b. General Order No. 15, dated 9 November, "Japanese Civil Intelligence Targets."

JCS Directive No. 1538, 5 Nov 1945, extends the scope of these coordinating activites to include intelligence investigation and research of inter-departmental and international concern.

In addition, there are Directive letters MID, WD, requesting the development of miscellaneous intelligence information, viz: MID 350.09, 24 Sep 45; MID 350.09, 9 Oct 45,and MID 906, 15 Oct 45.

4. See separate charts and texts for detailed analysis of functions and listing of personnel.

Certain individuals have been assigned multiple duties until availability of personnel renders such assingnment unnecessary.

5. A staff Section is a cooperative organization. Though heads of groups and subsections are expected to control and coordinate the efforts of their units, there is no intent to employ rigid command prerogatives; the purpose is to fix channels of responsibility.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS
SUPREME COMMANDER FOR THE ALLIED POWERS Government Section

APO 500
20 April 1946

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Economic and Scientific Section.

SUBJECT : Extension of Purge Directive.

1. Under the purge directive of 4 January 1946, (SCAPIN 550,) the Japanese government was required to remove from public office and exclude from government service persons who were active exponents of militant nationalism and aggression, who were influential members of any Japanese ultra-nationalistic, terroristic or secret patriotic societies, their agencies or affiliates, or who were influential in the activities of the Political Society of Great Japan, the Imperial Rule Assistance Political Society or the Imperial Rule Assistance Association, their affiliates or agencies, or any successor organizations.

2. As originally prepared by this Section and submitted to Economic and Scientific Section for concurrence, the draft directive of 4 January applied not only to public office, but to any other position of responsibility or influence in public or important private enterprise. In addition, the draft directive complied with paragraphs 23 and 40 of the basic occupation directive of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS 1380/15) which reads in part as follows:

(23) "You will prohibit the retention in or selection for positions of important responsibility or influence in industry, finance, commerce, or agriculture of all persons who have been active exponents of militant nationalism and aggression, of those who have actively participated in the organizations enumerated * * * and of any who do not direct future Japanese economic effort solely towards peaceful ends. (In the absence of evidence, satisfactory to you, to the contrary, you will assume that any persons who have held key positions of high responsibility since 1937, in industry, finance, commerce or agriculture have been active exponents of militant nationalism and aggression.)

(40) "You will remove and exclude from positions of important responsibility or influence in all public and private financial institutions, agencies or organizations all persons who have been active exponents of militant nationalism and aggression or who have actively participated in the organizations enumerated  *. It may be generally assumed in absence of evidence to the contrary that any persons who have held key positions in any such institutions, agencies, or organizations are active exponents of militant nationalism and aggression. You will also prevent the retention in or selection for places of importance in the financial field of individuals who do not direct future financial effort solely towards peaceful ends."

3. At the time, representatives of ESS stated that a draft directive was in process of preparation in that Section which would purge from positions of importance, responsibility or influence in industry, finance, commerce and agriculture the undesirable personnel covered by the directive from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and would also exclude such personnel from government service. It was stated that the ESS directive would contain a list of several hundred individuals to be purged, as well as a description of other individuals by categories. Accordingly, this Section revised its draft of the directive of 4 January so as not to cover the personnel and positions within the compass of the proposed ESS directive, upon the understanding that the ESS directive would be submitted to the Supreme Commander for issuance within thirty to sixty days after the directive of 4 January.

4. Representatives of ESS have indicated that the draft of the ESS directive is still under study. In view of the interest shown in the scope of the purge by the Allied Council for Japan, and the fact that the above quoted paragraphs of the directive of the Joint Chiefs of Staff have not yet been carried out by this Headquarters, it is suggested that appropriate action be taken to put the ESS draft in final form and that it be submitted to the Supreme Commander.

5. In addition, from the standpoint of the Government Section, it is important that the directive be issued during the transition period through which we are now proceeding and before a new Cabinet is organized.

SUBJECT: E. & S. Section suggestions for Studies to be made on the Relations of Government to Business.

Individual comference with members of the Economic and Scientific Section revealed that no systematic studies have as yet been inaugurated tracing the relations of Government to Business, due to the mass of pressing problems confronting their present staff. A desire for such studies was expressed, as follows.

1. Lt. Col. Franklin and his assistant Capt. Katz, of the Property Division, E. & S. Section, would like to have a study made of the powers of a newly organized "Department of State-owned Property", under the Finance Affairs Bureau of the Finance Ministry, as announced on 1 Oct. by Radio Tokyo. Its chief, Mr. Shohichi Funayama, was chief of the General Affairs Dept of the Osaka Finance Affairs Bureau. The question is: "How does this new control agency affect the old ones? The method suggested: to ask the Ministry for a report on the old controls (some of which our Directives have abolished, no doubt) as compared with the new one.

