CONSTITUTION -

OF THE

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the State of North Carolina, grateful to Preamble. Almighty God, the Sovereign Ruler of Nations, for the preservation of the American Union, and the existence of our civil, political and religious liberties, and acknowledging our dependence upon Him for the continuance of those blessings to us and our posterity, do, for the more certain security thereof, and for the better government of this State, ordain and establish this Constitution:

ARTICLE I.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

That the great, general and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, and that the relations of this State to the Union and Government of the United States, and those of the people of this State to the rest of the American people, may be defined and affirmed, we do declare:

SECTION 1. That we hold it to be self-evident that all men are The equality and created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with cer- rights of men. tain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, the enjoyment of the fruits of their own labor, and the pursuit of happiness.

SEC. 2. That all political power is vested in, and derived from, Political power the people; all government of right originates from the people, and government. is founded upon their will only, and is instituted solely for the good of the whole.

SEC. 3. That the people of this State have the inherent, sole Internal governand exclusive right of regulating the internal government and ment of the State. police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their Constitution and form of government whenever it may be necessary for their safety and happiness; but every such right should be exercised in pursuance of law, and consistently with the Constitution of the United States.

That there is no right to secede.

SEC. 4. That this State shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are a part of the American Nation; that there is no right on the part of the State to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said Union, or to sever said Nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the State.

Of allegiance to the U.S. Government.

Sec. 5. That every citizen of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States, and that no law or ordinance of the State in contravention or subversion thereof can have any binding force.

Public debt.

Bonds issued under ordinance of Convention of 1868 and under acts of 1868, 1868-'9, 1869-'70, declared in-

Exception.

Exclusive emoluments, &c.

The legislative, executive and ju-dicial powers distinct.

Of the power of suspending laws.

Elections free. In criminal prosecutions.

SEC. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; nor shall the General Assembly assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any tax to pay, either directly or indirectly, expressed or implied, any debt or bond incurred, or issued, by authority of the Convention of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, nor any debt or bond, incurred or issued by the Legislature of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixtyeight, at its special session of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, or at its regular sessions of the years one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and one thousand eight hundred and seventy, except the bonds issued to fund the interest on the old debt of the State, unless the proposing to pay the same shall have first been submitted to the people and by them ratified by the vote of a majority of all the qualified voters of the State, at a regular election held for that purpose.

SEC. 7. No man or set of men are entitled to exclusive or separate emoluments or privileges from the community but in consideration of public services.

Sec. 8. The legislative, executive and supreme judicial powers. of the government ought to be forever separate and distinct from each other.

SEC. 9. All power of suspending laws, or the execution of laws, by any authority, without the consent of the representatives of the people, is injurious to their rights, and ought not to be exercised.

SEC. 10. All elections ought to be free.

SEC. 11. In all criminal prosecutions, every man has the right to be informed of the accusation against him and to confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony, and to have counsel for his defence, and not be compelled to give evidence against himself or to pay costs, jail fees, or necessary witness fees of the defence, unless found guilty.

Sec. 12. No person shall be put to answer any criminal charge, Answers to crimexcept as hereinafter allowed, but by indictment, presentment or impeachment.

Sec. 13. No person shall be convicted of any crime but by the Right of jury unanimous verdict of a jury of good and lawful men in open Court. The Legislature may, however, provide other means of trial for petty misdemeanors, with the right of appeal.

Sec. 14. Excessive bail should not be required, nor excessive Excessive bail. fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishments inflicted.

Sec. 15. General warrants, whereby any officer or messenger General warrants. may be commanded to search suspected places, without evidence of the act committed, or to seize any person or persons not named, whose offence is not particularly described and supported by evidence, are dangerous to liberty and ought not to be granted.

Sec. 16. There shall be no imprisonment for debt in this Imprisonment State, except in cases of fraud.

Sec. 17. No person ought to be taken, imprisoned, or disseized No person to be of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed or exiled, or law of the land in any manner deprived of his life, liberty or property, but by the law of the land.

SEC. 18. Every person restrained of his liberty is entitled to Persons restrained a remedy to enquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove of liberty. the same, if unlawful; and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed.

SEC. 19. In all controversies at law respecting property, the Controversies at ancient mode of trial by jury is one of the best securities of the law respecting property. rights of the people, and ought to remain sacred and inviolable.

Sec. 20. The freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks Freedom of the of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained, but every press. individual shall be held responsible for the abuse of the same.

Sec. 21. The privileges of the writ of $habeas\ corpus$ shall not Habeas corpus. be suspended.

Sec. 22. As political rights and privileges are not dependent property qualifiupon, or modified by, property, therefore no property qualifica- cation. tion ought to affect the right to vote or hold office.

SEC. 23. The people of the State ought not to be taxed, or Representation made subject to the payment of any impost or duty without the consent of themselves, or their representatives in General Assembly freely given.

