NINETY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

With profound gratitude for the continued blessing of the Almighty upon our labors, and conscious of the continued interest of our beloved Church in the great cause it represents, The Board of Education herewith presents to the General Assembly its Ninety-fourth Annual Report.

The problems of fulfilling its newer tasks committed to it by succeeding Assemblies during the past few years, and of loyally discharging at the same time its duty to the time-honored work for which it is created, have occasioned the Board the gravest concern. Our resources have been taxed, if not strained, in meeting the urgent demands, and also in preserving a just balance between income and expenditure. We regret that while open doors have beckoned us, we have not been able to enter by reason of the fact that the Church has not yet fully equipped this Board to meet the needs and opportunities of Christian Education in a day marked by the rapid advances in social, intellectual and economic conditions. When the Church is fully awake to the situation she will give this Board the necessary means to discharge her widening responsibility.

Attention is called to our financial showing, by which administrative economy and efficiency have, we believe, been faithfully met, and a measurable expansion of the work secured, amounting to a 50 per cent. increase of actual work done upon the field within one year. This has been made possible by the placing of $41,359 from legacies in the current fund to supplement $82,982 received from churches, and $27,646 received from individuals, in addition to interest from the Permanent Fund, making our total receipts $173,404, the largest amount ever received by this Board in any one year of its history. The ten per cent. increase in church offerings recommended by the Budget has again been more than attained. The list of contributing churches has been increased from 5126 to 5416.

We beg to call attention, however, to the fact that this Board, with its $282,000 of the Martha E. Kortright legacy now placed in the Permanent Fund, yielding about $15,000 interest, is still far from having resources sufficient to meet the growing needs of the field. It will require at least $100,000 from church collections during the coming year to carry out the program set before us by the Church. A campaign for an adequate endowment is not contemplated, the Board choosing to depend upon the annual gifts of a church whose loyalty to a consecrated and equipped leadership is one of her chief glories.

FUNCTION AND POWERS.

It is obvious that, with the growth of our Church and the consequent need of adapting her administrative agencies to meet new conditions arising in an age of quick transition, the Church's educational policy should be brought under constant review, and be subjected to careful scrutiny, in order that there may be, consistent with safety, a proper address to increasing demands of efficiency.

The Presbyterian Church, though justly proud of her educational record, has no well-defined program of education. She should have such a program, and one capable of readjustment to changing conditions. Christian Education should be made a major issue. For, lying at the foundation of all Christian activities is the educational impulse. We trust that in time our Church will see the wisdom of unifying her forces educationally, and plan for the future a program that shall involve the putting of education into as dignified and prominent a position in church life as missions. The Church can no more afford to stand still in education than in missions, evangelism, or any other branch of her work. She dare not cherish antiquated methods, however adequate in former times.

The Board of Education has never attained the ideal of some of her far-sighted officers and members—that of a real agency of education. During the forties this Board began to establish and maintain Christian schools, such as parochial schools, colleges and academies. The parochial idea was soon abandoned, but the colleges and academies grew apace, and needed the continued encouragement of a General Assembly agency. Such encouragement was not given after the union of the Old and New Schools, and, despairing of this Board's usefulness in this direction, the Assembly established the Board of Aid for Colleges, now the College Board, in 1883, without in any wise amending the charter of this Board. Not until 1906 did the General Assembly see fit to commit to the Board of Education any other work than that of aiding candidates for the ministry. Since that time several new tasks have been assigned to it, viz., the supply of the religious needs of students in State educational institutions, special relations with seminaries training foreign-speaking candidates, special relations with training schools for lay workers, and scholarship aid to medical missions students.

Before entering upon these newer forms of work, the Board has, from time to time, given careful consideration to the powers conferred by its charter and constitution. The advice of counsel has been constantly sought in order that there be no questions raised as to our rights and powers. We submit herewith for the Assembly's information the following statement from our Legal Committee:

The Board of Education was incorporated by special Act of Assembly of Pennsylvania, approved May 12, 1871 (P. L. 791).

The preamble of this Act recites the union of the "Old" and "New School" General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church and that the United Church has committed "the work of assisting pious young men in their education for the ministry of the said Church" to one Board, to be located in Philadelphia.

The Act then incorporates the Board of Education, and in the fourth section it authorizes the Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to transfer its property to the newly-created Board of Education, and orders that "the said The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America hereby established shall be and become the full legal successor of all the corporate rights, franchises, and privileges, now belonging to the said The Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, and shall and may hold, use, and enjoy all the property, estates, and rights, assigned, transferred or conveyed, so as aforesaid in the same manner and to the same extent, but subject to the same limitations and trusts, as the said The Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America might have done."

The fifth section vests the Board in the same way with the property, franchises, etc., of the Permanent Committee on Education for the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, a corporation established by the State of New York.

In each section the Board of Education is spoken of as "the full legal successor" to the corporation which has preceded it. This clearly means that the Board of Education is not only vested with all the property, but charged with all the duties of the two earlier corporations, and we must go to their charters to find their scope.

The Board of Education (Old School) was incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1841 (Charter Book, 6, pp. 442-444), "to afford aid to poor and pious young men of good talents to procure a liberal education as preparatory for the Gospel Ministry in the Presbyterian Church."

In 1852, this charter was amended so as to enable the Board to take property "for the purpose of aiding schools, academies and colleges or the cause of education generally."

The Permanent Committee on Education (New School) was incorporated on April 17, 1858, by the Legislature of New York, "whose duty it shall be to superintend the whole cause of Education in behalf of the said General Assembly as said General Assembly may from time to time direct."

As the "full legal successor" of these two corporations, vested with their property and franchises, and "subject to the same limitations and trusts," The Board of Education as now constituted is charged with the duty "of aiding schools, academies and colleges or the cause of education generally," and of "superintending the whole cause of education . . . as the General Assembly may from time to time direct."

The General Assembly has approved the work of this Board in connection with State universities and institutions and in behalf of medical missionaries, and recognizes to-day the necessity or wisdom of using not only ministers, but trained lay workers, such as deaconesses, evangelists, etc., and we hold that the training or education of such lay workers is as much a part of the cause of education as the training of young men for the ministry.

We therefore report that it is entirely within the legal and charter power of the Board to expend money for the maintenance of university pastors, medical missionary students and other students in training as lay workers, and generally for any cause germane to the cause of education, subject only to the direction and approval of the General Assembly.

We are strengthened in the opinion which we have thus expressed by reference to the Minutes of the General Assembly of the Old School Church, from which it will appear that many years prior to the union of the two Churches, the Board of Education, as then constituted, was directed by the General Assembly to take under consideration a plan for the establishment of Presbyterian parochial schools which could obviously have been intended only for the education of Presbyterian youth generally, and which were certainly not intended to be limited to those who were candidates for the ministry.

If, in the opinion of the old Assembly, the Board has the power to undertake a work of as broad a character as this, it seems to us very clear that the present Board, which, as we have pointed out, is the successor to all the rights, franchises and duties of the old Board, can undertake any educational work, particularly if it be along religious lines.

CONFERENCES WITH COLLEGE BOARD.

The Presbyterian College Presidents, in conference at the Louisville Assembly, suggested that there be held during the year a conference between the College Board and the Board of Education for the purpose of "clearing the way for a scientific, systematic and comprehensive investigation of the educational problems of the Church in the field of higher learning," and that there be worked out "a more detailed and precise definition of the spheres of activity of these two Boards in relation to our colleges."

Two conferences were held between the representatives of the two Boards on November 14, 1912, and April 30, 1913, the following resolutions being finally adopted:

Resolved, I. That it is the sense of this Conference of Representatives of the College Board and the Board of Education that the maintenance of the Christian College is essential to a Christian civilization and fundamental to the life of the Church in the development of the body of trained leadership for the work at home and abroad, and that the gifts of Christians can be no more worthily bestowed than upon Christian colleges which are raising their standards of efficiency both in their cultural courses and in their output of ministerial and lay workers.

II. That the care for the religious life of Presbyterian students, whether attending State universities, Church colleges, or independent colleges, is of vital importance, and that in prosecuting this work the Board of Education deserves the support of all the Church.

III. That the distinction between the work of the Board of Education and the College Board is clearly and definitely made in the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1909, viz.:

"The College Board has to do with Presbyterian institutions, and not with students, while the Board of Education has to do with students in all kinds of higher institutions, and not with the endowment or helping of any kind of educational institutions, except only that it may co-operate with Synods which may seek to establish or maintain houses for the religious care of Presbyterian students in institutions that are not under Presbyterian control."

We believe that both Boards are living up to the Assembly's definition of their relative scope of work.

Dr. Clarke, of the College Board, and Dr. Cochran, of this Board, have entered into confederal relations with reference to co-operation in two important particulars:

First.—The securing of joint Board action touching the observance of special educational days appointed by the Assembly for the month of February. Such action is recommended to the General Assembly for its approval, and is as follows:

"WHEREAS, The General Assembly has previously approved of the observance of 'Young People's Day,' 'The Day of Prayer for Colleges,' 'Education' and 'Vocation Day'; and

"WHEREAS, The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Board of Education, and the College Board are agreed that they all have a vital interest in laying upon the heart of the Church the importance of religious education and guidance of the youth of the Church into Christian life and service; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Board concur with the other two Boards just mentioned in requesting the General Assembly to designate the eight days beginning with the first Sunday in February, 1914, as Education Week, the first Sunday to be observed as 'Young People's Day' and 'Vocation Day,' the second Sunday as 'Education Day' and the Thursday between as the 'Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges,' programs for this period to be prepared by the three Board acting together."

Second.—Joint Educational Rallies at the fall meetings of Presbyteries have been arranged in joint conference with the three Boards mentioned above, whereby the Presbyterian Committees in charge of the interests of these three Boards shall plan for the presentation of the general subject of Christian Education on the floor of the Presbyteries, and also, if possible, for popular meetings in the evening.

By such methods we hope to concentrate and centralize, in some measure, the unrelated educational interests of the Church.

THE NEED AND SUPPLY OF CHRISTIAN LEADERS.

If the Church of the living Christ shall be true to her divinely appointed mission, she must put forth increasingly urgent appeals in behalf of more laborers for the whitened harvest. The voice of the Church must be lifted up to "cry aloud and spare not." It is saddening to note the lack of concern on the part of so many of the Lord's people, including the under-shepherds of the flock. Letters are occasionally received, stating that the work of this Board in providing leaders for the Church will not be supported as long as the Church refuses to do her part by those already in service, and ministers more liberally to her aged servants.

Shall we ignore our Lord's Great Commission because already there is disobedience and failure? Shall we check the upper springs because the lower waters are disturbed? No! A thousand times no! Meagre support and poverty in old age on the part of the Church's ministers must not stagger us. Failure to make proper adjustments on the mission field must not daunt us. Inability to secure a uniformly high quality of workers should not weaken our endeavor, but, on the contrary, fix in us a determination to hold before the strongest and noblest of our youth the dignity and the glory of Christian service as a life calling.

The pressure of economic conditions, constraining our eager youth to secure merely gainful pursuits, must be met by the challenge of the Christ of Gethsemane and Calvary. The difficulties besetting the Christian ministry must be burned away by the passion of the Cross, and by the call to men and women of heroic mold and self-abandoning spirit. The tired voices that find easy excuse for complaint and irritation must be rebuked by the consecrated lives of those who "glory in infirmities that the power of Christ may rest upon them." More and more must the Church depend not upon well-oiled machinery, but upon absorption in the great task of the Galilean. Who are we, to demand "purse and scrip," and all things the world deems needful, while the Macedonian cry of a lost world sounds from far and near?

When we cease from calling for volunteers until Christian service becomes an easy and world-honored occupation, we will be indicting the gospel and will have become apostate to the Cross.

Turning to the actual need, we find it greater in our own communion than in some other denominations. We are often asked whether the dearth is not more apparent than real. If the statement that we stand ninth among the great denominations of this country in our ability to provide a ministry proportionate to the growth of population is not enough, let us add to it the statement that the normal percentage of candidates to membership (one to every eight hundred) has not been met within ten years, the present proportion being one to every 1,221 members. We have insisted that the Presbyterian Church needs twelve hundred men for definite places at the present time, and that the supply is far from equal to this demand. The General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply has recently made an investigation, according to which it is found that 706 pastors are needed for fields furnishing good financial support. Adding to this, churches that can be grouped in circuits, and there is a discovered need for one thousand men at the present time, according to the Committee. Two hundred and thirteen ministers were ordained the past year, and 140 received from other denominations, making a total gain of 353. But 167 ministers died and forty-five were dismissed, making a net gain in 1911 of 141.

Taking into consideration the newer fields of the Home Board and the important demands of the Foreign Board, there is need to day of over sixteen hundred men, and we have less than four hundred available to supply these needs. The experiences of synodical superintendents with seniors in the seminaries is a pathetic recital. Home Mission representatives come from the far west seeking men, and return from nearly fruitless quests. The president of a seminary reports that he cannot respond this spring to one-third the calls for pastors.

"Where are the reapers?" The Foreign Missions Conference of North America declares that "the time has come to make a far more comprehensive and resolute effort than ever before effectively to occupy China with the agents and agencies of the Gospel" and asks that "immediate steps be taken to increase in the near future, particularly within the next three years, the staff of missionaries in that field." "A new urgency in doors open in all lands" is proclaimed, with the warning that "they may not long be open." "How can a much larger number be led to share in this blessed ministry?" ask these missionary leaders.

Who, in truth, is equal for these things? With our beloved Church still below the normal supply of ministers, can we hope for great victories at home or abroad? A revival of the Church's inner life, a return to intercessory prayer, a renewal of the passion for souls, a larger vision of the needs of the perishing world, are the mastering spiritual impulses needed for this new age that "stands as yet

Half built against the sky."

Vocation Day

With such convictions the Board entered, during the year, upon the work of reaching churches, Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and Brotherhoods with a comprehensive plan for arousing interest in the claims and opportunities of Christian leadership. Literature for the observance of Vocation Day, and the Days of Prayer for Students, was sent to pastors and superintendents, along with material appropriate for sermons and addresses. A Vocation Day Program was issued, entitled "The Master's Call," forty thousand of which were sent free to those applying for them.

The result was surprisingly satisfactory, considering the number of special days already recommended for Church and Sunday-school observance. Very few replies indicated irritation over the suggestion of a new day. Of 1,120 churches reporting, 611 emphasized in some way the cause of Christian Education. Over 500 sermons and addresses were delivered, 397 churches observing Vocation Day and fifty-six observing Days of Prayer. Many churches reported failure to adopt the suggestions owing to their pastorless condition, evangelistic services, and other preventing causes. A large number promise to co-operate next year. Many enthusiastic letters were received from all parts of the country. Some replies follow:

"Many thanks for the introduction of Vocation Day. Send me more of the fine literature. I wish to give them to young men considering the call."

"Vocation Day service on Sabbath night, our people enjoying it very much. The booklets were taken very eagerly."

"Vocation Day exercise used in full at morning service. The booklet, 'The Greatest Work in the World,' was put into the hands of many young men through their Sabbath-school teachers. God bless the Board of Education and all its officers."

"Vocation Day was very impressive and a deep interest manifest. We look for definite results."

"This work is of everlasting influence in the building up of the Kingdom of our Lord, and I wish you God-speed."

"The college students rose and told why they intended to be ministers and missionaries. We hope to have such a service once a year."

"The Church has little concern for the future of the ministry. I am confident you are doing much to arouse the Church."

"Your work in colleges is resulting in fruit that you have not yet seen or tasted, but others have."

"Eminently fitting that the day shall be observed."

"I was so full of the subject that I preached three times on 'The Call.'"

"Record-breaking interest. In all my ministry I have never had a more enjoyable or encouraging service."

"By all means push this work. Nothing demands so much the attention of the Church as this."

"To the uttermost we are in sympathy with you."

As to results, a few of the many are as follows: "One decided for the ministry." "Interviewed several." "One considering." "Three volunteers for missions." "One girl will go as a missionary teacher." "Parents promised to talk to their children." "One young man offers as foreign mission volunteer." "Enthusiastic interest." "One for the ministry, one for the foreign field." "Parents considering encouraging their sons to enter the ministry." "Awakened parents to greater responsibility." "Several young people agree to look forward to ministry and foreign missions." "The day was a blessing to the Church. Two young women volunteered." "One young man for the ministry and one evangelistic singer." "One lad, after consulting with parents and pastor, decided to seek the ministry." "One candidate has just announced his intention." "Two young men wishing to enter the ministry came to consult." "Church calls for young men for the ministry." "Five boys preparing for the work, two all ready to begin, two of the seven my sons." "We asked for an expression, four ready to devote themselves to religious work." "Very deep general interest, several boys thinking seriously." "Prospective Christian workers found." "Expect a follow-up with cards at the opening of the school in the fall." "One of the very best services of the year." "Seven made profession." "Four boys impressed and feeling their duty." "One young man for the ministry, one for Y. M. C. A." "Special service following supper for older scholars and parents." "Some made definite decision." "Seven received since on confession." "Lantern slides in the evening on The 'Quest of the Holy Grail.'" "One young woman for foreign missions, one man for the ministry." "Requested to repeat sermons."

The Board is not zealous as to methods, nor does it desire to burden busy pastors with the setting up of additional machinery. It leaves to the Assembly the question of setting aside Education Week in February. But the Board is intensely concerned over the manner in which the Church shall cultivate real interest in the recruiting of her personnel. The question we submit is this, "Shall the Board of Education henceforth be looked to as the Assembly's agency for touching the sources of supply for Christian service, ministerial and lay?" Here is a vast field unworked to a large degree and requiring persistent and systematic cultivation. Shall the Board, confident of the Church's support, enter into this field? Do the results thus far accomplished justify further effort? We await the reply of the Assembly.

Special Centres of Interest The Synod of Pennsylvania, as the result of the inspiring leadership of the Rev. John E. Tuttle, D.D., of York, Pa., appointed a special committee in 1911 on The Increase of the Ministry. Dr. Tuttle, as chairman of this Committee, has made a study of the situation in Pennsylvania and has aroused the interest of the old Keystone Synod to definite lines of action looking toward the raising up of organized bodies of recruits. His suggestive name for such Orders, "Comrades of the Cross," has challenged attention.

A plan of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, the organization of societies under the name of "The Order of Recruits for the Ministry," has been very successful. Several societies have already been formed in this country, the Rev. T. F. Fotheringhame, of California, and the Rev. Robert Watson, D.D., of Cincinnati, being active in this endeavor.

College Visitation

It is no reflection upon our colleges to say that they are struggling with problems of financial equipment and educational efficiency to such a degree that the spiritual atmosphere requires constant freshening. President Hodgman, of Macalester College, declares that "college students offer a promising field for evangelistic work despite the impression of the Church to the contrary." The visits of two-score of ministers to our Presbyterian colleges, selected with reference to their special qualifications for this particular task, were, according to our reports, deeply appreciated, and their labors fruitful of great good. For the third year the Board and the Evangelistic Committee have jointly been responsible for the conduct and expense of these visits, and results have been produced that are bound to tell throughout the Church in the coming years. The most cordial relations have been formed with presidents and faculties. Fifty-four colleges co-operated this year. The list, including speakers, follows:

In many instances the speakers worked from seven o'clock in the morning until eleven o'clock at night, engaged in conference meetings and individual interviews, with scarcely time to eat and little time to rest. A genuine revival was vouchsafed in several colleges. Wherever considerable preparation for these meetings was made, the largest results followed. Wherever the pressure of academic, social and athletic activities minimized the significance of these meetings, the impression was comparatively superficial.

A total of 176 days was spent in this work. 253 evangelistic meetings and 172 vocational meetings were held. 116 hours were devoted to group vocational conferences and 208 hours to individual vocational interviews. Twelve men decided for the ministry and eight young people for the missionary life. 239 were led to accept Jesus Christ as personal Saviour.

No figures can furnish an adequate idea of the good accomplished by such services. Decisions were made that can be recorded only in heaven. The work of these brethren deserves the appreciation of the Church and of the parents and friends of God's dear children in attendance upon these Christian schools.

Quotations from Letters of Representatives.

"I enjoyed my task . . . am sure much good was accomplished, much of it hard to tabulate . . . many young fellows are seriously thinking of entering Christian service, ministry and mission field, etc."—REV. JOHN T. THOMAS, D.D.

"I had a pleasant, and I trust profitable, day, and found the students very responsive."—REV. ALEXANDER CORKEY, D.D.

"A letter from one of the students this week reports some good results from the meetings."—REV. A. B. MARSHALL, D.D.

"I spoke eight times to the student body. The President tells me that 98 per cent. of the students were present at all the meetings. The faculty were present as a whole and the members were earnest in their efforts to assist in every way."—REV. JESSE R. ZIEGLER.

"The more of this work I do the more I am impressed with its value."—REV. HUGH T. KERR, D.D.

"I found my chief pleasure and profit in personal talks in the fellows' rooms. It was most refreshing and inspiring to note the spirit of earnestness with which the men followed in talks of the life of consecration and service. The total number of personal and informal group interviews held was forty. Personally, it was a most pleasant and profitable experience."—REV. HENRY A. RIDDLE, JR.

"The response accorded by student body and faculties indicates that it is worth while." . . . "One cannot have a glimpse into this visitation plan without realizing that you are doing a needed and helpful work in this direction. May rich blessings be given to you and your work increasingly." . . . "Monday morning I spoke again at the College for an hour where practically all of the students pledged themselves to organize for personal work."—REV. HOWARD AGNEW JOHNSTON, D.D.

"This is a great work and one of the best things any of our Boards have done."—REV. FRANK S. ARNOLD, D.D.

"There are a few that had lost their first love that have come back with earnestness. Some of these have even had the ministry in view and have brought discredit on the cause. I never had so fruitful a half-week before."—REV. ELIOT H. MOORE.

"The entire student body seemed to be stirred to a new realization of their duty as Christians. . . . Having the meetings at the beginning of the year was a splendid idea."—REV. F. BENTON SHOE-MAKER.

"I was especially pleased with the opportunity for personal conferences with a large number of young men. . . . Others who have no intention of entering the ministry came for conference on personal problems or questions in connection with their future work."—REV. J. W. McDONALD.

"I am greatly impressed with the importance of this work and the great possibilities of it."—REV. ELBERT HEFNER.

"The spiritual condition is exceedingly good. There are thirty-nine student volunteers and a long list of ministerial candidates, with a number of the strongest men in the college facing the decision."—REV. CLELAND B. McAFEE, D.D.

"Practical questions of service and questions concerning the spiritual life were what we had to deal with. I was greatly interested in one question: 'I am not going to the foreign field, I want to know what I can do in my own home church when I get back.'"—REV. ALFRED H. BARR, D.D.

Quotations from Letters of Presidents of the Colleges.

"Your representative's visit has given an inspiration to personal work which we never had before. We have organized eight classes for personal work."—ALMA COLLEGE.

"The plan seems ideal. . . . I think the general results were quite satisfactory."—BELLEVUE COLLEGE.

"Spiritual uplift to entire student body."

"The institution was profoundly impressed with the services of Doctor Minton and the whole city of Charlotte received him gladly."—BIDDLE UNIVERSITY.

"Let me thank you on behalf of the College for this splendid form of co-operation in which your Board is engaging."—KENTUCKY COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

"Most of our non-professing Christians decided to lead a Christian life. . . . We are exceedingly grateful to our Church at large for sending these men to us." . . . "As a result of the visit of the Secretaries of the Assembly's Evangelistic Committee and the Board of Education to Carroll College, a large number of our Christian students have had a new experience in their Christian living and have reconsecrated themselves to Christian service; while many have accepted Christ for the first time. I think nearly all of our students were reached by these meetings. I only wish these brethren might have stayed a few days longer. Certainly, their visit was a great blessing to the school. This policy is one which I think the Evangelistic Committee and the Board of Education will do well to pursue in as many colleges as possible."—CARROLL COLLEGE.

"Dr. Kerr's visit was an unqualified success. His addresses delighted our students to an unusual degree and the impressions made were definite and valuable."—CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

"Continue it and permit speaker to remain longer."—DAVIS AND ELKINS COLLEGE.

"I am sure that the young men were stimulated by the heart-searching addresses and were led to a deeper consecration to their Master."—DUBUQUE GERMAN COLLEGE AND SEMINARY.

"We all feel that it has been a rare treat to have Dr. Adams with us, and are confident that much good has been done by his visit. His public addresses were an inspiration both to the students and to outsiders who listened to them, and the personal work he did among the students met with surprising success. Thanks for sending him here."—GENESECO COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

"We had a fine series of meetings lasting from January 5th to January 12th inclusive. . . . The meetings were very remarkable and the interest unabated to the very last."—GROVE CITY COLLEGE.

"The work this year was wonderfully effective." . . . The visit of the secretaries of the Evangelistic Committee of the Assembly and the Board of Education to Hanover College was a source of great blessing to the faculty, students and community. . . . I am sure that the members of the Assembly's Committee would have been delighted if they had been in the meetings and witnessed the response to the evangelistic appeal. This work which the Committee is doing is a splendid thing, and I trust provision will be made to give more time in the future to this college visitations. It not only saves men, but it gathers and organizes bands of religious leaders, who will go out to all parts of the country to carry on further the work of the Committee. It seems to me that this work of organizing the men and women of our colleges for a definite career is a splendid move and that it will multiply the influence of the Committee many times. . . . This visit will go down in the history of the College as one of great blessing. I feel sure that they inspired a number of young men for Christian service which will be of lasting value to the Church and the cause of the Master. It seems to me that in setting out for the primary function of the Board of Education, the spiritualizing of the education of our youth, Dr. Cochran has marked out an issue of the greatest significance. I trust that the Church will rise to his support. I am sure that Hanover College will throw all of the influence it has to helping him realize his vision. I am especially glad that it has been seen fit to permit him to devote a considerable part of his time to personal visitation of the Church's colleges. It is certainly a strategic move from every point of view."—HANOVER COLLEGE.

"Go right on as you are doing."—LINCOLN UNIVERSITY (PA.).

"God has granted a repetition of the great experiences of last year. . . . Conversions took place at almost every service until in the closing morning service the last member of the college department of nearly 200 students, a senior who had entered the class at the opening of the fall term, arose to take his place on God's side. Then the College Department rose to their feet to give thanksgiving to God for four classes that were now all professing Christians. Then the entire 615 of all departments arose to give thanks to God for the ninety-eight who had decided to enter the Christian life and many more who had decided to reconsecrate themselves, leaving only fourteen of the entire number that are not professing Christians. . . . Large classes are being formed among the converts to study a text book on how to succeed in the Christian life."—MARYVILLE COLLEGE.

"Dr. Palmer's work this year was characterized with its usual power and persuasiveness."—WESTERN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

"We felt the impetus coming to us from the thousands of prayers going from Christian hearts all over the country, and urge the Church never to let this great opportunity of united fellowship at the throne go by unimproved. Our young people need just such support and there is no other way to secure it."—WHITWORTH COLLEGE.

"The meetings, though attendance was always voluntary, were attended by practically the entire student body."—WILSON COLLEGE.

"Both services on the Day of Prayer were the best-attended services during the entire fourteen years of my administration. With sincere appreciation of the Board's interest and appreciation in this matter, I remain . . . ."—UNIVERSITY OF WOOSTER.

"Our institution experienced a real spiritual uplift. The straight gospel was preached and in such a manner as to appeal forcibly to our students. Never before had the attendance of both teachers and students on a series of evangelistic services been more gratifying. The vocational conferences were especially helpful to such as had not yet chosen their life work. It is, of course, in the nature of the case, impossible to state definitely the whole amount of good done; only the years to come can declare that. As to immediate tangible results, there were several decisions for Christ and the Church."—MACALESTER COLLEGE.

"It is not an easy matter for a stranger to come into a college community and win his way within so brief a period as the stay of the representative of the Evangelistic Committee at Coe. He accomplished this within a much less time with all who came in contact with him. I believe that his way of presenting the evangelistic message to our college communities is the ideal way. They made clear and plain the way for our college boys and girls to see the light on many of their perplexities and student problems. I sincerely hope that this visit made us in February may be only the first of a long series of visits."—COE COLLEGE.

With view to a deeper understanding of the problems involved and the need of comparing notes on the same field, Secretaries Cochran and Mahy, representing the two responsible agencies, visited four colleges in company; the latter conducting the evangelistic meetings, the former having charge of the vocational work. Hanover College, Indiana; Carroll College, Wisconsin; Macalester College, Minnesota; Coe College, Iowa, were visited, the tour occupying four weeks in January and February. The following conclusions were formed as the result of this tour:

1. The faculties of our Christian colleges feel the danger of becoming academic and formal, and appreciate the need of spiritual refreshing. They co-operate heartily in such meetings.

2. Students are hungry for live, earnest, spiritual appeals, and respond readily to many, straightforward invitations to decide for Christ and His service.

3. While there is little difference between the student body and the ordinary audience in point of need, students think there is, and demand a certain kind of approach, which, however, need not be weak or apologetic. They will accept the strongest heart appeal, provided it is tempered with sanity and common sense.

4. Periods of preparation and follow-up are essential to the success of this plan.

5. A smaller body of representatives each of whom will devote a month to this kind of work is better than a larger body giving only a few days.

The Board and Committee unite in recommending a more intensive work, by which a smaller body of picked speakers shall be set apart and equipped, through conference and prayer. A deeper and more thorough-going campaign than has hitherto been attempted can be arranged. It is hoped that the churches whose pastors may be selected will appreciate the great opportunity offered, and release their ministers for this service with prayer and blessing.

This plan requires following up with a quiet and persistent endeavor to connect decisions made with a prospective field of work. The Board proposes, therefore, to enlist the services of one of our pastors, who shall, after a period of study of the field of need, visit a selected group of colleges and universities each year in the work of "hand-picking" the fruit, thereby reinforcing the work of the Secretary. The business world employs buyers of all kinds who scatter to various fields. Why should not the Church employ such a man, who shall put before the seniors of our colleges the needs and opportunities of Christian service?

Mr. Gifford Pinchot, at a recent "Country Life Conference," paid a glowing tribute to a certain young minister who within a few years revolutionized the decadent life of an entire community. "Nobody" said Mr. Pinchot, "was a bigger man in any direction than this minister." His work was a revelation to the entire State, and the speaker declared that it opened his eyes to the fact that the Church is potentially the most powerful aid for the improvement of rural life.

This Board will undertake to place a man of this type in the field, and will co-operate with the Department of Church and Country Life of the Board of Home Missions in equipping this field secretary for colleges with the information and experience necessary to make his messages vital and compelling. He will, however, present the world view of missions as well as the problem of the home field. It is expected that his engagement with the Board will begin shortly after the opening of the coming fall term.

By the foregoing methods we hope to answer in a measure and speedily the Church's call for 1,000 men on the home field and the appeal of the foreign field for 243 missionaries within the next year.

A letter from the Board of Foreign Missions just as we go to press says:

"The list of requests from the various Missions as tabulated showed a need of ordained men, 75; male teachers, 30; male medical missionaries, 25; other male missionaries, 11; women missionaries, evangelistic and educational, 87; doctors and nurses, 15. Up to the present time we have filled of these positions some 63. Our greatest need at the present time seems to be for well-qualified ordained men."

Latest Figures

There are at present in our seminaries 771 students, of whom 193 are seniors. Twenty-three of these, however, are not Presbyterians. About 26 men from seminaries other than our own will seek our ministry this year, making a total of 219 available seminary men.

The Situation in the Colleges

Interesting statistics have been furnished to the Board showing the varying ability of our colleges to develop a steady stream of candidates for the ministry. Some institutions, as indicated in our Report of last year, are practically negligible quantities in this respect, and we urge most earnestly that closer attention be paid to this phase of Christian Education by certain of our colleges. Certainly they are unable to produce an adequate output of ordained and unordained workers seeking the Christian service as an occupation, unless they are furnished them by Christian homes, for nine out of ten young people decide for or against Christian service before they enter college. Our Christian institutions wage a losing battle if the homes of their students are not houses of prayer and faith. But the vital Christian atmosphere of our colleges can counteract the falling away of our young people from their home ideals, and can infuse into many without such furnishing the fundamental religious impulses. It has been said that in the average college more young people drift away from the life of Christian service than are won to that life during college days. This is lamentable if true. It furnishes opportunity for serious reflection.

The Secretaries have visited the following colleges, universities and seminaries during the year: Carroll, Carlisle, Coe, Hanover, Iowa State College of Agriculture, Macalester College, Montana College, Oberlin College, Occidental College, Ogontz School, Omaha Seminary, Park College, Pennsylvania State College, San Francisco Theological Seminary, State Teachers' College (Iowa), University of California, University of Indiana, University of Iowa, University of Kansas, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Ohio, University of Omaha, University of Pennsylvania, University of Washington, University of Wisconsin, Wilson College.

Academic Efficiency As to academic efficiency and the standardizing of the A. B. degree, we report that the Council of Church Boards of Education unanimously passed the following resolution at its last meeting in Cleveland:

“Resolved, That the inadvisability of granting beneficiary aid to students attending schools offering a low grade of collegiate preparation be carefully considered, and we recommend courses preparatory to the ministry and other forms of Christian service as an occupation, which are built on eight years of elementary work and four years of secondary work.”

The classification of Presbyterian colleges, according to the accepted standards, is, we understand, now being undertaken in such a manner as to enable us to grant aid to ministerial students in those institutions only where the emphasis is laid upon the word “college” as well as the word “Christian.” Academies should no longer be called colleges, and colleges be called universities. The Church should not countenance false labeling of educational goods in the name of religion.

It is noticeable that some of the strongest institutions educationally are doing the best work for the Church, as will be seen by the following list of fourteen colleges, their names occurring in order of their contribution to the ministry and missionary forces of the Church during the past seven years: Wooster, Macalester, Missouri Valley, Maryville, Lafayette, Washington and Jefferson, Wabash, Park, Occidental, Emporia, Trinity, Tusculum, Carroll, and Hanover.

MINISTERIAL CANDIDATES.

Student Aid Eight hundred and thirty-five men were recommended for aid to this Board by their respective Presbyteries during the year. Of these forty-one were declined for various reasons, making the total number of students aided 794, an increase of six new men over last year. Of these, 344 are in the seminary, 357 in college, and ninety-three in academy. 117 men who were on the Board below the seminary senior class last year did not renew their applications this year. This is a large percentage, about one student in eight dropping out either temporarily or permanently. Of this number twenty-two have dropped out of school for a time on account of failure in health or lack of finances; eleven have abandoned the ministry; eight were out teaching; twenty-two self-supporting; one deceased; fifty-three unaccounted for as yet.

The occupations of the fathers of our candidates are grouped as follows: 33 per cent. farmers, 18 per cent. ministers, 8 per cent. merchants, 8 per cent. laborers, 5 per cent. carpenters, 4 per cent. clerical, 2 per cent. physicians, 2 per cent. salesmen, 20 per cent. other callings. The maximum amount of aid granted this year has been $100 per student. Thirteen of our ministerial students are studying at State universities.

Foreign-speaking Candidates Students of foreign speech under the care of the Board number 123, grouped according to nationalities as follows: Germans, 37; Hungarians, 10; Slovacs, 1; Italians, 11; Hebrews, 1; Bohemians, 16; Ruthenians, 2; Russians, 1; Syrians, 1; Cubans, 6; Porto Ricans, 15; Mexicans, 4; Hollanders, 2; Swiss, 2; Danish, 1; Moravians, 1; Armenians, 1, etc. Dubuque has in all departments 181 students, representing twenty-two nationalities.

As the result of requests from both seminaries training foreign-speaking candidates, viz., The German Theological School of Newark, New Jersey, and The Dubuque German School, Dubuque, Iowa, a conference was held between representatives of the Board and of the Seminaries. A difference in the organization of the two institutions was disclosed, by which it appeared that the Dubuque School, having a recognized college department, could have direct relations with the College Board as well as with this Board. This situation does not obtain as regards Newark. It has seemed advisable to bring this matter to the attention of the General Assembly when appropriations are asked for in behalf of institutions rather than in behalf of individual students. Therefore,

The Board herewith requests the General Assembly "to allow the Board to use its discretion in the matter of assisting Bloomfield Seminary, and the theological department of Dubuque, in providing for adequate instruction for the candidates for the ministry, particularly in the mother tongues."

Colored Candidates Of the 30,000 preachers among the negroes, only 3,000 are educated to any adequate degree. There is need of 1,500 preachers yearly, but only 150 are graduated from colleges and seminaries. About 1,350 enter the ministry every year without training in religious leadership. This distressing situation should be met by a new address to the crying needs of our colored brethren. Here, indeed, is the "white man's burden."

The Board has aided twenty-nine men at Biddle and eighteen at Lincoln. Three men graduate into our ministry this year from the former and four from the latter.

The Council of the Reformed Churches of Christ in America has been considering the needs of the colored race for a trained ministry and has appealed to this Board for co-operation. We are ready to do our part in any way that may appear feasible when plans are matured by the Special Committee of the Council.

Delinquent List $1,514.33 has been refunded during the year by students abandoning the ministry. Ten men have closed their accounts during the year, and there are now 285 men on the list.

We are glad to know that fewer men than usual have failed in scholarship. Cases of discipline have been rare. Only one student has had his aid permanently withheld on account of poor work. One was dropped on account of marriage, and two on account of immoral conduct. Fifteen left school for various reasons.

The action of the last Assembly relative to the remitting of the financial obligations of men entering the ministry of any branch of the Reformed Church, provided such Church extends the same courtesy to the Board of Education, has met the approval of the other communions, and the obligations of two men have been canceled under this arrangement. The Presbyterian Church in the United States has never required such refund.

In time, we trust, all branches of the Reformed faith will be observing comity relations in this respect.

Extra-academic Activities

With regard to the action of the last Assembly instructing the Board to "use more stringent methods in dealing with students allowing extra-academic activities to interfere with their studies," and "admonishing those engaged in supply work to refrain from this practice until they have finished the first year of their seminary course," we would report that the seminaries as a whole claim to be exercising good control of their students in this respect, and desire to co-operate heartily with the Board to secure the maximum efficiency in class-room work. At Western, five middlers and six juniors have taken regular outside work. Three of the above students are under the Board's care. At McCormick, the middlers and juniors were called together at the beginning of the present school year and were required to report their engagements. Only five or six cases were found to require attention. Three protracted faculty meetings considered this matter with great care. Dubuque reports that students are not allowed to do regular supply work, and are expected to preach only once a month, except in the senior year. At Auburn, no middlers or juniors under the Board's care are supplying churches. President Stewart considers supply work a bad practice, preferring the incorporating of preaching into the curriculum. Princeton exercises great care to prevent abuses of student aid and lowering of scholarship standards. Louisville reports satisfactory conditions in general. Three men have been advised by the Board to reduce their outside work at this seminary. Mayaguez (Porto Rico) states that no candidates under the Board's care preach for pay, and that where many assist in mission fields care is taken not to allow lowering of scholarship. Omaha reports considerable outside work, but those receiving aid from the Board are the best men in the seminary and "doing only what is necessary in the matter of self-help." Other seminaries were not heard from.

The colleges, without exception, approve the action of the Assembly, and thank the Board for calling attention to the situation. All agree that only in exceptional instances should college students preach. In the West and South, where mission fields are calling for help, the colleges have trouble in restraining earnest students from devoting too much time to religious work. President Hornbeak, of Trinity University, Texas, says: "There is no doubt that some of our ministerial students are, to a degree, lowering the standard of their work by ministerial duty. I wish that some way could be devised by which our ministerial students would be relieved of the necessity of having to preach during their course of study."

All authorities feel the pressure of student activities, one president declaring that "more and more time is being devoted to athletics, Christian Associations, Endeavor and Sunday-school work, political clubs, literary societies, class organizations, student editorial work and social activities."

