

Explanation

The parts - A - colored red are allotted to the children of Sam<sup>l</sup> Wragg, dec<sup>d</sup> viz.
 the lots marked (1) are given to Judith Wragg, (2) to Henrietta Rothmiller, (3) to Elizabeth Wragg,
 (4) to Ann Ferguson, (5) to Sam<sup>l</sup> Wragg, (6) to Joseph Wragg and (7) to Mary Cabert -
 " B. colored yellow - allotted unto Henrietta Wragg - " C. colored green - allotted to the children of Mary Smith dec<sup>d</sup> viz. the lots marked (1) are given to Joseph Smith (2) to Jas<sup>l</sup> Ladson, and (3) to John Gibbs -
 " D. colored blue - allotted unto Christopher Gaddner - " E. colored purple - allotted to the children of Elizabeth Manigault dec<sup>d</sup> viz. the lots marked (1) are given to Joseph Manigault (2) to Nath<sup>l</sup> Heyward (3) to Gab<sup>l</sup> Manigault (4) to Ann Middleton - Piece of land - F. laid out as a site to erect a Church or Chapel thereon -
 " G - is reserved - Marsh land - H. containing 24 ac. 62 hund. exclusive of the Mud flats & Shoals, the northern Boundary being disputed cannot be divided until the right is ascertained and established -

A plan of Wragg - Borough

Situated on Charleston Neck, on the west side of Cooper River, adjoining the City of Charleston - As divided between the heirs of John Wragg dec<sup>d</sup> by Commissioners appointed by the Court of Common Pleas - from a Survey and division made in June - 1801

By Joseph Powell - Chm<sup>l</sup> Sep<sup>r</sup> 27th 1801 copy made by -

Wilson
 B<sup>l</sup> - Wraggsburgh contains of high land 74 ac. 32 hund. 35.9 ac. of Marsh land - exclusive of Mud-flats and Shoal lands -