university of north carolina

chapel hill, north carolina

Down through the years traditions have begun on the Carolina campus to become the memories of yesterday and the heritage of today. This book is one of those heritages—on old college yell that has become etched in the tradition of history. When the Dialectic Senate and the Philanthropic Assembly combined with the fraternities in 1890 to publish the first University of North Carolina yearbook, the cheer, “Yackety Yack,” was taken as a name. The staff member who suggested the name, J. C. B. Ehringhaus, went on to become governor of the state and, through the dorm that bears his name, a permanent part of Carolina. That first Yack, also, has left a memorial—a long line of University annuals that have faithfully continued its spirit. Between these covers, this book has tried to capture informally the whole spirit of U.N.C., just as did that yell of yesterday, “Yackety Yack!”

This past year has been one of controversy for the University of North Carolina—one in which its existence as a free institution of learning has been questioned. There were many who felt that the University and its citizens should devote themselves to the rote memorization of bland textbook material; there were others who felt that whatever occurs in the halls that they own should be strictly supervised by the representatives they elect—the state legislature; and there were also those who felt that U.N.C. was a malignancy to be destroyed. But there is something to a university, something which cannot be destroyed by petty critics with their petty mores and suspicious fears. That quality is visible in the traditions of a campus—in the physical features that set the scene and the actors who play the roles. For what demagogue can detract from the quiet dignity that is South Building and the Old Well, or what self-righteous chauvinist can condemn the compassion of students united in giving blood or walking 140 miles for charity? These are the things that make the University of North Carolina, and these are the things which will insure its existence long after its detractors have vanished and been forgotten.

Much of a University's heritage and tradition can be traced in the history of one building and outgrowths from it. What is today known as Playmaker's Theatre is one such building. Built in 1851 Playmaker's was the fifth structure built at U.N.C. and was known originally as Smith Building. In those early years it held the only bath facilities on the campus; thinly clad males journeying from their dorm rooms in Old East and Old West were warned of the approach of females by the cry, "Angel on the campus!" During the War Between the States, when Union troops occupied Chapel Hill, they quartered their horses in Smith Building, which at that time held the University Library. The library remained there until 1929, when it was moved to the first unit of what is now Louis R. Wilson Library. Since 1929, Smith has housed the Playmaker's drama group and has served as its theatre; it has even adopted the name of these new tenants as its own. From this one building a wealth of Carolina tradition can be learned, and it is by no means unique in this respect.

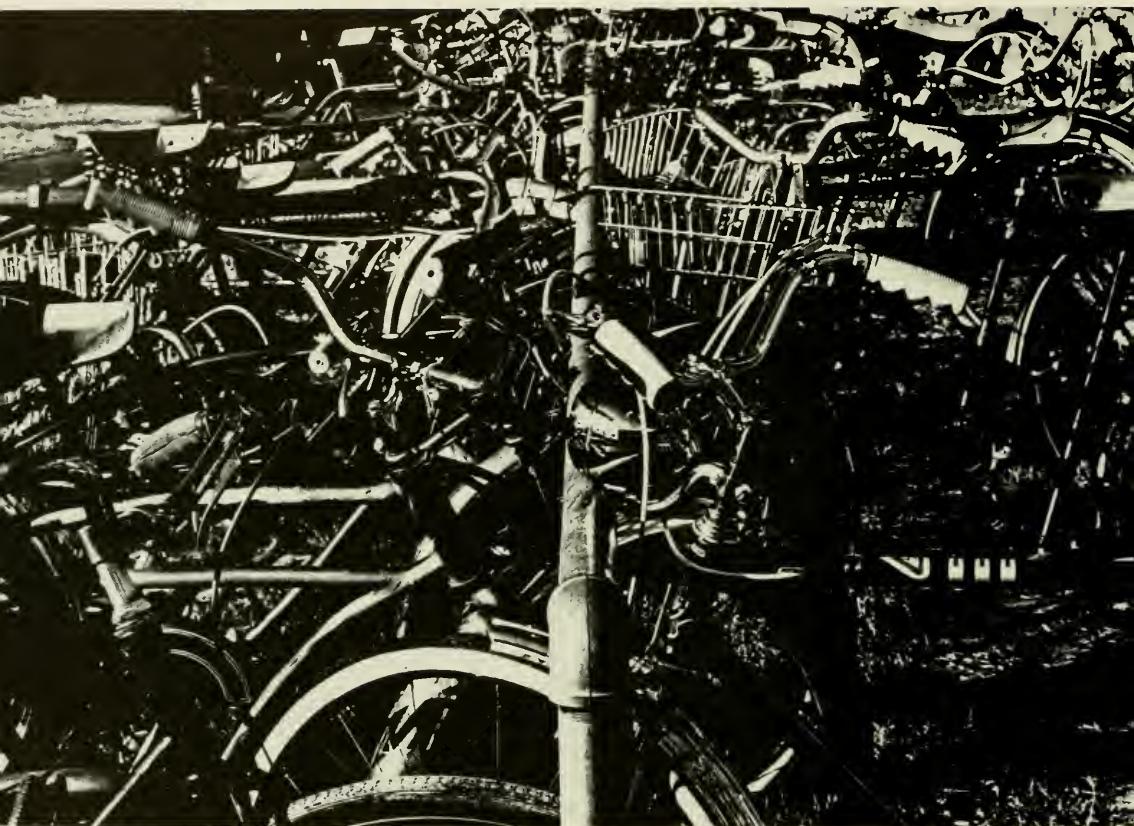

Its cornerstone laid in 1793 and formally opened on January 15, 1795, Old East is the oldest building on a state-supported campus in the United States. It is ironic, of course, that the seeds of discord which nearly wrecked the University are present in that proud boast. For in its subservience to the state, the University of North Carolina is seemingly controlled by those very forces of ignorance which it seeks to eliminate. Yet, the very presence of Old East is testimony to the ability of an institution to transcend its opponents and rise triumphant; that one edifice has been in existence for over 170 years, while those in the nineteenth century who feared atheistic, sinful science, and in the twentieth who feared atheistic Communism, have passed away. The spirit of Carolina has grown and will grow; it is evidenced in its inception in Old East and in its growth to the present in Morrison. But there is still something else that remains and will remain even when these buildings have fallen—that is the student, the universal student, the University student. Whether he be a Carolina Gentleman or scholar, whether a he or a she, the student will always be here. And is it not in the student, in the development of the human mind, that excellence in the University and in the world is achieved? And indeed, regardless of the blindness prevalent in the states, it is only through the student that freedom can prevail.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

For his constant willingness to lend counsel whenever needed, for his desire to provide us with the finest dental school available anywhere, and for his unceasing devotion to the advancement of dental education, we, the students of the School of Dentistry wish to dedicate our section of the Yackety Yack to our retiring Dean, Dr. John C. Brauer.

Sixteen and one-half years now have elapsed since the dean assumed his responsibilities for the activation and development of the first school of dentistry in North Carolina. The 1966 class is the twelfth to graduate, and with it five hundred twenty-eight graduates in dentistry have provided a health service primarily for the citizens of this state. However, other states throughout the country, dental education, research, the Armed Forces and the Federal Services, also have benefited in many ways. In addition, there have been sixty-four dentists who have completed their graduate work, to qualify for one of the specialties in dentistry. Then, too, one hundred fourteen graduates in dental hygiene have met the requirements for practice in various states throughout the nation.

About one year from this time the graduates to date will see the new Dental Research Center completed, which will provide further opportunities and challenges to those who would extend the frontiers of knowledge for greater service to all mankind. Furthermore, the final architectural drawings for the new educational wing to the school will be completed, thereby, permitting the activation of this added facility some two years hence.

DR. JOHN C. BRAUER
Dean

All this has been made possible by the combined efforts of the state and the University administrations, State Legislature, dentists of the state, graduates, faculty of the school, and the many friends associated with the profession. The results of this coordinated planning and effort during the past sixteen years have been phenomenal indeed, and, the pattern for future programs has been established firmly. The development and publication of textbooks and other scientific materials which have emanated from research, the many honors which have been directed to our faculty and graduates, and the number of educational and clinical programs which have been labeled throughout the national and world as "created at the University of North Carolina," are the products which can be realized only through service above self.

With the above realities, it is at this stage of professional evaluation in the school and state, that the present dean leaves the administrative scene, to permit the greater tomorrows as time and history moves on with changing objectives and concepts. Indeed, it has been a privilege to serve a cause which is greater than man itself.

LAW SCHOOL

Founded as a private school in 1843 by William H. Battle, the Law School was not completely incorporated into the University until 1899. Battle, a judge of the Superior Court, later a justice of the State Supreme Court, was made Professor of Law in the University in 1845 and the University provided that the degree of Bachelor of Laws should be conferred on those completing the prescribed two year course.

The School maintained a certain independence from the University for a long time. The Professor of Laws received no salary, though he did receive fees from his classes. The students were not entirely subject to the discipline of the University. This was the position of the School during the professorship of Judge Battle, who retired in 1879; during the two years when the law classes were conducted by Kemp P. Battle, then President of the University; and to a considerable extent, during the professorship of John Manning, who was elected in 1881 and died in 1899. The building in which the School is now located was named for Professor Manning. In 1899, the School was completely incorporated into the University as the School of Law. The first dean was James C. MacRae, previously a justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

A succession of deans has followed Dean MacRae. This year marks the beginning of a new stage in the history of the School. Not only did the School open its doors to the largest first year class in its history, but also welcomed a new dean. J. D. Phillips succeeds Dean Henry P. Brandis, Jr. who served from 1949 until 1964.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

The fall semester of 1965 marked the beginning of the sixty-eighth year of pharmaceutical education at the University of North Carolina. This 6th year in Beard Hall was significant for with it came a new dean of Pharmacy school, Dr. George P. Hager who was formerly dean of the College of Pharmacy and Professor of Pharmaceutical Chemistry at the University of Minnesota. We were fortunate that former Dean E. A. Brecht chose not to retire but to remain as a member of our faculty.

Pharmacy school is composed of lectures with laboratories for most courses. This combination gives the students the practical and formal knowledge needed in the profession. Many student organizations are an important aspect of our school. They include Student Branches of A.Ph.A. and N.C.P.A., Rho Chi, Pharmacy Senate, Kappa Epsilon, Phi Delta Chi, and Kappa Psi. Our social calendar is highlighted by fraternity dances and parties, Pharmacy Day, Christmas party, Pharmacy Weekend and a Senior Commencement Party.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

JUDIE PHILLIPS, Secretary-Treasurer; NEILL MUSSELWHITE, President; MARK WILLIAMS, Vice President.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

MARY HELEN JOHNSTON, Secretary-Treasurer; LARRY BABER, President; DEL CRANFORD, Vice President.

