GLENDALE (LOS ANGELES POSTOFFICE), LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIF., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1921

Weather—Fair and Warmer

VACATION PLANS FOR SAN GABRIEL CAMP OF Y. M. C. A. GROUPS

Rex Kelley, local Y. M. C. A. secretary, reports that Glendale boys who have been talking about attending the summer camp in San Gabriel canyon are very slow about registering and may lose their chance to go if they do not come through on the enrollment. In other parts of the county registration is going on steadily. Only 250 boys can be accommodated at one time in the camp and for that reason it is necessary to have each party used to capacity throughout the brief vacation period. The camp will open the 21st of the present month and a stay of only two weeks at a time is permitted any party.

Each group must be accompanied by a leader and these leaders are very carefully selected to insure the safety of the boys committed to their care. The chief requisite of such a leader is a Christian character and a desire to serve. Before he can be accepted he must fill out a questionnaire designed to reveal his fitness or unfitness for the position.

Camp Pine Flats is located four miles from Camp Coldbrook in the north fork of the San Gabriel river at an elevation of 6000 feet. It is surrounded by giant pines and is within a few minutes walk of Crystal Lake, a natural reservoir and swimming pool. Dr. E. E. Clark of Alhambra will be at the camp throughout the entire summer. All equipment is supplied except bedding and personal effects. The cooking is under the supervision of Mrs. E. J. Murphy, an experienced and excellent camp cook. $12 covers the entire expense including freight which has to be transported on burrows.

GOVERNOR SIGNS WELFARE BILLS

As anticipated by Assemblyman John Robert White, the bills passed by the California legislature for the relief or welfare of veterans of the world war, have been signed by Governor Stephens and will now become effective as soon as the welfare board for which they provide, can be appointed and begin to function. It is now up to the people to vote the bonds to provide funds to carry out the work of this welfare board at the next regular state election, the legislature having made appropriations for immediate needs.

EDITH W. ROACH AND HARRY H. COOPER ARE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

The Church of the Holy Family was in gala attire yesterday morning for the celebration of the marriage of Harry H. Cooper and Edith Winifred Roach, which took place there at 11 o'clock, Rev. James S. O'Neill officiating.

Friends of these popular young people had decorated the church most beautifully for the occasion, using a profusion of Shasta daisies and Cecil Brunner roses to carry out their dainty pink and white color motif.

The ralling of the chancel was garlanded with blossoms, and an open gateway of flowers led to the sanctuary, where the wedding ceremony took place at the foot of the altar. Chains of daisies and roses roped off the pews and the stately Shasta daisies lent their beauty to adorn the altar also, baby roses giving the contrasting note of color.

The bridal party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mrs. Tom Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Carrere, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, were the attendants, and the church was filled with friends of the young people, who had come to witness the simple but beautiful ceremony.

Miss Dorothea Vogel sang two beautiful solos: "O, Promise Me," and "God Make Me Thine."

The bride was lovely in a dress of

SCHOOL FUNDS NEXT YEAR SAID TO BE LESS THAN IN 1921

Superintendent Richardson D. White Astounded When Advised of Conditions by County Superintendent
Mark Keppel—Bills Signed by Governor

The grist of bills recently signed by Governor Stephens, includes quite a number of school measures. One of these, known as Assembly bill A. B. 439, provides that state support of the schools shall be increased from $15 per pupil, average daily attendance, to $30 per pupil, based on the average daily attendance. This is the measure for which the friends of our schools worked so hard, known then as Amendment 16.

It would seem that its passage by the legislature and ratification by the governor ought to put the schools on easy street, but there appears to be some hitch in the financial program, at least so far as the schools of Los Angeles county.

Last year, it will be remembered, Los Angeles county supervisors, to meet the great shortage in funds that threatened, to seriously cripple the school, increased the tax from 34 cents to 44 cents per $1000 of valuation.

School attendance in Southern California has increased at an unparalleled rate and schools, even with these funds have not found it easy to provide instruction for all who came without violating the school law relative to the number of pupils in a room.

A few days ago Superintendent Richardson D. White telephoned the office of County Superintendent Keppel to ascertain what funds would be available for the Glendale city schools the coming year that the board might get busy preparing its budget. To his amazement he was informed that the amount will be less than last year.

Other school superintendents have the same story to tell and are at sea what to do for the coming year when the demands upon school funds will be greatly increased.

The annual conference of the school trustees of the county will be held in Los Angeles next Saturday and it is probable the cause of this shortage of funds will be investigated at that time and the whole matter thoroughly threshed out. The only explanation that occurs to Mr. White is that the supervisors have cut down the county tax for schools without giving notice of the fact, but that Superintendent Keppel, being in touch with county affairs has been advised of the action.

The outcome of the discussions next Saturday will be awaited with much interest by all friends of Glendale schools.

CELEBRATE EIGHT MONTHS' WORK

Central Avenue Methodist church was the scene of a much enjoyed reception participated in by old and new members of the church last evening, in the church and social hall, celebrating the most successful eight months in the history of the church.

The Ladies Aid were hostesses of the affair, and the guests of the evening did their part to make it a pleasure to everyone.

The formal program consisted of a violin solo by Roger Baker, with Mrs. Warren West at the piano; a reading by Mrs. Reynolds; vocal solo, Mrs. Coke (daughter-in-law of Mrs. Melvina Rose of Garfield avenue), with Mrs. Joseph Marple at the piano; vocal solo, Dr. Joseph Marple; address of welcome to new members, Henry Goodsell; response on behalf of new members, Clark Bowen; greetings and invitation to the services, to new and old members, by the pastor, Rev. V. Hunter Brink.

The congregation was happily surprised by the appearance of James Brown, their Sunday-school superintendent, who has been seriously ill for several months. This was Mr. Brown's first appearance at a social function since his recovery.

Mrs. Loren Mitchell and Mrs. Warren West presided over the frappe bowls. They were assisted by Misses Esther Besant, Williams, Bowen and Helen Muhleman.

MORELAND TRUCK PLANT SHUTS DOWN

The plant of the Moreland Truck Company at Burbank has shut down for two weeks. Delay in getting material is given as one of the reasons for closing, but employees seem glad to have the fortnight's vacation.

There are about 3000 tons of paris green used in this country annually.

White Plague Victims

SACRAMENTO, June 1.—The "white plague" claimed 5397 victims in California alone during 1920, according to a report made public today by the state board of health.

Tuberculosis of the lungs was responsible for the death of 4710 persons and in other forms the disease caused the death of 687 people during the year.

State health officers declared that although the death rate from the dreaded disease in California appears higher by casual examination it is much lower than in a majority of the other states.

WILL HOLD DANCE AND CARD PARTY

Plans are being made by Ramona Institute, Y. L. I., of which Mrs. Frank Salmacia is president, for a card party and a dance at the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles, on Saturday, June 18.

The card party will take place in the afternoon and the evening hours will be devoted to dancing.

The proceeds the young ladies will devote to the fund for the purchase of the handsome Tiffany stained-glass window which they have pledged themselves to give to the new Church of the Holy Family.

CHARLES PADDOCK, CHAMPION, IS ILL

Charles Paddock, the world's champion sprinter, is confined to his home by illness, but hopes to be well enough to attend the Y. M. C. A. round-up at the home of L. C. Brand next Friday, where he has promised to tell the big assembly of boys about some of his experiences in achieving the championship.

MONTE VISTA HOME KITCHEN IS NOW READY FOR ACTION

Last Sunday Glendale workmen again gave service for the Monte Vista Welfare Home and Mrs. Ralph Meeker as usual drove to Sunland to watch their good work and take them a luncheon. Mr. Baldwin went to put zinc on the kitchen tables. Messrs. Thompson, S. F. Jackson, Lee Murdoch and Frank Christman went to lay the linoleum. The kitchen utensils ordered for equipment will come this week and then the four rooms of this department over which Mrs. Meeker and her committee have worked so hard and to which artisans of the city have so generously contributed labor, will be ready for the opening which will take place some time in the near future when the entire building will be open to the inspection of the public.

