

Bro. Deane I am inform^d th^t the memoirs of James Jackson have been examined, & that the decision is that it is not a proper book to be sold in your depository. I regret this exceedingly, & am very anxious to be possessed of the reasons for such a decision. Will you inform me, if con-venient by the next mail, at Wrentham, 1st who exam-ined the book; & what were the reasons for the above mentioned decision? So doing you will much oblige Yours truly

 Amos A. Phelps