This is Pharmacy School—extracurricular and social activities combined with this combination is a study on a professional level; produces conscientious, well-rounded pharmacists who are not only qualified but have a sense of pride in themselves and their work and who find honor in their contribution to the health and welfare of mankind.

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

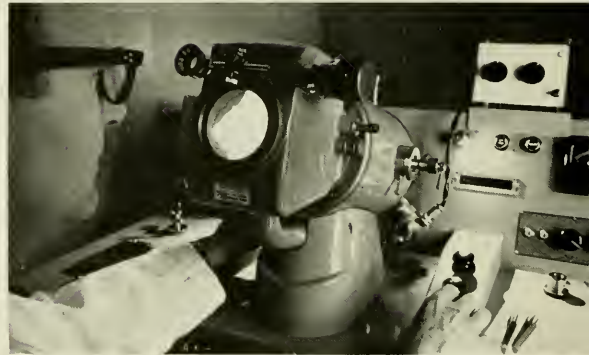

Students come into the School of Public Health with a sense of purpose—that of preparing themselves, usually in one academic year, for a new profession. Beginning as physicians, engineers, teachers, mathematicians, nurses, they have become imbued with the factor of health in economic and social development at home and abroad.

Students go out from the School of Public Health to the four corners of the earth. Problems of water and air pollution, of infant mortality and family planning, of nutrition, and of pestilence are universal in scope, and the public health student, whether he serves in a local community or in a far away land, employs the tools he has forged in his intensive training at our School.

One of fourteen such accredited Schools of Public Health in North America, students engage in study and research in ten academic departments of the school: Biostatistics, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Epidemiology, Maternal and Child Health, Parasitology, Public Health Education, Public Health Nursing, Public Health Nutrition and Mental Health. All instruction is on the graduate level, with increasing numbers of students pursuing doctoral studies.

SOCIAL WORK

The School of Social Work derives from the School of Public Welfare (1920); the School of Public Administration (1932); and since 1950 has been the graduate School of Social Work, one of sixty-four such schools in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico.

The program is based upon two years of interrelated course instruction and supervised field experience in social welfare agencies, and culminates in the Master of Social Work degree. Opportunities are offered for professional training in social casework in such areas as family service, public welfare, child welfare, corrections, medical social service, psychiatric social work, and school services. There is also provision for preparation for careers in community administration. Graduates are qualified to offer services in public and private welfare agencies in city, county, state, federal, national, and international settings.

Boldly accepting the challenges created by an expanding student community, the Student Government, led by President Paul Dickson, III, has moved steadily forward in providing services for the Student Body. Working continuously for the improvements of the judicial, educational, cultural, state, and campus affairs of students, they have combined forces with the faculty and administration to meet the challenges of our massive University.

This was a year of student interest and student participation. Toronto Exchange and State Student Legislature interviews were swamped by many qualified applicants; numerous interested students served capably on both the Attorney General's staff and on the various executive committees. Student elections, tabulated for the first time by a computer, had greater participation than in the past.

With the many new proposals of the Dickson Administration now becoming a reality, Student Government can look back with pride on 1965.

As the Fortieth Assembly opened, many issues were anticipated, especially the establishment of a full scale Residence College System in all residence hall areas. In addition, the long-awaited revision of the antiquated Student Government Statutes, which would revise the basic structure of the Executive Branch into a departmental system, was also probable for consideration. Finally, the continuing question of Judicial and Court structure reform seemed to be even more pressing for action.

CAROLINA WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The Carolina Women's Council is the co-ordinating body among women's dormitories. It is composed of a chairman elected in the spring campus elections; a social chairman and two activities chairmen from each dormitory; a representative from Women's Athletic Association; and Dorothy Fulgum, advisor from the Office of the Dean of Women.

C. W. C. sponsors activities within each dormitory and among all the dormitories such as mixers, bridge tournaments, Sunday breakfasts, and informal parties between dorms. The council also works with various other organizations to provide further activities for the coed, and awards certificates to the freshman with the highest average in her field. In the spring it honors the five outstanding senior dormitory women with a tea.

The main goals of C. W. C. are greater unity and enthusiasm among dormitory women; therefore, this year, in addition to a scholarship trophy, the council awarded a trophy to the dorm that had participated the most and contributed the most to dormitory life.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

Women's Residence Council is the women's legislative branch of the Student Government, formulating all rules governing the social standards and welfare of women students. In addition to this legislative function, the council serves as a link between the women students and the administration, as a coordinator of the dormitory and sorority proceedings, and as a sounding board for problems which arise in the residences. This year W.R.C. has given special attention to the House Councils, revising the manner in which members are chosen and increasing their functions and responsibilities.

MEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

SONNY PEPPER
President

This year, the Men's Residence Council has continued its efforts toward the establishment of a system of residence colleges at the University. Eight colleges have been established incorporating all the men's residence halls. The Social program rose to a new high providing more and better social activities than ever before. It has been geared to the residence college level and has been marked by an enthusiasm and a quality that has never before been obtained.

Court reforms and changes in the representative form have made this a complete year of transition and achievement.

MEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

WOMEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

The Women's Honor Council is the court of original jurisdiction for all alleged violations of the campus and Honor Codes by women students. In addition, it hears cases involving major residence rule violations and appeals from the Women's House Councils.

There are three officers: a chairwoman, elected each spring by and from the Council, a vice-chairman and a House Council coordinator, who work to coordinate the various resident hall and sorority councils. Three members of the Women's Council, including the chairwoman, serve on the Constitutional Council.

The Council also strives to improve the Honor System and the students' knowledge of it. It attempts to educate the student body about the responsibilities of academic freedom, personal integrity and mature social conduct. This year the Council, in conjunction with the Men's Honor Council, visited the various resident halls, fraternities and sororities to discuss the Honor System and its many implications. Furthermore, it is strongly supporting many of the judicial reforms which have been proposed in the area of court structure, penalties and women's rules.

MEN'S HONOR COUNCIL

VAN McNAIR
Chairman

The Men's Honor Council, the primary judicial body for campus law at the University of North Carolina, has original jurisdiction in all instances of violations of the Honor and Campus Codes. Under the Constitution the Council has the authority to render decisions which include reprimand, placing on probation, and suspension from the University. In a long tradition of student self-reliance, the decisions of the Council stand as a monument to autonomy.

Part of the work of this year's Council has been to promote the Honor System throughout the campus by means of talks with various organizations, dormitories, sororities, and fraternities. The main effort has been directed toward instilling in the mind of each student the credo, "The System—right or wrong," and toward making them especially aware that the System will be upheld above all. There can be no compromise of honorable conduct.

PUBLICATIONS

The Pub Board of the University is the publishing agency for The Daily Tar Heel, the student newspaper, and The Yackety Yack, the student yearbook; a pub board is also the sideboard in an English drinking establishment on which the meat and bread are placed (this practice was begun in the sixteenth century to keep inebriation at a civilized level by forcing the drinker to leave his seat and get three or four steps of exercise in stumbling to the sideboard), but that is irrelevant. The Board at UNC is composed of two faculty members appointed by the Chancellor, four student members elected by the student body, a representative of the Student Legislature, and representatives of the various student publications. The Board controls the financial policies of the two publications, which are financed by appropriations from student fees and by receipts from advertising. The content of each publication is prepared and edited by students, under the supervision of an editor elected by the student body.

Used predominantly during Fall Orientation, the Handbook continues throughout the entire year as a sourcebook for all students, in addition to freshmen. The 1965-1966 Handbook was one of the finest ever printed, well designed, and packed with more information than ever before.

Celebrating its seventy-second year of editorial incompetence, The Daily Tar Heel, the official news publication of the University of North Carolina, hit the stands this year with a resounding thud. Published by students daily except Mondays, examination periods, vacations, and when the circulation boys were asleep, the Tar Heel contained such items of earth-shaking importance as Otelia Connor's obsession with trivia and David Rothman's schizophrenic drive. Ernie McCrary showed his leadership as editor by seeking sanctuary in the infirmary for six weeks of the fall semester, while the associate editor demonstrated his ability by being fired midway through the year. The Tar Heel's political writer, John Greenbacker, indicated that his destiny lay with the Hearst syndicate, the New York Journal-American, the New York Daily News, or the National Enquirer, by exhibiting an uncanny knack for journalistic inaccuracies and inadvertent libel. One cannot help but commend student Charles Schulz for his brilliant amateur cartoon work in the Tar Heel's comic section, and Chip Barnard for his ability to confuse even the most "in" students with his acid caricatures. All things considered, it was a typical year for The Daily Heel.

"G.M. Presents." Behind this simple statement stands the Graham Memorial Activities Board, dedicated to serving the out-of-class needs of the campus. G.M.A.B. is the programming agency for the Student Union, composed of seven student committees — Social, Current Affairs, Publicity, Games, Drama, Music, and Films. Each works diligently to serve the student through his recreational, social, cultural, and academic interests. G.M.A.B. is also responsible for planning the G.M. Series, presenting top-level performers and entertainers who brighten the calendar with illustrious names. In the spring, it sponsors Jubilee, the annual all-campus weekend filled with concerts, entertainment and recreation. Recognizing that a full educational experience is not found in books and classes alone, the three words "G.M. Presents," which inconspicuously accompany scores of programs and activities, are indication that G.M.A.B. is trying its best to provide opportunities which can make the student's stay at Carolina as rich and fruitful as possible.

THE 1966 CAROLINA SYMPOSIUM

The Carolina Symposium is a concerted effort of the University community of Chapel Hill to bring to the campus outstanding speakers in various fields. In searching for a topic for the 1966 Carolina Symposium, the Program Committee examined many proposals to study particular malaises of our times. But in the course of this examination, we felt that underlying all of these was a lack of self-confidence in modern man, a failure of nerves. Where were we going? No one seemed to know; no one seemed to possess any basis for beginning an answer. Then the suggestion that our age had outgrown its myths and had failed to create replacements provided our direction for the answer. Hence the topic: Man, Mind, and Myth.

The 1966 Carolina Symposium examined the problem of myth. We began our definition of myth as a story which embodies and explains an already existing institution, phenomenon or belief.

MAN, MIND, AND MYTH

DAVID A. LANE
Vice-Chairman

GEORGE BUTLER
Chairman

Because of its simplicity and the justification it lends to a society's pattern of operation, the myth becomes a powerful force, both perpetuating that pattern and shaping the thoughts and values of individuals in that society.

Hence if a society is to attain any measure of intellectual self-awareness, it must understand the structure of its mythology and the manner in which this mythology affects the society as a whole, and its members. The purpose of the 1966 Carolina Symposium has been to conduct the university community in such an examination.

