TAKE NO CHANCES ON MISSING THE BIG ALL-STAR VAUDEVILLE SHOW

Next Monday Night at the Arcade Theatre—Narberth Suffragists Preparing to Out-Do Keith's—A Confidential Statement From the Press Agent

Next Monday night— Well, next Monday, December 4, is going to be the biggest night of its kind Narberth has ever seen. The old burg has seen several of the finest minstrel shows in captivity; a short time ago there was a tennis banquet of the first order, and only last Thursday the base ball banquet record was broken. But now it's a new stunt—an all-star vaudeville, and it begins at 8.15 o'clock sharp, next Monday evening in the Arcade Theatre. The performance is for the benefit of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage Party, and the performers are for the most part local suffragists. Make no mistake about this show—it's going to be regular vaudeville, and if Harry Jordan, the manager of Keith's Philadelphia Theatre, knew what was coming off here in our town next Monday night he'd be at the stage door of the Arcade Theatre with a handful of signed-up contracts, already for Narberth's talented vaudevillians to fill in their own figures the minute the show was over. There's no use trying to picture with mere words just what's on the program; it couldn't be done. The only way to make sure of seeing the big all-star show is to be on hand early, next Monday night, and get a good seat.

Even the press agent found it difficult to find adequate language to express himself. Finally Our Town's reporter urged him to make just a brief statement, and he said: "You may quote me—and be very careful, young man, to get this right—that this vaudeville show is going to make Christmas week at Keith's look like Wanamaker's Chestnut street entrance at 5 o'clock of a Sunday morning. "And you may also say, that Pavlowa's absence from Philadelphia, and Isadora Duncan's retirement, are due entirely to professional jealousy arising from reports received by these two artists of a dancing specialty arranged for next Monday evening's performance. The management has strictly forbidden my going into details, permitting me merely to state that never in the history of the terpsichorean art—yes, that's right, t-e-r-p-s-i-c-h-o-r-e-a-n; say, you're a little new at this reporting game, aren't you? Well, I'll help you all I can. "How much of that did you get? Yes, that's the phrase—terpsichorean art; never, I say, has the public had the opportunity to witness such a marvelous exhibition of dancing as will be given next Monday evening! "All and all there will be three big features. No, strike that out, young (Continued on Second Page)

FORESTRY EXPERT GIVES FINE TALK TO BIG AUDIENCE

Deputy State Commissioner Williams Sounds Warning Against Waste and Exploitation of Timberlands and Power Streams

An evening of unusual instructiveness and entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed by the several hundred people who attended the second entertainment of the Community Club held at the school house Friday evening, November 24. After Miss Helen Wilson, teacher of music at the Narberth Public School, had sung delightfully and Miss Melchior had read a selection about an impulsive mother, who inadvisedly applied to her offsprings a "new-fangled" method of raising children, as recommended by an editor of a woman's magazine, Mr. Irwin B. Williams, Deputy Commissioner of Forestry for the State of Pennsylvania, was introduced by Mr. McCarter, president of the school board. Mr. Williams talked for more than an hour about forestry in Pennsylvania: The waste, the exploitation and the conservation. The pictures he used in illustrating his talk were particularly interesting and showed with vividness the masterful work of our forestry department. Mr. Williams' ability as a fluent talker and his full acquaintanceship with his subject added materially to the attractiveness of his lecture. The story of forestry in Pennsylvania reads like a romance. So fascinating did it seem to the people present that the Community Club has arranged to have Mr. Williams send literature on the subject to the manager for publication in this paper. Briefly, it was told, how when William Penn first came to America, he was so impressed with the woodlands of our Commonwealth that he named it Penn's Woods. Clearfield, Penna., was given its name because it was the only clearing in the dense forests. Other places were named because of their particular wealth of woodlands. As early as 1794 land speculation in Pennsylvania began and thirty-five years later wholesale exploitation of our timberlands had its inception. For years following the woodlands were ravaged by hungry fortune seekers and it was during this time that damage almost irreparable was done. The woodsmen took only the perfect trees. If a tree were felled and found to have the slightest blemish, it was left untouched, despite the fact that it contained many feet of perfect timber. In selecting the finest specimens, saplings and immature trees were cut down to facilitate the work. Hemlocks were felled for their bark alone, while the stems were left in the woods to rot. Such was the prodigal waste. At that time and until 1640 Pennsylvania stood first as a timber State. To-day it stands twenty-one. The Forestry Department is restoring the timber and the methods it employs are most interesting. With (Continued on Third Page)

Open Letter to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, No. 1.

