SUBJECT : On the Activities of the Japan Communist Party During June.

I. The present report is founded on information obtained by Fourth Section, SIB during June, 1950.

II. Secretary KAWAMATA of the Fourth Section summarized the contents of the said information into the following:

A. On the Purge of the Communist Executive Staff and Activities Thereafter of the Communist Party.

1. General MacArthur instructed the Japanese government to purge the 24 members of the Communist central committee and 17 leading characters of the Akahata staff on June 6 and 7 respectively. Toward this action, the Communist Party issued an announcement declaring that "the Party will be indestructive with the people", and requested the people, on the other hand, to respond to this measure with mass activities headed by labourers; as for Akahata, the Party decided immediately on the day to continue the publication of the same organ with a renewed staff of the press.

2. Accompanying the purge of the central committee members, a provisional guidance center was established through the exercise of the authority of the control committee, the following persons being named on June 7 as members of the provisional central committee:
Mtsuro SHIINO, Ichizo WADA, Fumio SUGIMOTO, Tomeji TADA, Ichizo SUZUKI, Katsumi KIKUNAMI, Kenji KAWADA, Zentaro TANIGUCHI.

3. The headquarters of the Japan Communist Party raised a legal action on June 16, in the name of its representative Eiichi IWATA, at the Tokyo District Court, claiming the repeal of purge designation concerning the central committee members and the leading characters of the Akahata press and requesting, at the same time, a temporary order securing the free status of these 41 persons that were purged.

4. On June 16 the Communist Party held its national meeting of representative members by calling together members of the provisional central guidance staff, candidate members of the central committee, control committeemen and local representatives from all parts of the country; on which occasion it was unanimously determined that those present would all support the provisional guidance staff and confirmed, on the other hand, the general report by chairman SHIINO and decisions in the 18th and 19th general meetings of the central committee as urgent struggle policies of the Party.

5. The Diet men's group of the Communist Party held its meeting on June 7, when Karoku HOSOKAWA, member of the House of Councillors, was newly named as the group leader taking the place of Sanzo NOSAKA who had lost his seat in the Diet in consequence of his purge.

6. Karoku HOSOKAWA, leader of the "iet men's group of the Japan Communist Party, presented June 25 a letter of petition, acting on behalf of chairman SHIINO of the Communist provisional central committee, to the Allied Council for Japan requesting the release of the former members of the Communist central committee from their purged status and the prevention of any infringements of the Potsdam Declaration.

B. On the Suspension of Publication of the Communist Organ Paper.

1. General MacArthur instructed June 26 to suspend the publication of the Communists' central organ paper "Akahata" for 30 days. In accordance with this instruction, the Japanese government completed the necessary proceedings on the same day; and while seizing copies of this organ paper issued later than June 26, the government took the official measure of sealing up all equipments necessary for its publication. In response to this action, the Communist Party attempted to substitute the "Heiwa no Hata (The Flag of Peace)", changing the name of the organ paper "Shin Kanagawa" of the Communists'

Kanagawa Prefectural committee, for the suspended paper "Akahata; but this paper was also suspended on June 28.

2. Successively to the suspension of publication of the "Akahata," the government ordered influential organ papers belonging to Communist regional committees throughout the country and other Communist systems superior to them to be suspended for 30 days from June 28. This measure was put into practice quite peacefully in all areas as, seemingly, the Communist Party was already in expectation of such action.

3. Zentaro TANIGUCHI, member of the Communists' provisional central committee, abused the recent government measure of suspending the publication of the "Akahata" in his antagonistic statement and was purged, in consequence, on June 28.

C. On the Election of Members of the House of Councillors

1. On June 3, directly preceding the day of election of House of Councillors' members, the Communist Party undertook a "June 3 Rally" and a general strike by stirring up labor unions and various other organizations under its influence; but this attempt was frustrated by an emergent prohibitive measure on the part of the government.

