BRILLIANT PIANIST AND NOTED SINGER APPEAR AT CLUB

Program Given by Courtesy of Loomis - Shuck Received With Much Pleasure

In view of the opportunity afforded of hearing two very excellent musical artists the regular social meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon at Masonic temple, was dispensed with and the members of that organization enjoyed to the utmost the pleasure of hearing Henry Souvaine, brilliant young American pianist, and Penelope Davies, noted mezzo-soprano, who appeared through the courtesy of the Loomis-Shuck Music company of 211 North Brand boulevard in a program of unusual merit.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, who was detained on account of illness in the family, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman of the social committee, who announced the open-forum meeting to be held next Tuesday, at which time Dr. Moore will be the speaker. This will be preceded by a business meeting and social half-hour and his talk will begin at 3:30 o'clock. On behalf of Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president of the Business and Professional Women's club, she extended an invitation to the members to inspect the rest rooms which have been established by that organization. Mrs. Lillian Dow announced the entertainment given last night at the T. D. & L. theatre for the benefit of the Monte Vista Home.

NEW INSTRUCTORS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Three Teachers Are Secured and Will Begin Their Work on Next Monday

Two new teachers were appointed last night by the high school board of trustees and the selection of a third additional teacher was authorized. All three teachers will begin their duties with the commencement of the new semester, Monday.

Miss Mabel Taylor, who was born in Brazil and learned Portuguese before she became familiar with English, will devote her entire time to Spanish. It was felt that she was well qualified for a position upon the faculty on account of her knowledge of the customs and mode of thought of Latin-America.

Miss Taylor formerly taught in Texas, but came to California last June and liked it so well that she decided to remain. On account of illness last fall, she was obliged to resign her position at Dinuba High school.

Water Meters Total 6238 and Light 7288

"No signs of let up in Glendale's building," says J. P. McIntyre, commercial agent of the public service department. "There were 198 new electric meters set during the month of January and seventy-eight for water, although the wet weather hampered the latter."

"This now gives a total of 6238 water meters and 7288 light meters, indicating that the population has increased in the neighborhood of 650 people the past month," Mr. McIntyre concludes.

EXPERIENCE SNOW STORM

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vanderwood of 519 North Kenwood spent the week-end at Rialto. While there they experienced quite a snowstorm. There were three inches of snow in that city.

Mass Meeting at High School Tonight on Sewer Problem

The importance of tonight's mass meeting at the high school to discuss the local sewerage problem was emphasized this morning by City Manager W. H. Reeves. He called attention to the fact that the meeting has been officially called by the city council. Mr. Reeves stated that Mayor Spencer Robinson probably would preside and that the meeting would be called to order at 7:30 o'clock.

A. H. Koebig of Los Angeles has been invited to address the meeting as a specialist on sewerage problems. Mr. Koebig has acquired a reputation as a consulting and construction engineer and has given considerable attention to problems of hydraulic and electric corporations. He supervised the building of the first sanitary sewer system in San Bernardino and was retained as consulting engineer in building sewer systems in Riverside, San Diego, Fresno and other cities. At one time he was chairman of the board of sanitary engineers for Los Angeles county.

The firm of Koebig & Koebig, of which he is a member, is now engaged in planning sewerage systems for Burbank, Watts, Culver City and Venice.

ARBUCKLE CASE MAY BE GIVEN TO JURY TONIGHT
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—The state finally rested in the second trial of Roscoe ("Fatty") Ar buckle for manslaughter at 10:35 o'clock this morning, just three weeks after the trial opened. Three witnesses, Dr. W. H. Harrison, medical expert; Carl Eischenchimmel handwriting expert, and J. V. O'Neil of the police identification bureau, closed the state's case. Judge Louderback declared a recess until 11 o'clock when Assistant District Attorney U'Ren opened the argument for the state. Judge Louderback said if arguments were completed late this evening he would charge the jury tonight. Gavin McNab, chief counsel for Ar buckle, said he might, in order to speed the case, eliminate all defense arguments.

U. S. TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS UNDER FUNDING BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The treasury department today perfected its plans to undertake negotiations with foreign governments for the funding of their $11,000,000,000 indebtedness to the United States, following the passage of the debt bill last night by the senate and the assurances of republican leaders that minor changes made in the bill by that body would soon be adjusted in conferences with the house. Conferences between conferees of the two houses, probably will begin tomorrow, with the expectation that the funding bill can be sent to the White House for President Harding's signature within a week. The commission created by the act to discuss the funding of the debt will be headed by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, with additional representation from the cabinet or from congress. Great Britain will be the first of the debtor nations with which negotiations will be opened. Although official confirmation is lacking at the treasury it is understood that when England enters the funding conference her representatives will come prepared to pledge regular interest payments in the last quarter of the present year. Under the terms of the bill as passed by the senate, the funding commission is not permitted to extend the date of maturity of the obligations of foreign governments beyond June 15, 1947, collecting interest in the meantime at a rate not less than 4 1/4 per cent.

TREATY TERMS OF FIVE BIG POWERS ARE ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—After almost three months of continuous negotiating, the five great naval powers of the world met in open conference here today and formally presented to the world the terms of a treaty, which definitely prescribed the limits and charts and the courses of their navies for the next fifteen years. The final text of the document held few surprises—it lasts for fifteen years, it provides for the United States calling another session at the end of eight years to consider possible changes because of scientific or technical developments in that time; it follows the 5-5-3-1.75-1.75 ratio for the five powers; it names the capital ships each power may retain, it provides methods and times of replacements, it writes the first accepted world dictionary of naval terms, it affords an avenue of escape should any of the powers become embroiled in war, and, lastly, its provisions make certain the scrapping of hundreds of thousands of tons of existing fighting craft. In addition to the purely naval aspect of the lengthy document, there is a three-cornered agreement in it between the United States, Great Britain

VAUDEVILLE BENEFIT FOR MONTE VISTA PLEASES CROWD

Entertainment by Pupils of the Pearl Keller Studio Wins Aid for Worthy Cause

A group of eight little girls dressed in cretonne basques over perky little white tarlatan skirts and wearing quaint little bonnets, gracefully posed, that was the charming picture that greeted the audience last night when the curtain was raised on the first number of the entertainment given by the pupils of the Pearl Keller school at the T. D. & L. theatre for the benefit of the Monte Vista Home for undernourished children of Los Angeles county. The kitchen at that institution had been remodeled and furnished by the women of Glendale, under the direction of Mrs. R. W. Mosker, and it was to complete the payment on the furnishings that the entertainment was given.