Gentlemen:— We understand that you contemplate a number of improvements for us, such as a new station on the south side, the removal of the freight tracks at the station, to the north side, and the tunneling of Essex avenue. We surely do need these improvements, and thank you for giving the citizens of Narberth this consideration, as we feel we are entitled to them, principally because we have a greater number of commuters than any town on the Main Line. We are your customers and pay cash in advance. When you increased the fare, we paid without protest, because we believed that you needed the money. Now, if you consider us good customers, give us SERVICE. Good SERVICE is essential in every line of business. Good RAILROAD SERVICE makes satisfied patrons, and satisfied patrons boom the Pennsylvania Railroad and the town in which they live. It is our belief that you should have us feel this way. If so, then what we need, and need badly, is NARBERTH EXPRESS SERVICE mornings and evenings during the rush hours. WHAT can you do for us? PROGRESSIVE. There will be a series of these letters, and we trust that the citizens of Narberth who have been talking about Express Service for the past four years will give their assistance to this cause.—EDITOR.

IMPORTANT Y. M. C. A. MEETING

A joint meeting of managers and directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held Monday evening to consider the situation arising from the resignation of Mr. Ormond L. Hampton as secretary. Efforts had been made to secure a successor to Mr. Hampton, but as it is a matter of great importance to secure the right man, care must be exercised, and nothing can be done in a hurry. To meet this exigency, a number of resolutions were adopted, which are quoted here verbatim: RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED. (1) That on and after December 1st, 1916, no person will be admitted to the Y. M. C. A. Building without showing a membership ticket or being known as a member in good standing. A member has the privilege of bringing an out-of-town friend three times a year. This applies to men, women and children. (2) That to every member of the Community Club a membership ticket be issued for their unexpired term, as follows: A $2 ticket to all ladies who are members of the gymnasium class, and a $1 ticket to all others. (3) That on and after Friday, December 1st, 1916, the Y. M. C. A. Building be closed daily until 7 P. M., until a new secretary be secured with the following exceptions:— It will be opened for the ladies' gymnasium class from 10 to 12 on Tuesdays. It will be opened to the high school gymnasium class every day except Saturday from 2.45 to 4.30 P. M. It will be opened on Saturdays from 1.30 to 6 P. M. for games, and on such other occasions as may be authorized by the chairman of the House Committee of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Robert G. Savill.

Chairman Kreamer appointed a committee of three to take in charge the matter of securing a new secretary, and a general discussion followed on the desirability of securing a professional solicitor to raise a fund for the discharge of the mortgage indebtedness. The matter of canvassing the town thoroughly for an increase in membership was also discussed, as well as details of management of the different departments. A very hopeful feeling prevailed as to the future of the organization, especially if a closer relationship and better understanding be established between the Y. M. C. A. and the affiliated organizations that enjoy its hospitality. A LETTER OF APPRECIATION. November 20, 1916. Chief Charles V. Noel, Narberth Fire Department, Narberth, Pa. My Dear Chief: It is a very pleasing thing to know in time of need you have good friends and I thank you and your comrades for your quick response to the fire at Bryn Mawr and City Line on Sunday evening. While you were not needed you and your men very kindly volunteered their services and if at any time I can be of service to you all, it is only for you to command. Remaining, Yours truly, Mickael Walsh, Battalion Chief. CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS Two cents per word in advance; minimum ten words. TO LET—A room with a private family. Breakfast is desired. Address, "D," Box 738. (8)

The announcement in another column of the resolutions adopted at a recent meeting of the Y. M. C. A. officials is important, inasmuch it indicates a radical change in some of its policies. Admission to the building, enjoyment of game rooms, gymnasium, etc., will hereafter be restricted to members in good standing. This is as it should be, since the liberal attitude of the managers heretofore has not been appreciated, and many acts of rowdiness and destruction of property have occurred, mainly by non-members of the younger set. The Y. M. C. A. of Narberth is a splendid institution that has done incalculable good in the town. It is open to all who are willing to pay the small fee for annual membership, and who are willing to abide by its very reasonable rules. Freedom to destroy books, deface the building and use it for any other destructive purpose are not included in the privileges offered. It is the intention of the managers to hold to strict accountability all such offenders in future.