After a careful analysis of the situation, the Board is convinced that the method of aiding candidates is a very difficult and complicated one, and cannot be solved by hard-and-fast rules. It is probable that as little waste of the Church's funds exists in this department as in any. We do believe, however, that the time has come for a careful consideration of methods now in operation touching beneficiary aid. At the March, 1913, meeting of the Council of Church Boards of Education the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, There appears to be a need for a revising of the methods governing beneficiary aid to students for the ministry and other students under the care of Church Educational Boards; therefore,

"Resolved, 1. That the present demand for Christian workers in fields of lay activity requires the offering of student aid to classes of students other than ministerial students, such as those preparing for the medical mission field and for teaching in church schools.

"2. That the method of making loans rather than grants be seriously considered, such loans be repayable by service and remittable in exceptional cases.

"3. That a close study of the problem of beneficiary aid to students in theological seminaries be made with a view to the possible reduction of the amount of aid given by educational boards.

"4. That favorable consideration be given to an increase of loans to beneficiaries in colleges, to the end that the colleges be relieved of the burden of the remission of tuition fees to ministerial candidates.

"5. That the inadvisability of granting beneficiary aid to students attending schools offering a low grade of collegiate preparation be carefully considered, and we recommend courses preparatory to the ministry and other forms of Christian service as an occupation which are built on eight years of elementary work and four years of secondary work."

The Board has appointed a special committee to investigate conditions in the colleges and seminaries, as well as the methods in use in other denominations, such committee to report its findings during the coming year.

Special Scholarships

The Newberry Scholarship, offered to San Francisco and Omaha Seminaries, was won by Mr. Harold W. Wylie, a senior of San Francisco, who will receive $1,200 next year for a post-graduate course.

The Secretary's Scholarship, yielding $200 in the Senior year and $700 in the graduate year, was offered to McCormick Seminary. The examinations conducted this April resulted in the awarding of this Scholarship to Paul E. Hinkamp. J. H. Varner received honorable mention.

Mr. H. H. Thompson, the winner of the Mutchmore Scholarship, has been pursuing his graduate studies during the year at Edinburgh and Glasgow Universities.

Mr. Alfred C. Schmitt, of Albany, Oregon, has given to the Board $2,000, with the request that it be used for a Special Scholarship to be known as "The Alfred C. and Orpha J. Schmitt Scholarship."

Possible Candidates

The card catalogue now has 3,500 names of young men. Pastors are constantly sending us names of eligible youths in their congregations, and in every instance a letter and appropriate literature are sent from this office. We have many happy assurances that the seed cast on good ground is bringing forth a harvest.

Medical Missions Students

Seventeen students studying in medical schools for service on the foreign field have been aided the past year to the extent of about $150 each, an increase of seven over the preceding year. They are enrolled only in the highest class of medical colleges, as follows:

Jefferson Medical College,	University of Michigan,
University of Louisville,	Western Reserve University,
Rush Medical College,	University of Missouri,
Cooper Medical College,	University of California,
University of Pennsylvania,	University of Nebraska,
Johns Hopkins University,	Leland Stanford Jr. University, College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The Foreign Board in every instance has approved the grant of aid. The first graduates under this plan are Mr. S. P. Tipton, of Mississippi, who finishes his work in June at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, and Mr. L. E. Smith, of Kentucky, who finishes at Johns Hopkins Medical School, Baltimore.

WORK IN STATE UNIVERSITIES.

The year just closing has been the best in the history of this work of the Church for her students in the State-supported institutions of higher learning. Some of the results can be reported, but for the most part the effects are not such as can be set down in statistics. The Church has undertaken to follow with Christian influences her sons and daughters wherever they may go in pursuit of life's equipment, and she is succeeding. The work has already increased the interest in Christian education in and about the State universities, quickened the spiritual life of multitudes of students, improved the morale of the student body, added to the efficiency of the churches in university centres, and of the churches to which students go after graduation, and has brought many students to a decision for Christ and for a life of Christian service. We are profoundly grateful to God for this evidence of His blessing upon the enterprise.

Method of Work

No two State universities are alike. Some are located in cities with churches enough to care for all who will come. Others are in small towns with churches few and small, while some are in villages so small that the students outnumber the citizens. Conditions favoring religious instruction and the religious life of students vary greatly. Some States forbid all formal religious instruction and worship, some leave the university free from all legal restriction, while others limit and define the amount and character of the religious instruction that may be given.

With these conditions in mind, the Board three years ago, as the result of its experience, adopted the following statement, defining the method of work:

Resolved, That the Board, while recognizing the need of pursuing different policies based upon local conditions at each university centre, affirms its unalterable conviction that the personal work of the university pastor with the individual students is fundamental in this work, and that this pastoral care of students, leading up to contact with the local church, is absolutely necessary to the success of the movement and the spiritual welfare of the student body."

This method places a larger responsibility upon the local churches than any of them are able to carry unaided. They must make a place for the constantly increasing number of students not only in the worship, but also in the normal life and work of the church, and there must be organized a Bible school for the instruction of these students in the Bible, in missions and in methods of Christian service.

There are now ten Presbyterian university pastors giving their entire time to this work for students, and fourteen others giving part time, all working under the Board's policy so far as local conditions will permit.

Some Results

Our university pastors in twenty universities are able to report the following definite figures.

The number who have received personal counsel in religion and in the choice of a vocation, who have been kept within the influence of the Church, who have been brought to consider the claims of Christ upon them for lives of service is far greater than these figures indicate.

Number of students united with local church this year.....	796
Number looking forward to the Christian ministry.....	58
Number looking forward to work as missionaries.....	66
Number in Bible classes.....	3,459

Local Church

College students away from home do not as a rule unite with a church in the college town. They regard themselves and are regarded by the churches as transient members of the community and are seldom invited to join any of the permanent organizations of the city. Plans for dealing with the religious life of students have previously been made on the assumption that the local churches cannot minister to the religious life or adequately provide for the religious instruction of any large number of students; that students were to be reached by student initiative through student associations centring in buildings other than churches, the entire enterprise supervised by men who are not clergymen. This plan has its value and this statement is not intended as a criticism. It is made to call the attention of the Church to the fact that the policy adopted by the Board has now proven its success and deserves the enthusiastic support of all the churches of our communion. This policy means that the Church shall make its own direct approach to its own students, employ ordained ministers in the work, and centre all activities in a church rather than in a half-way house between the university and the Church. This turning of students back to the Church in centres where they have been going away from the Church fully justifies all the expense of time and money if nothing else had been accomplished. It is a movement that is cumulative in its effects, and at present is so new that it has only begun to show what may be accomplished.

Men who have closely watched this work are very clear in their approval of its wisdom.

President Sparks, State College, Pa.

“He (the college student) should carry over into this new life every influence and impulse of home; these the church can best supply. The Christian Associations of the colleges are doing a necessary and commendable work in looking after the moral and physical life of the students. The results achieved can scarcely be overestimated, but they cannot take the place of the church in caring for the spiritual life of the students.”

President McVey, North Dakota University.

President James, Illinois University.

Professor F. W. Kelsey, University of Michigan.

“No other than a denominational agency has been able to attack the situation with any prospect of more than superficial success.”

Professor Henry B. Ward, Illinois University.

President Van Hise, Wisconsin University.

“What is to be done with reference to the students who belong to the various Churches? This is the practical problem that I as a university president must confront.”

A number of the churches in university cities are now planning for the enlargement of their buildings to provide increased seating capacity in the auditorium and additional class-rooms for the Bible school. The new church building for the Pennsylvania State College church will be ready for use in the autumn. Plans are now being made for a similar building for the Collegiate Presbyterian Church in Ames, Iowa, the seat of the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts. Plans are drawn for the substantial enlargement and improvement of the building of the First Presbyterian Church of Iowa City, Iowa, the seat of Iowa State University. Work has begun on the new building for the University Presbyterian Church of Seattle, Washington, close to the campus of the State University of Washington.

The willingness of the local churches to co-operate with the Synod and the Board deserves the commendation of the Church at large and is one of the hopeful indications for the progress of the enterprise.

Residential Headquarters

After a careful and thorough study of all guild hall plans, it is our opinion that the one building in addition to the church that is necessary to the success of the enterprise is a residence large enough to enable the university pastor to easily entertain groups of students, but not so large as to make it necessary to use any part of it for a student dormitory. This residence should be located close to the student quarter. Experience has shown that if a suitable residence is to be had within easy reach of the crowded student centre it must be owned by the church. During the present year three such residences have been purchased. The one in Ames, Iowa, has been paid for. The ones in Iowa City, Iowa, and in Berkeley, California, have been partially paid for, and it is expected that full payment will be made during the coming year. If a church and a manse appear to be too modest an equipment for so large and important a work, the reply is that the emphasis is to be placed upon the worship and instruction of the church and upon the home life and personal friendship and counsel of the pastor.

Candidates for the Ministry The State university has not been the recruiting ground for the ministry, as students looking to the ministry have usually entered a Church college. The majority of university courses give technical preparation for callings other than the ministry, and there has been little attention given by the universities to helping students to a wise choice of a vocation. The university pastors accomplish much good in aiding students in the choice of a life work, and have directed many toward callings in which they may render effective Christian service as laymen. The fact that in twenty universities 124 men are preparing for the ministry and the missionary life is most encouraging.

Bible Study Because of the large number of students and the small number of available workers, the pastoral care of many students is regarded as of more importance than the systematic instruction of a few. However, the man who does the pastoral work must be competent to teach; and, as he gathers a company of students it becomes necessary to provide for their instruction in the Bible, in missions and in methods of efficient lay service. This year has seen a commendable increase in the number of such classes.

The provision by the Church of religious instruction for a large number of students in State universities is a new movement with larger value than at first appears. It is clear that the curriculum of a university ought to include extensive courses in the languages, literature, history and archæology of the Bible, and in the history, the psychology and pedagogy of religion. A beginning has been made by many State institutions, but the entire subject is confused and uncertain because of the lack of a clear distinction between the responsibility of the Church and that of the State. If the Church will assume the teaching of these subjects for their practical religious values and do the work on a voluntary basis without asking the university to give credit toward graduation for courses so taught, it will help to make clear the distinction between curriculum studies in cultural subjects for university credit, and the use of the same material for its practical value in developing the religious life. Such instruction by the Church will create a demand for a department of Biblical learning within the university, and will aid the university authorities in developing such a department on a sound basis.

This sharing of responsibility in co-operation between Church and State will do much toward placing religion before the students in its true light as a matter of supreme importance.

It is to be regretted that there are no statistics showing the exact number of students in college and university who are in Bible classes. The proportion of students interested in Bible study is probably larger than in any other like number of young people. But as the students are to be the recognized leaders in the community life, it is evident to all who are acquainted with actual conditions that a much larger number ought to be enrolled in these classes and that the instruction should be thorough. During the year a committee of the Student Christian Associations gathered reports from 214 colleges and universities. Fifty-four of these were under State control, seventy-eight were independent and seventy-nine were Church colleges. The results are as follows:

In curriculum-required Bible classes.....	8,656
In curriculum-elective Bible classes.....	4,821
	<hr/>	13,477
In voluntary Sunday-school classes.....	13,953
In voluntary classes outside Sunday-school.....	14,995
	<hr/>	28,948
Total number in all Bible classes.....		42,425
Total number not in any Bible classes.....		47,772
Total number students in the 214 institutions.....		90,197

Grateful for all that has been accomplished, we submit this statement as indicating that all the forces now at work have failed to do all that needs to be done, and call attention to the present development of the work of our university pastors, with the hope that it will receive the hearty support of all who are interested in Christian education.

Safeguarding Investments

In order to safeguard the money invested in buildings and endowments and to insure its perpetual use for the purpose for which it was given, the Board has during the year entered into contracts with several Synods. These contracts are tri-partite between the Synod, the trustees in charge of the local work and the Board. Such contracts have been made with the Synod of Iowa, covering the work in progress in the State University of Iowa and the Iowa State College of Agriculture; with the Synod of Kansas, for the work in progress at the University of Kansas; with the Synod of California, for the work in progress at the State University of California; with the Synod of Pennsylvania, for the work in progress at Pennsylvania State College, and with the Synod of Michigan, for the work in progress at the University of Michigan.

Permanence

The amount of money invested by the several States and the Federal Government in the State universities and colleges, is evidence that these institutions are permanent factors in the life of the State. There are now eighty-seven such State-supported institutions of higher learning. The total value of property of the eighty-seven is as follows as reported for the year 1912:

Libraries.....	$7,893,538
Apparatus and Furniture.....	16,259,111
Live Stock.....	751,506
Grounds.....	28,088,320
Buildings.....	71,156,616
Endowments.....	50,642,002
		$174,791,093

An average for each one of $2,009,093.

Income for the year from the States.....	$33,842,874
Income from the Federal Government.....	3,639,439
		$26,482,213

This $26,482,213 equals the income at 5 per cent. on an endowment fund of $529,644,260. This added to the actual investment makes a grand total of $704,435,353, an average for each institution of $8,096,957.

Adding to the income from the State and Federal Government the income from all other sources, we get the following:

Total annual working income.....	$36,104,863
Average for each one.....	414,992
Largest single income.....	3,029,974
Smallest single income.....	24,900

Number of Students

The chart on page 30 gives the number of students enrolled in all the State-supported institutions of higher learning for the different years indicated. It is significant not only for the large number of students, but because of the rapidly increasing rate of growth during the past few years.

Presbyterian Students The chart on page 32 gives the number of students from Presbyterian homes and giving preference for Presbyterian Church in the State institutions where the Board is at work and for the several dates indicated.

SCHOOLS FOR LAY WORKERS.

The Assembly of 1908 referred the matter of training ministerial and lay workers for people of foreign speech in this country, to this Board with instructions to survey the whole field, and to outline a policy.

This opened up the whole question of the Board's relation to lay workers, and in connection with its special report on "The Training of Ministerial and Lay Workers among People of Foreign Speech in America," to the Assembly of 1909, the Board was directed to tender its services to churches and individuals in the receiving and forwarding of offerings designated to schools for lay workers. The Assembly also advocated the establishing of Presbyterian Schools for the Training of Lay Workers, and directed such institutions to report to this Board annually their offerings, and an account of their work, which reports should be incorporated in our Annual Report.

These schools are as follows: Philadelphia School for Christian Workers; The Presbyterian Training School, Baltimore, Md.; Presbyterian Missionary Training School, Coraopolis, Pa.; Florence H. Severance Bible and Missionary Training School, Wooster, O.; The Presbyterian Training School of Chicago; Presbyterian Training School of St. Louis, Mo.

Several schools have asked that the Board grant scholarship aid to certain of their students. In view of the fact that the Assembly has not as yet definitely authorized the Board to assume any financial responsibility or obligation in connection with these schools other than to receive and forward designated funds, the Board herewith "requests the deliverance of the Assembly as to the methods and policy it desires the Board to pursue in the further promotion of such work, including the granting of scholarship aid to students thus preparing for lay work."

The Presbyterian Training School, Baltimore, Md.—In October, 1913, the Presbyterian Training School of Baltimore will enter on its eleventh year. Each year has been marked by progress, and the tenth year is the most prosperous in its history. The prospects are now brighter than ever.

Twenty-one students have been in attendance on the classes during the year, four of them being young men. The present commodious building has been filled to overflowing, and another building of the same size has been secured which will enable the institution to care for forty students.

The institution has the honor of introducing the ministry of deaconesses into the Presbyterian Church. It has thirty-two deaconess graduates serving in different parts of the home land and in the foreign field. It has representatives in New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Baltimore, Washington, Indianapolis, Detroit and other centres. Fourteen other students have gone out into the work. A great variety of service is represented. Graduates of the institution are at the head of the deaconess homes in Philadelphia, Newark and Baltimore. One is director of the Austrian Immigrant Home, another of the Reid Memorial Guild House in Baltimore. Others are serving as parish deaconesses, missionaries, traveler's aid, social workers and pastor's assistants.

A two years' course of study is provided, but in order to raise the standard, a preparatory year has been arranged for those who are not fully qualified to undertake the regular course.

Continual emphasis is laid on practical training. The Reid Memorial Guild House is identified with the institution, and affords an unusual opportunity for training in social work. The churches and city philanthropic institutions enable the students to secure a very varied experience in all kinds of church work and social service.

The courses of study provided by the school are arranged in eight departments: (1) The Bible and Christian Doctrine, which includes Introduction, Bible History, Analytic and Synthetic Methods, Doctrine, Ethics and Evidences; (2) The Church, which deals with the history, polity, standards and work of the Presbyterian Church and the organization of the local church; (3) Missions, which gives consideration to history, methods, the non-Christian religions and detailed study of mission fields; (4) Evangelism, which reviews the history of evangelism, studies the nature of the evangel, the fields, the problems and gives direction in personal work; (5) Religious Education, which includes a study of the educational work of the Church, religious psychology and pedagogy, and the modern Sunday-school; (6) Social and Institutional Work, embracing sociology, philanthropy, social service and home economics; (7) Conduct of Meetings, dealing with the organization of societies and the preparation and delivery of addresses; (8) Business Course.

The Training School is incorporated and is managed by the following Board of Directors, who are ministers or members of the Presbyterian Church: Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., President; Rev. Harris E. Kirk, D.D., Vice-President; Rev. John Stuart Conning, Secretary; Mr. J. G. D. Paul, Treasurer; Rev. Edward H. Griffin, D.D., Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D.D., Rev. Alfred H. Barr, D.D., Rev. John P. Campbell, D.D., Mr. Josiah Clift, Jr., Thomas S. Cullen, M.D., Mr. J. A. Welsh, Mr. J. Barry Mahool.

There is also a Deaconess Society of Ladies, representing the churches of the city which supports a deaconess to nurse among the poor and also helps in the maintenance of the Deaconess Home.

The total receipts of the institution for the year ending March 31 were $10,237.76 and the total expenditures $10,092.11.

J. S. CONNING,

Secretary of the Board and Superintendent.

Report of Florence H. Severance Bible and Missionary Training School, Wooster, Ohio.—The Florence H. Severance Bible and Missionary Training School, a department of the University of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio, has had the best year in its history. The students who are ranked as properly belonging to this department have numbered eleven (11), of whom four (three women and one man) entered last fall. The quality of these students as to character, ability and previous preparation is very satisfactory. All have had full high-school courses, and one has had in addition normal training and experience in teaching.

Our Bible School courses continue to attract large numbers of students in the other departments. Beside the required Bible courses, amounting to two hours a week for a semester in each year of the college course, Dr. Vance and Dr. Martin have had elective classes in Bible ranging from six to twenty-five in number. The current semester, for example, besides required work with the Juniors in Exegesis of the Prophets and with the Seniors in Apologetics, Dr. Martin has an elective class of seven in Homiletics for lay workers, one of fifteen in Hebrew Poetry, and one of twenty-five in Old Testament History. Dr. Vance's numbers have been approximately like these. All these courses are put on the same level with other college courses in thoroughness and dignity, and count equally with courses in other departments toward the Bachelor's degree.

Our faculty continues the same as it has been, except for the resignation of our Professor of Missions, Rev. Oscar F. Wisner, D.D. His successor has been chosen in the person of Rev. Clinton T. Wood, for fifteen years past associated with Dr. Andrew Murray in South Africa and for some years professor in the theological seminary of Stellenbosch. Professor Wood is a Princeton man (University, 1892; Seminary, 1897), and before going to Africa had experience both in teaching and in city mission work under the late S. S. Hadley. He is a man of unusual virility and spiritual power, and we hope much from his coming among us.

Respectfully submitted,

CHALMERS MARTIN.

School for Christian Workers of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, Philadelphia, Pa.—The Deaconess House of this school continues to make progress. It has removed during the past school year to 1122 Spruce Street. The edifice is in every respect worthy of the institution and of the Churches which sustain it. The commencement exercises were held in the Second Presbyterian Church on May 10, 1912, when seven students received diplomas as Christian workers, three of whom have chosen the calling of deaconess. The Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts made a brief address to the class, and the other services were conducted by the Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, D.D. One of the graduates was accepted by the Foreign Mission Board for the China field, and sailed early in September. The others accepted appointments for services in churches or in institutions. During the present year there were in residence in the school fourteen students, and in addition four came in as day students. Of these nine go out into active work this coming spring. One of the students to graduate this year has applied to the Home Mission Board for work among the Indians. Of the post-graduates, one is going to China, one to work among the foreign-born miners in central Pennsylvania, and one to church and mission work in Tamaqua, Pa.

The institution is under the management of two Boards: (1) the Trustees—Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., President; Mr. S. T. Kerr, Secretary; and Mr. Thomas R. Patton, Treasurer; (2) The Women's Board of Managers—Mrs. William L. McLean, President; Mrs. William M. Kerr, Secretary; and Mrs. Richard Norris, Treasurer. The receipts of the Trustees for the year amounted to $1,773, and of the Women's Board to $4,508.65. This includes only a small part of the subscriptions to the new building.

The Presbyterian Training School of Chicago.—The Presbyterian Training School of Chicago has passed through difficulties during the past year. The death of Dr. Alexander Patterson, Director of the school from its birth, created an emergency. The Board of Directors were very fortunate in being able to secure the services of Rev. E. G. Wood, who took charge of the school for the remainder of the year.

The progress made has demonstrated the value of the school and the wisdom of its founders. The Board has recently selected Mr. Howard B. McAfee, connected with Park College from its beginning until recently, to act as Director.

Plans have been formulated for the coming year. One notable step is the federation of the Presbyterian and the Methodist Training Schools of Chicago, the federation being experimental, but it is hoped by its projectors that it may become permanent and be the nucleus of a still larger federation which shall include training schools of other denominations.

The school will be broadened in its scope, and it is hoped that after one year the way may be clear to receive young men as well as young women.

It is decided that the new year, beginning in September, shall see the removal of the school to a very advantageous location in federation with the well-known training school at 50th Street and Indiana Avenue, so long conducted by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Meyer, and closely related to the Methodist Church. The Presbyterian School will have the full benefit of all the equipment of the institution, including access to its library, dormitories and dining-room, together with all its courses of study, and will supplement those courses with others specially adapted to its own students. It is a pleasant coincidence that Mr. Meyer was himself a Park College student in the early days of that college.

As rapidly as may prove wise, the course of training will be widened to meet the needs of the Church for helpers in all lines. An attractive catalogue is now being published and will be sent to pastors, prospective students and other friends upon application to H. B. McAfee, 210 East 50th Street, Chicago. A vigorous campaign will be undertaken at once for students for next year and for such funds as will be necessary to supplement their payments and self-help employment. There are good days ahead for the school and for the Church which it will serve.

Report of the Missionary Training School at Coraopolis for the Year beginning April 1, 1912, to April 1, 1913.—Our school is a unique school among all the training schools of the Presbyterian Church. It originated when the need of woman's work among the large numbers of foreigners in Pittsburgh was felt. This work was started in the last decade of the nineteenth century among the Italian and French. In 1900 the work among the Slavonic nationalities was begun by the Pittsburgh Presbytery. It grew rapidly and women's work for children and women was felt very keenly, but the existing schools were not able to furnish suitable workers for this foreign work. Hence, a school was organized in 1904 with three students. The first two graduates of this school are still at work, one in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and one as an efficient deaconess in Prague, Bohemia.

The purpose of this school is definite. It prepares women exclusively for missionary work among the foreigners. Its door is open to all nationalities, if the woman who wishes to enter is a consecrated person and desires to bring the Gospel to the needy foreigner. And for this purpose the school is very well equipped. A spacious building, which used to serve as a sanitarium and later as a business college, was purchased. Twenty rooms in the second and third stories make an ideal dormitory and the first floor has a superintendent's office, newly equipped and improved large library room, sewing-room and a commodious class-room, dining-room and kitchen. The location is in a beautiful town on the banks of the Ohio, overlooking the river, mountains and towns on the other side of the river.

Thirty-two graduates were sent out by this school since its organization, representing five nationalities, whose field of work is in different parts of the United States, but chiefly in Pennsylvania. Ten of them are at work in the Presbytery of Pittsburgh.

The school prepares the workers for this specific work, which consists of visiting the families as Bible readers, visiting hospitals and bringing comfort to the sick. They are taught to organize sewing classes, kindergartens, and other industrial classes for children and mothers; to organize Sunday-schools, teach English to men and women who are eager to learn the language of their new country and who have no other opportunity of learning it.

This last year has been in every way one of the best years the school has ever experienced. We continue to pray the Lord of Hosts to send laborers, as the fields are white unto the harvest.

The cost of maintenance of the school for this year has been $3,000.

Very respectfully,

V. LOSA, Superintendent.

The St. Louis Bible Training School for Lay Workers.—Organized 1909. Opened 1913. First year enrollment sixty-three in all branches—three of these taking full course and three others taking three of full-course topics. Twenty-five are in the Sunday-school teachers' training classes.

The school aims through its full course to fit students for Church work as Sabbath-school missionaries, Bible colporteurs, Home and Foreign missionaries, pastors' assistants, deaconesses and Sabbath-school teachers.

Fifty-three of the students this year are women and the remainder men.

LITERATURE.

293,950 pieces of printed matter have been issued and distributed during the year, and 53,173 multigraph letters have been sent from this office.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY AND RESEARCH.

Full announcement of the installation of this department was made in last year's Report. This is an invaluable adjunct of the work, and has been in charge of a minister thoroughly conversant with the needs of the field. The large amount of printed matter has been prepared in this department, and the Church made more familiar with the activities of the Board.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Rev. Alexander MacColl was elected to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. John Calhoun, D.D., resigned, in the Class of 1912-15. Mr. MacColl is recommended for re-election in this class. The Class of 1910-13 expires with this Assembly. The gentlemen composing it are recommended for election to the Class of 1913-16. Their names follow:

Henry Collin Minton, D.D., LL.D.,	Mr. Charles T. Evans,
J. Beveridge Lee, D.D.,	Mr. Charles W. Kolb,
Edward Yates Hill, D.D.,	Walter E. Rex, Esq.,
Edward H. Pence, D.D.	Mr. Gustavus W. Knowles,
	Mr. Evan G. Chandlee.

FINANCIAL.

With profound gratitude to God we submit to the Assembly a Report which touches high-water mark in the Board's history. After five years of litigation, the Board came into possession of the one-fourth share of the superb legacy of Martha E. Kortright, amounting, with accrued interest, to $321,000. $282,000 of this amount has been placed in the Permanent Fund, making this Fund's total, $639,076.70. Thankful as we are for this splendid legacy, we realize that the interest thereon will be more than expended in meeting the needs of our growing work and that this, the smallest endowment of any Board of our Church, must be carefully conserved.

We have received $82,947.83 from churches, Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, an increase of about 16 per cent. over last year; $28,761.98 from individuals, an increase of $21,924.35, most of this being on account of university work; $342,507.11 from legacies; $19,415.61 from interest and $1,514.33 from refund, and from other sources $405.11, a grand total of $475,551.97. 290 more churches contributed this year than in the preceding year. We confidently look forward to the time when the churches generally will adopt the "Every Member Pledge Canvass," when this Board will not be compelled to appeal by letter and personally for sufficient funds to prosecute its work, but be enabled to spend practically all its energies upon the task of recruiting the army of devoted leaders for the Church at home and abroad.

DAY OF PRAYER.

In connection with Education Week, as noted on page 8 of this Report, we recommend that the Thursday preceding the second Sunday in February, 1914, that is, the 5th, be observed by our colleges as a Day of Prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon Academies, Colleges, Universities and Seminaries, that the young people pursuing their studies in them may give their lives to the service of Christ.

The following tables group the candidates under the care of this Board according to the institution where they have been pursuing their studies, and the amount granted:

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST.

All that the Board deems it important to furnish is its CORPORATE NAME, viz.: THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States.

The following form may be used in most of the States:

"I give and devise to THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA the sum of.....dollars, to and for the uses of the said Board of Education and under its direction to be applied to assist candidates for the Presbyterian ministry." (If real estate or other property be given, let it be particularly described.)

The Ninety-fourth Annual Report of the Board of Education was presented to the General Assembly in session at Atlanta, Ga., May, 1913, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

The Committee consisted of the following:

Ministers.	Elders.
	JOHN WILLIS BAER (Elder), Chairman.
WILLIAM H. BOOCOCK,	CHARLES L. JESSUP,
JAMES MOORE,	O. W. SLOAT,
J. L. EWING,	EDWARD TARRING,
JOHN G. BLACK,	JOHN K. ROSEBORO,
A. M. CALDWELL,	E. M. GASTON,
W. S. PLUMER BRYAN, D.D.,	MARTIN A. MORRISON,
JOHN McLEARIE,	ERNEST B. SKINNER,
D. W. FAHS, D.D.,	J. L. WEITS,
WILLIAM C. ATWOOD,	W. B. HARPER,
JOHN MORDY,	T. M. MOSLEY,
THOMAS V. MOORE, D.D.	E. W. ELLIOTT.

This Committee subsequently presented its Report to the General Assembly. It was accepted and the resolutions were unanimously adopted. The Report follows:

Rejoice, and in gratitude praise God, for what He hath wrought during the past year through the Board of Education. This, the ninety-fourth year, is the banner year of all the years. There has been an increase in ministerial students, in medical missionary students; in definite results of the Day of Prayer; in the plan of college visitation; in the work among Presbyterian students; in attendance upon State universities; in increase of gifts from the churches, from Sunday-schools, from individuals, from legacies; more money has been spent upon the field, thus emphasizing an increase in efficiency, for it has been well spent. All of which leads your Committee to say, "It is certainly day-break on the horizon of the Board of Education." We are only beginning, however, to appreciate what God will do with this arm of the Church if the Church is true to Him and it.

The Board's Report itself is documentary evidence proving that during the past year the Church is increasingly responding to the call for Christian education. It is not the purpose of your Standing Committee to take the time of the Assembly's extended comment upon the Board's Report. The Committee most earnestly suggests and urges that every minister and elder in the Church will take the time to carefully read this Ninety-fourth Report. Ministers will find in it a most valuable mine from which to get information and inspiration for sermons presenting the claims of the Christian ministry. The Report fairly bristles with facts, and the story of progress will be stimulating and heartening. Brethren, read the Board's Report.

Throughout the year, the Board has kept in mind the great work which for many years past it has been doing in caring for candidates for the ministry regularly commended to its care by the Presbyteries of the Church. The new work laid upon the Board in the Providence of God has, of course, occupied a large share of its attention, requiring, as it does, a careful study of the facts with a view to determining the course to be pursued; but the oversight of the candidates for the ministry by the Board has been close and the inquiries have been particular. Eight hundred and thirty-five men were recommended for aid during the year, and of these the Board, under its rules, was obliged to decline forty-one. Accordingly, 794 men were aided—344 in the seminary, 357 in college, and 93 in academy. The Board granted aid to 123 students of foreign speech and to 47 at our institutions for training ministers of the colored race. Students abandoning the ministry have refunded $1,514 during the year. The Board is pursuing effective methods in dealing with students who allow extra-academic activities to interfere with their studies, and is earnestly impressing on the minds of young men the need of close attention to their work of preparation.

While the Board has been singularly faithful to its primal work, it is manifest that the charter of the Board contemplates a far larger field of service than the work of aiding students enlisted for the ministry. This Committee commends the Church for supporting the Board in its undertakings in the recent years to widen its field and force. It approves the plan suggested in the Report for the observance of the special days by the Church at large; in holding educational rallies, and the special plans for observing days of prayer and so-called vocation days in our colleges and institutions of learning, and the Board is urged to enter even more aggressively upon this work.

The Committee suggests that the Board further plan and provide for the work of developing schools for lay-workers and include the granting of scholarship aid to students, thus preparing for lay work.

The Committee is profoundly grateful to note in the Report of the work conducted in State universities the sure progress made the past year; that more money has been contributed than ever before in its history; that the morale of the student bodies has been improved; above all, that through its instrumentality so many students have been brought to a decision for Christ and committed to lives of Christian service. We would call attention to the work of ten university pastors giving their entire time to the work for students, and fourteen giving part time.

The Committee approves of the policy of the Board in securing residential quarters for the pastors, and recommends that adequate salaries be given them. We recommend continued co-operation by the Board and its university pastors as far as possible with other Christian agencies now at work seeking to inculcate evangelical religion. We would commend the sagacity of the Board in safeguarding money invested in buildings and endowments, thereby ensuring perpetual use of those buildings for the purpose for which the money was given. The Committee insists upon the intellectual as well as the religious and personal equipment of the university pastors, who are, in sense, to come in competition with the brightest minds the State can secure.

The Committee desires to say that the 16 per cent. increase over last year in gifts to the Board from Churches, Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies must be further augmented if the Board is to accomplish its work. The Committee respectfully calls the attention of the Executive Commission to the need of an increase in the apportionment of the budget. At least $100,000* should be the amount contributed by the Churches, Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies for the work of the Board of Education during the coming year.

* Amount of Budget authorized by the General Assembly.

The following resolutions are presented for adoption:

1. That the Assembly commend the Board for its faithful performance of its trust, and congratulate it upon presenting a Report which shows the past year to have been the most efficient and successful in its history.

2. That the Board's statement of its powers under the broad Charter and Constitution which permits it to enter upon any educational work now under its charge, or that may in the future be committed to it by the General Assembly, be and hereby is approved as both clear and conclusive.

3. That, reaffirming the deliverances of former Assemblies, and in view of the crying needs of the home and foreign fields, the Board be urged to prosecute with vigor its distinctive work of recruiting the Church's supply of workers, ministerial and lay, in our homes, churches, Sunday-schools, brotherhoods, colleges and universities, and that it be authorized to employ such agents as, in its judgment, it may require to accomplish this important task.

4. That the success of the Board in securing the observance of Vocation Day warrants its incorporation in the Calendar of Church Days.

5. That the broadest co-operation with the Evangelistic Committee in the Plan of College Visitation is recommended.

6. That, in furthering the training of foreign-speaking candidates, the Board be authorized to use its discretion in the matter of assisting Bloomfield Seminary and the Theological Department of Dubuque and such other seminaries reporting to the Assembly as may provide for the adequate instruction of foreign-speaking candidates.

7. That the Board of Education be directed to establish a special Prize Scholarship in the English Bible, to be offered to seminary students upon the basis of competitive examinations as soon as funds may be provided for such purpose.

8. That the Board be directed to give careful consideration to the methods now in operation touching beneficiary aid to candidates for the ministry, with the view of securing, if possible, a more equitable adjustment to their needs.

9. That hearty commendation be given to the Board for its success in the prosecution of the work of supplying the religious needs of students attending State educational institutions, including contract relations with Synods, and that the Board be authorized to enter into like co-operation with Synods in behalf of the interests of Presbyterian students at other institutions of learning.

10. That the Board be authorized to enter into advisory relations with schools for the training of lay workers whose charters declare them to be Presbyterian, and, further, that it exercise its discretion in granting beneficiary aid to certain students at such institutions, provided these schools make the Board their agent for the holding or forwarding of offerings and gifts designated for the use of these schools.

11. That the eight days beginning with the first Sunday in February, 1914, be designated as "Educational Week"—the first Sunday to be observed as "Young People's Day" and "Vocation Day"; the second Sunday as "Educational Day," and the Thursday between as the "Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges."

12. That the following-named gentlemen whose terms expire with this Assembly be re-elected to the class of 1913-1916:

HENRY COLLIN MINTON, D.D., LL.D.,	MR. CHARLES T. EVANS,
J. BEVERIDGE LEE, D.D.,	MR. CHARLES W. KOLB,
EDWARD YATES HILL, D.D.,	WALTER E. REX, ESQ.,
EDWARD H. PENCE, D.D.,	MR. GUSTAVUS W. KNOWLES,
	MR. EVAN G. CHANDLEE,

and that the Rev. Alexander MacColl be elected to fill an unexpired vacancy in the Class of 1912-1915.

13. That the Report of the Treasurer and the Minutes of the Recording Secretary, having been carefully examined, be approved.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN WILLIS BAER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a Supplementary Report on Overtures 161 to 164, on training candidates of foreign speech, and recommended that the Overtures be referred to the Board of Education. The recommendation was adopted. Certain papers having to do with the principle of national aid to education were also referred to the Board of Education.

Attest: WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

THE REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

PRESENTED TO AND APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT ATLANTA,

It is with very great pleasure that the members of your Committee have come to know each other as men in every instance deeply interested in the work which has fallen to their hands.

The year just closed has been notable in more than one respect. The Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the life and labors of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work has been suitably celebrated. In one of several important meetings held in connection therewith, over sixty missionaries of the field force were present, with the Secretary and deeply interested friends of the Board.

It is interesting to make record that during the past year a larger amount of money, by $12,000, has been contributed in support of the work of the Board than in any previous year. A very notable achievement of the year has been the extinction of the mortgage indebtedness of $600,000 resting upon the Witherspoon Building. This handsome and commodious structure was first occupied by the Board in January, 1898. The property and building cost upwards of $1,000,000. Its value is considerably greater than that amount to-day, owing to the appreciation of property in the immediate neighborhood. Surely the Board and the Church are to be heartily congratulated upon the successful completion of so important an undertaking!

It is with sincere sorrow we make record of an irreparable loss—the loss which the Church at large has sustained in the death of Dr. James Russell Miller, the beloved Superintendent of the Editorial Department of our Board. In loving appreciation of his unswerving loyalty to our living and loving Lord, his great and effective labors for the Church, and his noble and Christ-like character, we speak his name with becoming reverence. In the reflected influence of his life, in the after-glow of its imperishable light, we shall continue to walk until like him we hear the words of divine approval, “Well done, for well doing.”

We are thankful to make record, as we have already done, of the increase of liberality in larger gifts; the offerings, however, from many churches might be very much larger than they are. In the same sentence with this everywhere the gratitude of the Church is expressed to our faithful missionaries whose place of service for the great Shepherd of the sheep is on the "firing line" of the frontier or in the congested districts of our great cities; and to the wise and consecrated superintendents. After the example of their great Master, in a very true sense, they lay down their lives that they may take them up again in redeemed character and Christianized community.

We thankfully make record of the Assembly's acceptance of the Intermediate Catechism and approve of its use, with the Shorter Catechism, in Sabbath schools, homes and catechumen classes.

It is impossible to overestimate the value of the Institutes conducted by our Educational Superintendents, in coöperation with the representatives of the Board. This we believe to be one of the most definite steps of progress in Dr. Henry's able administration. It is reasonable to expect that large encouragement be given by ministers and sessions to the work of such Institutes, deepening, as they undoubtedly do, the interest of individual churches in the aggressive work of the Board.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following

I. GRADED LESSONS.

Your Committee finds from the Seventy-fifth Annual Report of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work (see page 4) that the last General Assembly appointed a special committee, with certain specific powers, to confer with the Board in the matter of Graded Lessons published by the Board for the use of Sabbath schools. That as a result of various conferences of the Board and said committee, the publication of the Intermediate and Senior Lessons was to be discontinued September 30, 1913; that the Board, with the approval of the said committee, has undertaken a revision of the Beginners, Primary and Junior Lessons; and has also planned for the publication of other and improved Graded Lessons to take the place of those which are to be discontinued.

Your Committee heartily approves of the general plan of Graded Lessons for use in churches preferring them to the Uniform Series; but while commending the Board for the service it has rendered the Church during this experimental stage, we believe the present lesson helps in the graded system may be substantially improved; and to that end we would recommend:

(a) That in case of the failure of syndication with the Reformed Churches, the Board carefully revise the present Beginners, Primary and Junior helps and go forward in the publication of new Intermediate and Senior Lessons; and that in such revision and publication the following things are suggested: (1) Simplicity of expression and clearness of definition. (2) Complete harmony, in all exposition and definition, with the system of evangelical faith accepted by our Presbyterian Church; and especially with regard to the divine inspiration of the Scriptures as the supreme revelation of God, the deity of Jesus Christ as God in the flesh, coequal with the Father and coeternal, the inherent sinfulness of human nature and the consequent need of a spiritual regeneration, and the atoning merit of Christ as a Saviour from sin.

