REPORTS ELUSIVE

VALUABLE DOCUMENTS LEFT TO THE MERCY OF THE FOUR WINDS

Much difficulty has been experienced in securing returns from Tuesday's primary election in Glendale, especially in precinct No. 2. The count was not completed until yesterday afternoon and the reports were pinned to the tent, and of course did not long remain there. Miss Cora Hickman, correspondent for the Times, established a record for sprinting when she pursued one of these elusive documents through a near-by field. She won the race and was thoughtful enough to wish to save others a similar experience by weighting the papers with a stone. However, the next person who came along, satisfied his own curiosity as to the results of the election, and again liberated the documents to the mercy of the four winds. The reports should have been fastened securely to the voting tent.

TROPICO

Mrs. W. A. Hough spent Tuesday in Burbank as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Glen Craig.

Mrs. Albert Alspach of Moore avenue was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. T. M. Lynn, of Los Angeles, Wednesday.

After a pleasant visit of six weeks as the guest of her daughter in Eugene, Oregon, Mrs. Myra C. K. Shuey has returned to her home on Columbus avenue, where she will remain several weeks preparatory to leaving for Rochester, where she will spend the winter.

Judge George C. Melrose of Cypress street is conducting a justice court at Long Beach.

Arthur Campbell, Charles E. Donatin, Horace Donnell, Mrs. Mary Garrett, H. E. Glidden, Frank E. Middleton and Charles F. Parker were elected members of the county central committee of the sixty-first assembly district. Mrs. Ella F. Meeker won as candidate for member of the sixty-first assembly district in Tropic and Glendale.

The returns for the seven precincts—Glendale 4, Tropic 2 and Casa Verdugo 1—gave results for the first ten judges of the superior court: Works, 856; Wilbur, 832; Monroe, 825; Hewitt, 736; Taft, 703; Willis, 689; Jackson, 676; Blair, 650; Shenk, 638; Fleming, 595; thus placing the above jurists on the ticket for the November election. The other judges who received a large vote are: Reeve, 566; Chambers, 526; Meyers, 462; McDowell, 347; Coyne, 328; Morrison, 319; Buren, 269; Boden, 252; Long, 240; Williams, 221; Hannon, 216; Moore, 162; McKeely, 115.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw and family are enjoying a delightful vacation in the mountains near Redlands.

In the Verdugo precinct Judge Melrose received 72 votes, while Miller received but 46 votes.

Tropico precincts gave Judge Melrose, candidate for justice of the peace, Burbank township, 288 votes out of a total number of votes cast of 463, leaving the other three candidates but 175.

ANNIVERSARY NUMBER

The first sections of the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News are now on the press. A special pressman is being employed to do the work on our fine Miehle book and job press. Five thousand copies of sixty-four pages each are being printed. These sixty-four pages will be enclosed in a special cover on the front page of which appears a beautiful drawing from the pen of our local artist, Jacob Fink.

No time or expense is being spared in making the anniversary number a true mirror of Glendale. The purpose is to show up Glendale in the most favorable way possible.

Page upon page will be devoted to the history of Glendale, her societies, clubs, churches, business concerns, schools, etc. These pages will be made beautiful by the use of illustrations showing the pretty residences, mountain scenery and other attractive features.

On the last page will be published a carefully prepared alphabetical list of the names of all advertisers and contributors, giving the page upon which such advertisement or contribution appears. Everybody doing business in Glendale and vicinity is invited to be represented in this anniversary number of the Evening News.

MR. DESKY HERE

SALT LAKE VISITOR PLANS TO RETURN TO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Mr. M. H. Desky of Salt Lake City, who has been the guest of his brother, Salo Desky, in Glendale the past month, leaves today for San Francisco and Portland.

While here Mr. Desky visited every locality in Los Angeles county and vicinity, both by electric car and by motor. He has made himself thoroughly familiar with all the benefits of this favored region, as he intends to make the Southland his permanent home.

He was favorably impressed with conditions here and with the hustle and push of this section of the state. He was especially pleased with Los Angeles and its suburbs.

We hope that when Mr. Desky considers the various cities he has visited he will decide, like his brother, that Glendale is the best

NEUTRALITY RULES MODIFIED

The government finds it embarrassing to preserve neutrality without interfering with the legitimate operations of commerce. Its first rules regarding the personnel of the passenger lists of steamers bound for European ports have been modified so as to permit nationals of the belligerent powers to return home, so long as they go as individuals and not as members of any organized force. Naturally the individuals can be organized as reserve forces as soon as the ship gets beyond the three-mile limit, but so long as this country insists that those who wish to return to their native country must return as citizens and not as soldiers, its skirts are clear. When they are on the high seas they are liable to capture anyway, if they are in a ship of their own country.

The new regulations make it clear also that munitions of war may be shipped abroad either in American vessels or in vessels belonging to the belligerent powers provided the ship owners are willing to take the risk of capture and confiscation of their cargo. International law declares that munitions of war shipped to a neutral port are not contraband. War does not stop all commerce in arms or render all shipments liable to capture.

MAKE $1000 OFF VACANT LOT

EUGENE, Oregon, August 26.—Any child can have a thousand dollars saved up by the day he is 21 if his parents or others will lend him a piece of land fifty feet square and if his school and community can furnish him the right kind of instruction, guidance and encouragement in making the most of the land.

