the followers of the Green Wave, made his exit from football in a most glorious fashion. It broke Johnnie's heart to not be able to play the last half of that L. S. U. game, but then he realized that considering the condition he was in that someone else could play to better advantage for Tulane in the last half of the game. Johnnie was honored on two occasions this year, once when he received the cup for the most valuable Greenie, and then later when he was selected and sent to the Pacific Coast with the All-Southern gridsters.

CHILTON "CHILLY" KIRSCHMIER

"Chilly," the lad from "Virginny," was a tower of strength in the Tulane defense. Many a time this big lad broke through a line to throw his man long ere he had gotten away. "Chilly" had hordes of friends among the Greenie followers, and those on the bench during the local games often heard cries of "Get in there, 'Chilly'!" and "Atta boy, 'Chilly'!"

JOHNNY WALLS

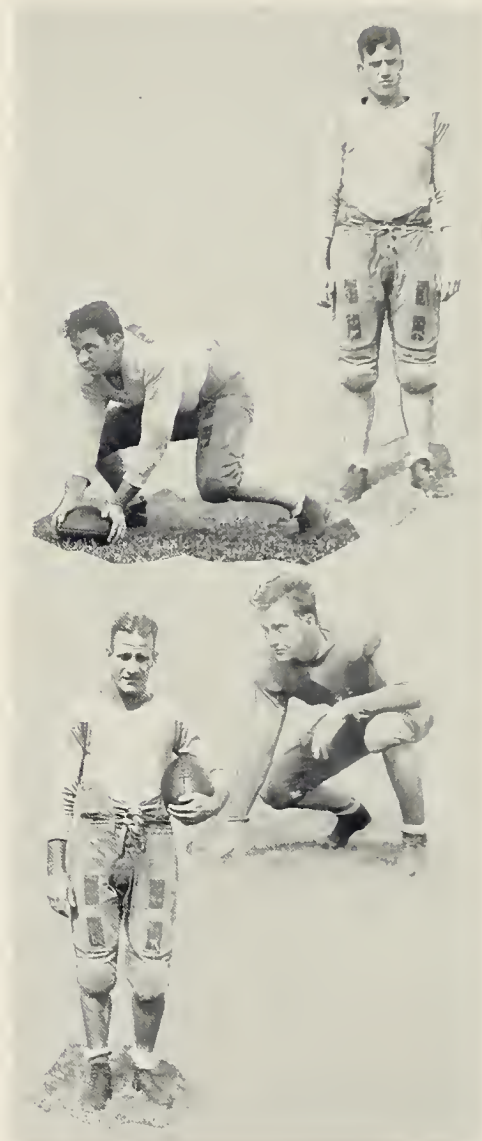

Although Johnny did not play much during the 1927 season, when he did play he was right there with the rest of the Greenies, fighting like an enraged wildcat. Johnny played for the greater part at center, but during the L. S. U. game he was shifted to guard, where he played a game that "Irish" Levy could well afford to be proud of.

CHARLEY RUCKER

A cleaner player, a better sportsman and a harder fighter never played varsity football for Tulane. The aforementioned summarizes what every member of the 1927 Green Wave, the Tulane student body, and the followers of the Olive and Blue think of Captain-elect Charley Rucker, of Pine Bluff, Ark. The gridsters exhibited their esteem of Rucker by electing him captain of the 1928 Green Wave. Charley is the first junior to lead the Green Wave in many a year.

ROYDEN LODRIGUES

Mercury with his winged feet was no faster stepper than Royden, the "Patterson Flash." Last year Roy had a position on the reserve squad, but this year Coach Bierman used him quite frequently, and the Patterson lad did his duty by coming through. Now that Roy has had a year of varsity experience, it will be no surprise for us to see him hold a regular berth in the Tulane backfield this coming year when the Wave opens her 1928 season.

AL STOESSEL

Hammond is famous for two things: strawberries and Al Stoessel. Al played a fine game, holding down one of the terminal positions on the 1927 Wave. Due to a bad knee Al was not able to let out and show the folks all he really had, and this coming year, provided his knee is completely healed, he's going to be holding down one end on that Green Wave.

EBEN HARDIE

Although this lad did not play so often for the Greenies, when he did get in the game he made an impression on those holding ground opposite him. "Eb" never says much; he reserves that energy for his playing, and as one can readily see he, too, is chuck full of the ole fightin' spirit.

EARL "CAL" EVANS

Just because the nickname, "Cal," has been hung on to Evans is no sign that the medic is silent and without fight. Just the opposite is true. Earl is as chuck full of fight and talk as a helligerent parrot. Many times during the year his war-cry of "Come on, now, the ole ginger!" rang out across the gridiron. Earl, in every sense of the expression, is one of the Greenies' fightines' fighters.

RUSSELL BUTAUD

Russell's two hobbies are studying for a practical in anatomy and playing football. In both, as one does in all hobbies, this Texas lad excels. Russell is another Greenie who stuck in the line and fought like a rat with his back to the wall during that Georgia game. Russell said he was sure that that Georgia bunch could not get by, and they did not, either.

ADAM "BUSTER" HARPER

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," says Buster, as he exhibits his gold football he was awarded after playing on the Greenie squad for three years. Buster is small in stature, which probably accounts for his not making the regular team, but he put forth so much effort and played such a heart-to-heart game while scrimmaging with the Greenies that he earned his letter.

GENE MCCARROLL

One of the splashes from the Wave that drowned out L. S. U. on Thanksgiving Day is what Gene McCarroll can be called. It was Gene who snatched a long pass from Johnny Menville that accounted for Tulane's second touchdown, and incidentally put the well-known skids on the L. S. U. aggregation. Gene still has two more years of varsity football at Tulane, and should make quite a mark in Southern Conference football before he plays his last game.

QUEALY WALKER

Quealy was another footballer who was always on end when he played for the Green Wave. Quealy's "flying swan tackles and dives," the experience for which he most likely obtained while serving as a life-guard at the City Park pool, were treats looked forward to by every follower of the Green Wave.

DICK BAUMBACH

This youngster bids fair to outgeneral Lester Lautenschlaeger. It's still the talk of the town the way Dick ran those Greenie signals up on Baton Rouge and the way he heaved those nifty passes to the Greenie ends and backfield men during that memorable game. It seems as if Dick will be seen again at the signal-calling position when the Wave opens its 1928 season.

HERBERT "LIZZIE" FORD

Another Greenie always on end is "Lizzie" Ford. "Lizzie" uses his basketball experience to quite an advantage while playing for the Wave, and makes some nifty nabs. This was "Lizzie's" first year of varsity football for Tulane, and if it is any indication of his abilities—well, watch that boy go in 1928!

TATHAM ESKRIDGE

"That Big Boy" Tatham was another tower of strength in the Greenie line last year. Not only is Tatham big of stature, but he is of a class of fightin' fighters that come only occasionally to a football team. Punishment was served Tatham in large quantities all during the last season, but this lad took all his kicks, bumps, jolts and lesser knocks with a smile and gritted teeth.

JOHNNY "FATTY" OELKERS

Aside from the fact that "Fatty" was the owner of the greatest amount of avoirdupois on the Greenie squad, he used that bulk of weight to quite an advantage while holding down one of the guard positions. Johnny stopped many a nifty line-buck by just putting his weight against the opponent's line and, like Humpty-Dumpty's horses, they "all fell down!"

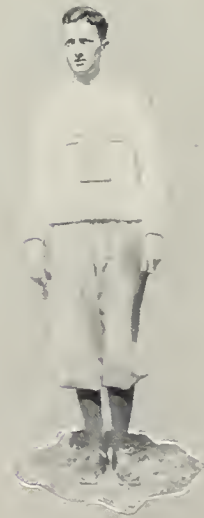

CAPTAIN PAT BROWNE

Pat's playing this season was hampered by an injury to his ankle which he sustained in scrimmage just a few days before the season opened. He, however, paid up for lost time when he did get in the first game, and during the L. S. U. game he showed both Tulane and Bengal followers just how a defensive end should get his men. This was Pat's last year, and we wish him all the luck in the world in whatever field he happens to enter; may his success be continuous!