And, further, that in the use of extra-biblical lessons, the honor of the Scriptures be maintained in this way: Where so-called "nature studies" or "stories" are used in the earlier grades (Beginners, Primary and Junior) they are to be used in connection with definite selections of Scripture, and then only in the form of pictures or emblems to illustrate moral or spiritual truths; and that in the use of biography or history, or ethics or social science, a definite portion of Scripture be used as a basis of the lesson, the biography or historical event, or principle of ethics or of social science being used to illustrate the Word of God and confirm its fundamental teachings.

(b) That in order to insure the Board against needless financial loss, the Board be granted the privilege of selling the series of Intermediate and Senior Lessons now in use, as they are called for, while completing the publication of the new series—the imprint of the Board being withheld.

2. COÖPERATION WITH OTHER BOARDS.

Your Committee learns from the Report that the Board has acted upon the request that a conference be held with the "Sunday-school Boards of the Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian system," with the view of securing coöperation in lesson publication; and that such a conference was held in Philadelphia February 28, 1913. Your Committee therefore expresses its hearty approval of this action, and recommends a continuance of all such efforts to bring about the desired coöperation and syndication. (See Report of Board, page 33.)

3. CARE IN APPOINTING COMMITTEES ON SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

Finding that at the Missionary Conference held in Knoxville, Tennessee, March, 1913, a resolution was adopted in which attention was called to the fact that sufficient care has not been exercised in all Presbyteries and Synods of the Church in the appointment of committees on Sabbath-school Work, your Committee therefore recommends that in view of the growing importance, the widening sphere, and the increasing complexity of the work of Religious Education, Synods and Presbyteries be urged to exercise great care in the selection of the members of such committees, endeavoring to find men familiar with the subject of Sabbath-school missions and interested in promoting the work of Religious Education.

4. OBSERVING SPECIAL DAYS.

That churches and Sabbath schools, in so far as possible, hold services on Children's Day in June, Rally Day in September and on the first Sunday of February; that the literature supplied by the Board be used, and that offerings be taken at such times in aid of Sabbath-school missions and Young People's work.

5. THE WESTMINSTER HYMNAL.

That the Westminster Hymnal be commended to session for use in the prayer meeting, Sabbath-school services and services of a similar character.

6. SABBATH-SCHOOL EXTENSION WORK.

That Sabbath-school extension work be undertaken by churches wherever practicable, so that neglected and unchurched villages, or country districts, may have brought to them the privileges of the Sabbath school, such work being done by Sabbath-school workers, Christian Endeavorers or Brotherhood men, under the supervision of church sessions.

7. THE SUPPORT OF SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES BY CHURCHES OR INDIVIDUALS.

That in the cases of churches sufficiently able, the support of Sabbath-school missionaries be undertaken by individuals or churches, in order to an increase of interest through engagement in specific work.

8. SABBATH-SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

That all churches maintain Sabbath-school libraries, and that all libraries be equipped more fully, especially for the supply of books on technical subjects—such as missionary enterprises, Bible study, training of teachers and school organization; and that books of safe, attractive and morally stimulating character for the home be kept in circulation.

9. FAMILY WORSHIP.

That a convenient manual of family worship be prepared by the Board and offered through the churches for use in the homes.

10. SUPERINTENDENTS' ASSOCIATIONS.

That in cities and towns of sufficient population, associations of Sabbath-school superintendents be formed for conference on Sabbath-school problems and methods; and that in all churches teacher-training classes be regularly organized, in order to the proper equipment of teacher and their recommendation to the session for service.

11. THE SESSION AND THE SCHOOL.

That sessions, or committees from sessions, exercise most earnest oversight over the work of Sabbath schools and catechumen classes, with this thought in particular in mind—that scholars may be led to a personal decision and confession of Christ.

12. PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOODS.

That members of young men's classes be encouraged to identify themselves with the work of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, in order to the exercise of individual gifts in specific services for the Master.

13. TEMPERANCE DAY.

That in common with the observance of Temperance Day and the study of temperance lessons, scholars be invited to pledge themselves against the use of intoxicants and tobacco.

14. OVERTURES ON GRADED LESSONS.

That overtures on Graded Lessons (239, 240, 241, 270, 293) having been passed upon by your Committee, they be placed in the hands of the Board.

15. APPRECIATION OF THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

That the gratitude of the Assembly be expressed in warm appreciation of the earnest labors of the officers and members of the Board during the past year.

16. ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

That the statement of the Board touching the election of members be received and its action confirmed. The following persons are recommended for election: Rev. W. Courtland Robinson, D.D., and Rev. James Ramsay Swain, to fill the unexpired terms of Rev. Mervin J. Eckels, D.D., and Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., both resigned; and Rev. George H. Hemingway, D.D., to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. Samuel McLanahan. That the term of office of the following members expiring in June—Rev. Louis F. Benson, D.D., Rev. W. Beatty Jennings, D.D., Rev. J. M. Johnson, Rev. Edmund G. Rawson, Rev. John A. MacCallum; and Messrs. Robert H. Hinckley, William H. Scott, Franklin L. Sheppard and Cheesman A. Herrick—they be reëlected to serve for three years; that John H. DeWitt, Esq., of Nashville, be elected to fill the place made vacant by the death of the Hon. I. H. Goodnight; that the Rev. George H. Mack be elected to succeed Rev. S. C. Logan, now a member of the Southern Presbyterian Church; and that the Rev. R. W. Binkley, D.D., be elected to succeed the Rev. J. D. Hunter, resigned.

17. AN ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

That an Advisory Committee, composed of special representatives from various Synods, be appointed by the Board for purposes of conference and correspondence.

RECOMMENDATIONS UPON MATTERS REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE.

1. SESSIONAL SUPERVISION OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

The matter of the supervision by sessions of Young People's work, referred to the Committee by the Executive Commission, thus stated in section 2, page 153, of the Blue Book: the Assembly urges upon every church session the appointment of a permanent committee on Young People's societies, to the end that a strong and prayerful effort be made to increase the efficiency of the organization in more thorough and systematic Bible study, in the promotion of deeper spirituality, and in more zealous interest in and more liberal offerings to the benevolent and missionary enterprises of the Church.

Your Committee begs leave to call attention to Recommendation No. 2 of the Special Committee on Religious Education (see page 77 of the Blue Book) and recently approved by the Assembly, namely, that particular churches are advised anew to form councils of religious education, which under the direction of the session shall have charge of the educational work within their bounds. Your Committee recommends that such permanent Committee on Young People's Work be made up of church sessions, or committees from church sessions, having power to increase the membership of the same, and accomplish the proposed work of encouragement and stimulation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. H. WRAY BOYLE,
Chairman.

The 75th Annual Report of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work

Approved by the Board April 22, 1913, and Presented to the General Assembly at its Meeting in Atlanta, Ga., May, 1913

The Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work presents to the General Assembly its Seventy-fifth Annual Report.

The Board is gratified that this year, which completes the service of three quarters of a century, should have been characterized by a wider field of activity on the part of the Board and larger offerings from the Church than any previous year.

The contributions for missionary and educational work amounted to $189,364.08, which is $11,669.74, greater than the contributions of the preceding year. The Missionary Department began the year with a debt of $4,252.11, but was able to close it with a credit balance of $3,887.02. The business of the Board has been larger than in any previous year. The net profits were $38,962.18, of which two-thirds will be used in promoting our missionary and educational work. One-third will be added to the capital of the Board.

The Witherspoon Building

One of the notable achievements of the year was the completion of the payment of the debt on the Witherspoon Building.

On October 24, 1896, the cornerstone of the Witherspoon Building was laid, and in January, 1898, the building was occupied by the Board. The building and the ground on which it stands cost $1,080,912.82. Its value is considerably greater to-day, owing to a general appreciation of property in the immediate neighborhood. It was necessary, in order to provide sufficient funds for the erection of the building, to place upon it a mortgage of $600,000. This mortgage has been diminished from year to year until the entire sum has been paid and the mortgage cancelled. The Board finds much pleasure in reporting to the Assembly that it holds in the interests of the Presbyterian Church this handsome, valuable and commodious building, freed from all mortgage indebtedness. In accomplishing this result, annuity bonds to a total of $218,000 were issued as a direct obligation of the Board, an indebtedness which will steadily diminish with the death of the annuitants. Of these bonds there are now outstanding $211,000.

From this date, the net income of the building, allowing for proper reserves for maintenance, replacements and repairs, and the payment of interest upon the annuity bonds, will be devoted to the support of the Sabbath-school and Missionary work of the Board.

The Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Missionary Department

During the past year the silver anniversary of the Missionary Department has been observed with gratifying results. At the request of the Presbytery of Chicago, the annual Missionary Conference was held in that city. Upwards of sixty missionaries and educational superintendents, representing more than twenty Synods, met in the Second Presbyterian Church. The Conference was most helpful to the representatives of the Board and the other Sabbath-school workers who were able to attend. In addition to this, churches and Sabbath schools have been requested to make silver offerings to the missionary work of the Board, and Sabbath schools have been urged to make an effort to add twenty-five per cent to their membership during the year. Many gratifying responses have been made to these appeals. Fuller details will be given in the body of the report.

Working with the Assembly's Committee on Graded Lessons

During the year a special Committee of the Board on graded lessons has been coöperating with the Assembly's ad interim Committee on Graded Lessons. A number of joint meetings have been held, and an agreement as to the treatment of the graded lessons has been reached.

The Board is preparing to retire its present series of Intermediate and Senior lessons on September 30, 1913, and expects at that time to have other graded lessons to take their place.

The preparation of a series of graded lessons by a Presbyterian syndicate representing the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian system is being considered. If for any reason this arrangement should be found to be impracticable, the present series of Elementary graded lessons will be revised or rewritten, according to the plans agreed upon by the joint Committee.

Fuller details upon this subject will be found on page 31.

Coöperating with the Assembly's Committee on Religious Education

On March 28, 1911, the Board took the following action, which was reported to the Assembly of 1911:

Resolved, That this Board has always recognized the importance of the preparation of such helps and textbooks as shall be adapted to unify and promote the religious education of the young people and Christian workers of our churches;

Resolved, That if the Special Committee of the General Assembly now having this subject under consideration concur in such a plan, this Board will be glad to amplify the scope of its present "Department of Young People's Work," designating said department as the "Department of Religious Education and Young People's Work," said department to be suitably officered, and to employ such expert assistance as the means at the disposal of the Board will justify.

In view of this action, the Assembly's Committee offered the following resolution, which was adopted by the Assembly:

Resolved, That this Committee and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work be authorized and instructed jointly to continue during this coming year the work of religious education as already begun, and to perfect a plan for the transfer of the work to this Board, and to report to the next Assembly.

Acting under this resolution, the Board coöperated with the Assembly's Committee on Religious Education during the year following. Finding at the close of the year that the way was not entirely clear for the transfer of the Committee's work to the Board, the following resolution was presented by the Committee to the Assembly of 1912:

Resolved, That this Committee and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work be authorized and instructed jointly to prosecute this work under the instructions of last year.

The Assembly adopted the resolution, and under it the joint work has been carried on up to the present time. Details of this work will be found in the report of the Assembly's Committee on Religious Education.

The Board and the Committee are agreed that the time has come for the transfer of this work to the Board. To provide for such transfer, the Board adopted the following resolution at its meeting on March 25, 1913:

Resolved, That the Board reaffirms its action as reported to the General Assembly of 1911, relative to amplifying the scope of the present Department of Young People's Work, and stands ready to take such steps in furtherance of the work as may be necessary.

Young People's Department

The Board reported to the last Assembly the resignation of Rev. Willis L. Gelston, the Superintendent of its Young People's Department. Rev. William Ralph Hall, Mr. Gelston's assistant, took up the work and carried it on successfully, transacting the duties of the office and holding the summer conferences. The efficiency displayed by Mr. Hall in carrying on Mr. Gelston's work led the Board to the conclusion that he would make a suitable Superintendent of the department. He was accordingly elected and has entered upon the duties of the office. The report on Young People's Work will be found on page 21.

The Revised Hymnal

The publication of the Revised Hymnal was reported to the Assembly last year. It is gratifying to report that the new book has been favorably received, and that more than three hundred and fifty congregations are already using it.

We should bear in mind that our hymnals are published to secure uniformity in our service of praise rather than for financial profit. The fact that nearly five thousand Presbyterian churches are now using the church hymnals shows that decided progress is being made in this direction. Churches contemplating the adoption of a new hymnal should take this into consideration. By adopting the Revised Hymnal they would be not only loyal to the Presbyterian Church, but would secure for their service of praise a hymn-book of the highest standard.

Death of the Editorial Superintendent

On July 2, 1912, the Rev. James Russell Miller, D.D., who had been for thirty-two years associated with the Editorial Department of the Board, and for twenty-five years its Editorial Superintendent, entered into rest. A special committee prepared a memorial, which was adopted by the Board, and entered upon its minutes. This memorial will be found on page 28 of this report.

Election of New Members

The Rev. W. Courtland Robinson, D.D., and the Rev. James Ramsay Swain have been elected members of the Board to fill the unexpired terms of the Rev. Drs. Mervin J. Eckels and Robert Hunter, resigned; and the Rev. George H. Hemingway, D.D., has been elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Rev. Samuel McLanahan.

The General Assembly is requested to confirm these elections.

Expiration of Term of Office

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire in June:

Ministers

REV. LOUIS F. BENSON, D.D.,
REV. W. BEATTY JENNINGS, D.D.,
REV. J. M. JOHNSTON,
REV. EDMUND G. RAWSON,
REV. JOHN A. MACCALLUM.

Elders

ROBERT H. HINGCKLEY,
WILLIAM H. SCOTT,
FRANKLIN L. SHEPPARD,
I. H. GOODNIGHT,*
CHEESMAN A. HERRICK.

The Board respectfully recommends to the Assembly that these ministers and elders be reelected to serve for three years.

Representation at the General Assembly

Messrs. Bernard Gilpin and J. Milton Colton, together with the Secretary were requested and authorized to represent the Board at the meeting of the General Assembly.

* Died April 19.

The Sabbath-School and Missionary Department

The twenty-fifth anniversary year of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department has been one of progress and extension. The results of the efforts of our force of field workers show a spirit of aggressiveness. They have pushed forward into new regions, occupying fields hitherto neglected and through the establishing of mission Sabbath schools have laid the foundations for permanent Christian training and influence for young and old. Not only have scores of needy and promising fields been opened, but we have demonstrated the growing need of this kind of work in all parts of our country. The work has been planned with the advice and counsel of the appropriate Committees of the Presbyteries and carried forward in harmony with their missionary policy.

Missionaries During the year 120 Sabbath-school workers have been employed. Of this number 10 are District and Synodical Superintendents; 7 are Educational Superintendents and 103 are Presbyterial missionaries. In addition 25 colporteurs have been engaged in visiting and distributing evangelical literature in foreign languages in eight Synods. The total number of workers in the field last year was 145.

Sabbath-School Extension Work While carefully avoiding the tendency to over-church communities already well supplied with religious opportunities, our missionaries have found many destitute localities where their services were needed. As the result of these labors 740 new Sabbath schools have been organized and 210 revived, making a total of 950, into which 32,512 persons were gathered, 3,225 being officers and teachers and 29,287 pupils. (See page 24.)

Other Sabbath Schools Organized Besides the schools brought into being directly through the labors of the missionaries, 54 other mission schools were organized by interested persons in localities unreached by the field force, and furnished with supplies, free of charge, for the first year.

Sabbath Schools Aided Requests for aid in the matter of supplies are constantly being received from mission Sabbath schools on the frontier in rural neighborhoods, from negro schools in the South and from missions among foreigners in our cities, besides a number of mission stations in foreign lands. The Board has responded to more than two thousand applications of this kind at an expense of $7,644.20. Lesson helps, illustrated papers, hymnals, libraries and other necessary equipment have been included in these grants.

The latest reports received from the field show 2,496 mission Sabbath schools under the care of our missionaries, with a membership of 109,133. In accordance with their instructions, the missionaries transfer the care of the schools which develop into churches to the settled pastors who are placed in charge. In many cases, however, churches may never develop and the people look to the Sabbath-school missionary for pastoral care.

Visitation is a most important feature of our field work. The ministry to scattered homes in which family religion has been neglected, and reclaiming those who have become indifferent through the absence of the means of grace, has brought joy and blessing to many. In the course of their labors 102,491 visits to such families have been made by our missionaries during the year.

In many churchless communities where Sabbath schools have been organized, the missionary is requested to hold evangelistic services. During the fall and winter months series of meetings are arranged at strategic points, and through the awakened spiritual life resulting from these services frequently the way is prepared for the organization of a church. Last year 947 such services were held, with 2,516 professed conversions.

Each missionary carries a supply of tracts, Bibles, Testaments and Gospels which are distributed by sale or gift where they are needed. The printed page has been found especially effective in reaching the various classes of foreigners coming to make their homes among us. During the year 26,380 volumes and 10,374,183 pages of religious tracts have been distributed, besides 4,360 Bibles and Testaments, of which 1,649 were in foreign languages.

As the outgrowth of the work of nurturing and developing the mission schools under their care, 82 churches have been organized, of which 64 are Presbyterian and 18 of other denominations. (See page 25.)

In many cases chapels were erected in which missionaries were called upon to assist. The value of these erected last year is $118,096, or 68 per cent of the entire cost of the field work for the year.

Donations of Clothing The missionaries, through the generosity of women's societies, mission bands and Sabbath schools, have been able to relieve much distress by distributing gifts of new and partly worn clothing. Such aid is greatly appreciated by the poor homesteaders who through crop failure have exhausted their resources and find it difficult to provide sufficient clothing for their families. The 45 donations received were valued at $2,066.11.

Review of Twenty-five Years Referring to the tabulated statement of permanent results of this pioneer work since its inception, twenty-five years ago, it will at once be seen how far-reaching the influence of these labors has been. While we may rejoice in visible signs of God's blessing, there is besides, an unwritten record of triumphs of faith and missionary heroism. The communities that have been transformed, the multitude who have been brought into familiar contact with God's Word and the thousands who have become earnest and efficient Christian workers and through whom the influence begun in the little rural Sabbath school has been multiplied many times, all testify to the value of this work. It will be noted that an average of 63 new Presbyterian churches have developed each year, 1,579 in all, besides 619 churches of other denominations, a total of 2,198 churches since the beginning of the work.

Synodical and Presbyterian Committees During the past few years the Board has come into closer relations with its representative Committee in each Presbytery and Synod. This has resulted in more efficient supervision of the field work and a cordial spirit of coöperation has been manifested in furthering the Board's plans throughout the Church.

Combined Committees Impractical In some localities efforts have been made to combine the Sabbath-school Committee with the Home Mission Committee. Experience has proven that the best results are not accomplished by such a combination. The Synod of Oregon, after three years' experience under the combined plan of committee supervision, voted unanimously last fall to separate these committees in the belief that greater efficiency could be secured with each agency having its own representative committee in Presbytery and Synod, securing harmony of policy and operation by joint committee meetings held at intervals during the year. Presbyteries here and there also have found the combination method impracticable. The Board therefore urges upon all Presbyteries and Synods the importance of retaining their Sabbath-school interests under the care of a separate Sabbath-school Committee in accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly of 1912.

Supporting Sabbath-School Missionaries

Another encouraging feature of the year's work is the number of churches, Sabbath schools and individuals undertaking definite shares in the support of Sabbath-school missionaries.

Seventy contributors have expressed a desire thus to be represented in the field in addition to a large number of others who have asked for quarterly letters from missionaries, and whose interest in this work is being cultivated.

Missionary Education

In view of the fact that the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work was not included in the action of the General Assembly of 1912, in response to Overture No. 365, creating a Department of Missionary Education, and believing that the interests of the unified educational missionary work of the Church demand that the missionary efforts of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work should be represented in such a department, the Council of that Department invited the Board to participate in its work. The invitation was accepted and the work of Sabbath-school Missions is now included in the plans and methods of the Department of Missionary Education for the promotion of all phases of mission study.

"On the Firing Line"

This year, for the first time in the history of the Board's Sabbath-school missionary work, this cause has been presented in permanent book form under the title "On the Firing Line with the Sunday-school Missionary." This book being suitably arranged for a mission study course, has already been adopted by a number of classes, and it will be used in the Young People's Summer Conferences this year. About four thousand copies have been sold, and its effect has already been felt in cultivating a deeper and more intelligent interest in the Board's missionary activities. The author of this book, Mr. John M. Somerndike, has been connected with the work of the Board for twenty years. On the recommendation of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee, the Board, at its meeting on the 25th of February, 1913, adopted the following minute: "In view of the enlarged scope and efficient character of Mr. Somerndike's work, that he be given the title of Superintendent of Sabbath-school Missions."

Grants

During the year donations were made as follows:

Periodicals, books and tracts, to Sabbath schools, churches, pastors and missionary workers, including foreign languages.....	$10,434.43
Bibles as rewards for memorizing Shorter and Intermediate Catechisms .....	767.53
Westminster Teacher to Foreign Mission Stations.....	494.32
Total .....	$11,696.28

Contributions amounting to $1,670.58 were made to the Board for the erection of chapels and other special objects in connection with the work on the field.

The thanks of the Board are due the Sabbath schools for their hearty reponse to our appeals for contributions on these two Sabbath-school days. About 5,600 Sabbath schools used our Children's Day free supplies, more than 700,000 copies of the program and recitation supplement being distributed. Of the Rally Day programs, 310,000 were used by about 2,400 Sabbath schools. The total amount received from Sabbath schools during the year is $91,751.77. In accordance with our usual custom, the Children's Day offerings are used for Sabbath-school missions and the Rally Day appeal is for our foreign immigrant work.

The value of the work of distributing evangelical literature, especially among those to whom we cannot preach because of the difference in language, is known and appreciated everywhere. The colporteurs of the Board numbering 25, and laboring among Bohemians, Hungarians, Italians, Poles, Roumanians, Russians, Ruthenians, Slovaks and foreigners of many other nationalities, have rendered helpful service during the year in preparing the way for the preaching of the Word, and the establishment of mission stations, besides giving the Gospel in their own tongue to thousands who otherwise would not have the truths of the Word presented to them.

In the course of their labors these colporteurs have visited 32,612 families, distributed 10,349 religious books and 40,741 pages of tracts by sale and gift; besides 1,649 Bibles, Testaments and portions of Scripture in at least 20 different languages. Their total sales amounted to $1,584.27. (See page 27.) In addition to their work of distributing literature, some of these colporteurs have given attention to the development of missions that have been opened at various points, thus coöperating with Presbyteries in their efforts to reach their foreign population with Gospel teaching until arrangements could be made for the support of permanent missionaries.

Foreign Periodicals

For Bohemians, Slovaks and Other Slavic
Peoples Our Bohemian publication work has been enlarged during the year by the addition of "Besidka," a four-page Sabbath-school paper for children, published weekly. This paper has a circulation of 3,000 copies and it enters many homes into which no other Christian literature finds its way. While it is prepared especially for children, the parents read it and thus they too are influenced toward the Gospel.

Our sixteen-page weekly Bohemian paper, "Krestanske Listy" (Christian Journal), whose circulation is now 3,300 copies, is appreciated by the Bohemians and Slovaks in our Presbyterian missions, besides being itself a missionary force among these people in their scattered homes all over our land.

For Ruthenians The Ruthenian paper, "Sojuz" (Union), is steadily growing, its circulation now being 1,200 copies weekly. At a conference of Ruthenian missionaries held last summer this paper was commended as a most helpful instrument in leading the people of this nationality to an acceptance of the Gospel.

For Hungarians
(Magyars) In spite of the difficulties of the work among Magyars, our twelve-page weekly paper, "Reformatusok Lapja" (Reformed Sentinel), shows encouraging progress. Besides experiencing steady increase in the number of subscribers, this paper was adopted by the various Hungarian Beneficial Societies at their Convention last fall as their official organ. These societies contracted for the purchase of three thousand copies of the "Sentinel," one issue a month, to be distributed among their members. We are hoping that this may result in a further increase in the number of regular subscribers. Aside from the special edition of 4,000 copies once a month, we are printing 1,000 copies each week.

For Italians Our Italian weekly paper, "L'Araldo" (The Herald), continues to grow, the circulation having reached 4,000 copies weekly. In the publication of this paper the United Presbyterian Church and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union are coöperating by taking special imprint editions.

The net cost of these papers for the year was:

Christian Journal (Bohemian).....	$4,768.11
Besidka (Bohemian) .....	121.68
Union (Ruthenian) .....	2,216.70
Sentinel (Magyar) .....	2,850.54
Herald (Italian) .....	2,042.60
Total .....	$11,999.63

Correspondence is being carried on with interested persons regarding the publication of a Polish paper for which a demand has developed in various quarters. There is an opportunity for such a paper to accomplish much good in view of the restlessness of many of the Polish Catholic congregations, some of which have already expressed an inclination to adopt the Presbyterian faith. It is hoped that arrangements may be made by which such a paper may be added to our list of foreign publications during the coming year.

The Editor of our Italian weekly paper, in addition to his other duties, maintains a depository for the sale of the best Italian literature published here and abroad for the convenience of our colporteurs and the various Italian missions. This literature department is patronized by Italian missions of all evangelical denominations. The total sales last year were $2,421.84.

Again during the past year we have been obliged to increase the number of Bible Picture Cards upon which the Sabbath-school lessons are printed, now being published in six different languages. Their circulation is 15,100 sets each quarter, or 785,200 cards per year. Many of these cards also are donated in blank to missions abroad under the care of the Foreign Mission Board, where they are printed in various languages and dialects. The sales of these cards last year amounted to $880.03. Many of them are distributed by our colporteurs, who find them useful as an introduction to their visit and message in many homes. The net cost of publishing these cards last year was $632.12.

During the year 375 Sabbath-school pupils have availed themselves of the Board's offer of a Bible to those who memorize the Shorter Catechism.

In our field work we have enjoyed the continued hearty coöperation of the American Bible Society and its agencies through whom Bibles and Testaments have been furnished for the use of Sabbath-school missionaries. Presbyterians who contribute to the Bible Society's work will be glad to know that it is supplementing in this effective manner the missionary activities of this Board.

Financial With sincere gratitude we report the largest contributions received last year since the beginning of this work twenty-five years ago. The total offerings from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals reached the sum of $189,364.08, an increase of $11,669.74 over last year, an average increase of nearly $1,000 a month. This increase is analyzed as follows:

From Churches .....	$7,009.40
“ Sabbath Schools .....	3,776.19
“ Individuals .....	1,494.82
		$12,280.41
“ Young People's Societies (Decrease).....		610.67
Net Increase .....		$11,669.74

Comparison of Contributions

The following table shows the comparative increase in contributions from various sources during the past ten years:

	Church.	Sabbath School.	Y. P. Societies.	Individuals.
1903-04	$44,727.39	$63,360.80		$13,609.92
1904-05	44,232.74	63,371.15		17,546.66
1905-06	48,730.86	64,272.29		17,115.85
1906-07	50,193.34	68,531.94		17,970.31
1907-08	54,720.20	84,681.09		21,570.67
1908-09	53,608.10	79,714.45	$1,318.60	21,121.19
1909-10	58,572.31	86,847.86	1,740.27	22,915.52
1910-11	60,084.15	93,772.23	2,470.03	25,527.30
1911-12	64,547.26	87,975.58	1,987.81	23,183.69
1912-13	71,556.66	91,751.77	1,377.14	24,678.51

Administration The actual cost of administration in the Board's missionary work is comparatively small. The missionary fund bears two-fifths of the salary of the Secretary, and a like proportion of the salary of the Assistant Treasurer. The salary list of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, apart from the proportion of the Secretary's and Assistant Treasurer's salaries, which has the oversight of the field workers, the foreign colporteurs and publication work, etc., under the direction of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee of the Board, amounted to $3,754.34 for the entire year. This is insignificant in comparison with the amount received for carrying on this work. It should be remembered, also, that the proportion of profit of the Business Department appropriated to the missionary fund annually, fully covers this administrative expense, besides the salaries of the Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, the Educational Superintendent and the expenses of the Young People's Department, so that practically every dollar contributed to this Board is used directly in its field operations.

This year's report shows a distinct advance in educational effort on the part of our missionaries. More than five hundred institutes have been held among the mission schools under their care. Their services have been helpful also in stimulating, encouraging, and standardizing the Church schools, especially in the districts where the Sabbath schools are small and workers untrained. As the result of these institutes, teacher-training classes have been organized, the organized adult Bible class movement has been promoted, and Cradle Rolls and Home Departments have been formed. This work has been further developed through conferences with the officers and teachers of the individual schools. The missionaries are holding before their schools the Westminster Standard of Excellence as the goal toward which they should aim in Sabbath-school organization and methods; and a gratifying number are making rapid progress toward becoming "Standard" schools.

Educational Work

The educational work of the Board is under the Sabbath-School and Missionary Department. The special force includes the Superintendent of Sabbath-School Training, Rev. James A. Worden, D.D.; the Educational Superintendent of Sabbath-School Missions, Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, and the several District Educational Superintendents, Rev. Gerrit Verkuyl, Ph.D., for Wisconsin and Minnesota, Rev. Alfred M. Williams for the Pacific Northwest, Rev. Ralph H. Houseman for Nebraska, Mr. Philo E. Green for Alabama, Rev. R. H. Johnston for Mississippi and Mr. Henry M. Steidley for Colorado and Wyoming.

These district men have conducted Presbyterian teacher-training work in their respective districts, arousing interest, securing enrollments, instructing the local leaders, and examining the classes and students. They have worked with Presbyterian and Synodical committees in bringing our schools up to the Westminster standard. As visitors to schools and speakers in local institutes, their influence has been continuous. In every field so covered, Presbyterian Sabbath-school work shows marked advance. The work is necessarily different in the different fields; but unity has been maintained through the oversight of the Educational Superintendent and an annual conference of the educational men.

Through its educational officers the Board has participated in much general work in state, national and world Sabbath-school fields. It already coöperates with foreign Sabbath-school work. It is hoped that the result of plans already in operation will enable it to do so more fully and intelligently in the future.

The Board's executive officers are members of the (advisory) Sunday-School Council of Evangelical Denominations, which met at Dayton, Ohio, January 21-24, 1913. Notable advances have been made through Council action in determining the principles of Sabbath-school lesson-making and in the improvement of relations between the denominations and the International Sunday-School Association. Especially noteworthy was the adoption of the Joint Standard for Sabbath schools; the State Sunday-school associations and the denominations agreeing on ten points which all will henceforth unitedly strive for, thus greatly reducing confusion and multiplicity of points in the appeals made to the local workers. The points in the new standard are:

1. Cradle Roll.
2. Home Department.
3. Organized Bible Classes in Secondary and Adult Divisions.
4. Teacher Training.
5. Graded Organization and Instruction.
6. Missionary Instruction and Offering.
7. Temperance Instruction.
8. Definite Decision for Christ Urged.
9. Offering for Denominational Sabbath-School Work.
10. Workers' Conferences regularly held.

The Board has adopted the new standard; and it will replace the Westminster Standard, adopted in 1910, as soon as the necessary substitutions can be made.

Much of the value of the educational bureau of a Board like this comes through its coöperation with the various departments in maintaining educational standards and ideals. In this connection the Educational Superintendent has prepared the Westminster Intermediate Quarterly in the Uniform Lesson series, furnished regular lesson articles for the Westminster Teacher and prepared the quarterly Orders of Service. He has written various leaflets, charts and articles for the Sabbath-School and Missionary Department, has joined with the Young People's Department in the plans for the present season's series of summer conferences, and is now engaged with the Sabbath-School Supply Department in solving the difficult and highly important problem of suitable Bible and Sabbath-school material for the Edison Home Kinetoscope, by which our Business Department hopes to make available for pastors and superintendents of all denominations this great modern method of eye-teaching.

The leadership of our missionary force along educational lines has been continued through the Missionaries' Correspondence Course, in which much progress has been made, through general correspondence, and through the annual lecture course in connection with the Secretary's conferences. At the joint Chicago conference, February 9-13, at which sixty-five missionaries were in attendance, and also at Knoxville, Tenn., where our colored missionaries were gathered in a later conference. five lectures were given on the educational principles involved in the work of the little Sabbath school. Detailed studies on this line are being made by the Educational Superintendent, in conjunction with reports from the missionaries, with a view to later publication. Marked improvement is noted in the effectiveness of institute and visitation work by the missionaries, following the lectures and discussions of previous years.

An earnest effort has been made to meet from headquarters the numerous calls for educational field work in the vast region not touched by our District Educational Superintendents. The Educational Superintendent, besides visiting 6 Synods in the Rocky Mountain region, has delivered 26 lectures at training conferences, met with 9 leading Sabbath schools in planning for their advance work, addressed 5 Presbyteries and numerous other gatherings, spent about 30 days in committee and conference work, made 130 addresses and traveled 17,500 miles. A decided enlargement of the Board's educational force, both in the field and at headquarters, is an urgent necessity, if only the more important openings for this kind of leadership are to be entered in the name of our Church.

Sabbath-School Training

For many years the Board has been engaged in improving the organization, the pedagogical methods and the spiritual life of the Bible schools of the Church. During the past year, Dr. James A. Worden, Superintendent of Sabbath-School Training, has carried on this work in the field by visits, conferences and institutes among churches, groups of churches, Presbyteries and Synods as circumstances allowed; and in the office by conferences, correspondence, distribution of leaflets and other printed matter, reports and other educational literature.

The past year has been marked by increased activity in the training of teachers, not so much in the number of classes as in thoroughness of organization and pedagogical methods. The textbooks of the two Standard Courses are as follows:

1. The First Standard Teacher-Training Course. Textbook, "Preparation for Teaching," by Rev. Charles A. Oliver, which is most popular and effective, and is published by our Board, 100,000 copies of which have been sold. Those who passed the examinations of this Course with an average grade of 70 per cent.

received the Board's diploma for the First Course. No fees are charged.

Textbooks During the past year a revision has been made of the textbooks of the Advance Standard Course. This course extends over three years.

FIRST YEAR. 1. "The Old Testament and Its Contents," by Prof. James Robertson, D.D. Cloth, 182 pages, 40c. net; by mail, 45c. Paper, 182 pages, 25c. net; by mail, 29c.

Young People's Department

This department of the Board has earnestly devoted itself for the past twelve months to work in the interest of the young people, as indicated by the following items:

Records and Reports Responding to the department's request for statistics relative to young people's work in the individual church, reports received give a basis for the following figures, which are very carefully estimated:

Young-people's societies of the type of Christian Endeavor, Westminster League, etc.....	5,627
Average membership .....	20
Total membership .....	112,540
Intermediate societies, including Boys' Clubs, Girls' Clubs, etc....	1,200
Average membership .....	15
Total membership .....	18,000
Junior societies .....	2,050
Average membership .....	25
Total membership .....	51,250
All other societies .....	500
Average membership .....	20
Total membership .....	10,000

Conferences Five Summer Conferences were held during 1912. These were educational institutes, presenting a very definite program to the end that the young people might be better equipped for practical service in the church. Many young people testify to the practical benefit of these conferences. During the year the department has alone and in coöperation with other agencies held Young People's Conferences in New York City, Pittsburgh and St. Paul.

Five Summer Conferences are planned for 1913 and there are increasing calls for others, which it is hoped may be responded to soon.

Special Days Societies are more and more giving impetus to the work after the summer by having a Rally Day. Program and literature for this occasion are prepared and sent by this department.

The first Sunday of February each year has been set aside by General Assembly as Young People's Day. The purpose of the day is to focus the attention of the whole Church for one service upon the work of the young people's societies and of this department. Also to secure financial support for the department. The program and all related literature are prepared and mailed from the office of the department.

Study Courses Coöperating with General Assembly's Committee on Religious Education, definite suggestions have been printed and circulated concerning educational work in the local societies. The leaflet is entitled "Study Classes, 1913," and includes courses of study for juniors, intermediates and young people's societies.

Field Work So far as possible the department responds to calls from the field, visiting Synods, Presbyteries, Young People's Conventions, Society Rallies and individual churches.

Leaflets Leaflets touching different phases of young people's work have been printed and distributed. Many of those printed earlier are still being sent out.

To keep the conference delegates in touch with one another and with this department a sixteen-page leaflet, "The After Glow," has been occasionally printed throughout the year.

The Religious Press The department is represented by a weekly article in Forward, and other articles appear occasionally in other religious papers.

Correspondence By means of circular letters and a very large personal correspondence, the workers of the department endeavor to keep in close touch with pastors and leaders of young people's societies.

NOTE:--In addition to the above, the Board supports three foreign workers, laboring under the direction of the Church Extension Committee of Chicago Presbytery.

Editorial Department

James Russell Miller, D.D.

The Board adopted the following minute on the death of the late Dr. Miller, Editorial Superintendent of the Board from 1887 to the time of his death, which occurred July 2, 1912:

James Russell Miller was born on a farm near Frankfort Springs, Pennsylvania, on March 20, 1840. He was the fourth in a family of ten children (the first three of whom died in infancy) and was trained by godly parents.

In 1862 he graduated from Westminster College, Pennsylvania. He entered immediately the Allegheny Theological Seminary of the United Presbyterian Church, and soon applied for appointment as a foreign missionary. On account of the Board's lack of funds, his application was not acted on favorably. Then came the call for workers for the United States Christian Commission, which had charge of relief work for soldiers during the Civil War, and in 1863 he accepted an appointment as field agent. This position he held till the close of the war.

Returning to the seminary, he graduated with the class of 1867. In September of that year he was ordained and installed Pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of New Wilmington, Pennsylvania. In 1869 he became a Pastor of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, and so entered the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Between 1878 and 1880 he was Pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian Church, Rock Island, Illinois. In July, 1880, he was recalled to Philadelphia to begin his editorial work for the Presbyterian Board of Publication, which he continued until a few days before his death. To his editorial duties he added those of the pastorate of the Hollond Memorial Church, Philadelphia, from 1880 to 1897, and those of the pastorate of St. Paul Church, Philadelphia, from 1900 until his death. On the reorganization of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work in 1887, he was appointed Editorial Superintendent. He died July 2, 1912.

When Dr. Miller took up his work as Editor, the strictly Sunday-school periodicals of the Board of Publication were but five: The Sabbath-School Visitor, The Westminster Teacher,

The Westminster Lesson Leaf, Sunbeam and The Westminster Senior Quarterly; and these, as regards both quantity and quality of material and literary finish, were not to be compared with the present issues of the same. Since then there have been added twenty-one new periodicals, of which eighteen are still published.

Since 1887 there have been published by the Board more than three hundred bound volumes, all of which were edited, most of which were recommended, many of which were revised, and some of which were practically rewritten by him. With this editorial work Dr. Miller from the first combined authorship for the Board. "His pen was daily busy in his chosen avocation of devotional writing, and the books of Christian counsel and inspiration which he put forth year after year numbered at the close of his life more than sixty titles. As a whole, these modest works have had a greater circulation than the products of any other religious writer of modern times." In the United States and Great Britain and her colonies about two million copies have been sold, and in translation they have found acceptance in every country penetrated by civilization.

Dr. Miller's editorial labors were prodigious. He rarely took a vacation. His hours were longer than those of anyone else in his office. Even thus the extent of his output was and will continue an increasing mystery. Add to this, however, the care of the churches which he served and which he built up from small beginnings to noble proportions; and consider especially the multitude of individuals who were accustomed to turn to him at all times and under all conditions for counsel and sympathy which they never failed to receive, and our wonder deepens. We could not believe that one man ever did so much had we not ourselves seen it.