LECTURE GIVEN BY REV. R. W. MOTTERN

Rev. R. W. Mottern lectured before pupils of the Eagle Rock schools, Friday evening, on "Gettysburg." The talk, which took place at the Central school of which E. E. Harwood of this city is principal, was a patriotic one in anticipation of Memorial Day.

Neal Burns, Christie comedian, is being featured in "Oh, Buddy," with Vera Steadman playing opposite.

Tragic Drama

KNOX, Ind., June 1.—A tragic drama of child life began to unfold here today when Harry Sherman, 11, took the witness stand for the prosecution at the murder trial of 11-year-old Cecil Burkett. Cecil is charged with killing his seven-year-old playmate, Bennie Slavin.

Sherman, the first of a number of child witnesses, testified that he had seen Burkett shoot little Bennie. He declared the youngsters were playing with him in the Burkett yard when Cecil became angry and fired a 22-calibre rifle at Bennie. The boy refused to admit the shooting was accidental.

Under cross-examination Sherman admitted, however, that Cecil had not pointed the gun at Bennie. He repeated that the two boys had been "enemies."

COMMUNITY SING IS GREATLY ENJOYED

Music Week Observance in Glendale Is Started in Auspicious Manner

A representative, but not a large audience, gathered at the high school Tuesday evening for the community sing which initiated the observance of Music Week in Glendale, of which Mrs. C. L. Marlene is chairman.

The sing was led by Mrs. C. A. Parker, who was assisted by members of the Madrigal club, and it proved a wonderful director in the opinion of many, who had enjoyed the series of sings under Mr. Kirchofer, and some were heard to voice the wish that we might have another songs festival under her able direction.

The little pamphlet, "Songs for Music Week," was distributed to those present and everybody sang for about an hour and a half, except during the interval in which the Madrigal club delighted its listeners with a few numbers—"Kentucky Babe" and "Oft in the Stilly Night," which it sings so exquisitely that every listener begs to hear it again. That one number made the evening worth while, if there were no other pleasures.

The sing opened with "America" and closed with "The Star-Spangled Banner," other numbers being "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Dixie," which was sung with great enthusiasm and pep, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," "Old Folks at Home," "Sweet and Low," "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Sweet Genevieve," which was beautifully sung in solo by Mrs. Draper, the audience joining in the second rendition of the chorus.

About the middle of the evening, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones made a brief talk in which she explained the aims of the federation of music clubs and the movement it is promoting to encourage American composers and artists, and invited those present to attend the concert at the First Methodist church next Monday evening, which will conclude the programs of Music Week in Glendale. This concert will be given under the auspices of the Glendale Music club and the Burbank Choral society will participate.

PLANS FOR HIS OWN BIRTHDAY PARTY

Robert Simpson of 319 West Salem street is celebrating his seventh birthday party. When he announced to mother that he had invited some of his school chums and neighbors to a birthday party she was at first dismayed, but concluded he would have a seventh birthday but once and she would make it a happy one, and so there will be a fine birthday cake and ice cream served this afternoon for the boys who will entertain themselves with games, principally baseball.

Victory for Girls

The Girls' Athletic Club of Glendale high and the Girls' ball team went to Anaheim last Friday afternoon where a ball game was played with the Anaheim Girls' team, which resulted in a victory for the Glendale girls. From Anaheim the party, which included 28 girls and three teachers—Miss Hunter, Miss Knight and Miss Schindel—went to Seal Beach and spent the night at the Volker.

THIRTEEN BABIES SEEKING ADOPTION IN THIS COUNTRY

NEW YORK, June 1.—Thirteen baby "pilgrims" from England were among the passengers on the big Cunard liner Aquitania. They are to be adopted into homes under the auspices of the British-American Adoption Committee. There were ten girls and three boys, ranging in age from four weeks to three years, in the unusual party of immigrants.

The "pilgrims" were under the care of Mrs. V. C. Allen, of the English Adoption Society, and three nurses, and occupied a de luxe suite of three rooms—an apartment usually set aside for distinguished passengers.

Captain Sir James Charles, skipper of the liner, found time among his multifarious duties to wander down to the suite de luxe and hold the nursing bottles for the little travellers, and he pledges his word that for once there was superior authority to that of the captain aboard the immense liner. The babies commanded the ship and took especial delight in Sir James's gold braid.

MRS. WEBSTER IS TALENTED MUSICIAN

Mrs. Betty Webster, 318 West Harvard street, was one of the performers on the program given by pupils of Mrs. Cora M. Bowler last evening, at the Hollywood Woman's Club, as their contribution to "Music Week."

Mrs. Webster, besides being a brilliant performer, is a successful piano teacher and an active member of the Glendale Music Club. Her playing of Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 12, last evening, showed her strong technique as well as her intelligent, sympathetic interpretation.

TULSA AN INFERNO OF RACE HATRED AND RIOTING PREVAILS

(By International News Service)

TULSA, Okla., June 1.—Dawn broke today with Tulsa an inferno of race hatred. A reign of terror, marked by the rush of hundreds of armed men through the streets, with frequent clashes between masses of negroes and frenzied white persons, grey steadily in murderous violence during the morning hours, and this morning, law and order had been swept aside. The rioting started last night, following the arrest of Dick Rowland, a negro bootblack, on a charge of assaulting a white elevator girl in the Drexel building on Monday.

The negro was arrested late yesterday and placed in the jail, which is on the second floor of the county court house. Before dark, a small group of negroes were gathered about the jail and their numbers rapidly increased until nearly 200 surrounded the building, refusing to disperse.

There was no outbreak, however, until a policeman attempted to disarm a negro who had a revolver. He resisted, and was shot and killed. Firing then began and when news spread that a white man had been killed in the rioting around the court house, hundreds of armed white persons in automobiles began to arrive in the business section of the city, while hundreds of others began "cruising" in motor cars around the edge of the "black belt." Police and militia were unable to cope with the situation and troops from nearby cities were speeding on special trains to augment the pitifully small numbers who were trying to stem the tide of bloodshed.

Overhead the drone of airplane motors added to the terror. Reports were circulated that the planes were ready to drop bombs on the negro section. This was untrue. It was learned that the planes had been sent aloft to look for a mob of several hundred negroes reported enroute to the city from Muskogee.

Luncheon Tomorrow

An announcement that should bring out a very large attendance at the Forum luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce at the Masonic Temple at noon tomorrow is that the assembly will be addressed by Charles R. Keenan, noted lecturer, who for years has studied at first hand the industrial unrest prevalent in this country. Mr. Keenan's subject will be "Social Unrest" with special reference to the understanding of Bolshevism, I. W. W. and red radicalism, and with plans for their control and elimination.

A community sing and other features will be included in this program, also.

SALARY ORDINANCE IS ADOPTED AT A SPECIAL SESSION

Sycamore Canyon Annexation Defeated—Other Elections June 30

At the special meeting of the board of city trustees, Tuesday evening, two petitions for annexation to Glendale which had been filed with the city clerk were found to bear a sufficient number of signatures and the board named June 30 as date of election for these districts to vote upon the matter. One of these known as the Pacific avenue annexation district lies west of Pacific avenue and between that point and the Grand View district, extending a little east of Pacific and north of the Betcher tract.

The other petition covers what is known as the Viola District. It takes in a small part of Valley View road, and portions of Stocker, Lorraine and Viola streets.

The petition which has been circulated, calling upon city trustees to resubmit to the people of Glendale the proposition to vote bonds in the sum of $26,000 for a building to house city property, was turned in with sufficient signatures to make 15 per cent of the vote at the last municipal election, and the city clerk was ordered to place the same on the ballot.

Trustees also adopted the salary ordinance which will take effect at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1. While it provides for a few increases in salary, in the main, it provides for the present and extra help that will be required to carry on the business of the city the coming year.

The Sycamore canyon election to decide whether that territory should be annexed to Glendale, resulted in defeat for the project by a vote of 9 for and 18 against.

FLOYD CLARKE REVISITS GLENDALE

Floyd Clarke of the John Brown evangelistic party was in the city Tuesday and said he would be here for a day only. He was presumably on his way to Kansas City where his home is, the evangelistic season having been completed with the close of the meetings at Reedley. Mr. Brown is returning to his home at Siloam Springs, Ark., where he will be until the latter part of the summer when he will open meetings in Los Angeles in the Glendale Tabernacle which has been purchased and will be rebuilt for his use in that city.

