Dear Madam,

In Sirj Martineau's autobiography I find at page - 176 - of the 1. Volume a most gratifying testimony to my father's reputation -

He was the valued friend and partner in the Norwich Bank - of Mr R. H. Gurney. & Mr. J. J Gurney, and not head officer - as the paragraph states. - He died in 1839 and had been a partner for 17 years. - My great uncle Simon Martin, had been for many years in the position - which is Given to my father in the Bank he died in 1824. —

The memories of Norwich are most interesting here

I was a little girl when our dear father died, but I well remember how the del City mourned for him.

The early edition of the Political Economy series beautifully bound. — and to express my admiration to a child.

You have given to the world a most interesting book and deserve indeed the thanks of those who read it - and their names will be - legion

I am Dear Madam

Most faithfully
Yours

Emma Marshall