As of this writing, November 3, 1965, we have had acceptances from Dean Alan Richardson, Dr. Daniel Boorstin, Dr. Walter Kaufmann, Mr. Nelson Algren, the Hon. Morris K. Udall, the Hon. John Lindsay, Mr. Ralph Ellison, and Dr. C. Vann Woodward.

GLEE CLUB

The UNC Men's Glee Club, in its 75th touring anniversary year, has concentrated its major efforts toward a planned European tour.

This year the Club started the Fine Arts Festival at Wilmington College, sang for the Convention of American Choral Directors, and started a radio series dedicated to the Glee Club alone, and to its type of music.

On the European tour planned for June and July, the Club will tour England, France and several other Western European countries. It has tentative dates at Westminster Cathedral; the Welsh International Eisteddfod; the Danish-American Fourth of July Celebration Festival (representing the United States); and a two day appearance at the University of Lyon.

The emphasis this year has also been devoted to drawing the students of this University and the Men's Glee Club together. This was accomplished to some extent through a series of concerts held on the campus. These performances included the Scott College Dedication Ceremony, University Day, the Tuesday Evening Series, Christmas Caroling, and one of the Graham Memorial series programs.

The Club presented approximately 40 concerts during the year, giving the best of CAROLINA to the people of the State, the Nation and the World.

"An organized body of college men . . . dedicated to and actively involved in the enjoyment and the performance of good choral music"—so reads the constitution of the University Gleemen.

Since its beginning in 1963 as a feeder group for the Varsity Glee Club, the Gleemen has become an outstanding organization in its own right, having many accomplishments to its credit. In its three years, it has functioned as a performing group in various clubs, churches, and other organizations around the campus, and around Chapel Hill. It also has supplemented the work of the Varsity Glee Club in joint performances at University Days, for the Governor's Inauguration, and for other miscellaneous events.

The club has increased in size since its beginning, and this year had approximately eighty voices. Doctor Joel Carter is the director of the club, and under his capable leadership, the Gleemen has established a broad repertoire of religious, folk, and popular music. Besides living up to its constitution by producing fine choral music, the Gleemen also derives great enjoyment from its singing, and each member enjoys being a part of the organization.

CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS

The 1965-1966 academic year was the Playmakers' 48th season. As often in the past, the Playmakers opened with a musical. This season it was Gilbert and Sullivan's famous musical comedy, "The Mikado." The revival of this light-hearted satire, which was presented by the Playmakers seventeen years ago and starred then student-actor Andy Griffith, won great critical acclaim and played three nights to huge audiences in Memorial Hall. This season also included: "The Summer Tree," a new romantic play by U.N.C.'s Schubert Fellow in Playwriting, Randolph Umberger; "Holiday Mountain" by Ugo Betti; "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde; and "Liliom," the play on which the musical "Carousel" is based, by Ferenc Molnar.

Carolina's YM and YWCA function as twin organizations to serve the needs of the student body, the university, and the community. Claiming Y Building as its traditional home, the organizations keep a bustle of activity in motion through the activities of numerous committees and special projects. Separate YM and YW Cabinets are composed of committee chairmen and executive officers and meet independently and jointly to coordinate the organizations' activities and to discuss special issues.

Community service committees sponsor programs

Other committees are the United Nations, Peace Education, Public Affairs, International Relations, Foreign Students, Tutoring, Religious Emphasis, Writer-in-Residence, Human Relations, and Campus Chest committees.

Special projects during the year have included an International Gift Bazaar, seminar trips to the UN at Thanksgiving, and special speakers and discussion groups.

UNIVERSITY PARTY

The University Party, founded in 1926, is Carolina's oldest political party. It is based on the principle that the more persons active in government, the stronger the government.

This year the Party set up the most comprehensive committee structure in its history. A Traffic Commission will investigate some alternative solutions to the parking solution put into effect this past September. The Campus Action Board will continue its fine work of bringing students' complaints to the attention of the Administration. The Academic Affairs Committee will hold a Majors Week and also try to increase the length of the reading period at the end of the semester. The Research Commission on Challenges and Opportunities will study the problems being created by the ever growing University. These committees in addition to solving some of the more pressing campus problems will give members experience in committee work.

In the fall, the Party held its most successful membership drive, ending with 1,300 members in the U. P. ranks. With the Party membership being evenly divided between fraternities and residence hall individuals it can truly be said that the University Party is an ALL CAMPUS PARTY.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Student Association maintains a spirit of Christian fellowship primarily through weekly discussion meetings dealing with topics of interest to the modern college student. LSA'ers also enjoy fellowship through recreation, informal parties, and retreats for Lutheran students in the Triangle area. The Campus Center provides UNC Lutherans and their friends and dates with a place for quiet study, watching television, and general relaxation.

STUDENTS NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Student National Education Association is the professional organization for college and university students preparing to teach. The function of S.N.E.A. is to provide opportunities for professional growth; development of leadership; understanding of the history, ethics, and programs at state and national levels; and participation in professional activities at local, state, and national levels, especially integrating programs of local associations and student education associations. The Carolina chapter is the Frank Porter Graham Chapter of S.N.E.A. and is affiliated with the North Carolina Education Association and the National Education Association. There are 137 members. The officers are Dick Bulla, president; Nancy Litton, treasurer; Barbara Banker, secretary; Jane Early Chanon, membership chairman; and Ann Guyer, vice president.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS CLUB

The UNC Young Democrat Club was largely responsible for this enthusiastic welcome given Vice President Humphrey at the Raleigh-Durham Airport last Spring.

Providing outlets for political interests on both the state and national level, the University's Young Democratic Club enjoyed a successful year. While expanding its membership across a broad cross-section of the University community, the YDC instituted a seminar called Politics Backstage to approach politics through people who make it work, expanded social activities and presented thought-provoking speakers.

DEBATING TEAM

The Debate Team continues to build its national reputation by wins at Emory and at the nationally famous Dartmouth Invitational Tournament. This year, in addition to Emory and Dartmouth, the team will travel to NYU, Harvard, Pittsburgh, Wake Forest, and Duke while debating the topic RESOLVED: "That law enforcement agencies in the U. S. should be given greater freedom in the investigation and prosecution of crime."

The varsity team is now beginning to show the results of the expanded novice (first year debator) program which has been carried on during the last two years. And to this year's novice team passes the task of being defending ACC champions for the second consecutive year.

In its First Annual Tarheel Invitational Debate Tournament the Debate Team was host to twenty-three schools and over one hundred debators from the North, South, and Mid-West. The nine rounds of collegiate debate ended with the University of Georgia in first place. The response was very favorable and plans are being made for next year's tournament and efforts are being made to bring a greater number of schools to UNC for the competition.

STUDENT ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Student Athletic Council was established by the Student Legislature in 1959, to serve as a co-ordinating body for athletic matters. The chairman of the Council is the President of the Carolina Athletic Association, and the other twelve members represent various athletic-oriented student organizations, as well as representatives from the legislative and executive branches of Student Government.

Planning the Homecoming Weekend is the major project of the S.A.C. The 1965 Homecoming was the best ever. The first campus-wide election of the Queen, a big Fireworks-Pep Rally, a display contest, and an elaborate halftime ceremony highlighted a successful weekend. The active Council also sponsored the Carolina Sweethearts, a group of twenty-three coeds representing all women's dormitories and sororities. The girls softened-up visiting football and

A pep club was organized this year by the S.A.C. to follow the Tar Heel basketball team in games around the state. Their enthusiasm and support were big assets to the team.

DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps, commanded by Captain Rex W. Warner, USN, was established at UNC in 1940, the first ROTC unit on this campus. The UNC unit was chosen this summer to conduct the six week training camp, a requirement for the new NROTC two year program. The unit is the third largest in the United States and has commissioned over eleven hundred officers. Overly fifty midshipmen will be commissioned as ensigns in the United States Navy this year.

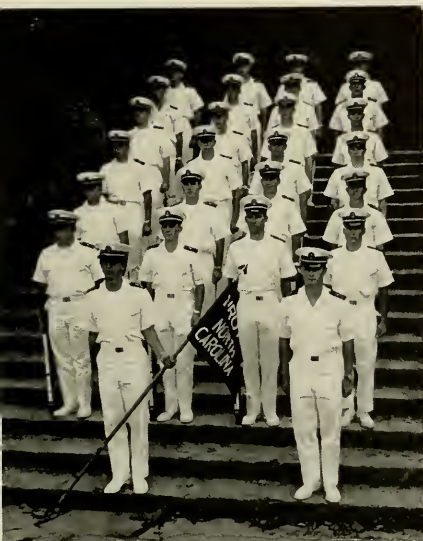

The NROTC Midshipman Battalion is commanded by Midshipman Captain Richard S. Johnson and is composed of approximately three hundred university students. Within the battalion are several groups, such as, the Drill Team, Rifle Team, and the Drum and Bugle Corps. For the past two years Carolina's NROTC Unit has received the highest rating possible in both administrative and military aspects.

Over two hundred and fifty cadets filled the ranks of the Air Force ROTC this year. Led by Cadet Colonel Ellis J. Harrington, Jr., the cadets were given an integrated training program on the drill field, in leadership laboratory periods, and through other corps activities. Thirteen senior cadets were involved in the Flight Instruction Program (FIP), which leads to a private pilot's license.

The Rammers, state AFROTC drill team champions, continued their fine performances with appearances throughout the state, at the state competition, and at the Cherry Blossom festival in Washington, D. C. Other corps activities included the ROTC formal ball, two corps picnics, and a cadet talent show. Another highlight was the care and entertainment of the Angel Flight—a group of University coeds who serve as official hostesses for cadet functions.

For the first time this year, seven scholarships were given to rising juniors. In addition, a two-year AFROTC program was started this summer. This new program requires six weeks of summer camp after the sophomore year and two years of academics. The most worthwhile event, of course, is commissioning—that moment toward which all the drudgery, sweat and effort has been directed. This year more than forty cadets will take the oath of office as officers in the Air Force.

The Angel Flight is the auxiliary of and is sponsored by the Arnold Air Society. The purposes of the Flight are to strengthen and promote interest in the AFROTC, to aid in the progress of the Arnold Air Society and the Cadet Corps, and to gain and to promote the high morale in the AFROTC Corps.

To fulfill these objectives, the Angels maintain a full schedule of activities. They assist the Corps through the planning and preparation of coffee hours, the Air Force Ball, the Corps' picnics and other social events. They also accompany cadets on Air Force Base visitations and attend the Angel Flight National Conclave, which was held in Dallas, Texas, this year.