Nor was the quality of his work less remarkable than its extent and variety. No one ever waited for him. No one ever had to revise his copy. Though incessantly interrupted, he kept every appointment and was true to every promise. Yet he was never hurried. He gave himself to the present, but was never absorbed by it. However pressed by business of the moment, he was always on the alert to seize new opportunities and was always revolving new plans.

But what was most remarkable in his work was its unity of purpose. To a degree rarely equalled, and probably never exceeded, he did all that he did for Christ. There is not a line that he wrote that does not ring true to Him.

Dr. Miller was as remarkable for friendship as for work, perhaps even more so. We wonder whether anyone ever had so many friends. At any rate, few have been more widely known; and no one ever knew him who did not become his friend. Nor could he know anyone and not become a friend to him. And his friendship was as enduring as it was all-embracing. Your friend once, he was your friend always. Indeed, his friendship rose superior to the limitations of space and time. It made no difference how far you were from him or how long you had been away from him, he kept up with you; through some mysterious sense, that must have been evolved out of his unique faculty for friendship, he knew about you; and when you needed his counsel and sympathy, he surprised you with one of those letters of his which for spiritual insight and genuine helpfulness are probably unmatched. The secret was that Christ guided and inspired him in friendship as in work. He was the friend that he was because his aim was to be a friend like the Friend whom he himself had found and would have his friends find in Christ.

Dr. Miller's fundamental characteristic was self-mastery. This was the key to what he did and became. He did so much more and better than other men because he had every power of body, mind and heart under control. He loved his friends as he did because he never let selfishness come between him and them. Finally, and, perhaps, most strikingly, he could differ even decidedly from his friends for the sake of a principle without in the least chilling the friendship between him and them, because it was perfectly evident that in his case at any rate self had nothing to do with the contention. It was as true of him as of Paul that it was no more he that lived, but Christ lived in him.

The Board wishes to record its gratitude to God for the gift of such a man for so long a time. Through him our Sunday-school literature has been so developed and perfected as to have no real rival. In him we have seen the beauty and the power of Christ as otherwise we could never have seen them. We shall not try to fill his place. Only he himself could do that. But we shall go forward uninterruptedly with his work. We shall choose a successor who will build on his foundations. And this we may hope to do; for Dr. Miller was not least wise and great in this, that for years he aimed so to build as that others might carry forward what he had begun. He knew that he himself was mortal, but he was sure that his work was immortal.

The Graded Lessons

The Assembly of 1912 adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The graded lessons now in use in the Sunday schools are unsatisfactory to a portion of the Church; and

WHEREAS, Our Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work is one of the syndicate publishing said graded lessons; therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, through its Moderator, appoint an ad interim committee, to which shall be referred, in connection with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work, the whole matter of the graded lessons.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly directs the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work and the ad interim Committee to be appointed, to withdraw from circulation such graded lessons as the Committee find objectionable.

Resolved, 3. That said ad interim Committee report to the General Assembly which will meet in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1913, all matters concerning said issue.

These resolutions referred "the whole matter of the graded lessons" to the Assembly's Committee, "in connection with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work."

During the past year, the Committee and the Board have been coöperating, as will appear from the reports of the two bodies to the General Assembly. At a meeting held November 14, 1912, the General Assembly's Committee took action, instructing the Board "to cease the publication and sale of its graded series of Sunday-school lessons above the Junior grade, on September 30, 1913, or at an earlier date, if practicable."

It also appointed a sub-committee of five "to report a plan of revision of the Beginners', Primary and Junior series of graded lessons, in connection with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work."

Furthermore, it requested the Board "to confer with the Boards of Publication and Sunday-School Work of the Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian system, with the view of securing coöperation in lesson publications."

The Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work received these communications and endeavored to carry them out to the best of its ability.

Arrangements have been made for discontinuing the publication and sale of its present series of Intermediate and Senior graded lessons on September 30, 1913, and plans have been formed for providing other graded lessons in their place, which it is believed will be acceptable to the Church at large.

The question of the revision of the Beginners', Primary and Junior series of graded lessons was considered at a joint meeting of the Assembly's sub-Committee of five, and the Board's special Committee on the graded lessons.

After an extended conference the Joint Committee unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we recommend the revision of the Beginners', Primary and Junior lesson helps, so as to express, with greater clearness, the fundamental Scripture doctrines which are in common most surely believed by the coöperating bodies of the syndicate and other evangelical bodies, namely,

- (a) The Scriptures as an authoritative revelation from God.
- (b) The sinfulness of human nature and need of regeneration.
- (c) The atonement offered by Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That we recommend, that, as a rule, in the revision of the Beginners', Primary and Junior series of graded lessons, the Bible text be made the basis of instruction, and that there be a substantial reduction in the number of extra-Biblical lessons.

Resolved, 3. That in the revision, especially of the Junior course, greater emphasis be laid upon the spiritual side of our work, and that in the forewords to the teachers' textbooks there be incorporated some suggestions on the best methods of leading scholars to Christ.

At a meeting of the Assembly's Committee held Tuesday, April 1, 1913, the recommendation for the revision of the elementary graded lessons was modified by the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work be directed to secure a careful revision or rewriting of the Beginners', Primary and Junior grades of lessons, in harmony with the clear and positive teachings of our Standards of Doctrine, for the use of such schools as may prefer these to the International Uniform Lessons, unless the proposed plan of preparation of lessons of a graded series by the publishing agencies of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the United States of America shall be carried out within a reasonable time.

The Board has acted upon the request that a conference be held "with the Sabbath-School Boards of the Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian system, with the view of securing coöperation in lesson publication," by holding such a conference in the Witherspoon Building on February 28, 1913.

Representatives of the Committee of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, of the Publication and Sunday-School Board of the Reformed Church in the United States, of the Board of Publication of the Reformed Church in America, and of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, met in the Witherspoon Building to confer in reference to coöperation in the publication and sale of books and Sunday-school supplies.

The Special Committee of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work on the graded lessons met with this conference, and discussed the question of coöperation in the preparation of lesson courses. After an extended conference, it was unanimously agreed that "the several Boards and publishing agencies each appoint a committee of from two to five representatives to constitute a joint committee which shall consider, and, if possible, formulate courses of study for Sunday-school instruction; this joint committee to report to the several Boards and publishing agencies as early as possible."

Periodical Publications

Lesson Helps

The high standard of the Board's lesson helps has been maintained.

The Westminster Teacher

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine designed for pastors, teachers and officers of the Sabbath schools. The pages are filled with practical articles for pastors, superintendents and teachers. The editorials are a special feature. The general articles are prepared especially for the magazine. These include helps for the Christian life, sidelights on the lessons and general suggestions for Sunday-school workers. Each month pages are devoted to plans found of use, suggestions as to new plans, and seasonable articles for special days in the Sunday school. Users of both uniform and graded lessons will find articles adapted to their special needs. In the pages devoted to the study of the International Uniform Lessons, these articles appear in connection with each lesson: Explanatory Notes, by Prof. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., D.D.; Light on the Home Readings, by John A. Marquis, D.D.; The Heart of the Lesson, by such writers as Rev. Charles R. Erdman, James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D., Lapsley A. McAfee, D.D., James E. Clarke, D.D., J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Wilton Merle-Smith, D.D., C. B. McAfee, D.D., Robert E. Speer, D.D., William Chalmers Covert, D.D., Edgar P. Hill, D.D.; The Lesson in the Adult Classes, by J. F. Carson, D.D.; The Lesson in the Senior Classes, by Rev. Park Hays Miller; The Teacher and the Girls, by Miss Mabel D. Holmes; The Teacher and the Boys, by Rev. E. Morris Ferguson; The Superintendent's Three Minutes, by E. C. Knapp; The Lesson in the Junior Classes, by Miss Nannie Lee Frayer. Each monthly number contains from fifty-six to sixty-four pages, with an attractive cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 75 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 60 cents per copy.

*The Westminster
Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition*

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, is prepared by Miss M. Florence Brown. The lesson treatment as given in the pupils' Quarterly is included in its pages. In addition there are thirty-six pages devoted to suggestions for teaching the lesson, illustrations, handwork, etc. It contains seventy pages in each number. Subscription price, 40 cents a year, or 12 cents a quarter.

*The Westminster
Adult Bible Class*

The rapid development of adult class work in our Sabbath schools makes The Westminster Adult Bible Class of ever-increasing importance. Since the first number appeared—in October, 1909—it has been gaining steadily in circulation. These departments are maintained: Editorial, From Our Contributors, What Classes Are Doing, Plans for Effective Work and Passed On From Others. Illustrations of Bible classes are a feature. Half of each number is devoted to articles on the uniform lessons, prepared by Professor George L. Robinson, Ph.D., D.D., President John A. Marquis, D.D., and A Veteran Pastor. Each number contains forty pages. The price of a single copy is 50 cents a year. School subscriptions (two or more) to one address, 40 cents a year, 10 cents a quarter.

*The Westminster
Senior Quarterly*

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is for pupils of seventeen and upward. A new feature is the department, "The Week Before the Lesson," in which the writer—Rev. Park Hays Miller—gives helpful hints on the Home Readings. Following this, the lesson is fully treated. Many have made delighted comment on the illustrations, which are of unusual quality. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Order of Service, a map and other valuable matter, and contains forty-eight pages. The circulation is about four hundred thousand copies. Single subscriptions, 20 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly

The Intermediate Quarterly — which is for pupils from thirteen to sixteen—is prepared by Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, the Board's Educational Superintendent, whose aim it is to present each lesson in such a way that the boys and girls will study the pages with general interest; it is his desire to go before the teacher and get the pupil ready to be taught. Well-chosen pictures assist in holding their attention. The contents include the lesson text in both versions, attractive daily readings, prepared especially for this Quarterly, a little talk "About This Lesson," an explanatory article, pointed questions and practical suggestions for map and notebook work. In addition to the weekly question in the Shorter Catechism, the new Intermediate Catechism will be printed in full during the year 1913. Each number contains forty-two pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

*The Westminster
Junior Quarterly*

Pupils from nine to twelve years of age are kept in mind by Miss Nannie Lee Frayser as she writes this Quarterly. The study material is full and inspiring. The illustrations by Charles Cope-land add to the attractiveness of the thirty-six pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

*The Westminster
Primary Quarterly*

Miss M. Florence Brown writes this Quarterly for the little folks younger than the juniors. The children's stories are now printed in larger type, in order that they may be easily read. Songs, supplemental work and suggestions for handwork are features. The thirty-eight pages are beautifully illustrated. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

*The Westminster
Home Department
Quarterly*

This is prepared by Rev. John T. Faris specially for Home Department students. The notes on the text are simple and suggestive. The paragraphs, "Day by Day," are based on the Home Readings on the lesson; taking advantage of this feature, many students use the magazine in family worship. After reading the passage suggested for the day, the brief comment may be read, if desired. A memory verse for each day is included, with a special reading and a special prayer for Sunday. The attractiveness of the Quarterly is enhanced by the carefully chosen illustrations, many of them being from photographs inaccessible to most people. The success of the Home Department Quarterly has been phenomenal. There are forty-eight pages in each number. Subscription price, 16 cents a year for school subscriptions, to one address; 20 cents for single copies.

The Westminster
Lesson Leaf

The Westminster Lesson Leaf, of two pages, designed for senior or intermediate pupils—though used by all grades—contains the Lesson Text, Golden Text, Catechism Questions, Home Readings for each day of the week, the Story of the Lesson, etc. Each weekly lesson on a distinct leaf, to be separated if desired. Mailed monthly. Single subscriptions, 10 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 6 cents.

The Westminster
Lesson Card

This card is prepared for use in the Primary Department using the International Uniform Lessons. The card should be distributed one Sunday in advance of the lesson, and aims to present the story in simple, concise form, so as to create a desire on the part of the child to hear the story in all its details from the teacher on the following Sunday. Sold only in quarterly sets, beginning January, April, July or October. School subscriptions, to one address, 10 cents a year; 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible
Lesson Pictures

The Bible Lesson Pictures correspond to the Westminster Lesson Cards. Like the cards, they are for use only in the schools using the International Uniform Lessons. These illustrations of the Sabbath-school lessons have been found a great help in many Sabbath schools. The size, 2x3 feet, is such that they can be seen by every member of the class. Price, $3.00 a year; 75 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Graded Sunday-School Lessons International Course

Beginners'
Graded Series

The Westminster Beginners Graded Series covers the new Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. Teachers' Textbook, $1.00 a year—issued for the present in four parts, 25 cents a year. Large Picture Cards (12x15 inches), $2.50 a year. Beginners Stories—an illustrated folder for each Sunday. Single subscriptions, 36 cents a year; school subscriptions, 30 cents a year, 7½ cents a quarter.

*The Primary
Graded Series*

The Primary Graded Series (course complete in three years). Equipment for the teacher: a Teacher's Textbook with picture supplements, $1.00 a year, issued for the present in four parts, 25 cents a part; school subscriptions, 24 cents a year, 6 cents a quarter; second and third years, single subscriptions, 40 cents a year; school subscriptions, 32 cents a year, 8 cents a quarter.

*The Junior
Graded Series*

The Junior Graded Series (course complete in four years). Equipment for the teacher: Teacher's Textbook, $1.00 a year, issued for the first year in three parts, 35 cents a part; for later years, in four parts, 25 cents a part. Equipment for the pupil: The Pupils' Book for Work and Study, with picture supplement. For the first year there are three books in the year, 12 cents a book; for later years, there are four parts, 10 cents a part.

The Intermediate Graded Series

The Intermediate Graded Series (course complete in four years). In season for the new year beginning October 1, 1913, schools will have the opportunity to buy new lessons for the second year and for the fourth year to take the place of those discontinued by the action of General Assembly's Committee on Graded Lessons. The second year's lessons—on Christian Leaders—will be offered for use by first and second year classes; the fourth year lesson—Studies in Christian Living—will be suitable for use by third and fourth year classes. It is planned to offer the first and third year courses on October 1, 1914. Prices: Teacher's Manual, 60 cents a year, in four parts, 15 cents a part; equipment for the pupil: Pupil's Textbook, in four parts, 12½ cents a part.

*The Senior
Graded Series*

It is our plan to offer for use October 1, 1913, a course for the second year of the senior grade, which can be used this year by seniors of all grades. The topics treated will be: The Rise of the Hebrew Nation; The Hebrew Monarchy and the Kingdom of Israel; The Kingdom of Judah; the Exile and the Restored Jewish Community; Studies in Hebrew Religious Literature. Announcement will be made later as to further senior courses. Probable prices for the second-year equipment will be: First year's lessons, equipment for the teacher: Teacher's Manual, 60 cents a year, in four parts, 15 cents a part; equipment for the pupil: Pupil's Textbook, in four parts, 12½ cents a part.

Illustrated Papers

Forward The best writers of short stories and other articles for young people are among Forward's contributors. The names of some of the writers and illustrators are seen in the pages of "The Youth's Companion," "The Century Magazine" and other high-priced publications. The paper is not only distributed to young people in the Sabbath-schools, but it is read by their parents in the home. Christian Endeavor notes on the weekly topic are always given. There is a weekly article by Rev. William Ralph Hall, Superintendent of the Department of Young People's Work. Single subscriptions, 75 cents; two or more copies, addressed to one person, 50 cents.

The Comrade In 1909 The Comrade took the place of The Sabbath-School Visitor, the oldest of the Board's periodicals. It is a weekly paper, half the size of Forward. The four pages are filled with the best literature that can be obtained for boys and girls of junior age. In each number are two or three stories by well-known writers; articles of information; interesting short talks about animals; a helpful talk on the Junior Christian Endeavor topic and short, simple talks on problems of ethics and Christian living. Single subscriptions, 50 cents a year; school subscriptions, 30 cents a year.

The Morning Star The Morning Star is half the size of The Comrade. It is intended for little folks who are too old for The Sunbeam. It has pictures, stories, nature articles, bits of verse and whatever else to please the children can be crowded into its pages. The very moderate price at which it is offered puts it within the reach of Sunday schools which are just starting, or are in localities where the question of expense must be carefully considered. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year. School subscriptions (two or more), to one address, 15 cents a year, or  $3\frac{3}{4}$  cents a quarter.

The Sunbeam Little folks from six to nine enjoy The Sunbeam, with its pictures of child life appropriate to all seasons, its short, bright stories, and its jingles, many of them illustrated with original drawings. Each week there is one story about a Bible text. Single subscriptions, 30 cents. School subscriptions (two or more), to one address, 20 cents a year, or 5 cents a quarter.

Business Department

This has been an active year for the Publishing Department of the Board—a grand total of 4,884,657 publications, consisting of Books, Booklets, Sunday-school and Church Requisites, Hymnals, Children's and Rally Day Exercises, etc., having been issued. It was customary formerly to include also in the statement on page 45 the total print of Sabbath-school Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers. It has been thought best to reconstruct this statement, giving instead the average weekly, monthly or quarterly circulation. This furnishes a figure that is more readily understood and serves a much more practical purpose. Those grades in the Uniform Lessons that are most readily affected by the corresponding grades of the Graded Series naturally show a decreasing circulation. In all other cases a steady growth in circulation is maintained.

Sales

The sales of Books and Sunday-school and Church Supplies for the year amount to $366,542.84, an increase of $12,318.02 over those of last year. These include not only the publications of the Board, but those of other publishers as well. The sales of Periodical Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers amount to $574,452.56, an increase of $17,420.73 over those of last year. The total sales for the year therefore aggregate $940,995.00, showing a total increase of business of $29,738.75. These amounts do not coincide with the Treasurer's report, which accounts for cash receipts only, whereas these figures include credit sales as well.

These figures also include sales of $11,894.50 made by the missionaries of the Board on the field. These are charged to the Missionary Department at "the best rate of discount allowed on the same class of publications to the most favored branch house in the country." The missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

The work of placing the publications of the Board on the market is performed by means of the main store and headquarters in Philadelphia, the five Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville and San Francisco, and six other houses that are more or less closely related to the work of the Board. These agencies are as follows:

Depositories

New York, N. Y., G. W. Brazer, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 509 South Wabash Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 313 North Tenth Street.
Nashville, Tenn., W. H. Shearon, Manager, 413-415 Church Street.
San Francisco, Cal., W. H. Webster, Manager, 400 Sutter Street.

Special Agencies

Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, 204 Fulton Building.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.

Representatives

Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212-214 North Sixth Street.
Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, Eng., Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 21 Warwick Lane, London, E. C.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

The Hymnal (Revised)

The introduction of the Revised Hymnal during the year has been attended with marked success, especially in view of the unprecedented activity in the production of new hymn-books. Within the past three years nine other hymnals for church use have been published, and another is shortly to appear. Only two of these have been issued by other denominational houses, leaving seven fresh collections as active competitors for the favor of our churches. The fidelity of our people, however, has been most pronounced, and we can safely estimate that nine out of every ten Presbyterian churches purchasing a hymn-book of the first class have chosen our new Hymnal. During the year 218 churches have thus loyally supported the Board in this respect, making a total of 352 introductions since the Revised Hymnal appeared, aggregating sales of 51,000 copies.

Sabbath-School and Church Supplies

The Board, through its Sabbath-school and Church Supply Department, has always endeavored to be a source of supply for everything needed for the proper conduct of the services of the church and Sabbath school. This feature has been steadily developing from year to year, and during the past year arrangements have been made whereby we are now in position to equip a church or Sabbath school in practically every particular. This department is prepared to submit bids for pews and pulpit furniture, as well as for the smaller incidentals that add to the convenience of the worshiper and the comfort of the children.

Agreement with the Edison Company

The moving picture show has become a factor in the modern life of the children. Its educational value is being recognized more and more. Unfortunately this influence is more frequently for evil than for good. It is well that the Church should realize these facts and endeavor to use moving pictures in its educational efforts. We have established relations with the Edison Company whereby we are able to offer their Home Kinetoscope to our schools at a moderate price. In coöperation with the Educational Department of our Board the Edison Company will furnish films of such character as will place this machine in the forefront of educational and religious influences.

Capital and Net Profits

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $420,219.30. The net profits of the past year are $38,962.18. Of this sum two-thirds, or $25,974.79, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly installments during the next fiscal year. The remaining third, or $12,987.39, has been added to capital.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Board of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

To the General Assembly:

The Board of the Church Erection Fund, in presenting to the General Assembly its Forty-third Annual Report, gratefully recognizes the goodness of God and His manifest favor throughout the year. The good fellowship of its members has been unbroken by death, and those members who have felt constrained to retire from its service have continued their faithful co-operation until the end of the year.

The Board suffered an irreparable loss in the retirement of the Hon. Frederick Gordon Burnham from the membership of the Board after forty-four years of continued service. In view of this exceptional record the Board adopted the following minute:

Having accepted with very great reluctance and only at his emphatic insistence, the resignation of our honored "Honorary President," Mr. Frederick G. Burnham, as a member of this body, the members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America enter upon their record this minute of their high appreciation of the invaluable services rendered by Mr. Burnham and also of their respect, admiration and love for the man.

Mr. Burnham has sustained an active official relation to the work of Presbyterian Church Erection longer than any other living man. Serving on the New School Board, he was continued a member of the reorganized Board in 1870, so that out of his four-score years of busy life he has devoted over four decades to the peculiar work entrusted to this Board.

And it has been real devotion. The quickness of apprehension, the soundness of judgment, the practical wisdom and the conscientious discharge of every obligation, traits which made him conspicuous among men, were cheerfully and continuously and gratuitously employed in the interest of this work during his long term as member and especially in his service as "Counsel of the Board." So great was the confidence reposed in his wisdom and sagacity that matters of vital importance have frequently been referred to "the Counsel of the Board with power"—and the Board has never found occasion to reconsider or revoke any decisions thus rendered.

But Mr. Burnham feels the weight of his eighty years. We realize that the bow must needs be relaxed or break, hence, while we love and honor the man and shall sadly miss his genial presence and wise counsels, we reluctantly accept his resignation, but beg to assure him that he retires from active service with the sincere respect and the best love of every member of the Board who unite in the heartfelt prayer that the Lord, whose he is and whom he has so long and faithfully served, may grant him, in his well-earned season of rest, the sweet comfort that exhales from a life of loyal devotion to the best of Masters.

THE YEAR.

Fidelity to the truth compels the Board to join again in the monotonous statement: "The greatest year in the Board's history." Each opening season brings a new prospect of expanding work. The mighty westward push of populations, the upspringing communities along the rapidly extending lines of railroads, the generous provisions which our Government has made for the cultivation of the desert wilds, the better understanding of social conditions in our crowded cities and the more successful methods of reaching the unchurched masses with gospel privileges, all call for the generous co-operation of this Board.

THE FIELD.

One cannot read, intelligently, the Report of the Board's work without keeping constantly in view the map of our great country. The wide expanse of territory, the different sections, the varied conditions of life and the diversified activities of our cosmopolitan population must be ever in view in estimating at its full value the problems which face the administration of this great work. Wisely has the Executive Commission enjoined upon the Board, as a principle of action, that no section of the country must be favored at the expense of another section and the General Assembly has directed that in making grants the Board shall give special consideration and preference to the weaker churches and less costly buildings where other things are equal.

NEW ENGLAND.

The steady progress of our Church's work in the New England States has been made imperative by the organization of the new Synod, consisting of four Presbyteries, having fifty-one churches on their rolls. Thus an added impulse has been given to Presbyterian work in that historic section of our country under conditions that call for unusually large help from the Board in the beginning of this new expensive period.

THE OLDER SYNODS.

The self-supporting Synods stretching from New York to the Mississippi River are bravely and successfully carrying on their own Mission work with the determination that, in doing so, they will not abate their interest in the national work nor suffer their contributions to any Board to be diminished. In this laudable endeavor they must of necessity require generous aid in the erection of their churches. The solution of problems of both country and city church extension work involve the business of church building as an important factor. The construction of vast industrial plants in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Wisconsin and among the mountains of the South, with their multitudes of laborers and operatives, call for prompt and generous aid in providing houses of worship without which the missionaries labor in vain. The necessities of this vast stretch of country give no promise of abating, at an early day, their demands upon our Board. The methods of church work of the present day require either larger and more expensive structures than the rectangular and stately buildings of a former generation, or additions and enlargements of the buildings which answered the purposes of the fathers.

THE STATES OF THE PLAINS.

The Mississippi River, the Rocky Mountains, the Gulf of Mexico and Canada bound a region which is an empire in extent ten times as large as the German Empire in Europe, with a present population as great as that of Spain or as that of Turkey in Asia, and yet it is but a little removed from the period of its early settlement and only in its second stage of development. The several Boards that are working in this region are heavily taxing their resources, and are impressed with a vision of a larger future.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN STATES.

The territories have all been transformed into States and, with the advantages which Statehood gives to all sorts of business, are pressing forward with rapid strides. All the transcontinental roads cross this region, their branches and lateral lines thread its valleys and canons and are creating cities, towns and villages with great rapidity.

PACIFIC COAST.

The Pacific coast States are increasing faster than ever before in population and wealth and consequently in church erection enterprises. While the area of these States is but half that of the Rocky Mountain region its population is more than three times as great.

Alaska, the Canal Zone and our insular possessions have all shared the Board's appropriations and must in the future demand much larger aid.

The Board of Church Erection is almost unique in this that it secures a much larger amount of permanent property than the amount of its appropriations. The ratio is nearly three to one. During the last year its appropriations amounted, in the aggregate to $329,297, while the value of property thus secured to our Church is $1,045,212. From the first its appropriations, in the aggregate, have amounted to $6,896,413. The value of property thus secured amounts to $29,795,169. This estimate is made upon values reckoned at the times when the appropriations were made. The increment since is beyond computation. Thus the investments of the Board yield large increase to the churches all over the country.

THE FUNDS.

1. The Permanent Fund.—This Fund was established in 1854 and was called "The Church Erection Fund" until 1870. It originally consisted of an endowment of $100,000. By successive additions it has reached the sum of $2,843,934.13.

The interest derived from this Fund forms the larger part of the General Fund, from which all grants and loans without interest are made.

2. The General Fund.—This Fund is made up of the interest of the Permanent Fund, the contributions of churches and Sunday-schools, contributions of individuals, sales of the properties of defunct churches and appropriations returned by churches. It is the sole dependence of feeble churches needing grants and small loans without interest. The rules governing the administration of this Fund are now undergoing revision.

3. Buell Fund.—This Fund is derived from a bequest of $34,000 from the estate of Mrs. Electa K. Buell, of New York, for aid of churches in our "Western States" and in communities where there is no other Presbyterian Church. This Fund is now practically exhausted.

4. The Van Meter Fund.—This Fund consists of $6,000 from the estate of the Misses Van Meter, of New Jersey, the interest from which is to be used to aid church building within the bounds of the Presbytery of West Jersey and is appropriated by that Presbytery.

5. The Gilchrist Fund consists of $10,000 derived from a bequest of Robert and John Gilchrist, of Boston, Mass. The interest, as it accrues, is to be used in aid of church building within the bounds of the Presbytery of Boston.

6. The Stuart Fund is a small supplemental fund to be used in exceptional cases which do not come under the rules of the Board. It is now practically exhausted.

7. The Barber Fund.—This Fund is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. The apportionment of interest which falls to the Board of Church Erection is used exclusively in aid of negro churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen.

8. The Sara A. Palmer Memorial Fund.—The income from this invested fund is used under the rules of the General Fund in every respect.

9. The Loan Fund.—This Fund had its origin in 1891 and was founded by funds derived from the Stuart Estate. It amounts to $422,078.68. At the beginning of the last year this Fund was over-appropriated to the amount of $80,500. The increased applications to this Fund during the past year have prevented its recovery. The year closed with a deficit of $9,360.48 and applications approved, but not confirmed, amounting to $189,550. The rules governing the administration of this Fund are undergoing revision by direction of the General Assembly.

10. The Manse Fund had its origin with the late James R. Hills, and was endowed by Mrs. R. L. Stuart. From this Fund small loans without interest, and small grants in exceptional cases, are made to feeble churches erecting inexpensive manses. This Fund is all in use, but returning in annual installments to the Board to be loaned again as required.

11. The Raynolds Fund was endowed by the late General William F. Raynolds, of Detroit, Mich. From this Fund loans are made at a low rate of interest to churches building more expensive manses than those to which the former fund applies.

12. The Hoyt Fund.—This is a small Fund derived from a bequest of the late Dr. Ezra Hoyt, a former member of this Board. It is used much as the Reynolds Fund, but for weaker churches and at a still lower rate of interest.

13. Life Interest Funds.—These Funds are available only after the death of the donors.

The work of the Board is thus divided into distinct departments. In order to a definite understanding it is necessary to tabulate the resources by which the work is maintained.

APPLICATIONS.

The large increase in the number of applications is no doubt attributed in large measure to the general prosperity of the country. Congregations have been encouraged to "arise and build." The abnormal increase in the amounts asked from the General Fund may be accounted for in part by an erroneous impression that this Fund had been greatly strengthened. But the slight increase from the interest on invested permanent Funds has been offset by the decline in receipts from churches, so that the Fund was not able to meet the demands.

The abnormal increase in the amount asked from the Loan Fund, while the number of applications is but slightly increased, must be accounted for by the stimulus to larger and more costly buildings which present-day church methods require and perhaps to some extent by the extravagant expectations of "the increased amount of money" at the disposal of the Board under this Fund.

Many churches applying for large loans were unable to qualify, and many asked for larger loans than the value of their church property would warrant. Still, others sought loans purely on business principles with a view to the lower rate of interest from the Board than they had been paying to local money lenders.

But these matters adjusted themselves to conditions as may be seen from the table of appropriations; but it is believed that no case coming fairly within the Assembly's conditions has been rejected.

APPROPRIATIONS.

This table affords a better index to the normal growth of the Board's business than the table of applications does.

The average grant from the General Fund is $825.92, which is a little below the average of the previous year.

The average loan from the Loan Fund is $2,631.58—a slight advance upon the average of the previous year and nearly exactly the same as that of two years ago.

Oklahoma stands first in the number of appropriations during the year, having received 26, but it stands second in the aggregate amount, $20,313.

Washington stands third in the number, but first in the aggregate amount received. Twenty-three appropriations, with a total of $30,900. California stands second, both in the number and amount of appropriations, having received 21 appropriations, aggregating $22,554. Minnesota comes fourth, with 20 appropriations, amounting to $18,067. Texas, the largest State of all, follows with 16 appropriations, amounting to $19,975; then Oregon with 15 amounting to $16,875, with Colorado following close with 14 appropriations, totaling $16,633.

The falling off in both the number of applications to the Manse Fund and the amounts applied for may be attributed to the increase of the cost of manses placing them beyond the provisions of that Fund and making it more desirable both for the churches and for the Board that aid should be sought and obtained from the Reynolds or Hoyt Fund.

FOREIGNERS.

Among the churches aided during the year three were German, one Italian, one Armenian, one Hungarian, one Spanish and one Japanese. One of the German churches to whom the Board made an appropriation surrendered the aid.

EXCEPTIONAL POPULATIONS.

Twenty-five Negro churches were aided during the year. Seven Indian churches were granted aid, one, however, was not prepared to receive the aid granted, and one withdrew the application on account of an uncertainty as to its need.

REPAYMENTS.

The Assembly, many years ago, expressed the hope that churches benefited in their infancy by the Board, would, in their mature years, recognize their obligation to return, as rapidly as possible, the sums by which they had been aided. With a view to encourage such repayments, the Assembly authorized the Board to give a double credit to churches that would annually send to its treasury an amount not less than one-tenth of the grant received from the Board, crediting it as a contribution and at the same time as a payment upon the mortgage, and when the sum of these payments equals the face of the mortgage the Board is authorized to release the mortgage. To return in after years what was received in infancy would seem to be the promptings of a most natural sense of gratitude.

The Board of Church Erection has aided during the year 253 churches, appropriating $279,047. There were reported to the Board as completed through its aid and without debt 303 churches and manses, the aggregate value of which is estimated at $1,045,212.

*In comparing the number of appropriations with the number of churches still upon the roll which have been aided, it should be noted, as appears in the columns of payments, that about 5 per cent. do not call for their appropriations, that about the same number have received more than one appropriation, and that others from one cause or another are either dissolved or consolidated, the actual average increase in the number of churches upon the roll of the Assembly being about 65 per cent. of the number reported as organized. It is therefore probable that the number of churches now enrolled which have been assisted by the Board is not more than two-thirds of the total number of appropriations paid.

INSURANCE.

The Board finds it difficult, in many instances, to induce the churches to protect their property interests by insurance. The excuse for neglecting this important provision is offered that "the Lord rules on earth as well as in Heaven and that He will protect His own." But the destruction wrought by cyclone and fire and lightning proves that He won't protect the property of the neglectful. The Board does all it can to secure protection. It takes out fire insurance policies to cover its mortgage interests in all churches and manses to which it makes appropriations, but it is unable to extend its protection any further. Unless the church cares for its own, only partial protection is provided, and in case of loss by fire the Board must be called upon to help in restoring what the church has lost by negligence. The danger from this cause is made manifest by the fact that during the last year there were reported to the Board eighteen cases of loss, partial or complete from fire among churches upon which the Board held policies of insurance and $5,184.64 were collected. Two total losses amounting to $1,200 are in course of collection, and six partial losses are not yet adjusted.

In some regions there is the added danger of destruction by tornadoes. In such localities insurance should cover damage by wind as well as by fire. In the providence of God in human affairs He has put within the reach of His churches the means of protection. So long as fire burns and winds blow and an organized system of protection exists, it is emphatically true that "faith, if it hath not works, is dead."

THE PROBLEM.

No agency of the Church is more alert to the signs of the times—none hears with intenser enthusiasm the boom of the oncoming future. The Board has been restrained only by the limits of its resources. Every dollar at its command has been active, and every fund has been used to its utmost capacity to meet the ceaseless call for help. The permanent funds have contributed up to their full productive power. The working funds have been over-appropriated though administered with the most diligent carefulness. The one source which has fallen behind reasonable expectations is the contributions of churches. They have fallen from $69,510 last year to $65,509 this year.

The Permanent Fund (including the Kennedy Fund) now amounting in the aggregate to $2,843,934.13, has yielded its full measure $140,277.25. Of this amount $35,000.00 has been allotted to the Loan Fund, and $75,184.27 to the General Fund. To this allotment to the General Fund has been added the contributions of the churches and Sabbath schools, amounting to $65,509.71, and also the contributions of individuals, $1,579.73; also the amounts recovered from the sale of property of defunct churches, $9,416.52; returned by churches on grant mortgages, $12,283.24; making a total to the General Fund of $88,789.20.

This is the only Fund from which grants and small loans without interest are made to feeble churches. But they have called for $279,023. When either of these sources falls off the feeble churches must suffer. Postponement of either upon approved applications made necessary by lack of Fund has caused the suspension of church building in many a needy community and embarrassment in a large number that have exercised faith enough to proceed with their building enterprises in the confident expectation that the legend "When Funds Permit" meant but a little time of waiting. The Board has remembered the Assembly's repeated injunction to favor the weak churches and so has paid up.

The Special Funds being endowed are practically fixed in amounts. The Loan Fund was all in use among the churches at the beginning of the year and the over-appropriations, if the amount approved for payment when Funds permit be included, amount to $200,850.48, or exclusive of those, $9,360.48. Though replenished by a portion of the income from the Permanent Fund it has failed to meet the enormous increased demands of the year now under view. While the number of applications to this Fund has not been appreciably increased the individual amounts applied for have been in many cases abnormal. The year, therefore, closed with this Fund heavily over-appropriated.

The Board of Church Erection never incurs debt. When the demands exceed its resources it must choose between two possible courses when it reaches its limits—it must either defer action upon applications or else approve the applications and defer payments until funds permit. The latter course is preferred by the churches because the Board's definite promise furnishes a basis for effecting temporary local loans. The Board has never declined an application from a church that met the Assembly's conditions. It has great respect for the application which bears the endorsement of a Presbytery or Presbytery's Standing Committee on Church Election. These Committees are therefore expected to exercise care in their examination and endorsement of applications in order that the Board may not suffer from misunderstanding of the requirements of the Assembly as a basis of aid from the Board.

APPEALS.

The Board has loyally and steadfastly refrained from making special appeals to the churches. Heeding the admonitions of the Executive Commission and co-operating in the effort to work the Budget System, the Board has neglected no opportunity to commend the use of the duplex envelope as the best means yet devised to develop the giving power of the Church and to distribute the streams of its benevolence with a regular and even flow, through the constituted channels. In following this course the Board has probably realized a smaller income from the churches, but it is hoped and believed that when this system is generally adopted all the benevolent causes of the Church will receive a steadier and more reliable income.

BENEFITS.

The aid extended by the Board has served, in many instances, to develop fully and happily the energies of congregations that needed but the stimulus of its aid to call them into activity. Restricted by its very nature to the work of assisting those who demonstrated their readiness to do what they could for themselves, it has aroused to healthy action many who, without it, would have been ignorant of their own ability. And it has not only thus given them existence as churches, but has started them on a career of self-development and Christian usefulness of far greater value than mere formal existence.

By its careful requirements it has guarded congregations against building upon land, the title to which was defective and insecure. This service the Board is continually rendering.

It has guarded churches from the weight of debt which always impedes and often crushes.

It has proven a means of stimulating the work of church building by holding out to feeble congregations encouragement to effort. And to this end it is essential that there should be felt, between it and the churches, the closest sympathy.

REVISION OF THE RULES.

The General Assembly in session in the City of Louisville, Ky., May, 1912, authorized and directed (Minutes, 1912, page 243) the Board of the Church Erection Fund, if the way be legally clear:

1. To set apart from the moneys received from the John S. Kennedy Estate $500,000, to constitute the John S. Kennedy Loan Fund, to be loaned to churches subject to the rules which now control the Loan Fund or such as may be established by the General Assembly; and that the Executive Commission be authorized and directed to act with the said Board of the Church Erection Fund in the preparation of such rules.

2. To make investments of its Fund, known as the John S. Kennedy Fund, if the way be legally clear, in loans to the Presbyterian churches in connection with the General Assembly upon such security as in the judgment of the Board is sufficient fully to secure the same.

3. To place church contributions, legacies and other gifts, not otherwise designated, into a Fund that shall be known as the Special Fund which may be used by the Board as part of its regular work for the purchase of sites for the erection of church buildings.

In accordance with these directions of the General Assembly the Board sought the best available legal advice. With the written opinions of able lawyers the Board met the Executive Commission in conference.

As a result of this conference the Executive Commission and the Board came to an agreement on the three propositions:

1. That no Funds under the jurisdiction of the Board are legally available for the purchase of sites, and that the utmost it could do would be to administer such Special Funds as may be created by action of the General Assembly for that purpose.

2. That the way is not legally clear for the Board to invest any of its Funds in bond and mortgage upon real property outside of the State of New York.

3. That the Board may set apart from the moneys received from the John S. Kennedy Estate $500,000, to constitute the John S. Kennedy Loan Fund, to be loaned to churches, subject to the rules which now control the Loan Fund, or such as may be established by the General Assembly.

It is proper to state that the last proposition, number 3, was not approved by a unanimous vote of the Board,

REVISED RULES.

Under the authority conferred by the General Assembly, and under the direction of the Executive Commission, a revision of the Rules governing the Loan Fund and the General Fund was prepared and is herewith submitted for the General Assembly's consideration:—

If this revision of the rules of the General Fund be approved by the General Assembly it is manifest that that Fund must be greatly strengthened in order to meet the increased burden of larger loans without interest which will be laid upon it. Contributions from churches, Sunday-schools and individuals constitute the only known source of relief. It seems to the Board that it would not be unreasonable to expect from these sources greatly increased contributions.

