An Act to amend an Act of the last Session, for the better Administration of Justice, so far as relates to the Essoign and General Return Days of each Term, and to substitute other Provisions in lieu thereof; and to declare the Law with regard to the Duration of the Terms in certain Cases. [23d December 1830.]

1 W. 4. c. 70.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the more effectual Administration of Justice in England and Wales, it was amongst other Things enacted, that the Essoign and General Return Days of each Term should, until further Provision be made by Parliament, be as follows; that is to say, the First Essoign or General Return Day for every Term shall be the Fourth Day before the Day of the Commencement of the Term, both Days being included in the Computation, the Second Essoign Day shall be the Fifth Day of the Term, the Third shall be the Fifteenth Day of the Term, and the Fourth and last shall be the Nineteenth Day of the Term, the First Day of the Term being already included in the Computation, with the same Relation to the Commencement of each Term as they now bear, and shall be distinguished by the Day of the Term on which they fall, the Monday being in all Cases substituted for the Sunday when it shall happen that the Day would fall on Sunday, except always that in Easter Term there shall be Four Returns instead of Five, the last being omitted: And whereas it is expedient to repeal so much of the said Act as is herein recited, and to make other Provisions in lieu thereof;’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as is herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal of so much of recited Act as relates to Appointment of Essoign Days.

When Writs are to be returnable.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Writs now usually returnable before any of His Majesty’s Courts of King’s Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer respectively, on General Return Days, that shall be made returnable after the First Day of January in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, may be made returnable on the Third Day exclusive before the Commencement of each Term, or on any Day, not being Sunday, between that Day and the Third Day exclusive before the last Day of the Term; and the Day for Appearance shall, as heretofore, be the Third Day after such Return, exclusive of the Day of the Return, or in case such Third Day shall fall on a Sunday, then on the Fourth Day after such Return, exclusive of such Day of Return.

For removing Doubts as to Duration of Terms.

III. ‘ And whereas it is expedient to remove all Doubts that may exist as to the Duration of the Terms in any Case that may occur;’ Be it therefore declared and enacted, That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on a Sunday, then the Monday next after after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and that in case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of such Term, although there shall be no Sittings in Banc on any of such intervening Days.

IV. ' And whereas it is expedient to provide for the Continuance and Determination of all such Real Actions, Indictments, and Informations for Criminal Offences, and Informations in the Nature of Quo warranto, as may have been depending in any of the Courts abolished by the said Act; ' Be it therefore enacted, That all Indictments and Informations for Criminal Offences, and Proceedings had thereon, depending in any of the said Courts, shall, at the next General Assize and Oyer and Terminer to be holden in and for the County in the Court whereof the same may be depending, be, by the late Prothonotary of the same Court, or other Officer or Person having the Custody thereof, delivered to the Clerk of Assize of the same County, and shall be proceeded with and heard and determined in the same Manner as if the same had been commenced at an Assizes or Oyer and Terminer holden in the same County by or before any Judges of Assize or Oyer and Terminer in and for such County; and that all Writs of Right and other Real Actions depending in any of the said Courts, and all Pleas and Proceedings thereon, shall, at the Request either of the Demandant or Tenant, be forthwith transmitted by such Prothonotary, or other Officer or Person having the Custody thereof, into the Office of the Prothonotaries of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, and shall be proceeded with and heard and determined in the said Court of Common Pleas in the same Manner as if the same Actions had been commenced in that Court; and that all Informations in the Nature of Quo warranto, and Pleas and Proceedings thereon, depending in any of the said abolished Courts, shall, at the Request either of the Relator or Defendant, be transmitted by such Prothonotary, or other Officer or Person having the Custody thereof, into the Crown Office of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and be proceeded with and heard and determined in the said Court of King's Bench as if the same had been commenced in that Court; and every such Delivery and Transmission shall be made, certified, and signed, without Fee or Reward, by the Officer or Person delivering or transmitting the same.

For Continuance and Determination of Actions, Indictments, &c. which may have been depending in any of the Courts abolished by the recited Act;

as also of Writs of Right.

V. ' And whereas it was not intended by the said Act to abridge the Jurisdiction of the Courts of the Mayor and Citizens of Chester within the County of the same City, but Doubts may be entertained whether Fines and Recoveries may be levied and suffered in the same Courts since the Commencement of the said Act, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts, and to provide more distinctly for the levying of such Fines; ' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Recoveries of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments within the County of the same City may be levied and suffered as heretofore hath been accustomed in the said Courts, or such of them as had Authority and Jurisdiction in that Behalf, in like Manner and to the same Purpose and Effect as if the said Act had not passed; and that Fines

Recoveries of Lands may be suffered in the Courts of the Mayor of Chester, as heretofore;

and Fines levied on Writs issued from the Court of Chancery.

of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments may be levied on Writs of Covenant and other Writs necessary and usual in that Behalf to be issued out of the High Court of Chancery, instead of the Court of Exchequer of the County Palatine of Chester, and shall be of the same Force and Effect as Fines levied before the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas.

Such Fines
may be reversed upon Writ of Error.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all such Fines shall be subject to be reversed, and may be reversed upon Writs of Error to be sued and proceeded before the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, if any Error shall be found therein.

VIII. ' And

In lieu of the Return Days in Easter and Michaelmas Terms, all Writs of Inquiry of Damages, &c. to be returnable on the first Wednesday in every Month, in addition to the first and last Days of each Assizes.

VIII. Justice to whom such Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Recruit who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to His Majesty's Secretary at War, or, if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary, in order that, in the Event of such Recruit being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Deserter, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded after having been enlisted, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Deserter; and any Recruit who shall enlist into His Majesty's Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service by reason of any Infirmary concealed or not declared by such Recruit before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and mentioned therein, may be transferred into any Garrison or Veteran or Invalid Battalion, or into His Majesty's Marine Forces, notwithstanding he shall have enlisted for any particular Regiment, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as His Majesty may allow in that Behalf, instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted, any Thing in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers, to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall be lawful for any Two Justices before whom such Recruit shall be brought, and who shall be proved, upon Oath before them, to have concealed his having been a Soldier and discharged, or to have concealed his having been discharged upon any prior Enlistment, or to have wilfully concealed any such Infirmary upon being attested, or to have designedly made any false Representation as aforesaid, to adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and to sentence him to such Punishment as by any Law now in force may be inflicted upon Rogues and Vagabonds and Vagrants and incorrigible Rogues; and any Recruit who shall designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths and Certificates in the Schedule to this Act annexed, before the Justice at the Time of his Attestation, and shall obtain any Enlisting Money, or any Bounty for entering into His Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning, if in England, of an Act intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in England relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and if in Ireland, of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws in Ireland relative to Larceny and other Offences connected therewith; and the Production of such Certificate, and Proof of the Handwriting of the Justice giving such Certificate, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oath sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice at the Time of his being attested; and that Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, that the Person so prosecuted hath voluntarily acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Navy or Marines, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same; and any Man having been enrolled to serve in Apprentice enlisting to be liable to serve after the Expiration of his Apprenticeship.

XL. And be it enacted, That no Master shall be entitled to claim an Apprentice who shall enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's or the East India Company's Service, unless he shall, within One Calendar Month after such Apprentice shall have left his Service, go before some Justice and take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and produce the Certificate of such Justice of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice is required to give in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and unless such Apprentice shall have been bound, if in England, for the full Term of Seven Years, not having been above the Age of Fourteen when so bound, and, if in Ireland or in the British Isles, for the full Term of Five Years at the least, not having been above the Age of Sixteen when so bound, and, if in Scotland, for the full Term at least of Four Years, by a regular Contract or Indenture of Apprenticeship, duly extended, signed, and tested, and binding on both Parties by the Law of Scotland, prior to the Period of Enlistment; and unless such Contract or Indenture so duly executed shall, within Three Months after the Commencement of the Apprenticeship, and before the Period of Enlistment, have been produced to a Justice of the Peace of the County wherein the Parties reside, and there shall have been indorsed thereon by such Justice a Certificate or Declaration signed by him, specifying the Date when and the Person by whom such Contract or Indenture shall have been so produced, which Certificate or Declaration such Justice of the Peace is hereby required to indorse and sign; and unless such Apprentice shall, when claimed by such Master, be under Twenty-

XLII. And be it enacted, That Musters shall be taken of every Regiment, Troop, or Company in His Majesty's Service Twice at least in every Year, at such Times as shall be appointed; and no Soldier shall be absent from such Musters, unless properly certified to be employed on some other Duty of the Regiment, or to be sick, or in Prison, or on Furlough; and every Person who shall give or procure to be given any untrue Certificate, whereby to excuse any Soldier for his Absence from any Muster or any other Service which he ought to attend or perform, or shall make any false or untrue Muster of Man or Horse, or shall wittingly or willingly allow or sign the Muster Roll wherein such false Muster is contained, or any Duplicate thereof, or who shall directly or indirectly take or cause to be taken any Money or Gratuity for mustering any Soldiers, or for signing any Muster Rolls or Duplicate thereof, or shall knowingly muster any Person by a wrong Name, upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two XLVI. And be it enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge shall, if then serving Abroad, be sent, if he shall so require it, to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and shall be entitled to receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed, (or, if discharged at Home, shall receive Marching Money from the Place of his Discharge,) to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted.

Penalty for Disobedience
by Agents.

L. And whereas by the Petition of Right, in the Third Year of King Charles the First, it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burthened with the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Three-pence, for paying and disbanding the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whomsoever, should from thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billetting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, should, at ‘ any Time thereafter, be allowed any Quarters in any Part of ‘ Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be ‘ and remain in some Seaport Town in order to be transported, ‘ or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any ‘ Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army should ‘ be commanded to march, from any Part of Ireland to another :

 ‘ But forasmuch as at this Time, during the Continuance of this ‘ Act, there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quar-
 ‘ tering of Regiments, Troops, and Companies in several Parts ‘ of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,’ be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in England and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty’s Service, and Persons receiving Pay in His Majesty’s Army, and the Horses belonging to His Majesty’s Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers’ Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty’s other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty’s Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and that they shall be received by the Occupiers of such Houses in which they are so allowed to be billeted, and be furnished with proper Accommodation in such Houses, and in England with Diet and Small Beer, and with Stables, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates hereinafter provided; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above
 One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in one and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and in no other Case whatsoever shall there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs, when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by

by

by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice, then to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of His Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act, who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons to whose House or Stables the said Men and Horses shall have been so removed, to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Men or Horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such Justices to order a proper Allowance to be paid by the Persons relieved to the Persons receiving such Men and Horses, or to be applied in the furnishing the requisite Accommodation; and Commanding Officers may exchange any Man or Horse billeted in any Place with another Man or Horse billeted in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such Houses; and the Constables are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any Justice, at the Request of any Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding any Soldiers requiring Billets, to extend any Routes or enlarge the District within which Billets shall be required, in such Manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the Troops; provided that, to prevent or punish all Abuses in billeting Soldiers, it shall be lawful for any Justice within his Jurisdiction, by Warrant or Order under his Hand, to require any Constable to give him an Account in Writing of the Number of Officers and Soldiers who shall be quartered by such Constable, together with the Names of the Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, stating the Street or Place where such Persons dwell, and the Sign, if any, belonging to those Houses; and it shall be lawful to billet Officers and Soldiers in Scotland according to the Provisions of the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LI. And be it enacted, That the Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's Foot Guards shall be billeted within the City and Liberties of Westminster; and Places adjacent, lying in the County of Middlesex (except the City of London), and in the County of Surrey, and in the Borough of Southwark, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as in other Parts of England, in all Cases for which particular Provision is not made by this Act; and the High Constable shall, on Receipt of the Order for billeting ing Soldiers, deliver Precepts to the several Constables within their respective Divisions, in pursuance of which the said Constables shall billet such Officers and Soldiers equally and proportionally on the Houses subjected thereto by this Act; and the said General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties, Counties and Borough respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Session assembled, upon Oath, which Oath the said Justices are hereby required to administer, Lists, signed by them respectively, of the Houses subject by this Act to receive Officers and Soldiers, together with the Names and Rank of all Officers and Soldiers billeted on each respectively, which Lists shall remain with the respective Clerks of the Peace, for the Inspection of all Persons, without Fee or Reward; and such Clerk shall forthwith from time to time deliver to any Persons who shall require the same true Copies of any such Lists, upon being paid Two-pence per Sheet for the same, each Sheet to contain at least One hundred and fifty Words.

Military Officer not to act as a Justice in billeting.

LII. And be it enacted, That no Justice having or executing any Military Office or Commission in any Part of the United Kingdom shall, directly or indirectly, be concerned in the billeting or appointing Quarters for any Soldier in the Regiment, Troop, or Company under the immediate Command of such Justice, but that all Warrants, Acts, or Things so appointed by such Justice for or concerning the same shall be void.

Allowance to Innkeep. rs.

LIII. And be it enacted, That the Innholder or other Person on whom any Soldier is billeted in England shall, if required by such Soldier, furnish him for every Day on the March, and for a Period not exceeding Two Days when halted at any intermediate Place upon the March, and for the Day of Arrival at the Place of final Destination, with One hot Meal in each Day, the Meal to consist of such Quantities of Diet and Small Beer as may be fixed by His Majesty's Regulations, not exceeding One Pound and a Quarter of Meat previous to being dressed, One Pound of Bread, One Pound of Potatoes or other Vegetables, and Two Pints of Small Beer, and Vinegar, Salt, and Pepper; and for such Meal the Innholder or other Person furnishing the same shall be paid the Sum of Ten-pence; and all Innholders and other Persons on whom Soldiers may be billeted in England, except when on the March, and entitled to be furnished with the hot Meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such Soldier with Candles, Vinegar, and Salt, and shall allow them the use of Fire, and of the necessary Utensil for dressing and eating their Meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the Sum of One Halfpenny per Diem for each Soldier; and the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person on whom any of the Horses belonging to His Majesty's Forces shall be billeted, in England, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ten-pence per Diem for each Horse; and in Ireland the Sum to be paid for Forage to the Innholder or other Person, for Horses billeted, by virtue of this Act, shall be the Rate established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from time to time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland; and for the Use of Stables in Ireland, when such Horses are provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by the Occupiers of the Houses on which they are billeted, the Sum of Four-pence per Week for each Horse shall be paid; and every Officer to whom it belongs to receive or who does actually receive the Pay for any Officers or Soldiers shall every Four Days, or before they shall quit their Quarters if they shall not remain so long as Four Days, settle the just Demands of all Victuallers or other Persons upon whom such Officers and Soldiers are billeted, out of their Pay and Subsistence, before any Part of the said Pay or Subsistence be distributed to them respectively; and if any Officer as aforesaid shall not pay the same, upon Complaint and Oath made thereof by any Two Witnesses, at the next Quarter Session for the County or City where such Quarters were situated, the Secretary at War is hereby required (upon Certificate of the Justices before whom such Oath was made of the Sum due upon such Accounts, and the Persons to whom the same is owing,) to give Orders to the Regimental Agent to pay the said Sums, and to charge the same against such Officers; and in case of any Soldier being suddenly ordered to march, and that the respective Commanding Officers are not enabled to make Payment of the Sums due for the Lodging of the Men and Stabling for the Horses, every such Officer shall, before his Departure, make up the Account with every Person upon whom such Soldier may have been billeted, and sign a Certificate thereof; which Account and Certificate shall be transmitted to the Agent of the Regiment, who is hereby required to make immediate Payment thereof, and to charge the same to the Account of such Officer.