Sec. 24. A well-regulated militia being necessary to the secur-Militia and the ity of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear right to bear arms.

arms shall not be infringed; and, as standing armies in time of peace are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up, and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power. Nothing herein contained shall justify the practice of carrying concealed weapons, or prevent the Legislature from enacting penal statutes against said practice.

Right of the people to assemble together. SEC. 25. The people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the Legislature for redress of grievances. But secret political societies are dangerous to the liberties of a free people, and should not be tolerated.

Religious liberty.

SEC. 26. All men have a natural and unalienable right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no human authority should, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience.

Education.

SEC. 27. The people have the right to the privilege of education, and it is the duty of the State to guard and maintain that right.

Elections should be frequent. Sec. 28. For redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections should be often held.

Recurrence to fundamental principles.

Sec. 29. A frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty.

SEC. 4. The House of Representatives solely shall have the Impeachment. power of impeaching. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators present. When the Governor is impeached, the Chief Justice shall preside.

Treason against the State. Src. 5. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open Court. No conviction of treason or attainder shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture.

Supreme Court Justices. Sec. 6. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices.

Terms of the Supreme Court. Sec. 7. The terms of the Supreme Court shall be held in the city of Raleigh, as now, unless otherwise provided by the General Assembly.

Jurisdiction of Supreme Court. SEC. 8. The Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to review, upon appeal, any decision of the Courts below, upon any matter of law or legal inference. And the jurisdiction of said Court over "issues of fact" and "questions of fact" shall be the same exercised by it before the adoption of the Constitution of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and the Court shall have the power to issue any remedial writs necessary to give it a general supervision and control over the proceedings of the inferior Courts.

Claims against the State. Sec. 9. The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear claims against the State, but its decisions shall be merely recommendatory; no process in the nature of the execution shall issue thereon; they shall be reported to the next session of the General Assembly for its action.

Judicial Districts for Superior Courts. SEC. 10. The State shall be divided into nine judicial districts, for each of which a Judge shall be chosen; and there shall be held a Superior Court in each county at least twice in each year, to continue for such time in each county as may be prescribed by law. But the General Assembly may reduce or increase the number of districts.

Residences of Judges, rotation in Judicial Districts and special terms. SEC. 11. Every Judge of the Superior Court shall reside in the district for which he is elected. The Judges shall preside in the Courts of the different districts successively, but no Judge shall hold the Courts in the same district oftener than once in four years; but in case of the protracted illness of the Judge assigned to preside in any district, or of any other unavoidable accident to him, by reason of which he shall be unable to preside, the Governor may require any Judge to hold one or more specified terms in said district, in lieu of the Judge assigned to hold the Courts of the said district.

Jurisdiction of Courts inferior to Supreme Court. SEC. 12. The General Assembly shall have no power to deprive the Judicial Department of any power or jurisdiction which rightfully pertains to it as a co-ordinate department of the government: but the General Assembly shall allot and distribute that portion of this power and jurisdiction which does not pertain to the Supreme Court, among the other Courts prescribed in this Constitution or which may be established by law, in such manner as it may deem best; provide also a proper system of appeals, and regulate by law, when necessary, the methods of proceeding in the exercise of their powers, of all the Courts below the Supreme Courts, so far as the same may be done without conflict with other provisions of this Constitution.

SEC. 21. The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, as is provided for the election of members of the General Assembly. They shall hold their offices for eight years. The Judges of the Superior Courts, elected at the first election under this amendment, shall be elected in like manner as is provided for Justices of the Supreme Court, and shall hold their offices for eight years. The General Assembly may, from time to time, provide by law that the Judges of the Superior Courts, chosen at succeeding elections, instead of being elected by the voters of the whole State, as is herein provided for, shall be elected by the voters of their respective districts.

Transaction of business in the Superior Courts. Sec. 22. The Superior Court shall be, at all times, open for the transaction of all business within their jurisdiction, except the trial of issues of fact requiring a jury.

Solicitors for each Judicial District.

SEC. 23. A Solicitor shall be elected for each Judicial District by the qualified voters thereof, as is prescribed for members of the General Assembly, who shall hold office for the term of four years, and prosecute on behalf of the State, in all criminal actions in the Superior Courts, and advise the officers of justice in his district.

SEC. 24. In each county a Sheriff and Coroner shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, as is prescribed for members of the General Assembly, and shall hold their offices for two years. In each township there shall be a Constable elected in like manner by the voters thereof, who shall hold his office for two years. When there is no Coroner in a county, the Clerk of the Superior Court for the county may appoint one for special cases. In case of a vacancy existing for any cause in any of the offices created by this section, the Commissioners of the county may appoint to such office for the unexpired term.

Vacancies.

SEC, 25. All vacancies occurring in the offices provided for by this Article of the Constitution shall be filled by the appointments of the Governor, unless otherwise provided for, and the appointees shall hold their places until the next regular election for members of the General Assembly, when elections shall be held to fill such offices. If any person, elected or appointed to any of said offices, shall neglect and fail to qualify, such offices shall be appointed to, held and filled as provided in case of vacancies occurring therein. All incumbents of said offices shall hold until their successors are qualified.