2. The number of candidates formally recommended by the Communist Party in the recent election of House of Councillors' members was 51 in total; and through actual election only 3 persons, Teru TAKAKURA (later purged), Karoku HOSOKAWA and Goro SUDO, were successfully elected in the nation-wide constituency, while all of Communist candidates in local constituencies failed.

3. Chairman SHIINO of the Communists' provisional guidance center published his opinion on various urgent problems in the "Akahata" of June 9, laying the blame for the result of the recent election on the negligence of daily struggles on the part of the Party and requesting it to overcome such tendency in its attitude.

D. On the Problem of Sectarianism within the Party.

1. On June 1 the Metropolitan Committee of the Communist Party published a statement titled "An Appeal to Communist Members and Students," in which it accused ultra-leftist elements that shut up themselves in the secretariat of the National Student Self-Government Association, which had recently been criticized by reason of its sectarianism, and in the magazine "Gakusei Hyoron (Students' Review)" of being destructive Trotzkyists, and requested the whole Party to be watchful against any challenging behaviours of such elements.

2. The secretariat of the Communists' central committee published an appeal on June 1, insisting that the "May 30 case of violence" had been caused by deliberate incitement of sectarian Trotzkyists within the Party as well as reactionary spying men, and requesting the immediate release of the 8 persons that were arrested in its connection.

3. Chairman SHIINO of the Communists' provisional guidance center emphasized the resolution positively to fight even hereafter against sectarians within the Party, in his review on various urgent questions published in the "Akahata" of June 9.

4. On June 18, the provisional guidance center of the Communist Party held a national meeting of representative members; on which occasion chairman SHIINO blamed, in his general report, that sectarianism was still in prevalence within the Party and that the "SHIGA's statement" formed the pillar of those sectarian elements, and requested the Party to fight and supress any such tendency.

E. On the Communist "THESE" for 1950.

1. On June 22 the provisional guidance center of the Communist Party emphatically requested its various local systems to prepare their respective "THESE" for 1950, calling for their immediate discussion on their "THESE" drafts and warning them against expected attempts to derange them on the part of sectarian elements around their new "THESE."

2. The provisional guidance center of the Communist Party confirmed the following 8 persons as members of its "THESE" drafting committee for 1950:

Etsuro SHIINO, Ichizo WADA, Kenji KAWADA, Ichizo SUZUKI, Yoshimichi WATANABE, Yoshitaro FUJIKAWA, Katsujiro YAMADA, Yuichi HORIE.

SUBJECT : On the Moves of Leftist Koreans in Kanagawa Prefecture.

I. According to the report dated July 22, 1950, from the chief of the Kanto Branch Office, SIB.

II. a. The Kanagawa Prefectural Headquarters of the CHOSENJIN KAIHO KYUEN KAI (Korean Liberation and 朝鮮人解放救援会 Relief Association in Japan) and of the CHOSEN MINSHU 朝鮮民主 JOSEI DOMEI (Democratic Women's League in Japan) 女性同盟 submitted their reports of formation to the Kanagawa Prefectural Office in February this year, but other branches than these two organizations made no reports at all. Moreover, their prefectural head offices are disappearing with their documents taken out outside already probably because they are expecting government step toward dissolution in view of the recent situation. Above all, KIM Daiman (金 台 萬 member of the Noborito Cell, Kawasaki, of the Japan Communist Party (登 戸), chief of the Secretariat of the Kanagawa Prefectural Headquarters of the CHOSENJIN KAIHO KYUEN KAI (朝 鮮 人 解 放 救 援 会), has disappeared since the middle of June, but there is a suspicion that he might have gone to Korea as a stowaway at the outbreak of the Korean war because he was to be despatched secretly as one of the candidates of representatives sent to North Korea at the invitation of the Standing Committee of the Supreme People's Conference of the Korean people's Republic.

