BUSY SESSION IS PROMISED

MUCH BUSINESS FOR THE STREETS COMMITTEE

Trouble Over Specifications for Asphalt Pavement Contracts Will Be Dealt With

A considerable quantity of important business is slated for consideration at this evening's meeting of the streets committee of the city council. The city solicitor, F. H. McDiarmid, will bring before the board the matter of the faulty specifications on which contracts for asphalt paving were recently let. Moore & Whittington will present a petition from property owners in the vicinity of Point Ellice, favorable to their application for permission to erect a sash and door factory in that locality, and some date may be fixed for the special meeting of the council to consider the interim report of John F. Hellwell, of Vancouver, expert actuary, engaged to make an examination of the accounting methods at the city hall. The proposed repairs to the Smith's Hill reservoir, the plans for the sea wall of the foreshore, along Dallas road, plans for the new Isolation hospital and the adequacy of the supply of wood blocks for Douglas and Yates street pavements are other questions which, in all likelihood, will be discussed.

The more important matter, of course, is that relative to the contracts for asphalt pavements which were recently awarded to the Warwick Company. The facts of the case were set out in an article appearing in last evening's issue of the Times. It is probable that the Warwick Company will be represented by counsel at this evening's meeting of the committee.

In respect to Moore & Whittington's application for a building permit, it will be recalled that at last Monday evening's meeting of the council a unanimously signed petition was presented by property owners, in the vicinity of Bridge street, protesting against the application. It is claimed by the protesting firm that this petition does not represent the sentiment of those most directly interested, and this evening a counter petition will be presented.

It is claimed by Messrs. Moore & Whittington that the place they have chosen for their sash and door factory is a site on Bridge street, adjacent to the small bay which runs in from the upper harbor, is the natural location for all such industries; and the members of the committee are believed to be in accord with this contention. In view of this it is thought likely that at this evening's meeting orders will be issued to the building inspector to issue the necessary permit forthwith.

The question of commencing at an early date the work of repairing the reservoir on Smith's Hill may come up for discussion on the usual weekly report from the city engineer. That official is anxious that the work should be completed with the smallest possible delay, the dry season being now practically over and the increased fire risk owing to the reservoir being out of commission being a matter of concern.

Though tenders for the construction of the sea wall at Dallas road have already been invited on plans drawn by the city engineer and approved by the chief engineer of the public works department of the provincial government, the plans have not as yet come before the committee for consideration. Some members, notably Ald. Langley and Hammerman, having expressed a desire to inspect the plans, will probably be on hand to-night. While this may satisfy the curiosity of the committee, the city solicitor points out that the plans may not now be altered except with the approval of the engineer of the public works department, the government being a party to the agreement by which the execution of the work is made possible.

In regard to Mr. Hellwell's report, it may be mentioned that at the last meeting of the council, when it was submitted, on motion of Ald. Fullerton it was decided that as the document was a most important one a special meeting of the council should be summoned to deal with it. No date for the meeting was fixed, and this may be done this evening.

Wood blocks are now being delivered in ample quantity to the men employed in the paving work in progress on Douglas street, the difficulty of inspection having been overcome to a large extent through the personal efforts of the city engineer. An ample supply of cement is now also on hand, so there are no obstacles to the speedy completion of this important civic undertaking.

LAURA SECORD STATE

(Special to the Times.)
St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 23.—The statue in memory of Laura I. Secord, the heroine of Queenstown Heights, is now completed and in position on the heights ready for unveiling. It bears the following inscription: "This monument has been erected by the government of Canada to Laura Secord, who saved her husband's life in the battle on these heights October 13th, 1812, and who risked her own life in carrying to Capt. Fitzborn the information in his gift which brought about the victory of Beaver Dams, July 24th, 1812."

IGNORE DEMAND OF STRIKERS

Montreal, Sept. 23.—A meeting of master plumbers unanimously voted to ignore the demand of 40 union men who struck on Saturday. They declared the demand for a closed shop was neither just nor acceptable.

MORAL REFORM AGAIN TO FORE

CITIZENS INTERVIEW POLICE COMMISSION

Evils of the "Restricted District" Portrayed—Authorities Urged to Take Drastic Action

That moral conditions in Victoria are far from satisfactory, that the police commissioners are displaying a deplorable laxity in this connection, that the "restricted district" is working to the destruction of the welfare of a great portion of the members of the community and that the matter should at once receive the attention of the proper authorities, were allegations made at a meeting in the city hall last evening under the auspices of the Voters' League and embodied in resolutions which were passed.

Mayor Morley, as chairman of the board of police commissioners, presided, and other members of the board were also present. It was decided that the press should be excluded from the meeting.

There were numerous speeches made, explanatory of the objects of the meeting, a number of them being of a most sensational character. It was charged that conditions in the "restricted district" were such as not only to constitute a menace to the moral welfare of the city but to its health as well. Allusion was made to the disclosures made at the royal commission held some months ago, presided over by Judge Lampman, to the effect that the "white slave" traffic is practically controlled by Chinese; and the failure of the authorities to take steps under the laws which are on the statute books to stamp out this terrible evil was roundly denounced.

AUTO CRASHES INTO TELEGRAPH POLE

Driver Probably Fatally Injured in Accident on Parkway at Mineola, L. I.

(Times Leased Wire.)

Mineola, L. I., Sept. 23.—George Robertson, driving a Benz car on the Parkway at sixty miles an hour to-day, lost control of his machine and was probably fatally injured. He was taken to a hospital, where it was found his right arm was broken, his collar bone broken and his skull probably fractured. He was internally injured.

Stephen Reynolds, mechanic, was less seriously injured.

The accident occurred during a preparatory spin for the Vanderbilt cup race, October 1. Twenty-five entrants were on the Parkway to-day making final preparations for the coming event. Robertson's Benz was rounding a curve at Massapequa going at top speed. He applied the brakes but they failed to work. The car skidded, crashed into a telegraph pole and Robertson was thrown head long through a fence into the field beyond. He was unconscious when picked up. Reynolds was under the wrecked automobile. He was extricated with difficulty but did not appear to have been seriously injured. Robertson was soon revived. He complained of intense internal pains. He pleaded not to be taken to a hospital, wishing not to unnecessarily alarm his wife. His request was disregarded, however. Dr. Wood, who examined Robertson, pronounced his injuries serious.

ACCUSED OF ROBBING SLUICE BOXES

Two Men, Arrested at Seattle, Will Be Taken to Nome for Trial

(Times Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—Although both protest their innocence, John Tyberg and Marius Johansen, both miners recently arrived here from Nome, will start back for that camp to-day in custody of Special Federal Agent J. F. Warran to stand trial for the alleged theft of about $15,000 in gold. The men were formerly employed by the Pioneer Gold Mining Company and are charged with stealing the gold from sluice boxes in which they were working.

Johansen was arrested yesterday, and Tyberg was taken a week before. Both men have been shadowed by Pinkerton men since they landed from the Nome steamer ten days ago. The men will go back to Nome without extradition, leaving on the last steamer of the season which leaves Seattle to-night.

NOT SEEKING OFFICE.

(Special to the Times.)
Quebec, Sept. 23.—Among the passengers who arrived yesterday by the steamer Royal George was Senator Dandurand. Hon. Mr. Dandurand stated that the government had no position in its gift which would tempt him for the moment to sacrifice his independence. The Senator added that he was always disposed to serve the public, but in his own way and in his own independent capacity. He thought that the statement would set at rest the rumors which now and again appear in the press that he is an aspirant for the commission in Fraser, held by the late Hector Fabre.

"FOR THE HONOR OF VICTORIA"

JUBILEE EXHIBITION NEEDS ONLY PATRONAGE

Energetic Officials of Executive Committee and Advisory Board Perfecting Arrangements

Every local member of the executive committee and advisory board of the B. C. Agricultural Association is now actively engaged in perfecting arrangements for the fall fair, which will be opened on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. These two bodies consist of the most energetic and hard-working officials that have ever represented this organization.

The annual meeting of the Agricultural Association will be held on Friday morning, commencing at 11 o'clock at the exhibition grounds, when officers for the ensuing year will be appointed to manage the affairs of this organization. The secretary requests that all members take note of this date and attend in large numbers.

Arrangements have been made with Dr. Rutherford, live stock commissioner for the Dominion of Canada, to give an address on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the city hall. All stockmen who will be exhibiting at the fair are invited to be present and hear Dr. Rutherford, who is an excellent speaker, on a popular stockman's topic.

George Sangster, the secretary, announces that he will move from the offices in the Law Chambers on Saturday morning and take up quarters at the grounds, and thereafter any persons who wish to make any inquiries will kindly ring him up in his new offices.

J. A. Robb, who is in charge of carrying out the decorating of the show building, announces that great progress is being followed out by him, the numerous seats for the public being decorated with flags, and the boxes which have been sold are being arranged by the owners with the colors of the club, red, green and gold, and flowers. All the wood work in the large edifice is being covered with bunting, flags and numerous rosettes.

MANY ALDERMEN WILL VISIT CANADA

Result of Trip of the Queen's Own Rifles to the Old Country

(Special to the Times.)

Aldershot, Sept. 23.—Sir Henry Pellatt has written to thank the court of London Common Council for the luncheon and reception tendered to the Queen's Own Rifles at the Guildhall, "which," he says, "formed the crown of one of the most remarkable experiences any Canadian regiment ever received."

J. R. Jakeman, who moved the resolution in common council to entertain the regiment at Guildhall, says one of the results of the impressions about Canada derived by the 150 members of the corporation who acted as hosts on that occasion will be the visit of many members of this representative body of London's influential men to Canada with the object of seeing the country for themselves.

IS SOOKE TO HAVE RAILWAY?

INTERESTING RUMOR IS AFLOAT TO-DAY

Story Going the Rounds That Provincial Government Will Shortly Announce Arrangements

The report is current to-day that the provincial government may shortly be expected to make an announcement to the effect that arrangements have been made to give districts on the west coast of the island the far as Otter Point railway connection. In well-informed quarters the story is accepted as a very probable one.

Students of the situation on the island arising out of the relations between the government and the Canadian Northern Railway Company agree that Premier McEwen finds himself in a very embarrassing position owing to the determination of the company to abandon the proposal that a connection should be made with Barkley Sound via the West Coast, the company choosing instead to go north and via Cowichan Lake and they anticipate that should a railway service be given to the Sooke district it will be with the idea of appeasing the settlers there, who are disappointed with the turn of events in connection with the plans of Mackenzie & Mann on the island.

In some quarters it is thought that should it develop that Sooke district is to have railway connection it will be a service supplied by the B. C. Electric railway rather than one supplied by the Canadian Northern, and that the line will not run further than Otter Point at the most. It is pointed out that the B. C. Electric Railway Company has already a right-of-way for its Jordan River transmission line cleared for a considerable distance to these points on the west coast, and that at a comparatively small expenditure the car service could be inaugurated.

In this connection it may be mentioned that John Jardine, J. P. for Esquimalt district, speaking at Metchoin fair on Tuesday evening last, informed his constituents present that he had the best authority for assuring them that at a very early date a railway service would be given to that San Juan districts. Mr. Jardine went on to portray what this would mean for one of the best fruit-producing areas on Vancouver Island.

TO FIX BLAME FOR COLLISION

GOVERNOR DECLARES PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR ACCIDENT MUST GO TO PRISON

Investigation Into Indiana Wreck

(Times Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—The persons responsible for the horrible wreck must go to prison, leave no stone unturned until the blame is placed. This was Governor Marshall's emphatic declaration to-day when he discussed the Kingland wreck on the Wabash valley interurban line in which 40 persons lost their lives.

Marshall is determined that the responsible persons shall stand punishment for the tragedy, and that the affair shall not be whitewashed. He today recommended a meeting of the Indiana railroad commission and suggested that the officials of the Wabash Valley road and the employees on duty all along the line at the time of the wreck be examined.

Citizens of Bluffton, where nineteen of the persons killed resided, are preparing resolutions demanding a thorough sifting of the affair. The resolutions will be forwarded to the governor.

HOME FOR FRIENDLESS

(Special to the Times.)
Winnipeg, Sept. 23.—Alex. Macdonald, wholesale grocer, has purchased the beautiful property of James Mitchell, Victoria, his former home located just outside the north city limits, for $35,000. Mr. Macdonald has handed it over to the home for friendless as a gift.

MAY GRANT DEMAND

(Special to the Times.)
St. John, Sept. 23.—The probability is that the sardine fishermen, who met here some days ago with reference to the decrease from $19 to $8 and $6 per hoghead by the canners, will get their demands acceded to and will get the $8 rate. A prominent local fish dealer is authority for the statement. A number of boats from the canneries are now in port and it is a matter of $8 or nothing.

FOR LONG SERVICE AND GOOD CONDUCT

(Special to the Times.)
Ottawa, Sept. 23.—The undermentioned non-commissioned officers of the permanent force have been granted medals for long service and good conduct: Warrant Officer Andrew McCully, Canadian ordnance corps; Warrant Officer Henry Houghton Timmis, Canadian ordnance corps; Master Gunner, third class, Thomas Holmes, Royal Canadian garrison artillery; Squadron Sergeant-Major Harry Ashton, Royal Canadian mounted rifles; Company Sergeant-Major Geo. Arthur Clements, Royal Canadian engineers; Sgt. John Ellesworth Gould, Royal Canadian regiment; Corporal Louis Etienne, Royal Canadian regiment.