Terms of office of first officers under this Article.

SEC. 26. The officers elected at the first election held under this Constitution shall hold their offices for the terms prescribed for them respectively, next ensuing after the next regular election for members of the General Assembly. But their terms shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States.

Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace. SEC. 27. The several Justices of the Peace shall have jurisdiction, under such regulations as the General Assembly shall prescribe, of civil actions founded on contract, wherein the sum demanded shall not exceed two hundred dollars, and wherein the title to real estate shall not be in controversy; and of all criminal matters arising within their counties where the punishment can not exceed a fine or fifty dollars or imprisonment for thirty days. And the General Assembly may give to Justices of the Peace jurisdiction of other civil actions, wherein the value of the property in controversy does not exceed fifty dollars. When an issue of fact may be joined before a Justice, on demand of either party thereto, he shall cause a jury of six men to be summoned, who shall try the same. The party against whom judgment shall be rendered in any civil action, may appeal to the Superior Court from the same. In all cases of a criminal nature, the party against whom judgment is given may appeal to the Superior Court, where the matter shall be heard anew. In all cases brought before a justice, he shall make a record of the proceedings, and file the same with the Clerk of the Superior Court for his county.

Conveyance void corporation or its agents, &c., deed.

Mortgages do not exempt corporate property from execution on judgment for services or torts. SEC. 3. Mortgages of incorporate companies upon their property or earnings, whether in bonds or otherwise, hereafter issued, shall not have power to exempt the property or earnings of such corporations from execution for the satisfaction of any judgment obtained in courts of the State against such corporations for labor performed, nor torts committed by such corporation, its agents or employes, whereby any person is killed, or any person or property injured, any clause or clauses in such mortgage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Extent of application of this act to all corporations, their officers, directors and stockholders. Sec. 4. In addition to the powers enumerated in the first section of this act, and the powers specified in its charter, or in the act or certificate under which it was incorporated, every corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders, shall possess and exercise all the powers and privileges contained in this act, so far as the same are necessary or convenient to the attainment of the objects set forth in such charter or certificate of interporation, and shall be governed by the provisions, and be subject to the restrictions and liabilities in this act contained, so far as the same are appropriate to, and not inconsistent with, such charter, or the act under which such corporation was formed; and no corporation shall possess or exercise any other corporate powers, except such incidental powers as shall be necessary to the exercise of the powers so given.

Restriction on corporate powers.

Corporations created under this act can not carry on banking business.

Sec. 5. No corporation created, or to be created, under the provisions of this act, shall, by any implication or construction, be deemed to possess the power of carrying on the business of discounting bills, notes or other evidences of debt, or of receiving deposits of money, of buying gold or silver bullion, or foreign coins, or of buying and selling bills of exchange, or of issuing bills, notes or other evidences of debt, upon loan, or for circulation as money: Provided, that in the transaction of its business it may make, and take and indorse, when necessary, all such bonds, notes and bills of exchange, as the particular business may require.

Legislature to have plenary powers over charters of corporations. SEC. 6. The charter of every corporation, or any supplement thereto, or amendment thereof, shall be subject to alteration, modification, amendment or repeal, in the discretion of the Legislature, and the Legislature may, at pleasure, dissolve any corporation.

This act subject to amendment and corporations bound thereby. SEC. 7. This act may be amended or repealed at the pleasure of the Legislature, and every corporation shall be bound by such amendment; but such amendment or repeal, shall not take away or impair any remedy against any such corporation, or its officers, for any liability which shall have been previously incurred; this act and all amendments thereof shall be a part of the charter of every corporation heretofore formed, or hereafter

SEC. 9. The certificate of incorporation shall be signed by the original incorporators, or a majority of them, and shall be proved, or acknowledged, before an officer duly authorized under the laws of this State to take the proof or acknowledgment of deeds; such certificate of incorporation when so proved, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall, if the same shall be in accordance with law, thereupon cause the same to be recorded in his office in a book to be kept for that purpose, and known as the "Corporation Book," and he shall, upon the payment of the organization tax and fees, certify under his official seal, the said certificate of incorporation and probates, which said certificate of incorporation shall be forthwith recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county, where the principal office of said corporation in this State shall, or is to be, established, in a book to be known as the "Record of Incorporations;" and said certificate of incorporation, or a copy thereof, duly certified by the Secretary of State, or by the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which the same is recorded, shall be evidence in all courts and places, and shall, in all judicial proceedings, be deemed prima facie evidence of the complete organization and incorporation of the company purporting thereby to have been established.

Sec. 10. The persons so associated, their successors and assigns, shall, from the date of such filing in said office of the Secretary of State, be and constitute a body corporate by the name set forth in such certificate of organization, subject to amendment and dissolution in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 11. Until the directors are elected, the signers of the certificate of incorporation shall have the direction of the affairs and of the organization of the corporation, and may take such steps as are proper to obtain the necessary subscription to stock and to perfect the organization of the corporation.

