

BLUE BOOK
BROOKLINE
1892

The image features a highly decorative title for a book. The words "BLUE BOOK" are arched across the top in a stylized, serif font. Below this, the word "BROOKLINE" is centered within a rectangular frame. At the bottom, the year "1892" is also centered within a smaller rectangular frame. The entire composition is embellished with intricate patterns, including floral motifs, scrollwork, and a central crest-like element at the base. The design is symmetrical and has a classic, historical feel.

In presenting this, the seventh volume of the BROOKLINE BLUE BOOK, to our patrons, we are pleased to call attention to the additions and improvements we have made over former issues.

The addition of the alphabetical list, together with the increase in population, brings the book up to an increased size, and we have added certain new and valuable features not found in the previous volumes.

We now publish the "summer residences" and "at home" days of those who have so desired and sent in the necessary information in time. This idea we think will prove of value to our patrons.

We thank the large number of subscribers for their orders, and are confident they will be better satisfied to pay a small sum for a good book than to receive a less complete one free.

We have been careful in selecting our advertisers, and can recommend them as worthy of patronage.

Very respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.

S. N. Ufford & Son (Ladies' forms to

A visit to the establishment of Messrs. Ufford & Son of 12 West Street, revealed to us a business not a little surprising. The beautiful precision attained by their long experience in the art—for it may well be called an art—of producing in papier-mache the exact counterpart of a lady's bust figure enables not only the dressmaker, but the lady in her home, if desired, to fit and draw her dresses. Dress fitting can be made a pleasure if not a pastime.

For a few dollars ladies can avail themselves of Messrs. Uffords' long experience and efforts to lighten one of "Woman's burdens." Thousands of ladies using their "forms" express their satisfaction in such terms as: "Comfort of my life," "Invaluable!" "Worth its weight in gold to me" etc. We have not space to-day to speak of their new Patent Extension Steel Form, that dressmakers say is the best they ever used.—Boston News.

Extra Dividend. A Successful Corporation.

NORTHERN INVESTMENT COMPANY

Basis of Security, valuable Real Estate.
The best Central Business Corners in Sioux City, Iowa.

6 1-2 per cent. Dividends in

Quarterly Payments

AT TRADER'S NATIONAL BANK, BOSTON, MASS.

Par Value Stock, $100.00.

Price of Stock to-day, $103.50.

Subject to advance.

Since the organization of this company great public improvements have been inaugurated in Sioux city, among which are the following :—

A large Railroad and Travel Bridge across the Missouri River, uniting the States of Nebraska and Iowa at Sioux City, and the East and West by the great trunk lines which will cross the Missouri River at this point on their way from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast.

A Terminal Company has been organized in the interest of Sioux City which will afford Passenger and Freight accommodations for the thirteen Railroads now entering the City and others which may make connections in the future. The large Union Depot now being built will cost about $250,000 and will cover about 1½ acres.

The United States has selected a lot of land 150 feet square on which will be erected the coming spring a Post Office, Treasury and United States Court Building; $250,000 having been already appropriated by Congress for this purpose.

The Real Estate of this Company is so located that it derives the full benefit of these developments,

The Wholesale Business of the City has nearly doubled in volume. The Manufacturing and Packing Industries amounted to fifty-five million dollars the last year and are steadily increasing.

INCREASE IN VALUE OF COMPANY'S PROPERTY.

Under these conditions the Real Estate held by the Northern Investment Company has necessarily increased in value.

The increase has been, by a very conservative estimate, $200,000 above the first cost to the Company. Surplus, $78,972,73.

EXTRA DIVIDENDS and REASONS THEREFOR.

This has been made apparent by appraisals given by local experts, and is confirmed by the fact that adjacent corners have recently been purchased by Sioux City bankers at prices sixty per cent. higher than those paid by this Company.

In view of this gain in the Company's assets, an extra scrip dividend to all Stockholders whose names are on the books May 9, 1892, was made, of $2.00 per share.

All the Real Estate of the Company is increasing in value over 10 per cent. per annum at the present time.

The Company pays dividends at the rate of 6½ per cent. per annum, by coupons payable quarterly at Trader's National Bank, Boston, and collectible through any National Bank in the country.

Send or call for pamphlets and full particulars at Offices of the Company.

WABAN'S

— ORIGINAL — PURCHASE —

NEWTON

WABAN is one of the most picturesque of the villages of the City of Newton, situated on the line of the Circuit Road of the Boston & Albany R. R., about 30 minutes ride from Boston. Some of the most desirable lots for building purposes can be obtained on favorable terms and are sold subject to reasonable restrictions. This part of Newton is growing rapidly and attracts the most desirable class of residents. A new school house has been built, city water, gas and electric lights have been introduced, which combined with the natural attractions of fine old shade trees, picturesque scenery, healthy location and near proximity to the Charles River, combine to make Waban the most attractive suburban residence near Boston. Its railroad facilities are unsurpassed, and being on the circuit, trains going either way carry passengers to Boston at short intervals. The rapid and healthy development of Waban justifies the intelligent and advanced methods by which its attractions have been brought to the notice of the best people. The Home Improvement Society has done much in furnishing literary, musical and social entertainments in the new hall recently built.—For terms and particulars apply to FREDERIC H. HENSHAW, Waban, or CHARLES J. PAGE, 82 Devonshire Street, Room 31, Boston.