BRITAIN AND CANADIAN TRADE

AUSTIN CHAMBERLAIN SPEAKS AT BIRMINGHAM

Question of Treaties Must Be Dealt With at Next Imperial Council

(Special to the Times.)
Birmingham, Sept. 23.—The Right Hon. Austin Chamberlain, former chancellor of the exchequer, declared in a speech here that what he had prophesied had happened. The Canadian government, and none could blame or criticize them, had negotiated, and were still negotiating, commercial treaties with foreign countries which they could have made with Great Britain if she had been ready to grasp the opportunity. It would be deplorable, he said, if the next Imperial conference should be followed to pass without anything being done in that connection.

Sir James Whitney's Views.
Sir James Whitney, premier of Ontario, interviewed by the Standard of Empire, expressed the opinion that the Imperial union had been seriously prejudiced by the conclusion of commercial treaties with Canada with foreign countries, prior to the conclusion of understanding with the Mother Country on trade affairs.

Visitor Interviewed.
Bristol, Sept. 23.—T. B. Johnston, who has just returned from Canada, emphasizes the tariff reform question as the first thing Canadians spoke of. They were continually asking how long it would be before England made up her mind.

FOURTEEN NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH

Muzzles of 12-Inch Guns on U. S. Battleship Burst During Practice

(Times Leased Wire.)
Aboard Battleship Georgia, via wireless to Portsmouth, Va., Sept. 23.—Fourteen men in the forward starboard turret of the battleship Georgia to-day narrowly escaped death when the muzzles of the 12-inch rifles, being fired in battle practice, burst. The men were stunned and hurled to the floor of the turret by the concussion, the explosion and the flying metal of the barrels by the shield of the turret itself. Though they lay stunned on the floor while the wind drove the fumes of the burning powder into the steel enclosure, they were rescued by their comrades on shipboard before they were overcome by the poisonous gases. None were severely hurt.

The gun barrels were shattered by the explosion and were torn and twisted, but the breech blocks remained intact, preventing the force of the explosion being directed into the turret.

The gunners showed great coolness after the accident. As soon as they had recovered from the shock of the accident they volunteered to fire the other big guns of the ship.

The 12-inch guns of the Georgia, it is reported, are old. The battleship had been newly equipped. An investigation into the cause of the accident will be undertaken at once by the ship's officers.

TROUBLE IN CABINET IN SOUTH AFRICA

Mr. Merriman Will Be Asked to Form Ministry if Botha Retires

Capetown, Sept. 23.—After all it is probable Premier Botha will resign. Mr. Hall refuses to remain in office, and unless a strong substitute other than Mr. Merriman can be found, General Botha retires. In that case a majority of the members of the cabinet are likely to go with him. Only the more recalcitrant members would stay with Mr. Merriman who it is expected will be asked to form a government if necessary.

SENT TO PENITENTIARY.

(Special to the Times.)
Newcastle, N. B., Sept. 23.—Anthony and Basil Vantour, brothers, have been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary on the charge of theft from a store in Rogersville.

TRIED TO SMUGGLE WHISKEY.

(Special to the Times.)
Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 23.—Because he was caught trying to smuggle whiskey across the Sault Ste. Marie river into Michigan from the Canadian Sault, John Flynn was fined $200 and costs or sixty days in jail.

DECLARES DIVIDEND.

(Special to the Times.)
London, Sept. 23.—The Western Canada Investment Company has declared a dividend of 3 per cent. for the half year.

AVIATOR CHAVEZ FALLS TO EARTH

AIRSHIP WRECKED AFTER FLYING OVER ALPS

Birdman Sustains Serious Injuries—Italian Lands 25 Miles From Milan

(Times Leased Wire.)
Brieg, Switzerland, Sept. 23.—After three failures George Chavez, the Peruvian aviator, to-day successfully negotiated the Simplon Pass at an altitude of 7,000 feet in his monoplane in the flight to Milan.

Chavez was last reported passing Simplon Kulm and appeared to be having trouble with adverse air currents, but in spite of them was making good headway.

Chavez and M. Weymann, the American aviator, have ascended each day since the twentieth but until to-day neither was able to get over the Simplon Pass.

Chavez Injured.
Milan, Sept. 23.—George Chavez lost control of his monoplane near Domodossola and was dashed to the earth and his machine demolished.

Chavez managed to gain temporary control of his machine when 200 feet above the earth. He was able to check materially its wild plunge.

Chavez's left leg and right thigh were broken. He was battered and bruised all over and may have been internally injured. He was unconscious when taken from the wreckage of his machine and taken to a hospital. Later he regained consciousness long enough to briefly tell the cause of the accident.

Chavez blamed the extreme cold for his fall.

"I lost control because I could not use my hands," he said. "It was freezing cold. I sat still so long that I became numb and did not realize my helplessness until I prepared to alight at Domodossola. I tried to manipulate my planes when suddenly the whole machine seemed to turn over and plunged earthward."

Chavez said he almost lost his senses the first few hundred feet of his fall, then he began working his levers. Suddenly, for no apparent reason, the machine righted itself then glided giddily toward earth. It struck with a crash and crumpled up a mass of wreckage. Chavez was thrown to one side clear of the engine. Chavez was in the air 45 minutes.

Thousands watched the start of the daring air navigator from the plateau overlooking the Rhine valley. Chavez executed a series of spirals with his monoplane until he had reached the level of Simplon pass. When he appeared a mere speck in the sky he headed toward the snow-capped peak and disappeared behind a rocky promontory, which stands out near the entrance of Salin Gorge.

Pallett, the Italian aviator, who started after Chavez, landed within 25 miles of Milan. He was so cold that he had to be lifted from his machine. Stimulants and warming drinks were given him. He announced he would continue to Milan as soon as he had rested. The remainder of the route is not difficult.

Weymann, the American, abandoned his attempt before reaching the pass. The aviators are trying for the $20,000 prize offered for the first flight over the Alps. The rules of the contest say that the flight must be made on any day between September 20 and October 1, but must be completed on the day that the start is made.

Pallett Again Aloft.
Rome, Sept. 23.—Disappointed that Milan have been received here, the Italian aviator Pallett is again aloft en route to Milan after resting two hours at Stresa. Advice from Brieg say that Weymann ascended at 2.45 to again attempt a crossing of Simplon pass. The weather there has improved greatly since Chavez and Pallett ascended.

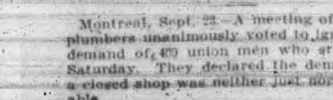

PRIESTS REBUKED.

(Special to the Times.)
St. Hyacinthe, Que., Sept. 23.—It is officially stated that the difficulty existing between the priests of the seminaries of St. Marie de Monnoir and the Bishop of St. Hyacinthe is finally settled. The secretary of Monnoir will stay in St. Johns till January next, when it will be transferred to Farnham, in the diocese of St. Hyacinthe. The brothers for a time declined to obey the bishop's order to move to St. Johns. They appealed to Rome, but were rebuked.

FARMER'S DEED.

WILL MEET TO-NIGHT

Annual Meeting to Be Held in Sir William Wallace Hall—Election of Officers

This evening, commencing at eight o'clock, the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors will be held in the Sir William Wallace Hall, Broad street.

R. B. McMicking, the president, will preside at the meeting and will submit his report during the evening.

C. C. McEwen, chairman of the building committee, will report on the progress made on the new building being erected on the corner of Blanchard and View streets.

At the conclusion of the business a short musical programme will be rendered.

Mrs. W. A. Gleason and Miss Scowen have kindly consented to contribute selections.

BIG INTEREST IN HOCKEY THIS YEAR

C. J. Paget-Ford Announces Enlarged Plans for Provincial Cup

The biggest year in hockey the Capital City has had in years is promised for the coming season, by C. J. Paget-Ford, of the Victoria hockey club.

He announces that the plans for the season are to take in more matches than have been played by the home clubs in the past.

The Victoria league intends to undertake the arrangement of many matches with outside teams, and to bring here as many as can be induced to play the local combinations on Capital City soil.

The James Bay club, is to be formed to-night. The Garrison and Victoria clubs will be formed and the players listed in a few days, and the schedule for the three home clubs drawn.

In the B. C. league there may be three Victoria clubs this year in place of two. If the Bays secure a strong team it will be entered for the provincial hockey cup, with the other Victoria clubs playing against the Vancouver and North Vancouver teams.

The association intends to communicate with all the outlying cities with a view to having clubs formed there and get them into the league.

The annual meeting of the B. C. league will be held in Victoria early next month, correspondence having passed between the Victoria officials and those on the mainland.

The date will be announced at the latest early next week.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Four Japanese Herring Fisheries on Newcastle Townsite Destroyed—Loss Exceeds $12,000.

(Special to the Times.) Nanaimo, Sept. 23.—An early hour fire this morning destroyed four Japanese herring fisheries adjoining the provincial jail on Newcastle townsite.

The buildings of the North Pacific Fish Company were partially destroyed, their entire stock of salt being burned.

WRECK CAUSED BY WASHOUT

EIGHTEEN PERSONS REPORTED KILLED

Score of Others Sustain Injuries—Passengers Asleep When Accident Occurs

(Times Lensed Wire.)

Norton, Kas., Sept. 23.—It is reported that 18 persons were killed today in the wreck of a Rock Island passenger train near Clayton, Kas.

It is as yet impossible to verify this report. Clayton is in an isolated section.

The tiny creek near Clayton, where the wreck occurred, is now a rushing torrent, following a cloudburst.

The roadbed has been washed out and a trestle leading to the little stream has given way.

The wreck was reported at Clayton by a brakeman and two passengers who ran nearly two miles.

Wrecking trains at once started out from Norton and Phillipsburg. The scene of the wreck is one of the wildest in the west.

Reports as to the number of persons who were killed, are definitely how many were injured, some of them severely. They are being cared for in the coaches that remained on the track.

The passengers were sleeping when the wreck occurred. Men and women were piled together in the aisles of the Pullmans and many women became hysterical.

Nearly everyone fought a way out of the car without waiting to dress. It was raining and many were soaked before they could get back into the cars.

The water in the creek is said to be so deep that the engine is submerged. The mail and baggage car plunged to the bottom and is partly buried in the hillside.

The day coach and the smoker side. The day coach is in the water and the first Pullman is poised perilously on the edge of the creek.

A few feet more and it would have followed the coach.

MANUFACTURE AND SALE OF EXPLOSIVE

British Expert Gives Outline of Recommendations at Conference at Ottawa

(Special to the Times.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—At a conference here to-day under the auspices of the mines department of representatives of provincial governments and private companies interested in the proposed legislation governing the manufacture and sale of explosives.

The British expert expressed his approval of the subject for the department, gave a summary of his recommendations to the government.

He recommends the establishment of a federal testing station at Ottawa, a better system of inspection and uniform license requirements from all manufacturers of explosives.

GRAND JURY INQUIRY

New York Police Commissioner Says He is Obeying Orders of Mayor Gaynor.

(Special to the Times.) New York, Sept. 23.—I am strictly obeying orders from my superior, Mayor Gaynor. If gambling houses are open, it is due to the fact that I am obeying orders from the mayor.

Give me back plain clothes men and I will clean the city.

Such in substance was said by Commissioner Baker's friends to be the reply he made to the grand jury when confronted with evidence collected by the deputy mayor that the police are dealing falsely with gambling at immoral houses.

Proceedings before the jury were secret and no verbatim report of them could be obtained, but they discussed freely in police circles last night.

FALL PROVES FATAL

Portland, Ore., Sept. 23.—Ninety-three-year-old John Mahar is dead and Miss Elizabeth Schiedeman, 17, who admits that she is responsible for his death to-day, probably will be taken into custody pending an investigation by the coroner.

According to the girl, Mahar advanced upon her with an open knife, threatening her, and she pushed him off the sidewalk in self defence.

He fell and his head struck a stone, fracturing his skull. Witnesses who saw the accident, corroborated the girl's story.

Mahar, it is said, has been in bad humor all day. He, with his wife, ran a boarding house on East Sixth street, where Miss Schiedeman was employed as a chambermaid.

OFFICIAL SUSPENDED

(Special to the Times.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—Sir Richard Cartwright, minister of trade and commerce, this morning suspended J. M. Bowell from his position as controller of Chinese immigration, pending further investigations into irregularities.

His investigation with the arrival of Chinese at Vancouver. The reason given for the suspension is Bowell's action in reinstating Chinese Interpreter Yipp On without reference to the department. Yipp On was replaced last week by another interpreter, consequent upon investigation under way by Detective Foster.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Holbrook, Ariz., Sept. 23.—With former Cavalrymen William Stewart and James Steele, U. S. A., wanted in Globe to answer to the charge of murdering E. A. Hillpot and Fred Kibbe, Sheriff Thompson, of Gila county, is en route to Holbrook from Adamana today.

EARL'S VIEWS ON DEFENCE

LORD BATHURST SPEAKS BEFORE CANADIAN CLUB

Is in Favor of Compulsory Military Service for Welfare of the Empire

That the Canadian Club of Victoria should study the aims and objects of the National Service League, a branch of which it is proposed shall be established in Canada, with the idea of having a similar organization formed here, was the advice tendered to-day by the Right Hon. Earl Bathurst, C. M. G., at the luncheon at the Broad street hall, under the auspices of the club.

The address of the Earl was Imperialistic in sentiment and he aroused much enthusiasm as he pictured the greater Empire yet to be when the governance of this marvellous imperial fabric shall have been put upon a firm and lasting foundation by the co-operation of the Overseas Dominions with the Motherland.

Personally, he expressed himself as heartily in favor of Colonial representation in the House of Lords, and believed that such arrangement would prove very valuable in helping towards a solution of the problems of Empire.

Dr. T. J. Jones, the president of the club, presided and the attendance was possibly the largest on record, every available seat being occupied.

Earl Bathurst was given a very hearty reception on being introduced by the chairman in a very happy speech. The guest of the day, in opening his address said the objects which the Canadian clubs had in view in encouraging all that was best in the interests of the Empire appealed to him very strongly.