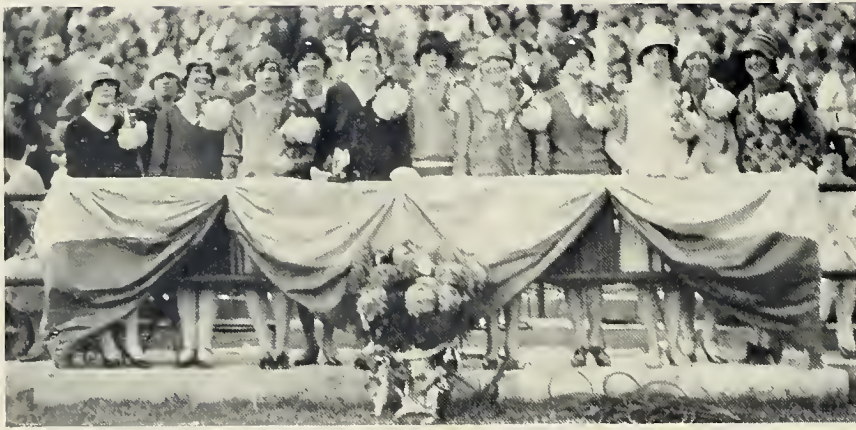

GERALD "SKINNY" ANDRUS

"Skinny" was a good manager for the Wave. Daily he was seen trudging after players in the old stadium while they practiced for the coming games. In fact (and Monk will back us up on this), "Skinny" sure took lots of burden off Mr. Claude Simon's shoulders by performing little(?) duties for the team here and there!

The Little Billow

That Tulane University would have no scarcity of future material for varsity football teams was evinced by the number of first-year men who reported to Coach Ted Cox in the old Tulane stadium the first day that practice for the yearlings was called. Exactly sixty freshmen were at that meeting, and every one of these was outfitted and in uniform for first practice.

The Little Billow proved a formidable opponent to all comers. Although the University of Alabama ran riot over the Greenie, Jrs., piling up a 26 to 0 score, the yearlings put up a stiff fight against overwhelming odds. Auburn's Rats were trounced by the Billow, who piled up a 13 to 6 score. Ole Miss' frosh beat the Billow by a 6 to 0 score the week following, while the L. S. U. Baby Tigers beat the Little Ripple in the last battle of the season.

From the ranks of the freshmen there are several players who will bid fair to get varsity berths in a year or so. Adolph Jastram, captain, Jules Yokum, Jerry Dalrymple and Morris Bodinger seem fair guesses as varsity players this coming season.

The following frosh received their letters: Jastram, captain; Roberts, Lashley, Anderson, Bodinger, McCloskey, Penney, Abbot, Lunde, Therrell, Martinez, Holland, Dalrymple, Abernathy, Kennon, Guy, Menge, Yokum, Bauer, Millet, Whatley, Haas, Scott and Eustis.

BASKETBALL

Review of the Season

Though the record of the losses of the Tulane basketball squad greatly exceed those of the victories the season cannot justly be construed as a failure. The Greenies learned much in each game and they fought like wild animals before the final whistle was blown.

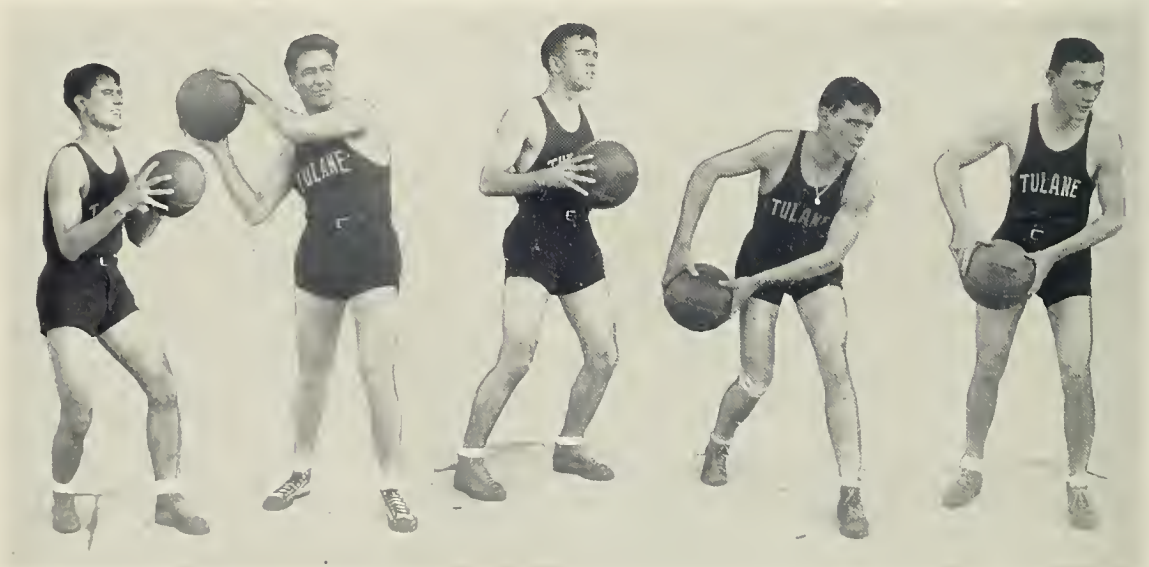

Coach Bernard W. Bierman began instructing the basket-ers immediately after the football season had been concluded. He had many veterans returning to the fold in Craw Davison, Dave Dezinski, Mack White, Leonard Chamberlain and Cap-tain Jack Cabtelaine. Preston Savoy and Herbert Ford also returned, forming a nucleus of what was said to be a strong basketball squad.

For the first of the Greenies' local games the Tulane Uni-versity Athletic Association brought down the University of North Carolina Tar Heels. For the past two or three years the Carolina lads had held a monopoly on the Southern Conference basket title, so it was a real treat for local sportdom to see the Tar Heels start off against the Greenies.

In the initial game against the Heels on De-cember 29, the Greenies were nosed out by a 23 to 21 score. Local sportswriters were enthusiastic in their praise of the Greenies, who seemed to have a well-balanced and perfect passing quintette. The next night, the Tulane squad nosed out, in the final minute of the game, the visitors winning by a 20 to 19 score. The third and last game of the North Carolina series resulted in the crushing defeat of the locals. The Tar Heels ran up a 38 to 8 score against the Greenies and at no time did the Olive and Blue five have a semblance of a chance of beating the Carolinians.

Traveling to Tuscaloosa on January 5 the Greenies met and defeated the University of Alabama five by another one-point score. This time the score was 37-36 when the game ended and the Greenie squad left 'Bama all "whooped-up" over their well-earned victory.

The next day the Tulanians traveled to Starkville, the home of Mississippi A. and M., where the Hazelites defeated Tulane by a 54-13 score. Undaunted by their crushing defeat the Greenies came back the next night and grabbed off the smaller end of a 34-12 score.

The Greenies then rested for four days before taking on the University of Georgia basketeers. Georgia, however, proved a too formidable opponent for the locals and piled up a 42-32 score against Coach Bierman's charges. The next night the Tulane squad pulled itself together and held the Bulldogs to a 29-18 score.

Ole Miss, otherwise designated as the University of Mississippi, which later won the 1928 Southern Conference basketball title was the next visitor on the Greenies' list. Ole Miss came, saw and conquered the Greenies, easily taking the two-game series from the locals. In the first game the Mississippians ran up a total of forty-nine points to the Tulane squad's thirty-one. The next night the Ole Miss five ran off with a 43-28 victory, leaving the locals behind in a cloud of heavy dust.

The old saying of "never two without three" was proved correct on January 20 when the Greenies grabbed a 35-23 victory from the University of Clemson floor lads. It seemed like the locals were going to hit their stride thereafter and grab off a few games for themselves, but alas! Clemson the next night came back and took a 34-15 game from the Greenies. This victory on the part of Clemson was a surprise both to the Tulane and Clemson teams, not to mention those who thronged the stands and gallery in the Tulane gymnasium to see the Greenies take the series.

Six days later the Auburn Tiger from the Plains strolled in town, took one look and decided that the two-game series was to be theirs. The Greenies could not stop the Tiger five. The Auburnites ran up a 35-15 score in the first game and in the second they snatched away a 45-18 victory. All through both games much fight was seen in the Greenie squad and it was simply a case of the Greenies not being able to throw goals when they were needed most which caused the defeats.

Louisiana State University, Tulane's traditional foe, was the host of the Greenie basketeers February 3 and 4. The up-staters took the first game by a 47-13 score and then took the second by a 45-18 score. Again during these games it was seen that the local's greatest need was accurate goal shooting, something which had caused their many defeats earlier in the season.

In the second series of games the Bengals played in the Tulane gym, L. S. U. won the first by a 36-20 score, and then ended theirs and Tulane's basketball season by coping the final game by a 41-25 score.

Just what was wrong with the basketball squad is a matter of conjecture even as this book goes to press. It seems that the Greenies were especially weak in the central and forward positions. Tulane failed to get the tap during the throw-up and then the forwards failed to get the ball in the basket once they had it in their possession. Coach Bierman worked long and hard with his charges so it seems that the trouble will have to be attributed to the team itself.

"HAM" BARHAM

BASEBALL

Regardless of the fact that Tulane's baseball team did not win a single conference game during the past season, there is no reason to feel that the season was a failure and the varsity nine was no good.