WOMEN GOLFERS OF AMERICA ARE OUT OF RUNNING FOR BRITISH CUP

(By International News Service)
GLASGOW, June 1.—Three more American women golfers were put out of the running for the British championship at Turnberry today.

Miss Edith Cummings of Chicago, considered the best of the American entrants remaining in the tourney before today's round, was defeated by Miss Joy Winn of England, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow of Philadelphia and Mrs. Quentin Feitner of Chicago, also went down to defeat. Mrs. Barlow lost to Miss Joyce Wethered, 5 up and 4 to play, and Miss Janet Jackson, one of England's best women golfers, overwhelmed Mrs. Feitner, 8 up and 7 to play.

Miss Cecil Leitch, England's champion and favorite, successfully defended her title, winning her third round match handily, not being extended to defeat Miss Jea McCulloch, 2 up and 1 to play.

The last hope of the United States faded out with the defeat of Miss S. A. Fownes of Pittsburg, who was beaten by Mrs. Caitley of Thanet, 6 up and 5 to play. Miss Ada McKenzie of Toronto, who was put out of the competition, losing to Miss D. E. Chambers of Wirral at the 20th hole.

German trade marks will now trade marks for pieces of the Rhine.

HAYS INAUGURATES NEW P.O. SCHEDULES

(By International News Service) WASHINGTON, June 1.—The people of the United States are to be taught to treat postoffice schedules with the same regard as they do those of railroads, if Postmaster-General Will Hays has his way. He has just inaugurated a "mail early" campaign all over the country.

Through the medium of specially trained postoffice employees the "patrons" of his department are being visited and in brief demonstrations taught the value of getting their letters out with regard to collection schedules. Business men and chambers of commerce are being circularized, as they are among the principal beneficiaries of prompt mail delivery.

As an indication of what it is hoped can be done, Mr. Hays cited Washington, the government's home city. Following a brief campaign here, the night burden of incoming mail lightened so much that twenty-two hard-worked night clerks were transferred to daylight posts.

AFRICAN WOMEN STUDY STYLES

(By International News Service) LONDON, June 1.—West African women will soon be wearing the latest English and American fashions, for several native Africa girls are now in London studying dressmaking.

For some time girls who wished to be in the mode have had to wait for the arrival of consignments of smart gowns from Europe, for the local dressmakers hardly produced creations of a style that satisfied their tastes. As a result some enterprising young women of color decided to take the trip to London in order to be trained as modistes.

RATE OF CHILD BIRTH GREATEST IN FALL

(By International News Service) PARIS, June 1.—Throughout the whole civilized world the greatest number of children are born in the months of October and November, according to Dr. E. Apert of the French Children's hospital, who has just completed a study of birth statistics of all civilized countries. Dr. Apert observes that in these two months are born also the largest number of illegitimate children, and that the greatest number of eminent men have birthdays in October and November.

Happy ending: One that brings the story to a close just before they get married.

Why the Daily Bath? Because of Advertising!

(By International News Service) CHICAGO, June 1.—Why people take a daily bath was explained today. Charles H. Mackintosh, advertising expert, said the newspapers were responsible—and the soap manufacturers.

"Daily bathing is merely the result of newspaper advertising," Mr. Mackintosh told the Association of Commerce and Advertisers in session here. "Only a short time ago we bathed once a week and that on Saturday—we while. Now the flood of advertising loosed by soap manufacturers has persuaded us that we aren't Christians unless we bathe daily."

LAURENTIC SALVAGE TO BE ATTEMPTED

(By International News Service) LONDON, June 1.—The admiralty salvage vessel Racer and her tender, the Canadian drifter No. 1, are under orders to leave Portsmouth to renew operations for salvaging the remainder of the gold bullion from the wreck of the armed liner Laurentic, sunk off the north coast of Ireland in January, 1917.

About twelve million in gold was in the Laurentic, of which four million has been recovered. It is hoped to recover the remainder.

She lies in 20 fathoms off one of the wildest parts of the Irish coast. She is practically covered with sand and silt, which has to be removed by powerful pumps. The plates and girders of the wreck have to be blasted away by explosives, making the task of the divers difficult and dangerous.

FLOATING ISLAND TO BE DESTROYED

WORCESTER, Mass., June 1.—Faced with the unusual difficulty of a floating island, the local water commissioners have decided that the most satisfactory way of getting rid of the nuisance is to burn it. The island, which is composed chiefly of peat, is about six feet thick and is located on Horse pond. It is planned to pull the island close to shore, drain off the water in order that it may dry and reduce it to ashes.

Has Changed His Mind

R. E. Lamb, who has been a candidate for membership in the board of city trustees, has withdrawn from the race because of the development of business matters which will take him from home a considerable portion of the time.

ADOPTS LABOR-SAVING DEVICES

By W. H. ATKINS, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, June 1.—The government's economy program calls for wider use of labor-saving machine devices in various executive departments and bureaus. Greater efficiency and savings will be attained, officials said today, by introducing machines more extensively into routine clerical work.

One of the most remarkable devices installed recently is the writing-adding-subtracting-computing machines installed in the war risk bureau. These machines are compact and silent, but turn out a big volume of work.

Aside from the much-needed economy to come from this device, it will prove a benefit to thousands of service men. Remittances to former A. E. F. men hereafter will go out from Washington with less delay, and other service matters will be similarly handled with better dispatch.

Each of the machines is operated by a young woman. The machine, doing the work formerly done by a half dozen or more clerks, computes the net amount due a soldier or beneficiary on account of allotments and allowances, compensation or insurance by accumulating the total of each of six columns, preparing a typewritten payroll in triplicate, writing the check and making a copy in carbon of the transaction. At a single stroke of the key these machines write, add or subtract.

In detailed operation the machines perform mathematical feats that heretofore have been done only by highly trained experts.

The amounts accruing to a soldier or beneficiary for inclusive periods at certain monthly rates are added in the column for accruals. The machine keeps track of the amounts previously paid the soldier, the deductions to be made for insurance premiums. The net amount due the soldier appears automatically in a small dial as the machine reaches the check, which is then written for the exact amount shown.

Experts said that the machines will pay for themselves in three months by cutting down payrolls. The machine combines into a single operation a large number of separate operations. The machines are also equipped for proofreading to reveal possible errors. Finished checks turned out by the machines are written in indelible ink, which cannot be removed without destroying the tissue paper. The checks to the service men are going out in the mails at least 10 days earlier than under old methods.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY HAS A PRIZE COW

(By International News Service) SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 1.—The University of Syracuse is very proud of its Holstein-Friesian milk producer. She's a fine cow and her name is Merdu Jietje. Merdu's record for seven days is 372 pounds of milk and butterfat, equaling 21 pounds of butter. While Merdu is not "registered" at the university, among the faculty and students her standing in percentage is high.

WIRELESS FROM OXFORD TO CAIRO

LONDON, June 1.—The first station in the new Empire wireless chain—Oxford to Cairo—will be working the first week in this month.

India, Singapore, Hong Kong and Australia will be included in the chain.

A committee is still to consider on what terms licenses should be issued in private enterprises.

Gale Henry, who once boasted that she was the homeliest woman in pictures, is supporting Gareth Hughes in the Metro production of "The Hunch." His first starring vehicle for that organization.

PARIS TAXI DRIVERS ORGANIZE SOVIET

(By International News Service) PARIS, June 1.—Paris taxi drivers will not go to Moscow or become in any way affiliated with the Third Internationale. They prefer to run their own little soviet in their own little way on the streets of Paris, where they delight in jostling fares and in generally making a trip round the city as uncomfortable as possible. At a recent meeting to discuss adherence to the Third Internationale the communist drivers lost out by 862 votes against 596. On the other hand, French linotype operators voted for Moscow by a big majority, not without having come to blows with their more moderate colleagues. Both the secretary general and his assistant, moderates, were badly beaten up and had to be taken to the hospital. The police did not interfere.