The little girls who took part in the first number, which was a song and dance, "The Old Fashioned Garden" were Mildred Thompson, Eleanor Thompson, Margaret Baruch, Beryl Campbell, Mary Elizabeth George, Patricia Carline, Mary Phillips and Ruth Coker, and they were assisted by Muriel and Truman Curtis. This clever number was greeted with such applause that the little folks repeated it.

The next number was a group of two recitations by Ethelwynne Kent, "She Powders Her Nose" and "At Breakfast Time," in which this little maid told about the necessity and importance of the powder puff and the newspaper.

Little Ann Elizabeth Wilkinson demonstrated her grace and agility in the "Bow and Arrow Dance." This was followed by a group of two recitations by Howard Kent, in which he tells about some of the trials with which all little boys have to meet, "Castor Oil" and "Bad Discusses Cleanliness."

Pleased With Dances

MORE MUSIC MAKES BETTER CITY, SAYS MUSICAL FOLK

Harmony Means Happiness—That's Why C. of C. Committee Is Asked to Harmonize

"Glendale needs harmony! This much was definitely decided at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday afternoon.

How to harmonize several ideas for making Glendale more musical has been referred to the civic committee for investigation and report. Harry Girard, widely known professional, started the subject when he told the two score attending the luncheon that this city could become known far and wide by staging a week of music. He outlined the big idea of having the best of every recognized organization here be a member of the general committee in charge of the year's program.

Famous for Music
"They should meet semi-annually and plan musical events, enlisting the co-operation of choral unions, music clubs, high school organizations,—professional musicians—yes, everybody."

"In that way it would be possible to have everyone working to the end of making Glendale known throughout the world."

He referred to Bethlehem, Pa., where the first week in May is devoted to a musical festival that attracts far and wide and obtains "a million dollars' worth of publicity."

Mayor Spencer Robinson, who introduced Mr. Girard, told of the success Hutchinson, Kans., had met with its musical endeavor. C. D. Lacy referred to Lindbergh, Kans., as another musical midwest town. City Manager W. H. Reeves said Boston boasted of its culture because of its music.

Tells of Music Club
Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, who has so successfully organized the various local musical clubs, and is now director of the State Federation of Music Club's extension work, arrived during the discussion and told of the great strides made by the Glendale Music club, its junior and juvenile auxiliary, and the music memory contest now in progress.

"It is our intention to make America the musical center of the world," Mrs. Jones said, in relating the work of the federation, and she revealed the fact that Glendale's musical activities already are being compared with such cities as Philadelphia.

Mr. Girard then amended his remarks to give full credit to the endeavors of the local musical clubs, including the Madrigal club, and said that he would be glad to see them go farther in the organization of effort.

Mrs. W. Q. Widdowson, a representative of Community Service, who was present, stated that she believed Miss Marjorie Day, national organizer for that group, would be glad to come to Glendale and put matters musical on a community basis.

All of which was, indeed, interesting, and discussion lasted for nearly an hour, everybody agreeing that more harmony was needed in the civic life of Glendale and every other community.

"Music did as much as anything else to win the war," Mr. Girard said, in support of the original plea. "It was the one thing that cheered the soldiers, it sold the Liberty Bonds, and it can make Glendale famous."

"Traveling all parts of this continent in the past years, I have settled here with a new perspective as to the need of music in our every-day life."

Mrs. Ruth Buchanan and C. Krause Wed

Mrs. Ruth Buchanan and Charles Krause of Pittsburg, Pa., were married Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Riddle, intimate friends who recently moved to this city from Pennsylvania. GRAMMAR TRUSTEES P. E. RATES CHOSEN CONDUCT INQUIRY DEBATE TOPIC AT INTO HEATING GRADUATION

Hear Two Systems Explained but Make No Choice; to Act on New Plans

Heating was the principal topic of discussion last night at the Intermediate school by the grammar school board of trustees who had invited representatives from the Potter Gas Radiator company and the Clow Gas Steam Radiator company to explain the relative merits of the two systems with the view of utilizing one of them in the new Intermediate school. No decision was reached and the matter was laid on the table for further consideration.

Architect George M. Lindsey was authorized to advertise for bids for the new Grandview school on the segregated system without the employment of a general contractor. These bids are due at the office of the school board in the Intermediate school on February 16.

For School Nurse
After some discussion, Mrs. Arthur Brown of 201 West Milford street, was named to confer with local officials of the Red Cross to ascertain what this organization would be willing to do towards the partial support of a school nurse. Superintendent R. D. White called attention to the fact that several communities in the county employ a nurse exclusively for school work.

The purchase of a number of additional fire extinguishers was authorized. They will be distributed among the various schools.

The employment of a part time manual training teacher for two days a week was authorized, but Mr. White stated that he had no applicants for the position. It was decided to request Mrs. Ethel Rogers Baker, who is now teaching sewing two days a week, to give the school system an extra day of her time.

Architect Alfred F. Priest announced that plans for the new intermediate school would be ready for final approval by next Tuesday night.

Lindsays Lose Suits Against P. E. Railway

Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsay, whose daughter Eugenia was killed and another daughter, Sarah, was permanently injured, lost their suits asking $36,995 damages from the Pacific Electric Railway company whose train crashed into the light motor car which the two Occidental college students were driving at Los Feliz road and Brand boulevard. A jury heard the evidence of alleged negligence.

CHRISTIAN CIRCLE MEETS

Members of the Christian Circle Club met last night at the Baptist church, where dinner was served at 5:30 o'clock by the women of the church. After thoroughly enjoying a bountiful meal, the evening was spent in discussing the Book of Mark which will be followed at the next meeting by a study of the Book of Acts under the leadership of Miss Maud Soper.