Sec. 12. All corporations may, by their by-laws, where no other provision is herein made, determine the manner of calling and conducting all meetings; the number of members that shall constitute a quorum: (Provided, in no case shall more than a majority of shares or amount of interest be required to be represented at any meeting in order to constitute a quorum; if the quorum shall not be so determined by the corporation, a majority in interest of the stockholders, represented either in person, or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum); the number of shares that shall entitle the members to one or more votes; the mode of voting by proxy; the mode of selling shares for the non-payment of assessments; the tenure of office of the several officers, and the manner in which vacancies in any of the offices shall be filled, till a regular election, and they may annex suitable penalties to such by-laws, not exceeding in any case the sum of twenty dollars, for any one offense: Provided, that no such by-law shall be made by Proviso, any corporation repugnant to any provision of its certificate of organization: Provided further, that the provisions of this act Proviso. shall govern in all cases where the by-laws are silent.

Sec. 22. The School Committee shall have authority to employ and dismiss teachers, but no contract shall be made during any year to extend beyond the term of office of the committee, nor for more money than accrues to the credit of the district for the fiscal year during which the contract is made. No person shall be employed as a teacher who does not produce a certificate from the County Superintendent of Schools or other parties authorized by law to issue the same and dated within the time prescribed by law and continuing to the end of the term. No certificate to teach school shall be issued to any person under eighteen years of age. Teachers of second grade shall receive not more than twenty-five dollars per month out of the public fund, and teachers of first grade may receive such compensation as shall be agreed upon. Teachers of the third grade shall receive not more than twenty dollars per month, but no thirdgrade certificate shall be renewed and no holder of a third-grade certificate shall be employed except as an assistant teacher. No teacher shall receive any compensation for a shorter term than one month unless providentially hindered from completing the Twenty school days of not less than six hours nor more than seven hours each day shall be a month. The school term shall be continued as far as practicable. Certificates issued by any institution as now provided by law shall be void whenever the person holding said certificate shall for three consecutive years fail to teach in some school in the State.

SEC. 23. At the end of every term of a public school, the teacher or principal of the school shall exhibit to the School Committee a statement of the number of pupils, male and female, the average daily attendance, the length of term and the time taught. If the committee is satisfied that the provisions of this act have been complied with they shall give an order on the Treasurer of the county school fund, payable to said teacher, for the full amount due for services rendered, but monthly statements shall be made by the teacher to the committee, orders on the Treasurer shall be valid when signed by two members of the committee countersigned by the County Superintendent. When a and monthly report of any school where the district does not contain over one hundred and fifty children shows an average daily attendance of less than one-fifth of the school census, the committee shall at once order the school to be closed and the money due said school shall remain to the credit of that school.

CHAPTER 273.

An act to authorize the County Board of School Directors of Franklin County to settle certain claims against the towns of Louisburg, Franklinton and Youngsville in said county.

Preamble.

Whereas, according to a recent decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina all fines and penalties imposed and collected by Mayors of incorporated cities and towns for violations of the criminal laws and city or town ordinances, are held to be the property of the school fund of the counties in which said cities or towns may be situated, and, whereas, for a number of years in the towns of Louisburg, Franklinton and Youngsville such fines and penalties have been covered into the treasuries of the said towns under the belief that they should be so appropriated, and whereas, on account of the loss of the records of the aforesaid towns by reason of fire and other causes it is now impossible to have an accurate accounting between the Board of School Directors of the said county of Franklinton and the Commissioners of the respective towns and it is the desire of all interested that there should be a speedy and equitable and final settlement of the controversy arising out of the above recited facts; therefore.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

County Board of School Directors authorized to settle claims against certain towns. Section 1. That the County Board of School Directors of Franklin County be and are hereby authorized and empowered to settle and compromise all claims and demands against the Commissioners of the towns of Louisburg, Franklinton and Youngsville in said county on account of fines and penalties due from said towns to the school fund of said county, and upon payment by any of said towns of such sum as may be agreed upon as a just and reasonable compromise of its indebtedness to the said school fund, the said Board of School Directors are hereby authorized and empowered to accept the same in full satisfaction, settlement and compromise of all claims and demands which at the date of the ratification of this act may be owing by the said town upon the above recited acccount, and to release said town from any and all liability on such account: Provided, that the sum so received from any of said towns in Proviso. full settlement of the aforesaid claim shall not be less than the total of such fines and penalties as may have been collected by such towns between May 1, 1900, and the date of the ratification of this act.

Sec. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Conflicting laws repealed. act are hereby repealed.

(c). Cartways, which have no public use, are private ways opened up to allow one or more persons to pass through lands belonging to other parties in order to reach the public roads.