He had himself always been in favor of the policy of a Greater Britain—a policy that all in the Overseas Dominions should keep close at heart, even if the greatest sacrifice, possibly life itself, had to be made.

(Applause.) He was, he regretted to say, not an orator. He had come to Canada purely for pleasure, and he had hoped that he would not be asked to make any speeches. The chairman had expressed the hope that he would be pleased with what he saw in this beautiful country.

With the city of Victoria. He was, he said, a very happy man. He had been to the British Columbia, was a land of limitless possibilities. One could not grasp the immensity of these possibilities in a hurried trip through the country.

One could imagine that in the not distant future, with a country so rich in natural resources and opportunities, there would be raised cities rivaling in population and wealth the greatest cities in America or even in the Old Land. (Applause.)

The distinguished speaker next dealt with the House of Lords, of which body he was a humble member, and he defended that assembly from its critics, contending that the lords, the greater proportion of them at all events, did noble service in the cause of their country and the Empire at large.

Earl Bathurst referred to an interview with himself which had appeared in a recent issue of a morning contemporary and an editorial in the issue of the day following. He would like to make several corrections of the statements which had been attributed to him.

As one of the directors of the London Morning Post, and therefore familiar with journalism and its work, he would have to ask the pardon of the editor of that paper for so doing, but there were some things in that interview which he felt in justice to himself he would like to set right.

He wanted first of all to correct the statement that he was in accord with the ideas of Norton Griffiths, on the question of the scheme for a central governing body for the Empire. He should not like it to be known that he was in sympathy with the ideas of Norton Griffiths, for the simple reason that he did not know what the ideas of Mr. Norton Griffiths were. (Laughter.)

He could tell them, however, what his own ideas were in regard to plans for the better consolidation of the Empire. He was in favor of colonial representation in the House of Lords. He believed that were colonialists to sit in the Upper House they would be able to render very valuable services to the Empire, whenever any questions came up affecting the countries from which they came. (Applause.)

Earl Bathurst took up the leading article which he referred to. The statement appeared there that he had said that "Canada had its peage." He did not say that. What he had said was that Canada had peers. He would not like the editor to believe him so ignorant of conditions in the overseas dominions as to think that peers were not peers of Canada. (Laughter and applause.)

"There is another matter to which I must allude," said his lordship. "The other day there appeared in that paper the portrait of a lady said to be Lady Bathurst. Gentlemen, that picture was no more like Lady Bathurst than I am. (Loud laughter.) I know who the lady was. It was the picture of the same lady which several American papers reproduced as that of Lady Bathurst. (Renewed laughter.) Perhaps it is unfortunate for Lady Bathurst that she does not distribute her portraits broadcast as freely as she might do. Another American paper made an even worse mistake—reproducing the photo of the mother-in-law of the lady whose picture was in the paper I refer to as the original Lady Bathurst." (Renewed laughter.)

Continuing his lordship took up the question of imperial defence. He had been told that a movement was afoot in Canada for the establishment of a defence league on the lines of the Imperial Service League in the Old Country. This was a very worthy movement. In a recent issue of the Morning Post he had noticed an article from the pen of a Canadian officer who had said that the people of Canada were on the whole absolutely indifferent to the question of defence. He himself knew nothing about the defence league as it was proposed to establish it in Canada, but if its aims were similar to those of the league in England, the movement was worthy of the support of the Canadian clubs, and he hoped the club in Victoria would go into the matter and see if a branch of the proposed league could not be established in this city.

Earl Bathurst then described at some length the objects of the league as it was in the Old Country. It had been founded by Lord Roberts, and it proposed to further a movement looking to the formation of a public opinion which would lead to a certain period of military service for a certain period in the life of every adult. He realized that the great idea amongst all Canadians was to preserve their freedom, but they should remember that freedom carried with it obligations and burdens, and he quoted from a speech delivered by Mr. Gladstone in 1850 to show what those burdens were.

The speaker closed by saying that his greatest idea was to see the whole of the Empire united in one great commonwealth for the security and peace of the King's possessions and the betterment of mankind. (Applause.)

Very Rev. A. J. Doull, in a brief but eloquent speech, moved a vote of thanks to the distinguished speaker.

STEAMERS COLLIDE

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—The steamship Isthmian and the steamship Tacoma collided off the San Francisco coast on Wednesday night. Three hundred canny hands bound from Alaska to the Tacoma were thrown into a panic and considerable damage was done to that vessel.

The accident happened about midnight as the Isthmian, bound from this port to Salina Cruz, was picking her way through the dense fog. The Tacoma was rammed aloft in her stern, a hole being stove in her water-tight bulkhead and some planking torn away. Later the Tacoma sprung a leak and the Isthmian stood by until it was learned that the vessel was in no danger.

The Tacoma was picked up by a tug and towed to port here. She was inbound from Nacnek, Alaska.

ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP GIRL

Sherbrooke, Sept. 23.—A bold attempt was made to kidnap the young daughter of Mrs. Egg, at Foster, Que., yesterday. Four men called at the house in an automobile when the mother and grandmother were alone in the yard. The mother put up a great fight until her deaf and dumb brother arrived. The kidnapers were foiled. The mother was badly injured in the fight.

TREATMENT OF SCARLET FEVER

Successful results have followed the introduction by the Dukfield Corporation, of eucalyptus oil as an antiseptic in the treatment of scarlet fever cases. Out of 147 cases notified only two deaths occurred. The Cheshire County Medical Officer (Dr. Meredith Young) in commenting on this treatment in his annual report, suggests that if it is continued for a further period of twelve months some definite conclusions as to its actual value will be forthcoming.

MANUFACTURERS CLOSE CONVENTION

PREFERENTIAL TRADE AND COMPANIES' ACT

Resolutions Adopted at Final Session of Gathering at Vancouver

Vancouver, Sept. 23.—The thirty-ninth convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was brought to a close yesterday. The final session was held in the board of trade rooms, the hall being required by the caterers for the preparation for the banquet in the evening. Although the members of the convention themselves felt quite strongly upon the subject of reciprocity with the United States, the adjournment at noon saw the matter temporarily shelved. Evidently the convention did not wish to go definitely on record in the matter. The convention, however, indirectly approached the question through the resolution on preference within the Empire.

In the consideration of the suggestion contained in the president's report in regard to preferential Imperial trade the desire of the convention to avoid the appearance of placing too much importance on the free trade or reciprocity questions which have recently been raised was evidenced by the adoption of the resolution calling upon the Dominion Government to endeavor to arrange a preferential agreement with the Australian Commonwealth, and also to instruct the Canadian delegates at the next Imperial conference to urge the necessity for a more efficient preferential trade policy in the various commonwealths, unions and dominions throughout the Empire.

These preferential resolutions were introduced by Messrs. H. Bell Irving and W. H. Barker, of this city. They pointed out the necessity for such preferential arrangements. R. H. Alexander introduced the resolution referring to the Australian agreement.

The Companies' Act was dealt with at considerable length by President Buchanan, of the Vancouver board of trade. In welcoming the convention to the board rooms at the opening of the morning session.

After referring to local matters, Mr. Buchanan paid a glowing tribute to the influence of the association's magazine, Industrial Canada, in furthering the manufacturing interests of the Dominion and giving information that would tend to a better appreciation of good business methods. In regard to that magazine he took occasion to deal with an article which had appeared in it in regard to the Companies Act of British Columbia.

The attorney-general has been approached by the board of trade after their attention had been called to it, but he could not see his way clear to amend the penalty clause contained in the act. He wished to remove an impression which appeared to have been general in regard to that act. Some thought it was a new thing, but in fact British Columbia had long had a companies act. The article in the magazine had pointed out that it was an anti-Canadian act, but this act had been in force for many years and was merely amended somewhat last winter. The amendment was brought into parliament without the majority of business men appreciating the penalty part of it. When the attorney-general had been approached he had said that he would have been glad to amend the act had he been able to, but he could only receive suggestions that would help him if he introduced amendments into parliament. As a matter of fact the British Columbia companies act was less stringent than acts in other provinces. He thought, though, that the acts of the provinces should be discussed by the association and steps taken to have a uniform system throughout the provinces and the empire.

The parliamentary report was read by Atwell Fleming, of Toronto. During the reading Mr. Bacon, of this city, brought forward a resolution requesting that the parliamentary and insurance committees secure such information relative to insurance associations as would enable the Manufacturers' Association to press the insurance issue to a final point. Mr. Bacon said that he had no doubt that an insurance combine existed throughout the Dominion. It was difficult to obtain fair treatment from the associations, and he quoted an instance to show that he had been promised a reduction of rates by a company with which he was insured, and when he applied for it at the end of the year he had been informed that the association had made a change in its rules and regulations during the interim and that therefore the company which had promised him his reduction which was a member of the insurance association, had informed him that they could not fulfil their undertaking. This was followed by the reading of reports on insurance, railways and transportation, resolutions of thanks and also a resolution of condolence to be sent to the family of the late Trade Commissioner Larkie.

The following resolutions were passed:—

"Whereas, there appears to be uncertainty as to whether charters for manufacturing companies should be issued by the federal government at Ottawa or the provincial governments of the various provinces; and whereas, 'Uncertainty exists as to the extent of the powers granted by the provinces and the Dominion respectively to such companies; and whereas, 'Various vexatious restrictions and conditions are at present imposed upon the exercise of the powers of companies under charters, both Dominion and provincial,

"Therefore, be it resolved that the attention of the federal and the provincial governments be drawn to the unsatisfactory state of the present law, and that a recommendation be made that steps should be taken to place the administration of the law governing the incorporation and control of companies throughout the whole Dominion upon a more firm and reasonable basis."

"Resolved that the representatives of the Dominion of Canada at the forthcoming colonial conference be requested to urge the desirability of taking immediate steps to bring about reciprocal preferential trade within the empire, believing thereby the bonds of union will be strengthened and the British empire largely freed from dependence from foreign countries for food and other supplies."

"It is desirable that changes may be made ready before long in the tariff of Australia.

"Be it resolved, that in the interests of this association a special effort should be made by our government to arrange for an interchange of commodities between Canada and Australia on a preferential basis of customs duties."

The following British Columbia members were elected to the executive council: Alex. MacLaren, North Pacific Lumber Co.; Barnet; Dennis Murphy; Burnette Sawmill Co.; Sapperton; Jas. Ramsey, Dominion Biscuit Co.; Vancouver; Wm. McNeill, Stave Lake Power Co., Ltd.; Vancouver; A. C. Flumerfelt, Hastings Shingle Co., Ltd., Vancouver.

The annual banquet of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, held last night, was a brilliant affair, 400 being present, including Premier McBride and a large number of prominent business men of the province.

SAY RAILWAYS HAVE VIOLATED AGREEMENT

Delegates Representing Middle Western States Are in Belligerent Mood

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 23.—Alleging that the western railroads have violated the agreement made with President Taft at the time the Hannibal injunction suit against the increase of freight rates was abandoned, Illinois delegates were in a belligerent mood when the rate conference of twelve middle western states was called to order yesterday afternoon at Topeka, Kansas, presided at the opening session.

Eleven hundred delegates attended the conference. The governors of the twelve states represented were present, or their special representatives acted in their stead.

Resolutions are being considered asking the government to prosecute the railroads. It is probable that they will be adopted.

Governor Stubbs, in his opening address, said that the railroads had combined to advance rates at an unprecedented scale. The railroads on their own initiative have opened the question of the value of all the railroads in the country. The public demands a bona fide valuation. Public officials will be criminally negligent if they do not avail themselves of the opportunity to assist the interstate commerce commission in an exhaustive examination.

"I favor the rigid enforcement of the anti-trust laws and the imprisonment of every man guilty of building a monopolistic combine increasing the cost of living."

EATEN BY BEAR.

Disembowered Remains of Girl Found in Manitoba Bush.

Winnipeg, Sept. 23.—The disembowered body of the eight-year-old daughter of a Gallian farmer living in the St. Clement's municipality, about 15 miles north of the town of Beauséjour, has been discovered under tragic circumstances. The unfortunate girl had been missing for almost a fortnight, and it is evident now that she wandered away from her home and was attacked by a bear. When she was found by the search party, both arms had been given from the body and the animal had left her in a horribly mutilated condition.

The girl went out of the house to attend to the cattle and it is surmised she got lost in the bush. In her attempt to find her way out she must have got further away from the farm and after becoming exhausted have become the prey of the bear.

CRUSHED BY ELEVATOR.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—His head caught between the elevator and the fourth floor of the Marathon building, 919 Western avenue, C. Miller, a sailor, was instantly killed. As the car continued downwards the body was released and fell down the shaft.

No one witnessed the accident, but Deputy Coroner A. L. Hill is of the opinion that Miller was looking up in the shaft when a fellow workman started the elevator.

Miller was arranging for the Catholic tab, which is to be held in the building. He resided at 908 Fifth avenue.

Man Who Killed His Wife is Victim of "Constitutional Inferiority"

Jersey City, N. J., Sept. 23.—Declaring that Porter Charlton, who on June 6th killed his wife, Mary Scott Castle Charlton, at the Lake of Como, Italy, is insane, the alienists who have examined him since his confinement here made public their report.

Charlton, they say, is of a depraved mental organization, and is a victim of "constitutional inferiority."

The report was made public following the decision of Judge Blair, that

The shooting "occurred" at a suburban road-house. At 3 o'clock the woman left the Silver Thorn road-house and crossed the street to a livery. Yates followed and shot her five times. He was arrested and taken to jail. He hanged himself with his handkerchief, the officials

SHOT BY POLICEMEN.