1922 WINTER CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL HAS EXERCISES

Leaves Will in Which Much of Interest Is Given to 'Deserving Interests'

Class exercises were held last night in the high school auditorium by the mid-winter graduating class of 1922.

A feature of the program was enactment of a tableau depicting the future by members of the graduating class assisted by Miss Maude Soper, class teacher, while Miss Dorothy Young, in the role of Prophecy, read the scenario of the next decade from behind the scenes. Miss Elizabeth and Winifred Brewer acted as pages for the scene. Slow music was furnished by Miss Lois Olmstead at the piano.

The scene was laid in a bachelor's den where Zenas Smith was musing in his Morris chair reflecting upon his classmates. The characters in the pantomime were Harold Shively, a preacher; Miss Bess Vorwerk, a coquette; Miss Inna Vaino, a hunting girl; Miss Louise Zeller, a tennis girl; Miss Margere Kendall, a vamp; Miss Hazel Huse a Salvation Army lass; Miss Martha Eilers, a college girl; Miss Elsie Jepson, a soldier girl; Miss Dorothy Howard, a widow; Miss Leone Palmer, a country girl.

Other numbers on the program were contributed by Miss Fanny Sheldon, who sang; Miss Harriett Barnes, who interpreted a reading; Miss Eva Green, who captured her audience with a whistling solo; and by Miss Margere Kendall, who played several selections upon her steel guitar acc. JANUARY SETS NEW MARK FOR DEALS IN REAL ESTATE

Beats First Month of 1921 by Wide Margin; Outlook for 1922 Is Excellent

In spite of adverse weather conditions, real estate activities in Glendale for the first month of the new year have far exceeded the month of January in any previous year. Almost $1,000,000 has been invested in the city in lots, tracts, subdivisions and buildings; and every indication points to greater and more extensive investments within the next few months according to all available statistics. Investments seem equally divided between local residents and tourists, the latter, according to authorities on tourist travel, being almost 25 per cent below that of two years ago.

According to the directory, there are more than 400 real estate dealers in Glendale and vicinity. None have closed their doors on account of business conditions, though some of the more recent organizations have moved to more desirable localities.

Big Demand for Lots

Within the past few months, 300 new families have moved to Glendale and more than 600 lots have been sold as investments or for building purposes. Building permits totaling more than $500,000 have been issued within the past month and it is estimated that this amount will be doubled through investments and construction.

More than 500 subdivision permits, for tracts of from ten to forty acres which have been issued within the last nine months, which is equal to more than 7500 lots, practically all of which have been sold in Los Angeles and Glendale. The census bureau has figures to show that 150,000 people have moved to Los Angeles and vicinity within the last year, which indicates that the solving of the housing problem in southern California cannot be met for years to come.

The treaty is so written that any of the contracting powers may at any time, when it considers its national security is menaced, call a new conference to reconsider the portions of the treaty which it considers inimical to its safety and general well-being. Fifteen years is the life of the treaty, from the date of its ratification by the constitutional agencies of the powers (in the case of the United States, it is the senate), and at the end of this period the treaty shall automatically continue in force until one of the powers gives two years' notice of a desire to terminate it. COMMENT THAT'S ALL

The Whole World Knows Earthquakes in Pacific Dry War Warming Up Rockefeller Can Afford It

By Gil A. Cowan

BOOSTERS for Glendale and southern California in practically every state in the union—and most every port of the high seas!

That is the indication from the inquiries received by real estate dealers and the Chamber of Commerce in the daily grist of mail.

"How come?" you ask. Well, it seems that everywhere that Glendale people go, the reputation of this thriving city is bound to be told.

And why shouldn't they tell the story of the "fastest growing city of homes?" It is like an elixir to the residents of staid communities to hear of progress and prosperity. They read with avidity every line of literature about this wonder town.

Now it's up to all you good correspondents with the "folks back east" to truthfully tell them in every letter what Glendale is up and at!

But, if you haven't time to write, just roll up this copy of The Glendale Evening News and send the message on its way!

An earthquake way off in the Pacific ocean interests some people.

But when one considers the expanse of that body of water, there is no need for apprehension.

By fast ship it takes nine days to make the trip to the Orient, or almost twice the time it takes to go to New York. Now you can appreciate just how far away the earth shock may have been.

The southern California "dry war" is mighty apt to have some greater sensations than the arrest of a United States marshal at Fresno and the detention of a state senator from Venice. When they "bag" the real brains of the booze ring it will be little less than the very ones who are supposed to enforce the law in this state.

The reported resignation of Robert C. Avery may clear the way to the top for Yellowley to operate, but the Long Beach man who now is out must be given credit for starting something with his hot shots at E. Forrest Mitchell about the wet holidays in the southland.

U. S. Commissioner Long says, "Personally I can see no reason for making fish of one and fowl out of another. The fact that both of the men already involved have strong political influence back of them is no reason why they should not be prosecuted in the same manner as ordinary people."

According to newspaper announcements John D. Rockefeller gave away another $45,000,000 to the General Education Board at New York.

A mere dribble like that will keep going a first-class board, commission, or similar organization, for a month—maybe.

All told, John D. has given this same organization $126,788,084, but inasmuch as the writer has seen none of the money there can be little said here as to the efficacy of its use!

Former Judge Rex B. Goodell of San Bernardino, past grand master of the Eagles, has been signally honored by the appointment to collector of internal revenue at Los Angeles. It is a good, big job for a big man in southern California affairs.

In view of the disaster at Washington it seems that the directors of the Chamber of Commerce were justified in postponing the formal opening of their new headquarters during the rains of a month ago. "Better safe than sorry," sounds well after an accident.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. ADELIA M. F. CONOVER

Mrs. Adelia M. F. Conover passed away at 10 o'clock this morning, February 1, 1922, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fay Etta Musser, 604 West Colorado street, at the age of 79 years. She was born in Illinois and is survived by four daughters and a son, Mrs. Fay Etta Musser of Glendale, Mrs. Anna N. Boland of Decatur, Ill., Mrs. Lily Eymen of Joliet, Ill., Mrs. Martha James Brown of Guyman, Okla., and A. J. Conover of Meadville, Missouri.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 7 o'clock tonight and the body will be taken east tomorrow, accompanied by Mrs. Boland, to Decatur for interment. Rev. Clifford Cole will officiate. L. G. Seavern Undertaking company in charge.