LIV. An Act to repeal the Duties and Drawbacks on Printed Calicoes, Linens, and Stuffs. [15th March 1831.]

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for repealing the Duties of Excise payable in Great Britain, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, certain Duties were granted and imposed on all Foreign Calico and Foreign Muslin printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain, except such as should be dyed throughout of One Colour only, and on all Linens, and on Stuffs wholly made of Cotton Wool, wove in Great Britain, commonly called British Manufactory, and British Muslins, and on all Fustians, Velvets, Ververets, Dimities, and other Figured Stuffs made of Cotton and other Materials mixed, or wholly made of Cotton Wool, wove in Great Britain, and on all other Stuffs whatsoever which should be printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain, except such as should be dyed throughout of One Colour only, and Stuffs made of Woollen, or whereof the greatest Part in Value should be Woollen: And whereas by certain other Acts of Parliament the like Duties were imposed on all such Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Ireland, and removed from Ireland into Great Britain: And whereas by the said recited Act and other Acts, certain Drawbacks of the said Duties were granted on the Removal of such printed Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs from Great Britain to Ireland, and on the Exportation of the same from Great Britain to Foreign Parts: And whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for repealing several Duties of Excise payable upon Excise Licences in Great Britain and Ireland, and imposing other Duties in lieu thereof, and for amending the Laws for granting Excise Licences, certain Duties of Excise were imposed on Licences by the said Act required to be taken out by every Calico Printer, and every Printer, Painter, or Stainer of Linens, Cottons, and Stuffs in Great Britain and Ireland: And whereas it is expedient that all the said Duties and Drawbacks should cease and determine;’ May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one the said several Duties 43 G. S. c. 69.

From 1st of March 1831, all the Duties and Drawbacks on Printed Calicoes, and all Duties on Licences to Calico Printers, repealed.

Proviso as to Arrears and Penalties.

An Account of Calicoes in the Possession of Printers, &c. to be taken within One Month after the passing of this Act, and all missing Pieces to be charged with Duty, if not proved to have paid it.

Duties of Excise payable on Foreign and British Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs, printed, stained, painted or dyed in Great Britain, and all Duties on Licences required to be taken out by Calico Printers, and by Printers, Painters, and Stainers of Linen and Stuffs, in Great Britain and Ireland, and all Drawbacks for or in respect of the Removal from Great Britain to Ireland, or the Exportation from Great Britain, of any printed, stained, painted, or dyed Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs, except as the said Drawbacks are herein-after specially continued, shall cease and determine, and be no longer chargeable or payable; and if any such Duty shall have been paid before the Commencement of this Act, which shall have been charged after the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, the same shall be returned, under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise shall appoint: Provided always, that any Arrear of the said Duties, or of any Penalty or Forfeiture in respect thereof, which shall have been incurred before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, or the Payment of any Drawback which shall be payable in respect of any Removal or Exportation of any such Goods before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, shall and may be sued for, levied, recovered, and paid in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

II. ' And whereas the Officers of Excise are now by Law authorized and empowered to take an Account of the Quantities of Calicoes, Linens, and Stuffs which shall at any Time or Times be in the Custody or Possession of any Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed; and in case any such Officer or Officers shall miss any Quantity or Quantities of such Calicoes, Linens, or Stuffs whereof he had taken an Account at his last Survey, and shall not, upon reasonable Demand, receive Satisfaction what is become of the same, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for such Officer to charge such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer with the Duties of such Calicoes, Linens, or Stuffs so missing, as if the same were printed, painted, stained, or dyed: And whereas it is expedient to continue the said Power until an Account can be taken of all such Quantities of Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs as shall have been taken Account of by the Officers of Excise at any Time before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one;' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise, at any Time within One Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, to take an Account of the Quantities of all Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs in the Custody or Possession of any Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer in Great Britain, to be printed, painted, stained, or dyed; and if on such Account any such Officer of Excise shall miss or not have produced to him any Quantity or Quantities of Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, or Stuffs whereof an Account had been taken by any Officer or Officers of Excise before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and it shall not be satisfactorily shown to the Officer taking such Account that the Quantities of Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, or Stuffs so missing have been duly charged with the Duties

Duties of Excise payable thereon, every such Officer shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to charge such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer with the Duties of such Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, or Stuffs as if the same had been printed, painted, stained, or dyed, and charged with Duty, before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one; and all Duties so charged shall be deemed and taken to be Arrears of Duty incurred before the said First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, and shall be recovered accordingly.

III. ' And whereas it is expedient to provide for continuing for a certain Time the said Drawbacks on the Removal and Exportation of all such Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs as shall have been printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain since the thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; ' be it therefore enacted, That until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, the Drawbacks of the said Duties now payable shall be paid and payable on the Removal from Great Britain to Ireland, and on the Exportation from Great Britain of all such Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs as shall appear by the Date of the Year in the Frame Mark of the Officer of Excise on both Ends of each Piece thereof to have been printed, stained, painted, or dyed in Great Britain since the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and all such printed, stained, painted, or dyed Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs shall be removed and exported, and the Drawbacks thereon paid, under the Laws, Enactments, and Regulations relating to the Removal and Exportation of such Goods in force before the passing of this Act; and from and after the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, except as to the Payment of any Drawback in respect of such Goods removed or exported on or before that Day, all such Drawbacks shall wholly cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties shall continue to be charged, collected, and recovered under the Laws, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures now in force on all Printed Calicoes, Muslins, Linens, and Stuffs removed from Ireland into Great Britain, until the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, when the Drawbacks on the Removal and Exportation of such Calicoes, Linens, Muslins, and Stuffs from Great Britain will expire; and from and after the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one all the said Duties shall cease and determine.

Drawbacks on the Removal and Exportation of Goods printed since December 1829 may be paid until June 1831.

Duties on Printed Linens removed from Ireland to Great Britain to continue until 1st June 1831, and then expire.

From June 1831 to June 1832 all Printed Goods brought from Ireland to Great Britain to be accompanied with a Certificate of their having been printed in Ireland.

‘ painted, stained, or dyed in Great Britain, for the Purpose only ‘ of obtaining the Drawbacks payable on such Removal, and ‘ with the Intention of afterwards returning the Goods so removed ‘ free of Duty for Consumption in Great Britain, whereby a large ‘ Amount of Money will be payable for such Drawbacks, con‘ trary to the Intentions of Parliament when such Drawbacks were ‘ granted, and to the great Injury of the Revenue, and it is ‘ expedient to provide against such Practices;’ Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of June
 One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, when the Duties and and Stuffs to and from Great Britain and Ireland respectively scription of the Goods, and any Marks by which the same may be distinguished, and that the Goods were bonâ fide printed, painted, stained, or dyed in Ireland by such Printer, Painter, Stainer, or Dyer at his Field or Works (the Situation whereof shall also be stated); and the Person accompanying such Goods on their Removal, or to whom such Goods shall be consigned in Great Britain, or his Agent at the Port of Arrival, shall produce such Certificate to the proper Officer of Customs at such Port, and shall also make counterfeit any such Certificate, or make use of any false or coun-

II. And be it further enacted, That the Produce of all the said Hereditary Rates, Duties, Payments, and Revenues in England and Ireland respectively, (other than the Hereditary Duties of Excise on Beer, Ale, and Cider payable in England;) which at the Time of the Decease of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and also the Produce of the several and respective Hereditary Duties and Revenues (other than and except the Hereditary Duties of Excise on Beer, Ale, and Cider,) which were payable to His said late Majesty King George the Fourth in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and also the said yearly Sums of Three hundred and forty-eight thousand Pounds and Six thousand five hundred Pounds payable to His present Majesty out of the Revenue of Excise arising in England and Scotland respectively, under and by virtue of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, and also the small Branches of the Hereditary Revenue, and the Produce of, the Hereditary casual Revenues arising from any Droits of Admiralty or Droits of the Crown, or from the Duties called the Four and a Half per Centum Duties or West Indian Duties, and from all surplus Revenues of Gibraltar or any other Possession of His Majesty out of the United Kingdom, and from all other casual Revenues arising either in the Foreign Possessions of His Majesty or in the United Kingdom, which have accrued since the Decease of His said late Majesty, and which shall not have been applied and distributed in the Payment of any Charge thereupon respectively, or which shall accrue during the Life of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve), shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and from and after the Decease of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve) all the said Hereditary Revenues, including the Duties on Beer, Ale, and Cider, shall be payable and paid to His Heirs and Successors.

III. And be it further enacted, That for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, there shall be granted to His Majesty during his Life a net yearly Revenue of Five hundred and ten thousand Pounds, and that the said Revenue shall be charged on and made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall commence from and immediately after the Decease of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, and be paid to His present Majesty during his Life (which God long preserve), with Preference to all other Payments which have heretofore been or which shall or may hereafter be charged upon the same, to be paid quarterly, (that is to say,) on the Thirty-first Day of March, the Thirtieth Day of June, the Thirtieth Day of September, and the Thirty-first Day of December, in each Year, by even and equal Portions, out of the Monies of the said Consolidated Fund, the first Charge for the same to be made in the Consolidated Fund on the Quarter Day next immediately after the passing of this Act, and to include the Proportion of the said Revenue which has accrued and become due to His Majesty in the Period between the Day of the Death of His late Majesty and the said Quarter Day ; but it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, after the passing of this Act, and previously to the making up of the Consolidated Fund for the Quarter then next ensuing, to direct and cause to be issued and paid at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, out of the growing Produce of the said Consolidated Fund, such Issues and Payments for Arrears or Charges of the Civil List granted by this Act as may have become due and payable since the Day of the Death of His late Majesty, in part of the Amount to be charged for the same on the Account of the Consolidated Fund for the ensuing Quarter ; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, shall and they are hereby authorized and required, on and during every succeeding Quarter, to cause the said yearly Revenue to be issued and applied from time to time, daily, weekly, or otherwise, as soon as the same can be satisfied, for the Uses and Purposes by this Act appointed, out of the Monies arisen or to arise as aforesaid, so as by the said daily, weekly, or other Payments One Fourth Part of such yearly Revenue or Sum of Money be not exceeded in, for, or in respect of each Quarter, and so that upon every of the said quarterly Days the whole Amount then due thereupon be computed, made up, or satisfied, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Certain Hereditary Revenues, and Arrears thereof, from Demise of His late Majesty, to be carried to the Consolidated Fund, during the Life of His present Majesty, and after His Demise all the Hereditary Revenues to be payable to His Heirs and Successors.

The clear yearly Sum of 510,000*l.* to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund for the Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown.

So much of the Sums of 200,000*l.* and 100,000*l.* granted to make Civil List Payments as shall have been so applied shall be repaid out of the Money granted for the Civil List.

IV. ' And whereas the Sum of Two hundred thousand Pounds was granted in the last Session of Parliament, and also the further Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds has been granted by the Commons House of Parliament in the present Session, to enable His Majesty to satisfy such annual Pensions or other Payments as would have been payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the Civil List, in case the Decease of His late Majesty had not taken place before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one : And whereas the Hereditary Revenues of His Majesty arisen and paid into the Exchequer since the Time of His late Majesty's Decease have, in pursuance of the said recited Acts of the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third and the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, been set apart at the Exchequer for the Use of His Majesty, and a Part of the said Sums has been issued and applied in satisfying Payments to which the Civil List Revenues are properly applicable ;' Be it therefore enacted, That out of the first Monies which shall be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund, in respect of the Civil List Revenue granted to His Majesty by this Act, there shall be repaid to or retained in the Exchequer, towards completing the Aids granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, a Sum equal to so much of the said Sums of Two hundred thousand Pounds and One hundred thousand Pounds as shall shall have been or shall be advanced and applied in satisfying such Annuities, Pensions, or other Payments for which Provision shall be made in the Civil List under this Act, and which after the passing of this Act become properly charged or chargeable upon the Civil List Revenues; and there shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund a Sum equal to so much of the Hereditary Revenues set apart at the Exchequer on the Fifth Day of July and Tenth Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and Fifth Day of January and Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, as may have been or may be issued or applied out of those Revenues for satisfying such Annuities, Pensions, or other Payments for which Provision shall be made in the Civil List under this Act, or which will after the passing of this Act become properly charged or chargeable upon the Civil List Revenue; and the Remainder of the said Hereditary Revenues which may not have been issued or paid in satisfaction of any such Charges, or of any other Charges thereon, shall go and be carried to the said Consolidated Fund immediately after the passing of this Act.

V. ' And whereas Doubts may be entertained whether the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Civil List Revenues have expired with the Civil List Revenue of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, by the Decease of His late Majesty; ' Be it therefore further enacted and declared, That all the Provisions, Regulations, Restrictions, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, which were applicable and in force as to the Civil List Revenue at the Time of the Decease of His said late Majesty, shall, so far as the same are not altered, varied, or repealed by this Act, be and remain and continue, and are hereby declared to be, in full Force and Effect as to the Civil List Revenue granted by this Act, and shall be used and applied, so far as the same are applicable, in relation to the issuing, paying, receiving, Distribution, Care, Management, Regulation, and accounting for the Civil List Revenue granted by this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same were severally, separately, and respectively repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and made Part thereof.

VI. ' And whereas by the said recited Act of the Twenty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third it was enacted, that the Commissioners of the Treasury shall draw out a Plan for the Establishments and Payments of the Civil List Revenues in Classes, according to the Order mentioned in the said Act, and that all Sums of Money which should become due and payable out of the said Civil List Revenues for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act should be paid in the Order and according to the Plan therein mentioned, and it is expedient to alter the said Classes so as to confine the same to the Expences of His Majesty's Household and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and to specify the Amount to be appropriated to each Class, and for this Purpose an Estimate has been laid before Parliament of the future Amount of Charges on the several Classes so altered, which Amount for each Class respectively is specified in the Schedule to this Act; ' Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Provisions of all former Civil List Acts to remain in force for the Purposes of this Act, except as hereby altered.

Mode of appropriating the Monies issued.

Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, at the Commencement of every Quarter, or within a Period not exceeding Thirty Days from the Commencement of each Quarter, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct what Sums shall respectively be set apart and appropriated in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, out of the quarterly Revenues of the Civil List, for the Purpose of defraying the several Charges upon the respective Classes thereof, but so as that the Sum to be appropriated to any one Class do not exceed One Fourth Part of the estimated annual Amount of that Class, as specified in the Schedule to this Act, together with any Saving which may have accrued upon the said Class in the preceding Quarter; and the several and respective Sums in the said Warrant directed to be set apart and appropriated shall be so set apart by the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, and be appropriated to the respective Classes accordingly; and each and every Sum so set apart and appropriated shall in the first place be applied in Payment of all the unsatisfied Charges of every Description of the Class in respect of which such Appropriation shall have been made, in preference to any other Charges whatever upon His Majesty's Civil List Revenues; and no Part thereof shall on any account whatever be applied, until after the Termination of the Year, for any other Purpose or in aid of any other of the Classes of the Civil List, or of any other of the Charges thereon; any Thing contained in the said recited Act of the Twenty-second Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Treasury may direct Savings in any Class to be applied at the End of the Year in aid of other Classes.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Saving or Surplus shall arise in any Quarter in respect of any Money appropriated for defraying the Charges of any particular Class, so as that the Sum appropriated thereto shall be more than sufficient for the full and complete Payment of the Charges thereon, such quarterly Saving or Surplus shall in every such Case be carried forward in the Exchequer to the Account and Credit and be applied for the Purposes of the Class in which it shall have arisen until the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year; and in case and whenever any such Saving or Surplus remaining at the End of the Year shall have arisen in any of the Classes of the Civil List, then it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, to direct the same to be applied in aid of the Charges or Expences of any other Class (except the Fifth Class), or of any Charge or Charges upon His Majesty's Civil List Revenues, in such Manner as may under the Circumstances appear to be most expedient: Provided always, that the Charge upon the Fifth Class shall in no Case exceed the Sum set apart and limited for that Class in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Certain Allowances and Payments not hereafter to be charged upon the Civil List.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That none of the Allowances or Salaries specified in the Second, Third, Seventh, and Eighth Classes contained in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, nor any Payments other than such as are specified specified in the Schedule to this Act annexed, shall hereafter be chargeable or charged upon His Majesty's Civil List Revenues, or upon any of the Funds granted by this Act.

IX. ' And whereas under and by virtue of an Act of the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for enabling His said late Majesty to settle Annuities on several Members of His Royal Family, and of an Act of the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, for enabling His said Majesty to settle Annuities upon certain Branches of the Royal Family, an Annuity of Fifteen thousand Pounds had become payable to His present Majesty (being Prince William Henry, afterwards Duke of Clarence), for the Term of his natural Life; and under and by virtue of an Act of the Forty-sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, for enabling His Majesty to settle Annuities on several Branches of the Royal Family (as amended by an Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty), one other Annuity of Six thousand Pounds was made payable to His present Majesty (then Duke of Clarence) for the Term of His natural Life; and under and by virtue of the said Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, one other annuity of Two thousand five hundred Pounds was made payable to His present Majesty (then Duke of Clarence) for the Term of His natural Life: And whereas His present Majesty has been graciously pleased to declare His Royal Pleasure that the said several Annuities of Fifteen thousand Pounds, Six thousand Pounds, and Two thousand five hundred Pounds should cease and determine; Be it therefore enacted, That the said several Annuities shall cease and determine, and the said Annuities shall be no longer charged or chargeable on or paid or payable on or out of the Consolidated Fund, or on or out of any other Fund whatever; any Thing in the said recited Acts or any of them to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if any Payment on account thereof shall have been made for any Period since the Day of the Decease of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, the Amount thereof shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund out of the Money to be set apart in the Exchequer for the First Class of the Civil List under the Authority of this Act.

X. ' And whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the First and Second † Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable His Majesty to make further Provision for Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Clarence, an Annuity of Six thousand Pounds was made payable to Her present Majesty the Queen (then Duchess of Clarence) for the Term of Her natural Life, charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom: And whereas His present Majesty, and Her Majesty the Queen, have been graciously pleased to declare Their Royal Pleasure that the said Annuity of Six thousand Pounds should cease and determine; Be it therefore enacted, That the said Annuity of Six thousand Pounds shall cease and determine, and the said Annuity shall be no longer charged or chargeable on or paid or payable out of the said

Annuities payable to His present Majesty for Life under certain Acts shall cease.

Proviso as to any Payments made since the Decease of King George IV.

Annuities to the Royal Dukes under 18 G.S. c. 31. charged on the Consolidated Fund by 1 G. 4. c. 108., re-charged on the Consolidated Fund during Their Royal Highnesses Lives.

XI. ' And whereas certain Annuities of Fifteen thousand Pounds each to Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Cumberland, the Duke of Sussex, and the Duke of Cambridge, were, during the Life of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, payable out of the Consolidated Fund to Their said Royal Highnesses, being Part of Annuities to the Amount of Sixty thousand Pounds charged upon the Hereditary Revenues by the said Act made in the Eighteenth Year of His said late Majesty King George the Third, for enabling His said Majesty to settle several Annuities on several Members of His Royal Family, and which by the said Act made in the First Year of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, enabling His said Majesty to settle Annuities upon certain Branches of the Royal Family, were made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom during the Life of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth ; and by the Decease of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth the said Annuities have become payable out of the Hereditary Revenue, and it is expedient to transfer the same again to the Consolidated Fund ;' Be it therefore enacted ; That the said several Annuities of Fifteen thousand Pounds each to Their said Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland, Sussex, and Cambridge, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to and shall be charged upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, during the Lives of Their Royal Highnesses.

An Act to abolish certain Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in the Customs and Excise Departments of His Majesty's Revenue, and to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof. [30th July 1831.]

WHEREAS by the Laws relating to the Revenues of Customs and Excise numerous Oaths and solemn Affirmations are required to be taken and made by Traders and other Persons; and from the frequent Occasions on which such Oaths and Affirmations are required, and the consequent Number thereof administered, the Reverence and Respect which should attach to such solemn Obligations have been weakened, and their binding Force not duly regarded; and it is therefore expedient to provide for diminishing the Number of such Oaths, and to substitute other Regulations in lieu thereof; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority

Where an Oath or Affirmation is now required by any Act relating to the Customs or Excise, a Declaration shall be made instead thereof, except in the Cases specially provided for.

ity of the same, That in all Cases where, by any Act or Acts relating to the Revenues of Customs or Excise, any Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit shall be required to be taken or made by any Person on the doing of any Act, Matter, or Thing, or for verifying any Book, Account, Entry, or Return, or for any other Purpose whatsoever, such Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit shall no longer, except in the Cases herein-after specially provided for, be taken, made, or required, but in lieu thereof the Person who would under the Act or Acts of Parliament imposing the same have been required to take or make such Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit shall, in the Presence of the Commissioners, Collector, or other Person empowered by such Act or Acts of Parliament to administer such Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit, make and subscribe a Declaration, setting forth the Matters contained, in and to the same Effect as the Oath, solemn Affirmation, or Affidavit which would have been required if this Act had not been passed, and declaring to the Truth thereof; and if any such Declaration shall be untrue in any Particular, the Person making the same shall, over and above every other Penalty to which such Person may become subject, forfeit One hundred Pounds.

Certain Oaths relating to the Customs Revenue excepted.

II. Commissioners of Customs may require a written Declaration in lieu of an Oath.

III. ' And whereas it is expedient that in all Cases where the ' Commissioners of the Customs may deem it requisite to require ' Confirmation of any written Statement or Allegation made to ' them relative to the Seizure of Goods, or of any other Matter ' relating to their Department, such Confirmation should, instead ' of being required to be made upon Oath, be made by a Decla- ' ration of the Parties in Writing;' be it therefore enacted, That in such Cases no Affidavit or Oath shall be required, but that in lieu thereof the Party shall make and subscribe a written Declaration of the Truth of the Statement or Allegation; and if any such Declaration made by any such Person shall be false or untrue in any Particular, the Person making such false Declaration shall forfeit One hundred Pounds.

Certain Oaths relating to the Excise Revenue excepted.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to require any Collector or other Officer of Excise to verify by Oath any Account or Return rendered by such Collector or other Officer of Excise, of any Monies received or paid or expended or claimed by him; and in case of any Seizure of any Goods or Detection of any Offence, the said Commissioners may, on restoring such Seizure or in forbearing to prosecute for such Offence, or on staying any Proceedings commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture, require any Facts showing that no Fraud has been committed or intended to be verified on the Oath or Affirmation of any Person, such Oaths or Affirmations respectively to be administered and received by any one of the said Commissioners or by any Justice of the Peace; and every Collector and other Officer, and every other Person, making or taking any such Oath or Affirmation, who shall wilfully and knowingly swear or affirm falsely to any Matter or Thing therein, being duly convicted thereof, shall incur the Pains and Penalty to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Penalties by this Act imposed shall be sued for and recovered in the same Manner and under the same Provisions as any Penalty imposed by any Acts

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, every Maker of Candles for Sale shall become subject and liable, as a Melter of Tallow, to the Provisions, Rules, and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, relating to Melters of Tallow, Fat, Grease, and Kitchen Stuff, contained in an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Prevention of Frauds in the Duties on Soap; for preserving the Books or Papers, called Specimens, left by Officers of Excise on the Premises of Traders; and for requiring more speedy Payment of the Excise Duties on Printed Calicoes; and no Maker of Candles shall have in his Possession any of the Articles prohibited to be in the Possession of a Melter of Tallow, Fat, Grease, or Kitchen Stuff, or any Mineral or Vegetable Alkali whatsoever, under the Penalty and Forfeiture in the said Act provided.

C A P. XXI.

An Act to explain and amend Two Acts of the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-eighth Years of His Majesty King George the Third, so far as the same relate to Double Assessments of the Land Tax. [22d September 1831.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, intituled An Act for granting to Their Majesties an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound, for One Year, for carrying on a vigorous War with France, all the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of Their said Majesties Subjects were charged with and directed to be assessed by a Pound Rate of Four Shillings in the Pound for every Twenty Shillings of the then full yearly Value thereof; and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of every Papist or reputed Papist, being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards, who had not then taken, or who within a limited Time should neglect to take, certain Oaths therein mentioned, were charged with and to be assessed in Double the said Pound Rate, that is to say, with a Pound Rate of Eight Shillings in the Pound for every Twenty Shillings of the then yearly Value thereof; all which Assessments were to be made and raised by the several Commissioners executing the said Act in the respective Hundreds or Divisions as in the said Act mentioned: And whereas by certain Acts passed in each and every succeeding Year in the respective Reigns of Their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, Queen Anne, King George the First, King George the Second, and until the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the said Rates, according to the Proportions to be raised in each County, City, Borough, Town, and Place in the said Act specified, were severally directed to be assessed and collected in the Manner directed by the said Act of King William and Queen Mary: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled An Act to oblige Papists to register their Names and Real Estates, which Act remained in force until the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, every Person or Persons who should profess the Popish Religion, and who should not before the Time therein specified take the Oaths mentioned or referred to in and by the said Act of the Fourth Year of Their said late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, were directed, under pain of forfeiting his, her, or their Estates, to register with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Division where such Estates should be situated his, her, or their Name or Names, and all such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments whereof he or she or they, or any Trustee or Trustees for him, her, or them, or his, her, or their Benefit or Advantage, should be in Possession or in the Receipt or Perception of the Rents or Profits, and to express in such Register in what Parish, Township, or Place such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments did lie or arise, and who for the Time being was or were the Possessors

' Possessors thereof, and the yearly Rent reserved to him or them
 ' for the same : And whereas by several Acts passed subsequent
 ' to the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Their said
 ' Majesties King William and Queen Mary, for granting an Aid
 ' by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, it was declared,
 ' amongst other Things, that since the making of the Assess' ments by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act several of the ' said Papists and other Persons which were so doubly taxed had ' taken the said Oaths, or their Lands had come to Protestants,
 ' whereby it was intended that their Estates should by such
 ' several Acts be charged only to such an equal Pound Rate as
 ' was to be borne by their Protestant Neighbours, and for that ' Purpose Provision was made by the said Acts for relieving such ' Lands from the Double Rate, and distributing the same by an ' equal Pound Rate over all Lands assessable in the same Parish,
 ' Township, or Place, towards raising the Proportion of Land
 ' Tax thereon charged, with a Power for Relief, in case such Pro' portion should thereby exceed the Land Tax of Four Shillings
 ' in the Pound on the full and improved yearly Values, by Ap' plication to the Court of Exchequer to discharge the Excess
 ' from the Assessments and Duplicates, in exoneration of the ' Parish, Township, or Place : And whereas by an Act passed in
 ' the Thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King
 ' George the Third, intituled An Act for granting an Aid to His ' Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the ' Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-four,
 ' it was declared, amongst other Things, that towards the Assess' ments which were made by virtue of the said Act of the Fourth ' Year of the Reign of Their said Majesties King William and ' Queen Mary, the several Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other
 ' Hereditaments of Persons refusing or neglecting to take the ' Oaths therein contained were assessed to pay Double the Rates
 ' therein expressed; and that it was not by the reciting Act
 ' intended to assess or impose any such Double Rates upon any ' Person or Persons whomsoever; and that the Estates of Persons
 ' formerly doubly taxed were thereby made liable to single
 ' Assessment only; with a Provision for distributing the Double
 ' Tax over the Parish, Township, or Place; and provided the ' Pound Rate should thereby exceed Four Shillings in the Pound,
 ' a Power of Relief, by Application to the Court of Exchequer
 ' to discharge the Excess from the Assessments and Duplicates
 ' in manner aforesaid; and similar Provisions were contained in ' certain Acts passed in the Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-
 ' seventh, and Thirty-eighth Years of the Reign of His late
 ' Majesty King George the Third, but limiting the Periods for ' Application to the Court of Exchequer to the Twenty-ninth
 ' Day of September yearly: And whereas by an Act passed sub' sequently, in the said Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His ' late Majesty King George the Third, the Proportions and Sums
 ' directed to be raised for Land Tax by the said previous Act
 ' of the same Year were made perpetual, subject to Redemption
 ' and Purchase; and large Proportions of the Land Tax have ' been redeemed or purchased under the Provisions of the Acts
 ' in force in that Behalf: And whereas some of His Majesty's
 ' Subjects,

38 G. 3. c. 5.

Subjects, as well as such Persons to whom the Estates of Persons doubly rated or assessed have come or descended, as also such Persons neglecting or refusing to take the Oaths mentioned or referred to in the Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Their said Majesties King William and Queen Mary, may not have obtained the Relief intended by the said Acts of His late Majesty King George the Third, but may have continued to be charged, in respect of their Lands, Tenements, Rents, and Hereditaments, with Double the said Rates or Assessments imposed by the said Act of Their said Majesties King William and Queen Mary, and borne and paid by their Protestant Neighbours in respect of their Lands, Tenements, Rents, and Hereditaments: And whereas by reason of the Provisions of the said Acts for making the Land Tax perpetual, subject to annual Assessment in respect to the Proportions unredeemed, Doubts have arisen whether the Power of Relief granted by the said Acts, in and prior to the said Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, by Application to the Court of Exchequer, are now in force, and Difficulties have also arisen in regard to the Manner and Form of obtaining Relief from Double Land Tax, by reason of the great Variation and Increase in the annual Value of Lands, and of the Proportions of Land Tax which have been redeemed or exonerated from Assessment; and it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed, and that the Mode of affording Relief should be more clearly defined; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases of Assessment for any Year commencing, where any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates which shall have a Proportion to raise by virtue of the said last-recited Act of the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Third shall be charged with a Double Rate, by the Valuation and Assessment of the same Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates for the former Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound which was made in pursuance of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Their said late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, and in all Cases where such Double Tax shall have been so charged on any Estates, and such Estates have not under the Provisions of the said Acts been made liable to a single Assessment only, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the respective Counties, Districts, or Divisions where any such Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates are situate, upon Complaint thereof before them being first made by or on behalf of the Owner or Occupier of such Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates as aforesaid, to examine into the Matter of such Complaint, and to satisfy themselves of the Truth thereof, and, if they think necessary, to require Proof thereof by the Oaths of Two credible Witnesses, or by a Certificate or Office Copy from the Clerk of the Peace of the County wherein such Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates are situate, of the Registry of such Manors, Lands,

Where Lands are charged with a Double Rate the Commissioners of the Land Tax shall, upon Complaint, examine into the Matter, and, if satisfied of the Truth thereof, certify the same to the Treasury.

Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates, made pursuant to the before-recited Act of the First Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the First, and by the Production of the Assessments that the said Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Hereditaments, or Estates are charged with or assessed to the same Sums as they were charged with or assessed to previous to or in the said Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third; and if the said Commissioners shall be satisfied of the Truth thereof, they the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, are hereby required and empowered to certify, in Writing under their Hands, to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, the Names of such Owner or Occupier, and the Amount of the Overcharge on such Owner or Occupier; and the Certificate of the said Commissioners, attested by their Clerk, shall be transmitted to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and shall be in the following Form :

' touching the Assessment of the Complainant's Estate to Double
' Land Tax in the said , and that the said
' Assessment, a true Copy whereof is hereunto annexed, doth
' exceed by the Sum of the just Pro' portion which would have been charged on the said Estate in ' case the said Estate had not been the Property of a Person
' who refused to take the Oaths required by an Act passed in the ' Fourth Year of the Reign of Their Majesties King William and
' Queen Mary, intituled An Act for granting to Their Majesties
' an Aid of Four Shillings in the Pound, for One Year, for carrying ' on a vigorous War with France. [Here add a true Copy of the ' Assessment.']

The Treasury, upon being satisfied of the Accuracy of the Certificate, may order the Commissioners of the District to discharge such Double Land Tax.

And the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes under their Authority, are hereby empowered to inquire and inform themselves of the Truth of the said Certificate; and in all Cases where they shall be satisfied thereof, the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or with their Consent the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Two or more of them, are hereby required and authorized, by Warrant under the Hands of any Two of the last-mentioned Commissioners, to empower the Commissioners of the District to which such Certificate shall relate to discharge or cause to be discharged such Sum or Sums of Money so certified as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as shall appear to be Double Land Tax, from all future Assessments; and the said Sum or Sums of Money shall and may be then discharged upon the Duplicates to be returned for the said County, District, or Division respectively, and shall be allowed upon the Accounts of the Receivers General for the same; and the Inhabitants of such County, District, or Division shall stand acquitted, as against His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors for ever, touching the Charge of Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money so discharged by this Act in manner aforesaid: Provided always, and nothing herein contained shall extend the Relief

Relief hereby granted in respect of Double Land Tax now charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased by any Person or Persons for a valuable Consideration, subject to such Double Land Tax as a Charge and Incumbrance on such Estate or any Part thereof, nor shall any Person or Persons claiming under such a Purchase Title be entitled so to claim the Benefit of this Act; and no Discharge of the Double Land Tax from any Assessment for any current Year shall be granted, unless such Certificate as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes on or before the Tenth Day of October in such Year.

‘ WHEREAS Doubts are entertained whether, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the General Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, and of several other Acts amending the same, Cattle going to or from Water or Pasture, and passing on such Turnpike Roads or from being shoed or farried, are exempted from Tolls;’ for the Removal therefore of such Doubts, be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Toll shall be demanded or taken for or in respect of any Horse, Ass, Sheep, Swine, or other Beast or Cattle of any kind going to or from Water or Pasture, or to or from being shoed or farried, and passing on any Turnpike Road, provided that such Horse, Ass, Sheep, Swine, or other Beast or Cattle of any kind do not pass upon such Turnpike Road more than the Space of Two Miles, going to or returning from Water or Pasture, or to or from being shoed or farried.

C A P. XXVI.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, respecting the Audit of the Public Accounts of Ireland; and to appoint the Number of Commissioners competent to grant Quietus to Public Accountants, under an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for consolidating the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland. [22d September 1831.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to provide for the speedy and regular Examination and Audit of the Public Accounts of Ireland, and to repeal certain former Acts relating thereto, it is among other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to nominate and appoint from Time to Time such Persons as He or They shall think proper, not exceeding Five Persons at any one Time, to be Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland; and it is by the said Act further enacted, that in all Cases not otherwise thereby expressly directed or provided, all and every Authority vested or to be vested in, and all and every Act and Acts directed or authorized to be done by the said Commissioners, shall and may be exercised and done by any Three of them: And whereas Five Persons were duly appointed Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Act; but One of such Persons has been long since invalidated, and another has died, and it has not seemed good to His gracious Majesty, with regard to the Public Service, that the Vacancies so happening should be filled up; and it has therefore become expedient that any Two Persons, being such Commissioners as aforesaid, should be enabled to exercise and execute the respective Powers, Authorities, and Duties which under the said recited Act might or ought to be exercised by Three at least of the Persons being such Commissioners as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Authority vested in, and all and every Act or Acts directed or authorized to be done by, the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed under or by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and which by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act might have been exercised or done by any Three of such Commissioners, shall and may, from and after the passing of this Act, be exercised or done by any Two of such Commissioners; and that all and every such Authority and Authorities exercised or to be exercised by, and all and every such Act and Acts done or to be done by, any Two of such Commissioners, by virtue or in execution of their Office, shall be alike valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if exercised or done by Three of the said Commissioners, any thing in the said recited Act or any other Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

56 G. 3. c. 98.

II. ' And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to unite and consolidate into One Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, it is among other Things enacted, that in all Cases where the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland shall have audited and certified, or shall thereafter audit and certify, any Account whatsoever of any Public Accountant, and it shall satisfactorily appear to the said Commissioners, upon such Examination and Proof as to them shall seem expedient, that such Accountant is even and quit with the Public on such Account, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, and they are thereby authorized and required, under their Signature, to acquit and discharge and grant a Quietus to such Public Accountant, such Acquittance, Discharge, or Quietus being of such Force and Effect as by the said last-recited Act provided; but the Number of Persons being such Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, who are authorized and required as aforesaid to sign such Quietus, is not specified, and Doubts have arisen as to the Validity of any Quietus signed by fewer than the whole Number of Persons appointed Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts under the said Act of the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, herein-before first recited, and it is therefore proper and necessary to declare and enact as herein-after followeth; be it therefore declared and enacted, That any Quietus, Acquittance, or Discharge which has or shall at any Time before the passing of this Act have received the Signature of any Three Persons, being such Commissioners as aforesaid, or which at any Time after the passing of this Act shall receive the Signatures of any Two Persons, being such Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be in each Case respectively alike good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if such Quietus had received the Signature of the whole Number of Persons appointed such Commissioners as aforesaid; and any Quietus so signed shall be taken and received by any Court of Law or Equity in the United Kingdom in bar of any Suit or Process against such Public Accountant who shall have received the same, for any Matter or Thing touching the Period of Account with respect to which such Acquittal, Discharge, or Quietus shall have been granted, any thing in the said recited Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any Quietus under 56 G. 3. c. 98. valid, if before the passing of this Act it is signed by Three Commissioners, or after the passing of this Act is signed by Two Commissioners.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to explain and amend an Act for regulating the Receipt and future Appropriation of Fees and Emoluments receivable by Officers of the Superior Courts of Common Law. [15th October 1831.]

1W. 4. c. 58.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth and First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Receipt and future Appropriation of Fees and Emoluments receivable by Officers of the Superior Courts of Common Law, Persons holding certain Offices and Employments are required to render to the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of the said Act an Account of the lawful Fees and Emoluments which have become due in respect of such Offices and Employments during the Periods therein specified; and such Commissioners are thereby authorized to inquire into and examine as well the Legality as the Amount of the Fees and Emoluments contained in such Accounts, and are directed to ascertain the gross and net annual Value, according to an Average of Ten Years, of the lawful Fees and Emoluments of such Offices and Employments as aforesaid: And whereas it is difficult in many Cases to find any certain Rule by which the Legality of such Fees and Emoluments can be strictly ascertained; and it is expedient that the Compensation directed by the said Act should be made upon equitable Principles: Be it therefore enacted and declared by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons,

Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Fees and Emoluments received and enjoyed in respect of the said Offices or Employments which the said Commissioners shall deem to be reasonable, and which shall have been received for Fifty Years before the Twenty-fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, or which shall have been uniformly received in respect of any Matter or Business which shall have first arisen within the said Period of Fifty Years, by Authority of Parliament or other legal Authority, shall be deemed and taken to be legal Fees and Emoluments within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act.

Certain Fees to be deemed legal Fees.

II. And be it further enacted, That if such Commissioners shall entertain any Doubt as to the Propriety or Reasonableness of any such Fees, or any Matter connected therewith, it shall be lawful for them to consult thereon the Court or Judge by whose Officer the same may have been received, or any One or more of the Judges of such Court; and such Court and Judges shall and are hereby required to give their or his Advice and Opinion as early as the same can be reasonably done; and that the Advice so given, and the Question to which it is in answer, shall be in Writing.

If Commissioners are in doubt as to the Legality of any Fees, they may consult the Court or Judge.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Persons holding the Offices or Situations named in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall be deemed and taken to be within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, and within the Authority and Jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, who shall inquire into and report upon the Value of the said Offices or Situations.

Persons named in Schedule to be deemed within the Meaning of this Act.

IV. And whereas by another Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act for the better Administration of Justice in England and Wales, Persons holding Freehold Offices were alone empowered to receive Compensation from Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of that Act, albeit the Holders of such Offices for Years or during Pleasure are in Justice entitled thereto; be it further enacted, That all Persons who before the First Day of January in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight held Offices or Situations in any of the Courts of Great Session in the County of Chester or Principality of Wales, by virtue of any Appointment theretofore lawfully made, for Term of Years or during Pleasure, shall be deemed and taken to be within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act as above mentioned, and within the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the same Act.

Certain Persons who have held Offices for Years, or during Pleasure, to receive Compensation. 1 W. 4. c. 70. s. 25.

[15th October 1831.]

29 C. 2. c. 8.

‘ WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of ‘ the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, ‘ intituled An Act for confirming and perpetuating Augmentations ‘ made by Ecclesiastical Persons to small Vicarages and Curacies, ‘ it was amongst other Things enacted, that all and every Aug‘ mentation, of what Nature soever, granted, reserved, or agreed ‘ to be made payable, or intended to be granted, reserved, or ‘ made payable, since the First Day of June in the Twelfth Year ‘ of His said Majesty's Reign, or which should at any Time there‘ after be granted, reserved, or made payable to any Vicar or ‘ Curate, or reserved by way of Increase of Rent to the Lessors, ‘ but intended to be to or for the Use or Benefit of any Vicar or ‘ Curate, by any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Provost, Dean and ‘ Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, or other Ecclesiastical Cor‘ poration, Person or Persons whatsoever, so making the said ‘ Reservation out of any Rectory Improprate or Portion of Tithes ‘ belonging to any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Provost, Dean and ‘ Chapter, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, Person or Persons, ‘ should be deemed and adjudged to continue, and be and should ‘ for ever thereafter continue and remain, as well during the ‘ Continuance of the Estate or Term upon which the said Aug‘ mentations were granted, reserved, or agreed to be made pay‘ able, as afterwards, in whose Hands soever the said Rectories or ‘ Portion of Tithes should be or come, which Rectories or Por‘ tions of Tithes should be chargeable therewith, whether the ‘ same should be reserved again or not; and the said Vicars and ‘ Curates respectively were thereby adjudged to be in the actual ‘ Possession thereof for the Use of themselves and their Succes‘ sors, and the same should for ever thereafter be taken, received,
 ‘ and enjoyed by the said Vicars and Curates, and their Succes‘ sors, as well during the Continuance of the Term or Estate ‘ upon

‘ upon which the said Augmentations were granted, reserved, or agreed to be made payable, as afterwards; and the said Vicars and Curates should have Remedy for the same, either by Distress upon the Rectories Improprate or Portions of Tithes charged therewith, or by Action of Debt against that Person who ought to have paid the same, his Executors or Administrators, any Disability in the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate so granting, or any Disability or Incapacity in the Vicars or Curates to whom or to or for whose Use or Benefit the same were granted or intended to be granted, the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Law, Custom, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, that no future Augmentation should be confirmed by virtue of the said Act which should exceed one Moiety of the clear yearly Value above all Reprises of the Rectory Improprate out of which the same should be granted or reserved; and it was thereby also enacted, that if any Question should thereafter arise concerning the Validity of such Grants, or any other Matter or Thing in that Act mentioned and contained, such favourable Constructions, and such Remedy, if need be, should be had and made for the Benefit of the Vicars and Curates as theretofore had been had and made or might be had for other charitable Uses upon the Statutes for charitable Uses: And whereas it is expedient that the Powers and Provisions of the said Act should be amended and enlarged;’ be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Provision by which the Amount of any Augmentation is restricted and limited to One Moiety of the clear yearly Value above all Reprises of the Rectory Improprate out of which the same should be granted and reserved, shall, so far as relates to any Augmentation which may be granted after the passing of this Act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Provision in recited Act limiting any Augmentation repealed.

II. ‘ And whereas Doubts may arise by reason of the Mention of Portion of Tithes in the said recited Act;’ be it enacted, That the Provisions of the said recited Act shall extend to any Augmentation to be made out of Tithes, although the same may not be a Portion of Tithes; and further, that it shall be lawful, under the Power given by the said recited Act, to grant, reserve, or make payable any such Augmentation as aforesaid to the Incumbent of any Church or Chapel within the Parish or Place in which the Rectory Improprate shall lie, or in which the Tithes or Portion of Tithes shall arise, (as the Case may be,) whether such Incumbent shall be a Vicar or Curate, or otherwise: Provided also, that no such Augmentation shall be made payable to any other Person whomsoever.

