One general complaint is heard reprehending the frequent atastrophes on steam boats. It fills the mind with pain to May that hody, comprising the combined wisdom of the naon, not be indifferent to a matter so impostant; and may by direct their energies to devising some plan by which the vil may, at least in a measure, be obviated.

We were induced to make these observations on se lospital, on a secont visit to that institution, four of the vicms who escaped from the accident on the Missourian on er trassage from St. Louis to this port. Their situation afded a picture of horror, all their features were burnt and a stigured in a manner truly frightful. We cannot dwell upon a subject so revolting to humanity. Will not our Louis tors, National and State, do something? Can they any bonger hesitate? The Legislatures of Ohio and Pennsylvania

The Governor of Ohio, it was anticipated, would suggest the propriety of establishing a State Bank, calculated to met the wants of the community.

The Scuatorial election to the National Congress, to suppay a vacancy in the Pennsylvania delegation, has not yet taken place. Several candidates are nominated, among whom we notice the names of McKean, Muhlenburg, Buchannan, &c. 4-c.

The Committee of the United States Bank have published their ukase calling upon their subsidized forces to be in motion, to wage war against the administration. The whole is a pittful, trifling effair, in which "Q's right trusty and worthy triend, President Biddle," shows his cloven foot. It con-but, evan that of Potosi or Cirlgonda, his efforts will result in failures, accompanied with shame and degradation.

The ominous words MENE-MENE TEKEL-UPHAR-SIN are written, Mr. Bidle, in characters that do not require the prescience of ascer to read, and the institution over which you preside mulipay the forfeit of its crimes!