SAMUEL RASMUSSEN

Word was received yesterday by Mrs. Adelaide H. Inler of West Park avenue to the effect that Samuel Rasmussen, formerly well known among Glendale's younger set, passed away at his home on Saturday, January 28. The funeral, which was held on Monday, was attended by Mrs. Inler's son, Eugene H. Inler, who resides in Bakersfield. Mr. Inler and Mr. Rasmussen were former college friends, having attended Throop college, now known as the California Institute of Technology, in Pasadena, for several years.

The deceased leaves a widow and two small children, in addition to a number of other relatives in various parts of the state. He was the son of P. G. Rasmussen, prominent central California vineyardist.

Famous Mounted Police to Give Vaudeville Program With Plenty of Features

They're here! The Northwest Mounted Police will appear at the Glendale Theatre tonight in their sensational and thrilling vaudeville show—a trip through the Arctic circle which is both educating and interesting.

Of course, you will note the Red Coats and in the theatre lobby there will be a wonderful collection of guns, knives, opium pipes and other trinkets taken from the bad men of the frozen north.

Robert Athon daily tells a story of the drug traffic which he combatted for years, acknowledged by all to be one of the most complete collections of statistics briefly told.

It's Surprise Play

The story of an orphan girl adopted by a rich artist—that is the theme of Shirley Mason's latest Fox production, on the same program. Written as a magazine story by Joseph Ernest Peat under the title "Concerning Chichine," it has become, in film form, "Ever Since Eve." The role of the orphan is admirably suited to Miss Mason, and carries an acute interest while free from sensationalism. It is what may be termed a "surprise" play, inasmuch as the final scene is utilized to clear up a mystery which has marked the progress of the story throughout.

Shrine Club to Hold Entertainment Tonight

Entertainment for the imperial potentate of Al Malaikah shrine, Los Angeles, will be provided by the Glendale Shrine club tonight in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. The Shriners' band from the city and members from all over southern California are expected to attend. There is some question as to the capacity of hall, for when the joy boys of the Masonic fraternity get together—well, you can expect something.

CLUB QUARTERS FOR BUSINESS WOMEN LARGE SUCCESS AND NOTED SINGER APPEAR AT CLUB

Open House Calls Forth Many to Inspect Rooms; Employing Work Under Way

A most hearty response met the invitation of the members of the Business and Professional Women's club to the general public to attend the open house being held all day yesterday at the rest rooms which have been established in the Coker & Taylor building on Brand boulevard between Harvard and Colorado streets.

Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president of the organization, and other officers and members were present to greet the many visitors who inspected the cozy quarters.

In the evening Mrs. George U. Moyle, chairman of the vocational guidance and placement committee, was present to explain the purposes of that work and also to register those wishing either employ or employment.

Register for Employment
Already more than a dozen have registered for employment and one business man has stated his need for help.

The rest rooms have been furnished very simply, but attractively. There are comfy couches with cushions and blankets, a telephone, magazines, and read rockers and chairs in the living room, and in the dining room, where light lunches are served at noon, are attractive ivory-colored tables and chairs, a quaint tapestry picture and bouquets of flowers, making a very inviting picture to those seeking a bit of rest and relaxation from the busy day's work.

Need for Rest Room
With Glendale ever increasing in population, and the number of stores and business and professional women increasing accordingly, the need for such an organization as the Business and Professional Women's club of Glendale has become greater, as has also that of the rest rooms, it is declared.

Considerable interest has been taken in the organization of the club and the first banquet given by the members was a large success. Many people visited the club rooms yesterday and last night and the officers and members of the committee are well pleased with the response of the public.

deated at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium the evening of February 23. Mrs. Walter Jones is in charge of the sale of tickets.

On behalf of the club members Mrs. Bartlett thanked the Loomis-Shuck Music company for their courtesy in presenting the artists and presented Miss Davies and Mr. Souvaine. The program given by them included the following selections:

"Prelude, Fugue and Variations" (Cesar Franck), transcribed from an organ music by Harold Bauer; "Toccata" (Paradies), a delightful rippling melody which was written in the seventeenth century; "March Wind" (MacDowell), in which both the composer and pianist have interpreted the mood of the cold, bleak wind of the mountains that the hearers recognize it instantly, by Mr. Souvaine. In this first group Mr. Souvaine found great favor with the audience by his wonderful finger manipulation and brilliant interpretation, which continued throughout his other numbers.

Program Proves Delight
The second group of selections was given by Miss Davies, a mezzo-soprano, with a splendid, full-toned, beautiful voice, and included: "J'ai Pleure en Reve" (Hue), and Air from Herodiade (Massenet). She was accompanied by the Knabe Ampico.

The third group, given by Mr. Souvaine, included "Ballade in F Minor" (Chopin), "Etude in E Major" (Chopin), "Mood of a Mandarin" (Souvaine) and "Waltz of a Viennese Doll" (Souvaine). After the artist's interpretation of his own composition of "Mood of a Mandarin," this delightful little "Cameo" was repeated on the Ampico from a previous recording of Mr. Souvaine, reflecting exactly the interpretation given by him, even to the most minute shades and variations of tone. Both of the compositions by Mr. Souvaine were most clever and met with hearty applause, as did also the recording on the Ampico.

The fourth group was given by Miss Davies, accompanied by the Ampico, and included "Inter Nos" (MacFadyen), "Lullaby" (Cyril Scott), "The Time for Making Song Has Come" (Rogers), and as an encore sang "The Cuckoo Clock" (Shaffer). The last group was given by Mr. Souvaine and included "Afternoon of a Faun" (Debussy), and "Concerto, first movement, B Flat Minor" (Tchaikowsky), in which the Ampico played parts from a previous recording of Mr. Souvaine, without any break in the continuity of his mastery. As an encore Mr. Souvaine played the Waltz by Chopin.

Born in Salt Lake City
Mr. Souvaine was born in Salt Lake City and received practically his entire musical education in America, principally in New York City. He has also been heard extensively in France, Italy and Germany. Everywhere he has impressed his hearers as one of the most interesting American musicians that has appeared in years, not only on account of his mastery of the piano but of the sincerity and individuality of his interpretations. Miss Davies is a protegee of Madame Lillian Nordica and has studied at the Toronto Conservatory and in New York.