Explaining Doubts as to Portion of Tithes, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Augmentation shall at any Time hereafter be granted, reserved, or made payable to the Incumbent of any Church or Chapel, or reserved by way of Increase of Rent to the Lessors, but intended to be to or for the Use or Benefit of any Incumbent, by the Master and Fellows of any College, or the Master or Guardian of any Hospital so making the said Grant or Reservation out of any Rectory Improprate, or Tithes or Portion of Tithes, belonging to the Master and Fellows of such College, or the Master or Guardian of such Hospital, all the Provisions herein-before recited and set forth, except the Provision herein-before repealed, shall apply to such Case in the same Manner as if the same Provisions, except as aforesaid, (with such Alterations therein as the Difference between the Cases would require), were herein expressly set forth and enacted with reference thereto: Provided always, that every such Augmentation shall be made to the Incumbent of some Church or Chapel within the Parish or Place in which the Rectory Improprate shall lie, or in which the Tithes or Portion of Tithes shall arise (as the Case may be).

Recited Act to extend to Augmentations by Colleges and Hospitals.

The same Statute to extend to Augmentations made by Spiritual Persons, Colleges, and Hospitals, out of any Hereditaments, to any Church or Chapel being in their Patronage.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which any Augmentation shall at any Time hereafter be granted, reserved, or made payable to the Incumbent of any Church or Chapel being in the Patronage of the Grantor or Grantors, or Lessor or Lessors, or be reserved by way of Increase of Rent to the Lessor or Lessors, but intended to be to or for the Use or Benefit of any such Incumbent, by any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, Person or Persons whatsoever, or the Master and Fellows of any College, or the Master or Guardian of any Hospital so making the said Grant or Reservation out of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments belonging to such Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation, Person or Persons whatsoever, or the Master and Fellows of such College, or the Master or Guardian of such Hospital, all the Provisions herein-before recited and set forth (except the Provision herein-before repealed) shall apply to such Case in the same Manner as if the same Provisions, except as aforesaid, (with such Alterations therein as the Difference between the Cases would require,) were herein expressly set forth and enacted with reference thereto.

All such Augmentations to be in the Form of annual Rents.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted and declared, That every Augmentation which at any Time hereafter shall be granted, reserved, or made payable, either under the Power given by the said recited Act, or under either of the Powers herein-before contained, shall be in the Form of an annual Rent, and that the Provisions of the said recited Act, and the Provisions herein-before contained, shall not apply to any other kind of Augmentation whatsoever to be made after the passing of this Act.

Where Hereditaments are in Lease, a Part of the reserved Rent may be granted as an Augmentation.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared, That where any such Rectory Improprate, or Tithes or Portion of Tithes, or any such Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall respectively be subject to any Lease on which an annual Rent shall be reserved or be payable to the Person or Persons or Body Politic making the Augmentation, it shall be lawful, during the Continuance of such Lease, to exercise the Power given by the said recited Act, or either of the Powers herein-before contained, (so far as the same shall apply,) by granting to the Incumbent of the Benefice intended to be augmented a Part of the Rent which shall be so reserved or made payable as aforesaid, and then and

and in every such Case the same Premises shall for ever, as well after the Determination of such Lease as during the Continuance thereof, be chargeable to such Incumbent, and his Successors, with the Augmentation which shall have been so granted to him as aforesaid; and from and after such Time as Notice of the said Grant shall be given to the Person or Persons entitled in Possession under the said Lease, and thenceforth during the Continuance of the same, such Incumbent, and his Successors, shall have all the same Powers for enforcing Payment of such Augmentation as the Person or Persons or Body Politic by whom the Augmentation shall have been granted might have had in that Behalf in case no Grant of the same had been made; and after the Determination of the said Lease, the said Incumbent, and his Successors, shall have such Remedy for enforcing Payment of such Augmentation as aforesaid as is provided by the said recited Act with respect to Augmentations granted, reserved, or made payable under the Authority thereof.

VII. And be it further enacted, That where any such Rectory Improprate, or Tithes or Portion of Tithes, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall be subject to any Lease for any Term not exceeding Twenty-one Years or Three Lives, or (in the Case of such Houses as under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, intituled An Act for Continuation, Explanation, perfecting, and enlarging of divers Statutes, may lawfully be leased for Forty Years,) not exceeding Forty Years, on which Lease the most improved Rent at the Time of making the same shall not have been reserved, it shall be lawful at any Time during the Continuance of such Lease to exercise the Power given by the said recited Act, or either of the Powers hereinbefore contained, by granting out of the said Premises an Augmentation, to take effect in Possession after the Expiration, Surrender, or other Determination of such Lease, and then and in every such Case the said Premises shall, from and after the Expiration, Surrender, or other Determination of the said Lease, and for ever thereafter, be chargeable with the said Augmentation; and the Provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act respectively shall in all respects apply to every Augmentation which shall be so granted in the same Manner as in other Cases of Augmentations to be granted under the Powers of the said recited Act or of this Act.

VIII. And whereas it is apprehended that it may be desirable in many Cases to make Grants of Augmentations in the Manner last herein-before mentioned, and that such Grants would be much discouraged if the Augmentation to be granted should necessarily take effect in Possession upon a Surrender of the Lease during which the same had been granted as aforesaid for the Purpose of such Lease being renewed; be it therefore further enacted, That in any Case in which an Augmentation shall have been granted to take effect in Possession after the Expiration, Surrender, or other Determination of any Lease in the Manner authorized by the Clause last herein-before contained, and a Renewal of such Lease shall take place before the Expiration thereof, it shall be lawful in and by the renewed Lease

Where Hereditaments are subject to a Lease not reserving a Rack Rent, an Augmentation may be granted, to take effect on the Determination of such Lease.

Power in such Cases to defer the Commencement of the Augmentation upon a Renewal of the Lease.

to defer the Time from which such Augmentation is to take effect in Possession as aforesaid until any Time to be therein specified in that Behalf: Provided always, that the Time to which the Augmentation shall be so deferred shall be some Time not exceeding Twenty-one Years, or (in the Case of such Houses as by the said Act of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth may lawfully be leased for Forty Years) not exceeding Forty Years, to be respectively computed from the Commencement of the Lease during which the Augmentation shall have been granted.

Power to apportion Augmentations on future Leases.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any such Augmentation as aforesaid shall have become chargeable, under or by virtue of the said recited Act or of this Act, upon any Rectory Improprite, Tithes, Portion of Tithes, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, if any Lease shall afterwards be granted of any Part of the same Premises separately from the rest thereof, then and in every such Case, and from Time to Time so often as the same shall happen, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons granting such Lease to provide and agree that any Part of such Augmentation shall during such Lease be paid out of such Part of the Hereditaments previously charged therewith as shall be comprised in the said Lease, and then and in such Case, and thenceforth during the Lease so to be made as aforesaid, no further or other Part of the said Augmentation shall be charged on the Premises comprised in the said Lease than such Part of the said Augmentation as shall be so agreed to be paid out of the same: Provided always, that in every such Case the Hereditaments which shall be leased in Severalty as aforesaid shall be a competent Security for such Part of the said Augmentation as shall be agreed to be paid out of the same, and the Remainder of the Hereditaments originally charged with the said Augmentation shall be a competent Security for the Residue thereof.

Restriction on the Exercise of the Power of Apportionment.

Repeal of so much of recited Act as requires an express Continuance of the Augmentation in new Leases.

X. And whereas by the said recited Act it was enacted, that ' if upon the Surrender, Expiration, or other Determination of ' any Lease wherein such Augmentation had been or should be ' granted, any new Lease of the Premises, or any Part thereof, ' should thereafter be made without express Continuance of the ' said Augmentation, every such new Lease should be utterly ' void ;' be it further enacted, That the said last-mentioned Provision, so far as relates to any Augmentation which may be granted after the passing of this Act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ecclesiastical Corporations, Colleges, &c. holding Improprite Rectories or Tithes, may annex the same to any Church or Chapel within the Parish in which the Rectory lies or the Tithes arise.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation or Person or Persons, or the Master and Fellows of any College, or the Master or Guardian of any Hospital, being, in his or their corporate Capacity, the Owner or Owners of any Rectory Improprite, or of any Tithes or Portion of Tithes arising in any particular Parish or Place, by a Deed duly executed, to annex such Rectory Improprite, or Tithes or Portion of Tithes as aforesaid, or any Lands or Tithes, being Part or Parcel thereof, with the Appurtenances, unto any Church or Chapel within the Parish or Place in which the Rectory Improprite shall lie, or in which the Tithes or Portion

Portion of Tithes shall arise, to the Intent and in order that the same may be held and enjoyed by the Incumbent for the Time being of such Church or Chapel; and every such Deed shall be effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, or other Ecclesiastical Corporation or Person or Persons, or the Master and Fellows of any College, or the Master or Guardian of any Hospital, being, in his or their corporate Capacity, the Owner or Owners of any Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments whatsoever, and also being in his or their corporate Capacity the Patron or Patrons of any Church or Chapel, by a Deed duly executed, to annex such Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, with the Appurtenances, unto such Church or Chapel, to the Intent and in order that the same Premises may be held and enjoyed by the Incumbent for the Time being thereof; and every such Deed shall be effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power to annex Lands, &c. held by them to any Church or Chapel under their Patronage.

XIII. included in the Valuation by the said recited Act authorized and directed to be made: Provided nevertheless, that the Committee of Appeal and Committee of Revision respectively in each County shall, as herein-after provided, have Power and Authority to consider and determine the Justice and Propriety of all such Exemptions, and to make Order allowing or disallowing the same accordingly.

How Penalties are to be recovered.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Dublin, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or in the Name of some Officer of Excise, or on Complaint, in manner herein-after mentioned, to or before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, City, or Place wherein the Offence shall be committed.

Proceedings before Justices where Parties are not arrested.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That where any Complaint shall be made to any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the Recovery of any Penalty under this Act (except as herein-after provided for in the Cases of Persons arrested and detained and brought before such Justice or Justices), the Justice or Justices to whom such Complaint shall be made is and are hereby authorized and required to summon the Party accused to appear before him or them on a Day and at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons, not being less than Six nor more than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Summons, and upon his Appearance or Default to proceed to the Examination of the Matter, and upon due Proof thereof, either on the Confession of the Party or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to convict the Offender; and in case the said Penalty or Penalties, or the Amount to which the same shall be mitigated, shall not on Conviction be forthwith paid into the Hands of the Prosecutor or Person authorized to receive the same, such Justice or Justices may, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, immediately commit such Offender or Offenders to any Gaol or Prison of the County or Place wherein the Offence shall have arisen, or wherein the Offender or Offenders shall have been found, there to remain for such Period as shall be specified in such Warrant, according to the Provisions of this Act, unless such Penalty or Penalties shall be sooner paid: Provided always, that where it shall appear to any Justice or Justices by or before whom any Person shall be convicted that such Person has sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon to levy the Penalty or Penalties, the Justice or Justices may, before issuing any Warrant of Commitment, grant a Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to levy such Penalty or Penalties on the Goods and Chattels of such Offender; and if sufficient Goods and Chattels for satisfying such Warrant, and the Expences of the Levy and Sale of the Offender's Goods, shall not be found, then the said Justice or Justices shall grant such Warrant of Commitment as aforesaid.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Justice or Justices to or before whom any Complaint shall have been exhibited, and who shall have issued any Summons, shall be absent or not attend at the Time and Place named in such Summons, it shall be lawful for any other Justice or Justices of the Peace within the same Jurisdiction who may be in attendance to act in the Matter of the said Complaint for and in lieu of the Justice to or before whom the same shall have been exhibited, in all respects relating to such Complaint, and the due Completion of the Proceeding thereupon, in the same Manner as if such Complaint had been at first exhibited before such other Justice or Justices; and in case neither the Justice or Justices, or either or any of them, before whom any such Complaint shall have been made, nor any other Justice, shall attend at the Time and Place named in the Summons, then the Justice or Justices before whom such Complaint shall have been made, or any One of them, shall, on Application made for that Purpose, issue a Second Summons for the Defendant's Appearance on a Day and Hour and at a Place to be therein named; at which Time and Place such Justice or Justices, or One of them, is hereby peremptorily required to attend to hear and determine the Matters of such Complaint: Provided also, that any Summons directed in the right or assumed Name of the Person summoned, left at or upon the Place used or occupied by any Person for carrying on Trade or Business, or at the House or Building where the Offence shall have been committed or Seizure made, or at the Place of Residence or with the Wife or Child or Servant of the Person summoned, shall be deemed to be duly served.

If the Justice before whom any Complaint is made shall not attend, another Justice may hear and determine the Matter.

Serving of Summons.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That any Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom any Person liable to be arrested and detained or who shall be arrested and detained for any Offence under the Provisions of this Act authorizing such Arrest and Detention shall be carried, may and shall, on the Confession of such Person of such Offence, or on Proof thereof upon the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, convict such Person of any such Offence; and every such Person so convicted shall immediately upon Conviction pay into the Hands of the Officer or Person authorized to receive the same the Penalty adjudged against him, or the Amount to which the same shall be mitigated; mitigated ; or, in default thereof, the said Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, commit the Person so convicted to any Gaol or Prison of the County or Place, there to remain for such Period as shall be specified in such Warrant according to the Provisions of this Act, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid.

Justices may order Persons to be detained.

XXXV. ' And whereas it is expedient that Time should be allowed to prepare Complaints, Convictions, and Warrants of ' Commitment ;' be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be arrested and detained by any Officer or Officers of Excise for any Offence under any of the Provisions of this Act authorizing such Arrest and Detention, and shall be taken and carried before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, if it shall appear to such Justice or Justices that there is reasonable Cause to detain such Person, such Justice or Justices may order such Person or Persons to be detained a reasonable Time, and at the Expiration of such Time such Justice or Justices may proceed to hear and finally determine the Matter, or to commit such Person to Prison.

Where Petty Sessions are established, Defendants may be summoned to the Sessions, and Parties arrested may be held to Bail to appear at the Sessions.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Complaint for the Recovery of any Penalty under this Act shall be made to any Justice or Justices of any County in which the holding of Petty Sessions shall be established under an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the better Administration of Justice at the holding of Petty Sessions by Justices of the Peace in Ireland, such Justice or Justices may and is hereby required to summon the Party accused to appear before the Justices assembled at the next Petty Sessions to be holden for the District within which such Offence shall be committed, or the Justice or Justices to whom Complaint shall be made shall reside ; and on the Appearance or Default of the Party accused the Justices assembled at such Petty Sessions shall proceed to the Examination of the Matter in question, and determine the same in manner herein directed to be done by Justices out of Sessions ; and where any Person shall be arrested and detained, and be brought before any Justice or Justices of any County in which any such Petty Sessions shall be established, such Justice or Justices may and shall hold the Person so arrested to bail in the Sum of Twenty Pounds, with Two sufficient Sureties in the Sum of Ten Pounds each, to appear before the Justices assembled at the next Petty Sessions for the District ; and the Justices assembled at such Petty Sessions shall proceed to hear and determine the Matter in the same Manner as is herein directed to be done by the Justice or Justices before whom such Person shall be brought : Provided always, that if any Person so arrested and detained shall not be willing or able to give such sufficient Bail as aforesaid, the Justice or Justices before whom he, she, or they shall be brought shall immediately proceed to hear and determine the Matter as herein-before directed.

