1. Of those falling under Annex II of the list in the Enforcement Regulation, teachers of universities, higher schools and colleges, teachers of secondary schools and elementary schools, and presidents, principals, and educational service officials of universities, higher schools and colleges(including normal schools) can be examined for exemption only when application for special consideration is submitted to the Education Minister by the presidents or principals, prefectural governors and the Education Vice-Minister, respectively.

Hatsu Teki No. 8. 2 October 1946

FROM : Kyosuke Yamazaki, Chief of Teachers' Screening Division, Secretary to the Education Ministry.

SUBJECT: Basis for Screening Those Connected with the Army.

TO : Presidents of Public & Private Universitie s.
Chiefs of Schools Blocs.
Prefectural Governors.

Reference is made to Par. 3. B. (d) of memorandum Hatsu Teki No. 8, dtd 7 July concerning subject as above, which says "Those falling under Article 22, Par. 2, subdivision No. 2 of 1, of the Naval Officers Appointment Act, will be excluded." The interpretation of this phrase will be given below:

The following is the wording of Par. 2 of Article 22 of the Naval Officers Appointment Act and those of "Shihan Chohei" (Normal Conscription) will not become disqualified.

"A second class non-commissioned officer will be appointed by seclection according to the different branches of the service from among lance corporals who applies to become non-commissioned officers who are superior in their abilities and who falls under each of the following items. However, in times of war and emergency and at other times when draft is necessary, prescribed length of actual service may be shortened or appointment may be made without any qualification examinations as decided by the Minister of the Navy.

1. The following three classifications of air corps members who have 14 months of actual service:

a. Those who were Hiko Yoka Renshusei (Air Corps Training students).
b. Hiko-jutsu Renshusei (Aerial Technic Training Student) who have come from the ranks of the former (a).
c. Those who have finished course of the latter (b).

2. Those who upon graduating from normal schools have obtained qualifications to teach in primary schools and who have 9 months of actual service.

3. Those other than mentioned in 1 and 2 who have 16 months of actual service who through injury received while on duty or sickness have become critically ill, the above prescribed examination may not be taken as decided by the Minister of the Navy. Regulations of the qualification examinations will be decided by the Minister of the Navy.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775013

Whether one was of Normal Conscription (Shihan Chohei)or not may be proved by inquiring at the personnel section of the local Demobilization Bureau in Yokosuka, Kure, Sasebo, or Maizuru, as the original service record is still kept in file. If the person concerned still has his army handbook (guntai techo), it will say "Normal" (shihan) in case he was of "Normal Conscription" (shihan Chohei) and thus this can be easily proved.

When a person of Normal Conscription (shihan Chohei) is appointed as non-commissioned officer from the status of naval cadet non-commissioned officer under the special act on appointment of naval non-commissioned officers of the Imperial Ordinance No. 797 dated 1 Nov 1943, he will not be disqualified since his status still remains "shihan Chohei".