2. Lt. Col. Melcan was not prepared to speak officially or to outline specific studies, but stated that an important question now emerging is: "What laws are keeping the big cartels and control associations in operation?" Behind this question lies the problem of breaking the power of the Zaibatsu.

3. Major O'Hearn of the Industry Division, E. & S. Section, desires to get "the full story on the Control Associations which are running various industries" -- Textiles, Iron & Steel, Metal Industry, Machinery, Shipbuilding & Repairs, Construction, Automotive Production, Railroad Equipment, Chemical Products, Metal Mining, Coal Mining, Paper - to mention the most important.

4. Major O'Hearn also called attention to the evils of the Civil Service System, as presented by Mr. Kamai, Chief Editorial writer of the Nippon Times, at a recent meeting. The Japanese government is unpopular with businessmen because it strangles their efforts in red tape, due to the buck-passing practice of incompetent personnel just below the top-levels, in the various Government Bureaus. Only State Law School graduates get the better jobs in Civil Service; these form cliques around their immediate Chiefs who get frequent transfers, so that nobody stays in any job long enough to become good at it. Hence matters cleared by one Ministry may be delayed indefinitely because they are given the run-around in another Ministry whose bureaucrats have to pass on it but keep delaying. A thorough overhaul of the Civil Service System is needed, but this begins with education. A study of this matter could be very profitably made, and "would last a long time".

SIS: E. & S. Section suggestions for studies be made on the relations of Government to Business.

5. Attention was called to a recent announcement by the Government that they are studying the whole Bureaucratic Structure with a view of halving its personnel. Just what is being done and where the cuts are going to be made will form the subject of another worthwhile investigation.

6. The E. & S. Section's Finance Division was contacted 16 Oct. 1945, in the persons of Lt. Col. Coudray, its Chief, and Lt. Paul C. Akin, USNR, Public Finance expert. Reference was made to a technical manual published by CASA, 1 August 1945, called "The Administration of Japanese Public and Private Finance," a very thorough compendium of info. available up to August '45 in the United States. Lt. Akin recommended the following studies to be made by experts:

a. The Japanese Taxation System.

Information on this is still inadequate - both as to Administrative Procedure, and Incidence of tax load on diverse classes of the population.

b. Legislation concerning the National Debt.

How is it used, what restrictions exist?

c. Japanese Budgets

What budgetary controls exist; what supervision is exercised on budgeting at various levels of government?

d. War Profits

How much, by whom made; how can we drain them off without causing legal complications?

Each of these subjects should be further discussed for more specific details with experts in E. & S. Section. On Taxation for instance Captains Barron and Bergan were consulted, who stated they were now engaged in a study of Corporation, Income, Succession and Sales Taxes, but have no immediate need for information on land taxes, local taxes, or the problems of tax incidence; although such studies would be useful to them later on.

BASIC: E. & S. Section suggestions for studies to be made on the relations of Government to Business.

e. Lt. Col. O. F. Looker is now engaged in a study of Japanese Insurance. He desires assistance in the form of a study on the Legal Aspects of Government Control over Insurance Companies and their Investments.

7. Of the Export and Import Branch, Lt. J. Z. Reday (USNR) and Capt. M. Schmittlinger were contacted. They would like to obtain

a. Reliable Statistics on Exports and Imports during the War years of Government Control.

b. A study describing The Japanese Price Structure under Government Control.

8. The Chief of the Labor Branch, Capt. W. Karpinsky, stated that 17 civilian experts were requested from the States to study Wage Controls, Employer-Employee relations, Social Insurance, Employment Exchanges, and Labor Legislation. These 17 are a Committee allowed a maximum stay of 3 months. Preparatory studies are being made, but as immediate need exists for a study of the Japanese Wage Structure. The Branch itself is closely following developments in the Welfare Ministry, and expects a report 20 October on the status of the Labor Office in relation to the Ministry of Welfare, and on the regimentation laws still hampering Labor. The Ministry is now planning a new Labor Law permitting Labor Unions to organize and function, and re-emerged Labor leaders are recommending their own views on such a Law. The 1926 Labor Disputes Arbitration Act is to be revised (it was used only once in 20 years) to eliminate Police "arbitration".
NOTE: The impression was gained that apart from a study on the Wage Structure no "outside" help was desired, although cooperation on some subjects would not be unwelcome.

