"MOTHER, COME BACK!"

BY ELIZA COOK.

Mother, come back! this is the cry
When some rare pleasure fills my heart,
When laughing joy lights up my eye,
And impulse wakes with eager start.
I know thou wouldst exult to see
The flush of sunshine on my track;
And faithful Memory clings to thee,
With burning words, "Mother, come back!"

Tidings, perchance, may reach my ear,
Cold, false, and bitter, in their tone,
Till the low sigh and stealing tear
Burst from a spirit, sad and lone.
Then do I breathe in accents wild,
With heartstrings stretched, on Feeling's rack,
"Thou who didst ever love thy child
With changeless faith, mother, come back!"

Faint languor shades my drooping face,
My pulses flutter, swiftly weak;
The fading lily takes its place,
And hides the rose-leaf on my cheek.
Then do I call upon thy name,
When stranger hands support my brow,
My pining soul still asks the same—
"Mother, come back, I need thee now."

When Fortune sheds her fairest beams,
Thou art the missing one I crave,
I ask thee—when the whole earth seems
As dark and cheerless as thy grave,
I ask thee, with a dreamer's brain,
For, no, ah! no, it cannot be,
Thou'll never come to me again.

TRIFLES

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

How is it, o'er the strongest mind,
That trifles hold such sway?
A word—nay, e'en a look unkind
May darken all life's day.
Oh, in this world of daily care,
The thousands that have erred
Can any hardship better bear
Than they can bear a word!

The man who with heroic heart
Can stern misfortune meet,
Unflinchingly perform his part,
And struggle 'gainst defeat
With faith unaltered,—yet can lose
His temper, e'en for aught
Which falls not as his will would choose,
Or proves not what he sought!

And woman can forgive a wrong
Which casts her on the world,
Far better than forgive the tongue
That may some sneer have hurled;
A thousand times prefer a lot
As hard as want depletes,
Than feel or think herself forgot
By one her heart adores!

Alas, the human mould 's at fault;
And still by turns it claims
A nobleness that can exalt,
A littleness that shames!
Of strength and weakness still combined,
Compounded of the mean and grand;
And trifles thus will shake the mind
That would a tempest stand.

Give me that soul-superior power,
That conquest over fate,
Which sways the weakness of the hour,
Rules little things as great;
That lulls the human waves of strife
With words and feelings kind,
And makes the trials of our life
The triumphs of our mind!

COAL DISCOVERY.—Baines Sound promises to be the next rival to Nanaimo, in producing coal. The return by the Emily Harris of Mr. Tiedman, who was sent up by a party of prospectors, confirms the anticipations of the Nanaimo discoverers.—There are said to be two seams of coal—the upper one four feet thick, bituminous; the lower one five feet thick, anthracite, and separated from the upper by sixty-five feet of sandstone, near the coast, about twenty-five miles from Nanaimo. The facilities for working the mine are described as excellent, and the holders of the claim will begin operations at once. We are assured that the requisite capital has been guaranteed to demonstrate the value of the discovery, and that that company have no intention of offering shares for sale. We sincerely hope they may realize their most sanguine anticipations.—CHRONICLER.

The difficulty of acquiring the English language which a foreigner must experience is well illustrated by the following question: "Did you ever see a person pare an apple or a pear with a pair of scissors?"

Joe, why were you out so very late last night?

It wasn't late—only a quarter of twelve. How dare you sit there and tell me that lie? I was awake when you came in, and it was three o'clock.

Well, isn't three a quarter of twelve?

The obituary notice of Boile states that he was the "father of chemistry, and brother of the Earl of Cork."

DETAILS OF EASTERN NEWS.

DATES TO OCT. 14th.

Eastern News.

New York, Oct. 8.—The Times' London letter of Sept. 17th, has the following, relative to the Fenian movement:
Some fifty arrests have been made in Dublin, nearly as many in Cork and a few in Liverpool, and some in the manufacturing towns of Lancashire—among the rest some Irish-Americans. The panic at Cork and other towns in the southwest has not diminished. There have been runs upon the local banks. The steamers, and their passengers' baggage, have been searched for documents and revelations. A gunboat is cruising off Cork harbor to intercept Yankee ships which are said to be on their way to Ireland with arms for the Fenians. There is a lively demand for fire-arms by those who mean to defend themselves. The most notable feature of the affair is, the humble rank of all those arrested. They are all small tradesmen, clerks, artisans, &c. The most considerable person arrested in Dublin is Taylor.