Angels, Cal., Sept. 23.—Constable Cosgrove is trying to establish the identity of a man he shot and instantly killed in the Altaville hotel after the fellow had confessed that he had killed a man near San Mateo, and had used a shot gun in an effort to prevent arrest.

The man who was killed is believed to be Gus Reibe, a Finn. He came here and created a disturbance in the hotel. After being remonstrated with by sleepy guests, he fired a shot gun down the corridor. When Constable Cosgrove demanded his surrender he threw the gun to his shoulder. Cosgrove shot first and killed the man.

ARE WESTERNERS CRUDE?

In a recent issue of the London Times a correspondent named Beckles Wilson explains for the benefit of those in the Motherland who are endeavoring to reconcile the various economic sentiments prevalent in Canada that the 'intelligence of the West is hardly comparable to that of the East.' He adds:

'The centre of Canada's culture, enlightenment and statesmanship is not her geographical emphasis, but the Maritime provinces. Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have between them furnished four-fifths of the eminent scholars, doctors, lawyers, divines and statesmen in the entire Dominion, and are, in my opinion, destined to occupy the place New England and New York occupy in the American Republic.'

dentally attracting the cream of the younger generation from the land of 'culture, enlightenment and statesmanship,' to worry over our social and intellectual status.

As an economic argument the correspondent's suggestion is ridiculous. The development of the Canadian West is the key to Canada's prosperity. Any fiscal movement in which the West did not play a conspicuous part would be a huge failure.

HIGH SCHOOL REFORM.

Reform of the high schools of the country is a subject which is discussed in the current number of the Canadian Courier. It is suggested that in order to keep the boys on the farm agricultural counties must establish agricultural high schools which will train the farmers' sons in the principles of farming.

If it is true that the high schools do confine their attentions to making teachers, doctors, lawyers, and dentists, a reform is necessary, but this assertion we think can hardly be borne out by the facts, so far as British Columbia is concerned. A great many of the lads who take the course in this city go into various lines of business, and they certainly should be all the better for the training.

Any move which would tend to make the different parts of the empire better known to each other should be welcomed by everyone. Australia might well appoint a trade representative in British Columbia. Canada and Australia are not far apart for they are connected by that splendid waterway, the Pacific ocean.

Vancouver is to have a big floating drydock. The plans of the Vancouver Drydock and Shipbuilding Company have been changed so as to allow of the building of a dock of 15,000 tons displacement instead of 10,000 tons. There will soon be room for a number of drydocks on the British Columbia coast.

The British Preference has been endorsed by the Manufacturers' Association, and also by the people of the country. It has been the most important step in the unification of the empire that has been taken since Canada became a nation. It is now being proposed in certain quarters to increase this preference. The idea is apparently taking hold, for it is being supported by a number of newspapers both in the East and the Middle West.

are now supporting it as against any reciprocity treaty with the United States.

What will the Alpine Club do now? What honor will there be in scaling a peak that another man has flown over?

If anticipation is always better than realization the boys of Victoria are happy this week, for it is next week that the circus is coming.

Toronto is now arranging for the medical inspection of pupils attending the city schools. Gradually the East is falling in line with the West.

When Gibson goes flying over the Rocky Mountains, Chavez' feat of crossing the Alps without touching them will be very small potatoes indeed.

The town of Duncan is to be congratulated upon the prospect of obtaining a High School. The Education Department has decided that there is need for one at that place, and has granted the request that one be established.

Apparently the Colonist, although practically admitting the failure of the provincial government to deal with the land question is determined to show, either that nothing can be done, or that the only way out of the difficulty is to put the matter in the hands of private colonization companies. Doubtless it prefers the latter.

The Times extends a hearty welcome to the members of the Manufacturers Association who are in the city to-day. It also draws attention once more to the fact that a reception is to be given them to-night at the Parliament Buildings and that all citizens are invited to be present for the purpose of extending to the visitors a cordial welcome.

PRESS OPINIONS

What Conservatives Want. The World declares for "qualified" protection. Mr. Borden wants "adequate" protection. The News hangs on to the banner of "moderate" protection, and the Halifax Herald a couple of days ago empurpled its visage calling for "more" protection, asserting that "there are just as many points where more protection is required as where a lowering of the tariff is desirable."

Brooklyn widow writes the License Bureau asking for a husband. Must be an unusual widow to find such a step necessary.—New York Herald.

Overwork and overheating are said to be the cause of infantile paralysis, and almost any citizen will be able to name a few of his neighbors who will never be likely to contract it.—Toronto Star.

Sir James Whitney has been babbling again in an interview with the London Standard about Canada's relations with the Mother Country. He wants Canada to "establish herself" in the British market, whatever that may mean. He proposes that we should "stop drifting and agree to sell a definite course." He indicates, however, that the only policy in his mind is Chamberlainism. Whitney's attitude makes him rather ridiculous. Canada is not drifting; and if he were perfectly candid he would not even hint that she is.—Hamilton Times.

Toronto will have to look to her laurels as the "literator" centre of Canada. That city just now boasts of Mr. Hopkins, whereas the Yukon has to her credit the "Sourdough" poet and Rev. E. H. Burgess, the man who stirred up a hornet's nest with his "John Bull's Land"—Winnipeg Tribune.

Colonel Roosevelt protests that "the New Nationalism" which he preaches only means that the rich shall not be allowed to disregard the law, or the poor to break the peace. This is good nationalism, but the fathers of their country would be shocked to hear that it is new.—Vancouver News-Advertiser.

One of the most remarkable gatherings in the history of the world has just come to a conclusion in Montreal. Whatever view we may take of the essential dogma involved, there remains the great and impressive fact of a vast assemblage of devout men from every nation under heaven, speaking in many tongues the wonderful words of God. Such a spiritual intrusion into what is too hastily assumed to be a purely or chiefly materialistic age, is a revelation and an inspiration. We need such interruptions, and the richer, the more prosperous, the more progressive the nation, the more it needs to be reminded from time to time that man cannot live by bread alone.—Montreal Star.

A return has been issued as a Parliamentary White Paper setting forth the name, age, date of appointment, and length of service and official position of all salaried officials in connection with the courts of justice in Ireland. The oldest official by length of tenure is Mr. Hugh Doyle, chief clerk in the bankruptcy department of the King's Bench Division, who has been in the Government employ 59 years. Another official has been in the service 43 years, another 32-1/2 years, and there are several whose length of service exceeds forty years.

MANUFACTURERS VISIT VICTORIA

MANY COME OVER FROM CONVENTION

Reception at Parliament Buildings To-night Will Be a Brilliant One

By the Vancouver boat this afternoon some two hundred captains of industry who have been in that city attending the annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association came over to the capital, where they will do so, in the Victoria municipal government and the Victoria manufacturers' association and the Victoria manufacturers' association and the Victoria manufacturers' association.

A public reception in their honor will be given at the parliament buildings to-night by the government of British Columbia, and to this an open invitation is extended to citizens. It is the desire of the premier and his colleagues that as many Victorians as can attend will do so, in order to meet the manufacturers from the east.

Dressing rooms have been provided as follows: The oak room (at the Government street end of the rear corridor) as a ladies' dressing room; the minister's room as a ladies' sitting room; the clerk's room for the cabinet ministers; the cedar room, for officers and members of the Victoria board of trade, and the maple room, for the members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

PERSONAL. Everett Marshall, city editor of the Calgary Herald, is spending a holiday in Victoria.

Lancelot Clark, Oakland, is visiting in Nicola, B. C., as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews.

Mrs. E. Harshill, M. D., Louisville, Ky., is staying with her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Dee, Fisgard street.

Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Albany street, will be "at home" to her friends on Monday, and thereafter on the fourth Monday of each month.

Grand Trunk Pacific steamships now make night run to Vancouver, leaving here at midnight on Thursdays and Sundays.

Frank Bowden, owner of the Raleigh Cycle Company, Nottingham, England, who has been a world-wide traveller, has been re-visiting Victoria, on a pleasure trip. In 1883 Mr. Bowden visited the city, coming up from San Francisco, and went up the Fraser as far as Yale on a stern-wheeler.

SEAWEED BATHS. Seaside Regent in France Making a Specialty of New Freak Cure.

St. Valery-en-Caux, one of the most prettily situated of Normandy's coast resorts, has evolved the latest thing in "cures"—the seaweed bath, claimed to be a specific for a multiplicity of the minor ills that flesh is heir to.

The "bain de varech" is prepared from a particular kind of seaweed, which, principally owing to peculiar tidal conditions off the coast at St. Valery, grows very abundantly, and becomes impregnated with an unusual quantity of iodine sodium, potassium bromide, and other of the well known medicinal properties of sea water.

Over the seaweed is poured sea water in a fixed proportion and at boiling point, the bath, which should be taken warm, being cooled off to the requisite temperature by the addition of cold sea water.

The Chafing Dish

What memories it brings up. In the hands of your inexperienced friend that evening for the first time, it caused you, perhaps, an uneasy and restless season of "seeing things" in your dreams. What was it? A Welch Rarebit, or... who can tell? But seriously, the chafing dish is a source of a deal of pleasure. We can show you a variety from the Meriden Britannia Co., with all the fixings that are convenient to use with them-Trays, Spoons, Forks, Skimmers, Flangers, etc. The dishes are heavily plated on copper and are particularly good, giving a strong and steady flame, easily regulated. As a means of helping little social gatherings to be a success, a chafing dish is unequalled. Have one in your room and invite in your friends. A beautifully illustrated little book with full directions, containing fifty reliable receipts with each dish.

A NEW ORCHESTRA.

A new orchestra under the name of "The Try Co. Orchestra," and under the leadership of Mr. Williams, has been formed in the Spring Ridge Methodist Sunday school, and will make its first appearance in public on Sunday next in the Sunday school at 2.30 p.m. The orchestra is composed entirely of players between the ages of 15 and 20 years, and are mostly members of "The Try Company."

The orchestra at present is composed as follows: Miss Laura Lidston, organist; Mr. Matthews, flute; G. Parfitt, 1st violin; B. Emery, 2nd violin; C. Sargent, 2nd violin; E. Rutherford, trombone; F. Smith, tenor horn. It is expected that within the course of the next few months the orchestra will be strengthened by the following: E. Bennett, piccolo; E. Elford, flute; M. Colvin, violin; C. Stevens, clarinet; and H. Charlton, cornet.

WANT BETTER CAR SERVICE

VICTORIA WEST AND ESQUIMALT ACTIVE

Deputation From Districts is This Afternoon Conferring With Railway Management

As a result of the meeting held in the Lampton street school last evening a committee representing residents in Victoria West and Esquimalt districts is this afternoon conferring with A. T. Goward, local manager of the B. C. Electric Railway Company, relative to the matter of an improved street car service.

John Jardine, M. P. P., presided at the meeting, which was largely attended.

R. H. Pooley, who had recently been in communication with Mr. Goward, said it was the intention of the company to inaugurate a ten-minute service to Esquimalt next spring. Mr. Goward had stated, however, that he would meet a deputation from the district at any time.

A. W. McCurdy said the agitation for an improved service had been started as a result of a desire on the part of the residents of the Esquimalt peninsula to secure adequate transportation facilities on the occasion of the forthcoming fall fair. The Agricultural Association, he believed, would give a first class show, and the inauguration of a through service to the fair grounds would be a first requisite to a large attendance. Personally, he could not understand why, if a fifteen-minute service can be given on the Willows and Esquimalt lines at the present time, the cars could not run through.

Mr. Slater said the present service was little short of disgraceful, and it was finally decided to send Mr. Pooley, Mr. McCurdy and Mr. Slater as a special deputation from Esquimalt to meet the council of the board of trade at its next meeting to make representations in regard to the proposed service.

In this connection the following letter was read at yesterday's meeting of the council of the board of trade:

Dear Sir, I am duly in receipt of your favor of 16th instant stating that the board of trade suggest that the Esquimalt cars should run through direct to the exhibition during the coming fair week. I regret to state that this is quite impossible. In the first place, in our opinion, it would not be conducive to giving the best service possible to the exhibition, and, another reason, owing to the present lay-out of the tracks the trip could not be made without backing up the cars and causing very serious delay to the ordinary city cars going to the exhibition.

I am sure that with this explanation the board will appreciate the advisability of not endeavoring to run the Esquimalt cars right through. I can assure the board that we are giving the matter of transportation very careful consideration, and shall do the very best possible under the circumstances. Thanking them for their suggestion.

A. T. GOWARD.

A WONDERFUL SHOWING.

In Canadian financial circles it is clearly recognized from end to end of the Dominion that among the old-established financial institutions of Canada, The Mutual Life of Canada not only stands in the very front rank, but its record for the past 40 years is without parallel.

In the 40 years of the company's existence not a dollar of loss has occurred on its investments while the interest receipts alone have been more than sufficient to pay all death claims during the entire period of the company's existence, and out of the many millions of profits earned, every dollar has been for the policyholders, to whom alone all profits are paid.

The Mutual Life of Canada offers the best policy at lowest premium rates. For rates apply to R. L. Drury, manager, or Fred M. McGregor, special agent, Offices 918 Government St.

HORSEMEN ARE NOW SATISFIED

PROGRAMME ALTERED FOR HARNESS RACES

Wednesday Card and Green Pacers Event Struck Out—Willows Cup Friday

Trotting horse owners met last night at the office of the B. C. Agricultural Association and discussed with Secretary George Sangster the programme of racing events to be run at the fair next week. The horsemen asked for a revised programme and certain alterations were made to the original draft previously printed.

The Wednesday events were cut out entirely owing to the holding of the athletic meet in the track on that day, and the $300 purse for 2:12 trot and 2:16 pace for Thursday was altered to a $250 purse for 2:10 trotters and 2:15 pacers, and the third prize was reduced from $60 to $50.