It was the purpose of the late Assembly that a plan so thoroughly matured by previous Assemblies should not be vitally altered lest it might expose the Assembly to the inference of instability in respect to the principles of conducting such trusts; for this inference, especially among those who are accustomed to contribute largely, would involve very serious damage.

The Board, in harmony with the Assembly, expresses anew its confidence in the successful working of the Plan in the main and the strong desire it feels, in common with those who aided in the establishment of this noble charity of the Church, that nothing may be done to undermine the confidence of men in the permanent character of the Fund.

[Corrected to April 25, 1913.]

PLAN AND RULES FOR THE GENERAL FUND.

ITS SPHERE.

(Please read carefully.)

The Board having been organized and incorporated "for the purpose of aiding feeble congregations in erecting houses of worship," grants and loans without interest from its General Fund must be confined to churches that without such aid cannot provide themselves with adequate buildings.

APPLICATIONS.

The Board meets statedly upon the third Monday in each month, and applications, in order to be considered, should reach the office not later than the preceding Thursday,

(The rules given hereafter, being approved by the General Assembly, the Board has no discretion in regard to them.)

1. An application for aid in building should be made upon the official blank form furnished by the Board, and all questions should be answered as fully as possible.

2. The application, when filled out, should be sent for approval to the Committee upon Church Erection of the Presbytery to which the church belongs.

3. The certificates upon the third page of the application should be filled up and signed by the counsel designated by the Committee upon Church Erection of the Presbytery. If necessary to substitute another counsel, the change must be approved by the chairman of the committee.

4. With the application there should be sent a copy of the deed by which the church holds title to the property and also a diagram of the lots upon which a mortgage is to be given, if a Grant or Loan, without interest, is made.

5. The papers thus perfected should be forwarded, together with any correspondence that may be of service in considering the matter, to the Corresponding Secretary of the Board.

It is important that before formal application is made to the Board every effort be made to secure subscriptions in the community to be benefited by the proposed church edifice; but it is especially advised that general appeal be not made to other churches.

6. That the Board shall adhere to the following principles in the granting of aid to churches.

a. The Board shall exercise the utmost care to grant aid only where that aid is actually needed, and in an amount not in excess of actual need.

b. Grants not exceeding $1,000 and Loans without interest not exceeding $3,000 may be made to feeble churches from the income of the Board; and, excepting appropriations for the erection of manses or for work among exceptional populations, no Grant or Loan without interest shall be made to a church other than for aid in the erection of a house of worship, or for aid in the payment of a debt actually contracted in the erection thereof. It is expected that churches able to pay interest on Loans will do so and will accept them under the provisions of the Loan Fund.

c. The Board shall exercise the utmost care in its consideration of applications, taking into account the entire church, that no one section of the Church may be benefited at the expense of any other section.

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. No Grant or Loan without interest shall be made to any congregation unless the title to the lot on which its house of worship is situated or on which it proposes to build, is in fee simple, free from all legal encumbrance and vested either (1) in such congregation as a corporate body (if the statutes of the State permit incorporation), or an incorporated Board authorized by law to hold such title, or (2) in an incorporated Presbytery or Synod of the Presbyterian Church, or (3) in one of the incorporated Boards of the General Assembly.

2. The church must in every case be incorporated, unless in the State or Territory in which it is located there is no law for the incorporation of religious societies.

3. The sum granted to any congregation shall not be, save in special exceptional cases, more than one-half of the amount otherwise contributed and secured for the house and lot, i. e., one-third of the entire value.

4. The Board is directed, whenever practicable and in accordance with the best interests of the church aided, to engage with said church that the amount granted shall be regarded as a Loan, not bearing interest, and to be repaid to the Board in specified annual installments which shall be credited to the church as its annual contribution to the work of the Board. (General Assembly, 1893.)

5. The appropriation, whether Grant or Loan without interest, is subject to the following provision of Article XII of the General Assembly's plan, viz. :

"The condition of all donations from this source shall be that in case the church or congregation shall cease to be connected with the General Assembly, or their corporate existence shall cease, or their house of worship be alienated except for the building or purchase of a better house of worship, they shall refund to the Board the amount which they have so received, with interest from the time of receiving it."

PAYMENTS.

After the appropriation is made by the Board, the conditions to be fulfilled before the payment of the money are as follows :

1. The trustees shall certify the amount needed to complete their house of worship, the amount actually collected, and that the sum to be received from the Board will entirely complete the building and leave the congregation free from debt; provided, that in the case of a Grant or Loan without interest to a church that is the first to be organized in a new community in which there is no other church of any evangelical denomination, the Board, after the lot has been secured to the congregation in fee simple, and after a mortgage upon it to the Board for the amount of its Grant or Loan without interest has been affected, may, at its discretion, advance to the church, from time to time before the completion of the edifice, such installments of the amount of the Grant or Loan without interest as shall not at any time ordinarily exceed one-half of the amount collected for the erection of the building, and one-half of the value of the lot, no such installment, however, being less than one-quarter of the amount of the Grant.

2. A mortgage upon the church property duly executed and acknowledged by the trustees, and recorded in the County Clerk's or Register's office, is to be returned to the Board with a certificate endorsed upon said mortgage by an attorney-at-law, designated by the Presbytery or its Committee, to the effect that the church has a valid title to the property, and has full liberty to mortgage the same, and that said mortgage is a first lien upon the property, and has been properly executed, acknowledged and recorded, according to law; provided, that in the case of churches located upon Indian reservations, or in mining towns, or on Government reservations, where no title in fee simple is attainable, the Board may accept, in place of the mortgage, a bond of the trustees or officers of the church, to fulfill the usual conditions of the mortgage, and to give a first mortgage whenever such church shall be able to secure a title in fee simple. (General Assembly, 1889 and 1903.)

3. A policy of insurance shall be procured by the Board. The premium upon such policy shall be deducted from the amount of the Grant in the first instance, and afterward, in accordance with the terms of the mortgage, the policy shall be renewed at the expense of the church aided.

(Blank forms for the above-mentioned certificates, mortgages and insurance surveys will be furnished by the Board. Care should be taken to secure accuracy in the form of the papers—especially the mortgage instruments—to be executed at the time of receiving the appropriation, as only in this way vexatious delay will be prevented. The Board is not at liberty to depart from the rules established by the Charter and by the General Assembly.)

RELEASE OF MORTGAGE.

1. Any church making an annual contribution to this Board of not less than 10 per cent. of the amount originally granted to it, or loaned without interest, shall be deemed as paying in such contributions an installment of like amount upon the mortgage held by the Board as security for such Grant or Loan without interest, and when such payments in the aggregate shall equal the amount of the Grant, the Board shall execute a release of the mortgage, and thus remove its lien from the property of the church; provided, that such church, at the time such contribution is sent, shall notify the Board that it desires such application thereof be made. (Art 15.)

2. The Board may, at its discretion, release any such mortgage upon the receipt, in one payment, of 77 per cent. of the amount secured by such mortgage.

CORRESPONDENCE.

All communications upon the general work of the Board, or in regard to applications for aid, should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary.

Letters containing remittances, and such as relate to insurance or repayments, should be addressed to Adam Campbell, Treasurer.

DUNCAN J. McMILLAN,

Corresponding Secretary.

Office of the Board,

No. 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

PLANS AND RULES OF LOAN FUND.

I. RULES GOVERNING LOANS.

1. Loans from the Loan Fund, to aid in erecting houses of worship for feeble congregations, may be made at a fixed rate of interest to be determined by the Board from time to time.

2. No Loan to any one church shall exceed 50 per cent. of the value of the buildings and land upon which the church is erected.

3. The appraisal of the land and buildings shall be verified by a competent judge living in the locality; said valuation to be subject to approval of the Board.

4. Titles to church properties to be loaned upon shall be carefully examined by an attorney acceptable to the Board and approved by him before the Loan is consummated.

5. The Board shall make no such Loans except where there is actual need.

6. No church can secure a Loan from the Loan Fund so long as it holds a Loan from the Board without interest.

7. No Loan shall be made to any church that is not incorporated and the title to whose property is not vested in a religious corporation in fee simple and unencumbered otherwise than to this Board; provided that, in the case of churches building upon leasehold property, the Board, at its discretion, may make the Loan upon such mortgage as the Finance Committee and Counsel shall approve.

8. All applications shall be upon blank forms furnished by the Board; and these must be endorsed by the Committee upon Church Erection of the Presbytery.

9. The Loan shall be secured (1) by the bond or notes of the corporation, (2) by a mortgage upon the property benefited, (3) by a satisfactory collateral personal bond, and (4) by a satisfactory insurance policy covering the amount of the mortgage.

10. Each person upon the personal bond may be responsible only for a proportionate part of the sum secured, to be estimated by dividing said sum by one-half the number of those signing the bond. The pastor for obvious reasons will not be accepted as a bondsman.

11. Before receiving the Loan the Trustees shall certify that, the entire amount necessary, excepting the Loan to be received from the Board, complete the building without debt has been collected.

II. RETURN OF LOANS.

1. Loans shall be returned ordinarily within ten years in annual installments, the amount of each annual installment to be at the discretion of the Board. The installments may be graduated so as to make the annual payments, including installment and interest, the same, the installments growing larger as the interest decreases.

DIRECTIONS TO APPLICANTS.

1. In filling up the form of application, answer clearly, so far as possible, each question. All are important. Be particularly careful in giving P. O. address of the minister. Give such description of the building as may indicate its appearance and value.

2. When the application is fully made out, it must be submitted to the Standing Committee upon Church Erection of your Presbytery, to be approved, signed and forwarded by such committee with its recommendation to the Board.

3. The same committee should appoint or approve of the appointment of a proper counsel to advise the trustees and sign the counsel's certificate appended to the application.

4. With the application send a copy of the deed and a diagram of the lot.

5. The Board meets stately upon the third Monday in each month. It is very desirable, however, that applications should be made in time to admit of such correspondence as may be necessary to a full understanding of the case.

Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Church Erection presents the following Report:

The record of the year's work of the Board shows that a large and comprehensive service has been rendered to the Church. One cannot read the report of the Board without feeling that there are great opportunities within its reach through a faithful and efficient administration. From every part of the Church there come appeals for aid in the erection of suitable houses of worship, and it is the duty of the Board to make cheerful and generous response to these appeals.

Your Committee note with satisfaction the progressive policy for the Board which has been recommended by the Executive Commission, and adopted by the General Assembly; and it is earnestly hoped that, by the hearty acceptance of this action, the Board will enter upon a new era of prosperity and usefulness.

Your Committee have pleasure in noting the election by the Board of the Rev. Jesse C. Bruce, D.D., to be the Field Secretary of the Board, in accordance with the instruction of the General Assembly of 1912.

It is believed that Dr. Bruce will greatly assist the Board in carrying out the terms of the progressive policy already referred to.

The number of applications for aid has been so large, and the amount asked for has been so much in excess of the receipts of the Board, that your Committee feel warranted in calling upon the Churches to increase materially their contributions to this cause this year.

The receipts during the past year from the ordinary sources, such as churches and Sabbath-schools, have been $65,509.71. Much more than this amount could have been profitably used and many applications have had to be denied for lack of funds.

To quote the language of the Report:

“The Board of Church Erection never incurs debt. When the demands exceed its resources, it must choose between two possible sources when it reaches its limits. It must either defer action upon applications, or else approve the applications and defer payments until funds permit.” Your Committee, however, venture to express the belief that, with the release of so large an amount from the Kennedy Fund for immediate use in making loans, the churches will feel encouraged to increase their contributions, that the good work of this Board may be carried on with greater success than ever before.

The Committee submits the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board be approved, with the following exceptions:

(a) That no blank spaces be left in the records.

(b) That all loans or grants made by the Board should be duly recorded.

2. That the report of the Treasurer be approved.

3. That the following members of the Board whose term of service expires in May, 1913, be nominated for reelection:

Ministers—William Raymond Jelliffe, Arthur C. McMillan, John H. Boyd, and to take the place of William A. Holliday, D.D., who declines reelection, Rev. John B. Donaldson, D.D.

Laymen—James A. Frame, E. Francis Hyde, Edward C. Van Glahn, Edward C. Stringer.

That M. Linn Bruce be nominated to take the place of Frederick G. Burnham, resigned, in the Class of 1914.

That the election of Rev. Paul R. Hickok to succeed R. B. Beattie, resigned, in the Class of 1916, be confirmed.

That the election of the Rev. Jesse C. Bruce, D.D., as Field Secretary of the Board, be confirmed.

4. That in view of the fact that a new and progressive policy has been adopted by the Assembly for the Board, we call upon all our churches to enlarge their gifts to the general work of the Board.

In behalf of the Committee.

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman,

The following supplementary Report was submitted by the Standing Committee on Church Erection, and was approved:

Your Committee has received the following communication:

ATLANTA, GA., May 22, 1913.

To the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—By reason of the action yesterday of the General Assembly in directing the Board to withdraw a portion of the Kennedy money from the Permanent Fund and to place it in the Loan Fund to be administered under the Loan Fund rules, and under the conviction that such a use of that money is not only unlawful, but in violation of the confidence which that godly man, Mr. Kennedy, reposed in the Board in committing to it his generous bequest, I cannot conscientiously remain longer the Secretary of the Board under this instruction of the General Assembly, and, being a loyal Presbyterian, I cannot disobey the high court of the Church of my fathers and my Church. I therefore most respectfully decline reëlection to the office of Corresponding Secretary.

With profound and heartfelt gratitude for the confidence which you have ever reposed in me, and the good sweet fellowship of the members of the Board, I am as ever,

Your obedient servant and brother,

DUNCAN J. McMILLAN.

It is recommended that the letter be referred to the Board, and that the Board accept the resignation of Dr. McMillan.

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

SUFFERN & SON

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

149 BROADWAY

NEW YORK

MAY 1, 1913.

To the Finance Committee of the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

GENTLEMEN:

We have completed our examination of the accounts of your Treasurer for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1913.

All the various railroad and miscellaneous Stocks and Bonds and New York City Securities, as shown in the statement herewith, were examined in the Mercantile Safe Deposit Vaults on April 28, 1913.

The cash in office and bank balances were verified. The investment mortgages and church mortgages, securing interest-bearing loans belonging to all Funds, were inspected by us and found to be in order. All disbursements for the year, except those represented by outstanding bank checks at March 31, 1913, were verified by canceled bank checks or properly approved vouchers.

We have included the uncollected interest on bonds, due prior to March 31, 1913, in the statements prepared by us. No other accruals have been considered. The assets appearing in the Treasurer's statement of "Assets Protecting Special Funds" were found correct and, with the exception of the interest item, are in accordance with the records. We submit herewith a Balance Sheet at March 31, 1913, and certify that it correctly represents the financial condition of the Board as shown by the books with the adjustment above noted.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFERN & SON,
Certified Public Accountants.

Manse No. 30.

This represents a manse lately built at Cuba, Mo., which illustrates how much can be secured for a comparatively small outlay. It is a pretty and comfortable house. In addition to the bedrooms, shown in the ground plan upon the next page, there is another 15 feet square upstairs. The Pastor, the Rev. Theo. T. Hays, writes: "Every minister who has been out from St. Louis thinks it is the best-arranged plan for a small manse he has seen." The stairway to the upper rooms goes up from the back chamber, but would be perhaps better from the dining-room, and can be open or boxed in as may be preferred. The total cost did not exceed $800 in addition to the lot. For floor plan see next page.

Manse No. 31.

The above is a representation of the very attractive little manse at Craig, Mo. The house is very conveniently arranged and can be built for about $1,200. In addition to the rooms shown in the floor plan upon the opposite page, there is space for two good bedrooms upstairs.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

BY REV. DR. HENRY SLOANE COFFIN, Chairman.

Your Committee has great pleasure in presenting to the Assembly the first annual report of the recently constituted Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation.

We heartily congratulate the Assembly upon the successful combination of the Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund. The fears of those who opposed this combination have not been justified, for both Agencies have had the best year in their respective histories, and the Church has been relieved from the embarrassment of presenting a double and confusing appeal.

The Relief Department has received three noteworthy gifts:

One, of $318,068.69, from the estate of the late Lady Martha Ellen Kortright, a former resident of Philadelphia, who married a titled Englishman, and remembered the Church of her birth and native land most generously in her will.

A second, of $75,000, from a friend of the cause in New York.

And a third, of $10,000, from a member of the Board, with the proviso that the income therefrom shall form a special annuity for the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., the former Secretary of the Board.

In view of its increased resources, both from these special gifts and from the contributions of the churches, the Board has been able to advance the sum appropriated to each of the honorably retired ministers upon its roll of beneficiaries to $400 a year, instead of the $350 which has been the maximum hitherto. This is a gratifying increase, but we are glad to be assured that the Board will not be satisfied until the amount is $500.

In view of the receipt of $48,000 in interest upon the Kortright Estate, which had accrued during the years when it was in litigation, the Board was able last Christmas to send an unexpected gift of $25 to each of its annuitants.

Your Committee wishes to congratulate the Church upon the Board's choice of the Rev. William Hiram Foulkes, D.D., as General Secretary of the Board, and to congratulate him and his associates upon the good showing of the past year, in which one hundred and eighty-three additional churches contributed to the Relief Department and in which the Sustentation Fund added $104,692 to its resources.

We desire also to call the Assembly's attention to the record of faithful and able service of the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., who during the last fourteen years has served as Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and to express our satisfaction that he has been given a modest retiring allowance, and we also note with satisfaction that the Rev. John R. Sutherland, D.D., to whom the origin and development of the Sustentation Fund are largely due, has been chosen Associate Secretary of the Combined Agencies.

Your Committee is informed that the Board is prepared to make two new departures in its rule, provided the Assembly approves:

1. It is ready to extend its relief to lay missionaries under commission of the Home and Freedmen's Boards, and also to lay missionaries under the commission of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work who have served the Church in this capacity for not less than ten years.

2. It desires to provide relief for temporarily disabled ministers and missionaries, and would like, if the requisite funds are forthcoming, to enlarge its two Homes for the reception and care of such fatigued and convalescent servants of the Church.

Two exceptional cases came before the Board, one that of a licentiate who had served four and a half years as a commissioned lay missionary of the Home Board, and the other the widow of a lay Home Missionary who had labored for twenty-two years on the firing line. And your Committee recommends that the aid voted in these two cases be approved by the Assembly.

Your Committee has examined the Minutes and the Treasurer's reports of both Departments for the past year, and finds them in order.

Your Committee would further call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that the sum of $10,000,000, called for by the last Assembly for Ministerial Relief and Sustentation cannot be raised unless the freest access to our churches be given to representatives of the Board, and the Budget Plan should not be allowed to be a barrier to appeals for this endowment.

Your Committee recommends the following Resolutions:

Resolved (1) That the Minutes and Treasurer's Reports of both Departments of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation be approved by the General Assembly.

Resolved (2) That the General Assembly approves of the distribution of the accrued interest on the Kortright Estate in gifts of $25 each to the 1,251 annuitants upon the roll of the Board.

Resolved (3) That the General Assembly approves of the increase in the annual appropriation to honorably retired ministers to $400.

Resolved (4) That the General Assembly amends the Rules of the Board, so that Rule 9, on page 38, of the Manual of the Board, shall read:

"Regularly appointed and commissioned missionaries, both ordained and lay, of the Foreign, Home and Freedmen's Boards, and regularly appointed and commissioned lay missionaries of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work, who have served that Board for at least ten years, may be placed upon the Roll of the Board upon the same conditions governing ordained ministers. In their application for aid, lay missionaries shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers, except that foreign missionaries, whether ordained or lay, under commission of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, and laboring within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church of a foreign land, shall be certified by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions instead of by the Presbytery."

Resolved (5) That the Assembly approves the plan of the Board in seeking to provide relief for ministers or missionaries temporarily disabled, and endorses the project of enlarging the accommodations at the two Homes of the Board, in order to provide suitable residences for this purpose.

Resolved (6) That the Assembly renews its request that students in the Theological Seminaries of the Church, identify themselves with the Sustentation Fund.

Resolved (7) That the Assembly authorizes the Board to apply for such amendments to the charter of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund as to permit the Sustentation Department to provide for the identical classes of beneficiaries assisted by the Relief Department, and to adjust its Rules to meet such conditions.

Resolved (8) That the General Assembly authorizes the Board to ask the Sunday schools to set aside an appropriate day for an offering to this cause, or to place it upon the Sunday-school Budget of Benevolence.

Resolved (9) That the Assembly permits the Board to revise its forms and blanks during the coming year, and to report upon them at the next General Assembly.

Resolved (10) That the Assembly directs the Executive Commission to coöperate with the Board in securing from the Church such authentic information as will enable the Board accurately to state the average salary of ministers in our Church, and further, directs the Executive Commission to coöperate with the Board in selecting a Committee of ten influential laymen in the Church who will consent to serve upon an Advisory Council to assist the Board in formulating and carrying out plans for raising the $10,000,000 endowment fund projected by the General Assembly.

Resolved (11) That the General Assembly authorizes the Board in exceptional cases to waive the Rule of the Board requiring five years in the service of our Church from ministers coming to us from another communion before they can be recipients of relief.

Resolved (12) That the General Assembly answer overtures numbered 154 to 160 in the negative, partly because the action desired has been provided in the preceding Resolutions.

Resolved (13) That the General Assembly hereby reelects as Directors of the Board of Ministerial Relief Charles L. Huston, Esq., Rudolph M. Schick, Esq., I. Layton Register, Esq., and Thompson McClintock, Esq., and that the Assembly nominates these same gentlemen to the members of the Sustentation Fund as Directors, for a term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY S. COFFIN,
Chairman.

RELIEF AND SUSTENTATION
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

Ministerial Relief and Sustentation Presents Herewith Its First Annual Report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., Combining the Fifty-Eighth Annual Report of the "Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers" and the Fourth Annual Report of the "Ministerial Sustentation Fund."

THE COMBINED AGENCIES.

Under the plan of combination adopted by the last General Assembly, those persons who were elected as members of the Presbyterian Board of Relief and also nominated to the Ministerial Sustentation Fund as members of the Board of Directors, and afterwards duly elected by the members of the Fund, met under the direction of the Executive Commission, and were duly organized both as the Board of Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund. Two of the persons elected did not see their way clear to serve upon the Combined Agencies and the Executive Commission under the power of the Assembly in connection with the members of the Combined Agencies elected two other persons as members of both agencies.

For the definite action of the General Assembly upon all matters contained in the Report of the Board, see the immediately preceding Report of the Standing Committee, which was adopted by the General Assembly.

At the formal meeting of both agencies, the following Officers were elected:

President,	REV. JOHN R. DAVIES, D.D.
Vice President,	RUDOLPH M. SCHICK, ESQ.
General Secretary,	REV. WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES, D.D.
Associate Secretary,	REV. JOHN R. SUTHERLAND, D.D., LL.D.
Treasurer and Recording Secretary,
	REV. WILLIAM W. HEBERTON, D.D.

Since the date of the formal organization of the Combined Agencies, the work entrusted to the united Boards (which will hereafter be spoken of as the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, with its two departments, "Relief" and "Sustentation") has been earnestly and loyally carried forward. The General Secretary was called from the pastorate of Rutgers Presbyterian Church of New York City. The Associate Secretary was, until the time of the combination, the Secretary of Ministerial Sustentation Fund and the Treasurer was, until the time of the combination, the Treasurer of the Presbyterian Board of Relief.

METHOD OF ADMINISTRATION.

According to the instruction of the General Assembly the Combined Agencies have carried on their work under their respective charters and under the rules adopted for each by the General Assembly, the funds of each department having been kept distinct.

The method of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation is to sit first as the Presbyterian Board of Relief, transacting all routine business of the Relief Department and then considering such matters as pertain to both departments. Then, without adjourning, the members present are called to order as the Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and thereupon transact all business particularly pertaining to the Sustentation Department, and ratifying by proper motions and in due form all actions taken by the Board sitting as the Relief Department. On alternate months the Board sits first as the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

Certain adjustments may be necessary from time to time, but Ministerial Relief and Sustentation has been able, under the plan adopted by the Assembly, to carry forward its united work without serious inconvenience and with marked progress, as the Treasurer's report will show.

DIVISION OF COST OF ADMINISTRATION.

The Board voted unanimously that during the rest of its fiscal year, the administrative expenses should be divided between the two departments as follows:

(a) All items of expense clearly belonging only to one department to be charged to that department.

(b) All items of expense connected with the administration of the united work, such as the financial and advertising campaign, general salaries and the like, to be divided in the ratio of two thirds to be paid by the Relief Department and one third by the Sustentation Department.

(c) The expenses of Field Representatives to be paid by both departments in proportion to the amount secured by them for each department.

FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN.

The Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation reports to the General Assembly that it has after careful consideration adopted the wisest and most thorough methods with a view to securing the increased endowment asked by the last General Assembly. The Board is unanimously of the opinion that the task is one that will not only require the utmost human resources in the way of plans and efforts, but above all will require the peculiar blessing of God. Ten million dollars cannot be raised in a year, and it can never be raised unless the whole Church is confronted by the fullest information concerning those conditions which justify the investment of such a large sum of money.

The Board has undertaken a definite financial campaign which includes the securing of mailing lists of members and supporters, the publication of such printed matter as will interest, inform and arouse the Church, the presenting from week to week in the various religious papers of our Church, the work of the Board. Besides this, the General Secretary has devoted all his Sundays and not a few week days to public presentations of the cause: the Associate Secretary has also from time to time occupied pulpits in the interest of the united work. The six Field Representatives have also presented the cause before congregations and individuals, and have secured in varying sums generous gifts in cash and pledges.

RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

The Relief Department (which is the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers), makes in this manner its Fifty-eighth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

ROLL.

The Roll of the Board of Relief for the year 1912-1913 is as follows:

Ministers .....	552
Widows .....	686
Orphan families .....	45
Women missionaries .....	27
Total .....	1,310

Of these annuitants, 23 were guests in the Merriam Home and 12 were guests in the Thornton Home.

NEW CASES.

During the year the following new cases were favorably acted upon by the Board:

Ministers .....	87
Widows .....	73
Orphan families .....	5
Women missionaries .....	4
Total .....	169

The comparison of the Roll of this year with that of last year shows the following condition:

Roll 1912-1913 .....	1,310
Roll 1911-1912 .....	1,251
Net increase .....	59

Of the 545 names of ministers upon the Roll, the names of 232 are those of Honorably Retired men. Their average age is 78 years, and the average time they have been in the ministry is 49 years. Thirty-one of these have been added during the year just closed, and 23 of these Honor Roll men have died.

The appropriations to Honor Roll men during the year were $78,725, being an average of $339.33. As usual, not all the Honorably Retired ministers upon the Roll, asked for the full amount to which they were entitled. It should not be forgotten that there are many aged ministers who might come upon the Honor Roll, but who, because they have some scant means of livelihood, refrain from applying for relief in order not to take away from others. The Board bears witness to the heroism and patience and self-sacrifice of the whole body of its annuitants, some of whom, though living upon a modest appropriation, asked to have their appropriations reduced in order that others might have more.

THE HONOR ROLL ON HIGH.

Eighty-nine of those upon the Roll passed away during the year, of whom fifty-nine were ministers, twenty-five widows, and one orphan; and of the four guests who died at the Merriam Home, two were ministers and two widows of ministers.

TOTAL AND AVERAGE APPROPRIATIONS AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE.

The total amount actually given to beneficiaries this year by the Relief Department reached the splendid total of $308,165.32, the largest sum ever given, an increase of $47,443.13 over the total appropriation of last year. The total administrative expense of the Relief Department was $17,136.80. The average amount appropriated to ministers upon the Honor Roll, as stated above, during the year was $339.33. The average annual amount appropriated to all ministers upon the Roll during the year was $285. The average amount appropriated to widows during the year was $175.

CONTRIBUTING AND NON-CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

The number of churches contributing during the past year, 1912-1913, was 5,675, the number of non-contributing churches 4,161. During the year ending April 1, 1912, the number of contributing churches was 5,492, and the number of non-contributing churches during that same time was 4,427. This is a gain of 183 contributing churches. The churches belonging to foreign Presbyteries, which neither contribute or draw out, are not included in these totals.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATION.

The Board, at a called meeting and under the authority of a rule of the General Assembly which says:

“While the responsibility of recommending applicants rests with the Presbyteries, and these recommendations largely govern the action of the Board, yet there is reserved to the Board the right to appropriate according to the merits of the case and the state of the treasury.”

and in view of the receipt from an estate which had been in litigation for several years of approximately $48,000 accrued interest which it has been authorized by the Assembly to spend upon its annuitants, unanimously voted to send an unsolicited and unexpected Christmas gift of $25 each to the 1,251 annuitants upon the Roll. The blessings of these gifts can scarcely be over-estimated. The letters which have come from those receiving the gifts are most significant in the revelation they make of the Christ-like spirit of the annuitants of the Board. While the Board cheerfully recognizes the rights and powers of the Presbyteries to make recommendations to accompany the usual applications of annuitants, it does not feel that this unprecedented act violated either the letter or the spirit of the law. It is the earnest purpose of the Board to be so sensitive to the mind of the church and its Master that it will never need to be driven to do its full duty, but will do all that lies in its power to enlarge its benefactions.

HONOR ROLL INCREASE.

The Board has great joy in reporting that after a careful review of its assets, and especially in view of the final settlement of Lady Martha Ellen Kortright's estate, from which the Board has received in all nearly $400,000, of which $340,000 has been placed in its Endowment Fund, and in addition to which a large amount of accrued interest has been received from this estate, and in view of a further addition to this fund of $50,000, two thirds of an unsolicited gift of an anonymous friend, the other $25,000 having been placed in the emergency fund, it unanimously voted to appropriate the sum of $400 per year as the maximum for all Honor Roll men instead of the maximum of $350 as heretofore. The Board asks the Assembly to approve this increase and to urge the churches to continue to enlarge its gifts to its current work as well as to encourage individual gifts to enlarge the endowment fund.

RECEIPTS FOR THE CURRENT FUND.

	1911-1912.	1912-1913.
Contributions from Churches and Sabbath Schools..	$115,647 95	$121,466 99
Contributions from Individuals.....	6,273 96	7,569 47

RECEIPTS CREDITED TO EMERGENCY FUND.

There was added to the Emergency Fund since last year $50,029.93.

NOTEWORTHY GIFTS.

Among the most outstanding gifts to the cause of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation is that which the Relief Department received in December, 1912, as its share of the residue of the estate of Lady Martha Ellen Kortright, a former Philadelphia resident. The total amount of the residue thus received by the Board was $318,068.69, which included accumulated interest. The Board calls upon the church to voice abundant thanksgiving to God for this great gift. In the words of one of our annuitants, "God bless the name of Lady Martha Kortright."

A generous friend of the cause, during the year, made an unsolicited gift of $75,000, upon two conditions, namely, that the Board should use its best judgment as to whether the gift should go to current funds or toward the endowment fund, and that the name of the donor should be sacredly guarded from all publicity. In accepting the gift, after consulting the donor, the Board set aside $25,000 and placed it in the Emergency Fund, the balance of $50,000 having been invested as a part of the Permanent Funds of the Board. In the Treasurer's Report, the $25,000 will appear in the column entitled Unrestricted Legacies, and not in the column designated Individual Gifts, as the Emergency Fund has, by the custom of the Board in the past, been made up of Unrestricted Legacies. The Board calls upon the church also to voice its gratitude to God for this splendid gift, and to join the donor in the hope that it may stimulate others to give largely to this sacred cause.

One peculiarly appropriate and generous gift has been received by the Relief Department during the last year that should not be overlooked by the Assembly. One of the members of the Board has contributed the sum of $10,000 to the permanent funds of the Relief Department with the proviso that interest therefrom should be given as a special annuity to the Rev. Dr. Benjamin L. Agnew, and in event of his death, to his widow, in recognition of the faithful service of Dr. Agnew as the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Relief. It is significant that so generous a gift as this should come from one who, already devoting his time and energy to the work of the Board, believes in it so thoroughly that he is willing to give of his money.

TOTAL ASSETS.

The total invested and cash assets of the Relief Department, including securities held and administered by the Trustees of the General Assembly, is $2,576,889.28. In addition to this $12,175 belongs to the Relief Department in the form of pledges and subscriptions.

SUMMARY OF RECEIPTS FOR THE YEAR.

The following is a summary of the receipts of the Relief Department for the year.

Current Fund .....	$302,671.33
Emergency Fund .....	50,029.93
Permanent Fund—cash .....	87,554.63
Permanent Fund—securities .....	211,668.70
From the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Relief— cash .....	13,635.58
From the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Relief— securities .....	20,635.58
Total .....	$686,195.75

NOTE.—In addition to the above the Board has received from the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Church notes amounting to $3,864.15 not yet realized. The Board has also received during the year $12,175 in pledges and subscriptions not yet due or paid.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES AND A CHANGE OF RULES.

The Board reports to the Assembly that it has appropriated the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) each to Mr. H. W. O'Dell, a licentiate of the Presbytery of Duluth, Minnesota, who served for four and one half years as a regularly commissioned missionary of the Board of Home Missions, and who has become permanently disabled; and to Mrs. P. Q. Gonzales, the widow of Pablo Q. Gonzales, who for twenty-two years was a faithful home missionary under commission of the Home Board, but who was never ordained. The Board judges that both of these cases are most meritorious and it asks the Assembly to approve its action in granting the relief above mentioned. In order to cover similar cases henceforth, the Board recommends that the General Assembly amend the Rules of the Board so that Rule 9 on page 38 of the Manual of the Board shall read:

“Regularly appointed and commissioned missionaries (both ordained and lay, including medical missionaries) who have gone out from this country under commission of the Foreign Board, and also regularly appointed and commissioned lay missionaries of the Boards of Home Missions and Missions among the Freedmen, may also be placed upon the Roll of the Board upon the same conditions governing ordained ministers. In their application for aid, lay missionaries shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers, except that foreign missionaries whether ordained or lay under commission of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and laboring within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church of a foreign land, shall be certified by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions instead of by a Presbytery.”

A NEW DEPARTURE.

The Board is desirous of undertaking a new phase of work that legitimately comes under its charter. It is that of providing relief for those who otherwise coming under its rules are only temporarily disabled, and who need relief in order that they may be enabled to recover their health if possible, and may enter again into an active service of the church. In order to provide for furloughed missionaries from the foreign field as well as home missionaries who may be temporarily disabled, the Board will endeavor, if the Assembly approves, to enlarge the accommodations at its two Homes so as to make provision for the free residence, for a limited time, of those persons who would otherwise come under the rules of the Board, and whose applications for temporary residence in either of the Homes shall be filed in the usual form and approved by the Presbytery or in the case of foreign missionaries, by the Board of Foreign Missions. The Board requests the General Assembly to approve its action in making such changes in the Homes as may be necessary and in raising additional endowment funds for this purpose.

DIRECTORS TO BE ELECTED.

The terms of the following Directors expire this meeting of the Assembly:

Charles L. Huston, Esq., who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., to accept the Position of Field Representative.

Rudolph M. Schick, Esq.,

I. Layton Register, Esq.,

Thompson McClintock, Esq.,

Four directors are to be elected at this meeting of the General Assembly to fill the above-named places.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES,

Cor. Sec'y.

SUSTENTATION DEPARTMENT

The Board of Directors of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund makes its fourth annual report to the General Assembly for the first time as Sustentation Department of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation.

The Fund has continued to enjoy an increase in interest and support that is remarkable. Under the plan of combination as outlined in the general sections of this report, the Sustentation Department has been carrying on its work with added approval on the part of the Church. The General Assembly has endorsed the pension idea and has embodied it in the Sustentation Department. The Church is determined to prevent distress as well as to continue the gracious work of relieving it. The Sustentation Department of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation looks to the future of the Presbyterian Church, and working in full harmony with the Relief Department, gives promise of a statesmanlike dealing with the subject of ministerial efficiency as well as disability.

The bearing of the developed work of Sustentation upon the Church is noteworthy. It is not merely the aged and disabled who are to be affected by the carrying out of this plan, but those who are in middle life and at the very threshold of their ministry are going to receive new power for service as they see the Church adequately providing against, and not merely for, the day of their disability.

Excerpts from a recent article by A. Maurice Low, in the North American Review, have a vital bearing upon this phase of the cause. Mr. Low wrote in part:

"Yet curiously enough, the greatest discontent now existing is not among the working class, but is to be found in a class higher in the social scale, which for the sake of convenience may be called the great middle class, that great human stratum which lies between the working men and the prosperous and very rich, the great body of salaried men. . . .

"The salaried man, whether he be clerk, salesman, bookkeeper, drummer, buyer, begins life with some education and a certain superficial polish, and he must have these qualifications to retain his place. . . .

"No man feels the weight of life as long as he is climbing upward; it is only when he is beginning to go down that life drags its chain. At twenty-five years of age courage is unbounded and ambition is limitless, and hope is the motive power to fresh endeavor and life smiles. At twenty-five a man may have achieved success, but he cannot have made a failure. . . . At thirty-five life is very different from twenty-five. At thirty-five a man wants more and sees less chance of getting what he wants and the things he ought to have. It is not the high cost of living in those ten years that makes his income smaller and procures him less; it is that his burden is greater. . . . But no man despairs at thirty-five. Hope, the first gift of the gods to man, which lives after passion is dead, has not deserted him, and forty is youth, and life still calls. He sees forty and forty-five and fifty and now comes the grand climatic. At fifty he no longer has illusions. Whatever chances he might have had in youth have gone, partner he can never expect to be, a salaried man he may remain, but every year his tenure becomes more precarious. Competition is keener, pressure greater. Youngsters are pushing to the front, gray hairs are no recommendation. . . .

"At fifty or fifty-five what is there for the average salaried man? Tragic as it is to make the admission, if we are honest we cannot deny that he lives in fear. Prudent and economical although he has been, his salary has never enabled him to save; by rigid self-denial, often by foregoing actual necessities, he has managed to keep up a few thousand dollars of life insurance so that his wife shall not be absolutely penniless at his death. But that is the extent of his saving. If he should lose his place, in a few weeks he would be a pauper, his furniture and his clothes are all that he has to show for his life's work, and that realization is a fear that never leaves him. It is not imaginary; it is very real.

"It is among salaried men—to distinguish a class from the wage-earning working man—that the greatest discontent exists at the present time, and that is the most distinct feature of the social unrest. For members of the salaried class are good fathers and husbands, the bulwark of respectable society, the great majority leading sober, useful lives, trying to do their duty faithfully, rendering valuable service to society, the support of the church. . . . Is there a remedy for the plight of the middle class man?"

The question with which Mr. Low's message concludes can well be interpreted in the light of the minister, who is the highest representative of the salaried class, and yet whose average salary is a third less than a mechanic's wage. Is there a remedy for the plight of the minister, a salaried man on a workingman's wage? There is only one answer to Mr. Low's question, and only one to the question of the minister. It is the word PENSION. An old-age pension alone will meet the situation of the "middle class salaried man" and of the minister. It is this pension for which the Sustentation Department is providing.

Under the plan of combination it is confidently expected that the Sustentation Department will rapidly grow. The progress it has already made is a pledge of its ultimate success.

MEMBERS OF THE FUND.

During the fiscal year just closed 135 ministers have applied for membership in the Fund. Since its organization 857 ministers have united with the Fund. After the meeting of the Denver Assembly over 30 ministers withdrew their membership on account of the impression which became current that the action of that Assembly was unfavorable to the Fund. Several of those who withdrew at that time have reunited with the Fund. The balance of those who have withdrawn have done so on account of changing their ecclesiastical relationship. The present membership of the Fund is 738.

