FROM TEXAS.

By the arrival of the steam-packet Berah Bernhee from Gaiveston, we have received our vegular files of Texas papers to a late date. They contain nothing of particular moment.

At Gaiveston a few days ago a mean amost George W. Wells had a quarrel with one Joseph W. Pilast, and was stabbed to the heart by Pilant, and instantly killed. Pilant was arrested, but subsequently admitted to beil in the sum of $99,000 premissory notes of the Republic.

At Ban Louis an individual named Stephen Hard was lately killed. The particulars are hot given.