For Friday there was an additional race—posted the Willows cup— and purse, 3 minute trot and pace, and the card for Saturday was altered also. It will now stand with a 2:20 trot and a 2:25 pace one mile, two in three, first prize $150. The steeplechase for the closing event of the meeting stands as formerly.

The revised programme for horse events is as follows:

Tuesday, September 27.
1. Gentlemen's driving race—1 mile heats, 2 in 3. For horses that have not been raced during 1910, and to be owned by the person entering them for 30 days previous to race. Hobbies barred. Amateur drivers. First prize, silver cup and $50; second prize, $25; third prize, $15.

Thursday, September 29.
2. 2:10 trot and 2:15 pace—1 mile heats, 3 in 5. Five per cent, to enter. First prize, $250; second prize, $100; third prize, $50.

3. Flat race, one mile, for members of hunt clubs or riding schools, amateur. First prize, $75; second prize, $25; third prize, $15.

Friday, September 30.
4. Three years old or under, trot for B. C. bred horses—Half mile heats, 2 in 3; 55 to enter. First prize, silver cup and $60; second prize, $25; third prize, $15.

5. Willows cup and purse, 3 m. trot or pace—Half mile heats 2 in 3, amateur drivers. First prize, cup and $35; second prize, $15.

Saturday, October 1.
6. 2:20 trot and 2:25 pace—1 mile heats, 2 in 3. Five per cent, to enter. First prize, $150; second prize, $75; third prize, $25.
7. Grand steeplechase for members of hunt clubs, with pig pen and water jumps. First prize, $65; second prize, $35; third prize, ribbon.

NEW MAJOR LEAGUE APPEARS PROMISING

D. A. Fletcher Signing Players on $10,000 Bonus—Six Men Have These Contracts

(Times Leased Wire.) Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—That the new major league, which D. A. Fletcher has been trying to organize, may become a reality, was admitted to-day by Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National commission and one of the leaders of the baseball world. Herrmann says that he has copies of contracts which the new league has induced six major league players to sign. The contracts stipulate that a bonus of $10,000 be paid these players in February, to be cashed as soon as the league's playing season opens.

In from three to five years, varying according to the contracts, the players become free agents. Herrmann believes that the players who have already signed will become managers of the teams. He believes that the promoters are willing to offer bonuses to other players, but the sums paid them will be smaller.

FIGHTS FOR THIRTY-EIGHTH WIN TO-NIGHT

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—"One round" Hogan and Frankie Smith meet to-night in a four-round bout at Dreamland as the main event of the Golden Gate club's carnival. Hogan has been installed a 10 to 7 favorite over the Oakland boy, and betting has been unusually heavy for such a short fight. Should Hogan win he will challenge Ad Volgeist. Hogan has fought 37 battles and has won them all. He has never gone more than four rounds, however.

BOTH DIVISIONS START TO-MORROW

Football League Met Last Night—Held Over Payment of Referees Until After Opening

First Division.
Garrison against North Ward, at Work Point.
Cedar Hill against James Bay, at the University ground.

Esquimalt against Victoria West, at the Canteen ground.
Foresters against Empress, at Oak Bay park.

Second Division.
Oak Bay against Fifth Regiment, at Beacon Hill.
Baraca against Victoria West, at Beacon Hill.

North Ward against Garrison, at North Ward park.

The soccer season opens to-morrow with the matches named in the first and second divisions to be played. The league met last night at the rooms of the Empress Athletic Club, there being a full attendance, and the delegates stated that their clubs had everything in line for the opening.

The fact that the amateur union proposes to offer a soccer cup was mentioned and the league, while making it plain that affiliation with the union was not contemplated, agreed, in view of the fact that the athletic clubs from which the soccer teams are drawn are members of the union, that the body would be given an opportunity to pass formal agreement to the playing of the first and second soccer schedules this winter.

The payment of referees was brought up, as the union had ruled that football referees, if paid would be considered professionals. The football association agreed that for next Saturday the referees would not be paid, and that the matter would be advanced to the annual meeting of the provincial amateur union on Wednesday night next.

Victoria West seniors will play the following men in its line up: Goal, Beany; backs, Prevost, McDiarmid; halves, Bailey, Petticrew, A. Thackray; forwards, Okell, Sherrett, F. Youson, S. Thackray, J. Wright.

The Beacon Hill-Esquimalt match at Beacon Hill will start at 2:30 and the following players will represent the Seaside: Goal, Robertson; fullbacks, Craig (captain), Lindsey; halves, Barber, Dicker, Petch; forwards, Thomas, O'Rourke, Floyd, James, Totty; substitutes, Morton and Calvin.

North Ward will be represented by Daughan, goal; Crawford and McDonaid, backs; Taylor, Brynjolfsson, and Brown, half backs; McCarter, McGuire, Dakers, A. Muir, and C. Baker, forwards. Players catch 2-5 Esquimalt car.

The Empress Athletic Club eleven which plays at Oak Bay against the Foresters will be represented by Kellway, Barber, Fox, Tunnicliffe, Kelsall, Massey (capt.), Richmond, Linham, Lewis, C. Martin, J. Martin; reserves, Wormald, Willis and Petch.

FRARY NAMES NINE TO PLAY SPOKANE

Seven Games Against Pennant Winners at Indians' Home Ground

Arrangements have been completed by President Joe Conn, of the Spokane Indians, and Ralph Frary, the well-known umpire of the Northwestern league, for the series of games to be played next week between the Spokane champions for 1910 and the All-star Northwestern league combination. Seven games will constitute the series and it is planned to play all of them in Spokane.

Frary's line-up will be as follows: Pitcher—Zackert, Seattle; Bert Hall, Tacoma; Harry Gardner, Vancouver; Catcher—Blankenship, Tacoma; First baseman—Weed, Seattle, or Mott, Tacoma.
Second baseman—Green, Vancouver.
Shortstop—Raymond, Seattle.
Centre field—Swain.

SPORT NOTES

Eight o'clock sharp.—The organizers of the J. B. A. A. hockey club want all men who intend to join to be at the J. B. A. A. club rooms sharp on time. The club will try for the B. C. championship this year, and with Victoria and Garrison clubs will make a three-team league for the Capital.

The Difference.—When his Majesty George V. is referred to in sporting columns it is always as a "sportsman," while there is an abbreviation for B. J. Perry, the Lorimers and the Sweeneys. They are known as "sports."

To Club Secretaries.—Names of players to represent clubs in Saturday matches must reach the Times office before 10 a.m. Friday, to be in time for classification in the sport columns. Phone them in.

Beacon Hill Park.—Three soccer matches at the park will make that athletic rendezvous a place of attraction on Saturday afternoons. Of all the games down for to-morrow, there are only two at which admission can be charged. They are Oak Bay and the Canteen grounds.

Basketball.—The basketball season will not open for several weeks. The annual meeting of the Victoria league is to be held next month. This year there will be many new men on the club teams.

Goal Champion.—George F. Lyon has won the Lambton international championship again. He has been six times

Canadian champion—once Olympic champion and twice won the international honors.

South African Soccer.—The British team which visited South Africa won every game and has returned to England. The men on the team report that South Africa in a few years will be a soccer stronghold. Why should not the English teams tour Canada regularly as well as South Africa and Australia?

California Rugby.—The returned team from the Australian trip has learned enough to make Stanford a formidable Rugby proposition. The Varsity boys trimmed the Olympic club team 14 to 0 last Saturday. The California university made the Barbarians look even worse with 25 to 5. And then the Stanford juniors, copying the play of the seniors hit San Jose even harder with 33 to 0.

Kerr's records.—At the trades and labor sports at Winnipeg Robert Kerr lowered two records. His 100-yard time was 14 3-5. He made a Manitoba record in the 100 with 9 4-5. He ran this 20 yards in 21 2-5 just one-fifth behind his own Canadian record.

Mr. McIntosh.—Your attention, gentlemen, if you please. (Hear, hear.) This contest is between Bombardier Wells, in this corner, and Sergeant Sunshine in that, both of his Majesty's service. They will battle for the honor of which is to be considered the most suitable representative of the United Kingdom to put against some other suitable representative of the United Kingdom to challenge for the world's championship now held by Mr. Johnson, the American negro. (Hear, hear.) If they do anything that meets with your approval while the contest is in progress, kindly acknowledge the same by the clap of the hand, and no remarks, please—and above all no fruit!

Voices—Bravo!

North Ward Practice.—The junior team of the North Ward football club is to hold the first practice of the season on Saturday afternoon. Members of the N. W. A. A. on the junior team will meet at the North Ward park at 2:30 p.m. Junior players not members of the club are invited by the club secretary to get in the Saturday practice.

PRIZE OF $50,000 OFFERED AVIATORS

Reward for Airmen Who Succeeds in Reaching Height of 10,000 Feet

London, Sept. 23.—The offer of a special $50,000 prize to the aviator who will rise 10,000 feet at the coming international meet to be held in New York in the closing fortnight of October is being considered by continental airmen and army officers with the closest attention. In Paris it is predicted that either Leon Morane or George Chavez will win the prize in a high-power Blériot machine. Chavez already holds a record of 8,405 feet. Soundings of the upper air have shown that at two miles height the air currents have an average speed of 64 miles an hour. Going down the wind an aeroplane with a speed of 60 miles an hour would then be capable of travelling approximately 125 miles an hour, with fuel for only 60 miles. The aviators will rise dressed for Arctic cold. They will wear a snug suit of leather lined with fur, and a helmet with breathing holes over the forehead, and around the sides of the face. The front will be closed by a concave glass, which will allow free observation. The ears will be left exposed to catch the clatter of the motor. In his last high flight Chavez said he felt as if he were bleeding at the nose. Morane nearly lost consciousness from the cold. Both insist on better protection.

PHOTOGRAPHER KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Machine Starts Without Warning While Driver is Engaged Cranking It

(Times Leased Wire.)
Prosser, Wash., Sept. 23.—C. Wilder, a photographer, is dead—to-day, the victim of his own automobile. He was standing in front of the machine cranking it when without warning the heavy car dashed forward, entangled him in the machinery, dragged him a few feet and then stopped. He died almost instantly from a broken neck. Many persons were passing along the street at the time and noticed nothing peculiar. A number who saw his feet protruding from beneath the automobile thought he was at work making repairs. It was fully an hour after the accident before it was learned that Wilder was dead.

TRAGEDY AT SPOKANE

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 23.—A well-dressed Italian, about 30 years old, was found murdered in the rear of a residence on East Fourteenth avenue at 8:35 o'clock this morning by a boy who heard the three shots that killed the man. It is taken for granted by the police that he was slain by "Black Hands," as $4 in silver was found in his possession, disarming the theory of robbery. Every vestige of evidence, if there had been any, was taken out of the clothing by the murderers.

NEWFOUNDLAND PELP MILLS

(Special to the Times.)
St. John, N. B., Sept. 23.—Lord Northcliffe, accompanied by Lady Northcliffe and party, passed through last night en route to New York. He said he was not thinking of negotiating for pulp mills in New Brunswick, but would confine his operations on this side of the Atlantic to Newfoundland.

STEAMER DESTROYED

Port Arthur, Sept. 23.—The steamer Kamaonistiquia, used as a ferry and owned by the Lake Coast Trading Co., was totally destroyed by fire at the dock, four of her crew having only time to escape with a few personal belongings. Loss $750.

It is a beautiful and blessed world we live in, and while that life lasts, in loss the enjoyment of it is a sin.—Chambers.

What Other People Think

WHY PERSIST?
To the Editor:—Why do you persist in worrying the government over the suppression of the university site decision? They cannot have had it more than a few months. Are they and their friends to have no chance of a little speculative real estate buying in the vicinity? Do you think they are in politics for their health? Be reasonable.
S. G. FETHERSTON.

LAMPSON STREET SCHOOL

To the Editor:—Re Lampson street school. With reference to the article appearing in Wednesday night's issue regarding a letter you received from a father of children attending above school, and your very proper advice to him to refer his complaint to the trustees, I have made either to the principal or the board, and unless the party comes forward and makes the complaint direct to the board, they cannot take up for consideration the alleged complaint stated to be contained in his letter to you. The board also considers his act most unmanly and unwarranted.

ARTHUR COLES, Secretary.
September 22nd, 1910.

YOU'RE ANOTHER

To the Editor:—A letter signed "Lex" in your issue last evening, quoted from an article in the Colonist of 21st inst. regarding the word "another" in that article, (speaking of the Allan case), that "no investigation that is humanly possible can bring the matter home to the responsible party." This, the Colonist states, is "morning" is "simply an untruth." If I may have as much as the Colonist I would certainly say "You're another," as it says the statement of the Colonist was "that there were some occurrences to which the expression quoted applied." It did not say that this was true of the shooting of Mr. Allan. The latter sentences did not appear anywhere in the editorial referred to, or anything like it. Please see that editorial of 21st inst., and the letter signed "Lex" of 22nd inst., and another editorial in Colonist of 23rd inst. LEX.

PAYING IN ADVANCE

To the Editor:—Since it is proposed that we pay our water rate six months in advance, may I give my opinion? You know there are two bad payers, one who pays in advance and one who never pays at all. Who knows if we shall live to use six months' water? Some time ago my landlord wished me to pay my rent in advance, which I did, and a fire consumed house and contents a few days after. In course of time he forgot (?) I had paid and sent to collect. I am just telling you this to show how inadvisable it is to pay beforehand. I know for a fact some water meters are read or guessed when the glass is so smashed the figures cannot be seen. To tell you the truth, I see nothing but fine schemes to give Mr. Morley, a good send off, and I think it is about time for him to retire and give way to someone who understands how the city should be governed without so much undignified bickering and quarrelling. Why, the Victoria city council is a by-word. I've been in Victoria a good many years, since Mr. Fell was Mayor, and never heard such work with the council.