9. Contacts with the Rationing and Price Control Division (Lt. W.S. Egekvist, Maj. W. Mennen) showed that their needs would be fairly well covered by the studies on Control Associations requested by the Industry Branch, although their particular interest in these was on the distribution and selling end, particularly of consumer's goods. They favored, for instance, a temporary retention of the powers of the Food Control Associations, fearing chaotic conditions in this field if the old controls were suddenly lifted with nothing better to take their place.

10. Contacts with other Sections will be reported on in a separate memorandum.

21 October 1945

SUBJECT : Coordination of Studies with C.I.C.

1. Interviews with members of the Counter Intelligence Section, on 20 October 1945, revealed that a considerable amount of work is done by C.I.S. which would seem to fall within the scope of G. O. No. 8, par. 3, and therefore to pertain to the functions of the Public Administration Branch of the Government Section.

2. An example of the matter referred to in par. 1 is the Memorandum to the Imperial Japanese Government of 4 October 1945, re the "Removal of Restrictions on Political, Civil, and Religious Liberties," prepared by the Planning Unit of C.I.S., which abrogates a number of laws and government agencies and functions. Although this work was done before the Government Section was ~~abrogated~~ activated, it seems clear from the interviews that the Planning and Special Intelligence Units of C.I.S. Operations, are continuing work along these lines and intend to reserve all matters touching Police, Fire Control, and Prisons for their action, but are willing to submit completed drafts of Memoranda to the Section for concurrence.

3. The Research and Analyse's Unit, C.I.S. Operations, is currently making studies in the Political field as follows:

a. The Diet (I)

(1) Its Constitutional Background.

(2) Present Composition of the Membership.

(3) The Electoral Law.

5A

b. Political Parties

(1) Left Wing and Labor Groups.

(2) Nationalist and Right Wing Groups.

(3) Peace Groups.

c. Cabinet Members, from 1930 to date.

d. Complete Clipping of all political news in the Nippon Times.

4. It was revealed that for studies listed under par. 3 a, b, and c regular C.I.S. AND C.I.C. personnel is utilized, and that apart from observations in the field, many personal interviews are held with personages concerned.

5. A willingness to coordinate the work of the C.I.S. and of this Section was expressed by the individuals interviewed, but as the visit was unofficial no proposals were made, and the Chief of Operations, Lt. Col. Irwin, was in conference and was not interviewed.

6. It is requested that steps be taken to clarify relations between the P.A. Branch of the Government Section and the Planning, Research and Analyses, and Special Intelligence Units of C.I.S. Operations, in order to:

a. Define functions of personnel in this Branch more clearly.

b. Avoid duplication of work.

c. Establish a mutually advantageous work-relationship.

d. Prevent confusion particularly in the minds of Japanese government officials and political leaders to be interviewed.

MEMORANDUM TO EXECUTIVE OFFICER, MILITARY GOVERNMENT SECTION.

SUBJECT: Daily Operational Report.

Subject is current Communicable Disease Control in Japan. Ten diseases are reportable by Japanese law and reports are made for each ten day period. Biological situation reported as follows: Smallpox vaccine adequate stocks of calf lymph now on hand. Shortage of glassware for capillary tubing presents largest problem in manufacture. Typhoid vaccine, TBA is routinely used. Current supply adequate with large reserve of concentrate. Production facilities by commercial and governmental agencies adequate. Shortage of bottles for distribution of dilute product is the greatest problem. Diphtheria formalized toxoid supply is inadequate. It is produced both commercially and by governmental agencies. Scarcity of media hampers production. With adequate media supply rational anti-toxin needs could be met in one month. Japanese claims of shortages of disinfectants, sulfonamides, penicillin, arsenoxide, glassware, stains and dyes are being investigated.

MEMORANDUM FOR : IMPERIAL JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

SUBJECT : Release of Surplus Japanese Army and Navy Medical Supplies for Civilian Use.

1. As a result of conferences held with the Ministry of Health and Social Affairs, it has been determined that there is an urgent need of medical supplies for use in treatment of the civilian population. The provision of additional medical supplies is essential in order to prevent epidemics of diseases and to relieve suffering and distress.

2. The demobilization of Japanese Army and Navy personnel has reduced the medical supply requirements of these forces considerably. Energetic efforts must be made to re-distribute the resultant excesses of supplies for civilian use.

3. Necessary action will be taken to determine the revised requirements of the Military and Naval forces and to make available, through civilian sources, such medical supplies as are not immediately required by such forces. Medical supplies will be interpreted to include drugs, pharmecutical preparations, surgical dressings, surgical instruments and equipment required for the operation of clinics and hospitals.

4. Report will be submitted to this headquarters showing the approximate amount of medical supplies in excess of military and naval requirements, together with infromation as to the procedure and action taken to affect re-distribution to civilian agencies.