It is all too true that the ineligibility of several men and the impossibility of others reporting because of hard scholastic programs hurt Tulane's chance in the baseball campaign.

Lack of hitting, errors at crucial moments and men playing in positions unfamiliar to them caused the poor showing of the baseballers last season. It was not the spirit of the team, for they had the same attitude of seeing "Tulane win or die" as other Greenie teams have carried into the battle.

The New Orleans Pelicans engaged the Greenies in a practice game and easily outplayed the Greenies, winning by a score of 15 to 2. It was in the "unlucky fifth" that the Pels' rallies, chasing Captain Hamlin Barham from the mound, ran up nine runs. Sid Sizeler and Paul Couere, erstwhile outfielder, starred for the Olive and Blue lads.

Traveling to the Plains, the home of Auburn Tigers, the Greenies lost two games. With Captain Barham pitching, the Greenies lost the first by a 12-3 score, and in the second, with Bob Porter in the box, the Greenies again succumbed to the Tigers, 6-0.

Bernard McCloskey, relieving both Barham and Porter in their respective games, played superbly; aside from the fact that "Mac" showed Auburn some stellar pitching, he collected two-thirds of Tulane's hits.

The University of Alabama nine journeying here two weeks later, took both games from the Greenies by scores of 15-2 and 11-3. In the first game Barham handled the visitors real well, but the Greenie defense crumbled and a stronger and more experienced squad trounced them. In this game Sid Cohen, brother of the famous Andy Cohen with the New York Giants, started for the Crimson diamondsters. In the second game, with McCloskey on the mound and with almost perfect fielding, a triple play, Marx to Allums to Bruns, put Greenie stock way up, but the Greenie defense again crumbled and the Crimson Tide swept over the Tulanians.

Two games were dropped to the Louisiana State nine two weeks later. It was during the second game that Grevenburg on the mound for the L. S. U. nine, turned in a no-hit, no run game against Tulane, while his mates crossed the plate for four times. The Greenies lost the first game by a 7-1 score. Pat Browne, Tulane's greatest all-round star, playing his last game of Tulane baseball, scored the lone run of the series in the last game.

TRACK

A team as great and glorious in defeat as in victory—such is the description offered of Tulane's tracksters.

Led by Captain Walter Moss, one of the most popular and outstanding of all Tulane athletes, the 1927 track team went through the hardest schedule in the history of the University, defeating Alabama, Ole Miss and losing to the Aggies, Auburn and L. S. U.

The Greenies opened with Auburn as their opponent. The Alabama lads led by "Weemie" Baskin and Euril Snyder swept to a 72 to 40 victory over the local tracksters. Baskin, speediest timber-topper in the Southern Conference, was the individual star of the meet, winning three of the six events he entered, and taking second place in the two others.

John Whatley running against Snyder, gave the Southern Conference title holder a hard fight, but was outdistanced. Moss also running against the Auburnite extended him.

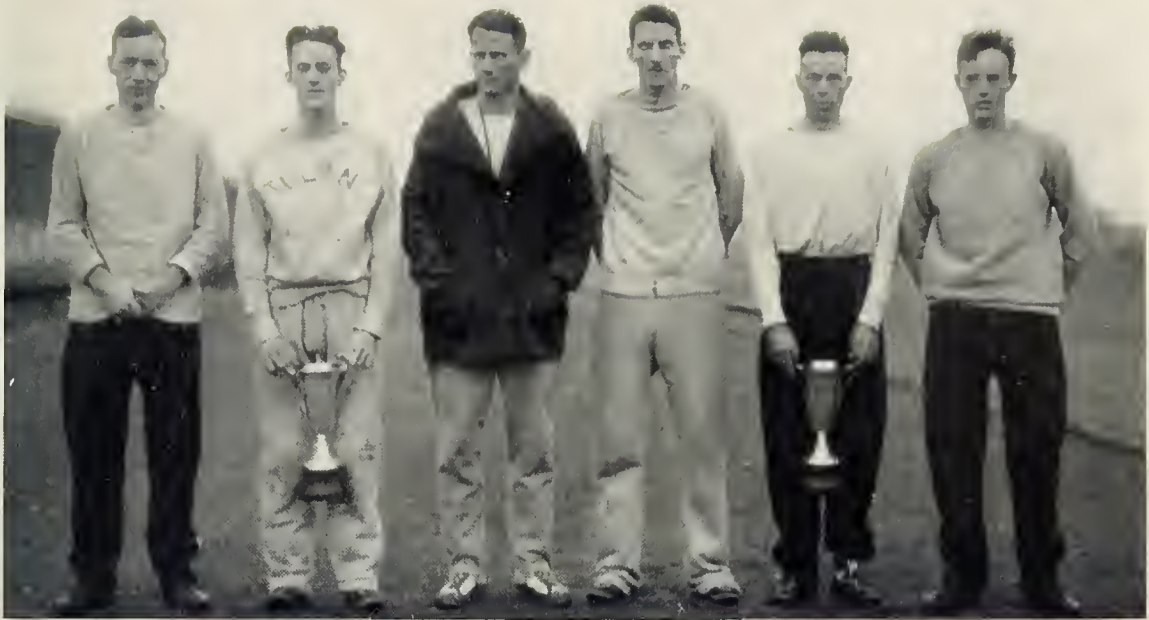

The Greenies battled on practically even terms with the Alabama boys during the first part of the event, but their weaknesses in the weight events, the broad jump and the low hurdles began to tell when the Auburn lads monopolized the first places. Pat Ryan performed notably when he cleared the bar in the high jump with 5 feet, 7 inches. Ryan, it is to be noted, is not quite so tall himself.

In their meet at Tuscaloosa the Greenies defeated the Alabama trackmen by a 62-50 score. Craw Davison was the individual high-point man for Tulane, winning the high hurdles event and tying for first place in the high jump and pole vault.

The best mark of the day was hung up when Charles LeBlanc, Greenie, ran the mile in 4 minutes, 42 seconds. He also won the half mile, beating Royden Lodrigues, a team-mate, in the time of 2 minutes, 6 seconds.

The Aggies waltzed off with the long end of an 81-31 score in their track meet with the Greenies the week after the Alabama meet. Tulane lost mainly for two reasons; the reasons taking the form of Cato and Clark, the latter a famed football player at A. and M., who were the individual high-point men of the day.

For Tulane, LeBlanc and Davison were the stars, each registering many points for the home team. Davison took first place in the pole vault and second in the high hurdles. LeBlanc took first in the half-mile sprint and then came out second in the mile run.

Although the Greenies trounced Ole Miss by a 63-54 score it must not be construed that it was an uneven meet. The meet was not decided until the relay which gave the event to the locals.

Whatley shared scoring honors with Tabb of Ole Miss, each gathering two first places. One of the features of the meet was Davison's leap of 11 feet, 6 inches in the pole vault. LeBlanc kept up his winning streak in the half mile when he hung up a win over Scott of Ole Miss with the fast time of 2 minutes, 7 2-5 seconds. Tulane's greatest weakness lay in her weights squad which only captured one event.