But the long suffering Victorian ratepayer will turn like the proverbial worm. He can't be trod underfoot for ever with impunity. The reason I said "guessed" about the water meter reading is because a friend of mine has been away from town two months or more and the only water used at the house has been for the watering of four small pot ferns; yet the water rate came in just almost the same amount as when the family was at home. How does this strike you?
JAMES RUDD.

RE PROPOSED WATER RATING.

To the Editor:—Anything more manifestly unfair than the proposed water rate payable six months in advance I never heard of. Even with their present system of water meters they are unjust to consumers. My water has cost me more this last three months than in the corresponding three months last year when I was running a boarding house with five boarders extra to my own family. Now my family numbers one less, and I have no boarders, and yet my water bill comes to 60c., 75c. and 90c., respectively, higher than last year. My wife saw last month the way the water meter was read by one man. He stood up with a book in his hands, his companion raised cover and without even bending to look closely at the meter said something about my plants, and then the amount I was supposed to consume was registered in the book. Now, Mr. Editor, I'd like to say I use the waste water from dishwashing and bedrooms for my plants and I do object to paying through the nose without a chance to protest. "It's pay or I'll cut it off." A pretty high handed way of doing things.

The mayor has made quite enough muddle over the water supply question. Does he want to get the water rating into another grand mess? And then I suppose he'll claim all the praise for disentangling it. But it's all of a piece with his other schemes. I used to believe in Mayor Morley and so did my wife, and we both voted for him, but never more for mine, thank you. I wish January was here to show my opinion of him. We'll be paying our grocer, butcher, and our other bills in advance, I guess, next.
PAY ROLL.

NEW KING OF COCOS ISLAND

John Sidney Clunies Ross Succeeds His Father as Absolute Ruler

In view of the fact that another movement is said to be on foot in this province to outfit an expedition to Cocos Island, it is interesting to note that since the voyage of the schooner Blakeley to look for treasure, the former king, George Clunies Ross, has died and been succeeded by his son, John Sidney Clunies Ross, who has succeeded his father as king of the Keeling Cocos Islands, in the South Indian ocean, is not perturbed by the statement that his father's will bequeathing him the islands cannot be proved, on account of there being no legal machinery in the islands for that purpose. "In the first place," Mr. Ross said, "when interviewed in London recently, there is absolutely no one in the islands who would dispute my right of succession to the sovereignty, the natives there simply do what I tell them, and never question why. Secondly, I hold an indenture from Queen Victoria which absolutely establishes my claim to the islands." This indenture, which was made the 7th day of June, 1886, between the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty of the first part, Sir Frederick Aloysius Weld (Governor of the Starbuck Settlements) of the second part, and George Clunies Ross, of the Cocos Islands (gentleman), of the third part, granted the islands to the late Mr. Ross "for ever," with certain provisions. One of these is "that it shall be lawful for the British crown to resume possession of the lands as may be required for public purposes, without making any compensation to George Clunies Ross, his heirs or assigns, other than the value of cultivated crops, buildings, or works upon the lands so resumed.

"If," said Mr. Ross, "any attempt were made to invade the islands, I should, under the indenture, immediately apply for British protection, which I know would be immediately afforded me. I should also feel justified in resisting an attack with the aid of the few firearms the islands possess. I have absolutely no plans for the improvement of my kingdom," continued Mr. Ross, "for the simple reason that I do not think it capable of improvement. We are such a happy little community, quite a terrestrial paradise, in fact. The people have no rents to pay and nothing to worry about. We have no military and no police, only a night watch in case of fire. Crime is almost unknown."

When Mr. Ross returns to the islands in about a month's time he will, to celebrate his accession, give all the people a day's holiday, which they will spend in dancing and other festivities.

ALWAYS AILING!

How many women there are to whom these words apply exactly! They are not quite "sick in bed", but they almost wish, as they struggle through each day, that they were. Frequent headaches, loss of energy, loss of appetite, depression and attacks of biliousness and indigestion make life a dragging misery.

In nearly every case the cause of it all is chronic constipation, that trouble so often made light of, but which brings about so much suffering. As a result of it the whole system is filled with impurities and almost everything, including the special functions of womanhood, goes wrong.

Hundreds of thousands of women have had reason to thank Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills for relief from all this chain of miseries, and for restoration to health and happiness. For over fifty years, and in every part of the world, these Pills have been tested and proved a great female medicine.

Being purely vegetable, they are not harsh like salts and so many other purgatives, nor do they weaken, sicken or gripe.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are a perfect blood purifier, and a sure cure for biliousness, indigestion, headache, sallow complexion, liver and kidney troubles, piles, pimples, boils and other ailments that arise from the sluggish action of bowels, liver or kidneys. By purifying the blood and invigorating every organ in the whole body they relieve and cure female ailments and restore normal, healthy conditions.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are, in truth, a blessing to women, as Mrs. Harrison, of Richmond, Va., found. She writes:

"About six weeks ago I first used Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, and I must state that I found them a most superior medicine. My complaint was peculiar to women—languor, debility, and bilious attacks, which combined to make my days thoroughly wretched. Indeed, there were spells when I used to wonder in the morning how I could manage to get through my household duties, and was forced to struggle through the day when I should have been in bed. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have made me vigorous and well. I noticed the change from the very first dose."

Fit-Reform System

Fit-Reform is more than the name of the finest hand-tailored Suits and Overcoats in the Dominion. Fit-Reform is the title given to the basic idea of producing these well-nigh faultless garments at moderate prices. The Fit-Reform System allows of alterations being made without affecting the style or service of a garment; but alterations are seldom necessary. Fit-Reform was the originator in Canada of this system of designing, measuring and tailoring, that has produced the most superior clothing sold in the Dominion or elsewhere. That is a big claim, but the clothing warrants it.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

"What is there about marriage that makes folks forget they were human once, too?" The pretty little girl with the big married sister wants me to write on that. She says she's sure there's lots of young folks like herself who'd be pleased to know why it is that when their sisters and girl friends get married and settle down, no matter how desperately flirtatious, how daring and by indiscrete and convention-breaking and flouting they were before the ceremony, after it they almost invariably develop into Madame Grannies.

"It's had enough when they're first married," she says, "but after the honeymoon begins to come it's worse. Then they're hopeless."

"Before my sister was married she used to tell me all her love affairs and flirtations and I used to sympathize and be interested, and try to smooth things over when she needed it—keep mother from canceling or motoring later than mother liked—and cheer her up and help her out when she got into any silly little scrapes."

"Well, by and by she found the right man and was married and settled down and began to raise a family and in the meantime I grew up and began to have flirtations and love affairs of my own. And, of course, at first I took them straight to my sister. I thought she'd sympathize with me and help me out when I needed it."

"Did she? Guess not. My dear, she was shocked at the tiniest little things. Instead of helping me out or smoothing things over for me, she was always telling mother that I ought not to do this or that—all things that she always did before she was married. Once she was at the house, when I came home from a canoe trip an hour later than I expected and instead of telling mother that it took a long while to get the canoe in and the cushions put away, and that the cars are so apt to be late, she worried worse than mother did and had mother all worked up."

"And then she thinks it's so terrible to be frivolous and wanting to trot about all the time. As if she wasn't twice as bad before she met Jack."

"And then, before she was married sister always used to be so ready to stand up for a girl when anyone was running her down. She said one ought always to give a girl the benefit of the doubt unless you absolutely knew something against her. And now she is just as quick to believe that a girl is just as unwilling to believe that a girl is good, in spite of appearances, as anyone."

"And it isn't just sister, either. She's such a splendid girl in most ways that I thought maybe that was a saving fault that she had developed to keep her from being too good to live, but when two of the girls that I chummed around with were married and changed the same way, I saw it was just the fatal consequence."

"Why is it, do you suppose?"

"Does it have to happen, or is there any way of dodging it?"

I wonder.

COMMISSIONER ON RAILWAY RATES

Declares Constant Increases in Freight Charges Menace to the Country

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Railroads must adjust their economic difficulties by some other means than by asking shippers to contribute the funds thereof is the opinion of Interstate Commerce Commissioner Lane, as expressed during the hearing yesterday.

Railroad officers and attorneys sought to learn if the commissioner implied that there must be a re-adjustment of the method of financing the big carrier systems, but Mr. Lane ignored their efforts and continued to examine the witness to whom he had directed his startling remarks, pointing questions on the amount and disposition of earnings of the railroad in question, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

The witness was William M. Ellis, counsel for the St. Paul. Mr. Ellis had testified that his company was suffering from too much business, that the increase has meant increase in the unit of cost, which grows faster than the unit of income, thereby threatening the yearly surplus of earnings above payment of dividends and cost of operation and of maintenance.

Commissioner Lane then said: "As the country develops there will be more and more freight delivered to you, and as conditions are now the rates constantly must be increased, according to officials. I argue that it is a menace to the country if the rates constantly are to be increased. We must work out this problem on lines other than by the proposed method of raising the tariffs. If not there is no time when we can say the maximum has been reached."

This unexpected development came as a result of the inquiry as to the St. Paul's profits, particularly from the public lands acquired in recent years. Mr. Ellis denied the commissioner's suggestion that the road's optimism when it built the transcendent extension had turned to pessimism now. "If it had not been for that road," he said, "we would have had nothing from operation to add to our surplus last year. That extension added about $2,500,000 to the surplus in addition to the $2,350,000 from other sources. Our total surplus is about $50,000,000."

He then told the commissioner that the expense cost was overtake earnings, and would continue to do so as long as more traffic was handled. In answer to questions Mr. Ellis said that if the gross income next year went to $75,000,000 from this year's figures of $64,000,000 the percentage of profit would be less.

"Do you mean to say the cost of doing the additional $15,000,000 in business would be equal to that sum?" was asked.

"I mean the percentage of profit would not be so great," said Mr. Ellis.

WIVES WATCH HUSBANDS FIGHT TO DEATH

Two Men Killed in Pistol Duel Which Follows Quarrel Between Women

Pelham, Ga., Sept. 23.—With their wives as seconds, encouraging them to fight, Chas. Tate and John Merchant, young farmers who live near Pelham, fought a pistol duel. The two men met on the road that runs past their farms, stepped off 25 paces, then turned and fired several shots in rapid succession. Both were killed. The two women were the only witnesses.

The duel is said to be the result of a feud which sprang up between the two families when Tate married the widow of Merchant's brother two months ago. Merchant opposed the match and bitter feeling resulted.

The wives of the two men met Monday and quarrelled. Wednesday, the quarrel flared into a shooting. Merchant dared Tate to "shoot it out." Tate accepted and yesterday's duel was the result.

GREEKS ROUSED BY GREAT POET

GIVE LARGE SUM TOWARDS BATTLESHIP

Bishop of Church Tears Precious Cross From His Neck as First Contribution

A spark of the Spartan spirit still remains in the people of Greece, as is well illustrated by an incident which occurred a few days ago in Montreal. A Greek poet, Matsoukas, held a public meeting in that city for the purpose of raising money for the building of a battleship to be used in defence of his country. At the conclusion of the address the Bishop of the Greek church tore the gold jewel studded cross from his neck and with fifty dollars in bills presented it to the lecturer as the first contribution from the city of Montreal.

The three hundred Greeks present rose to their feet as one man and for several minutes the room was rent with tumultuous applause which only increased three-fold when the poet threw his arms around the bishop's neck and embracing him after the continental fashion kissed him.

But if this exhibition of spontaneous patriotism evoked thunderous plaudits, his words fail to describe the wave of almost fanatical enthusiasm which swept the gathering from its feet when Mr. Matsoukas, awathed in the folds of a huge silk Greek flag and holding aloft in his right hand the massive silver cross presented to him as being the apostle of his country, by the Virgins of Cyprus, stood on the top of the steps leading to the platform and announced that just before he had entered the hall he had received a cablegram from Greece stating that a Greek millionaire had donated a first-class battleship to the government of the country. For a full minute after the announcement was made there was a moment of tense, tense silence. Then, in a perfect hurricane of applause, three hundred throats rent the air with a deafening "Zita" the Greek sounding equivalent for "hurrah." Hats were thrown in the air, men embraced and shook hands, and for fully five minutes it was impossible for the speaker of the evening to make himself heard.

Probably never in the history of the city has such an appeal as was made by Mr. Matsoukas been responded to so generously and so wholeheartedly. The audience listened for thirty minutes to the story of their country's growing greatness and importance sung to them in their own tongue by a poet who has been called the "Burns of Greece." Then, suddenly, there was a mad scramble for the platform by both men and women, who clutched in their hands rolls of bills ranging in sums from $100 to $5. They could not get it fast enough, and as each contributor handed over his subscription it was placed in the "Little Greek Bank," a large bag of the "carpet" variety, presented to Mr. Matsoukas by his mother when he started out from his home fifteen years ago to preach the "New Generation" of Greece to his fellow-countrymen scattered over the world. Then the donor's name with the amount of his subscription was written in a great leather and gold bound volume which, when full, will be placed in the museum at Athens.

Mr. Demitros, a Greek merchant, handed Mr. Matsoukas his personal cheque for $250, which when announced to the gathering, called forth another outburst of enthusiasm. Outside of the Greek bishop's magnificent gift, which must have been worth at least $400, Mr. Demitros' contribution was the largest given.

Over six thousand dollars was taken when, calculating that there were three hundred present, made the contributions average $20 each.

Mr. Matsoukas, who had completed a tour of the states of New York and Massachusetts, has already collected over $200,000, which has been sent to Greece as the first installment of the sum necessary to build and equip the "New Generation," the battleship being named similarly to a battery of artillery which Mr. Matsoukas raised, every man, horse, gun and round of ammunition of it out of his own means during the Greek-Macedonian war of 1895, in which he was a participant.