The chief informer against the Fenians appears to have been one who had been advanced to the grade of Colonel in the great Fenian army, but who, having no pay, rations or forage suitable to the rank, had been suffered to go to the work-house. The unfortunate dignitary, in brooding over his wrongs, concluded that low treason to his associates would prove more profitable than high treason against his sovereign Queen, and sold them to Sir Nolan, at the castle. This informer, who has the credit of being the first to sell the Fenians, is said to have been a Protestant, who went to Cork and pretended to become a Catholic and patriot. Unless ships loaded with American Fenians, arms and supplies are on their way, and succeed in making a landing, in spite of the constables and gunboats on the coast, we shall not hear much more of Fenian organization in Ireland. Two or three hundred will be arrested; of these, a dozen or more will be tried for treason and sentenced to penal servitude, as an example. Even these will soon be pardoned.

New York, Oct. 11.—The Post's special says, a letter from Kenneth Rainer, of North Carolina, favoring the separation of the black and white races, is published.—He declares that if separation is not granted, the Southern States will in ten years lapse into degeneracy. He asserts that the labor of the black race can't be made available in the South in these days. The public opinion is unanimously in favor of separation, and that the same view is gaining strength all over the South. He says there will not be 2,000 bales of cotton grown in North Carolina this year.

Oct. 12.—The Times today says the steamers City of Boston and Erin, which sailed from this port on last Saturday, are said to have taken out a million in bonds for the use of the embryo Irish Republic. It is currently reported that as soon as these bonds reach Ireland, matters will assume a more definite form. A proclamation, also printed here, will be spread broadcast over all the land. So well guarded is every avenue, that there is no possibility of the English Government getting possession of these documents, or interfering with the plan. It is claimed that the bonds have nearly all been subscribed by many people whom the Government little suspects. On the other hand, the British Government claims to have knowledge of all bonds, and have an agent on board the steamers in question, who will, at the proper time, seize and turn them over to the Home Government. In all probability both these steamers will be thoroughly searched before going to Queens-town, at least before any passengers or freight are allowed to land. War vessels are by this time stationed there for this express purpose.

Oct. 13.—The Times special says the Secretary of the Treasury has under consideration a plan to amend the bonded warehouse system, so as to permit goods to be transferred from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

The Tribune's Washington special says the Post Office Department is making up its accounts for the next Congress. It appears that while the mail service has been sustained by receipts for postage during the rebellion, the deficit when mail service was discontinued in the Southern States in 1861, will be $8,000,000.

This morning the counsel for Ketchum announced that he would put in a plea of guilty to the indictment charging his client with forgery. It appears that the prisoner proposed to plead guilty, but as matters affecting the late firm and their creditors were still pending and unfinished, and his explanations and testimony are still required by those interested, it was desirable to defer the plea to as late a day in the present term as practicable. The District Attorney said that such a request was not unusual, and gave notice that the plea must be put in on the last day of the term—which was agreed to.

The Herald's special dispatch says: The President is already employing his leisure hours on his coming message.

California News.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Gen. McDowell has issued a general order to the officers commanding the Districts of Arizona and Southern California, to suffer no armed parties or munitions of war to pass over the frontier to Mexico.

A private letter received in San Francisco by the steamer Oregon contains news to the effect that the City of Mexico was inundated about the beginning of September, consequent upon the breaking in of the canal aqueduct leading into the city, by the excessive rains. The loss is estimated at $20,000,000. Losses in one street alone amounted to $6,000,000.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Several buildings, including one at the southeast corner of Battery and Washington streets, are to be torn down and rebuilt. The City Hall is to be strengthened by means of anchors, etc.

An attempt was made yesterday to burn the chapel attached to the St. Mary's Hospital at Rincon Point. The fire was fortunately discovered and extinguished before it had gained much headway or done any considerable damage.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE AT CINCINNATI

The immense and massive stone-work of this magnificent structure, which is soon to span the Ohio river and unite the States of Kentucky and Ohio, is about completed.—We understand that in two weeks, a foot-bridge, for the use of workmen only, will be thrown across the river on wire ropes, and about one month from that time, they will commence stretching the wires for the main cables. They are receiving the wire for the latter as fast as possible.