Sec. 12. That the thoroughfares or the principal public roads, as defined above, to be improved or constructed in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be first carefully surveyed and located by an engineer, trained and experienced in such work, aided by either the County Superintendent or Township Road Supervisors, and such assistance as it may be necessary for him to employ, the same to be paid out of the road fund of the county, for services and expenses as may be agreed upon by the County Commissioners. All such public roads shall be given a grade, nowhere greater than one foot, in sixteen, and a width of not less than sixteen feet, clear of ditches, trees, logs and other obstructions. All such roads shall be thoroughly drained and whenever it may be necessary to turn water across the road. this shall be done by putting sewer pipes, or other forms of covered drains, culverts or bridges: Provided, that where, in the opinion of an experienced and competent engineer, insurmountable obstructions make the grade of one foot in sixteen impracticable, the grade may be increased to one foot in twelve, for distances of less than one hundred feet in any one place: And provided further, that in places where the roadway must be blasted out in hard rock, the width of said roadway shall not be less than twelve feet.

SEC. 13. The neighborhood or branch roads, as defined in section eleven of this act, shall have a right of way of sixteen feet; but the width and grade of the roadway, and the specifications under which these roads shall be kept in repair, shall be decided by the Supervisor in that township or district subject to the approval of the Board of County Commissioners; and said roads may be relocated or otherwise changed, in the manner provided for in section sixteen of this act. The amount and nature of the labor to be performed under sections four, five, six and seven of this act, in the maintenance and repair or change of any one of these roads or part thereof, shall be at the discretion of the Supervisor in charge of said roads.

Sec. 14. Cartways, defined in section eleven of this act, are to be kept in repair by parties using the same. Any party desiring a cartway opened up over lands of other persons may file his petition for the same before the Board of County Commissioners through the Road Supervisor of the township or district in which such cartway is to be located, praying for a cartway to be kept open across such other person's lands, leading to some public road; and upon his making it appear to the board that the adverse party has had ten days' notice of his intention, the board shall hear the allegations of the petitioner and the objections of the adverse party or parties, and if sufficient reason be shown, shall order the Constable to summon a jury of five freeholders, to view the premises, and lay off a cartway not less than fourteen feet wide, and assess the damages the owner of such land may sustain thereby; which, with the expense of making the way, shall be paid by the petitioner, and the way shall be kept open for the free passage of all persons, on foot or horseback, carts and wagons. Cartways, laid off according to the provisions of this section may be changed or discontinued How changed or upon application by any person concerned, under the same rules discontinued. of proceeding as they may be first laid off, and upon such terms as to the Board of County Commissioners shall seem equitable and just. Majority voting for removal, County Commissioners to proceed to effect same.

County seat to be removed on completion and acceptance of new buildings.

Registrars and judges to be appointed first Monday in March, 1902.

Registration books to be purged.

Registrars and judges to make returns to County Commissioners,

Section 1. That there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the county of Jackson, at an election to be held on the first Thursday in May in the year 1902, the question of the removal of the county seat from the town of Webster to the town of Sylva, and the issue of bonds to pay for the erection of a new court-house and jail thereat, and the authorization of levies of special taxes to provide the funds to meet the said bonds and to pay for the erection of such buildings, and for suitable sites for the same, at which said election, all voters favoring such removal of the county seat shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "For Removal" thereon; and all voters opposed to such removal shall vote a written or printed ballot with the words "Against Removal" thereon, and, if a majority of all of the qualified voters of the said county shall vote for removal, then it shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners of the said county to take immediate steps to effect such removal, the procurement of suitable sites, in the town of Sylva, for the court-house and jail, and the construction and erection of such buildings, in the manner hereinafter provided; and, upon the completion of such buildings and their acceptance by the said Board of Commissioners, the county seat of said county shall be at Sylva,

Sec. 2. That it shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners of Jackson County, at their meeting on the first Monday in March, 1902, to appoint a registrar and two judges of election, who, where practicable, shall be of different opinions on the question of removal of the county seat, for each voting precinct in said county, who shall take the same oaths of office as prescribed for such officers under the general law, and shall conduct the said election in the same manner, and under the same penalties, as provided for in the election of members of the General Assembly. That it shall be the duty of the registrar to purge the registration books of his election precinct, and erase therefrom the names of all voters who have removed therefrom, died or otherwise become disqualified since the last general election, and to register such voters as shall be entitled to registration under the general law, and whose names are not already on the registration books. That the registrar and judges of election shall make their returns of such election to the Board of County Commissioners of said county, in the same manner as returns for members of the General Assembly are made, and in addition thereto they shall certify the number of qualified voters as shown by the registration books. It shall be the duty of the Board of Commissioners of said county to meet, at the County Commistown of Webster, on Monday after the said election, and proceed to canvass the returns of the said election, and to declare the returns Monday result thereof; and if it shall appear that a majority of all of and declare the qualified voters of the said county have voted for removal, then it shall be deemed and taken that such majority of qualified voters have authorized the issue of the bonds to pay for the sites and the construction and erection of the court-house and jail, and have authorized the levy of all such special taxes as shall be necessary to pay for the said bonds and interest thereon, or to pay directly for such sites, and buildings, under the provisions of this act. And if it shall appear that less than a majority of all of the qualified voters of the said county have voted for removal, then the county seat of said county shall be and remain at the town of Webster.