There appear to have been some slight misunderstandings in the past between the Y. M. C. A. and some of the organizations that meet in the building. These are not serious and can easily be cleared up. As all of these organizations have a common object, namely, the good of the town, and the uplift of the young people, there should be no difficulty in getting together in regard to details. The Y. M. C. A. has the best wishes of the Civic Association for the continued success of its work, and for a happy issue to its financial plans. We commend membership in the Y. M. C. A. to every man and boy in Narberth as an institution that is a credit to the town, and worthy of the support of every resident here.

A SONG OF UNIVERSAL LOVE AND THANKSGIVING

A Soul awoke and took unto itself great claims—
The love of everything—about it.
No matter what another he might say of it—
From lovely sky—to lowly earth—we do inherit—
Should we not in gratitude proclaim it?
With upturned faces—in a voice exclaim it!
That the Angels and those beneath—
Hearing—may their souls bequeath—
To the cause of Love in all its manifestations!

And so—to the rhythmic measures of the Spheres—sing;
I love the face of a little child
With its tender innocence;
I love its every wistful look
Reflecting the mind like an open book.

I love the strength of a strong man's arm,
I love the strength of his mind;
I love the strength that protects from harm
The youth and maiden of his fold.

I love and reverence—serene Old Age
Who has known—both sorrow and mirth;
And risen above the things of pain,
And donated comfort to this old earth.

I love the Soul—congenial to mine.
Who takes me—for what I am;
Understanding that I take him as he is,
And so takes me as I am.

I love the flowers of the garden,
I love the cattle of the field;
I love the birds of the trees,
I love the creatures of the seas;
For they each contribute their own good share,
To the great wide doings in this world without end.

I love the crow of the cock in the morn,
I love the hum of the bee,
I love the whirr of the gentle wind,
I love the roar of the sea.
For each lend a note—to the world of song,
Bringing its music through the day long.

I love the sound of the summer rain.
As it falls from the clouds on high;
It carries a message to fruit and flower,
And they in plenteousness reply.

I love the snows of the winter time.
The chastity of their white;
The glistening silver in the sun;
An etching—seen at night.

So to love all Life doth bring,
Of Summer-Winter-Fall and Spring;
So to love all God hath wrought,
All creation—and what man hath taught.

Narberth Thankful.

Narberth Y. M. C. A. vs. Overbrook Football Team

The Narberth Y. M. C. A. football team will play the strong Overbrook team on Thanksgiving morning at 11 o'clock at Narberth.

The Overbrook team is composed of a number of West Philadelphia High School players and other scholastic stars. Few persons in Narberth realize our team has not been scored upon for two seasons, and it is the boast of the Overbrook team that they will not only score on us, but defeat us. Don't miss the last chance this season to see our boys in action. A little walk up the hill will also serve as an appetizer for the "old Turk."

P. R. R. WRECK DELAYED TRAINS

Main Line and Schuylkill Valley division trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad were delayed Friday afternoon by a freight wreck at Forty-fourth street and Girard avenue. A string of freight cars piled up on the passenger tracks when a coupling broke. No one was injured.

Passenger trains were taken on a wide detour through the freight yard until the wreckage was cleared away. Main line electric were run under steam power as far as Overbrook. The 4.15 Main Line suburban train from Broad Street Station took an hour to get as far as Overbrook.

NARBERTH RESERVES PLAY HIGHLAND PARK ON THURSDAY

Thanksgiving morning at 10 o'clock the Narberth Reserves will play the strong Highland Park football club.

Our Reserves will have an exceptionally strong team on the field. They have already played the Highland Park one game and defeated them 18 to 0.

Some new men will be in Highland Park's line-up.

Do not fail to see this game.

PROGRESS OF THE SEWING FOR WAR SUFFERERS

A very satisfactory and successful meeting of women interested in the sewing for war sufferers was held last Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John F. Smith.

There were present Mrs. Carl Matteson, Mrs. J. W. McAuliffe, Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Greyer, Mrs. James Cole, Mrs. J. S. Roberts, Mrs. Eugene Hurth, Mrs. M. I. French, Mrs. Tristan Du Marias, Mrs. John F. Smith and Mrs. David D. Stickney, and when their packages of home work were opened and counted, we found that we were the proud possessors of one hundred and fifty slings, all nicely made and ready for as many poor fellows who are destined to suffer the severe pain of a broken bone.

During the afternoon nine hundred and fifty sponges were folded and wrapped, making a total of eleven hundred articles of relief prepared in one week and ready for our first hamper.