The main bridge will be suspended on two wire cables, each of which will be thirteen inches in diameter. The cables will be constructed by stretching across one wire at a time, until the whole number required are in place, and then the machines for twisting them together will be brought into requisition. The iron saddle-plates, on which the cables will rest on the tops of the piers, are now ready, and weigh nine tons each.

The span of the bridge is 1,057 feet, being about 200 feet longer than Niagara Suspension Bridge, and longer than any wire suspension bridge in the world. About 5,000 tons of wire will be used in constructing it. The distance from the foundation to the top of the piers is two hundred feet, and from the floors of the bridge to the top of the piers is 119 feet. The floor of the bridge, when the river is at its present stage, will be ninety feet from the water, and will be ten feet higher at the centre than at either pier. The latter are built of solid masonry, and measure, at the foundation, one hundred by fifty feet, decreasing until reaching the top, where the measurement is seventy by thirty-six feet. As many workmen as can be used are employed, but notwithstanding all this, the bridge will not be ready for public transit short of a year. The spans from the piers to the anchorage are two hundred and eighty feet.

AN INCIDENT OF SHILOH.—During the battle of Shiloh, an officer hurriedly rode up to an aid and inquired for Grant.

That's him with the field-glass, replied the aid.

Wheeling his horse about, the officer furiously rode up to the General, and, touching his cap, addressed him thus:

General, I want to make you report:—Schwartz's Battery is took.

Ah, says the General how was that?
Well, you see, General, de t—d sheshes-chenists came in front of us, and de t—d sheshes-chenists flanked us, and de t—d sheshes-chenists came in de rear of us, and—aud—Schwartz's Battery vas took.

Well, says the General, you, of course, spiked the guns.

Vat! exclaimed the Dutchman in utter astonishment, schpiko dem guns!—schpiko dem new guns! No, it vond schpooil dem.

Well, said the General, sharply, what did you do?

Do? vy, we took dem back again!

A good-looking congressman pushed past the soldier who was guarding the entrance to the ladies' car at Washington, the other day, when the blue-coat stopped him saying: "Ladies' car, sir. You cannot go in there." "But," says our friend, "I am a member of Congress." "Can't help that, sir; if I let you in there, they will put me in the guard-house, and that's a d—d right worse than going to Congress."

A woman called at one of the military offices and desired to know when her husband would get killed. She remarked that she had a "right smart" offer of marriage, and wanted to know whether her "old-man" would come home again.

GERMANS do not have the words "burying ground," and "church-yard," to designate their places of interment; they use the beautiful and suggestive expressions, "God's Acre," and the "Court of Peace."

A man named Turn married his cousin of the same name, and gave as a reason for so doing, that he thought one good turn deserved another.

ARREST OF MOSBY.

The Washington Republican, in alluding to this notorious rebel raider and plunderer, says:

"Mosby, the guerilla chief, lately had the audacity, as has already been announced to our readers, to make his appearance in the city of Alexandria. He was soon recognized by his friends, and especially by his foes, many of whom had been his victims. Demonstrations for and against him were about being made by both parties, when General Wells, Provost Marshal General of the defenses of Washington, ordered his arrest. Upon being brought before General Wells, Mosby desired to know the cause of his arrest, and after repeated inquiries he was informed that there were between twenty and thirty Union men in Alexandria who had entered complaints against him as a highway robber, plunderer and common horse-thief, and that those there, upon learning that he was at large in Alexandria, were talking strongly of assaulting him or shooting him at sight. General Wells informed Mosby that it was his purpose to prevent any such violation of the peace, but, he added, there was also a class of people in Alexandria who sympathized with his (Mosby's) conduct as a guerilla, and were making preparations to make public demonstrations in his honor. The General notified Mosby that such a demonstration would under no circumstances be permitted. Mosby put in the plea that he had taken the oath of allegiance under the amnesty proclamation, and supposed, therefore, that he had the right to come to Alexandria, or go where he pleased. General Wells informed him that the amnesty proclamation was intended to cover men who had been engaged in honorable warfare, and not such as him, whose whole military life for the past four years was a violation of the laws of war. The record being clear that by order of Gen. Halleck, Mosby had been permitted to take the oath of allegiance, (in our judgment an outrageous perversion of the intentions of the President in issuing the amnesty proclamation), the Secretary of War ordered his release from arrest, with the understanding that he return to his home and never come again within the limits of this department without permission, upon the penalty of being arrested and confined in the Old Capital. Mosby accepted the release upon the terms named, and departed from the custody of General Wells.

