The New-Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE — NEW-ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 29, 1850. WAGNE & WEINIG, Proprietors, No. 33 CHARTRES ST.

Vol. [illegible] Nos. 6270.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

[illegible] (in advance) $ 2 00
[illegible] 5 00
[illegible] Dollar for every TEN lines
[illegible] each subsequent one, 50
[illegible] Dollars for one dollar
[illegible] for every TEN lines for each [illegible]

☞ The number of Annual Advertisements [illegible] contracted to within the limit of the [illegible] and to extend to none [illegible]

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

Official Journal of the State, General Council, First Municipality and Board of Legislators.

Tuesday Morning, Oct. 29, 1850.

[illegible] Mail came through yesterday [illegible]

THE FREE SOIL CONVENTION—THE WASHINGTON UNION.

The Washington Union opens its fire on the Free Soil Convention, and the Union Convention, and the Whig convention held in Syracuse, and the Whig convention held in New York. It [illegible] the Whig leaders to stand with the [illegible] Democracy in the approaching [illegible] election, and with the [illegible] Democracy by maintaining the [illegible] Whig ascendancy in the Administration [illegible] Whig party. In this connection [illegible] the Whig party in the State of New York, and [illegible] with the [illegible] Whig party in the Union, [illegible] the Whig party [illegible] the Whig party [illegible] the Whig party