In addition to the above we are greatly indebted to Mrs. John B. Williams, Mrs. Robert Pattison, Sr., Mrs. Harry S. Hopper, Mrs. Harry Hartley, Miss Linda Morrow, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Samuel McNabb for contributions of home work.

The sewing will be continued next Monday (December 4th) at the residence of Mrs. D. D. Stickney, 216 Wayne avenue, and as we propose to devote the afternoon to the preparation of large and small shell dressings and swabs (entirely new work) we hope to have a large attendance.

There is no expense connected with our undertaking; we have sufficient materials for some time to come, and all we wish is a large number of willing workers, but if you prefer to do your part at home and will phone any of the women above mentioned, they will gladly see that you are supplied with materials and instructions. One hundred slings have again been distributed this week.

Please remember the time and place, 216 Wayne ave., Monday, December 4th, directly after lunch.

FIRESIDE.

Mrs. Alex. Chambley is giving a bridge Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy Moore is confined to her home with la grippe.

Mrs. A. K. Silver entertained at cards on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Rowand, mother of Mrs. Jos. H. Nash, Merion avenue, has been ill, but is now convalescing.

Mrs. Wm. M. Cameron entertained a few friends at bridge, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Douglass O'Brien, of 228 Essex avenue, has returned from a pleasant sojourn at Atlantic City.

Mrs. N. J. Rowand, of New York, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Kirk, Jr., on Wynnewood avenue.

The sale of fancy articles given for the Episcopal Church at Mrs. Susanne Fay's residence Monday was a great success.

Miss Tillie Sampson and Miss Mabel Austin, of Springfield, Mass., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clement Booth.

Verner Benjamin, Dorothy Bottoms, Marion Bottoms, Catherine Caldwell, Florence Frear, Anita Miller and Dorothy Moore, pupils of Miss Maude Wetherill's school, with Miss Maude Wetherill, Miss Nellie Wetherill, Mrs. I. A. Miller, Mrs. Florence Frear and Lucia Kelm attended the recital given by Miss Kitty Cheatham, in Witherpoon Hall, on Saturday afternoon, November 25.

Found in a Narberth man's lower right hand vest pocket: One nail, two tacks, half match (pointed), one watch locket, one penknife, one small pencil, one memorandum, one washer, two small nuts, one coat button, a few pennies, one safety pin, one postage stamp, three rubber bands, one piece of flake glue, one Hughes' campaign button. Talk about the women's handbags! My Ladye.

CUB VARIOUS TOPICS ARE INTERESTING

His Column Enjoyed By All—
Claims Scarcity of News—
Writes of Base Ball Banquet—
—Other Personal Topics

To the Editor of Our Town.

News scarce this week. Local farmers are resting after a busy harvest. Crops all in, cider's just right, husking bees numerous, and squirrels storing up winter provender down in Nutty Row. The Dahlia Nut has put away his bulbs for the season and is already making excuses for the next. Thanksgiving is upon us. Stray ducks are corralled, but many chickens still at large.

The principal functions of the past week were the base ball banquet and the illustrated lecture on forestry at the school house. The latter didn't draw nearly as well as it deserved. Both these affairs will probably be chronicled by your regular staff, but in passing, I would like to say that the forestry stuff was great—very entertaining and instructive—should have been more thoroughly advertised. As for the base ball banquet, I am not in position to go into details, because it was my fate to be located right between two firing lines while the hostilities were going on, and I had little time to observe other features of the evening's proceedings. When the gunners aimed well, and that was very seldom, I was safe. When the man behind the gun was trying to shoot and avoid being shot at the same time, accuracy was out of the question. Having a hard roll catapulted from a 42-centimeter Jack Johnson bump one on the proboscis while a Vesuvian shower of lump sugar and olives is descending on your "coco," rather disturbs one's equanimity. "Safety first" becomes the rule and listening to the eruptions of after dinner speakers under the circumstances is rather a difficult proposition. Let the pacifists tell the other details, which, by the way, are not half as interesting.

Bill Claghorn, who got religion bad durin' a thunderstorm last July, sez: "These days they need a traffic cop on the primrose path and a weed-cutter on the straight and narrow path."

"hy is it," asks Lou Hess, "that a man will look natural until he gets in front of a camera, and then set himself until he looks like something salvaged from a fire in the wax works?"

Don't be fooled into thinking it's snowing if you see a man walking around town with a white Palm Beach lid. That's Charley Bodansky rushing the season—next summer.