WHY A WOMAN SCREAMS AT RAT

(By International News Service) LONDON, June 1.—Sir James Cantlie, at a lecture in West Hempstead town hall, said that in the First Book of Samuel we learned that rats carried the plague. Yet until quite recent times scientists did not know that fact.

Why does a woman scream when she sees a rat? Because she knows instinctively it carries disease. Women had that instinct of abhorrence from God. Man, the silly ass, would pick up a rat—the fleas flying from it would bite him. The man would then go home, taking the plague into his own household. "Therefore," Sir James added, "I would advise the women to go on screaming."

COMPLETE MASTODON SKELETON UNEARTHED

(By International News Service) ARLINGTON, Ore., June 1.—The complete skeleton of a mastodon with tusks 9 feet long and 12 inches in diameter, has been discovered in Butcher Knife canyon, four miles east of here. All the bones have not yet been unearthed, but it is believed to be a complete specimen. Arlington citizens plan to have the find exhumed and brought here to be mounted and placed on exhibition for automobile tourists.

William Marshall, sheep herder, made the discovery. He noticed what he thought was a stake protruding from the ground, which on closer investigation proved to be one of the tusks of the prehistoric mammoth.

Y. M. C. A. ROUND-UP AT L. C. BRAND'S

At the county round-up of Y. M. C. A. groups which is to take place at the foothill home of L. C. Brand next Friday night, when the boys, who will arrive from all parts of the county during the afternoon, will camp overnight, a number of parents will be present to assist the Y. M. C. A. leaders and enjoy the fun. In the afternoon the boys will have opportunity to observe at close range the airships of Mr. Brand, and after their camp supper there will be games, stunts and stories around the campfire, as which Mr. Brand will be a guest.

Lyle McAllister of Glendale will be captain of the Glendale pushball team on that occasion, and Darrell Korb, of the cageball team.

Police Notes

It is evident that automobile thieves have no reverence. A. W. Huskins of 417 Ivy street, lost his Chevrolet touring car Sunday night at the Glendale Presbyterian church corner at Cedar and Broadway.

City and county officers have been searching for a young offender, Clarence Kelley, who was being taken to the penitentiary and escaping from his guards leaped from a Southern Pacific train at the Glendale station. So far he has not been located.

SUPERVISOR'S SON TO BE GRADUATED

Midshipman Charles S. Dodge, son of Chairman Jonathan S. Dodge of the board of supervisors, now in school at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, will leave on Friday with the battleship South Carolina for a cruise to Christiania, Norway, and Lisbon, Portugal, returning via the Azores islands and Guantanamo bay, Cuba. The cruise will occupy about a month.

Midshipman is in the graduating class of this year, and expected to graduate in December, but on account of the failure of congress to make the necessary appropriations, this class will not be graduated until the regular time, in June, 1922.

CERRITOS AVENUE P-T. A. MEETING

Cerritos Avenue Parent-Teacher association is holding its final meeting of the year this afternoon when a cantata by children of the seventh grade will be given. Little Helen White will whistle, Mrs. Eustace B. Moore will sing and a speaker from Los Angeles will give an address on the "Power of the Eye." ENGLAND HAS 'WOMAN OF TACT'

(By International News Service) LONDON, June 1.—Mrs. James William Lowther has just finished what is perhaps the most difficult long-distance task for a woman that can be found in the British Empire.

She has not been visible. She has not been wielding any apparent power. She has been neither a suffragist nor anti-suffragist.

She has merely been quietly and very successfully, during sixteen years performing the duties and requirements of "Mrs. Speaker."

She is the wife of the retiring speaker of the house of commons. It's a life-sized job, though in retiring she belittles its difficulties.

"I receive each member at least once a year," she said, "and often several times."

There are nearly 700 members, making a vast social task in itself. "It is one of my duties to look after the speaker's gallery. I arrange who shall be there, just as if it were my own drawing room. It has kept me very busy."

"I have not been responsible for keeping my husband fit," he does that by fencing every morning on the terrace alongside the houses of parliament. Once a steamer, passing down the river, stopped, for the people aboard thought that a real duel was going on. A fencer comes every morning. My husband also rides or walks every day."

The "Mrs. Speakership" is made more difficult even by the tradition that the speaker of the house shall be above partisanship.

"I have never given my vote," Mrs. Lowther declares. "I do not belong to any women's federation, and I have never consented to be president of any women's organization. It is not desirable, that the speaker's wife should do so."

"My only other duty is to be pleasant to everybody. It's quite easy."

Quite easy! Sixteen years of the most delicate social and political tact and diplomacy—an uninterrupted "job" of greater magnitude and longer duration, probably, than any other woman in England can count to her credit, for "Mrs. Prime Ministers" come and go. Mrs. Lowther had early training in affairs of state, for Lord Salisbury was her uncle, and Arthur Balfour is her cousin. Both were prime ministers.

William Collier, stage comedian, may return to the screen as a director.

American War Prisoner Escapes to Polish Border

Success of Soviet Regime Due to Cheka or Terrorist Spy System

Captain Merian C. Cooper

(By International News Service) RIGA, June 1.—Captain Merian C. Cooper of Jacksonville, Fla., who escaped from a Soviet war prisoners' camp near Moscow on April 12 and who walked and rode on freight trains to the Latvian frontier, has arrived here with new stories of the government in Russia. During his eight months in Soviet Russia, Captain Cooper found the prisons bad, but well administered and as good as can be expected.

Captain Cooper gives the entire credit for his successful escape to Lieutenant Sokolowski and Captain Zaleski, two Polish officers who accompanied him. These officers, he relates, succeeded in convincing the peasant and even some of the guards on the railroad bridges that they were escaping Austrian war prisoners and that Cooper was a German prisoner anxious to get home. He says that both men have "real American nerve," for they bluff everyone they met and learned how to flip freight trains with the experience of an American hobo. They also aided Cooper to build the brush leantos at night.

These leantos were not very warm and Captain Cooper tells how they would drive them forth at 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning to continue their tramp munching on their daily ration of a pound of black bread, their only food during the entire trip.

Traded Clothes for Food "The peasant refused to give us food so we had to trade the extra suits of underclothing which we took with us for bread," said Captain Cooper. "When we had traded all of the clothing that we could possibly spare and keep from freezing at night I traded my pipe, which had a silver band on it, for seven pounds of bread and with this we finished the trip."

"The most exciting moment came about three days out of Moscow while we were waiting by the railroad for a freight to pass. Two guards came along and we had to lie in a ditch full of icy water for two hours while they talked of the probability of trade. Another time that I was scared was when we were lying on top of one of the big heating ovens in the home of the peasant smuggler who agreed to get us into Latvia for the price of my shoes and Lieutenant Sokolowski's overcoat.

"The entire family sleeps on these ovens during the winter and beneath there is generally a space for a few pigs or calves. We were up there for 24 hours and the lieutenant slept most of the time and kept me busy holding his nose to stifle his snores when the family was receiving Red soldier callers."

"My information about Russia was gathered from the influx and outflow of the prisoners in the various prison camps where I was stationed and also from the peasants whom I met during the winter when I worked on railroads entering Moscow and during my escape.

"Lenine is still the most popular man in Russia today and his personal following far outnumbers Trotsky. He is idolized and his pictures are found in every conceivable place. Other pictures and posters bear quotations from his speeches which are accepted by the peasants like the gospel, as the negroes say in Florida."

According to Captain Cooper travelers in Russia today will see two pictures of Lenine to every one of Trotsky. A favorite poster is one depicting Karl Marx in the center and flanked with two smaller pictures of the Russian leaders. Trotsky, Cooper declares, has not the confidence of the masses of the people that Lenine has, and many persons expressed the opinion that the biggest single factor holding the Russian government today is Lenine's personal prestige.

"Despite the faith of the people in Lenine the masses of the people are dissatisfied," continued Cooper. "But they are dissatisfied in a hopeless way, for they have accepted the communist government with an air of fatalism and those who might have overturned the present government and established a new government in Russia have all been disposed of. The people are hopeless and say that Russia faces two extremes. One is the continued rule of the communists which is undergoing some modifications and the other is complete anarchy which would come if communism should fail. I believe that the soviets will rule for some time to come."