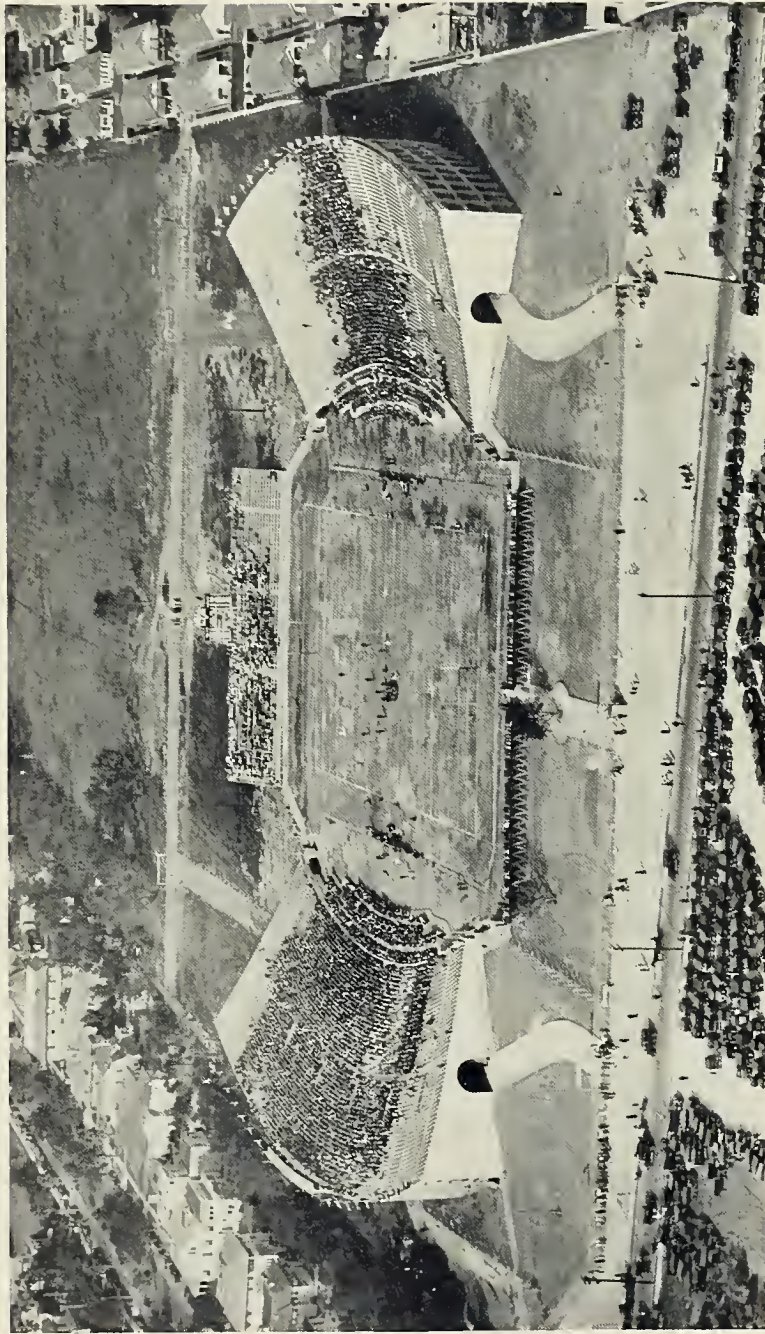

L. S. U.'s track squad trounced the locals in the Tulane stadium by running up an 80-32 score. L. S. U. aggregation later won the Southern Conference title and in their victory over the Greenies they did not surprise any of the large crowd of spectators which attended the event.

Guy Nesom was the star for the upstaters, while for Tulane John Whatley stood out. The tall Tiger took first in the discus and the shot-put. Whatley won the 100 and the 220-yard dashes in an easy manner.

Captain Walter Moss, running his last race for the Olive and Blue, covered himself with glory by taking second place in the 100 and 440. Davison of Tulane tied for first in the pole vault with Fotenot of L. S. U., with a jump of 11 feet, 6 inches.

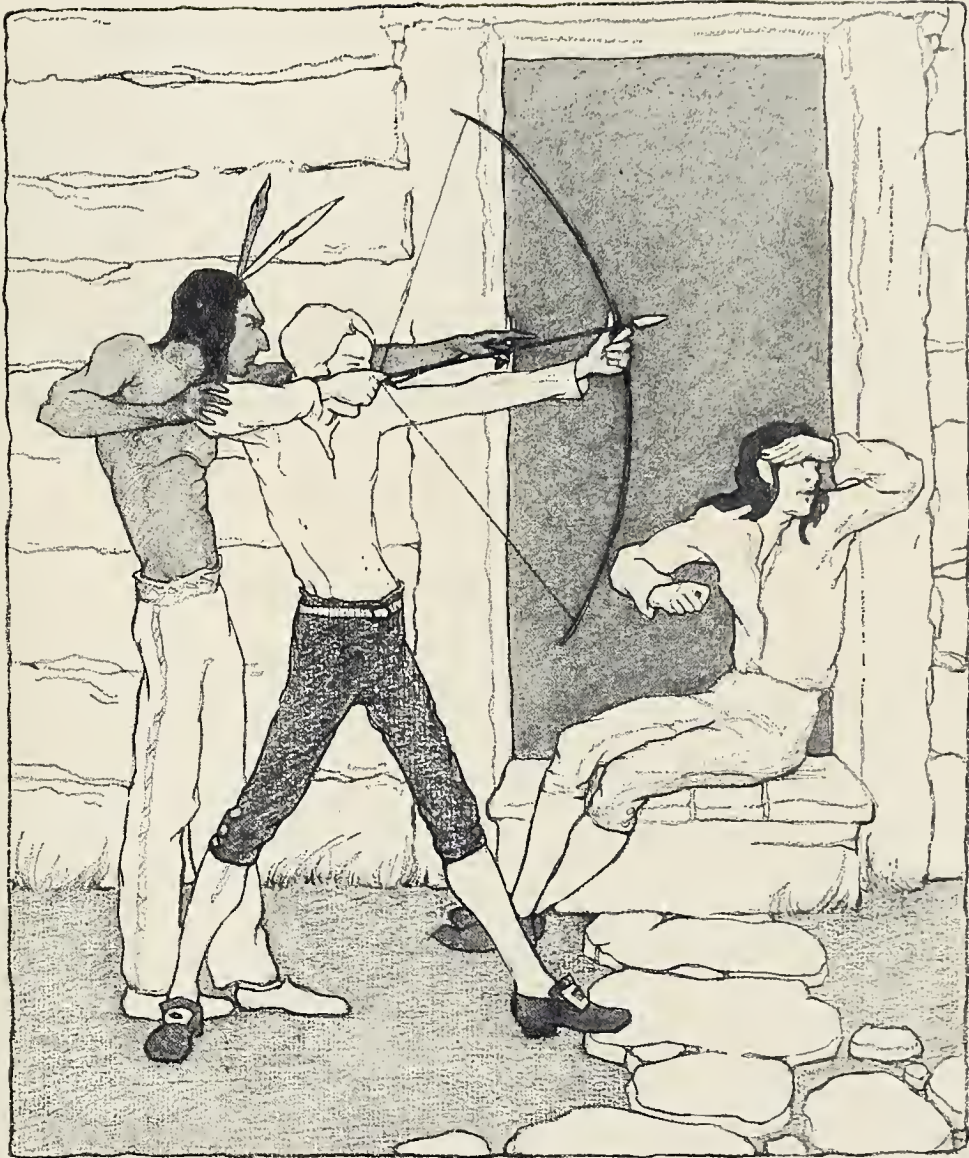

Much of the credit for Tulane's track team is due to the labors of Fritz Oakes, erstwhile coach and assistant physical director, whose never ending efforts were concentrated in amassing a good track team. It seemed last year that Fritz had finally succeeded and this year with Fritz and Captain-elect Harry Monroe working perfectly, there's no telling how good a team the Greenies will have.

THE STADIUM

MINOR SPORTS

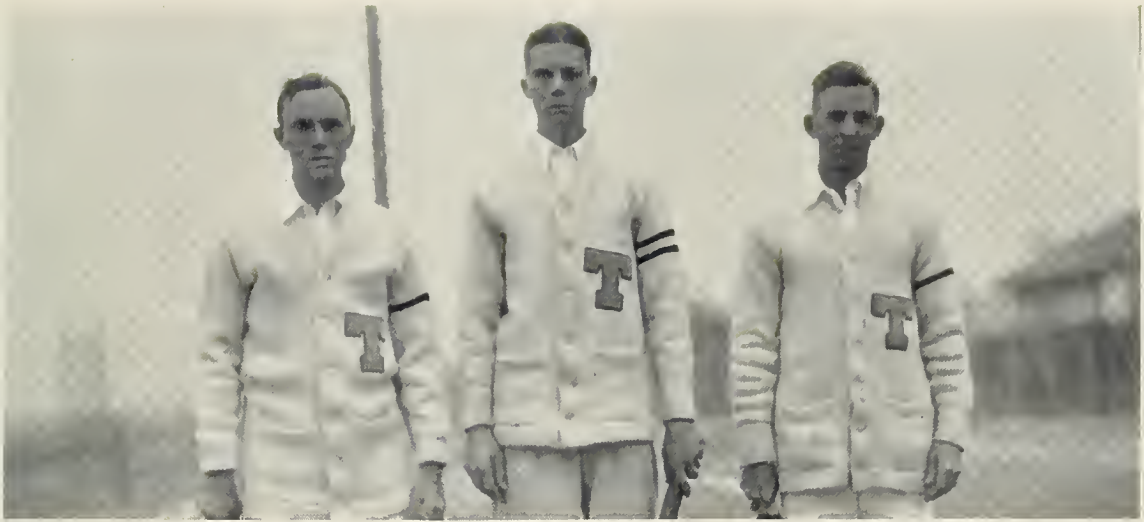

Golf

The ineligibility of Captain Al Reuning put Tulane out of the running in Southern Conference golf last season. The lack of experience on the part of the remaining members of the team, as far as intercollegiate competition was concerned, practically kept the Tulane golfers way out of their former standing in intercollegiate golf.

Captained by the redoubtable Watts Gunn, the Georgia Tech golfers gained a well earned victory over the Tulane team on the links of the New Orleans Country Club and the Metairie Golf Club. The Georgians won five matches to Tulane's one.