Though most of the Angel Flight's activities take place on a local level, it is a national organization with one hundred twenty flights within the United States. As in the past, this has been a full and rewarding year for the girls who wear the silver wings of the Angel Flight here at UNC.

The Arnold Air Society, founded in 1947 in honor of General H. H. "Hap" Arnold, is a national honorary service organization composed of selected AFROTC cadets. To promote interest within the Cadet Corps and in the Air Force, the Society offers a wide variety of activities from speakers and films to service projects and social events. UNC's Jesse J. Moorhead Squadron is now serving its second consecutive year at Area B-2 Headquarters, supervising the activities of a six-school program in Virginia and North Carolina.

Scabbard and Blade was founded at the University of Wisconsin in 1904 as a national honorary military society for the purpose of developing and fostering ideals, practice, and education of military affairs in the United States. At the University of North Carolina, "L" Company, 8th Regiment was established in 1949. Scabbard and Blade is composed of outstanding juniors and seniors from the ranks of NROTC midshipmen and AFROTC cadets. The primary requirements for selection for membership are service and interest in the ROTC program. Scabbard and Blade, also sponsors the annual Military Week which culminates in the Military Ball.

Semper Fidelis celebrates Marine Corps Birthday on November 10th

The Alpha Chapter of the Semper Fidelis Society was established at the University of North Carolina on 9 October 1952. It was founded by students to prepare themselves as officers in the United States Marine Corps. They set forth objectives of receiving and disseminating policies, doctrines, and vital information pertinent to better understanding of their future responsibilities as officers in the U. S. Marine Corps; stimulation and protection of the high traditions and ideals of the Corps; promotion of good fellowship and cultivation of the social virtues among its members.

RESIDENCE HALLS

TWO HUNDRED FORTY-SEVEN

BATTLE

John Stewart, Secretary-Treasurer; Jack Cook, President; Marvin Henderson, Vice President.

Battle-Vance-Pettigrew: a brown English castle guarding the northwest corner of the campus. Our ivy-hugged battlements, our gaping gargoyles, our Wizard of ID, Silent Sam, keep constant vigil over Davis Quad and Franklin Street. Protectors of Harry's, benefactors of the Dairy Bar, the not-so-white Knights of BVP rule this neck of the woods. No matter if our fortress isn't large. Small but tough, that's BVP.

Tom Manly, President; Mac Talmadge, Treasurer; Allen Shepard, Speaker of Senate; Jaye Wiken, Social Vice President.

EHRINGHAUS

Money is no object, points don't count, this year we're just going to have fun. So fun it is, and fun costs money: beer blasts, combos, Seductives, Nomads, Rocking Riffs, and cheese sandwich receptions. Colored lights, combos and parties . . . watch the go-go girls . . . go Hodges and Elizabeth, and mixers will be served. We are the greatest, so naturally we won the Homecoming display with bulldog-hotdogs. It was six days' work, work achin' work.

On the serious side: racial and religious restriction dropped from Senate . . . New residence college bureaucratic system completed in January, now we gain other south campus petty bureaucrats . . . Midnight signals our official name change, fifth floor in-crowd plus new members continue to run the Haus . . . "Gosh, you guys, I feel awful about not being able to help, but you see, I have this class . . . STUD continues under new editor—after pork barreling clean up . . . Hail STUD, long may you wave over the home of the fools and place of the brave . . . slumber parties at Capris Homecoming . . . Big Maron? . . . Mause House? . . . football team surrenders. We will always lead the pack . . . Ehringhaus lives on . . . upward from the lair.

"Honeybun" wows 'em!

MANGUM

Mugs dress to gross

No, fellows, we took the trophy picture last week

B.D.D.O.C. Best Damn Dorm on Campus is a phrase that every residence hall, from the rattiest to the most monolithic, likes to use. It supposedly conjures up visions of a super-cool, ultra-intelligent, exceedingly athletic race of dorm-mates. To this exaggerated "James Bondism," we say: "Sure, guys, sure . . ."

Mangum Mugs (catchy, isn't it?) are just a bunch of regular fellas . . . like Wild Bill Elliott, mad-masher M.R.C., intromural ramrod, respected for his authoritative decisions (his size helps) . . . like Andy Holland, "El Presidente," always ready to offer his views for fun or profit, depending on which is the most expedient at the time . . . like Stump Beck and his Witty social commentaries on Yankees (and anything else that comes to mind) . . . like Joe Dunn, whose being barn late is no excuse . . .

Mangumites might be prone to give honorary membership in the dorm to the German poet, Goethe, for his apt dictum: "A mystic bond of brotherhood makes all men one." But, we of Mangum have a saying of our own: "Look out, brother dorms, the Mugs are coming!"

MANLY

Manly began the academic year with a big bang . . . a firecracker out of a first floor window . . . this type of action did not continue, however, as the new regime closed in. Quiet prevailed everywhere. Of course everyone had his own brand of fun if sometimes his "methods" had to be called down . . . W. G. spoke out on the harmful effects of an education . . . J. E. L. and M. L. R. furthered the P. E. program by giving lessons in the parachuting and free fall . . . Rozier, despite "The Fugitive" and "Amos Burke," began to study (the only Riverrat ever kept in the South Wing of the Hospital over two days) . . . Snuffy Smith is drinking more now and enjoying it less . . . 106 retains the "Black Belt" for their Magnificent "mat-action" . . . MOREHEAD COLLEGE

Morehead Residence College, composed of Aycok, Stacy, Graham, Lewis, and Everett was established last spring as an effort to further a sense of unity and spirit in our residence halls, to help cope with the "identity crisis" of a growing university. Through combo parties, mixers, speakers, the Morehead Messenger, and our own local government, the college hopes to make the life of each man more enjoyable and rewarding while a student at Carolina.

Morehead College government has worked hard to improve the social life of the Morehead man, holding frequent parties each semester. Through the welcome efforts of the Men's Residence Council, there is a social room open to all couples in the basement of Graham. Week - nights, outstanding faculty members speak here on such topics as "the double standard" and "sex and the college girl."

The Homecoming display, a regular newspaper, the parties, and a common quiz file are some of the projects instilling pride in our college. We are young and have many ideas with real potential, but already Morehead College men have made outstanding contributions to intramurals and the rest of Carolina life, staging the only decent panty raid on campus last spring.

EVERETT

For once they're right

JAMES S. WOMACK
Co-President

ROBERT ZENDEL, Co-President, with
ZACKIE MURPHY, Sweetheart

The sign over the door says EVERETT. The people that dwell therein call it ROGAH. It is special. What other dorm on campus has had a color TV for a year (thanks to ex-president, ace can-man Hashimoto Old). What other dorm has the name of the "dorm-to-beat" down at the intramural office. What other dorm could go through the political upheaval of four presidents in one year and still come out second in the best dorm on campus contest.

It is a pity, but ROGAH House has become somewhat of a forgotten dorm overshadowed by that wealthy palace out in the sticks which doth bestrode the narrow campus like a colossus. Years ago, before those people ever donned their blue stetsons and grew their bovine horns, a dirty old building in one corner of the Lower Quad raised its head and decided to take that creative giant step in dormitory life — making life in Everett meaningful, productive, and enjoyable. ROGAH House was born. And things were done, too. Just look at the record. People like Sam Shapiro and Paul Dickson, and Pete Williams have led us to moments of glory, and we're proud of it, proud that the spirit of dorm unity, of belonging, of accomplishing, came first to ROGAH House. We'll do it reluctantly, but we'll smile patiently and understandingly and let the newcomers, the johnnie-come-latelys, the gong-beating copycats take the credit. Being pioneers is a lonely business anyway.

GRAHAM

Crackers, Bells, and Climbers compile worse record than Redskins! Hyde leads defense of wrestling crown as volleyball and basketball teams break through with aid of new candy and coke machine in TV room.

Basement scene of notable debates, like whether to have a Yack page or a beer and pizza party. Fink runs dorm's card game in guise of Buddha. Steve Hyde is benefactor with beer having won everyone's heart (at 3c a point).

Graham's freshmen shame the veterans with their relentless studying. Veterans amazed at refurbished dorm — new tiles over cigarette burns and cheerful paint job create new, respectable atmosphere. Gone are dorm's biggest grossers (to ROGAH's relief). New dedicated academicians are crumbling the hell raising past. Graham has become a cracker dorm. Biggest achievement: new regulator showers. Easterling good laundry man. Surfer and all the boys at Graham Dormitory "May the bird of paradise fly up your nose."

Dorm Intramural Manager: Was there really a game scheduled for today?

Muscle Beach at Graham Nudist Colony

Dorm sweetheart, a real honey at getting girls rooms on big weekends, boys good at bringing spirit(s) to big — and little weekends. President Jim Sturgess becomes a real Graham man (pop. 8000). Tom Jarett brings a law book and a jar head to a tough job. Arthur Hays another good advisor as is Denny Benton. Hal Triplett "bridges" gap between fun and study, providing expert commentary on all TV sports. Dorm intermurals real sport, as teams do not support practice makes perfect doctrine.

Long wait till Thanksgiving, longer wait till Easter. Cannot wait for beach. Graham empties its three-man rooms in the spring, secure in the knowledge that they'll begin to study for exams "tomorrow."

As the new school year started with surprising quietness, Stacy began determined to improve last year's third place standing for best-dorm-on-campus.

MORRISON COLLEGE

CHUCK MCKIEVER, Lt. Governor; E. J. SIMMONS, Lt. Governor;
BILL FAISON, Secretary; RICHARD WRIGHT, Treasurer.

Pre-Flick Days

Morrison Residence College has started off its first year by setting the pace for others to follow.

Morrison made the headlines when some of the men of "Big Mo" raided Maverick House and heisted the victory gong. Later, the elevator doors in Morrison opened to reveal the gong hanging from the ceiling, with the words "Morrison No. 1, Big Mo." Byron McCoy, Morrison Governor, presented it to embarrassed Maverick officials.

Morrison originated the idea of the campus "a-Go-Go" parties by opening its fabulous Morrison a-Go-Go Club. Over five hundred couples visited the club during homecoming weekend to dance to the music of the Castaways, Embers, and Seductives and watch the "Go-Go" girls. At the Homecoming a-Go-Go, William G. Long was presented with a plaque naming him Honorary Housefather of Morrison College for 1965-66. In addition, Miss Anita Wilkinson was crowned Miss Morrison College. Our governor played Go-Go-boy by dancing on stage with one of the girls.

The men of "Big Mo" will long remember Schroeder Swamp, the beer blasts, and our own special theme song sung by the Morrison Balcony Chorus:

"Our dorm's bigger than your dorm,
Our dorm's bigger than yours."