Roads classified and defined.

Sec. 10. For the purposes of this act the roads or ways of the county are hereby classified as follows:

Thoroughfares.

(a) The thoroughfares include the more important public roads which usually lead through two or more townships or counties, and are extensively used by the travelling public. As these roads become properly graded and drained, and have their surfaces improved by being covered with broken stone, gravel, or a suitable admixture of sand and clay in such manner that the same will with reasonable repairs thereto at all seasons be firm and smooth, shall become the highways of the county.

Neighborhood or branch roads.

(b) The neighborhood or branch roads are public roads which are confined usually to the limits of one or two townships, and generally lead from neighborhoods or settlements to the main thoroughfares.

Cartways.

(c) Cartways, which have no general public function, are private ways opened up to allow one or more persons on foot, on horseback or with any vehicle to pass to and from his or her property through lands belonging to other parties in order to reach the public road. Information and advice concerning the location, re-location and general improvement of these public roads shall be furnished to the county authorities by the State Highway Commission. And the said Highway Commission is hereby made the interpreter of and may revise the specifications for road building provided in this act; and it shall further prescribe the general regulations for the management of prisoners working on the public roads.

State Highway Commission, annual report to and powers of.

Surveys of roads, pay for same. Grade and width of roads.

Sec. 11. That the thoroughfares or highways as defined above to be improved or constructed in accordance with the provisions of this act, prior to the inauguration of any such permanent improvements on the road or highway to be so improved or constructed shall be first carefully surveyed and located by an engineer, trained and experienced in such work, aided by the County Road Superintendent or Supervisor and such assistants as it may be necessary for him to employ, the same to be paid out of the road fund of the county, for services and expenses as may be agreed upon by the County Commissioners. All such public roads or highways where changed or hereafter located, re-located or widened shall be given a grade nowhere greater than six feet in one hundred feet, and they shall have a width of not less than twenty feet, clear of ditches, trees, logs, and other obstructions: Provided, that where, in the opinion of an experienced and competent engineer, insurmountable obstructions make the Proviso as to grades just described impracticable, the grades may be increased to the extent of one foot in one hundred, for distances of less than fifty feet in one place: Provided further, that where the Proviso as to roadway must be located on the steep slope of a mountain or hill its width shall not be less than sixteen feet between ditches, or where blasted out in hard rock the width of such roadway shall be not less than thirteen feet: Provided further, that Proviso as to these thoroughfares or highways shall have a right of way of forty-five feet, but the width of the road-bed within the limits here specified shall be decided by the Board of Commissioners. All such roads shall be thoroughly drained, and wherever it may be necessary to turn water across them this shall be done by putting in sewer pipe or other forms of covered drains or culverts. These thoroughfares or highways as they are improved under the provisions of this act, shall be located at a distance from any railway line of not less than three hundred (300) feet except in cases where in the opinion of an experienced engineer a nearer approach to said railway line for a few yards be necessary. They shall cross said railway line only when in the opinion of such engineer, this be necessary; and at such crossings whenever possible the roadway shall be located either under or over the said railway line; and it shall be the duty of the company operating the said railway line to construct and keep in good repair the road-bed, including necessary bridges or culverts, of such thoroughfares or highways across the right of way occupied and claimed by said railway company, this precaution being taken as a proper safeguard to life.

Sec. 12. The neighborhood or branch roads, as defined in section ten of this act, shall have a right of way of thirty feet; but the width and grade of the roadway, and the specifications under which these roads shall be kept in repair, shall be decided by the County Superintendent of Roads or the Supervisor in that township or district, subject to the approval of the Board of County Commissioners; and said roads may be re-located or otherwise changed, in the manner provided for in this act. The amount and nature of the labor to be performed under sections four, five, six and seven of this act, in the maintenance and repair or change of any one of these roads or part thereof, shall be at the discretion of the said Superintendent or Supervisor in charge of said roads.

Sec. 13. Cartways, defined in section ten of this act, are to be kept in repair by parties using the same. Any party desiring a cartway opened up over lands of other persons may file his

SEC. 2. The Board of Commissioners of said county shall written notice upon the owner of such owner is a resident of this State. setting forth description of such land as may have been selected by the said Board of Commissioners, stating whether the same has been selected for the site or location of the court-house, jail or county home for the aged and infirm, stating the time when the said land will be valued and the names of the Commissioners appointed to value the same. In case the owner of such land shall be an infant, idiot or lunatic with general guardian, the said notice shall be served upon such guardian. In case the owner of such land shall be an infant, idiot, or lunatic without general guardian, then, and in such case the Clerk of the Superior Court of Scotland County shall, upon the application of said Board of Commissioners, appoint a special guardian to represent said infant, idiot, or lunatic. The person so appointed special guardian shall be a person of intelligence, good moral character, and a freeholder in the county of Scotland, and said notice shall be served upon such special guardian. In case the owner of such lands shall be a non-resident, whose residence is known, then and in such case said notice shall be served by mailing a copy of such notice addressed to him at such place of residence and by publication of a copy of such notice for thirty days in some newspaper published in Scotland County. In case the owner of such land is a non-resident, and his residence is unknown, such notice shall be served by publishing the same in some newspaper published in Scotland County for thirty days. In case the owner of such land is a corporation, such notice shall be served by delivering a copy of the same to any local agent within this State. If a non-resident corporation, the said notice shall be served as in cases of non-resident persons.