Fear of the Cheka "The present government of Russia would be a popular government if it could feed the people and if the Cheka were abolished. The Cheka has everyone terrorized. The saying is that one of every four persons is a member of one of the Chekas, or a spy. One of the Russian officers with whom I had been imprisoned and who had been informed that he was to be released told me that at home he had four children and that he was almost afraid to go home to them for the fear that one of them would be a spy.

"Whether or not the Cheka will be abolished is a question. It is probable that the leaders of the systems would not exist very long if it was abolished and so they defend "The Terror," as it is known, as necessary to the transition period through which the country is passing.

"There are several Chekas, military and political, and branches of this organization exist in every group of workers, such as the railroad Cheka. There are even a number of spies in jail.

"And, speaking of the jails, it is very sad to see the children calling at the prisons to see their fathers and mothers. All of the children are Red and they accept the imprisonment of their parents very philosophically. The schools are all Red and the educational program prescribes that the first thing which must be developed in the mind of every child is the 'revolutionary conscience.' And whatever

THEATERS

Palace Grand

At the Palace Grand theater, "The Challenge of the Law," a William Fox production, is being shown today only. The popular William Russell is the star and E. Lloyd Sheldon wrote the story.

As a captain of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, Russell cleans up a fur smuggling exchange single-handed, pursues a band of desperadoes across the desert, runs down the murderer of his pal and of course, wins the girl he loves.

This picture can be recommended as one of the really worth-while productions of the season, because of the clean and wholesome atmosphere throughout, and because it is a vivid story interestingly told, with plenty of thrills and action.

Helen Ferguson, who appears as Russell's leading woman in this picture, is an actress who combines beauty and winsomeness of manner with marked histrionic talent. She is well and favorably known throughout the country.

Glendale Theater

In this picture of great dramatic power Priscilla Dean plays two characters antipodal to each other—a mother and daughter whose only common characteristic is marked histrionic ability.

The mother is a woman who has sunk to depths of iniquity in inverse ratio to her fame and popularity. The daughter, raised in poverty and obscurity, grows to pure and lovely womanhood. Fate brings about the meeting of these two under circumstances that make for intensely dramatic situations.

The outcome in Russia will be it is certain that the coming generation will be communists, for the bolsheviks attach more importance to the care of children than any other branch of their activities.

Unconquered Araucanians

By GEORGE L. COOPER

[Editor's Note: Mr. Cooper, who is not unknown in Glendale, was for several years American consul to Peru. He is now residing at Lincoln, Neb.]

The Araucanians of Chile, the eel country on the southwestern sea-front of South America, is the world's only example of an unbeaten Indian race, says George L. Cooper. The Chilean of today owes his strength, his energy, his initiative to the characteristics inherited from the noble Araucanians, the vigorous and high-typed Indian race of the high plateaus and cooler regions of Chile. These brave and well organized Indians of the uplands maintained a continuous and successful fight against the invading Spanish, which is not surpassed by the resistance of any other native people of the world.

The Spaniard Valdivia was the first to assail them, but his 200 horses were completely routed in 1550, and at a battle near Penco, every Spanish soldier was wounded. The Spaniards were very cruel to the natives, rounding up large numbers, taking them prisoners and cutting off a hand, or an arm, and then sending them back to their comrades as a warning or sign of the power of the Spanish. Valdivia was impressed with the splendid strength of the natives, who fished successfully, mined silver and cultivated their gardens and fields, and organized themselves governmentally with respect to leadership and authority. The Moses of the tribe was Lautaro, who repeatedly out-generaled and defeated the Spaniards, and neither he nor his successors permitted torture, their enemies were killed quickly, a humane act in contrast to the brutal treatment practiced by the Spanish invaders. At last Valdivia was captured and beheaded, each of the native officers dipping their arrows in his blood and eating a piece of his heart, as a sign of unity in their policy of expelling the invaders.

The bloody strife between native and would-be-conquerors lasted for three long centuries, with stretches of peaceful times of preparations by the natives, who organized, abided their time, but finally breaking out fiercer than before, to destroy the Spanish towns and drive the inhabitants out of the territory. The Indian became an expert rider, and there are no better horsemen in the world than the Chileans, 90 per cent or more of the cavalry being descendants of the indomitable Araucanian.

Lautaro, although only 22, and once the stable boy of a Spanish general, became the great emancipator of his people, and arose to heights of power and influence as he waged the holy cause of his people. After winning every battle he fought, he was finally killed at Chiliproc, at the age of 27. Despite the bitterness engendered by

MRS. T. J. MORGAN WILL BE HOSTESS

Mrs. T. J. Morgan, 1142 Campbell avenue, will be hostess on Thursday to the ladies of the Church of the Holy Family and their friends, whom she will entertain with a silver tea in the afternoon and a card party in the evening.

Assistant hostesses are Meses. George Humber, Frank Clerk, T. J. Keleher, Stiles, McClean; Misses Hippie, Irene Morgan and Anna Morgan.

Ethel Clayton's next Paramount picture will be known as "Her Own Money." She has just returned to Los Angeles from a vacation trip to Yosemite valley.

Lila Lee is playing opposite Jack Holt in William de Mille's present production for Paramount, the temporary title of which is "The Stage Door." The story is by Rita Wieman.

the long strife, the life of his youth; his deeds and accomplishments, are half-castes and whites, for it was the admixture of the blood of Lautaro's people in white Spanish veins, that has produced the race that secured the independence of Chile from Spain, and which today is considered the most Yankee like country in South America.

The hate of the Araucanians toward the Spanish was intense, and they fought as if divinely inspired. The great Indian commander Millalemo willed that his body be cremated that his soul, rising to the clouds, would continue to fight the Spaniards in Heaven, should there be any there, as claimed by the priests. At the close of the 17th century it was estimated the attempt to subjugate the Araucanian had cost Spain $34,000,000; 109 generals and 40,000 soldiers, not considering the loss of property and the terrible sufferings and hardships. In 1770 the Spaniards officially recognized Araucania, and made peace. Then came the war of independence, between Chile and Old Spain, the Araucanians were drawn into this, and became the Chileans of today. During the centuries they have so mixed with the Spanish, and so impressed themselves upon them as to form a superior to the early Spaniard, and the blood, the soul and temperament of Chile today is that of the unbeaten and heroic Araucanian.

FEMININE JUSTICE

It has often been argued by opponents of modern feminism that women, whatever benefits they might bring to some branches of public life, were unfitted for court duty, because they would be swayed too much by personal sympathy and would not exemplify the strict, impersonal justice that law courts are supposed to require. It has been insisted particularly that women would not administer sufficiently severe punishment to criminals. A murder case in Cleveland does not bear out this contention.

A young gunman, a member of a gang that had held up two business men, robbed them of their payroll and then shot them in cold blood, was found guilty of first degree murder, after a quick trial and four hours of deliberation, and was promptly sentenced to die in the electric chair. That fact would be remarkable enough in itself, considering the rarity with which the death penalty has been inflicted in Ohio in recent years. The really notable thing about it is that a woman judge presided in that trial and pronounced the death sentence, and a woman, as foreman of the jury, announced the fatal verdict and was mainly instrumental in obtaining it.

Men have grown notoriously tolerant of crime. Here is an effective stroke dealt by women against the sentimentalism that has encouraged lawlessness and thuggery. If this is what it means to have women on juries and on the bench, the country certainly needs more of them.

CHASTISED THE EDITOR

The charter of a Nebraska post of the American Legion has been revoked because the members took the law into their own hands and chastised an editor for publishing matter distasteful to the service men. Perhaps the editor deserved a whipping. A good many do. But the quilt is not the proper answer for the quilt. The leaders of the American Legion everywhere seem to recognize that the great function of the new order is to support and not to combat the orderly enforcement of law. The Legion is already making a record in this matter that promises great things for the stability of American institutions.

