

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., January 30, 1890., 188 .

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 29th inst., relative to the storage of mint records, I would say that I conferred with the Supervising Architect on the subject and there will probably be no objection to your keeping the key of the room in the Post Office for the present. If any question should arise in regard to it by the Post Office people the Supervising Architect will let me know before making any decision in the case.

Very respectfully yours,

Director.