Your correspondent, who is so eager to learn my identity, will please be a little less liberal with the sugar. Vanity is my besetting weakness and it is hard to tell to what all these compliments, which I admit are well deserved, may lead. Besides I hope you will continue to keep my name sub rosa, as I have an uncomfortable feeling that someone is laying for me with an axe and, although I have considerable confidence in my own bravery, the fact is, "I am 'too proud to fight." But say, that was cute of you saying that I was a member of the "younger set." But why the quotation marks?

The Cub.

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER

Miss Margaret Saunders, working delegate for Montgomery county, will speak before the local branch of the Woman's Suffrage Association of Narberth on Friday afternoon, December 1st, at 3 P. M., at the home of Mrs. W. B. Goodall, 108 Dudley avenue.

Miss Saunders comes to us direct from the forty-eighth annual convention of the Suffrage Association, which has just closed at Williamsport, Pa.

This program promises to be one of the most interesting of the year. Come and bring a friend.

(Mrs.) E. H. COCKRILL,
Publicity Committee.

ARTURO PAPALARDO

Teacher of Singing

Pupils taught from the beginning to the final preparation for the concert or operatic stage.

Mr. Papalardo numbers among his pupils: Lucrezia Bori, Metropolitan Opera Co. Paula Witkowska, Boston Opera Co. Ethel Parks, Metropolitan Opera Co. Stella Mette, Chicago Opera Co. Papalardo's European and American successes as conductor of about forty-two operas and as a teacher of the above mentioned pupils affirm his thorough training and high musicianship.

TAKING NO CHANCES.

man; every feature 'll be a headliner. You see, this is an all-star show. None of that Kelly Sisters stuff like Keith put on between 8 and 8.30. The ladies won't stand for it, everything's got to be high class—not high brow, you understand, but 'high class.'

"You might say, though, that the famous Miesen Sisters are on the program, and that four of Narberth's society buds will appear in a novel feature in which the audience will be especially interested.

"And don't forget to say something about the Big Garden feature. This is important, because there are a lot of folks in this town who think they have fine gardens. All right, let 'em think so, but let 'em come around to the Arcade Theatre next Monday evening and then they'll find out what a real garden is! Poor old Burbank, it hurts me every time I think of him.

"And listen, I don't want you to put this in the paper, but I don't mind telling you that it's my confidential opinion that after Sam Bowman and Dinwiddie Walker see that garden next Monday night they'll never, never, enter another flower in your local Flower Show.

"Sure there's going to be a regular playlet; didn't I tell you this was to be a regular show? And, mark you, it's some play!

"What's that? Is it true that Donald Brian and Julia Sanderson are coming out? Yes, it is true, but make no mistake about it, they're going to be in the audience. They're coming for professional reasons. Somebody told them about a stunt that's on the program that fairly made them buzz with curiosity.

"No, I can't tell you the names of the young man and young woman who will take part in this feature. Confidentially? Sure."

And the press agent leaned over and whispered the names in the reporter's ear. Whereat the reporter's whole expression changed; his eyes fairly beamed with surprise and delight, and he exclaimed: "You don't say so!"

"Positively!" replied the press agent. "Absolutely! Do you wonder Brian and Miss Sanderson sat up and took notice when they heard that?"

"But see here, young fellow, I've told you entirely too much already. And don't you forget, don't write this up too strong. Think of those people who may not reach the Arcade until along about 8.10 or 8.15. Suppose they find all the best seats taken? All right, that's a good suggestion, tell 'em again to be sure and get their tickets and to be on hand early.

"Smoke? Good, try one of these, I think you'll find they're very mild, and give this one to Editor Jacobs. Sure, drop in and see me any time you're in the neighborhood. * * * * * That's right, I'll put them in an envelope with your name on it, and leave it at the box office. Just ask the ticket seller for them.

"And don't forget—next Monday evening, December 4, at the Arcade Theatre, the greatest all-star vaudeville performance since the World's Fair."

COMMUNITY CLUB.

Quite a number of members and their friends were present at the meeting of the club last Tuesday at Mrs. Wm. Livingston's house. Miss Mary Blakeston spoke on "Playgrounds and Social Centres." Her talk was enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be held in the Community room of the Y. M. C. A. Building and will be the first of Mrs. J. Owen Phillips' classes on "Creative Thought and Thought Expression."

11—Morning worship. Sermon by the pastor. Selections by chorus choir.

7—Epworth League. Leader, Miss Mildred Smith.

7.45—Evening worship. Gospel song service. Numbers by the chorus choir with Miss Wentz at the organ. Sermon by the pastor.