b. After the dissolution of the CHOSENJIN RENMEI (朝 鮮 人 連 盟 League of Koreans in Japan) and the CHOSEN MINSHU SEINEN DOMEI (朝 鮮 民 主 青 年 同 盟 Korean Democratic Young Men's League in Japan), Koreans affiliated to North Korea have been led by the former leaders of the above two defunct Korean organizations, making two organizations-- the CHOSENJIN KAIHO KYUEN KAI (朝 鮮 人 解 放 救 援 会) and CHOSEN MINSHU JOSEI DOMEI (朝 鮮 民 主 女 性 同 盟) as the centers for their campaigns. But, recently, they appeared to have removed their center to the CHOSENJIN DANTAI KYOGIKAI (朝 鮮 人 団 体 協 議 会 Korean Organizations' Council) and also have formed following various organizations, but their locations are unknown:

July 18, 1950

SUBJECT : CLXXII. Trend of the ZENKOKU RODOKUMIAI RENRAKU KYOGIKAI (ZENROREN) (National Liaison Council of Labor Unions)

I. Information has been attained from the newspapers pertaining to the activity of National Liaison Council of Labor Unions with its character changed from the past.

II. The following fact has been learned by Secretary NOGUCHI and others of SIB, the fourth section, the fourth sub-section in their investigation which started on May 27, 1950.

The trend of the ZENKOKU RODOKUMIAI RENRAKU KYOGIKAI (ZENROREN) (National Liaison Council of Labor Unions)

With the subordinate unions influenced by the new policy of Japan Communist Party yielding to Cominform's Critic on February this year in addition to the intensified opposition between the left and right-wing labor unionswhich has been spurred since the summer labor offence of last year, Japan's labor circle has been divided into two big fields, both in affiliation with the international organizations. -----The right is a line of SOHYOGI-KAI (General Council of Labor Unions) to The International Confederation of Free Trade Unions and the left, the line of ZENROREN to The World Federation of Trade Unions.

ZENROREN established on March 1947 in the role of liaison organ among the left-colored labor unions throughout the nation, has now changed its character by deciding to unify the labor fronts against the General Council of Labor Unions. The first step of its policy was to dissolve and absorb into its body the National Congress of Industrial Organizations ever holding the leadership in labor movements whereby bring the affiliated unions under its own control.

As the result, ZENROREN restarted as the leading and control organ of labor union movement in the true sense, not a mere liaison organ when the ZENROREN Committee decided at the committee as of May 6, 1950 the following reorganization principle and fighting aims.

(I.) Outline of ZENROREN Reorganization.

1. Name: ZENKOKU RODOKUMIAI RENMEI (National Labor Unions League)

2. Composed of

A. Nation-scale industrially classified individual labor union.

B. Region-scale industrially classified labor union.

C. Local labor union based on prefectural unit, Occupationally classified Federation or Council, Prefectural branch of nation-scale individual union and other similar combined body.

D. District labor union, individual labor union on factory unit, etc. (District unit is defined as under Prefectural unit)

3. Structure:

A. Regional federation to be organized with Regionally and industrially classified union, Federation and Council classified by regional industry or occupation, Combined body of local organization subordinate to National individual union, Prefectural federation and other local organizations.

B. Prefectural federation to be organized with Industrial or occupational labor union based upon prefectural unit, Federation or Council of such unions as above, Prefectural Branch of National individual union, Prefectural Branch of Regional industrially classified union and also of Industrial or Occupational Federation or Council, Combined body on prefectural unit of district federation and other organizations.

C. District federation to be organized with Factory branch subordinate to National individual labor union, National Federation or Council and other national combined body, Factory branch under Regional labor union, Region-scale Industrial or Occupational Federation or Council, Factory branch under Prefecture-scale industrial union or Industrial or Occupational Federation or Council on Prefectural-scale, District labor union or individual union based upon works and other organizations.

D. Council of individual industry organizations to be organized as a collaborating organ in the interest of unifying Nation-scale industrial unions, in each industrial classification, with the labor unions in the identical industries affiliated in this League as the center, including non-affiliated union.

4. Organs.

A. National Convention Council

Voting organ next to national convention. Composed of the councillors selected from Prefectural Federation in proportion to the number of union members, and ascertained at the convention and of each one representative selected from each Regional Federation and of Central Executive Committee.