Persons liable to Arrest, not being detained at the Time, may be afterwards arrested.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person liable to be arrested and detained under the Provisions of this Act shall not be detained at the Time of committing the Offence for which he is so liable, or after Detention shall make his Escape, any Officer of Excise may stop, arrest, and detain such Person at any Time

Time afterwards, and carry him before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be dealt with as if detained at the Time of committing the Offence.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas where Proceedings are had against Persons for having Malt, or Corn or Grain, or Stills, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, or Spirits in Possession, other Persons frequently appear as Witnesses to make claim to and declare themselves the Owners or Proprietors of the Goods or Articles, in order to exempt the Persons in whose Possession the same may have been found from the Penalties incurred by such Possession;' be it further enacted, That where in any such Proceeding any Person shall so appear as a Witness, and shall declare himself to be the Owner or Proprietor of any illegal Malt, or Corn or Grain making into Malt, or of any Still, Still Head, or Worm, or Wort, Wash, or Pot Ale, Low Wines, Singlings, or Spirits, or other illicit Articles found in the Possession of or in the House or Premises of the Person against whom such Proceedings shall be had, such Admission of Ownership shall not release or exempt the Person in whose Custody or Possession or in whose House or Premises such illicit Goods shall be found from the Penalty or Penalties by him or her incurred, but the Justice or Justices before whom such Proceedings shall be had shall proceed to convict such Person in such Penalty or Penalties, unless it shall appear to such Justice or Justices that the illicit Goods were found in some Outhouse, Shed, or Place where the same could be deposited without the Knowledge of the Owner or Occupier thereof, and that the Person proceeded against as such Owner or Occupier had not any Knowledge of such Goods; and such Justice or Justices are hereby empowered and required, whether the Person in whose Possession or in whose House or Premises such illicit Goods shall have been found shall or shall not be convicted, to cause the Person who shall have appeared as a Witness and acknowledged himself to be the Owner and Proprietor of the illicit Goods to be immediately detained, and to proceed forthwith to convict such Person, as on his or her Confession, in the Penalty by this Act imposed for being the Owner and Proprietor of the Malt, or Corn or Grain, Still, Still Head, or Worm, or Wort, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, or Spirits, or other Goods, and in default of Payment to commit such Person to the Gaol or Prison; and every such Conviction shall be as good, valid, and effectual as if Complaint had been made to such Justice or Justices, and such Person had been duly summoned to appear before such Justice or Justices.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Justice or Justices of the Peace may, when they shall see Cause, mitigate any Penalty incurred for any Offence committed against this Act, as he or they shall think fit, so as such Mitigation shall not in any Case reduce such Penalty to less than Six Pounds; and every such Mitigation, and Payment thereupon made, shall be a sufficient Discharge of every such Penalty to the Person or Persons convicted: Provided always, that no Justice or Justices shall commit any Person to any Gaol or Prison for Nonpayment of any Penalty adjudged against such Person under the Provisions of this Act,

Persons coming forward as Witnesses to claim Malt, Stills, or Materials, to be immediately convicted on their own Confession.

Powers of Mitigation.

Proviso as to Imprisonment.

Act, or of any mitigated Amount thereof, for any Period less than Three Calendar Months.

Where any Person convicted shall be guilty of a subsequent Offence, the Mitigation not to be less than Double the Amount of the former Fine.

XL. And be it further enacted, That where any Person who shall have been convicted and adjudged to pay a Penalty for any Offence against any of the Provisions of this Act shall be again convicted of any other Offence against any of the Provisions of this Act, the Justice or Justices who shall convict such Person of such subsequent Offence shall not mitigate the Penalty incurred to any less Amount than Double the Amount of the Sum adjudged against such Person when last convicted, and in default of immediate Payment such Person shall be committed to the Gaol or Prison of the County or Place for not less than Double the Period for which such Person was committed or liable to be committed on such preceding Conviction; and the Justice or Justices committing any such Person convicted of any such subsequent Offence shall in the Warrant of Commitment direct such Person to be kept to hard Labour, unless it shall be made to appear to such Justice or Justices that such Person had paid at least One Half of the Penalty adjudged against such Person on his previous Conviction: Provided always, that no Penalty to be imposed by any Justice or Justices for any first or subsequent Offence against the Provisions of this Act shall exceed the Amount herein-before imposed for each Offence respectively, nor shall any Person be committed in default of Payment for any longer Period than Twelve Calendar Months.

Proviso.

Proof of former Conviction.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That Proof of any former Conviction, and the Amount of the Penalty adjudged against any Person, or to which such Penalty was mitigated under the Provisions of this Act, may be made by the Production of such former Conviction, or of any Warrant of Commitment issued thereon, and Proof of the Justices Handwriting thereto, or by the Confession of the Party, or by the Testimony on Oath of any One or more credible Witness or Witnesses who shall have been present at such former Conviction.

Penalties and Imprisonment to be proportioned; and Defendants may pay Part of the Penalty to be released from a Portion of the Imprisonment.

XLII. And whereas Persons convicted of Offences against the Provisions of this Act, and committed to Prison in default of Payment of the Penalty adjudged against them, may be able to pay a Part of such Penalty, but not the Whole; and it is expedient to make Provision for enabling such Persons to make Payment of Part of the Penalty adjudged against them, and to apportion the Period of Imprisonment to the Amount which shall remain unpaid; be it therefore enacted, That every Justice and Justices of the Peace by and before whom any Person or Persons shall be convicted of any Offence against this Act shall, in mitigating any Penalty in which any such Person shall be convicted, and in committing such Person or Persons to Gaol in default of Payment of the Penalty in which he shall have been convicted, so apportion the Amount of Mitigation and Period of Imprisonment as that the Penalty or mitigated Amount thereof, being divided by the Period of Imprisonment, may be regularly calculated into even monthly Instalments of not less than Two Pounds per Calendar Month, and every Month's Imprisonment which any Person convicted of any Offence against this Act, and

and against whom any Penalty shall have been adjudged, shall suffer, shall be taken to be equivalent to Payment of One Month's Instalment of such Penalty; and if any Person who shall be committed to Prison in default of Payment of any Penalty under the Provisions of this Act shall, after undergoing any Part of such Imprisonment, be desirous of being released therefrom on Payment of a Proportion of such Penalty, such Person may pay into the Hands of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison such a Sum of Money as shall appear to be the Amount of the Penalty remaining due after deducting the monthly Instalment or Instalments which shall be deemed to have been paid by the Number of Calendar Months such Person shall have been in Prison; (that is to say,) if such Person shall have been committed to Prison for the Period of Three Calendar Months for Nonpayment of the Sum of Six Pounds, and shall have been in Prison Two Calendar Months, then to pay the Sum of Two Pounds; if in Prison One Month, then to pay the Sum of Four Pounds; if such Person shall have been committed for the Period of Six Months for Nonpayment of Eighteen Pounds, and shall have undergone One Month's Imprisonment, then to pay the Sum of Fifteen Pounds; if in Prison Two Months, Twelve Pounds; if in Prison Five Months, Three Pounds; and so in proportion, reckoning as aforesaid each Calendar Month's Imprisonment equal to a Payment of a monthly Proportion of the Amount of Penalty for Nonpayment of which such Person shall have been committed; and every Gaoler and Keeper of any Prison in which any such Person shall be imprisoned shall on Receipt of such Payment forthwith discharge the Person making the same from Custody for the Remainder of the Period for which such Person shall have been committed; and if any Person against whom any Penalty shall be adjudged for any Offence against this Act, and who shall be directed to be committed to Prison for any Period for Default of Payment of such Sum, shall previous to being removed to the Gaol or Prison pay down any Part of the Penalty which he or she shall be adjudged to pay, the Justice or Justices before whom such Person shall be convicted may allow such Part Payment to be made; and such Justice or Justices shall in every such Case, by Indorsement on the Back of the Warrant of Commitment, specify the Amount so paid, and direct such Person or Persons to be imprisoned for such a Period of Time only as shall be equivalent, according to the monthly Proportions or Instalments of the Penalty, calculated and apportioned as aforesaid, to the Amount of Penalty remaining unpaid: Provided always, that no Sum less than the Sum of Two Pounds shall be allowed to be so paid as a Proportion or Instalment of any Penalty, or if the monthly Proportion shall exceed the Sum of Two Pounds, then no less a Sum than One whole monthly Proportion of the Penalty, calculated and apportioned as aforesaid, shall be allowed to be paid by any Person in order to be released from any Portion of his or her Imprisonment.

Not less than One monthly Instalment to be accepted.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Levy Warrant shall be issued by any Justice or Justices for the Recovery of any Penalty by him or them imposed under the Authority of this Act, and any Sum of Money shall be recovered

Where a Levy Warrant is issued, the Sum recovered to be deemed a Payment.

by the Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party convicted, the Amount so recovered, if equal, after deducting the Expences of the Levy and Sale, to One Month's Proportion of the Penalty, shall be deemed a Payment by such Party; and the Justice or Justices who shall have granted such Warrant shall proceed in the same Manner as if the Sum so recovered had been paid by such Person, and shall indorse the Warrant of Commitment accordingly.

Gaoler to pay over all Money by him received to the Officer of Excise authorized to receive it.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Gaol or Prison who shall receive any Proportion of any Penalty for Nonpayment of which any Person shall have been committed to his Custody under the Provisions of this Act shall forthwith on the Receipt of the same, by Indorsement on the Warrant of Commitment, specify the Amount paid, and the Time when the same was paid, and the Person paying the same liberated; and every such Gaoler or Keeper shall pay over every such Sum of Money so received to the Collector of Excise, or any Person authorized by such Collector to receive the same, on Demand, or in default of Payment shall forfeit a Sum equal to Double the Amount so by him received; and every Gaoler and Keeper of any Prison shall produce to the Inspection of any Officer of Excise who may demand to see the same every Warrant of Commitment under which any Person shall have been committed to the Custody of such Gaoler or Keeper for Nonpayment of any Penalty under the Authority of this Act, within Twelve Months preceding such Demand, and shall allow and permit the Officer of Excise requiring the same to inspect every such Warrant, and to take a Copy thereof, and of any Indorsement thereon, or any Extract therefrom; and if any such Gaoler or Keeper shall refuse or neglect to produce any such Warrant, when so demanded, or to allow the Officer of Excise demanding the same to inspect such Warrant, or to take any Copy thereof or of any Indorsement thereon, or any Extract therefrom, every Gaoler or Keeper so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit One hundred Pounds, to be recovered in the same Manner and by the same Means and Methods as other Penalties under this Act are to be sued for, levied, and recovered.

Application of Penalties.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties or Portions of Penalties which shall be recovered for any Offences done or committed against the Provisions of this Act shall, when recovered, be applied, in the first place, in Payment of the Expences of recovering the same, and in the next place shall be divided and paid, one Moiety thereof to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety thereof, in such Shares and Proportions as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct, to and amongst the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall have discovered the Offences for the Commission of which such Penalties shall be imposed, and the Person or Persons acting in the Aid and Assistance of such Officer or Officers, or who shall have given Information of such Offences, or to and amongst such of them as the said Commissioners shall direct to share therein; and in all Cases where any Penalty shall be imposed on any Person for any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, and such Penalty, or One Half thereof, shall not be recovered, the Commissioners of Excise may direct a Sum of Money

Money not exceeding One Moiety of the Penalty imposed to be paid from the Revenue of Excise, and divided and distributed in the same Manner as the Moiety of the Penalty, if recovered, would have been divided and distributed amongst the Officers of Excise, and the Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, or who shall have given any Information, or such of them as the said Commissioners shall direct to share therein.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Seizures made of any Goods, Commodities, Chattels, or Things forfeited under the Provisions of this Act, and not claimed within the Space of Fourteen Days after Seizure, by Application in Writing either to the Collector or Supervisor of Excise, or to the Officer seizing, or in whose Custody the Goods, Commodities, Chattels, or Things seized shall be, shall be absolutely forfeited, as fully and effectually as if the same had been condemned by Judgment of Condemnation of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer; and in all Cases in which any Goods, Commodities, Chattels, or Things seized shall be claimed by any Person within such Time as aforesaid, such Proceedings shall be had for the Condemnation thereof as in the Case of other Goods, Commodities, or Chattels or Things seized as forfeited under any Law or Laws of Excise.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all Malt, Corn, or Grain, and all Spirits, which shall be seized under the Provisions of this Act, which shall become forfeited for Want of Claim, or which being claimed shall, on Proceedings had for the Condemnation thereof, be adjudged forfeited, shall be sold and disposed of, either publicly to the best Bidder, or by private Sale, at such Time, at such Place, and in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and all and every Still, Still Head, and Worm, and all Casks, Kegs, and Vessels, which shall be seized and become forfeited as aforesaid, shall be cut up and broken to Pieces, and the Materials thereof sold and disposed of in like Manner by Order of the Commissioners of Excise; and all Boats, Horses, Carriages, and other Goods, Commodities, and Chattels, so seized and become forfeited, shall in like Manner be sold and disposed of as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and all Worts, Wash, Low Wines, and Singlings, so seized, shall be wholly and effectually spilled and destroyed; and the Monies arising from the Sale and Disposal of such Seizures shall, when received, be applied under the Directions of the Commissioners of Excise, in the first place, in Payment of the Expences, if any, incurred in the Seizure or Removal of the Goods, Commodities, or Chattels seized, or in the Condemnation thereof; and after Payment of such Expences such Monies shall be divided and paid, in such Proportions and in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall order and direct, to and amongst the Officer or Officers of Excise by whom such Seizure shall be made, and the Person or Persons acting in the Aid and Assistance of such Officer or Officers, or by whose Information such Seizure shall have been discovered, or to and amongst such of them as the said Commissioners shall direct to share therein: Provided always, that no Malt or Spirits seized and forfeited under the Provisions of this Act shall be sold for any Sum less than the Duties of Excise Proof of Payment of Duties, or of a Permit, to be made by Defendants.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That on the Hearing or Trial of any Proceedings for Recovery of any Penalty imposed by this Act on any Person who shall sell, buy, or receive, or shall remove, carry, or convey, or assist in removing, carrying, or conveying, or shall hide or conceal, or have in his or her Possession, or in whose Dwelling House, Outhouse, or Premises shall be found, any Spirits illegally distilled, or the full Duties chargeable whereon had not been paid, or any Spirits whatever in any Quantity requiring a Permit by Law which shall not have been duly and legally permitted and attended with a proper Permit, or any Malt illegally made, or the Duties chargeable whereon shall not have been paid, the Defendant or Defendants in such Proceedings shall be convicted, unless due Proof be made by such Defendant or Defendants that the full Duty on such Spirits has been duly paid, or that such Spirits were bought by or for such Defendant or Defendants and received from a licensed Distiller or some Person licensed to sell Spirits, or that the same were attended with a proper Permit or Permits to such Defendant or Defendants, or unless due Proof shall be made by such Defendant or Defendants that the full Duty on such Malt has been fully paid, or that such Malt was bought by or for such Defendant or Defendants and received from a licensed Maltster, or from a Person regularly and publicly carrying on the Trade or Business of a known Factor or Seller of Malt; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proceedings to be in the Form in the Schedule.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That the Proceedings to be had before any Justice or Justices for the Recovery of any Penalty under this Act may be in the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed; and it shall not be lawful for any Person to appeal against any Judgment or Conviction or Proceedings of any Justice or Justices under this Act, nor shall any Writ of Certiorari or other Writ or Process be issued out of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, on behalf of any Defendant, to remove or any way affect any such Judgment, Conviction, or Proceeding.

