

MAVA 5334 24 April 1950

The "Academiker Verein" (apparently a cover name for the MHEK) in Vienna was represented by Attila DOSZA, who was kidnapped and repatriated to Hungary by Aurel CZIBKERT. Ladislaus FORTHUBER, Collegium Hungaricum resident, replaced DOSZA.

MAV 1113 18 May 1949

DOSZA's group is gradually becoming active again after the kidnapping of its leader. Otto DEUTSCH, apparently a member of the group, recently crossed the frontier with papers intended for the SPOs. He was picked up by Austrian border guards and then to SPOs headquarters in Vienna I, where a Mr. HERZOG vouched for him. Subject gave HERZOG all his documents, including some which were not originally intended for the SPOs, but these were confiscated by Andrew SZENTYORGYI, a CIC agent, who learned of them through one "Hugo."

UNCONSOLIDATED RI TRACE (November 1955)

DOZSA, Attila

fieldless

6-3-1-106 [] [] that he has learned recently from Andreas KASZLIK, president of the "Red Mikor Verein" in Vienna of the existence of an association of former Hung officers called Kopjasok (Kopjes) (Leno-ra), who engage in intelligence operations into Hungary. It is possible that this group has been working with French intelligence. The group's headquarters is located somewhere in Western Europe. It was represented in Vienna by Attila DOZSA, who was kidnapped and repatriated to Hungary by Aurel CZIBAK ET, now living in Dirnbirn, Vorarlberg. The present representative, Ladislav FORTHOBER, a resident of the Coll.gium Hungaricum, is in charge of supplying documents.

6-3-1-106 KOPJASOK (Zako?) Representative in Vienna
KVL-6335 Ref: KVL-5334
16 August 1950 [] [] has learned from a discussion with Andreas KASZLIK that the Vienna representative of KOPJASOK is a certain "Mike" (this is presumed to be a cover name).
This man is allegedly a former HHS officer who is technically proficient. . . Mike replaces Attila DOZSA. His duties in Vienna consist of receiving and dispatching secret couriers of the KOPJASOK who come through Vienna. He is reportedly completely equipped to prepare false documents. He is also alleged to be very cautious, having few friends and going out seldom. His family name is not known.

2. KASZLIK, who is allegedly in contact with CIC, has undoubtedly reported this to them. This information may be of some use in our relations with the Zako organization. From the files here, we are not completely certain that the Kopjasok group is affiliated with Zako, but it appears probable that it is.

d. From 26 March to 6 Apr 1949, Subject was interrogated at the KPO, Szeged, at 6 Boku, by a deputy secretary chief who called himself Istvan TATAR. . . The interrogator was mainly interested in the organization of Attila DOSA; this organization according to Subject, was an anti-Communist organization to which many ex-officers belonged. Subject himself claims to have been contacted by DOSA, whom he knew from the military academy, during 1948 and 1949, and at those meetings assured DOSA that he could count on him (Subject). Subject was also interrogated about Mario FALCHIONE, also an ex-officer and an alleged associate of DOSA. The interrogator (TATAR) made the statement to Subject that unless he is going to act sensible he (Subject) is liable to receive a five year sentence for the attempted flight from Hungary. Subject replied without hesitation that he was willing to do anything. TATAR stated that courier mail had to be taken to ~~Hungary~~ Belgrade, Yugoslavia; if Subject were to be caught, he would be shot by the Yugoslav authorities. Subject declared himself willing. . .

g. Attila DOSA, mentioned in paragraph h above, is known to have ~~been~~ killed himself and an arresting agent of the Hungarian Political Police at Vienna.

Laszlo KISS
CIC-L-29760, 17 Feb 1954, Page 24.

Subject stated that AVO espionage activities have usually been directed from the Szombathely AVO Section. In 1948 Major Miklos SZELE was commander of the Szombathely AVO Section. At that time there were several men working for Szele who regularly made trips to Austria. In 1948 two AVO members, one of whom was from MOLNAR, went to Vienna, Austria, and advised Attila DOZSA and Istvan PASTI to return to Hungary. As soon as the two arrived in Hungary, they were arrested and are still serving jail sentences. MOLNAR and his partner were ~~also in contact with Attila KOVACS, an MHBK representative in Innsbruck since murdered.~~ also in contact with Attila KOVACS, an MHBK representative in Innsbruck since murdered. On one occasion the two demanded certain documents from Kovacs which he did not want to give them. During the argument that ensued, Kovacs was killed. MOLNAR and his friend were arrested by the Austrian authorities and are now serving prison terms somewhere in Land Tirol, Austria. . .