HOUSE "A"

BRANSON

CHARLES WOOTEN, Secretary-Treasurer; BILL GATES, Vice President; LANDIS WHITLEY, President.

We of B-floor of Morrison College have chosen to call our new home Branson House in honor of Kenan Professor Eugene C. Branson, who came to U. N. C. in 1914. Dedicated to the betterment of rural, social, and economic conditions, he organized courses in social economics and social work, and later was instrumental in the establishment of a School of Public Welfare.

Under the able leadership of our officers and the watchful eye of our sweetheart Claire Brinkley, the men of Branson House are undertaking an ambitious social program — mixers with Carolina coeds and W. C. girls, Beat Dook float, championship intramural teams, Go-Go parties, cultural and service projects — which will be of benefit to the House, Morrison College, and the University.

CAVALIER HOUSE

ROBIE SMITH, Secretary-Treasurer; ROBERT PITTARD, President; JAMES OGBURN, Vice President.

This first year has been very successful for Cavalier House of Morrison College. Aside from having good officers, their sweetheart, Nita Wilkinson, was elected Miss Morrison College. Cavalier House had several parties, the best of which came after the Homecoming game. Recently Jim Ogburn assumed the duties of the Presidency when Robert Pittard was forced to leave school because of Mono. Mixers with Nurses, W. C. and . . . Sex Bowls with Cobb . . . And if you'll think real hard, you'll remember the "Sound of Music" from 401. Good Year for Morrison; great year for Cavalier.

ALLEN MOSER

A new dorm necessitates starting from the bottom in an attempt to unify the men of each house. "Draught" House has done just this through mixers, raffles, and beer blasts. It is with hope that the enthusiasm and spirit acquired through intramurals, athletics, student government, and other extra curricular activities, by the 114 men of the house this year will continue to grow in the Carolina tradition.

Griffith House of Morrison Residence College began the year with the election of officers in a flurry of signs, speeches, and posters, resulting in the election of Thomas S. Spencer, Pres.; Bill Rowe, V. Pres.; and Bill Faison, Sec. Andy Griffith House was selected for the house name, while Judy Brown was chosen as house sweetheart.

School spirit not lacking, the Griffith House gods put up window letters on the eighth floor of Morrison which spelled out "Beat the Terps." Then with Homecoming the whole gang pitched in to make a huge whale for the Morrison Homecoming display.

During the first administration of George Washington, on October 12, 1793, the cornerstone of Old East (originally known as "North Wing") was laid. It was the first building to be erected on the campus of any state university in the United States.

In 1846, Old East was enlarged toward the north one-half its former length. It was in this addition that the original cornerstone was covered up by bricks. The North Carolina Room of the Library has the original copper plaque that was attached to this cornerstone. The plaque was found by an alumnus in a Tennessee junk pile, after it had been missing for many years.

During the Civil War, Yankee soldiers were quartered in historic Old East. In 1924, the interior was thoroughly renovated, and at the present time Old East houses ninety-four Carolina Gentlemen.

Old West men at leisure

DAVE RENDLEMAN, Newspaper Editor; JOHN RONEY, MRC; HARRY BLAIR, Vice President; ROY ALEXANDER, Secretary-Treasurer.

OLD WEST

Not since Sherman bedded down his horses in 1864 has Old West seen a grubbier crew. This year the guys have voted negative in every referendum on campus, failed to elect an MRC candidate who ran unopposed, and extended a 143-year winning streak in all athletic contests with Old East.

Old West is divided into three sections: The South Section houses the brain trust of hard core rednecks, as evidenced by the display of the Confederate Flag and the playing of Dixie during the FSM Rally last spring; The Center Section, or Kindergarten, led by Purdy, Williamson, and the crew, looks like the Huns ran through it and is more or less considered the low-rent slum district; The North Section, built in 1844, is the new wing, and the boys there are well on their way to being accepted by the old guard aristocracy.

Operation Match padded the coffers pretty well, however falling short of the sum needed to buy the summer beach house in the Bahamas. The Lizzard of the Week award was captured forever by Everett, Creveling and Fundy for the stunt on April Fools' Day that fished in a crowd of sixty. Jessie, the custodian, married during the summer . . . quality of work deteriorating. Roney and Billie are proud parents of a son, Jahn Beauregard Roney, III, who has already been reserved a room in South Section. Rendleman and Blair, birdmen of Old West, wound up with a retarded, albino parakeet named Radan. Curtis continues to glau over the World Series; Lane continues to search for the original sin.

We are sick.

JOE GOODMAN, President

Scott meets Scott

SCOTT COLLEGE

Scott College officially came of age October 31, 1965, when North Carolina Lieutenant Governor Robert W. Scott dedicated the college named in honor of W. Kerr Scott, former governor and U. S. Senator.

For over a year Scott College, a pilot project in the residence college system, has charted the way for the other residence areas on campus. A few Scott "firsts" include: the first residence college newspaper, the SCOTT JOURNAL; the first college humor magazine, the CHANTICLEER; the first college pixie, Poo-Poo; the first college Senate; the first college constitution; and the first, the biggest, and the best college dedication.

With the completion of the ultra-swank social room in the basement of the Teague "Hilton" at the beginning of the school year, Scott social life moved into high gear with combo parties after the home football games. All were excited about the residence college ideas and the completion of the social room has kept Scott morale high.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is the advisory-governing board for the seven sororities on campus. This year the Council's main concern was the expanding and strengthening of the sorority system at UNC. Specific areas of action included the evaluating and revising of the rush system, sponsoring of a workshop for the new officers of all the sororities, arranging of joint programs with the dormitory women on the identity of a woman beyond graduation, and generally striving for greater cooperation and understanding among sororities. The Council also sponsored a community service project, a Christmas benefit project, and an all-women's activity with the Carolina Women's Council.

The Panhellenic Council is composed of the Panhellenic Advisor, Mrs. Larry McDevitt, sorority presidents, sorority rush chairmen replaced after rush by pledge representatives, two representatives from the Stray Greek Organization, and an executive committee made up of members from each sorority.

STRAY GREEKS

The girl wearing the green ribbon during rush is a member of the Stray Greek organization. She is a member of a sorority whose chapter has not colonized on this campus. The primary purpose of the organization is to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood fostered by the absent sorority. It further stimulates cooperation between sorority and dormitory women and serves its members as a service and social organization.

Operation of the Panhellenic Post Office during rush is the major function of the Stray Greeks. They also participate in swap night, PanHel cultural programs and eat in the sorority houses.

Alpha Delta returns for a year of pleasant surprises. The sports fans are welcomed by the HELLOOO! of the MROA's Supreme Sequoia. Granny's mystery meat, Suede's chapter functions, and Mrs. Scott's sudden approval of scopes highlight the action. Spudder, Super-Stu, and Frog have gone down for the last time. Hemplock pushes high school honeys, but Skeeter is forced to resign as the Sweetheart of Chi O. Willy Raper sets new single-month record with the loss of seven pipes, but Eagle counters with seven new and different dates. Newt beats all by going on a diet, hoping to take Bo-de-dog's place as the chapter scape-goat.

Other activities are on tap. The R. Hass hot-dog award goes to the man himself for three months in a row, retiring the trophy. Teague gets D. A. award after many hours on stage. Rowdy slides in to the Scholarship trophy as he fights for 2.0 and the stock market. Young makes bid as campus executive, seeking to repair the Grit's mistakes. Wannamaker adds excitement with his pre-Germans Heart attack. All points to a successful year of Garden Clubs, match-making, and the Big Apple to the strains of our modernistic box.

PHI GAMMA DELTA

CHARLES WILKINS
President

From the dark, dank corners of everywhere once again emerge the motley plant-like forms that annually inhabit Vance Hall. Fate has taken them under its wing and has once more tilted the computer to allow another chance of finding that gloriously sought "great time" before the hand of realization clutches them and drags them down to the depths of study, books and classes.

Leading this menagerie is Charles "Easy" Wilkins whose been easing in and out of a variety of new developments. Bowman, Renegar and Spell team up with some Nitty D-D-Ditties to form a new and controversial organization of D.S.'ers.

Daily drills executed by Panda, Nude and Kize keep the house up on the latest tactics to win all the romper room events. Max keeps the house on wheels. Moye and Aycock pledge full support to Tect. Bickel and Holland become so down to earth, they're Hell.

Slowly another year of Phi Gamma Delta blooms and withers to be recorded in South Building as a good or bad season. But one thing is for sure, these same plant-like forms will reappear in the fall if the arms of Fate can continue to hold up such a bewildering mass.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council serves as the unifying and governing body for fraternities at Carolina. The Council is composed of the president and the elected representative from each of the twenty-three chapters on campus, and acts as the legislative branch. The I.F.C. Court, with the President and Vice President sitting as ex-officio members, maintains a self-imposed discipline among fraternities. This body serves as the judicial branch. Under the leadership of the Executive Committee, made up of the major officers, the I.F.C. plans and coordinates all phases of fraternity life. The work of the I.F.C. is done through use of the Rush, Publicity, Greek Week, Scholarship, Rules, and Activities Committees. These groups strive to promote the lofty ideals of the entire fraternity system.

To encourage competition among the fraternities, the I.F.C. awards several trophies each year. These include the R. B. House Trophy for the best fraternity, the Scholarship Trophy for most improved scholarship, and the Sturm Trophy for the year's best pledge class. The competition for these awards furthers the goals and aspirations of the Interfraternity Council.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

DON CUNNINGHAM
President

During the thirty years Rho Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity has been active here at Carolina, brothers have been adding much to the physical and spiritual well-being of Chapel Hill. Through a spirit of fraternal togetherness, A Phi O has developed its cardinal principles of leadership, friendship, and service into tangible benefits to the brotherhood, the community, and the nation.

Under president Don Cunningham and faculty advisor James Wadsworth, UNC Director of Housing, A Phi O this year has organized and operated the A Phi O Book Exchange, Ugliest Man On Campus Contest, and Parent's Day, as well as cooperated with civic leaders in the annual Community Chest drive, assisted at area scout camporees, worked with local retarded children, manned campus election polls, and ushered at Carolina Playmaker's productions.

A Phi O, though, by no means overlooks social affairs. Bi-weekly dinner meetings, frequent parties and outings, and informal daily gatherings in the chapter room do much to fulfill brother's needs for relaxation as well as help form the bond of brotherhood required to devote long and hard hours to service projects.

Kappa Epsilon is a national professional fraternity for women students in pharmacy. It was founded on May 13, 1921 at Iowa State University. Lambda Chapter was begun at the University of North Carolina in 1940. The purposes are to stimulate a desire for high scholarship among its members, to foster a professional consciousness, and provide a bond of lasting loyalty, interest, and friendship. The fraternity takes pride in its members throughout the nation who are leaders in the pharmaceutical profession.