Gunn played a brilliant match during most of the match but at times fell a little below his usual standard. Originally paired against Al Reuning in the morning matches, the Tech star negotiated the difficult Country Club course with a 75 to defeat Conrad Collins 5 and 4. Reuning, as said before, was unable to compete.

In the other morning matches Moraland Smith of Tech downed Gordon Johnson of Tulane while Joe Williams, a team-mate of Smith, trounced Leo Haspel. Merriman Irwin, Technician, won from C. Beresford Fox, Jr. In the afternoon matches at Metairie, Gunn and Irwin defeated Collins and Fox. Haspel and Johnson, however, took the measure of Smith and Williams in the last round that afternoon.

Tennis

Tulane's netmen were successful in two out of three matches. They won from Alabama and Louisiana State players, but lost a triangular meet with Texas and Florida.

The victories were featured by excellent playing on the part of the entire team, composed of Phil Bayon, Frank Stewart, Robert Wehrman and Nat Rosenberg.

Prospects for this year's team are exceedingly bright, indicating that Tulane will have one of the strongest teams in the Southern Conference and one that is apt to carry off many honors before the last ball is served in intercollegiate competition.

This year the Greenies will have Leonard Chamberlain and Maurice Bayon, both rated among the first fifteen players in the South, according to a last year's issue of the National Lawn Tennis Bulletin.

There will also be Stewart, Wehrmann and Rosenberg from last year's team and with such stellar players as Woolen Walshe and Herbert Parker and many others to choose from Tulane should have a real good team.

New tennis courts constructed within the confines of the old Tulane stadium on Freret Street caused a spurt of "tennis fever" which was raging high as the JAMBALAYA went to press.

Wrestling

Tulane came second in the Southern A. A. U. wrestling championships conducted last May in the Tulane gymnasium by taking one first and two second places. The Y. M. G. C. team took first by amassing 42 points and the Bogalusa "Y" took third.

Benny Franklin took first in the 126-pound class by defeating Jack Quarles, former Tulanian, in 3 minutes, 45 seconds. Franklin pinned his opponent to the mat, after a hasty tussle, with a reverse Nelson and wristhold.

Billy Carter, defending his 135-pound title, went down to defeat at the hands of Gus Bienvenue, after nine minutes of hard wrestling. Edgar Stayer, a Tulane freshman, was defeated by Laborie of the Y. M. G. C.

Clark of the Y. M. G. C. was given a referee's decision over Mytrus Mangum, Tulane.

The outlook in wrestling for year is very good, as most of the old men are back, and in addition there should be a great deal of new material to report when Captain and Manager Ben Franklin makes his spring call. Possible A. A. U. and Olympic candidates should be among those to report.

NEWCOMB ATHLETICS

NEWCOMB SPORTS

Newcomb's schedule of athletics is probably one of the most complete and all-inclusive of any girls' school of its size. Every sport which the climate or location affords is included in this schedule, and every type of athlete is given a chance to show her worth in her favorite sport. With a personnel and equipment that excels any other Southern school, athletics at Newcomb is one of the main factors of college life. The seasons of sports are elaborate and well planned, for in addition to a continual program of major sports, several minor activities go on at the same time.

Beginning in the fall, the first major sports are Newcomb ball and volley ball. With Jane Hayward as captain, the Sophomores championed the Junior team, captained by Sara Mastin, in Newcomb ball. In volley ball, the Seniors, whose captain was Rosalie Jay, were victors over the Juniors, led by Fannie Mae Bergeron.

A prominent fall event was a progressive tennis tea, at which Mary Allert and Dorothy Chamberlain were the winners. Newcomb basketball, a game originated by Miss Clara Gregory Baer, director of Newcomb Physical Education, was the next major sport. In this the Juniors, with Agnes Marshall as captain, beat the Seniors, captained by Eleanora Waldman.

With a great deal of interest focused on hockey, and with "Gym Night," Spalding basketball, baseball and Field Day in the future, Newcomb's 1927-28 calendar will be quite complete. The champion games are not always purely intramural, for there is the Faculty-Varsity baseball game, and the climax of each sport's season is the Alumnae-Varsity game.

But this schedule of sports does not provide only for the more powerful athletic aspirants, for there is at the same time a full round of minor sports, in which much interest is shown through matches and tournaments. The minor sports include swimming, croquet, bowling, archery, fencing, apparatus work, dancing, and horseshoe pitching. The grand finale of the year's sports is field day, a day on which every athlete is given a chance to shine. The winner in May, 1927, was Elaine Singer.

In order that each girl will receive credit for the work she has both tried and accomplished, there is a system of points. When seven hundred points have been earned, the girl is awarded with a Newcomb "N." Thirteen hundred points gives her a sweater, and seventeen hundred a bar. The greatest honor is a Newcomb bronze and blue blanket, which comes with the score of two thousand points.

Although the interest in Newcomb sports is quite diversified, it has been found by popular vote that Spalding basketball is the most prominent sport on the campus. The Athletic Council chose Patricia Lamb as the most typical exponent of that sport.

Old Pin

By W. SOMMER BENEDICT II

Old pin, you've meant a lot to me,
I guess you know it, 'cause you see,
I've worn you every night and day
For four long years, and happy, say—

The first time that they put you there,
My heart just jumped into the air;
I'd wanted you so bad before,
And now I have you evermore.

* * * *

Say, pal, I hate to give you up,
I feel like an ungrateful pup
To take you off—but how'd I know
That I would want to let you go?

But I'll be seeing you each night,
Unless we have—oh, darn!—a fight;
Old man, you see just how I feel,
Don't you, old pin? Her name's Camille.

She's sweeter than the lotus tree,
That hides the humming honey bee.
You know—you know you do—
She's not the kind to be untrue.

'Cause she told me—last night it was—
She wanted you to wear because,
Now we're engaged 'n'everything,
She'd rather have YOU than a ring.

And maybe, if I'm still alive,
In nineteen forty-four or five,
There'll be a little brother true
Who'll love, and keep, and wear you, too.

* * * *

But if some day we know that she
No longer wants us—you and me—
I guess we'll have to stumble through
Our lives alone—just me and you.

We believe in the tenets of abiding truth which is the guiding star of our Order.

We believe in the helping hand which is the bar which binds us in our calling.

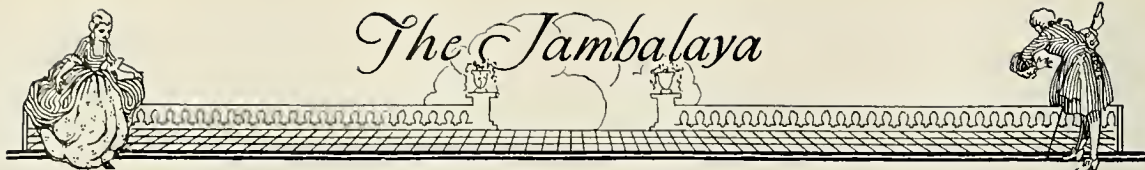

We believe in the unity of service to one another which lends to the weary a word of cheer, to the poor a portion of our share, to the weak a meed of pity, to the stricken a voice of comfort, to the old a memory of youth, and to the wayfarer a help along to the journey's end.

Our emblem will always be an inspiration to duty, remembering it stands for excellence in all things, purity of purpose and honesty of method and effort, with the blessing of an Alma Mater upon each who wears her badge of honor.

May our lives lie among the stars which light the way to the great mystery, and may we so live that when we reach the end of the road we may find the veil, which parted leads to the heights of everlasting peace.

Sic ad Astra!

Tulane Newcomb Christian Union is an organization of Christian students, fostered by the Y. M. C. A. of Tulane and the Y. W. C. A. of Newcomb. The main object of the group is to discuss student problems and to find out in what ways Jesus helps to solve these problems. The unit seeks to bring about a greater fellowship of students, and also to broaden its interests into acts of service. All students of both Tulane and Newcomb are most welcome.

To the Ladies

And when a lady's in the case,
You know, all other things give place.

Gay: FABLES.

Ladies, like variegated tulips show,
'Tis to their changes half their charm we owe.

Pope: MORAL ESSAYS.

Beauty itself doth of itself persuade
The eyes of men without an orator.

Shakespeare: RING OF LUCRECE.

A thing of beauty is a joy forever:
Its loveliness increases; it will never
Pass into nothingness.

Keats: ENDYMION.

If eyes were made for seeing,
Then Beauty is its own excuse for being.

Emerson: THE RHODORA.

Beauty, like wit, to judges should be shown,
Both are most valued where they best are known.

Just a few of the 999,999,999,999,999,987 answers to the original "Who was that Lady I seen you with last night?"

