Basic Order No. 24

regarding collaboration with Japan

The Führer has issued the following order regarding collaboration with Japan:

1. It must be the aim of the collaboration based on the Three-Power Pact to induce Japan as soon as possible to take active measures in the Far East. Strong British forces will thereby be tied down, and the center of gravity of the interests of the United States of America will be diverted to the Pacific.

The sooner it intervenes, the greater will be the prospects of success for Japan in view of the still undeveloped preparedness for war on the part of its adversaries. The "Barbarossa" operation will create particularly favorable political and military prerequisites for this (Marginal note - "slightly exaggerated").

2. To prepare the way for the collaboration it is essential to strengthen the Japanese military potential with all means available.

For this purpose the High Commands of the branches of the Armed Forces will comply in a comprehensive and generous manner with Japanese desires for information regarding German war and combat experience and for assistance in military economics and in technical matters. Reciprocity is desirable but this factor should not stand in the way of negotiations. Priority should naturally be given to those Japanese requests which would have the most immediate application in waging war.

In special cases the Führer reserves the decisions to himself.

3. The harmonizing of the operational plans of the two parties is the responsibility of the Navy High Command.

This will be subject to the following guiding principles:

a. The common aim of the conduct of war is to be stressed as forcing England to the ground quickly and thereby keeping the United States out of the war. Beyond this Germany has no political, military, or economic interests in the Far East which would give occasion for any reservations with regard to Japanese intentions.

b. The great successes achieved by Germany in merchantile warfare make it appear particularly suitable to employ strong Japanese forces for the same purpose. In this connection every opportunity to support German mercantile warfare must be exploited.

c. The raw materialssituation of the pact powers demands that Japan should acquire possession of those territories which it needs for the continuation of the war, especially if the United States intervenes. Rubber shipments must be carried out even after the entry of Japan into the war, since they are of vital importance to Germany.

d. The Seizure of Singapore as the key British position in the Far East could mean a decisive success for the entire conduct of war of the Three Powers.

In addition, attacks on other systems of bases of British naval power—extending to those of American naval power only if the entry of the United States into the war cannot be prevented—will result in weakening the enemy's system of power in that region and also, just like the attack on sea communications, in tying down substantial forces of all kinds (Australia).

A date for the beginning of operational discussions cannot yet be fixed.

4. In the Military commissions to be formed in accordance with the Three Power Pact, only such questions are to be dealt with as equally concern the three participating powers. These will include primarily the problems of economic warfare.

The working out of the details is the responsibility of the "Main Commission" with the cooperation of the Armed Forces High Command.

5. The Japanese must not be given any intimation of the Barbarossa operation.

Leisung Nr. 24
über Zusammenarbeit mit Japan.

u... 10.3.

Ar. 2

Konf. 3.

Der Führer hat für die Zusammenarbeit mit Japan folgendes befohlen:

- 1.) Das Ziel der durch den Dreie-Mächte-Pakt begründeten Zusammenarbeit muss es sein, Japan so bald wie möglich zum aktiven Handeln im Fernen Osten zu bringen. Starke englische Kräfte werden dadurch gebunden, das Schwergewicht der Interessen der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika wird nach dem Pazifik abgelenkt.

Die Erfolgssichten für Japan werden angesichts der noch unentwickelten Kriegsbereitschaft seiner Gegner um so grösser sein, je früher es zum Eingreifen kommt. Das Unternehmen "Barbarossa" schafft hierfür besonders günstige politische und militärische Voraussetzungen.

- 2.) Zur Vorbereitung der Zusammenarbeit ist es erforderlich, die japanische Wehrkraft mit allen Mitteln zu stärken.

Hierzu ist von den Oberkommandos der Wehrmacht den japanischen Wünschen auf Mitteilung nach dem Kriegs-und Kampferfahrungen und Unterstützung wirtschaftlicher und technischer Art in umfassender und grosszügiger Weise zu entsprechen. Gegenseitigkeit ist erwünscht, darf aber nicht die Verhandlungen erschweren. Im Vordergrund stehen hierbei naturgemäß diejenigen japanischen Anträge, die sich in kurzer Zeit für die Kriegsführung auswirken können.

In besonderen Fällen beehlt sich der Führer die Entscheidung vor.

- 5.) Die Abstimmung der beiderseitigen Operationslinie fällt dem Oberkommando der Kriegsmarine zu.

Hierfür gelten folgende Richtlinien:

- Als gemeinsames Ziel der Kriegsführung ist vermutet zu stellen, England rasch niederzuzwingen und USA dadurch aus dem Kriege herauszuhalten. Im übrigen hat Deutschland im Fernen Osten weder politische noch militärische oder wirtschaftliche Interessen, die zu einem Vorbehalt gegen japanische Absichten Anlass geben.
- Die von Deutschland im Handelskrieg erzielten grossen Erfolge lassen es besonders angezeigt erscheinen, starke japanische Kräfte zu gleichem Zweck einzusetzen. Dabein ist jede Unterstützungsmöglichkeit für den deutschen Handelskrieg auszunutzen.
- Die Rohstofflage der Nächte des Pakts verlangt, dass Japan diejenigen Gebiete an sich bringt, die es für die Fortsetzung des Krieges, besonders, wenn die Vereinigten Staaten eingreifen, braucht. Kautschuklieferungen müssen auch nach Kriegseintritt Japans durchgeführt werden, da für Deutschland lebenswichtig.

- d) Die Wegnahme von Singapore als Schlüsselstellung Englands im Fernen Osten würde einen entscheidenden Erfolg für die Gesamtkriegsführung der Drei-Mächte bedeuten.

Ausserdem sind Angriffe auf andere Stützpunkt-Systeme der englischen - der amerikanischen Seemacht nur, wenn Kriegseintritt USA nicht verhindert werden kann - geeignet, das dortige Macht-System des Feindes zu erschüttern und, ebenso wie beim Angriff auf die Seeverbindungen, wesentliche Kräfte jeder Art zu binden (Australien).

Ein Zeitpunkt für den Beginn operativer Besprechungen lässt sich noch nicht bestimmen.

- 4.) In den nach dem Drei-Mächte-Pakt zu bildenden Militär-Kommissionen sind lediglich solche Fragen zu behandeln, die gleicher Weise die drei beteiligten Mächte angehen. In erster Linie werden die Aufgaben des Wirtschaftskrieges hierunter fallen.

Festlegung im einzelnen ist Sache der "Hauptkommission" unter Mitwirkung des Oberkommandos der Wehrmacht.

- 5.) Über das Barbarossa-Unternehmen darf den Japanern gegenüber keinerlei Andeutung gemacht werden.

Der Chef des Oberkommandos der Wehrmacht.