Either of the offending Parties informing against the other shall be acquitted of his own Penalty.

L. And for the more effectual Discovery of Offenders, be it further enacted, That on the Commission of any Offence under this Act, either of the offending Parties who shall first discover and inform against the other or others of such offending Parties, before any Information or Complaint has been lodged against such informing Party for such Offence, shall, upon Conviction of the Person or Persons against whom such Information shall be given, be discharged and acquitted from all Penalties to which at the Time of such Information given such informing Party may be liable, for or by reason of any such Offence committed by such such informing Party; and that the Evidence of such informing Party shall on any Trial at Law touching such Offence be admitted to prove the Facts thereof or relating thereto.

LII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Person committing any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, by illegally making Malt, or distilling, selling, or keeping Spirits, or removing Spirits, shall also be subject and liable to all Penalties imposed by any other Act or Acts in force relating to Malt and Spirits, and to Permits, in the same Manner as if such Person or Persons were duly licensed as Maltsters or Makers of Malt, or Distillers, Rectifiers, or Compounders, Dealers in, or Retailers of Spirits; and the Commissioners of Excise may, if they shall see fit, order any Persons committing any Offence against this Act to be sued and prosecuted for the Recovery of any other or further Penalty or Penalties, Forfeiture or Forfeitures, incurred under the Provisions of any other Acts relating to Malt or Spirits, in lieu of or in addition to the Penalties or Forfeitures by this Act imposed.

No Action against an Officer without a Month's Notice in manner required by 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 53.

LIII. And in order to avoid the frequent Use and Repetition of numerous Terms and Expressions in this Act, and to give effect to and prevent any Misconstruction of those which are used in it, be it enacted, That whenever in this Act the Singular Number or Masculine Gender only shall be used, such Word or Words shall be construed to mean several Persons as well as One, and Females as well as Males, and Bodies Corporate and Politic as well as Individuals, and several Matters and Things as well as One Matter or Thing, unless it be otherwise specially provided for, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

An Act to empower Landed Proprietors in Ireland to sink, embank, and remove Obstructions in Rivers.

[20th October 1831.]

‘ WHEREAS it has been ascertained, as well by the Reports of certain Commissioners appointed under the Authority of Parliament in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nine as otherwise, that there are throughout Ireland, contiguous to the Banks of Rivers and Streams and Lakes, many large Tracts of Lands, some covered with Water for not less than Half the Year, some periodically flooded, and others subject to frequent Damage and Inundation by reason of the Defect of Embankments and Interruptions in the Channels of such Rivers and Streams: And whereas the said Tracts of Lands comprise generally the finest alluvial Soil, and, although in their present Condition of little Value, would, if protected against Inundation, become productive and fertile in an eminent Degree: And whereas the Reclamation and Protection of such Lands would be advantageous to the Proprietors thereof, and would conduce to the Health of such Districts, and afford beneficial Employment to the distressed Labouring Poor; but by reason of the various Modifications of Interests and Estates in such Lands, and the legal Incapacity of Persons having such Interests, and the Defect of Co-operation in them, the same cannot be accomplished without the Authority of Parliament:’ Be it therefore enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Persons shall be desirous of undertaking the Execution of the Works provided for by this Act, and shall, in manner and upon and after the Observance and Performance of the Preliminaries herein-after directed, make Application to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, if he or they shall so think fit, to issue a Commission authorizing and constituting such Persons Undertakers for the Execution of such of the Works provided for by this Act as may be included in such Application, or any of them; and such Persons, and their several and respective Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and all and every other Person and Persons, Body and Bodies Politic or Corporate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, who shall, according to the Conditions herein-after set forth, be or at any Time become possessed of any Part of the Joint Stock herein-after mentioned, and their several and respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns, (so long as they respectively, or their respective Executors, Administrators, Successors, or Assigns, shall hold Shares in the said Joint Stock, and no longer,) shall be and are hereby declared, by virtue and force of such Commission as aforesaid, to be and become, from the Date of the issuing thereof, Undertakers for making, completing, and executing

‘ WHEREAS it often happens that a Person sued at Law for the Recovery of Money or Goods wherein he has no Interest, and which are also claimed of him by some Third Party, has no Means of relieving himself from such adverse Claims but by a Suit in Equity against the Plaintiff and such Third Party, usually called a Bill of Interpleader, which is attended with Expence and Delay;’ for Remedy thereof be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon Application made by or on the Behalf of any Defendant sued in any of His Majesty’s Courts of Law at Westminster, or in the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, or the Court of Pleas of the County Palatine of Durham, in any Action of Assumpsit, Debt, Detinue, or Trover, such Application being made after Declaration, and before Plea, by Affidavit or otherwise, showing that such Defendant does not claim any Interest in the Subject Matter of the Suit, but that the Right thereto is claimed or supposed to belong to some Third Party who has sued or is expected to sue for the same, and that such Defendant does not in any Manner collude with such Third Party, but is ready to bring into Court or to pay or dispose of the Subject Matter of the Action in such Manner as the Court (or any Judge thereof) may order or direct, it shall be lawful for the Court, or any Judge thereof, to make Rules and Orders calling upon such Third Party to appear and to state the Nature and Particulars of his Claim, and maintain or relinquish his Claim, and upon such Rule or Order to hear the Allegations as well of such Third Party as of the Plaintiff, and in the meantime to stay the Proceedings in such Action, and finally to order such Third Party to make himself Defendant in the same or some other Action, or to proceed to Trial on One or more feigned Issue or Issues, and also to direct which of the Parties shall be Plaintiff or Defendant on such Trial, or, with the Consent of the Plaintiff and such Third Party, their Counsel or Attornies, to dispose of the Merits of their Claims and determine the same in a summary Manner, and to make such other Rules and Orders therein as to Costs and all other Matters as may appear to be just and reasonable.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Judgment in any such Action or Issue as may be directed by the Court or Judge, and the Decision of the Court or Judge in a summary Manner, shall be final and conclusive against the Parties, and all Persons claiming by, from, or under them.

III. And be it further enacted, That if such Third Party shall not appear upon such Rule or Order to maintain or relinquish his Claim, being duly served therewith, or shall neglect or refuse to comply with any Rule or Order to be made after Appearance, it Upon Application by a Defendant in an Action of Assumpsit, &c. stating that the Right in the Subject Matter is in a Third Party, the Court may order such Third Party to appear and maintain or relinquish his Claim, and in the meantime stay Proceedings in such Action.

Judgment and Decision to be final.

If such Third Party shall not appear, &c. the Court may bar

it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to declare such Third Party, and all Persons claiming by, from, or under him, to be forever barred from prosecuting his Claim against the original Defendant, his Executors or Administrators; saving nevertheless the Right or Claim of such Third Party against the Plaintiff; and thereupon to make such Order between such Defendant and the Plaintiff, as to Costs and other Matters, as may appear just and reasonable.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if upon Application to a Judge, in the first instance or in any later Stage of the Proceedings, he shall think the Matter more fit for the Decision of the Court, it shall be lawful for him to refer the Matter to the Court; and thereupon the Court shall and may hear and dispose of the same in the same Manner as if the Proceeding had originally commenced by Rule of Court, instead of the Order of a Judge.

If a Judge thinks the Matter more fit for the Decision of the Court, he may refer it.

VI. ' And whereas Difficulties sometimes arise in the Execution of Process against Goods and Chattels, issued by or under the Authority of the said Courts, by reason of Claims made to such Goods and Chattels by Assignees of Bankrupts and other Persons not being the Parties against whom such Process has issued, whereby Sheriffs and other Officers are exposed to the Hazard and Expence of Actions; and it is reasonable to afford Relief and Protection in such Cases to such Sheriffs and other Officers; be it therefore further enacted, That when any such Claim shall be made to any Goods or Chattels taken or intended to be taken in Execution under any such Process, or to the Proceeds or Value thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court from which such Process issued, upon Application of such Sheriff or other Officer made before or after the Return of such Process, and as well before as after any Action brought against such Sheriff or other Officer, to call before them, by Rule of Court, as well the Party issuing such Process as the Party making such Claim, and thereupon to exercise, for the Adjustment of such Claims and the Relief and Protection of the Sheriff or other Officer, all or any of the Powers and Authorities herein-before contained, and make such Rules and Decisions as shall appear to be just, according to the Circumstances of the Case; and the Costs of all such Proceedings shall be in the Discretion of the Court.

Charter of 3 James I.

LX. ' And whereas by a Charter of His Majesty King James the ' First, bearing Date the Twentieth Day of August in the Third ' Year of His Reign, after reciting that the Mayor and Common-
' alty and Citizens of the City of London, from all the Time
' whereof the Memory of Man was not to the contrary, had had
' and exercised, and ought and had been accustomed to have and
' exercise, the Office of Bailiff and the Conservancy of the Water
' of Thames, to be exercised and occupied by the Mayor of the ' City aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his ' Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, in, upon, and about the ' same Water of Thames, (to wit,) from the Bridge of the Town of
' Staines in the County of Middlesex Westwards to London Bridge,
' and thence to a certain Place called Yendall, otherwise Yenland,
' otherwise Yenleete, towards the Sea and Eastwards, and in the
' Medway, and in the Port of the City of London aforesaid, and
' upon every Bank and upon every Shore and every Wharf of the
' same Water of Thames within the Limits and Bounds aforesaid,
' and in, upon, and about each and every of the same, and also by ' all the Time aforesaid had had and taken, and ought and had ' been accustomed to have and take, to their own Use, by the ' Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, during the
' Time

‘ Time of his Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, all the ‘ Wages, Rewards, Fees, and Profits pertaining and belonging to ‘ the same Office of Bailiff; and also reciting that the same Mayor ‘ and Commonalty and Citizens, from all the Time aforesaid, had ‘ had and exercised, and ought and had been accustomed to have ‘ and exercise, the Office of Measurer, and the measuring of all
‘ and singular Coals, and Grains of every Kind, and also of all ‘ Kinds of Salt, and all Kinds of Apples, Pears, Plums, and other ‘ Fruits whatsoever, and of all eatable Roots of every Kind, and ‘ also of Onions, and of all other Merchandizes, Wares, and Things ‘ whatsoever measurable, and the measuring of the same what‘ soever, landing, conveyed, or brought in or to the Port of the ‘ said City of London upon the said Water of Thames, in every ‘ Ship, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel whatsoever, floating, laden, ‘ remaining, or being on every Part of the same Water of Thames,
‘ and upon every Bank or every Shore or every Wharf of the same ‘ Water of Thames, which should happen to stop, remain, and be ‘ delivered or set down from the aforesaid Bridge of the said ‘ Town of Staines in the said County of Middlesex Westwards to ‘ the aforesaid London Bridge, and thence to the aforesaid Place ‘ called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yenleete, towards the ‘ Sea and Eastwards, and in the Medway, and in the said Port of ‘ the City of London aforesaid, exercising and occupying the same ‘ Office of Measurer and the measuring aforesaid by the Mayor of ‘ the City aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his ‘ Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, and also by all the same ‘ Time had had and taken and ought and had been accustomed ‘ to have and take, to their own Use by the Mayor of the City ‘ aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, ‘ or by his sufficient Deputies, all the Wages, Rewards, Fees, and ‘ Profits to the same Office of Measurer belonging and apper‘ taining; and nevertheless the same Mayor and Commonalty and ‘ Citizens then a short Time ago were disturbed therein, and ‘ were unjustly hindered in some of the Measurings aforesaid,
‘ and especially in the aforesaid Office of the measuring of Coals, ‘ supposing that that Office to the same Mayor and Commonalty ‘ and Citizens did not anciently pertain, nor did still pertain or ‘ belong, by any lawful Grant or Prescription, where in Truth it ‘ plainly and manifestly appeared that that Office and all the other ‘ Premises did anciently pertain and belong, and did then of Right ‘ pertain to them, and that they had lawfully taken, had, and en‘ joyed, and ought to take, have, and enjoy, the Wages, Rewards, ‘ Fees, and Profits thereof; His said Majesty, in order to put an ‘ end to all Controversy in that Behalf then and at all Times there‘ after, and to set aside all Doubt, and to the Intent that the same ‘ Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens might more securely, ‘ freely, and quietly have, use, exercise, and enjoy the Offices ‘ aforesaid and every of them, and the measuring aforesaid, and ‘ the Wages, Rewards, Fees, and Profits to the same Offices and ‘ measuring belonging, and all and singular the other recited ‘ Premises, to them and their Successors for ever, without Con‘ tradiction, Let, or Impeachment in anywise of His said Majesty ‘ or of His Heirs or Successors, the Admirals of England, Jus‘ tices, Escheators, Bailiffs, Sheriffs, or other Officers or Ministers ‘ of