These two splendid artists also appeared, through the courtesy of the Loomis-Shuck Music company, in a program last night at the Harrower Laboratory, at the high school this morning and also at the Burbank Women's club this afternoon.

Joint Recital Is Given at Harrower Building

Mrs. Penelope Davies, soprano, and Henry Souvaine, pianist, appeared last night in the assembly room of the Harrower Administration building in joint recital, featuring the accompaniment of the Knabe Ampico Reproducing piano under the auspices of the Loomis-Shuck Music company, 211 North Brand boulevard.

Two of Mr. Souvaine's own compositions appeared upon the program, one entitled "Mood of a Mandarin" and the other "Waltz of a Viennese Doll," both of which seemed to fit in well with the tone of the third group of selections which included "The Ballade in F Minor" and "The Waltz in E Major" both by Chopin.

"The Crapshooters" was played by Mr. Souvaine as a final encore. It was preceded by Percy Granger's "Country Garden" which followed "The Afternoon of a Faun," depicting the midsummer night's dream of a satyr. One of Mr. Souvaine's selections was MacDowell's "March Wind" and painted a tone picture of a ferocious and voracious breeze upon a rampage.

"Good-bye Summer" sung by Miss Davies received the greatest applause. Her final encore, "Inter Nos" by MacFadyen, also seemed much appreciated. Her first two numbers were sung in French. One of them was the "Air from Herodiade" by Massenet.

Miss Davies was accompanied solely by the Knabe Ampico. Several in the audience commented upon the perfect synchronism between her voice and the rhythm of the piano. Dr. Henry R. Harrower thanked Miss Davies and Mr. Souvaine in behalf of the audience for their recital. "In the Ampico an entirely new principle has been found," declared Mr. Souvaine, after the recital. "They are able to reproduce by mechanical means anything which the fingers

Matters almost too numerous to mention occupied the Chamber of Commerce directors at their luncheon yesterday with the result that their "brief session" extended until after 2 o'clock.

The advertising committee, of which L. H. Wilson is chairman, was instructed to spend $250 in the Arrowhead magazine's distribution for March which will be devoted exclusively to Glendale. A. M. Yale of the Glendale Realty Board appeared in behalf of the project.

Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson introduced members of the entertainment committee, telling why he had selected each—Captain Loving and Cornelius L. Chandler for the use of their automobiles; A. L. Ferguson because of the high school; C. L. Cyphers as a representative of Dr. Henry R. Harrower's organization; Mrs. Pearl Keller-Brattain for the entertainment her school can provide; Dr. R. E. Chase and wife for their dramatic ability; Mrs. Elizabeth Kipp and Mrs. Anderson because of musical talent; and Brahman van den Berg, noted pianist.

"Bring 'Em Here!" he Urges
"Bring the people here to entertain and we'll do the rest," was the spirit of Mr. Jackson's speech.

A request for contributions to the Thornycroft sanitarium amusement hall was referred to a committee composed of Jesse E. Smith, Peter L. Ferry and J. A. Newton. The matter of permitting memberships to drop out before the end of the three year term was referred to the membership committee.

L. H. Wilson of the advertising committee impressed upon the directors the importance of publicity, stating that even a hole in the ground could be turned to profit if advertised. Twenty-five years ago, he related, the Mammoth cave of Kentucky spent $800 a day to attract 5,800 tourists who paid $2 for the trip through that natural palace. Twenty years later there were only two people visiting the place because they had stopped advertising. This, too, in face of the fact that the automobile had made the cave much more accessible to tourists!

Flood Control Work
Peter L. Ferry, a director, reported on the work done in Verdugo wash and called upon City Manager W. H. Reeves for a report. The latter complimented Mr. Ferry on what he had accomplished for the county flood control and invited the public generally to inspect the protection works at the new city reservoir, also the dike along the Ross and Thom property.

Harry Girard was elected to honorary membership after a solo and he stated that the honor of the representative Glendale business men was highly appreciated.

Ralph Myers to Box With Frankie Tonight

Glendale fight fans will go to the Arcadia balloon school tonight to see Ralph Myers meet Battling Frankie again in a semi-final in the army's weekly fistie fiesta. Myers won a wrap last night at Vernon. Jimmie Barry of the Pasadena fire department will meet Paddy Flynn of Los Angeles in the main event. Other interesting bouts between soldiers and good local batters are promised.

Lieut. J. A. Physioc, athletic officer of the school, was in Glendale today arranging with the Glendale Taxi company to send several cars over to the show at 7 o'clock in the evening.

can do on the keyboard. It is wonderful. Practically every great piano artist in the world has chosen the Ampico to express his art."

Henry Souvaine Explains How Jazz is Originated

How jazz originated from classical music was explained this morning by Henry Souvaine in the high school auditorium, following a demonstration of the Knabe Ampico Reproducing Piano under the auspices of the Loomis-Shuck Music company of 211 North Brand boulevard. He brought out the fact that most popular melodies are variations of classical themes. Mr. Souvaine is touring the United States lecturing in the interests of the National Committee for the Advancement of Music.

city Dance" and "Bird Dance," both of which were very well given by this little miss. Mary Alice Barton, in her quaint costume of a Dutch boy, very cleverly gave a "Dutch Dance." A very realistic monologue of "The Saleslady" was well given by Grace Yarborough. A weird "Indian Dance" was interpreted by Julia Peiley in costume of an American Indian.

The popular Turner sisters met with favor in their "Toe Dance." This was followed by a group of musical readings "The Little Tin Soldier and the Little Rag Doll" and "You Mustn't Pick Plums from My Plum Tree," by Evelyn and Leona Hunt, which was well given. Rosalita Ruggiero presented a very pretty picture in her costume of shimmering white satin in which she appeared in her graceful interpretation of the "Oriental Dance."