ATHLETICS

MONOGRAM CLUB

The University Monogram Club is composed of all varsity athletes who qualify by winning letters in one or more sports. Its goals are to further school spirit, traditions, and standards of scholarship, as well as encouraging athletes to engage in many different types of activities. The club has its headquarters in Woollen Gym which is open to all members. Among the projects of the club are the spring practice game, inviting high school athletes to the University's football games, and a scholarship fund.

MONOGRAM CLUB OFFICERS

Despite the fact that there was sometimes little to cheer about, U.N.C.'s varsity cheerleaders performed diligently and enthusiastically. Under Head Cheerleader Jerry Houle, the squad introduced new cheers, centering on acrobatics and tumbling, with added emphasis placed on pep rallies and co-ordinated cheering. Houle, who somehow managed to survive a D.T.H. blast of incompetence, and the rest of the cheerleaders deserve much credit for their work in promoting school spirit.

University Concert Band

The University Band has proven itself one of the best representatives of the University both on and off of the campus. Under the direction of John Yesulaitis, and resplendent in their new uniforms, the Marching Band provided outstanding and entertaining halftime shows. In addition to the Marching Band and the Concert Band, which studies and performs the best in concert music, Tar Heel basketball games were highlighted by the Pep Band.

The Tarheels in 1965 played both exciting and dull football; they upset some teams and they were upset; they showed running and passing ability and an almost total incompetence at defense—in short the Heels were the same mediocre team of years gone by. No more exciting game was played in 1965 than at Kenan Stadium when Clemson dropped a 17-13 thriller (ending the game on the Carolina one foot line), or when Carolina and Georgia staged a tremendous offensive battle at Homecoming (with the Bulldogs putting on a superhuman come-from-behind fourth quarter effort to score 26 points and win 47-34); but against Virginia, after a brilliant first quarter, the Tarheels played one of the dulllest and poorest games of the year, finally losing 21-17. Ohio State and Maryland found that the Heels could come up with a big win (14-3 and 12-10); mighty Natre Dame had to call on every one of the saints for three quarters before Carolina went down fighting 17-0; but Wake Forest showed that the men in blue could be upset by the conference's worst, 13-10.

Head Coach Jim Hickey's team was led in the line by Joe Fratangelo. Fratangelo played well in all games and his defensive prowess made it seem as if the entire defensive burden were on his shoulders. There were other good players on the team: Max Chapman, Hank Barden, Joe Churchill, Jimmy Byrd, Dave Riggs, and Jay Malobicky to name a few. Quarterback was the position most abundant in talent with two fine players in Danny Talbott and Jeff Beaver. The kicking staff also did a good job this year, led by Bill Edwards' punting, Charlie Carr's kick-offs, and Talbott's field goals.

The latter was particularly effective against one of two bitter enemies as Carolina outlasted Caw College 10-7. But all the material available went to no avail as the Tarheels' bid for the A.C.C. championship fell short in Durham one cold November afternoon. The world came to an end that day as Dook Training School stole Rameses, the championship, the Victory Bell, and all hint of Carolina pride and dignity in surging to a 34-7 annihilation.

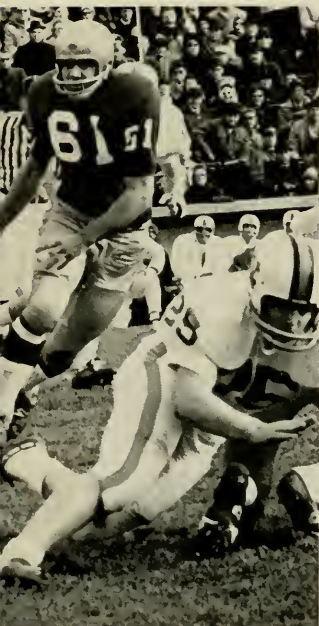

Perhaps if nothing else the 1965 season was a training session for next year's Carolina team. Certainly one has to look hard to find other benefits of the '65 team. Next year, as UNC takes on another difficult slate of opponents, may bring the same results as this year's team, for Carolina insists on playing big-time football with small-time money. Let's hope that future seasons will be more profitable than this; at the same time, let's not be too harsh on the 1965 edition of the Tarheels.

SOCCKER

At the beginning of this year's Soccer season, Coach Allen said that "This team is a good one simply because it is talented." But this year's team had something more than just talent. It had the desire to win. For the first seven games the Soccer team made winning look easy with only one goal scored against them. And it wasn't until the Maryland game that this team showed what stuff they were really made of. Only in this game was there the determination that it takes to make a good Soccer team. They lost in a double overtime, not to a team second-best in the A.C.C., but to one that has been always ranked among the top teams in the nation.

This year's Co-Captains were Tom Roberts and Drew Murphy. In scoring, Jack Writer led the team with ten goals, followed by John Loud and Larry Heath with seven, Johnston with five, Polak with four, Murphy and Galves with two each, and Van Wick with one. Also, there were others such as Terry Henry, Eddie Belmont, and Billy Reeves whose efforts and zeal added greatly to the team's fine showing; much praise goes to Jim Hammer, Jimmie Johnston, and Jack Writer who made the All South Soccer team. The final hand goes to Coach Allen, whose coaching ability was further recognized with his one-hundredth win, made all the more enjoyable since it came over Dook.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Harriers, under Coach Joe Hilton, turned what might have been a discouraging season into a fairly successful one. With only one loss in the conference to Maryland, they came in second to Duke in the Annual North Carolina State Cross Country Championship meet. In the Annual Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, they placed third to Maryland and Duke.

Coach Hilton said the team did exceptionally well considering that they were plagued with difficulties all season long. In the very beginning of the season, they lost Drummond Bell and Trip MacPherson. Captain Jim Meade had a sore throat before the Virginia meet and couldn't run, but on the whole turned in some exceptionally fine performances for the entire season. Also, Coach Hilton said that with the help of some of his regular milers and quarter milers and the harriers from last year's Freshman team, that he was very pleased with the outcome of this year's season.

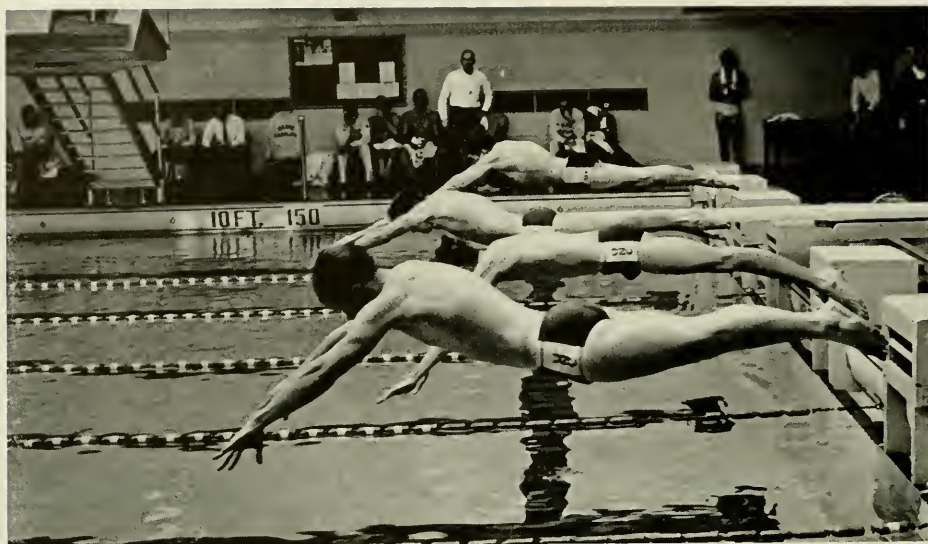

UNITED SPORTS

SWIMMING

In swimming this year the Dolphins, as Coach Pat Earey put it, have not had a very successful season, even though the team has produced some outstanding performances. This year the swimming team was made up of a young group and lacked the depth and front line strength of past years while the competition in swimming has been rather stiff. This year Navy and Army have had their best teams in years, and proved too strong for Carolina's young team. The same has been true in the A.C.C. with State and Maryland having above average teams, and true throughout the whole Eastern United States.

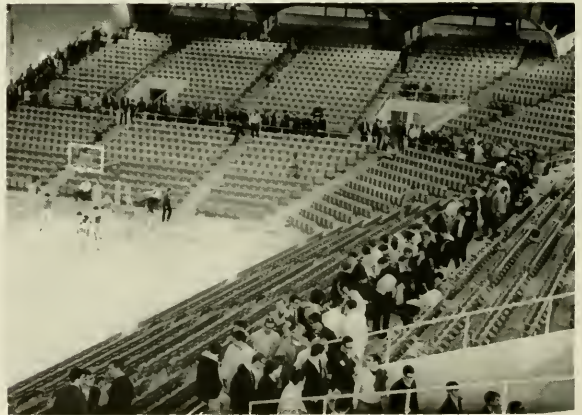

Nevertheless, the swimming team has done its best under the leadership of Captain Fred Lipp who has continued to turn in good performances in the butterfly stroke. Phil Riker who joined the team in the middle of the semester has helped the team greatly with his versatility in the relays, freestyle, and butterfly. Also, Goye Stratten from Conado in the back stroke and Pete Worthen in sprints have both added their strength to the team with fine performances.

BASKETBALL

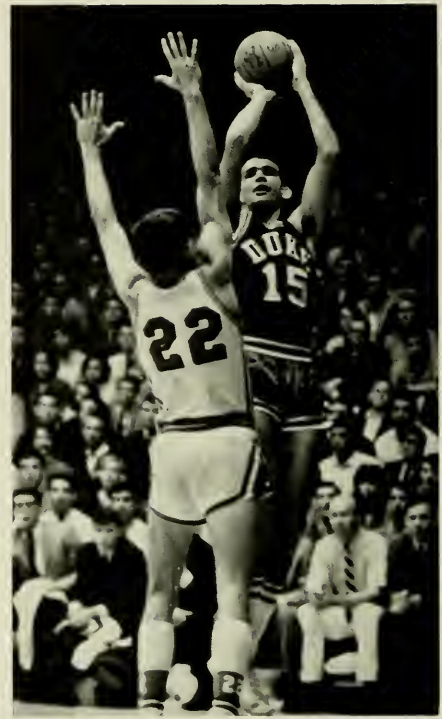

Although Coach Dean Smith had predicted that this year's team would be only somewhat better than average, the Tar Heels turned in a very superior showing. Led by Bob Lewis and Larry Miller, who blazed the courts with amazing scoring streaks, the Carolina squad won rewarding victories over the Future Farmers of America, the heretical Baptists, and one of the enemies from South of the border, while losing tough ones to the Violet Yankees, the aristocrats from North of the border, and oh yes, the Dookies. One could, at least, relax this year, as opposed to those in the past, since the Tar Heels seemed by and large to win those games they should have won and lose the ones they were predicted to lose.