INCOME AND RESOURCES.

There is in the custody of the Fund, besides cash assets, $195,518.75 in promises and pledges. Of these pledges $104,692 were made during the past year. This record is very gratifying to the Board, but there is every reason to believe that it will be largely exceeded the coming year. There has been received in cash during the year $107,432.86, including $7,919.67 received from the sale of securities. Of this sum, $26,090.88 was paid in dues or premiums by the ministers who are members of the Fund. This makes a total of $119,016.67 paid into the Fund in dues from members from the beginning of the Fund's operations. The Board has invested the sum of $78,483.75 during the year, making a total of $252,966.94 invested. The total of cash and pledges in the Treasury of the Sustentation Department April 1, 1913, was $466,227.50. The details will be found in the Treasurer's Report.

The General Secretary has visited a number of Theological Seminaries during the year, and has presented the claims of the Sustentation Department upon those young men who are seeking ordination at the hands of our Church. The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to renew its solemn and sacred expectation that these young men identify themselves with this Department.

The Board respectfully requests the General Assembly to authorize it to apply for such amendments to the charter of Ministerial Sustentation Fund as to permit the Sustentation Department to provide for the identical classes provided for by the Relief Department, and to adjust its rules to meet such conditions.

PLANS FOR THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE.

There should be, in the judgment of the Board, an earnest and concerted effort made to secure substantial additions to the membership of the Fund. All of the ministers of the Church who are eligible ought to give serious consideration to the claims of the Fund. Furthermore, the Sustentation Department should share liberally in the bounty of the Church in order that it may soon be enabled to pay its maximum pensions to those of its members who have become disabled.

The Board is gratified to know that there are many who have signified their intention to remember this Department in their wills. Rejoicing in the substantial endowment of the Relief Department, the Board earnestly hopes that the Sustentation Department will secure large gifts and rapidly increase in its endowments and its current income.

The terms of the following named persons will expire at the annual meeting of the Fund in June, and the General Assembly will need to nominate four persons to the members of the Fund to be elected for a term of three years:

Charles L. Huston, Esq., elected by the Board of Directors to fill the unexpired term of Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D.

Rudolph M. Schick, Esq.

I. Layton Register, Esq.

Thompson McClintock, Esq.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Directors of the Fund,

WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES,

Secretary.

PLANS AND POLICIES OF THE COMBINED AGENCIES.

The Combined Agencies in bringing the first annual report of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation to a close express the earnest hope that the General Assembly will approve in every possible way the campaign for the increased endowment. In view of the vast sum of money required for its Endowment Funds, the Board is making a diligent study of the probable cost to the Church of each department, and will put its findings at the disposal of the Church at the earliest opportunity. The Board submits that in full harmony with the spirit of the Budget Plan, access must be had to the churches for the presentation of the endowment campaign. It is not reasonable to ask the Board to attempt to raise the sum of Ten Million Dollars and then to hamper it by a mechanical provision which will prevent the people of the Church at large having an intelligent and adequate opportunity to subscribe to the endowment campaign.

The plan of Presbyterial Campaigns commends itself to the judgment of the Board, and it is hoped that it will commend itself to the judgment of the Assembly. The policy of securing five years' subscriptions also is wise, in the judgment of the Board, and it trusts that the offer of a generous layman in St. Louis to be one of five hundred Presbyterians to give $5,000 each toward the Endowment Fund may inspire many to join the ranks. There are more than five hundred Presbyterian families who could give a thousand dollars a year for five years to this cause, if they would.

AN UNEXPLORED FIELD.

In carrying out the purpose of the Assembly to attempt to secure $10,000,000 for endowment, Ministerial Relief and Sustentation is persuaded that the dollars will never be raised until the Sabbath-school pennies begin to come into the Treasury. During the last year only 213 Sabbath schools, out of a total number of 9,566 Sabbath schools reported by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, contributed to the Board of Relief and Sustentation $1,998.09.

The Assembly is aware that the Missionary Boards of the Church have access to the Sabbath schools for certain designated days. The value of this designation is not merely that which comes from the financial gifts that follow, but in large part that which follows the education of the children in the knowledge of the facts and methods of our benevolent agencies. Ministerial Relief and Sustentation therefore respectfully asks the Assembly to authorize it to secure from pastors, superintendents and teachers of our Sabbath schools, so far as possible, the observance of an appropriate day, such as Mother's Day which this year occurred on May 11, and that on that day Sabbath schools be stimulated to take an offering for the current work of Relief and Sustentation.

REVISION OF THE RULES.

The Board respectfully reports to the General Assembly that it is engaged in a revision of its rules, especially its blanks and forms, so that it may more efficiently, and at the same time more agreeably to the Church, discharge its obligations. It is unable to make a final report to the present General Assembly, and therefore asks for authority to prepare and to use such revised forms and blanks as in its judgment may be best, reporting to the next General Assembly.

A CONCLUDING REQUEST.

In order that it may have reasonably complete data upon which to base some of its most important labors, the Board respectfully requests the General Assembly to direct the Executive Commission to coöperate with the Board in securing from the Church at large such authentic information as will enable the Board accurately to state the average salary of a minister in our Church and kindred facts, and that the Executive Commission be directed to appoint a committee to confer with the Board upon this whole matter.

We would further and finally recommend that the Executive Commission be authorized and directed to coöperate with the Board and to select a committee of ten of the leading laymen of our Church who will consent to serve upon an Advisory Council to assist the Board in formulating and carrying out the wisest plans for raising the endowment funds hitherto directed by the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board of Ministerial Relief and Sustentation,

WILLIAM HIRAM FOULKES,
General Secretary.

PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS AND AUDITORS

Accounting System      Factory Cost

PHILADELPHIA, April 1, 1913.

REV. JOHN R. DAVIES, D.D., President,

"The Presbyterian Board of Relief," etc.,

Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:—

We have made a thorough audit of the accounts and property of the "Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers" from March 31, 1912, to March 31, 1913, both days inclusive, along the lines of your communication of February 7, 1912.

We have examined and added the Cash Book as to Receipts and Disbursements, checking all expenditures with their vouchers, and the authority for the disbursements. Cash Balance as of March 31, 1913, $114,469.54.

We have also examined the Securities and other evidences of Investments as shown on the annual report of the Treasurer for the year ending March 31, 1913. The interest and income from the Investments was checked with the Cash Book and found to be correct.

Respectfully submitted,

STOCKTON BATES, C. P. A.,

For Stockton Bates & Sons.

FORMS OF BEQUEST AND DEVISE.

I. CORPORATE NAME.

The laws of the different states vary so much as to testamentary bequests that in making a will it is always desirable to secure the services of a competent lawyer. In all cases, however, where bequests are made to either department of the combined agencies, the corporate name should be used as follows:

To the Relief Department: "The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers," incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania, October 21, 1876.

To the Sustentation Department: "The Ministerial Sustentation Fund" of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, incorporated February 26, 1909, under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

II. FORM OF BEQUEST.

To the Relief Department: "I give and bequeath to 'The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers,' incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania, October 21, 1876, having its office in the City of Philadelphia, the sum of . . . . . dollars, to be expended for the appropriate objects of said corporation."

To the Sustentation Department: "I give, bequeath and devise to 'The Ministerial Sustentation Fund' of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, incorporated February 26, 1909, under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the sum . . . . . dollars, to and for the uses of the said Ministerial Sustentation Fund."

III. FORM OF DEVISE.

REAL ESTATE.

To the Relief Department: "I give and devise unto 'The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers,' incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania, October 21, 1876, having its office in the City of Philadelphia, all that certain (here insert description or other sufficient designation of the real estate) with the appurtenances in fee simple, the same or its proceeds, for the use of said Board."

To the Sustentation Department: "I give and devise unto 'The Ministerial Sustentation Fund' of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, incorporated February 26, 1909, under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, all that certain (here insert description if convenient) with the appurtenances in fee simple, for the use, benefit and behoof of said Ministerial Sustentation Fund forever."

IV. RESIDUARY CLAUSE.

For the Relief Department: "I give, devise and bequeath in fee simple and absolutely to 'The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers,' incorporated in the State of Pennsylvania, October 21, 1876, having its office in the City of Philadelphia, all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, to be used for the appropriate object of said corporation."

For the Sustentation Department: "All the rest, residue and remainder of my real and personal estate, I devise and bequeath unto 'The Ministers Sustentation Fund' of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, incorporated February 26, 1909, under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

V. PERMANENT FUND.

If a testator desires his devise or bequest to become a part of the endowment of either agency, he should add to the form the following words: "To be held as part of the Permanent Fund, the income only to be used for the appropriate objects of said corporation."

VI. WITNESSES.

To every will there should be two subscribing witnesses, neither of whom is interested as a legatee or devisee, or is in any way connected with a charity to which anything is given in the will.

THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
PRESBYTERIAN
BOARD OF RELIEF

THE THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF
THE BOARD OF RELIEF OF THE CUMBER-LAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRES-BYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE
U. S. A. OF 1913.

The Board of Ministerial Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church respectfully presents to the General Assembly its annual report for the year from April 1, 1912, to April 1, 1913. This is the thirty-second year since the organization of this Board, it having been incorporated under the laws of Indiana.

The Board refers to its report for the last year where the following appears :

"The reasons for delay in effecting the complete merger having fully disappeared, it is now a mere matter of detail in arranging for such merger in accordance with the terms of the union agreement. The legal questions involved in working out the details of the merger are now under consideration by the counsel of the two Boards."

Within the last year this Board has executed a deed to all of the real estate, the title of which was vested in it, including Thornton Home, to the Philadelphia Board, and has also transferred all of the moneys and securities, and the Philadelphia Board has assumed control of Thornton Home through committees of its own appointment.

This Board therefore has now no property in its hands and there is nothing for it to do but to die. We do not, however, regard it necessary to incur any expense in dissolving its corporate existence.

The Treasurer's report is submitted herewith.

By Order of the Board,

S. B. SANSOM,

Forty-Eighth Annual Report

OF THE

BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

TO THE

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church

FROM MARCH 31st, 1912 TO APRIL 1st, 1913

The Board of Missions for Freedmen presents to the General Assembly its Forty-eighth Annual Report.

We are thankful to be able to say that we have once more, and for the thirteenth time, in annual succession, closed our fiscal year with more than enough funds on hand to meet all our outstanding financial obligations.

We have done this in spite of the fact that our receipts this year have not amounted to as much as they did last year by some twenty-one thousand dollars. The most of this decrease came however from a drop in the amount received from Legacies.

During the past year the Annual Congregational Collections from churches have amounted to $78,146.85, as compared with $76,784.73 received from this source the year before. A difference in the right direction of $1,262.12.

Contributions from Sunday Schools show an increase of $551.03, and the Women's Societies went ahead of the year before to the amount of $3,209.01; but the Young People's Societies fell behind to the amount of $1,058.61.

The Sunday Schools advanced from $11,023.07 to $11,574.10.

The Woman's Societies advanced from $62,532.99 to $65,742.30.

The Young People's Societies fell back from $10,757.24 to $9,698.63.

The Receipts from Miscellaneous Sources decreased from $34,468.20 to $24,474.96 a change in the wrong direction to the amount of $9,993.24.

Legacies are a variable and uncertain source of income, and their irregularity calls for caution in making any plans that depend upon a fixed or hoped-for amount, from this source; and yet they are not to be ignored in our calculations.

Two years ago we received from legacies $26,465.98. One year ago we received $43,635.30, next to the largest amount we ever received in any one year. This year our legacy receipts amounted to $26,001.81. Last year we received $17,169.32 more than the year before. This year we received $17,633.19 less than last year.

The number of churches that helped us by giving us Congregational Collections this year was 5,199, and as compared with last year this is an increase of 270,—The increase the year before was only 21.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way, either by collections or through Sunday School or Young People's Societies or through Women's Societies was 6291—an increase of 325.

The number of Sunday Schools that contributed to the Board direct was 371—this being 14 more than the year before.

The number that gave through the Woman's Board was 675—an increase also of 14 more.

The total number of contributing Sunday Schools either direct or through the Woman's Board was 1146, as against 1018 last year—an increase of 28.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing direct to the Board was 37—an increase of one, while the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 1082—a loss of 64.

The total receipts from all sources were $233,729.58.

The following is a tabulated comparative statement of our receipts for this year and last:

	1911-1912	1912-1913
Churches.....	$76,784.73	$78,059.55	Increase	$1,262.12
Y. P. Societies...	10,757.24	9,698.63	Decrease	1,058.61
Sabbath Schools	11,023.07	11,574.10	Increase	551.03
Woman's. Soc....	62,532.99	65,742.30	Increase	3,209.31
Miscell. Sources	34,468.20	24,474.96	Decrease	9,993.24
Int. on inv. funds	16,246.63	18,178.23	Increase	1,931.60
Legacies.....	43,635.30	26,001.81	Decrease	17,633.49
	$255,418.16	233,729.58		$21,688.58

The Amount of money given to Church Work by the people on the field, including church building, repairs, contingent expenses and ministerial support, as reported to us by our Ministers, in their Annual reports to the Board was this year $70,727.08.

The total amount given on the field to our school work by patrons and friends, as reported this year from our teachers was $75,293.50.

The total amount gathered from both church and school work, on the field, and reported to the Board, but in no way going into our Treasury, or in any way included in the Treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures was $146,021.18.

In addition to this, the church under the care of the Board, not including those that are now self-supporting, gave through their Annual Collections $1,230.92 to the Freedman's Board; and to the other Boards and Agencies of our church they gave $2,424.95.

Adding the amount raised on the field for church and school purposes, to the amount given by these churches to the Benevolent Agencies of the church, we have a sum total, passing through the hands of our Ministers, Elders and Teachers, directly or indirectly, for their own good, in their own communities, and for the good of others in other parts of our own land, and other lands, amounting to $149,677.05. This is $659 more than they gave last year.

When we consider the financial condition of these people; the hard labor they put forth to gain enough to support their families; the increased cost of living against which they must daily contend, we must realize that giving so large an amount annually for the maintenance of the Gospel for themselves and their families, and the support of the schools in which their children are trained for a higher and better life, calls for unusual self-denial, and must convince us that there are among them many devoted and reverent souls that are willing to give up many of the comforts of this life—having like Moses “respect unto the recompense of reward” and “esteeming the reproaches of Christ greater riches than all the treasures of Egypt.”

The self-sacrifice of these people, as exhibited in the comparatively large amount they are yearly willing to part with, for Christ's sake, and the Gospels sake, witnesses to the sincerity of their faith, and their readiness to show their faith by their works.

We give below a condensed statement of the extent of our work:

Our Woman's Department, with Mrs. Susan L. Storer as General Secretary and Miss Roberta Barr as her Assistant continues to grow in favor with those with whom they keep in close touch and to whom they are constantly appealing for help—and appealing not in vain.

This Department brought into the General Treasury of the Board this last year $85,236.09 an increase of $1,728.10 over last years total. Of this amount $7,988.50 came from the Sunday School; $9,520.95 came from Young People's Societies, and $65,662.00 came from the Woman's Societies and Miscellaneous sources. This Department while not reaching the $90,000 striven for and prayed for, did never the less make a larger gain in receipts than any other department of the work through the Woman's Societies, having exceeded last years figures by $3,209.01. A very substantial and healthy advance; an advance which gives good ground for the hope that during this coming year the amount aimed for last year may be attained to during the new year we are entering upon.

A full report of the Woman's Department of the Freedman's Board, which is the same as the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board, made annually by the General Secretary of this department, to the Freedmen's Board; and also to the meeting of the Woman's Board held during the sitting of the General Assembly, will appear as an appendix to this report, and should be carefully read by everyone at all interested in what our church is doing for the colored people of the South.

During the last year, by direction of the General Assembly, there was organized the Presbyterian Department of Missionary Education, with headquarters at 156 Fifth Ave., New York, consisting of the Board of Home Missions, the Board of Foreign Missions and the Freedmen's Board, the object of which is to systematize and stimulate Missionary Education among the churches. This Department is only in the beginning of its usefulness, and the hope is that as the church at large becomes better acquainted with the scope of its work, those interested in the study of Missions will find it indispensable.

The Board continues to set apart as a separate fund the contributions that come to its treasury from the former Cumberland churches that through the Union and Re-union of 1907 became part of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. This fund, up to this year, has all gone to aid in some way or other the work of the Colored Cumberland Presbyterian church. We will not be able this year to continue this plan without making some exceptions. The Synod of Texas recommended that the contributions from all the Texas Churches be devoted especially to the interests of Mary Allen Seminary at Crocket, Texas. This recommendation takes out of the list all former Cumberland churches in Texas, and assigns their contributions to another and very worthy object. The Synod of Missouri also recommended that the churches of that state assign their contributions to the payment of the debt on the Berea church of St. Louis, Mo., the only colored Presbyterian church under our care in the state. Our Board will endeavor to adjust these conflicting interests, as far as possible in line with the wishes of the contributing churches.

We have continued also, out of our general funds during this last year to support the professor at Bowling Green Academy of Kentucky, who is at the head of the Theological Department, and who is doing an excellent work in training young men who are candidates for the ministry in the colored Cumberland church—this school being the main educational institute of that organization.

The amount received this year from former Cumberland churches was $1,504.07. We had previously advanced out of our general funds $1,551.18 toward lifting notes that stood as a lien against the Bowling Green school property. We have therefore this year paid out to our colored Cumberland brethren $47.11 in excess of the amount received, on this account.

After the last General Assembly our Board promised the Presbyterian Colored Mission of Louisville, Ky., not under our care or control, a sum of money equal to the amount we might during the year receive from our churches in the Louisville Presbytery. From this source we received $286.72, and have according to promise transmitted an equal amount to the Treasurer of this Mission.

The Farm Homes Scheme near Keysville and connected with Boggs Memorial Academy is in good working order. All the houses are filled with desirable renters. The first year was experimental and yielded considerable valuable knowledge we did not previously have, and also a reasonable interest on the investment. No renter has as yet begun to buy his home. He could not under a previous understanding do so for one year, and until he proved himself an honest industrious farmer. The coming year no doubt will be a better test of the scheme than the last. Rev. J. L. Phelps, the colored minister in charge has no doubt as to the successful outcome.

Mention was made last year of the change of Harbison College from Abbeville, S. C. to Irmo, S. C.—near Columbia, S. C., and the erection of the initial building known as the Administration Building, through the generosity of the Harbison Estate.

The fourth floor of this building was left unfinished, but the first years life of this institution in its new locality, with its restriction to only boys and young men, indicated the need of more room and during this year the fourth floor has been finished and occupied at a cost of a little over fifteen hundred dollars.

The Harbison Estate has also contributed $3,000 toward the building of a comodious house for the President, and many other minor improvements have been looked after, such as are incident always to the starting of a new institution in a new place.

In addition to these things the Institution through the same generous source has come into possession of a large and desirable tract of land, 762 acres contiguous to the College, which is to be divided into small farms and sold to desirable buyers—on a plan somewhat like and somewhat different from the Boggs Academy Farm Homes Scheme.

When a tract is sold, one-tenth of the price is to be paid in cash, the other nine-tenths to be paid in nine years in equal annual instalments—all defered payments to bear a reasonable rate of interest.

Provision is made in each deed for getting rid of any tenant who shall cease to be an orderly member of the community—on terms reasonable to both parties—just compensation being allowed for any improvements made. A very suitable church building, belonging formerly to the colored Baptists, at Irmo, has been purchased, and a Presbyterian church organized in connection with the College. The building cost $900.

McMillan Hall at Mary Allen Seminary at Crockett, Texas which burned last year, has been rebuilt, though not on as large a scale as before.

The Insurance Money $16,000 was used in the erection of the new building. This amount was not found sufficient. About $4,000 more was needed, and for economys sake one story was left unfinished. It will yet require about $2,500 to fully complete the work.

At Swift Memorial College, at Rogersville, Tenn., the need of more room has long been felt. The Board expended this year $8,000 in adding a wing at each end of the main building. One wing for lack of funds was not completed. This wing will be completed this year at a cost of $1,000. The whole improvement when done, including furniture, will cost about $10,500.

Improvements at Biddle University at Charlotte, N. C., including the installing of an Electric Light plant, and the equipment of the Mechanical and Industrial Building with proper machinery, have been accomplished at a cost of $4,000.

The contemplated school building at Chattanooga, Tenn., for which a suitable building lot had been secured last year, with the assistance of friends of our work in that city, both white and colored, for $3,500, has been erected and is now occupied—to the great satisfaction of all the friends of our work at that place. The building was to have cost $4,000, but before we were through with the enterprise we had expended upon it nearer $5,000. Part of the difference was made up by friends in the Woman's Presbyterial of Zanesville, Ohio, through our Woman's Department. The building is all the better for the additional improvements beyond the original plan, and is fully worth all it cost.

The public school authorities of Chattanooga, visited the school after it had been installed in its present quarters, and as a matter of encouragement presented us with double school desks, sufficient in number to furnish two school rooms.

At Aiken, S. C., after some years of patient waiting we have come into possession of a valuable piece of school property, in which we formerly maintained a school for a number of years, but which we had to abandon in order to preserve our own good name. Contrary to our general policy we had been induced to take under our care this school where we did not absolutely own and control the entire property. Our only course was to close the school, as far as we were concerned, and wait. The waiting came to an end within this last year on terms exceedingly favorable to our Board. The property had been in the mean time sadly neglected and it required the expenditure of $1,280 to put the dormitory in good condition. Every thing is now in good shape, and with a good man at the head, we are now only waiting the return of public confidence to make this school one of the best of its class.

The Board has recently received the deed to a farm containing a little more than 73 acres, at Blackville, S. C., from the Estate of the late Mr. E. O. Emerson of Titesville, Pa.

Mr. Emerson, during his life time was much interested in our school at this place, having previously given us a 16 acre plot for its benefit, and for a time $1,200 a year toward the support of the school. He purchased also the 73 acres for the use of the school, intending later to donate it if the school should prosper. Since his death we have renamed the school the "Emerson Industrial Institute," and the members of his family have transferred the farm to the ownership of the Board. The school is in a region thickly populated with Negroes, and has before it the opportunity of doing a good and great work.

At Barber Memorial Seminary, at Anniston, Ala., the entire main building has been re-painted, the interior re-decorated throughout, and a complete system of Electric Lighting installed this past year, at a cost of $2,000, through the generosity of Mrs. Phineas M. Barber, in memory of whose husband the institution was founded.

A plot of ground lying just back of the main building at Swift Memorial College, at Rogersville, Tenn., consisting of about five acres, had been desired by Dr. Franklin, the President of the school for many years, as a valuable adjunct to the Institution. Through the generous offer of Mrs. E. E. Swift the widow of Rv. E. E. Swift, D.D., for whom the school is named, to secure $1,000 toward its purchase, and a similar generous contribution of Dr. Franklin, enabled the Board to come into possession of the same, without any special tax on its treasury.

An additional and valuable strip of land bordering on the land already belonging to Mary Holmes Seminary at West Point, Miss., was secured this year at a cost of $331, made more valuable to this Institution than to any other party because of its protective influence from possible undesirable encroachments.

Various other sums of money larger or smaller have been expended in keeping up and improving the hundreds of houses that are absolutely necessary to the successful carrying on of our work.

Help has been extended during the year toward securing or repairing houses of worship in Charleston, S. C.; Fargo, Ark.; Beardon, Tenn.; Columbia, Tenn.; Ridgway, Va.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Knoxville, Tenn.; Big Stone Gap, Va.; Arcadia, Ga.; Lima, Okla. and Irmo, S. C.

Since last year Rev. R. E. Flickinger, for the last seven years President of what is now Alice Lee Elliot school near Valliant, Okla., has retired from the work at that place to his farm in Iowa to enjoy a well earned rest and spend the evening of his days.

His impress on the school is destined to last as long as the school lasts. His service in securing so large an acreage of land at a time when it could be obtained at a low figure has been invaluable. Time will indicate the wisdom of his persistency in urging upon the Board his ideas along this line, and in getting the Boards consent to let him have his way.

Rev. S. M. Davis, D.D., for fifteen years President of Barber Memorial Seminary will retire from the active control of this institution, and will be Professor of the chair of English Bible and Bible literature, and will also have the title of President Emeritus. Dr. Davis' heart has been bound up in this institution and his pupils have been devoted to him, and the work he has been permitted to do during all these years for those under his care can only be calculated by the Arithmetic of Heaven.

During the year Mr. Vincent Miller, an Elder in Bellefield church, and a member of the Freedmen's Board has been called away by death, in his 83 year. He was faithful through his long life in all the positions assigned to him in the service of his Master. His race was well run; his work was well done; and his crown well won; through Jesus Christ his Lord and Redeemer.

Some years ago Rev. S. J. Fisher, President of our Board prepared for the Boards use a little book entitled "The American Negro." The first edition of this book having been entirely exhausted, Dr. Fisher during this year revised and enlarged the book at the expense of considerable time and care. It is one of his many free and willing contributions to the worker, in which he is so deeply interested, and concerning which, as to its character and over-whelming importance, he is especially qualified to write. Friends of the Negro, wishing to have a wider and more comprehensive knowledge of what our Board and other Christian agencies are doing for them, are advised to read Dr. Fishers book.

Last year we intimated that it was our purpose to place a special Evangelist on the field, in co-operation with the Permanent Committee on Temperance.

This plan has been carried out during the year just closed, with very encouraging success as far as our Board is concerned and we hope also, as far as the Temperance Committee is concerned.

Rev. J. J. Wilson whom we selected after much care and thought, has proved himself in every way, the man for the place. There were many more calls for his service than he could possibly attend to. In many places the Power of the Holy Spirit was felt in the hearts of the people, resulting in the reviving of many who may have grown indifferent, and in the conversion of the unconverted. The additions to our churches on examination during the year numbered 1,852 souls, while last year there were only 1,542 in the same class. It is reasonable to believe that the services of Mr. Wilson were to a considerable extent instrumental under God in bringing about this increased harvest. So much has the Board been impressed with the good work done through the services of Mr. Wilson, that during this next year there will be at least one other Evangelist on the field working along these same lines. A member of our Board has already guaranteed the salary of the new man.

We still believe that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is the Power of God unto Salvation to everyone that believeth, and that there is no problem between man and man, and between man and his Maker that the Gospel will not solve. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

All else we do for this people, in the way of schools and colleges, in the way of literary or industrial training is subordinate to our one great desire and purpose, namely, to bring as many as possible of them to a knowledge of Him whom to know is life eternal. We ask therefore the prayers of all

God's people that He in His own good time may open the windows of Heaven and pour out upon the members of our churches, and the inmates of our schools such blessings as that we may not have room to receive them.

The time of service of the following members expires with this Assembly:

Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Mr. Geo. B. Logan, Rev. David R. Beed, D.D., Jas. C. Gray, Esq., James I. Kay, Esq.

We ask that they be re-elected.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. S. J. FISHER, D.D.,
President

E. P. COWAN,
Cor. Sec. and Treas.

JOHN M. GASTON,
Associate Sec'y.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON FREEDMEN
OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT ATLANTA, GA., MAY 1913

"You- Standing Committee on Missions for Freedmen would respectfully report that the Board has rendered its Forty-eighth Annual Report to this Assembly. It is interesting and suggestive in several respects. It furnishes in careful detail the information which covers the entire work of the Board and the field of its operations.

It breathes an atmosphere of sympathy with the task undertaken, which is indicative of the mind of Christ."

"The vital need of the Negro people is a trained Christian leadership. Their problem can never be solved by elementary education for the masses, or industrial training for those who enter the trades and till the farm. They must have thoroughly trained Christian teachers and ministers of the Gospel, and should also have the other professions represented among their leaders. The men who are conspicuous leaders among the Negroes in industrial training are publicly saying that they expect such organizations as the Presbyterian Church to furnish the ministers and teachers for their people, while they will furnish the farmers, the carpenters and other tradesmen. The task of furnishing this trained leadership is being bravely attempted by our Board, within the limitations of their available resources. Every intelligent student of the problem must realize how supremely important is this phase of the work."

RESOLUTIONS:

1. That this Assembly commend the larger plans for constructive work now being projected by the Freedmen's Board, and urge all our churches to support the work far more generously than heretofore.

2. That the Minutes of the Board be approved for the year just closed.

3. That the work of the Woman's Department be highly commended.

4. That no action be taken by this Assembly upon the overtures from the Presbyteries.

4. That no action be taken by this Assembly upon the overtures from the Presbyteries of Rochester and Lincoln, in view of a conference between the Freedmen's Board and the Board of Home Missions concerning the matters to which they refer.

5. That the following members of the Board, whose terms expire with this Assembly, be elected to succeed themselves; Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Mr. George B. Logan, Rev. David R. Reed, D.D., James C. Gray, Esq., and James I. Kay, Esq.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HOWARD AGNEW JOHNSON,
Chairman of Standing Committee on Freedmen.

The Twenty-Ninth Annual Report

OF THE

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT

OF THE

Board of Missions for Freedmen

OF THE

Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

Since the Kingdom of God and His righteousness takes the first place in Christ's teaching to His disciples, and is vital to our religion, we may say to the audience gathered here, in the words of our President, in his inaugural address: "This is not a day of triumph but a day of dedication. Here muster the forces for humanity and for salvation."

We are not done with the battle against sin. We cannot lay our armor down until the Kingdoms of this world become the Kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ. We must seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

We can only have what we give, and in recounting the records of this last year of service in this mission field, we are showing how our church has been reaching out the helping hand in carrying out the program of Jesus, "Preaching the Gospel to the poor, healing the broken hearted, preaching deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

As we review what has been done, and get a vision of what might have been done, may the spirit of the Lord be upon us to enable us to dedicate ourselves more fully to His service.

The aim of our Department the last year was to reach $90,000 that our Board might be able to "lengthen the cords and strengthen the stakes" in our school work; but again we have to record disappointment, for while we do have a small gain over the total amount received last year, yet we fall far below our aim. We have not quite reached the amount we received two years ago. Then we felt we could safely ask and expect an advance of $4,000, which would give us the $90,000 which our Board had asked us to secure.

The following figures will show the amounts received through our Woman's Department and from whence they came:

Woman's Societies.....	$65,662.00	an increase of	$3,368.42
Sabbath Schools.....	7,958.50	an increase of	817.24
Young Peoples.....	9,520.95	a decrease of	1,087.47
Individuals .....	1,007.25	a decrease of	1,019.90
Misc. Sources.....	907.39	a decrease of	677.19
Legacies .....	150.00	a decrease of	527.46
Total.....	$85,236.09	an increase of	$1,727.10

3591 Woman's Societies contributed—133 more in number than last year. 675 Sabbath Schools contributed through the Woman's Department and 661 sent direct to the Board, making 1046 Sabbath Schools contributing to Freedmen, an increase of 28. The Young People's Societies contributing are 1082, a decrease of 64. We regret this very much. The Young People will soon be the church bearers, and should be regular loyal supporters of all the mission Boards.

These figures show the money received and the number of organizations interested in this work of giving the Gospel to the Negroes of our fields. There is still much land to be possessed, an obligation resting on every organization of every church.

We now have 136 schools with 16,427 students, a gain of 5 schools, and over 1000 students. This record will not be complete if we do not speak of the hundreds who had to be refused admittance because of no room. Where so little advance is made in offerings, the multitudes go hungry.

School Work

This year has been one of blessings for our field. No calamities have been permitted to visit our schools, such as we have had to record some years. The winter has been mild, this making fuel expenses lighter, and things more comfortable.

The reports from our various schools which come to the Board monthly have been very satisfactory, showing earnestness of purpose and diligent effort.

Much spiritual interest has been manifest in schools and in churches, many students professing faith in Christ and uniting with our own or other denominations. Our teachers are striving to implant high ideals which will help to mold the lives of these students for the service of God and of righteousness.

It is no light responsibility to be leading over 16,000 students to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Every little beam of light reflected through these lives will help to open the blind eyes, lift up the bruised hearts and preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Have you had a share in furnishing the oil for these human lamps?

Many graduates will go out from our advanced schools to take their places in life for the uplift of their fellowmen; some to preach, some to teach, some to become home makers, others to various trades and daily toil. They go to live the Christian life, and become leaders of their people.

A Christian citizen always makes for the betterment of the community. As we strengthen the homes of our land we strengthen our nation, and in such work our schools have not labored in vain.

Many of our students go out to seek employment for the summer that they may earn money to return to school again in the fall, and many more find that the necessity of earning a living precludes much school privilege; perhaps nearly two-thirds of our students are in this latter class. One or two terms of school mean their education, hence it is so necessary that the Bible be a daily study, and that Christian living be specially emphasized. The school life is the best time to teach them to put first things first, giving them that which will count in Eternity.

Building Fund

This was used to its full limit this last year, and did not reach as far as we had planned. When the money for this purpose is done the work must stop and wait another year. Building material and labor cost so much and very often run over our calculations and these things have to be handled with great care that no debt be incurred.

The wishes and plans cannot always be carried out, and the schools and we have to be satisfied with what the money can do, not what we wish, and equipment and furnishing have to be held down to the greatest necessities.

McMillan Hall at Mary Allen Seminary, Crockett, Texas, was burned over a year ago, and had to be rebuilt last summer. The insurance would not begin to replace such a building as the one destroyed, so plans had to be studied with the greatest care and economy, delays occurred, and the building was not completed until November, a month after school opened, but at last was in condition to be used, which greatly relieved the inconvenience and strain upon teachers and students. When the building is entirely completed this summer this school will again be in shape to do its best work.

Swift College, Rogersville, Tenn., has been begging for years for more room, to relieve their crowded conditions. Last summer two wings were planned on the main building, and one of these completed and furnished, which relieved the crowded situation to some extent, and this summer we will have to take some of our precious building fund to complete the other wing. This College has been fortunate in securing, through the generosity of Mrs. Swift and Rev. Dr. Franklin, several acres of good land adjoining the school, which will furnish work for the boys, and a good garden.

A nice new building was erected for the Newton School, Chattanooga, Tennessee. Zanesville Presbyterial, which pays Mrs. Wilson's salary there, very generously gave an extra offering of $600, that more conveniences and better equipment could be had, which all greatly appreciated.

Two modest school houses were erected, one at Chesterfield, S. C., the other in Va., that the ministers and wives might carry on their school work with more comfort and convenience. It is not an easy thing to teach 100 to 150 children in a small church building.

Many other such places are waiting their turn. At Coulter Memorial School, Cheraw, S. C., we helped with some improvements but not at all what their work demands. Rev. G. W. Long says that if the Board will give him the building and teachers he can have 500 students.

At Gillespie School, Cordele, Ga., some improvements were made and more needed. Our schools soon outgrow their accommodations. Repairs were made in several other schools and still the call goes on. Our Building Fund is just as necessary as our salaries and scholarships, so that those begging for admission may be taken care of and taught the ways of righteousness.

Industrial Work

At the General Assembly in Louisville, Ky., our Board had an exhibit of some of the work done in various schools, which was very creditable to our students, an education to those who took the time to examine the display.

Many persons have a very vague idea of what the work of our Board is, and as "Seeing is believing" we again are having the exhibit at the General Assembly, as much of our school industries as we can bring to such a place. We cannot bring much of the cooking, the laundry work, the house keeping taught to the girls, nor the farming, the blacksmithing, the brick laying, the printing and other things taught to the boys, but what we do have will surely make you want to know more. Be sure to visit this exhibit in the Freedmen's room in the Tabernacle, and see and learn much of interest, "Do not despise the day of small things" in this field, they are climbing.

The Freedmen's cause has been presented faithfully where ever opportunity affords by your Secretaries, and also by teachers from the field, in Synodicals, Presbyterials and local Societies, with the hope of educating the people in the work and its needs, and inciting new interest, and helping them to realize the obligations resting on every organization of our Presbyterian church to support this Board.

Loyalty to your own denomination does not make you narrow. We are one regiment under one great Commander, who is leading His army through the whole world conquering Satan's Kingdom, and for the establishment of His own. His ideal "The whole world for Christ" and as His army is faithful just so fast will His Kingdom be hastened.

Canvassing our church is not play, and to our teachers from the South it is a new and trying experience. The travel, the rush and crowds of the cities, the many trains, the "Subways," the "Elevated," the great buildings—and addressing white audiences—all this is so different from their usual life that the wonder is that they can do it at all. All who hear them will testify that their efforts have been most creditable and interesting, and show such a Christian spirit and bearing that deserves special commendation.

May all these efforts tell for good in your offerings and your prayers, that the Board may be able to reach out to the "land yet to be possessed."

"If you have anything to give
That anothers joy may live
Give it."

You have Christ the precious Saviour, what greater joy can you give and have than to share Him with these who so long for the light. To neglect to do so will be our undoing.

Knowing

"The April Home Mission Monthly," the "Home Mission Extra for April," the May "Over Sea and Land" will all give you glimpses of our field and of your work. We thank the Woman's Board and the Editors of the Magazines for this yearly privilege, which our Board much appreciates.

We also thank the Treasurer of the Woman's Board for her kindness and patience in transmitting the Freedmen's funds to our Board each month. We cannot pray for this work to grow less, but we do pray for blessings upon all those who care for it.

Our study book "The American Negro," our leaflets, our stereopticon slides, and any information we can give are all at the command of the Woman's Societies, the Young People and Sabbath Schools, something for each. What ever you want ask for it, write to us at 513 Bessemer Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. Please do not forget and write to the Woman's Board for Freedmen information or literature—for they just have the expense and labor of forwarding your requests to us.

Box Work

This has its place in our field, and helps to make comfortable many poor people, but do not let it take the place of money contributions.

Evangelistic

Our missionary Rev. J. J. Wilson has through the year done great good to schools and churches. The Holy Spirit has been present with power in his meetings with blessed results. The fruits of such a work are so apparent that he has far more calls than he can possibly fill, and a kind friend has offered a salary for another man, that more of the 16 Presbyteries may be visited.

The Negro needs just what the white man needs, to be helped to a closer walk with God, and this comes through the Holy Spirit's power and Christian fellowship.

Four of our teachers have been called to the higher service during the year. Two of them had been teaching for about twenty-four years.

We thank all the Synodicals for their faithful support—several made advance—and for this we especially commend them. Had all done so we would have had our $90,000. The advance must be by personal effort, each giving a small amount more than the year before, and by securing offerings from their Young People and Sabbath Schools. This will all depend on each local society—for these are the prime movers in missions—Presbyterial and Synodical can not advance unless the Local Auxiliary does. See to it that you know what is asked of every organization.

The Freedmen's apportionments were sent out in January with those of the Woman's Board to Synodical officers, they to apportion the amount Presbyterially, so that by this time all should know that for the third time we are aiming for $90,000 for salaries, scholarships and building fund. We are trusting this to the good will of every organization of our church. We have a right to ask this, a small share of your offerings, because our General Assembly recommends it, "Freely ye have received, freely give."

Our Board's receipts have fallen off over $20,000 this last year, so plans for extension of our work will have to again wait. This shortage is in legacies, so it is comforting to think that the churches are making some advance.

We are standing on the threshold of another year of service. It is God's work and we commend it to Him and to our church organizations to carry out His command.

The day of our visitation is here. Do we realize that Jesus visits us in every opportunity, in every call? Will He say of us, "If thou hadst only known in this thy day, the things that belong to thy peace?" Some day they will be hid from our eyes.

Will you give and pray that the work may be prospered and more schools made possible?

The great Mosaic of God's Kingdom is now being made. Let us gather up the bits and fragments in this field that nothing be lost, and bring them to Him that He may fit them into the beautiful finished picture of the Kingdom of God and His righteousness which is the answer to that prayer "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." It will come. Jesus never would have taught that prayer were it not to be fulfilled.

Our concern should be, are we helping or hindering?

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN L. STORER, Secretary.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS.