Me: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 You: "That was no lady; that was my brother with his new bell bottom trousers."

First: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Second: "That wasn't last night—it was this morning."

Con: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Sumption: "That wasn't my wife. That was a hob-haired bandit I was giving my money to."

de la Houssaye: "And why do you call me Pilgrim?"
 Any Newcombite: "Because every time you call you make a little progress."

Co-ed: "Who was the gentleman I saw you with last night?"
 Second Dumbell: "That was no gentleman; that was a prohibition agent."

Before: "Who was that lady I seen you kiss on the street last night?"
 After: "That was no lady I kissed on the street; I kissed her on the lips."

Sober: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Full: "That was no lady. That was me dressed up like one—you was drunk and seeing double."

Fulla: "Who was that lady you were with on the street last night?"
 Bull: "We weren't on the street; I was in the gutter."

Coo: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Koo: "I wouldn't ask you that, if you had my wife out last night."

Mary: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Xmas: "That wasn't me—that was two other persons."

Howdy: "What could you be doing with that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Doo: "I could have been playing polo—but I wasn't."

Me: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Too: "Believe it or not, we were waiting for a street car."

Sal: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Vation: "That was no lady, that was Julian Eltinge."

Sar: "Who was that collegian I saw you with yesterday?"
 Castic: "That was no collegian; he just lost his hat."

Ella: "Who was that lady I seen you with last night?"
 Phant: "Really and truly, I cannot tell a lie, as I am a direct descendant of Truthful George Washington, but that was no lady; that was my wife."

This aint fare.

(Suggested by Milton's Masque of Comus)

THE CLASS OF '28 TO THE CLASS OF '27

SATURDAY, MAY 7, 1927.

Mirth and Merriment hold sway in the Enchanted Wood, where Comus, God of Revelry, reigns supreme. This day Comus chooses a Queen, and by means of his magic powers, he causes the Earth to pour forth its gifts in her honor. Bacchus, the father, and Circe, the mother of Comus, come to his rustic court with their followers. Circe gives the Queen a magic sceptre which enables her to glimpse the Palace of Eternity, wherein the Spheres and the Elements move. Sabrina, Goddess of the Silver Lake, who holds the key to the Land of Enchantment, admits mortals, who frolic for the pleasure of the Queen.

AN INTERVIEW

With a College Man Who Went Through College Without a Frat Pin

By SNIPEN SNOOP, Star Correspondent for Jambalaya

The task of a reporter these days of balloon tires and pants, along with the hazards of New Fords, is endless.

If it isn't a queen, it's a movie actor or a man who invented the combination knife, fork and spoon, and you're sent out to interview him about what he thinks of Russia or the problem of birth control.

But the strangest story I have ever ventured upon happened last June, just about the time all universities are getting rid of a group of men who think they will just have to go out and show their goatskins to conquer the world. Anyway, this is how this happened:

The August magazines were on the bookstand, therefore it was June; the Saturday Evening Post had just come out on the streets, this making the day Thursday, and just as I was settling down for a quiet afternoon with static on the radio and rustling of autos in the streets, learning the Black Bottom in ten lessons, the phone rang, and I heard the chief's voice: "That you?"

"No," I answered, "this is my brother, and I'm out of town."

"Well, get hold of yourself right away. I have an assignment for you."

I gave up the alibi. "It's I, after all, I find. I was just mistaken for a moment, chief."

"All the better. Run down to 2222 Twenty-second street. They've just graduated a collegian from Tulane University who in all his career at college was not drafted, dragged or politely urged into a fraternity. I want his views of the Greeks at the St. Charles institution," said the chief.

"Right-o!" I said, as though I had lived in London all my life.

I finished learning that step where you jump up and wiggle and then come down hard on both feet, and hopped a taxi.

Life, as I see it, is very complex. We are living in an age of extreme uncertainty. I have yet to see the man who can jump from the roof of the Roosevelt Hotel and bounce, but after hearing about this man who managed to get through college without a frat pin, I began to believe in Santa Claus again.

The Jambalaya

The taxi drove up to the door, and after arguing with the taxi driver about whether I got my full ride out of the last half mile, the street being bumpy, and me most of the time not on the back seat, I paid him my last $50.00 and gave him a dime tip.

As I entered there I saw Mr. Ima Wonder, alluringly attired in a bathrobe of coon skin, trimmed with ermine, lying back in his luxurious armchair in a disorganized heap, wondering whether he was still drunk from the gin-party of the night before or was that really his diploma he held in his hand after hard years of work. Outside, the rays of the pitiless sun beat an unceasing tattoo on the expansive marble steps, while the howl of the wind and rain reminded me of a zoo at feeding time. It was all very confusing, but at last I was having my much anticipated interview and nothing mattered.

I spoke first. "This is indeed a most remarkable pleasure, have my card."

"Very glad to have you here, Mr. Snap," he said as he read my card upside down.

"Snoop, if you please," I corrected.

"I beg your pardon. I am a little nearsighted, and now just what is it you desire to interview me about?"

"I am sure the readers of my magazine would be glad to hear about your career in Tulane, and how you managed to get through without being made a Greek," said I, pulling a typewriter from my hip pocket and unfolding it.

"There is really nothing I can say that would interest anybody," said the famous youth modestly, but lyingly, as he extracted a bundle of typewritten sheets from the drawer of his desk.

"How did it happen that you did not get into any fraternal organization, and yet managed to get a diploma?" I asked, leaning over my typewriter to get every word.

Whereupon Mr. Wonder smiled, displaying some nifty bridgework and a gold bicuspid.

"It was most peculiar, I might say, accidental, Mr. Slop . . ."

"Snoop, if you don't mind."

"Excuse me. It happened this way," he said. "You can believe it or not, I was waiting for a street car . . ."

"Now, now, Mr. Wonder."

"Now I recall that wasn't it at all. I remember now."

"But, Mr. Wonder," I interrupted, we are getting away from the subject, I reminded him. So I turned to something else.

"Mr. Wonder, what 65plen s & $œ—()???"

"I beg your pardon?"

"My mistake, Mr. Wonder. It is getting quite dark in here, and I couldn't make out the keys on my machine. Could I trouble you to push that light button there . . . Thank you . . . Now then, what are your views of the Greek life on the Tulane campus? Coming from you, a nonfrat man, they will be impartial and most interesting."

His reply, which is not so hot, and not even worth repeating, will be found in the following paragraphs of this narrative.

"Surely," I ventured, "you are in accord with the twenty Greek organizations on the campus."

"Oh, yes," he said, lighting a Murad and being nonchalant, "one is as bad as the other, in my opinion, Mr. Slot."

"Mr. Snoop," I corrected, doubling the "o" and substituting a "p" for a "t". "Very interesting; tell me about them all, and what you really think of each of them."

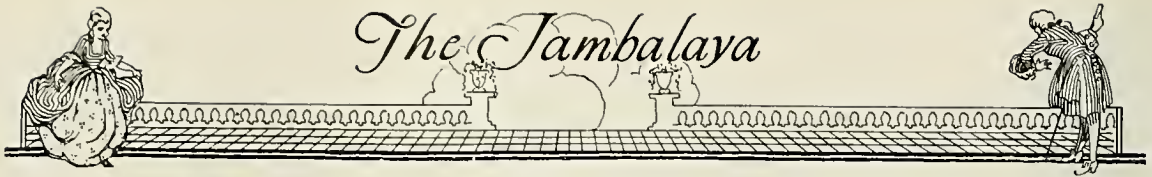

"Are you going to publish this interview, Mr. Scoot," he asked.

"Mr. Snoop," I urged him to call me. "Why, yes."

"Then this will be merely a formal interview, and no real truth in it. For if I told you in Russian what I think of those Greeks in German, and you were to print it in French, I would be arrested in English."

"Very well," I said, just give me a mild opinion.

"Next in line would come the Betas, the D. K. E.'s only rival in pledging contests; they grabbed twenty-three yast year. They're really nice—that is, they try to be. Since Caruso has been dead, McCormick is having much competition gaining notoriety because of the Beta boys. Just the other day in Audubon Park Zoo someone thought the seals were getting fed, but it turned out to be a bunch of the Betas practising the latest opera, 'The Refrain from Smoking.'"

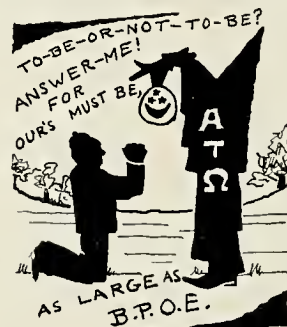

"The Alpha Tau Omega's idea of a good frat is one with a membership as large as the Elks. This can be seen by the number of freshmen they give the bum's rush every September. Nice, why they'll do anything for you—that is, of course, if you are a promising pledge. Occasionally they catch a man off his guard and before he knows what it's all about they have an A. T. O. pledge pin stuck on his coat lapel. But then, of course, have pity, they're a bunch of well-meaning chaps."