Thanksgiving Service.

The Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian Church Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. This congregation is asked to co-operate with our sister churches in the matter of having all the congregations well represented. Sermon by the Rev. C. G. Koppel on the theme, "A Nation Losing its Soul."

New Scholars and Classes.

The school for the eighth consecutive week received new scholars last Sunday. Two new classes have been organized and are supplied with splendidly equipped teachers. Two substitute teachers have also been appointed by the superintendent.

The Epworth League.

Miss Compton had the pleasure Sunday evening of addressing a most responsive meeting. Almost thirty young people gave reasons for being thankful. One of the popular reasons for expressing gratitude was for Christian fellowship and the privilege of being professing Christians. Our young people are expressing great interest in evangelism.

Methodism's Gift to Missions.

The Board of Foreign Missions has just announced that the Methodist Episcopal Church of America has given three million dollars for foreign missions during 1916. This amount establishes a high water mark for missions, being the largest amount contributed by any denomination. The local church is glad to have had a small part in helping to reach this great total. May we do better next year.

EVANGEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. John Gordon, D. D., Acting Pastor.

Sunday services:—

9.45 A. M.—Bible school classes for everyone. Combined men and woman's Bible class. Dr. Gordon has consented to be the teacher. All are welcome.

11 A. M.—Morning worship. Dr. Gordon will preach on "Following Christ," followed by the ordinance of the Lord's supper.

7 P. M.—Young people's meeting in charge of Group No. 1. Leader, Lester Peters. Let every member try and be present and bring a friend.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship. Dr. Gordon's subject will be "The Bow at a Venture." We had a splendid attendance last Sunday when four were baptized.

Wednesday, November 29th, 8 P. M.—Covenant meeting. Prayer and praise services led by Dr. Gordon; subject, "Thanksgiving." Do not forget our motto: "Everybody present at the prayer meeting."

Thursday, November 30, 10 A. M.—Union Thanksgiving services at the Presbyterian Church. Sermon by Rev. C. G. Koppel. Our church should be well represented.

Friday, December 1st, 2.30 P. M.—Monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society in the Sunday school room.

6.30 P. M.—Monthly meeting of the Teachers' Association. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Pinkham will be the guests.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister.

Meetings for next Sunday as follows:—

10 A. M.—Sabbath school. A place and a welcome for all.

11 A. M.—Public worship. The pastor will preach on the theme, "The First and Most Important Gift." During this meeting Mr. Walton M. Wentz will be solemnly ordained and installed as deacon in this church, and Mr. William J. Kirkpatrick will be re-installed as deacon.

7 P. M.—Christian Endeavor meeting. All young people invited. It will be a "consecration meeting," led by Miss Helen McQuilkin.

8 P. M.—Evening worship. Sermon theme, "The Crime of Unconcern."

Church Notes.

The study of the Epistle of Hebrews at the mid-week prayer meeting is proving both interesting and helpful. Next Wednesday evening the third chapter of the Epistle will be considered. On Wednesday evening of this week (November 29) the Young Ladies' Bible Class will have charge of the meeting and have planned a most attractive program.

The Union Thanksgiving service will be held in this church on the morning of Thanksgiving Day at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Koppel will deliver the sermon. Miss Helen Wilson will sing and Miss Achsah Wentz will preside at the organ.

ALL SAINTS' P. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Andrew S. Burke, Rector.

The services at All Saints' P. E. Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenues, for next Sunday are as follows:

8.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.

9.45 A. M.—Sunday School.

11.00 A. M.—Holy Communion and sermon.

4.00 P. M.—Evening prayer.

On next Thursday, November 30, there will be a Thanksgiving service at All Saints' Church at eleven o'clock in the morning. The collection taken at that service will go toward the maintenance of the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia.

Contributions will also be accepted on the following Sunday for the same cause.

Dr. Burke extends a most cordial invitation to any new Episcopalian families who have moved to Narberth, Wynnewood, Ardmore and vicinity to make All Saints' Church their place for public worship.

The church has provided free busses that leave Wynnewood and Narberth stations at 10.40 on Sunday mornings. You are urged to use them.

headquarters at Mt. Alto it is replanting desolate areas, reclaiming worthless lands, growing trees on mountain tops and rehabilitating mountain streams, which are to be harnessed to modern industry.

In concluding, Mr. Williams told of the finances of his department and how it, through leasing privileges to manufactures and eventually supplying power to industry and the State, would put money into the State treasury with which to extend education and other worthy undertakings of the government.

