In support of Guerrillas at Dumaguette, Negros Island, a dive bombing attack was made on Jap troops in that area. Pushover for attack was at 5,000 feet into a 60 degree dive with releases at 1,500 feet and pullouts at 1,000 feet. All bombs landed in the target area, however, results were unobserved. No enemy opposition was met and all planes returned to the base safely.