"Well, let's consider the D. K. E.'s first. They are the original ancestors of the Mayflowers, or at least they think they are. Last year they pledged the babies of the campus by the wholesale. I was wondering whether "Our Gang" from Hollywood was not an illustrative chapter of the boys here. And their parties—why I've heard someone say they were almost as good as the ones given every night on the boat. But then when you think what blue-blooded boys they have decorating their furniture over at the house, you might forgive them."

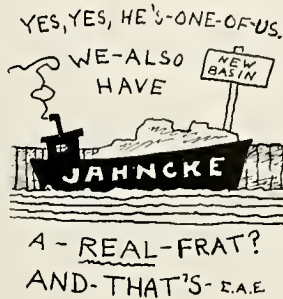

"Have you ever heard of the Sigma Pi's? What? No! Why, then, you have never been on the Tulane campus. They claim they are the one and only salvation among the Greek members; of course, that is their opinion. They promise more than a political candidate. Pledge Sigma Pi, they'll tell you, and you will never flunk. Dean Becky's one of us, and you're bound to get through. And collegiate—why, they never wear anything but plus fours, English cut clothes, and rainbow cravats. And are they socially prominent? Why, they have a monopoly on the 6:30 dates over at Broadway."

The Jambalaya

"Do you like sailing? If so, here's your chance to get a nice ride up the picturesque banks of the new basin on a Jahncke barge. Yes, the big Sand and Gravel man from New Orleans is none other than a Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Not only that, but the S. A. E.'s are a real frat. 'We have an Auxiliary Association, an Alumni Association, etc. We're always in the limelight; we ought to be, we pay enough to our press agents,' the S. A. E.'s will tell you."

"With the clinking of tea cups and the chatter of voices anyone promenading down State Street can tell he is coming upon the Phi Delta Theta's house. 'We like our tea lukewarm and our women nice like we are,' say the Phi Deltas. 'Yes, we're very dignified, nothing rough about us. Any of our members who haven't afternoon classes can be found at the Audubon Tea Room, or some other such rendezvous gargling tea.' You must come over and have tea with us sometime, the Phis yell in chorus."

"The Sigma Nu's are in a class all by themselves; they should be. They're a bad bunch. They don't ask a frosh to pledge in a nice civil manner—they threaten him. If the Sigma Nu's discover a good candidate he has about as much chance of escaping them as a man has of not getting shot in Chicago. But then the boys are not so bad, it's what they feed them that gets them that way. They eat raw meat."

"If you want to find a Sigma Chi, take a stroll to the College Pharmacy; that is where they hold their meetings. They're the one, only and original drug-store cowboys. They're gradually dwindling down to a few members, and unless they lay off of cokes, in a year or two there'll be none left. They're mighty fine chaps, though, and they surely know their ice creams."

The Jambalaya

We suggest this idea

"The country boy's haven. That's what the Kappa Sigs claim to be. They even have pictures of cows and chickens hanging on their walls to make their pledges feel at home. All the boys from the famous bayous of the state are grabbed up by the Kappa Sigs. Yes, they were very much in favor of farm relief; why shouldn't they be—they have to think of home sometimes."

"If you don't want to graduate from Tulane without being a frat man, all you have to do is make out an application blank, filling in your good features, and you are bound to be wearing a Phi Kappa Sig pin before you get your goat-skin. The Phi Kappa Sigs are very accommodating; they'll stretch a point to accommodate a pledge candidate. They are the last word in conveniences."

"Tea social after tea social, the Kappa Alphas flock to. What would Tulane social life come to if it wasn't for this bunch of social hounds? They uphold the dear old name of Tulane in the social spotlight. Once there was a great social function at the B. K. A. Hall, the feature of which was a tea-drinking contest between the Phi Deltas and the K. A.'s. The K. A.'s, after a wonderful gastronomical exhibition, dropped out exhausted, and the Phi Deltas won by a Lip (ton's Tea)."

"There's many a slip between your freshman and senior years, and if you don't watch your step that slip will cost you a membership in the Pi Kappa Alphas. Yes, they've taken advantage of many a green freshman. They're noted for their love of nature and the great open spaces, the opener the better. Their love for the great open spaces can be seen by the way they have their house furnished. It's not furnished, that's the funny part, every room is a great oasis of nothingness. Next time Barnetts has a furniture sale, it is rumored they are going to buy a chair or two."

"Delta Tau Delta must have imported their pledges from Chicago. If you ever happen upon a hard looking bunch of bozos hanging on a corner that look like they are planning to stage a daylight holdup of the Hibernia Bank, don't be alarmed, it's nothing but a gang from the D. T. D.'s house discussing the probability of grabbing a freshman who, from all appearances, looks like 'Bull' Montana's kid brother."

"One day while strolling down St. Charles Avenue I heard a bunch of funny noises. Coming closer, I found it was a conversation between some young men, but they were speaking in an entirely different language. 'Vy, I tell you dot de Z. B. T.'s is de best Semitic frat vot is at Jewlane.' I heard one say. 'You crazy mit der heat, the Kappa Nu's is mooch der better,' another answered. And still a third voice put in, 'You all used to be pretty good, but since ve got a house, Oi, Oi, ve got it over you, my dear Izzy,' said a Sigma Alpha Mu. To decide the argument each one put up a dollar, the one who would pledge the most Israelites next year would be the winner. It is rumored all are trying to import some Fratres from Jerusalem."

"If you can run, play football, tennis, baseball, or even ping-pong, just as long as you have athletic abilities and you're not high-hat enough to get in the D. K. E.'s, then you're certainly welcome over at the Delta Sigma Phi house. The boys keep in training all the time. They race for their meals, fight for the portions, throw the bread to one another and skip classes. And socially, how do they rate—why just ask any telephone operator."

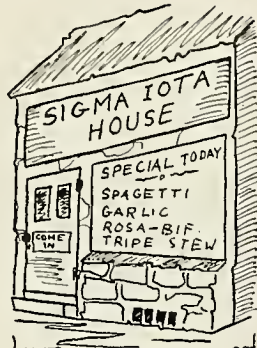

"Have you heard the ballad that one of the Greek orders has got out? It goes like this:
*'Freshmen and Upperclassmen don't you cry.
 If no one wants you, you can go Pi Kappa Phi.'*

It's a fraternity's privilege to bid whom they please, but the Pi Kappa Phi's abuse this privilege; they would bid everybody, if they thought they would accept."

The Jambalaya

THAT GARLIC BUNCH!

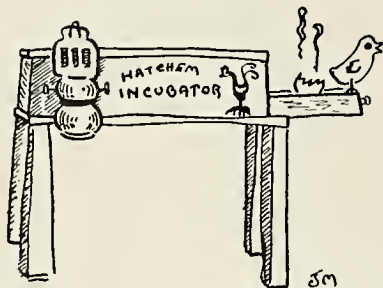

"Sigma Epsilons, the O. T. A.'s are now two years old, and just as bad as when they started. They gave their best, but now he's gone, good old cheer leader, there's nothing left for them to do but to furnish the crowds with music, that is why most of them belong to the band. They holler "Well, give us time, give us time." I am in favor of some judge giving them plenty of time."

After this lengthy information Mr. Wonder sighed heavily. "Now I can understand why you didn't become a frat man, but was just contented to be a college man," I said.

"Yes," said Wonder, "when worse fraternities are made, Tulanians will make them."

It's a funny thing, after all the preparations I made in anticipation of this interview, it may interest you to know that I have had to write most of it from memory. For after I had returned to the office I discovered that while I had succeeded in getting down every bit of the interview just as it took place, I had neglected to put any paper in my typewriter.

"Even your best friend won't tell you. And so it is the case with those garlic gargling Sigma Iotas. I never did like spaghetti, it always got mixed up with my tie, and as far as tripe stew is concerned, I even hate to think about it; it gives me indigestion. Then again my name is not Salvatore, Villarubia or Cortacco, so that is reason enough why I never joined the Garlic Eating bunch at Tulane."

"NO MOTHER TO GUIDE HER"

Jim: "Look out, Big Boy, when you is 'round me, 'cause I'se bad."

George: "How bad is you? Rate yo'self, nigger, rate yo'self!"

Men of Good Taste

INSIST ON THIS GARTER RETRIEVER

Remember when you were at the Pan-Hellenic and your garter came loose? Remember the terrible anguish? The embarrassment was unbearable. You left the dance. Went home afraid, disgusted. And just on account of a little garter. No more need to miss any dances. We, Migentlemen's Accessories, Ink, Moskow, N. X., guarantee hoisting of your garter under the most delicate circumstances. New invention folds into the waistcoat pocket. When the garter breaks, simply jerk retriever from pocket and hook up the elastic again, ON WITH THE DANCE.