GRAVE AND GAY

LAUGH AT THE CALAMITY BOYS

I believe it is wrong for the farmers to listen to the professional calamity boys, and to lose their courage and their confidence. And so long as I have a voice I hope to be able to build up a little hope and a little courage in the hearts of the farmers who are suffering in these untoward times, and I am going to ask them to help me to resist the mushy, demoralizing, disintegrating and wholly harmful wall of the sick-minded. Let's poke a little fun at them. Let's be hard-headed with them—even at the risk of being called hard-headed.

Let's boost for all the constructive work that is being done for better marketing and better agriculture—discounting some of the loose talk that is being indulged in by folks who ought to know better. The battle for a more prosperous farming is not going to be won by the calamity boys. They never won any kind of battle, and never did anything worth while and constructive since the world began. You know that, and I know it. Their morale is bad, in other words—and maybe we can help them more by laughing at them a little than we can by echoing and applauding their cries of distress.—Geo. L. Daniels in Farm Life.

The chief cause of Europe's tears is too many frontiers.

A despot deprives man of liberty; a jackpot frequently deprives him of everything else.

A war for liberty usually gives a people sufficient practice to enable it to handle a mandatory.

If nations keep on enlarging their fleets of battleships, where will they conceal them in time of war?

Some women shoot their husbands to get rid of them, and some fry everything they cook.

How did the railways manage in the old days before they had a switch leading to the treasury?

The shimmy has at least given us a substitute for that shop-worn phrase, "trembling like an aspen leaf."

Congresswoman Robertson says women don't wear extreme dress to attract men. To distract them, perhaps.

"All of our great by-products can be utilized," says an economist. Now what would the gentlemen do with cigar butts?

In an argument with a man, a woman always has the last word; but when a woman engages in a war of words with another woman the result is an irresistible force coming in contact with an immovably body.

WOMAN'S COZY CORNER

By JOSEPHINE FRANCE

Those of Glendale housewives who took advantage of the bargains recently offered by a local store in government canned meats, will be glad for the following, tested recipes in which the government canned meats are used to form delicious and varied dishes.

To open can properly: Meat should come out of can in whole piece; to insure this, make a couple of holes in end of can to let air in—then turn can on one side and start opener at seam and cut all around can; turn out immediately after opening. This applies to all meats except bacon, it being wrapped in oiled paper and does not get rancid after opening; simply keep in a cool place.

Roast of Beef Hot
Place can and contents in kettle of cold water. After water has come to a boil—let 6-lb. can boil 40 minutes; 2-lb. can 25 minutes. Open can as directed. Place on hot platter and serve. (This can be applied to all the meats.)

Corned Beef Hash Fried
Dice one large onion, 2 boiled potatoes and three strips bacon. Fry together until onions are tender. Add 1-lb. can Corned Beef Hash; enough milk to moisten; fry until well browned. Serve hot.

Vienna Sausage and Fried Cabbage
One small head cabbage (either red or white); 4 slices of bacon; 1 can Vienna Sausage, salt and pepper. Cut bacon in small pieces; fry until crisp. Add cabbage, cut as for stew; fry until tender, which should take about 25 minutes. Now turn out fire, place sausage over top and let steam 10 minutes. Serve piping hot.

Roast of Beet Creamed

Dice one large onion; have 2 tablespoons of butter browned in frying pan; put in onion; fry until tender. Pour one pint milk over 1 lb. Roast Beef; add onion, salt and pepper; bring to boiling point; thicken with flour or cornstarch and serve on hot biscuit or toast. (A delightful luncheon dish.)

Bacon and Beans Baked

Have the quantity of beans desired parboiled in salt water. Now take bean jar (or baking pan). Place on bottom generous piece of bacon; 2 small onions, peeled but not sliced; 1 cup of beans; ½ cup catsup, salt and pepper; ½ teaspoon of dry mustard; 3 tablespoons of dark molasses or brown sugar. Now another piece of bacon, and so on until the jar is filled. Add enough water so beans will be moist. Bake in slow oven 6 hours. (Better served the following day.)

Roast Beef Stew

Cut carrots, potatoes, celery and turnips into pieces. Boil in salt water until tender; turn out fire. Cut in pieces 1-lb. can of Roast Beef. Mix thoroughly with vegetables; let stand for half hour, then bring to boiling point; thicken with flour or cornstarch to consistency desired. Serve hot (add salt and pepper to taste).

Corned Beef Hash Salad

One lb. Corned Beef Hash; 1 large onion, ½ lb. shelled walnuts; ½ package seeded raisins; 2 hard boiled eggs; chop (real coarse) onions, eggs, raisins, into hash. Mix generously with salad dressing. Serve chilled on lettuce leaves. (This make a delightful sandwich filling.)

Series of Articles on Patents, Inventions, Etc.

By WILLIAM C. CUTLER of Glendale, California

The result from passing a current of electricity through a high resistance filament enclosed in a vacuum, is light. If a result could be patented it would have prevented any advance over the original crude methods, unless the inventor of the first form discovered a better means or would adopt that of another. Petroleum is subjected to different treatments, each resulting in gasoline. If the processes were new, it would surely be unjust for the patent office to issue but one patent, for every inventor is entitled to protection for the discovery of his particular method.

Q.—Mechanical skill—is it patentable?
A.—No. "A device which displays only the expected skill of the maker's calling and involves only the exercise of ordinary faculties of reasoning upon materials supplied by special knowledge, and facility to manipulation resulting from habitual intelligent practice, is in no sense a creative work of the inventive faculty such as the constitution and patent laws aim to encourage and reward." "Invention indicates genius and the protection of a new idea, and suggests how it may be modified and made more practical." Court opinion.

Q.—Is a change in one element of an old combination patentable?
A.—No, unless a new mode of application is effected which produces an original result.

Q.—Specific motion. Will a patent be allowed for specific motion of a machine?
A.—No; only for the mechanism which produces the motion.

Q.—Aggregation, what is it?
A.—Elements which are individually complete in themselves; a collection of things which, when combined, do not coact, that is, if one element should refuse to operate, such refusal does not stop the machine.

Q.—Aggregation. What is an example of?
A.—Add to the automobile a "self-starter." This is an advantage and patentable but not as a "machine."

It starts the automobile but does not operate in conjunction with it.
Q.—Aggregation. Why cannot it be patented?
A.—Because an aggregation, as explained, means assembly without action. The pencil with a rubber tip was deemed by the court not to coact. It was either a pencil or a rubber, depending upon which end was being used. They did not work together.
Q.—Duplication. Why is it not patentable?
A.—The use of two things instead of one requires no inventive genius to construct.

Q.—Transposition of parts. Why are they not patentable?
A.—Because in the nature of things it would not require invention. For instance, to make a tool stationary and move the part would not be invention, when the prior arrangement had been to move the tool and keep the part stationary.

Q.—Immoral object. Why cannot it be patented?
A.—Because it would be against public morals and as such not useful, a requirement of the statute. Patents for devices to guard against a gambling machine being operated by bogus coins or, to repeat the language of the court, "to prevent another gambler from interfering with an illegal enterprise," and a famous medical device which claimed a new discovery in medical science—deemed to mislead the public—were both declared invalid.

Q.—Adaptation. Why is it not patentable?
A.—Because to adapt requires nothing more than mere mechanical skill. The famous "china" doorknob, attached to the spindle by lead poured around it, was held not to constitute invention.

Q.—Portability. Is it patentable?
A.—No. "Merely putting rollers under an article so as to make it movable, when, without the rollers, it would not be movable, does not involve the inventive faculty, and is not patentable." Court decision.

STUDIO NEWS AND GOSSIP

MAY ALLISON NOW IS HORSE DEVOTEE

It's not back to the farm for May Allison, but it's part way back! It's this far back, at any rate.

The blonde star who is so popular with photoplay patrons, has gone back to the horse of her childhood days down on a southern plantation, and discarded her gasoline-propelled conveyances except on such occasions as she wants to get some place quickly.

The reason, she explains, is purely selfish. "I love horses, she admits. "I guess every southern girl does. But that is not why I have practically banned motoring in favor of horseback riding. I want to keep whatever grace I may have retained through these years of reclining in speeding motor cars."

"The automobile has done more to rob American women of their natural grace than any other single agency. I shudder when I think of the future. I envision women who cannot walk or sit or recline gracefully—because they do not know how."