To this General Assembly the College Board has the honor of submitting its Thirtieth Annual Report. Three decades have passed since a new agency was established for the purpose of promoting the cause of Christian education, particularly in the growing West; and while the Church has not yet overtaken its great opportunities, there is reason to rejoice in what has been accomplished. This thirty-year period has been more fully reviewed in a pamphlet entitled, "Presbyterian Colleges," which the Board has just issued, but the Board summarizes here the growth of the thirty years.

In 1883 there were but twenty Presbyterian colleges, including Princeton and Hamilton. In round numbers the Church now has sixty colleges. To be sure, a few of them are not fully up to present-day standards, but it is well known that the college standard has been raised greatly during the last generation.

In 1883 the report of the Commissioner of Education gave the value of the property and endowment of Presbyterian colleges as $5,541,000. The present value of the property and endowment of our colleges is approximately $32,000,000.

In 1883 the reports showed 2,212 students in the college departments of Presbyterian institutions. To-day we have 7,770 college students and a total of 21,731 students in all departments of our Presbyterian colleges.

Of all the colleges now in connection with the College Board, eight were received with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and thirty-two were organized or developed from academies into colleges since the organization of the Board.

During this same period the Board has received and now holds trust funds, designated and undesignated, to the amount of $1,003,000, the income of which is to be used for the promotion of Christian education.

The great and pressing needs of our colleges and the large sections of the country not yet provided with educational facilities of high grade and of positive Christian type so impress us all with the sense of responsibility for the work yet to be done that we sometimes lose sight of the progress made, but it is evident that much has been already accomplished and that the Board and the Church have good reason to thank God and take courage.

EDUCATIONAL POLICY OF THE CHURCH.

A year ago the official conference of our college presidents requested the College Board to hold conferences with the Board of Education for the purpose of presenting to the Church "a consistent educational policy."

A Committee of this Board held conferences with a committee selected by the Board of Education, and certain resolutions were agreed upon by the representatives of the two Boards. Though the second conference, held on April 30, came too late for the College Board to have opportunity formally to act on the resolutions agreed to by its representatives, the resolutions are printed as a part of this report and are as follows:

"Resolved, I. That it is the sense of this Conference of representatives of the College Board and the Board of Education that the maintenance of the Christian college is essential to a Christian civilization and fundamental to the life of the Church in the development of the body of trained leadership for the work at home and abroad, and that the gifts of Christians can be no more worthily bestowed than upon Christian colleges which are raising their standards of efficiency both in their cultural courses and in their output of ministerial and lay workers.

“ II. That the care for the religious life of Presbyterian students, whether attending State universities, Church colleges or independent colleges, is of vital importance, and that in prosecuting this work the Board of Education deserves the support of all the Church.

“ III. That the distinction between the work of the Board of Education and the College Board is clearly and definitely made in the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1909, viz.:

“ ‘ The College Board has to do with Presbyterian institutions, and not with students, while the Board of Education has to do with students in all kinds of higher institutions, and not with the endowment or helping of any kind of educational institutions, except only that it may co-operate with Synods which may seek to establish or maintain houses for the religious care of Presbyterian students in institutions that are not under Presbyterian control.’ (Page 221, par. 2, Minutes of the Assembly, 1909.)

“ We believe that both Boards are living up to the Assembly’s definition of their relative scope of work.”

It is believed that by these conferences progress has been made toward “ a consistent educational policy.” It is conceivable that the Church might have an inconsistent policy or two educational policies mutually repellant. If, for instance, the Church should be in the attitude of calling upon its members to contribute for the support of Christian colleges while at the same time it encouraged its youth to attend only State institutions, it could properly be adjudged inconsistent. But this is not the case. The Church as a whole and all of its educational agencies are committed to the historic position that the Church should support, and that its members should patronize, the Christian college as the very best and the most effective institution for providing a full and well-rounded education.

It is possible that the reason why some have concluded that the Church is encouraging two contradictory policies is because while the Church has recently placed great, though not undue, emphasis upon the importance of caring for the religious development of students in State universities, it has not at the same time placed sufficient emphasis upon the necessity for providing institutions distinctively Christian in their teaching and atmosphere. This Board is of the opinion that any misunderstanding as to the policy of the Church will be allayed if the Church will address itself anew to the important task of instructing its whole constituency concerning the incompleteness of an education which lacks the religious element.

New Conditions.

The Church as it expresses itself through its judicatories and agencies has not swerved from its historic policy; but we must remember that in the educational world, as elsewhere, times have changed, and the people at large always become affected by, and give expression to, current ideals, even though such ideals never become fixed in the minds of leaders. At the time when the educational policy of the Church was first outlined there was practically no education by the State. Indeed, it was the Church which taught the State the duty of providing for the education of its youth. Now, however, the greater part of all education is provided by the State. Along the way from the old to the new condition of affairs, the Church encountered an educational definition and an educational ideal which were practically unheard of at the beginning of the journey. The new definition was to the effect that education has nothing to do with religion, and the new ideal suggested that all education, save theological, might well be handed over to the State. There are certainly some who hold to the view that the Church should go entirely out of business as an educational force in the college field, and others ask the question whether it is longer necessary to maintain the Church college; but it is safe to say to-day that the newer definition has been practically abandoned. The educational world is nearly of one accord in the view that the dominant aim of all education must be the formation of character.

Possibly the Presbyterian Church has been taking it for granted that all Presbyterians—long noted for their educational leadership—are rooted and grounded in the faith that the Christian college is essential not only to the life of the Church but to the well-being of the State. But, in view of changed conditions and the confusion of thought which has resulted, it becomes imperative that the Church should present anew the reason for the faith that is in her, and so earnestly and effectively that all of her members will be convinced that the reason is good and sufficient. The members of the Church must come to the conviction that the highest type of Christian patriotism demands that the Christian college shall be not only maintained, but speedily so equipped and endowed that it may fill the large part which is required of it in these days of astonishing educational development.

The principle upon which the Church undertakes educational work is that there can be no complete education without religion.

The aim of the Church in the work of education is that there may be produced a trained leadership and a virile and intelligent Christian citizenship.

The methods by which the Church seeks to accomplish its aim may be reduced to two: (1) Definite religious instruction, and (2) the creation of an environment of positive Christian influence.

The agencies of the Presbyterian Church for the accomplishment of this end (excluding missionary fields) are three:

The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Board of Education and the College Board.

The institutions through which the aim is to be accomplished are the home, the local church and the school.

The Agencies for the Work.

Coming now to consider more particularly the agencies through which the educational work of the Church is carried forward, that portion which must be conducted primarily by the home and the local church has been committed to the oversight of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, and its scope and method have been comprehensively outlined by the General Assembly, particularly through the recent excellent reports of the Special Committee on Religious Education. With reference to this part of the task, it will be generally admitted that the Church holds that while children live in their homes the primary agency for religious instruction must be the home itself, supplemented by the Sabbath-school and other organizations of the local church.

The remainder of the educational work of the Church has to do with students who are in schools above the grammar grades, the rule being that during the school terms these students are living away from their homes. This portion of the task has been divided between the Board of Education and the College Board, and the line of demarcation has been sharply drawn by the Assembly, which has declared that the work of the Board of Education is to be with and for individual students and the work of the College Board with and for educational institutions, the word "institutions" being further limited by the fact that no agency of the Church can establish, assist or shape the policies of any institution of learning except those which are vitally allied with the Church.

In view of this division of labor, it becomes the duty of the Board of Education to look after the spiritual welfare of students wherever they may be found, whether singly or in groups, to the end that such students may become Christian citizens and, especially, that many of them may become Christian leaders not only in the ministry and on mission fields, but in all walks of life. On the other hand, it is the duty of the College Board to encourage the provision and to assist in the maintenance of institutions which are designed especially to give the country Christian leaders, and to see to it, so far as lies in its power, that these institutions are of such a type, with respect to both their educational standards and their positive Christian influence, as actually to produce the character of citizenship and leadership for the production of which the Church maintains these schools.

State versus Church Schools.

From this analysis it appears that the activity of the Church in behalf of the religious life of students at State Universities falls under the supervision of the Board of Education rather than of the College Board, for the Board of Education deals with individual students and not with educational institutions. The Church has no power to control a State institution in such a manner that it will provide religious instruction and environment; hence, whatever is done for the religious culture of students in such an institution must be done by an outside agency supplementing the work of the university and not by the university itself. It is no part of the policy of the Presbyterian Church to encourage undergraduate students to attend institutions which fail to provide for religious instruction and environment in preference to those which do make such provision, but it is part of the policy of the Church to attempt to bring religious influence to bear on students wherever they may be found. While the Church must seek to minister effectively to students who are in institutions which make no direct effort for the religious training and development of the youth committed to their care, yet the Church and all three of the agencies which are appointed to promote the religious education of youth are firmly convinced that the most effective religious education can come only as a part of the work of the educational institution itself. When a great educational institution maintained by the liberality of the State is unable to make upon the student, day after day, the impression that religious culture is an essential part of that progress by which the personality is developed into true manhood, then the most earnest efforts of the Church for the religious development of such students are seriously handicapped by virtue of the very attitude of that college or university. Therefore the Church has always urged and does now urge upon parents the duty of placing their boys and girls in those Christian colleges which aim to give a complete rather than a partial education, for to provide education minus religion is to launch upon the sea of life a full-rigged ship without a rudder.

A Work of Synthesis.

While the educational work of the Church has been somewhat thoroughly analyzed and portions of the whole committed to special agencies, we venture the suggestion that there is a work of synthesis which has been somewhat neglected, and this work, in our judgment, can best be done by the three Boards working together in the closest coöperation. The cause of Christian education is one, and it is only as the fundamental principle upon which the Church builds all of its educational work is laid deep in the hearts of its members that any of the parts of the whole task can be carried to successful issue.

Unless people believe that education is dangerously incomplete without religion, they will not give diligent heed to the necessity for the religious instruction of their children in home and Sunday-school and young people's society, nor will they provided adequate equipment for such instruction. Indeed, it is only this faith which will revive the family altar and cause men and women to devote themselves to the perfection of the Sunday-school system.

Unless Christians accept the principle that religion is essential to a complete education, they will not give of their means for the maintenance of Christian colleges nor for the provision of a religious atmosphere and influence at our State universities.

Unless the people believe in the necessity of religious instruction, there will soon be no material for the Christian ministry and no demand for such a ministry even if it could be provided.

Fundamental, then, to the specific work of these three agencies of the Church is a propaganda which shall awaken to new life the slumbering tradition that Presbyterians really believe in Christian education, and we believe the three Boards can and should devise a plan by which they may work together as one in laying upon the hearts of the people the importance of giving to the youth of to-day that vision and that power which made our forefathers so influential in shaping the destinies of the nation and in leading the Church into world-wide missionary activities.

PLACE OF THE CHURCH COLLEGE.

It is now generally agreed that the burden of religious education is on the Church. We are told that the Church must make provision for such education or our youth must go without. The Special Committee on Religious Education has emphasized this truth.

It is agreed, too, that while children live in the home the Church must seek to discharge its duty as religious educator mainly through the home itself and the organizations of the local church. But when the boy leaves home, what then? Has the Church no further duty? Rather it has a double duty. In brief, the duty is this: it should provide an institution which, as nearly as possible, shall take the place of the home.

It may not be the duty of the Church to educate a boy in science and art or even in the humanities, but it is the duty of the Church to develop youth into Christian manhood. Therefore, because multitudes of boys and girls do go away from home in order to be educated in science and art, the Church must maintain truly Christian schools in which the boys and girls may receive this higher education and at the same time be developed and strengthened in Christian character. Nor is the end in view accomplished merely by adding religious instruction to the other courses. Something more than instruction is needed. It is the wise and loving guidance of the young life in its development, that it may steadily grow unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

For the Making of Manhood.

The fact should be emphasized that the Church is in the business of educating youth for the purpose of making MEN. No one should object if institutions founded and fostered by the Church enlarge their scope, but the aim of the Church and the reason why its members are called upon to maintain schools are not to provide only special training, but to develop boys and girls into cultured Christian manhood and womanhood. The Church could afford to leave special and professional training to other institutions as it leaves ministerial training to the theological seminaries, but all experience goes to prove that for the development of Christian manhood the very best educational institution is the true Christian college, where are most nearly supplied the influence, direction and instruction which should characterize the Christian home, and the Church must maintain institutions of this type.

The important period in the life of a youth, the period which gives the final color to his character, purpose and world-view, may be roughly described as the period between the ages of fourteen and twenty. Through the greater part of this period he is a boy. During the latter part of it the youth may be described as alternately boy and man, for it is a transition period during which he is neither boy nor man all the time. At this time he requires the most careful and sympathetic guidance for the proper development of the manhood which is struggling for supremacy, and his needs during this period can best be met by an educational institution which is designed especially for the purpose.

The true university and the professional school exist primarily for the training of persons who have attained to manhood. Their methods are usually such as are suitable to graduates rather than undergraduates, and their emphasis is likely to be upon subjects rather than upon individual development; hence their general atmosphere cannot be so beneficial to the boy (he may be more accurately described as the near-man) as is the atmosphere of an institution which aims primarily to develop individual lives. As such development is the business of the Church, it is to the maintenance of institutions of the latter type that the Church should bend its energies, and through such institutions it should exercise its educational ministry. Upon the faithfulness with which it discharges this duty depends in large measure the future of the Church, the perpetuity of its benevolent institutions, the production of a Christian citizenship and the stability of the nation itself.

STANDARDIZATION.

A year ago the conference of presidents of Presbyterian colleges agreed upon a standard for our Presbyterian institutions, and during the year the Board has devoted much attention to the task of learning the exact facts concerning each of our educational institutions, in order that they might be classified under this standard.

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT.

During the year the Board has formally erected a Department of Publicity and Extension, the purpose of which is to diffuse more generally a knowledge of the work and needs of our Presbyterian colleges and especially to lay upon the hearts of ministers and laymen the importance of a truly Christian education for the sake of a strong Christian citizenship, and to interest the friends of Christian education in the financial welfare of our colleges. This is part of the Board's effort to carry out the recommendations of the Assembly of 1911 for the enlargement of the work.

EDUCATION WEEK.

The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to grant the request made in the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has previously approved of the observance of Young People's Day, the Day of Prayer for Colleges, Education Day and Vocation Day, and

WHEREAS, The Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, the Board of Education and the College Board are agreed that they all have a vital interest in laying upon the heart of the Church the importance of religious education and the guidance of the youth of the Church into Christian life and service; therefore,

Resolved, That this Board hoping for the concurrence of the other two Boards, requests the General Assembly to designate the eight days beginning with the first Sunday in February, 1914, as Education Week, the first Sunday to be observed as Young People's Day and Vocation Day, the second Sunday as Education Day, and the Thursday between as the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges.

LEGACIES AND GIFTS.

During the year the Board was the grateful recipient of a further payment of $20,949.25 on the legacy of the late John Stewart Kennedy, and of the following other legacies: Elizabeth Boyd, Carrollton, Ohio, $500; Mary W. Laird, Lewisburg, Pa., $100; Amelia S. Perrin, Carrollton, Ill., $41.83, and the estate of W. W. Atterbury, of New York, $7,500. In addition, it received the sum of $950 from the estate of the late Dr. Samuel Hall, of New York, designated for Washington College.

Through these legacies the works of those who have entered into rest still follow them and, on behalf of the Church, the Board expresses its appreciation of the thoughtfulness which made this provision for the cause of Christian education. Living donors have also contributed with great liberality during the year, and the Board recognizes with much gratitude the evidences of increasing devotion to this cause on the part of both individuals and congregations; a complete summary of the gifts is set forth in the Report of the Treasurer, and the Board hereby expresses its thanks to the 5,366 churches which contributed a total of $111,358.96. From the Board, through the Board and from individuals directly, the colleges received last year the splendid total of $1,281,445.73.

ASSOCIATE SECRETARY.

The Board at a meeting held on September 24, 1912, elected the Rev. James E. Clarke, D.D., of Nashville, Tenn., Associate Secretary, to fill the place of Gilbert A. Beaver, resigned. Dr. Clarke has served as a member of the Board for seven years, giving much attention to the reorganization of the work as directed by the General Assembly of 1904. He is particularly well informed on college conditions in the Synods of the South and Southwest, and to that large part of our territory he will give the principal part of his time, having headquarters in Nashville, Tenn.

TREASURER.

Mr. Henry L. Smith, a member of this Board and an elder in the Brick Church of New York, now retired from the responsibilities of business manager for Charles Scribner's Sons, has been elected Treasurer of this Board, and acts as such without salary or other compensation, freely giving his services for the cause of Christian education. The Church is to be congratulated on thus securing Mr. Smith's business experience and Christian training, and the Board wishes to put on record its appreciation of his valuable services during the past year. Mr. Brauer, our Office Secretary, still continues as Assistant Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Board records with deep sorrow the loss by death of another of its faithful members, Hon. Edward O. Emerson, of Titusville Pa., a member of the Board since 1904 and for a much longer period a liberal giver for the support of Presbyterian colleges.

The terms of office of the following members expire at this time:

Ministers.

John B. Laird, D.D., Philadelphia.
John Timothy Stone, D.D., Chicago.
Frederick E. Stockwell, Newburgh, N. Y.

Laymen.

Frederick W. Garvin, Esq., New York.
Elisha H. Perkins, Baltimore, Md.
Hon. J. A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.
James S. Hubbard, Chicago, Ill.
John P. Munn, M.D., New York.

The following are nominated to the Assembly for re-election:

Ministers.

John B. Laird, D.D., Philadelphia.
John Timothy Stone, D.D., Chicago.
Frederick E. Stockwell, Newburgh, N. Y.

Laymen.

Frederick W. Garvin, Esq., New York.
Elisha H. Perkins, Baltimore, Md.
Hon. J. A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.
James S. Hubbard, Chicago, Ill.
John P. Munn, M.D., New York.

The following are nominated for election: Edwin J. Gillies, to fill the place of E. O. Emerson, deceased; Rev. Edwin A. McAlpin, Jr., to fill the place of J. E. Clarke, resigned to become associate secretary; S. Edward Young, D.D., to fill the place of Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., resigned, and A. A. Hyde, to fill the place of H. B. McCormick, resigned.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

ROBERT MACKENZIE, Secretary.

NEW YORK, April 29, 1913.

THE CONSTITUTION AND POLICY OF THE BOARD.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD.

AS AMENDED IN MAY, 1909.

At its meeting held at Buffalo, New York, May, 1904, the General Assembly adopted a Constitution for this Board, which is as follows:

1. The name of this Board shall be THE COLLEGE BOARD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, and the general work shall be such as is indicated by its title. It may aid academies in its discretion in the matter of current support, but shall not seek endowment for such institutions.

2. The Board shall consist of twenty-seven members, one-half of whom shall be and two-thirds of whom may be laymen. They shall be divided into three classes, one class to be elected each year by the General Assembly. The Board shall have power to fill vacancies.

3. The officers of the Board shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

4. The headquarters of the Board shall be at New York and the Executive Committee of the Board shall be residents in New York or in the immediate vicinity.

5. The College Board shall be the agency of the Church for the following purposes:

(a) To secure and receive moneys and other property for the benefit of any needy college or university which is (1) organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or (2) required by its charter to have at least two-thirds of its Board of Control members of said Church, or (3) actually under Presbyterian approval at the time of receiving assistance.*

(b) To coöperate with such institutions as it is authorized to assist, as promote and maintain high educational standards, spiritual culture and thorough Bible teaching, to the end that persons contributing funds for such institutions may be assured that their students will be under positive Christian influences.

* "The words 'Presbyterian approval' mean that a synod or presbytery may send a committee of visitation to any college to learn the quality of the work done by it, and to report thereon; or it may receive a written or an oral report by the president or other appointed officer of the college on the quality of the work done, and express its approval or disapproval accordingly, and transmit its findings to this Board for the adjustment of its relations to said college."—Adopted by the General Assembly, 1917.

(c) To awaken interest, diffuse information, and stimulate prayer in behalf of the institutions which it is authorized to assist.

(d) To coöperate with the institutions which it is authorized to aid, and assist in securing endowments for them.

(e) To coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for such new institutions as it is authorized to assist, and in consolidating weak institutions.

(f) To decide for which of the institutions it is authorized to assist it will seek endowments, and to which of them it will make grants for current expenses.

(g) Secure an annual offering from the churches.

6. The Board shall call an Annual Conference of Presbyterian Colleges to advise the Board and to coöperate in securing the desired results.

7. The funds received by the Board shall be devoted either to the endowment or to the current expenses of colleges, and shall be secured:

(a) By special applications for endowment, under the approval and general direction of the Board.

(b) By annual offerings from the churches.

8. (a) Every college hereafter (1883) established, as a condition of receiving aid, shall be organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or by perpetual Charter provision shall have two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church.

(b) In case of colleges already established, and not included under the above provisions, appropriations for endowment shall be so made as to revert to the Board whenever these colleges shall pass from Presbyterian control.

(c) In all other respects the disbursement of funds by the Board shall be wholly discretionary with the Board, both as to amount and direction, subject always to the control of the General Assembly.

(d) The Board shall endeavor to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause.

9. It shall be the policy of the Board to limit the number of colleges in any region, so as to secure strong institutions rather than many weak ones, and in carrying out this policy colleges may be consolidated when deemed advisable by the Board. Colleges coming into existence without the approval of the Board, and colleges which refuse to consolidate when so directed by the Board may be denied aid from the Board.

THE POLICY OF THE BOARD.

The Policy of the Board is based on the Constitution framed for it by the Church through the General Assembly in 1883, 1904, 1908, 1909 and is summed up in one word—Co-operation.

The Board will co-operate (1) with givers, (2) with Presbyterian Colleges, and (3) with both givers and colleges to secure co-operation between them.

1. Co-operation with Givers.

The Board will endeavor to awaken, inform and stimulate the Church in behalf of Presbyterian Colleges.

It will offer the fullest and most reliable information, both about the college cause and the individual college, and regarding the relation of the Church to education and its colleges.

It will in no way try to dominate givers and their gifts, but will seek only to ascertain and carry out the desires of givers.

It will seek to safeguard funds committed to it or secured with its co-operation, as givers may desire, or, when no desire is expressed, as the interests of the colleges and the Church require.

It will, when desired to do so, act as Trustee of funds committed to it, investing them with paramount consideration of safety; holding them permanently if the giver so directs, or, if the giver prefer, temporarily, until conditions prescribed by the giver are fully met, disbursing the income derived from them in accordance with the wish of the giver.

It is instructed by the Assembly to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its Treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums, and from what sources, are given to this cause.

2. Co-operation with Colleges.

A Presbyterian College is one which either (1) Is organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, owned or controlled by an ecclesiastical corporation of the Church ; or (2) By perpetual charter provision has two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church; or (3) Is affiliated with this Church by the predominance of adherents of this Church in its foundations, Board of Control, Faculty and student body. The term "College" is commonly used herein as including universities.

The Board will seek neither to dominate colleges nor to carry them. It will co-operate with them.

Colleges not yet recognized in the Board's report, desiring approval and co-operation, are requested to send to the Board's office for blanks on which report of their ecclesiastical, educational and financial status may be submitted to the Board.

The Annual College Conference will be asked to act in an advisory capacity toward the Board in all matters in which an ecclesiastical corporation, administering trust funds, may properly accept information, opinions and advice from a body of experts in educational matters and college detail.

The Board will seek primarily to stimulate colleges to self-help, and their home fields to the utmost limit of support and endowment because a college, to have a hopeful future, must ordinarily be strongly based in the affection, prayer and giving of its vicinage.

To co-operate in securing endowment for the colleges is an important function of the Board and to that it will give much attention. Co-operation with colleges which have little or no endowment, in securing aid for current expenses until their endowments are reasonably adequate, is a necessary missionary function, and for this cause the Board solicits and expects annual collections from all our churches.

AID FOR CURRENT EXPENSES.

Applications.

The Board will consider applications for annual aid toward current expenses of such colleges as are organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. or as are required by their charters to have at least two-thirds of their Boards of Control members of said Church.

Application is to be made by the Trustees of the College, in formal meeting, filling out a blank which the Secretary will furnish on request and will send to aided institutions April 1. Applications must be in the Secretary's hands by May 1. If the Trustees cannot meet in time for this, the Executive Committee should send an application as nearly as possible like that which the Trustees will probably adopt ; and the formal application, adopted by the Trustees, should reach the Secretary as soon as possible. Applications made for the first time should be accompanied by the fullest information regarding the history and prospects of the institution.

Board Action on Applications.

The Annual Board Meeting for voting on applications is held on the first Tuesday in June. Institutions withholding applications beyond the date of the meeting, and giving no satisfactory explanation of the delay, will be regarded as expecting no aid from the Board for the ensuing year. Applications not on file for the Board at its June meeting cannot be acted on until the next meeting, in November, and then only if unexpected funds for that purpose have come into its possession.

The Board will vote at the Annual Meeting appropriations to the amount covering its expected available resources from church collections for the current Church year.

Synod's Approval and Endorsement of Applications.

Applications for aid for current expenses must have the Synod's formal approval of the college endorsed thereon; applications of academies, similarly the approval of their Presbyteries. The endorsement of Synod or Presbytery is not the endorsement of the amount asked for, but the endorsement of the college as worthy to receive aid for current expense from the Board, in such amount as the Board may be able to grant. Yet, as there is often no meeting of Synod or Presbytery held between the making of the application by the Trustees and the June Board meeting, unendorsed applications will be voted on at the June meeting; but exact duplicate applications, bearing the endorsement of the Synod or Presbytery at the fall meeting, must be sent to the Board before any appropriation will be confirmed.

Payment of Appropriations.

Payment of one-half of the appropriation for the year will ordinarily be made in December, and the second-half payment will be made as soon as possible after the close of the Church year.

Church collections sent to the Board designated for a given college will be paid to that college, but will be deducted from the appropriation voted by the Board, except where definite arrangements have been made by the Board with the college to receive such designated amounts.

Any solicitation of church collections by a college without a distinct prearrangement with the Board must necessarily decrease the Board's ability to pay in full the appropriations it has voted. The amount thus diverted from the Board's treasury will be deducted from the appropriations pro rata.

Conditions of Payment of Appropriations.

When the conditions governing an appropriation are not met before December 15th of the year in which the appropriation was voted by the Board, the appropriation shall lapse. The Treasurer is authorized to pay appropriations only on condition that a college shall have sent to the Board by Sept. 15th a satisfactory Information Report on the blank furnished by the Board, of the preceding college year; and shall satisfy the Board in the following particulars:

(1) That it requires all regular students to take systematic Bible study as a part of the curriculum required for graduation in accordance with the agreement between the College Board and the Annual College Conference held on May 16, 1906; 144 hours are the minimum for required Bible study in the college course, 36 hours are to be given each year;

(2) That it has on its staff only such officers and teachers as exert a positive Christian influence over the students;

(3) That its financial administration is conservative and safe;

(4) That it has used every reasonable effort to secure funds from its vicinage, within agreed presbyterial or synodical lines ;

(5) That it carries adequate insurance on its buildings and their valuable contents;

(6) That no mortgage is placed upon the property without previous consent in writing by the Board; and

(7) That such securities as the General Assembly requires are given to the Board for the appropriation or grant when paid.

The Board will co-operate most heartily with colleges

1. That are evidently needed, conditions of population and location of other educational institutions being considered.

2. That have local interest, opportunity for growth and promise of permanence;

3. That do educational work of high grade;

4. That seek to form Christian character, influencing students toward Bible study, saving faith, right living and consecration to service; and

5. That are prudently and conservatively financed, in estimating probable income, in preparing budgets of expenses, and in the investment of permanent funds. Colleges may never properly, under any conditions, use endowment or special funds, even temporarily, for current expenses or deficit. Such a course is regarded as a misuse of trust funds.

3. Co-operation with Colleges and Givers to Secure Co-operation Between Them.

The Board will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to make known to givers the nature and needs of Presbyterian educational institutions.

It will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to secure gifts:

(1) The Assembly expects every church to make an offering for the College Board.

Colleges approved and recommended for aid on current expenses, may solicit and receive the College Board offerings of the churches in their home regions only when a distinct arrangement to that effect has been made with the college by the Board.

As the Board must depend entirely on church offerings for funds to pay appropriations voted for the current expenses of colleges, it is expected that stronger colleges—while seeking individual gifts and, on occasion, additional special offerings from the churches—will not attempt to secure the regular College Board offerings for themselves.

(2) The Board will expect much from individual givers.

The Board requests that colleges, planning to solicit funds outside of their home fields, will first consult with the Board, that the interests of all co-operating parties may be conserved; otherwise it will be understood that such colleges will not ask or expect any special co-operation from the Board.

(3) The Board will seek for its own Treasury:

(a) Gifts and legacies for use in accordance with the expressed wishes of donors, or, if such wishes are not expressed, for use in the discretion of the Board;

(b) The Board will seek for a Retiring Fund of $500,000 as a minimum, the income of which shall be paid for retiring allowances for teachers who have served our colleges with great ability and loyalty for many years, at low salaries, and who have come to an age when they can no longer render active service.

(4) The Board will seek for colleges:

(a) Gifts and legacies for permanent endowment.

(b) Such gifts from individuals for current expenses as will help the college, beyond the appropriation the Board makes, to meet its annual deficit while the college is securing endowment.

(c) The Board will always seek first, in co-operation with a college, to develop the interest and gifts of its home field, both for endowment, for temporary aid in Scholarships, Chairs and Sustentation, and in emergencies, and afterward in other fields, as may seem wise and practicable.

(5) The Board will expect from Colleges :

(a) Monthly reports of gifts received from churches, church societies, individuals, legacies, etc.

The Treasurer of the Board will send to all Presbyterian universities, colleges, academies and schools of which the Board may have knowledge, blanks on which all such gifts shall be reported.

(b) Gifts reported by approved colleges and academies, on the special blanks prepared for their use by the Board, will be treated as receipts of the Board. Treasurers of such institutions are Deputy Treasurers of the Board, authorized to handle and account for College Board gifts secured in co-operation with the Board and sent by the giver directly to the college. Church offerings so reported will appear on the books of the Board, and in its Annual Report, in the list of contributing churches; the amounts given by individual givers, in classified totals, in the alphabetical list of colleges.

The Board will report in its Annual Report to the Assembly, all gifts passing through its treasury and also all gifts received directly by the colleges when reported to the Board as above.

Academies.

1. The Board does not see its way clear to approve the establishing of any new academies in the northern section of the country, where the High School development is already marked.

2. The Board will consider applications regarding academies in the southern section as on a different basis, emphasizing, however, its feeling that such institutions will in most cases be temporary in their character.

3. The Board finds that changed educational conditions render impossible the effective maintenance of academies with the resources at the command of the Board. The Board adopts, therefore, the policy of withdrawing from academic work, except where academies are connected with Presbyterian colleges.

4. This statement has reference solely to academies independent of colleges, the Board continuing its hearty approval and its offers of assistance for academic departments of colleges.

THE COLLEGE BOARD.

CHARTER PROVISIONS OF THE THREE CLASSES OF OUR CO-OPERATING COLLEGES FOR ELECTION OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE COLLEGE BOARD.

AS IT WAS ADOPTED BY THE ASSEMBLY.

The Thirtieth Annual Report of the College Board and the Minutes of the Board have been submitted to us.

The Committee finds that there are 63 institutions affiliated with the Presbyterian Church and receiving financial support directly or indirectly from the College Board or from various agencies of the Church represented by the College Board. Of the 63 institutions, 58 are colleges, 5 are academies. Thirty-five of the institutions are organically connected with the Church; ten institutions, by charter requirements, must have a majority of their Board of Trustees composed of members of the Presbyterian Church; and eighteen colleges, though not legally connected with the Church, are nevertheless under Presbyterian approval as to their work.

The enrollment is as follows: College students, 7,704; preparatory, 4,114; others, 10,400; total, 22,218. There are 1,538 professors and teachers in the institutions. The Bible is a required study in almost every one of them.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Secretary's Report presents an educational policy of great interest and importance to the Church. It is the hope of the Committee that the educational policy outlined in the Report of the College Board be very carefully considered by pastors and churches and that an earnest co-operation be given by Presbyteries and Synods in the carrying out of such policy. Your Committee appreciates the careful thought and tireless activities of the Secretaries in working out this educational policy, in addition to their other laborious work.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Treasurer's Report shows that the total receipts from normal sources for the year are larger this year than any other year of the Board's history. Last year the total receipts from all sources was $1,482,312; if from this total we deduct $132,317, receipts from legacies, most of which was from the J. S. Kennedy Estate, we have a net total of receipts for 1912 of $1,250,000. The net receipts for this Church year is $1,372,000, a substantial increase, which indicates an increasing interest and confidence in the Board and its work.

It is with satisfaction that the Committee notes that the Church collections, which aggregated $111,358, were for the most part sent to the Board's treasury. From the Board, through the Board, and from individuals directly, the colleges received last year a splendid total of $1,281,445.

The Committee is also satisfied that the administration expenses of $20,325, shows that the Board is economically managed and that this is a small outlay considering that something like one million dollars was secured by the Board directly and through coöperation; this being but 2 per cent. spent for administration of the total secured.

The Committee wishes to express its appreciation of the services of Mr. Henry L. Smith, Treasurer of the Board, who without compensation serves as Treasurer.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGES.

The Committee has reviewed with pleasure and profit the recent publication by the College Board entitled "Presbyterian Colleges." Organized in 1883, this year makes the completion of the third decade of the work of the College Board, or thirty years of its existence, and the Board celebrates the occasion by issuing an illustrated brochure of exceeding interest and attractiveness, entitled "Presbyterian Colleges," which assuredly is the ultima thule of its kind. Of the 60 colleges now affiliated with the Board, only 17 were in existence as colleges in 1883. Eight were received from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and 32 were developed from the academies. The book is a perfect panoramic view of the colleges in the finest of half-tones. To eliminate all suspicion of partiality to any particular institution, one page only, opposite the picture, is given to a statistical résumé of the property and endowment conditions and operations of the institution.

Your Committee gives its unqualified appreciation, approbation and commendation to this publication, which has all the merits of conciseness and information of an exacting report and commends itself to all who are seeking accurate information about our colleges.

This great array of 60 institutions calls for and imperatively demands from us, as never before, an heroic exploitation on a systematic and self-sacrificing basis of Christian education, both for the Church and for citizenship.

Let all the Presbyteries at their fall meetings give over one evening to a service whose keynote shall be Christian education, more students for and better support of our Christian colleges.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD.

The Minutes of the Board have been carefully examined and special commendation is made of the concise, neat, and attractive way in which they have been kept and prepared.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the Minutes of the Board, which have been examined and found in order, be approved.

2. That the educational policy of the Church, as set forth by the Board in its Report, be approved, and that, as requested by the College presidents, the Board be encouraged to arrange such an educational campaign throughout the Church as will place the great subject of Christian Education adequately before the people.

3. That the Assembly call upon all the churches to observe Education Week as outlined in the Report of the Committee on Education.

4. That the policy of the College Board be approved and its work commended to the sympathetic coöperation of the Church and the Christian colleges.

5. That the action of the College Board in the selection of Dr. James E. Clarke as Associate Secretary be approved.

6. That the establishment of the Department of Publicity and Extension, by which a more accurate knowledge of the needs of the colleges shall be known, be approved.

7. That the Financial Report of the Board, duly audited by a public accountant, be approved.

8. That the publication and distribution of 15,000 copies of "Presbyterian Colleges" be commended and approved.

9. That all the churches send their College Board collections undesignated to the Board, as the Board is in a better position to know its own obligations and where the money is most needed to produce the best results.

10. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire at this time—John B. Laird, D.D., Philadelphia; Rev. Frederick E. Stockwell, Newburgh, N. Y.; Frederick W. Garvin, Esq., New York; Elisha H. Perkins, Baltimore, Md.; Hon. J. A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.; James S. Hubbard, Chicago, Ill.; John P. Munn, M.D., New York, be reëlected; and that Edwin J. Gillies be elected to fill the place of E. O. Emerson, deceased; that Rev. Edwin A. McAlpin, Jr., be elected to fill the place of Rev. J. E. Clarke, resigned; that S. Edward Young, D.D., be elected to fill the place of Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., resigned, and that A. A. Hyde be elected to fill the place of H. B. McCormick, resigned.

In response to memorial 298, received from the Synod of Pennsylvania and referred to this Committee, and which is as follows:

"WHEREAS, Lafayette College is connected by charter with the Synod of Pennsylvania, and educates all students for the ministry and home and foreign mission fields free of tuition;

"AND WHEREAS, The salaries of the professors of the college are paid out of the tuition of the students, thus making the free tuition scholarships to students for the ministry and mission fields practically gifts upon the part of the professors to the Presbyterian Church;

"AND WHEREAS, A movement has been inaugurated by the Alumni Association of the college under the leadership of Mr. Robert F. Whitmer, a loyal Presbyterian and Lafayette Alumnus, of Philadelphia, to raise an endowment fund of $1,000,000 to increase the salaries of the professors of Lafayette College and later to provide pensions for the retired professors;

"AND WHEREAS, The College Board of our Church has heartily endorsed this movement, is coöperating with it, and has recommended it to the Church;

"Be it Resolved:

"1. That the Synod of Pennsylvania, in session at Butler, Pa., October 23, 1912, heartily endorses the movement to raise said endowment fund for Lafayette College.

"2. That the Synod cordially recommends it to the Sessions of its Churches for public presentation, and commendation to their individual members.

"3. That the Synod appoint a Committee of three—two ministers and one elder—who shall, without expense to the Synod, present a request from the Synod to the General Assembly at Atlanta, Georgia, next May, asking the Assembly's endorsement of said movement and its coöperation in raising such an endowment fund for Lafayette College."

It was Resolved: That the movement for the raising of $1,000,000 for the increase of the endowment and equipment of Lafayette College be commended and that this old and vigorous college be recommended to the Church and the people for aid in its effort to increase its efficiency and enlarge its influence.

It is understood that any other of our colleges is equally entitled to such a recommendation if necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. BULL, Chairman.

ROBERT H. MONTGOMERY, Secretary.

SIR :—

We have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Board for the year ending March 31st, 1913, and have verified the Balance Sheet published herewith, which in our opinion presents the correct financial condition of the Board.

We have found on file proper vouchers for the expenditures, and the contributions shown on Schedule B have been properly accounted for.

The cash and securities on hand have been verified either by actual count, or evidences of deposit.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,

RECEIPTS FROM CHURCHES AND CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS, THROUGH THE BOARD AND DIRECTLY TO THE COLLEGES.

Credit is given herewith to churches which sent their offerings to the Board before the books closed, March 31, 1913. Credit is also here given to the churches which sent offerings to institutions that were reported to the Board by the institutions before the books closed, March 31, 1913, by standing order of the General Assembly.

Contributions and reports of contributions received after March 31, 1913, will be credited in the Board's Annual Report of 1914.

Below is given a summary of church contributions by Synods and Presbyteries.

For the detailed report of these contributions by the churches see the Statistical Combined Report of the Churches' Contributions to the Permanent Agencies, which report will be found in the Reports of the Boards, sent to every pastor by the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

THE MAN WE NEED.

A MAN who grasps a principle and then holds to it and fights for it, regardless of all cost and consequence, renders a service to the world quite apart from the value of the principle which he upholds. In the midst of a mob of time-servers such a man renews our faith in human nature and rallies us to the eternal verities.

OFFICIAL PAPER:

THE AMETHYST. Published Monthly.

IN PRESENTING its thirty-second annual report to the General Assembly, the Permanent Committee on Temperance records its deep gratitude to Almighty God for His blessing bestowed upon the cause of temperance during the past year. We also bear record of the increased interest manifested by the Church in the duty and privilege of helping forward this sacred movement, the deepening and widening conviction that the temperance reform is not simply the optional business of individuals, but the necessary and divinely-ordained duty of the Church.