Cecilia May Fischer, in wintery costume of white silk and fur and throwing imitation snowballs, presented her popular "Skaters Dance." Gould Moore did a very clever song and dance number "Peggy O'Neill," followed by an Irish jig, Blossom Moore, in costume of black and red, gracefully interpreted a "Bird Dance." This was followed by a dance novelté by Dorothy Dutton, in a striking costume of black and white, "Humoresque" and "The Forgotten Step," which were well given. Shirley Hitchcock interpreted very splendidly the "Crystal Dance."

Ability Is Displayed
The next number was a song and dance "There's Eve a Song Somewhere" and "Tuck Me to Sleep in My Old Tucky Home," in which Mary Alice Ross displayed her ability to dance as well as sing. Cecilia May Fischer was very pleasing in her toe dance "The Dragon Fly." The Turner sisters were well greeted in their song and dance numbers "Another Rag" and "Blue Jeans." Glen Hitchcock in an "Eccentric Dance" proved very popular. The closing number of this splendid program was a "Gypsy Dance" by Dorothy Dutton, Grace Dewar, Shirley Hitchcock and Cecilia May Fischer.

COUSIN OF LOCAL WOMAN IS KILLED

Miss Mary Forsythe, well known in Los Angeles several years ago, was instantly killed in the Knickerbocker theatre catastrophe at Washington last Saturday night. Miss A. M. Young, sister-in-law of Mrs. Roberta Young, 469 West Oak street, was seriously injured while with Miss Forsythe at the theatre, according to Mrs. Young who received word of the tragedy in the family yesterday. Miss Forsythe is a cousin of Mrs. Young.

STUDY CLUB WILL MEET

The members of the West Glendale Study club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvin Low, Doran and Columbus avenue, at which time the study of "Modern Literature" will be taken up.

BOTH BATTLES GO TO LOCAL TEAMS

Glendale Casaba Squads Take Visitors Into Gymnasium; Give Them Trimming

Glendale high school's casaba tossers scored a two-fold victory on the local courts yesterday afternoon when both the 140 pound and the 130 pound teams defeated squads who far out-weighted them man for man. The former, or "flyweights" as they are more familiarly known, triumphed over the San Fernando 130 pounders by the decisive score of 18 to 11, while the lightweights, who were pitted against the Mission City heavyweights, were harder pressed for their 20 to 18 win.

Gets Line on Material

Although the competition amounted to no more than practice matches for the teams, Coach Hayhurst was enabled to get a definite "line" on his many performers for regular places on the teams. Numerous substitutions were made throughout the four periods of the games, particularly so in the 110 pounders' lineup, which consisted of an even dozen names. Those who represented Glendale on the 130 pound team were Butts, Lovell and Roach, forwards; Aageson, center; Fruhling, Bryant, Melver and Halg, guards.

The flyweight aggregation was made up of Huff, Modesto, Alvord, Wernette and Osborne, forwards; Neil and Lane, centers; McAllister, Jensen, McGillis, Shinner and Heideman, guards.

Fitz E. Beach of Pasadena Is Dead

Fitz E. Beach, who is reputed to have once owned the corner of Fifth and Hill streets, Los Angeles, is dead at his home in Pasadena and according to friends his editor's epitaph should read: "He owned his own soul and never gave up a conviction." According to City Manager W. H. Reeves of Glendale, who fought with and against Beach in many battles in the Crown City, the ideas Beach had on municipal ownership were as "impractical as his newspaper business, but all factions liked the man for what he was, rather than what he wrote."

Throughout his later life Beach was almost fanatical in his efforts to advance the cause of municipal ownership. He attended almost every session of the Pacific Electric rate hearing before the state railroad commission.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES MOTHER CHICKENS

Mrs. James M. Wesley! There's Lost Flock at Postoffice Awaiting Your Coming

Postal officials, clerks, and carriers are gallantly trying to mother ten crates of baby chicks at the Glendale postoffice. Their efforts were in vain, the pleading wail of the motherless chicks continued throughout the night as employees searched all available records to locate the rightful owner of the lost flock.

The ten crates were addressed to Mrs. James M. Wesley, Glendale, but the records at the postoffice failed to reveal any such person on their lists. Heartrending pleas from Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson echoed over the entire city as he searched for Mrs. Wesley to save the unclaimed flock from death by starvation or by broken hearts.

RECOVER STOLEN ARTICLES

A gold watch and chain worth about $50, which was stolen recently from Mrs. Mary E. Heinmiller at her home, 1016 East Lomita avenue, was recovered yesterday from a Los Angeles pawn shop by Detectives George Herda and George Delgado. A high price necklace of imitation pearl beads, which had been left on deposit by the same person, were confiscated also. They were unable to capture the person who had brought the articles to the pawn shop because he had registered a fictitious address.

EMERGENCY OPERATION

Harold C. Ferguson of 727 East Palmer street was rushed to the Glendale Sanitarium Hospital early last night for an emergency operation for appendicitis. This morning he was reported to be getting along nicely. Mr. Ferguson left his duties at the Standard Garage, 110 South Kenwood street, at the usual hour last night.

PREPARING FOR CONCLAVE

ROME, Feb. 1.—Orders were given today to speed up the preparations for the Roman Catholic conclave which will elect a successor to the late Pope Benedict XV. Officials are working in three shifts making the final arrangements.

During the day numerous motor trucks loaded with beds, stoves, wash stands, cooking utensils and other household necessities arrived at the vatican for the use of the members of the sacred college and their attaches during the time they are locked up in the vatican.

More than 300 rooms are being fitted up to accommodate the prelates and their attendants.

AWAIT BORDER OUTBREAK

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—The situation in the Mexico-Guatemalan border today was compared in official quarters here to an open keg of gun powder, with plenty of fire in the vicinity. Hostilities might be expected at any moment, it was stated, if fighting has not already occurred.

The Mexican embassy has received accounts of clashes along the border, but in the absence of official confirmation of actual fighting between Mexicans and Guatemalians is inclined to explain the reports as resulting from conflicts between troops of the provisional Guatemalan government and members of the so-called "unionists" faction who are endeavoring to escape into Mexico.

JAKE SCHAEFER TO GIVE EXHIBITION ON GREEN CLOTH

Youthful Champion to Appear at Los Angeles; Oxy Will Send Team to Meet

By HOWARD M'GILLIS Sporting Editor The Evening News Southern California billiard followers are looking forward to next week, when they will be given a chance at witnessing the playing of Jake Schaefer, recent conqueror of Willie Hoppee in a world's championship 18.2 ball-line match.