Sophie's Correspondence the Summer Before Her Freshman Year

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: We are so collegiate. We have a milk truck and a senile Ford painted in exclusive designs. It is true we occasionally get into little difficulties, due to the fact that we have such high ideals that we have not time to think of mere Pan-Hellenic rules, but just the same we never mean any harm. We want you to come to Newcomb and be a good little Pi Phi. In case anyone should write you that we are not the best thing on the campus, it is dirty rushing; do not pay any heed to it. All that we ask you to do is to join the French Circle (which ought to be easy) and to be athletic. Moreover, in spite of the dirty cracks in the Jamb in the past we ARE trying to be democratic. We are so broad-minded that we let little sisters go Kappa. Sincerely,

PI BETA PHI.

P.S.: And another thing—if YOU don't like us, your mama will.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: We are without doubt the best girls on the campus. Most of the Deans' daughters, all the Phi Beta Kappas, all the faculty, everyone who IS anything, is an A. O. Pi. Not only will we take you to our parties, but to everyone else's—after they are over. We have a hard-earned scholarship cup coming to us if we can ever wrest it from A. E. Phi or have a new one made. If you like our type (which you can't help doing), come with us and we guarantee within six months to make you one of us.

ALPHA OMICRON PI.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Little Sophie: All the Kappa Sigs and all the Chi Omegas are SO glad that you are coming to Newcomb. Wherever you go, whoever you meet, there will always be a Chi Omega among them. If you don't dance, we will teach you. Tell us what office you would like, because, in spite of the fact that we don't politic, we do believe in helping our sisters along. We do enjoy presiding over Pan-Hellenic in spite of the fact that we sometimes forget to come. We are very powerful in that body, and we can force anybody to apologize to anybody else with the assured backing of the two other members of the triple alliance. And don't forget this—if you are a Chi Omega, you are bound to rate with the boy friends.

Yours till we meet at the train,

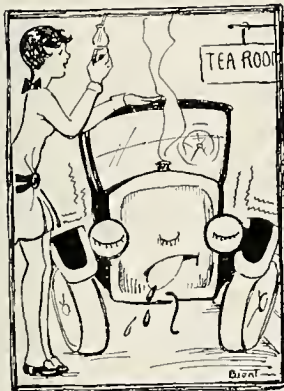

RHO OF CHI OMEGA.

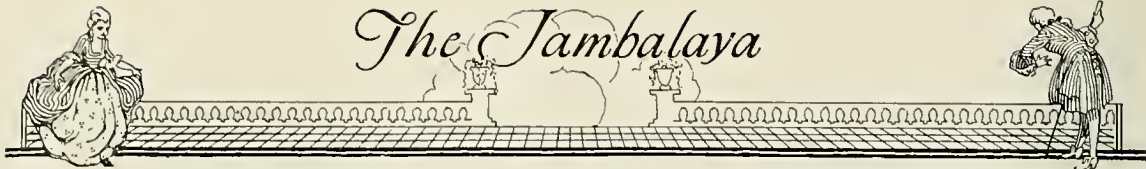

New Orleans, La.

Sophie Dear: You must excuse my handwriting, but I have twenty-eight others to write, so I am in an awful hurry. We believe in quantity. We shall have a big chapter one of these days. We will meet you at the train—even if we have to race down the tracks to beat other people to you. If your papa is a K. A., you know what you are expected to do. Remember, they wrote our ritual. We haven't so many school offices, but, by gum, we have fraternity spirit—and look how we are making the freshmen go out for activities!

PHI MU.

P.S.: If we fail to convince you of OUR merits, let us strong'y recommend as second choice Z. T. A.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: Enclosed find a date card. Some narrow-minded people think we shouldn't send them out for another six months, so maybe you had better not say anything about it. We are nice law-abiding girls. We know you will love to be a Kappa Kappa Gamma, because then you will be so prominent on the campus. We have nothing against anyone, but our consciences are rather strict and we do believe that little penalties make people remember things. Moreover, we have such a desirable type of alumnae that we never have to break rules. We may not have so many Phi Beta Kappas, but we ARE the belles of the balls.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: We have a good national. Our national is really marvelous. We do not mean to indicate that this is not a good chapter, but we just want to impress upon you that we have a good national. Come to our slumber party and you will get a liberal education. By the way, we have just had a good year, with an eye to the future (we are glad that you have five little sisters), and now, by heck, we defy anyone to say that we are not the best thing on the campus. If you are a Theta, you can be sure of bursting into print. Upon receipt of this letter we are sure that you will want to promise Theta without even waiting to look us over. Hopefully,

KAPPA ALPHA THETA.

New Orleans, La.

Sophie Dear! Do you like to act? If so, we are the girls for you. We all go out for dramatics. And you will be glad to hear that we no longer have to meet in a clothes closet. We'll admit the new room is not much bigger, but you have no idea how many nice girls can fit in ten square inches of beaverboard, and three windows prevent suffocation. We need you badly, because all of our Student Body officers are graduating in 1928, and our real reason for writing you is that you are president of the Hickville Debating Club. Yours for a bigger and better Zeta.

ZETA TAU ALPHA.

P. S.: We forgot—if you don't go Zeta, for Gawd's sake go Phi Mu!

New Orleans, La.

My Dear Sophie: We hope that you are duly impressed with this letter, because we really do not have to rush. We wish you to note that in the recent mud-slinging contest we escaped unscathed. Nobody ain't got nothing on us. If ALL of our girls didn't get major offices, we at least have a majority in the C. P. N.—and there are always the past May Courts to fall back on. Just because you are invited to our party, don't get conceited, because we count out and only every thirtieth girl gets a bid.

Hoping that you will be one of the lucky three,

Sincerely,

EPSILON OF ALPHA EPSILON PHI.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: We are resting on our laurels and taking life easy, but don't get alarmed. We can still turn out and vote when the occasion demands it. But we have gone past the office-seeking stage, for, after all, one Student Body President is enough to give us background. We are earnest girls, but do not get the impression that we are puritanical. We can outsmoke anybody on the campus except the Thetas, and with your kind assistance we might be able to heat even them.

Enclosed find a carton of Lucky Strikes with the compliments of ALPHA PI EPSILON.

New Orleans, La.

Sophie, Chere: We haven't seen you yet, but any girl with all nineties in high school must be worth having. By gum, you are our type. No girl is admitted with an average of less than eighty-five. And look how we stand with the faculty. We are getting a monopoly on the Music School. Nobody has the low-down on us because we are so exclusive and keep to ourselves. However, we are spreading out and extending bids to a few out-of-town girls, so you can entertain some small hope.

Yours, ZETA SIGMA.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Sophie: We are in reality the daughters of the landed aristocracy of Louisiana. We are, consequently, very exclusive. Despite anything Pi Phi or Theta may tell you, we are the oldest fraternal organization for women. After a long struggle we have at last gotten a few people interested in activities. As yet we haven't been able to rake off many offices, but we have an option on the chairmanship of all hard-working committees. At present we are specializing in the intelligentsia. There is some good debating material on hand, but we are biding our time. You won't be sorry if you promise A. D. Pi. With best wishes,

ALPHA DELTA PI.

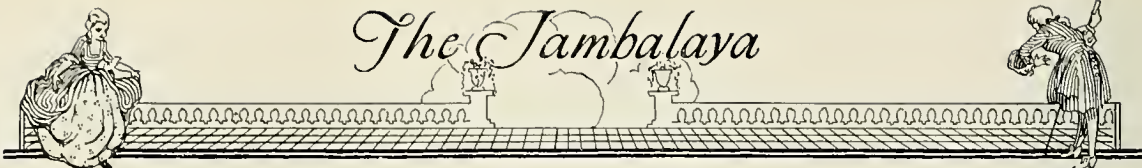

Hickville, July 20.

Dear Girls: It was very sweet of all of you to write to me, and I enjoyed hearing from you. After getting all eleven letters, though, I decided that the life at Newcomb is too complicated for a girl like me, so I am going to Ward-Belmont, where there are no fraternities. Thank you just the same.

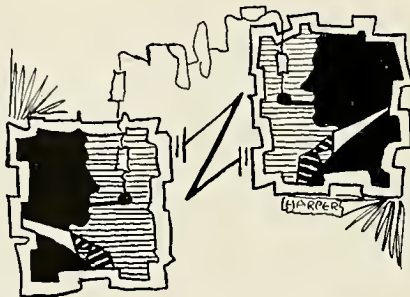

Hoping you have a successful rushing season,

SOPHIE GREEN.
