

21st March 1865. I have just received the number of Holt's English Standard &c. by that the the American is thick that they are young, &c. - is not that is worthy to us, tho' I don't imagine it to mean I don't think we cannot be, of ourselves, when we are The whole tone of Particularist debate ~~is~~ ^{shows} pleasant & re-satisfying charge, - which we readily accept. I believe We know it will be met frankly on the part of our Government, if sincere, will rebel in the admission of American claims for damages done by "Anglo-Rebel" privateers on + high seas.

This is the day of the Raising of the Old Flag First Semester! Only think of the fact that Garrison in Geo. Thompson have gone further, by visitation of Secular Standard of the War Department, - the Nation's guests
We have, to suppose had such changes. - In this time Literature, you will find the leading articles (by myself on that subject. I should like to know just how it shows you. I have directed an extra copy sent to Alfred, that may have that, as well as his own letter. - at the you for recent papers, and him for the aid of the war which I duly found here, on my return some last week.

You will doubtless be ahead of any news I communicate. The President has been to Richmond held audiences of different persons in Jeff Davis's late mansion - walked thru its streets - receiving a unexpected by our own military authorities there - he only a small attendance of men, &c. but with an crowd of people, tho' they'd covered & full of delight, & they most extravagant outpouring of expressions of it. He had coloured? Washington, & made a characteristic speech the subject of Reconstruction. I think I hope you will see.