‘ of His said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, whomsoever; and ‘ because it was His said Majesty’s Pleasure to show Favour to ‘ the same Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens in this Behalf, ‘ and rather to strengthen, increase, and amplify than diminish
 ‘ the Liberties, Franchises, Jurisdictions, Privileges, and Customs ‘ of the City aforesaid, His said Majesty, of His especial Grace ‘ and certain Knowledge and mere Motion, did, for Him, His ‘ Heirs and Successors, approve, allow, ratify, and confirm by the ‘ said Charter now in recital all and singular the Offices and ‘ Measurings aforesaid, and the other recited Premises, and the ‘ Wages, Rewards, Fees, and Profits thereof belonging or per‘ taining, and the Uses and Customs aforesaid, to the said Mayor ‘ and Commonalty and Citizens of the City aforesaid, and their ‘ Successors; and further, of His said Majesty’s especial Grace, ‘ and of His certain Knowledge and mere Motion, His said Ma‘ jesty had granted, and by the said Charter now in recital, for ‘ Him, His Heirs and Successors, did grant, to the aforesaid ‘ Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, that ‘ they the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and ‘ their Successors, might from Time to Time for ever exercise
 ‘ and execute the aforesaid Office of Bailiff and the Conservancy ‘ of the Water of Thames by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for ‘ the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his suf‘ ficient Deputies, in, upon, and about the same Water of Thames, ‘ (to wit,) from the aforesaid Bridge of the Town of Staines in ‘ the County of Middlesex Westwards to London Bridge, and ‘ thence to a certain Place called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, ‘ otherwise Yenleete, towards the Sea and Eastwards, and in the ‘ Medway, and in the Port of the City of London aforesaid, and ‘ upon every Bank and upon every Shore and every Wharf of the ‘ same Water of Thames within the Limits and Bounds aforesaid,
 ‘ and in, upon, and about each and every of the same, and to have,
 ‘ receive, collect, and enjoy all and singular the Wages, Rewards, ‘ Fees, and Profits to the same Office of Bailiff pertaining and ‘ belonging, to the proper Use of the same Mayor and Common‘ alty and Citizens, by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the ‘ Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his suf‘ ficient Deputies; and also, of His Majesty’s further especial ‘ Grace, and of His certain Knowledge and mere Motion, His ‘ said Majesty had granted, and by the said Charter now in recital, ‘ for Him, His Heirs and Successors, did grant, to the aforesaid ‘ Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, that ‘ they the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and ‘ their Successors, might peacefully and quietly from Time to ‘ Time for ever exercise and execute the aforesaid Office of ‘ Measurer of all and singular Coals, and all and singular Grains
 ‘ of every Kind, and of all Kinds of Salt, and all Kinds of Apples, ‘ Pears, Plums, and other Fruits whatsoever, and of all eatable ‘ Roots of every Kind, and also Onions, and all other Merchan‘ dizes, Wares, and Things whatsoever measurable, and the ‘ measuring of the same whatsoever, landed, conveyed, or brought ‘ in or to the Port of the said City of London upon the said Water ‘ of Thames, in every Ship, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel floating ‘ laden, remaining, or being on whatever Part of the same Water
 ‘ of

of Thames, and upon whatever Bank or whatever Shore or whatever Wharf of the same Water of Thames they should happen to stop, remain, be delivered, or set down, from the aforesaid Bridge of the said Town of Staines in the said County of Middlesex Westwards to the aforesaid London Bridge, and thence to the aforesaid Place called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yenleete, towards the Sea and Eastwards, and in the Medway, and in the said Port of the City of London, by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, and might have, receive, collect, and enjoy all and singular the Fees, Wages, Rewards, and Profits whatsoever pertaining and belonging to the same Offices and Measurements, and to every or either of them, to the Use of the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, to be received and perceived by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, without Impeachment of His said Majesty, or His Heirs or Successors, or any Officers, Bailiffs, or Ministers of His said Majesty, or His Heirs and Successors, or the Admirals of England of His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or other Subjects of His said Majesty or His Successors whomsoever, or of any Grant by His said Majesty or His Heirs or Successors to be made to the contrary; to have, hold, and enjoy the Office aforesaid, and all and singular the other Premises, with all and singular Wages, Rewards, Fees, Profits, and Appurtenances whatsoever belonging or pertaining to the same Offices and every or either of them, to the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, for ever, to be exercised and executed by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, during the Time of his Mayoralty, or by his sufficient Deputies, without rendering or making any Account thereof or any other Thing to His said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, so that no other Bailiff or Conservator of the Water aforesaid, or Measurer of Coals, Grains, Salt, Apples, Pears, Plums, eatable Roots, Onions, or other Merchandizes, Wares, or other Thing or Things above mentioned, be or in anywise intermeddle himself in the Premises or any of them; and His said Majesty, willing to show more abundant Favour to the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, of His said Majesty's special Grace, and of His certain Knowledge and mere Motion, His said Majesty did, for Himself, His Heirs and Successors, grant, and by the said Charter now in recital confirm, to the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, that although the same Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, or their Predecessors, in any Case arising thitherto, had not fully used or had perchance abused the Offices aforesaid, or any one or other of the Offices or Measurements aforesaid, or any Thing or Things to the same or either of them pertaining or belonging, nevertheless the same Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and their Successors, might thenceforth freely, quietly, and peacefully enjoy and use the Offices aforesaid so not used, or abused, and every of them, and the Measurements aforesaid so not used, or abused, and every of them, without Let or Hindrance of His

Charter,
12 James I.

' said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, the Admirals of England
 ' of His said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, the Justices, Es-
 ' cheators, Sheriffs, or other Bailiffs, Officers, or Ministers of His
 ' said Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, whomsoever; any Sta' tutes or Ordinances passed, or Judgments rendered, or any
 ' Charters of His said Majesty's Progenitors or Predecessors, in ' past Times made or granted to the contrary, notwithstanding
 ' that express Mention was not made of the true yearly Value
 ' of or any other Value or Certainty of the Premises or any of ' them, or of any Gifts or Grants made before those Times by His ' said Majesty or any of His Progenitors or Predecessors to the ' aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of ' London aforesaid, and not made in the said Charter now in
 ' recital, or any Statute, Act, Ordinance, Provision, Proclamation,
 ' or Restriction, to the contrary thereof, thitherto had, made,
 ' passed, ordained, or provided, or any other Thing, Cause, or
 ' Matter whatsoever, in anywise notwithstanding: And whereas
 ' by another Charter of His said Majesty King James the First,
 ' bearing Date the Fifteenth Day of December in the Twelfth Year
 ' of His Reign, after reciting that so great was the Force of His
 ' said Majesty's Love towards the City of London, His Royal
 ' Chamber, that whatever in His said Majesty lied, which he had ' deemed necessary or useful to the Mayor and Commonalty and ' Citizens of His same City, He had freely of His own Mind been
 ' inclined to give and bestow it upon the same Mayor and Com-
 ' monalty and Citizens of the said City, and His said Majesty's
 ' Pleasure was, not only to confirm but also to amplify the Grants
 ' in all past Times made by His Predecessors to His City of ' London; therefore, when, among other Things, it was suffi' ciently manifest to His said Majesty that the same Mayor and
 ' Commonalty and Citizens of His City of London, from all Times
 ' whereof the Memory of Man was not to the contrary, had had
 ' and lawfully exercised, and ought to have and exercise, the ' Office of Measurer and the measuring of all and singular Coals,
 ' of whatever Kind, Nature, and Species soever they were, landed,
 ' conveyed, or brought in or to the Port of the said City upon the ' Water of Thames, in every Ship, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel
 ' whatsoever, floating, laden, remaining, or being on every Part ' of the same Water of Thames, and upon every Bank or every ' Shore or every Wharf of the same Water of Thames, from the ' Bridge of the Town of Staines in the County of Middlesex West-
 ' wards to London Bridge aforesaid, and thence to a certain Place
 ' called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yenlecte, towards ' the Sea and Eastwards, and in the Methway, and in the Port of ' the City of London, nevertheless a Question had then very lately
 ' arisen whether the weighing of Coals brought within the Limits
 ' and Bounds aforesaid, together with the measuring of Coals,
 ' pertained to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said
 ' City; His said Majesty therefore, in order to put an end to all
 ' Controversy in that Behalf then and at all Times thereafter, and
 ' to set aside all Doubt, and to the Intent that the same Mayor
 ' and Commonalty and Citizens of the City aforesaid might have,
 ' use, perceive, and enjoy as well the weighing as the measuring,
 ' and every or either of them, and the Wages, Fees, and Profits

usual for the same, of His said Majesty's especial Grace and certain Knowledge and mere Motion, had given, granted, and confirmed, and by the said Charter now in recital, for His said Majesty, and His Heirs and Successors, did give, grant, and confirm, to His beloved the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London aforesaid, and their Successors, the weighing of all and singular Coals called Stone Coals, Pit Coals, Earth Coals, and all other Coals weighable, of what Kind, Nature, and Species soever they were, landed, conveyed, or brought in or to the Port of the said City of London upon the aforesaid Water of Thames, in every Ship, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel whatsoever, floating, laden, remaining, or being on either Side of the same Water of Thames, and upon every Bank or every Shore or every Wharf of the said Water of Thames, from the Bridge of the Town of Staines in the County of Middlesex aforesaid Westwards to London Bridge aforesaid, and thence to the aforesaid Place called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yenlecte, towards the Sea, and in the Medway, and in the Port of London aforesaid, to be sold or exposed to Sale, and also the Fees, Wages, Rewards, Profits, and Advantages usual or thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, to be exercised by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, and by the Deputies, Officers, and Ministers of the same Mayor; and further, of His said Majesty's more abundant Grace, and of His certain Knowledge and mere Motion, His said Majesty had given, granted, and confirmed, and by the Charter now in recital, for Him, His Heirs and Successors, did give, grant, and confirm, to the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City aforesaid, and their Successors, that they and their Successors for ever might have and enjoy, and should and might be able to have and enjoy, the Office of the weighing of all and singular Coals called Stone Coals, Pit Coals, Earth Coals, and all other Coals weighable, of whatever Kind, Nature, or Species soever they were, landed, conveyed, or brought in or to the Port of the said City of London upon the aforesaid Water of Thames, in every Ship, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel whatsoever, floating, laden, remaining, or being on every Part of the same Water of Thames, and upon every Bank or every Shore or every Wharf of the same Water of Thames, from the Bridge of the Town of Staines in the County of Middlesex aforesaid Westwards to London Bridge aforesaid, and thence to the aforesaid Place called Yendall, otherwise Yenland, otherwise Yenlecte, towards the Sea, and in the Medway, and in the Port of London aforesaid, to be sold or exposed to Sale, and also all the Fees, Wages, Rewards, Profits, Advantages, and Emoluments whatsoever usual or to the same Office belonging or in anywise pertaining, to be exercised by the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the Time being, and by the Deputies, Officers, and Ministers of the same Mayor; and also of His said Majesty's further especial Grace, and of His certain Knowledge and mere Motion, His said Majesty had appointed, ordained, and made, and by the said Charter now in recital, for His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, did appoint, ordain, create, and make the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London

 ‘ the same Limits, that neither they nor any of them should ‘ thenceforth deliver or set down, nor presume or cause or permit ‘ such Coals called Sea Coals, Pit Coals, Stone Coals, and Earth ‘ Coals, or other Coals, of whatsoever Kind they were, to be ‘ unladen, discharged, delivered, or set down, from or out of the ‘ same Ships, Boats, or other Vessels, being within the Limits and ‘ Wharf, Bank, or Shore on either Side of the same Water of ‘ Thames within the Limits aforesaid, or otherwise to be carried ‘ away or set down out of the same Ships, Boats, or other Vessels, ‘ before the Mayor of His City aforesaid for the Time being ‘ should have received certain Notice of the Quantity of all such ‘ Coals so brought in any Ship, Boat, or other Vessel whatsoever ‘ within the Limits aforesaid, and should have given Direction ‘ for unlading the like Coals, and for the weighing or measuring ‘ of the like Coals, according to the Nature and Quality of ‘ the same Coals, to the Intent that the same Mayor of the ‘ City aforesaid for the Time being, according to the Duty of ‘ his Office, could and might be able to render a better and ‘ readier Reckoning and Account to His said Majesty, His Heirs ‘ and Successors, of what Quantity of Coals of every Kind from ‘ Time to Time had been brought into the Port of His City of ‘ London aforesaid, and within the Limits aforesaid, and in what ‘ Manner the aforesaid City of London, His Royal Chamber, ‘ and the Parts and Places near and immediately adjoining the ‘ Port of the same City, were from Time to Time and at all ‘ Times provided, if Occasion should so require, and at any ‘ Time His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should ‘ demand the same of the Mayor of the City aforesaid for the ‘ Time being; and also to the Intent that the Money to be taken,

 ‘ and the other Profits due to His said Majesty, His Heirs and ‘ to be brought within the Limits aforesaid, (if any there should ‘ be,) might be better answered for and paid to the Officers and ‘ Ministers of His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to the ‘ Use of His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, on pain of ‘ Contempt of His Royal Command, and of incurring all such ‘ Pains and Penalties as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm ‘ of England could be inflicted against the like Offenders for ‘ Disregard and Contempt; and also reciting, that because it was ‘ notoriously well known that the River Thames was so necessary, ‘ convenient, and useful to the City of London aforesaid, that ‘ without the said River the said City could not long subsist, ‘ flourish, and continue, and that by the forestalling, engrossing,

 ‘ and regrating of Coals brought in or to the Port of the said ‘ City upon the Water of Thames aforesaid, the like Coals were ‘ rendered dearer, to the great Loss and Prejudice as well of His ‘ said Majesty as of His Subjects; and further reciting, that divers ‘ ill-disposed Persons, looking more to their own private Ad‘ vantage

' vantage and Profit than to the general and public Good and
 ' Benefit of His City aforesaid, and by no means regarding the ' Conservancy of the same River, did with Impunity, and then
 ' daily, usually sell Coals and other Things of that Sort by Retail
 ' in a less Quantity, in Boats commonly called Lighters, and other
 ' Vessels, floating, placed, and being in and upon the Water of ' Thames aforesaid, after the like Coals had been unladen from
 ' the Ships and other Vessels which at first brought the same
 ' Coals and other Things of that Sort within the Limits and ' Bounds abovesaid, upon the Water of Thames aforesaid, which ' said Persons made the Boats commonly called Lighters, and
 ' other Vessels, as it were their common Shops and Warehouses,
 ' and in the same did daily hold, upon the Water of Thames afore-
 ' said, a common Market for the Sale of the like Coals and other ' Things of that Sort, having One, Two, Three, and sometimes
 ' more Boats commonly called Lighters, and other Vessels, lying
 ' and affixed one to the other in the River Thames aforesaid, by ' which the forestalling, Monopoly, and regrating aforesaid
 ' grew and increased every Day, to the great Deception, Loss,
 ' and Oppression as well of the rich as the poor, and the Prices of
 ' the Coals and other Things were augmented and rendered
 ' dearer; and that by the frequent Importation, carrying away,
 ' measuring, and weighing the like Coals and other Things of that ' Sort into and out of the same Boats commonly called Lighters,
 ' and other Vessels, a great many of the same Coals and other
 ' Filth very often fell and were thrown into the River Thames, to ' the great Nuisance and choking up of the Stream of the same
 ' River, and the aforesaid Boats and other Vessels so placed

 ' same Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City afore-
 ' said, and their Successors, should fully enjoy the Premises
 ' aforesaid, His said Majesty therefore, by the said Charter now
 ' in recital, did declare and signify His Will and Pleasure, and ' will, and for Him, His Heirs and Successors, grant and agree,
 ' to and with the aforesaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens
 ' of the City aforesaid, and their Successors, that the same Mayor
 ' and