The next Community Club entertainment will be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening, December 29. The Deitrics, musical and comedy entertainers, will be the attraction.

IN WYNEWOOD

Residents of Wynnewood on Tuesday saw a doe deer running loose on the N. Parker Shortridge estate, and when some boys and young men tried to corral the animal it qualified as the champion jumper of Montgomery county, clearing several high fences and disappearing across the fields toward the Mill Creek Valley.

We learn with great regret of the death from pneumonia of Mrs. Emma C. Miller, wife of Rev. J. P. Miller, D. D., former pastor of the Narberth Methodist Church, on Sunday, November 26th, 1916, at 10.30 P. M. Interment Wednesday, 29th inst., at 2.30 P. M., at Parker Ford.

It's so much easier to pay compliments than bills.

YES, IT WAS SOME BASEBALL BANQUET

Fans Dine and Honor Narberth's 1916 Championship Team at Elm Hall

In beginning this well nigh super-human job of describing what happened in Elm Hall last Thursday evening, it seems but just to newcomers in Narberth to explain that the occasion was not a reproduction of the Battle of the Somme for a moving picture operator, but an earnest effort on the part of our town's fans to do proper honor to the Narberth baseball team, Main Line Champions of 1916.

A noted war correspondent like the late Richard Harding Davis would probably have pictured the scene something like:—

Toastmaster — representative-elect — and member of the Narberth team since 1871, Flick Stites entirely surrounded by noise; with the air full of toy balloons, and everybody beating on the tables with miniature base ball bats.

And incidentally, those bats were one grand little idea, and to think it originated with Ted Dold, than whom there isn't a quieter and more retiring rooter in the whole burg. But that's the peculiar thing about base ball—the extraordinary effect it has upon otherwise peace-loving citizen.

But quite aside from Mr. Dold and his machine gun novelty, it was, as a former prominent resident of Archey road once said: "A gr-and occasion." From the moment of Toastmaster Stites' well-known "be seated, gentlemen," until the final words fell from the silver tipped tongue of Colonel Guyon Gray, it was a big evening.

The diners numbered considerably more than a hundred and were seated at two long tables, which, to borrow the favorite phrase of the editor of the Small Town Bugle, "literally groaned under the weight of the good things."

To add to the gayety of the affair a singer and accompanist, operating up near the stage, filled the air with popular songs, in which everybody joined, as the spirit moved them.

After the coffee was served and the atmosphere was redolent with the aroma of the namesake of the founder of that well known institution at the upper end of Corinthian avenue (sure, you know what we mean, its right across the street from the German Hospital) then it was that Mt. Stites began calling on the "poor wretches" who were scheduled to "make a few well chosen remarks."

These included Frank C. Nieweg, of the Interborough League of Delaware county, who referred to base ball as the great democratic sport of the country; Rev. Chris. G. Koppel, Harry Jacobs, E. A. Muschamp, Guyon Gray, Fred Rose, president of the Main Line League, and J. Howard Berry, the University of Pennsylvania foot ball star, and Andy Emanuel, one of the star sleuths of the Philadelphia Detective Bureau. All the speakers praised the Narberth team for the fine work done during the 1916 season. Toastmaster Stites in his introductory remark reviewed some of the most interesting games, and concluded with the announcement that Mr. Berry, who is a Penn base ball star as well as a gridiron hero, would fill an infield position of Narberth's 1917 team. And then there were more cheers.

The gifts were presented by H. C. Gara. Each member of the team received a fine gold signet ring, the design being a ball player in the act of "heaving the hoss hide," as Earl Smith and Charley Dryden and Jimmy Isemenger and all the other veteran base ball writers would put it.

There were also special remembrances for others. Manager Fred Walzer received a Masonic emblem; Official Scorer Earl Smith was given a fine umbrella, and Collector of the Exchequer Ray Jones was the recipient of an automobile robe. And to the whole team the Reach silver cup.

And as we draw to the end it is only fair to say frankly, and as forcibly as we know how, that about 99 44-100 per cent. of the success of the celebration is due to the committee in charge, consisting of Messrs. Rose, Duerr, Dold, Howard, Savill, Greene, Ensinger, Gray, Horner, McClellan, Eyre, Leitch and Jones.

The banqueters included: William J. Henderson, Robert G. Saville, Edwin

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Thanksgiving Special.
Our Pilgrim Fathers little dreamed that their offering thanks to the Almighty, in 1621, would be the beginning of a great religious family festival. They thanked God for the bounteous harvests which were to tide them over the long New England winter.