SEC. 3. That for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the Proceedings to land selected by the Board of Commissioners for Scotland County determine and the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county on petition of the value of land County Commissioners shall appoint three persons residents of Scotland County, who shall be freeholders, persons of intelligence, and good moral character, as Commissioners to value and appraise said land. Such persons so selected as Commissioners to value and appraise said land, shall be notified in writing of their appointment as Commissioners and such notice shall state the time and place when they shall meet to value and appraise said land, a description of the land to be valued and appraised and whether the same is to be used as a location or site for the court-house, jail or county home for the aged and infirm. The said Commissioners shall meet at the time and place indicated in the notice served upon them, and after being duly sworn to value and appraise the said land justly and fairly to the best of their knowledge and belief, they shall first enquire whether owner of said land to be valued and appraised by them has been notified in the manner stated in this act. If such land owner has not been so notified they shall adjourn to a future day and cause such notice to be served upon the land owner. If they find the land owner has been notified as prescribed in this act, they shall then view the said land and value and appraise the same at what they believe its actual cash value to be. The owner of such land or the Board of County Commissioners may be present in person, may have an attorney to represent them and may give evidence to said Commissioners and have witnesses examined in either behalf if either desire it. But no evidence shall be heard by said Commissioners until after the person to testify has been duly sworn by one of the Commissioners to speak the truth. The said Commissioners shall have the right and power to adjourn from day to day until they shall have completed the valuation and appraisal of said land. The said Commissioners shall make a written report signed by them of their proceedings Written report of in making such valuation and appraisal of said land and the proceedings to be amount at which land is valued and appraised to the said Board Commissioners of County Commissioners at its next regular meeting succeeding such valuation and appraisal by said Commissioners. Branch roads, provisions for. Sec. 12. The neighborhood or branch roads, as defined in section ten of this act, shall have a right of way of thirty feet; but the width and grade of the roadway, and the specifications under which these roads shall be kept in repair, shall be decided by the County Superintendent of Roads or the Supervisor in that township or district subject to the approval of the Board of County Commissioners; and said roads may be re-located or otherwise changed in the manner provided for in section fifteen of this act. The amount and nature of the labor to be performed under sections four, five, six and seven of this act in the maintenance and repair or change of any one of these roads or part thereof, shall be at the discretion of the said Superintendent or Supervisor in charge of said roads.

Cartways, how constructed and kept.

Sec. 13. Cartways, defined in section ten of this act, are to be kept in repair by parties using the same. Any party desiring a cartway opened up over lands of other persons may file his petition for the same before the Board of County Commissioners through the Road Supervisor of the township or district in which such cartway is to be located, praying for a cartway to be kept open across such other person's land, leading to some public road; and upon his making it appear to the board that the owner or owners of said lands, or their legal representatives, have had ten days notice of his intention, the board shall hear the allegations of the petition and the objections, if any, of the owner or owners or their representatives, and if sufficient reason be shown, shall order the Constable or other officer to summon a jury of five freeholders, to view the premises, and lay off a cartway not less than fourteen feet wide, and assess the damages, if any, the owner of such land may sustain thereby, which, with the expense of making the way, shall be paid by the petitioner; and the way shall be kept open for the free passage of all persons, on foot or horseback, carts and wagons. Cartways, laid off according to the provisions of this section, may be changed or discontinued upon application by any person concerned, under the same rules of proceeding as they may be first laid off, and upon such terms as to the Board of County Commissioners shall seem equitable and just. And any person through whose land a cartway may pass, may erect gates or bars across the same; and if any person shall leave open, break down or otherwise injure such gates or bars, he shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, ten dollars to the person erecting the same or the owner of the land; and if the offence shall be maliciously done, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that in case a cartway has been granted by mutual consent of the interested parties and without official sanction the same shall not be closed by any party until opportunity has been given for the establishment of such a cartway as herein provided for; and any person so closing a cartway in violation of this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 14. That for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Eminent domain this act, the said Superintendent and Supervisors are hereby autobe exercised by certain officers. thorized to enter upon any lands, near to or adjoining any public roads, to cut and carry away timber, except trees or groves on improved lands planted or left for ornament or shade; to dig, or cause to be dug and carried away, any gravel, sand, clay or stone which may be necessary to construct, improve or repair said road, and to enter on any lands adjoining or lying near the road in order to make such drains or ditches through the same as he may deem necessary for the betterment of the road, doing as little injury to said lands and the timber or improvements thereon as the nature of the case and the public good will permit, and the drains and the ditches so made shall be conducted to the nearest ditch, drain, watercourse or waste ground, and shall be kept open by the said Superintendent or Supervisors, and shall not be obstructed by the owner or occupant of such lands or any other person or persons under the penalty of forfeiting a sum of not less than five dollars nor exceeding ten dollars, or imprisonment or work on the public roads of the county for not less than ten nor exceeding twenty days for each and every offence, said penalty to be collected by the said Superintendent or Supervisors, if in money, and paid over to the County Treasurer and applied to the road fund of the county. If the owner of any lands, or the agent or agents of such owner, having in charge lands from which timber, stone, gravel, sand or clay were taken as aforesaid, shall present an account of the same, through the County Road Superintendent or Supervisor at any regular meeting of the County Commissioners within thirty days after the taking and carrying away of such timber, stone, gravel, sand or clay, it shall be the duty of said Commissioners to pay for the same a fair price; and before deciding upon this they may cause to be appointed an impartial jury of three freeholders, one to be selected by the County Road Superintendent or Supervisor, one by the party claiming damages, and the third to be selected by these two, which jury shall report in writing to the Board of Commissioners their decision for revision or confirmation: Provided, that said land owner or his agent shall have the right of appeal as provided for in section thirteen of this act.