"With the passing of the horse, we have seen the start of the passing of woman's grace—and grace is woman's chief charm. True grace covers a multitude of faults. The absence of grace emphasizes every fault of face and figure."

"So, I have purchased a riding horse—for my own use. And, believe me, that poor horse has been overworked since he became my property. He would welcome some simple life, like pulling a plow!"

Miss Allison's initial experience with her newly-purchased steed set all Hollywood talking. The horse is a blooded, high-strung animal. But this worried Miss Allison not a bit. Had she not learned to ride when she was a mere slip of a girl? She did not stop to think that since going upon the stage and later the screen she had completely neglected horseback riding for motoring.

Just what happened, or why it happened, Miss Allison does not seem to know. Her fall had no serious consequences, but they were painful for several days.

Her enthusiasm was not dampened by this inauspicious start, and every day she may be seen jogging along some country road near Hollywood.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In announcing his candidacy for the office of city clerk, A. J. Van Wie presents to the voters, as qualifications fitting him for the position, three and one-half years in continued connection in the city hall, and for eight years a resident of old Tropic and Glendale, during which time he had been connected in a capacity requiring the meeting of the public.

Mr. Van Wie states that he fully realizes the importance of the post, the value of the systematic keeping of records so valuable to the welfare of our fast-growing city, the necessity of a minute clerk who is capable of correctly receiving the transactions of the board in the council chamber and the demands of the public to be met and informed of their rights, according to city ordinances.

He further states that he is a firm adherent to the enforcement of all city ordinances in force, and believes in the adoption of laws that protect the public but do not deprive them of any right or rights as an American citizen.

Mr. Van Wie's friends firmly believe that he is the man for the place and will go to the polls confident of his election to this important post in the city government under the new municipal charter.—Advertisement.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY
As a member of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale for the past three years, I hereby announce my candidacy for reelection to office as a member of the City Council under the new city charter. I have been a resident of Glendale and engaged in business here for 14 years. All my interests are here, and I bespeak the support of all who know my record as a citizen and official.
C. H. HENRY.

ANNETTE KELLERMAN'S ADVICE
The last Women's Physical Culture Class of this season will be held Friday morning, 10 o'clock, at Woods' Studio, 122 West Milford Street. A general resume of setting-up exercises, folk dances and special exercises for constipation, given during the course, will be held. Mrs. Nanno Woods will also demonstrate exercises recommended by Annette Kellerman, "the perfect woman," for double chin, protruding abdomen and "scraggy" neck. Class will be resumed in September. Phone Glendale 394.

TO THE VOTERS OF GLENDALE
I announce my candidacy for the office of City Trustee. While I shall not attempt to enumerate a list of reforms or improvements, I will, if elected, endeavor to give the most careful business judgment in my power to the important problems that will present themselves from time to time. However, there is one predominant necessity that shall no longer be postponed, that of sewerage. Every effort will be made by me to assist in solving this problem. If the growth of the business district is to continue we must have a sewerage system. The sewer in the residence district might be postponed for a short time as it probably can be done later at less expense.

You have five trustees to elect and have a large number of worthy candidates to select these from, and should the voters decide to include me in the number confidence and will endeavor more than I would receive from any other candidate to give the most careful business judgment in my power to the important problems that will present themselves from time to time. However, there is one predominant necessity that shall no longer be postponed, that of sewerage. Every effort will be made by me to assist in solving this problem. If the growth of the business district is to continue we must have a sewerage system. The sewer in the residence district might be postponed for a short time as it probably can be done later at less expense.

S. A. DAVIS,
118 West Colorado Street.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY
I wish to announce that I am a candidate for reelection to the office of Trustee of the City of Glendale, and respectfully ask for the support of the voters of our town.
ANN P. BARTLETT (Mrs. H. E.)

GLENDALE JUVENILE MUSIC CLUB
The regular meeting of the Glendale Juvenile Music Club will be held Saturday afternoon, June 4, at 2:30 o'clock at the Intermediate school. Parents and teachers are invited to come and help celebrate Music Week. A program will be carried out for the enjoyment of those present.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Eunice Peart of 111 East Elk street was the week-end guest at a house party given at Ocean Park. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Reed of 331 Myrtle street, entertained Charles McCay of Los Angeles at dinner Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burger of 314 North Central avenue departed yesterday on an eastern trip, to include visits in Illinois and New York. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Chappell of 338 Vine street and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke of 402 Milford street, motored to Santa Barbara on Memorial day. Mr. and Mrs. Pierson Hanning, 235 North Orange street, had as their guests the first of the week, Mr. and Mrs. Linberg and son and daughter, of Whittier. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ryan, 332 West Acacia, had as their guests on Decoration day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols are former Glendale residents. The wives of the elders of the Presbyterian church will serve light refreshments during the social hour, which will follow the regular prayer meeting at the church tonight. Miss Margaret Dick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dick of 309 North Louise street, was hostess Saturday at a very pretty luncheon in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Margaret Smith, principal of the Sixth-first street school, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Gertrude Hammond, principal of Hyde Park school. As all musical organizations have been requested to contribute in some way to Music Week, the Women's Symphony orchestra of Los Angeles gave a free concert at Blanchard hall at 11:30 this morning. Miss Evangeline Quackenbush of 1119 East Colorado boulevard, who played today with the orchestra, is a member of the organization and a talented violinist. Among the recent purchasers of Glendale property are Deputy Sheriff R. H. Wright of Los Angeles, who has purchased a lot at 419 Pioneer drive and expects to erect a residence there on immediately. Mrs. A. L. Tuttle of Burbank, who bought property at 1107 West Wilson avenue, and J. C. Embury of Los Angeles, recent purchaser of the property of Mrs. A. L. King at 209 West Palmer avenue. Mr. Harper, of Harper & Craig, Mrs. Harper and a party of their friends, motored to Pasadena Sunday to attend the closing service of the Victorious Life conference. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Braden of 1327 East Harvard street, were week-end visitors at Santa Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Osborne, jr., and family, of 447 West Broadway, E. L. Osborne and daughter, Miss Grace, of 406 West Wilson, and J. J. Hunt, enjoyed a trip Saturday to Big Bear, returning Monday. They report a delightful time and trip but no fish. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Veith of 711 North Isabel street, departed Sunday for a several weeks' outing. They will motor from one point of interest to another in the southern part of the state, going to Riverside first. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kelley and family spent the week-end at Monrovia as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ainley. Mr. Kelley and Mr. Ainley were chums in Y. M. C. A. service during the world war. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bevis of 470 Riverdale drive recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazlett and daughter Ione, Mrs. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. William McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sulzbacher, of Los Angeles. Sixteen young people were delightfully entertained recently at the home of Miss Carolyn McClean of 1119 Campbell street. Dancing followed an old-fashioned taffy pull, and refreshments were served at the close of the evening. C. W. Bacon, who came out to Glendale with his wife from Des Moines, Ia., last summer, and who has built two additional houses on the lot he bought at 900 South Glendale avenue, is now putting up a store building on the front of the lot for a small grocery and possibly a meat market. Mr. Bacon is a fine Christian gentleman and a most valued citizen. As teacher of the big men's class in the Central Christian Bible school, he has now the love and trust of all in the school. Robert Freeman is getting tired of moving around and paying rent so has bought a home on Alexander street, one of the five new 5-room residences J. F. Stanford is completing. Another employe of the same store, Frank Johnson, who drove out here from Chicago last summer with his family, likes Glendale so well that he has bought property at 135 Olive street. The family is living in a house on the rear of the lot but will build in front later. Miss Annie McIntyre, principal of the Central avenue school, is confined to her bed by illness.

BANK MESSENGERS HELD UP TODAY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 1.—Two messengers of the Millers & Traders' State bank, in the heart of Minneapolis, were held up today by auto bandits and robbed of $16,000. The robbery occurred in full view of many pedestrians. The bandits fled toward St. Paul. Police and sheriffs deputies of both cities are in pursuit.