It was after the close of hostilities that Mr. Matsoukas, who is a graduate of the University of Athens, returned to his home where he had a large and lucrative law business. But the spirit of the "wanderlust" was upon him and he decided to travel the world over and kindle by his Demosthenic-like oratory, enthusiasm in the hearts and minds of his "brethren," as he himself calls all Greeks the wide world over. "Illustrations and beloved poet and apostle of Greece we greet thee," were the words addressed to Mr. Matsoukas when he reached the hall by Bishop Papageorgopoulos, who stated that they recognized that Mr. Matsoukas in giving up his profession was trying to raise the yoke from the neck of Greece by his sweet voice and endeavoring with no small degree of success to place the Greek nation in an honored place among the nations of the world.

Mr. George T. Spillotopeoler addressed Mr. Matsoukas on behalf of the Montreal Greek colony, his words echoing the sentiments of the bishop, in equally flowery language.

Mr. Matsoukas will visit Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston and many other Canadian cities, his visit to this side of the Atlantic being indefinite.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Rickaby was hostess of a very enjoyable young people's dance last evening.

At a meeting of the Young Women's Club of the Metropolitan church, held on Wednesday evening, Miss Ada Spencer was elected president for the current year, Miss C. E. Jones vice-president; Miss M. Foxall, treasurer; Miss Warwick, secretary. The conveners of committees are: Miss M. Miller, social; Miss M. N. Okell, literary; Miss Sarah Spencer, finance; Miss Blanche Richards, music; Miss Barker, plants, and Miss Conyers, press secretary.

Mrs. F. H. McDiarmid, wife of the city solicitor, received yesterday for the first time since her arrival in Victoria, at her home, 317 Douglas street, a lovely and charming garden. The garden was given to Mrs. McDiarmid's pretty rooms, and she welcomed her many guests in a most becoming gown of Alice-blue cloth made of gold spangled net and wide satin bands. Receiving with her was Mrs. R. J. Robertson, looking extremely well in a pretty flowered organdie with becoming bouquet of pink sweet peas. Assisting in the tea room were Mrs. Angus Smith, in a becoming gown and picture hat, who poured tea; Mrs. Bennett, who served ice-cream in a stylish grey costume with Russian trimmings and black hat, and Miss Newling, in a very modish costume of dark green silk with draped overdress of accordion plaited Paisley crepe and hat en suite. The hostess' pretty little daughter, in a dainty white frock, opened the door, and during the afternoon, Mrs. D. C. Reid rendered very charmingly a number of vocal selections which added much to the enjoyment of those who came and went in the afternoon.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon in the parlor of the W. C. T. U. mission on Store street, with the president, Mrs. Williscroft in the chair. In opening the meeting Mrs. Williscroft, who has been absent during the summer, expressed her pleasure at again getting in touch with the work. The chief subject for discussion was the restaurant tent which, as is their annual custom, the ladies of the W. C. T. U. will conduct on the fair grounds. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements: Mrs. Williscroft, Mrs. Norman and Mrs. Sherwood, with authority to appoint sub-committees as they found necessary. Mrs. Spencer read a letter from Rev. Dr. Spencer, Vancouver, in which he spoke of a party of ladies and gentlemen from various parts of the United States who will hold a special conference on moral reform in Vancouver on October 7, and will spend a few hours here on the afternoon of October 8. Dr. Spencer hoped that a large and representative audience would meet them here. Mrs. Spofford intimated that several other organizations in the city were taking the matter in hand. Mrs. McAdam spoke of the necessity for making the Saturday evening concerts at the mission sufficiently attractive to deter the men from going elsewhere in search of amusement. There were present: Mrs. Williscroft, Mrs. Spofford, Mrs. McAdam, Mrs. Wm. Grant, Mrs. Pickard, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Jubb, Mrs. Jubb, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Norman, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Lee, and a number of others. Three new members were welcomed.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

ATTORNEYS ENGAGE IN LIVELY TILT

Representative of U. S. Senator Lorimer Denounces Charges as a Political Plot

Chicago, Sept. 23.—A sharp clash between Attorney Haney, representing William Lorimer, and Alfred Austrian, representing the Chicago Tribune, occurred before the Lorimer investigating committee yesterday in a brief session held to discuss methods of procedure. As a result of the postponement of the investigation until after the trial of Leo O'Neill, under indictment at Springfield for legislative bribery, the session, it is possible, will be concluded, is possible.

The row started when the committee men, weary of waiting for the arrival of Senators Bulkeley and Frazer, decided to hold a short meeting to discuss the methods to be pursued and invited President Barnes of the Legislative Voters' League, and Lorimer, through counsel, to be present.

Barnes suggested that the Chicago Tribune, which printed the first accounts of the alleged bribery in connection with the Lorimer election, be asked to be present at the hearing through its attorney, on the ground that it held valuable evidence.

Austrian's arrival was the signal for a tirade by Haney against the accusers of Lorimer as men engaged in a political plot and a heated reply by Austrian.

Haney denounced the charges as a political plot. He cited the acquittal of Brown as proof of this. He declared that 50 per cent of the men who had voted for Lorimer were re-nominated at the recent primary. Alfred Austrian, counsel for the Tribune, replied hotly. The Illinois legislature, he said, was the rottenest known. He opposed postponement and demanded that the hearing proceed. He took a slap at the United States senate, saying it had not acted until charges were filed against Lorimer and it was forced to notice them.

Senator Burrows announced that the committee would decide today whether it would postpone the hearing or whether it would proceed at once. It will then be determined whether the committee will allow the Tribune to be represented by counsel.

AUSTRALIAN TRADE WITH DOMINION

Proposal to Appoint Agent in B. C.—Chairmanship of Commission

Melbourne, Sept. 23.—Efforts to expand the trade relations of Australia and Canada are engaging the close attention of D. H. Ross, commissioner of trade and commerce for Canada in Victoria, Southern Australia and Tasmania. Mr. Ross has been interviewing the minister of customs with the object of inducing him to appoint an Australian to be stationed at Vancouver, whose business it would be to develop commerce generally between the two countries. Mr. Tudor, the minister, was indisposed to send an Australian to Vancouver to undertake the duties indicated, but said he hoped to see his way clear to induce the cabinet to appoint a commercial man, resident in Vancouver to represent the Commonwealth. He added that he would place the whole matter before the ministers and ask for their decision upon it.

It is considered unlikely that the Victorian government will go outside its own state to find a successor to Mr. Tait, whose resignation of the post of chairman of the state-railways commission was read to the House of Assembly Wednesday. In some circles it is taken for granted that Mr. Fitzpatrick, a colleague of Mr. Tait, will secure the vacant position. Mr. Fitzpatrick has had a remarkable career, having entered the railway service in the capacity of a porter's messenger and risen by native ability to the place he at present holds.

OF DOUBLE INTEREST IS THIS LETTER

It Reports a Remarkable Case of Kidney and Bladder Disease From Belleville, Ont. Also Recalls Mr. D. M. Waters' First Purchase of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills and Ointment a Quarter of a Century Ago

When you read this letter you will readily understand why it is of special interest to us, for the druggist who sold the pills in this case gave his first order in 1885.

For twenty-five years Mr. Waters has watched the growth in popularity of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and other medicines, and can now point to hundreds of cures in Belleville and vicinity resulting from his recommendations of these well-known medicines.

If you are tired of experimenting why not use a medicine which has proven its undoubted control over diseases of the kidney and liver? Let this letter convince you or send us this letter to convince you or send us for records of hundreds of other cases. Mr. Mark Ottrey, Bay Side, Ont., writes: "I purchased two boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills from my druggist, D. M. Waters, Belleville, Ont., and the amount of satisfaction my wife obtained from their use has led me to ask my druggist to send you this letter."

Mrs. Ottrey suffered considerably with kidney and bladder trouble, causing great pain at times. The urine was very heavy and a bad color. After taking a few doses of these pills she felt better and when she had used the two boxes she was entirely well.

The definite, direct and specific actions of Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills on the liver, kidneys and bowels enable them to bring about cure in the most complicated cases. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

GOOD TEMPLARS ELECT OFFICERS

Grand Lodge Sessions Conclude With a Banquet—Order in Excellent Condition

A grand banquet provided by Perseverance Lodge No. 1 and Triumph No. 16, at which about sixty guests were present, was given in the assembly hall of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, Wednesday evening, and brought to a close the twenty-fifth annual session of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia of the International Order of Good Templars, which opened at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

The first meeting was taken up with the appointment of credential, memorial and financial committees. Bro. C. W. Whittaker, G. C. T., presiding.

At the Tuesday session reports were received from the secretary, the treasurer, and from the grand superintendent of Juvenile Work.

The annual report showed 225 members in good standing in this province, 430 of whom are in Vancouver. The chairman urged that each member should try to bring in at least one new member during the coming season.

The address of welcome from the Conqueror Juvenile Temple No. 7 dwelt with the importance of training the rising generation to advance the work.

An interesting and comprehensive resume of the work accomplished during the past year was given by the Grand Chief Templar.

Grand Chief Templar—Rev. C. M. Tate, Duncan.

Grand Councillor—Mr. Pike, Vancouver.

Grand Vice-Templar—Mrs. Lewis Hall.

Grand Secretary—J. B. Mathews.

Grand Treasurer—Mr. Hopkins, Nelson.

Grand Chaplain—Rev. J. C. Madill, Cedar Cottage, Vancouver.

Grand Marshal—Mr. Tims, Vancouver.

Grand Electoral Superintendent—Mr. Palmer, Cedar Cottage, Vancouver.

Grand Superintendent of Juvenile Work—W. C. Booth, Esquimalt.

On Wednesday afternoon it was decided that the next session should be held in Vancouver during the third week of September, 1911. The Grand Lodge then adjourned for a short time to allow of the installation of officers by Dr. Lewis Hall, R. W. T. The degree of I. S. L., the highest degree of the order, was conferred on all who were eligible.

The Grand Lodge then resumed session, when reports of various committees were received, all of which showed that the work was progressing satisfactorily.

The banquet last evening was presided over by Dr. Lewis Hall, who proposed the toast to the King, which was responded to by the singing of the National Anthem. Rev. T. W. Gladstone next proposed the I. S. L., to which Captain Dutton, a visitor from California, responded. The latter spoke of an orphanage in his native state which was supported by the Good Templars, a significant feature of which was that there were never any Good Templar orphans in it.

The National Grand Lodge of Canada was proposed by Rev. C. W. Whittaker, who sang a solo at this juncture which was well received and encored. The subordinate Grand Lodge was toasted by Rev. J. P. Hicks and replied to by C. M. Tait. Bro. Gough, city clerk, Nanaimo, in a humorous speech, proposed the health of the ladies, and Rev. J. C. Madill, in similar vein, responded. Mr. Morrison contributed another solo, and a toast to the press by other solo, and a toast to the press by other solo, and a toast to the press by other solo.

RICH PLACER DEPOSITS

Excitement Aroused in Creston District By Discovery in Bed of Goat River.

Nelson, Sept. 23.—Great excitement has been aroused in the Creston district by the discovery of rich placer gold deposits in the bed of the Goat River.

Ira Beam, an old-time prospector and gold miner, who has passed through some of the greatest gold rushes in western America, including the stampede to Nevada, is the lucky discoverer of these claims. About a year ago Beam was observed panning gold dust on sections of the Goat river. He appeared in Creston on Thursday last with some fine specimens of coarse gold and the news leaked out that he had located two claims just above the canyon in the Goat river. A rush at once was made to the vicinity of the finds. Messrs. Stocks and Jackson and J. McFarland were the first wise ones and they have taken up four claims close to the ones filed on by the original locator. Up to the present time eighteen claims in all have been staked.

A few days ago work at Erickson was entirely suspended while the adult population hastened out to secure claims. Pannings have given fifteen colors to the pan of coarse gold. Traces of the precious metal have been found fifty to sixty feet in the banks of the stream and in the bed of the river gold is believed to be present in paying quantities, as the panning gives better results right down to the water.

A meeting of the claim holders will be held for the purpose of forming a syndicate to carry out the necessary staking and tunnelling to enable the

The river at the present time is very low and conditions are very favorable for prospecting.

The claim-owners are anxious to avoid a stampede from the outside, and it is difficult to get the facts as to the real value of the find.

AEROPLANES IN WARFARE.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—John Barry Ryan, son of Thomas F. Ryan, the New York multi-millionaire, spent yesterday in the war and navy departments and succeeded in driving the officials into a state of enthusiasm with the plan to provide the army and navy with a fleet of airplanes that would augment tremendously the offensive and defensive powers of the twin services.

The attractive feature of Mr. Ryan's proposition was its economical side. He did not ask a dollar of government money in return for the creation of a reserve of about a thousand aeroplanes that might be called immediately into service by the government in time of need. What he did want was the moral support of the two departments. This was given him, with hearty good will.

Efforts will be made to develop aeroplanes of greater size than those now in use, so as to transport a corporal's guard and to carry sufficient ammunition for effective bombardment.

Russian explorers have found in Turkestan the ruins of a subterranean city built by a highly civilized people, before the Christian era, entrance to which was effected by caves.

BRITISH LABOR PARTY TROUBLES

CANNOT COLLECT THEIR ASSESSMENTS

Places Unions in Awkward Position as to Supporting Labor Members

Some of the difficulties which have arisen from the Osborne judgment, which made it illegal for trade unions to raise levies for the payment of members of Parliament, and is so called after the trade union official who brought the first action—have been discussed at great length, says Public Opinion, owing to an official statement of the new position made by the Joint Board of the Labor organizations, which has resolved thus:—

"1. That the decision does not merely affect Parliamentary representation, but makes it impossible for trade union branches to join in the work of the local trades councils, and also strikes at the freedom of discussion and of resolution which has always been enjoyed by the Trade Unions Congress in so far as that congress has taken action of a political character in the interest of the wage-earner.