B. Central Executive Committee Board.

Composed of Central Executive Committee and Standing Central Executive Committee.

C. Standing Central Executive Committee Board.

Composed of Chairman and Vice chairman of Central Executive Committee, Chief-of-Secretary and Standing Central Executive Committee. (Special Section and Secretary Office will be established under this board. Section-chief will be appointed from among the Central Committee. The clerks and secretaries will be appointed from the union members but in some case employed from non-union members if necessary).

5. Officials.

Chairman of Central Executive Committee	one
Vice-chairman of Central Executive Committee	some
Chief of Secretary	one
Standing Central Executive Committee	some
Auditor	five
Assistant Secretary-chief	some

6. Accounts

In collecting dues, will the successive diminution system be adopted. Union possesing nation-wide structure will pay dues from its head office of all its members. In this case, Regional Federation will pay dues of its members being under direct control of the Federation, except above-mentioned nation-wide union's members.

(II) Fighting Aim of ZENROREN.

Fighting aims of ZENROREN are placed on "Opposition to Imperialistic aggression" " To halt colonization and military base, to conclude over-all peace treaty positively" "Protect freedom, peace and independence by linking ZENROREN tightly to the World Federation of Trade Unions." In its organizing policy, ZENROREN has an idea "to concentrate all the efforts upon acquiring the support of overwhelming and powerful part of labor class" "to overcome the political neutralism."

Besides, ZENROREN which was born again as a fighting organ has been decided to be a laborors' organization with the aim of establishing democratic centralization.

(III) ZENROREN's office and organ-paper.

Since April 23 this year, the headoffice of ZENROREN has moved to SANBETSU KAIKAN (the building of the National Congress of Industrial Organizations), Shimbashi, Minato Ward, Tokyo Metropolis, and has successively absorbed the secretary offices of SANBETSU. From April 27 RODO SHIMBUN (Labor News Paper) as its organ-paper has been published and the organ-paper of SANBETSU, RODO SENSEN (Labor Front) has bean emerged into RODO SHIMBUN since June 1.

d. Condition of execution

(1). Akatsuki Printing Office.
アカツキ

(a). On June 28, at 4.25 p.m. the party arrived there, when some twenty men blocked the entrance, and, declaring that it was unfair to close the printing office and requesting the release of it, they did not respond to our request to enter it. They obstinately requested the release of it, and said, "Akatsuki Printing Office has nothing to do with the Akahata, we have only printed it from business standpoint. We want you to release us on the condition of not printing it any longer."

For a time the situation was threatening one, but finally we made them consent to our request by recognizing that they might take out part of their private possessions. Then at 5 p.m. the boarding up around the building was started, and the important part of the rooms (the rotary press and so on) and the source of motiom power (Switches) were Sealed. At 7 p.m. the execution of the printing office was finished, and then the disposal of preservation by means of boarding up the warehoure in which paper was kept. And at 7.35 p.m. the execution was over smoothly.

(2). Main Office of the Akahata.

Chief KIYOSUKE of Fourth(アカハタ) Subsection took direct command, and having the cooperative attitude of Eiichi IWATA(英一 岩田), part of their private possessions was allowed to be taken out, and the execution went on comparatively satisfactorily. After making the same disposal of preservation as in the case of Akatsuki(アカツキ) Printing Office, and sealing two automobiles, the exection was smoothly finished at 7.20 p.m.

e. The situation of the building and articles which became the objectives for the foregoing preservation disposal are as in the sketch in the annexed paper.

f. With the exception of the Akahata, the organ papers of the Japan Communist Party printed in Akatsuki Printing Office are the organ papers of the Ward Committees such as "the Sin Sumida", "the Shinmimpo" "the Suginami Mimpo" and "the Minato Shimbun" and so on, and the local organ of the party such as "the Shin Akita", "the Shin Kanagawa", and "the Niigata Mimpo" and so on, and also the party organ paper of the Kanto District and the Tohoku District, that is to say, "the Heiwa no Hata" (The Flag of Peace) which is regarded as the Representative of the Akahata.
