

Leicester, Sept. 27. 1858.

Dear Burleigh,

Doubtless we can make an arrangement to meet you, at 21 Cornhill, on Monday Oct. 11, at 12 M. This will be as early as you can arrive in Boston; & will give us the command of all the time you have in the city. Very likely I shall be join the train you will be in, at Worcester, on my way to Boston also. The greater part of the week previous I shall be attending the Antislavery Fair in Worcester. -

I shall do all in my power to get the Committee together on that day. I have already written to F. Jackson & W. Phillips to ascertain if they can attend, & shall detain this letter awhile, to give time for their replies, which I have asked them to send me, if they cannot attend on that day. - I am extremely sorry it has ^{so} happened that Garrison is to be away at the time of the reading of your Report. I think his judgment about it is of very great importance, but we must do without it, this time.

Garrison ought to be informed where to leave the Western R. Road, on his return from the West, in order to best to reach Cummington. On certain days there is, I believe, a stage running from Hinsdale to Cummington;— on certain days, too, one running from Huntington up to, or towards, C.; and this is all I could tell him. If you would send him this information, on a card or something which he could easily preserve he might keep it to the time when he needed it, and he might not. At least it is worth trying, and I would advise your writing to him, to care M. R. Robinson, Ohio, so that it would reach him there on the 16th Oct. — 30th Evng. As I hear nothing from Jackson, or Phillips, on the subject, I conclude the Exec. Comtee will take place Oct. 11., 12 M., 21 Cornhill. Yrs. truly, L. May