The "youthful wizard" as he has been called by eastern writers, will meet Roger Conti, the European champion, in exhibition matches at the Los Angeles Athletic club on Feb. 6-7. As this will be the champion's initial appearance in this city since copping the title several weeks ago in Chicago the match is expected to draw a record crowd.

Schaefer, who has not yet voted for a president of the United States, is recognized by experts as one of the best cue manipulators in the history of the game, and the fact that he is the youngest of any of the leading billiardists of the country, points to the probability that during the next few years his technique and cleverness will outshine his present invincible form.

Fans all over the country are anxious to know whether Hoppee's recently announced attempt to regain the title will be successful or not. The date for the return match between the former champ and his youthful successor to the crown has been set for March 27, 28 and 29. The two-handed tourney will take place in Chicago on the same tables on which the championship originally changed hands.

Oxy in Big Meet Priding themselves with the best track squad in the Southern California conference and probably the most formidable array of talent that ever attended their institution the authorities of Occidental college are making plans for pulling off one of the "biggest things" that has ever been a part of the athletic program of representatives of the Tiger varsity—that of entering a quartet of runners in the nationally important annual Pennsylvania Relay carnival, which is to be staged in Philadelphia on April 28 and 29.

The four men who have been selected to accompany Coach Pipal on the proposed trip to the "far east" are Tony Spangler, Johnny Powers, Art Gary and Phil Ellsworth. The event in which they will probably be entered will be the Class B quarter-mile four-man-relay, a race that is taken part in by representatives from colleges and universities all over the United States.

Although stiff competition is to be expected in all such important matches it is generally considered by close followers of the Eagle Rock squad that Coach Pipal's charges will have more than an even chance of winning the blue ribbon event.

Of Spangler's three running mates Powers has the most impressive record, while Gary and Ellsworth are not far behind. The group, which compares favorably with last year's Redlands star performers, is confident of placing in the Philadelphia event and are already itching to dig their spikes into the Franklin field track.

Big Rodgers Is Signed With the report that William K. "Bill" Rodgers, last season's manager of the Sacramento Coast league baseball team, has been signed to pilot the Calgary, Western Canadian league team, for 1922, one of the oldest, peppiest and most popular coasters of the past decade is lost to the old-time, dyed-in-the-wool fans. Both as a player and as a manager "Red Shirt" Bill has always been a favorite with the bleachers, and it will be many a day before the right field "hounds" will forget his vim and vigor that gave his team the name "Yippers."

Rodgers broke into the Coast league about eleven years ago, his "but having been made with the Portland Beavers under the leadership of Walt McCredie. After playing second base for the Ducks for several seasons he went to the Cleveland Indians for two years, when he was sent back to the coast and traded to Sacramento. Although he led his team to second place last year it was reported that misunderstandings existed between him and the Moring brothers, fellow directors of the club, resulting in his resignation as manager.

1922 WINTER CLASS OF HIGH SCHOOL HAS EXERCISES

companied by Miss Dorothy Howard at the piano.
The class will, which was written by Miss Martha Eilers and witnessed by Fountain Pen, T. Kettle, and Morris Chair, was read by Miss Margere Kendall. Most of it follows:
"We the Midyear Class of nineteen twenty-two being an aristocratic and sound mind as ever before in our history, are kindly bestowing our good feelings and pleasant ways to the juniors of our school and in quiet forbearance toward our friends, the faculty, on this day, under our notorious signature do bequeath these things which have made us so popular and given us friendly relationships these past four years of our school life.
"To our wards, the June class of nineteen twenty-two, we leave the guardianship of the incoming scrubbies of '26 to encourage them and leave as a guide to their uncultivated minds Webster's dictionary.
"To the juniors do we leave our brilliant minds and our extraordinary talents to fill the long standing void.
"To the proud and haughty sophomores we bequeath our good looks and charming ways to win the favor of the faculty in coming years.
"Irma Vargo leaves her tall and stately stature to Norman Beggs to add to his many looks. Bess Vorwerk leaves her loud and dramatic voice to the debating department. Dorothy Howard bequeathes her "sunset" hair and "floury" complexion to the Furbeck Art Studio. Hazel Huse leaves her enlarged photograph, as an example of brunette beauty, to adorn the walls of the auditorium. Martha Eilers leaves her Galli-Curei voice to Mrs. Gibson to bring future fame to the music department. Harold Shively bequeathes his power to attract the feminine gender to Albert Hewitt to overcome his embarrassment. Leone Palmer leaves her peroxide blond attractiveness to the High School Art Club. Zenas Smith leaves his favorite rouge and hair tonic to Paul Hutchinson to keep away the girls. Lois Zellar leaves her birdlike and melodious whistle to the Harpers' Canary Factory. Elsie Jopson leaves a piece of second hand chewing gum and a hair net much tangled by constant use to the vamps of Glendale. Margere Kendall leaves her attempts at dieting to Ellen Hurley, feather-weight champion of Glendale High.
"Lastly, as a class we bequeath to Miss Soper, our beloved class teacher, our reputation, as the the only good class in school, also our extreme brightness.