A SPIRITUAL OBSTACLE TO MARRIAGE.—Eastern papers publish the following: A young lady moving in the upper circles at Chicago was betrothed at the beginning of the war to a Lieutenant in the army. He was killed in battle and his body taken home and buried by his nearest friend and comrade, who was with him when he fell. To this young man the lady's affections were very naturally transferred in time, and she engaged to marry him. When the happy day arrived, and just as the clergyman was about to pronounce them man and wife, the lady suddenly fainted, and being revived, forbade any further procedure, as she said she had seen the spirit of her former lover, and he was opposed to the match. She persisted in her decision, and has since retired to a convent.

STEWART'S palatial residence, which is now being erected at the corner of Thirty-fourth street and Fifth Avenue, New York City, is attracting considerable attention. It will be three stories high, with a basement.—The walls are white marble, and the style of architecture mixed Corinthian and Ionic.—The residence will have a front on Thirty-fourth street of one hundred feet; the side on Fifth Avenue is fifty feet. The entrance to the house will be about fifteen feet in width. The cost of the building is estimated at $1,200,000. It will be the most magnificent residence in the United States.

HERE is a singular sentence:
"Sator arepo tenet opera rotas."
This spells backward or forward all the same. The first letter of each word spells the first word. Then all the second letters of each word spell the second word. Then all the third; and so on through the fourth and fifth. Then commencing with the last letter of each word, they spell the last word. Then the next to the last of each word; and so on through.

INCREASE OF CRIME.—The figures on the books of the Police Commissioners of New York city, show that over 20,000 persons were arrested for crimes in that city during the three months ending July 31st; an increase of about 6,000 arrests over the previous quarter. There never was a time in the history of this country when crimes against persons and property were so frequent as now.

CRACKED.—A lady having accidentally broken her smelling bottle, her husband, who was very petulant, said to her: "I declare, dear, everything that belongs to you is more or less broken." "True," replied the lady, "for, even you are a little cracked!"

The following dispatch was received in San Francisco to-day:

New York, Oct. 18.—To W. O. Balston: The credit of California is being injured by exaggerated accounts of the earthquake. It is reported to have been something alarming. Please have a correct statement forwarded to me for publication. (Signed) H. W. Carpenter, Editor of the Chamber of Commerce.

The credit of California is being injured by exaggerated accounts of the earthquake. It is reported to have been something alarming. Please have a correct statement forwarded to me for publication. (Signed) H. W. Carpenter, Editor of the Chamber of Commerce.

Telegrams containing full accounts of the shocks were forwarded to-day. It is said that $1000 will cover the greatest amount of damage done to any one building.

THE GULF STREAM OF THE PACIFIC OCEAN.—It was Lieutenant Bent, of the United States Navy, an officer of much scientific spirit, and who was attached to the expedition to Japan under Commodore Matthew C. Perry, who discovered a river in the ocean—the Pacific—flowing northward, and eastward, along the coast of Asia, corresponding in every essential point with the Gulf stream of the Atlantic; and impinging on the northwest coast of America—impacting its southern influence to the coast of Oregon and California, to that degree, that the winters are so mild in latitude forty-eight degrees north, that snow rarely falls there, and the inhabitants are never able to fill their ice-houses for summer; and, per contra, the vessels trading to Petropaulovsk, on the coast of Kamtschatka, when becoming unwieldy from accumulating ice on their hulls and rigging, run over to a higher latitude on the American coast, and thaw out, in the same manner that sailing vessels, frozen on the Atlantic coast of America, retreat to the Gulf stream, until favored by an easterly wind. The fountain of the great Pacific "river in the ocean" from which this stream springs, is the great Equatorial Current of the Pacific, which in magnitude is in proportion to the vast extent of that ocean, when compared with the Atlantic. It extends from the Tropic of Cancer, on the north to Capricorn, on the south, and has a width of near 8,000 miles; and, with a velocity from 20 to 60 miles per day, it sweeps to the westward in uninterrupted grandeur, around three eighths of the circumference of the globe—until diverted by the Continent of Asia, and split into innumerable streams by the Polynesian Islands.—Ed.

CONCERN.—A wag whose business it is to bunt breaks in the telegraph line through the woods hereabouts, and who, by the way, is afflicted slightly with "gal on the brain," perpetrated the following:

"Why will the Mercer party resemble the telegraph line during the coming winter?" Answer: Both will want much repairing!