"2. That the decision denies the right of trade unions to carry out their nominal statutory purpose of 'regulating the relations between employers and employed,' in so far as modern organized state of capital render Parliamentary action necessary for this purpose.

"3. That the decision deprives trade unions of a freedom and a right which they have enjoyed for nearly fifty years, and which they have exercised only with the approval of their members and to the advantage of the community."

The Board therefore claims:— "That these rights, be restored at once, so that trade unionism may be put in a position to fulfill its statutory functions in such a manner as the members of the respective unions according to their rules shall decide."

"J. R. Macdonald, M. P., says that there is to be a big campaign in the country. 'In fact,' Mr. Macdonald went on, 'it is to be a regular fight with the gloves off. The point that the press is making to-day, and that is being wanted in payment of members—is quite erroneous. The payment of members is a totally different question. I am in favor of the payment of members as a matter of public policy. But the Osborne decision has cut away one of the most important liberties of trade unionism, namely, the liberty of using legislative power to advance the interests of the workers and to protect their interests. The whole of trade unionism is affected. Under the decision a union cannot legally send a deputation to the House of Commons, its branches cannot affiliate with the local trades council, and trades councils are being dissolved. The organization for fighting local elections has had to go, and that is not merely Labor representation, but a question of trade union weapons.'"

The Telegraph thinks that this is a curious and awkward situation, which is likely to prove the cause of no little embarrassment to the government. Colonel Seely, speaking as a member of the government, has declared that the government will not let "the matter

MINER CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Merritt, Sept. 22.—George Cassidy, aged 23 years, a miner, was crushed to death by the collapse of a portion of the ceiling in a chamber of No. 1 slope at the Middleboro mines. Thomas Meldrum, his mate, escaped with slight injuries, the fallen timbers serving as a roof to shield him from the rock and coal, tons of which came down.

Cassidy was one of the best-known miners in the camp. He leaves a wife and two children.

When taken out Cassidy's body was found to be terribly mutilated. The head was almost completely severed from the body. Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.—V. M. Harris.

PROPOSED TRAINING SHIP.
Vancouver, Sept. 22.—If there is one thing the boys in the city lack it is discipline and the parents are just as bad and are the real cause of any laxity in the discipline of the boys. You cannot send the parents to a training ship, although it would be the best thing for a good many of them.
These were the words with which Robert McMahon introduced a notice of motion at the meeting of the Juvenile Protection Association, setting forth the necessity and advisability of the establishment of a training ship for boys in British Columbia waters. The boy scouts, he said, had taken up this matter to a certain extent. The commercial requirements of this coast demanded a sea population. There was a lot of rattling good boys who got into trouble through too much zeal. Would it not, he asked, be a good thing to have a training ship, where some technical education could be given to these boys? He hoped they would give the matter serious consideration.
Father Madden heartily supported the suggestion. It was very hard to do anything with boys, unless they had some steady occupation and he would be very glad to see something done on the lines suggested, as the beginning of a technical training for the boys. Other members also supported and it was decided to place the notice of motion on the agenda for the next meeting.

WESTMINSTER AUDITOR.
New Westminster, Sept. 2.—At the regular meeting of the city council it was decided to grade and pave Columbia street past Alberta Crescent; also to install light standards similar to those on the lower part of city street at a total cost of $70,000. The contract for paving has already been let.
A letter was received from the provincial secretary acknowledging the receipt of copy of resolution asking that the appointment of M. B. Cotsworth as auditor be cancelled. The request will receive the immediate attention of the government.
A petition was received from residents on Lulu Island asking that the water main be extended from Lulu Island road south on Wood street to Salter street; also for a wooden sidewalk on said streets and a wagon bridge across ditch at junction of Lulu Island and Wood street. Referred to the water committee and board of works to report.
The Trades and Labor Council wrote protesting the action of the city council asking for the dismissal of Auditor Cotsworth. The letter was shelved, however, the resolution being already in the hands of the provincial government.

BEAR LOOTS TENT.
Golden, Sept. 22.—Game Warden Avery was troubled by the rather unwelcome but pressing attention of a bear a few nights ago. He had pitched his tent near the station at Leinchoil, and returning after a short absence was surprised to find the tent knocked down and everything cleared out, evidently by a bear. Next morning a fresh supply of provisions was secured from the night operator at Leinchoil and again the bear pushed over the tent and cleaned everything up. Later Mr. Avery saw Mr. Bruin on a third tour of inspection. The trouble now was that the game warden had left his gun at the tent with the bear, a most aggravating position. Anyhow an antiquated gun was found in the station and Mr. Avery commenced operations. After a few shots the bear walked away but finding the shooting harmless, he walked back and waited patiently the arrival of the host to serve dinner. After further manoeuvring the bear was shot through the lung. At the subsequent post the bear occupied the place of honor.
PRINCE RUPERT HOSPITAL.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR NANAIMO DISTRICT
Brick Making Plant With Capacity of 40,000 a Day to be Installed
Nanaimo, Sept. 22.—The Red Cliff Brick and Tile Company Ltd., has been incorporated for the purpose of exploiting shale beds at East Wellington, near this city, comprising some 117 acres which have been proved to a depth of fifty feet, estimated to contain sufficient material to manufacture 200,000 bricks a day for over a century, and furnish employment for one hundred men.
This company has been formed for the purpose of taking over and developing a most valuable deposit of shale situated on Vancouver Island, near Nanaimo. The company have had the advice of Mr. Berg, of the Berg Machinery Manufacturing Co., of Toronto, who examined the property and who has had no hesitation in stating the deposit to be of the best and a most valuable material, capable of turning out a first-class grade of brick, as good or even better than the sample.
The company intend installing a Berg plant immediately with a daily capacity of 40,000 bricks.
The company intend manufacturing tile for roofing, and should the market warrant it, all kind of lavatory ware, the company's shale being particularly suitable for this.

COBBLE HILL FAIR.
(Special Correspondence.)
Duncan, Sept. 22.—The second annual fair was held at the Cobble Hill hall on Tuesday. While the boys were not so large as last year the quality and shape were quite as good. The dry season deterred many from entering. The fair was opened by W. H. Hayward, M.P.P., who gave a short talk on the advantage of the shoe to the district, and remarked the excellent quality of what was shown and assured his hearers that size was not synonymous with quality. An excellent programme of sports was carried out during the afternoon. A large crowd attended with a number of visitors from outside points.

FINED FOR SETTING FIRE.
New Westminster, Sept. 22.—William Collinsshaw of Surrey, was fined $50 and costs by Magistrate Pettendigh for setting fire to the bush. The magistrate was severe in his remarks about the carelessness shown by him in starting bush fires.
There has not been enough rain yet to materially affect the bush fire situation in Surrey, and Mr. Leamy says that it is still dangerous and will continue to be so, until a good fall of rain comes.

GOATS STAMPEDED.
New Westminster, Sept. 22.—The C. P. R. train from Seattle ploughed through a herd of Angora goats that had climbed onto the high trestle near Clayburn, killing sixty-four of the animals and so badly injuring nineteen others that they had to be killed. There was a heavy fog at the time and the train crew did not see the herd. The goats were the property of Mr. Nicholls and were being driven to pasture from the corral. and the election of other officers and committee with the exception of secretary and treasurer, was postponed till a general meeting. Lucas Hunt was returned as secretary and Dr. L. D. Swenerton as treasurer.

STRIKE INTIMIDATORS GET A JAIL SENTENCE

James Tyson and William Johnson Plead Guilty of Assault on Machinery Depot Man

A further development in the machinists' strike at the Victoria Machinery Depot, occurred this morning in the police court, when James Tyson and William Johnson were sent to jail to serve ten days' imprisonment for having assaulted John Darbyshire yesterday afternoon.

Tyson and Johnson were formerly employed at the works of the Victoria Machinery Depot but went out with the strikers. Yesterday afternoon they followed John Darbyshire, after waiting for him to leave the works, and assaulted him. Darbyshire, a machinist working at the depot, said this morning that Tyson and Johnson had followed him for over a mile, threatening his life, calling him foul names and punching him. One of the accused had caught him by the throat and threatened to strangle him.

The accused were defended by H. A. Maclean, K. C., former deputy attorney-general, but now of Elliott, Maclean & Shandley, He, on behalf of his clients pleaded guilty.

W. C. Moresby, for the prosecution, urged that a fine was not sufficient to meet the case and informed the court that Tyson has been convicted and fined for an assault on Mr. Halliwell, the book-keeper of the Machinery Depot. There was a strike in progress and the accused had threatened and intimidated the prosecutor for over a mile. He asked for a term of imprisonment and Magistrate Jay, agreeing with the prosecution on the seriousness of the charge, ordered ten days. The accused were taken to the cells on the conviction being ordered. There were a large number of working men in court during the progress of the hearing.

Frank Krull was remanded until tomorrow on a charge of having stolen from Joseph Fraser, bus driver of the King Edward hotel, his $15 dog. Accused said he supposed he had stolen the dog but would like to bring witnesses to the court to prove he did not steal the dog.

In view of the fact that the man is a foreigner the magistrate remanded him and instructed the police to have his witnesses summoned to appear tomorrow morning.

The police had a valuable dog, which was found tied up at the accused's room. Believing it was not his property it was taken to the police station and was claimed during the morning.

J. G. Dunn paid a fine of $5 for riding a bicycle on the sidewalks.

SCOUTS ENTERTAIN.
Members of Troop "A" Gave Excellent Performance in Cathedral Schoolroom.

Before a large number of parents and friends the members of Troop "A" of the Boy Scouts, commanded by A. O. Hughes, gave a high-class entertainment last evening in Christ Church cathedral schoolroom. The programme was a choice one and showed that the boys must have worked faithfully in perfecting it.

The concert opened with a piano solo, ably rendered by Mrs. (Dr.) Gibson. "The Scout's Play" was next introduced. Dressed in varied costumes, Patrol Leaders McBrady, L. Diespecker and F. Kirk, Corporals George Pauline and J. Woolson and Scout Victor Pauline presented this act in such a manner that ringing applause was given. Scout Greenwood contributed a recitation, which was well received.

The second act of the play showed Jock and Pat, who had just arrived from their native lands, fishing off the James Bay causeway for a breakfast. They were successful in landing everything from an old boot to a tomato can and at last Pat exclaimed that he was going to apply to the government for the job of dredging the harbor. This scene provided an abundance of laughter, those in attendance being unable to restrain themselves. At the conclusion of this act Scout T. Wheatley gave a mouth-organ solo, which was rendered in such a capable manner that he was encored three times.

The Zulu scene was probably the most interesting in the programme. J. Andrew, who was in the Zulu rebellion, dressed in the Zulu's native costume, assisted by Scout J. Gaidard, performed in an excellent manner. He recited to the audience a poem of his own composition, giving an account of his experiences in this war. The programme was brought to a close by the act "An Evening in a Tramp's Paradise." A substantial addition was made to the patrol's fund towards the purchase of necessary equipment.

OBITUARY RECORD

News has been received in this city by Walter Allott announcing the death of his brother, Alexander J. Allott, son of Rev. Wm. Allott, Bedford, Eng., in Sevenoaks, Kent, Eng., on Sept. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel William Chisholm mourn the loss of their infant son, Frederick William, who passed away this morning at the family residence, 1015 Rockland avenue. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, where Rev. A. J. Stanley Ard will conduct services. Interment will be made in Ross Bay cemetery.

This morning the funeral of the late Sister Mary Rose Ida took place from the St. Ann's chapel, from where the cortege proceeded to Ross Bay cemetery. At the chapel solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Brabant assisted by Rev. Father Eick and Rev. Father Flaser. The brief services of the Roman Catholic church were read at the graveside by the officiating ministers. The following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: J. I. Ford, J. W. Stewart, F. J. Sehl and S. A. Bantly.

Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Capt. Munroe were laid to rest in Ross Bay cemetery, where the last rites of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were conducted by the president, W. H. P. Sweeney. The funeral took place at 2:30 o'clock from the Eagles hall, Government street. Rev. W. Leslie Clay conducted a short service there. Many friends were present and the casket was covered with numerous floral tributes. The pallbearers were: J. M. Hughes, J. J. Wachter, L. Olyer, S. A. Bantly, H. Sidenbaum and H. Wheeler.

Richard Gibson, one of the oldest residents of Nanaimo, passed away at his home in the Coal City on Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness. He had resided in Nanaimo for the past 40 years and was one of the first to take up a five-acre homestead there. He was one of the few survivors of the big explosion in No. 1 mine 23 years ago. In 1887 he was elected chief magistrate of Nanaimo, and in 1902 was appointed a member of the Nanaimo Photage Board. Deceased was 79 years of age and was born in Durham, Eng. He is survived by a sorrowing widow and five daughters, two of whom, Agnes and Margaret, reside in this city.

Followed by a large concourse of people, the funeral of the late Chester

Young took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence at Keatings, where Rev. Mr. Letis conducted impressive services. He made touching reference not only to the loss that the family has sustained by his death but also the loss that the community has suffered. The hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung at the house. Leaving the residence the cortege proceeded to Shady Creek cemetery at Saanichton, where the remains were interred. The attendance of sympathizing friends was very large and the floral tributes presented testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held by his numerous friends. The following fellow-comrades of the deceased acted as pallbearers: A. Rey, N. Rey, F. Bates, C. Richardson and E. Richardson.