This was the declaration today of Dr. C. F. Hodge, professor of social biology in the University of Oregon, who was one of the first men in the United States to work out the school garden system. This he did in Worcester, Mass., where he was head of a department in Clark University. All this nature work, Dr. Hodge believes, should form a portion of a child's education, and the profit of $50 or so a year to be put at interest, would be pure gain.

"I have a little girl in Cleveland," said Dr. Hodge, "who made $250.83 out of a back yard garden patch last year. I am not at all certain that this is not the record production for land. Her plot was only 50x52 feet. Of course, she had the best land, the best direction and the best markets.

"General profits from a garden, of course, cannot run anything like this, though sometimes wonderful profits can be made by the discovery of some little special crop to meet a special demand in a location of normal scarcity. A boy or girl might, for instance, pretty nearly control a supply of some such thing as mint, or water cress, in a district where they are not common. Seeds and high-bred poultry are other possibilities for a small plot of land."

Uncle Sam is mighty glad that he built the Panama canal.

THE BEST OIL

There is nothing connected with a sewing machine that better illustrates the proverb that "the best is the cheapest" than the small but important item, OIL. Knowing from many years' experience the great importance of good oil, we sell at all our shops an extra quality of oil, specially prepared for Singer machines.

Beware of scented compounds advertised as equally good for lubricating and for polishing; such a mixture cannot be best for both purposes; it is a chemical impossibility.

Use nothing but Singer oil for all purposes requiring a fine lubricant. Warranted not to gum. 1020 West Broadway. Phone 656W. E. J. Upham. 11t3

A USE FOR VACANT LOTS.

In the effort to provide playgrounds for the children of New York, an appeal has been made to the property owners of that city to allow their vacant lots to be used for that purpose. Many have responded and several large plots are thus in use, the city protecting the owners from damage to their lands.

EAGLE ROCK

Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgibbon of Harvard drive delightfully surprised the latter's mother, Mrs. Browne, with a dinner in honor of her birthday last Monday evening. Red geraniums with ferns and other greenery played an important part in the decorating of the table and the rooms. A large birthday cake served as a centerpiece for the table, which fairly groaned under the weight of the good things to eat. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John Browne, Mrs. A. Sprague Sparks and Maurice Sprague and Arthur Browne.

Tomorrow (Friday) evening the members of the 313 Circle, O. E. S., are planning on giving a baked tuna supper in the Masonic hall and a pleasant time is being looked forward to.

The Presbyterians in this city have purchased the lots on Palm avenue between the residences of A. A. House and J. Q. Adams. In the near future they will erect a church.

SHEPHERDING THE SCHOOL TEACHERS

Action just taken by the Massachusetts state board of education indicates that the states may have to join with the nation in promoting return to the country of the small army of school teachers still detained in Europe. Prompt and generous as the conduct of European officials has been and swiftly as the legislative and administrative forces at Washington have moved in providing the funds and expert guidance for Americans whose outing tours have been summarily halted and whose return passage has been made difficult, there still is much to do if the host of travelers is to be repatriated in time for those who are teachers to arrive prior to school-opening dates.

There have been intimations from Washington that in all plans of relief originating and centering there preference was to be given to marooned educators. It would seem a sensible decision. If now the states, through their boards of education, can gather information that will aid the national agents in Europe in locating and shepherding the absentees they will do well. A call of this kind is going forth from Boston to kinsfolk of its teachers, and also from the state board of education. The replies, based on cabled messages and letters, will give clues that can be followed up.

Of course the schools and colleges will open next month, manned with substitutes if need be, but busy at their important task. Of course the teachers detained by the turmoil and stoppage of ordinary modes of traffic and the interference with transatlantic commerce will not be disciplined for their tardiness, and place and salary no doubt will await them when they do make port. Once returned to practice of their honorable calling it is probable that some teachers who hitherto have held aloof from the alliance of educational institutions with the arbitration movement will be more responsive to the arguments of educators like Dr. Jordan of California, Dr. Elliot of Massachusetts and Dr. Butler of New York.

SIMPLICITY OF FUNERAL SERVICES

There is a growth of feeling against elaborate funerals. Such services as were held for the late lamented Mrs. Woodrow Wilson are better expressive of present day sentiment. Her conspicuous position and the warm admiration excited by her sweet and generous life would have furnished plenty of excuse for stately formalities. But these exercises were restricted to scripture readings and a brief prayer. Only three carriages were allowed to join the last sad journey to the railway station.

There used to be an element of competition in funerals. The longest line of carriages and the highest stack of flowers were desired, and not merely as an expression of grief. It was an assertion and demonstration of the position in the community occupied by the departed and his surviving friends.

Many people felt an injustice was done to a deceased unless the trappings of woe were elaborate and costly. A long procession of carriages was often hired, whether occupants were in sight or not. Some people will recall the yarn about the man who, seeing an empty seat in such a line, jumped into the carriage. Looking solemnly around at his companions, he inquired, "And who is the poor soul whom we are following to his long home?" "How should I know?" was the reply of his seat mate. "I only came for the ride."

The social game was often being played even in this setting of sorrow. The arrangement of the pro-