BELLS' COVER, one of the largest and brightest known, is approaching the earth. It is now only six million miles distant and will continue its advance movement until February 3 O T

Fare from Idaho City to Umatilla has been reduced to ten dollars, as the result of opposition.

Dr. Winship, the man who is said to have lifted 2,500 pounds, died recently in Roxbury, Massachusetts.

COUNTY ROAD.—Notice is posted in this place, stating that a petition will be presented, at the next term of the County Commissioners' Court, asking for the construction of a wagon road from Black river bridge, via Squak Valley, to Snoqualmie Prairie. We trust this project will be favorably considered by the Commissioners, as it is important that a thoroughfare be opened through the county, connecting with the Snoqualmie Pass road.

SEATTLE IS IMPROVING. Within the past few weeks a number of houses have been put in course of construction and others are about to be commenced. This is a certain indication of a rapid increase in business, as our good and substantial citizens have no inclination for building houses for mere speculative purposes; but, on the contrary, only build as the increasing trade imperatively demands more room.

LAST WEEK, in our notice of Mr. J. Collins having purchased an interest in the Occidental Hotel at this place, we spoke of Mr. Collins as formerly of the firm of Collins & Jamison, of Port Ludlow. We have since been informed that he still continues in business at Port Ludlow, and did not come to this place as we supposed.

ESCAPED.—On Thursday night last, the lock on the Jail door was forced off by some person on the outside, and three prisoners, who were indicted by the Grand Jury, at the last term of the Court, for stealing goods from Yesler, Denny & Co's warehouse, permitted to make their escape.

THE STEAMER Active propped up the Sound on Sunday last with U. S. troops for garrison duty at Fort Steilacoom, and came down on Monday with Captain Andrew's company of California Volunteers, whose time of service has expired, and who were on their way to California to be mustered out.

THE UNITED STATES TELEGRAPH has been completed as far as Kansas city, and may be expected to be in operation on this coast early in the ensuing spring, as it is being completed with all possible dispatch.

THE CHOLERA is still ravaging the Eastern country, and trade is suffering at Marseilles, France, caused by rigid quarantine regulations.

THE MINING NEWS, for the past week, from the different sections of the north, indicates the mining season for the present year to be closing.

HOLLOWAYS PILLS.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

THE EFFECT OF THE OINTMENT ON THE SYSTEM.

To the very core and centre of all diseases which affect the human body, this remarkable preparation penetrates. It disappears under the friction of the hand, and salt disappears when rubbed upon meat.
The ointment performs its healing errand rapidly, safely, and without pain. Simple eruptions, open sores, hard tumours, scrofulous developments of all kinds, abscesses, cancers, old wounds, and in fact, every species of inflammation or suppuration, whether in the skin, the flesh, the glands, or among the muscles, may be arrested in its destructive course and permanently cured without danger, by rubbing in this inestimable Ointment.

BAD LEGS, RASH BREASTS, SORES AND ULCERS.
In many Hospitals in Europe this celebrated medicine is now used for the cure of old wounds, sores and ulcers; in Spain and Portugal, and in many parts of Italy, the first Physicians regularly prescribe its use.
It is a sovereign remedy for bad breasts and bad legs; and likewise for all skins diseases. It is to be found in the chest of nearly every sailor, soldier and emigrant.

PILES, FISTULAS, STRUCTURES.

The above class of complaints is surely removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in this Ointment.
Persons suffering from these distasteful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress.
It should be understood that it is not sufficient to merely smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be rubbed in for some considerable time, two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually as though it were palpable to the eye. Bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service. This is the only proper treatment for females in cases of cancer in the stomach, or for those who suffer from a general tearing disease.

IMPRUDENCIES OF YOUTH:—SORES AND ULCERS.

Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way these complaints only dry up in our place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humour from the system, and have the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time, aided by the use of the Pills, to insure a lasting cure.

DIPHTHERIA, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROATS, COUGHS AND COLDS.

Any of the above class of diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day upon the skin covering the throat, chest and neck of the patient. The ointment will soon penetrate the pores and give immediate relief. To allay the fever and prevent inflammation, eight or ten Pills should be taken night and morning. The Ointment will produce perspiration, which is so essential for removing fevers, sore throats, and those impressions of the chest which arise from Asthma, Bronchitis, and other causes.

BOTH THE OINTMENT AND PILLS SHOULD BE USED IN THE FOLLOWING CASES:—