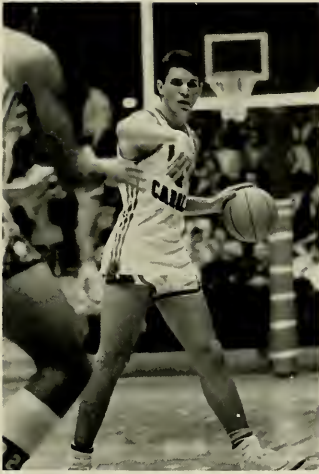

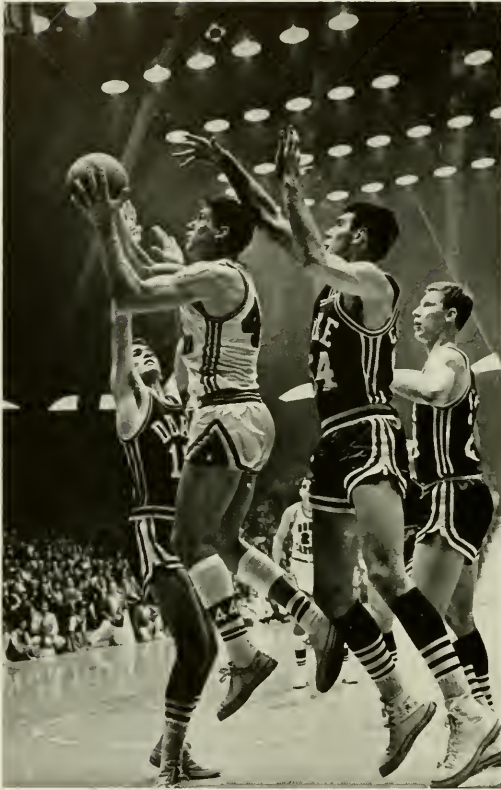

Perhaps the 1965-66 version of the U.N.C. basketball team was not a candidate for national or even conference honors, and perhaps they weren't as great as past Tar Heel fives, but this was a team that gave effort all the way. It was also a fine example of teamwork—something which had been conspicuously absent in the past. Even with a one-two punch like Lewis and Miller, who together averaged well over forty points per game, the team played as a well-knit unit—not as a few superstars and a few supergoofs. Without the back-court assistance of John Yokely and Tom Gauntlett, and the able dexterity at pivot position of both Bob Bennett and Mark Mirken, it would have been curtains for the Dynamic Duo. But the versatile Tar Heels managed to come through with big wins most of the time.

Playing their first year in Carmichael

Coliseum-Auditorium, the U.N.C. squad gave the fans a rare display of talent and excitement as they cavalierly disposed of some opponents, dueled others to the death, and fell gallantly to a small few. But, at any rate, the typical Carolina fan who could finally bring in his favorite form of refreshment enjoyed watching whatever it was he watched and whatever it was he saw.

WRESTLING

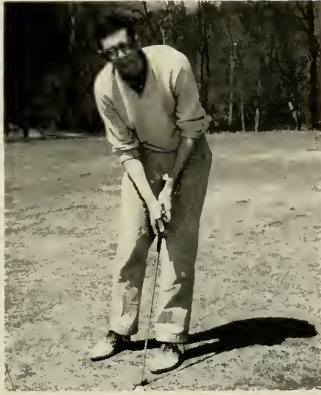

With three matches left in the 1965-66 season, the U.N.C. matmen have compiled a 5-4 record. Carolina grapplers, under the able hand of Coach Sam Barnes, were especially impressive in wins over Davidson and Washington and Lee, and completely swamped the Dookies of Durham 28-8, giving the Devils their worst defeat in twenty years. With an outstanding freshman team, 6-1 at press time, rated by Coach Barnes as the best ever at U.N.C., Carolina has hopes for continued successes in wrestling.

SPRING SPORTS

GOLF

First Row: Coach Kenney, Chanin, Owen, Gray, Robinson, Glascoli, Robbins.
Second Row: Tucker, Hoopes, Baldwin, Fleicher, Prevost.

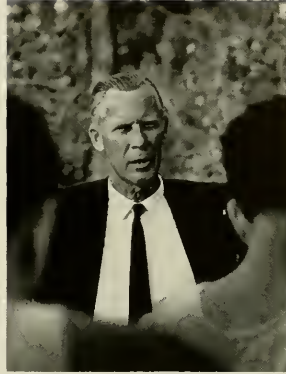

Coach Joe Hilton is looking forward to another good year with U.N.C.'s track team. Besides Co-Captains Charlie Little and Bill Grahm, only five other men have graduated, and those returning will be joined by a host of promising sophomores.

Returnees include shotputter Tom Cordell and Grant Varner, javelin thrower Pascai Tone, hurdler Gary Mead, and broad jumper Bill Young. Jim Moore and Tom Reynolds will place the high jumpers while John Johnson will perform as polevaulter. Pete Worthen, Bill Johnson and U.N.C. record holder Bo Wood are all excellent discus hurlers.

There will be a host of runners back, all of whom could be the best in the A.C.C. Dole White holds the U.N.C. record of 9.5 in the 100 dash. Others are 330 hurdlers Rich Ambrose and Jeff Stokes, sprinter Jon Levin, and Eddie Dow in the 440 and 880. Star distance runners Jim Meode, "Trip" McPherson and Drummond Bell will return.

TRACK

BASEBALL

After two years of typical high-level administrative incompetence and indecision over the home of one of the few championship teams Carolina manages to field, it was finally decided to allow the 1966 Tar Heel baseball team to play in their new stadium—excuse me, on their new field; or is that an old cow pasture, it's hard to tell just yet. Of course, the fans will be sitting in dilapidated but still standing Emerson field watching the Unforgettable Unseen playing the Intrepid Invisibles, but that is neither here nor there—at least to the powers that be.

Coach Walter Rabb will probably have a good team this year, as he did this past one, and the year before that. The fans will know this, however, only through the dubious reporting of the Daily Tar Heel. For the only fans the team will have will be porkers and others of that ilk who have an affinity for mud. It is sad, too, that such great Carolina talent will go largely unobserved; but that's the upstairs gong for you.

LACROSSE

Lacrosse is the newest varsity sport at Carolina, last year being only its second year; but the game has been played on this campus for many years beginning with the Lacrosse Club formed by the Navy pre-flight boys in World War II. Now, as the game spreads farther south, it has come to be a varsity sport in its own right, the season lasting from March to May.

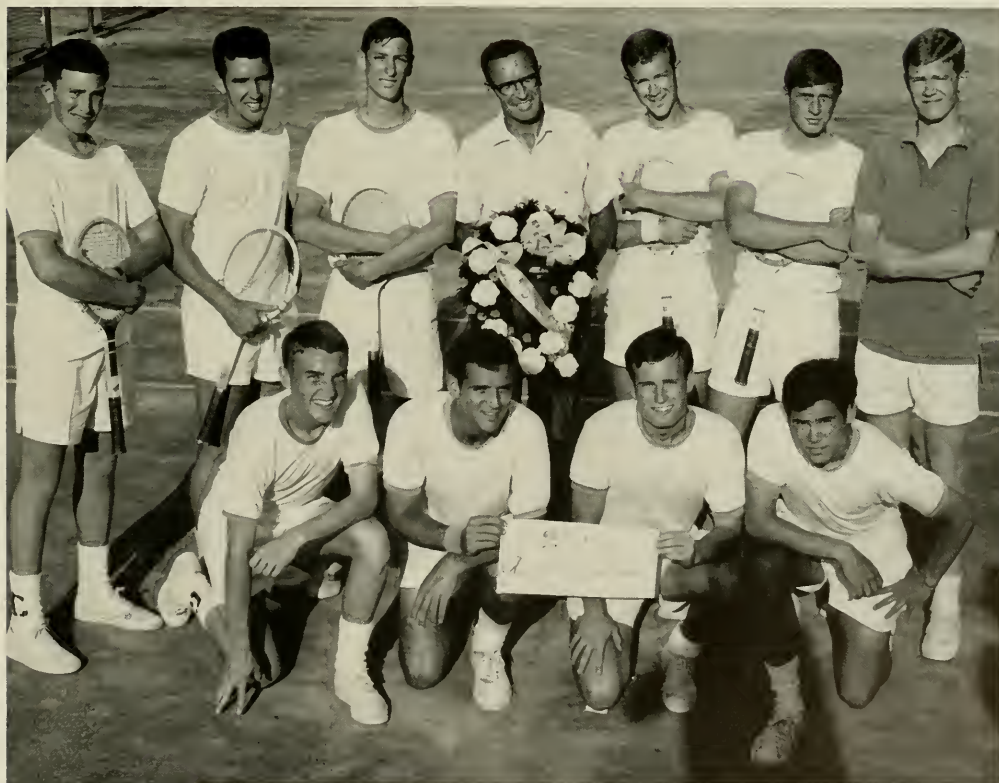

TENNIS

As in the past the Tar Heel Tennis team continues to be a name in Carolina sports, coming up with an endless number of A.C.C. championship victories. During the eight years Coach Don Skakle has been at Carolina, he has produced seven winning teams with hope that this year will follow in the same tradition. Last year both the Varsity and the Freshman went undefeated, and, having lost only two seniors last year, the Varsity hopes to produce another perfect record this spring under the leadership of their Co-Captains Ken Oettinger and Bronson Van Wyck.

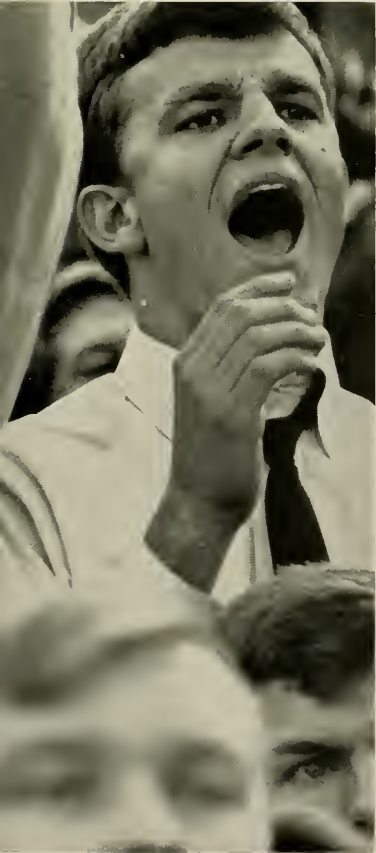

This spring the courts will be humming with action from the first day of practice as the up-and-coming Sophomores of last year's, undefeated, Freshman team battle for positions with the Varsity, who are all nationally or sectionally ranked. And as Coach Skakle said, the team is eager and ready to go for another season, and with hope and a great deal of hard work they are looking forward to another perfect season in Carolina Tennis.