TEACHERS SHED THEIR DIGNITY

"Deestrick Skule" Rehearsals Are in Progress Almost Every Night

Teachers in the city schools, who are in the cast for the play to be given by the City Teachers' Club, Saturday afternoon and evening at Glendale high school, entitled "The Deestrick Skule," are rehearsing practically every night this week and promise a performance that will be tremendously amusing. Every child in the schools will want to see how his teachers behave in this farce and it will be a revelation to discover how far they can unbend from the discipline of the school room. Superintendent White says he does not expect to have a shred of dignity left.

GENERAL STRIKE THROUGHOUT ITALY

(By International News Service) MILAN, June 1.—More than 1,000,000 persons were idle at Rome and elsewhere throughout Italy today as a result of the strike called last night by government employes whose demand for a wage increase of 40 percent was rejected. Some non-government workers quit in sympathy.

An attempt is being made to have the railway men go out on a sympathetic strike, but they have not yet taken any definite decision in the matter. The government's refusal to grant a wage increase to the employes of the various departments was announced after several days' deliberation.

The clerks occupied the offices but refused to do any work. The teachers in the schools which are under government supervision deserted their schools.

FULLY EQUIPPED AUTO GARAGE

Wm. H. Hooper & Company, gas, oil, tires and vulcanizing, has just moved their tire and vulcanizing department from their old location at 216 East Broadway to the first large new building, specially erected for that purpose, just south of the present oil and gas station. They have opened a new up-to-date battery and electrical department which is under the direct supervision of C. E. Thompson, an expert battery and electrical man from Riverside. This department is amply equipped to do everything electrically about starting an auto, care for batteries, etc. The new building housing the battery and tire departments is one of a system of structures that will house the oil and gas filling station, making it the first fully equipped and up-to-the-minute metropolitan oil, gas, grease, tire, vulcanizing and battery station in Glendale. C. Carl Chase is in charge of the tire department; Eugene S. Bates the oil, gas and filling, and C. E. Thompson of the battery department.

Tulsa an Inferno of Race Hatred and Rioting Prevails

(Continued from page 1) tor negro in houses where snipers were located, reports reaching police headquarters at 7 o'clock this morning indicate the negro death list will mount far higher than previous estimates. Two thousand or more negroes are reported walking out of town to the north, where no armed whites are barring the way. At 7:30 o'clock this morning the Tulsa hospitals reported one dead white man and 30 injured, and ambulances coming in with injured whites in a steady stream. Hundreds of automobiles early this morning were dashing through the streets, practically every one with one or more rifles sticking out of their sides. The entire negro section of Tulsa was in flames this morning as a result of 20 hours of bloody race rioting. The fire is out of control and threatens to wipe out a section of the white residential district. The death toll so far will probably total more than 60 whites and blacks. There are seven known dead whites, with probably sixty negroes shot or stabbed by avenging whites. Hospitals are crowded with wounded. Police estimate sixty whites are wounded and probably 200 blacks either shot or beaten.

Absolutely! Hereafter there will be absolutely no smoking in barracks at any time," bellowed a captain in Raritan arsenal, New Jersey, after a fire caused by a forgotten butt had been quelled. "Absolutely! Not at any time!" Then he paused and added as an afterthought in a louder bellow even than before: "Especially at night!"—American Legion Weekly.

The Grand Essential.

"What is the plot of your new play?" "We haven't begun to think about that," replied the producing manager. "But you say you have a sure winner." "We certainly have. We thought up a risqué title that'll bring the people in as soon as they read the billboards."

Spoiling the Show.

"I understand the magician's performance was broken up in disorder." "Yes. While he was levitating Princess Oomph, a careless stage hand left a door open and exposed her to a strong draft."

An Ingenious Thing.

Mrs. Mason, who had just had installed an electric cooking stove, asked her maid, Norah, what she thought of it.

"To me, mum," said Norah, "it seems like a great invention. When you and Mr. Mason were away for over Sunday, mum, I burned it all the time, mum, and there seems to be plenty of electricity still left!"

Light-Headed.

The lights were very low, and stillness reigned in the back parlor. Presently a female voice was heard: "Freddie, dear!" "Yes, angel."

"Does my head seem heavy on your shoulder?" "No, darling. It is very light, indeed!"

AN IMPOSSIBLE UNDERTAKING.

"I hear that you have been laid up with nervous prostration. What's the cause, overwork or worry?" "Both. I tried to have a photograph taken that suited my wife."

Best Way Out.

When Bracer hints that he is short and starts the same old song, Don't wait to hear how short he is, But just remark, "So long!"

Place to Park Cars.

Styles—I see that pawnbroker on the next block has started an automobile department in connection with his business.

Myles—I understand so. Do you expect to park your car there soon?"

Saw His Mouth.

Belle—Did his face express any emotions while I was singing? Beulah—Really, I don't know. "Why, couldn't you see his face from where you sat?" "No; he was yawning."

Inevitable Laissez.

"Nobody ought to enjoy the bread of idleness." "And yet you can't expect a man who sells bread these days to avoid getting rich enough to quit work."

This is Mean.

"Why don't married men kiss their wives oftener?" "I dunno. I have noticed, however, that the mouse in the trap seems to lose all taste for cheese."

Give Him Fits.

Jones—Clothes don't make the man. Bones—How could they be expected to when even a man's own opinion of himself doesn't fit.—Cartoons Magazine.

A Touch of Authority.

"You claim to be an optimist?" "I do," replied the photographer. "When I tell a man to smile, he invariably does his best."

A Cynical Woman.

Mrs. Green—My husband seems to enjoy life thoroughly. Mrs. Wyse—What a lot of bad habits he must have.—Boston Transcript.

Going Alone.

"There's one advantage golf has over baseball." "What's that?" "You don't have to take your wife to see it played."

Rev. A. B. Smart of 110 Olive street who has been ill the past three weeks, is out today for the first time. The retailer says he can't replace the goods at the price he is offering them. Why doesn't the wholesaler buy up these stocks?

The morning session will begin at 10 o'clock and will be devoted to business. Time will be given for reports and plans of the educational and patriotic chairmen. Officers for the new club year will be installed.

Roach-Cooper Marriage

Her bridesmaid was attired in a silk dress of lettuce green, with an orchid picture hat.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are connected with the Astra studio in Glendale. Prominent motion picture people from Los Angeles and vicinity were guests of the occasion.

The Mendelssohn wedding march was played as a recessional, and the party repaired to the home of Mrs. Cooper's mother, Mrs. Wallace, 922 South Maryland avenue, where fifty-seven guests extended felicitations and enjoyed the wedding breakfast and a dance until 3 o'clock, when the bridal couple left in their machine for the Mission Inn at Riverside, where they will spend their honeymoon.

In spite of their vigilance, their friends succeeded in decorating one of the rear wheels of their machine with a sign announcing their recent marriage.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will take up their abode in a pretty new home which Mr. Cooper has built and furnished for his bride at 911 North Melrose avenue.

Many beautiful and useful presents as well as telegrams of felicitation, from New York city, and numerous other cities, attested to the love of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper's many friends.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram"

The benefit performance to be given by the B. P. O. E. tomorrow and Friday nights, will be a finished production in every sense of the word. Under the directorship of Will M. Chapman, the play is rapidly rounding into shape.

Norval McGregor, who at one time appeared in the character of Fra Junipero Serra in the Mission Play, is playing the lead and is ably supported by Jack Weatherly of the Wilkes Stock Company, Billy Brunton, formerly with the Morosco Company and others of equal ability.

The Misses Cooper, Georgie and Ewith, are doing exceptionally clever work in this play. These girls are well-known artists in San Francisco and Oakland, having been appearing for years at the Tivoli and Alcazar in leading parts. The part of Mrs. Brown is ably portrayed by Miss Georgie Woodthorpe, who at one time played opposite such stars as Otis Skinner and Jim Corbett. She is a favorite entertainer at Elks lodges.

DON'T FORGET the business men's lunch at 12 o'clock noon at St. Mark's Church, June 2.—Advertisement.

Vacation trips have begun in spite of the fact that the summer is young. Mrs. Stephen O. Delgado and daughter Katherine have gone east to spend several months with relatives in Toronto and other Canadian cities. In their absence, the Delgado home at 314 East Lolita will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Delgado.