This year we render thanks to the Giver of All Good that a peaceful prosperity reigns in our midst—that the war fiend and all its detestable hosts have not invaded our shores, and that our beloved land has yielded her increase as never before. Perhaps this increase is providential to enable us to stretch out our hands to help the widows, the fatherless and the other innocent victims.

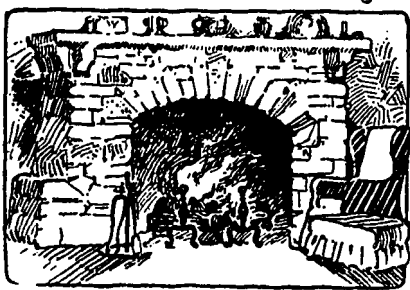

The Narberth Young Men's Christian Association is thankful for the splendid crops of volunteer workers that have rallied round it during the past year. We are thankful for the substantial help of our present contributors. We are thankful for our members and for their sympathetic interest. We are especially thankful for the opportunity to earnestly cooperate in every way for a brighter and better year-round home town.

Boys' Game Room.
Our boys are taking care of their new game room in good shape. A number have contributed "pennants" and the room is much more attractive. The current magazines are receiving quite a bit of attention. Twelve or fifteen new boys have been added to our membership list. "This speaks for itself."

Here is a suggestion to think over: Christmas is coming. Is there a better, more useful gift you could give the boy than a membership in the Young Men's Christian Association? It costs only $3, and he will use it 300 days in the year. Think this over and don't let the opportunity pass. Make your boy a member of the Y. M. C. A. and both you and he will never regret it.

Note of Appreciation.
In view of the fact that my resignation will take effect December 1st, at which time I leave to take the position as Educational Secretary of the Coatesville Young Men's Christian Association, I want to express my sincere appreciation to those who have contributed so willingly both in service and finances. Without the co-operation of such willing and loyal workers the success of the past two years would have been impossible.

A pair of gold spectacles in a black case are at the post office awaiting identification.

Mrs. Edgar Taylor entertained the members of her sewing club at luncheon to-day.

The Tuesday afternoon bridge club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Chambly, Grayling avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cohic, of Merion avenue, witnessed the Army-Navy foot ball game in New York last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Fenno, of Montgomery avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Hinkley, of Philadelphia, Sunday.

Dr. Isaac Sharpless has resigned the presidency of Haverford College, after thirty-three years of continuous service.

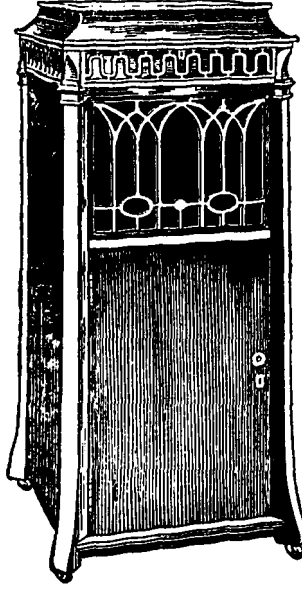

The engagement is announced of Miss Esther A. Haws, sister of Edward S. Haws, to Emil C. Cutler, of Port Deposit, Md.

Several new members were received into the Baptist Church of the Evangel Sunday evening. Dr. J. Milnor Wilbur, of the Baptist Training School of Philadelphia, and former pastor of the church, officiated.

Said a resident of Narberth: "I wouldn't patronize any store that threw its cheap advertising matter all around town, especially in everyone's front yard. Why don't they use the proper medium of exchange—the town paper?"

The Post Office Department has declared the National Mail Order Ex-

In all that we heard about that duck last week not a word was said about how it had been "gotten" in the first place (the facts in the case). May it not be possible that the duck was just trying as best it could to get back home; however, that may be, the party from whom the duck was trying to escape has since received at least two ducks in answer to the ad. in Our Town, which speaks well for that paper as a medium of advertising. The number may even be greater than that, as the count is not yet completed. Some districts still to hear from. Talk about conservation and reducing the high cost of living; this fellow seems to know the game. He simply sounds an alarm about a lost duck, inserts an ad. in Our Town, then sits tight. He gets two ducks, and we are not likely to learn how many more until the count is completed; he refuses to write a note until he is sure of the result.

The above is a new department, and in order that it shall be of the largest use to the community the list should contain the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their name, address, phone number and business or profession, for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
