Dedication

We gratefully dedicate this book to that group of individuals who are directly responsible for our being in the position to repay our great nation a small part of the heritage bestowed on us. We have reference to our instructors and supervisors of all phases of Air Corps training. To this end, grant us the faith to carry on in the tradition of those who have gone before.

REMEMBER THOSE DAYS!

We have put forth every effort to give you the kind of a book you'll be proud of—one that's a pleasure today and a fond memory tomorrow. Perhaps it'll help you to—remember those days—

Sincerely

As any book of this nature is only as good as the candid photography, we cheerfully lay the credit where it belongs—at the door of the photographic department represented by the above.

It really doesn't matter whether skys are blue or grey;
Because the time has come at last—our graduation day.
Touched by a sword, men of old were knighted by their kings;
Today, we, too, are knighted—with a pair of silver wings.