JANUARY SETS NEW GROWTH SHOWN BY MARK FOR DEALS LOCAL PATROL AND FIRE DISPATCH IN REAL ESTATE FIRE DISPATCH

past month, indicating the tremendous growth of the city from a development and improvement standpoint. Other insurance writers claim similar success.
E. D. Hamly, of Hamlin & Hepburn, in discussing the real estate situation last night said:
"Local people are beginning to realize the value of property in this community as an investment. We opened our sixth unit in our Fairview section this month. Fifty-four lots have been sold and we are preparing another unit as rapidly as possible. Our selling average has been less than thirty days to the tract."
"One of the most gratifying features of the situation today is found in the fact that our investors have met their payments with no difficulty. Delinquents are very few. And, again, in addition to the investments made in our section, more than sixty percent of the temporary homes have been built within the last six months, with every indication pointing to increased activity of this nature.
"Own Your Own Home"
"High rent has made it necessary for these people to build. With easy terms, small monthly payments and the temporary home privilege, the Own Your Own Home movement is meeting with success to such an extent that the majority have been astonished at the rapidity in the growth of homes," continued Mr. Hamlin.
H. L. Miller, in speaking of the progress made since the first of the year seemed highly elated with the improvements of the community and in the rapid growth in population. He predicted greater development and an astounding increase in population. Mr. Miller has been a resident of Glendale during the past fifteen years and is considered one of the best authorities in the city on developments and improvements.
Marking its first anniversary today by the appointment of a manager, in addition to the principal, the Glendale Patrol and Fire Dispatch, which was established by Ira J. Herbert and James L. Brown, has shown great progress, it is stated by Mr. Herbert who bought out his partner's interest in the business.
H. H. Styles, for eighteen years a detective and manager of patrol systems in Chicago, Denver and Oakland, is the new associate in the business and lends his experience to the direction of five beats, as follows:
1. The Broadway and Brand boulevard shopping district.
2. Southern Glendale business district.
3. From California street north to the wash and from Brand boulevard east to Jackson street.
4. West of Brand boulevard between Broadway and Milford street.
5. West of Brand boulevard between Milford street and Arden avenue.
Patrolmen in Uniform
All of the patrolmen hereafter will be in uniform and will make their beats of approximately twenty-five blocks' walking distance every hour, reporting to Glendale 462 every hour until 1:30 a. m. Each man is bonded and must be highly recommended.
Beginning March 1 it is Mr. Herbert's intention to have two more beats worked out and he intends to devote a large part of his time to the general supervision of the system.
In view of the unemployment prevalent in some parts of the state there is more crime than usual and while the Glendale police provide good service for the number of men employed, the management of the patrol service believe their service at a moderate cost is essential to every business firm and home.

Dodge Cars Aid to Better Citizenship
There are three "members" of the El Paso, Texas, police force who are fairly entitled to good conduct badges, according to Police Chief Edwards of that city. The three work twenty-four hours each day, never receive pay, are never absent on account of sickness, and pace any beat without a murmur. They are the three Dodge Brothers' cars of the police department, whose sudden appearance in the streets brings fear to the lawbreaker in the Texas city. Police cars are called on for unusual service in that they are actually in service or likely to be called on at any time of day or night. Once every month they are "steamed out" at the city corral, and the police officials say that this is 90 per cent of the attention given the Dodge Brothers' cars.
One Dodge Brothers' car has stood up well under this kind of service since 1917, the other two have served since 1918 and 1919 respectively.

Sells Herself Out of Office, Yet Makes Deals
Mrs. M. L. Tight, one of the best known realty operators in Glendale, has sold herself out of office.
The building in which she was located at 612 East Broadway has been purchased for the William E. Clark plumbing establishment, which took possession.
Regardless of the fact that she has no office, Mrs. Tight reports turning a $45,000 deal yesterday and a $15,000 deal the day before.
This enforced vacation will give her time to attend to personal interests for a few days, she said this morning. "However, I will have an office opened in the same vicinity very soon, just where I cannot say definitely."

Asserts Medical Board Can't Properly Examine
Frank Pyott, campaign manager for the chiropractors, sends the following statement to The Glendale Evening News:
"The State Board of Medical Examiners of California, according to recent press dispatches, will 'temporarily' chiropractic institutions of the state so that their graduates may take an examination before the board to practice their profession."
"The Chiropractors of California welcome an examination, but not one given by the Medical Board, which has no knowledge of the science or principles of Chiropractic. An examination given under an incompetent board would eventually lower the present educational standards of the state, because the Medical Examiners could not ascertain by examination whether the applicant (a chiropractor) was proficient, due to a total lack of knowledge upon the part of the Medical Examiners."
"The Chiropractic profession insists that they be examined by members of their profession who are proficient in chiropractic. There is a state law which provides for an examination for dentists by dentists; veterinarians by veterinarians; optometrists by optometrists; medical men by medical men. To maintain the present standard of education, each profession should examine its own applicants."
"The action of 'temporarily approving' chiropractic schools and graduates therefrom, by the Medical Board, is but an eleventh hour political attempt to belittle the mind of the public on the Chiropractic Initiative which will be voted upon by the citizens of California in November of this year. The Chiropractic Initiative provides for a separate Board of Chiropractic Examiners, appointed by the Governor; and said board entails no expense to the taxpayers."

Stick to Truth in Filing Claim Loss, Auto Club Warns
Motorists attempting to secure "easy money" by filing fraudulent insurance claims are going to run up against a very long arm of the law, according to officials of the Automobile Club of Southern California. An emphatic but kindly warning to all car owners has just been issued by the insurance department of the club, which also applies to all insurance companies of the state, that there is no use trying to get away with false claims on insurance because scores of detectives are to be employed in tracing such claims in the future.
With the arrest of Robert Mandell at the headquarters of the auto club in Los Angeles a case will be prosecuted which points out the seriousness of such an offense. In this case it is claimed that Mandell attempted to secure the cash equivalent of a nearly new tire by hiding an old tire, saying it was stolen.
The penalty in a case of this kind, it is pointed out by the legal department, is a fine of $1000 or three years in the penitentiary. The slightest false claim may have most serious consequences.
Motorists planning to file claims for losses should stick to the utter truth, according to the advice just issued. Every circumstance governing the filing of the claim, and the details from which it arises will always be investigated thoroughly and no loop-hole left open for securing "easy money" by false statements.
Any car owner who thinks he can drive his car into the Mojave desert or elsewhere, burn it up, and then get the insurance money for it, will find this an impossibility. The same will hold true for the motorist who thinks he can "arrange" to have his car stolen by a friend and then get the theft insurance, because he needs cash, will run smack up against the law.
If cities were built thirty stories high half the area of the cities could be parks.

CITY BUYS TWO LOTS
The purchase of two lots behind the city hall was announced this morning by City Manager W. H. Reeves who stated that they would be used ultimately as a site for a municipal garage, repair shop and storage warehouse. The price was $1750 a lot and they were bought through C. D. Thom of the Glendale Realty company, 133 South Brand boulevard.