FINANCES.

The receipts of the year have been $37,398.61, which, added to the balance of $4,871.98 from last year, makes the total assets of the year $42,270.59. The disbursements have been $35,847.52, which, added to two legacies aggregating $750.00, only the income of which is to be used, leaves a net balance of $5,673.07.

If this suggests that there has been no financial anxiety during the year, it is far from the fact. As late as March 26th there was not means in hand to meet our financial obligations, which shows that there was no opportunity of planning for the wise expenditure of the balance here indicated. About $16,000 was received in the last few days of the year. Every reasonable means at our command has been employed to induce the churches to send their offerings quarterly or at least before the close of the year, but the result of this effort is indicated by the foregoing facts. Earlier distribution of their funds on the part of the churches, and greater promptness in forwarding the same on the part of the treasurers would save money paid for interest, lessen anxiety and promote efficiency.

ORATORICAL PRIZES.

One of the most encouraging features of the past year has been the increased number of colleges and theological seminaries which have held temperance oratorical contests. The Committee offers $25.00 in gold to each of such institutions in connection with our Church on the following conditions:

1. That there shall be a public oratorical contest held with the approval of the faculty and under its direction.
2. That all of the orations shall be on some phase of the temperance reform.
3. That there shall be at least three and preferably not fewer than five contestants.
4. That copies of the winning orations shall be sent to the Assembly's Committee.
5. That if it is desired to make the contest an annual affair, appropriate record shall be made of the same in the annual catalogue.

These prizes are not offered to schools of lower grade than colleges nor do we offer them to individual churches, temperance organizations, or institutions not connected with the Presbyterian Church.

About thirty schools have applied for prizes during the past year and most of them have secured the money already and others will do so before the close of the scholastic year.

TEMPERANCE LIBRARIES.

The need of reliable, authoritative reference works on the subject of temperance in the libraries of our educational institutions is urgent. Many of our students have access only to a limited number of such works, and in many cases these are found to be not only out of date, but misleading and dangerous. To meet the demand, your Committee, after conference with leading temperance workers, has selected a reference library which may be had for $5.00 and a larger one for $10.00. The demand for these books has been gratifying and is increasing. It is proposed to select books in the same way for general reading on this subject, which can be recommended for use in our Sunday-school libraries.

PLEDGE SIGNING.

Emphasis has been largely centered upon legislation for twenty years or more, but temperance people are beginning to realize more fully that we cannot successfully legislate unless we intelligently and persistently educate. People are not likely to insist upon either the enactment or enforcement of laws which they do not think are both wise and necessary. But let them be fully convinced of the uselessness and the harmfulness of alcoholic beverages to the individual, society, and business, and they will speedily find means to remedy the drink evil.

Each generation must be taught the lessons learned by those who have gone before, and some of these lessons must ever be learned in the same way, but it is not necessary to take poison to learn that it is dangerous, and this is true when the poison is in the form of alcohol as when in any other form. Entire abstinence is the only safeguard against this evil. The pledge is safe, scriptural, dignified and simple. Of course it must be kept like any other pledge to be effective.

Your Committee has continued to distribute large numbers of pledge cards for the individual and also pledge rolls for Sunday-schools and other organizations as well as families. An attractive badge in the form of a button is provided for those who care for them after signing the pledge.

OUR WORKERS.

Miss Marie C. Brehm, who has been with us a number of years, continues to render large and valuable service. Her one failing seems to be the lack of ubiquity. She has charge of the temperance program of the World's Sunday-school Convention, to be held in Zurich, Switzerland, in July, and by special invitation makes the principal address on this subject. Rev. Percy Y. Schelly and Rev. Dr. G. W. Wadsworth, the former located in Philadelphia, and the latter in Denver, have each had a busy and profitable year, addressing many kinds of organizations and gatherings, explaining the work and methods of the Committee and doing many other things to further the reform.

September first, Mr. A. D. Zook, a graduate of Wooster University, took charge of the work among the foreign-speaking people. He is employed jointly by your Committee and the Women's Home Missionary Society of Pittsburgh, each paying half of his salary. Mr. Zook visits these people in their homes, addresses them in the open air, or in churches, schoolhouses or other available buildings. By the use of the stereopticon temperance slides he is able both to attract and instruct, so that he reaches large numbers with facts which it would be difficult to get before them in any other way. The extension of this work into cities and other centers is desirable. These strangers within our gates afford an opportunity to the Church which means duty.

During most of the year your Committee has furnished a Spanish-speaking helper to accompany Rev. John Mordy, who is under commission of the Sabbath-school Board of our Church for work in New Mexico. Mr. Mordy is one of God's noblemen and is doing pioneer work in a growing state. Many of the people are seldom or never reached by ordinary gospel influence, because they speak Spanish and are remote from places where such services are held. By going to them with both the Bible and temperance, the latter of which is presented not only in public addresses, but in private interviews and by means of literature, he is accomplishing a most blessed work, and your Committee feels that $25.00 a month spent in this way is well invested.

Rev. J. J. Wilson, a colored evangelist, is employed jointly by your Committee and the Board of Freedmen. He labors among his own race, distributing literature, making public addresses, securing pledge signers and doing personal work among a people too long neglected in this respect.

Grateful mention deserves to be made of the gratuitous service which Rev. Duncan C. Milner, D. D., of Chicago, continues to render. His heart is deeply in this cause and, as opportunity affords, he gives himself to it intelligently and unselfishly. Various members of your Committee have also rendered service.

The General Secretary has not only overseen but actually performed much work in the office and has also done a large amount of field work.

Beginning January first, Mr. Dwight E. Worrell, a son of the manse, began the work of personally interviewing pastors and sessions of churches which have not hitherto been in close touch with your Committee. The result has been gratifying, not only in securing additional contributions, but in getting the publications of the Committee circulated through these congregations. The old truth, "That My people perish for lack of knowledge," is manifest in many places. When once the facts are fairly in the minds of the people, a long step will have been taken toward the solution of this problem. Mr. Worrell is not only successful in his work, but is deeply interested in the cause of temperance.

We rejoice that the weight of accumulating years has not deprived our Corresponding Secretary, who is also our Treasurer, of the joy of serving his Master in a cause which he has so long and unselfishly loved. May his bow long abide in strength!

Miss Elizabeth B. Weaver and Miss Anna M. Wycoff have labored with us in this gospel, and their work in the office well deserves recognition.

The Presbyterial and Synodical Chairmen who have given time and thought are also entitled to the gratitude of the Church.

WHERE WE WORK.

There seems to be an impression in some places that the Assembly's Temperance Committee is largely local in its activities. Of course, it has to be located somewhere, but the impression that the community where it is located receives an undue proportion of its attention will be removed when it is known that during the past year the Committee has operated in the following thirty-nine States: Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming, Colorado, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Arkansas, Tennessee.

In some of these states only a limited amount of work has been done, while in others, such as West Virginia and Colorado, where campaigns were waged, the service has been large. Next to these two states, more work was perhaps done in California than in any other. This is due to the fact that the Synod of California especially asked for the service of a representative. Dr. Wadsworth, having lived in California, was well and favorably known and his service was naturally in large demand. Miss Brehm also spent several weeks in California.

We try to distribute the service throughout the whole Church as equitably as circumstances will permit and conditions require.

THE AMETHYST.

The Amethyst, started four and a half years ago, has a circulation of 115,000, or a gain of 20,000 over last year. We are not aware that the single edition of any other temperance paper has an equal circulation, which would be much larger than this but our people do not seem to understand that the postal laws prohibit sending it except to those who have actually ordered it and paid for it, or who definitely promise to pay for it. To make this plain we send a letter of instruction with the receipts for the remittances, but even this does not seem to impress sufficiently the facts here stated.

OTHER WORK.

Other lines of work than those already mentioned are the preparation of Temperance Day Programs, supplying tracts in twelve languages, the loan of stereopticon slides to Presbyterian organizations, work among the Indians, petitioning in favor of desirable laws, protesting against undesirable laws, making temperance surveys of cities, communities and states, and furnishing both general and specific information on all phases of the reform.

This last item involves much reading, research, and the writing of hundreds of letters, but it is worth many times what it costs for our people to have a place at which they can secure reliable information.

OUR FIRST LEGACIES.

During the year two legacies have been received. One from the estate of Daniel Worthley, of Pontiac, Illinois, and the other from the late Jacob H. Strathmann, of El Paso, Illinois. These have been invested and only the income will be used.

The great need and the sacredness of the cause ought to appeal strongly to all patriotic and Christian men and women. Surely the number of hearts and homes which have been saddened and darkened by this evil should touch the sympathy and enlist the support of all who love their kind.

A WIDER FIELD.

Sometimes it is said that one denomination cannot win this fight and that, therefore, the work should be left entirely to outside organizations which are not so restricted.

One denomination cannot evangelize the entire heathen world, nor even adequately do all that needs to be done in the home field, but each can do its part and the existence in each denomination of Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and the almost entire absence of belief that such work should be abandoned or merged into an independent agency is a significant testimony to its merit.

There should be and there is, co-operation, harmonious and helpful, as will be seen in the consideration of subjects to follow in this report. The Presbyterian Church has never been narrow in her work in this or any other movement. She leads every church in the world in the scope and variety of her temperance activity, but her service is by no means confined to her own denomination.

For economy and efficiency in the field of educational temperance your Committee invites comparison with any other agency. For instance, any Presbyterian church which contributes to the support of this work is entitled, without extra charge or regard to the amount contributed to the following: (1) All of the literature needed in the congregation; (2) temperance day programs; (3) Art Pledge Cards and Pledge Rolls; (4) the loan of stereopticon slides; (5) the service of a speaker; (6) subscription to The Amethyst to the full amount of its contribution; (7) full credit for the entire amount given, as if none of the former things had been received. We do not believe that any other organization can offer more, if as much.

LEGISLATION.

The most important legislation during the past year was the passage of the Webb Bill, intended to prohibit the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory for illegal purposes. The need of such a measure has long been felt. Whether it will stand the test of constitutionality or whether it will accomplish the desired end are matters concerning which there is a difference of opinion. If it should be declared unconstitutional, which we do not believe, the court would simply say, in effect, to temperance people, "You have not yet found the legal way," but certainly a community which wishes to prohibit the liquor traffic should not have its will thwarted by contrary-minded people in other states. Let us hope that an effective method has been found and that the law will stand. If such is the case and States will enact laws prohibiting interstate shipments, they will have come within one step of the limit of legislation. The only further position that could be taken would be to prohibit its use or possession by the individual. No state has ever seriously considered that except in its penal or eleemosynary institutions. The following is the text of the Webb Bill:

THE KENYON-WEBB BILL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That the shipment or transportation in any manner or by any means whatsoever of any spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented, or other intoxicating liquor of any kind, including beer, ale, or wine, from one state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, into any other state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, which said spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquor is intended to be received, possessed, sold, or in any manner used, either in the original package or otherwise, in violation of any law of such state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, enacted in the exercise of the police powers of such state, territory or district of the United States, or place non-contiguous to but subject to the jurisdiction thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Your Committee co-operated with other temperance forces in securing this law and our Church is justly entitled to credit.

WEST VIRGINIA.

At the general election, November 5th, 1912, West Virginia voted in favor of constitutional prohibition by a majority of 92,342. Only three counties in the state gave a majority against the amendment. This is probably the largest majority ever given by any state in the Union against the liquor traffic. Very stringent laws have been enacted for the enforcement of the amendment. That the sentiment in the state is strong against the drink evil is indicated by the fact that thirty-seven of the fifty-five counties are now without saloons. The amendment, however, does not go into effect until July 1st, 1914.

The Assembly's Committee expended several hundred dollars in the campaign, three of its Secretaries, Rev. Percy Y. Schelly, Miss Marie C. Brehm and the General Secretary, made numerous addresses, and Mr. William Johnson, then in the employ of the Committee, made valuable and effective surveys. Judge J. C. McWhorter, a Presbyterian layman, was chairman of the united temperance forces of the state, and Rev. G. I. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Sistersville, W. Va., was secretary and chairman of the Speakers' Bureau. Judge McWhorter says, "The Presbyterian Temperance Committee was a powerful factor that merits special mention." Mr. Wilson says, "We found the Assembly's Committee ready to help in every way in their power and without their help the Speakers' Bureau would have been handicapped. Their timely help enabled this department of the campaign to be carried forward unhindered, and therefore the Committee played a very prominent part in the great victory that has come to the forces of right."

COLORADO.

An unsuccessful effort was made to secure state-wide prohibition in Colorado, but the temperance forces were not sufficiently organized and some divisions of the army failed to enter heartily into the campaign. Your Committee, however, offered to pay the traveling expenses up to a stated amount, of fifty Presbyterian ministers within the Synod if they could give some time to making addresses in behalf of temperance. A considerable number responded nobly, and we wish to bear testimony to the economy and efficiency of this method of operation. Many of the men accepted nothing and none of them accepted more than actual outlay, which was very modest.

Though the effort failed, we believe it was worth all it cost as a campaign of education. Many states have spent much more in an unsuccessful effort to secure legislation which would have been less effective had it been realized.

ARKANSAS.

September 9th, 1912, Arkansas voted on state-wide prohibition. There were 69,390 votes cast for prohibition and 85,358 against it, giving an adverse majority of 15,968. Your Committee offered to help in Arkansas in the same way that it did in Colorado and West Virginia. But Arkansas has since passed a law requiring a majority of white citizens, men and women, to sign in favor of a saloon before a license can be granted in a given district. This will place much of the territory under prohibition.

OHIO.

A backward step was taken in Ohio by the adoption of an amendment to its constitution in September, 1912, licensing the liquor traffic.

Though the vote on the amendment was small, being only about 462,000 out of a total possible vote of 1,250,000, the majority in favor of the license was more than 84,000. This does not seem to indicate that the smaller voting unit always leads to the larger. Logically it should do so, but historically it has often failed, as in this case.

SOLDIERS' HOMES.

Congress again failed to make any appropriation for Soldiers' Homes where intoxicating liquors are sold. The following is the law:

"Provided that no part of the foregoing appropriation shall be expended for any purpose at any branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteers that maintains or permits to be maintained on its premises a bar, canteen, or other place where beer, wine, or other intoxicating liquors are sold."

AMONG THE INDIANS.

Congress again made provision for the enforcement of prohibition among Indians and on Indian reservations. This applies to the native Alaskans as well as to Indians in other parts of the United States

LIQUOR EXCLUDED FROM THE MAILS.

It was feared by some that the parcel post would enable liquor dealers to introduce their wares into prohibition territory, but the Postoffice Department has ruled that liquor cannot so be carried. The following is the law:

"That all spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors of any kind are hereby declared to be non-mailable and shall not be deposited in or carried through the mails. Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited, for mailing or delivery, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by mail, according to the direction thereon, of or at any place at which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, anything declared by this section to be non-mailable, * * * shall be fined, etc., or imprisoned, etc., or both."

FEDERAL COUNCIL.

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, at its meeting in Chicago in December, 1912, arranged for the establishment of a Temperance Commission which should represent the thirty-three denominations included in the Council in all matters pertaining to temperance, the Commission to be constituted as follows:

The temperance agency of each denomination, which has such an agency, is to select four representatives, the Executive Committee of the Federal Council is to select fifteen persons to represent those denominations which do not have agencies of their own, and the President of the Council is to appoint the chairman of the Commission. Your Committee has selected Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D. D.; Rev. Thomas Watters, D. D.; Prof. Charles Scanlon and Mr. Robert Gibson to represent the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

THE INTER-CHURCH TEMPERANCE FEDERATION.

The Inter-Church Temperance Federation, organized in January, 1907, now embraces nine denominations. It works in perfect harmony with the Federal Council, and when the Commission of said Council is fully organized and active, the Church Temperance Federation may dissolve or merge with the larger body. Meanwhile it performs the important function of representing the united sentiment of the most active church temperance agencies, and united with other forces in advocating the Webb Bill.

LIQUOR AND LABOR.

Labor has no greater foe than the liquor traffic, which employs less labor, pays less wages and consumes less material than anything with which it may be equitably compared. For instance, $1,000,000 in the iron and steel industry will give employment to 284 men, the same amount in the manufacture of vehicles for land transportation 858, but if invested in liquor only 77 men. Of the total value of the product in the case of the manufacturer of vehicles, labor gets 34.35 per cent., while in the case of liquor it gets only 7.3 per cent.

We hear it said by the liquor advocates that they give employment to "hundreds of thousands of men." As a matter of fact the number employed in the manufacture of distilled, malt or vinous liquors in 1910 was only 62,920, and the entire wages paid amounted to only $45,252,000.

The liquor traffic lessens the demand for the great necessities of life, increases the cost and difficulty of production, and reduces the purchasing power of the people, hence, must always be the enemy of labor, capital and business.

Your Committee seeks to keep in touch with labor organizations and movements that temperance may receive due consideration and that we may profit by having their point of view.

STATES UNDER PROHIBITION.

*Goes into effect July 1, 1914.

Many other states have large no-license areas. Including the prohibition states approximately one-half the population of the United States is nominally free from the legalized liquor traffic. But, as the following table shows, the national drink bill is enormous and growing, even though there was a slight decrease in the per capita consumption last year.

THE COST AND CONSUMPTION.

Drink Consumption.	Gallons.	Per Gallon.	Drink Bill.
Domestic Spirits.....	*149,571,166	$6.25	$934,816,037

Total.....	2,142,071,982		$2,336,662,338

*This includes 13,619,156 gallons increase by rectification. Authority for this figure is found on page 99 of the 1912 report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The total per capita consumption was 21.98 gallons, a decrease of .81 gallons from the high record of 1911.

The above table shows that the liquor traffic cost the people of the United States $2,336,662,338.00. The meager return from the traffic to the National Government in internal revenue was only $219,650,258.00, or less than one dollar for every ten dollars which it costs. The grand total, regular and permanent annual appropriation for the United States Government in 1912-13 was $1,019,412,710.91. That is, it cost considerably more than twice as much to run the saloons of the country as it does the National Government. When we run our automobiles instead of our politics with alcohol the conditions may be reversed.

CONCLUSION.

In the face of these facts and this foe of the home, the church and the school and the state, what is the duty of the Presbyterian Church? May it please this Assembly to answer with such a high, clear, firm deliverance that the hosts of righteousness in all ranks will leap forward by common impulse, carrying the cross of Christ and the banner of temperance side by side with dauntless valor and quenchless faith.

The term of the following members of your Committee expires with this Assembly:

Rev. T. B. Anderson, D. D.; Rev. William McEwan, D. D.; Rev. J. H. Snowden, D. D.; S. H. Thompson, Esq.; Graham C. Wells; Robert Gibson.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES SCANLON,
General Secretary.

SUMMARY OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S RESOLUTIONS.

Rev. E. A. Elmore, D. D.
Chairman of Standing Committee

1. The minutes of the Permanent Committee are approved.
2. The report of the treasurer as certified by the public accountant is approved.
3. The Committee is commended for its diligence and fidelity.
4. Members of the Committee whose terms expire are re-elected and Rev. Robert H. Kirk is elected to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Lee, deceased.
5. The offer of a prize of $25.00 for temperance oratorical contests in Presbyterian colleges and seminaries is approved and institutions urged to avail themselves of the offer.
6. The Committee is commended to the confidence and consideration of those who desire to make bequests in behalf of temperance.
7. All of our churches and Sunday-schools are urged to contribute to the temperance work of the Presbyterian Church.
8. Public officials who refuse to serve alcoholic beverages on their tables are commended and hope expressed that their example will be followed by others in both public and private life.
9. Pleasure is expressed at the good work of all temperance organizations.
10. The Committee is authorized to co-operate with the Temperance Commission of the Federal Council and the Inter-Church Temperance Federation.
11. Name of Committee is changed to Board of Temperance of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.
12. Former deliverances are re-affirmed forbidding all members in any way whatsoever to aid or abet the evil of intemperance.
13. Licensure of the liquor traffic is declared to be unscriptural, unethical, unsocial, unpatriotic, illegal, immoral and wholly inconsistent with the claims of Christian discipleship.
14. An amendment to the Constitution of the United States is favored forbidding the manufacture, importation, sale and transportation of alcoholic beverages.
15. Overture 243 from the Synod of North Dakota is answered in the affirmative.
16. The President of the United States is asked to recommend that the government forbid the issuing of federal tax receipts in local prohibition territory.
17. Our people are urged to use the ballot to promote the temperance reform.

REPORT

OF THE

Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

The Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply respectfully submits the following, which is its First Annual Report.

The initial year of any work is of necessity devoted largely to preparatory processes. The first conference of members of the Committee was at Winona Lake, in August, 1912, called there to meet the Executive Commission, upon which the Assembly had placed the responsibility for determining the method of financing the work of the Committee. The Executive Commission took the only position it could reasonably take, namely, that this work belongs to the administrative rather than to the benevolence department of Church life, and therefore that its support, like all administrative work, should be from the Assembly's Fund raised by Presbyterian assessment. Recommendation of an additional quarter of a cent to the Presbyterian assessment, to meet the expenses of this work until the Assembly of 1913, was sent down to the Presbyteries. The Committee, feeling sure that the Assembly would approve the judgment of the Executive Commission, and that so the financial support of its work would be assured, felt free to levy upon the Church at large for one of her strongest men to serve in the responsible position of Corresponding Secretary. Obviously, upon such official efficiency the future of this work must largely depend.

The Committee was organized by electing Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., as Chairman, and Rev. Paul B. Jenkins, D.D., as Secretary. Two lines of work were immediately undertaken: first, a survey of the Church's various attempts to deal with the problem of Vacancy and Supply; and, secondly, a search for the Corresponding Secretary.

Very fortunately, Rev. Walter H. Houston, who in similar work in the Synod of Ohio had been signally successful, and who had studied this whole question as few other men had studied it, was induced to accept the call to this work. His election was duly confirmed by the Executive Commission. His relations to the Synod of Ohio were such that for the first months of service he divided time with the work there, the Ohio Synod assuming a generous share of his support. Inasmuch as the primary work of gathering facts by correspondence could just as well be done from an office in Columbus as from an office in Chicago, and for this year could be done more economically from the Columbus office, removal to Chicago was postponed.

The survey of the Church's efforts to deal with the problem of Vacancy and Supply brought out some very significant facts. It is very suggestive that no matter how often the question was raised and left unanswered or partially answered, or plans allowed to lapse, it would not stay out of the Assembly. The need is so deep in the convictions of the Church as to be persistently forcing itself upon the Assembly. No less significant are the obvious explanations of the final unsatisfactoriness of former attempts to deal with the problem. Inadequate financial support was the principal one; failure to create a central bureau charged with this single responsibility was a close second, and equally in the running was the failure to realize that in the very nature of the case a period of years is indispensable to an opportunity to prove any plan workable. The present plan, inaugurated by the Assembly of 1912, has the merit of avoiding all of these demonstrated weaknesses.

Passing by the actions on Vacancy and Supply of the General Assemblies of 1873, 1881, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1892, 1905 and 1907, all of which resulted in failure as already intimated, it is noted that the Assembly of 1910 referred the whole subject to the Special Committee on Christian Life and Work. Upon the report of that Committee, the General Assembly of 1911 sent down to the Presbyteries, Constitutional Rule No. 4, which was adopted by the Presbyteries and the General Assembly in 1912, and reads:

“The General Assembly shall have power to appoint a Permanent Committee or other agency to supervise the supply of vacant pulpits and the service of unemployed ministers. The number of members, the officers, and their duties, shall be determined by the Assembly. The powers of the agency shall be as follows: To conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in cooperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of vacancy and supply by methods adequate to given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly.”

The Assembly of 1912 took the following action:

1. The General Assembly hereby appoints, under the provisions of Constitutional Rule No. 4, a Permanent Committee, consisting of six ministers and six ruling elders, to be divided into three classes, each composed of two ministers and two ruling elders. One of these classes shall be elected annually, and the full term of service shall be three years; provided, however, that at the first election, one class shall be elected for one year, a second class for two years, and a third class for three years, and thereafter each following Assembly shall elect two ministers and two elders to fill the vacancies made by those whose terms of office then expire.

2. Nominations for membership in this Committee for the present year shall be made by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and after the present year shall be referred to the Standing Committee of the General Assembly on Christian Life and Work. No more than three members shall be from any one Synod.

3. The officers of the Permanent Committee shall be a Chairman, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and such others as may be necessary, and shall be elected annually. The Corresponding Secretary shall be chosen outside the membership of the Committee, and shall be the only salaried officer. His appointment must have the confirmation of the Executive Commission.

4. The powers and duties of the Permanent Committee, as stated in Constitutional Rule No. 4, are as follows:

“To conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries and their Committees concerning unemployed ministers and vacant congregations; to seek to adjust, in cooperation with Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, the requirements of Vacancy and Supply by means adequate to the given conditions in any Synod or Presbytery; to furnish information to church Sessions and ministers; to suggest to the General Assembly plans for administration, and to make an annual report to the Assembly” (Minutes, General Assembly, 1912, p. 129).

5. The office of the Permanent Committee shall be located at Chicago, Ill.

6. The duties of the Corresponding Secretary shall be as follows: Under the direction of the Permanent Committee, he shall act as a constant and helpful medium of communication with different parts of the Church, through the respective Presbyterial and Synodical Committees on Vacancy and Supply. He shall stimulate to organized and concerted action, so that at the earliest moment the plan in its essential features, though with varying detail, may be in operation in every Presbytery. His business shall be wholly to give information, to be a depository and distributor of facts, both as to unemployed ministers and vacant churches, to whom both ministers and churches may apply, and by whom they may be put at once in correspondence with Presbyterial or Synodical Committees, or with other parties or bodies interested.

7. The Permanent Committee shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the transaction of its business, and shall report the same to the General Assembly.

8. The expenses of organizing the work of the Permanent Committee shall be met by the General Assembly, and shall not exceed $1,000. The expenses of management by the Permanent Committee, when the work has been organized, shall be determined by the Executive Commission, both as to the amount and as to the method of securing moneys.

9. Each Presbytery, it is recommended, should appoint a Committee, under the provisions of the Form of Government, Chapter XXI, Sections 2, 3 and 4, to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as such supervision may be arranged for otherwise by the Presbytery in special cases. The term of service of this Committee should be not less than three years.

10. It shall be the duty of the Committee of Presbytery to prepare and keep a list of the vacant churches within its bounds, and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service, and not relieved by Presbyterial action from the regular work of the ministry; and also to arrange for the supply of the vacant churches from its list of available ministers, and from such other sources as may be suggested by correspondence with the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply. All details of adjustment shall be left to each Presbytery, to be determined by its own conditions and needs.

The following were elected by the Assembly as the members of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply:

For the term of three years: Ministers—George N. Luccock, D.D., John E. Bushnell, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Henry P. Crowell, E. A. K. Hackett.

For the term of two years: Ministers—John Timothy Stone, D.D., William L. McEwan, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert S. Sinclair, Benjamin F. Edwards.

For the term of one year: Ministers—S. S. Palmer, D.D., Paul B. Jenkins, D.D.; Elders—A. A. Loetscher, William R. Farrand.

The first meeting of the Committee was called for Winona Lake, Indiana, Friday, August 23, 1912, in conjunction with the meeting of the Assembly's Executive Commission at the same place and on the same date. The acts and conclusions of the Commission are given in its own Report.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND WORK.

The Committee on Christian Life and Work reported for several years on this subject, and the Tables on Ministerial Employment and Vacant Churches prepared annually in the office of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly are herewith included this year by willing consent, in the Report of this Permanent Committee.

The situation as to ministers and churches as shown by the tables did not change materially for the better during the ecclesiastical year 1912, as compared with the year 1911. For instance, the number of pastors in 1911 was 4,063, and in 1912, 4,138; the stated supplies in 1911 were 1,582, and in 1912, 1,562; and the ministers without charge in 1911 were 1,522, and in 1912, 1,507. The vacant churches in 1911 were 2,052, and in 1912, 2,017.

Attention is again drawn to the table showing the size of the congregations, 4,086 out of 9,940 having each 50 members or less. Further, 5,641 congregations out of 9,940 contribute towards congregational expenses $900 per annum or less. The great majority of these small churches are the response made by faithful Christians to the religious needs of village or rural committees. They need the spiritual care of pastors and the financial support of the Church at large. The Board of Home Missions should be enabled to put hundreds of new men in the field, and should have double the resources it now possesses. Synodical and Presbyterial Home Missions should also be more generously supported.

The first task given the Committee by the Assembly's Plan was to conduct correspondence with Synods and Presbyteries. The result of a very extensive and systematic correspondence, together with other office matters, is submitted in the following report by the Secretary, concluding with some definite opinions in which he voices not merely his own, but likewise the convictions of the entire Committee.

SECRETARY HOUSTON'S REPORT.

The definite organization of the work of the Committee was undertaken December 1 by the new Secretary, and has been strenuously carried on from his office located in Columbus, Ohio.

As fundamental to future efficiency, it was determined at the very beginning to make a careful survey of the entire Church in order to ascertain exact conditions. Communications were therefore directed to the Stated Clerks of the various Presbyteries in the effort to secure detailed information in regard to the work in each Presbytery. It is gratifying to note the prompt response received from a large majority of the Stated Clerks, and as a result of this generous coöperation the Committee was at once put in possession of a vast fund of information covering general conditions as they exist throughout the entire Church.

From each Presbytery was secured a list of the various Presbyterial officers and committeemen who are in any way related to the problem of Vacancy and Supply, together with an outline of such plan as the Presbytery might have for dealing with the vacancy problem. The reports received indicate that a very small percentage of the Presbyteries have any definite plan for effectively handling the problem of the vacant church, and this the Committee regards as a most serious defect in Presbyterial administration, and one that should be speedily remedied. It is the purpose of the Committee at an early date to submit to the various Presbyteries some carefully prepared suggestions, in the hope that these may materially aid the Presbytery in putting into practical operation the provisions of the Form of Government relating to the care of vacant churches.

We furthermore secured from each Presbytery a list of the vacant fields, the length of the vacancy, the amount of pastoral support furnished, as well as other items of information related thereto. A careful study of these reports revealed the fact that the vacancy problem is not confined to any particular section of the country, but in general the situation is about uniform throughout the Church. More than 90 per cent. of the Presbyteries reported vacant churches within their bounds. In summing up the conditions throughout the Church, it is clearly evident that to properly care for the fields able to support men the present average need is about three additional pastors to a Presbytery, or upwards of 900 additional men for the entire Church. This does not take into account a very large number of small and somewhat scattered churches for which at the present time scant provision is made. It is conservative to state that if these could be grouped, so that in some measure at least each might be under the care of a pastor, we would require not less than 100 additional men. So that were we as a Church to undertake to properly care for all of our fields we would require about 1,000 pastors in addition to those already serving in that capacity.

The question of an adequate ministry therefore compelled attention, and has been a subject of careful investigation. According to the reports of 1912, we have on the rolls of our Church a total of 9,153 ministers, but only about two-thirds of these are actually engaged in regular pastoral service. The 3,000 men not in pastorates include a considerable number who pursue educational work; all of those serving the Church in connection with her various Boards and agencies; those engaged in the general work of the Church in Synods and Presbyteries, as well as a distinguished body of men honorably retired, or who have passed the time when age or health no longer permit the pursuit of regular lines of ministerial service. The Committee in its survey has earnestly endeavored to discover the exact number of men who are actually available for regular service. The size of the task prevents our giving exact figures at this time, but the analysis of reports has gone far enough to convince us that a very small percentage of the 3,000 men here referred to are actually available for regular pastoral service.

During the early stages of our work we have been greatly impressed by the interest manifested throughout the Church. If anyone doubts the widespread feeling that something of definite quality should be done to aid in remedying the present situation in our Church as regards Vacancy and Supply, he needs only to consider the volume of the incoming mail of the Secretary starting from the very day he assumed the duties of the office. During these months he has received letters in number ranging from 500 to nearly 1,000 monthly, these relating to every phase of the vacancy subject and coming from every section of the country. On the average, more than fifty different ministers each month have made application to this Committee for information as to vacancies and needed assistance in changing fields. A few who on account of illness or for other cause had been temporarily out of work have desired to re-enter service, but the very large majority were men who for good and sufficient reasons felt a change of pastorate to be advisable. These represent every class of men throughout our Church, and they bear a forcible testimony to our lack of efficient methods for the transferring of ministers. It has been the deep regret of the Committee and of its Secretary that because of the stress of work fundamental in character, and yet which we have deemed absolutely necessary to any promise of future success, we have not been able to always give the careful attention and prompt response which many of these cases deserved. So far as possible, however, the men have been put in touch with Synodical and Presbyterial representatives where additional ministers were needed, and a considerable number were thus called to new fields of labor.

During this period we have found that vacant churches are equally desirous of securing reliable information as to available men. Communications have come to us from churches of nearly every description, located from New England to the Pacific coast. With all of these we have endeavored to cooperate as time would permit, and believe that much valuable service has been rendered many of these fields. Something as to the immensity of the task before us may be suggested by reference to a communication only recently received from a representative of the Synodical Home Mission organization in one of our older Synods, asking that we cooperate with them in the effort to secure seventy-nine additional pastors now required for Home Mission fields.

The proper dimensions of this Report will not permit a discussion of many other phases of our work, which would doubtless be equally interesting to the Church at large. These will be presented from time to time by articles furnished to our various Church papers.

In presenting this Report, the Committee desires to state that it is deeply impressed with the serious quality as well as the appalling dimensions of the task committed to it by the General Assembly in carrying out the provisions of the Overture adopted by the Presbyteries. The situation confronting our Church is the same which, to a greater or less degree, is to-day confronting each of the non-Episcopal Churches. We have conferred with the representatives of most of the other branches of the Church and find them all equally impressed by the growing condition as to vacancy which they are forced to confront.

Is the Presbyterian Church equal to the task of finding some solution for this problem which is now almost universally admitted to be the most serious problem of administration confronting all of the non-Episcopal Churches? We have carefully studied the history of our Church covering a period of more than forty years, during which time many Committees appointed by the General Assembly carefully considered this question, but without practical results along the line desired. After these months of careful investigation the Committee is of the opinion that with proper cooperation on the part of the Presbyteries a plan can be worked out whereby the present distasteful elements can be eliminated from the situation, and the present appalling loss on account of long-extended vacancy reduced to the minimum.

To achieve such results will, however, not only require the cooperation of the Presbyteries and the intense efforts of the Committee, but an adequate period of time. If anyone expects that an effective solution for the vacancy problem is to be worked out by this Committee in a year or two, then that person is doomed to disappointment. In the candid judgment of the Committee, this is not possible. With the beginning already made, we believe that it is practical to gradually formulate and extend a definite plan of operation into every Presbytery in the Church, so that eventually, through the office of this Committee as a centre, a definite system of cooperation shall be established covering the entire Church. To this somewhat appalling task, the Committee, with the approval and support of the General Assembly, is willing to dedicate its best energies.

WALTER H. HOUSTON, Corresponding Secretary.

The Committee called the Corresponding Secretary from a very large and important work, and were able to overcome his personal reluctance to give up that work, and the adverse judgment of the Ohio Synodical Committee, only because Mr. Houston felt the urgency of this broader work for the whole Church. The efficiency of his work in the Synod of Ohio was in no small part due to the fact that his tenure of office was on the same basis as that of the pastor, that is, for an indefinite term. That gave stability and cumulative effectiveness to his work. It is for that reason that the Committee urges the adoption of the third recommendation below.

The members of the Committee whose one-year term expires with this Assembly are: Ministers—S. S. Palmer, D.D., and Paul B. Jenkins, D.D.; Ruling Elders—A. A. Loetscher and William R. Farrand.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

1. That the time of removing the office of the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply be left to the discretion of the Committee.
2. That Presbyteries be urged to coöperate cordially with the Permanent Committee on Vacancy and Supply in their efforts to organize and effectively administer the work committed to them by the General Assembly.
3. That the first half of Section 3 of the Plan adopted by the Assembly of 1912 for the guidance of this Committee be amended so as to read as follows:

The officers of the Permanent Committee shall be a Chairman, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, and such others as may be necessary, and these, with the exception of the Corresponding Secretary, shall be elected annually.

4. That the Assembly recognizes the insistent demand from the Church that this problem be struggled with until solved, and that the plan adopted by the Assembly of 1912 is entitled to a thorough trial, continuing through a period of years, with adequate financial support.

5. That the Assembly approves the judgment of the Executive Commission in reckoning this Committee an administrative agency of the Church.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE N. LUCCOCK, Chairman.

FOREWORD.

In presenting the second annual Combined Statistical Report of the Boards and permanent agencies of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Joint Executive Committee representing the Executive Commission of the General Assembly, as well as the Boards and permanent agencies, desires to make grateful mention of the work of the late Rev. William H. Hubbard, D. D., the Secretary of the Joint Executive Committee. To his vision, energy, generosity and consecration is due no small measure of the success which has already crowned the united forward movement for benevolences and church support in the Presbyterian Church. The mantle left by Dr. Hubbard must fall upon other shoulders. God has translated his worker but will carry on his work. Out of the consciousness not only of a great loss, but of an insufficiency for the task which the genius of Dr. Hubbard had hitherto enabled the Joint Executive Committee to discharge, this volume is sent forth.

The various permanent Agencies of the Church extend their heartiest thanks to the churches that have contributed during the year.

Ministers, elders and, so far as they are interested, church members are invited to study the following tabulated figures. Apart from clerical errors, which it is hoped will be reduced to a minimum, the figures will indicate accurately how much money has been received from the churches by the treasurers of the various Boards and Permanent Agencies. It should be noted that the returns in the columns of the Minutes of the General Assembly are made by Clerks of Sessions through their presbyteries to the General Assembly. It is only fair both to the local church and to the Boards and Permanent Agencies that the latter should have the opportunity to certify the amounts actually received by them. In many cases the discrepancies are large and abnormal. Each minister and elder is asked to draw his own conclusions and to decide how far the discrepancy is wise and just.

Additional copies of this report may be secured from the office of the Joint Executive Committee upon the payment of thirty-five cents. (Postage stamps accepted.)

EXPLANATORY WORD.

The lists of clerks of Sessions of the Churches which appear in this report have either been furnished by the Stated Clerks of the several Presbyteries, or are taken from the Minutes of the Synods for the year 1912.

In combining into one exhibit the reports of contributions made directly to our nine Permanent Agencies, all contributions credited to organizations under the several Presbyteries which could not be identified with the list of churches of the Presbyteries as they appear in the Minutes of General Assembly for 1912, have been placed in the Appendix of the Report.

In reporting the contributions of churches of the various Permanent Agencies the fraction of a dollar has been omitted; where the contribution was fifty cents or over, a dollar has been added; where less than fifty cents, it has been dropped; contributions to any particular cause which have been less than fifty cents is indicated in the report by a dash.

In the Church Erection column:

- a. Indicates that the contributions are 10 per cent. of the grant received by the Church.
- b. In accordance with terms of mortgage.
- c. Refers to the list of repayments on Church mortgages.
- e. Refers to list of contributions to Manse Fund.

NOTE—The Board of Home Missions received the amounts (indicated by *) in addition to, and separate from other amounts acknowledged elsewhere in this book. These amounts represent a certain percentage of the total church offerings for Home Missions, remitted by the Synodical Treasurer, in accordance with the plan adopted by the Synods in question.

NOTE—The Woman's Board of Home Missions received the amounts (indicated by †) representing miscellaneous sums which cannot be credited to any individual society or to a presbyterial society, as the amounts were raised within the bounds of the synodical societies named.