Taxes to be regulated by commissioners.

(b) The Board of Commissioners of any county coming under the provisions of this act in which the moneys expended for road improvement in the county or any township thereof exceeds an amount equivalent to the tax levy of fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property, may, at the discretion of said board, reduce the money requirement in lieu of the four days' labor on the roads provided for in section four of this act in such county or township thereof to one dollar for each year.

Special tax need not be levied under certain conditions. (c) In any county coming under the provisions of this act which appropriates annually for road purposes moneys derived from the sale of bonds, or from other taxes, not less in amount than the income from a tax levy of fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property in such county, the Commissioners in said county shall not, while continuing such appropriation, be required to levy the special road tax provided for in section one of this act.

County Treasurer to be treasurer of road fund.

SEC. 20. That the County Treasurer shall be and he is hereby appointed treasurer of the road fund of the county and of the several townships in the same, and for the faithful keeping and disbursing of said money, the bond of such treasurer shall be liable; and for his services in receiving and disbursing such funds he shall receive such a commission as the Board of County Commissioners may agree upon, not to exceed two per cent, on all moneys disbursed hereunder. He shall pay the accounts against the road fund of the county and of the several townships when itemized statements of the same have been certified to by the County Road Superintendent or Township Supervisor, and approved by the Board of County Commissioners. The County Treasurer shall keep a separate account of the road fund of the Duties of. county and of each of the several townships therein, and of his disbursements of the same, and he shall make a written report thereof to the Board of County Commissioners, at their regular meetings on the first Monday in each month; and on the first Monday in July and January of each and every year, he shall present to the said Board of Commissioners a written report, giving a statement of the disbursements from the several road funds during the preceding six months, which reports, or the substance thereof shall be published by said Commissioners in at least one newspaper published at the county seat, for at least one insertion: Provided, that the Board of County Commissioners of the county for the purpose of prosecuting the road work of the county or any township thereof are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money at the legal rate of interest until the taxes are levied and collected in accordance with the provisions contained in section one of this act, and the sum so borrowed shall be paid out of the taxes collected for and applicable to the county road fund or if borrowed for any township, out of the road fund of the township for which said money is borrowed: Provided further, that the said board shall not bor- Proviso. row a sum to exceed two-thirds of the amount of the taxes to be levied and collected for the said county or township road fund. Resolution in favor of Cyrus Thompson ex-Secretary of State.

WHEREAS, The Secretary of State is allowed under section Preamble. 2724 of The Code $1,000.00 per annum for a clerk and $1,000.00 per annum for extra clerical assistance, the payment of the latter sum being contingent, however, upon the fees collected by the Secretary of State and paid by him to the Treasurer; and,

Whereas, The fees collected by the Secretary of State and paid Preamble. to the Treasurer have not amounted to $1,000.00 per annum, exculsive of the license fees of insurance companies; and,

Whereas, By the removal of the insurance business from the Preamble, office of the Secretary of State the extra clerical allowance of that office was reduced for the year 1900 to the sum of $625.06, while the work of the office was as great as ever; and,

Whereas, The sum of $625.06 was not a sufficient amount for Preamble. extra clerical assistance to do the work of the office, and the work of the office would have suffered had it not been for the fact that Cyrus Thompson, Secretary of State, expended for the year 1900, the full sum of $1,000.00, as prescribed by The Code, for extra clerical assistance; now therefore,

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

That the Auditor is hereby authorized and directed to draw To pay Cyrus his warrant on the Treasurer for the sum of $374.94, payable Thompson, exto Cyrus Thompson, former Secretary of State, to reimburse $374.94 for neceshim for the necessary expenditure in the conduct of the office, tures while Secreand the Treasurer is directed pay the same.