THE SPEAKER BAN HEARINGS

Thomas Jefferson stated: "If there be any among us who would wish to dissolve this Union or change its republican form, let them stand undisturbed as monuments of the safety with which error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it." The most glorious, sovereign state of North Carolina, however, decided to correct this evil tradition and bowed to the spirit of Joseph McCarthy in prohibiting Communist speakers from the people's University. But, alas, realizing that the subversive Southern Association would withdraw the University's accreditation and that the atheistic, Communistic, unconstitutional Supreme Court might void the law, the wise state legislature amended its decree to let the University trustees decide which Communists were too un-American to speak. However, it soon became clear that ol' Joe wouldn't be let down, because His Excellency, the Hon. Dan K. Moore, held that any lousy Commie invited to speak would only engender controversy; thus continues the University's long fight for academic freedom.

SIDEWALK
ART SHOW

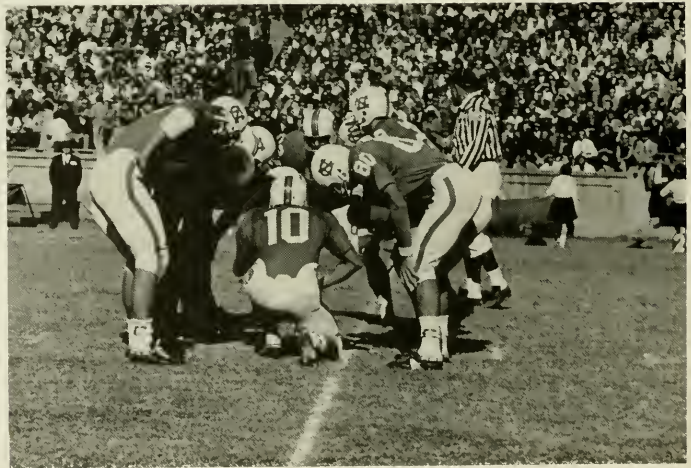

HOMECOMING

Thomas Wolfe, a little-known Carolina graduate, once said that you can't go home again; many alumni, however, seemed not to realize that as they journeyed back to their Alma Mater for the annual Homecoming Game. In 1965, the Tar Heels played host to the University of Georgia Bulldogs. U.N.C. seemed to be almost too hospitable as they blew a thirteen point lead and wound up getting trounced. The only consolation, and almost worth the defeat, was the Homecoming Queen, who was presented at half-time. Beautiful Mary King, who had been named Miss Consolidated University only two weeks previously, was sponsored by Maverick House and reigned over a lovely court of charming co-eds. Yet, even in the face of defeat, the bawdy revellers and inebriates were not to be denied. Lively combos blasted on into the night. And if the Tar Heel footballers were shot down, the same could hardly be said for the A.B.C. store. But like the bright displays which were planned for a month, built in a week, and forgotten in a day, Homecoming Weekend soon vanished with a bod head.

SIGMA CHI DERBY

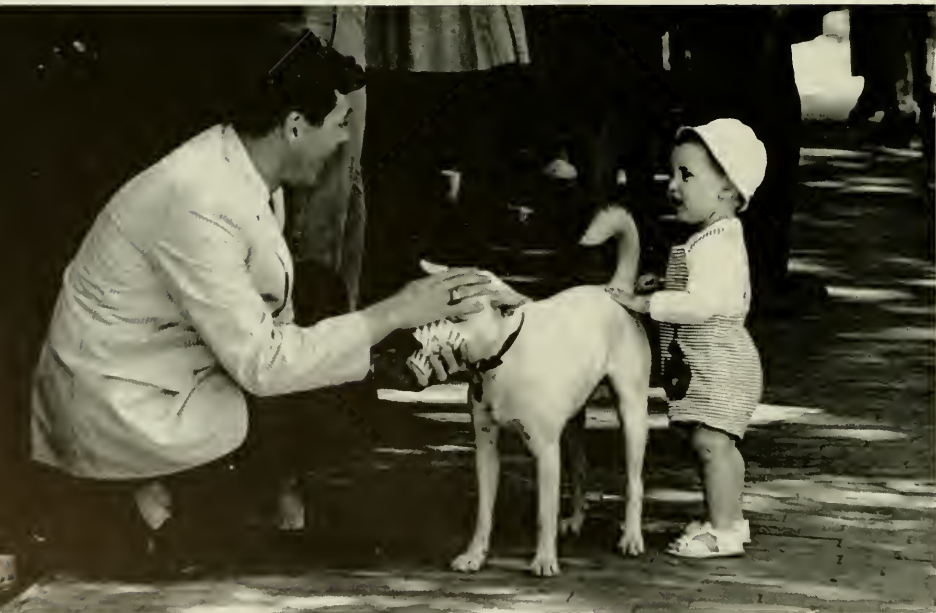

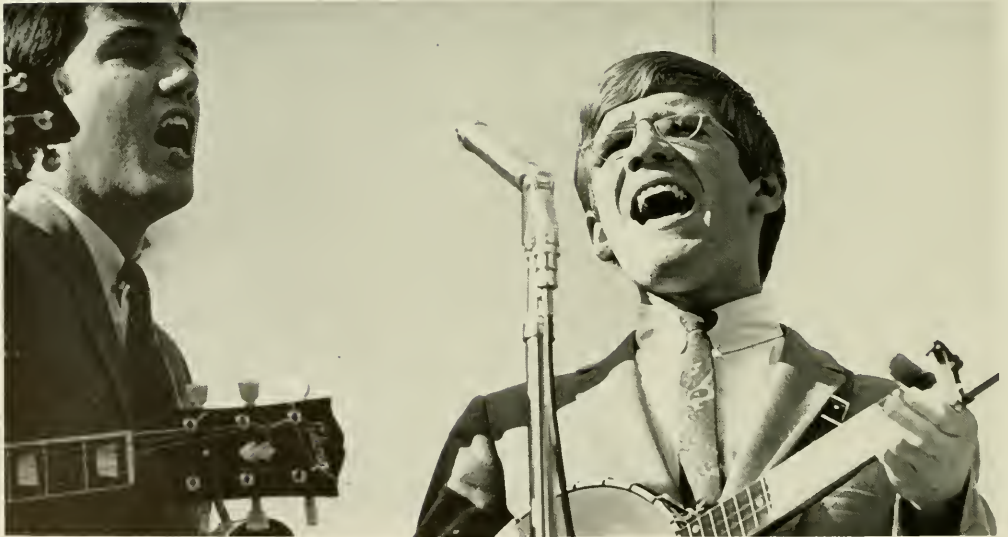

JUBILEE '65

Spring is the time of youth, the time of joy, the time of revels and celebrations. For after escaping from under the dead ice of winter, the disciples of Bacchus toast their newly gained freedom with the fruit of the vine in jubilant fertility rites. But, while across most of the world Satyrs were chasing Bacchanals over the green, Carolina Gentlemen were hard put to find a green over which to chase Carolina Co-eds. Jubilee, U.N.C.'s annual spring orgy, was originally set for the luxuriant lawn in front of the Temple of Graham Memorial; it was abruptly uprooted and scheduled for the Circus Kenanus; however, soon discovering that some miscreant had rudely ploughed up the gladiator's turf, the powers of Olympus moved the festival around the flagpole-maypole in the Forum McCorkle. Once these petty deterrents were removed, Carolina students went about their traditional pursuits with more than the usual zeal.

Our revels now are ended. These our actors
As I foretold you, were all spirits, and
Are melted into air, into thin air;
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve;
And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rock behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on, and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.

SK&F Foreign Fellows Have Gone to

INDIA, TANZANIA, IRAN, GUATEMALA

At hospitals and medical outposts abroad, medical students contribute to international understanding and goodwill by helping to provide much-needed medical services to people in developing areas of the world.

This unusual opportunity to work and study in foreign countries is offered to students through the Foreign Fellowships Program of Smith Kline & French Laboratories. Administered by the Association of American Medical Colleges, the program has enabled 180 students to work and study in more than 40 countries during the past six years. Junior and senior medical students are eligible for Fellowships, which provide on the average 12 weeks' work abroad, to be completed before internship. Interested students should apply through the deans of their schools.

Smith Kline & French has published an illustrated 24-page booklet telling the story of SK&F's Foreign Fellowships Program. For your free copy of "Fellowships in Medicine," write to: SK&F Services Department, Smith Kline & French Laboratories, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19101.

S. Navy for the photograph on page two hundred twenty-three; to Loftin, Roueche, Whitsett, Hotney, Chris, Carol and all the other Yack girls for their smiling faces; to anyone who likes my cover; to the U.N.C. CASTLEBERRY'S FOLLY OBSERVED TODAY IS NEITHER a victory of the annual staff, nor even of the business manager, but a celebration of a miracle in that the Yack appeared at all. The campus is very different today than when the Hellenian made its debut in 1882, for the student government holds in its hands the power to destroy all forms of student misery and all forms of students. And yet the problems that beset the Hellenian are the same with which the Yack must meet—a screaming little business manager, irate engravers and printers, and indifferent students. It must not be forgotten that the present staff are heirs of that first effort, but let this book go forth from this time and place as a testament that a new generation of Carolinians have peered into the future, unwilling to let either the difficulties of the past or the issues of the present hinder their determination.

TO THOSE WHO CLAIM we have deviated from the past, it has been done in the interest of the present.

TO THOSE WHO CLAIM we have continued many of the practices of the past with little originality, it must be remembered that tradition is of the essence of the present.

TO THOSE WHO CLAIM we have belittled their efforts, let them examine anew these efforts.

TO THOSE WHO BELITTLE our efforts, let it be known that we accept criticism with gratitude, for we must begin again to build for the future.

ALL THE WORK OF putting together the Yack was not done in one hundred days, nor could all that should have been done be accomplished in all the thousands of days of earth. But what we have done is a beginning, and each year is a new beginning. For even this moderate achievement, the responsibility belongs to those students who devoted their time and effort without reward to the betterment of the Yack.

AND SO, IF ONE should criticize the yearbook, let him think what he can do for the Yack, not what it can do for him. It is in your hands, more than anyone else's that the final success of the book depends, for without your assistance and support, all our industry is futile. With a sense of accomplishment our only clear reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, we have presented the 1966 Yackety Yack to you, hoping for your acceptance this year and your help in the future.
